THE BREAD PAN

More Needed Than the Pan-American in Mexico Just Now.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 30.—News was received here today that at Puarandiro, Michoacan, Mexico, on Oct. 25, a bread riot occurred, in which twenty persons were wounded, many of them fatally. A famine has existed in that section of Mexico for months, and the government recently removed the import duty on corn from the United States as a measure of relief. It is said that speculators cornered the shipments to Puarandiro and raised the price 100 per cent. The starving people, driven to desperation, attacked the warehouses, the women and children leading the assault. They were shot down by the guards. Those who escaped the bullets fled appalled at what had happened. The conditions in that section of the republic south of Mexico are depicted as terrible. Puarandiro is about 50 miles from the railroad and the last news from there was that the situation was critical and that more bloodshed was feared. The government has started troops to the scene.

TRURO NEWS.

Big Fire Narrowly Averted—Another Accidental Shooting.

TRURO, Oct. 30.—Truro escaped a conflagration tonight by the meeting of the executive of the T. A. C. in Blanchard Bentley & Company's office. While sitting behind closed doors the reflection of a light was noticed in the main store, and Mr. Bentley, on going out to see who had turned on the electric light, as he supposed, found a brick-blaze. The committee men rushed out and smothered the fire with blankets and, carrying water in buckets, succeeded in killing the flames. The damage from smoke will be great, but is covered by insurance. The fire caught from hot steam pipes. This fire was burned out in the Sydney fire.

TRURO, Oct. 30.—John Snook, son of Isaac Snook, brother of Lt. Snook, 78th battalion, accidentally shot himself while hunting in the bush for partridges with a 32 calibre revolver. All efforts to find the lead were unavailing. He will be taken to Halifax for the X ray.

DID THEY BURN THE TOWN?

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 30.—Twenty-three business houses, composing the heart of the town of Timminsville, were burned early this morning. There was an explosion in the store of Smith & Dennis, which aroused the town, and then the flames burst out. A keg of powder is supposed to have exploded. There was no apparatus for fighting the fire. One block of ten brick stores, including the store of Smith & Dennis, is in the burned district. Timminsville is in the burned district. The loss is conservatively placed at $100,000, with less than one-third insurance. A sensational feature developed late this evening when W. F. Dennis, of Smith & Dennis, merchants, was arrested on a charge of arson. Smith had left the town when citizens called at his place. Dennis refuses to talk. Because of the manner in which the fire started and rested on these premises, and search of their premises revealed boxes of shoes, etc., stacked in their houses and barns. The sheriff has gone after Smith with a warrant. Both men have borne excellent reputations.

BRIEFS BY WIRE.

Earl Russell and Mrs. Somerville were married at the registry office in London this morning.

Upon landing in London today on his return from the United States, Sir Thomas Lipton was given a hearty reception.

Mary B. Livingstone died last night at Minneapolis, Minn., during an operation for the removal of a small bone which had become lodged in her throat. Miss Livingstone was 35 years of age and a niece of the famous African explorer.

Among the passengers who sailed this morning from New York on the Deutschland for Bremen is Count Von Von Moltke. Count Von Moltke has been in the United States since October 4, having been commissioned by the Prussian parliament, of which he is a member, to study American transportation methods over streets, highways, rivers and canals.

AMERICANS CAPTURE CONTRACTS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—According to the World a conduit and cable company of this city will furnish the cables required for an extension of the Glasgow corporation tramways. The contract will amount to nearly $250,000. The cables will be manufactured at Hastings-On-The-Hudson. The British Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co., Ltd., has also closed contracts with American machinery manufacturers for the equipment of its extensive works, now under construction at Manchester. These contracts aggregate nearly $200,000.

FLEEING FROM NOME.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 30.—The steamers Queen and Valencia arrived today from Nome. Each brought 500 passengers. On the Queen were 100 stowaways who succeeded in boarding the vessel by climbing up the anchor chain while the vessel was at anchor in the roadway at Nome. Passengers say that 500 men are left at Nome, all of whom are penniless, with no means of making a living during the winter, and a reign of terror is expected. During the entire voyage of the Queen petty thefts were of daily occurrence.

SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The war office sent orders to Aldershot last night directing that a brigade of cavalry be prepared to start for South Africa about the middle of next month.

YORK THEATRE.

York Theatre continues to have a steady run. Last night the Chimes of Normandy was put on before a large house and was particularly well received. This afternoon a special matinee will be given by the Robinson Company, and this evening they will sing Boccaccio.

IN THE YUKON.

Government Admits Poor Administration—The Gold Output $23,000,000.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—In order to promote efficiency in the public service in the Yukon, Alme Dugas, deputy registrar, has been removed from office and Wilfrid Haultain appointed in his place. The latter is a brother of Premier Haultain, of the Northwest Territories.

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—A Globe special from Dawson, Yukon territory, says that the total season's output of gold in round numbers, according to official estimate, was $23,000,000. The despatch adds that ice is running and that the last boat left on Oct. 22nd.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—Assistant Gold Commissioner Bell, of the Yukon, who was suspended some time ago, for irregularities in his office, is to be dismissed. Bell was a lawyer in Quebec before going to the Yukon.

A PURE FOOD LAW.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—What is said to be the strictest pure food law in the United States will go into effect in New Jersey today. Its enforcement has been entrusted to the New Jersey state board of health. It, the office of state dairy commissioner is abolished and his duties will come under those of the chief food inspector. There will be a large number of deputies scattered all over the state. Everything that is manufactured or put up outside the state can come into use for human consumption as food or drink is included under the law. The inspection will even take in canned goods. It does not matter whether the goods are anything else is manufactured or put up outside the state, or in it. They are liable to come under the ban of the law if the analysis to be made from time to time shows them to be unfit for human food. Wines not made in the natural manner or containing coloring substances or anything rendering them impure are liable to confiscation, and destruction if offered for sale. Milk must come up to the set standards of purity and richness and be legally put on sale. Municipal water supplies are also liable to condemnation if impure. Fertilizer penalties are established for the manufacture or sale of anything to eat or drink that is not pure.

THE KING'S HEALTH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables the following concerning the health of King Edward: With a full sense of its responsibility in the matter, the Medical Press and Circular prints some alarming details on the subject of the king's health. It is stated that the papillomatous growths have on three occasions been removed from the king's left vocal chord, and that an immediate operation of another nature has since been rendered necessary. "Under the circumstances," says the Medical Press, "it seems right and proper that the natural anxiety should be met at once with a clear announcement as to the truth or otherwise of these distressing reports."

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Lancet today says it has official authority to announce that the recent rumors regarding the health of King Edward are entirely without truth or foundation, and that he is in good health and has undergone no operation whatever.

PORTO RICO WANTS STATEHOOD.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The visit to the United States of the Porto Rican delegation of business men has a far greater significance than has appeared hitherto. The Porto Ricans have come primarily to pave the way for the admission of the island, first as an organized territory, then as a state. The authority for this statement is Federal Degetau, the present commissioner from the island to the United States. The delegation will visit Washington, where an interview with President Roosevelt will be had.

HE LAUGHED AND DIED.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Oct. 30.—While mounting, eight years old, was crushed under the wheels of a street car, this evening. His elder brother had pulled him off the track, but he escaped, and laughing ran directly in front of the moving car and met instant death.

A NEGRO LYNCHED.

HODGENVILLE, Ky., Oct. 31.—A mob of 50 and 75 citizens came down upon this little town about two o'clock this morning and took from the jail Silas Eaters, a negro charged with forcing Granville Ward, a 15 year old boy of Near Upton, to commit a crime and strung him to the court house steps after shooting him down for attempting to escape.

ANOTHER CARNEGIE OFFER.

QUELME, Ont., Oct. 31.—The free library board has received a letter from Andrew Carnegie offering to give $20,000 for a public library in Quelme, provided the city will provide a site and grant $2000 annually for maintenance.

LIQUOR KILLED HIM.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Thos. J. Harvey, formerly a programme seller at the Pan-American exposition, late last night attempted to shoot William J. McLaughlin, with whom he boarded in front of the Amherst hotel. The bullet went wide of its mark and lodged in the hand of an Indian, Charles Brave, who stood nearby. Harvey then ran to the rear of the hotel and shot himself in the head, inflicting a wound which caused his death this morning. Harvey had been drinking heavily.

THE CHANNEL STORM SWIFT.

DOVER, Oct. 31.—A fierce easterly gale has been blowing today over the whole channel, dislocating shipping. The channel steamers were obliged to abandon attempts to enter the port of Folkestone which was not approachable owing to the tremendous seas running. A number of minor wrecks have been reported, and several vessels have sunk at their moorings. The wind-gauge registered 90 miles an hour. The tide is rising and vessels of all kinds are seeking shelter from the storm. Great number of carcasses of animals are washing ashore in the vicinity of Deal, indicating that a shipping disaster has occurred near there.

FRANCE AND TURKEY.

French Fleet Ordered to the Levant and May Bombard Smyrna.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The officials of the French foreign office confirm the report that a division of the French Mediterranean fleet, composed of three battleships and two cruisers, under the command of Admiral Oullivier, has proceeded from Toulon to the Levant to make a naval demonstration against Turkey.

A foreign official communicating the foregoing to the correspondent of the Associated Press said: "The squadron sailed with sealed orders and proceeds first to a Greek port—the Island of Hydra, I think—where the admiral will receive definite instructions as to carrying out his sealed orders. I am not at liberty to say why the sealed orders are, but the seizure of the customs at Smyrna would probably be a very effective way of convincing the Sultan that France's patience is exhausted and that we have decided to enforce an immediate execution of the Turkish government's engagements. We, however, are very hopeful that the sultan will not compel us to go to that extreme. Our squadron will not reach the Greek port before Sunday. The Turkish government has thus still three days grace, and we trust in the meantime to receive complete satisfaction. We have acted very considerably towards Turkey, hoping up to the last moment that she would carry out her engagements and it is only now, when we find that there is no serious indication of her doing so, that we have reluctantly resolved to put stronger pressure to them in the shape of a naval demonstration. It is now two months since the French ambassador, M. Constant, left Constantinople. His departure failed to produce the desired effect. On the contrary, even the Quays and Tainin questions, which the Sultan's tradition purported to settle, remain open. We hope the sultan will fully appreciate the fact that we cannot any longer be trifled with, and relieve us of taking further steps to safeguard our interests."

The official was asked what would happen if the Turkish authorities resisted, and he replied: "That is a very unlikely contingency. But, if it occurred, I suppose we shall have to bombard the port. But, we do not want bloodshed, and I do not believe there will be any occasion for it to occur."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31.—A large demonstration was made in front of the admiralty office Tuesday by six hundred officers and non-commissioned Bashi Bazouks, which caused dismay among the occupants of the Yildie palace. The pay of those taking part in the demonstration is several months in arrears, and only a promise of prompt settlement prevented the carrying out of threats of further action. The pay of all the troops, with the exception of the marines, is similarly in arrears, but the marines are paid with fair regularity, because they furnish the guard weekly and discontent among them might result in serious consequences to Abdul Pasha.

THE TURK AND MISS STONE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 31.—The Turkish government is already preparing to resist the anticipated demand of the United States for repayment of the ransom necessary to secure the release of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the abducted American missionary. A high Turkish official this morning informed a representative of the Associated Press that the Turkish resistance of any claims would be based upon these contentions: First—That Miss Stone, although warned of the dangers of the road, persisted in travelling; second—That she did not notify the authorities of her intention, in order to obtain an escort, which precaution even the foreign consuls always take when travelling in such outlying, insecure districts of the empire; and, third—That the brigands who kidnapped Miss Stone and her companion were Bulgarians; that the coup was planned in Bulgaria and that the man who was found in Bulgarian territory.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Americans are preparing a reception for Miss Stone upon her release, says a Sofia, Bulgaria, correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser. It is believed that Miss Stone will be able to be present at Philippopolis on November 8, at the dedication of the new American church there. After that she will doubtless go to the U. S. to see her relatives.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 31, 1901.

IT'S GOOD NEWS.

The Star today contains two items of news that will give great satisfaction to the citizens. One is that the C. P. R. company is putting forth great exertions to be in readiness to handle a largely increased business at West St. John this winter. The other is that a strong company is seeking incorporation to operate the cotton mills, and that the outlook for an early resumption of work in the mills appears very favorable. The labor employed at Sand Point and in the cotton mills counts for a good deal in the business of the city and the comfort of many homes during the winter season.

THE SMALL BOYS' DAY.

The thirty-first day of October is a red letter day in every boy's calendar. The celebration of Hallow E'en differs from every other in many respects. On Dominion Day and other such holidays his noise and mischief are expended in broad daylight, and on these days none appear to dare to molest him, or make him afraid. But this evening, after the sun has retired and a corporation moonlight makes dark corners, and vision uncertain, he turns out on his work of devastation. His conscience he leaves safely at home. It is solely in the way on such a night as this, and unburdened by its admonitions he loots indiscriminately, gates and pumpkins, doorsteps and apples, and in fact anything and everything that is not secured at each end and nailed in the middle. It appears to be a generally accepted theory that such transgressions are quietly winked at on Hallow E'en. But no boy allows himself to be lulled into fancied security by any such idea. The sound of a slow and steady tread and the gleam of brass buttons will cause a scurrying that equals the sudden disappearance of a mouse on the approach of its hereditary foe. From sheltered corners the boys watch the course of the guardian of the law, and happy are they should he bark his ahms against an overturned step or trip over a cunningly laid trap of string. When he passes the work goes diligently on, and there is no cessation while a gate remains on its hinges, or a single keyhole has escaped the in-blown fumes of burning oakum, or a suitable window has not rebounded to the repeated blows of the tip-tap. And when the work is all done, work that will give the householders hours of labor in setting right, they will return to their ancestral homes and with cherubic faces recarminate their consciences and bob for apples, while the taffy bubbles on the stove.

CUTTING RATES.

A war is now on between the German and English steamship lines, and it bids fair to be a prolonged and bitter one. The trouble began by the Cunard line suspecting the German lines of cutting rates, and as no satisfactory explanation was forthcoming the home office lowered the rate ten dollars for first-class passage. At this the German line lowered its rates ten dollars, and now the Star line is said to be following suit, and if the rate-cutting continues, as a New York paper predicts it will, we may all be able to take a trans-Atlantic trip before the winter season closes. A Montreal despatch of yesterday's date says: "The Allan, Dominion and other steamship lines running to Montreal, say if passenger rate cutting on trans-Atlantic business between German and Cunard lines running to New York is kept up, they will be compelled to reduce their rates."

WATER AND SEWERAGE.

At the meeting of the board of works yesterday the director stated that the L. C. R. was laying water pipes along their new wharf to supply steamers. F. W. Hildard called attention to the fact that he owned large tracts of land fronting on Spruce and Ludgate lakes. He was willing to meet the board for the purpose of negotiating for their purchase. James Osborne of the C. P. R. sent in a communication stating they would need from fifteen to twenty-five thousand gallons a day during the winter. The board was asked to give the railroad connection with the water works near the crossing of Sea street and the branch track. The first freight is expected about November 15th, and the first vessel will sail Nov. 25th. Engineer Murdoch reported that the probable cost of this connection would be about $2,000. There would be no additional revenue from the city. The matter was finally left in the hands of Ald. Baxter, Millidge and Armstrong, with the engineer. It was recommended that a new pipe be run to the Douglas sewer school from Bentley street. Thirty dollars damages will be allowed J. J. Gordon consequent upon the shutting off of the water supply lately.

IKIE TRISSELL'S JOB.

Hon. William Engel will begin very soon to entirely reconstruct the Hodgkings & Hall saw mill at East Hampton, which he bought recently. Isaac Triswell, a mill engineer, is expected here today, and will have charge of the work. The buildings will be remodelled, and much new machinery, including a band saw and resaw, put in. The work will be done this winter, so that the mill may be ready for business in the early spring of 1902. The cost of the improvements will be about $30,000. The mill will be operated by Lowell & Engel.

THE ANNEXATION OF CUBA.

The annexation of Cuba, it is said, will be asked for next month. The Cuban planters, it is claimed, in spite of the good sugar crops, will be ruined unless the taxation on export sugar is reduced or annexation is brought about. A commission has been appointed to wait on the president, and if the tax reduction cannot be secured annexation will be sought. As the grinding season for sugar opens in December the question is urgent.

ONTOARIO TOWNS ARE LEGISLATING AGAINST THE TRADING STAMP.

Ontario towns are legislating against the trading stamp. When it has been driven out some other scheme will take its place. The belief that something can sometimes be got for nothing has a strong hold on the minds of many people. The Australian government has decided to utilize automobiles for collecting letters in the large centres, for the conveyance of mails between cities and suburbs, and on long distance routes not served by railways. A London despatch says that Messrs. Armstrong and Orling profess to have found the secret of freely transmitting electrical energy without wires, and demonstrations are now in progress.

WANTED—A case of Headache that KUMFORT Powders will not cure in ten to twenty minutes. A very quiet yet pretty wedding took place last evening at the Baptist parsonage, Waterloo street, when the Rev. Mr. Waring united in marriage Alfred P. Shipp of Upper Hamptstead and Miss Mina Louisa Brown of Boston, Mass. The bride was becomingly attired in a light grey travelling suit with hat to match. She was the recipient of many handsome gifts from Boston, as well as from friends and relatives in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shipp left by this morning's train for a trip to Halifax, P. E. Island and other places, accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends. After their return they will reside at Upper Hamptstead, Queens Co., N. B.

"Mr. Dooley" is again witty at England's expense, but as the editor of the Westminster Gazette, which publishes his latest dialogues, Englishmen will not grudge the laugh. "When respectable English people go to war, they don't expect to have to keep it up for ever. They're other things to do. But the Boers wouldn't stop. Many attempts were made to conciliate them. If you will lay down your arms an' cut your hair, said Lord Roberts in Candyhar an' Cork an' Pretoria an' th' dominyons beyond th' sea, an' forget Kruger an' learn to sing Gawd save th' King, you'll be allowed to stand again a wall an' be shot. Otherwise," he says, "I'll soon have to take drastic measures again ye," he says. "No," says th' Boers, "we're sorry, but we must refuse ye'r kind words. We welcome Nawthing wud give us more pleasure than to provide good target practice for ye'r gallant in-ads," they says, "but gr-re-at as wud be th' honor of bein' buried in th' 'em-fack with a brass band to play over us, we like th' lead, free an' dishonorable life th' ye'veld."

ONTOARIO TOWNS ARE LEGISLATING AGAINST THE TRADING STAMP.

Ontario towns are legislating against the trading stamp. When it has been driven out some other scheme will take its place. The belief that something can sometimes be got for nothing has a strong hold on the minds of many people. The Australian government has decided to utilize automobiles for collecting letters in the large centres, for the conveyance of mails between cities and suburbs, and on long distance routes not served by railways. A London despatch says that Messrs. Armstrong and Orling profess to have found the secret of freely transmitting electrical energy without wires, and demonstrations are now in progress.

MISSIONS

Proceedings in Trinity Church School House Yesterday Afternoon.

Interesting Paper on Progress of Missions—Work Among the Jews.

At the afternoon session, the Lord Bishop of Fredericton again presided, after the singing of a hymn and prayer, Rev. F. W. Wilkinson of Dartmouth, N. S., read a carefully prepared, comprehensive and most interesting paper on the Progress of Missions in the 19th Century. In opening, he discussed the philosophy of missions and the inauguration of practical work for the outside propagation of gospel principles. The names of prominent workers in the cause were quoted and sketches of their work given. Modern mission received its first great impetus from the indefatigable and noble work of William Wilberforce, whose work of foreign enterprise was contemporary with the beginning of the movement in aid of the poor at home in England. The formation of the different missionary societies, beginning with the Baptist society, was related, and the cause of the movement, to which is due England's present greatness, was traced directly to the hand of God. The speaker then turned to the various fields of labor, beginning with the first exploited, the colonies of Great Britain, and sketched the progress of missionary work in the several districts, elucidating the efforts of the devoted band of workers who had labored and given their lives to the cause. The Indian field, where one of the greatest works had been done, was dealt upon, and especial praise given to the wonderful work of William Carey there, and of Judson in Burma. The interesting and extremely difficult field of Australia was briefly discussed, and its wonderful results quoted. In synthesizing the progress of the work, an interesting series of statistics was given, dating from 1820, when there were 20 societies extant, with 480 missionaries. Organization of missionary enterprise was traced to its magnificent development of the present, and its results quoted, including the spread of Christianity and civilization abroad and the quickening reaction upon the church at home. At present there are in South America 13 Protestant missionary societies, with 15,000 communicants. In Mexico 14 societies, 200 missionaries and 18,000 communicants. In Africa there were 45 societies and 1,900 missionaries. Here the Bible had been translated into 70 languages. Among the 2,000 islands in the southern sea there were 14,000 churches with 1,200 ordained pastors. In India there were 600,000 Protestants and 200,000 native communicants. There were 988 missionaries, 711 women workers and 377 native helpers. China had 64 societies, 127 missionaries, 519 lay missionaries and 160,000 native believers. Counting physicians, there were 2,461 workers. In Japan were 35 societies, 632 missionaries, 308 native helpers, 423 churches and 40,000 members. In all there was a total of 249 missionary societies, with 200 more co-operative, 6,000 missionaries, 484 men and 318 women medical missionaries, 1,470 lay missionaries. All told there were 14,460 missionaries in foreign lands, who were assisted by 4,000 ordained native preachers, 72,000 native helpers, sustaining 5,771 stations and 2,600 substations, with a total of 1,117,000 communicants. The Bible had been translated into 400 different languages and 500,000,000 copies had been circulated during the last century. Missions had resulted in the widening of empire, the suppression of slavery, the emancipation of women in India, and in countless other improvements, including the quickening reaction upon the church at home.

The subject of Jewish missions was then discussed by Rev. A. F. Burt of Shediac, who treated his subject under four separate heads: Avocation, Judication, Operation, and Vindication. Under the first head he treated the call to the work, regretting the great indifference of the church to this department. We owed to the Jews debts of gratitude of reparation, and with their evangelization was intimately connected the coming of the Lord. Christ Himself declared that His mission was only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel, and His whole ministry was confined to them. It was our duty to carry on the work. The field, he said, was world-wide, wherever the ancient people had scattered through Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and America. The character of the field was different from all others. It was very difficult to get into touch with the Jews, who had many centuries of misuse from us to remember. There was also an enormous field of controversy to be met before conversion in any case was possible. So the missionary to the Jews must be carefully and specially prepared. The method must of necessity be a combination of work, evangelistic and philanthropic. Every Hebrew convert became an outcast from his own people and must be provided with means of livelihood and protected from the bitter animosity of his former friends. Means of education must also be provided. From the second century to the eighteenth

ATLANTIC TO PACIFIC

It is one continuous song of praise from Cape Breton to Vancouver Island, across our broad Dominion, from the thousands of owners of Nordheimer Pianos, that the exquisite quality of tone these famous instruments produce, unquestionably makes them the choice of all the pianos made in Canada.

The steadily increasing sales, together with the unstinted admiration of the thousands of purchasers of Nordheimer Pianos, is, after all, the best proof of their sterling merit. The Nordheimer Piano is a musical instrument of the highest quality, retaining its own peculiar charm and sweetness of tone, after many years of use and wear.

THE THUNDERER ON ST. JOHN. Mr. Vincent, the special correspondent of the London Times, sent to his paper the following report of the welcome of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York in St. John. ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 17.—When the Canadian government railway officials took charge of the two special trains at Chaudiere Junction yesterday one began to realize that the colossal tour was ending and the railway journey of nearly 7,000 miles approaching its conclusion. The trains reached this handsome city, which has been entirely rebuilt since the fire of 1877, somewhat late; but I am glad to learn that its loyal citizens will have full enjoyment of the royal visit. It was feared once that it might be otherwise, as it was intended that their Royal Highnesses and Lord and Lady Major should sleep in the trains. The Mayor, however, made a special journey earlier in the tour in order to draw attention to the great preparations that had been made by the city, including houses furnished expressly for the Duke and Duchess and the Governor General. His representations were successful, and the people of St. John are accordingly delighted.

Conductor Hagerman and the other officials of the Fredericton branch train were vaccinated at Fredericton Junction yesterday morning, as a precaution against smallpox.

Shortly after three o'clock today an alarm was sent in for a fire in the second story of the store occupied by the Linton & Sinclair Co., crockery, Dock street.

This week has been a poor one for the fishermen. Their catches have been not more than sufficient to supply the local market. The quotations are: Cod and haddock, four cents; fresh mackerel, fifteen cents a piece; smelts eight to ten cents; pickerel, six cents.

The shipments of coal from the Springhill collieries during September were 29,824 tons, a gain of 2,880 tons over September of last year. The shipments for the first nine months of 1901 were 241,880 tons, a decrease of 48,483 tons as compared with the same period of last year.

DEATH OF MRS. JAMES H. DAY. The death is reported of Mrs. Helen E. Day, wife of James H. Day of Day's Landing, which occurred this morning after an illness of three years at her home. Mrs. Day was fifty-six years of age, and besides her husband leaves one son at present on military service in South Africa.

Her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from her late home to the cemetery at Westfield. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Parlee.

SAW IT WITH GREEN EYES. The St. John Star on Tuesday published a portrait of Coolidge taken after his execution. It must have been taken after his execution, because no living man ever looked like that portrait.—Moncton Transcript.

The portrait published by the Star was got by this paper direct from Buffalo, immediately after the assassination of Pres. McKinley, and is the same as published in the large United States dailies. Last Tuesday's Montreal Herald also reproduced the same picture. The Transcript is jealous of this ambitious young journal's enterprise.

A DISH OF RASPBERRIES. R. A. Courtenay of Douglas avenue had a saucer of ripe raspberries from his own garden for his supper last evening. Mr. Courtenay says there are still plenty of green berries on the bushes, which will ripen if the mild spell holds a few days longer. This brings the fruit record back from Kings county to St. John again.

POLICE COURT. James Ramsay Goes to Jail Again—Three Cases of Thirst.

James Ramsay furnished the only amusement in the police court this morning and his description of how he "bluffed" Jacob Nofel was truly graphic. Nofel gave his side of the story, which was to the effect that he had met Ramsay on Brussels street and the latter had struck him without any provocation. Jimmy endeavored to explain the case, and held forth as follows:

"Wasn't you and another fellow sitting by the church three months ago, and didn't I ask the other fellow for a chew and didn't you tell him not to give that squealing—any, and the other night didn't you come along to me and didn't you ask me if I had any left in the bottle and your honor I soaked him."

On the last word Jimmy brought his hands together in a manne, which dispelled all doubts as to his ability to give a black eye, but his countenance rapidly changed when "twenty dollars or two months with hard labor" reached his ears. James subsequently made an announcement of his intentions in regard to reporters who had christened him the "squealer," and vowed vengeance whenever he gets out.

Charles Myers and Charles Stokes, the former for being drunk on Charlotte street, and the latter on Magee's wharf, were each fined four dollars or twenty days.

Charles Dalley, arrested for being drunk on Union street, West End, was remanded. Dalley is thought to be the man who made himself obnoxious in the King's Daughters Guild yesterday.

This morning between seven and eight o'clock Officer Marshall found a man by the name of Thomas Wilson lying dead drunk on Dorchester street and had him carted to the central station. Wilson had not recovered sufficiently to appear in the police court this forenoon.

In the afternoon he was brought before the magistrate and fined two dollars or five days.

WINTER PORTS.

The C. P. R. Means Business and Spares no Expense.

Preparations at West St. John Nearing Completion—Construction of Big Yard at Bay Shore Well Under Way.

As the time for the opening of the winter port trade draws near interest in the developments of the port increases and the business community in St. John and throughout Canada will be glad to know of the improvements and progress being made. The C. P. R. construction at Sand Point and Bay Shore has and still is giving employment to over four hundred men, and the work is being rapidly carried along.

The new wharf between Fowler's office and the flour shed has been built, and the tracks laid and connected. All the material which is being taken from the Bay Shore yard is being dumped into the hole between the new wharf and the land, and already additional track has been laid. Other tracks will be put down as the land is built, and these will provide additional facilities for the handling of local and Bay of Fundy business.

At Sand Point the cattle sheds which are being built by Contractors D. W. Clark & Son are about completed. The new cinder flooring in the old sheds is now being put down. When completed the two groups of sheds will afford accommodation for between 1,500 and 1,800 head of cattle.

The piles for an additional track in rear of No. 4 berth are being driven, and the track will be laid and work completed within ten days.

The elevator conveyors have been extended, new spouts have been erected and the new automatic trippers will be installed immediately upon their arrival this week. The electric plant at the elevators will furnish light for the new cattle sheds, which will be fitted inside and outside with incandescent arc lamps.

Two elevated platforms have been erected and an additional track laid at the south end of No. 1 berth, which will permit of large cars being loaded at one setting as compared with only two formerly. An elevated platform and additional track have also been placed in the rear of the C. P. R. berth, out at the bar or extreme southern end of Sand Point, which will greatly facilitate the handling of business there.

The Dominion government are also erecting large and commodious quarters for the use of immigrants at Sand Point, which will undoubtedly be much appreciated.

At Bay Shore the big yards are well under way and the large steam shovels and track layers will continue working there until the snow flies and the ground is frozen, by which time it is hoped and expected that all of the work laid out for this season will have been completed. Several tracks have already been put down, and a new office for the accommodation of the yard master, locomotive foremen and their staff is being erected. The foundation of the new engine house is well under way, and this structure will be ready for service early in December. It is designed to house six engines at one time, and is so arranged that it can be increased to two hundred and fifty per cent. at any time. The cars are the contractors for it, as well as for some of the other work.

The site has been selected for the large new freight house to be built by Clark, and its erection will be vigorously proceeded with. The materials are now arriving, and work will shortly commence. The freight house will be situated in the centre of the lower part of the yard.

The first train is expected to arrive on the 10th of November, and the first vessel due to sail on the 25th.

THE SALMON POND. Already about four hundred of the salmon in the pond at the west side have been stripped of their spawn. There are still about eight hundred fish to be operated on and the work will take about ten days longer. The spawn is being sent to Grand Falls and to different places in Ontario. A number of magnificent salmon have been taken out, some of them weighing as high as forty-five pounds. This morning a splendid specimen of sea trout was placed in the pond early in the year and has attained to a considerable size during its sojourn here. The trout will be given to a local man who has quite an aquarium.

SUPREME COURT CHAMBERS. In the supreme court chambers, North Packing and Provision Co. v. Merritt Bros., the hearing on the summons to sign summary judgment was postponed until Nov. 4th. J. D. Hazen, K. C., for plaintiff; A. W. Macrae for defendant.

In the case of the London House v. Fuddington & Merritt, a summons was returnable today to show cause why the writ should not be set aside on the ground that the mode of incorporation was not set out in the special endorsement on the writ. This point was decided in favor of the plaintiff in a suit concluded last week by Judge McLeod.

A further objection was that the writ was issued in the name of Victoria instead of Edward VII. The plaintiff was allowed to amend under section 216, Supreme Court Act, on payment of costs. Hanington & Hanington, plaintiff's attorneys; W. Watson Allen, K. C., defendant's attorney.

COUNTY COURT CHAMBERS. In the case of Shaw v. Chamberlain, Judge Forbes granted an order to have judgment for the plaintiff set aside and non-suit entered. Barnhill & Sanford, plaintiff's attorneys; Scott E. Morrell, defendant's attorney.

A number of men were engaged this morning around the wharves at Sand Point taking soundings.

Strong Company Incorporated—

Fires Have Been Started—Large Offer for Goods.

James F. Robertson, James Manchester, Geo. W. Jones, W. H. Thorne and A. H. Hanington are seeking incorporation as the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills Co., Ltd., to purchase and operate the cotton mills lately owned and operated by Wm. Parks & Son, Ltd., of this city. The capital stock is $500,000 in five thousand shares of $100 each.

In conversation with a Star reporter today James F. Robertson said:

"We have, as stated, applied for incorporation and are now prepared to receive subscriptions for stock. It is our intention to issue $500,000 worth of par and the company have no doubt but that it will be rapidly taken up. The capital stock of the company has been placed at $500,000, but the balance will be in the treasury. Applications will be received by Mr. Hanington and myself and the stock will be allotted in the order in which the applications are received. I do not wish anyone to take shares in this business upon my recommendation, or any personal favor to myself, but with all investments made solely upon the merits of the mills themselves as a good investment, and as an industry which will, without doubt, prove of great benefit to St. John. We do not feel like going ahead with this business until we feel sure of the support of the community. Already an offer has been received from a reliable firm to take three thousand bales of goods every week and this will be sufficient to keep both of the mills running night and day. The goods will be taken at the market prices ruling at the time of making the contracts."

"Fires have been started in the mills to keep the buildings in good condition and a number of watchmen are now in charge. We have found that over six hundred panes of glass have been broken, doubtless by boys, and these are being replaced. Inside the buildings no damage has been done and the machinery has been found to be in excellent condition. It is our intention to engage as far as possible all the old employes of the mill and we will engage just as many new men as are formerly employed. The mills will not be re-opened for some little time yet, as preparations have not been completed, but when they do start they will run on full time, as formerly."

COMPULSORY VACCINATION

Was Decided on Today—The Details Not Yet Worked Out—Lemuel Spragg Visited the Hospital While in the City.

At noon today the board of health and the medical society held a joint meeting in the rooms of the former. It was decided to enforce compulsory vaccination in view of the spread of small-pox in the city. The details of the scheme have not yet been worked out. A number of the medical men have offered their services, but a definite plan has not yet been made. As soon as the doctors have been appointed, and places obtained for the work, compulsory vaccination will be commenced. It will take but a short time to settle these details. Already a large number of people have submitted to the operation and the physicians are kept busy attending to the applicants. Today the board of health was reported at the board of health rooms.

The men who are employed by the board as guards at the different houses where the disease is, are anxious to obtain more pay. They now get $150 a day and want to have it increased to $200. They have not yet laid their grievance officially before the board, although one of the inspectors was informed of their complaint.

Last evening Rev. John DeSoyres, who visited Miss DeBow during her illness, was released from quarantine. He will remain for the present in his study in the school house of St. John's church. The regulations for release from quarantine are very strict, including complete personal disinfection with an antiseptic bath and change of clothing.

The supply of disinfectants as well as vaccine, is very short in the city, carbolic acid being especially scarce. One druggist expects to get in today 500 cases of vaccine, or enough to vaccinate 5,000 persons.

A number of the leading dry goods firms are refusing to send goods out on approval, in fear of their infection.

Glad Tidings mission, which intended to re-open this week for the winter's work, will remain closed until the alarm has subsided.

The school trustees have excluded from the High School a sister of Fred Grant, who has been taken with the disease since he left here for Cambridge, Mass.

At the I. C. R. station all cars are disinfected before each trip, and every night the station and baggage room are fumigated. The street cars were again thoroughly fumigated with sulphur last night.

Last night two additional nurses were sent from the general to the epidemic hospital, making four there, besides Dr. Ellis, in charge of the eight cases. All the patients there are progressing most favorably and no developments have appeared in the general hospital.

Thirteen cases of smallpox have developed in Ottawa since Sunday, and there are now over 50 patients in the Forter's Island hospital.

George Cormier of Westmorland county is now down with smallpox in Sydney.

The Star is credibly informed that the late Lemuel Spragg, who died of smallpox at Belleisle, visited the public hospital when he was in the city of St. John. This explains how the disease came to break out so far from the city.

LOTS OF POULTRY.

The local market had an exceptionally large supply of poultry this morning. In fact it was the largest so far this season. The prices were not very high. Turkeys were selling at eleven and twelve cents a pound; chickens, all the way from thirty to sixty cents a pair, and geese at sixty and seventy cents.
