THE PERLS IN THE NORTH SEA

BRITAIN DRIVEN TO DRASTIC MEASURES BY GERMAN MINE LAYING.

BIG LINER NEARLY LOST

Enemy's Vessels, Flying Neutral Flags, Have Been Busy.

(BRITISH OFFICIAL)

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Nov. 2, 11.15 p.m.—The British North Sea has been declared a military area and merchant vessels entering it will be exposed to the gravest danger from the mines it has been necessary to lay from the warships which are searching vigilantly by night and by day for suspicious craft.

This action has been taken as a reply to the laying of mines by the Germans in the waters of Iceland.

The secretary of the admiralty tonight made the following announcement: "During the last week the Germans have scattered mines indiscriminately

in the open sea on the main trade route from America to Liverpool via the north of Iceland.

Olympic Minnow Escape.

"Peaceful merchant ships have already been blown up with loss of life

by this agency. The white Star liner

Olympic escaped disaster by pure good luck, but for warnings given by British cruisers other British and neutral merchant and passenger vessels would have been destroyed.

"These mines cannot have been laid by any German ship of war. They have been laid by some merchant vessel flying a neutral flag which has come along the trade route as if for purpose of peaceful commerce, and while roving to the full by the immunity enjoyed by neutral merchant ships, has wantonly and recklessly damaged the lives of all who travel on the sea."

Exceptional Measures.

"In these circumstances having respect to the great interests relating to the British navy, to the safety of peaceful commerce, to the high seas and to the maintenance within the limits of international law of trade between the neutral countries, the admiralty feel it necessary to adopt exceptional measures, appropriate to the novel conditions under which this war is being fought.

"They, therefore, give notice that the whole of the North Sea must be considered a military area. Within this area merchant shipping of all kinds, traders of all countries, fishing craft and all other vessels will be exposed to the greatest dangers from mines which it has been necessary to lay and from warships searching vigilantly by night and by day for suspicious craft.

The Danger Mark.

"Ships of all countries wishing to trade to and from Norway, the Baltic,

Denmark and Holland, are advised to come, if inward bound, by the English

Channel and the Straits of Dover.

There they will meet the military divisions which will pass them safely, so far as Great Britain is concerned, to the east coast of England. From that point a safe route will, if possible, be given to Lindesnes light-house.

Safety Guaranteed.

"From this point they should turn north or south, according to their des-

COMPOSITION OF SECOND CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE ANNOUNCED.

One of Brigades Now in England Will Be Incorporated With It.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—The second Canadian contingent will be a complete army division, and its strength will be over 15,000 men. One of the four brigades of infantry now in England will be part of the second contingent.

Advices received from the British war office today indicated what in its opinion should be the composition of the second Canadian force.

Official Statement.

The following official statement was issued by the militia department this afternoon:

"There has been received from the British Government a despatch to the effect that the army council wish the second overseas contingent to be so organized that in conjunction with one of the four brigades of Canadian infantry already in England it will form a division complete in itself as far as possible, with in addition a due proportion of army service corps units

PETROGRAD, Russia, Nov. 2.

By wire of London, 4.45 p.m.—The military correspondent of The Novoye positions of the enemy's forces, says:

"The Austrians are moving south and southwest toward the west Gal-

Germans, retreating from Warsaw, are falling back west and southwest toward the Silesian frontier. As the German troops from Warsaw and taken today. It is claimed that the French not only captured the guns of the invaders, but have brought up a number of 75 millimetre pieces and succeeded in shelling the Germans as they fall back.

ALLIES MAKE FURTHER GAINS. The following official communication was issued by the French War Office this evening: "Between the North Sea and the Oise the attacks made today by the Germans have been less violent than those of yesterday."

"In Belgium we have progressed at the south of Dinuzde and at the south of Ghelavet, and we have maintained all our other positions."

"In the region of the Aisne a violent German offensive between Braye-en-Lançois and Vailly has completely failed."

SLIGHT PROGRESS REPORTED. The official statement of this afternoon says: "On our left wing, the German offensive continued yesterday with the same violence in Belgium and in the north of France, particularly between Dinuzde and the Lys. In this region, in spite of attacks and counter attacks on the part of the Germans, we made slight progress on almost the entire front, excepting at the Village of Messines, a part of which was again lost by the allied troops."

"The enemy undertook an important movement against the suburbs of Arras. This resulted in failure, as did other movements against Libons and Le Quency-en-Santerre."

"On the centre, in the region of the Aisne, we made slight progress in the direction of Tracy-le-Val, to the north of the forest of Aigle, as well as at certain points on the right bank of the Aisne between this forest and Soissons."

"At Amont-de-Vailly an attack directed against those of our troops who are in possession of the heights on the right bank of the Aisne also resulted in failure. The same outcome attended several night attacks delivered on the heights on the highway Des Dames."

RHEIMS AGAIN BOMBARDED. "In the region of Rheims, between the Argonne and the Meuse, and on the heights of the Meuse, there was noticed yesterday a recrudescence of activity on the part of the enemy's heavy artillery. The bombardment of these pieces, however, did not show any appreciable result."

"On our right wing an offensive movement of reconnaissance by the enemy on Nomeny was repulsed."

"In the Vosges, in addition to the fact that we have recaptured the heights which dominate Mount Sainte Marie, we have made progress in the region of Bam de Sapt, where we occupy the positions from which the artillery of the enemy has been bombarding the Town of St. Die."

GERMANS OCCUPY MESSINES. German army headquarters issued the following this forenoon: "In our attacks on Ypres further ground has been gained, and Messines has been occupied by us."

"In the fighting in the Argonne, some successful forward movements have been made, and the enemy suffered severe loss."

"In the eastern theatre the situation is unchanged. Russian attempts to break thru near Teutleben failed."

NINE MORE OFFICERS KILLED. A casualty list received from headquarters today under date of Oct. 28 gives the names of nine officers killed and fourteen wounded. Among those wounded is Lieut.-Col. H. L. Richardson of the 47th Sikhs, an Indian regiment.

BULGARIA MOBILIZES SECOND LINE. A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Rome says: "A message received here from Sofia says that Bulgaria has ordered the mobilization of her second line of troops. The first line troops already have been mobilized."

TURKEY GIVEN FINAL CHANCE. It is understood here that the foreign office has given Turkey one last chance to disavow her intention of making war on the powers of the entente, but as much hope is expressed that she will respond to this chance to remain neutral.

This step was taken because the foreign office is not positive that its first note ever reached the Turkish Government. The advanced stage of the preparations of the Turkish ambassadors to depart from London was not permitted to operate against this final endeavor.

MARTIAL LAW IN EGYPT. Martial law was proclaimed today by Great Britain through Egypt. An official notification by the British charge d'affaires at Cairo was delivered to American diplomat agents. On orders from London the commander-in-chief of the British forces took command of the general situation with orders to suppress all outbreaks.

GERMANS DECISIVELY BEATEN. Switching the battle front to operations in Belgium, it is authoritatively stated that the German forces were decisively beaten in a series of violent assaults on the Franco-British front, from Dinuzde to the River and after losing thousands as the result of especially accurate French artillery fire, the French and British turned them back with the bayonet.

Despite all hammering the Germans continue to hold positions on the allied side of the Yser and are stubbornly contesting every effort to push them back. The cutting of the dykes by the Belgians has effectively stopped any effort of the enemy to advance further. All of the fields in the country bounded by Ninport and Dinuzde are under several feet of water and Belgian troops, supported by their own very effective artillery and numerous batteries from the French and British armies, are posted along the railroad and electric road embankments, on the high ground and every high spot of ground. To advance, the Germans must come up narrow routes a few feet wide. Such a target as their masses would offer in operations of this character could mean nothing less than utter annihilation for the foe.

FOUR MILES FROM OSTEND. West of Ninport to the coast, the country is free of Germans and the allied fleet continues to frustrate every effort of the Kaiser's men to pierce this country. It is said on good authority that the allied are now within four miles of Ostend and can take that town at their leisure, as it is defended by only a handful of the foe.

A courier bearing despatches to the Duke of Wurtemberg, from the Kaiser, has been captured. Under Ypres was taken by November 1, said the German war lord, the invaders must fall back. He bid the duke exert every means within his power to carry the town.

The communique of the Belgian Government, issued from Havre, lays stress on the fact that the German army has been surrounded, Ypres, Roulers and Thourout. The Belgians also rejoice over the compulsory evacuation by the Germans of Hamcapelle, which they held in part. Many prisoners were taken and the statement, and the Germans throw back an important railway line.

LILLE MAY BE EVACUATED. The outskirts of Arras were reached today by an advancing column of the foe before a heroic charge drove them back several miles. Bloody conflicts have taken place around Lille, which appears to have been vacated by the Germans. The situation is very confused in this region and Lille can be accurately told. Following a previous defeat at Amont-de-Vailly the French have won a success of considerable importance.

This town is on the northern side of the River Aisne. Ground has also been won by the French in the neighborhood of Tracy-le-Val and between Soissons and the forest Aigle. All of these points are on the line having reached a low ebb during the Flanders campaign. The fighting here was again under bombardment today. French artillery repulsed so vigorously that the invaders did not attempt an infantry attack. The city suffered only slightly.

VICTORY OF MUCH VALUE. North of the Meuse, French forces have driven the Germans further back. To the east, around Ban de Sapt, a number of high points have been taken depriving the Germans of artillery bases that commanded several towns, including St. Die. This is regarded as a victory of much value.

A despatch to Washington from Henry Albert Johnson, American consul-general to Belgium, advises his government that he has left Ostend for Ghent, and ordered the consulate that he has left Ostend would indicate that fighting on the coast is extremely severe and that all Americans in Belgium are retiring to the interior. The most significant line in the despatch is that the consul general is going to Ghent where he will "be safe, but without communication." This would lead to the belief that Ghent is isolated. The message was sent from Fluis, Holland, carried there by courier from Ostend.

HEAVY GERMAN DEFEAT REPORTED. A despatch from Amsterdam says that contrary to all reports, Ostend and Roulers are still in the hands of the Germans. It is reported, the despatch adds, that the allies yesterday occupied Steffinghe, on the Ostend-Ninport Canal, which, if true, means that the Germans suffered a heavy defeat.

A strong detachment of German troops with heavy Austrian guns and much war material arrived at Bruges yesterday from Ghent. Fresh troops are going uninterceptedly to the front.

CANADIANS MAY SOON BE IN LINE

They Expect to Be Sent to Belgium in a Few Weeks.

NOT MUCH SPARE TIME

Everyone is Kept Busy Drilling and Preparing for Winter.

By John A. MacLaren, one of the World's Staff Reporters with the Canadian Expeditionary Force. SALISBURY, Eng., Oct. 21.—On an immense plateau 15 miles from the ancient cathedral town, the Canadians are today waging sham warfare. For two months they will be in the actual fight. There are no more classes. The last shouts of greeting and hearty responses have been heard. The people of Plymouth and other points in this section of England have given the Canadians a warm welcome, one that was inevitable. Now the troops are encamped 12 or more miles from any town and are not in an isolated section of the country's greatest manoeuvring grounds. Except for a Territorial regiment some distance to the north, there are not soldiers but those from Canada to be seen in the locality. The Canadian division is a separate unit, being treated separately and will go to the front as such. They are now in the hands of an Imperial officer—Major-General Alderson—and are being whipped into proper fighting shape as an army division. Outside of this division there are just two units—the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry and the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery. These are not embraced with the others but they will go to France or Belgium, it is understood, at the same time.

Men Are Needed Now. If you should ask any officer of high standing when the Canadians will see the theatre of war, he will undoubtedly indulge in guessing. No one appears to know. It seems to depend entirely on the readiness of the troops. They are usually taken over by the war office, but much training is essential before they will see active service. All sorts of opinions are bandied about as to the probable date of departure, some say two months, others three months or next spring. The fact that the new recruits are not yet in the making and is scheduled to leave in the winter, according to the general belief, gives cause for a similar opinion with respect to the date of departure.

This was in reality the first day of the camp. The troops are all here. The roads were lined with them from morning till night. It had taken five days to unload the transports at Plymouth, from where the train was taken to Salisbury. The train consisted of 100 soldiers, 100 mules, 100 pack animals, 100 horses, 100 wagons, 100 trucks, 100 ambulances, 100 field guns, 100 machine guns, 100 mortars, 100 howitzers, 100 anti-aircraft Romance in Every Place Except Where You Are

BY WINIFRED BLACK

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

THEY'VE just come back from their motor trip, and the two women, and the boy, and the girl, and the dog, and the motor trunk, and the motor, and the motor, and the motor...

The man talks about the road; it was smooth here and it was rough there; it was safe in that place and dangerous in this locality.

He ran out of it in the Berkshire, and borrowed some at Lenox, he bought some in Bar Harbor, and lent some in the White Mountains. Most people were very decent about it, but the road hogs were terrible everywhere—in one part of the country worse than the other.

The man talks about the gasoline, too. He ran out of it in the Berkshire, and borrowed some at Lenox, he bought some in Bar Harbor, and lent some in the White Mountains.

Next summer, I suppose, the little farm girl will stand at the gate and look wistfully at the automobiles as they whiz past, and wish she was a rich little girl and could take a long trip in one of them.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 3.

The Financial Nightmare of the United States.

What The World has been saying about the financial situation in the United States, especially with reference to railway securities and the unfortunate plight of the insurance companies, the banks and the universities that are loaded up with them...

"In the strained conditions which prevail in Europe," says President Ripley, "it is altogether likely that, as soon as our exchanges are open, European investors will seek to return us large quantities of our securities. Who will buy them? Why should anybody buy them since our own congress has said in effect that they are secondary in security to bonds of municipalities or states? If there are no buyers there will be no price. Picture to yourself the result of a flood of securities on the market and no buyers."

What will be the effect on the savings banks, insurance companies, colleges—all fiduciary and benevolent institutions, whose assets consist largely in railway securities? With a shrinkage of values of unknown size, they will be practically bankrupt."

Of course the Santa Fe president does not admit that the roads are themselves to blame; that they were robbed and looted in every way that Wall Street bankers and Wall Street brokers could devise. He glides quickly over the looting of the New Haven by the late J. P. Morgan and his associates, and the scandalous manipulation which has recently come to light in connection with the Rock Island and Frisco. He does not mention the fact that every road now in the hands of a receiver was placed there by the dishonesty of men on the inside. On the contrary he is inclined to blame congress or the Interstate Commerce Commission. But at any rate Mr. Ripley clearly perceives that:

The present situation cannot last. It may almost be said to have broken down already, and talk of fixing the government ownership as being the only recourse is getting more and more common.

To avoid government ownership, which seems to be the only way to prevent the absolute ruin of the railways and with them all the great institutions holding their securities, Mr. Ripley proposes a co-ordination and consolidation under government supervision and control. With much that he has to propose we agree in part. The problem of the railway world today is how best to avoid duplication and wasteful expenditure. There is no doubt but that the cost of railway service could be cut in two on this continent by the unification of systems and management. "Every night," we are told, "five magnificent trains leave Chicago for Kansas City, each train carries over modern devices for the comfort of passengers, and not one of them is loaded to its capacity. Six trains leave Chicago for Omaha nightly and five for St. Paul, and of all of them the same may be said. Probably one of these trains—certainly two of them—would amply care for all the business and a great saving would result from discontinuing the other four. This is only one instance of what could be accomplished by co-ordination, which by the way is forbidden by law."

Of course the cure for this waste of energy is to be found in government ownership and operation. Mr. Ripley seeks to find a half-way house where he intines private ownership with government control. He would group the railways much as the banks are grouped into regional districts. The ordinary administration he would have confided to a board of directors, some appointed by the government and some by the stockholders, but the supreme control to be in the government.

Finally he would have the government indemnify the stockholders of the various roads for any decrease in net earnings occasioned by the consolidation; the government, he assumes, would risk nothing because the total net earnings of the group would show an enormous increase. The plan, if carried out, could only lead to government ownership, but that it should be proposed by a railway president is interesting. To quote:

Suppose the government should say to each of the lines serving certain territory: We will guarantee that your net earnings for the next five years shall not be less than the average for the last five, and you shall also be guaranteed six per cent. on any additions and betterments which (with our consent) may be made on the property. In return we demand one or more seats on your board and the power of absolute veto upon any act or proposed act which we consider deleterious to the community or otherwise improper.

Would not this give us all the admitted benefits of common control, all the economies incident to common ownership, and at the same time protect the rights of the public? Would it not do away with the enormous waste of the competitive system and permit the business to follow the line of least resistance, with the result of lessened expense and probably lower rates? Who would be injured by it? Would anybody lose by it?

Suppose the establishment of railway "groups," somewhat after the manner of "regional reserve banks"—each group governed by a board of directors, in which the government may be fully represented. Suppose all unnecessary train service be dispensed with, all ticket and freight solicitors and their offices eliminated, with the consequent expense. Would not net earnings be at once improved and the guaranty of the government as to once rendered safe? Would not the result be the immediate restoration of confidence? I do not belittle the difficulty of such an arrangement, and I realize that everything would depend on the men selected for such control.

Near a Business Settlement

To commence a suit between the Provincial and the City Hydro Commissions even on the friendliest basis would have been arrant nonsense. There was no need of the legal brain of Controller Church to take such a professional view of the situation. It would only have resulted in strutting up bad blood where there have been sufficient attempts in that direction already. The friction which has been supposed to exist between the two commissions has been largely fictional, and while fictional friction may be useful campaign material it does not really advance the business interests of the people, who are concerned to have the business of the hydro system run with as much attention to business principles and as little to political interests as possible.

As far as can be learned considerable advances have been made in settling the various questions over which there was a difference of opinion. Differences of opinion can only exist in the absence of definite knowledge of facts. It has been the aim of the city commission to get down to a bed-rock basis of fact in regard to the actual business condition of the city system, with exact information about unit costs, and everything else of this nature which would make it possible to say what ought to be done on the general question of rates. Progress has been made, not by thrashing out hypothetical legal points, but by getting the figures on paper, and by calculations of profit and loss, of expense and cost. These are matters of business and engineering and they will be solved by the engineers of the commissions.

Not an "Off Year"

We can scarcely agree with The Toronto Globe that this is the "off year" in American politics. The election today will determine to a large extent the fate and future of the Wilson administration. If it goes against the government the inference will be fairly warranted that the people of the United States want to go back to a high tariff, and are inclined to say that big business should not further be interfered with by the government. The issue is squarely drawn between progressive and reactionary ideas; whichever prevail today will have the inside track in the presidential race.

It is true that the president can veto bills passed by a hostile congress, but on the other hand, such a congress can flout all his recommendations. It would mean for the United States something like the deadlock which has prevailed between the two houses at Ottawa. Moreover, if the congressional elections go against the administration, it is more than likely that the president and his party will be defeated two years hence. The congressional elections of 1882, 1890 and 1910 give warning.

The "off year" is the year after the presidential contest, when national issues are seldom discussed, and there are no elections for either the senate or the house of representatives. Congressional elections are always important, and if we are not interested it is because the war has engrossed our attention to the exclusion of almost everything else. Indeed, the war news has pretty well crowded out politics in the United States papers. But the election is an important one for all that and should it go against the government—which we think unlikely—may have consequences of far reaching importance.

Turkey and the War

Turkey seems to be in two minds regarding participation in the war that now convulses Europe. German money has no doubt been active among the venal politicians that have made Turkish rule a by-word and reproach, but it is also evident that there are in Constantinople some holders of high office who realize that intervention is more apt to be a losing than a winning venture. Germany has long had a covetous eye on Asia Minor and has already obtained vast concessions from the government. The Baghdad Railroad was only one of many, but owing to its bearing on the situation in the Persian Gulf, it attracted more attention and led to protracted negotiations between the German and British governments.

While the British peoples are confident that there can be but one issue to the war, neutral countries whose interests are closely involved must consider every one of the possible results. Even from this standpoint Turkey appears to be ill-advised in linking its future with that of the power that has committed itself to "domination or downfall." Russia is no doubt sincere in welcoming the opportunity to have the problem of Eastern Europe settled at a time when it may be able to exert a determining influence. But Britain and France, controlling, as they do, large Mohammedan populations, can hardly view the action of Turkey with the same equanimity.

INDIFFERENT?

John Ottam of London has written an "open letter to the American people" in which he upbraids them with indifference, and says, in part: "Under the Stars and Stripes shall a hundred million free people, with resources unlimited, remain indifferently neutral while a sister republic is being crushed and bled, whose blood and treasure was freely poured to help America in her time of need? Is the recipient of that aid, the premier republic of the world, to remain indifferent while the very existence of free peoples is in the balance? In America continue merely to look on while other nations yield to their lives, not for their land or power or money, not for their own freedom, so long enjoyed, but for the freedom of less fortunate peoples, some well-nigh exterminated, and others threatened with the sad fate of that little nation, still, thank God, fighting valiantly, whose homes have just been pulped ground by a tyrant's iron heel, whose people were wiped off their own little spot of earth and all but annihilated by the irresistible hell machine of a scientific, Satanic autocracy?" "Consider not America's loss in treasure, already hundreds of millions yearly, caused indirectly by this war."

WINTER TOURIST TRIPS TO SOUTHERN STATES

are becoming more popular every year, largely owing to the increased transportation facilities and modern luxurious equipment, making the journey to California, Florida and other resorts a pleasure instead of a hardship. With one change of cars you can travel from almost any point on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway to your destination in the Sunny South, and the flowers bloom and warm balmy breezes blow. Meals served in dining cars make it unnecessary to leave the train, and the service is an education, and it is delightful away from the everyday grind, the strenuous life, to mingle with successful, happy people, and, besides, it pays. Round trip tickets are issued by the Grand Trunk Railway at exceptionally low fares, giving choice of all the best routes, via Chicago, Detroit or Buffalo. Fast trains are run daily from Toronto, carrying electric-lighted Pullman sleeping cars, dining and parlor-library cars and through trains for the south, etc. Before deciding on your trip, ask Grand Trunk ticket agents for full particulars. TEACHERS TO BE PAID WHILE IN THE RANKS

Board of Education Will Follow the Lead of the City Council.

High and public school teachers and salaried members of the medical, clerical and medical departments of the Toronto Board of Education who go to the front as members of any of the Canadian contingents will be paid on the same basis as officials and employees of the city council who join the colors. Chairman Brown of the finance committee was authorized yesterday afternoon to ascertain officially exactly what was being done by the city council, and to make arrangements for the board of education to pay on the same basis. Lieut. E. B. Kernish, senior third grade teacher of Jesse Ketchum School, who is going to the front with the 24th Wellington Rifles, was presented yesterday with a sword and belt by the school, and a service cap by the members of his own class. At the morning recess the pupils held a patriotic demonstration in the assembly hall, where the presentations were made. Appropriate addresses were made by Inspector Armstrong and Principal Kirk. "Rule Britannia" was sung and cheers given for the King, the allies and Lieut. Kernish.

ARCHBISHOP SANG MASS FOR SOLDIERS KILLED

Devout Congregation Attended Yesterday Morning at Service in St. Michael's Cathedral.

His Grace Archbishop McNeil sang solemn requiem high mass yesterday morning at 8.30 in St. Michael's Cathedral for the souls of the soldiers killed in the war. The church was filled with a devout congregation. A large number of young men from the high school were present. The assistants at the ceremony were Right Rev. Monsignor M. D. Whelan, high priest; Father Pennington, deacon; Father O'Brien, sub-deacon, and Fathers McCrae and Bonner, deacons of honor. The musical portion of the mass was sung by a full choir, and at the conclusion the "Dead March in Saul" was played. His grace the archbishop gave the absolution. The interior of the cathedral was suitably draped in black. Similar services took place yesterday in the churches all thru the diocese. The number of Irish Catholic soldiers with the colors, and at present on the firing line, is over 30,000, with nearly 35,000 at present in training, according to the statement of Rev. Father Bonner yesterday.

HYDROLOGICAL CORPS DRAWS CIVIL SERVICES

Health Department Will Supply Two Captains and a Major—Inspection of Water.

One of the military organizations which is receiving support from the civil service departments at Queen's Park is the hydrological corps, which will be officered to a large extent by men of medical experience drawn from the department of health. Dr. McCullough, chief officer of health, and Sanitary Engineer Dailly will serve as captains, and Dr. Wodehouse of the northern district, as major. This is the organization with which Dr. Naasmith of Toronto has enrolled, and the direct purpose is to ensure a good quality of drinking water to Canadian forces which go to the continent. "Men from every age are now sacrificing their courses of lives in the birth-agonies of a greater parliament to give freedom to all lands and to all people; to create a congress whose decree no Kaiser nor no nation dare oppose, and in whose earth-wide edicts no force shall permanently prevail, save only the sweet persuasion of a just cause. "And when men by millions dedicate themselves to war for such a cause, shall it be said that the United States of America stood aside, indifferent and neutral?"

IS NOT A GERMAN.

Editor World: To correct a false and lately persistent rumor as to the nationality of the Hamburg family I explain, the insertion of which will be much appreciated by me. Our family originally came from Yorkshire, South Russia, and settled in London, England 25 years ago; shortly after which I and my family became British subjects. I feel it my duty to point this out at the present time owing to the general American feeling now prevalent. Apropos I may also say that Mark Hamburg, the pianist, brought suit for libel against The London Daily Bulletin for insinuating him a German subject. The case was decided in London last week and he was awarded $2500 damages and costs. Michael Hamburg.

SOCIETY
Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

Owing to the death of Prince Maurice of Battenberg, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught did not attend the luncheon at the Chateau Laurier on Saturday under the auspices of the Daughters of the Empire. Government House was represented by Miss Dorothy York and Captain Hon. P. Leigh.

Major Sir Edward Worthington, medical officer to H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, who has just returned to England from Ottawa, was married quietly on Saturday to Winnifred Jean, only daughter of the late Mr. John Wallace of Dunblane, Scotland, immediately afterwards leaving on active service.

The president and council of the Royal Canadian Institute have issued invitations to the 1914-15 in the physics building, University of Toronto, at 8 p.m. There will be addresses by the president, Mr. Frank Arnold, K.C., and Mr. Raymond H. Bacon, Ph.D., director of the Mellon Inst., University of Pittsburgh, on "Advantages of Co-operation Between Universities and Industries in Industrial Research," which will be in reception by the president and council.

A grand patriotic demonstration will be given under the auspices of the Empire Club of Canada in the Massey Hall on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. There will be an illustrated lecture on "The Royal Navy" by Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P., Montreal.

The Hon. the Premier of Ontario, the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and Sir George E. Foster will speak. The National Chorus, under Dr. Ham, Mus. Doc., will give a concert.

Mrs. Alfred H. Chapman, Roxborough street, received for the first time since her marriage, when she was looking exceedingly well in rose satin with tulle and coral, and with a diamond necklace. Mrs. Alfred Chapman, who received with her daughter-in-law, was a very lovely woman, over 50 years of age, with a face that was most artistically arranged, with tall waves of exquisite, autumn leaves and chrysantheums. The most beautiful part of it being the large music rack in the basement, which looked out on the Roseville Ravine drive, and was lit by a silver bowl of tiny yellow chrysantheums. Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Monroe covered with real pearls, and were accompanied by Miss Maude Hirschfelder, Miss Jennifer and Miss Hazel Chapman, the latter looking very pretty in black, with real lace on the corsage.

Miss Ardagh and Mr. Somerville gave a very successful fancy dress dance at the preparatory school, Upper Canada College, on Tuesday evening. The women who wore the most taking costumes and marched in to the music of "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" were Misses: an excellent John Bull, Dutch girl, professor, Pierrot's clown, etc. The supper table was decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkin lanterns and flags. The supper table was decorated with a pyramid of flowers, with leaves and crackers. There were beautiful music, dances and a variety of 100 young people present found the evening only too short.

The president and officers of the Political Equality League have issued invitations to a banquet on Wednesday, Nov. 4, at the W.A.A. Ballroom, Jarvis street, at 8 o'clock.

The first (will) musicals of the Women's Musical Association takes place this afternoon in the galleries, Jarvis street. The program has been arranged by the committee.

Dr. Alfred Ham, first vice-president, has extended a hearty invitation to Mrs. A. E. Goddard, president of the Y. O. E. and to the officers and members of the order to attend the grand patriotic demonstration at Massey Hall this evening. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of Daughters of the Empire to hear the address of Mrs. H. B. Ames and the patriotic concert rendered by the National Chorus.

Mrs. R. P. Gough, Crescent road, was the hostess yesterday afternoon of a very delightful party of fourteen tables in aid of the W.A.A. Bazaar, which takes place in Old Knox College on the 19th inst. The party was most enjoyable and the prizes were a beautiful hot milk can and a pair of boots. The hostess wore a lovely dress and most becoming gown of rose satin and fine black lace with autumn ornaments. Mrs. James O'Neill, who assisted her, wore an exquisite shade of orchid mauve satin and chignon, with diamonds and a large black plumed velvet hat. The tables were arranged in a drawing room and library, with tea in the beautiful dining room, where the polished table was covered with real pearls and a silver bowl of pale mauve and white chrysantheums and ferns. Mrs. Michael Healy and Mrs. Leona O'Neill, who assisted her, wore lovely dresses. The girls assisting were: Miss Kathleen, Miss Helen, Miss Hackett, Miss Helen, Miss Leona, Miss Hackett, Mrs. C. Davies, Mrs. Ingila, Mrs. Edward Paulde, Mrs. Applegath, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. C. Davies, Mrs. Ingila, Mrs. Nerlich, Mrs. Phelan, Mrs. Cochrane, Mrs. Helen Merrill, 4 Prince Arthur avenue.

MACDIARMID ADDRESSED TORONTO OF WARD FOUR

New List of Officers Elected at Meeting in Broadway Hall.

The annual meeting of the Ward Four Conservative Association was held last night in Broadway Hall, where about five hundred members had congregated. W. H. Smith was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year. George W. Sweny will be first vice-president and James Hozack and J. M. Grant second and third vice-presidents respectively. The new secretary-treasurer is Russell McNeatbit and J. D. Bailey is financial secretary. Charles Garunkel is treasurer.

The guest of the evening was the Hon. Finlay Macdiarmid, minister of public works. He spoke of the aims of the new government under Premier Hearst, and told what he hoped to accomplish in his new position. Several members welcomed him and assured the members that now the minister had come to live in their riding he would be heard from often. E. W. J. Owens, in a rousing speech, stated that he hoped the war would continue until the German empire was dismembered. The citizens, he said, should not forget those who had been left behind, and he was proud of the showing that this province had made in giving donations to the fund. He hoped that the men who had taken the jobs of doing out this money would realize their responsibility and see that everyone had enough.

George Goetzman, M.L.A., thanked his hearers for their support in former elections, but did not commit himself to a campaign for the mayoralty. Claude Macdonell, M.P., and Hon. Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., also addressed the meeting.

STOLE CABLE.
John Casey, no home, was arrested last night for stealing a portion of a cable, the property of the Toronto Electric Light Company. Casey was unloading coal in the Scott street dock when the night watchman saw him steal the cable.

PURSE SNATCHER REMANDED.
Alex. Peak was remanded for a week in the police court yesterday on a charge of snatching a purse from a young woman while riding on a Dundas street car near Spadina avenue on Saturday.

Larned's Great History of the World

Now offered almost as a gift by

THE TORONTO WORLD

TO ITS READERS

The Battle That Put Canada on the Map is Illustrated in Larned's History By a Full-Page Reproduction of a Great Historical Painting:

"The Battle of Teutoburger Forest"

Augustus Caesar sent one day three legions of his veterans under Quintillus Varus into Teutonia Land. "Go, scourge me those yellow-bearded barbarians!" he cried; "Come back a conqueror, or show me never your face again!" So forth fared Roman Varus into deep and narrow valleys, through dark and fearsome woods, o'er steep and rugged mountains traversed by icy torrents, till he came to the dark shadows of the Teutoburger Wald. Deep within the forest waited him young Herman, chief of the Cheruscan Saxons, who, when that morning sun's first rays glided the glittering lance and gleaming armor of the Roman soldier, kissed farewell his bride, sweet-lipped, Brunhilde—and went his way into that day's fierce fighting.

Farther and farther into the wilderness of giant trees, with their gnarled and knotted trunks, marching beneath thick shade of leaf and dappled sunlight, would the sinuous army of Varus, like some huge Mithrad Serpent, slithering along in quest of prey.

And now came swamps and marshes sunken and sodden with flood-time waters to stop the march of men weighted with weapons and heavy armor. Nor could they go to right or left for that there came such blinding showers of spear and dart, and fendish faces and flaming beards and wild savage eyes that glowed with hate. And then passed word from rank to rank that all the wild barbaric host were in their rear, hacking and heaving and cutting like lions; and that none escaped.

Came a little island once more with firm footing and fast, and here huddled together the Roman legionaries and made last stand— all armed with helmet, cuirass, greaves and shield. In vain they hurled their heavy javelins; futile and of no use their short sharp swords. And when at last the angry Teuton gods opened their gates of heaven and down-poured the waters of their wrath upon the invading host—they could make no more fight.

And now was heard the ringing Saxon shout through the forest gloom. Pierce Hermann pressed through the fray into its thick and cheered his comrades on, and bade them to the finish. Then Varus strove no more. Bleeding still greater with defeat of shame, he fell upon his sword, and his ghost passed on. And when the news came to Rome, as in good time it did, Augustus Caesar, in grief and great despair, cried out: "O Varus, Varus, give me back my legions!"

And had brave Hermann not won the fight in Teutoburger Forest that fearful day, there would have been no England—not even the name it did. Augustus Caesar, an Adrian upon whose people and whose tongue there is no sun that sets—of all our hundred-million could not now count one living soul.

Plank Has Fat Offer From Federal League—Connie Roasts Jennings.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Local baseball circles were deeply stirred over the announcement that Manager Mack had asked for waivers on his three veteran pitchers—Bender, Plank and Coombs—the truth of which was confirmed by the tall leader of the Athletics. Incidentally, Mack paid his respects to Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit team, for allowing the news to reach the public. When asked if the statement was true that his veteran pitchers were to be allowed to waive, Mack said:

Who says some very uncomplimentary things about the Detroit manager for letting the cat out of the bag about the shift in the Athletics' pitching staff.

Win for Varsity Will Tie Up Intercollegiate—Argos Should Be Winners.

McGill play Varsity in the most important local fixture of the season at the Stadium on Saturday, on which practically all hinges the intercollegiate honors. A win for McGill will give them the championship, while if Varsity can down the flag-trained Montreals it will mean a tie-up and a play-off. U. of T. made a good showing at Kingston on Saturday and the dopsters will tell you that McGill found more trouble in disposing of the Presbyterians than did our own boys and give this as the reason why Varsity should win.

Argonauts should be alone at the head of the Big Four on Saturday night. The scullers travel to Ottawa for the weekend and it is only a case of filling in the schedule. Argonauts will win away off. Tigers go to Montreal and they will find that the M.A.A. outfit in Montreal is different from that of Saturday in Hamilton. Argonauts gave Argos their hardest game of the season in Montreal, and it was only in the last quarter, 2:52, that the osmen came on and won. If Montreal play up to the form they displayed against Argonauts in Montreal they will beat the Tigers.

Trinity Defeated in Mulock Cup Semi-Final by Big Score.

The Mulock Cup goes to the Medical College. Senior Meds defeated Trinity in the semi-final game yesterday, 25 to 1, and Junior Meds won the right to meet the winner of this game a week ago. The two six-hour outfits will meet on Thursday to see which is the better team. Meds beat Trinity through yesterday as the score would indicate. The doctors outplayed Trinity at every stage, and scored at will. Offside play was very much in evidence and even at this Meds had the defensive right from the start, and Dale kicked for two rouges early and Meds kicked for another, leaving 12 to 0 for Meds at quarter time. Meds booting over early in the second period, and Dale's booting added another 10 to 0. A try that was converted, a rouse from Dale's kicking, and a muffed ball behind the Trinity line resulted in another try to make it 22 to 0 at three-quarter time. Trinity's only point came from a rouse in the last round. Meds added two more tries and the final was 22 to 1. The Trinity (1): Flying wing, McClennahan; halves, Martin, Williams, Nicholson; quarters, Bronson; scrumhalf, Sprague, Boyd, DeFenestras, wings, Wilkie, Wallace, Kingston, Beaven, Smith, Be. Senior Meds (2): Flying wing, Shoultz; halves, Blaney, Dale, Armstrong; quarters, Brown; scrumhalf, McDougall, Finlayson; wings, McKinnis, Hill, Hill, Crawford.

STILL MORE FIGHTS FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

White v. Welsh and Clabby v. Chip Next Monday, U.S. Thanksgiving Day.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Nov. 9 is a real day for local boxing fans. Two fights of championship calibre will take place on that date, and in each is a fighter who has in his locality followed the White-Welsh go in Milwaukee will be of more interest to Chicago followers because of being staged in this vicinity, but out on the coast Jimmy Clabby and George 'Chip' will be making things for the middleweight crown, and all Chicago will be pulling hard for the Hammond boy to win.

Never before in the history of the fighting ring were there two such important bouts staged on the same night, excepting, of course, holidays. Fourth of July is a big day in the light game, and generally finds several champions battling to retain their crowns. There was no reason why Nov. 9 should be selected for these two fights, except that it was convenient for all parties concerned. That the western promoters should have chosen the same date is merely a coincidence.

In point of importance the coast fight has an edge on the Milwaukee one. Out there, there will be a championship at stake, and one of the principals, the law of Wisconsin prevent the rendering of a decision, hence there is not much chance of the lightweight division, experience has upheaval over the Welsh-White meeting. They will have to win via a knockout to gain the title, for no matter how much an advantage he gets over the Englishman he will not be recognized as the champion unless Welsh is actually floor-

The two divisions of the fight floor which will be represented that day are in a tight place, especially the middleweight class. These two bouts may go a long way toward clearing up the winners, but there is a better chance of making them more mixed. Clabby and Chip will claim the crown, so will Billy McGeer, Mike Gibbons and Billy Murray, who the latter lost to Chip recently. The Gibbons because of his lower weight (115) is really a welter, there are but McGeer and Murray left of these ten. The latter is a better claim to the title. The winner of the Nov. 9 will have to beat Eddie before he can claim the crown is clear.

In the lightweight section three boys are in the ring, Fred Heiser, Freddie Charley White and Willie Ritchie. White is wearing the crown by virtue of a 50-round point decision over Ritchie, while Heiser's claim lies in the fact that he trimmed the former champion in a decisive manner in ten rounds. Ritchie claims he was not beaten by Welsh in his recent fight, and his assertions are borne out by many critics who saw the go.

This much is certain, were decisions permitted in Milwaukee last year, Fred Welsh would not be champion now, for the title would have passed into the hands of White. On top of it all there is a big crowd of fans coming from the top-notchers, and for that reason are claiming recognition. Johnny Dundee is attempting to come back, and his efforts has to be receded by another good boy who has a good account of himself against the 132-pounder.

Passing these boys up for being nothing but high-class runners-up, which is all they really are, especially the latter, but Ritchie, Welsh and White remain none the less, and their championship belongs to this trio, with the advantage resting with White and Welsh.

STREET LIGHTING IN THE TOWNSHIP

Deputation From Runnymede Complains of Present Arrangement.

CITY TO SUPPLY WATER

Estimate Being Made of Cost of Mains North to Eglinton Avenue.

I. C. Woodner appeared before the York Township Council yesterday regarding the lighting of Runnymede. He pointed out that the city hydro had installed lights in the district for domestic purposes but would not light the streets, and he claimed that the Toronto Commission should not be allowed to sell power in Runnymede under these conditions.

Reeve's Explanation. Reeve explained that he wished to relieve the council of any responsibility in the matter, as it had done its utmost to solve the lighting problem for the whole town.

Falling an agreement being made a by-law would be prepared and submitted to the people on January 1 to enable the council to secure power from a private company or place it in a position to deal directly with the Hydro Commission.

Water Supply. Referring to the action of the Runnymede residents for a water supply, Reeve stated that the city was in a position to supply water to the whole township but it was thought that new mains would have to be laid, and in that case the township would have to pay part of the cost.

ETOBICOKE TRUSTEES SUED BY CONTRACTOR. Claims Balance Due on Building Contract - Trustees Charge Negligence.

George Sainsbury, a contractor, sued the trustees of Etoobicoke school No. 5, Denton, for $680 as balance due him on his contract of 1913 for the building of a school. The defendants entered counter claim for $1440. The building was to be completed according to specifications by Sept. 30, 1913, but was not ready until the end of October. For this delay the trustees claim $815 and also $25 for fuel. Because of the negligent manner in which the work was done, they counter-claim $1000. Witnesses appeared for both sides at the trial and gave evidence as to the condition of the building. Judge Denison estimated this at $600 and another witness stated that because the walls were not plumb he believed that only the foundation was worth anything. The case was adjourned until this morning.

WHEAT HIGHER ON BIG EXPORT SALES

Every Market in North America Seems Deluged With Orders.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Immense export sales, possibly the largest ever known, have the wheat market today an upward swing after a brief downward turn at the start.

Prices closed firm, 3/4c to 1/2c above Saturday night. Other leading staples, too, all secured a net advance.

Foreign exchange was more firm. English bank rates were again buyers of mercantile paper at 4 1/2c to 7 per cent.
