ROOSEVELT AND SUNDAY SCHOOL

President Roosevelt sent the following message to the Sunday school children of Brooklyn who paraded in Prospect Park on Children's Day:
"I am glad to have a chance to express to the children of the Sunday School Union how glad I am to know that they are fitting themselves to become in the future Christian citizens of this great republic.
"Sturdy, self-respecting morality, a readiness to do the rough work of the world without flinching, and at the same time an instant response to every call on the spirit of brotherly love and neighborly kindness—these qualities must rest at the foundation of good citizenship here in this republic. If it is to achieve the greatness we hope for it among the nations of mankind.

"Therefore I send greetings to the children and I send greetings especially to those who are training them in these difficult duties."

KING EDWARD.

There Has Been Steady Improvement in His Condition.

LONDON, July 2.—King Edward has passed another good day. The quiet and routine of the royal sick room was varied today by the excitement of responding to the music and cheers of the Indian troops as they marched past the palace and greeted Queen Alexandra on the balcony. King Edward demanded a full account of the review and the formal report made by the Prince of Wales was supplemented by the personal narrative of the Queen.
His Majesty dictated a letter to the Duke of Connaught, commanding him to compliment the colonial and Indian troops upon their excellent appearance, and to thank them for their expressions of loyalty which he had heard with pleasure in his sick room. King Edward was somewhat disappointed that he was not able to see the march past of the troops; he had hoped that this would be possible from an invalid couch in a window of the palace, but the King's doctors were unwilling that their patient should risk this exposure and excitement, and His Majesty had to content himself with hearing the troops without seeing them.

The Prince and Princess of Wales gave a brilliant dinner party at York House tonight in honor of the visiting Indian princes.

A unique and impressive scene was witnessed in St. Paul's Cathedral this evening, when some 2,000 physicians and the building and offered prayers for the King's recovery. Many of the doctors wore their academic robes. A litany was sung in procession, the doctors joining in the singing. At the conclusion of the service the congregation sent a message to Queen Alexandra expressing its fervent wishes for His Majesty's speedy recovery.

LONDON, July 3.—The following bulletin was issued regarding King Edward's condition at 11 o'clock this morning from Buckingham Palace:
"The King has slept well and nothing has occurred to mar the excellent progress His Majesty is now making."
(Signed)

TREVES, LAKING, BARLOW."

LONDON, July 3.—The British Medical Journal in expressing a similarly satisfactory view of the King's condition, says:—
"At no time has it been necessary since the operation to use sedatives to induce the King to sleep. To medical men who have seen the daily bulletins it has been obvious that the statements therein were entirely frank. There was great anxiety at first. Sir Frederick Treves did not go to bed for seven nights. But the load of anxiety is now lightened, if it has not entirely disappeared. The rumors regarding the King's general health are altogether unfounded and confidence is now felt that, thanks to an unusual degree to his sound constitution, the King will make recovery."

LONDON, July 3.—Discussing the King's uninterrupted progress, the Lancet says:—"It has been necessary to remove the drainage tubes, as they could not be tolerated, and gauze plugs are now used instead. The wound is gran-ulating satisfactorily, the discharge has diminished and is perfectly inodorous.
His Majesty's temperature has been normal since June 26. His constitutional condition is admirable."

A GREAT STORM

Causes Loss of Life and Property in Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., July 3.—A terrific storm swept through the Southwestern portion of Michigan late yesterday afternoon and in early evening, killing one man, injuring many and resulting in great damage to property. Near North Adams the residence of Mrs. Van North was demolished, the barn of Mr.
Wood was blown from its foundation and another house unroofed. Mrs. Patton, with Mr. and Mrs. Gamble, her son-in-law and daughter, had taken refuge in the cellar and all were seriously injured. Mrs. Van Patton probably fatally. At Leonidas it is reported that a farmer living near there was dashed to death against a telegraph pole. Near Mendon John Bowman, an aged man, was severely injured by falling rafters in the collapse of the home of Henry Powers. Reports from Battle Creek, Marshall, Mendon, Washtenaw and towns state that wires are down and crops and property have sustained great damage.

DETROIT, Mich., July 3.—A Journal special from Hillsdale, Mich., says a report has reached there that seven persons were killed by a tornado and cloudburst early today at Moscow, 15 miles from Hillsdale. No particulars have been received yet.

MISSING STEAMERS.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wn., July 3.—
The steamer Senator from Nome, June 24, denies the story brought by the Centennial that tidings had been received from the missing steamers Jaene and Portland. Captain Paterson says emphatically that when he left Nome no information had been received from the two vessels and further that the Theis had returned to port to replenish her coal supply without having found any trace whatever of the steamers.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Standing Committees Met Today to Prepare Reports.

The Delegates Entertained By the Ladies of the Golf Club This Afternoon—Mayor's Reception
This Evening.

Everything that could be done to make York Theatre, the headquarters of the Women's Council, comfortable and convenient, has been done. The different rooms have been decorated by the skilful hands of a committee of ladies, and now look cool, quiet and inviting. Flowers and potted plants form the chief ornaments of the auditorium, where the business sessions of the council as a whole will be held. A bureau of information has been established in one of the offices, in charge of Mrs.
T. H. Bullock, and here every thing for the convenience of the delegates is ready to hand. Tables are supplied with stationery and those in charge and attending on the room are themselves bureaus of information. Down stairs places are prepared for the meeting of committees and these were occupied this morning. The assembly room is decorated in green and white.
Wreaths of cedar hang on the walls and the pillars are entwined with evergreens over white. Costly rugs cover the floor and soft easy chairs fairly invite the delegates to rest. In the dining room, where luncheon will be served each day to the members of the council and to all others on the payment of a small fee, the decorations are simple, but beautiful. The linen, the glass and silverware with the tempting food form a decoration which appeals strongly to the hungry. The prevailing colors are those of the council, pale and dark blue.

By ten o'clock this morning most of the visiting delegates and many of the local members of the council were present. A few minutes were spent in an informal social gathering, but sharply on time the bell was rung to announce that the business sessions were on, and the members scattered to the various committee rooms. The meetings this morning were rather of a preparatory character, getting everything in readiness for the formal opening of the council tomorrow morning. The committees which met this morning were:
Committee on Laws for the Better Protection of Women and Children.— Mrs. Bullock, convener.

Committee on Domestic Science.—Mrs.
Hoodless, of Hamilton, convener.
Committee on the Custodial Care of Feeble Minded Women.—Mrs. Cummings, of Toronto, convener.

Committee on Promotion of the Industrial and Fine Arts.—Mrs. Thomson, in absence of Mrs. Dandurand, convener.

Committee on Care of the Aged Poor.— Mrs. Cummings, convener.

Committee of Women on School Boards.—Mrs. Boomer, London, convener.

Committee on Raising of Loan for Doughbor Women.—Mrs. Thomson, in absence of Mrs. Fitz-Gibbon, convener.

Committee on Pernicious Literature.
Committee on Immigration.—Miss Laidlaw, Montreal, convener.

Committee on Bureau of Information.
Mrs. Thomson, convener.

Committee on Press.—Mrs. Cummings, convener.

At noon luncheon was served in the dining room by members of the local council. The ladies in charge were:
Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. Geo. F.
Smith, Mrs. D. Tapley, Mrs. Alex. Wilson. They were assisted by a committee of eighteen young ladies.

This afternoon the executive and finance committees are meeting preparing their respective reports for presentation tomorrow. The executive committee is one of the largest and most important of the sub-divisions of the council. It consists of the president, the elected vice-presidents, the honorary vice presidents, the provincial vice-presidents and the presidents, or their representatives, of the different organizations affiliated with the council.
These number about twenty-eight. In all, and delegates are present from all except two. In full strength the executive numbers about fifty-six. About thirty-five are in attendance this afternoon.

This afternoon, by invitation of the club, the delegates will take tea at the club house on the links. Buckingham will call at the York Theatre about five o'clock, immediately after the close of the executive and finance committee meetings, to take the guests to the links. The ladies in charge of the tea are: Mrs. C. J. Coster, Mrs. J.
Douglas Hazen, Mrs. Frank Stetson, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Silas Alward, Mrs. Fred Harding.

This evening his worship the mayor and Mrs. Walter W. White will tender a reception to the delegates and others in the assembly rooms of the theatre.
Afternoon or evening dress may be worn. Harrison's orchestra will be in attendance and light refreshments will be served.

RUSSIAN IGNORANCE.

Labor Riots Caused By the Introduction of Machinery.

LONDON, July 2.—A despatch to the Reuter Telegram Co. from St. Petersburg says there have been labor riots for the past few days at Rostov-On-Don, in the province of Ekaterinoslav, southern Russia. There have been numerous collisions between the troops and the rioters; the troops fired and many of the rioters were killed or wounded.

The outbreak at Rostov-On-Don, continues the Reuter correspondent, somewhat resembled the peasant riots in the central provinces of Russia in the early spring. The leaders of the last riots were strangers in the district; they were dressed in fantastic uniforms and adorned with decorations. They proclaimed themselves to be agents of the czar, and preached the destruction of all machinery which reduced the number of laborers and brought the masses to starvation.

A fanatical mob, inflamed with this idea, declared war on the factories in the name of the czar, and had already wrecked many manufacturing establishments by the time the troops were called out.

MILITARY CADETS

Leave Sandhurst Protesting Their Innocence of Incendiarism

LONDON, July 3.—Twenty-nine "rus-ticated" cadets of the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst, left that institution today, protesting that they had not been connected with the recent incen-dary fires at the college. A time limit of forty-eight hours given by Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, to the cadets to deliver up those who have been guilty of starting the many recent fires at the college, in default of which the "rustication" of all the cadets was to be ordered, expired tonight. It was understood that a number of the cadets would leave immediately, but the war office was endeavoring to suppress all the information on the subject.

OFF TO LABRADOR.

HALIFAX, July 2.—Colonel Glazier of Albany, N. Y., and a party of ten arrived by steamer from Boston this afternoon bound for Labrador, where they will spend three months in exploration work in the interest of New England colleges. Colonel Glazier says that of no part of North America is so little known as Labrador, and he hopes to be able to give to the world much that is new regarding its geology and resources.

THE SHIPPING COMBINE.

PARIS, July 2.—At a meeting today of the Colonial Group of Deputies, M.
Etienne, vice-president of the chamber, delivered a long address, in which he pointed out the danger which threatened French naval defense and the merchant marine from the formation of an American shipping combine. He declared that vigorous measures must be adopted if the French flag was not to disappear from the Atlantic coast.
The Colonial Deputies decided to present an interpellation of the matter to the chamber.

POPE AND PHILIPPINES.

ROME, July 3.—Judge William H.
Taft, civil governor of the Philippine Islands, today received a long cablegram from Secretary Root, containing the department's final instructions concerning the note relating to the disposal of the Friars' lands, which was drawn up here Tuesday, and this afternoon Major Porter, of the office of the Judge Advocate General of the army, delivered the note to Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state.

THE FIRE RECORD.

HARTFORD, Conn., July 3.—A fire early this morning destroyed almost all the big plant of the Capewell Horse Nail Co., and partially burned a dwelling house across the street from it. All of the Capewell Company's property except the office, storeroom, boiler room and annealing shop was burned down.
The estimated value of the plant was between $300,000 and $400,000. It is said that insurance will nearly cover the loss.

STREAMS DRIED UP.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 3.—A crop report bulletin shows severe drought in all parts of the territory. At Abiquiu, Arizaba county, the Chalmers river has dried up for a second time in a hundred years. Other streams in that section are also lower than ever before.

of the bank.

FAMINES IN CENTRAL INDIA.

Anna R. Evans told at a missionary meeting in Toronto last week of dealing with the two famines in Central India in 1897 and 1900. She had frequently been asked if the horrors had not been exaggerated, if the pictures shown in the papers were not exceptional. Her reply was that all that had been written and drawn failed to give any adequate idea of those horrors. The workers simply became hardened to it, and only kept up by doing every day all they could. If they had stopped to think they would have been unable to endure it. In the worst stages the people came asking not for food or for shelter, but simply to be buried, that their bodies might be kept from the vultures and the jackals. Though the last famine was the more severe fewer lives were lost, because the government was on hand with its relief works sooner. The famine had opened the eyes of the people to the benefits of Christianity, and now the missionaries, instead of meeting with rebuffs, could not respond to all the invitations from communities and individuals.

STRENUOUSLY DRUNK.

At dinner the other evening Col.
George T. Denison, the British Empire League delegate from Canada, said it was too bad to revive Toronto police court stories about him in this country.
Having said that, he volunteered one himself. On a previous visit to England he contributed an article to the Westminster Gazette on the military aspects of imperialism, which was reprinted in the Toronto papers. On his return to the magisterial bench one of the first culprits to face him was an Irishman named Maher, an old offender. "What's the matter this time, Maher?" asked the Colonel. "Drunk, yer worship," responded Maher. "Sure, I read the fine article ye wrote in the English papers, and the grand fightin' sentiments av upset me, sorr."
"Maher," said the Colonel, "you are discharged, as it seems you read that article, which I believe few other people in this province did." "It's yourself is a rale sojer," said Mr. Maher, bowing to the Colonel as he left the dock.—

THE IRISH QUESTION.

A long and heated debate on the Irish land question was precipitated in the house of commons last night.
Thos. W. Russell (liberal) moved the adjournment of the house to discuss the pending evictions from the estate of Lord de Freyne, in Roscommon county, in connection with which Lord de Freyne recently had writs issued against large numbers of the Irish parliamentary party, whom he charged with conspiracy in the matter.
After discussion by Mr. Russell, Mr.
Wynndman and others, Russell's motion was defeated, 231 to 122.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 3, 1902.

OUR VISITORS.

St. John extends a cordial welcome to the National Council of Women, whose deliberations began in the York Theatre this morning. The citizens have learned from the work of the local council that the aims and purposes of the national body are wholly in the direction of improved social conditions. Among the visiting delegates are women of national reputation, and all of them are useful members of society in the cities where they reside. They are met to deliberate upon questions affecting the general welfare, and the results must be beneficial. Organized as they are, and numbering among their members not only good speakers but clever writers, they can influence public opinion much more effectively than by individual effort, in dealing with large questions of public concern. It will not be said of them that they are infallible, though doubtless they will be compelled to listen to much that is merely complimentary from representatives of the other sex. It is perhaps inevitable as a result of the immemorial custom of man to flatter woman in her lighter moods, that he should be less frank than flatterer when she essays to deal with serious matters. But as she is not lacking in discernment in any mood, she can separate the wheat of wholesome counsel from the chaff of empty compliment and persist in her labors.

Happily the weather has improved in the last two days, and the visitors will doubtless derive much enjoyment from their visit to the coast, and from the various outings planned for their entertainment. It is very desirable that our friends from the west should carry away with them good impressions of St. John, its people, its summer climate and scenery. To that end the local council, the city government and the Tourist Association have been laboring, and the result will doubtless be gratifying to all.

The members of the Anglican synod, though no strangers to the city, are equally welcome, and while their deliberations are of special importance to the members of one communion they are also of interest to the members of all churches, since all are working for like purpose and in general harmony. It is a source of pleasure to all the people that the zealous and scholarly and able bishop of the diocese has returned to his labors with renewed health.

While these conventions are in progress the newspapers must of necessity devote considerable space to reports of the proceedings. The reports of the sessions of representative bodies are of educational value as well as of passing interest, and the man or woman who desires to be well-informed finds in them the means of keeping in close touch with current events and important phases of development.

THE WESTERN "HUB."

The Winnipeg Telegram issued last Saturday a special supplement dealing with Winnipeg and the industrial fair. There is a historical sketch of the city, and much information concerning its growth and present relative position. "The Hub of the North American Continent," the Telegram cheerfully terms the city.

The assessment rolls for 1902 show a population of 48,411, and real and personal property subject to taxation $28,615,810. Properly exempt from taxation is valued at $5,585,000. The total debt of the city is $4,816,203.60. The business license system brought the city last year a revenue of $1,123.50. Three of the principal streets of the city are each 132 feet wide. There are 118 miles of graded streets and 47 miles of pavement. There are nearly six miles of stone sidewalks, and nearly 170 miles of plank sidewalks. Asphalt is the favorite street paving, and the city has an excellent plant for laying it. The city has excellent water and sewerage systems, fire department and a crematory for garbage. Among its assets, valued at $4,000,000, the city has city hall and market, $300,000; school buildings, etc., $564,000; water works, $360,000; sewers, paving, etc., $1,500,000; bridges, $320,000; exhibition grounds, $110,000; parks, $105,500; fire halls, $79,800; etc. A street railway covers 13 miles of streets. Industrially, the city has flour mills, lumber mills, iron foundries, metal workers, brick makers, carriage builders, soap makers, pork packers, brewers, and makers of biscuits, cigars, confectionery, clothing, gloves, tents, furniture, electrical supplies and other kinds of goods. The bank clearings in Winnipeg in 1901 were $134,199,483, giving the city third place in Canada in this respect. The clearings at St. John in 1901 were less than one third of the above sum. The grain trade, of course, explains the large Winnipeg business. The province last year exported about 45,000,000 bushels of wheat and 60,000 cattle. Winnipeg is served by railways from various directions, having ten tracks running in and out of the city. From the illustrations which accompany the descriptive matter in the Telegram special it is plain that the city is architecturally as well as in all other respects up-to-date.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Waking Up at Last to Necessity of Clean Streets.

In the absence of Chairman Christie, Ald. Maxwell presided at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the board of works, and there were present: Aldermen Bullock, Stackhouse, Tufts, Millidge, McMullin, Lewis and McGoldrick, Director Cushing, City Engineer Peters, Harbor Master Taylor, Mayor White and Ald. Seaton were in attendance.

The committee appointed to inquire into the matter of street work submitted the following report:

1st.—IN REGARD TO SCAVENGER WORK.

Your committee are satisfied that the streets can be made to look better if the matter is handled in an efficient and systematic way. In the first place we would ask that the chief of police be requested to have the existing laws and ordinances regulating the conduct of householders, storekeepers and citizens, with respect to expectorating on the streets and sweepings, duly enforced, and that the director have a sufficient number of suggestive notices printed and posted throughout the city relating to said by-laws, such as "No sweepings allowed on sidewalk or street," "No spitting allowed on walks," etc., and, further, that a by-law be enacted prohibiting folders, circulars or other advertising matter being left in doorways or handed to pedestrians. We deem it important that the police should always be able to give an intelligent statement of the laws. The police and the decent public should insist on obedience to the law.

We recommend that an attempt be made to keep the streets continually clean, under what is known as the patrol system, by assigning a length of street to one man, who is thus made responsible for its condition. Each street to be provided with a two-wheeled bag carrier and a sufficient number of jute bags for the day's work, together with a broad shovel, short broom and an ordinary street cleaner's broom. The advantage of the bag is that when full it is tied up, left at the curb and finally removed, thus avoiding the scattering of dust. This is an improvement on sweeping the dust into heaps at the curb line; for if the wind blows, or there is much traffic, it is likely to be very speedily scattered again unless promptly removed.

The street cleaning force is inadequate for the work that is to be done. Generally speaking, the object of the men (commonly known as scavengers) seem to be to accomplish as little work as possible, and, as a general rule, four able-bodied men could in the same time, without extra exertion, accomplish the work of any ten men that are employed as street cleaners. If these aged, worn out men are to be employed, let them be put on work not so urgent. The more active men at a better wage are required to clean our principal streets.

In some cities the remote streets are kept in a suitable condition by ordinary sweeping; ordinary streets are swept twice a day, and others, three to five times a day. In Montreal the principal street is swept twice each week. The horse sweeper should be utilized weekly, or possibly discarded, and the house sweeping by patrol work universally adopted.

STREET SPRINKLING.

The principal streets can be much more effectively sprinkled by using jointed pipes attached to hydrant cocks, provided for the purpose. This apparatus is made of iron 4 to 6 pieces of pipe, with flexible joints, and running on small castor like trucks. They reach 75 feet and the cocks supplying them are about 150 feet apart. The work is very effective and costs only half that of water cart work.

ASPHALTING.

The work of laying and making repairs should be more expeditiously performed. There is ample need for the use of another set of heaters and mixers, in addition to the two gangs now working. As the work is so extensive that need repairs should be attended to as early in the season as possible. Delay means extra expense. The system has been to extend the work along throughout the whole season.

STREET REPAIRS.

Good pavements are limited in extent, or wholly lacking, and such pavements put down are not kept clean and in repair. Your own director of public safety in his report for 1900 condemns the streets in this wise: "Owing to the condition of streets the horse wagons particularly require constant repair to the wheels."

The very prominent use of bicycles and costly rigs with rubber tires demand a better class of streets. Wear and tear cannot be prevented, but defective spots such as hollows and ruts, should be remedied as soon as they appear. A team should make frequent circuits and sprinkle stone chips or other suitable material into the hollows. Sufficient rock could be quarried to enable the stranded cattlemen to earn a cheap wage of 75c per day in breaking stone during the winter at one quarry, while a similar work for the same period could be performed at the other quarry by the jail prisoners who are under sentence to do hard labor.

IMPROVEMENTS.

A street like King street east, which is wider than the traffic demands, could be beautified by putting down or planting a grass sod of suitable width in the centre of the street. If depth of earth is sufficient, a meeting of trees would look very pretty down the centre. On Broad street a large portion of the sidewalk is unused and unkempt. It can be plowed and seeded for a sod of green turf, adding beauty and cleanliness. Queen square seems to be poorly kept this year.

PERMANENT WORK.

When a considerable portion of wooden pavement requires to be renewed we would support the directors' suggestion that asphalt be laid on the levels and vitrified brick on the grades instead of wooden blocks. Brick or stone blocks could be set next the rail tracks on all streets not paved. The condition of the macadamized streets where the street rails are laid are in a bad state, particularly in the centre of the street.

Your committee recommend that next year some of the permanent street work be undertaken, as per the director's report and recommendation of last year and the money borrowed to meet said expenditure.

INCIDENTAL.

The outside force are paid fortnightly at the chamberlain's office. The better method would be to have one of the office staff detailed to take the pay envelopes to the men, wherever they are at work.

The report was adopted except the latter part of it, and that was referred to the director to report upon. Ald. Bullock, who was recently appointed to look up a proper site for a band stand, reported that three sites presented themselves to him. First there was the old burial ground, but the people were against that. Market square was next looked over, but the teamsters objected to its use. He recommended the erection of a stand on Queen square.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In the circuit court yesterday, in the case of Galbraith v. McGillivray, evidence for the defence was concluded.

After recess, defendant's counsel moved for a non-suit on the same grounds as previously taken, but the motion was afterwards withdrawn in order that the finding of the jury might be had upon some facts. His honor left ten questions to the jury and they found that plaintiff and other laborers only went through the Sand Point sheds as a matter of convenience and without any special leave or right to do so; that defendant's stages and appliances were proper and reasonable for the work to be done and were properly used on the night of the accident; that light was provided and that lamps were actually burning at the time of the accident, and that plaintiff did not in going through the shed use such care as he ought having regard to the work that was going on. The answers were unanimous and his honor directed a verdict to be entered for the defendant. Daniel Mullin, K. C., for plaintiff; John B. M. Baxter for defendant.

The grand jury then made a presentment to his honor Judge McLeod in which were the following recommendations in regard to the jail:

1. That an iron girder be put between the old and new buildings on the first and second floors.
2. That the office of the jail be removed to the dead house and that the lower part be used as a place in which to wash prisoners' clothes.
3. That a new floor be placed in the main hall of the first floor, and a hot water boiler with separate partitions in the new building.
4. That electric lights be placed in all the corridors.
5. That the jail yard be graded and an asphalt gutter be placed around the new building.
6. That a brick ash-pit be put in the jail. That the fences in the rear be thoroughly repaired.

The grand jurors also called attention to the regrettable fact that the annex was not yet ready for occupation, at least it was not taken possession of. Though the work was commenced over a year ago, the building is not yet in use. Steps should be taken to have this matter remedied.

Judge McLeod in accepting the presentment also referred to the remarkable fact that the annex was not yet in use.

Wm. Holm, Albert Holm and John Tobin, who had been found guilty of breaking, entering and stealing, were then brought into court. His honor in sentencing these boys, none of whom are over 20 years of age, to two years in the penitentiary, spoke feelingly of the hope which he had that they might try to make better use of their lives. Albert Holm got six months additional for cutting Police Officer Rankin.

James B. Briggs was then brought into court on the charge of escape, and Hon. H. A. McKinnon, for the crown, said that as the boy had been found not guilty of the charge of burglary, he did not wish to prosecute for the escape. The prisoner was then discharged on his own recognizance. John B. M. Baxter appeared for the prisoner.

In Alexander v. C. P. R. and Hefferan v. C. P. R., two cases entered for trial by proviso, on motion of H. H. McLean, K. C., judgment of non-suit was entered.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

To Rev. J. D. Freeman and Family at Gorman St. Baptist Church Last Night.

A farewell reception was last evening tendered Rev. J. D. Freeman, his wife and family by the congregation and members of the Gorman Street Baptist Church. The school room was comfortably filled with people. After an hour had been spent sociably, Dr. T. H. Belyea, clerk of the church, presented to Mr. Freeman an address reviewing the growth of the church during his pastorate, thirty members having been added during the year, and giving expression to the affection of the people for Mr. and Mrs. Freeman. Short addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Manning and Rev. Christopher Burnett. Rev. Alex. White also took part in the proceedings. At the close Rev. Mr. Freeman replied briefly to the address, expressing his appreciation of the treatment received at the hands of the members of Gorman street church.

EARNINGS DECREASED $8,903.

The earnings of the Toronto Railway Company for last week amounted to but $25,981.21, a decrease of $8,903.90 from the corresponding week last year. The strike is responsible for this large decrease, the cars having been tied up on the Saturday and Sunday in the week embracing the earnings above given. The increased pay to the employees also went into effect.

THE SYNOD.

Reports of the Rectors of Churches in This City.

Educational Affairs and the Rother School Negotiations Considered Yesterday Afternoon.

At one o'clock yesterday the delegates to the synod, together with the wives of many of them, were entertained at luncheon by the ladies of the Church of England Institute. Bishop Kingston graciously thanked the ladies for their hospitality and brief remarks were made by other delegates.

At the afternoon session of the synod Mr. Otty's amendment favoring the grant to the Shediac school, subject to approval of the chancellor, was carried. The report of the nominating committee was submitted, and, with a few amendments, was adopted. The consideration of the education report was resumed, and the clause relative to the church school at Fredericton adopted. The clause relative to negotiations for the purchase of the Rother school brought about a long discussion. Judge Hanington opposed the use of the trust fund for such a purpose. A. H. Hanington and Mr. Knowlton also objected to the clause on the ground of insufficient information. After a long discussion an amendment moved by W. B. Wallace that the matter be referred back to the board for further consideration and with power to act, provided the approval of the executive be obtained, was adopted. The report was then adopted as a whole.

The report of the committee on college federation was presented by Dean Partridge, who moved the following resolution, seconded by Rev. C. D. Schofield:

That the proposed union of the universities of Kings College and Dalhousie College, as set forth in the submitted communication, would be in the best interests of higher education in the maritime provinces, and that the teaching of divinity to candidates for holy orders in the maritime dioceses would thereby be rendered more thorough and effective.

Dean Partridge reviewed the history of Kings College and pointed out that, owing to financial difficulties, the authorities were driven by necessity to one of three courses—close the college for say 20 years and allow the funds to accumulate; to go on as at present until all the capital was dissipated, or to federate with Dalhousie on terms that allowed Kings to keep its own capital for the support of its divinity school towards which large efforts would be directed.

The debate of the session were adjourned until 10 a. m. Thursday. The annual service of the synod was held in Trinity church last evening in the presence of a large congregation. The bishop and clergy were seated in the choir. The evening service, fully choral, was intoned throughout. Rev. Canon Richardson, assisted by Venerable Archdeacon Forsythe and Very Rev. Dean Partridge, conducted the service and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Canon Newham, of St. Stephen, on Psalm 48, verse 12 and 13.

In the course of his discourse the preacher referred to the census returns, which showed a decrease of Church of England membership in this province of 1328, which, he said, was due to the exodus to the States and the West. The diocesan missions and incapacitated clergy funds greatly needed building up. He deplored the lack of candidates for the ministry, and suggested the founding of a divinity chair in connection with the university at Fredericton. Of the 70 clergymen in this diocese only 30 are natives of the province. In conclusion, Canon Newham pleaded for parochialism, and the broadening of the loyal devotion of churchmen to include the whole church of Christ throughout the world.

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

This morning's session of the synod was opened with the usual formalities. After the confirmation of yesterday's minutes the hearing of reports from the clergy of various parishes in the diocese was resumed.

Rev. C. D. Schofield of Hampton reported encouragingly regarding the routine work of the parish. Special efforts in various directions are being made to increase the interest in the Sunday school. The parish indebtedness has been greatly reduced, and its standing is financially good. A harmonious spirit is prevalent in all departments.

For Margerville Rev. R. W. Colston told of a flourishing financial condition and of great kindness received from his parishioners. Among other contributions received had been the sum of $50, which brought his stipend to $570, the largest since 1898. In Canning contributions were necessarily small, but prospects were never brighter.

For Newcastle the report prepared by Rev. F. H. Cuthbert was read by the secretary. It stated that the parish is now self-sustaining and that all work is progressing favorably. Sunday school interest has greatly revived. Church property has been greatly improved.

Rev. W. H. Sampson reported the completion of 12 years' work at St. George's, Carleton. He expressed great pleasure at the large congregations and at the good interest among the young people in Sunday school work. For Winklow, Wilton and Peel, Rev. E. W. Simonds reported cheering conditions in all parts of his widespread parish. A new church had been completed at the cost of $2,900, and another begun in Aberdeen. There had been an increase in the communion roll of 31 and in Easter communions of 49.

Rev. H. J. Lynds of St. George and Fenwick told of a good financial condition and of a scheme to build a new church there in the near future. The church had suffered much by deaths during the past year.

At Springfield, Rev. R. Coleman reported that the work during the winter had been greatly hampered by the smallpox outbreak. Sunday schools were progressing favorably under their able superintendent. Great improvement had been made in the church and rectory grounds.

Rev. R. P. McKim of St. Luke's, Portland, gave thanks for many blessings during the past year. All parochial organizations had done well, the Sunday school especially exceeding in attendance all previous years. Congregations had been larger and offerings greater by $500 than ever before. For St. David, St. Patrick and St. James, Rev. J. W. Milledge reported all departments well up to the average. Collections last year were the largest in the history of the church.

Rev. Canon Richardson reported much active progress in St. John parish. Signs of material and spiritual increase were not wanting. Congregations and attendance at Sunday schools showed large increase. The communicant list had been considerably added to.

For St. John Baptist, Rev. P. Owen-Jones reported doubled contributions for missions, a number of valuable gifts and good progress in all branches of the work.

Rev. John de Soyres, in his report spoke in high terms of the work of the Rev. R. H. Haslam, lately resigned. The grant to the incapacitated clergy fund had been increased by $200. Of the young men of St. John's church he made mention of Lieut. Ralph Markham, who had greatly distinguished himself in his second campaign in South Africa, having been wounded at the battle of Hart's River.

Rev. A. J. Gollmer, of St. Mark's, Sussex, gave a favorable account of all conditions, especially in the finance department. Good returns received from pious had rendered possible great improvements in church property.

In St. Martins there had been a steady advance in spiritual life, said Rev. A. Bareham. The number of Easter communicants had been greater than ever before in the parish.

Rev. W. O. Raymond said work in St. Mary's had proceeded encouragingly along usual lines. There had been uninterrupted harmony and the communicant list had been increased. The church suffered considerably by removals from the parish. He gave great credit to his congregation for keeping up their attendance during the smallpox epidemic. During his absence at that time his services had been taken by others of the city clergy, to whom he wishes to extend hearty thanks.

For St. Marys, York Co., Rev. W. F. Bellis presented a favorable report.

Rev. A. G. H. Dicker spoke of the hampering of the work in St. Paul's during the winter by the smallpox. In spite of this the financial standing was good and the church entirely free from debt. He referred to the loss the church had suffered by the death of many of its prominent members, mentioning especially the sad decease of the late Chas. D. Shaw. The mission at Sandy Point was progressing satisfactorily.

Rev. Canon Newham expressed his appreciation of the continued kindness of his parishioners at St. Stephen during his 14 years' pastorate. He thanked the clergy who had taken his services during his six weeks' absence on account of illness. Church work had been going on favorably and some improvements had been made in the property.

In Sussex and Studholm, Rev. Scovell Neales said there had been large congregations than during any previous year. The debt is being steadily reduced by the work of the sewing circle and voluntary offerings. The parishes would this year contribute $100 to the diocesan mission fund.

In Shediac, said Rev. A. F. Burt, he was sorry to confess that not a soul had been converted during the past year. In the parish were many good churchmen, but few who seemed possessed with the true spirit of Christ. In many ways there had been progress, but a spirit of lethargy regarding higher things was painfully evident. Contributions to most departments had been good, but the diocesan mission fund did not receive the support it should.

Rev. F. Robertson said that Trinity, St. Stephen, was entirely out of debt, and he hoped that before another meeting of the synod they would be worshipping in a new church.

For Upham and Hammond, Rev. W. J. Bate told of a regrettable exodus of population toward the States. Fourteen of his young people had gone during the past year. At the celebration of the tenth anniversary of his wedding he had been waited upon by a number of friends both from his own church and others who gave many valuable gifts. Roman Catholics, Baptists and Methodists were present, and a prominent Methodist presented the address.

For St. Jude's church, Carleton, the report was read by W. P. Dunham, in the absence of Rev. G. P. Scovell. Here the young people have shown great activity, and offerings to missions have been far in excess of former years. The Sunday school is in a flourishing condition and contributed largely to missions.

Ven. Archdeacon Neales said the church at Woodstock had suffered considerably by removals and other causes, but the work presented many encouraging features. Contributions to diocesan missions this year would show a slight increase. He regretted the death of many members, among these B. H. Smith, senior warden and former member of the synod.

Rev. L. A. Hoyt, of Simonds, said work there had been most satisfactory, and good results had followed the special services last fall. He greatly regretted the bad example shown by city people, among them good churchmen, who visited his district on Sunday on fishing and shooting excursions. He wished the city clergymen would keep their parishioners home on Sunday.

Mr. Justice Hanington moved that his lordship on behalf of the synod forward a cable message of sympathy and good wishes to the King in his illness. The motion was passed by a unanimous vote taken standing, the members singing heartily the national anthem.

Following is the message sent: To His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward VII:

The Diocesan Synod of Fredericton, Canada, now in session, would express to your Majesty our deepest sympathy in your serious illness; and our most earnest prayers are constantly offered for your Majesty's speedy recovery to enjoy in a long and happy reign the loyalty of your faithful subjects.

Canon Roberts then moved, seconded by Dean Partridge, that the next session of synod be held in Fredericton, July 1903.

In amendment Ven. Archdeacon Neales moved, seconded by Rev. J. de Soyres, that Woodstock be named as the place of meeting.

The amendment carried. The resignation of the treasurer of the synod, W. E. Smith, was then read by the secretary, to take effect not later than December next. His action was rendered necessary by constantly increasing duties in other directions.

In speaking of the resignation his lordship said that Mr. Smith had done splendid work as treasurer and had organized the work on a most satisfactory basis. If the resignation were accepted it was a result of sorrow and of appreciation of his services should be passed.

W. B. Wallace moved that the resignation be referred to the executive, and Rev. Mr. Montgomery moved in amendment that it be accepted and that the synod pass a resolution of appreciation of Mr. Smith's services and regret at his departure.

During the discussion which followed, Judge Hanington said that the treasurer's salary of $500 was entirely insufficient. It should be increased and a sum added for the necessary travelling expenses. He expressed high appreciation of Mr. Smith's services and supported the motion advocating the further consideration of his resignation by the executive committee.

Mr. Montgomery withdrew his amendment, and Mr. Wallace's motion carried.

A resolution in reference to the lately concluded peace was moved by Archdeacon Neales, seconded by Rev. H. Montgomery as follows:

That this synod desires to express its thankfulness to Almighty God for the proclamation of peace in South Africa—to express its hope that peace may continue during the reign of our gracious sovereign King Edward—and to welcome the addition to the number of his Majesty's loyal subjects the inhabitants of the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies.

W. M. Jarvis, on behalf of the committee appointed to consider the draft bill empowering the delegates to transfer certain properties held by him, to the synod, reported and moved the matter be referred to the standing committee.

Rev. John de Soyres, seconded by Dean Partridge, moved a resolution asking that the secretary be authorized to take the necessary steps to procure the affiliation of this diocese with the English Society of Sacred Studies.

Mr. Justice Hanington moved that the election of delegates to the general synod be now proceeded with by nomination and ballot, and that the election take place during the afternoon session.

W. B. Wallace moved in amendment that the election be now made. The amendment carried and Mr. Wallace nominated the list of delegates as follows: Rev. A. D. Schofield, moved that the nominations close, and A. H. Hanington moved as an amendment that L. A. Hoyt be nominated.

Then followed a sharp and acrimonious discussion. Judge Hanington in vigorous language objected to the combination of certain members who were working for purposes that would prove subversive to the authority of the synod. He withdrew his name from the nominated list. Mr. Schofield protested strongly against being associated with any combination, and Rev. Scovell Neales retorted sharply to Judge Hanington.

The accusation made that a ring was trying to run the synod was unjust and without foundation. If anyone might be accused of trying to run the synod it was Judge Hanington, who certainly took up more of its time than any other member.

Rev. L. A. Hoyt withdrew his name from nomination and Rev. Canon Richardson, whose name was in the last year's list, said that under the present circumstances he would rather it be withdrawn.

Several members here attempted to join the discussion, but a motion to adjourn cut them off.

MAINE WILL WANT HAY.

(Bangor Commercial.) Farmers who were on Pickering square Wednesday were complaining of the great amount of rain which has fallen during the last month. They say that unless it comes off hot and dry during the next two weeks that it will be impossible to harvest the hay crops, as in many places the water is standing in the fields to the depth of three to five inches, and it is impossible to drive a heavy team into the field.

If the wet weather continues, they say, the hay crop for the season of 1902 will be a total failure, for it will have to be cut by hand, as the mowing machines are so heavy and would cut into the ground so deep that it would be hard to run them. Even if the hay could be made ready for the barn it would be a hard question as to how it could be hauled out as the roads would sink almost to the axle. Altogether the farmers in this vicinity aren't particularly cheerful regarding the outlook for the hay season.

HARD ON THE FARMERS.

W. E. Mallory, who returned from a carriage drive to Woodstock on Thursday, says the St. Andrews Beacon, says the weather has been so bad this spring that many of the Carleton county farmers have not got through with their planting. He mentioned the case of one farmer who had fifteen acres that he wanted to plant in buckwheat, but was unable to get on the land.

Baseball at Chatham.

The Franklins returned from Chatham yesterday afternoon, after playing the Stars at that place. They claim they won the game by an 8 to 7 score. There were many disputes; the Franklins left the field in the first inning, but resumed play. Another clash occurred in the ninth, when the Franklins led by 8 to 7. With two men out and the man at bat had two strikes called on him, he hit a long one, so the Franklins say, in four territory; the Chathamites thought it was fair, consequently the St. John boys left the field, claiming the victory. No doubt Chatham will also claim the distinction of a victory. The batteries were Chatham, Walsh and Skids; Franklins, Crogan and George. Umpire, J. Skids.

DEVOTEES DUPED.

The Italian Vision of the Virgin a Fraud.

A Rome despatch to the London Express says: The vision of the Virgin on Mount Soracte, in the Apennines, overlooking the Tiber, has proved to be a fraud—the work of a gang of swindlers, who, acting on the credulity and superstition of the people, exhibited at dawn and dusk a pasteboard image of the Virgin to the credulous. The police found out the true state of affairs this morning and attempted to lynch the swindlers.

The story of the vision exhibit in bold relief the credulous character of the Italian populace. A peasant girl, Bettina, said she had seen the Virgin in white, with a halo of light. The next morning Bettina and other girls saw the Virgin again in the same spot. A grown-up man, who was with them, saw nothing, which was easily explained by the fact that he must have been in mortal sin. Many went up the mountain to see, and a few did see.

A girl of seventeen, Maria Fiorelli, said she was commissioned by the Virgin to lead the pilgrims, who daily increased in numbers, so that at one time there were fully 5,000 on the mountain kneeling in prayer, asking pardon for their sins. An old blind recovered use of her limbs, and an old blind man asserted that he is able to see. Later another girl, Rosa Rossi, announced that the Virgin desired a church to be erected on the spot of her apparition, and a collection of funds was made among the pilgrims.

TAR AND FEATHERS.

STERLING, Ills., July 2.—The funeral of Mrs. John Seibert of Mount Morris was delayed today until the mourners could adjourn to a cornfield and administer a coat of tar and feathers to the husband and sister of the dead woman. Then the funeral proceeded.

The house was filled with sorrowing neighbors when Seibert was discovered in another room, hugging and kissing Mrs. Theodore Wolfe, his wife's sister.

The crowd dragged the couple to the cornfield and tarred and feathered and drove them from the village and ordered them never to return.

OF AGE.

Some few days ago a policeman was sent to serve a summons on a notorious poacher. This person, who lived alone and had evaded service successfully for some time, was the owner of a male goat. My friend, whom I will call Mac, went to the defendant's house, but the wily poacher, observing his approach, had fled, leaving the door unfastened. Mac saw the goat tied up in a corner, entered and solemnly read the summons to him, after which he stuck the copy on his horns. He then went home and indorsed the paper thus: "Served by leaving a copy of this summons in defendant's residence at —, with an inmate," etc.

When proving service, Mac was asked by the magistrate: "Was the inmate of age?" "Your worship," said my friend, laying his hand on the middle button of his tunic, "he had a beard down to that."—London Tit-Bits.

POLICE COURT.

James Clancy's Escape—A Woman's Thirst—To the Alms House.

Margaret Godsoe is not exactly what David Harum would call a "dum fine gal," but she has her own peculiarities all the same. One of them is an almost unquenchable thirst, and yesterday it got her into trouble. It frequently does. She was found in a somewhat dazed condition on Duke street and was tenderly conveyed to the lockup. This morning a fine of eight dollars was imposed, and upon hearing the amount, Margaret announced her intention of paying it. But she had unfortunately left all her small change at home and a three months' note is not legal tender in the police court.

Yesterday morning James Clancy was arrested by Officer Semple for being drunk on Haymarket square and was placed in the old lockup on Gilbert's lane. Evidently the prisoner grew tired of solitary confinement, for he used an axe to good effect on the door and with a wild "Hurroo! vive la liberte!" in the accent of the French quintet of the city council, Clancy made his escape. He was recaptured later in the afternoon, and this morning was sent in for two months for drunkenness. On the charge of breaking out of the lockup he was remanded.

James Murphy, for being drunk on Sheffield street, was sent in for twenty days.

William Matix, an unfortunate and uncared for vagrant, with no home nor any visible means of support, was found lurking about Robertson's wharf at an early hour this morning. He will be taken to the Alms House.

THE POPULAR CHALET.

About a hundred people spent Dominion Day, or part of it, at the Chalet. They found the Chalet itself very pleasant quarters while rain was falling, and enjoyed the boating in the afternoon. Miss McGarrigle, the housekeeper, has beautified the house by placing potted plants on the verandah. A tennis court is being laid out, and croquet and quoit grounds are already there. The railway platform is to be extended this week.

E. R. Chapman, Chas. Jones, T. H. Belyea and Mr. Murray are occupying their new cottages this summer. C. W. and A. Hatfield have bought two lots, and have the lumber there for a cottage. A party of young men also have a lot and lumber on it, and several other lots have been sold.

The view from the top of the hill above the Chalet is magnificent. Centenary church picnic will be held at the Chalet a week from today.

Perhaps you want to fit the children up in a hurry to get them off to the country. Abundance of dresses at popular prices AT DYKEMAN'S.

The jailer sent word to the governor and the latter personally appeared at the prison armed with a gun. He ordered Cabrera to drop his club. Instead of obeying the convict struck the governor, whereupon the governor fired, killing the man instantly. The dead convict was about 40 years of age and had been a soldier.

ENGLAND AND SLAVERY.

At the missionary meeting in Toronto last week H. S. Newman told of his three visits to Africa—first to Algeria, then to Egypt and lastly to the East Coast. England, he said, from a material standpoint had been the salvation of Egypt. The country was bankrupt when England took over its finances, and its present flourishing condition was the most marvelous example of the success of modern government. The people, who had been trodden down for thousands of years, were now able to get work and money for their work. The whole Nile Valley was being irrigated, and the country opened by railways. Here was a great opportunity for missions. His most interesting description, however, was the work on the East Coast, the only British soil where slaves were not free as soon as they touched it. Great Britain was freeing them as rapidly as possible, and every slave was set free who appeared before a magistrate, and the owner compensated. The Friends were assisting in this work. Mr. Newman described Bishop Tucker, the head of the Church Missionary Society in Uganda, as a thorough Quaker, because of his sound common sense and scriptural methods of dealing with the people. The great success of that mission showed what was to be expected from right methods. The nineteenth century had been a fight for position in the temperate zones, but the battle of the twentieth would be for possession of the tropics, and the nations which controlled the tropics and their food supplies would control the world.
