LORD STRATHONA'S REFUSAL.

Lord Strathona's decision that he would under no circumstances accept the position of Governor General, and his declaration that that position should always be filled by an imperial government appointee as a cherished link with the motherland, is what might be expected from that wise and far-sighted gentleman. Lord Strathona would make an excellent governor-general. His refusal to accept the office offered to him, is one of the best evidences of the wisdom and statesmanlike ability which would eminently qualify him for the position. But if the precedent were once created by Lord Strathona's refusal, as every thinking man will see, that it would be only a question of time until the office would be degraded to a mere sinecure, for shirking the duties of political parties, or worse still, a medium for unscrupulous political leaders to grasp more power under the guise of confederation by installing a partisan tool in the office.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

If concentration camps are bad in South Africa, it is hard to see how they can be good in the Philippines, points out the Hamilton Herald. And American methods of concentration in the Philippines is very much more rigorous than the British methods in South Africa. In the island of Samar the entire population is compelled to concentrate in towns, and the order is given that any natives outside of the towns will be shot or hanged as rebels against the United States government.

And here is the substance of the law against treason and sedition recently framed by the Philippine Commission—a law which is now in force. The penalty prescribed for treason is death, and the act is framed to include those persons giving aid and comfort to the insurgents. Persons who utter seditious words or speeches, or who write libels against the United States government or the Insular government, are punishable by the imposition of a fine of $2,000 or two years' imprisonment. For breaking the oath of allegiance a fine of $2,000 or imprisonment for ten years is fixed as the penalty.

While Yankee journals continue to denounce British methods in South Africa as brutal and cruel, they have no word of protest against the far sorer methods employed in the Philippines. Their course may be accounted for as a compliment to British character and government. Evidently they think that more humanity and politeness and magnanimity should be exercised by Britons than can reasonably be expected of Americans.

PURITY OF OUR DAIRY PRODUCTS.

A report has just been issued by the chemist at the laboratory of the British government on the work of the department for the year. The most interesting part of the report to Canadians is that relating to food supplies, and especially dairy products. It shows that a large number of samples of butter and cheese have been examined during the year. Holland stands at the head of the list with 361 samples of which only six were found to be adulterated, and Ireland is at the other end with one sample reported absolutely pure. It would naturally be expected that Norway and Sweden were dairying in a science and dairy factories have to hold a diploma of purification, would stand high and as a result, of 196 samples only one being found to be adulterated. A very high standard is that of Denmark, Australia and New Zealand rank high. But Canada, comparatively speaking, outclasses all the other dairies. Fifty-one samples of butter were, it appears, analyzed. Of that one was found to be adulterated, and eight containing substances. Percentage of samples containing one from those from other countries.

Scrofula

This root of many evils—Glandular tumors, abscesses, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions, sore ears, inflamed eyelids, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, readiness to catch cold and inability to get rid of it easily, paleness, nervousness, the consumptive tendency, and other ailments—

Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Elias Vermorel, Wawarsing, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her, and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Promises to cure and keeps its promise. Ask your druggist for it today and accept no substitute.

was very high. The analyst also points out the danger of misrepresentation that has on former occasions worked to the detriment of our product. Italian butter has been palmed off as French and Belgian. It is also stated that eleven of the samples exported from the United States were Canadian and five from Canada were United States produce. Reports have recently come to hand showing that the fame of Canadian cheese has fallen off slightly in Great Britain. The trick of exporting United States cheese as Canadian, it seems, is still practiced. Clearly, Canadian interests are thereby endangered and this state of things should be fought against. The report as a whole is very encouraging to Canadian producers, and our exporters should profit by it in maintaining the quality of our products and trying to prevent the frauds and misrepresentations to which attention is thus directed. Upon keeping up the reputation our dairy and other products have obtained in Great Britain continued success depends. If this is done the market is practically limitless.

SORE NECK

Take Scott's Emulsion for scrofula. Children often have sores on the neck that won't heal up. The sores may come and go. Parents may not know what the matter nor what to do. Scrofula is the trouble and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine.

Scott's Emulsion heals the sores. But that is not all. Scrofula leads to consumption. This is the real danger.

Scott's Emulsion is the "ounce of prevention" that keeps off consumption.

We'll send you a little try, if you like.

CONSERVATIVE METHODS.

In marked contrast to the recent machine-manipulated convention under the name of the Liberals of East Kent is the forthcoming convention of Liberal Conservatives in the same riding. Of it the Ridgeway Dominion says:—

The Liberal-Conservatives of East Kent meet here on Thursday next, 21st inst., to select a candidate to contest the riding at the general election. The convention is called for 12.30, in the opera house.

The advice which reach us all point to a well attended and representative convention. The vice-presidents are doing their work and a full delegation is expected from every polling sub-division. It is true the weather is somewhat uncertain at this time of year, but the enthusiasm existing is such that it will take more than an ordinary storm to dampen it. If the roads only prove fair, all will be well.

The work of the convention will be to select the strongest man. There are no "favorite sons" in the Conservative party in this riding. No municipality is putting forward a claim in behalf of any individual, but all are ready and willing to fall into line behind the chosen standard bearer. While the names of several well known gentlemen are mentioned for the honor, there is a complete absence of log-rolling, wire-pulling or jealousy. The convention will meet as a body of free men, and will be unhampered in its choice. After the convention has concluded its labors, addresses will be delivered by several gentlemen prominent in the party, including members of the House of Commons and the Ontario Legislature.

SARNIA'S EXPERIENCE.

Sarnia Canadian.
The Hamilton Spectator is of opinion that municipal ownership does not pay. We do not know how it is in other places, but municipal ownership in Sarnia has been a signal success. The Sarnia waterworks were built by the town a quarter of a century ago, and have run ever since, practically without a hitch or a break down; and there has not, we believe, been a year since the institution of the system that it has not paid its expenses and something to the good beside.

CANADA'S ADVANTAGE.

Boston Herald.
In a war of tariffs Canada holds a far more favorable position than does the United States. Years ago Canadian trade was a matter of minor importance to us; it has now grown to be too valuable for us to grow to be years ago the market of the United States was one that the Canadians considered essential to their industrial well-being, but that time has now passed. The position of the two countries has thus radically changed, and Canada can now adopt, if she chooses, the same restrictive policy in her relations with us that we have adopted in our relations with her. It is this fact which gives force to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's words, that the movement toward a more equitable basis of trade between the United States should be initiated by our government.

THE RIGHT KIND OF COUNCIL.

Niagara Falls Record.
The town council of Mitchell constructed a grandiose sidewalk on the Huron road west of the town. A good deal of the property in front of which the new walk passes is vacant and consequently the walk was not required by that property. The council also assessed the property on both sides of the street for the improvement. After the walk was constructed, the owners of the vacant property on both sides of the street appealed to the county judge, asking to be relieved from the special tax incurred, on the plea that the walk was of no use to them, and that the council had no power to tax property on one side of the street for a walk on the opposite side. Judge Barron in dismissing the appeal said: "Mitchell has the right kind of council, and I wish they had one like it in Stratford, that would make improvements in spite of opposition."

A Modern Scourge

MORE TO BE DREADED THAN AN OUTBREAK OF SMALLPOX.

No epidemic in the last quarter of a Century has carried off as many people as Annually Fall Victims to Consumption.

L'Avenir du Nord, St. Jerome, Que.
Throughout Canada much alarm has been felt during the past few months at the outbreak of smallpox that has occurred in various localities and thousands of dollars have been expended and rightly so—in suppressing it. And yet year in and year out this country suffers from a plague that claims more victims annually than have been carried off by any epidemic during the past quarter of a century. Consumption—the great white plague of the north—is more to be dreaded than any epidemic that has ever visited Canada. It is numbered by the thousands annually, and through its ravages bright young lives in every quarter are brought to an untimely end. Why? There are two reasons, the insidious character of the disease, and the all too prevalent belief that those who inherit weak lungs are foredoomed to an early death and that the most that can be done is to give the loved ones temporary relief in the journey towards the grave. This is a great mistake. Medical science now knows that consumption, when it has not reached an acute stage, is curable. But better still, it is preventable. Sufferers from weak lungs who will clothe themselves properly, who will keep the blood rich and red, not only need not dread consumption, but will ultimately become healthy, robust people. Among those upon whom consumption has fastened its fangs, and who have proved the disease is curable, is Mr. Sidrege St. George, of St. Jerome, Que. His story as related to a reporter of L'Avenir du Nord, will be of interest to similar sufferers. Mr. St. George says: "Up to the age of fifteen years I had always enjoyed the best of health, but at that age I became greatly run down. I lost color, suffered constantly from headaches and pains in the sides; my appetite failed, and I became very weak. For upwards of three years—though I was having medical treatment—the trouble went on. Then I was attacked by a cough, and was told that I was in consumption. Then the doctor who was attending me ordered me to the Laurentian Mountains in the hope that the change of air would benefit me. I remained there for some time, but did not improve, and returned home feeling that I had not much longer to live. It was then that my parents decided that I should use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I began taking them. After using several boxes my appetite began to return, and this seemed to mark the change which brought about my recovery, for with the improved appetite came gradual but surely increasing strength. I continued the use of the pills, and daily felt the weakness that had threatened to end my life disappear, until finally I was again enjoying good health, and now, as those who know me can see, I show no trace of the illness I passed through. I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life, and I hope my statement will induce similar sufferers to try them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich, red blood. With every drop the blood is strengthened, the quantity increased, and thus the patient is enabled not only to resist the further inroad of disease, but is soon restored to active health and strength. If you are ill, or weak, or suffering from any disease due to poor blood or weak nerves, take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once and they will soon make you well. These pills are sold by all dealers in medicines, or will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Have you ever heard Camilla Urso play the violin? It was a rare pleasure to be in store for you. Sometimes a good thing comes along and misses the patronage it deserves because people do not know its merits. When the music is heard from those who attended, it is too late. In the case of Urso, the world-wide reputation of the great artist makes absolutely certain the enjoyment of all who hear her concert.

EXPERT SHOT.

"There is many a slip between the true tale and the way it is told." This adage of recent date, is often illustrated, but never more so than by a grocery traveller who makes his headquarters in this city. He went to shooting the ducks that fly wildly in the vicinity of Mitchell's Bay. He returned in a day with a string of 12 ducks. Wandering into the Hotel Gardner on the eve of his return he told many a story as to how he had shot each individual duck. His description was so vivid that his auditors could almost see the birds fall to the unerring aim. They didn't realize the extensive imagination of grocery travellers. (It is said that if you need a vivid imagination in your business.) Thus it came about that the friend learned the grocery seller had bought the ducks from the French painter, man of estates and tried to shoot some, but the wretched fellow was too fast for him. Silver shot had done its deadly work.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

TWO MORE CASES OF ITCHING PILES

That Could Not Be Cured By Any Treatment Except

Dr. Chase's Ointment

There is probably no other medicine prepared in this country which has been so thoroughly endorsed by the best and most respected people as Dr. Chase's Ointment. This is undoubtedly accounted for by the fact that people who are free from the misery of itching piles are anxious to let other sufferers know what has cured them, and because Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only actual cure for this torturing and frightfully common disease.

Mr. John Harvey, 322 George street, Peterboro' (Ont.), states:—"Only persons who have experienced the torture of itching piles can form any idea of what I suffered from the horrible disease. I was obliged to try Dr. Chase's Ointment and can positively say it has completely cured me. I had tried many so-called cures for piles and can truthfully say that there is no remedy on the face of the earth like Dr. Chase's Ointment for this purpose. I would not be without it for any amount of money and can heartily recommend it to all sufferers as it is the best thing I ever used."

W. E. Talbot of Talbot Bros., merchants, 322 George street, Peterboro' (Ont.), states:—"It is from a desire to help other sufferers that I offer a statement of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for itching piles. I was for a long time troubled with this unpleasant and torturing disease, and though I tried very many treatments, remained unimproved until I came across Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was highly recommended to me, and I find that every word of praise that is given to it is true. I can truthfully say that I am completely cured, and, knowing the misery that the ailment produces, I am anxious to let others know of the surprising virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box, at all dealers or by mail, post paid, on receipt of price by Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THE SCOTCH CONCERT.

Jessie Macdonald, the gifted Scottish singer, is to be the bright particular star at a concert to be given in the Grand Opera House on Friday, Dec. 6. The New York Scottish-American Association, under the auspices of Miss Macdonald, the audience, which numbered over 2,000, was mostly composed of Brooklyn Scots, but there were also many from New York, Jersey City, Newark, and other places. The favorable impression which this popular Scottish singer made at the two concerts given by the New York Scottish Society in the beginning of the year was greatly heightened by her singing on Friday night, and the enthusiasm of the audience, which evidenced itself at the close of her first song, increased, reaching a perfect furore at the end of her last number—"Rule Britannia."

OUR MOIVE:

'Accuracy, Care and Attention'

Our continued success in business is the best proof that we enjoy the unbounded confidence of the public. We dispense drugs with the greatest possible accuracy, care and attention. Our stock of toilet preparations is always up-to-date, and our perfumes the finest and cheapest.

All Ranks and Conditions of our people are now using Pain's Compound, the great health restorer. No other medicine in the world has such a record of cures to its credit. It makes new, fresh blood, corrects indigestion, gives energy to body, nerves and brain. If you feel unwell, give Pain's Compound a trial.

R. C. Burt, druggist, Chatham, Ont. Tel. 130

While Archibald McKean, Wabash, Ont., was working around an uncovered well, his little two-year-old boy became frightened at an approaching steamer, and fell backwards into the well, which was 21 feet deep. Mr. McKean grasped for him, but missed, and instantly jumped in after him. Neither was seriously hurt, and, after trying in vain to attract some person's attention for assistance, he strapped the little one to his back with his suspenders and swam the well in safety, with his previous burden.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedial. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be removed, the hearing will be permanently lost. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

THE MARKET

There was an excellent market this morning. Everything was very plentiful and sold very readily at good prices. There was the largest display of chickens that has been seen on the market for some time, in fact the sheds were crowded with chickens. They sold very rapidly at from 20 to 35 cents each. Eggs are very dear. The lowest price asked was 25 cents but some were asking as high as 22 cents. Ducks were scarce at from 30 to 35 cents each. Turkeys were quite plentiful at from 75 cents to 90 cents each. Good dairy butter sold at from 18 to 20 cents a pound. Vegetables were sold in limited quantities, the dairy produce being the chief feature.

The following is the price list:—

A "SWEET" STOMACH

Is the key-note of a happy heart. Dr. Von St. Martin's Tablets make and keep the stomach sweet, because they aid digestion and prevent ferment.

Stomach ferment induces indigestion. Indigestion produces distress after eating, weight in the stomach, wind on the stomach, loss of appetite, nervousness, nervous headache, catarrh of the stomach, sick headache and many other disorders—but Dr. Von St. Martin's pineapple tablets nip the trouble in the bud, and prevent the seating of disease. Eminent physicians prescribe them. Sixty tablets, 35 cents.

Sold by J. W. McLaren, Chatham. No man ever arrived suddenly at the summit of pure goodness.

International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow—Gladness of Moses—Ex. ii, 1-10.

Golden Text—"I trust you a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

The last lesson was "Israel in Oppression," and now comes the birth of their deliverer. To prevent their increase, Pharaoh would drown the boys like kittens. Back of Pharaoh, as back of Herod, was Satan. Would signs on their boys. How these parents planned to save their child. Do not leave all to ministers and teachers and neglect your own duty. Had Moses been nursed by an Egyptian he would have been an idolator. With what joy his mother would receive him back to her arms; so may we receive our children back from the world. As his mother presented him to court as an adopted son, we may present our children as adopted into the Royal Family of God.

"THE HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT."

TO-NIGHT.

Yesterday's London Advertiser says concerning "The House that Jack Built," which comes to the Grand Theatre this evening:—

"Built for laughing purposes only," is the reason given advanced on behalf of "The House that Jack Built," and judging by the laughter at the Grand Opera House last night, Broadhurst's comedy has amply fulfilled the expectations of its creation.

The story revolves around a certain Willie Slab, a paperhanger by force of circumstances, but "a plumber at heart," who has been engaged to work in a house being built by "Dr. Jack."

A wealthy, but eccentric gentleman. To him comes Sir Edward Singleton, who has seen and fallen in love with Hester, the doctor's daughter, a young woman who believes in the downright workingman and despises the aristocracy.

Sir Edward, learning of her socialistic tendencies, persuades the paperhanger to pass him off as his brother and assistant, and when he makes his appearance in a workman's jacket and overalls, Hester is immediately impressed by the bearing of this magnificent specimen of American workman.

Mrs. Dooley, a wealthy widow, desirous of marrying her daughter Florence to a member of the nobility, discovers that Sir Edward is there in disguise, but mistakes the genuine paper hanger for him. There are other cases of mistaken identity in the piece, a boyish suitor for Florence Dooley's hand being likewise mistaken for the baronet.

A young father, his old son, the father's father, a dear little Japanese girl and a vaudeville artist, all serve to complicate matters deliciously. Mr. Geo. H. Summers, a former Toronto boy, gave a number of friends last evening.

Paine's Celery Compound

Possesses Special Virtues and Powers For Female Health—Building.

ALL WOMEN WHO SUFFER FROM DISEASES PECULIAR TO THEIR SEX SHOULD USE IT.

A Hamilton, Ont., Lady Writes: Life was Despaired of is Made well and Strong After Years of Suffering.

Paine's Celery Compound has stood for the test of time and experience while hundreds of other preparations are fast sinking into obscurity.

Paine's Celery Compound is not a patent medicine, it is the discovery of one of the greatest and ablest physicians that ever graced the noble profession, and for this reason it is prescribed by many able doctors who recognize its worth.

Paine's Celery Compound possesses special virtues and powers for female health building. It banishes nervousness, weakness, headaches, and all the nameless ill that come to women of all ages. It gives them rosy cheeks, sparkling eyes and restores the freshness and activity of girlhood.

Miss Blake, of Hughson street, Hamilton, Ont., gives her testimony for the benefit of women who are suffering—many in silence—and earnestly looking for health and strength.

comes with a coronal of special scenery and with beautiful properties, so that the "Mistress Nell" that will be offered to local theatre goers will be identical the same as that for almost the entire year in that theatre in New York last season. The company will be headed by Miss Agnes Ardeck, who has been coached by Henrietta Crossman, and who scored a decided success in this play last year. Though this is the first visit of this organization here, the success of "Mistress Nell" has long ago preceded them and the opera house will undoubtedly be crowded on Thursday night. The advance sale of seats opens on Tuesday next.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Bacon has since been doing nicely, and we trust to see him in his place at the Council Board before long.—Blenheim Tribune.

At the Grand on Monday night. A play teeming with sensational episodes, with thrilling climaxes, with a heart interest and strength that every girl enthralled over it, for its dealings with a local institution, and it was very popular. The dress went so far as to universally say that it was the scene of this class of drama.

The story of the play is the endeavor of a young Irish detective, Cleve Hyley to hunt down a band of bold and bad burglars. Their hall mark is seen on all the big criminal operations of the time, and the whole costabulary of the United Kingdom is at work to locate and bring to justice this band.

Cleve Hyley is not only prompted by the reward attending their capture, but also by a spirit of revenge against Fastace Lee, otherwise Captain Nero, the leader of the gang. In the end he accomplishes this purpose and as the play closes the whole gang is brought to justice.

From Scotland Yard has a large compliment of incidents characterized to excite the interest to the concert. These include the robbery of the bullion car, the murder of Herbert Mason, the fight on the roof tops and the slow torture to death, in which the burning cord device is used. The play is produced with a wealth of scenery and effects.

The special company that will present "Mistress Nell" at the Grand next Thursday night has been well equipped by Maurice Campbell and

Fashionable Cheviot Overcoats

Never, surely, did factory tailoring tread so closely on the heels of custom work as in these superfine winter coats. You haven't seen ready made garments before that had so entirely the look and manner of being made for the wearer.

Customers are quick to recognize this and not slow to note the quality of cloth we are putting into these coats. Best making, best cloth, best linings in Canada for the money—That's our claim without reservation of any kind.

We are putting a cloth into one of our $15 overcoats that makes it stand out even among a group of big values. It's a dark oxford gray twilled cheviot—a cheviot with the toughness and compactness of an Irish frieze. Weather makes no impression on it. Glad to show you a sample of the cloth at any time. This coat cut long and full with silk facings cut clear to the bottom, big cuffs, silk velvet collar and velvet pockets, for $15.00. We are showing a good choice of fashionable coats at $70. Rough and smooth finished oxford chevies cut in fly front with full or moderately loose back and the correct box front. Some have silk velvet collars, and some are made with self collars. These garments, splendidly finished, mark an epoch in tailoring when sold for $10.00.
