VIRTUAL SURRENDER BY TURKEY

Offer Made to Allies is Tantalizing to Capitulation Austria-Hungary Demand Peace at Any Price

NOMINATION OF COUNT ANDRASSY AS FOREIGN SECRETARY IS FIRST STEP TAKEN BY AUSTRIA TOWARD PEACE

Anti-German Leaders in Vienna Have Gone To Switzerland on Secret Mission; From Switzerland Comes Also Offer From Turkey Amounting Virtually To Surrender

By Courier Leased Wire.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Turkish minister to Switzerland has handed the British and French ministers to that country an offer of peace virtually amounting to surrender, according to a Berne dispatch to The Daily Mail.

TO DEMOBILIZE ARMY

BASEL, Oct. 26.—Vienna newspapers are publishing articles relative to preparations for demobilizing the army. One newspaper says that two infantry regiments stationed at Karlowitz have revolted. Karlowitz is a village in Croatia Slavonia, Hungary.

ON A SECRET MISSION

ZURICH, Oct. 26.—Prince Frederick Tobkowitz and Baron Nadherny, who represent the strongest anti-German tendencies at Vienna, have left that city for Switzerland, charged with a mission about which no details are given, according to The Neues Journal of Vienna.

PEACE AT ANY PRICE

PARIS, Oct. 26.—In well informed circles it is said that the nomination of Count Julius Andrássy as successor of Baron Burian, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister is, above all, important from the viewpoint of a conclusion of peace, and an application of the "safety first" principle in Austria. It is said that peace at any price is now popular at Vienna and Budapest.

The Zurich correspondent of The Journal says that the new foreign minister is understood to be a partizan of direct peace negotiations with the Entente without recourse to the office of President Wilson. He says that the situation in Austria-Hungary is such that the monarchy will capitulate and throw itself on the mercy of the allies.

The Czechs are now master of the situation at Prague. The Slovaks have decided to change the name of Presburg to Wilsonville. The Ruthenians of Galicia have declared for a separate Ukrainian state comprising regions of Austria-Hungary inhabited by Ruthenians. It is reported that anarchy reigns in the ancient Danubian monarchy of Hungary. The correspondent says that in Austria no notice is being taken of decisions arrived at by Berlin.

PRUSSIAN PROTECTION!

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 26.—Speaking in the Reichstag on Thursday, Dr. W. S. Solf, foreign secretary said that Spanish Minister Villalobar, representing British and Belgian citizens, and Commissioner Van Bree of the Belgian Relief organization, visited Tournai, Valenciennes and Denain, on October 18, and reported that the German military authorities had done everything in their power to alleviate the condition of fugitives and residents in bombarded towns.

Dr. Solf also said that it had been reported to him that German authorities had tried to protect the people of these cities against plundering, and that efforts had been made to safeguard food supplies and save art treasures.

FRESH DRIVE BY ITALIANS SHATTERS AUSTRIAN MORALE

By Courier Leased Wire

New York, Oct. 26.—The Associated Press this morning issued the following:

WEATHER BULLETIN

Toronto, Oct. 26.—Pressure is high over the northwest and northern Ontario and low over the southwest States. Showers have occurred in Ontario and Quebec and in a few sections of the Western Provinces.

Forecast: No rain; cloudy; winds, cloudy; showers.

ated Press this morning issued the following: While the British, French and Americans are slowly breaking their way through the stubborn German defense along the line south of Valenciennes, the attention of the Allied world is directed, for the moment at least to the Italian front, where General Diaz seems to have started a major operation.

Fighting on a large scale appears to have begun on Thursday, when the Austrian official statement reported heavy artillery fire from the Brenna river to the Montello plateau. It was reported yesterday that Italian, British and French forces attacked between the Brenna and Piave Rivers and advanced over rough country for a considerable distance. At the same time, the Allies moved ahead and captured islands in the Piave above the Montello plateau. This stroke was aimed at the angle in the Austrian line, which runs from the Adriatic along the Piave until it reaches the mountains and then turns to the west. If the Allied attacks makes material progress, the Austrian armies on the lowlands near the sea and those holding the front in the mountainous sector may be divided. The number of prisoners taken—3,000—would seem to indicate fighting of a serious nature. It is too early to determine whether General Diaz has really begun an offensive or is merely directing an operation which is in the nature of a diversion. It may be that the morale of the Austrian army, which has repeatedly been reported to be very low, will be determined by the fighting during the next few days.

British troops are continuing their blow at the German line south of the bend of the Scheldt above Valenciennes. Progress there has been comparatively slow, but it would appear that the railroad between Quenoy and Valenciennes has been crossed, and that the British are in the

TO OUR READER.

The work of the flu epidemic is now over, but conditions are still far from normal. When every business is being affected, the Courier has been unable to escape, and a large number of employees of this paper are still ill. Consequently, delays, omissions and other errors are more frequent than under normal circumstances, and the indulgence of the public is craved. Those who have not received their paper regularly—due in most cases to the illness of route boys—will confer a great favor on the establishment by calling at the office.

VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN TO OPEN MONDAY

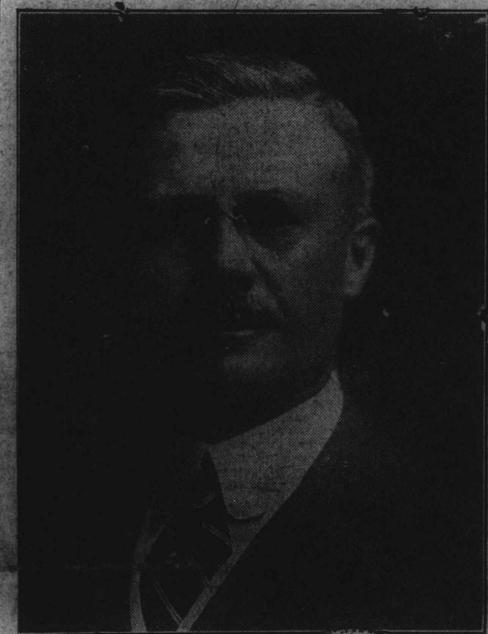

No Bells to be Rung Nor Whistles Blown in Brantford

The opening of Brantford's Victory Loan campaign on Monday will be silent, but none the less sincere and enthusiastic. In nearly every city throughout the Dominion, it is being planned to herald the zero hour, 9 a.m., at which time the loan opens, by the blowing of whistles and the ringing of bells. In Brantford, it has been decided, on the recommendation of the Board of Health, to forego that demonstration owing to the illness existing in the city. The campaign will, however, get off to a flying start, and every individual canvasser on the organization is bent on seeing that Brantford and Brant county win one of the honor flags awarded those districts who pass their objective for the loan.

Canvassers will commence at 10 o'clock. Public are asked to welcome and help them in every way and to buy bonds to the limit. Lend money as soldiers fight.

Notwithstanding closing of the schools, principals will endeavor to arrange to have the essay competition, for the prizes donated by the Ontario Government, carried out. The large employers of labor have agreed to afford operatives the same facilities for buying bonds as last year—on the installment plan. A prize of a handsome flag will be donated to the shops having the largest number of subscriptions in proportion to the number of employees. The average employee for the next three weeks to be the basis of final award. Bankers have arranged to pay bonds for every person so desiring, upon receipt of the first payment of 10%, and will allow the balance being paid in monthly installments, the rate of interest to be the same as that received on the bond, i.e. 5% per cent.

Canvassers will have cards explaining the system.

OVER TWO THOUSAND DEATHS IN MONTREAL

Influenza Takes Heavy Toll of Life There — Improvement Reported From Majority of the Other Centres Today

By Courier Leased Wire

Montreal, Oct. 25.—"We have passed the apex of the epidemic," this is the verdict of Dr. S. Boucher, medical officer of health, on the outbreak here. Cases to-date totalled 989 and deaths were 125, the first being an increase of 134 over the previous day, while the deaths showed a decrease of 16. Total cases reported are to date 14,023, with 3,258 deaths. Total for provincial municipalities reported is 475 with 52,998 cases and 1,357 deaths.

Improved in Ottawa. Ottawa, Oct. 26.—While 184 new cases are known to have broken out in the last 24 hours the influenza epidemic situation is improved. More than two hundred names have been struck off the sick list and the death rate for the twenty-four-hour period ending at noon on Friday was 17, as compared with 24, the day before.

No Marked Extension. Victoria, Oct. 25.—That the Spanish influenza epidemic has shown no marked extension throughout the province during the twenty-four hours ending at noon to-day is evidenced by the fact that no applications for the banding permission were received by the Department of Public Health here this morning. Paper Controller About to Order Cutting Off of Unpaid Subscriptions

At a public hearing in Ottawa last week in connection with paper conservation, the Paper Controller for Canada intimated that regulations about to be issued would include one to the effect that:

"Publishers of daily newspapers must cease sending their newspapers to subscribers three months in arrears, unless subscriptions be definitely renewed and all arrears fully paid.

The reason for this regulation of the Paper Controller is that it is the practice of some publishers to send their newspapers until ordered stopped, and this practice frequently results in loss to the publisher, besides a virtual waste of paper. It is to prevent paper waste that the new regulation has been decided on.

The manufacture of paper consumes labor, wood, coal, chemicals and transportation facilities, and every ton of paper saved means just so much more labor, raw materials, chemicals, fuel and transportation available for urgent war needs. For these reasons the Government insists that paper shall be saved, and proposes that only those who pay for their publications shall receive them.

Under these regulations The Courier will have no choice in the matter of dealing with subscriptions in arrears for over three months. You need The Courier, and we want to continue sending it to you. So if your subscription is in arrears, please pay up at once to prevent discontinuance of your subscription.

Canvassers will have cards explaining the system.

FORCE RAW MEN INTO FRONT LINE

Germans Draw on Untrained Reserves From the Eastern Front

LOSSES ARE HEAVY
Enemy Troops Exhorted to Stand Firm Along the Verdun Line

By Courier Leased Wire.

With the British Army in France and Flanders, Oct. 26.—By the Associated Press.—The heavy losses which the Germans have sustained since the allied offensive began have forced the enemy to use raw troops brought from the eastern front. The enemy now has 195 divisions on the western front, of which 183 are German infantry divisions, excluding 31 divisions withdrawn after they had suffered severe casualties during the past two weeks, and six Austro-Hungarian divisions. There are only 12 enemy divisions available in reserve on this front, and none of these are fresh. The desperate situation which the enemy is now facing appears to be fully appreciated by many of the German people, according to letters captured along the front.

TO CUT RAILROAD

Paris, Oct. 26.—An order signed by the German General von Der Marwitz, dated October 1, which was taken from a German prisoner, warns the Fifth German army, fighting east of the Meuse, that the enemy was about to attack with the object of cutting the Longuyon-Sedan railroad and making the exploitation by the Germans of the Briey iron mines impossible.

The order says that on these mines our steel production is largely dependent, and the fate of a great part of the western front, and perhaps of our people, depends on firm resistance along the Verdun front.

SPANISH TREASURE UNMARTYRED BY CHANCE

While ploughing near Britania, Ont., last week, Peter Bell turned up several gold coins of the reign of Philip V of Spain dated 1717. The supposition is that the coins were brought to Canada by some pioneer settler who had fought under Wellington in Spain.

What Society is doing

A LITTLE PRAYER.
By John Oxenham.
Where's thou be,
On land or sea,
Or in the air,
This little prayer
I pray for thee,
God keep thee ever,
Day and night,
Pace to the light,
Thine armor bright,
Thy scutcheon white,
That no despite,
Thine honor smite!
With infinite
Sweet oversight,
God keep thee ever,
Heart's delight,
And guard thee whole,
Sweet body, soul,
And spirit high,
That live or die,
Thou shalt
His Majesty,
And ever be,
Within His sight,
His true and upright,
Sweet and stainless,
Pure and sinless,
Perfect Knight!

Many volunteer nurses have come forward to offer their assistance at the emergency hospital during the past week, after taking the course of lectures which are held in a series of three lectures at the Y.M.C.A. Many of the school teachers have taken the course and are now actively engaged at the emergency hospital, relieving the volunteers who have been nursing since the hospital first opened, many of whom have contracted the disease themselves and are now laid up with it.

Bishop Partridge, assisted by the Rev. H. M. Little. The bride, who is well known in this city, having visited here with her mother, Mrs. J. G. Pyke, a former resident of Brantford, has been for the past two years with the Army Medical Corps as a nursing sister, while the groom, who enlisted in 1914, with the Engineers was wounded at Ypres. The young couple on returning from their wedding trip, will reside in Toronto. Many Brantford friends will extend hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 27

ISAAC'S MARRIAGE TO REBECCA.
LESON TEXT—Genesis 24. GOLDEN TEXT—Let not mercy and truth forsake thee. Be thou swift of sight and good understanding. The sight of God and man.—Proverbs 2:4-5. READING—Genesis 24:1-26. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Genesis 24:1-26; Proverbs 2:4-5.

1. Abraham's Solitude for a Wife for Isaac (vv. 1-9).
He knew that Isaac's success in life would much depend upon what kind of a wife he should have. Man's welfare in this life and that to come largely depends upon his wife. For Isaac to have an idolatrous, Canaanitish wife would be fatal to his posterity, would subvert the plan of God as expressed in His covenant with Abraham. It would have been perilous to Isaac himself. To have married a woman in that land would have made him in a sense an heir to the land through marriage, and would have tended to divert his mind from the heirship through the covenant promise.

2. The Servant's Oath (vv. 2-4).
Abraham committed to his trusted servant the matter of securing a wife for Isaac; therefore, he made him swear that he would go to Abraham's country and kindred to get a wife for him. He doubtless regarded his servant more competent to select a wife than Isaac was to select one for himself.

3. The Extent of the Servant's Responsibility (vv. 5-8).
Before the servant could be entrusted with a clearly defined extent of his responsibility. If the woman would refuse the invitation, the servant would be clear of responsibility. The minister's obligation ends when he has earnestly and intelligently made known to sinners the will of God.

4. The Servant's Helper (v. 8).
Abraham assured him that God would send his angel to make the mission successful. The servant found this to be true. God sends his Holy Spirit to make the message of the minister successful.

5. The Servant's Obedience (vv. 10-14).
He Took Ten Camels (v. 10). These were to carry presents to the bride and to conduct her and her camels back to his master.

6. His Prayer for Guidance (vv. 12-14).
He asked that the Lord would guide him to the woman whom he had chosen for Isaac. Earnest prayer for guidance should be made in the selection of a wife.

7. His Prayer Answered (vv. 15-27).
Before he had done praying, the answer was sent to be in the process of fulfillment. The answer was according to the request, in the matter of fulfillment. God does definitely answer prayer.

8. The Servant's Message (vv. 28-49).
The Lord had prospered the old servant's way. He now was face to face with Rebecca. Supper was ready, but the delivery of his message was more important to him than eating when he was hungry. He said, "I will not eat till I have said my errand." Good were it if all ministers were as much interested in delivering the good news in Christ. (1) His master was rich (v. 35). God the Heavenly Father is rich. The silver and gold and the cattle upon a thousand hills are all his. (2) All his riches have been given to his son (v. 36). All the riches of heaven, God the Father has given to Jesus Christ, his son. (3) Opportunity was given Rebecca to become the wife of Isaac (v. 49). He not only gave the opportunity, but he urged her to accept the invitation.

9. Rebecca's Relatives Begging for Postponement of Action (v. 55).
They did not object to being so sometime, but they desired that the postponement for a time. What folly to remain and water sheep when she had the opportunity to become the bride of a rich man's son.

10. What folly for sinners to remain servants to the world when they have the privilege of becoming the bride of Christ.

11. Rebecca's Glorious Decision (v. 56).
When the decision was referred to Rebecca she said, "I will go." Good judgment would not allow her to refuse nor delay.

12. The Meeting of Isaac and Rebecca (vv. 64-67).
Isaac was waiting for the return of the servant with the woman who was to be his wife. Isaac was joined to her in marriage, loved her, and was comforted in her after his mother's death.

Spirit of Christ.
The longer you read the Bible the more you will see it; it will grow sweeter and sweeter; the more you get into the spirit of it the more you will get into the spirit of Christ.—Romans.

The Cross is Peace.
The Cross is peace, and that sums up the past; it is joy and gladness; it is the peace of God, and that joy and peace shall last. I need not simple faith, faith that shall last. We hope that liberate and overcome.

MAIL IS LATE.
Very little English mail has been received by the local post office authorities this week. No reason for this is as yet forthcoming.

NORFOLK NEWS

SIMCOE INFLUENZA UNDER CONTROL

Appeal For Aid Met With Prompt Response From Citizens

OTHER SIMCOE NEWS

Simcoe, Oct. 26.—(From Our Own Correspondent).—Simcoe is fortunate in that there are enough public spirited citizens capable of giving assistance to the sick, to such an extent as to keep the town's death toll down to a minimum. The emergency hospital was opened in the nick of time. The doctors reported promptly regarding need for outside nursing and the force at work now is pretty well able to hold the line. The strain has been heavily on those in the field, some of them have already earned their turn in the rest line for a week. On Thursday a 24-hour babe received its morning bath late in the afternoon. There was no nurse, and none of the neighbors had been called. This is a time to be one's neighbor's keeper. He may go to bed well and be sick next morning.

There is no necessity for mincing the fact that the teaching staff of the town schools has fallen down badly. They are all under salary and one would have thought that there was enough personal interest between them and some of their pupils to warrant a call at least. The personal element in the school room would prompt that. Unfortunately a considerable percentage of the teachers were the first to go down with the disease. Two of these, though not yet able to leave their homes, proffered assistance as soon as they were convalescent. Some perhaps were required in their own homes to attend members of their families, but some, we are told, are out of town, left at once when school was closed. But there are some in town who are not sick. They may argue that their contract is for teaching. Quite true. They are under no documentary contract to assist in any way, but with the rest of us they are under a mighty big moral obligation, more especially as they are the class, and the only class that was thrown out of employment by the order of the Board of Health, except the janitors.

In Striding Contrast.
We turn to the janitors of the schools, two of them old men and some most heartening contributions in money and materials for the hospital lauder.

The veteran principal of the high school is about daily, lamenting that he cannot put on a white suit and turn in. Why his interest, counsel and suggestions are a wealth in themselves.

Getting Some Wood
Mr. Horace Kellum reported progress at a meeting of the fuel committee last night. He stated that there is so much wood on the ground that there is hardly room to pile the brush, and from his report it appears evident that the estimate of 800 cords submitted to the council by the committee appointed to secure a lot, was quite conservative.

Old Ends of News
Joseph Boyington was out to town yesterday showing facial evidence on having received severe injury on Thursday when thrown from his wagon in a runaway down the gravel road. It was a case of the dropping tongue running into the earth and catching the wagon over. Mr. Boyington estimates that he went at least thirty feet into the air.

Mr. Guy R. Marston is for the past few days superintending work about making up the lawn about the new south school. Their contract did not call for it, but their pay was going on and they were self-respecting enough to give evidence of a desire to comply. The Simcoe Board of Education has for years been characteristically considerate of the indisposed teacher and perhaps this is why the public has expected something in the present emergency of those of the teachers who were young and well and able to help, and this more especially when so many others have broken away from pressing domestic or business duties to call on the sick and lend a hand where help is needed.

Thanks to the supreme effort of those few who have done so well in the hospital and about town—for few of the victims are in the hospital—the "flu" in Simcoe is getting the worse of its life.

Notes.
The remains of the late Mrs. Weaver of Brantford were interred at Walsh yesterday. Deceased was a sister of Mr. Fred Misner. It was stated yesterday that four other members of her household were with her, victims of the "flu." The body of the last of the four to lose in the fight for life, that of Walter Dickinson, was taken through yesterday to St. Williams for interment.

Scores of patients about town were yesterday reported convalescent.

Mrs. Sheik continued critically ill throughout the day.

There were no more deaths in town yesterday from "flu," so far as we could learn. There were the usual crop of rumors.

Two patients left the hospital yesterday well, and one was admitted. The nurses have 199 cots filled at present.

The hospital fund has got well up towards three figures, and there are

THE WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS, AUTHOR OF "MARGARET GARRETT'S HUSBAND," AND OTHER NOTABLE STORIES.

Brian Shows Jealousy Which Puts Ruth's Fears at Rest.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

Ruth noticed that Brian was listening. "I think Mr. Beckly was very good to ask you, isn't every young man who wants an old married couple with him when he asks a young lady to dinner, even though the man does happen to be the young lady's lawyer?"

"She's game, all right," Brian said to himself as he sat down, and there was a feeling of pride that, in spite of his voice as he added: "Not much of a lawyer yet, Ruth."

"Enough of one, I guess, to attend to any business Mollie can have," Claude Beckly's sarcasm was not lost upon Ruth.

Mollie King, tactful as she was, blushed at the implication, but, quickly recovering herself, said brightly: "Is this your first visit here, Mrs. Hackett? If it is, we must point out our celebrities to you."

"I never have been here before," Ruth replied. "Please tell me all I should know."

"Claude is about as famous a character as we have," Mollie said with a mischievous glance at Beckly. "He both writes and paints."

"How interesting!" murmured Ruth, thinking if he didn't write more sensibly than he talked, it might account in part for his frayed appearance.

"Yes, you must get him to write some poetry—not for you, but to you," Mollie added, her eyes twinkling. Evidently she sees through his pretense as well as I, Ruth thought, and was rather pleased that the woman whom her husband admired was not dense. It would be impossible to be at all at her ease with a stupid woman. She would not know what to say to her.

The only time she had seen Mollie, she had thought her very pretty and bright. It had been at the dinner Mrs. Curtis gave. But now she was more critical. She wanted to know well, this woman whom Brian seemed to like so much. Not that she wished for any intimacy; that was farthest from her thoughts. She wanted to understand her character—her point of view.

So as Mollie told her of the different people dining, she watched the while she listened. Mollie's speech, while in a way refined and showing education, was plentifully sprinkled with a gay, innocuous sort of slang that gave it point. She occasionally told a story about some one of whom she was speaking, and told it well.

Ruth had to acknowledge, even before the dinner was scarcely commenced, that Mollie King was an interesting talker and would prove a delightful companion to any man if she was so inclined.

"Yes, she must not underrate Mollie, she thought as she turned to reply to some remark of her host. "It's jolly, having you here!" she heard Brian say as soon as her attention was obviously taken by Beckly.

"Claude is terribly hit with Mrs. Hackett. He raved before you came." "Fool!"

"Not sauce for the goose," said Brian. "Not on your life!"

Brian's answer was so emphatic Mollie laughed gaily. But Ruth felt comforted. She had heard every word. If Brian loved her well enough to be so jealous of her, he would hesitate long before he did anything really wrong. The thought made her happier than she had been since Beckly had joined them on the Roof Garden the night before. Brian was silly, of course, to be jealous of anyone; but of a man like Claude Beckly—it was really ridiculous.

Then came the thought. If I am attractive to others, perhaps he will care for me more as I want him to; hesitate to leave me or to take the risk of making me angry by being so much with Mollie. So she commenced to talk brightly with Beckly, simply laughing at his extravagant compliments, and leaving Mollie and Brian to entertain each other.

With a little smile, she saw Brian getting restless. Occasionally he would break into the conversation with some impatient remark when Beckly had been particularly fulsome. Finally he said: "Here, you two! This dinner is a foursome. Suppose we talk about something in which we are all interested."

"Or suppose we finish our dinner, and then dance?" Mollie broke in. "Oh, do!" Ruth agreed at once. She knew she was a good dancer, and she loved to dance. To tell the truth, she was becoming tired of Beckly's compliments.

"Thank the gods I can dance!" Beckly said so fervently that all laughed. Ruth danced first with him, then with Brian. When it came time to go, acting on the spur of the moment, she invited both Beckly and Mollie King to dine with them a week from that night.

"We'll be there, won't we, Mollie?" Claude asked. "Indeed we will, and thank you," Mollie said graciously, but with a look that Ruth could not fathom; a look directed at her.

Mr. Horace Kellum reported progress at a meeting of the fuel committee last night. He stated that there is so much wood on the ground that there is hardly room to pile the brush and from his report it appears evident that the estimate of 800 cords submitted to the council by the committee appointed to secure a lot was quite conservative.

FOR THAT 'FLU COUGH

You are pretty apt to have a cough that is inclined to linger after the Flu.

The system now needs a remedy for that cough, and a tonic as well. The best preparation for this condition is Nyal's Tasteless Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, Wild Cherry and Cresote. This preparation is not a cure-all like a great many other preparations, but a definite specific for lingering coughs and a tendency towards lung and bronchial trouble. This preparation fortifies the system, increases appetite, and improves the general condition.

PUTS BLAME ON OTTAWA

General Legie Testifies as to Conditions at Base Hospital

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Major-Gen. W. A. Legie, G.O.C. of this military district, last night placed on the authorities at Ottawa the onus for lack of ample hospital accommodation in this division at the resumed inquest into conditions at the Base Hospital, and more particularly surrounding the death of Cadet N. Davidson on October 15. He told of making numerous recommendations to Ottawa for additional hospital accommodation and of how they were not approved. The Officer Commanding emphatically declared that he was not satisfied with the safety of the Base Hospital from a fire standpoint, and that he had considerable anxiety over the score. He said he protested against equipping it with 800 beds, but Ottawa had overruled his objection. Gen. Legie also stated that during the height of the influenza epidemic there were too many patients in the Base Hospital.

The Officer Commanding was the principal witness at last night's inquiry. To Crown Attorney R. H. Greer he explained the system by which the medical branch of the army and who is a member of the Militia Council. He explained that he could remove a medical officer for misconduct but as he was not a judge of professional matters he could not do so on that score. Hospitals are under the control of the A.D.M.S., but Gen. Legie said he could recommend the necessities of the district to the Secretary of the Militia Council. However, he had no power to erect hospitals or buy equipment for them. That power rests with the Militia Council. The buying of land and the erection of the Department of Public Works, which works with the Militia Council. The purchase of equipment is done by the War Purchasing Department.

For Troops in Training. Gen. Legie said that the Base Hospital was always for troops in training. The proposition to take over was launched in April, 1916. The Government spent $12,000 on fixing it up, and after the first year, during which time the city paid the rental, the Government agreed to a rental of $13,500 a year. The original idea was to put one hospital unit in the institution, which was 150 beds. The Government took the hospital over and paid rent from April 1, 1917. At that time returned men were being placed in the hospital temporarily, although under protest. About that time he had also received orders to take over the hospital for R.A.F. men, although they were not near the strength then that they are now.

At that time General Legie said that the question of capacity cropped up. He was directed to equip the institution with 800 beds. He protested to Ottawa, but was ordered to go ahead and carry out his instructions. So far as equipment was concerned that was supplied by Ordnance Stores. The personnel was raised on paper, but never filled to the establishment required to handle 800 patients.

Kindly convey also our thanks to all the generous contributors. Official receipt is herewith enclosed. Again thanking you, we remain."

POLICE STOPPED OPEN-AIR RALLY FOR VICTORY LOAN

Cannavers Forbidden to Address Crowd on Market This Morning

The German word "Verboten" is one which has come into considerable prominence of late. Translated colloquially into English, it signifies "The" a law against it." Even in Canada, a great many things are "verboten" in these times of war and pestilence. A band of enthusiastic Victory Loan workers had the powder with which they intended to fire the opening gun of the campaign, dampened when the police put a stop to an open air rally on the Market Square, on the ground that it conflicted with the Board of Health's regulations. The market was crowded with purchasers, but of course that's a different thing; the police have no authority to stop farmers from charging fifty cents a dozen for eggs and like prices for other produce, but when the attention of the public is being drawn to the nation's need for financial support from every one of her citizens—well, the police interpreted that as being "verboten."

A group of the Loan canvassers gathered on the market at ten o'clock, and Sergt. Charles Blisset, a veteran of the 19th Battalion, who didn't get enough of fighting the Hun in France, but is still hot on his trail with a silver bullet, was addressing the crowd, when a police sergeant intervened and informed the speaker that the gathering must be broken up at once. "Have you authority to order us off the market?" inquired one of the workers. "If I haven't I can soon get it," replied the sergeant. As a matter of fact, he is believed to have qualified the word "soon" by an emphatic adverb. He left the scene, and returned a few moments later with instructions that the meeting must be broken up. It was.

OFFICIALS SAY 'FLU SITUATION BETTER TO-DAY' Board of Health Satisfied With Reports Received Last Night

A Courier reporter who attended last night's session of the Board of Health, was admitted to the meeting only on the understanding that he accept for publication only the official statement authorized by the Board, which has constituted itself a sanitary committee for the duration of the epidemic. The following statement was furnished this morning, duly signed by His Worship the Mayor.

The members of the local Board of Health met last evening when Dr. Bragg, Medical Health Officer, and Ald. J. J. Kelly, the chairman of the Emergency Hospital Board, presented their reports of the number of cases of influenza now in the Emergency Hospital, and it is very gratifying to learn that the disease is on the decline.

The number of cases admitted to the hospital have lessened, and the women's ward at the present time is only about half occupied. The number of fatalities have greatly decreased. It was decided not to lift the ban in regard to opening places of amusement, schools, churches until the epidemic had abated.

Purification of all private houses where the disease has been was recommended. The Sanitary Inspector was instructed to procure formaldehyde in sufficient quantities to disinfect all public buildings.

The chairman of the Victory Loan asked permission that on the opening of the Loan campaign on Monday the 28th instant it should be opened by a demonstration by blowing whistles, ringing bells; but the Board has decided that in view of the present epidemic and the sorrow which is in many homes in the city, that it would be unbecoming of the Board to allow such unseemly noises at this particular time, and it was the universal expression that the citizens of Brantford will do their sacred duty in connection with the Victory Loan.

The Chairman, Mr. Minnes, reported verbally in connection with his visit to the Free Library, and learned from Mr. Henwood, librarian, that there were not more than 8 or 10 people gathered in the library at one time, and that the books being returned to the library were disinfected before they were placed again on the shelves for re-distribution. The closing of the library was not looked upon unfavorably, as books could be secured for the purpose of diverting the minds of many who have been bereaved, and as all books were thoroughly fumigated, there seems to be no cause for alarm from this source.

The members of the board present were Mr. J. W. Patis, Mr. I. S. Armstrong, Mr. Minnes, the Mayor and Dr. Bragg.

The Costs of Civic Service

ARE what the taxpayers study most. They want a thoroughly up-to-date service at a minimized cost.

Approximately seventy percent of civic expenditure is made on manual labor, haulage and transportation. Therefore, as it is the aim of civic administration to keep expenditures down to their proper proportion, they must cut their haulage and labor costs. Motor equipment will do this.

Light trucks are most adaptable for municipal service because they can be used for any kind of work such as garbage collection, street cleaning, hauling materials for public works, etc. The Ford One-Ton Truck fitted with a suitable body meets these requirements. It is of special value because of its low initial cost—further, it does more work yet costs less to maintain than a horse and wagon.

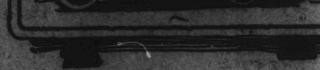

The Ford One-Ton Truck Chassis is being used by a large number of municipal councils throughout the Dominion.

SPEND MILLIONS IN CANADA FOR SHIP BUILDING

Victory Loan Has Made Possible Revival of That Industry

It is understood that the Dominion Government has adopted a permanent ship-building policy for Canada which provides for the expenditure in the immediate future of possibly $50,000,000. Contracts for 24 ships with a tonnage of 135,000 tons and valued at $26,000,000 have already been awarded, and it is expected that this spur to the industry in Canada will take up some of the slack in industry that will result at the close of the war, when we turn to peaceful pursuits. And it will offset the possible loss of energy that is being shown at the present time in building largely for the Imperial Munitions Board.

To-day every ship-building plant in Canada is rushed with orders for the Imperial Munitions Board. The board contracts for 44 steel and 16 wooden vessels with a tonnage of 356,343 tons, and of these 19 steel and 41 wooden ships, with a tonnage of 214,043 tons and valued at $35,000,000 for wooden ships were let by the Imperial Munitions Board. These were spread over five provinces and every yard that could put down a keel was given the chance to get into the game. The amount of tonnage that will be completed this year is equal to one outfit of Canadian yards from 1902 until the outbreak of the war.

In addition to the contracts mentioned a further impetus was given to the industry when a $21,000,000 contract was received from the French Government for the construction of 50 wooden ships. And in addition the Department of Naval Service has secured for our shipyards contracts for submarines for Great Britain and Italy, 550 motor boat chasers for Great Britain, and 36 for France, and for numerous lighters, trawlers and drifters for the British Government.

But while this is big present business the main thing is to keep our ship yards going after the war and to expand the industry to the growing needs of commerce. We are building for the future. The Dominion Government has made special arrangements with the Dominion Iron and Steel Co., to erect a mill for the rolling of ship plates, to be ready in August, 1919. The Government has undertaken to purchase at least 250,000 tons of these plates, which will supply between 750,000 and 800,000 tons of shipping in the Dominion.

There are about 25,000 men engaged in the industry in Canada. They receive big wages. It is the biggest business in sight for Canada, and it is spreading rapidly in the Provinces except the three Prairie Provinces, and in the larger sense the whole Dominion.

As said, the Victory Loan was responsible for the nucleus of this great industry, because the funds were available out of the proceeds of the loan to advance to the British Government. The forthcoming loan is essential to the continued prosperity because funds must be available to supply towards the building of more ships. Everybody interested in ship-building should, therefore, make the success of the loan sure.

THE CROPS

The following is a summary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture:

Fall work on the farm has made good progress during the past week in spite of varying weather conditions. Some counties in Eastern Ontario report too much rain, in fact rain has interfered with the harvesting of the corn crop. From Western Ontario on the other hand it is reported that there has not been sufficient rain in some counties to give the fall wheat as strong a growth as might be desired. On the whole however, corn is being well harvested, and the silos are being filled to overflowing.

Fall wheat is also looking very healthy, and the acreage seems to be well up to previous years in spite of the fact that many farmers are planning to put in considerable spring wheat owing to the success of the past season. One farmer reports having harvested Marquis wheat sugar last spring at a yield of 50 bush to the acre.

Sugar beets in Western Ontario counties are showing a good yield, and in many cases will bring the growers about $10 per ton. Tobacco in Essex county is being sold at 28c to 52c per lb.

Potatoes are yielding around average and are retailing at from $1.50 to $2.25 per bush. Good potatoes are being shipped from Port William at $2.13 per bag f.o.b. shipping point.

Apple picking is nearly completed, and it is mentioned that the closing of the schools in some sections owing to the influenza epidemic released a good deal of labor for this purpose.

Norfolk Fruit Growers' Association has already shipped about 2 1/2 carloads to the West, and there are about sixty more cars yet to ship. Flax is being shipped from Norfolk County in carload lots for fire land as a result of the response to the call for growing flax during the past season. Conditions are about normal with a strong market demand and prices for live stock products. The feed situation is favorably reported upon, but very few counties have any surplus hay, and any offering commands high prices.

CHILDREN WILL DIE

Belgian Tots Have Insufficient Clothing for the Coming Winter

Clad in thin rags that give no warmth to their emaciated little bodies, the children of Belgium await the advent of winter, the season of their greatest suffering. They have no boots, no gloves nor mitts. Sometimes the soles of their shoes are made of paper, and other youthful heroes shiver him greatly, but on the whole the children of Belgium have nothing to protect them from the rigors of a northern winter. Their clothes are the most pitifully inadequate things that could be conceived. Here is a child whose dress was made from an old tablecloth; here we have a garment ingeniously fashioned from a sheet. Now and then one sees apply towards the building of more ships. Everybody interested in ship-building should, therefore, make the success of the loan sure.

ITALIANS TAKE 3,000 PRISONERS

British Take Garrison on Pieve, and French Occupy a Mountain

London, Oct. 25.—Italian troops have begun an offensive between the Pieve and the Brenta. In the Monte Grappa sector, Thursday, they advanced across the Ornic river and captured Monte Solarolo, part of Monte Prassolun and Monte Periccia. In the Pieve river, the Italians have captured the islands of Grand Papadopoli and Maggiore. The weather on the front is unfavorable. French troops are aiding the Italians in their new offensive. According to reports received in London today, the attacks of the allies are meeting with considerable success, despite the unfavorable weather conditions. About 3,000 prisoners have been taken since the assault was launched.

On the Pieve front the British have gained a footing on some islands in the river and captured enemy garrisons of 400 men. The Italians have made progress between the Brenta and the Pieve, overcoming determined resistance, repulsed counter-attacks and captured 400 prisoners. On the Asiago Plateau the French have taken Monte Sisemol, increasing their number of prisoners to 900. Bitter fighting occurred yesterday morning in the Monte Grappa region, says the war office report. Parties of our troops resolutely attacked some portions of the formidable enemy positions and succeeded in wresting from him and maintaining possession of important supporting points in the western and southern area of the Massif. They established themselves on the north Asiago Plateau, our own and allied patrols carried out a small surprise attack with success.

The total number of prisoners captured from midnight of Oct. 23 to midnight of Oct. 24 is 84 officers and 2,791 men of other ranks.

FAMOUS ESCAPE OF 29 OFFICERS

Lieut. John Keith Bousfield, M.C., Royal Engineers, one of the 29 officers who escaped from a prison camp in Germany, by means of a tunnel, the construction of which occupied nine months, is now safe at home. It is believed that ten of the other officers, including a lieutenant-colonel, have reached England, in spite of the enemy's offer of substantial rewards for the recapture of each runner.

The King was deeply interested in the story of the escape of Lieut. Bousfield, when he recently attended at Windsor to receive from his Majesty the Military Cross. The lieutenant-colonel, who had won for dangerous reconnaissance work in the Somme battle of 1915.

It is believed that not more than one of the party who started the construction of the tunnel was among the twenty-nine who made their escape through it, said Lieut. Bousfield when seen at the home of his father at Hendon, Mr. W. R. Bousfield, K.C.

"When I got to the camp at Holzminde the work of digging the tunnel had been well started. When we had finished it was fairly deep, running over a length of sixty-five yards, and about 12 feet down, with an entrance under a staircase, and an exit into a vegetable garden. Thirteen Awful Nights. We made our escape on the night of July 23, and immediately on getting out broke into small groups, travelled before us in different directions. I and two others formed one party, which kept together until we had covered the greater part of 170 miles, which was the distance I travelled before we were clear of Germany. We each had a little store of food to keep us going, and we picked up what we could find through the mercy of rain, and sleeping in the open air, or wherever we could find shelter of any kind.

"Altogether I was on my travels for thirteen weeks, sometimes going through the rain, and sometimes venturing on the roads, but all the time, you may be sure, making certain of clearing any possible surprise of observation by local people or police. Expecting want well until nearly the end of our journey, but one night a sentry who had seen us from a bridge, or had seen something that made him suspicious, raised his rifle in our direction, compelling us to separate. I didn't see the other two again.

"My movements were not after this, detected by any of the enemy, and I was able to get across the border without further incident. The Dutch papers subsequently announced that three British officers had escaped across the frontier.

"I had been on active service since 1915 on the west front, and was taken prisoner in the early part of 1917, when I was acting as observer on a flying machine which was brought down on the site for many years behind the German lines. I was interned successfully at Karlsruhe, Crefeld, Strohen, and later at Holzminde.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the action of the bowels. AS RESULT OF AMALGAMTION

Branch of British Bank in Brantford Has Been Closed

Business and Staff Transferred to the Bank of Montreal

By advertisement elsewhere in this issue, it will be seen that as the outcome of the recent amalgamation with the Bank of Montreal, the local branch of the Bank of British North America has been closed. The business hitherto transacted there will be transferred to the local branch of the B. of M.

The British Bank was the second institution of the kind to establish a branch in this city, doing so shortly after the Bank of Montreal had commenced an agency here. It was on November 13th, 1845, that Mr. James Christie came here from Hamilton as the first manager of the B. of M. A. On his death, in 1854, he was followed by Mr. Charles F. Smithers, who was afterwards President of the Bank of Montreal. Mr. James C. Geddes was appointed to the position in 1856, and he in turn was succeeded by Mr. Alexander Robertson in 1864. Previous to that, Mr. Robertson had been accountant for nearly ten years, and he retired in 1894 after 40 years' service. Mr. Elmsly then held the post for a little over two years, and Mr. R. Butt succeeded for ten years to be followed on his retirement by Mr. F. H. Austin, who left the bank service in 1909 and was followed by Mr. H. H. Rowley who, in 1911, joined the Union Bank. Mr. George D. Watt succeeded the last named, and he has since held the reins in a successful manner. Mr. Watt and the entire local staff become transferred to the Bank of Montreal branch.

The first building in which the bank did business in Brantford was situated on the north side of Colborne street, on the site for many years occupied by Clifford's furniture store, and to which Nymann & Co. are about to remove. The original structure was burned down, and in 1858 the bank built the existing premises on Darling street, next to Zion church.

MUSIC in the Home

HOW MUSIC APPEALS TO THIS BUSINESS MAN

A business man directing some five or six thousand employees and the distribution of millions of dollars annually was asked why he made music his hobby. His reply was: "Just for the fun of it! I find that I can get far more joy out of music than I possibly could out of almost any other thing. To me it is both a physical and mental refreshment. It seems infinitely more interesting to me than collecting old and broken down furniture, cracked plates, mutilated coins, antique postage stamps and ancient armor, raising chickens or even dogs. Gardening appeals to me as does nature to every one, but one can garden only a few months in the year, while one may have music every month in the year. Of course one may study art, at all times, but my love is for music. Music seems to me such a living thing that it writes everything it reaches. I don't know of anything that could balance the work-a-day strain of the busy any better than music. A half an hour at the piano or at the organ when I go home simply wipes out everything that has bothered one during the day and gives the mind and body a fresh start as nothing else can. One cannot play any instrument, and play it well, while thinking about anything else."

ENCOURAGE PLAYING OF CELLO

The place which the splendid art of Casals has made for him should react on the public young musicians and materially increase the number of students of the cello. This artist lauds the cello's power and variety of expression. Its range extends through three clefs, bass, tenor, and soprano, and it can take the bass part in an orchestra as well as a singing part. In addition the length of the strings is especially favorable to harmonics, and in variety of timbre it yields nothing to the violin.

MINOR CHORDS

Whatever else music does, it releases the mind from the daily worries. It is not so much the length of practice, but the quality of the practice that really counts. The B flat clarinet is called a B flat instrument because it is a transposing instrument which, although the player reads and plays in the C notation, he is actually producing the fundamental pitch of the B flat notation.

Why is music more demanded today than it ever was? One man's reply is that music is the one open door through which we can periodically escape for an hour from the cares and stress of present day conditions.

A woman whose name ranks high among opera stars, says she does not smoke because cigarettes hurt her voice. Is this a warning to some male singers who indulge too freely in the soothing weed or is the male voice differently constituted from that of the gentler sex?

A college professor of note remarks that "music answers a double purpose; it has not only indubitable worth as pure mental training, but affords a superlative form as a vehicle of self-expression quite aside from the pleasure it gives the listener, its value as a patriotic stimulus and other values too numerous to mention."

If you haven't spent a portion of each choir practice in rehearsing anthems unaccompanied start doing so at once. It will be found that unaccompanied practice for the few nights will prove more exhausting for both singers and the leader than when the organ or piano was used. But this will soon wear off and then there will come a sense of self-confidence and mastery that cannot be had any other way.

After a well known singer had visited a military camp and given the boys a treat, one of them penned these lines:

You sing,
And olden joys
That I had long forgot
Come running back like crowds of merry boys
Let out from school,
Filling the air with happy noise
I hear again my mother's evening croon
Falling about me like the cool,
Clear water in a shadowy grot,
And all the simple things
That give man's delight to me
When I was young.

CONCRETE HOUSES ON UNIT SYSTEM

The house cast solidly of concrete in one piece, poured into a mould like cast metal, has not materialized commercially. But concrete houses cast in pieces and then assembled are apparently both practical and inexpensive. This method of building in "units" has been employed for some time to erect large industrial structures, but it is now being used, it is asserted, for the first time in a group of dwellings in Youngstown, Ohio. We quote from a descriptive article in the New York News-Record (New York), according to which the expense of moving and handling the slabs is more than offset by reduction in the cost of forms and the possibility of operating the concrete-plant continuously. Says the writer:

"Precast slabs poured in a yard and erected by a traveler, are being used for the first time in this country to construct dwelling houses. The so-called unit method of concrete construction is being successfully applied to the construction of 146 dwellings for the first section of a community centre east of Youngstown, Ohio. This settlement marks one of the first attempts to provide living quarters of a permanent and inexpensive type which will be comfortable, sanitary, and practically fire-proof. The success of the experiment is made possible by the almost indestructible character of the buildings, and by the low cost which could be secured through erecting a large number of houses at one operation."

"The method of construction allows the concrete-plant to operate continuously, regardless of the progress of the other work, and greatly reduce the cost of forms. These advantages, according to the contractor, much more than offset the added cost of rehandling and erecting the slabs after they are cast, which is the only item that would not be required if the houses were poured in place. The use of concrete-casting platforms, granulated slag-cores for forming hollow wall-slabs, and of a travelling erection derrick, mounted on towers, characterizes the work."

"The dividing walls between houses are hollow, while all other slabs cast are ribbed. The exterior slabs are set with the smooth face out and the ribs, with wood inserts, form studs to which a lath-and-plaster wall is secured on the inside. The ceilings of the basement and the first floor are beamed, the smooth side of the slab being turned up. With the ceilings the second floor, however, the ribbed sides of the slabs are turned up, leaving a smooth ceiling below. The window and door-openings are cast in the wall slabs, but the window sills are cast separately. After the sills are placed wooden door and window-frames are fitted."

"The roof design is of timber framing with one-inch plank sheathing, on which a red-tile roof is nailed. The gable ends are made with triangular concrete slabs. These red gable roofs on the white buildings are expected to give a very pleasing architectural effect."

"A casting yard through which runs a trestle track from which the slabs can be cast by chuting from a side-gate car is laid out at the foot of the hill, where it will not interfere with any of the houses now being built. Parallel to the trestle and located on the up-hill side is a standard gage track for the locomotive cranes which stack and handle the slabs. Up hill from this, on the side toward the street by which materials are received and near the middle of the yard, is located the concrete-plant. This consists of a two-bag batch-mixer supplied with material by a car on a narrow gage track which runs beneath bins into which motor-trucks dump the sand and crush slag through gratings.

"Work was first started in the casting yard on the single family and three family houses, 150 concrete beds and 100 timber beds being required to keep the mixer plant, going on slabs for these two types. One form is poured at a time, though of course one batch will fill several of the small forms, such as those for window sills. Two men handle, fill, and empty the car on the trestle, while five or six men working. As soon as the concrete has set, the side forms are stripped and match marks are painted on the edges of the concrete. The slabs are allowed to set from two days to a week, depending on the weather, then raised from the beds and stacked on edge with others of the same type."

"The hoisting is done with wire rope slings and hooks, which are hooked into eye-bolts embedded in the concrete. The heads of these bolts come inside the form, recesses being cast around them large enough to permit slipping in the hood. The floor-slabs have four such rings so that they can be suspended level, while the wall slabs have rings only in the top edge. The lighter pieces, such as the chimneys and the window ledges, are cast by hand and hoisted in bundles with a sling."

'FLU SITUATION IS STILL IMPROVING

Changes for Better Recorded in Most Parts of the Province

By Courier Leased Wire
Toronto, Oct. 25.—Although the situation in regard to Spanish influenza is somewhat worse to-day, encouraging despatches continue to be received from all other sections of Ontario. That the epidemic is on the wane is the opinion of medical health authorities all over the province.

Announcements made in Toronto yesterday to the effect that hospital accommodation was not so severely taxed, may be responsible in some measure for the increased demand to-day. Doctors believe that although official figures show an increase in the number of new cases submitted to the local hospitals these cases have been receiving private treatment at their homes and are now seeking entrance to the institutions.

Unchanged in London.
London, Oct. 25.—The influenza situation here is unchanged from last night when it was stated by the health authorities that the epidemic was developing many new cases, but of a less malignant form. Four more deaths during the night and this morning are reported. Business is beginning to feel the effects as shipping has dropped off more than fifty per cent.

A Jump in Windsor.
Windsor, Ont., Oct. 25.—The number of influenza cases here took a big jump this morning when 93 new cases were reported in a total of 63 reported yesterday. Since the epidemic started, 420 Windsor homes have been quarantined. No deaths have occurred in the last 24 hours.

The Hotel Dieu is now overcrowded with patients, extra beds being placed in every available place.
Worse in Toronto.
Toronto, Oct. 25.—The influenza situation in the various city hospitals is somewhat worse to-day. There are 36 more patients under treatment and two more deaths than yesterday's figures showed. In all there are now 894 patients, exclusive of military patients, including nurses, which total 139 still twenty-five deaths are recorded since yesterday afternoon.

Station Not Closed.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—The newspaper report that the station of the Grand Trunk Railway at London, Ontario had been closed is denied at headquarters here. In connection with the influenza situation the Board of Health of London, Ontario, made certain recommendations to the company regarding the provision of individual drinking cups, etc., and these were at once complied with. The same care is being taken by the railway at London, Ontario, to guard the health of its patrons that is being generally adopted over the whole system, company officials intimate.

Churches Still Closed.

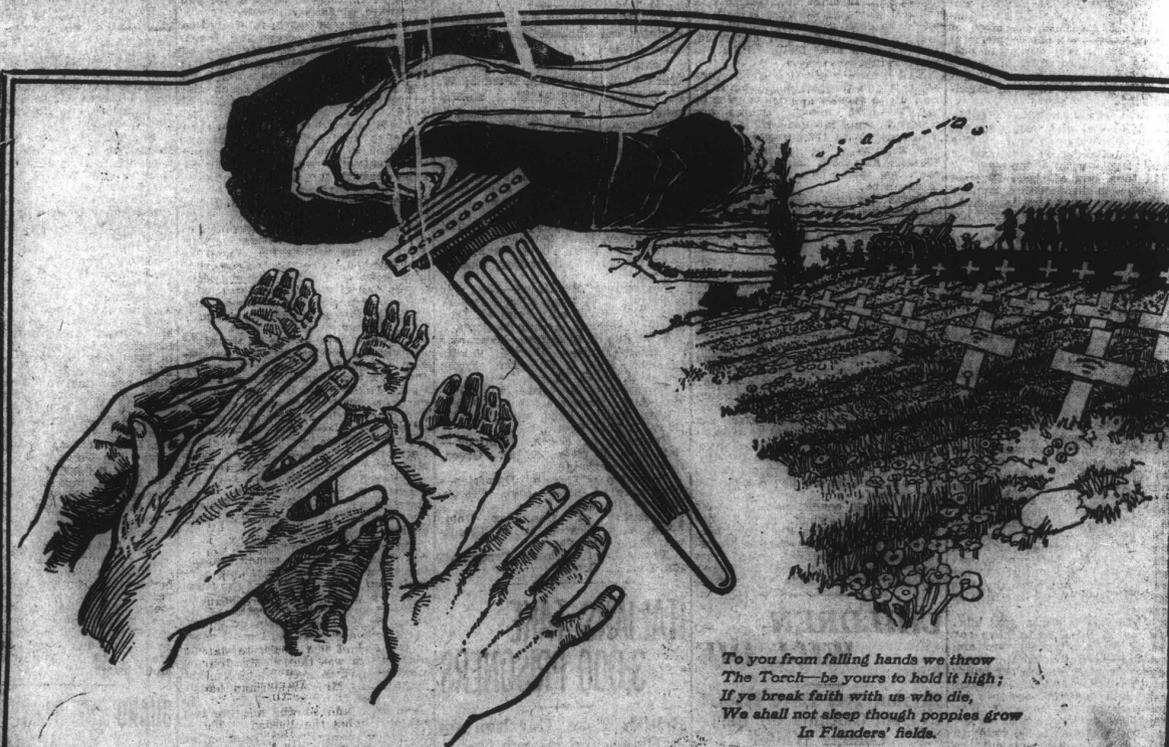

Montreal, Oct. 25.—The Provincial Board of Health this morning sent telegrams to all bishops in Quebec notifying them that the churches must again be closed next Sunday on account of the epidemic of influenza. Between the hours of midnight and noon to-day, the Board of Health received reports of the deaths of 73 people from the influenza, while 555 new cases were recorded.

OCTOGENARIANS ACCIDENT VICTIMS

Merritt Stevens and his wife, of Florence, Ont., recently sustained serious injury as a result of their buggy overturning near Inwood. Both sufferers are more than eighty years of age.

JEITCHENER HAS A NEW MEANEST-YET CANDIDATE

At Kitchener, J. Kellerman, a local fruiterer, has been hailed before the police magistrate for swindling a 12-year-old lad out of the purchase price of twenty rabbits. The dealer endeavored to substitute for $5.00, the agreed price, $1.00 and fifteen baskets of rotten and worthless plums.

To you from falling hands we throw
The Torch—be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

Through all these dark, uncertain days, our soldiers have held aloft and brightly burning, the sacred torch of freedom.

On Monday, for a space, it passes to our hands. Does it pass to hands less eager—hands less worthy?

The world shall know our answer!

On Monday we will be asked to buy Victory Bonds—the sinews of war.

Our obligation is clear. Our duty is unmistakable. Victory Bonds are the weapons with which we at home can strike and strive for freedom.

This solemn thought shall possess us: Until the Victory Loan 1918 is assured our duty is not accomplished—our task is incomplete.

From every province, city and town; from every county, township and farm of our country will come forth a mighty flood of money. The word will ring around the world that Canada's gold, no less than Canada's soldiers, is Germany's uncompromising enemy.

This surely will be our message to our sons—Carry on, brave souls! Canada's treasure is not a laggard in the fight. Eager hands are stretched to catch and hold aloft forever the Flaming Torch of Freedom!

Dyspepsia

50c Tablets Per Box

WILL CURE YOU

Dyspepsia is an advanced stage of indigestion, arising from the stomach refusing to perform its normal functions. Digestion consists in the changing of foods from an insoluble form, so that they may pass through the walls of the alimentary canal and become part of the blood. The stomach keeps the food in almost constant motion for a considerable time to accomplish this purpose, and should this organ not be kept in good condition, indigestion results, to be followed in due course, if not relieved, by dyspepsia. You can keep the stomach performing its functions, and even relieve and cure dyspepsia if you get a Box at 50c from

WATERFORD

(From our own Correspondent.)
Mr. Art. McKimmon and a friend have been visiting at his father's here for a few days.
Mr. McKimmon enlisted with the 168th and went overseas two years ago. While there he was in hospital from sickness, and at last sent home. He has now been honorably discharged from the service. He has a brother "over there," Ernest, who went over about the same time, and has been at the front almost all the time.
Everything is very quiet in Waterford, and all one hears talked about is the flu. The high, public and Terrace Hill schools are closed, also the churches. We are told that the disease is dying out somewhat around here—and that there are no serious cases developing. There have been five deaths in it so far. The first to go was Mr. Charley Upton, who died on Sunday, Oct. 13. Mr. Upton's home had always been in Waterford until a few months ago he moved out to the country, and had only been back to Waterford a few weeks when he was taken sick. He was only about 25 years old, and his sympathy is felt for his wife and parents.
The second death from the influenza was that of Mr. Mike Matthews on Wednesday, Oct. 17, at the age of 25 years. The funeral was on Friday from his home here to Greenwood cemetery. Mr. Matthews was Sergt. Matthews, and went overseas with the 13th North's Own. He was in France for some time, and was wounded at Vimy Ridge. For a long time he was in hospital in England, and afterwards sent back home. A short time ago he received his discharge. Since his return he has been living at his home here. Among others he got influenza, but with him it developed into pneumonia, and soon caused his death. He leaves to mourn him his wife, father, mother and two brothers, Clarence, of Waterford and Roy of St. Thomas. The sympathy of many friends is extended to them.
The funeral of Mr. David Edward Hovey took place from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hovey on Sunday, Oct. 20th, 1918, to Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was 26 years old, and had always lived in Waterford, and was well known and respected. The funeral services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. J. B. Moore. The pall bearers were members of Waterford lodge, I. O. O. F., of which deceased was a member. The flowers were numerous, among which were wreaths from I. O. O. F., sprays from wife and son, father and mother, brother Arthur and family, auntie Lily and uncle Will Cotton, Esther and Tom Cheevers, Mr. and Mrs.

Tells How to Stop a Bad Cough

Surprising results from this famous old home-made syrup. Easily prepared and costs little.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat, hoarseness or influenza, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth). Pour this into a 4-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, or corn syrup. To each 16 ounces of syrup, add 16 ounces of Pinex. It makes 16 ounces of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that many business men know and raised the phlegm, stops tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that cause the cough, and chiral tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of removing severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To insure an appointment, ask for 2½ ounces of Pinex with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give complete satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Finer Co., Toronto, Ont.

BLOOD-MAKING MEDICINE

It took centuries for medical science to discover that the blood is the life. Now, it is known that if the blood were always abundant, rich and pure, very few people would ever be ill. It was not until the end of the 19th century that an instrument was invented for measuring the red part of the blood. Then doctors could tell just how anaemic a patient was, and with medicine to make new blood the patient soon got well.

All the blood in the body is nourished and kept rich and red by the food taken daily, but when, for any reason, a person is run down and cannot make sufficient blood from the food to keep the body in health, a blood-making medicine is required. The simplest and very best of blood-makers suitable for home use by anyone, is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When a course of these pills is taken, good effect is soon shown in an improved appetite, stronger nerves, a sound digestion and an ability to master your work and enjoy leisure hours. For women there is a prompt relief of all prevention of ailments which make life a burden. As an all-around medicine for the cure of ailments due to weak, watery blood no medicine has ever been discovered that can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail for 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bert Pettit and Laurel, Mr. and Mrs. James Burns. A wife and son are left to mourn their loss, also father and mother, one sister, Mrs. E. B. Grass of Aylmer, two brothers, Arthur M., of Brantford and J. Berkley of Aylmer, who share the sympathy of many friends.

On Oct. 20, 1918, the death from influenza took place of Mr. Stafford Smith at the home of his father in this place. Stafford was only a few days, and in spite of all that loving care could do, pneumonia developed, and death soon came. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, and besides his parents, a wife and two small children, for whom much sympathy is expressed. The funeral services, on Tuesday were conducted by the Rev. Earl Day of Boston, assisted by Rev. J. B. Moore and Rev. H. Caldwell. The floral remembrances were beautiful. Interment took place at Greenwood cemetery, Mr. Smith was only in his 25th year.

The fifth and last death to date from influenza was that of Mr. John Ammerman, which occurred on Monday, Oct. 21. Mr. Ammerman had not been well for some time. He was 67 years old, and so was not very likely to contract the disease. The deceased was born in Beverly township, Wentworth county, but moved here when a child, and his home has been here ever since. Rev. Frank Anderson conducted the funeral services on Wednesday. Interment at Round Plains. He leaves behind a widow, one sister, Mrs. L. Sovereign, of Boston, Ont., and two brothers, Albert of Lynville and Edward of Ronavanda, N. E., who have sympathy of all.

Mr. R. D. Gibson is working as baggageman in the absence of Mr. Roy Dunbar, who is sick with influenza.

Mrs. Wiggins, mother of Mrs. P. J. Pearce, died at Pontiac, Ill., on Saturday, Oct. 12. Mrs. Wiggins had been an invalid for a number of years and has made her home here with her daughter. A few weeks ago they went to live at Pontiac. Mrs. Wiggins caught cold when on the trip, and owing to her feeble state was unable to recover.

Word has been received by friends here that Pte. William Shaw, of Waterford, had received a gunshot wound in the back, and was now in 23 casualty clearing station.

Mrs. Jones also received a cablegram on Thursday last that her husband, Pte. Abraham Jones had been killed in action on Sept. 30. He leaves his wife and four small children.

SAVE YOUR HAIR!

A SMALL BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair... Every Bit of Dandruff, Disappears and Hair stops coming out. Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful. Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine to-night—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use when you will actually see lots of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Count Apponyi, Count Andrássy and the opposition deputies thereupon demanded the resignation of the ministry; according to Budapest advices received here, Dr. Wekerle, the premier, declared that in view of the increasing difficulties of the situation, he would propose to the king a coalition ministry.

Don't Envy A Prosperous Looking Man — Be One

JUST as ambition opens the gateway to opportunity, proper attention to your clothes and general appearance is a passport to a higher position in life and assists in achievement by inspiring the confidence of others in you.

In shaping a successful career you can't make a better investment than in buying

Society Brand Clothes

They give you poise and personality—they can't change your character, but they can reflect the character of your tastes. Clothes like these make other men welcome your society.

It is wasteful to pay less for an overcoat or suit that will turn out to be a liability. Society Brand Clothes are an asset. And as for wear, there's nothing that will last you longer or make you look so prosperous.

The label identifies every Society Brand garment. It's the maker's pledge of satisfaction.

Dock workers in Ashland, Wis., have each received $150 to $200 back pay as the result of an arbitration award that dates from the beginning of the season.

An investigation conducted by the U. S. Federal Bureau of Labor statistics shows that the average expenditures last year of 109 families in Superior, Wis., was $1,345.06.

At the last session of the Quebec Legislature, legislation was enacted providing that all hotel employees in the province should enjoy one full rest day every week. Previous to the passing of this statute, which was secured as a result of the persistent agitation of organized labor, many of these employees were compelled to labor from 12 to 16 hours out of every 24 and seven days per week.

The report of the board appointed to investigate the differences existing between the Winnipeg Street Railway Company and its employees has handed down its award, which makes provision for a material increase in wages, which runs from 9c to 12c per hour. First year men start in on a scale of 39c an hour, which gradually increases, third year men receiving a minimum of 47c an hour, and all employees will receive time and a half for holidays.

As the truth in regard to the settlement of the great miners' strike in the Crow Nest Pass in British Columbia, which was on for several weeks, comes to hand, it shows that the United Mine Workers of America have won a notable victory. By the terms of the agreement the miners will hereafter work but one shift each twenty-four hours. This was the main point of contention as the strikers from the very beginning of the difficulty signified their willingness to return to work immediately as soon as the one-day shift was conceded and to allow a general commission to deal with other questions involved.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, soaked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the small arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetamide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve you, but do not get the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal. Ask your pharmacist for a quarter ounce of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, sour breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphated hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons. Results are quick, and it is claimed that those who continue to flush every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment more.

GREAT RAILWAY LINE REACHED

By the Victorious British in Their Present Great Drive

Prisoners Taken Now Number Away Over Nine Thousand

London, Oct. 25.—Nine thousand Germans have been made prisoners and one hundred and fifty runs have been captured by the British in their attacks against the Germans, according to Field Marshal Haig's comman-dant's report to-night.

South of Valenciennes the British have reached the entire railway line of the front between Le Que-noy and Maing. This is the lateral railway from Valenciennes to Meuse, a vital line for the German transport and supply system north of Valen-ciennes. Some of Haig's forces (pre-sumably the Canadians) have crossed the scheldt and established them-selves between the river and the canal. Another short advance from this point will enable them to cut the railway connecting Valenciennes with Mons, and force the evacuation of the former city.

CHICAGO 'FLU CURE MEDICAL NONSENSE

No Such Man as Dr. Vint, the "Authority" for the Fake

The story sent out from Chicago a few days ago that diphtheria anti-toxine could be used successfully as a preventative of influenza was apparently the idea of someone who had a good imagination. The story was sent from one end of the country to the other the authority for the statement being given as Dr. Louis J. Vint. A denial yesterday reached the Provincial authorities of any such treatment being a success in Chicago, and the Director of Medical Research at the University of Chicago stated that they knew of no such man as Dr. Vint.

Dr. R. B. Derris of the Connaught Laboratories, Toronto, telegraphed to Dr. Vint when the report was published in the press. "Yesterday he received a letter from the Director of Medical Research of the University of Chicago to whom the telegram had been given declaring that no such man was in connection with the department. He also denied that Dr. Louis J. Vint, the name appearing in some papers was known there. "This report was a middle of medical nonsense, and, of course, I do not know it was just to the man presenting the paper whoever he may have been. In any event I wish to take the opportunity to repudiate any connection with the matter of the University of Chicago," said the director.

Applications for the preventative vaccine being manufactured by the Provincial Health authorities are being received in large numbers by the department. So far only hospitals have been supplied, but it is expected to have a large supply on hand by the end of the week. Applications will be filled in the order in which they are received.

CANADA'S VICTORY LOAN, 1918

DECORATIONS AND WINDOW DISPLAY

The Publicity, Decorations and Window Display Committees enlist the hearty co-operation of storekeepers, shopkeepers, manufacturers and citizens of Brantford generally in giving the maximum publicity to the Victory Loan Campaign.

Here Are Some Ways You Can Help

FIRST—Emphasize the patriotic spirit by decorating homes, houses, shops, stores, warehouses, factories and other buildings with

FLAGS AND BUNTING

There's inspiration in the bit of color. The British Flag first, then group the Flags of the Allies, and add the bunting.

SECOND—Citizens having dead walls or fences will be doing a patriotic thing in placing them at the disposal of the Publicity Committee, on which to place posters, placards, signs, banners, and co-operate with your neighbors in getting streamers across the streets.

THIRD—Storekeepers can greatly aid the Publicity Committee by lending as generously as possible window and store space for cards, announcements, mottoes and posters, cards on wagons, or using parcel or mail stuffers and stickers.

WOULD YOU BE WILLING TO PAINT A SLOGAN ON YOUR WINDOW?

ANY AND ALL OF THESE CONCESSIONS will have the heartiest appreciation of the Publicity, Decorations and Display Committees, and will prove mediums that will bring magnificent results in a campaign which is going to help clinch VICTORY—a means that may wake many a passer-by to a fuller sense of his responsibility to the men in the trenches—a keener appreciation of what Victory in France and Flanders means to his home in Canada.

PRIZES WILL BE GIVEN for the Best Decorated Private Home, For the Best Decorated Residence Block, and for the Best Decorated Show Window. Watch for further announcement.

THE ROYAL AND ANCIENT

Reports from golf clubs from all parts of Canada are to the effect that generally speaking, the weather, although cold, was fine on Thanksgiving Day and thousands of golfers from coast to coast were on the links playing for the Royal Canadian Golf Association cups, and incidentally contributing to the $25,000 Red Cross drive inaugurated by the association. Mr. B. L. Anderson, the honorary secretary of the R.C.G.A., does not expect for two or three weeks yet to have all the returns in, but from reports already received is hopeful that the objective will be reached. Lambton, for instance, went "over the top" to the tune of some $2,000; Rosedale, $1,200; Mississauga, $1,600; Lakeview, $1,000; Scarborough, $1,000; The Victoria Golf Club, British Columbia, contributed over $1,000. The indications are that the Montreal and Winnipeg clubs will raise between them several thousand dollars, whilst every city and town will be well represented in the financial column when totalled up. Toronto's contribution alone will be well over $5,000.

"The Drive" has been a pronounced success. Just a suggestion. Another year the R.C.G.A. if it stages a Patriotic Day, should bring it on earlier in the season. Why not make the 24th of May a perpetual fixture on the golf links for returned soldiers' funds or any other after-war activities? For years to come, no war or war, patriotic institutions will have to be liberally looked after. That's a certainty and the R.C.G.A. can make no mistake in setting aside a permanent Patriotic Day on the links of the Dominion.

Now that the daylight saving period is over, golfers find the plan worked better than expected, and trust that the scheme will be repeated again next summer and every year thereafter, although no one would care to have the clocks set two hours ahead as some Englishmen favor. There isn't the slightest doubt that the late daylight enjoyed by Scotchmen has had a great deal to do with making golf their national sport. In the land of thistles working folk have no trouble in leisurely completing a meal after their daily task in time for a full round before twilight.

And here is some interesting news about Western professionals: Phil Gaudin, of Owenston, has been rejected by the British recruiting office at Chicago on account of measles. Jack Burke, formerly at Wheaton and St. Paul, is in the depot brigade at Camp Grant. Bob Macdonald, who saw service in the Boer war, contemplates entering an officers' training camp, and his former experience should stand him in

SPANISH INFLUENZA RAGES IN CANADA

Thousands of Cases Reported With Many Deaths.

THOSE WHO ARE MOST SUSCEPTIBLE TO IT

"FRUIT-A-LIVES"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicine—Gives the Power To Resist This Disease.

The epidemic of Spanish Influenza which played such havoc in Europe, has reached this continent. Thousands of cases of the strange malady have appeared and many deaths are already reported; Surgeon-General Blue of the United States Public Health Service has stated that "Spanish influenza will probably spread all over the country in six weeks."

Practically every ship touches our shores from abroad, brings those infected with the disease. Surgeon-General Blue urges that "the individual take all the precautions he can against contracting the disease by care and personal hygiene. Plenty of exercise should be taken; the diet should be regulated, etc."

Spanish influenza affects most severely elderly persons and others whose powers of resistance are weakened by illness, work or worry, especially those who are "run-down" or "not feeling up to the mark."

The really great danger from the disease is not so much in the disease itself, as that it often develops into pneumonia.

What everyone needs now is a general tonic like "Fruit-a-lives". This wonderful fruit medicine is not a germ-killer. It is a body-builder; a strength-maker; a blood-purifier; a power in protecting against the ravages of disease.

"Fruit-a-lives" regulates the kidneys and bowels, causing these organs to eliminate waste regularly and naturally, as nature intended. "Fruit-a-lives" keeps the skin active, and purifies and enriches the blood. "Fruit-a-lives" tones up and strengthens the organs of digestion, insuring food being properly digested and assimilated.

Everyone can take ordinary precautions, avoid crowded places, and use "Fruit-a-lives" to insure sound digestion, to keep the bowels and kidneys regular and the whole system in the best possible condition. Then we are safe from disease.

"Fruit-a-lives" is sold by dealers everywhere at 60c a box, 6 for $2.50, retail size $6. Get it at once on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

COURIER COMICS

WASTED EFFORT

A squad of rookies composed of various nationalities, mostly Italian, on being given the command "Mark time!" all executed the command with the exception of one small dark skinned son of Naples.

The sergeant asked him why he did not execute the movement and he replied:

"Donna want to."

"Why not?" sharply demanded the sergeant.

"Criste—we walk a like douce and don'ta get-a no place!"

NO LONGER DOWN IN MOUTH

"Jimmy wanted his tooth after it had been pulled, so the dentist wrapped it up in paper and gave it to him."

"But what are you going to do with it, Jimmy?" he asked.

"I'm going to take it home, cram it full of sugar, and watch it ache."

THEN HE MOVED FRONT

Joshua Lott sometimes lives up to his name, but there is a trolley conductor who should be named Josh More. Notwithstanding the conductor's urging to "step up in front," Lott clings to a place on the rear platform when he can in order to be able to squeeze off at his street with facility and injury to fewer other passengers.

The other morning Lott was brightening up the corner where he was with some remarks about the service when the conductor horned in.

"Say," he said, "I've often looked at you and wondered why you didn't enlist. But I know now."

"How that?" asked Lott helpfully.

"Because you are so all-fired scared of getting up to the front," said the conductor.

Just then the 50-passenger car stopped at a transfer point to let about 80 more get on, and Lott was the first to start struggling toward the front to make room for them.

TOO DECENT FOR HIM TO DO

"Do you think the Kaiser will abdicate?"

"I think not. If he does it will be the first decent act he will have done in many years."

MISREPRESENTATION

Irate customer—I want my money back.

Haberdsasher—What's the matter?

You sold me this pair of garters, didn't you?

"Very likely."

And right on the box it says "no metal will touch you."

That's right!

Well, yesterday when I was out in the woods I got hit on this knee with a bullet.

THE SECOND BLOW

"I'm sorry for Belgium."

"Why so?"

"It's not only had to suffer the ruin of a German advance, but now it has to bear the hate and rage of a Hun retreat."

Rippling Rhymes

WHEN PEACE COMES

I know not when that peace will come, for which the people yearn; I know not when the sword and drum will to their shelves return. But I am sure that peace will be all wool and no shoddy threads inside. No lords of war will help to weave the web o'er which we'll toil, and none who think that to deceive is authorized by Hoyle. The patterns (which should never fade) won't be designed by chaps who think the pledges they have made are merely paper scraps. I know not when the guns will cease the sordid war, but I am sure the coming peace is well worth scrapping. Get. Long sacrifice and wide, we've on to Prussian wiles; we can't be lured by Prussian lies, or fooled by Prussian smiles. Before we deal with front-line Prussian, let's make sure that the Prussians must be on their knees and humbled in the dust. I know not when great Pops will say, "Come, sing! All is done!" But we shall make on that fair day, no bargain with the Hun. We'll show the fabric made by men who fairly played the game, and if he doesn't like it, then he'll have to jump the same.

Died of Starvation

Many a Belgian mother could have these words engraved on her child's gravestone—"Died of Starvation."

Perhaps the child has wasted away with Consumption, or has been twisted into a mockery of happy childhood by Rickets, but starvation is at the root of the tragedy.

What else can be expected for a growing child whose daily ration is the bowl of soup and two pieces of bread provided by the United States loans to the Belgian Government?

The only hope for the destitute children of Belgium is that we who can afford three meals a day will be moved to pity and send help immediately. Even a small contribution will help to take some child, sinking under its load of trouble, over to Holland, where with good milk, nutritious food, medical care and loving treatment, he or she may regain health, strength and the wish to live.

GIVE—give until you feel the pinch! Don't wait until someone asks you personally. THIS is personal!

GUNNERS SANG HYMN.

Picturesque Incident of Dark Night at Sea.

The great transport was cutting its sturdy way through three dangers—the submarine zone, a terrific storm beating from the west against its prow, and through a night as dark as Erebus because of the storm, with no lights showing, writes a war correspondent.

I had the midnight to four o'clock in the morning watch, and on this night I was on the aft gun deck. Below me on the aft gun deck, as the rain pounded, the wind howled, and the ship lurched to and fro, I could see the bulky forms of the boy gunners. There were two to each gun, two standing by, and six sleeping on the deck, ready for any emergency. The great coils made them look like giant men of the sea as they huddled against their guns, watching, waiting. I wondered what they could see in that impenetrable darkness if a U-boat could even survive in that storm, but the navy never sleeps in these days, and this transport was especially watchful, for it carried a precious cargo of wounded officers and men back to the homeland, west bound.

For an hour I heard no sound from the boys on the gun deck below me. When I was on watch in the daylight, I knew them to be just a great crowd of fine, buoyant, happy lads, full of pranks and laughter; but they were strangely silent to-night as the ship ploughed through the storm. The storm seemed to have made men of them. They were just boys, but boys in these days become men overnight and acquit themselves like men.

I watched their silent forms below me with a great feeling of wonderment and pride. The ship lurched as it swung to its zigzag course. Then suddenly I heard a sweet sound coming from one of the boys below me. I think that it was a big, raw-boned Westerner who started it. It was low at first, and with the storm and vibrations of the ship, I could not catch the words. The music was strangely familiar to me. Then the boy on the port gun took the hymn up, and then the two reserve gunners who were standing by, and then the gunners on the starboard side, and I caught the old words of—

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me
Over life's tempestuous sea;
Unknown waves before me roll,
Hiding rock and treacherous shoal.

For Women's Ailments

Dr. Martel's Female Pills have been ordered by physicians and sold by reliable Druggists everywhere for over a quarter of a century, don't accept a substitute.

Combined Effort.

The great artist who paints a picture which compels the admiration of the world does not do so with one sweep of the brush in one moment of inspiration. The great masterpiece is the product of thousands of strokes of the brush, of infinitesimal bits of pigment put on the canvas layer after layer, each done with consummate art. Every tiny bit of paint, every swift stroke does its tiny part toward what becomes at last a marvel of ages. So must we work, stroke by stroke, a bit here and a bit there, until our masterpiece has been completed.

Of Deep Historic Interest.

When Jacob died in Egypt "Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed Israel." This passage from Genesis has now an additional interest. If the body of Jacob was embalmed in the Egyptian manner, it might now, when Hebron (with the cave Machpelah, where Jacob was buried) is in British hands, be found possibly with Joseph's inscriptions.

Make the Most of Pleasure.

Few young people make as much of their youth as they should. For many years the standards of enjoyment have been undergoing a change and there is a tendency to think that we cannot have a good time that does not cost money. A girl's education is far from complete till she has learned to enjoy herself simply and without any money expense.
