Editor World: Permit me an observation with regard to the much discussed use of the word "homage" by the administrator of Canada. Constitutional usage alone must be examined. It occurs for the first time in the English precedents in the reign of king Henry III., at whose crowning, in addition to the oath usually taken by all kings, to bear reverence and honor to God and to His holy church, and to do right and justice to all his people. "He did homage besides to the church of Rome and to Pope Innocent for his Kingdom of England and Ireland." Thereafter to the reign of Henry VIII. the use of the word "homage" became constitutional. The people did homage to the sovereign; the sovereign did homage to the pope. In the French constitutional references the word has exactly equivalent value. The administrator of Canada, as a lawyer, in framing his message to the pontifical ablegate, naturally looked into precedents, and employed the word which he found there, but which in present times is unconstitutional.

Canada and the National Policy

In the previous articles of this series, no attempt has been made to deal with the fiscal policy of Canada from the standpoint of any arbitrary theory. That seems the sane and sensible view which regards the fiscal system of any nation as primarily dependent on its special circumstances and the character of its national ideal. To ask that a country shall adopt either free trade or a protective tariff, irrespective of its position, the nature of its resources and the influence either may exert over the course of its growth appears to be without warrant. Even more unreasonable is the demand that having made its choice and one justified by results it should reverse its policy for purely hypothetical considerations.

Canada has prospered exceedingly under the National Policy, sanctioned by parliament in 1879. It did not embody high protection, but was and is properly a system of moderate and qualified protection, its principle being the selection "for a higher rate of duty of those articles which are manufactured or can be manufactured in this country, and to leave those that are neither made nor are likely to be made in the country at a low rate." That principle has been generally upheld for over thirty years, and without claiming in extravagant fashion that no other factors have co-operated in the marvelous expansion of the Dominion's industries and commerce it can confidently be described as one of the more important. Last week the figures were quoted showing the rapid increases in the values of manufactured products which, in the year 1906, the lat-est available, rose to the amount of $712,664,835. In 1905, there were four works producing $5,000,000 and over, altho in 1900 not one factory had reached that figure. These returns must now be greatly exceeded, and this extraordinary growth in manufactures has been accompanied by corresponding advances in external trade. Between 1873 and 1893 the total trade of the Dominion increased $30,-000,000; between 1833 and 1907 it advanced by $365,000,000. Canada now ranks third among the nations of the world in the ratio of trade to population, its foreign trade totaling, for the year ending March 31; 1909, $559,718,116. This was a considerable drop from the total of 1908, $638,435,222, accounted for by the world-wide depression, which was felt more severely in the autumn and winter of the latter year and the spring of 1909. The deficiency, however, has been more than retrieved by the general revival of trade, in which Canada has fully shared.

Fruit of Moderate Protection.

All this remarkable increase in industry and commerce has happened under the moderate protection afforded by the National Policy. It has given the Dominion, with its 7,000,000 population, a very high place internationally, and this in turn has given its government securities and industrial flotations a measure of credit in financial centres ranking with that of countries in a much more advanced stage of development. The same national policy has been largely instruthe ain encouraging and maintaining the healthy national spirit which is determined to utilize the natural resources of the country for the upbuilding of national industries. Even Canadian free traders have approved and supported the provincial policy that compels pulp-wood cut on government lands to be manufactured into paper within province. A restriction of this kind simply effects what a qualified protective tariff is intended to accomplish—the encouragement of local manufactures for which the country is naturally adapted.

Another point where Canadian free trade theorists contradict

tective tariff because they say it raises prices by the amount of the duty. This is another assertion that does not stand the test of actual comparison between free trade Britain and some protected countries. This, however, is not the point in hand, which is that Canadian free traders have declared themselves opposed to the unrestricted im-

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Sept. 16.-(Special.) -After being offered substantial inducements by several railroads to postpone his trip thru the Whirlpoo Rapids in a motor boat from to-morrow till Sunday, Capt. Whether or Not to Assist New Electric Radial Route is the Problem Which Has Earnest, Public-minded Citizens of Different Minds-A Review of the Facts.

GUELPH, Sept. 16 .- (Staff Special.) Two bylaws are to be submitted to the ratepayers on the 26th inst. in the ratepayers on the 26th inst. in connection with the proposal to grant certain privileges to the People's Railway. There is very little difference of opinion about the question in the city, but some opposition has been voiced by Acting Mayor Rudd and Add. McMiMan, and Ald. Penfold and Mahney have some doubts about the terms of the agreement. It is intended to issue debentures to the amount of $85,000 for preferred stock in the People's Railway. The debentures are to bear interest at 4 1-2 per cent.

The railway is said to have had a remantic origin in the incident of a young man having visited a particular friend at Plattsville and having been snowed up, when the convenience of a trolley car was commented upon. The People's Railway is to run from Berlin to Guelph, from Guelph to the Village of Arthur by way of Elora and Fergus, and, by arrangement with the Guelph Radial Railway, from Guelph to Hespeler and Puslinch Lake. Guelph has been feeling the competition of other communities which have trolley comunication, and has lost a great deal of farm trade in consequence.

May Sidetrack Guelph.

It is believed that the new line will do much to rebuild the rural traffle, of which the city was a centre. of which the city was a centre. Without the assistance offered by Guelph, the People's Railway may be persuaded by Berlin to take another route which would sidetrack Guelph still more than at present. The line from Berlin by New Germany and Bloomingdale is to be completed by October, 1911, and the grading is to be ready by Dec. 31 next. Similar limitations are placed upon the construction of the other branches. It is provided that the first preference stock shall not exceed $3000 a mile, and the city not exceed $3000 a mile, and the ciwill get 6 per cent. on its subscriptio

Will Use Niagara Power.
Another point that appeals to the public ownership supporters is the fact that the new railway will use hydroelectric power, and the commission has promised, thru Hon. Adam Beck, to clectric power, and the commission has promised, thru Hon. Adam Beck, to give the city credit for all the power used by the railway. This will tend to reduce prices, not only for Guelph, but also for all other places on the hydro circuit. J. W. Lyon, president of the Guelph Radial Railway Board, is the strongest supporter of the new railway, and has taken great pains to have the agreement drawn in the city's railway, and has taken great pains to have the agreement drawn in the city's in terests. As many as 19 meetings have been held with this object. The old Sleeman agreement gave a franchise which permitted lines to be built on any or all the streets and lanes of the city, to carry passengers or freight at any hour of the day, and the company was to be free of taxes for twenty years, and have no payements to lay. Two more public shower baths, one who is highly pleased with the results

Use of Radial Tracks. The main objection of those opposed to the entrance of the railway to the city is that it should have been compelled to come in on the radial lines and pay for the privilege. This, however, would not have been feasible. The lines use different qualities of placetic current one being direct and electric current, one being direct and the other alternate. To run on the same lines it would be necessary to have a double wiring system, and this would involve great danger with a direct current of 500 volts so close to an alternating one of 6600. Besides, the rails would have to be relaid to accommodate the heavy cars of the new road. modate the heavy cars of the new road and other incidental expenses make the plan impracticable.

According to the arrangement made, the new line comes in on a private right of way, and only uses minor streets until it passes out on the only way possible by the Paisley-road. The company will have to pay taxe on all property. They must pave the streets used over the tracks and 18 inches on each side. They must shovel and cart away snow on city engineer's instructions. They must give running riights to the city railway. They must give running rights to any other railway on order of the provincial railway board. They agree to lease the Pusthe plan impracticable.

migration of eastern labor. But cheap eastern labor means cheaper production and cheaper prices, and, on the theory that cheap prices are a national benefit, its entry should be encouraged, not impeded. No doubt there are other objections to the importation into Canada of an alien population that cannot be assimilated, but if cheap prices are to be refused on this or any similar ground it is an admission that they are not sufficient of themselves to control the national fiscal. policy. And this at once opens the way for arguments grounded on the national advantage accruing from the encouragement of industries for which the Dominion is naturally fitted.

The Movement for Revision It must be remembered that the movement for a revision of the Canadian tariff does not come from the supporters of the National Policy. The World is not and has never been in favor of excessive protection or of duties higher than are necessary to enable Canadian manufacturers to compete on equal terms with importers that have the advantage of cheaper labor or are able to dump their surplus products at less than market prices. To this latter species of attack Canada is neculiarly open, and United States manufacturers have been perfectly frank in admitting that they sell abroad for any price they can get. Had the Canadian market been opened to the free importation of United States manufactures, native industries could not have been developed in the manner they have under the National Policy. Were the measure of protection now afforded to be withdrawn, Canadian industries could not remain unaffected. Many would be practically destroyed, and the large and increasing industrial population compelled to find work elsewhere.

This is not an idle and groundless assertion. Canadian manufacturers cannot possibly compete with rivals enjoying a very large and profitable home market and ready to dispose of their surplus products at any prices they can get or that will enable them to drive their competitors out of business. If the protection afforded by the National colicy is removed, Canada will simply become to the United States manufacturers a source whence to obtain the raw material she can so abundantly supply. Ultimately the Dominion could only become an appendage to the United States, paying in the products of the soil, the mine and the forest for the manufactured articles it needs.

Has Brought New Industries. Not only has the National Policy been instrumental in building up native industries, but it has compelled United States manufacturers to erect branch establishments in Canada. The capital invested in this way is very large. An article appearing in November of last year, compiled after careful investigation by The Monetary Times, gave a list of 168 United States companies operating within the Dominion, with a total capital of over $100,000,000. In addition, $126,000,000 further has been placed by the United States investors in other industrial undertakings. Had a wiser policy been adopted at an earlier stage, these sums would have been largely increased and the spectarie would not have been presented of Canadian copper and nickel deposits owned by United States companies and their crudely smelted ores shipped to that country to be refined and exported as a United States product. None, or very few, of the United States companies operating in Canada would have established branches had the tariff not acted as an impelling influence.

In face of the great strides the Dominion has made industrially and commercially thru a policy of moderate protection and the kindred policy of requiring natural resources to be manufactured within the province of their origin, why disturb a condition that has brought so much prosperity to the whole Dominion? The growth of the industrial and trading population was of direct benefit to the agricultural interests at the time when the United States was the great grain exporting nation, and the home market is still of great importance and will be increasingly valuable as the country grows. To interfere with its industrial expansion at the present stage in the nation's history would be a blunder of the gravest character and lead to consequences that would take half a century to retrieve.

RETURN OPEN VERDICT IN STEVENS TRAGEDY

Jury Unable To Find Evidences et DISSENSION IN CABINET Foul Play-Trades Council Beliberations.

HAMILTON, Sept. 16 .- (Special.)-The trades and labor council to-night decided to ignore the remark of Bishop Dumoulin, made at Halifax, regarding labor unions, and more particularly the Hamilton Street Railway strike. The laborites concluded that, as the bishop's statement to the effect that the railwaymen injured themselves by their riotous conduct, was so palpahly erroneous, there was no occasion for replying to it. The council made a small contribution to the striking car men in Columbus, Ohio, and left it to committees to make arrangements for the appearance here in December of Philip Snowden, the distinguished labor member of the British parliament, and for the presentation of an exhibition put on by the labor department of the A. F. of L.

An Open Verdict. An open verdict was returned by the jury at the inquest conducted by Coroner Anderson to-night into the death of Isaiah Stevens, whose mangled body was found on the T., H. & B. tracks on Monday. The verdict was that he came to his death by being run over by an express train. Evidence to the effect that the deceased had threatened to commit suicide one time when he was ill, was submitted by Cecil Down. The dead man was by Cecil Down. The dead man was supposed to have had $100 on him, but there was none of it on him when the body was found.

The foreman of the jury had brought two people to look at the remains while the autopsy was in progress, and had been told to return a little while later, as the body was scarcely in a state to be viewed by the uninitiate. No evidence was heardl by the jury as to this point, but the following rider was added to the verdict:

The policy enunciated by Ed. Stephenson of Toronfo for the congress, or organized labor in Canada, sending a Canadian to the British house of commons has not been mentioned in any way during the convention.

For the Eight-Hour Day.

The following resolution bearing on the eight hour day was introduced by President Wm. Glockling of Toronto: "Whereas this congress has repeatedly placed itself on record of a shorter work day, and whereas A. Verville, M.P., succeeded in getting an 8-hour bill before a special committee of the house of commons at its last session, at which evidence was submitted by the executive of this congress, and the secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, together with a mass of evidence from Wage-earners and ampletors. gether with a mass of evidence from wage-earners and employers, and wage-earners and employers, and whereas no substantial arguments were advanced from the employers' standpoint, and as good sound and substantial reasons were submitted from the wage workers' side, it is resolved that this congress in convention assembled reiterates its former demand on the federal government to place an 8-hour day on the statute books of Cahada, and we also recommend that the executive council be empowered to request all its affilered to request all its affillated bodies to petition all members of parliament and senators to support and vote for the 8-hour bill when it is next introduced."

The congress placed itself on record as favoring the chartering of all trades and labor councils in Canada by the trades congress, in preference to by the American Federation of Labor. night.

Lament Goldwin Smith. The committee on officers' reports submitted a resolution lamenting the death of "a great and sincere friend of the toilers, Dr. Goldwin Smith, probably the most distinguished schol-ar of his day, who demonstrated on every occasion his earnest desire to up-lift and benefit the masses of the people. In his letters and public utterances he always espoused the cause of the common people, and he has left behind him a record which would be a worthy ambition for public men of any nation to follow."

Untrimmed Hats

Felt, Beaver, Silk, Satin and Velvet Shapes at

The passing days only emphasize the season's early prediction that hats of immense brim and low crown should dominate for the dress occasion, and toques by close brim and high crown for street and general knockabout wear. But the rule loses any possible narrowness or severity in the wide laxity that is permited in regard to the substance of the hat.

While it must be large and low, or small and high in shape, a wide licens; is allowed as to whether it shall be silk, velvet, satin, felt or beaver in surface. And this long gamut of choice is very happily run in our provision of hat in picture, toque and turban variety (the illustration depicts two of these), while in those covered with velvet the assortment is prac-tically unlimited. In smooth felt and in satin and furry beavers the option also ranges from the tiny bell toque to the hugest Gainsborough.

The big bartendes in the white apron told a good story the other day that smacks of the truth.

smacks of the truth.

J. McGinnis, a contractor of the Northeast, met his friend Donovan on the pier of the American line the other day. Donovan had just landed from the old country and it was his first visit to this country. Stopping at the hotel where the bartender in question holds forth, McGinnis said:

"Now, Donovan, my boy, I'll give you a taste of liquor that will make you think the ancient kings left ambrosia for ye. Bartender, give us a couple of drinks of that 40-year-old Bourbop ye have in the private bottle for me."

The barterder placed the "private bottle" on the bar with two very small glasses, which he half filled with the precious fluid.

Donovan lifted the pony daintily to the clous fluid.

Donevan lifted the pony daintily to the light and then, turning to McGinnis, said: "How old did ye say this is, Mac?" "Forty years, if it's a day."

"Be jabbers," said Donevan with another critical look at the glass, "it's small for its age, ain't it?"—Philadelphia Record.

Regarded from either the imperial or South African viewpoint, the result of the first federal election in the latest British confederation is the best that could have happened. The present government, tho sustained, and considerably the largest of the various parties in the representative house, has not been given a mandate so decisive as to render it irresponsive to Unionist sentiment. In that way the elections will tend to promote inter-racial co-operation and to assist in the production of a real national spirit. General Botha's personal defeat, regrettable in one sense, was not unprovoked since his decision to contest the seat of Sir Percy Fitzpatrick, was not altogether a politic act, and created an irritation no doubt reflected by the poll. Another seat will probably be found for the prime minister to whom his first rejection may prove a blessing in disguise. The posi- til recently, tion of parties, too, may assist in settling the ticklish education problem on fair and equitable principles.

BRITISH POLITICS.

British politics are about to enter on a new but certainly not less interesting phase than that which was abruptly closed by the death of the late King. That untoward event called a compulsory truce and led to the conference between selected leaders of the two main parties, which has not yet concluded its sittings. Entered upon with little likelihood of a compromise over the demand for restriction of the course appears to have taken an unexpected turn and both the prime minister and his foreign secretary have indicated that an agreement is quite on the cards. The seal of secrecy, however, has remained unbroken and nothing has been allowed to transpire re- ed a week.

Saturday Night—G. Osler, for plaintiff.
G. M. Clark, for defendant. Motion for an order restraining the defendant, its officers, &c., from continuing the publication in The Toronto Saturday Night of articles libellous of the plaintiff, &c.

Judgment: This motion is misconof articles libellous of the plaintiff, &c. Judgment: This motion is misconceived and too wide. The court cannot by interim injunction restrain the publication of libel generally. The most that can properly be asked in any case is an injunction restraining the further publication of particular libel. On wider grounds the motion falls entirely. I cannot find that this is a case in which "Any jury would say that the matter complained of is libellous, and where, if the jury did not so find, the court must be clearly satisfied that the defence of justification must fail, not merely that the article is defamatory if untrue. Motion dismissed with costs untrue. Motion dismissed with costs to defendant in any event.

Sterling Bank v. Ross-I. S. Fairty, for plaintiff. J. A. Macintosh, for de-endant. Motion by plaintiff for order ontinuing until the trial the injunction granted herein restraining defendant from interfering with the wall between plaintiff's and defendant's premises.

The following gentlemen who have been called to the bar by convocation, were presented to court by Sir Aemilius Irving, K.C., treasurer of the Law Society of Upper Canada, and were duly sworn in and enrolled as barristers-atlaw, and with the exception of A. I. McKinley, as solicitors of the supreme court of judicature: Frank James Ap. John, Anthony Ignatius McKinley, William Dorland McLean Shorey, Allan Collingwood Travers Lewis, Theodore Henry Peine, John Armour Dyke, William Garnet Anderson, John Cameron Macdonald.

Trial. Wallace v. Hendley-W. D. Swayzie (Dunnville), for plaintiff. R. Bradford (Dunnville), for defendant. Judgment: An action for the value of a lot of land in Buffalo, which stood in the name of the plaintiff's wife, but was really held by her as trustee for her husband. She died intestate and childless in 1903, and in the ordinary course of devolution by New York law, the lot would pass to her legal heir, in this case, her father the defordant this case, her father, the defendant. The father, in fact, recognized the claim of the plaintiff, his daughter's husband, and signed a quit claim deed husband, and signed a quit claim deed in his favor. But for want of proper formalities, it was not registerable and was lost. Later on the defendant refused to sign another quit claim deed on the ground that he had been deceived as to his interest in the land, and conveyed to another. The land cannot be followed, but the plaintiff is entitled to judgment for what he expended to the extent of the amount received by defendant for the land.

Dr. J. W. Miller Back From Geological Congress-Off Again to Porcupine.

Dr. G. W. Miller, provincial geologist, returned yesterday from several weeks spent in Great Britain and the continent, during which he attended the International Geological Congress in Stockholm.

Dr. Miller, during his stay in Sweden, made excursions to various localities of geologic interest, and went north to a point where the latitude is 300 miles north of Dawson City. Sweden, according to the provincial geologist, resembles central Canada considerably, and on one trip the country looked very much like that from Cobalt to North Bay.

Prof. A. H. Coleman, Toronto University, and Prof. F. D. Adams, McGill University, made up the party. In a few days Dr. Miller will revisit the Porcupine gold district, where several parties have been working during the summer, with the view of making a large and more detailed map of the

These words of Provost Macklen of Trinity University bespoke the feeling of a hundred hearts at a love feast ing of a hundred hearts at a love feast given in honor of Prof. John E. Mac-Fadyen by the governors of Knox College last night. It was an unostentatious gathering, but around the board there was a wealth of intellect and scholarship that told of the respect and reverence with which the man who has for twelve years held the chair of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis in Knox is held by his contemporaries.

The first society of "Good Cheer" was founded last evening in the technical school, by the original founder of all such organizations, Miss Theora Carter, who for the past month has been creating interest in the various departments of the work by her own personal example among the Toronto hospitals.

Mrs. J. J. Kingsmill was elected president of the first society; Mrs. Elsle Gray, secretary; and Mrs. B. B. Dutton, chairman of the visiting committee. The meeting was well attended, and the four score present all seemed emporaries.

Provost Macklem's words were doub-Provost Macklem's words were doubly significant when they recalled the fact that twelve years ago, to the day of the week and month, Prof. MacFadyen was tendered a similar banquet by his friends in Glasgow University on the eve of his departure for Canada, and as he remarked last night, "I have the same feelings of regret at leaving Canada now that I had leaving Glasgow then."

The whole outline of the work of such organizations was gone thru carefully by Miss Carter, and all the various points, and departments in the work were described by the critical good cheer fairs. Principal Gandier presided, and in calling upon Prof. Ballantyne to propose the health of the guest of honor, he said of Prof. MacFadyen: "It is satisfactory to know that he is still to be an empire builder."

Prof. Ballantyne voiced the universal regret that Prof. MacFadyen was severing his connection with Knox, but with that sorrow they entertained high hopes for his future. The twelve ments in the work were described by the original good cheor fairy.

In answer to a query as to how the visiting committee were to get acquainted with those in need of cheer, Miss Carer in an interesting manner told of a patient who she had visited Thursday afternoon. She said that one of the young ladies, who had aiready become interested in the work, told her by phone of a girl who had just been taken from a hospital in a convalescent condition. Miss Carter said that on arriving at the home of this girl she learned that she had been in the hospital since February last, and that as she was a business girl and high hopes for his future. The twelve years he had been at Knox might well be termed "The MacFadyen era." When the board of management brought Prof. MacFadyen from Glasgow twelve years ago, said President Falconer of Toronto University, there was some question as to the kind of man that had been selected. But the man had amply justified the choice. There was need for just such a man at that time. He had a great deal of sympathy with those who hearted. man that had been selected. ed to add the last touch of gloom.

The patient was in a most despondent state, and her friends had informed the "good cheer" visitor that she had said she was tired of the world and had threatened to commit suicide. But the visitor stayed with her all afternoon, talked to her, cheereed her up.

Chancellor Burwash, for Victoria as one of life-saving, as this story in-University, remarked that Prof. Mac-Fadyen had been able to harmonize the dicates. It was decided to hold the meetings fortnightly, and the next meeting will be held on the 29th inst. in the Western Congregational Church. ### Four Good Races On Grand Circuit

Sarah Ann Patch was a decisive winner in the 2.15 pace; taking it in straight heats. Direct Adair was second, and Oakland trot, in which J. Gahagan drove the bay gelding Startle to ultimate victory. There was a well-matched field in this event, and in every heat there was the closest kind of a finish. McDonald sent Juste thru for the first heat, and, after the second, under the rules, he survived to fight it out with Startie for the last heat. The fight down the stretch was a motable one, and so close was the finish that many thought it a dead heat until the judges announced Startle as the winner.

Just such another fight occurred in the 211 pace. This race was between three, Gently and Nancy Allan, both Syracuse entries, not being serious factors. Joe Boy, Locust Boy and Dr. Fox had spirited battles for two heats, when Joe Boy, which had failed to land a heat, was ruled out, along with Gently and Nancy Allan, and Locust Boy and Dr. Fox settled the issue alone.

Races at Dufferin.

The victory of Winter Day, a 20 to 1 shot, in the third race in a fleid of six, furnished the surprise of the afternoon at Dufferin Park yesterday. She won easily by three lengths after leading practically thruout. Corley and Goodacre broke down in the running of the fifth and sixth races, respectively. Jockey Fain piloted three winners and was again in the limelight. He was only once unplaced out of seven mounts. The horses Abe Gooding and Sir Walter Rollins; that were ruled off at Delorimier Park, Montreal, with Trainer Wade Brown, were reinstated yesterday. A. B. Campbell, their owner, will take charge of them in future. The seven races were run off under most favorable conditions. State Binder Twine. Minnesota employs its convicts so profitably at making twine that in this state binder twine is three cents cheaner than outside and the "trust" has given up trying to meet the rate. The state makes a profit of $189.69 on each man employed in the twine works, and with the opening of a proposed farm implement plant, the net profit of the state will run up to $300.000 a year. This is a good showing, and particularly gratifying to the thrifty Minnesota farmers who devised a scheme which lowered their taxes, lowered the cost of the binding twine which they use in great quantities, saved them from becoming victims of a fixed trust price introduced the humane practice of giv ing employment to prisoners and pair a profit over the entire cost of their keep .- Survey Magazine.

A SUCCESSFUL SALE.

Wednesday's Sale at Maher's Horse Exchange Attracts Many Buyers.

Wednesday; Sept. 14, was the scene of a very busy day at Maher's Horse Exchange, the thirty-four fillies imported by Mr. Isaac Williamson being up for sale. The sale was well attended and bidding was brisk, the buyers evidently being well aware of the meritorious class of the horses they were buying.

Before the sale the horses were paraded in front of the exchange, and it truly was a sight to be remembered. Great credit is certainly due to Mr. Maher and his assistants for the very tasteful way in which the horses were decorated, while their excellent condition showed how well they were being kept during the short time they remained at the exchange. It seemed to be the unanimous opinion of all who beheld them that they were certainly the finest lot that had ever crossed the pond. This says much for Mr. Williamson's judgment and buying abilities.

Purchasers were all loud in their praises for the excellent manner in which all business was conducted at the exchange, and for the kindness and courtesy shown to them by Mr. Maher.

Hugh Paton's Bushlark, at Odds On, Runs Last in Feature at Blue Bonnets.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—Four favorities won in the seven races at Blue Bonnets to-day, but three of the four successful choices so far outclassed their fields that they were held at odds-on. The card proved the least interesting offered by the lockey club this meeting, but there was a large gathering at the track. The weather was, if anything, finer than on any day of the week and this apparently offset the usual dulness at a race track on a Friday. The carder feature was the Provincial Nursery, five furlongs, the two-year-old stake, to which the Montreal Jockey Club gives $600 in added money and the provincial government a like amount, to cenourage the breeders. The race was chiefly remarkable for the big upset furnished when Mr. Hugh. Paton's Bush Lark, an odds-on favorite, on the strength of some good trials, finished last in a four-horse race. San Droit and Kilom, running coupled as the entry of Mr. C. S. Campbell, finished one two, with John Stewart's Crown Reserve third.

**For many years, I suffered from severe Rheumatism, and the attacks tried many remedies and physicians' treatments, but nothing seemed to do me much good, and I was becoming very anxious for fear I would become a permanent cripple from the disease.

"I tried 'Fruit-a-tives,' and this medicine has entirely cured me, and I honestly believe it is the greatest Rheumatism cure in the world."

E. E. MILLS.

Such a statement could not be bought from a man like Mr. Mills. He thinks too much of his good name, to sell it or sign it to an untruth. Mr. Mills tried "Fruit-a-tives" after all other treatment failed—and "Fruit-a-tives" cured him of Rheumatism. In the goodness of his heart, he wrote the above letter in order that sufferers in all parts of Canada would know the stracks such unfortunates. "At the present time the accommodation at the House of Industry is inadequate," said Secretary Arnold. "I think something should be done to prevent men from going about the streets begging from door to door. It is a case like Mr. Mills' that proves the marvelous powers of "Fruit-a-tives" in arresting and curing disease. It may be stated, without fear of contradiction, that "Fruit-a-tives" will positively cure Rheumatism when properly used.

Since I was a boy I have suffered with dandruff, not only from the itching but from its disagreeable appearance in a scaly form all over my head. I had to brush it off my clothes all day long. I used every kind of preparation supposed to cure dandruff, also scaps and shampoos, but it seemed to me that instead of improving with these remedies; the dandruff increased, even my hair began to fall out and the result was that two months ago eczema developed on my scalp.

"I suffered so from this that as a last resource I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Crown's Case Against Macedonian Charged With Shooting Compatriot, Falls Thru,

Because he was three months in fall awaiting trial, and then was honorably discharged, was the reason for Judge Denton in the sessions yesterday offering an apology for the present egal system to Trico Sikliff, a Macedonian, who was charged with shooting with intent to maim. The prisoner had been unable to get bail. The charge against Sikliff was laid by Cris Danto, also a Macedonian, who boarded in the same house, and who said that the prisoner had entered his room on June 6 and shot him in the head. The prisoner denied the charge, stating that he had gone out of the reom for some tobacco when the shot was fired. Two other witnesses for the defence testified that Danto had admitted to them he had shot himself.

In view of this evidence, the crown did not press the charge, and C. E. Macdonald, appearing for the prisoner, pointed out to the judge the injustice which had been done the prisoner, and asked that his honor bring to the attention of the minister of justice the great necessity in Toronto of establishing a central criminal court in order that cases might be disposed of more expeditiously.

"Did the police interview these other witnesses?" asked Judge Denton.

Mr. Monahan explained that they had been called to the hospital to take Danto's statement, and that on account of the seriousness of the case they had acted on that alone.

POISONED BY AN EXPERT Medical Evidence Submitted at the Crippen Inquest.

LONDON, Sept 16 .- Two more of the government's witnesses in the Dr. H. H. Crippen murder hearing admitted cepting those who are defendants, is on the stand to-day that they were unable to determine definitely the sex of the body supposed to be that of Belle Elmore Crippen.

Dr. W. H. Willcox, the home office analyst, testified that the character and position of the organs submitted to him proved that they were from a human body, and that "probably the body was that of a female."

B. H. Spilsbury, one of the leading pathologists of London, would not go even this far, frankly admitting that he was unable to determine the sex from a microscopical study of the remains.

"The person believed to have been Mrs. Belle Elmore Crippen met death thru the administering of a dose of hyoscin," said Dr. Willcox in his evidence. "This dose, while somewhat more than the amount required to produce death, was near enough to the exact amount required for fatal reexact amount required for fatal results to indicate expert judgment in preparing the dose. I am satisfied that death followed within an hour of the administrating of the property. administering of the poison."

Inspector Dew, on cross-examination, admitted that up to the finding of the body, he had no suspicion that a crime had been committed. had been committed.

According to one report, Crippen's defence will include a contention that before Crippen occupied the house in which the body was found, the tenant was a murderous lunatic, who is now confined in an asylum. The body, he will say, was that of a victim of this insane man, and was buried in the cellar before Crippen moved into the house.

At the Royal Alexandra.

A great deal of anticipatory interest has been aroused by the coming of the New Theatre's much discussed play. "The Nigger," to the Royal A'lexandra next week. This interest is reflected in the box office, and indications point to a notably large opening crowd for this high-class and yet sensational race-problem play Monday inight.

Whatever the degree of interest local theatregoers may take in "The Nigger" as a play founded upon, race conditions, opinions in other cikies where the play has been seen seem to leave no doubt of the tremendous dramatic power of the performance.

The role of Philip Morrow, the southern governor, whose career is thwarted by the discovery that he is, a "nigger" is potential in the hands of Guy Bates Post, who is credited with giving the character a vivid realism that marks it as one of the greatest roles of the Madaine Melba will arrive in Toron-to on Tuesday next, the day preceding Mrs. Fiske's "Becky Sharp" is generally considered the comedy classic of the American stage, and it will doubtless be placed side by side with Jefferson's "Rip Van Winkle." Langdon Mitchell placed the stage under weighty obligations when, in making a play of "Vanity Fair." he succeeded night at the Grand Opera House, for an engagement of one week, with regular matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Unlike "St. Elmo." "Tiberius" has been made strictly modern and the dialogue and situations have the terse, new crispness of the modern school of playwriting.

The story, briefly sketched, tells of the story of the story of the sketched of the story of the story of the great of the story of the modern school of popular ever produced by Mrs. Fiske.

Writing of Melba's final appearance at Covent Garden a few weeks ago.

Alfred Kallsch, the great London critic, said: 'The world is graced by only one Melba. There is no other singer who can be compared to her The miraculous purity and evenness of her voice, her perfect technique are at once the envy and delight of all. Her singing of the 'Adio' (Boheme) was of itself sufficient to ensure her undying fame." Particular interest attaches to this visit of the world's supreme sing-er (a daughter of the empire, too.) because she is bringing with her the finest concert company ever heard in the Dominion, including Miss Ada Sasso-il, the finest harpist in the world; John Lemmone, the unrivalled flautist; Maurice Lafarge, the famous French pianist, and Albert Quesnel, the popular tenor of the Metropolitan

The Grand Trunk has gone at the improvements on its Hamilton line from Parkdale to the Humber in good style. The great expense will be justified. When this is completed the best place of religious in Canada, by long piece of railway in Canada, by long odds, will be the double track from Montreal to the Falls by Toronto and Hamilton. When the Scarboro grade is put in the lake (to use an Irishism), a six-hour service to Montreal may be in sight. That may be Mr. Hays' next mprovement.

This would also fit in with the new line from Toronto to Oshawa, Cobourg and Belleville. The rest of the line from Myrtle to Smith's Falls also needs doubling. These are improvements that could go on at once. There is lots of track to be straightened out, switches and sidings to be put in, turning plants, station men's outfits, etc. These are the things that let the trains run on time; the lack of them helps to explain many a delay. plain many a delay.

NEW FEATURES TO-NIGHT

Two more features this week mark the steady progress of Canada's favorite Sunday home paper, The Sunday World. "How Others Have Built" is a department that will interest many home builders. This department is under the direction of Franklin E. Belfry, member of the firm of Thompson & Belfry, architects. Mr. Belfry has had a wide experience in the architectural field, and in the new department will present by illustrations the many and varied styles employed in modern house-building to-day. In the first of his series, out in The Sunday World to-night, Mr. Belfry will give an example of the pure colonial style.

Another new department will be the "International Press Bible Question Club." Sunday school superintendents, teachers and Bible class leaders and scholars will find this department most interesting and helpful.

Congress; views showing the prospector at work in the far north; splendid view of Montreal streets, showing the superb decorations in honor of the Eucharistic Congress and many other illustrations of more than usual interest to our readers.

THE MAGAZINE SECTION will have further instalments of the new departments introduced for the first time in our issue of last week. "Common Sense in the Home," edited by Marion Harland, the journalist of the domestic sciences, will be interesting reading for the ladies. Little Stories in the Lighter Vein will prove of more than usual interest, as will the scores of other bright features that make up this section of The Sunday World.

A big staff of reporters will cover every feature of interest in the sporting and general news line in and about Toronto on Saturday, and numerous special correspondents at outside points will keep our readers posted on every event of the slightest importance at home and abroad. The last edition will contain a full report of the Minto Cup game at New Westminster between Nationals and the holders of the cup.

All other applicants, desiring to regtheir own district, may make applica-tion to the sub-committee and the cases will be dealt with by that body individually and on the merits. All pupils who have been attending Harbord Collegiate and who are really in the Parkdale district, however, will be allowed to remain. The committee is composed of trustees: Davis (chairman), Dr. Bryans, Brown, Dr. Conboy and Rawlinson. Two classes for defective children are to be opened by the board of education on Monday next, with Miss Sims of Wellesley school in charge. One class will be held in the morning at George-street school, and the other in the afternoon at McCaul-street school. Arrangements may be made for some of the children who cannot be trusted to go to school alone to be driven.

AUTO-SPEEDING FINES UP Magistrate Kingsford Fixes the Penalty at Twenty Dollars.

"Inspector, do not settle any cases of costs," said Magistrate Kingsford yesterday, when he noted seven cases on the list. "These cases are far too numerous. We will have to stop it some way or other, and the best way I know of is to fine them heavily. We cannot allow the lives of citizens to be endangered by this reckless driving." W. W. Dundas was the last man to pay $10 and costs for fast driving. He erham paid $10 each for the same of-fence out of court, and W. H. Wain, 55 limits, from three hundred dollars and for lack of a rear light.

Mrs. Mary Lane was given a week THE MCARTHUR-SMITH CO., to make alterations to the septic tank at her boarding house on the island to suit the medical health department. The Schepp Cocoanut Company of Spadina-avenue were fined $50 for allowing too much dense smoke to escape from their chimneys.

"Apparently my orders were not obeyed," said the manager. "We had one ton of soft coal this month, and have used but half of it."

OTTAWA. Sept. 16.—Under instruc-tions from J. Lockie Wilson, Toronto, inspector of fall fairs, the police au thorities this morning cleaned out all the wheel of fortune and paddle men who have been coining money on the midway at the Central Canada Exhibi-

SWANSEA SCHOOL HOLDS GREAT FLOWER SHOW

More Than 1000 People Attend-Big Time in North Toronto-Suburban News in Brief.

SWANSEA, Sept. 16.—(Special.)—A party of Scarboro ladies, chaperoned by William Young of Agincourt, visited the beautiful conservatories and trial grounds of the Wm. Rennie & Sons this afternoon and were delighted with the magnificent showing of plants, and flowers. Later they visited the exhibits held under the auspices of the Ontario Horticultural Show in the Allan Gardens, and were still further instructed and interested in the snow. Several of the ladies were exhibitors at the Ontario Horticultural Snow.

The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Young of Agincourt, Mrs. and Miss Maird, Mrs. M. Secor and Miss Secor, and Mrs. John Baird of Woburn, Mrs. T. A. Paterson of Ellesmere, and Mrs. Wm. Stirling of Elesmere.

There was a large attendance at the Fruit, Flower and Vegetable Show, held in the Swansea school house tonight, under the auspices of the board and staff of the school. There were upwards of a thousand people who admired the beautiful exhibits, which were the result of the pupils' knowledge of gardening. Some of the exhibits were, however, taken from the gardens of the children's parents A brief address was delivered by Presiwent W. G. McKendrick of the Toronto Horticultural Scriety, who declared that he was almost as favorably impressed with the exhibits of the Swansea children as with those of the Hortisea children as with those of the Horti-cultural Society show, which had opened to-night in the Alain Gardens. The exhibition was under the direction of Principal W. H. Clipperton, who was ably assisted by his staff and the board of trustees, the latter including Dr. W. C. Spaulding, chairman, R. C. Smith and S. L. Wright.

Probably the most notable exhibit was a giant sunflower, which had a disc of 13 inches in diameter, and a stalk 12 feet high, grown by Ray Arnstalk 13 feet high grown by Ray Arnstalk 12 feet high, grown by Ray Arnstalk 12 feet high grown by Ray Ar

Public School to Be Improved, Yard Enlarged and Fixed up Generally.

DOWNSVIEW, Sept. 16.—(pecial.)

At the meeting of the trustees of Public School No. 17, it was decided to enlarge the playgrounds. The grounds will be extended four rods east and six rods south. Messrs: E. McDonald and R. Philips, owners of the land in question, have expressed a willingness to sell. Considerable leveling will have to be done in order to keep the yard in good condition, as a portion of the new ground is marshy. The well, which has not been used for some time, will be cleaned and drilled, and a new pump installed. It will only be a matter of a short period till the school will have to be enlarged. At present it is greatly overcrowded, having over sixty pupils on the roll.

FAIRBANK. New Bridge Under Belt Line Will Be Higher Than Old One.

FAIRBANK. Sept. 16.—Road Commissioners Watt and Middleton have taken the first step towards the "good roads" movement. The Vaughan-road, which was full of holes and boulders, has been graded, and the large stones removed. Next spring a stone macadam will be laid from the sity limits to the northern end of Fairbank.

The old beit line, lately acquired by the Grand Trunk, is once more the scene of activity. Construction trains are now running over it, and the work of track laying is nearly finished. The old wooden bridge over the Vaughan-road in Fairbank will be replaced by a new steel bridge. The Grand Trunk has acceded to the request of the York Township Council, and will build the new one higher and wider than the previous one.

NEWMARKET FAIR NEXT WEEK North Yorkers Say Next Week Show Will Be Best Ever.

Newmarket Fair takes place on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 20, 21 and 22, and from all accounts will easily distance anything ever held in the town hitherto. The prizes are larger, the entries bigger and better, and altogether it looks as the the town would furnish an attraction that will in many respects almost outrival the Canadian National. The Metropolitan Railway is giving a special service, and, given good weather, there will he a record crowd in the canal town on these dates. Of course, Thursday will be the big day of the three, but Wednesday will furnish some good attractions, too.

MAY IDENTIFY BY SCAR Wife Not Positive Body is That of Her Husband.

By a scar on the back of the left leg, eer. Mrs. Johnson, 1000 Dundas-street, seeks to identify the body of the aged man who dropped dead in Duke-street Monday night, as that of her father. Site says that he was bitten by a dos when he was a young man, and that a scar like a vaccination mark remained on the back of his leg. A scar about the size of a ten-cent plece was found in the back of the left calf of the body at the morgue. Both Mrs. Johnson, wife of the missing man, and his son-in-law, have seen the body at the morgue, but neither could be positive in an identification. At the morgue they thought that it was not the man, but later de-cided that they could not be sure. The daughter will see the body to-day. Johnson had not been living at home for some time.

AN UNCONVENTIONAL SERVICE.

The jate Rev. Myron W. Reed was a man who could do more than preach effectively inside of a church. According to Mr. J. A. Watrous, written in The Chip cago Record-Herald, he held a service on one occasion under exceptionally undignified circumstances, and at a time when his congregation was extremely hungry. Mr. Reed belonged to a Denver club that had a fine clubhouse some distance from the city. At least once a year all of the members spent a week together, hunting, fishing, rowing and resting.

When Sunday came, on one of these gatherings at the club, Dr. Reed said he would remain at headquariers and suprimend the dinner-getting. He planned an exceptionally good dinner, and he himself looked after the cooking of several of the choicest dishes. The members returned half an hour before the meal was ready.

"This, my brothers, is a suitable hour for Sabbath service," said the minister, who was just out of the kitchen, wearing a long apron and with his sleeves rolled up.

"Judge, Now join me in thanking food for smilling upon us in the past and in a request for a continuation of His mercles."

It was one of Myron Reed's most beautiful prayers. After it he talked for ten minutes in a way that made his audience feel that, instead of looking after their dinner, he must have spent the morning in close communion with his Creator.

"General, start Nearer, My God, to Thee." All sing."

Then came a short closing prayer, the amee followed by:

"John, bring out the dinner."

While John was bringing out the dinner the general, "It was the most impressive religious service I ever attended."

BRANCH BANK OFFICERS ARRESTED FOR THIEVING

Manager and Teller of Farmers' Bank at Athens, Ont., Accused -One Makes Confession.

BROCKVILLE, Sept. 16.—(Special)—Robt. E. Cughan, manager of the Farmers' Bank at Athens, about 18 miles from here, and Melville Forrest, teller, oth under 23 years of age, were arrosted in that village last night on a war-rant sworn by Bank Inspector Fitz-gibbon, and brought here this morning, each to face a charge of theft. The arrest has caused a sensation, both ba ing well-known.

The charge against Cughan is that within the past five months "he did unlawfully steal, take and carry away, and convert to his own use, a sum of money believed at present to be in the neighborhood of $900, the property of the Farmers' Bank of Canada." The same charge rests against Forrest, with the amount placed at $600. Cughan and Forrest were brought be-Police Magistrate Deacon at 11 o'clock. They were well dressed, and seemed to take their arrests coolly Owing to County Crown Attorney Brown being engaged at the court house, they were not asked to plead, but a remand of one week was granted. C. R. Deacon appeared for the bank, and H. A. Stewart, K.C., was present for Cughan. The crown attorney accepted $2000 ball this afternoon for Cughan. Forrest was not represented. He admits his part in the thefts and implicates Cughan, but the latter stoutly maintains his innocence The bank branch, it appears, passed its annual inspection last April, but since then the head office discovered a leakage. Detective Shaw of the Can-adian Detective Agency, Toronto, and ar assistant arrived in Athens Tues-deposits, Forrest would make credit entries for the same in the pass book, but would retain the cash.

Cughan, shortly before he entered the service of the Farmers' Bank, was dismissed from a position in the Mer-chants Bank because he married while not in receipt of the prescribed amount of salary. It was while in the Prescott branch that he was discharged, altho he had previously been in the Athens branch. He was in the Phillips. ville branch of the Farmers' Bank be-fore being transferred to the management of the Athens branch about a year ago. He is the son of a farmer living about five miles from Athens and brought up in the neighborhood. He has one child. Forrest's home is at the Village

W. R. Travers, general manager of the Farmers' Bank, stated last night that he had no particulars of the al-leged thefts, but that he understood the amount involved was $1100.

NO CHANGE IN WARDS

has already expired.

Plan of Rearrangement Will Have to Stand Over Till Next Year.

There will be no redistribution of the least, despite the hopes entertained that the rearrangement of the boun daries could be effected in time for the civic elections next January. Five months ago the first ward aldermen started an agitation for a new set of wards, pointing out that the annexation of East Toronto and the "Midway" had made that ward out of all proportion to the others. The idea found favor, and four months or so ago, the assessment commissioner, city clerk and city solicitor were asked to make a joint report.

"We will start on the report next week," said Mr. Forman, last night. "We have been too busy with the as-

City Treasurer Coady deplores the fact that the flotation of civic debentures nowadays isnot like it used to be a scant twelve years ago.
"In 1898 we obtained the best price ever realized for colonial municipal debentures," he remarked yesterday. The record was reached when we dispesed of 3 1-2 per cent. bonds at 103. At present the price for such bonds is around 90, or about equal to four per cent. bonds at par."

The trouble isy't that Toronto's credit isn't as sound, but that, since the South African war, no bonds, whether government or municipal, have been floated at the high rates hitherto prevailing. It means that it noow costs the city as much to borrow $90 as $100 or more formerly.

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM. This is a condition (or disease) to which doctor give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for the are almost number less), its symptons are much the same; the more prominent being sleeplessness sense of prostration or weatiness, depression or spiritts and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour— VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY Crop Reports.

Snow's weekly review says: Improved weather conditions are hastening corn to maturity, and at least three-fourths or the acreege is out of frost danger. Tendays more of present weather will save practically all the crop. Frost injury to date is insignificant. Plowing and seeding of winter wheat is going ahead rapidly under very favorable conditions, and the acreage will be much larger than that harvested this year. Friday Evening, Sept. 16.

The toning down of prices on the local market has resulted in a contraction of operations. In to-day's market there were only two really active issues, viz., Sao Paulo and Rio. These acted in opposite directions, the former being weak and the latter firm. It was suggested in financial circles that holders of Sao Paulo were selling their stock and placing the proceeds in Rio, and in anticipation of this one prominent floor trader had been putting out Sao Paulo short recently. The domestic market had no assistance from outside exchanges; in fact, sufficient bear comment on New York came into Toronto to work against any possible bullish sentiment. Considering the adverse factors which are plainly visible on the surface, local securities are showing a remarkable resistance against realizing and professional

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

COTTON GOSSIP.

Erickson Perkins & Co, had the following:

The local cotton market became firmer to-day and bulls seemed to be a little for the bear to the bull side, as a result of the bear to the bull side, as a result of the Giles' report and the recent stubborn refusal of the market to break much below 12.90. With the opening of the south nust market considerable cotton during to look only at the fact that the south nust market considerable cotton during the post two months. The Giles report to showing a five per cent, loss in condition in two weeks, together with further untary vorable crop reports from the southwest linduced some short covering. A continual acree of the upward movement, at this time, would lead to a flood of selling by the south and we doubt that the advance would hold. We continue to advise the trading position.

operator, and controls the Buffalo Mines Co., Cobalt. These three men are members of the syndicate that purchased from Wilson and Edwards the famous Wilson Dome property at Porcupine. Capt. Lawson and Tom. Jones are with the party as nitely decided to put in a stamp mill of considerable size if reasonable transportation facilities can be obtained. The winter road will be good, but the management of the Dome do not wish to be handicapped next summer, as they have been this, particularly when they have more than doubled their staff. It is probable that the mill will be between forty and sixty stamps tho it may be larger than that. This matter, however, will be ultimately decided in a conference that is to summarize results later on.

Werld Office,
Friday Evening, Sept. 16.
Trading stiffened up to a certain extent on the local mining exchanges today, but there was no up-bidding or prices under the increased activity.
The general tone of the Cobalt list was firm, and price changes thrucut were held to small fractions, while it was observable that the only alterations which were made in stocks, which were at all active, were toward higher levels.

The buying on the exchanges to-day was fairly substantial and realizing was well taken care of on both boards.

was well taken care of on both boards Rochester was the only stock to show Rochester was the only stock to show any feature, these shares coming into prominence and registering an advance of over a point at 16½. It has been rumored in stock market circles for some days that Rochester was ripe for an advance, and the movement today did not come as any surprise to market followers. Closing prices for the shares were only an eighth below the top figures.

The feature of the trading was the amount of the long date stock which exchanged hands, at prices slightly above the market.

Some of the cheaper issues which have been dormant during the last few days came into more prominence. Green-Meehan made a fractional advance and Otisse was also in good demand. Wetlaufer was more active than of late; the price ranging from 55 than of late; the price ranging from 55 There was nothing in the day's developments to affect sentiment in connection with the market, but at the close there was a general opinion that stocks would give a good account of themselves in the near future.
