PROVINCIAL POLITICS

The Liberal party in this province is preparing with confidence for the trial of strength in the provincial election. This spirit of confidence has been growing steadily, because of the failure of the Fleming government to adopt a progressive policy, and because of the revolution of incompetence and the squandering of money on political favorites.

The people along the St. John valley have, with good reason, lost faith in the government. The route of the Valley Railway between Centerville and Grand Falls has not been determined, although it is announced that sub-contracts for other portions of the road will soon be awarded.

Why is the whole province not deluged with the government's designs? What is the relation of the C. P. R. to the whole project? Then there is the fact that politicians close to the government tried to hold up Mr. Gould and drag from him a big contribution to the campaign fund.

There is trouble, too, in the government ranks. There is revolt in Northumberland county. Matters are not at all satisfactory in the party in Kings and St. John. Kent is weary of the present regime, and the premier has been sent for to see his constituents.

On the other hand, the Liberals are united and confident, and making vigorous preparations for a winning campaign. The Fleming government has not made good. It is governing the province for the benefit of its partisans and not of the people, and the people having made the discovery are more and more disposed to vote for a change.

There is discussion in Gloucester the government candidates include two who lost their deposits in the last election. On all sides the outlook for the opposition improves. Even in his own county Premier Fleming confronts the prospect of defeat.

The zeal with which members of the legislature supporting the government have promoted legislation to grant franchises in which they are interested is another cause for public dissatisfaction.

On the other hand, the Liberals, under the leadership of Mr. Copp, are united and confident, and making vigorous preparations for a winning campaign. The Fleming government has not made good. It is governing the province for the benefit of its partisans and not of the people, and the people having made the discovery are more and more disposed to vote for a change.

The Times yesterday suggested that the Borden government could give evidence of a real imperialistic sentiment by increasing the preference granted to British goods imported through Canadian ports.

The Standard endeavors in an article of great length to show why similar things should not be done, and dwells upon international complications. There were similar hints when the Liberal government first granted the preference, but the obvious reply was that the British Empire had a perfect right to conduct its own internal affairs.

But even if there were such a possibility as that which the Standard mentions, there is nothing to prevent Canada from increasing the whole preference to 50 per cent. There could be no international complications in connection with that further stimulus to inter-imperial trade. Our imports from the United States continue to increase more rapidly than those from the mother country. Why should not an imperialistic, flag-waving party insist upon giving the British manufacturer a greater advantage?

The matter is easily explained. The Borden government is imperial for political effect, and high protectionists for the purpose of revenue. The manufacturers do not want any increase in the British preference, and the pretended imperialism of the allies of Mr. Bourassa is a delusion and a sham.

A HINT FOR NEW BRUNSWICK
The Million For Manitoba League was organized in Winnipeg in January. Despite the fact that there is so great a stream of immigration pouring into the western country, the province of Manitoba is not rearing what it regards as a fair share of farm settlers. The purpose of the new league is to get more people upon the land in that province, and to encourage the development of mixed farming. The province is compelled every year to import hundreds of carloads of dairy products and other necessities which it could produce itself if the farming population were increased and mixed farming became more general.

The fact that Manitoba has organized such a league ought surely to make more emphatic the demand in New Brunswick for a progressive immigration policy. After the league had been organized in Winnipeg, the province was divided into districts and each district organized with its own officers and committees. The Manitoba government and the Department of the Interior at Ottawa were approached and are taking an active interest in the movement, as are also the three big railway companies operating in the province. The provincial government gave a grant of $5,000, but funds are also raised by a membership fee of $1, and in Winnipeg in one day more than 3,500 citizens paid $1 each to become members of the league. The funds will be spent in a general immigration campaign with judicious advertising in the old country, and it is proposed to extend the campaign over at least five years. There has been an immediate result of the organization in a more confident feeling among the holders of farm lands, and very satisfactory results are expected. Sir William Mayo is honorary president of the league, Ex-Mayor Sanford Evans of Winnipeg is president, and Mr. J. S. McKay is secretary.

REAL PASSION.
The great soprano was singing at Bunsford. Her desire was to finish up the concert in time to take the train back to Melbourne, and, at the last moment, her voice broke, and she gave way to a flood of passionate tears, and staggered from the platform. "Now," she said, "drive the blues for that strain!"—Sydney Bulletin.

Mr. Bowdler states that year before last five hundred immigrants came to New Brunswick, last year eight hundred, and he expects the number this year to reach twelve hundred. When we deduct from these the number who, after a time, move on, and consider also the number of our own people who go west or to the United States, it is obvious that the province is not yet increasing to any appreciable extent in population. But if there is to be development there must be more people. Why does not the provincial government take up this question in a really serious manner?

Little Bessie and her mamma were doing the rights of the town. Soon they came to a slow wicket announced: "Children, half price."
"Oh, do let us go in, mamma," said the little one, "and buy a baby, now they're so cheap!"

SOME IRISH BULLS.
A neighbor was inquiring from Mrs. Clancy how she was able to recognize the two boys who were so much alike in form and feature, face and limb. "Ah, that's easy," replied Mrs. C., "I just put my finger to Patsy's mouth, and if he bites me, shure I know it's Mike."

WAS NOT LOST.
"But," said the returned explorer, "although I seemed to be hopelessly lost, and there was not the slightest sign of a trail, I was not the least alarmed, for at that moment some nomadic Kurds rode into my camp."
"Why were you not alarmed?" asked a listener.
"I knew the Kurds would show me the way."

WORTH THE MONEY.
She appeared to be somewhat excited when he came home that night, and he naturally asked the cause.
"The man in the top hat has fallen in love with our cook," she said.
"What of it?" he asked.
"He's been trying to get her to run away and marry him."
"Do you mean the man who practices with the flute every night?"
She said she did, and he made a dive for his pocket.

HOW SHOULD HE KNOW?
Pat was strolling along the quayside as a big ship was about to depart.
"Sure," said Pat to the captain, "could you find me a job?"
"The man I want," said the captain, "and so Pat joined the ship for the first time in his life. It was a fine night, and he was in a mid-ocean. The captain all at once noticed a man fall overboard, and shouted to Pat: "Throw a buoy overboard."
Pat seized a bright-eyed youngster standing by and threw him into the sea.
"I don't mean that boy; I mean a cork boy."
"Sure," said Pat, "how do I know whether he comes from Cork or Tipperary?"
"What's your name, my little man?" asked the constable kindly.
Little Arthur wiped the tears from his sweet blue eyes, and blubbered: "I don't know!"
"Well, then, where do you live?"
Again came the answer: "I don't know!"
The kindly constable eyed the lost one with a puzzled look. Then his face cleared.
"He had got it!"
"Where do you buy your sweeties?" he asked, with an air of triumph.
"I buy 'em at Mrs. Yates' in John's street," was little Arthur's prompt reply.
And his identification became an easy matter.

ON SAME TERMS.
He was a long-looked tragedian, and at last he had obtained a speaking part. But it was only four words he had to say. "The queen has swooned!" Quite simple!
It was the first night, and he had invited his own particular pals to come and cheer him.
On he came, and announced, in a high-pitched voice:
"The queen has swooned!"
A roar of laughter greeted his words, but he was not daunted, and he made another attempt:
"The queen has swooned!"
This time the house rocked with laughter, and the voice of the stage-manager could be distinctly heard to say:
"Come off, you fool!"
But the ambitious one refused to surrender, and had to be dragged off. Even as he reached the wings, however, he screamed out:
"The queen has swooned!"

TEMPERANCE

MEN NOT TO BE PAVED WITH

Declare Requests to Government Have Been Treated Lightly

MEETING HELD HERE

Will Oppose Flemming Men Unless Demands Are Complied With—And They Propose To Find Out Just Where They Stand

The St. John County Branch of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation met last night in Christadelphian hall, Union street, when matters of importance were dealt with. It was reported that communications had been received from Premier Flemming and the local representatives in the provincial government relative to the proposed appointments of Rev. W. R. Robinson as liquor license commissioner to fill the place of J. B. Eagles, whose terms soon expire, and George F. Menzies, for liquor license inspector in place of John B. Ignes, the present official. The federation had recommended both of these appointments to the local government.

The federation was strongly of the opinion that these appointments will not be made unless the temperance people, as a member of the federation put it, "force the government's hand," and a strong resolution was moved by Rev. H. B. Boyer and seconded by Rev. William Lawson, calling on the government to make these appointments, or failing to do so, the temperance people will become actively opposed to the re-election of the present local government representatives here.

A strong delegation was also appointed to meet with the local representatives in the government at an early date and find out just where they stand in connection with the recommendations of the temperance federation. The feeling of the meeting was most strongly in favor of a move along the lines of the more rigid enforcement of the liquor laws of this city, it having been indicated by communications received from Rev. W. R. Robinson that the officials having in hand the enforcement of the law have been "grossly neglectful."

It was said by an official of the federation after the meeting that the feeling was general among the communications which they replied of the premier and the local representatives were most unsatisfactory, being "negative and resentful. It was said that the premier, in his reply, advised that the appointment of a successor to J. B. Eagles was largely in the hands of the local representatives, they making the recommendation by which he must be guided.

The local government representatives, it was also said, merely acknowledged the receipt of the communications, which they promised would receive attention. Hon. Mr. Maxwell adding that it had been "killed."

The federation, it was said last night, determined that now, on the eve of an election, and at a time when they would vigorously oppose the government candidates. "Unless we get what we want," one man said, "there will be some who will not be so easily satisfied."

It was further asserted that the government had violated its promise made to the federation officials that it would not allow liquor license inspectors John B. Jones enter the civil contest for a commission, his resignation would be asked for. Instead of doing this, it was pointed out, they made it possible for Mr. Jones to run by passing an act which permitted inspectors to run for councillorships, etc.

BADLY ULCERATED LEG

Zam-Buk Cured Her When So Bad She Had to Use Crutches

For various sores, bad leg or chronic ulcers, Zam-Buk is without equal as a healer. A proof of this is just to hand from Montreal. Mrs. T. Edwards, of Amherst street, writes: "Some time ago a bad sore broke out on my left leg near the ankle. For a week or two I did not need it, but it got so bad that I could hardly walk. I sent for my doctor, and he told me that I would have to lay up with it. I did so for three weeks. At the end of that time the ulcer healed a little, but I could only move about by using crutches. "The sore then broke out badly, and the doctor told me that the only thing that would cure it would be an operation, and that I should have to lay up for a year. This, I knew, was impossible, as I had a family to attend to. "My son had cured a bad cut on his finger by using Zam-Buk, and he advised me to give this balm a try. I did so, and in less than a week's time it gave me wonderful relief. It stopped the pain, and I did not get a wink of sleep. In a very short time the wound was so much better that I had no more sleepless nights, and was able to move about and do my work. I persevered with Zam-Buk, until the result that the wound is now perfectly cured, and the limb is as sound and strong as ever. To any person suffering from a sore of this kind, I would say, try Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk is just as good for piles, abscesses, boils, scalp sores, blood poison, festering wounds, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, eczema, eruptions, and all other skin diseases. All druggists and stores, 50c box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. Have you tried Zam-Buk Soap? 25c tablet.

RECENT DEATHS

Surrounded by her husband and son, relatives and friends and several of the former Mayor, Mrs. Mary Ritchie, wife of Hon. R. J. Ritchie, police magistrate of St. John, passed peacefully away yesterday afternoon at the private hospital, after the last rites of the church had been administered by her nephew, Rev. D. Patton, of Miramichi (N. S.).

Mrs. Ritchie was in ill health for the last year, but her death came as a great shock all who knew her. She was the daughter of John Short, formerly a prominent shipbuilder of St. Stephen and now residing in Kenora. In the city she had had a marked career in charitable circles, being for many years a director of the Home for Incumbents and also a prominent member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. She was also one of the commissioners of the Free Public Library and an active member of the Women's Canadian Club. Her services were considered invaluable in the Victorian Order of Nurses, of which she was a representative. She was a member of the Cathedral congregation, where she rendered valuable assistance and her face was familiar to every member of the congregation.

Mrs. Ritchie is survived by her husband, one son, Edmund, two sisters, both of the order of the Sisters of Mercy, St. Mercedes of Portland (Me.), and St. Philomena of Calais (Me.), and two brothers, Charles, now in the West, and John, of Kenora, and her father.

STARVING IN INDIA

Rev. Dr. Hume Writes of Conditions Almost as Serious as in China

Boston, May 8—Rev. Dr. Robert A. Hume, who has charge of the extensive work at Ahmednagar, in the Marathi mission of the American board, writes to the home office in Boston that famine conditions in the west portion of India are almost as serious as those in China, although covering a smaller district. He says that such help as at similar times has come through the efforts of the London Herald (the organ of the board), has failed because of its preoccupation with the Chinese situation, and that the need in the Ahmednagar district is not met. All the famine money received up to the date of his letter in March being not more than $200, "who ordinarily live from hand to mouth are now reduced to mere skeletons in the worst districts nearly one-fourth of the population is on relief work, or receiving charitable aid, and relief must now be extended to others who cannot be taken care of by the relief work."

NEW CEMENT COMPANY

Sir Sanford Fleming Said to Be Interested in $10,000,000 Concern

Toronto, May 8—A new cement company which will establish a chain of plants from Vancouver to Halifax is now in process of organization. The capital of the new company, it is understood, will be ten million dollars, and the underwriting will probably be started within a week or so. Among its promoters are a number of interests identified with the Canada Cement Company in its early stages. Joseph Irvine, who was managing director of the International Portland Cement Company of Ottawa, is mentioned as one of those interested in the projected company and so also is Sir Sanford Fleming. The company, it is understood, proposes to adopt a new process of manufacture, economical as to production and satisfactory as to results, which has already been adopted by some of the large manufacturers in the United States. John H. Whitler of Cornwall, Me., who is now in his 106th year and the second oldest resident of the state, saved and fitted for two stoves during the last winter all the wood that has been burned by a family of five. He is preparing to help with the spring farming, and says he is as strong as he was twenty-five years ago. He is great-grandfather to twenty children, and believes that a record which cannot be equalled by any other man in Maine.

COURTENAY BAY

Sea Wall Proposed Instead of Change in Location of Breakwater—Industrial Sites

A plan to reclaim 200 acres of land at the mouth of Little River to provide industrial sites was put forward at a meeting of the harbor development committee of the board of trade yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to investigate the possibility of having the breakwater placed nearer the mouth of the bay than the present arrangement calls for. Mr. Valliquet of the public works department, Ottawa, explained the engineering difficulties in the way of the change. The committee therefore decided to put forward the alternative scheme on the eastern shore adjoining the breakwater and to have the land enclosed filled in. Mr. H. Thorne, chairman of the committee left for Montreal last evening and will interview Hon. Mr. Hazen regarding the proposal. LONGSHOREMEN ELEC. The annual meeting of the local branch of the International Longshoremen's Association was held last night in their rooms, Water street. Much routine business was transacted and the election of officers resulted as follows: President, John F. Montague, re-elected; business agent, Edward Tighe, re-elected; secretary, C. G. Langham; financial secretary, H. Downey; treasurer, H. McDonald.

Toronto Man Cured of Intolerable Itch

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Four or five years ago I was in Fort Arthur, and I had an attack of the itch. It certainly was an intolerable nuisance. The itching was principally at nights before I went to bed. The stings were especially affected. "I went to two doctors about it, and tried more than one remedy. I was beginning to think the complaint was incurable, when I was taken my trouble to a barber, and he said that he would guarantee to cure me. He told me to take a hot bath, use Cuticura Soap, and then apply Cuticura Ointment. I took his advice, and, ere long, the itch vanished. I had probably been troubled with the itch for two or three months before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and they completely cured me of this intolerable nuisance. After one warm bath with Cuticura Soap and one of the Cuticura Ointment I was never troubled with the itching again. Nothing in this testimonial I would be prepared to swear to in a court of law." (Signed) J. E. Hooper, 228 Parliament Street, Toronto, Jan. 10, 1911. For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the speediest, simplest and most economical treatment of skin and scalp humors. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A liberal sample of each, with 32-page book, sent free, to any address, by The Toilet Drug & Chem. Corp., 52 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

CALLS FOR SPECIAL COLLECTIONS AND SPECIAL SERMONS

A Phase of City Church Life Discussed at Meeting of St. John Deaneys

The quarterly meeting of the St. John Deaneys was held in St. Mary's parish yesterday, Archdeacon Raymond presiding, Rev. H. Collins, secretary. Among those in attendance were Rev. Canon Hoyt, Rev. Messrs. E. B. Hooper, G. F. Scovill, J. W. Millidge, W. M. Winsley, P. Coulthart, A. C. Fenwick and H. Collins. After the usual service and a celebration of the Holy Communion the chapter met for business in St. Mary's school room. Among the subjects discussed were those of placing the church book room in Germain street on a more efficient basis, the providing for regular and systematic visiting of the General Public Hospital and the employment of a city missionary. The customary reading of a chapter in the Greek Testament of the St. John xx was followed by a very interesting discussion of the chapter in which all those present took part. Some time was then spent in the consideration of the question as to the best mode of dealing with appeals for special objects and requests for sermons upon special subjects. The rector of one city parish said that during the last year he had received nineteen calls for special sermons. In a former year he had received twenty-three similar requests. The experience of other clergy present was almost identical, and it was felt that special calls and the growing tendency to "ear-mark" Sundays for specified purposes was becoming irksome. The feeling of the meeting, however, was that no joint action was practicable at present, and that the matter must rest with individual churches and clergymen as to what appeals should be recognized. At the close of the session the members were entertained at luncheon by Archdeacon Raymond.

Today's Police Court. The business of the police court was disposed of this morning by Sitting Magistrate Henderson, in the absence of Magistrate Ritchie. Three prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $4 or ten days in jail. Duncan Williams, reported for having a ferocious bull dog, was told that he would have to destroy the animal. Samuel Drury, reported for obstructing the sidewalk in Erin street with a pile of lumber, was before the court. The case was allowed to stand for the present. Robert Beckwith was fined $2 for going beyond the stand allotted for coachmen at the Union depot on Saturday last. The fine was allowed to stand. Gordon Johnston, reported for furiously driving his automobile, was cautioned and allowed to go. James A. Wilcox, charged with obtaining money under false pretences, was to have come up for trial, but on account of the absence of Detective Killen the case was further adjourned. The prisoner will be represented by E. S. Ritchie. W. E. Holder and A. G. Williamson have been reported to the court for doing business in the city without a license, and Morris Johnson for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk on Rodney wharf.

NEW FREDERICTON FACTORY

Mail.—The Palmer-McLellan Shipbuilding Company at Monday night's meeting of the Fredericton city council in committee, applied for free site and exemption from taxation and from the payment of water-rates for a period of twenty-one years. The new company is to be capitalized at $75,000 and it is understood that a large amount of the capital already is subscribed. It is the intention of the promoters with the erection of a factory building 200 feet in length by 50 in breadth and two stories in height. The building is to be of stone and to have a basement. A brick boiler-house will be attached to the main building. It is understood that the promoters are prepared to go ahead with the erection of a factory as soon as a site is available.
