Crow's Nest Bill Discussed in Committee—Iron Bounty Resolutions Adopted After Discussion—Bank Note Contract

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special.)—The inconvenience which has arisen consequent upon the departure of so many members from Ottawa before the close of the session led to an explanation by Mr. Taylor this morning. The Montreal Gazette attributed to the Speaker the responsibility for so many members having drawn the balance of their session's pay and gone home. Mr. Taylor said the Speaker was not to blame. If blame was to be attached to anyone it was to be attached to Mr. Speaker that it would be convenient to some of the members to allow them to leave.

The $10,000,000 loan resolution was then taken up. Mr. Taylor said that it was not one dollar of the loan which was to be expended without a vote by Parliament. The Conservative Government stood as a rule at $4,000,000. About $2,000,000 of borrowing power remained unexpended, with the addition of $1,000,000, the total amount available was $23,000,000. There were at present floating loans to the amount of $7,152,000, which would be required for the Crow's Nest line and there would be required $2,000,000 for other railway subsidies would fall due during the next three years.

Mr. Foster denied that the rate of interest be limited to 3 1/2 per cent. Mr. Fielding concurred with him and the change to 3 1/2 per cent. was reported.

The Crow's Nest Bill. In committee on the Crow's Nest Railway bill Mr. Taylor said that it should be made imperative that the C. P. R. should hand over 50,000 acres of coal lands out of the 800,000 acres acquired under the British Columbia Southern charter.

Mr. Taylor said that the rate of interest be limited to 3 1/2 per cent. Mr. Fielding concurred with him and the change to 3 1/2 per cent. was reported.

Windsor, Ont., June 25.—The Queen drove to Windsor Park to-day and visited 6000 school children, who were celebrating Her Majesty's Jubilee.

The Queen received delegations from fire brigades belonging to all parts of the Kingdom. The Queen seemed in excellent health and spirits, and smilingly conversed with those around her, evidently much pleased at the children's gathering.

Each child wore a commemorative medal, and finally all joined in singing the National Anthem.

The fireman's parade was one of the largest held in England. There were 1200 men in line, and 100 engines. The Duke of Marlborough, President of the National Fire Brigade, presented the officers to the Queen.

REV. CANON BRUCHESI

Is the New Archbishop of Montreal.

HE IS QUITE A YOUNG MAN

But Possesses All the Qualifications for the High Office.

A Sketch of His Life at School, at College and in the Church—Montreal Church Lands to Be Thrown Open for Settlement—Said to Be Among the Most Valuable Lands in the Northwest—St. Lawrence Pilots Decide to Continue the Strike.

Montreal, June 25.—(Special.)—News was received here from Rome that Rev. Canon Bruchesi, of the Episcopal Palace, and one of the late Mr. Fabre's most able and trusted advisers, has been appointed Archbishop of Montreal. The papacy has evidently arrived at the wise conclusion that the episcopal sees of Canada are quite safe in the hands of young prelates, as Mr. Bruchesi is only 42 and is probably the junior of the French episcopacy.

Sketch of His Career. Louis Paul Napoleon Bruchesi was born in Montreal, Oct. 29, 1855. He entered the Montreal College at an early age and after a full course of classes, went to complete his studies of philosophy in the Sulpician College of Issy, France. He afterwards entered the Grand Seminary of Paris to commence the study of theology and remained there for two years, after which he proceeded to Rome, there to attend the lectures of the great theological faculties.

He represented the Government as commissioner for the Education Department of the province at the Chicago World's Fair, and accompanied Archbishop Fabre to the Exposition of 1893. He was also one of the commissioners of the Society des Arts et Metiers, and was one of the commissioners of the Society des Arts et Metiers, and was one of the commissioners of the Society des Arts et Metiers.

News was received here to-day from Montreal to the effect that the Archbishop of St. Boniface had decided to throw open for settlement all the valuable church lands belonging to the Diocese of St. Boniface. It will be remembered that these lands were acquired in the time of Mr. Tache and have always been looked upon as of great value. It is said the terms upon which His Grace will offer these lands, which are considered amongst the best in the Canadian Northwest to-day, will be exceedingly easy, with a view, no doubt, to attract a large French-Canadian population to Manitoba.

The striking pilots held a meeting to-day, but the wise counsels of yesterday did not prevail and they decided to continue the strike. In the meantime the Harbor Commissioners met and dismissed three pilots, who, having been summoned, refused to go to work. The Minister of Marine has wired the pilots that if they will go to work he will give them a commission of enquiry during recess.

TRADE IN CANADA.
Dun Says the Jubilee Celebrations Operated Against Business - Bradford's Gives a Good Report.

New York, June 25.—Dun's review to-morrow will say regarding the state of Canadian trade: "Jubilee festivities interrupted business here, most of two days, but a continued tendency towards improvement appears, although trade for the week has been comparatively quiet. Mr. John reports business higher and a tendency toward improvement in business is noticed, though it is hardly perceptible, and money is circulating more freely at Quebec, and trade in other parts of the country is better than it was a very quiet one at Montreal, owing to the holidays, and there is no change in the money market. The improvement at Toronto continues in the prices of corn and wheat has advanced and a large hay crop is assured."

How the Colonial Premiers Fare in England.

SEVEN TIMES IN FOUR DAYS

Did Sir Wilfrid Laurier Tackle Extra Meals Put Up by Britishers.

The Premier ought to return to Canada a fatter man than the visitors are being a great deal of talking, all of which will end in booming the idea of the Imperial Federation.

Manchester, June 16.—Special Correspondence.—Liverpool 2, Edinburgh 2, Glasgow 1, Manchester 2; total 7.

Seven dinners and lunches in four days proves that the Colonial Premiers are of good digestion. Of their soundness of mind there is no shadow of doubt. Hundreds of sentences, thousands of words, have poured from the lips of the Prime Ministers, and yet at this, the end of remarkable excursions, they seem some of the wisest of men.

And the tour itself was a magnificent success. On Monday last, when I stood on the platform at Euston and watched the worthy colonials board the special, it seemed a toss-up as to whether it was to be merely a traveling show or a might have been an open troupe, as far as appearances went. We had the great King of the South Australia for the grand march of historic significance; an excellent entrepreneur in appearance; even Seddon seemed capable of giving a turn.

But any thought that the Premier would be regarded by the British public simply as a species of curious exhibit on exhibition for a week, or any fear that the tour would be a farce, was dispelled by the hearty cheers at Liverpool and completely demolished by the spontaneous and sympathetic greetings met everywhere. The spectacle—a spectacle of eleven crowned kings from distant outposts of the Empire, returning to lay at the feet of the throne the allegiance of millions they represent. Imperial Rome has heard the tramp of triumphal marches, but these marches were of peace and bloodshed, not peace and law.

It was the high festival of Imperialism, the worship of the Imperialistic idea. The people bowed down before it; they shouted for it; they prayed for it. Four nobles only one man could be hospitable on its behalf. The eleven pro-consuls of Imperial Britain swept through two kingdoms and a province of patriotic enthusiasm. Their presence brought home to Englishmen in a way as never before the true sense of the Anglo-Saxon race beyond the seas. These sovereigns of the colonies stood for all that is good and lasting in English institutions, laws and civilization. They showed in themselves the colonizing power of England and the adaptability of the English race and its customs to strange environments. They represented the peaceful culmination of a work commenced in blood by Drake, Raleigh and Cromwell.

And the noblest of them all was our own Wilfrid Laurier. "Head and shoulders above the crowd" was the way a prominent Australian put it to me. The Canadian Premier's speech and manner, his fluent delivery, and his personal magnetism, created the most intense interest. Again, the fact that he represented not only a colony but a vast confederation of eight colonies, gave him the premier position. The whole tour only one man could bear comparison with the Canadian, and that was Lord Rosebery of Bexley, who was the Premier of Scotland. At Edinburgh Mr. Laurier's speech was especially happy, and his allusion to the British alliance of Scotland with his own race aroused the enthusiasm of the citizens of that historic city. At Manchester Sir Carl Mr. Laurier stated his desire for an Imperial union most emphatically, and his speech was a masterpiece. Mr. Laurier's speech in the Canadian House the day before.

The Hon. Mr. Seddon claimed to be a Lancashire man at Liverpool, but at Edinburgh he had Scotch blood in his veins.

"Mr. Laurier looks like an actor," said an Australian. "He is an actor. He played the leading part in the drama 'The Yankers,' which was a successful run in Canada a year ago." Sir George Turner of Victoria, who, by the way, is not the same as the David Mills, told me that he was somewhat tired of speaking so often. There were others, however, who were exactly coincident with opinions formed from reading, Crooke Hall, so he said to me, reminded him of Washington Irving's description of Borebridge Hall, a typical home of an English nobleman.

The royal footmen were in attendance. I heard one of them state that he was traveling with the "blooming colonists." Col. Denison was present at Glasgow and Manchester.

SCHOOL QUESTION IN IOWA.

Archbishop Hennessy Denounces the Public and Lays Parish Schools.

Dubuque, Ia., June 25.—Archbishop Hennessy created a sensation by an attack on the Public Schools in an address to the pupils at Clark's Academy at St. Charles, Wis., yesterday. He denounced as irreligious and therefore dangerous to future generations, claimed that the Catholics paid one-seventh of the five hundred millions which it cost to support the Public Schools, but were denied the privileges of religious education, and that in addition to this seventh the Catholics pay forty millions for the education of their children in their own schools. The entire address was a denunciation of the Public School system and instigation of the parish schools.

STORE - GOODS - PRICES

Because this store is singularly different, measured in any way, from other stores, it enlists your interest as other stores do not.

Because of our large outgo and cash capital, we command the output of manufacturers as other stores do not. It's no riddle that this means buying goods here as you do not at other stores.

Rubbish is talked sometimes of the relationship of a big store like this to manufacturers. More often than not manufacturers, through the large orders received from us, are able to keep their plants running and workmen busy when otherwise the wheels would stop and workmen would be laid off for a season.

With the coming week, like that of the past, one day short for business purposes, special inducements to buy will manifest themselves in every department of the store. What is it that you want before the holiday?

AN AWFUL HAILSTORM.

The City of Toronto Riddled—Hailstones like Pellets and Knocked Down Trees—Windswept All Broken.

Toronto, Kansas, June 25.—The worst hailstorm known in the history of Kansas struck this city last night. Hailstones weighing 12 to 16 ounces stripped the trees of their foliage, smashed window panes, including the finest plate glass store fronts, cut down telegraph and telephone wires, riddled awnings and inflicted unprecedented damage throughout the city. Dogs were struck in the streets and instantly killed and horses were knocked to their knees.

When the fury of the storm had passed dead birds were found everywhere. Frequent and terrific lightning accompanied the storm.

People look like a city that has withstood an artillery siege. There are not a dozen buildings in the town that are not almost windowless and many roofs were even in. The roofs of street cars were also pierced. The damage wrought can better be imagined when it is known that the hailstones ranged in size from that of a hen's egg to that of an ostrich egg, and that 30 minutes after the storm, one hailstone was picked up which measured 14 inches in circumference. Surgeons are busy dressing the wounds of persons injured in the storm, and reports of injuries continue to be received. Many were hurt in running.

The following are among the most seriously hurt: Frank Brannard, butcherman, skull fractured; J. D. Henderson, liverman, skull fractured; Roy White, leg broken; Mrs. Mary Hughes, arm broken in a runaway; D. S. Lee, had scalp wound; Miss Ann Penton, head cut; Fred Hollock, head cut.

Window glass is at a premium here.

VISITING ONTARIO'S MINES.

It is No Picnic in the Black Fly Season.

WHERE 'KETEERS BITE BAD

The World's Commissioner Gives a few Pointers to Others.

What to Take With You if You Visit the Rainy River District in the Fly Season.

After looking over the Hawk Bay property, I spent the night at the manager's residence, and next morning crossed over to the adjoining location, known as 325 X.

Take Precautions.

I have dwelt so long upon this subject of mosquitoes and flies, with a view to advising intending visitors to this country to come prepared to battle against the little pests.

A Valuable Property.

But to return to location 325 X. As I stated before I walked over to the Hawk Bay camp to see it. This claim, which consists of 80 acres of rough, forest-covered land, is owned and operated by the Wileys and some Hamilton gentlemen.

Development Work.

The development is under the charge of Mr. E. Geissen, a man of experience. From the mines on the south shore of Lake Superior, he has organized a force of men who work night and day in three shifts of eight hours each.

Another Valuable Property.

After this looking over 325 X, I jumped into a canoe again and with my Indians padded four miles farther up the stream past Branch Lake and into Sakonago Bay to inspect another property upon which work has just been begun by the owner, Mr. Louis Walsh of Port Arthur.

But before proceeding to describe this prospect, I must tell of an interesting spot I saw on the way thither—a scene indicative of one of the ancient customs of the aborigines of the country.

With the coming of the whites the men are abandoning their old habit of "elevating" their dead, but though they now frequently bury bodies beneath the ground, they still follow some of the traditional customs in regard to the disposal of the departed.

Old-Time Superstitions.

Certain of the old-time superstitions regarding death are still widely enough believed in to considerably affect the conduct of the living.

Mr. Walsh's Precautions.

But I digress and must proceed to describe Mr. Walsh's property on Sakonago Bay, two miles north of Island Falls. It consists of mining locations 277, 278 and 279X, which were once part of an Indian reserve, given up by the red man in exchange for land near Sturgeon Falls.

carries besides free gold, plainly distinguishable to the naked eye in samples I picked up myself, galena and iron and copper pyrites. The gangue is also well mineralized, and in fact the lode appears to be gold-bearing right across its whole face.

Mr. Walsh is having his men strip the whole body for a considerable distance and he told me that it is his intention to at once cross-cut the vein about 200 feet back from the water.

Upon saying good-bye to the Phyllis, I returned to Hawk Bay and then in a war canoe made a rapid journey back to Saw Bill Lake.

Big Strike on Antler.

S. J. Sharp, secretary-treasurer of the Juliet, has just received word that they have made a big strike and are now in solid pay ore and the Juliet will soon be a shipping mine.

THANKED TO THE PREMIER About the Running of Cars on Sunday.

AGAINST ANY INTERFERENCE Influential Deputation Objects to the Further Waste of Money to satisfy the Disappointed Alliance People - Irresponsible Individuals Would Like the Ontario Government to Appeal to the Privy Council - Testimony that Sunday Cars Have Been of Inestimable Benefit - Objections to Putting a Premium on Litigation - Further Proceedings Would Be Against the Will of the People.

Why should the money of all the people of this Province be spent to satiate the desire for revenge of a body of irresponsible persons? Such was the pith of the arguments advanced by the deputation of the influential gentlemen who waited upon the Attorney-General, and the Minister of Education, yesterday morning to protest against the Government of the Province of Ontario taking up the case of the Lord's Day Alliance...

Mr. Martin: Then their action is all the more outrageous. [Laughter.] If this claim of the Alliance Government was substantiated then any five or six men could put their own interpretation on the act and ask the Government to give them the benefit of their prestige in carrying it to the higher courts.

the faculty of further legislation. He further read a minute of the meeting of the Board of Managers of Central Presbyterian Church in 1893, in which they memorialized the city to give a Sunday trolley service.

The Alliance representatives tried to insinuate that the minute was not genuine, but it was down in black and white and signed by the secretary, Mr. Lee, so their denials had to cease.

CASE OF JOHN G. GIBSON. The O'Keefe Company's Treasurer Pleads Not Guilty and Goes to Jail.

John G. Gibson, the well-known club man, who is charged by the O'Keefe Brewing Co. of which he was secretary-treasurer, with falsifying the books of the company and stealing funds, appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning.

Three counts were preferred against the accused. It is alleged that on July 9, 1895, he stole $10, that on Aug. 7, 1895, he stole $70, and that on Oct. 17, 1895, he stole $80.

Gibson's arrest was a great surprise to his friends, many of whom are sure he can clear himself of all charges against him. He held a position with the Ontario Brewing & Malting Co. previous to going with the O'Keefe Company four years ago.
