BULGARIA'S GAINS
IN TWO WARS
SMALL

Allies, in Demands Presented to Bucharest Peace Conference. Offer Coast Line of Only Thirty Miles—Proposals Mean That Roumania Secures Large Area.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—(Can. Press.)—

The allies in their demands presented to the Bucharest peace conference today proposed the establishment of a frontier extending east from the Struma river, running midway thru Roumania and reaching the Aegean Sea fifteen miles west of Deleageach. This would leave Bulgaria a coastal line on the Aegean Sea of less than thirty miles. If these drastic terms are accepted Bulgaria will issue from a small area a little larger than when she entered into them, but she will have to abandon a large amount of territory to Roumania. In addition the allies maintain their demand for an indemnity.

LET NO GUILTY
GERM ESCAPE

"Public health is the supreme law," and "let no guilty germ escape" is the purport of a varying series of hot-shot letters just sent thru the province to local officials by the Ontario public health department at the parliament buildings. This is the sequel to the recent health survey.

Provincial Health Department
Culminates Recent Medical Survey With Issue of "Hot Shot" Letters.

The data secured by the chief provincial health officer showed commendable activity and up-to-date efficiency in some localities, and dangerous laxity in others. The hurry-up letters sent out vary from edifying warnings to insistent rush orders. The fact is made clear and definite that no trifling with the provincial health regulations will be tolerated either by local health officers, boards, or civic authorities.

Spies Have Been Sent to Can-

Administration—Former President Going Back.

TENERIFFE, Canary Islands, Aug. 1.

—(Can. Press.)—Gen. Cipriano Castro's wife and children, and his brother-in-law, Senor Lazaro, all of whom are in Teneriffe, refused today to give any information regarding the Venezuelan ex-president, except to say that he was in Hamburg on Wednesday of this week. It appears, however, that a transportation company has received instructions to arrange for the shipment of an automobile belonging to Castro to the island of Trinidad during the month of August. The Gomez administration, it is stated, by the port authorities here, has recently sent a number of spies to the Canary Islands with the object of keeping the Venezuelan Government posted concerning every action of Gen. Castro.

NEGLECT IN PROTECTING TRAIN
CAUSED MAPLE FREIGHT WRECK
JURY BLAMES CONDUCTOR PARKER

Evidence at Investigation Into Death of G. T. R. Brakeman Wilson Shows That Standing Train Carried No
Rear-End Lights—Conductor Absent From Proceedings.

By a Staff Reporter.

MAPLE, Ont., Aug. 1.—At the inquest held here tonight into the circumstances surrounding the death of G.T.R. brakeman John Wilson, in the Maple yards on July 26, the jury placed the onus of the fatality on Conductor Parker for failure to protect the end of his train.

At tonight's investigation the crown called seven witnesses. Conductor Parker, who had been subpoenaed, however, failed to put in an appearance, though he was represented by counsel. Engineer Robert Harman of the southbound train told the court that he had received orders to run from "overboard" by the signalman at the Maple yards. He said that he was getting his red lantern ready to run back to protect his train when the crash came. Parker, it seems, left everything to the young brakeman, who is only 21, and was helping to unload freight without finding out if his train was protected at the rear.

CUSTOMS OFFICER
TURNS BROTHER BACK

Civil War Veteran's Only Relative Had to Enforce Cold Law. SARNIA, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Seldom has an immigration officer of the Dominion been forced to turn his own brother back when he tried to enter this country, but that is what happened to Inspector Cameron here this morning, when his brother, a veteran of the Civil War, and a resident of Detroit, came to Sarnia to pay a visit with his only relative. The old soldier is in a badly crippled condition from rheumatism contracted during the war. When he landed on the Canadian side, he was accosted by his brother, who was forced to accompany him back to the American side as he could not allow him to enter under his oath of office. Such is the cold judgment of the law.

This may be a slangy expression coined by some person more gifted with the vernacular than proper English, but it certainly describes the condition of hundreds of Toronto citizens, as no other term could describe it. It is only a mild form of mental derangement, yet considerable trouble has been caused, as statistics show that torrid weather and intense humidity which has prevailed for the last week, has resulted in a serious state of affairs as far as the public health is concerned.

When they are advanced another stage or so, a public announcement, possibly by the premier, is looked for, as large expenditures are involved in the projects.

The occupant of the house cannot escape surveillance, but the police have no positive evidence upon which to proceed against him.

HAMILTON'S CENTENNIAL

Hamilton is one hundred years old as a municipality and she is about to celebrate it. But she is much older as a spot on this continent. And what is the chief physical characteristic of that spot? Long before there was a Lake Ontario, a Burlington Beach and Bay or a Hamilton, or even a St. Lawrence River, there was a still more ancient lake which Prof. Coleman, his nephew, calls Lake Iroquois (nearly 200 feet higher than the present Lake Ontario) and which drained to the ocean by the Hudson river. There was no St. Lawrence then, but the Laurentian rocks are older than almost any other, but the river is new. The coast line of this Lake Iroquois is the Mountain at Hamilton, at Queenston, the Davenport Bluffs at Toronto, at Donlands, at Scarborough Bluffs. What is now so glamorously the hills out at Tondanum, Leaside, the Lakeshore line round to Hamilton, the present City of Hamilton and all that beautiful low land under the Mountain from Hamilton clear round to St. Catharines, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Queenston (below)—all this was under the old lake whose ancient bed extending back into the coast line can still be seen in many places. The Dundas Valley is one of the old lake's lowest and furthest, Lake Ontario's cause, geological upheavals and sinkings took place, and the drainage of the St. Lawrence developed. The COBourg, Aug. 1.—We find that the deceased Mrs. Martha Perrin, came to her death on the University avenue crossing on Sunday, July 27, by being thrown from an automobile, struck by a Grand Trunk train. We believe both the driver of the motor car and the train crew were negligent in their power to avoid the accident.

DELEGATION OF MARITIME MEMBERS
WAIT ON PREMIER—
CABINET COUNCIL WILL DIS-CUSS RATES AND STRIKE.

OTTAWA, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—There was no uncertainty about the language used by the delegation of maritime province members who waited on Premier Borden this afternoon regarding the Intercolonial freight rates and the unwarranted actions of Assistant Manager Brady. The pre-arranged meeting with the premier was held at the Hotel Hamilton. Present were Messrs. P. E. L. John Stanfield, M.P. (chief whip) and Edgar Whoddy, M.P. for Nova Scotia, and George Fowler, New Brunswick. The schedule of increased freight rates seriously affected the farmers who ship live stock and produce to markets at Halifax, Moncton or Charlottetown, and they broke a reduction and readjustment of present rates. The premier, also a Nova Scotia member, was surprised at some of the statements made.

DYING FROM GALL-STONES

Doctors Said Only an Operation Could Save His Life—"Fruit-a-tives" Enabled Him to Pass Nearly 200 Gall-Stones.

J. B. HARDING, Esq.

46 Grove Ave., Toronto, Ont., Jan. 10th, 1913.

"I suffered untold agony from GALL-STONES for the past three years and tried many doctors without getting relief. I also paid $5.00 for one bottle of medicine which was useless. At times the pain from these gall-stones was so great that I lost consciousness, and my condition was desperate. I was quite satisfied that I was dying and the doctors said I must be operated upon.

"During one of these very severe, acute attacks, I was given some 'FRUIT-A-TIVES', and after taking a short treatment of this remedy, I passed gall-stones over an inch in length, and as many as one hundred and fifty or two hundred in number. 'FRUIT-A-TIVES' was the only thing that would relieve my pain. They are the greatest medicine in the world, and if there is anyone in Canada, or anywhere else, that suffers from gall-stones, I say, 'Let them take 'Fruit-a-tives' and be cured.'

"If this testimonial will further the good work of 'Fruit-a-tives', publish it with my full authority."

Are you wondering how "Fruit-a-tives"—a medicine made from fruit juices, can cure Gall-stones? We will tell you. The Gall bladder is the reservoir for holding the Gall, or bile, secreted by the liver. If there is insufficient bile, then the bile in the Gall bladder is thick and easily forms stones. When the liver is weak, it secretes very little bile and then the Gall bladder is partially filled with a thick, jelly-like mass of bile and this forms into lumps or stones. "Fruit-a-tives" stimulates the liver to secrete more bile, and this increased bile softens the Gall-stones and by overfilling the Gall bladder, forces the passage of the stones through the Gall duct—and thus cures the disease.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices. By a wonderful process, the medicinal properties of certain fruits are greatly intensified—then valuable tonics and antiseptics are added and the whole made into the pleasant tasting tablets known in every section of Canada as "Fruit-a-tives."

RESCUES TWO GIRLS FROM DROWNING

Whitty Man Performed Gallant Feat at Ontario Beach.

PORT HOPE, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—This afternoon about 4 o'clock two young ladies, Miss Winnifred Hollis and Miss Helen Paul, had a narrow escape from drowning. They were bathing with some other young people on the Ontario Beach at the foot of John street and got beyond their depth about twenty-five yards from shore, although unable to swim.

Some time elapsed before the onlookers realized that the girls were in danger and took steps to help them. The rescue was effected in the nick of time by Robert Rufe, C.P.R. civil engineer, and Charles Canella, a local fruit dealer.

Canella is the hero of three previous rescues from drowning during the last two years and he almost lost his own life in trying to save the girls who made matters worse by clasping him round the neck.

Mrs. Charles Kerry rendered valuable service in resuscitating the young ladies previous to the arrival of Drs. Dickinson and Alstich.

TROOPS TRAMPLE U. S. FLAG WAVED BY GIRL

Saskatoon Militia in Fever-Bugle Band at Once Resigned.

SASKATOON, Sask., Aug. 1.—The local militia are in a ferment today over a flag incident which disturbed a parade of the 105th Fusiliers. When the parade was passing down Second avenue a young girl in a passing automobile waved an American flag in front of one of the members of the bugle band. The man broke ranks and, snatching the flag, broke the staff in two and trampled it under his feet. The majority of the regiment, also passing over it.

The young man was instantly taken from the ranks, and at the conclusion of the parade was court-martialed and discharged from the regiment.

The officers of the regiment held a consultation and the man was later reinstated, owing to the fact that the bugle band are to take a prominent part in the parade in honor of 400 delegates of the real estate board today.

CANADA NEGLECTS A WIDE MARKET

Trade Pact With Philippines Is Suggested by Dr. Best.

IS REVISITING TORONTO

Has Lived in Land of Copra For Fourteen Years.

A great opportunity for Canada to secure as a market for her products a country whose population is of equal size to her own, and the splendid chance the Dominion has of obtaining raw materials for manufacture and many articles of food at a greatly reduced figure and in much larger quantities, is told in a striking way by a former Toronto boy, who left here in 1898 for the Philippine Islands to join the medical staff of the U. S. Army and who after passing thru the stirring days there until 1902, became identified with the U. S. Government Bureau of Agriculture in the Philippines.

He is Dr. William Robert Llewellyn Best. He was born in Pickering Township and is the son of James Best, an Uxbridge farmer. Graduating from Uxbridge High School he became a student at the Ontario Veterinary College at Toronto, and immediately on obtaining his degree left to become a member of the staff of veterinarians with the U. S. Army in the Philippine war.

After a continuous residence of about 14 years on the islands, he returns to Toronto for a brief visit to relatives here. Roy C. Best, C. P. R. accountant at Toronto, is a brother. Two other brothers are in Saskatchewan. He has five married sisters residing in Toronto. Accompanying him is his wife, who has lived in the Philippines at the conclusion of the war and who returns after ten years' absence.

Both husband and wife are bronzed a dark-brown from their long residence in the semi-tropics, and despite the excessive heat of the islands in the past few days, looked cool and comfortable. The suggestion that it was uncomfortably hot in Toronto at present caused them to smile. They are used to an average all year round temperature of from 80 to 95 degrees. "We are just in our element here," said Dr. Best. "It has worked hardest at times when the temperature was over the 100 degree mark."

Dr. Best stated that the warm weather on the islands rendered it necessary to take a daily plunge. And most of the time this was taken in waters infested with crocodiles and alligators. The largest snakes to be found anywhere are prevalent on these islands. The doctor said he had seen many of these creatures. The largest snakes to be found anywhere are prevalent on these islands. The doctor said he had seen many of these creatures.

The many changes that had taken place in Toronto since he left here fourteen years ago are described as truly remarkable. One of the principal changes was the increase in motor cars to be seen in the streets, and it was this that brought to his mind a great opportunity that is being neglected by Canadian manufacturers. About thirty-five different makes and more than ten thousand American motor cars are being imported into the Philippines, and this mode of traveling is steadily growing with a constantly increasing demand. The doctor pointed out that this fact, however, not one Canadian manufactured motor car is to be found on the islands.

Canada's Opportunity. A thorough knowledge of conditions in the Philippine islands had convinced him that the Canadian manufacturer which a young and growing country could wish to have was before the Dominion of Canada right now.

That chance lay in a reciprocal trade agreement between the two countries. The main reason the Canadian manufactured motor cars were not largely sold in the Philippines was because of the duty levied against them in comparison with the U. S. car. Many thousands of bushels of wheat in the form of flour were imported into the Philippines annually, and the demand there for this product was growing very fast. Here again with a trade arrangement between them would be a splendid outlet for a Canadian product, and in fact there would be a demand for all Canadian products and manufactures.

A great advantage could be obtained by Canada getting the raw material from the Philippines. The rubber industry is pursued on a very large scale there, but the commodity is shipped away. Why not get the rubber into Canada duty free and ship it back in the form of automobile tires, he suggested. Canada could obtain abundant supplies of the finest fruit from the islands.

Increase in Exports. Other big crops, the products of which would be in demand here, include the hemp crop. This had increased more than fifty per cent. under American occupation. Copra, or the dried meat of the coconut, which is now shipped to Europe, would be a splendid outlet for a Canadian product, and in fact there would be a demand for all Canadian products and manufactures.

For the planting and harvesting of these crops a large number of agricultural implements were required, and it was here again the opportunity for the Canadian manufacturer could be found. Canadian apples would also find a ready market.

MACKAY'S MAJORITY 200.

EDMONTON, Alta., Aug. 1.—When the polls at Fort McMurray and Fort Vermilion have been heard from Hon. A. G. Mackay, member-elect for Athabasca, will be the majority over Mr. Woods, defeated Conservative candidate, of about 300 votes. There were twelve polls in the constituency, and ten that have come in give Mackay a majority of 115 votes. In every poll there is a majority of from 10 to 12.

TORONTO WOMAN INJURED IN WRECK

Mrs. Heaslip of Kendal Avenue Suffered in Thousand Island Railway Collision.

KINGSTON, Aug. 1.—(Can. Press.)—A Grand Trunk freight train and a passenger train on the Thousand Island Railway collided near Gananoque this morning and one of the passengers, Mrs. W. T. Heaslip of 27 Kendal avenue, Toronto, was badly injured. Several ribs were broken. She was on her way home from Toronto after visiting at Tremont Park. The freight train was backing up and as the accident occurred on a curve the engineer on the passenger train did not have time to stop. Henry A. Brahmans of Gananoque was the engineer and he jumped and saved his life. The fireman, Henry Case, Gananoque, also jumped, but was badly injured. All the injured, it is expected, will recover. The engine was knocked off the track. The train from Brockville was one of the main passengers who suffered a severe shaking up.

PREMIER BACK IN OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 1.—Premier and Mrs. Borden arrived in the capital at noon today from St. Andrew's. They were met at the station by Hon. Messrs. Ferley and Kemp and conveyed by auto to the premier's residence. The Premier stated that he expected to be in the capital for several days and has not yet definitely decided upon his holiday program thereafter. He stated this morning that a cabinet meeting had not been fixed for today, but that he and his colleagues would meet tomorrow to discuss a number of questions awaiting disposal. The Premier appeared to be in fairly good health when he arrived this morning.

Trimnings to Adorn a Cake

Much of the joy of cake making comes in the icing. Having provided a delectable foundation, you may proceed to dress it up in a host of guises. For instance, a banana icing that would be delicious on an orange cake would ruin a chocolate cake. One must be rigid adherent to the basic idea explained here, you may work out many variations, especially along the line of decoration. There is an opportunity for really artistic work that will delight the creative spirit.

There is endless variety possible in the frosting. One need only be careful to have it blend well with the cake itself. For instance, a banana icing that would be delicious on an orange cake would ruin a chocolate cake. PRESS CRITICIZES ENGLISH GIRLS

English Press Filled With Condemnations — Young Women Have Champions.

ARE BLASE AND BORED

Fury of Controversy Is Only Equaled by Its Futility.

Special Cable to The World. Copyrighted by The Toronto World and N. Y. World.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Criticism of the young English woman of today is epidemic in the London press. Her lack of manners, of charm and grace, her indifference, her brazenness—in fact, everything about her is held up to scorn.

This is an unusual manifestation, and undoubtedly is due to a reaction from the suffragette movement. Singularly enough, the "flapper," as the young girl just before getting into long frocks is called, comes in for the severest censure for her repellent, saucy precocity, and her brazen attempts to divert young men's attention from her elders.

Old-fashioned people wonder what sort of woman she will be since she is growing blase and bored before she even puts her hair up.

The athletic craze among girls is also condemned. The golf girl, who is delighted with herself in her woolen blazer, her tight dress almost up to her knees, is pronounced by Gen. Hildrich, a well-known connoisseur of dames, as ungraceful, untidy and unattractive.

Then the mother are scolded for losing control of authority in their efforts to appear as young as their daughters.

But the women of today are not without their champions, who compare them favorably with the mid-Victorian mothers, with their hysterics, false blushes and pretended prudery and insincerity.

CANTON TROOPS ON NORTHWARD MARCH

Between Forty and Fifty Thousand Men Will Be Met by Government Forces.

COMING IS WELCOMED

Northern Forces Expect to Crush Rebellion With One Blow.

PEKIN, August 1.—(Can. Press).—The announcement from Canton that three divisions of Cantonese troops are preparing to march against the northern forces, is welcomed in Peking as government officials say they will anticipate their coming, as it will enable the government troops to inflict a crushing defeat on the rebels without risking the sacking and perhaps the burning of Canton City, and the disorganizing of export trade.

Provisional President Yuan Shi Kai issued a manifesto today in which he asserted that most of the supporters of the rebellion belonged to the Kwo Ming-tang party, and he demanded the cancellation of their membership, threatening that the law would be sternly enforced if he received an unsatisfactory reply.

SHANGHAI, August 1.—Dr. Sun Yat Sen, one of the leaders of the southern rebellion, today declared that the re-occupation of the City of Nanking by government troops was only temporary.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen will leave Shanghai tonight for Hongkong, where he personally will make an appeal for further support in his campaign to overthrow Provisional President Yuan Shi Kai for crimes which the southern leader claims have been committed by the president, namely, the illegal execution of military officers, the assassination of the national leader, Gen. Sung Chiao-jen, the issuing of unconstitutional mandates and the enacting of laws without consulting parliament.

Every day next week at 5 o'clock there will be a conference of the committee at the office of the chairman, George Ross, 125, in the postoffice. On Thursday evening a mass meeting of ex-Hamiltonians will be held in St. George's Hall. The actual parade will be held on the second day of the centennial, Tuesday, Aug. 12.

GOOD BLOOD THE SECRET OF HEALTH

To Be Healthy You Must Keep the Blood Rich, Red and Pure.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in any disease caused by thin or impure blood and the use of such pills is astonishingly large. Anemia literally means a condition in which the blood is thin and watery. It means the blood is deficient in iron and the blood is not rich and pure. This is only a partial list of the troubles having their origin in impure, watery blood, and can be cured by supplying the blood with its missing constituents.

This is exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do. Their chief mission is to make rich, red blood, and this good blood reaches every organ and every fibre in the human body, thus driving out disease and bringing renewed health and strength to thousands of weak, dependent people.

CRUELTY CHARGES MUST BE PROBED

Detectives Ordered to Investigate Allegations Against House of Industry.

IMPEACHES AN OFFICIAL

Alex. Cruikshank Declares He Hastened Deaths of Two Inmates.

Aged, eccentric, penniless, a fit candidate for an old man's home, if there were such an institution in Toronto, Alexander Cruikshank faced a police court audience yesterday morning and told a story of cruelty practised upon inmates at the House of Industry that compelled the attention of Magistrate Denton, and will result in an investigation by the detective department.

To the detectives Mr. Cruikshank gave the name of an official of the House of Industry at whose hands he alleges that two inmates received treatment which hastened on their deaths. He said that he had been ejected from the house because he knew too much about beatings and atrocities committed within its doors.

The old man has been in turn professor and lawyer and has lately spent much time in institutions for the improvident. His appearance in court was on a vagrancy charge, and he was remanded to jail for a week.

THE GARDEN SERIAL STORY

Raggs' Weekly Letter

Kawaba, Muskoka, Aug. 1, 1913. My Dear Toronto-Ontario: "Great heavens!" I exclaimed this morning shortly after breakfast (9.35, to be exact). "They must have disappeared in the night! As I remarked before, 'Great heavens!' Have any steps been taken to recover the lost property?"

"Naturally," said Mr. Sherlock Holmes gravely, and with graveness. "Last night was unusually warm for April, I believe?"

"Yes, sir; out the bathing stockings? What has that to do with my bathing stockings? Oh, Mr. Holmes—Sherlock—they were heirlooms, and—"

"A pawnbroker's business is carried on mostly in the evenings, I believe," asked Mr. Sherlock Holmes, as he smiled a dry smile.

"I rose to my feet, placing my revolver inconspicuously in the toe of my left shoe. His smile at this grew so dry that I hastily slipped a flask of brown fluid in the toe of my other shoe."

"Perhaps you shall be glad of it," I cried, in self-justification, as it were. "You may not be aware of the fact that the fish are jumping, the porcupines are out, and that some large and particularly horrible water snakes at least six feet long, were seen writhing beneath the boathouse wharf this morning."

"At this moment there approached from the northeast a yellow canoe, bearing the bounding waters a sad-faced man, with a shiny silk hat, an aggressively respectable frock coat, tennis shoes, and a red tie."

"Ah, Watson!" said Mr. Sherlock Holmes, "here you are, and, turning pleasantly to me, 'unless my eyes deceive me, here is my Watson, my good friend, did I not tell you yesterday or last week, or sometime, that a considerable crime was in contemplation in the neighborhood? Miss Raggs, let me introduce, or make you acquainted with, Dr. Watson, who is to be our companion in the Adventure of the Recovery of the Disappearing Bathing Stockings, and who, as you may be well aware (and had order, if you ain't), has, in the past, been the humble and footling chronicler of my brilliantly simple investigations."

"His name?" queried Mr. Sherlock Holmes. "Peter," I completed the sentence for him, and added, "four questions are simple, but be sure to tell me if I am not quite plain."

"You are unusually and undoubtedly so," said the great detective, holding himself cross-legged upon the extreme edge of the wharf. "I am making his rare old fiddle from an inside pocket, he remarked 'frankly: I must ask you not to speak to me for three and a quarter minutes.'"

"Well, it is not a bad idea, is it? A silence as of the great detective, holding himself cross-legged upon the extreme edge of the wharf. "I am making his rare old fiddle from an inside pocket, he remarked 'frankly: I must ask you not to speak to me for three and a quarter minutes.'"

"And now," said Mr. Sherlock Holmes, as a bloodthirsty light appeared in his left eye, chased itself into the right, and so to and fro, to and fro, it is time that we arranged our little plans. I believe, I may say, without fear of successful or unsuccessful contradiction, that, within quarter of an hour, this little matter will be, so to speak, cleared up."

"Miss Raggs, will you be so kind as to lead me by the hand to the bathing suit which you are wont to wear?"

"Perhaps you think it was not a shock to me to see, in less time than it takes to write these words, a replica of myself swimming towards us thru the (naturally enough) water. Perhaps you think it wasn't—but it was. There I was, in the same bathing suit, the same handkerchief knotted over my eyes, the same waddling side stroke which people come miles to see."

"On a musical, the breathless voice, which might have been mine, or, cleverer was the imitation, Sherlock Holmes (for, indeed, it was he) lifted his eyes, and, with seals-like, Raggs-like heaves, he humped himself onto the wharf. "How did you get on with that heavy foot thump between a lopsided and a canter), which characterizes the Aberdeen pup. "Hide behind that paddle," spoke Mr. Holmes sharply to me. "I promptly did so. In fact I may say that like all Mr. Sherlock Holmes' assistants, I was not a bit prompt. My double stood upon the wharf. Peter gave one look at his long thin legs, another at the assembled company, remarked bustling, 'Ho, ho, ho,' and covered with confusion, dived beneath the boat-house. "Mr. Sherlock Holmes noiselessly stood on his head in the water. This he reserved gentleman waded his heels and wiggled his toes with excitement! "And no wonder! "I was the first to grasp that he was signaling to us in the dead and dumb language—with his toes. "No doubt, you thought me mad," I spelled out, "but look! Look Watson, look!"

PATTERN SERVICE NEWS FOR WOMEN

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

SALT said the little boy, is the stuff that spoiled the potatoes when you didn't put any in. To this we amend, salt is what spoils the food when it isn't all salt, but a mixture of starch, salt and bleaching acids. The growing demand for dainty food has given adulterations in every form and salt has not escaped. In the first place a little starch or flour was added to salt to absorb the moisture it held and make it run freely. This was a good thing for salt that was to be used in table shakers, for there is nothing much more annoying than to find table salt caked in the salters. Manufacturers now mix in so much starch and grind the salt so very fine that it is difficult to season with the highest priced grade. So far as snowy whiteness is concerned, or fineness of grain, our salt is now perfect, but to produce this makers have not hesitated to use strong bleaching agents and injurious acids. This is a season when one should be particular to have a smooth tasting, pure brand of salt, for the over bleached and too refined article has lost not only its salty savor but its preserving qualities. It is impossible to make a pickle brine with adulterated salt, and home canned vegetables depend very greatly upon the quality of salt used for seasoning for their keeping qualities. Pure salt is obtained by evaporation of salt water, from salt mines and from salt marshes thru the solar method of drying. The history of this necessary food ingredient is almost the history of the human race and its civilization. Rome received an annual income from the government salt wells at the mouth of the Tiber and these old works may still be seen. Venice owed her maritime power to her salt commerce. The first manufactory in America was the purifying of salt on Long Island may still be seen the vats erected by colonists in 1620. Common salt has more uses about the house than almost any other article, but its usefulness is impaired as soon as foreign bodies are added to it. More than this, it becomes dangerous, for salt is used for washes, for cleaning and medicinal purposes where flour, starch or acids would work positive harm. In this article at least, let us insist on purity.

THE GARDEN CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD M.D. Some Replies to Queries

Mr. J. M.—: We are sorry that it took so long to come round to your turn, but you must remember, we have just only so much space. Your complaint is a victim to the "horror." We have written a number of times about him, and we have come to the conclusion that very few people are acquainted with him. From the street car the other day, no less than five splendid purple clematis were noticed to be afflicted with him. When your leaves turn black in a day, after writing very suddenly, almost while you are looking at the vine, continue to hang limp and black and finally shrivel up. It is a case of "good-bye clematis," unless you get right down on your knees, on the ground and hunt for the bug. There may be a colony of them. Certain it is your vine will be entirely destroyed if you do not destroy the vermin. A medicated lotion poured on the earth, and allowed to soak into the roots, may destroy the bugs. May, I say. But there is an uncertainty about the matter. The best plan is to scrape away the earth from the stems above the roots, and hunt until you find the bugs. Hunt up a former paper not long ago, in which we gave full directions concerning the way to find the pest. While we would like to help every one we possibly can, yet we cannot continue to answer the same questions again and again. This question has been referred to, I am sure, a dozen times, yet the thought just comes to us here, that if we be the means of saving the many beautiful clematis vines alone, that adorn so many hundreds of homes in this city, this little daily talk would have been worth while. THE TRIPLE TIE BY A. H. C. MITCHELL (Continued From Saturday)

"Oh, hurry, Mildred; let's get started," cried Elmer. A Regular Ball Field They were soon at the granite posts that marked the entrance to the big estate. The private driveway leading to the mansion was nearly a mile and a half long. When they emerged from the forest of trees and Elmer saw the big granite mansion for the first time, his eyes bulged in surprise. Gordon drove the car around the house to give the lady a good view of it, and then turned off toward the north. About a quarter of a mile farther on they came to the ball field, which was in a valley sheltered from the wind. Elmer went in and Mildred could not repress an exclamation of delight at the particularly neat arrangement of things. The diamond was laid out in the regulation manner. The field was very large and was bordered by a wire fence. Away out in the outfield a steam lawn mower was at work, while Steve, Gordon's colored boy, was busy making out the foul lines with fresh whitewash. "We arrived a little earlier than we were expected," said Gordon, "but they will be there in a few minutes. I have only seen one other ball field, and that was at Atlanta, but I don't believe there is a more perfect field in the world than this is. "It certainly looks lovely," was Mildred's comment. "And this is where you learned to play baseball?" "Right here," replied Gordon, smiling. "I suppose you had a lot of the work around the place to play with?" "No, I didn't." "Do you mean to say you learned to play baseball out here all alone?" "All alone, except for a little aid from Steve." "How in the world could you do it?" demanded Mildred. "That's what all the reporters in Atlanta kept asking me," he replied. "The answer was 'simple enough.' I'll tell you, I had a—"

A Shed Full of Toys. "Oh, come on, Gordon," exclaimed Elmer, rushing up and interrupting the conversation. "Come on out on the diamond and toss the ball," and grabbing the highest-priced ball player in the world by the arm he dragged him from the automobile, thereby suppressing a piece of information that the entire baseball world, including Manager Bill Smith of the Atlanta Club, would have been glad to hear. "Come with me first, Elmer," said Gordon, "and perhaps you would like to see what I am going to show Elmer, too, Mildred?"

Near the ball field was a long, low structure of granite. They walked to it and entered. It proved to be a gymnasium fitted with all the appliances for exercising. Adjacent was a baseball "cage" that many a college would have been glad to have had for the use of its athletes. "What a plaything!" exclaimed Mildred. "You seem to have all that a boy could wish for." "Everything," replied Gordon. "There was nothing I could dream of that my father did not get for me if it were possible to get it. I had a shed behind the garage that is literally filled with toys—toys for a baby, toys for a boy and toys for an older boy. The gymnasium and 'cage' was the latest toy my father gave me. It was completed about four years ago." Alongside the "cage" was a cinder track. "That's where I used to practice sprinting," exclaimed Gordon. "I told the manager of the Atlanta Club one day that I used to time myself and he didn't believe me. But I did it with an electric timing device that began recording when I started at this end and stopped when my breast touched the tape at the other end."

"See, you must have an awful lot of money," observed Elmer. "Elmer, you mustn't make such personal remarks," said Mildred reprovingly. "A Million a Year. "Oh, I don't mind, Mildred," smiled Gordon. "Yes, Elmer, I'm afraid I have more money than I know what to do with." "How much?" demanded the lad. "I guess there's more than three thousand dollars a day piling up for me to spend; more than a million a year, in some ways," said Gordon, in the same tone of voice as if he had said, "It looks like rain."

This stupendous sum assuaged further words from the lad. Mildred even gave a little gasp and looked at Gordon with wonder in her eyes. But she soon recovered herself and turning toward him, she said: "If that's the case, young man, answer me this question: 'What has it in your hand to go down to Atlanta and apply for a position on a baseball club?' Not for the money there was in it, certainly." "Of course it wasn't that," replied Gordon. "I've never read 'Treasure Island,' Mildred?" "No," replied Elmer, "and it's great." "Well, I haven't," repeated Mildred. "What is it all about, and what has it to do with my question?" "Treasure Island and Chess. "Treasure Island" is a book for young boys and old boys and middle-aged men and old men," replied Gordon. "Boys read it because it is exciting and full of adventure and men read it because it is written in such exquisite style. Now there is a character in 'Treasure Island' named Ben Gunn and he was marooned on an island for many years and during that time he didn't see a soul. And he longed for things he couldn't have. Finally he was rescued and almost the first words he said to the one he saw first, because I know them by heart, I have read the book so often Christian diet. 'My heart is sore for have a piece of cheese about you now?' 'What is it, all about, Mildred, and I've dreamed of cheese—cheese, mostly—and woke up again, and here I were.' Mildred laughed at this. "What's the connection between this man wanting cheese and your ball playing Atlanta?" she asked. "Don't you see? I had been marooned up here in the mountains all my life. I shouldn't use the word marooned, as I had everything I wanted and enjoyed every minute until my sorrows came. But anyway, I became crazy about baseball. I became my hobby. We had all the New York papers every day, and I devoured every line of baseball there was printed in them. I went for a book, so often creature on baseball; I came to know the great players thru reading about them, as if I had met them personally. I knew their batting averages and their fielding averages and their strength and weakness. From the time I was old enough to wear short pants I was tossing a ball around, and when I was fifteen years old my father built this field for me. I spent hour after hour on the field, and I learned to do everything that a ball can do—I'll tell you how I did it in a minute. I found I could make the most difficult kind of catches; I found that I could hit the ball where no fielder could ever reach it, and against speedier pitchers than they have in the big leagues. I knew from timing myself that there was no ball player living that could run as fast as I could, and I made up my mind that none of the great players had anything on me, as the saying goes, except experience."

Was Crazy to Play. All this was said in an easy, matter-of-fact way, not boastfully, Gordon continued. (To Be Continued)

A FASHIONABLE FROCK IN SIMPLE STYLE

THE Norfolk suggestion found in this frock renders it exceedingly smart. In the picture, it is made of blue linen serge with collar and cuffs of white, and it is worn with a black patent leather belt and black tie and it makes a really perfect costume for the summer season. It is perfect for golfing, for tennis, for boating and all occasions of the kind. The dress is just a simple one but the straps, or applied box plaits, render it novel and distinctive. The skirt is cut in four pieces. The lines are in the height of the style and the dress is treated with just that simplicity needed for the simple summer costume. It could be made of any preferred kind of linen or cotton, or of a pretty galatea or even of chambray and, if the outing is to be taken on the mountain top where it is likely to be cool, such a frock of light weight is just the most satisfactory. One can hardly imagine long sleeves and high neck for the mid-summer costume but there may be girls who prefer them. Colored linen, colored piqué and colored cotton, poplin or being used for dresses of this kind. A charming effect could be obtained by copying this model in pink or blue with collar and cuffs scalloped with white with a thread of black outlining them, for touches of navy blue are extremely smart.

The Young Torontos will leave for St. Kitts on Monday morning on the Grand Trunk train at 2 o'clock. All players are asked to meet at the front, not later than 10 o'clock. The boat will be taken to the Union Station not later than 10 o'clock. The Young Torontos will be accompanied by a Junior team from St. Kitts on the holiday, which would necessitate starting the big game rather late, and added to this is the fact that the holiday is the last big holiday of the season and boat traffic will be exceptionally heavy, making it quite impossible for the team to return by boat after the game is over. The team will be picked from the following: McArthur, Wolfe, Matthews, McEwan, Cowan, Coulter, Sewell, Wilkins, Gordon and Richardson. Any players whose names have been omitted are requested to make the trip.

Are We Getting Less Sane?

Why I Am Opposing the Mental Deficiency Bill
By Joseph Martin, M.P.

LONDON, July 26.—The question of mental deficiency is one of those pathetic problems of human nature that needs every careful consideration, and must be treated from a broad-minded point of view. It is no use merely quoting statistics in an endeavor to prove that the law needs drastic changes in any particular direction. In this way, etc. etc. doubtless, experts who could give figures in support of their theory that insanity is on the increase, while on the other hand there are those who hold different views, and who could, with equal force point to statistics to show that of late years there has been a decline in the mental balance of the country.

GRAND RAPIDS GRAND CIRCUIT

Praden Direct Won Free-For-All—Canadian Horses Fare Badly.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 1.—The most featureful, although not the speediest, races of the week were staged at the Grand Circuit meet here today when the four events of Thursday's card, put over for a day because of rain, were decided. Praden Direct, signaling his first start of the season, won the free-for-all pace with little opposition in straight heats. The indisposition of Joe Fatchen II, which precluded his starting in this race, detracted from its interest. Don Denmore was the favorite in the second heat with Cabel as his opponent. Loats W. was a consistent third, and Vernon McKinney, breaking repeatedly, was displaced in the third heat.

SHOES OF QUALITY.

About two years ago the Brockton Shoe Company, Limited, opened its first store in Toronto at 119 Yonge street. It came with a Canadian-made shoe—known as the Brockton—at a uniform price of $4. and behind it was the firm's determination to put into its product every cent's worth of value that could be given. Its standard was a high one, but the company were convinced that their admirable facilities and expert craftsmen it could be maintained.

AT THE THEATRES

MISS HASWELL IN "A SMART COMEDY"

"Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots" Will Present Series of Ingenious Complications.

Many of the plays from the pen of Augustus Thomas are noted for their ingenuity and novel plots. "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots," which Miss Haswell will present at the Alexandra Theatre next week, is no exception to the rule.

"Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots" is written in a much lighter vein than some of his works, and at times it may be said to approach the farcical.

The story centres around Mrs. Leffingwell, a pretty young woman with an absurdly jealous husband. The scenes of the play are laid in a fashionable suburb of New York, and the first act shows the residence of Mrs. Bonner, the wife of an artist. She has invited a number of city people to her house, in order that they may become interested in her husband's picture. Previous to the opening of the play, Mabel Almslee, a sister of Mrs. Bonner, has been engaged to Walter Corbin, a rising young architect, but the match has been broken off, owing to her unjustly accusing him of carrying on a flirtation with a young married woman, whose boots were found on the fire-escape outside of her window.

Where the Shoe Pinches. The night of the party arrives, and so does a terrific blizzard. Corbin, who is in the neighborhood, seeks shelter in the Bonner house. The storm prevents the guests from arriving with the exception of Mrs. Leffingwell, whose boots have been the cause of the trouble. As Miss Almslee is also visiting her sister, the situation naturally becomes strained. Leffingwell was to have followed his wife of the Bonners, but became snow-bound and phones to find out if Mrs. Leffingwell has arrived. Recognizing Corbin's voice, and being jealous of him, this adds to the complications, which are already multiplying fast. In the end it turns out that a wayward brother of Mrs. Bonner's is the cause of all the misunderstanding and responsible for all the heart-burnings, which the dramatist straightens out to the satisfaction of everyone. An extra matinee will be given on Monday, (Civic Holiday).

CANT LET THE BAND GO.

Rice, Elmer and Tom, the acrobatic comedians, will conclude a very successful engagement at Scarborough Beach Park with this evening's performance. Next week the feature will be the noted Davies family of acrobats, which comes here with a great reputation to sustain. D'Almeida's Royal Italian Concert Band has been engaged for another week, and on Civic Holiday will give a special program. The band will give two concerts today and two on Sunday.

"TINY TOWN" OPENS AT MASSEY HALL

Midgets Will Present Unique Entertainment in Afternoon and Evening.

The midget has ceased to be myth. Today he is a civilized being, capable of doing up to date, with fancy socks or hobbie skirt, according to sex. To these inhabitants of Tiny Town, for instance, life is all stern reality. Their season will commence at Massey Hall this afternoon at 2:30, tonight at 8:15 and twice daily all next week.

Tiny Town's mayor is 53 years of age, and for all his 50 inches height is heir to all the virtues and vices common to other ordinary sized old people of the same age. And so with all the other midgets. They are truly men and women, with all the hopes and ambitions, feelings and emotions of all full-sized people. They object to being regarded as children. How do these remarkable little people live? Like we of the full-sized world, eating as we do, but out of tiny spoons drinking from tiny cups, wielding tiny knives, and using tiny tools. A third the size of an ordinary mortal, they possess a little more than a third as much.

One roll at breakfast will suffice three tiny townsmen. But the economy effected in feeding the midgets is more than balanced by the cost of dressing them. The tiny feet must be shod in specially made boots and shoes, the clothes of the men and women must be as elaborate and well-fitting as any turned out for full-sized beings. The tiny townsmen or woman may effect some economy in the matter of sleeping apartments. Three bachelor midgets might share the one bed in the one room without discomfort and not get in each other's way when rising of a morning. It may be indiscreet to say, but it is nevertheless a fact that more than one occasion when traveling the dignified Hayati Hassid, the Turkish Tom Thurl's, has slept in a dress basket and not lost a wink all night.

GAYETY WILL OPEN ITS SEASON TODAY

The "College Girls" opens the 1913 season at the Gayety this afternoon. The organization is a large one and fully up to the standard of the Columbia Amusement Company attraction. The cast brings into prominence such well known people as Abe Reynolds, Dolly Morrissey, Wilbur Cox, Walter Johnston, Ray Shirley, Leah Henry, Le Roy Pruette and the violinist.

HOLIDAY PROGRAM AT HANLAN'S POINT

Among the many days above all others that Torontonians claim Hanlan's Point for their own is Civic Holiday. It is the great family day, when the best outing of the season. It would be difficult to estimate the number of families who are seen heading for the boats for Hanlan's Point for the morning with their lunch baskets. There they remain all day, resting and enjoying the sun. Extra preparations have been made this year for the clean up of the holiday week. There will be two ball games between Jersey City and Toronto. As an extra added attraction and in addition to the popular Sunday and Civic Holiday, afternoon and evening, by the bands of the landers, who will furnish programs so lovely, there will also be in attendance the wonderful Cleve Caswell, who will offer a "Cl Cleve" who Torontonians who will visit Hanlan's Point Saturday and Monday his world famous zymphone act. Mr. Caswell has been proven, has no peer in this line of work.

BERNARD GRANVILLE SHEA'S HEADLINER

Favorite New York Comedian Will Make His Initial Appearance.

For the second week of the summer season in vaudeville a bill of nine all-star acts will please the patrons of Shea's Theatre next week. Manager Shea has booked from novelties for the summer attractions, and the splendid theatre has made a delightful place to spend the afternoon or evening while witnessing some of the best shows of the year.

The headline attraction next week is Bernard Granville. This will be his first appearance in Toronto. Mr. Granville was the success of the New York season during the past year, and his original offering is sure to please Torontonians. The special extra attraction is Norris Baboons, the best comedy animal act on the stage. The baboons are marvelously trained in all sorts of stunts.

Another feature is John F. Conroy, world's greatest life-saver, and his models and diving girls. Mr. Conroy is assisted by two charming girls. They are Boston young ladies, and considered to be the peer of all other lady swimmers and divers. The opening of the exhibition with the stage dressed in red velvet, consists of a series of beautiful postures, showing to what perfection the human body can be developed by proper care and healthful exercise.

Musical experts agree that Rae Eleanor Ball is an exceptionally fine violinist. Miss Ball is a fine musician with splendid technique, good tone and much temperament; she will no doubt become one of the greatest women violinists of her day.

James E. Carson is a comedian with an original monologue and some new character songs, and a pair of comedy acrobats, Montambo and Wells, are thrilling. Montambo, the chalk face clown, and natural born buffoon with the ability to provoke laughter with every gesture.

Prominent among the exponents of the new kind of dancing are Engle and Stella Johnson, who are also featured in the first of the Texas Tommy Dancers to move seaward of the Barbara Coast. These two offering a new dance called the Broncho, which promises to be come as popular as the Turkey Trot and Tango. Their work is largely in the ballroom order.

Valentine Vox has an original novelty, and the cinematograph close the bill with the new comedy picture.

$3.50 RECIPE FREE FOR WEAK MEN

Send Name and Address To-day— You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened memory, failing memory, and lame back, brought on by excessive, unnatural exertion, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his former power and vitality, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of the active combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together. I send them a copy in confidence, so that any man, weary, who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures, may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest acting restorative, unadvised, and so cure himself at home quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. B. Sanden, 3025 Lack Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of the recipe in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $2.00 to $5.00 for free consultation. I send it entirely free. 674.

W

NEW INDUSTRIALS MEET POOR MARKET

Several Issues Offered Down Rapidly in Toronto Stock Market.

GENERAL LIST IS FIRM

Steady Buying Demand For Old-Established Securities—Some New Low Records.

Speculative interest in the Toronto Stock Exchange was more concerned yesterday with the weak spots which developed in some of the industrials that have been meeting with a poor market of late than with anything else. Sentiment was, in fact, considerably exercised over the further downturn in Spanish River and Macdonald, and the offering down of Russell Motor and Toronto Paper. Recent events resulted in a more cheerful feeling on the "street," but traders found it hard to be optimistic when such drastic declines as these were getting to be almost a daily occurrence.

As far as the general list was concerned the session passed off favorably enough. Speculation was at a low ebb, but there was a fair buying demand in effect, and on the whole stocks held their own in good style. Continued investment purchases were reflected in the bids for high-grade securities, and it was plainly evident that offerings were not coming out freely. Brazilian worked off half a point to 85 3/4 early in the day, but half of this was recaptured at the close, with 85 bid for the day. Twin City, Toronto Railway and Mackay were offered fairly firm spots, the latter eased slightly during the afternoon.

An Unwilling Market. Spanish River, Macdonald, Canada Bread and Ruscel, for common all sold off to new low records in their history on a resumption of liquidation in a very unwilling market. Spanish River was sold down to 29 1/2, which is a high level of 72 1/4 in February last. Macdonald, which had been moving hand in hand with it, dipped fractionally to 24 1/2 against 45 3/4 a month ago and 62 3/4 at the first of the year. It was stated on the street that the stock bonus on Spanish had removed the dividend possibilities farther away than ever, meanwhile the shares were being sold in order to tide over the money stringency. Ruscel was without a sale, against the previous low of 87, while Toronto Paper on offer at 11 1/2, was at its lowest since the offer at 11. Bread worked off to 17 1/4. While there was a fair investment demand in evidence certain high-grade issues showed a weaker tone. Canada Permanent at 120 was off three points and in new low ground since January, 1912, while Standard Bank at 207 making a new low in years, comparing with 214 a month ago and 225 last January.

UPS AND DOWNS IN N. Y. MARKET. Erickson Perkins & Co. report average New York Stock Exchange prices of ten leading industrials and ten leading rails for 1913 as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Stock Name, Price. Includes High Friday, Low Friday, Close Friday, etc.

INCREASED DIVIDEND STORY ON C. P. R. Yesterday wires to Toronto brokers reported a Montreal story to the effect that Canadian Pacific directors have practically decided on a one per cent additional dividend for the common stock at their next meeting. The shares made no reaction to the rumor which was generally set down as a market tip of the usual worthless sort.

NO INDUCEMENT TO BUY STOCKS NOW. Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Bealy) wired: Stocks worked lower today, but tried to rally in last hour. We do not think the recovery will go far. The buying power at this level has given people to buy stocks, but they are driven such a chance will any sharp rise would not get too pessimistic yet we would reduce holdings on bulges. The Washington situation is anything but favorable to the market.

BOGUS MINING SCRIP ON NEW YORK CURB. NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—For some days past curb brokers have known that bogus certificates of Toronto North Star have been going around the North and the authorities have warned brokers that notices placed on the curb board that these forgeries were being sold.

"MELONS" ARE RIPENING. NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—It is reported here that the Anglo-American Oil Co., the British subsidiary of the Standard Oil, has increased its capitalization from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. This will mean another "melon."

MONTREAL SAGS C.P.R. AGAIN DROPS

Macdonald Rallied and Brazilian and Cement Were Strong—Spanish at Low.

RESENT GOVT. ACTION

Money Interests Disposed to Question Legality of Its Proposal.

MONTREAL, Aug. 1.—A generally sagging market, with only one or two strong spots throughout the whole list, developed here today, beginning with the first London cable, which showed Canadian Pacific at 214 5/8 or 2 3/8 under the opening Thursday morning. The stock continued to drop, falling as low as 214 1/4 in London, closing as low as 214 1/4 in New York, selling here at 214 1/4, with 215 bid at the close and 214 1/4 asked. That Berlin is still selling C.P.R. is stated in New York, but what is behind the German bullishness seems impossible to determine.

Other weak spots in the market were Macdonald, Spanish River and Montreal Power. Macdonald rallied 2 points at the close, when it sold at 29 1/2 or a net gain of 1 1/2 over Thursday. In Spanish sold off to a new low level of 29 1/2 ex-rights, while Montreal Power also lost a point.

Brazilian and Cement were the only issues to develop any strength, the latter settling in 85 ex-dividend, a gain of 1-4 over Thursday's close. Total business 2562 shares and banks, 1470 mines, 62 rights and 111-000 bonds and debentures.

CANADIAN NICKEL INTERESTS TO MERGE

Mond People Said to Be Negotiating For Newly-Organized Concern.

Rumors of negotiations toward a merger or a purchase between the Mond Nickel Company, the big English corporation, and the newly organized Canadian Nickel Corporation, are current in Montreal. It is known that the Mond Nickel people have made a thorough investigation of the Canadian Nickel properties in the Sudbury field. Simultaneous with these developments is the incorporation during the past week of the British-American Nickel Corporation, with a capital of $2,000,000. The principals of this incorporation have not, however, been divulged.

CANADIAN CAPITAL TO MINE IN MEXICO

Despite the continued unrest in Mexico Canadian interests are preparing for further exploitation of the resources of that republic. Public notice in Montreal of the Mexican Tin Corporation, Limited, with a capital of $2,000,000, which will engage in mining at Ottawa and has obtained wide powers.

B. C. SALMON PACK PROVES A FAILURE

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 1.—Arrivals from Prince Rupert confirm the statement already made that the salmon pack is practically a failure. The sockeyes simply did not come. On the Fraser River, however, the outlook of the Fraser fishing season yet to improve, and if the run continues to be better there is little chance of the mill. One case pack that was prepared for the season.

MARKETS CLOSE TODAY.

The Toronto Stock Exchange will be closed all day today and on Monday (Civic Holiday). The Standard and Mining Exchange will also remain closed over the same period.

A-SIGN OF THE TIMES.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1.—It is reported that another Philadelphia stock Exchange membership has been sold for $5,000. The names in the transaction were not disclosed. This is the lowest price recorded in a long time.

TWIN CITY EARNINGS.

For the third week of July the earnings of the Twin City Rapid Transit company were $175,926, an increase over the corresponding period last year of $16,840, or 10.72 per cent.

BUFFALO LIVE STOCK

EAST BUFFALO, August 1.—Cattle—Receipts, 300, slow and 25c lower. Veals—Receipts, 600, active to $1 high, or $6 to $12.50.

RAILWAYS FALL ON CROP ADVICES

Severe Damage From Drought Affects Southern, Spreading to Whole List.

RESUME GOVT. ACTION

Money Interests Disposed to Question Legality of Its Proposal.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Contrary to expectations in some quarters, the intention of the government to deposit funds at points in the west and southwest so as to expedite the movement of crops to market failed to exercise more than a momentary stimulating effect on security values today. In financial quarters the statement of the secretary of the treasury dealing with this matter was received with some resentment, there being a disposition to question the legal right of the authorities to so do, and to accept commercial paper as collateral for federal deposits.

Other developments, including the first real "crop scare" of the season and the government's unfavorable attitude for cotton were more disturbing and far-reaching. Advances, more or less authoritative indicated further severe damage to corn by reason of the extended drought in the southwest, and the cotton estimate was more than 2 points under that submitted a few weeks ago, the less than the average of the past year, and the average of the past year at leading markets and southern railroads showed a corresponding decline.

The movement spread until it embraced practically all railroad groups, the sole exception being Baltimore and Ohio. Illinois Central, fell lower than the day of its dividend reduction, while New York Central and some of the allied lines, including Pennsylvania, all of which submitted adverse July reports, were under more or less pressure. A sharp break in Mexican Railway was preferred called attention to the increasing depression of the market. The reaction ran from 1 to 2 points in the material change in the later dealings, which were dull and circumscribed. The local money market was inclined to yield with a slight advance in speculative issues. Government 2 1/2 advanced 3/4 on call.

LONDON MARKET IN APATHETIC MOOD

Approach of Holidays Checked Trading Materially—Rand Shares Had Rally.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The stock market was quiet and irregular, with the exception of the South African section, which was spurred on by a capital of $2,000,000, which will engage in mining at Ottawa and has obtained wide powers.

BUSINESS FAILURES MORE THAN LAST YEAR

There were six more failures in Canada in the week ending August 1, than in the corresponding period of last year, the record being falling to maintain its recent favorable status. The details as compiled by Dun's follow:

Table with 4 columns: Date, Ont., Que., B.C. Includes July 31-10, July 11-20, July 21-31, and June 26-31.

BLOCKING OUT ORE AT TECK-HUGHES

SWASTIKA, August 1.—Drifting has been started on the vein recently cut at the 100 foot level of the Teck-Hughes property at Kirkland Lake. Results so far have been very satisfactory, the vein continuing strong and carrying high values. The proposition, and should show a respectable quantity of pay ore blocked by the Great Northern Silver Mines of Cobalt.

LOWEST IN YEARS ON CROWN RESERVE

Very Small Lead on Burnside Claims High in Gold Contents.

SWASTIKA, August 1.—A very rich but very small vein has been found on the south lot of the Burnside property at Kirkland Lake. The claim adjoins the Teck-Hughes claim and has been traced for fifty feet on the surface and some very rich specimens have been taken out. A few shots will be put in to open it up. A shaft is now being put down on the rich vein at Burnside, the old shaft having been abandoned. Altogether seven veins showing fine gold have been found on the Burnside to date.

THESE MELONS HAD AN "OILY" FLAVOR

How Standard Oil Subsidiaries Have Gotten Rid of Their Surplus Fat.

MINING MARKET IS DULL

Hollering Records Another Decline—A Few Firm Spots in Evidence.

In the year and a half since they surrendered the United States handed down its historic decision ordering the dissolution of the Standard Oil Trust, more than one-third of the subsidiaries have gotten rid of their enormous surpluses by cutting "melons" for their shareholders in the shape of stock distributions from increases in capitalization.

There are twelve companies which have increased their capital and cut a "melon," or which are now proposing to do so. These are shown in the following table:

Table with 3 columns: Company Name, Original Capital Proposed, Present Stock Div. Includes Anglo-Am., Continental, Solar Ref., etc.

MINTYRE GOT VEIN AT BOTTOM LEVEL

Ore Is of an Excellent Grade—Begin Building Mill Soon.

PORCUPINE, Aug. 1.—The McIntyre have struck their vein at No. 5 shaft 45 feet below the 200 foot level. The ore is said to be of an excellent grade.

MONTREAL SAGS C.P.R. AGAIN DROPS

Macdonald Rallied and Brazilian and Cement Were Strong—Spanish at Low.

MONTREAL, Aug. 1.—A generally sagging market, with only one or two strong spots throughout the whole list, developed here today, beginning with the first London cable, which showed Canadian Pacific at 214 5/8 or 2 3/8 under the opening Thursday morning. The stock continued to drop, falling as low as 214 1/4 in London, closing as low as 214 1/4 in New York, selling here at 214 1/4, with 215 bid at the close and 214 1/4 asked. That Berlin is still selling C.P.R. is stated in New York, but what is behind the German bullishness seems impossible to determine.

Other weak spots in the market were Macdonald, Spanish River and Montreal Power. Macdonald rallied 2 points at the close, when it sold at 29 1/2 or a net gain of 1 1/2 over Thursday. In Spanish sold off to a new low level of 29 1/2 ex-rights, while Montreal Power also lost a point.

Brazilian and Cement were the only issues to develop any strength, the latter settling in 85 ex-dividend, a gain of 1-4 over Thursday's close. Total business 2562 shares and banks, 1470 mines, 62 rights and 111-000 bonds and debentures.

CANADIAN NICKEL INTERESTS TO MERGE

Mond People Said to Be Negotiating For Newly-Organized Concern.

Rumors of negotiations toward a merger or a purchase between the Mond Nickel Company, the big English corporation, and the newly organized Canadian Nickel Corporation, are current in Montreal. It is known that the Mond Nickel people have made a thorough investigation of the Canadian Nickel properties in the Sudbury field. Simultaneous with these developments is the incorporation during the past week of the British-American Nickel Corporation, with a capital of $2,000,000. The principals of this incorporation have not, however, been divulged.

B. C. SALMON PACK PROVES A FAILURE

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 1.—Arrivals from Prince Rupert confirm the statement already made that the salmon pack is practically a failure. The sockeyes simply did not come. On the Fraser River, however, the outlook of the Fraser fishing season yet to improve, and if the run continues to be better there is little chance of the mill. One case pack that was prepared for the season.

GREAT DAMAGE TO CORN CROP CERTAIN

Price Rises to Highest Point of Season—Wheat Also Shows Gains.

CHICAGO, August 1.—Broadening of speculative buying swept corn prices today to the highest point of the season. Staggering crop damage the disputed and further injury certain if good rains do not soon come, gave the purchasing market extraordinary force. The market closed firm at an advance of 13-16 to 21-24 cents over last night. Other leading staples, too, all showed net gains, wheat 1 to 13-16 cents, oats 1 to 11-14 cents and provisions 10 to 27-1/2 cents.

Excitement attending the trade in corn manifested itself at the first rap of the bell. City and country alike rushed to the buying side. Many dealers who sold yesterday, were buying today, and there was a notable increase of investment orders from the southwest. The official forecast of continued dry weather tonight and tomorrow was largely responsible.

Such unusual conditions had already been brought about by the crop damage actual and prospective that Missouri River cities were today selling corn to ship into Kansas, ordinarily a banner state in the raising of corn. It was also stated that St. Louis merchants were acquiring corn from farmers within sixty miles of Chicago, for southwest shipment up to February next. Omaha reported a sharp demand for corn to go south to sections where the new crop was said to be suffering. Despite heavy profit taking by holders of corn, prices at no time were any important reaction.

On the contrary not a few enthusiasts near the close were talking of the possibility of a rise in the price of wheat rarely equaled height of 70 cents a bushel. Wheat ascended with corn, influenced by assertions that farmers would hold wheat for feed, as being cheaper and more available than corn for the purpose. Good export call was also effective against the bears.

Oats displayed buoyancy in the absence of selling pressure. As in corn most of the offerings were to take profits with sellers frequently re-instating when the market failed to weaken. Advances in grain and hogs carried provisions along. Lungs realized, but only on the heavy spots.
