International Joint Commission to Deal With All Canadian-American Differences.

The text of the waterways treaty between United States and Great Britain has been made public. The agreement was negotiated on behalf of Canada by the Canadian section of the waterways commission, headed by Mr. George C. Gibbons, K. C., of London. The document is not long, and should be read by every Canadian who pretends to take an interest in public affairs. The full text is as follows: The United States of America and His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas Emperor of India, being equally desirous to prevent disputes regarding the use of boundary waters and to settle all questions which are now pending between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, involving the rights, obligations, or interests of either in relation to the other or to the inhabitants of the other, along their common frontier, and to make provision for the adjustment and settlement of all such questions as may hereafter arise, have resolved to conclude a treaty in furtherance of these ends, and for that! purpose have appointed as their respective plenipotentiaries:

Suffered 10 Months with Kidney Complaint. Gin Pills Cured.

Dunvegan, Inverness Co. I am perfectly cured of Kidney complaint after using Gin Pills.. Six hours after taking the first Pill I obtained relief, and now after three months I feel as well as ever.

I suffered ten months and the Physician attending me advised me to go to the Victoria Hospital at Halifax, as he could do nothing more for me. I may add that I used a great deal of medicine, and strictly followed my physician's directions regarding diet, etc., but without avail, until providentially I learned of your most excellent remedy. I am recommending Gin Pills.

The discussion in committee centred mainly around the points as to whether there should be a limitation as to the jurisdiction of magistrates and justices of peace in trying cases under the act, and as to the necessity of following the wording of the British act in respect to specifying that the commission must be offered or accepted with corrupt intent. Mr. Aylesworth stated that the wording of the British act, specifying corrupt intent, was adopted after a thorough discussion, not intended to constitute the simple offers of gifts of minor nature a criminal offense. These might be given NAVY AND AGED offers of gifts of minor nature a crimwithout there necessarily being any corrupt intent at all. The question of determining whether these gifts were offered with the intention of illicitly influencing a business transaction must be left to the discretion of the

Mr. Carvell urged that it would be unwise to allow a justice of the peace to try anyone accused of a violation of the act. Political considerations and personal prejudices, he suggested, might work out to the disadvantage of the accused, and he believed the right of election as to the court by which he should be tried should be given the accused. If a speaker found it necessary to refer to documents, the quotations could be handed into the Hansard. The deputy speaker could act as reviser and strike out anything that might be objectionable in these quotations. It would tend to shorten the session if the memher who introduces a bill were limited to one hour, the member who follows him to the same time, and the remaining speeches curtailed. The greatest speeches the world has ever

PUGSLEY TOSES CASE

Judgment for Fowler, Pope et al. Western Land Suit.

St. John, N. B., Feb. 16.-In the Equity court this morning Judge Barker gave judgment in the case of A. B. Pugsley vs. George W. Fowler, Rufus H. Pope et al., in favor of the defendants. Mr. Pugsley claimed was entitled to one-twentieth of the profit from the famous western land deal put through by Fowler. He claimed he had paid Fowler $200, and was the English vaudeville artist, who to get a share of the profits. Fowler claimed that when he wired Pugsley for $2,000 to complete his share Pugslev refused to send it, consequently he was entitled to nothing. Mr. Pugsley must pay the costs of the action

British Columbia Government Will Drop This Plan of Immigration.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 16.-The Government ownership of coal mines classed as a public utility was one of the recommendations urged upon the executive yesterday by a large deputation representing the Trades and Labor Council of British Columbia. The question of immigration was brought up, and the Government informed the delegation that the present arrangement with the Salvation Army was being terminated, and that a similar method for inducing immigration would not again be adopted.

If Your Trouble comes from the Kidneys, or from Kidney Poisons in the Blood, YES!

And if you have been ailing a long time don't lose your courage. It takes a little time—takes some constitutions longer than others. But Doan's Kidney Pills will gradually drain the poisons out of your system; the pain in your back will stop; the sediment in the urine will cease; there will be no rheumatic pains; you will feel freer and brighter, and when the last of the poisons have gone you will be well.

There is no way of getting the kidney poisons out of the system except through the kidneys, and no medicine so effective in taking them out as Doan's Kid-

Refinement in Simplicity Costs Parisians a Pretty Penny.

Paris, Feb. 16.—In the matter of extravagances and general and everincreasing luxury among wealthy and name of the person for whom it was inmiddle classes, Paris is in advance of tended could be discovered. The envelope Berlin. Paris practices the art of re- arrived apparently as it had been posted, finement in simplicity, and there is no and the club man is wondering yet how more costly art.

The extravagance of an up-to-date Parisian dinner no longer lies in the number of its courses or the variety of the wines, but rather in the exquisite refinement of its surroundings. Timekeepers—M. Cryderman, W. A. The dinner itself is short, never longer than forty-five minutes to an our. There are three or four courses at the most, and never more than two or three kinds of wine. Indeed, it is eated the Lawson & Jones' players now the fashion to drink mineral at the Simcoe street rink last night waters more than wines. But on the by a score of 2 to 1. No heavy silverware is on the table, only the most exquisitely chased and carved Louise Seize silver of the lightest kind but of great beauty.

Expensive Silverware. The best-known silversmith in Paris nformed me today that in future centuries the present age would be looked back upon as the real Louise Seize age, for never has the style been brought to such perfect perfection. For one customer who formerly spent $250 on tableware," he said, "there are now twenty." So, too, cloths with real Venetian or other real lace insertions, costing from $100 to $150, are now common in the houses of the well-todo middle classes. Ordinary small nap-Tankard were started at the Thistle kins for tea are exhibited in the best Paris shops at $30 and more a dozen.

> Jewels Few But Costly. One of the most striking signs of the luxury of the age in Parls is the fashion in jewelry. As it has become "bad form" to wear many rings, and worse still to wear on the same hand stones of variegated colors, it is the custom for these women who can afford it to wear one or at most two rings at a time. But these rings con 11 tain either diamonds or other precious stones worth hundreds of pounds. The wealthy woman will now display a single diamond ring of the utmost pur ty and brilliance, and leave the well to-do tradesman's wife to adorn each of her fingers with rings of different colored precious stones. Costly Dresses. The revolution that has recently taken place in women's attire has ne cessitated a complete change in the outfit of every follower of fashion. A lady recently paid $800 to her dressmaker for one of the newest gowns, and spent an additional $350 in lingerie, hosiery, and boots to enable her to wear the new dress. The "Rich elieu" boots which women now wear to match the rest of their attire are frequently made with real pearl and real gold as well as silver gilt buckles. I was yesterday shown a

WHY JUDGE ANGLIN REFUSED THE STAY

Gives Reasons for Dismissing Appeal From Latchford Decision.

Toronto, Feb. 16 .- Mr. Justice Angin writes the reasons for the divisional court action in dismissing the appeal of the cities of Toronto and London from Judge Latchford's order refusing to stay the action of W. D. Beardmore till the hydro-electric commission is added as a defendant. He says:

WEST PETERBORO APPEAL. Ottawa, Feb. 16. - The supreme court today heard the appeal in the matter of the West Peterboro election case, which affects the seat held by the Hon. J. R. Stratton. The appeal is from an order disallowing the preliminary objections on the grounds that no personal service of the election petition was made on Mr. Stratthat a personal service, in the province of Ontario, was required by statute within ten days or a legally made extension thereof from the notice of presentation; that the order made after expiration of ten days was rregular and could not have the effect of enlarging the time for service: that it was made without authority. and that substitutional service was irregular and not authorized by the statute. No decision was given.

ANOTHER RECORD GONE.

New York, Feb. 16 .- Word of the breaking of another ocean record by the steamer Mauretania was received here today in a wireless message stating that the big turbine in the day's run ending at noon yesterday on her voyage from Liverpool and Queenstown to New York had made 671 knots. The record for the best previous day's run was held by the hoir met the bridal procession at the Lusitania, by her run of 650 knots on Us, Heavenly Father." The service was was 26.21 knots. THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imaginate everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Iake a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic—I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

Mr. Hockaberry was chopping down a tree in his yard, when the axe slipped, and the sharp blade sank deep into his foot. An artery was severed, and the wound bled profusely. Fortunately for Mr. Hockaberry, a farmer happened to be going by, and with great presence of mind he ran and jumped into the wagon and the farmer drove with all speed to Victoria Hospital. Mr. Hockaberry lost considerable blood on the way, and was very weak when he was taken in hand by the house surgeons. His wound was stopped. It is feared that blood poisoning may develop, but otherwise Mr. Hockaberry will be all right again

There is the Church of the Bonscoeur, that was a hospital and a stable during the days of the siege. The streets of the old town are a wilderness of stairs and sharp turns. In Sous-la-Cop street the traveller must stand in the doorsteps to let the caleche, the vehicle peculiar to Quebec, go by, while Little Champlain street is one long climb from end to end. There are no backyards in old Quebec, and the week's washing floats damply above you as you walk the streets. Strange little churches are every-

But is is when the traveller stands on the Dufferin Terrace at nightfall that the atmosphere of the place envelopes him. Behind is the immense mass of the Chateau. On every side are people, all talking an unknown tongue. It is difficult to realize that this is a Canadian city. The Dufferin Terrace is the fashionable promenade of Quebec, and in the evenings it is always en fete. Straight below lies the dimly-lighted mass of the old town, and far in front lies the multitudinous lights of the Levis shore, while on the dark waters, between flashes, the sigal lights of ships riding at anchor are

QUEBEC IN 1908 Notes From a Diary Kept by Mr. Hugh

H. R. Suttleworth. At the regular meeting of the Young Men's Club of First Presbyterian Church, held in the schoolroom last evening, Mr. Hugh R. Shuttleworth gave an interesting account of the tercentenary celebration at Quebec from a diary kept by him when he visited the city with the Seventh Regi-Mr. Shuttleworth's account was most complete, and those present gained a splendid idea of the important features of the celebration, and also of the par the Seventh played in the manoeuvres. Mr. Shuttleworth gave a fine account of the reception to the Prince of Wales and the welcome given to Lord Roberts, in which he made particular mention of the pride the Seventh felt when 100 of their men were chosen as the imperial bodyguard during the last night in camp. During the evening readings and re citations were given by Messrs. J. F McLeod and Ross Richardson, and piano selection by Sinclair Adams.
