A GOOD SHOW

The Gay Mr. Dooley, presented at the Brisco Opera House last night by La Reane and Lee, was attended by a fair sized house. The show was deserving of a better house, as it was a particularly clever and funny show. The La Reane family were good. H. La Reane, who took the part of Mr. Dooley, was good during the evening's performance and executed some clever stunts. The La Reane sisters did some creditable dancing and singing and received much applause and appreciation during the evening. The band or orchestra furnished suitable music.

W. M. Drader Knew Nothing of His Loss Till He Arrived in Canada

Insurance Men are now Adjusting the Claims on Burned Building

W. M. Drader, whose two large mills were recently destroyed by fire while he was away on a business trip, was seen on King street this morning by a Planet reporter. Mr. Drader takes his misfortune like a man, and like a true optimist who is trying to make the best of circumstances.

"We understand that you are contemplating the building of a new stove, hoop, head and planing mill combined," ventured the reporter.

"It is too early to say anything as yet," replied Mr. Drader. "Things are still in an unsettled state. Mr. Carey and Mr. Drayden, of Toronto, are at present in the city adjusting the insurance matters."

"Have you any idea as yet as to what the total loss will amount to, Mr. Drader?"

"No, I have not; nor is it likely that we will know for some little time yet. As soon as things are settled and I have any news of a definite nature to give you I will let you know."

"It must have been quite a shock to you when you learned that both your mills had been burned down, one so quickly after the other?"

"Indeed it was," he replied. "I was away on a lumber buying trip through Michigan. While up there, Mrs. Drader and I got an invitation to visit some friends in Plymouth, and we went. We had not left word with the office here that we were going to Plymouth, and that explains the difficulty which they had in locating us. Immediately on our arrival at Plymouth, I sent a card to my nephew, Mr. Martin, notifying him that we were at Plymouth, but through the wrecking of the train, the card did not reach him. He was unable to get into communication with us."

"I had not the slightest inkling of the burnings until we arrived in Windsor. While waiting for my train at Windsor, I was approached by Mr. Bogart, who told me of the destruction of the Queen street mill, and a few moments afterwards, Sam. Glenn, who was also at the station, came forward and pointed to an item in a morning paper giving the particulars of the second fire."

Mr. Drader is of the firm belief that both fires resulted from purely accidental causes. This now appears to be the general belief.

Wallaceburg, Sept. 25.—An unfortunate accident befell Robert, son of Samuel Southgate, last evening, while playing with some other boys on the street near his father's residence.

It seems that a number of boys secured gunpowder and placed the same in a can and touched a match to it.

The boy's face was severely burned and it was a wonder that he escaped losing his eyesight. He is under a doctor's care and possibly he will recover without being permanently blind from the effects of the explosion.

CITY LEAGUE IS FORMED

Football Season Away to Good Start In Chatham

Boys Elect Officers And Draw up Schedule For Games

A meeting was held in the office of McCoig & Harrington last night, at which a city football league was formed. About forty of the football enthusiasts were in attendance, and a very enthusiastic meeting was the result. The election of officers took place as follows:

Hon. Presidents—Messrs. Robert Gray and Fred Stone.
Pres.—Ald. Geo. Maynell.
Vice-Pres.—F. D. Laurie.
Second Vice-Pres.—R. A. Harrington.

Sec'y-Treas.—Alex. Clark.
Protest Com.—Messrs. Maynell, Laurie and Harrington.

With regard to the rules of the game, the Western Football Association rules are to govern, except as amended by resolution of the league.

Mr. Fred Stone has kindly donated a cup, and the team winning the largest number of games will be awarded the trophy. Each team are to wear distinctive colors, and the following are the teams that will make up the league:

Chatham.
C. B. C.
Lacroix Street Thistles.
The Union Jacks.

The Lacroix Street Thistles will be known in future as the "Thistles," but they will be referred to as the Lacroix Street Thistles. The Union Jacks are a team made up of Englishmen, who claim that they can defeat anything in the city. The colors of the Chatham team are black and white; C. B. C. team, red and black; Thistles, green and red, and the Union Jacks, red and

ALD BENSEN FOR MAYOR

He Definitely Announces His Intention to be a Candidate

The Field is Growing—Many Good Men are Now Out

Ald. Wm. H. Bensen, chairman of the Board of Works, will be a candidate for the Mayoralty for 1908. Ald. Bensen, who has served both on the Public School Board and the Council, has polled a phenomenally heavy vote on each occasion when he has come before the electors for their support. His candidature will, therefore, cause some speculation among the aspirants who have already announced themselves.

Ald. Bensen was seen this morning in his office in the Seane Block. "Have you decided yet as to whether you will be a Mayoralty candidate?" he was asked.

"If nothing unforeseen comes up to prevent me, I will be on the line-up for Mayor," he replied. "Of course it is a little early to make a definite announcement yet, but as the others have announced themselves, I don't see that there can be any harm in saying that it is my intention to be a candidate."

With Aldermen Potter, Scullard and Austin all in the field there will be quite a gap left in the ranks of the candidates for aldermen, and it is now up to some good men to come out and announce themselves as candidates for the Council.

It is thought that outside of the aldermen who will be in the running for Mayor, the majority of last year's Council will stand for re-election. Last year's Council have left quite a good record behind them, and any of the members who stand for re-election will possibly get the support of the majority of the ratepayers.

NOT ANXIOUS FOR DISCLOSURES.

It was announced a few days ago that the appeal to the Supreme Court in the Halifax election case would be the first heard and that a decision might be obtained in time to have the trial over before the meeting of the House of Commons would head it off for ever. But it is now found that the case stands at the foot of the list and will not soon be reached. That is just where the sitting Liberal members, who have succeeded in postponing the trial for three years, desire it to be. They seem to be assured of possession for another session of the two seats to which it is claimed they never had a right. Meanwhile Mr. Aylesworth has made another loud speech in which he decried alleged corruption on Mr. Borden's behalf. This time he is more cautious and says that he knows nothing about the matter except what he has learned from his two supporters from Halifax. These gentlemen seem to be more anxious to load up Mr. Aylesworth with reports that they will not sustain, than they are to have the facts established. The Minister of Justice might have told them to cease their obstruction and allow the case to be tried. Instead of that he appears to have been advising them to prevent the trial, while he goes round telling what he says that they say they would prove if they did not obstruct themselves from doing so.

ROSS RIFLE AGAIN.

Sir Charles Ross, contractor for the Ross rifle, has been interviewed and declares that the rifle which he makes won't great successes in recent competitions. As a matter of fact the Ross rifle was not in the Palma competition, though Canadian competitors could have used it. It was used by secretly any of the competitors of the Dominion Rifle Association matches, though the competitors are nearly all connected with the Militia or the permanent corps, of which the Ross rifle is the authorized weapon. Evidently there is something radically wrong with the judgment of the Canadian shooting men, if Sir Charles Ross is right. The Militia Department and the Department in charge of the Mounted Police ought to explain next Session why this Western force is still left unarmed. If the Ross rifle is not good enough for them why is it bought for the Militia? If

Sir Charles Ross further states that his factory is now in a position to produce 100 rifles per day and that the output could be increased to double that number. Having said this much he might have explained how it is that he has still on hand some 20,000 unfinished rifles on which the Government has made advances of $18.75 each.

At his recent rate of delivery it would take three years for the contractor to deliver the rifles on which he has received three-quarters of the price. The terms of the contract provides that no advances shall be paid more than one year before delivery, and some of these advances for undelivered weapons were made two years ago.

Ingram, who lost between $25 and $35, identified the parties who were strongly suspected of doing the work, and securing the aid of the police gave chase to two of them, who managed to make their escape, owing to the darkness, when about two miles out of town. The St. Thomas Chief of Police is expected here this afternoon to see if McCully is the man wanted in the Railroad City for a serious offence.

CURES ALL LAME BACKS

Get from any prescription pharmacy the following:
 Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of urinary difficulties. The mixture acts very promptly on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising. The relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

The bride received many beautiful presents.—Windsor News.

OUR NATIONAL DANGER

Time to Cry a Halt Before a Panic Comes.

The business spirit is crushing out the sweeter element of home life. We are in danger of great commercial disaster because men, as a whole, think only of getting wealth.

There are thousands, both men and women, who do not take time to eat properly. They rush through life, and as a result we have an age of indigestion, nervousness, irritability, sleepless nights, and morose disposition.

With the discovery of Mi-o-ni tablets, there is no longer any excuse for one to have ill health from stomach weakness.

Mi-o-ni strengthens the walls of the stomach, stimulates secretion of the digestive juices, regulates the liver and restores muscular contraction of the intestines and bowels, so no laxative is needed.

Sick headaches, palpitation, bad taste in the mouth, yellow skin, irritability, coated tongue and melancholy are a few of the many distressing results of indigestion. Mi-o-ni never fails to dispel all these troubles.

C. H. Gunn & Co. sell Mi-o-ni in 50 cent boxes, and guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not give complete satisfaction.

THE TIGHT WAIST

London, Sept. 23.—The Delsarte girl is threatened with an eclipse, for tight lacing is fashionable again. One of the most exclusive corsetiers in Oxford street, who is the authority for the statement, said:

"We are on the verge of another tight-waist craze. The demand for the smaller sizes in corsets has doubled in the last six months. Eighteen are now in common demand, and orders for seventeen-inch and sixteen-inch corsets have greatly increased in the last few weeks. Not a few of my clients are systematically training for the fashionable measurements."

"When the eventual size is decided upon three pairs of corsets are made, one for ordinary wear, one for special occasions, and another for night wear."

This same informant said the smallest waist in London was probably possessed by certain well-known actresses, who regularly wore twelve-inch corsets and felt comfortable in them.

ENDEAVOR.

An act of kindness when the day is young and fair;
A cheering word to charm away
Some wan one's care,
And though all else be done in vain,
That day has still brought precious gain.

When morning's glow
Is on the earth and night is not—
Good will—and though
The tasks may press, the fetters gall,
That day brings triumph, after all.

THE PUMPKIN.

It is born beneath the shadows of a field of waving corn
From a flower whose golden color
Outshines the glow of morn,
Where the bumblebees are working,
Their rough backs all bright
With gold.

And we learn the wondrous secret
Their busy hum has told.
They say this flower sometime
Will take a different form
And be the yellow pumpkin
When autumn sun shines warm.

When some skillful housewife turns
It by some necromancy keen
Into the pie so toothsome, with a
Color bright and clean
As the rills wet the pumpkin
As it lay the corn among.

Has a flavor sweet whose richness
By poet is unsung.
So give to me the pumpkin

CONDUCTOR COOK FREE

Judge McMahon Severely Rebukes the Jury.

Remarkable Ending of Myrtle Collision Case—Mistake Was Not Crime Says Counsel—Jury Refused to Convict of Manslaughter—Feared Sentence Would Be Too Severe—Only One For Conviction.

Whitby, Sept. 26.—Conductor Cook was found not guilty. The jury, after three hours, returned a verdict of acquittal. This was very much to the astonishment of nearly everyone present.

Judge McMahon said to the jury, after he had recorded their finding: "I hope none of you gentlemen are over on a train when an accident happens, perhaps if you are, you will have a different opinion to that you have just expressed."

Talking with one of the jurors after they had been discharged, it was learned that only one of the jury held out for conviction. That one felt in his conscience that Conductor Cook had broken the rules and should be punished.

Feared Severe Sentence.

The others took the ground that if their verdict was guilty, it was manslaughter, his sentence might be unnecessarily severe, and so were for acquittal.

The judge's charge was quite pronounced against the prisoner. No witnesses were called by T. C. Robinson for the defense. Nothing new of importance was submitted by the prosecution beyond that brought out at the preliminary trials.

The grand jury returned a true bill for criminal negligence against Train Despatcher Wilkinson. The case goes over to the next Assizes and Wilkinson was given bail at $400.

Mr. Arnoldi Opened Case.

Mr. Arnoldi then opened the case for the crown by addressing the jury on the main points of the case. He emphasized the fact that the two men lost their lives by criminal carelessness, which amounted to a crime on the part of the prisoner. The prisoner, in accepting the position of conductor on the C.P.R. had undertaken to cross train 1,488 at Myrtle. He had not done so, and a charge of manslaughter resulted.

The rules of the C.P.R., the crown prosecutor went on, are perfect marvels of completeness. The Legislature has also provided rigid regulations for the running and operation of trains. These also had been disregarded by the prisoner in his capacity as conductor. Mr. Arnoldi then outlined the story of the alleged failure of Cook to read his train order, and his subsequent collision with train 1,488 at Myrtle. He had not done so, and a charge of manslaughter resulted.

The number of the train was not mentioned. As it happened, train 1,488 was on a siding at Myrtle, and, of course, the brakeman, not fully informed, concluded that 1,488 was the train they were to meet. The conductor, without thinking of train 1,488, let his train go on to a false whistle. There were two hours and a half in which to rectify the order, but Wilkinson, failing to raise Myrtle, had not notified his relief.

Railway Men's Protest.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—Hon. J. J. Foy, the Attorney-General, received a representative delegation of railway men at the Parliament buildings yesterday.

Mr. J. H. Hall, in presenting their case, said that, owing to the pressure which had taken place in the province during the past year or so, under officers acting under the Attorney-General's Department, a feeling of discontent had grown up among railway men that the conditions surrounding their position were such that justice was not always meted out to them. They did not consider, as the Department, but they did think that in existing circumstances it was not possible to bring out evidence to show that where men were charged by "negligence" as a matter of fact, "negligence" was due to conditions over which they had no control.

The recent activity of the officers of the crown in prosecuting railway men was, in point of fact, not in the interest of the safety of the public.

Not Guilty of Conspiracy.

Lindsay, Sept. 26.—The jury in the Court of General Sessions here yesterday found William Cartmill not guilty of the charge of conspiracy to defraud Henry Moss of Toronto.

PERUNA STRENGTHENS THE ENTIRE SYSTEM.

"Two years ago, an accident necessitated my confinement for several weeks. The good health I had enjoyed was slipping away and there developed a complication of diseases. My physician said my case was one of general debility."

"Among the many ailments which developed was a serious attack of catarrh, which annoyed me considerably and kept me awake whole nights. I decided to give Peruna a trial and soon found it acting as a wonderful tonic to my system. The catarrh grew less severe and shortly afterward disappeared, as did also the various other maladies."

"I attribute my prompt relief and ultimate cure entirely to the use of Peruna and gladly recommend it."

The Bird Got Wise.

A gentleman by way of a joke placed a golf ball in the nest of his ancient parrot. Polly sat with exemplary patience on her novel egg and appeared pretty nearly breathless when the weeks went by and she found herself alone. At last she could stand it no longer. A terrible screeching brought her owner downstairs at 4 o'clock in the morning.

"What's the matter, Polly?" he asked as he noticed that the bird's beak was chipped through trying to get at the interior.

"Matter?" screeched Polly. "Great Scott, I'm bunkered!"—London Telegraph.

London's Mud.

It has been calculated that the cost of a muddy day in London is something like $25,000. This is not surprising when one remembers that no fewer than thirty-two tons of mud are carried about from place to place on the wheels of carts and carriages and horses' hoofs. After a wet day the dry mud brushed from people's clothes amounts to a fortune and a very small amount is shaken out of the door-mats.

He had also two emerald vases, worth 300,000 crowns each.

CRASHED IN A TUNNEL

Express Train on French Railway Is Telescoped.

Twenty Passengers Seriously Injured—Were Traveling to Join Steamer Adriatic—Disaster Due to Negligence—No Red Lights Were Burning—Train Was Halted in Tunnel—Regulations Not Observed.

Nantes, France, Sept. 26.—The transatlantic train carrying first-class passengers from Paris to Cherbourg, where they were to embark on the White Star Line steamer Adriatic, was telescoped yesterday in the Braval tunnel. Twenty persons were injured.

The train taking passengers to Cherbourg for embarkation on North German Lloyd steamer Ocean Prince Wilhelm, which was following the train having on board the Adriatic's passengers, proceeded to her destination by another route.

The disaster is said to have been due to the negligence of the crew of the train carrying the transatlantic passengers, as no lights were burning in the rear of the train, and no brakes were placed on the track behind it, as required by the regulations when a train halts in a tunnel. This neglect caused another train to run into the passenger train bound for Cherbourg.

The train was running in two sections. The first section was stopped by a signal, when the second section, running close behind, crashed into it.

ENGINEER LAY SENSELESS.

Narrow Escape of Passenger Train on Erie Railroad.

New York, Sept. 26.—While Henry Robertson, engineer of an Erie Railroad passenger train, lay senseless on the floor of his cab with a fractured skull yesterday, the locomotive, without a hand at the throttle, rushed full speed toward the Jersey City terminal threatening destruction to the train and its passengers. Fireman Fleming, noticing that the speed did not slacken at places where the train should have been running slowly, climbed into the cab and found the engineer on the floor, where he had dropped after being struck by a pole when he placed his head out of the cab window.

BOND'S HANDS TIED.

British Forbids Enforcement of Colonial Fishery Laws.

St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 26.—An Imperial receipt forbidding the service by any colonial authority of any legal process regarding fishery rights aboard any American vessel, and suspending all colonial statutes authorizing colonial officials to seize American vessels for alleged fishery offences, was proclaimed here yesterday.

This, it is believed, will make it practically impossible for Premier Bond to carry out his recently announced decision to enforce the colonial fishery laws.

Toronto, Sept. 26.—Louis P. Bouvier was committed for trial yesterday on the charge of having conspired with certain other envelope manufacturers to prevent Maud McCann from securing employment.

Knapp said that Miss McCann seemed to be "a girl who is always insisting upon her rights."

Herbert Kent, superintendent of the W. J. Gage Co., said Miss McCann was incompetent and also made an accusation concerning her which brought a warm rebuke from the magistrate.

VALUE OF WALKING.

Benefits to Be Derived From This Form of Exercise.

There is hardly an instance of a long lived man who has not been for the best part of his life a brisk walker and for some reason or other, has had to take exercise pretty well every day. Riding is all very well and so are other exercises, but there is nothing like a good walk, because it stimulates the blood and the muscles and necessitates being in the open air.

If those who complain of being stout would only think of this and never omit a daily constitutional they would be amply rewarded. It will keep them young and their figures presentable. It is simply a remedy that no one needs to be sitting about in the open air is all very well and is far better than sitting in the house, but it does not keep you in good health. It is quite another thing to over-fatigue oneself. There is nothing better than to get into a healthy perspiration by walking. It is just like drinking a glass of cold water in the morning. It is so simple no one believes in it.

This may not suit everybody, but those it does suit it will keep in health.

To stoop to folly is stupid.

We never enjoy perfect happiness. Our most fortunate successes are mingled with sadness. Some anxieties at times perplex the reality of our satisfaction.—Cornelia.

Colonel Sam. Holmes is authority for the statement that there was a heavy frost Thursday night. He says that he has learned that corn, cucumbers and tomatoes in Raleigh Township were more or less injured by the frost.

A petition is being circulated, and will probably come before the Council at their next meeting, to have Johnke street widened from 26 feet to 30 feet, the uniform width for pavements in this city. The Board of Works authorities state that the pavement could not very well be made wider than 26 feet on account of the buildings on either side of the street interfering.

The sidewalk which has been in course of construction on Queen street south, out by the Fair Grounds property, will be finished to-day, and a start will be made on the construction of the St. George street sidewalk to-morrow. Ald. Hansen says that St. George street will practically end the local improvement work for this year, as the weather will soon be getting too cold to take any risks with new sidewalks.

A citizen complained to The Planet this morning that despite numerous petitions and promises, no action has yet been taken by the Council with regard to laying a sidewalk on the north side of Wellington street, between William street and Adelaide street. The gentleman in question says that there is no sidewalk there at the present time, and it is badly needed. He says that Councils for the past three or four years have promised to take up this matter, and the ratepayers whose property fronts on that portion of the street are well able to pay for the laying of a sidewalk.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly cured with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Sloop's Restorative. His many friends will be pleased to hear of his success.—Wallaceburg News.

WILL MOVE TO LONDON

The Two T's & Wilson, having disposed of their store at Wallaceburg to C. B. McDougall & Company, Mr. Bert Wilson will move to London, where his headquarters are as District Manager of the Canadian Railway Accident Insurance Company for the past two years. The removal of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson from Wallaceburg will cause general regret to all classes. Bert's success as an insurance man is due as much to his popularity as to his unswerving honesty.—Wallaceburg News.

Mr. Wilson is a former Chathamite and his many Maple City friends will be pleased to hear of his success and will join in extending congratulations and best wishes.

A Sample of What V.S.C. does—Mr. Merrifield, I was so severely stricken with Joint Rheumatism that I was confined to bed for a long time with swollen and stiff joints; it even affected my stomach. I gave up all hope of ever being cured. The doctor finally told me he could "ease my pain but could not cure me." My sister heard of your Veteran's Sure Cure, and sent for a bottle. I took half of a $1. bottle. This enabled me to walk about as usual. This was about six years ago, and I have had no return of Rheumatism. Mrs. H. Privat, Williamsford, Ont., Sept. 11th, 1907.

ST. ANDREW'S BROTHERHOOD.

Lord Bishop of London Attending International Meeting.
Washington, Sept. 26.—Marked by an assemblage of distinguished churchmen from abroad, including Rev. A. F. Winnington-Ingram, Lord Bishop of London, and Archbishop Nuttall of the West Indies, the International Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew opened here yesterday, with preliminary meetings of subordinate bodies.
The proceedings began with separate meetings of the United States Council, the Canadian Council, and the international committee, followed by a preparatory and devotional conference of conventions, led by James L. Hougheling of Chicago, founder of the brotherhood, and Rev. Floyd W. Tomblin, pastor of the Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon.

A QUESTION OFTEN ASKED.

Why take many pills that do worse after taking pills than before? Trouble is that drastic pills are used. No remedial action is obtained, the bowels are irritated and dreadful constipation follows. In using Dr. Hamilton's Pills you're scarcely conscious of having taken medicine. Although very mild, Dr. Hamilton's Pills do regulate the bowels, stimulate normal action of the glands, and create neither nausea, griping or violent action. Positively guaranteed for biliousness, indigestion, stomach, liver and kidney ills. For a safe family pill rely on Dr. Hamilton's. 25c. per box, at all dealers.

HOMESTEAD ENTRIES DECREASE.

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—Governor's statistics of the homestead entries during the first seven months of the year show 17,844, against 23,245, a decrease of 10,491 under the corresponding period of last year. In July, 1907, there were 3,690 entries, against 4,147 in the preceding July.
One thousand and thirty-two Americans took up homesteads in July, 583 English, 93 Scotch, 23 Irish, Austro-Hungary took up 386, Russians 121, French 39, Germans 66 and 58 Canadians returned from the United States.
In July, 1906, the number of patents issued was 803, covering an area of 280,730.66 acres, showing an increase during the month of July, 1907, of 107 in the number of patents issued, but a decrease of 102,123.01 acres in the area patented.

PROMINENT MANUFACTURER SPEAKS.

In Vanleek Hill, Ont., no one is better known than Geo. S. Watson. When he says "Catarrh is a real cure," depend on it being so. "My wife," he writes, "was subject to bad attacks of throat irritation and bronchitis. Many remedies were tried but failed to prove of all use. Catarrh is different. It seemed to get right at the sore spots and brought relief quickly. We have found Catarrh is an absolute cure for bronchitis and catarrh." Nothing cures more quickly, so get it to-day, two sizes, 25c. and $1, at all dealers.

Railway Men Held Liable.

Montreal, Sept. 26.—Three G. T. R. employees, Marie Slater, operator at St. Dominique; Clarence Howell, brakeman, and Lloyd Street, operator at Vandreville, were found guilty of criminal negligence by a coroner's jury yesterday in connection with the collision at Vandreville on Sept. 18, in which Albert Robinson of Kingston was killed. They will be proceeded against.

Died After Vaccination.

New York, Sept. 26.—Two weeks after he was vaccinated by a board of health physician, Walter Brown, 7 years old of Brooklyn, died on Tuesday.
Dr. George Barney, the physician who attended him, said death was due to the vaccination.

Cartershall, Nfld.

Dear Sirs.—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be disgraced for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

THE SHIP'S RUDDER.

Difference in the Strain That Comes Upon Its Two Parts.

The rudder of a wooden ship is composed of the stalk and the backing, which are so joined together as to form in effect a single piece. The complete rudder is covered to protect it from worms, and then, besides being practically all in one piece, it has that appearance also.
The stalk is the part to which are attached the pintles, or pivots, by which the rudder is suspended and held in place, these going through eyes set in the ship's sternpost. The stalk runs up through the stern of the ship, and to its head is bolted a cap to which are attached the ropes by means of which the rudder is controlled. The backing is the blade part of the rudder.

By far the greater strain comes on the stalk, and the greatest strain of all comes on the head of the stalk, the rudder head, where it is held. The stalk is made of the wood most likely to stand the strain, carefully selected, sound, well seasoned oak, while the backing is made of spruce or hard pine. The stalk is of a single, solid, massive piece, stout as an oak tree and indeed of the dimensions of a small oak, something that a man can pin his faith to, if he can have faith in any wood, while the backing or blade is, like many modern wooden masts, built up. It would be difficult if not impossible to find trees that would yield planks big enough for the purpose in a single piece, and the built up backing, made of pieces of selected wood, can easily be made of ample strength to withstand any strain that will be brought upon it.

As to the stalk, stout and solid as the oak may be, the head may be twisted by the force of a tremendous blow from a wave upon the rudder, or, under the repeated strains of long use, the head may split and so make the stalk unsafe. Then the rudder is taken out and fitted with a new stalk. A suitable stick is selected and worked down to the proper size and form, and very probably the old backing is attached to it. The life of a rudder stalk would probably be twelve to fourteen years. The backing might last as long as the ship.

A HERO OF THE BUSH.

The Daring and Devotion of a Brave Maori Youth.

Courage is not an attribute peculiar to the white man, nor is self sacrifice the prerogative of civilization. In Mr. J. C. Firth's "Nation Making" is told a story as touching in its brave devotion as any tale of the Victoria cross. The incident occurred at Orakau, where the English soldiers had just defeated the Maoris. A little party of colonial troops, pursuing fugitives, came upon three natives, two old men and one young fellow.

The youth, seeing the soldiers, dropped on one knee and aimed with his gun at the advancing party, which halted a moment, while the old men had thrown away their firearms in order to make escape easier.

The soldiers fired at the youth, but missed. Without discharging his gun he sprang to his feet and ran on in advance until he caught up with the old men once more. Then, facing about, he presented his gun as before, but reserved his fire.
The weary old men gradually drew near cover. Once more the soldiers fired and missed; once more the gallant fellow turned and bounded on. The old men were close to the forest when the youth, nearly fainting, again knelt and took aim, but still did not fire.

The soldiers shot him as he knelt and rushed to the forest, but failed to capture the two fugitives, who, safe in the dense underbrush, made their escape.

On their return the soldiers found the brave young fellow lying dead. His gun was empty; it had not been loaded at all. With it he had covered the retreat of the old men and secured their freedom by the loss of his own life. No more gallant deed of heroic devotion was ever accomplished in any land.

Dreams of the Healthy.

There has been much discussion as to whether one dreams only on falling to sleep and during the act of waking up, or whether dreams take place at any time during sleep. While not definitely determined as yet, the evidence seems to be rather in favor of the view that one may dream at any time during the night or the whole night through. Dreaming is common to perfectly healthy persons, and in itself is no evidence of disorder.

Mount McKinley.

In mountain climbing the world over the climber usually arrives fresh and unfatigued at the base of the peak he wishes to storm and, as a rule, begins his ascent at a high altitude. On Mount McKinley, as described by a writer in Outing, it is the opposite. There are twenty-five miles of rugged foothills and glaciers to be crossed, with heavy packs before the base of the mountain is reached, and then the climber is confronted by 18,000 feet of rock and ice.

Worse Still.

"A visitor to see you, sir."
"I'll be there in a moment, favor," grumbled Senator Greathhead.
"It's a lady, sir."
"Ah! That means half a dozen favors."

Foreign Born.

English Girl—I hear you've been visiting the States. What did you think of the native American? Englishman—I didn't meet any. I spent all my time in New York.

MIXED IN THE THUNDER.

A Scene in "Macbeth" That Was Not on the Playbill.

It is related of Cooke, the actor, that when a youth, being without the necessary cash to pay for a seat "in front," he got behind the scenes one night and hid himself in a barrel. He had for companions two large cannon balls, but the youth, not being initiated into the mysteries of the place, did not suspect that cannon balls helped to make thunder in a barrel as well as in a twenty-four pounder.

The play was "Macbeth," and in the first scene the thunder was required to give due effect to the situation of the crouching witches. It was not long ere the Jupiter Tonans of the theater, alias the property men, approached and seized the barrel, and the horror of the concealed boy may be imagined as the man proceeded to cover the open end with a piece of old carpet and tie it carefully to prevent the thunder from being split.

Cooke was profoundly and heroically silent. The machine was carried by the brawny stage servant and lifted carefully to the side scene lest in rolling the thunder should tumble before its cue.

All was made ready, the witches took their places amid flames of resin, the thunder bell rang, the barrel received its impetus with young Cooke and the cannon balls, the stage stricken and roaring lustily, to the amusement of the thunderer, who neglected to stop the rolling machine, which, tumbled on the stage, and Cooke, bursting off the cap, head of the barrel, appeared before the audience, to the horror of the weird sisters and to the hilarity of the spectators.—London Mail.

MUSHROOMS.

Those That Are Poisonous Always Carry the "Death Cup."

Mushrooms when poisonous are the most dangerous plants in existence, as there is no antidote for the poison. Without going into the intricacies of the edible "meadow" (Agaricus campestris), and the "horse" mushroom (Agaricus arvensis), which are among the most wholesome and valuable vegetables, and of the numerous other harmless and nutritious varieties, as distinguished by their dark spores from the poisonous kind with white spores, one rule of observation will preserve the health and safety of any one collecting wild mushrooms for eating. Without the use of a single technical term, the difference in poisonous and nonpoisonous mushrooms is easily shown, even to a novice. What botanists call the "death cup," the volva around the stem, or, in plainer terms, the socket around the stem, is never absent from the deadly mushrooms. Sometimes it is distinct, well above ground, up around the lower part of the stem; then again it is below ground, but not attached to the stem so as to lose the cup shape, and sometimes it grows upon or is attached to the stem, giving it a bulbous, swollen base. Severely reject every plant that has a bulbous stem or the cup standing out around the stem. All edible and harmless mushrooms have straight stems, the same size from the root to the cap.—Georgia Torrey Denman in Good Housekeeping.

Mystification.

His weakness was prevarication. His wife detested lying and constantly urged him to mend his ways. One morning she said: "Will, see if you can't be perfectly truthful today. Don't tell a lie. Now, promise!" He promised and went away to work. When he came home to dinner, she said:

"Dear, did you keep your promise?" "I did," he replied soberly.

"Then he caught her in his arms. "Darling," he cried, "I will not lie to you. When I said I had kept my promise to you, I did not tell the truth; but, believe me, that was the only lie I told all day."

For twenty-two seconds she was lost in perplexity. Then she gave it up; the problem was too deep for her.

The Part He Lost.

A New England man tells of a prosperous Connecticut farmer painfully exact in money matters who married a widow of Greenwich possessing in her own right the sum of $10,000. Shortly after the wedding he friend met the farmer, to whom he offered congratulations at the same time observing, "It's a good thing for you, Malachi, marriage that means $10,000 to you." "Not quite that, Bill," said the farmer, "not quite that." "Why," exclaimed the friend, "I understood there was every cent of $10,000 in it for you." "I had to pay $2 for a marriage license," said Malachi.

Gnawed His Way Out of Prison.
A burglar named Scharschmidt, in prison at Gera, deliberately set to work to gnaw through a thick oak beam in front of his cell window. It was a work of seven weeks. The fragments of wood which were torn away with his teeth he replaced with chewed bread until the beam was almost gnawed through. A final smashing blow was heard by the wardens, but before they could appear Scharschmidt had escaped.—London Chronicle.

Just the Same as Usual.

"I thought you said you weren't going to drink any more."
"I did."
"But here you are drinking as much as ever."
"Well, that isn't any more, is it?"

A broad minded man never loses any sleep because another man's opinions fail to agree with his own.—Wright City News.

WHEN NAPOLEON WALKED.

An Incident of the Tragical Retreat From Moscow.

It was on Nov. 23, at about 7 o'clock in the morning, when we saw the head of the column. The first we saw were generals, a few of whom were on horseback, but the majority on foot. The latter painfully dragged themselves along, almost all having their feet frozen and bound up in rags and pieces of sheepskin and dying of hunger. We then saw what was left of the cavalry of the guard. The emperor came next on foot, with a stick in his hand. He was muffled up in a large capote lined with fur and wore on his head an amaranthine velvet cap edged with black foxskin. On his right marched, also on foot, King Murat; on his left, Prince Eugene, viceroy of Italy; then Berthier, prince of Neuchâtel; Ney, Mortier, Lefebvre and other marshals and generals whose corps had been partly destroyed.

They were followed by 700 to 800 officers and subofficers, marching in order and bearing in the greatest silence the eagles of the regiments to which they had belonged and that had so often led them to victory. They were the remnant of over 60,000 men. My poor Picart, who had not seen the army for a month, gazed on silently, but his convulsive movements showed only too well what he felt. I saw big tears roll down the cheeks and fall on his mustache, from which icicles were hanging. Then, turning to me, "Really, compatriot, I do not know whether I am asleep or awake; I weep because I have seen our emperor marching on foot, a stick in his hand—that was so great and who has made us so proud!"—Mémoires of Sergeant Bourgeois.

FOREIGN MONEY.

A Showman's Experience With Counterfeit Coins in Naples.

"When you are abroad," said a tourist agent, "look out for counterfeit money. In France and Italy especially look out. There are a lot of small souled French and Italians who save up counterfeit money all the year to dump it on the tourist trade in the summer."

"I said to look out, but really that is impossible. An American tourist has his hands full just to count foreign money with its centimes and lires, its francs and centesimi, and when too often he is unable to count this money how can he detect counterfeiters in it?"

"Italy is the worst country, and it is safe to say that every tourist loses in had money there 1 or 2 per cent of all that passes through his hands. "When Buffalo Bill showed in Naples the audience was enormous, but the next day when the business manager went to bank the receipts of the night, lo and behold, over a thousand dollars in counterfeit money had been taken in."

"Buffalo Bill in person went and complained to the prefect, or chief of police."

"They passed a thousand dollars on you in counterfeit," said the prefect.

"They did," said Buffalo Bill bitterly.

"Just like these Italians," exclaimed the prefect. "What a grand nation!"—Exchange.

Thunder in Various Regions.

Java is said to be the region of the globe where it thunders oftenest, having thunderstorms ninety-seven days in the year. After it are Sumatra, with eighty-six days; Hindustan, with fifty-six; Borneo, with fifty-four; the Gold Coast, with fifty-two, and Rio de Janeiro, with fifty-one. In Europe, Italy occupies the first place, with thirty-eight days of thunder, while France and southern Russia have sixteen days. Great Britain and Switzerland have each seven days, and Norway has four. Thunder is rare at Cairo, being heard only three days in the year, and extremely rare in northern Turkistan and the polar regions.

The "Dandy Horse."

The father of the bicycle tribe, the "dandy horse," was invented in 1818 by Baron von Drais of Paris. It consisted of two wheels about thirty inches in diameter running one in the wake of the other and connected by a beam of wood, upon which, half way from each end, was a saddle or perch, an arm rest in front completing the machine. It was propelled by kicking the ground with the right and left foot alternately. It was from such a crude affair that the modern bicycle was slowly evolved.

Taking No Chances.

The court appointed a young lawyer to defend a Georgia dandy, but after the prisoner had looked the lawyer over he said:
"No, Mister Judge, I reckon not. De las' time I got in de penitentiary I had a man dat look de lak him to defend me, so des leve him out de case en gimme ten years!"

PREYED ON HIM.

Couldn't Stand to See His Wife Harassed.

New York, Sept. 26.—Despondent as a result of ill-health and reverses, Harry Chernock, a garment cutter, aged 30 years, yesterday made an attempt to kill his wife by stabbing her with a pair of tailor's shears, and then jumped from a fourth-story window, receiving injuries from which he died.

For six months Chernock had been so ill that he was unable to work. To support their five-year-old son and her husband, Mrs. Chernock went to work in a sweatshop for small wages. When Chernock saw his wife growing pale and haggard from her toil, it tried on his nerves.

Eyes and Nose Ran Water.—C. G. Archer, of Brewer, Maine, says, "I have had catarrh for several years. Water would run from my eyes and nose for days at a time. About four months ago I was induced to try Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, and since using the wonderful remedy I have not had an attack. It relieves in ten minutes." 50 cents.

Kingston Tailors Still Out.

Kingston, Sept. 26.—There was a meeting yesterday afternoon between representatives of the merchant tailors and the striking employees, at which the employers consented to give the wages asked, but asserted that the shops should be henceforth open. To the latter, however, the unions would not consent, and the strike continues. The strike affects seven shops and about 100 tailors and tailor-esses.

It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed, and often is removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. POWER OF THE PRESS

Arrest in Chatham is Heralded all Over The Continent

Chief Holmes Receives Many Far Away Places

Evidence that the man arrested here last week for pilfering Mrs. Snell's boarding house, and who gave his name as Frank E. Brown, of New York City, is pouring in from all sides, and would seem to indicate that Brown has led a very checkered career, and that police court cells are no new thing to him. Five letters with reference to him have been received by Chief of Police Holmes. Nearly all of these letters have been from persons in distant cities and towns both in Canada and the United States, who read of Brown's escapade and arrest in the newspapers. The power and widespread influence of the press is amply shown in this case. People who knew Brown in cities as far away as Rochester, N. Y., read of his arrest, and have sent letters to the Chief here, and none of them seem to have a good word to say of Brown.

"It is astonishing how far and how quickly the news travelled about the arrest of this gent," remarked Chief Holmes this morning. "The first day after he was arrested we received letters from outside places about him."

J. H. Wiltse, son of Mayor Wiltse, of Clinton, writes the Chief that Brown stole his revolver out of a valise at a boarding house they were both stopping at in London. He said that he saw the account of Brown's arrest in the newspapers, and came to the conclusion that one of the revolvers found on Brown belonged to him.

S. S. Connor, Lieutenant of Police at Buffalo, writes that he saw the account of Brown's arrest in the Rochester, N. Y., Herald, and states that he thinks that it is the same Brown as he arrested in Buffalo last January on a charge of robbing a boarding house there. Lieutenant Connor states that he can send a photo of Brown if Chief Holmes desires one for identification, and he would be willing to come over to Chatham and give evidence at the trial. Brown was sentenced to 90 days in Erie county jail for thieving in Buffalo.

Brown says that his father is Dr. Brown, of Newark, N. J., and has asked permission to write to him. He was told that he can write all the letters of this kind that he desires.

HIS EYE ON SENATE

Toronto, Sept. 26.—The News tonight says: Hon. Richard Harcourt is a candidate for the Senate.

It is taken for granted that the ex-Minister of Education will not again be a candidate for the Legislature. During the last session he was not, as a rule, present, and his friends state that his health has prevented a more active participation in political affairs of late.

It is, moreover, the impression that in the forthcoming redistribution the constituency of Monck, which Mr. Harcourt represents, and which the Conservatives always alleged to be a "pocket borough," will be wiped out.

Mr. Harcourt's colleagues and fellow members in the Legislature have forwarded a petition to the Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, asking for his appointment to the Senate. Hon. Mr. Graham, his former leader, now the Minister of Railways, has also been asked to lend assistance to Mr. Harcourt's cause.
