gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, R. E. PUDDINGTON, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are dewed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimusaved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so undeclarated by the state of the scale areas and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so undeclarated by the state of the scale and state of the scale areas and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so undeclarated by the state of the scale and state of the scale areas and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so undeclarated by the scale and state of the scale and scale a scalp arrests and prevents the forma-tion of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and inju-rious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Nursery Rhymes, No. 9.

A very lean pig, on a windy day, Stood alone by a garden gate; He couldn't get in, for the gate was locked. And sadly he moaned o'er his fate. Then he wiped his eyes with a curl of his tail.
And gracefully stood on his ear.
And a trembling tear coursed down his spine.
Till his face turned the color of cuir.

His snoot grew flat, and gray were his looks, When a knot-hole round he espied; And he sat on the silken folds of his paw, And peered through that loop-hole wide. He saw the sun in a golden beam, Glint its rays on a bucket of mash, And his porcine feelings welled up in his breast And he went through that bole with a dash Then his optic fell on some CATTLE SPICE,
As heglanced o'er the garden green;
And he smacked his lips and distended his jaws, With a relish uncommonly keen. He loaded his skin till it couldn't hold more And his sides began to expand His face got cheeky; stout grew his limbs, And he left for his native land. He reached the hole at the side of the gate And jumped for that circular crack When his febrile pulse felt a normal shock And he fell on the broad of his back.

And the Coroner sat on the fat remains
Of that porker in his pride:
And this was the verdict the Jury gave:
"Died from a swelled inside."

ITS EFFECT IS It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cures baldness. M kee hair grow. A better dressing than any "cil" or "pomatum" Softens brash, dry and wiry hair into Bo untiful Silken Tresses. Above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which I restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

Tao white-t and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and col ring matter.

The first application will do good: you will see the NATUGAL COLOR returning every day, and MIRACULOUS day, and BEFORE YOU KNOW IT, the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving 1-1.ce to lustrous, shining and beautiful lecks.

Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer; no other article is at all like it in effect.
