The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library,
University of Toronto Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library,
University of Toronto Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

DIRECTIONS TO STUDENTS.

Admission of Students to the Law Society of Upper Canada takes place twice a year, namely, in Easter Term, which commences on the third Monday in May, and in Trinity Term, which commences on the second Monday in September.

The applicant for admission must be either :

(1) A graduate in the Faculty of Arts in any University in Her Majesty's Dominions empowered to grant such degree.

(2) A graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston.

In both of which cases he may be admitted as a student of the Graduate Class and is bound to serve for three years.

(3) A student of any University in the Province of Ontario who shall present a certificate of having passed within four years of his application, an examination in the subjects specified in Schedule A. (Appendix.)

(4) A cadet of the Royal Military College, Kingston, who, in entering that College has passed in both the Obligatory and Voluntary examinations held for entrance, and who has also taken the course in the College for one year and passed the examination at the end of the year.

In both of which latter cases, he is entered as a student of the Matriculant Class and is bound to serve for five years.

The applicant should at least four weeks before either of the Terms of the Society above mentioned, cause to be left with the Secretary of the Law Society at his office at Osgoode Hall, a notice signed by a Bencher of the Society, stating his intention to enter. A fee of one dollar must be paid with this notice. This notice should be given, although the applicant has not at the time passed the qualifying examination. The blank form of notice and all other forms may be obtained beforehand from the Secretary upon application to him.

If the results of the qualifying examination are to be announced in May or June, notice should be given for Easter Term. If they are to be announced in July or August, notice should be given for Trinity Term. When the result is not to be announced until after Trinity Term, for instance in October, notice for Trinity Term should, nevertheless, be given, and upon special application the matter will be disposed of at the meeting of the Benchers in the November or Michaelmas Term, when, if admission is allowed, the student will be considered as being admitted as of Trinity Term. The Benchers of the Society, however, reserve a discretion in dealing with such cases, and all students who take this course, must send in to the Secretary before Trinity Term arrives, a special petition, praying that they may be admitted as of Trinity Term upon proof of their having passed the requisite examination.

As soon as the applicant has heard the result of his examination, and is able to get his certificate or diploma, he should sign and send to the Secretary a petition for admission, and a notice signed by a Barrister, on forms which can be obtained beforehand from the Secretary.

ARTICLES OF CLERKSHIP.

Every applicant should article himself to a solicitor on forms which will be supplied by the Secretary, and if these articles are entered into some day prior to the first day of the Term in which the student is entered, his service will date from such first day of term. Students are informed that their time does not begin to run until they are articulated.

The articles of clerkship should be filed within three months after date with the Registrar of the Common Pleas Division at Osgoode Hall. Students are advised to file them without delay. If not filed within the above period the time of service will only count from the date of filing, unless otherwise ordered upon special application to Convocation.

The same rule applies to any assignment of the articles which may be made during the period of service.

Any student who has not completed his application for admission, but who desires in anticipation of his being duly admitted, to attend the Law School in the meantime, may, on satisfying the Secretary that he is duly articulated, pay his fees for Law School tuition and attend the lectures forthwith.

ADMISSION OF WOMEN.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the Legislature, 55 Vict. ch. 32 (Ont.), women may be admitted to practise as solicitors, upon compliance with the Rules framed by the Society, which took effect upon the last day of Hilary Term, 1893.

ATTENDANCE AT THE LAW SCHOOL.

This School was established on its present basis by the Law Society of Upper Canada in 1889, under the provisions of rules passed by the Society in the exercise of its statutory powers. It is conducted under the immediate supervision of the Legal Education Committee of the Society, subject to the control of the Benchers of the Society in Convocation assembled.

Its purpose is to secure as far as possible the possession of a thorough legal education by all those who enter upon the practice of the legal profession in the Province. To this end, with certain exceptions in the cases of students who had begun their studies prior to its establishment, attendance at the School, in some cases during two, and in others during three terms or sessions is made compulsory upon all who desire to be admitted to the practice of the Law.

The course in the School is a three years' course. The term or session commences on the fourth Monday in September, and ends on the first Monday in May, with a vacation commencing on the Saturday before Christmas and ending on the Saturday after New Year's day.

Admission to the Law Society is ordinarily a condition precedent to attendance at the Law School. Every Student-at-Law and Articled Clerk before being allowed to enter the School must present to the Principal a certificate of the Secretary of the Law Society, shewing that he has been duly admitted upon the books of the Society and that he has paid the prescribed fee for the term.

Students, however, residing elsewhere, and desirous of attending the lectures of the School, but not of qualifying themselves to practise in Ontario, are allowed upon payment of the usual fee to attend the lectures without admission to the Law Society.

Attendance at the School is compulsory on all students and clerks except in a few special instances provided for by the Rules.

The student is required to pass three examinations in the Law School at Osgoode Hall on the subjects prescribed by the Law School Curriculum as set out in Appendix (B).

A graduate is required to take one examination in each year of his service. A matriculant may take his first Examination in either the first, second, or third year of his service, his second examination in either the second, third, or fourth year of his service; but his third year examination must be taken during or after the fifth year of his service.

A student or clerk who is required to attend the School during one term only, must attend during that term which ends in the last year of his period of attendance in a barrister's chambers or service under articles, and may present himself for his final examination at the close of such term, although his period of attendance in chambers or service under articles may not have expired.

A student or clerk, not being a graduate, who is required to attend, or who chooses to attend the first year's lectures in the school may do so, at his own option, either in the first, second, or third year of his attendance in chambers or service under articles, and may present himself for the first year examination at the close of the term in which he attends such lectures; and a student who is not required to attend and does not attend the first year's lectures, may present himself for the first year's examination at the close of the School Term, in the first, second, or third year of his attendance in chambers or service under articles.

Under Rules 156 (b) to 156 (h) inclusive, a student or clerk, not being a graduate, and having first duly passed the first year examination, may attend the second year's lectures either in the second, third, or fourth year of his attendance in chambers, or service under articles, and present himself for the second year examination at the close of the term, in which he shall have attended such lectures. He will also be allowed, by a written election, to divide his attendance upon the second year's lectures between the second and third, or between the third and fourth years, and his attendance upon the third year's lectures between the fourth and fifth years of his attendance in chambers, or service under articles, making such a division as in the opinion of the Principal, reasonably approaches an equal one between the two years, and paying only one fee for the full year's course of lectures. The attendance, however, upon one year's course of lectures, cannot be commenced until after the examination of the preceding year has been duly passed; and a student or clerk cannot present himself for the examination of any year until he has completed his attendance on the lectures of that year.

The course during each term embraces lectures, recitations, discussions and other oral methods of instruction, and the holding of moot courts under the supervision of the Principal and Lecturers.

Moot courts are held for the students of the second and third years respectively, on such Fridays as may be appointed by the Principal. They are presided over by the Principal or a Lecturer, who states the case to be argued, and appoints two students on each side to argue it, of which notice is given, and printed copies of the case distributed, one week before the day for argument. The decision is pronounced at the close of the argument or at the next moot court.

Two lectures (one hour) daily in each year of the course are delivered on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of each week. Printed schedules shewing the days and hours of all the lectures are distributed among the students at the commencement of the term.

At each lecture and moot court the attendance of students is carefully noted, and a record thereof kept.

At the close of each term, the Principal certifies to the Legal Education Committee the names of those students who appear by the record to have duly attended the lectures of that term. No student is to be certified as having duly attended the lectures, unless he has attended at least five-sixths of the aggregate number of lectures, and at least four-fifths of the number of lectures of each series, delivered during the term and pertaining to his year. If any student who has failed to attend the required number of lectures, satisfies the Principal that such failure has been due to illness or other good cause, the Principal makes a special report upon the matter to the Legal Education Committee. The word "lectures" in this connection includes moot courts.

During his attendance in the School, the student is recommended and encouraged to devote the time not occupied in attendance upon lectures, recitations, discussions or moot courts, in the reading and study of the books and subjects prescribed for or dealt with in the course upon which he is in attendance. As far as practicable students will be provided with room and the use of books for this purpose.

The fee for attendance for each term of the course, is $25, payable in advance to the Sub-Treasurer, who is also the Secretary of the Law Society.

The Rules which should be read for information in regard to attendance at the Law School, are Rules 154 to 167 both inclusive.

MAINTENANCE OF DISCIPLINE AND GOOD ORDER IN THE LAW SCHOOL.

The following regulations have been made on this subject.—

1. No student or clerk shall be deemed to have duly attended the lectures of the Law School in any term unless his conduct at lectures or in the School shall, upon the whole, have been good; and, if at the end of any term it shall appear to the Principal that the conduct of any student or clerk at lectures or in the School during such term, has not upon the whole been good, he shall not certify to the attendance of such student or clerk, as in the cases of other students and clerks, but shall report to the Legal Education Committee the facts relating to the attendance and to the conduct of such student or clerk to be dealt with by said Committee.

2. In any case of misconduct on the part of any student or clerk at any lecture, the Principal, whether such misconduct shall have come under his own observation, or shall have been reported to him by a Lecturer, shall have power to disallow the attendance of such student or clerk at the lecture at which he shall have so misconducted himself, and to mark him absent therefrom upon the roll; and, if by reason of such disallowance, it shall appear at the end of the term that such student or clerk has failed to attend the required proportion of the lectures upon which he was in attendance, the Principal shall report to the Legal Education Committee the fact of the said disallowance and the reasons therefor to be dealt with by said Committee.

3. In any case of misconduct at lecture or in the School on the part of any student or clerk, the Principal, if in his discretion he considers the offence sufficiently serious to call for such action, shall have power, whether such misconduct shall have come under his own observation or shall have been reported to him by a Lecturer, to suspend such student or clerk from further attendance at the School, until such time as the Legal Education Committee shall make some order in the matter; and immediately on such suspension taking place, the Principal shall report the same and the reasons therefor in writing to the Chairman of the Legal Education Committee, in order that the matter may be dealt with by the Committee.

EXAMINATIONS.

Every applicant for admission to the Law Society, if not a graduate, must have passed an examination according to the curriculum prescribed by the Society, and hereinafter printed under the designation of "The Matriculation Curriculum." This examination is not held by the Society. The applicant must have passed some duly authorized examination, and have been enrolled as a matriculant of some University in Ontario, before he can be admitted to the Law Society.

The three law examinations which every student and clerk must pass after his admission, viz., first intermediate, second intermediate and final examinations, must be passed at the Law School Examinations under the Law School Curriculum hereinafter printed, the first intermediate examination being passed at the close of the first, the second intermediate examination at the close of the second, and the final examination at the close of the third year of the School course respectively.

The percentage of marks which must be obtained in order to pass an examination of the Law School is fifty-five per cent. of the aggregate number of marks obtainable, and twenty-nine per cent. of the marks obtainable upon each paper.

Examinations are also held in the week commencing with the first Monday in September, for those who were not entitled to present themselves for the earlier examination, or who, having presented themselves, failed in whole or in part.

Students, whose attendance upon lectures has been allowed as sufficient, and who have failed at the Spring examinations, may present themselves at the September examinations, either in all the subjects or in those subjects, only in which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable in such subjects. Those entitled, and desiring to present themselves at the September examination, must give notice in writing to the Secretary of the Law Society, at least two weeks prior to the time of such examinations, of their intention to present themselves, stating whether they intend to do so in all the subjects, or in those only in which they failed to obtain fifty-five per cent. of the marks obtainable, mentioning the names of such subjects.

The time for holding the examinations at the close of the term of the Law School in any year, may be varied from time to time by the Legal Education Committee, as occasion may require.

On the subject of examinations, reference may be made to Rules 168 to 174 inclusive, and to the Act R. S. O. (1887), ch. 147, secs. 7 to 10 inclusive.

HONOURS, SCHOLARSHIPS AND MEDALS.

The Law School examinations at the close of the term, include examinations for Honours in all the three years of the School course. Scholarships are offered for competition in connection with the first and second years' examinations, and medals in connection with the final examination.

In order to be entitled to present themselves for examination for Honours, candidates must obtain at least three-fourths of the whole number of marks obtainable on the papers, and one-third of the marks obtainable on the paper on each subject, at the Pass examination. In order to be passed with Honours, candidates must obtain at least three-fourths of the aggregate marks obtainable on the papers in both the Pass and Honour examinations; and at least one-half of the aggregate marks obtainable on the papers in each subject on both examinations.

The Scholarships offered at the Law School Examinations are the following :—

Of the candidates passed with Honours at each of the first and second years' examinations, the first is entitled to a scholarship of $100; the second to one of $60; and the next five to one of $40 each, and each scholar receives a diploma certifying to the fact.

The medals offered at the final examination in the Law School, are the following :—

Of the persons called with Honours, the first three are entitled to medals on the following conditions :—

The first, if he has passed both intermediate examinations with Honours, to a gold medal, otherwise to a silver medal.

The second, if he has passed both intermediate examinations with Honours, to a silver medal, otherwise to a bronze medal.

The third, if he has passed both intermediate examinations with Honours, to a bronze medal.

The diploma of each medallist certifies to his being such medallist.

The Rules relating to Honours, Scholarships and Medals, are 196 to 205 inclusive.

PHILLIPS-STEWART LIBRARY.

On the 2nd February, 1892, Mr. T. B. Phillips-Stewart, a member of the Law Society, bequeathed his estate to it, and directed that the annual income should be expended by a Committee of Benchers in the purchase of law books for the Law School.

Under this bequest the sum of $7,099.65 was subsequently paid to the Law Society, and under a resolution of Convocation the income of the fund and a sum in addition equal to this income is annually expended in the purchase of students' books. This Library now comprises a number of duplicate copies of the text books on the Law School course. A reading room with suitable attendance is maintained in the Law School building for the use of students, and text books are lent out to students subject to rules governing the length of time books may be retained and the care to be observed in using them.

CALL TO THE BAR AND ADMISSION AS SOLICITOR.

Call to the Bar, and admission as Solicitor, are regulated by Rules 175 to 196 inclusive, and by the Acts R. S. O. (1887), ch. 146, and ch. 147, respectively.

Call and admission in special cases are provided for by Rules 206 to 213 (E.) inclusive, and by the Act 54 Vict. ch. 25.

The notice required by Rule 176, to be given on or before the fourth Monday before Term by candidates for Call to the Bar, is not required to be given by candidates for admission as Solicitor (except in special cases), but both classes of candidates are required to file their papers with the Secretary, and pay their fees on or before the third Saturday before Term; and any candidate failing to do so, will be required to put in a special petition, and pay an additional fee of two dollars.

Candidates are also particularly requested to see before the first day of term that their papers are regular.

Any notice for final examination may be extended once so as to hold good for the next regular examination, provided a request to that effect is made to the Secretary before the day of the examination, for which such notice has been given.

When the term of service of an Articled Clerk expires between the third Saturday before term and the last day of the term, he shall prove his service by affidavit and certificate up to the day on which he makes his affidavit only, and file a supplemental affidavit and certificate with the Secretary on the expiration of his term of service.

FEES.

The fees payable are stated in the resumé of fees contained in Rules 220 to 231 inclusive.

Attention is also drawn to the Rule whereby full fees are payable by students and clerks presenting themselves for the final examination although the period of three or five years, as the case may be, from the time of their admission to the Society may not have expired.

THE MATRICULATION CURRICULUM.

BOOKS AND SUBJECTS [PRESCRIBED FOR THE EXAMINATIONS.

To be passed by persons, not being graduates, in order to qualify them for admission to the Society, as Students-at-Law of the matriculant class.

ENGLISH.

1. Composition :—Nothing but an essay will be required ; this shall be dealt with rather as a test of the candidate's power of English composition than as a proof of his knowledge of the subject written upon. Legible writing and correct spelling and punctuation will be regarded as indispensable and special attention will be paid to the structure of sentences and paragraphs. The examiner will allow a choice of subjects, some of which must be based on the following selections, with which the candidate is expected to familiarize himself by careful reading :—

SCOTT, Kenilworth.

GOLDWIN SMITH, Cowper (English Men of Letters Series).

2. Grammar and Rhetoric :—The examination will be chiefly on passages not prescribed. A liberal choice of questions will be allowed to the candidate.
3. Poetical Literature :—Intelligent comprehension of and familiarity with the prescribed texts will be required :—

TENNYSON : Recollections of the Arabian Nights, The Poet, The Lady of Shalott, The Lotus-Eaters, Morte D'Arthur, The Day-Dream, The Brook, The Voyage, The Holy Grail.

1896-1898.

1. Composition:—An essay, to which special importance will be attached, on one of several themes set by the examiners. In order to pass in this subject, legible writing, correct spelling and punctuation, and proper construction of sentences are indispensable.
2. English Grammar and Rhetoric:—The main facts in the development of the language. Etymology and Syntax, including the inflection, classification and elementary analysis of words, and the logical structure of the sentence. Rhetorical structure of the sentence and paragraph. As far as possible the questions shall be based on passages from authors not prescribed.
3. Literature:—Such questions only shall be set as may serve to test the candidate's familiarity with, and intelligent and appreciative comprehension of, the prescribed texts. The candidate will be expected to have memorized some of the finest passages, and to have read carefully both prose and poetry outside of the specified work. In addition to questions on the following selections, others shall be set on a "sight passage" to test the candidate's ability to interpret literature for himself:—

COLERIDGE: The Ancient Mariner.

LONGFELLOW: Evangeline, A Gleam of Sunshine, The Day is Done, The Old Clock on the Stairs, The Fire of Driftwood, Resignation, The Ladder of St. Augustine, A Psalm of Life, The Builders, The Warden of the Cinque Ports.

The following selections from Palgrave's Golden Treasury:—

1896. WORDSWORTH: The Education of Nature, A Lesson, To the Skylark, To the Daisy, and the following Sonnets: To a Distant Friend, "O Friend! I know not which way I must look," "Milton! Thou shouldst be living at this hour," To Sleep, Within King's College Chapel.

CAMPBELL: "Ye Mariners of England," Battle of the Baltic, Hohenlinden, The River of Life.

COLERIDGE: Youth and Age.

GOLDSMITH: The Traveller, The Deserted Village.

BYRON: Fourth Canto of Childe Harold.

The following selections from Palgrave's Golden Treasury:—

1897. WORDSWORTH: "She was a Phantom of Delight," The Green Linnet, To the Cuckoo, and the following Sonnets: England and Switzerland, Upon Westminster Bridge, The Inner Vision.

KEATS: Ode to Autumn, Ode to a Nightingale, and the following Sonnets: On Chapman's Homer, The Terror of Death, The Human Seasons.

SHELLEY: Ozymandias, To a Skylark, The Recollection.

SCOTT: The Outlaw, Jock o' Hazeldean, The Rover, Rosabella.

1898. { TENNYSON: Morte D'Arthu, Elaine, Recollections of the Arabian Nights, To Virgil, Early Spring, Ulysses, "You Ask Me Why," "Of Old Sat Freedom," "Love Thou Thy Land," Freedom, Enone, The Lotos-Eaters, Crossing the Bar, Lady of Shalott, St. Agnes Eve, Sir Galahad, the six interlude songs in the Princess, and "Tears, Idle Tears."
 The following selections from Palgrave's Golden Treasury:—
 GRAY: Ode on Vicissitude, Ode on the Spring, Elegy written in a Country Churchyard, Ode on Eton College.
 COWPER: Sonnet to Mary Unwin, To The Same, The Cast-away, The Poplar Field, The Shrubbery.

1896-1898.

Translation into English of passages from prescribed texts.

Translation at sight, with the aid of vocabularies, of passages from some easy prose author, to which special importance will be attached. Candidates will be expected to have supplemented the reading of the prescribed texts by additional practice in the translation of Latin.

Grammatical questions on the passages from prescribed texts shall be set, and such other questions as arise naturally from the context.

Translation from English into Latin of sentences and of easy narrative passages based upon the prescribed prose texts.

The following are the prescribed texts:—

1896. { VIRGIL, Æneid, III.
 { CÆSAR, Bellum Gallicum, V., VI.

1897. { VIRGIL, Æneid, III.
 { CÆSAR, Bellum Gallicum, II., III., IV.

1898. { VIRGIL, Æneid, I.
 { CÆSAR, Bellum Gallicum, II., III., IV.

In addition to the above subjects, the candidates must also pass on :—

- In 1895. Greek ; or
 (a) French and German ;
 or (b) French, and either Physics or Chemistry ;
 or (c) German, and either Physics or Chemistry.
- 1896-1898. French or German ;
 and either (1) Greek ;
 or (2) the second Modern Language, with Physical Science (Physics and Chemistry).

GREEK.

1895.

XENOPHON, Anabasis, V.
 HOMER, Iliad, VI.

Translation from English into Greek prose, involving a knowledge of the first fifteen exercises in Abbott's Arnold's Greek Prose Composition.

Translation at sight, with aid of vocabularies, of easy passages from Greek authors.

A paper on Greek grammar.

1896-1898.

Translation into English of passages from prescribed texts.

Translation at sight, with the aid of vocabularies, of easy Attic prose, to which special importance will be attached. Candidates will be expected to have supplemented the reading of the prescribed texts by additional practice in the translation of Greek.

Grammatical questions on the passages from prescribed texts shall be set, and such other questions as arise naturally from the context.

FRENCH.

1895.

Grammar.

Composition :—(a) Translation into French of short English sentences as a test of the candidate's knowledge of grammatical forms and structure, and the formation in French of sentences of similar character ; and (b) translation of easy passages from English into French.

Translation of unspecified passages from easy French authors.

An examination on the following texts :—

SARDOU, La Perle noire (the romance).

DE MAISTRE, Voyage autour de ma chambre.

1896-1898.

The candidate's knowledge of grammar will be tested mainly by questions based upon prose extracts.

The examination in composition will consist of: (a) translation into French of short English sentences as a test of the candidate's knowledge of grammatical forms and structure; (b) formation in French of sentences of similar character; and (c) translation of passages from English into French.

Translation at sight of modern French, to which special importance will be attached. Candidates will be expected to have supplemented the reading of the following texts by additional practice in the translation of French :—

1896. { ÉNAULT, Le Chien du Capitaine.

1898. { FEUILLET, La Fée.

1897. { DE MAISTRE, Voyage autour de ma chambre.
 { LABICHE, La Grammaire.

GERMAN.

1895.

Grammar.

Composition :—(a) Translation into German of short English sentences as a test of the candidate's knowledge of grammatical forms and structure, and the formation in German of sentences of similar character; and (b) translation of easy passages from English into German.

Translation of unspecified passages from easy German authors.

An examination on the following texts :—

RIEHL, Culturgeschichtliche Novellen : Der stumme Ratsher, Der Dachs auf Lichtmess; Der Leibmedicus.

SCHILLER, Der Taucher.

1896-1898.

The candidate's knowledge of grammar will be tested mainly by questions based upon prose extracts.

The examination in composition will consist of: (a) translation into German of short English sentences as a test of the candidate's knowledge of grammatical forms and structure; (b) formation in German of sentences of similar character; and (c) translation of passages from English into German.

Translation at sight of modern German, to which special importance will be attached. Candidates will be expected to have supplemented the reading of the following texts by additional practice in the translation of German:—

1896. { HAUFF, das Kalte Herz; Kalif Storch.

1898. { LEANDER, Träumereien. Selected by Van Daell.

PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY.

1895.

PHYSICS.

An experimental course in (a) Dynamics, (b) Heat, (c) Electricity, including an acquaintance with the Metric system of Units. The courses are defined as follows:—

Dynamics: Definitions of velocity, acceleration, mass, momentum, force, moment, couple, energy, work, centre of inertia; statement of Newton's laws of motion; composition and resolution of forces; conditions for equilibrium of forces in one plane.

Definitions of a fluid, fluid pressure at a point, transmission of fluid pressure, resultant fluid pressure, specific gravity, Boyle's law, the barometer, air pump, water pump, siphon.

Heat: Effects of heat; temperature; diffusion of heat; specific heat; latent heat; law of Charles.

Electricity: Voltaic cells; chemical action in the cell; magnetic effect of the current; chemical effect of the current; galvanometer; voltmeter; Ohm's law; heating effect of the current; electric light; current induction; dynamo and motor; electric bell; telegraph; telephone.

CHEMISTRY.

Definition of the object of the science, relations of the physical sciences to Biology, and of Chemistry to Physics. Chemical change, elementary composition of matter. Laws of combination of the elements, atomic theory, molecules, Avogadro's law. The determination of atomic weight, specific heat, atomic heat, nomenclature, classification. The preparation, characteristic properties, and principal compounds of the following elements: Hydrogen, Chlorine, Bromine, Iodine, Oxygen, Sulphur, Nitrogen, Phosphorus, Carbon, Silicon.

1896-1898.

PHYSICS.

An experimental course defined as follows:—

Metric system of weights and measures. Use of the balance. Phenomena of gravitation. Matter attracts matter. Laws of attraction. Cavendish experiment. Attraction independent of condition. Illustration of weight of gases, liquids, and solids. Specific gravity.

Meaning of the term "a form of matter." All matter may be subjected to transmutation; "Chemistry;" application of measurement by weight (mass) to such transmutation leads to the theory of elements. Matter indestructible.

Meaning of "Force." Various manifestations of force, with illustrations from the phenomena of electricity, magnetism, and heat. Force measured in gravitation units; consequent double meaning of the terms expressing units of weight as mass, and units of weight as force.

Meaning of "Work." Measurement of work in gravitation units. Meaning of "Energy."

Effects of force continuously applied to matter. Laws of matter in motion. Velocity. Acceleration. Statement of Newton's laws of motion. Definition of "Mass." Meaning, value, and application of "g." Mass a measure of matter.

Conservation of energy. Energy, like matter, indestructible and transmutable.

Study of the three states of matter. Properties and laws of gases, liquids, and solids. Laws of diffusion.

Elementary laws of heat. Mechanical equivalent. Latent heat. Specific heat. Calorie.

CHEMISTRY.

An experimental course defined as follows:—

Properties of Hydrogen, Chlorine, Oxygen, Sulphur, Nitrogen, Carbon, and their more important compounds. Nomenclature. Laws of combination of the elements. The Atomic theory and Molecular theory.
