The Apostolic Delegate.

The programme in connection with the visit of the Apostolic Delegate, as outlined in our last issue has been substantially carried out. The address, presented to his Excellency in the Cathedral on the night of his arrival, and that presented by the C. M. R. A. in the Palace on Friday evening, follow herewith.

The address of the clergy, read by R. V. Dr. Morrison is as follows:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, THE MOST REVEREND DONATUS SHARRETT, D. D., ARCHBISHOP OF EPHEBUS, APOSTOLIC DELEGATE

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY.—We, the Clergy of the Diocese of Charlottetown, respectfully desire to express to Your Excellency, the happiness it affords us to welcome you to our Island Province. Your presence here shows not only the praise worthy interest you personally take in the spiritual welfare of this portion of the Lord's Vineyard, but also the earnest and providential zeal of the Supreme Pontiff of God's Holy Church, in having you come to us as his rightly honored Apostolic Delegate.

In your worthy person we are happy to recognize one who has rightly merited the personal confidence of our Holy Father, and in the sacred character of your high office we reverence the authority committed to you by the Vicar of Christ, and therefore do we welcome Your Excellency, not only on the grounds of personal esteem, but also, and in a special manner, by reason of your exalted position as the official representative of the Supreme Head of the Church, fulfilling the sacred mandate of our Divine Saviour to carry the glad tidings of salvation to all mankind.

It affords us much pleasure to be able to assure Your Excellency that in earnest and devoted attachment to the Holy See has ever been a prominent characteristic of the Catholics of this Province. A member of the household of the Faith we are happy to regard our Holy Father in his true character as the Vicar of Christ upon earth, and as the successor of the Prince of the Apostles, to whom Christ committed the keys of His Kingdom; and in that same sacred membership we honour him as the divinely appointed chief pastor and pontiff of the Catholic and Apostolic Church.

We are not unmindful of the paramount duties of religion as taught by our Divine Lord, and we justly appreciate the never-failing fidelity with which the Church has infallibly preserved the sacred teachings of her Divine Founder. In the religion of Christ we realize the divinely established medium by which we are taught to believe and practise the sacred Code of Divine Revelation, and, under Divine appointment, the great agency for the regeneration, uplifting and ultimate salvation of mankind. The religion of Christ we regard as the great force that gives permanent stability to the best features of human character, that imparts to us the true concept of our obligations to God, and of man's duty to man; that makes us loyal members of God's Holy Church, and faithful children of our Holy Father, and, furthermore, we feel assured that it is only in the faithful and conscientious acquittal of these sacred duties that we may find the best and highest motives for being true and loyal citizens of our own country.

Your Excellency's presence here this evening is indeed an abundant source of sincere and genuine encouragement to us all, and we assure you that your kindness in having visited us on the present occasion merits our most grateful appreciation. We trust that this, your first visit to Prince Edward Island, may be one of pleasure to Your Excellency, and that the memory of it may ever be identified with some of your happiest recollections.

In conclusion we respectfully ask Your Excellency to convey to the Holy Father the sincere expression of our earnest devotion to his revered person and to the Holy See, and to impart to us all the Apostolic Benediction.

His Worship Mayor Kelly read the following address on behalf of the laity:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, THE MOST REVEREND DONATUS SHARRETT, D. D., ARCHBISHOP OF EPHEBUS, APOSTOLIC DELEGATE:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY.—The Catholics of Charlottetown have the greatest pleasure in offering to you on your arrival among them, the most sincere expression of welcome and respect. In doing so, we readily appreciate the honor which your Excellency's visit confers upon us. We are deeply grateful for the opportunity to express our high esteem for such an illustrious visitor, about whom we have heard nothing but words of praise and veneration. Of itself, this would be more than a sufficient reason for our extending to you a most cordial welcome. But it is in your capacity of Apostolic Delegate, as the personal representative of the Supreme Pontiff of the Church,—that we realize in its full measure the exceptional privilege we enjoy in addressing Your Excellency on the present occasion.

You come to us, a messenger sent by the Holy Father, to console and exhort us, and to render manifold to all that, although surrounded with difficulties on all sides, he is still mindful of those of the household of faith who dwell far away from the centre of unity.

As brother members of the Apostolic Church we are happy to convey to your Excellency the deep-felt attachment we feel for the Holy See, and of the genuine respect and filial devotion with which we regard the Vicar of Christ; and were it possible to intensify our feelings in this regard, one of the strongest motives to such a step would be the presence of your august person as his personal representative in this country.

Our earnest ambition, under God's directing assistance, is to cherish with all our heart the sacred teachings which our Divine Saviour promised for the salvation of the world, and to be found ever worthy members of His Church. Living, as we are, in a world of great material activity, we are thankful to be able to recognize that religion is the first and most powerful safeguard of public righteousness and private morality; that it is only the teachings of religion that can raise man's mind to the true ideal of selflessness; and that through its sacred influences must we look for that sure guidance which leads to the permanent prosperity of nations and the unalloyed happiness of mankind.

As members of the Catholic Church, and as citizens of our country, we are pleased beyond measure to have you honour us with your presence, and we hope that your visit may be one of personal pleasure to Your Excellency.

Permit us, in conclusion, to request Your Excellency to carry to his Holiness the warmest expressions of our love and obedience,—pledges which we earnestly solicit Your Excellency to seal, by imparting to us the Papal benediction.

The Apostolic delegate in reply said that he was highly gratified by the magnificent demonstration. While he was thankful to them for their kind allusion to his humble person, what was more touching, and for which he was more grateful was their protestation of loyalty and attachment to the Holy See. Before the majesty of the great institution of our Divine Lord, the Church, all inequalities of persons, whatever they may be, disappear. We can never sufficiently estimate the great grace given unto us by Almighty God of belonging to the mystical body of Jesus Christ. Every moment of our lives, we must feel grateful to God for it and be legitimately proud of marching under the banner of the Catholic Church.

The condition of the Church in this country, thanks be to God, is much better than in many other countries, especially in the old world. Here she can exercise her beneficent influence untrammelled by alien interference. Here too she enjoys the respect and admiration of those honest-minded persons who in creed differ from us. No score, no tyranny, no persecution. We are in a condition that we can fittingly show to others by our words, and especially by our actions, how sublime and how holy are the doctrines of the Catholic Church. It is in consequence the strict duty of each one of us to take advantage of this condition not only for our sanctification or perfection, but also for the advancement of the Church itself.

The following address from the C. M. R. A., was presented in the Palace on Friday evening. It was read by Mr. James McIsaac, Grand Deputy:

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE MOST REVEREND DONATUS SHARRETT, D. D., ARCHBISHOP OF EPHEBUS, APOSTOLIC DELEGATE.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY.—We, the members of Branch No. 216 of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada, take advantage of the opportunity afforded by your Excellency's presence in our midst to tender you a cordial greeting and to testify our homage and respect to your person and office.

Your Excellency's distinguished career and the many important ecclesiastical offices you have filled with such eminent success, are of themselves sufficient to elicit our highest admiration. But coming to us as the direct official representative of his Holiness, Pope Pius X., now gloriously reigning, your Excellency has a double claim on our Catholic loyalty and devotion.

Our city is not so blue as that of your native Italy; our decorations are less gorgeous than those which graced you in the fields of the Antilles; and the ceremonial of our religious functions is possibly less elaborate than that to which your Excellency has been accustomed in Rome, at Washington, and at Ottawa; but we have a fair land, and our people yield to none in their sincere devotion and unwavering loyalty to their Ecclesiastical Superiors, and through them to the Great White Shepherd of Christendom.

The Popes have at all times been the great patrons of Catholic societies. This is particularly true of his late Holiness Leo XIII., of happy memory, whose elevation to the chair of St. Peter almost synchronized with the institution of our Association, and of the illustrious Pontiff whom your Excellency so worthily represents.

Our Association is a Catholic Fraternal Insurance Society embracing the best features of older organizations of a kindred nature and especially adapted to the conditions of our time. It affords to its members life insurance at the lowest possible cost consistent with absolute financial security. It encourages Christian union and mutual protection, and strives to educate its members and those dependent on them in piety, integrity and frugality.

The growth of our Association has been rapid as well as substantial, and it has received the encouragement and approbation of the Clergy and Hierarchy in every diocese of our wide Dominion. Among its members are to be found, not only representatives of all classes of the laity, but many of the Bishops and Clergy. In this diocese we have made solid progress under the fostering care and encouragement of our devoted priests and especially of our esteemed and revered Bishop, whose interest in the Association is deep and constant.

On behalf of our noble Association we extend to your Excellency a most hearty welcome to our Province. Though our enthusiasm may be less demonstrative than that of the warm-hearted Latin races, we beg to assure you that it is none the less deep.

That the greatest possible success may attend your Excellency in all the important undertakings incident to your exalted office is our earnest prayer, and we trust that in the designs of Providence still greater dignities may be in store for you.

In conclusion we beg that your Excellency would be pleased to convey to the Holy Father the sentiments of our profound love for and devotion to the Holy See and its illustrious occupant, and ask him to specially bless the good work in which we are engaged.

Signed at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, on the 22nd day of July, A. D., 1904, on behalf of Branch 216 by the following Committee:

The Representation Case.

London advice of the 22nd inst., informs us that the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council has decided against this Province in the appeal against the reduction of our representation in the House of Commons.

When the case was resumed yesterday morning Mr. Aylesworth on behalf of P. E. I., spoke two hours and a half, and was followed by Mr. Fagley who spoke for an hour and a half. Mr. Aylesworth advanced a new line of argument on the interpretation of section 51 of the British North America Act, contending that no reduction of the number of members could take place until there had been a readjustment in the number of members.

Our readers will observe that the Lord Lords of the Privy Council considered the case made out by the Council for Prince Edward Island so very weak that it did not require to be answered on the part of the Dominion. Where were Mr. Peters and Mr. Williams? How is it they were not heard from? During the last Session of the Legislature Mr. Peters assured the Assembly and the public that he had made out a case that would be absolutely unanswerable when presented to the Privy Council.

Our readers will observe that the Lord Lords of the Privy Council considered the case made out by the Council for Prince Edward Island so very weak that it did not require to be answered on the part of the Dominion. Where were Mr. Peters and Mr. Williams? How is it they were not heard from? During the last Session of the Legislature Mr. Peters assured the Assembly and the public that he had made out a case that would be absolutely unanswerable when presented to the Privy Council.

"I dreamed over the case; I worked at it again, and I found the point which is absolutely unanswerable."

"I will not speak as loud as I am going to-night. I will impress upon their Lordships of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council what our claim is; and I am happy to say that the Dominion of Canada and this Province have their rights before that Court."

When Mr. Peters was making these very emphatic declarations he either believed what he said, or he did not. If he believed these declarations, he should have placed himself on record before the Privy Council and convinced the members of that body of his "unanswerable" argument, as Mr. Aylesworth had failed to do so.

Mr. FISHER STILL MENDING. Mr. Sydney Fisher is still mending in the affairs of the Militia department. At the Lacapereau camp where the 12th Scottish were drilled, officers appointed at the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture brought disgrace on the battalion. One, who has recorded against him a charge of perjury, came into camp with a black eye. Another was a short time ago fined for assault on an old man. A third time rode into camp with a sword on either side of his horse and his uniform in a disgraceful condition.

charges made by Lord DUNDONALD. Those men who brought disgrace on his Majesty's uniform are the political enemies of Mr. Fisher. He had them appointed for political reasons and their presence in officer's uniforms was responsible for the rejection of men who are a credit to the country, and the resentment of Lord DUNDONALD. Canada has had about enough of Mr. Fisher and his soldiers.

Our Ottawa Letter

"It is for the people to decide. Let them determine whether Canada shall have a Government owned railway or a railway owned Government." Mr. R. L. Borden, announcing the Conservative policy of Government railway ownership.

THE WEEK IN PARLIAMENT

Mr. Sifton's estimates were on the carpet in Parliament during the week. It was shown that the Minister had permitted the illegal transfer of $150,000 acres of public lands of the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company, out of which thousands of dollars have been made by the concessionaries.

Mr. Sifton's immigration policy was also exposed. It has resulted in the immigration of many undesirable settlers, who are a menace to the health of the country and the cause of much crime. The action of Hon. R. Lemieux in discussing the preferential tariff in England, and condemning the policy of Mr. Chamberlain at a meeting violently partisan in its complexion was criticized. So also were the denunciations of Lord DUNDONALD by Mr. Lemieux and Chief Justice Taschereau. The Government made a half-hearted apology for their benches.

A vote of censure on Mr. Fisher was moved, regretting his course in publishing statistics in his annual report which the report of the Auditor General shows were false. Mr. Fisher represented that the experimental farms had cost the country $84,128 during the fiscal year 1903. The Auditor General places the cost at $108,873, or a difference of $19,146 against Mr. Fisher.

Another vote of censure was directed against the Government for the scandalous manner in which they allow cheese to be weighed at Montreal, to the disadvantage of the farmers. The motion was defeated by the reduced majority of 29, the vote standing 76 to 46.

A motion by the opposition to increase the protection on tobacco, and further encourage that industry was defeated on a party vote division by a majority of 31.

The leader of the opposition made a strong plea for the protection of the Atlantic fisheries by the destruction of the dogfish pest.

Mr. FISHER STILL MENDING. Mr. Sydney Fisher is still mending in the affairs of the Militia department. At the Lacapereau camp where the 12th Scottish were drilled, officers appointed at the recommendation of the Minister of Agriculture brought disgrace on the battalion.

Lord DUNDONALD TO LEAVE. Lord DUNDONALD, the ablest leader the Canadian Militia forces have ever had, is shortly to leave Canada. He goes because he is an honest man and refused to close his eyes to the fact that the money of this country is being squandered for political purposes, under the cloak of the Militia Department.

THOUSANDS FOR THE FAITHFUL. These are great days at Ottawa for the Greeks. They are to be seen in clouds about Parliament Hill and they are on to the ropes, there is an onset of their hating without a slight rest. Take the case of the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company. One of its directors, Mr. Adamson, is the Liberal candidate in Humboldt. Another party who is alleged to be closely connected with the company, Mr. Turin, is running in a second Western riding. That brings the matter pretty nearly home to the Liberal ranks.

FORGEBENERS HAD TO GO.

In answer to a question in the House of Commons, Sir William Mallock announced that the following American engineers employed on the Grand Trunk Pacific are to be deported as aliens: Cassius C. Van Arsdale, division engineer; Edward R. McNeill, district engineer; Walter Hut Colladay, assistant engineer; Thomas C. Taylor, assistant engineer; Charles F. Gailor, assistant engineer; James H. Bacon, harbor engineer; Edward McD. Mellon, chief clerk; Walter R. Anderson, topographer; Peter Talbot, topographer; Herman Mark Goodman, draftsman; Sherman Hard Mason, draftsman; Amos A. Meador, draftsman; John C. Baxter, transitman; Frederick W. Park, transitman; Luther Collins Gunn, transitman; John A. Green, leveler; Frederick O. Parsons, leveler; Stanley Mayo, rodmans.

THE SCOTTISH GATHERING.

The Annual Scottish Games, under the auspices of the Caledonian Club, held at Summerside, on Wednesday last were very largely attended and the finest weather was enjoyed. Shortly before 9 o'clock the members of the Caledonian Club, in plaid and bonnet, and the Boys Highland Brigade, preceded by Pipes and Band, marched from the clubrooms here to the railway station where they boarded the special train for Summerside. A few minutes before reaching the station there was a heavy shower of rain, but this scarcely dampened the ardor of the marching Caledonians.

THE INDEPENDENT ABROAD.

If the story told by Hon. Clifford Sifton of the sale of lands to the Saskatchewan Valley Company is correct, the sooner he said his deputy see retired to a sphere where they can do less harm, the better it will be for Canada. Under the terms of the transfer, the Company agreed to take over 250,000 acres of land at $2 per acre. There was about it, however, that the company undertook to create titles of each township, before the sale of the lands should take place. A year ago, Mr. Sifton expressed the opinion that the company would not be able to live up to its obligations. That meant that they would not give a title to their holdings. Last December, notwithstanding what the minister had said, patents for 15,000 acres were granted. The company had not met the terms imposed on it by the Government. In some mysterious way, however, they were able to land the goods. In the Commons, the minister was unable to say how the deal was pushed through. His deputy was just as ignorant as he. Were these gentlemen to concern themselves with a mere matter of 150,000 acres of public lands? Parish the thought Mr. Sifton is making money these days and perhaps he may not be long in politics. Before he came to Ottawa he was encountered with embarrassing judgments. These have disappeared in the scandalous manner in which they allow cheese to be weighed at Montreal, to the disadvantage of the farmers. The motion was defeated by the reduced majority of 29, the vote standing 76 to 46.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

About 12 o'clock on Sunday night the 17th lot, a man named Thomas Clonick, living at Chagnoville, Charlottetown, N. B., went to the house of a man named Deberry's father, one of the owners of the house, about seven or eight miles from Chagnoville, entered and commenced shooting with a revolver. There had been bad blood between the parties in consequence of family quarrels and complications of a domestic nature. William Deberry, one of the men who shot dead, and the father, another son and daughter were wounded. Clonick then set fire to the house and made his escape. He is said to have fastened the doors, so as to prevent the escape of any of the inmates. The wounded ones and all others in the house, except William, who was shot dead, escaped. The body of the wounded man was found in the front yard. All had been in bed when the fire broke out. On Monday morning the officers of the law commenced a search for Clonick. They came upon him and he, finding himself powerless to escape, turned his revolver upon himself inflicting a severe, but not fatal wound in the head. He was taken into custody and his preliminary examination was set down for Monday of this week.
