

The Semi-Weekly Telegraph

VOL. XLII

ST. JOHN, N. B. SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1903.

NO. 81.

WILL PLAY TENNIS WITH ROTHESEY FOLK

Great Preparations Being Made at Fredericton for the Event.

A HEAVY FROST.

Lying Hogs for the Montreal Market—The Flour Throwing Case—May Go Into Lumber Business in the Southern States—More Weddings.

Fredericton, June 25.—(Special)—A meeting of the Fredericton tennis club was held last evening to make arrangements for the coming tournament with Rothesay.

In the evening there will be a dance in their honor in the Fisher House, kindly loaned to the club for the occasion by R. F. Rowland.

Mr. Manning, secretary of the club, this morning received a communication from Rothesay stating that they will send 100 centimes and eight lady players.

The two young men who figured in the spot last week will appear before Judge Larsh tomorrow morning for trial.

Mr. Scott, proprietor of the Springhill mill, who intends wintering in the south, will probably carry on extensive operations next season under the management of Mr. Scott.

There was a heavy frost last night and fires felt good early this morning.

SULA There was a pretty wedding at Prince William yesterday, at the residence of W. Sullivan.

A Maine Strike Settled. Skowhegan, Me., June 25.—The strike of the dressers of the Marston Woollen mill has been settled by both sides.

T. MARTINS RAILWAY LIKELY TO BE OPERATED IN A FEW DAYS

New Company Has Commenced Repairs, and Will Arrange for Engine and Cars.

St. Martins, June 25.—The promoters of a company to purchase the Hampton & Martins Railway were in St. Martins yesterday and made arrangements for workmen to commence making repairs to the road.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL STAND BY CANADA.

Hon. Mr. Sifton, Back from the Old Country, Tells of His Labors in London—Dominion's Contentions in Alaska Boundary Case to Be Backed Up by Downing Street—Canadian Matters in England.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special)—Hon. Clifford Sifton returned to the city today and was heartily welcomed by his colleagues in the cabinet and the members from the west.

"We worked laboriously on the preparation of Canada's case for the Alaska boundary tribunal and when that was completed, our staff took up the preparation of the counter case. I learn by cable from Mr. Wade that the counter case goes to the printer today.

"What is the opinion in England in regard to the Alaska case?" "The government has taken our position throughout and has stood by us. We have no fault to find with their connection with the case."

"Will Justice Armour be able to set on the commission?" "It is quite impossible to hope that he will take any part in the matter. Another jurist will probably have to be appointed for Canada."

TWO RAILWAY EMPLOYEES KILLED.

Leominster, Mass., June 25.—Two men were killed and two were injured by a train on the Boston & Maine Railroad at Derby bridge today. The men were employed on the road.

THE CORONATION OATH.

House of Lords Rejects Bill to Abolish It by 47 Majority.

London, June 25.—The interest which two years ago was attached to the question concerning the terms of the royal declaration against the papacy, was revived for a brief period tonight when the House of Lords took up the second reading of Earl Grey's bill to abolish both the coronation oath.

REMARKABLE SHOOTING.

Toronto, July 25.—(Special)—The Telegram's special cable from London says: At Bay today three members of the team sent over from the United States to compete for the Palma trophy, made a remarkably good score in a match with the North London volunteers.

BANQUET CLOSES FETE OF ST. JEAN BAPTISTE.

Montreal, June 25.—(Special)—A banquet tonight marked the culmination of the fete of St. Jean Baptiste, and was the largest ever held in Montreal, 3,000 attended.

THE SHAMROCK III. A WONDERFUL BOAT

So Says Sir Thomas Lipton in an Interview in New York.

THE KING'S MESSAGE.

Attempts to Lift Cup Have Cost Sir Thomas Over $750,000—Some Funny Letters—He Visited Washington Thursday.

New York, June 25.—Big and hearty, the picture of happiness, Sir Thomas Lipton sat at a small round table in a red carpeted apartment at the Waldorf Hotel yesterday afternoon and opened a heavy mail.

"Isn't it remarkable, this invitation, and the manner in which it was sent?" he asked, his face wreathed in smiles.

"I have a message to him from the King, whom I saw the Sunday before sailing."

"Here is a sample of some of the letters I found here," he said.

Another letter was from a person who had written to Sir Thomas asking for a favor.

MANITOBA ELECTIONS TO BE HELD JULY 17.

Winnipeg, June 25.—(Special)—An evening paper out with extra announcing local elections has been issued fixing date of election July 17.

FEAR POPE WILL NOT LIVE THROUGH SUMMER

Increasing Weakness Plainly Seen After Ceremony Thursday—Pontiff Speaks of Choosing New Cardinals and Refers to Canada's Title for Appointment.

Rome, June 25.—(Copy right special cable to The St. John Telegraph and New York Tribune.)—The Romans say that the Pope has nine lives, although his increasing weakness was plainly to be seen this morning, after he had gone through one of the most fatiguing ceremonies of the church.

"We have satisfied the Latin world. Now we must satisfy the Anglo-Saxon people. Poor Cardinal Vaughan must be replaced. Canada has now been five years without a cardinal while America constantly clamors for another."

Several cardinals who assisted at the consistory today agreed when speaking, confidentially, that they were all struck by the depression and weakness of the Pope.

CHAMBERLAIN HAS A BIG FOLLOWING.

One Hundred and Thirty-eight Ministerialists Resolve to Follow Colonial Secretary in His Fiscal Scheme—A General Election in Britain Likely to Happen This Autumn.

Montreal, June 25.—(Special)—The Star's London correspondent cables: "R. J. Younge, secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association writes to the British papers, declaring that the statement that the Canadian labor market is oversupplied is absolutely false.

"The admiralty and expert British critics are watching with keen interest the Canadian government's plans for the establishment of a Canadian naval reserve for the ocean and the great lakes.

"I am deeply touched by his invitation. I hope forward with great interest to meeting him."

OTTAWA IRISHMEN HONOR MR. COSTIGAN.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special)—The Irishmen of Ottawa entertained Hon. John Costigan at a banquet at St. Patrick's hall tonight, and during the evening he was presented on behalf of the company with a check for $1,500.

Covers were laid for 300 and among those at the chief guest table were: Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Hon. R. W. Scott, Speaker Power, Senator Sullivan, Senator Coffey, Charles Marcell, M. P., and R. Odolphe Lemieux, M. P.

In reply the guest of the evening spoke for two hours during which he reviewed his experiences in politics from the time of his return as member for Victoria (N. B.) for the first time in 1881, down to the present day.

At the time of the bolt Mr. Costigan advised Sir Mackenzie Bowell and the then Conservative government. He did so in the interest of the Roman Catholic minority and because he regarded remedial legislation as the one thing to be desired.

NEW BRUNSWICK STUDENTS GRADUATE AT TRURO, N. S.

Truro, N. S., June 25.—(Special)—The closing exercises of the Provincial Normal school, household science, manual training and kindergarten took place today.

The household science graduates are: Miss Louise McCollum, (Windsor); Miss Emma Bigelow and Miss Mary McDonald; W. O. Black, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias for the maritime provinces, officially visited Truro Lodge tonight, and was given a large reception.

CABINET BLAMED FOR BRITAIN'S ACT.

American Cattle Going to South Africa Brings Resolution of Censure.

HOUSE DEFEATS IT.

Hon. Mr. Fisher Says Colonial Office Paid No Attention to Remonstrance—Governor Snowball Visits Senate—Free Labor Bill Gets Second Reading.

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special)—There was a long discussion on Hon. Mr. Fisher's bill to prevent the improper making of butter and prohibiting the importation, manufacture or sale of oleomargarine or other butter substitutes.

Mr. Oliver pointed out that through the exertions of the department of agriculture and minister, millions of dollars worth of Canadian produce had been purchased by the British government.

The imperial government probably did not purchase cattle here because a cheaper and rougher grade suited their purposes better.

The resolution was defeated by 48 to 29 against, and supply was taken up on agricultural estimates.

Mr. McPherson said that the people in the west were purchasing cattle in the States as well as the imperial government.

The first of MacPherson & Schell, of Glenora, sold to W. D. Scott, commissioner of the Glasgow exhibition $125 worth of his own imperial goods.

WILL SETTLE MINERS' GRIEVANCES.

Board of Conciliation Meets and Elects Officers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 25.—The board of conciliation, which at the suggestion of the late anthracite strike commission, was appointed for the purpose of adjusting differences between anthracite coal operators and their employees, and which is composed of three representatives for each side, met here today and organized.

There were two sessions, forenoon and afternoon. After organization the rules of the board were adopted and this was followed by an informal discussion of the grievances pending. The meeting adjourned at 5.15 p. m. to assemble here again on Thursday next at 10 a. m., when the various grievances will be taken up.

The kindergarten graduates are: Miss Mabel Thompson, Bridgewater, and Miss Josie Cox, Truro. The latter has accepted a position in the school for the blind at Halifax.

HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIII.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N.B., JUNE 27, 1908.

MARKET REPORTS.

Saint John Wholesale Market.

Olives and sugar firm; Barbados molasses and sugar landing; Ontario flour holds at the advance; Manitoba flour may advance; Cornmeal no change; Fish are more plentiful.

ROVISIONS

Table listing various provisions such as clear pork, lard, tallow, and other goods with their respective prices.

IRON, ETC.

Table listing iron and other metal goods like pig iron, cast iron, and wrought iron.

GRAIN

Table listing various types of grain including wheat, barley, and oats.

TOBACCO

Table listing different grades of tobacco and their prices.

RICE

Table listing various types of rice and their market prices.

SUGAR

Table listing different grades of sugar and their prices.

OILS

Table listing various oils such as cod liver oil, olive oil, and other types.

RAISINS

Table listing different varieties of raisins and their prices.

APPLES

Table listing various types of apples and their market prices.

MLOUR AND MEAL

Table listing flour and meal products and their prices.

LASSES

Table listing various types of lasses and their prices.

SALT

Table listing different grades of salt and their prices.

SHED

Table listing various types of shed and their prices.

SPICE

Table listing various types of spices and their prices.

COFFEE

Table listing different grades of coffee and their prices.

TEAS

Table listing various types of tea and their prices.

OTHER GOODS

Table listing other miscellaneous goods and their prices.

Advertisement for Fuller's Blackberry Cordial, describing it as a natural remedy for diarrhea and other ailments.

FOR SALE advertisement for a farm property with various buildings and land.

WANTED advertisement for a person with specific skills or knowledge.

WANTED advertisement for a person with specific skills or knowledge.

WANTED advertisement for a person with specific skills or knowledge.

WANTED advertisement for a person with specific skills or knowledge.

MONEY TO LOAN advertisement offering financial assistance.

Executors' Notice advertisement regarding estate matters.

Administratrix's Notice advertisement regarding estate matters.

BIRTHS advertisement listing recent births.

MARRIAGES advertisement listing recent marriages.

DEATHS advertisement listing recent deaths.

High Price for Hay advertisement.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Nothing Like Like advertisement for a product.

Mrs. Livingston's Daughter-in-Law

By Lucretia Clark.

Main body of the story, detailing the relationship between Mrs. Livingston and her daughter-in-law, including their interactions and the challenges they face.

