

CIHM/ICMH Microfiche Series.

22

CIHM/ICMH Collection de microfiches.

Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions / Institut canadian de microreproductions historiques

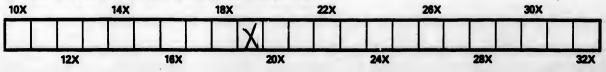

Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below. L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

Coloured covers/ Couverture de couleur		Coloured pages/ Pages de couleur
Covers damaged/ Couverture endommagée		Pages damaged/ Pages endommagées
Covers restored and/or laminated/ Couverture restaurée et/ou pelliculée		Pages restored and/or laminated/ Pages restaurées et/ou pelliculées	1
Cover title missing/ Le titre de couverture manque	$\checkmark$	Pages discoloured, stained or foxed/ Pages décolorées, tachetées ou piquées
Coloured maps/ Cartes géographiques en couleur		Pages detached/ Pages détachées
Coloured ink (i.e. other than blue or black)/ Encre de couleur (i.e. autre que bleue ou noire)	$\checkmark$	Showthrough/ Transparence
Coloured plates and/or illustrations/ Planches et/ou illustrations en couleur		Quality of print varies/ Qualité inégale de l'impression
Bound with other material/ Relié avec d'autres documents		Includes supplementary material/ Comprend du matériei supplémentaire	t r
Tight binding may cause shadows or distortion along interior margin/ Lare liure sarrée peut causer de l'ombre ou de la		Only edition available/ Seule édition disponible distortion le long de la marge intérieure Blank leaves added during restoration may appear within the text. Whenever possible, these have been omitted from filming/ il se peut que certaines pages blanches ajoutées lors d'une restauration apparaissent dans le texte, mais, lorsque cela était possible, ces pages n'ont		Pages wholly or partially obscured by errata slips, tissues, etc., have been refilmed to ensure the best possible image/ Les pages totalement ou partiellement obscurcies par un feuillet d'errata, une pelure, etc., ont été filmées à nouveau de façon à obtenir la meilleure image possible.
pas été filmées. Additional comments:/ Commentaires supplémentaires:
			_

This item is filmed at the reduction ratio checked below/ Ce document est filmé au taux de réduction indiqué ci-dessous.

The to t

The position of the film

> Orig beg the sior othe first sior or il

The sha TIN whi

Maj diff enti beg righ req met The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\longrightarrow$  (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon la cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

1	2	3
4	5	6

errata to pelure, n à tails du odifier une mage

IV. ÷ OBSERVATIONS ON THE PAPERS RELATIVE TO THE RUPTURE with SPAIN. [ Price One Shilling. ]

OBSERVATIONS

ON THE

PAPERS

RELATIVE TO THE

RUPTURE with SPAIN,

LAID BEFORE

Both HOUSES of PARLIAMENT,

On Friday the Twenty-ninth Day of January, 1762,

f

By his MAJESTY's Command.

In a LETTER from a MEMBER of PARLIAMENT, to a FRIEND in the Country.

> Quis feræ Bellum curet Iberiæ? Hor.

LONDON: Printed for W. NICOLL in St. Paul's Church-yard. MDCCLXII. N. B. All the References in this Pamphlet are made to the Quarto Edition of the PAPERS &c. delivered to the Members of both Houfes of Parliament.

ť

. · ·

,

*

10

1

OBSERVATIONS

ON THE

PAPERS

RELATIVE TO THE

RUPTURE with SPAIN.

DEAR SIR,

March 9, 1762.

Much regret that it is not yet in my Power fully to gratify the Curiofity you express of feeing all the Papers relative to the Rupture with Spain. The Subject is fo very interesting, that I am not furprized at your Impatience. My Concern is, that fo much is withheld from the Public, lic, and that a Perfon, uninformed as I am, cannot pretend with Clearnefs to unravel the Thread of a Negociation, defignedly kept intricate and embarraffed. I fear you will find fome Things rather obfcure; but I will endeavour to pour all the Light I can on the Subject, and to diffipate every Cloud of Obfcurity which is meant to cover it. Had the Public been gratified with a Sight of the Memorials and Papers relating to the Demand of Liberty to the Spanish Nation to fish on the Banks of Newfoundland (a Matter held facred *), and * You will again on this Occasion let M. Wall clearly understand, That this is a Matter held facred; and that no Concession on the Part of his Majesty, so destructive to this true and capital Interest of Great-Britain, will be yielded to Spain, however abetted and supported. Mr. Pitt's Letter, p. 3. With regard to the Newfoundland Fishery, M. Wall urged, What had principally given Offence here as to that Article, was my being so frequently ordered to declare, and the Conde de Fuentes having been as often told, that England would never hear of that inadmissible Pretension. Lord Bristol's Letter to the Earl of Egremont, Dec. 6. 1761. p. 53.

The Declaration of the Count de Fuentes, that Mr. Pitt's ordinary and laft Anfwer was, "That he would not relax in any thing, till the Tower of London was taken Sword in Hand," p. 45. is undoubtedly a großs Misrepresentation. That Expression must have been confined to the other Claims, equally unjuft, made by the Count de Fuentes, which were moved for in the Houfe of Commons on the 11th of December laft, we might, with a tolerable Degree of Accuracy, have known fomething more of the Merits of the prefent Quarrel with Spain. Not one of thefe appears, nor have we any Paper or Memorial from Spain (not even that delivered to Lord fined to the Spanish Claim of fifting on the Banks of Newfoundland; for it is apparent from thefe Papers that Mr. Pitt was ready to make greater Concessions to preferve the Friendship of Spain, than any former Minister had ventured to offer ; witness the Paragraph in Lord Briflol's Letter of August 31, p. 8. Lastly, concerning the Difputes about the Coast of Honduras, I could add nothing to the repeated Declarations I had made in the King's Name, of the Satisfaction with which his Majefly would receive any just Overture from Spain (upon Condition that France was not to be the Channel of that Conveyance) for terminating amicably, and to mutual Satisfaction, every reasonable Complaint on this Matter, by proposing some equitable Regulation for securing to us the long-enjoyed Privilege of cutting Logwood (an Indulgence confirmed by Treaty, and of course authorized in the most facred Manner); nor could I give stronger Affurances than the past, of his Majesty's sleady Purpose to cause all Eftablishments on the Logwood Coafts, contrary to the Territorial Jurisdiction of Spain, to be removed.

Briftol

Briftol in January last *), nor any Answer of the Court of England, fince the Accession of his present Catholic Majesty (important as that Period must naturally feem to be) to the laft Autumn. In vain have I wilhed for the famous Memorial which the Court of Spain returned as inadmiffible, that I might have compared it with M. de Buffy's; fince the late Minister publicly declared that was the Precedent he followed with respect to the Memorial of Spanish Affairs given in by France. It is undoubtedly of much Confequence to know both the Matter and Expressions of that Memorial returned by Spain, as it might probably relate to one of the three Points in Negociation, Prizes, Logwood, or the Fishery. In the prefent Collection (which was laid before both Houses of Parliament on the 29th of January, but not printed and delivered to the Members till the 12th of February), there is not a Line previous to the Memorial delivered to Mr. Secretary Pitt, by M. de * Yet when the stile of General Wall's enclosed Paper is compared with that which was given to me last January, I hope it will appear there is less Peevishness at present here than what was so strongly exhibited some Months ago, p. 11.

Bully,

Bully, July 23, 1761; nor is there any Intelligence from Paris, where the Family Comphet of the House of Bourbon was negociated and figned by Grimaldi, and where, it is faid. the Measures to be taken against Portugal were concerted. An EXTRACT of one Letteronly of Mr. Pitt's is inferted, which is dated Fully 28, the Answer to which is received September 11. Not a Syllable after that Period from this Court to Lord Briftol, till the 28th of Ottober, when Lord Egremont declares he opens bis Correspondence; p. 20 *. It is indeed very aftonishing, and gives no great Idea of the Vigilance or Attention of Administration, that while Affairs were fo critical between the two Nations, no Directions for the Conduct of Lord Briftol were fent to Madrid during fo long a Period +. But can it be imagined that fo

. How can this be the Truth, when Lord Briftol writes, November 16, 1761. The Meffenger Ardonin, delivered to me on the 19th Instant, at the Escurial, the Honour of your Lordship's Dispatches of the 28th past, with the feveral Enclosures therein referred to; and by the last Post I RECEIVED YOUR LETTER OF THE 20th OF THE SAME MONTH, in which your Lordship informed me, that all mine to the 21st of September, had been regularly laid. before his Majesty, p. 36. I suppose the Public could not be truited with all that Letter.

+ How is this to be reconciled to the Declaration of fo acute, so well-informed a Minister as Mr. Stanley certainly was, should not transmit from Paris any Intelligence of that most alarming Treaty, which was negociating all the Summer at Paris? It appears, by the Accounts published by the French Court, that the Family Compact was figned at Verfailles the 15th of August, and ratified the 8th of September. Lord TEMPLE, in a great Affembly, did declare that Intelligence of the highest Moment relative to these Matters was transmitted to this Court before the Advice in Writing, dated the 18th of September, which occasioned certain Resignations. Nothing of this kind is published in the Papers relative to the Rupture with Spain, though undoubtedly Intelligence constitutes a most material Part of those Papers. If we have not the Satisfaction of judging for ourfelves from the Whole of a Cafe, I will do the late Minister the Justice to fay, that it cannot be imputed to him. He preffed with honeft Zeal the laying before the Public every Paper relative of Lord Egremont, Mr. Pitt's Succeffor, that the New Ministry will avoid every possible Imputation of Indecision or Indolence, which ignorant Prejudice might suggest? F. 23.

to

to the fix Years Negociation * with Spain, that the Juffice and Candour of the Crown of England on the one hand, and the Chicanery, Infolence, and Perfidy of Spain on the other, might be apparent to all the World: But this was refused; for had it been granted, all the atrocious Calumnies fo industrioufly circulated, of his Averfion to Peace, and his Endeavours to perpetuate and encrease the War, had been laid open to Mankind, and the Authors of them held in just Abhorrence. I own the Appeal to fo much written Evidence, fpoke to me the ftrongeft Language of confcious Integrity, and I was charmed with an Example, which I am fure Mr. Pitt did not draw from any of his Predeceffors in this Country .---- They have ever fought, like Mr. Pitt's Succeffors, to cover and conceal, or at least to perplex; he wishes to lay open and reveal to the unerring Public, both the Motives and Actions of every Part of his Administration.

* I fhould be particularly curious, for certain Reafons, to fee in what Manner, and to what Extent, the Spanish Court had been flattered by that of London, with an impartial Discussion of their Disputes, from the Year 1754, before Mr. Pitt accepted the Seals, p. 53.

B 2

----A

-A Retrospect carries no Terrors but to the Guilty - to an upright Minister it must give the truest Satisfaction - to the Public that Conviction, it has in many Cases a Right to expect.

I was not a little furprifed, and I own greatly concerned at the Alarm you mention, fpread every where in your Parts, of the melancholy and ruined State of our Country, and the Neceffity we were under of accepting almost any Peace. The French, Lord Bristol fays, bave never discontinued assuring the Spaniards of our being exhausted by the present long and expensive War, p. 29: and they may add that we have those among us (but, happily for this Nation, they are few, and their Credit but fmall) who repine at our Succeffes, and declare they weep over our Victories. This is the true Picture of that most malignant and infernal Fiend, Envy, fo well defcribed by Ovid;

Vixque tenet lacrymas, quia nil lacrymabile cernit.

And a little before he mentions what rankled at the Heart;

Sed videt ingratos, intabescitque videndo Successus hominis.

I

I doubt not these Men do very fincerely lament the Succeffes even of their own Country; for I well remember the favourite Language they held a few Years ago, "Give the " new Minister the Reins-he is equally as impetuous-----in a " impracticable " very fhort Time he must annihilate his " prefent Credit with the Public, from the " Failure of every Scheme he adopts." Now Heaven has given fuch glorious Success to upright Intentions, and well-digested * Plans, while the reft of their Countrymen are congratulating each other on all our noble Conquests and real Acquisitions of Strength. these Men, as well as our declared Enemies. are found in Sorrow and Tears. How preposterous is fuch a Conduct? Yet did not fome of these very Men execrate those as Traitors to their Country, who were not

* In Europe, Cherbourg, and Belle-Ifle; in Afia, Pondicherry; in Africa, Senegal; and Goree; in America, Beau Sejour, Louifbourg, Fort du Quefne, now Pittfburg, Guadalupe, &c. Niagara, Ticonderoga, Crown Point, Quebec, Montreal, Dominico, and, to crown the Whole, we may hope Martinico. Let me add the Annihilation of the French Marine and Commerce. All during Mr. Pitt's Ministry.

fired

fired with Rapture at the Victory of Culloden? a Victory as justly dear to every Friend of Liberty as any our Annals can boast.

But let us on the other Hand exult, and rejoice to fee how greatly this Country now figures in the unprejudiced Judgment of Foreigners, even of our Enemies. The Prime Minister of Spain tells Lord Briftol, That the Court of London was in the most flourishing and most exalted Situation it had ever known, occasioned by the greatest Series of Prosperities that any single Nation had ever met with, p. 10. Can we wonder after this, that fo much Abufe, fuch gross Scurrility, on Mr. Pitt, appears in Fuentes's Papers? Is it not the higheft Panegyric? I am perfuaded, had the Direction of the British Counfels been fuffered to continue in the fame Hands, the Name of Pitt had foon been as much dreaded at Madrid as it is at Paris, or as it is dear to his grateful Countrymen. I fpeak with the honeft Warmth and Pride of an Englishman, who really feels with his Sovereign the great and important Services * of Mr. Pitt, and glories

* Vide London Gazette of Oct. 10. 1761.

1

in

in feeing his Country recovered from the most abject State of Despair to such a Pitch of Grandeur and Importance, as to hold the first Rank among the Powers of Europe.

The other Report you mention, that the late Minister courted a War with Spain, will receive as full a Confutation from these I shall, from among many, produce Papers. only two Passages, but too express to admit the least Shadow of a Doubt. The first is from the Conclusion of the EXTRACT of the only Letter we have of Mr. Pitt's in this garbled Collection. After the infolent Memorial of France relative to Spain was delivered here by M. de Buffy, little short of a Declaration of a War in Reversion, and that not at a Distance, Mr. Pitt writes to Lord Briftol, In cafe, upon entering into Remonstrance on this Affair, you shall perceive a Disposition in M. Wall to explain away and disavow the Authorization of Spain to this offensive Transaction of France, AND TO COME TO CATEGORICAL AND SATIS-FACTORY DECLARATIONS RELATIVELY TO THE FINAL INTENTIONS OF SPAIN, your Excellency will, with Readinefs and your ufual. Address, adapt yourself to so desirable a Circumstance.

eumstance, and will open to the Court of Madrid as bandsome a Retreat as may be, in case you perceive from the Spanish Minister that they SINCERELY wish to find one, and to remove, by an EFFECTUAL SATISFACTION, the unfavourable Impressions which this Memorial of France has justly and unavoidably made on the Mind of his Majesty. p. 3, 4. Is this the Language of a Minister who courts a War? Is it not the Reverse? Does he not honestly point out the Means of avoiding a War, yet with the Dignity and Spirit becoming a great Power, which did not tremble at the haughty Menaces of the Spaniard?

The other Paffage contains the Teftimony of the Earl of Egremont: M. Wall must bimfelf know that there bas been a particular Delicacy observed, in concerting our Plans for military Operations, to avoid carrying Hostilities towards Objects, which might give the least Jealousy or Umbrage to the Court of Spain; and therefore bis Majesty can only consider such unjust Suggestions and groundless Suspicions, as destitute of Probability as of Proof, as a mere Pretext, in case that, contrary to all good Faith, and the most folemn repeated Professions of friendly Intentions, tions, the Court of Spain should have meditated or resolved on Hostilities against England. p. 31*.

[ 17 ]

I think it appears to demonstration, even from these Papers, that before the first Overtures of France for the particular Peace with England, Spain had refolved, at a proper Time, to take an efficient and openly hoftile Part against us. M. de Buffy, in the Memorial relative to Spain, fo early as July 23, talks of the Engagements, which the one and the other Court may have taken prior to their Reconciliation, p. 4. Mr. Pitt's Letter of July 28 declares, The Duke de Choiseul avows the Engagements with Spain, concerning our Disputes with that Crown, to have been taken before the FIRST OVERTURES of France for the particular Peace with England. The first Overtures were dated the 26th of March, 1761*. Lord Briftol, Aug. 31, gives an Account of the Conversation he had with General Wall, * Mr. Wall orwned, how cautions we had been to avoid attacking those Posseffions belonging to our Enemies, which had any Connection with the Spanish Territory. Lord Bristol's Letter, p. 63.

* Vide Memoire Historique, &c. published by the Court of France.

С

in

[ 18 ]

in which M. Wall declared, that M. Buffy's Memorial was Verbatim what had been fent by order of the Catholic King to Verfailles, p. 6. In the fame Letter, p. 11. The ftrong Avowal of a most intimate Cordiality between Spain and France contained in this last Production of the Spanish Secretary of State has burt me. This Production was the famous Memorial of the 28th of August, which (with Lord Bristel's Letter of the 31st, and an Enclosure) was the last Paper Mr. Pitt ever received from the Court of Spain; as appears from the Date of his Refignation, October 5. The Memorial which M. de Buffy prefented to Mr. Pitt, is a

† In the Paper of the 28th of August, Spain with her usual Perfidy repeated in Anfaver, that the only CONSENTED that France should take this Step. p. 15. This is of a Piece with her Veracity, when the fays, From a fresh Proof of his pacific Spirit, the King of Spain wrote to the King of France, bis Cousin, that if the Union of Interest, in any manner retarded the Peace with England, he CONSENTED to separate bimself from it, not to put ANY OBSTACLE to so great a Happines, p. 46. It is notorious in France, that every Obstacle possible was put to it by the Spanish Minister, in Conjunction with the Imperial, at Paris, and in reality Spain only withed not to be REPUTED an Impediment to the Conclusion of a Peace between England and France, p. 55. Another proof of her veracity may be feen in p.44. of this Pamphlet.

Step,

[ 19 ]

Step, which his Catholic Majefty will not deny has been taken with his full Confent, Approbation, and Pleasure. Paper delivered to the Earl of Briftol, p. 13. which next holds out mutual Allistance, as their Union, Friendship, and Relationship require : then proceeds to a menacing Parallel, It being grounded upon this, ibat if England faw that France attacked the Dominions of Spain, particularly in America, fie would run immediately to ber Defence for her own Conveniency, as well as because she had, equally with France, guarantied them: and concludes with a Simile of obliging Delicacy betwixt crowned Heads, with regard to our Establishment on the Logwood Hard Proceedings certainly, for one Coaft. to confess that he is gone into the House of another; to take away his Jewels, and to fay, " I will go out again, but first you shall engage to " give me what I went to take." So much for becoming Apologies *! p. i6: There is the greatest Harmony between the two Courts (France and Spain). p. 14. Particularly

This Paper is filled by Spain, a Mentorial, p. 40, and contains those becoming Apologies, on the Part of the Catholic Court, mentioned in the English Declaration of War. Apologies equally becoming and convincing!

C 2

f:nce

fince the King (of Spain) fent your Excellency (the Conde de Fuentes) to that Court (of London), proving the incontestible Grounds of our Complaints and just Cares, and repeating that without fatisfying them, it is impossible to fix the good Correspondence of the two Monarchies, nor the Friendship of the two Mo-The Memorial itself prenarchs, p. 59. fented by M. de Buffy, July 23, which was Verbatim fent from Spain, threatens a new War in Europe and America, if the Differences of Spain with England are not adjusted, of which, the French King fays, he shall be obliged to partake, p. 4. And in p. 39 General Wall fays, What other Discussion of the Matter of our Disputes, than what has been agitated, during fo long a Negociation; what other Expedients can be found to fave the Honour and Dignity of the two Kings, that have not been proposed and exhausted in a Contest of fix Years? And again, p. 40. A Negociation fo strongly difcussed that it has been reduced during your Embassy (Count de Fuentes's) to the last Yes, or to the last No. In p. 60. What greater Discussion, upon the Points of our Disputes, can be made than that which has been in fo long a Negociation ? What Expedients can be fallen upon now to fave the Honour of the two Kings, which

ŧ.

[ 21 ]

which in Arguments and Disputes of fix Years have not occurred? Lord Bristol, Nov. 2, writes, I have LONG observed the Jealousy of Spain at the British Conquests *, and am now convinced, that the Consciousness of this Country's Naval Inferiority has occasioned the + SOOTHING DE-CLA-

* It is important to know in what Terms, and at what Time, Spain first manifested this Jcalousty; as also in what Terms, and at what Time, she renewed her stale and inadmissible Claim to the Fishery, which, M. Wall says, all Lord Bristol's Instructions had run to declare their Claim to be, p. 27.

+ In the London Gazette of Saturday, October 10, 1761, which first announced Mr. Pitt's Refignation, (the Notice of which was purposely omitted the preceding Tucsday, for Reafons I will not now enter into) is an Article dated Madrid, September 4, A Report baving been lately Spread here, upon the Arrival of the last Letters from France, as if there was Reason to apprehend an immediate Rupture between our Court and that of Great Britain ; we understand, that the Spanish Ministers, in a Conversation which they had lately with the Earl of Briftol, Embassador Extraordinary from bis Britannic Majefly, expressed their Concern thereat, and declared very explicitly to his Excellency, that, ON THE PART OF THEIR COURT, THERE WAS NOT THE LEAST GROUND FOR ANY SUCH APPREHENSIONS, AS THE CA-THOLIC KING HAD, AT NO TIME, BEEN MORE INTENT UPON CULTIVATING A GOOD CORRESPONDENCE WITH ENGLAND, THAN IN THE PRESENT CONJUNC-TURE.

1.

General

[ 22 ]

CLARATIONS, so repeatedly made, of a Defire to maintain Harmony and Friendship with England, p. 29.

I believe I may even from these Premises take it as proved beyond Contradiction, that Spain had come to a final Resolution, and only waited for some favourable Events to throw off the Mask of Deceit and Treachery. The Denouement quickly followed, tho' probably rather sooner than Spain herself intended. Lord Bristic explains the true Reasons. In his Letter

General Wall, in relation to this, declares, p. 38. I do not remember any thing, at this time, more particular, than on an infinite Number of other Occasions; neither do I mifelf comprehend the Motive for beightning this. And again, p. 59. I do not remember having made it then in a more particular manner than at many other times, neither to I comprehend the Motives for their making fuch a Point of it. The motives for the beightning and making fuch a Point of it, are well understood at London, though not at Madrid. Mr. Pitt does not feem to have been the Dupe of these foothing Declarations, which were only the fame Lord Briftol had just before given from M. Wall, in his Letter of the 31st of August. His Catholic Majesty's Disposition and Professions had invariably been the same, and were ever meant to cement and cultivate the Friendship jo happily fublifting between our two Courts, p. 11. Is it possible to think the Administration was deceived ? or did they mean to deceive the Public ?

of

[ 23 ]

of Sept. 21, which was received here Of. 16. he fays, A Meffenger arrived at St. Ildephonfo last Week, with the News of the fafe Arrival of the Flota in the Bay of Cadiz. p. 17. In the Letter of Nov. 2. Two Ships bave lately arrived at Cadiz, with very extraordinary rich Cargoes from the West-Indies; SO THAT ALL THE WEALTH THAT WAS EXPECTED FROM SPANISH AMERICA IS NOW SAFE IN OLD SPAIN, p. 29. And again, p. 35. Eleven large Ships of the Line, now lying at Ferrol, are rigged, manned, and ready to put to Sea at a short Warning, together with two Frigates, one of which is bound to the South Seas, with Cannon-ball, Powder, and many other Implements of War. By Advices from Barcelona I bear that two of the Catholic King's Ships of War failed from thence the End of last Month, with two large Ships under their Convoy, loaded with 3500 Barrels of Gunpowder, 1500 Bomb-shells, 500 Chests of Arms, and a confiderable Quantity of Cannonballs of different Dimensions, which Cargo, it is imagined, is defined for the Spanish West-Indies. Many more warlike Stores are ready to be shipped from Catalonia. Five Battalions of different Regiments of Infantry, and two Sqa[ 24 ]

Squadrons of Dragoons, are at Cadiz, waiting their final Orders to embark for America. This Corps makes in all about 3,600 Men, p. 35. Lord Egremont fays, And his Majefly baving afterwards, (that is, between the 31ft of August, and the 28th of Ostober,) received Intelligence, scarce admiting a doubt, of Troops marching, and of military Preparations making in all the Ports of Spain, judged that his DIGNITY, as well as his Prudence, required him to order his Embassador at the Court of Madrid, by a Dispatch dated the 28th of October, to demand, &c. p. 48.

General Wall, thus prepared, at last comes out of his Intrenchments: for Spain no longer found her Account in diffembling. She had already taken her Part, and the old Traffick of Words and foothing Declarations was almost at an End. On * November 2, (eight + Days before

* This Letter cannot be too much attended to, as it flands immediately connected with the Spanifle Paper or Memorial of the 28th of August, is explanatory of the real Purport of it, and evidently lays the Foundation of the Rupture, which the new Ministry have made with Spain.

† The Meffenger Ardouin delivered to me on the 10th Inflant, before Lord Briffol received the very first Difpatches 1 from the new Ministry in England). His Lordship writes Word of the furprizing Change in General Wall's Difcourfe, and an unlooked-for Alteration of Sentiments, and complains of the baughty Language now held by this Court. M. Wall deelares the Conduct of England unwarrantable, for bis- Catholic Mujefty never could obtain an Answer to any Memorial or Paper-that we were intoxicated with our Successeand that it was evident all we aimed at was, first to ruin the French Power in order more eafily to crush Spain, to drive all the Subjects of the Christian King, not only from their Island-Colonies in the new World, but also to destroy their feveral Forts and Settlements upon the Continent of North-America, to have an eafter Task in feizing on all the Spanish Dominions in those Parts thereby to fatisfy the utmost of our Ambition; and to gratify our unbounded Thirst of luftant; at the Escurial, the Honour of your Lordship's Difpatches of the 28th past, p. 36.

† The new Ministry never received any Answer to the Matter of these first Dispatches of the 28th of October, till the 24th of December, a Fortnight after the Rupture. Lord Brisce's Letter, December 11. p. 41.

D

Con-

[ 26 ]

Conquest; and afterwards, that be would himfelf be the Man to advise the King of Spain, fince his Dominions were to be overwhelmed, at least to have them seized with Arms in his Subjects Hands, and not to continue the passive Victim be bad bitherto appeared to be in the Eyes of the World, p. 26. Now what new Event, on the Part of England, fince the Refignations, had happened to give Occasion to such a furious, futile, and menacing Declamation? Lord Briftol writes indeed, p. 64. What bad occasioned the great Fermentation during that Period at this Court, the Effects of which, I felt from General Wall's animated Discourse at the Escurial, was the Notice having, about that time, reached the Catholic King, that the Change which had happened in the English Adminstration, was relative to Measures proposed to be taken against this Country: But furely, almost in Lord Egremont's own words, p. 32, ufed by Lord Bristol himself to General Wall, the Notoriety there was that every thing in the Royal Councils, which could tend towards the Interruption of a friendly Intelligence between our Courts (which his Majesty was so solicitous to maintain) had also been avoided, p. 62, with the confequential Refignations, must have produced duced in found Argument a directly contrary Effect; whereas the Notice fent by his Lordship of the Spanish Preparations, and his other Reasonings, account very fully for the General's Animation at that Time.

[ 27 ]

I think the Queftion then is reduced to this fhort Point, Does not the War with Spain, even in September, appear to have been unavoidable? Most evidently fo, from all the Proofs contained in the foregoing Pages, and even from what is given us of Lord Briftol's Letters, in particular that of August 31, with the Memorial inclosed, which was received here September 11, and was, to be fure, no fmall Part of the Ground, on which Lord Temple's and Mr. Pitt's written Advice of September 18 to recall Lord Bristol, was founded. Every Practice of the most civilized States, every Formality prefcribed by the Law of Nations, every Proceeding which the moft fcrupulous Rules of good Faith, could require, might have been observed, and the nobleft Opportunity of expeditioufly and glorioufly terminating both a French and a Spanish War been feized, which is now irrecoverably loft. The firmeft Nerves of D 2 Spain, Spain, and with them the laft hopes of France, might foon have been withered, and the British Empire have received greater, and more important, Acquisitions, than any it yet can boast from the unparalleled, and dazzling Successes, even of this glorious War.

Whoever confiders the Situation of Spain (unprepared as fhe was at the time the written Advice was given +) with refpect to her Ports, her Ships of War in those Ports, her Colonies, her Commerce, her own as well as the Riches of France on board her Ships, can never fufficiently lament the Loss of an † All Advices concur in proving that the State of Spain was at that Time much the fame as at the breaking out of the War in 1739. The City of Manila might be well supposed to have been in the fame defenceless Condition with all the other Spanish Settlements, just at the breaking out of the War: That is to fay, their Fortifications neglected, and in many Places decayed; their Cannon dismounted, or useless, by the mouldring of their Carriages; their Magazines, whether of Military Stores or Provision, all empty; their Garrifons unpaid, and confequently thin, ill-affected, and dispirited; and the Royal Chess in Peru, whence alone all these Diforders could receive their Redress, drained to the wery Bottom. Anson's Voyage, Quarto Edition of 1748, p. 3.

autumnal

autumnal Campaign *. If we add that the Fleet of England was at no time to formidable. her Seamen never to full of Spirit, and flush'd with repeated Victories, in Europe only upwards of 140 Ships of War, in the other Parts of the World above 100 more, we must fink in Amazement at our Supinenefs and Neglect of fo critical a Period, after fo long Tameness under Injuries. I will add long Tameness under Injuries; for I think the Conduct of Spain, even during the fix Years Negociation, was fo grofsly partial to our profeffed Enemies, as would have justified any overt Acts on the Side of England, from every Principle of Juffice; but Motives of Moderation and Policy reftrained us. The Affair of the Antigallican was alone of fuch Magnitude as to have called for Reprifals against a Court, which avowed fuch grofs Partiality and Injuffice, and committed fuch repeated Acts of the higheft Indignity. Not the leaft Satisfaction was ever offered, though often demanded. On the contrary, it was followed by many flagrant Acts of notorious Violence. It is a * Part of the Preparations fince made both in Europe and America, may be feen from Lord Briffol's Teftimony, p. 23 of this Pamphlet.

known

[ 30 ]

known Fact, that both the Law of Nations, and the eftablish'd Customs of all Maritime States, have been violated by Spain in every one of her Ports, from a declared Partiality to the French. They were treated almost as natural-born Spaniards, tho' the Family Compass did not at that Time subsist, and the English as Enemies, tho' called Friends, to whom the King of Spain was ever declaring much Cordiality and Regard.

Ruinous indeed it may prove for this Country, that the Administration, which for fo many Years has continued UNA-NIMOUS in carrying on the War in Germany, UNANIMOUS likewife in rejecting the Terms of Peace offered by France, should have differed in Opinion (if indeed they did fo) with regard to the glaring Duplicity, and hoftile Intentions, of the Court of Spain ! It required, alas ! no great Scope of Judgment, nor any deep Sagacity, to difcover the real Views, p. 24. of Spain, and that the War with that Power was inevitable. A Truth which most plainly appears from the very Papers published to conceal it. The only Queftion most evidently dently was, whether we should enter into it with every Advantage on our Side, or from Weakness, Indecision, or a delusive Hope at beft, give to our determined Enemy that Time to prepare, which it was notorious fhe wanted, lofe the Seafon for Action, and facrifice to the Imbecility of a few more last Words three most important Months, at the End of which we find ourfelves reduced to the Neceffity of breaking with Spain, exactly as we ought to have done fo long before. Whoever can now pride himself in the procrastinating Advice he gave to his Sovereign, may he enjoy in full Luftre that eminent Glory of his Life ! If fuch are the Glories, what must the Difgraces be! I mean not to draw any uncandid Picture of the prefent Administration : I am forry I must fay that we have had too much Experience of one Part of them, and too little of the other, to be very fanguine. Two S-----s of S----e, in these dangerous Times, become Ministers by Inspiration! We have as little Experience of them, as they have of Business. In no Department of the State, nor in Parliament, has either held any Rank or Effimation. But these Defects will be amply fupplied fupplied by the Industry and Experience of a laborious Gentleman, who has long paced in the Trammels of the State, with no Ambition or Avarice to gratify. A Declaration the Public has heard repeatedly from kim/elf. He neither Ambitione mala, aut argenti pallet amore. Hor.

[ 31 ]

[ 32 ]

But may the Dignity of the Crown, the Honour of his Majefty, the Glory of the Nation, and the important Acquisitions made during the late Ministry, be faste in their Hands! Their Hands have been strengthen'd in every manner they could ask or wish; and no Opposition has been made to them; unless it is call'd Opposition, to endeavour to preferve the Confidence of our Allies once boundless, and to keep up the high Spirit of the Nation under the enormous, but neceffary, Burthens of the War.

In no truly British quarrel, but in the Cause of our Allies, the Spanish Marine was deftroyed by Sir George Byng, in 1718, without any previous Declaration of War. We were not, in confequence of that Step, treated in Europe as an uncivilized Nation, spurning at all Laws, or as a Neft of of Pirates; but the Policy and Spirit of the Measure was universally admired. As to the Justice of such a Proceeding, I determine nothing : I leave it to those State Cafuifts who feized the French Ships before a Declaration The Interest of Great Britain of War *. was not then immediately concerned, as in the prefent Cafe, but our Allies wished, and obtained, our vigorous and effectual Sup-By that decifive Exertion of our port. Strength, the Contest between the two Nations was in Effect finished almost as soon as begun. The impartial Public will judge for themfelves, how great the Probability is, that the like Success had followed Measures equally spirited, preceded by a Declaration of War, which in this Cafe had been founded on the clearest Principles of Justice and Equity. I am at least certain no Man of Candour could have cenfured England as accelerating precipitately a War +, long refolved by Spain, I must fay, too long delayed by England. I rather fear the Example of the Spirit of the late Measures ± will be thought to be already * Vid. Memoire Historique, Nº 17. Art. 12.

+ Vid. the Declaration of War against Spain, Jan. 2, 1762.

‡ Vid. Lord Egremont's Letter, p. 23. E forgot;

forgot; and as those Measures were decried as too bold and daring, more feeble, more pufilanimous, lefs encouraging to our real Friends, lefs hoftile to our Enemies, will be found to be adopted. In the prefent Cafe, Lord Bristol is ordered, fo early as July 28, to come to categorical and fatisfactory Declarations relatively to the final Intentions of Spain, Mr. Pitt's Letter, p. 3. to which Lord Briftol, on the Part of Spain, never returns either a CATEGORICAL OF SATISFACTORY An-The ingenuous General Wall, through fwer. the whole Negociation, appears referved and artful at least, not to fay full of Duplicity. At last General Wall replied, He had no Orders to acquaint me with any Measures but what he had formerly communicated to me; and signified bis not being at liberty to fay any more, Nov. 2. p. 27. All that I could, with Difficulty, extort from General Wall was, that his Catholic Majesty had judged it expedient to renew bis FAMILY COMPACTS (those were the express Words) with the Most Christian King - Here the Spanish Minister stopt short, and, as if he had gone beyond what he intended, he faid, that the Count de Fuentes, and M. Buffy bad declared to kis Majesty's Ministers all that was MEANT to be communicated municated to them, Nov. 2. p. 29. Can any thing be imagined more contemptuous, or more infolent? But what follows is excellent Spanish humour; and the inimitable Hogarth could, from these few Lines, give us a most diverting Frontispiece to the Papers, if Administration did not feem refolved no more to employ Men of fuperior Parts and Genius. Lord Briftol fays, I began to flatter my felf I might obtain the categorical Answer, I was ordered to demand, without the Spanish Minister's suspecting my ultimate Orders. When I was going out of his Room, he took me by the Hand, and faid. with a SMILE, he HOPED; but there he stopped. I asked him what he HOPED, that I might also HOPE, and that all might concur in the fame HOPES: But bis Excellency only then bowed, and took his Leave of me, p. 63. General Wall is too much of a Spaniard ever to laugh; but his Smiles are very fignificant. Lord Bristol declares, M. Wall ever acted in too ingenuous a Manner for me to suspect the least Duplicity in bis Conduct, p. 19. Now was he ever ingenuous and frank enough to communicate to Lord Briftol, the leaft Article of the Family Compact, or did he ever hint that fuch a Thing was in Agitation? From the Catholic King's very particular Partiality towards Lord Briftol, p. 66. I fup-E 2

[ 35 ]

I suppose M. Wall was ordered to spare his Lordship the Concern so alarming a Treaty must have occasioned, and only, from time to time, to use the soothing Sounds of Friendship, Honour, Cordiality, Affection, &c. &c. to smile, to bow, to take bim by the Hand, and to -bope. What? I know no more than the present Ministry.

Lord Briftol feems totally uninformed of fo important an Affair as the Family Compat, till long after that Treaty was figned and ratified, and only a few Days * before he is told of it from England. Ottober 28, Lord Egremont writes to Lord Briftol: His Majefty cannot imagine that the Court of Spain Should think it unreasonable to defire a Communication of the Treaty ACKNOWLEDGED to have been lately concluded between the Courts of Madrid and Verfailles, p. 21. When was this Acknowledgment made? Surely this relates to the Rupture with Spain? Yet not a Line of this Intelligence is among the Papers.

By this Time, I think it must appear how much Lord Briftol, though possessed

* Vide his Letter of Nov. 2.

of

of real Talents, was deceived by the Court of Spain; a Court as infidious as that Let me next remark, how of France. dextrous the new Ministry here were in endeavouring to deceive themfelves. In the Answer delivered to the Count de Fuentes. by the Earl of Egremont, Dec. 31, it is faid, The Embassador at the Court of Madrid, by a Dispatch dated the 28th of October, was ordered to demand, in Terms the most measured, however, and the most amicable, a Communication of the Treaty recently concluded between the Courts of Madrid and Verfailles, or, at least, of the Articles which might relate to the Interest of Great Britain----and-----TO CONTENT HIM--SELF WITH ASSURANCES, in case the Catholic King offered to give any, that the faid Engagements did not contain any thing that was contrary to the Friend/hip which subsisted between the two Crowns, or that was prejudicial to the Interests of Great Britain, supposing that any Difficulty was made of thewing the Treaty, p. 48. The new Ministry are now got off from the true Ground, which was the Memorial of Spanish Affairs verbatim fent from Madrid, and the Letter of Lord Briftol's of August 31, with the Enclofures; and have confined their View to the [ 38 ]

the fingle Point of the late Treaty, or the Family Compact. Every Thing relative to the final Intentions of Spain, concerning which Lord Bristol is ordered, in Mr. Pitt's Letter. to early as July 28, to come to categorical and fatisfactory Declarations, is omitted in this Demand, and Lord Bristol is ordered to confine himfelf to the new Treaty. This T agree with Lord Egremont is certainly no equivocal Proof of Dependance on the good Faith of the Catholic King, in shewing him an unbounded Confidence in so important an Affair, p. 49: How merited, we have feen from what paffed in the latter Months of the Negociation; and in all probability should fee more glaringly, if the whole Negociation, fince the Acceffion of his prefent Catholic Majefty, were communicated to us. From that unbounded Confidence the new Ministry entirely loft Sight of the most offensive and hoftile Matter in the Memorial of July 23, and the Papers of August 31, attacking the Dignity of the Crown of England in a manner furely far more unbecoming and infolent than that (pirit of Haughtiness and Discord, which, fays M. Wall, distated that inconfiderate Step, and which, for the Misfortune of Mankind, ftill still reigns so much in the British Government, which made in the same Instant the Declaration of War, and attacked the King of Spain's Dignity, p. 67. It is plain they were accommodating themfelves at any rate tamely to become the Dupes of Spain; for all they defired, by the Difpatch of the 28th of Ottober, was an Affurance of the Innocence of the Treaty in Question, p. 23; and they passed by every thing elfe, though of the most hostile Tendency. Confcious of this, Lord Egremont, at the End of his Anfwer to the Conde de Futes, December 31, pleads guilty for himfelf and his Brother Ministers, to the Charge that may be exhibited against them of an intentionally facile and willing Credulity, when he fays, But fortunately the Terms in which the Declaration * (Fuentes's) is conceived, spare us the Regret of not having received it sooner; for it appears, at first Sight, that the Answer is not at all conformable to the We wanted to be informed, If Demand.

[ 39 ]

* That the faid Treaty is only a Convention between the Family of Bourbon, wherein there is nothing that has the least Relation to the prefent War. Fuentes's Note delivered to Lord Egremont, Dec. 25, p. 46.

the

[ 40 ]

the Court of Spain intended to join the French. our Enemies, to make War on Great Britain; or to depart from their Neutrality? Whereas the Answer concerns one Treaty only, (all that was ask'd by the Dispatch of the 28th of October,) which is faid to be of the 15th of August; carefully avoiding to fay the least Word that could explain, in any manner, the Intentions of Spain towards Great Britain, or the further Engagements they may have contracted in the prefent Crifis. In the Difpatch indeed of Lord Egremont to Lord Briftol, of November 19, in Answer to Lord Briftol's Letter of November 2, p. 32, the new Miniftry amend their own Queftion, and at last demand a precise and CATEGORICAL ANSWER from the Court of Madrid, relative to their Intention with regard to Great Britain in this critical Conjuncture, which brought on the Rupture on the 10th of December, and is precifely what was directed by Mr. Pitt fo early as July 28.

I cannot pass by that other Part of Lord Egremont's Answer delivered to the Count de Fuentes December 31, in which it is faid, the Embassador (of England) having addressed addressed himself to the Minister of Spain for that Purpose, could only draw from him a Refusal, to give a satisfactory Answer to his Majesty's just Requisitions *, which he had accompanied with Terms that breathed nothing but Haughtiness, Animosity, and Menace, and which feemed fo strongly to verify the Suspicions of the unamicable Disposition of the Court of Spain, p. 49, without observing that this cannot poffibly be the real State of the Fact, (though his Lordship but a few Lines before fays, he will confine bimself to Fasts, with the most (crupulous Exastness) for Lord Egremont receives no Answer from Lord Bristol + to the Orders to make the 1031

[41]

* The following Paragraph of Lord Briftol's Letter of Nov. 2, p. 25, demonstrates that these just Requisitions were not made in consequence of any Orders from the Court of England: Such strong Reports of an approaching Rupture between Great Britain and Spain, grounded upon several authentic Assurances I had received, that some Agreement had been settled and signed between their Catholic and Most Christian Majesties, DETERMINED ME to enquire minutely into this Affair.

† It is remarked in the Gazette of Madrid, published by Authority, in these Words: And what is more fingular, is, that they attribute the last Endearour, which they F ordered JUST REQUISITIONS contained in his two Dispatches (of the 28th of October, and 19th of ordered Lord Briftol to make, and which caufed the Rupture, to the Language of Haughtiness, Animosity, and Menace, with which (according to them) our Court answered to the ciwil and amicable Demand that Minister made in Consequence, (fay they) of an Order of the 28th of October. Unfortunately for them; they have not confidered that in an Interval from the 28th of October to the 1ft or 2d of December, the Day upon which Lord Bristol's last Letter arrived, it is impossible an Express can come from London to Madrid, return to London with an Answer to his Dispatch, and go back to Madrid with the Reply. Gazette de Amfterdam Du Mardi 23 Février 1762. De Madrid le 2 Février 1762. Par le même courier, qui a apporté au Roi la nouvelle de la réfolution prise à la cour Britannique de nous déclarer la guerre, le Comte de Fuentes a envoyé a S. M. un Mémoire remis à cet Ambassadeur avant fon départ de Londres par le Comte d'Egremont, Cécrétaire d'Etat de S. M. Britannique, en reponse à la declaration que le Comte de Fuentes lui avoit donné par écrit quelques jours auparavant. Ces deux pieces ont été infereés, par ordre de notre cour, dans la Gazette de Madrid, avec les observations suivantes sur le memoire delivre par le Comte d'Egremont .--- Et ce qu'il v a de plus singulier, c'est qu'ils attribuent la derniere tentative qu'on a fait faire au Lord Briftol, et qui a causé la rupture, au ton de hauteur, d'animosité, et de menace, avec lequel (jelon eux) notre cour a repondu aux demandes honnétes et amiables que ce Ministre fit en vertu (disent-ils) d'un ordee du 28 Octobre. Malbeureusement pour eux, ils n'ont point of November,) till the 24th of December, a Fortnight after the Rupture, which happened on the 10th. p. 41, & 43, except what I will now state, which is far from containing the repeated and the most stinging Refusals to give the least Satisfaction, p. 50. Extract from Lord Briftol's Letter to the Earl of Egremont, November 23, p. 37: It will not be possible for me to re-dispatch a Messenger to England for several Days, notwithstanding my baving had another long Conference with M. Wall, at which I entered minutely into every Argument suggested to me by your Lordship. Altho' I dare not flatter my felf with having gained any Ground upon the Spanish Minister, yet I never before observed his Excellency listen with greater Attention to my Discourse, than at our late Meeting. When he answered me, it was without Warmth; when he applied to me, it was friendly; and, after long Reasonings, on both Sides, we parted with reciprocal Protestations to point fait attention que, dans un intervalle comme celui du 28 du dit mois au 1<sup>er</sup> ou 2. de Decembre, jour auquel arriva le dernier courier du Lord Bristol, il est impossible qu'on exprès vienne de Londres à Madrid, retourne à Londres avec la reponse à sa dépêche, et revienne à Madrid avec la replique.

[ 43 ]

F 2

each

[ 44 ]

each other of our earnest Defire to continus in Peace. General Wall also promised me, to acquaint his Catholie Majesty; circumstantially, with what had passed between us. I entredt your Lordship not to think me inconsequential in what I relate: It is my Duty to mention the Result of each Interview with the Spanish Secretary of State. All I sent an Account of in my Letters of the 2d Instant; was literally what had happened at that Time; and the Change I have just binted, when I last saw M. Wall, is equally certain.

I will observe but upon one Passage more, and that is from Lord Egremont's Dispatch of November 19, because when he is drove to the Necessity of defending the Proceedings of the present Ministry, he gives (what possibly was not his Object) the fullest Justification of Mr. Pitt. As to the Affertion of that Minister (M. Wall) " That his Catholic Ma-" jesty never could obtain an Answer from the "British Ministry, to any Memorial or Paper " that was sent from Spain, either by the Chan-" nel of the Count de Fuentes, or through your " Hands," it would be a useles Condescension to appeal appeal so repeatedly to those ample Materials in your Excellency's Possessin, for the Confutation of a Proposition so notoriously groundless, that it scarce deserves a serious Answer. The Language M. Wall beld, relative to the late Negociation with France, as well as with regard to our Ambition and unbounded Thirst of Conquest, as it consists of mere abusive Affertion, without the least shew of Argument, deserves nothing bat plain Contradiction, p. 31.

[ 45 ]

Before I quit the Papers, it may be neceffary to add, that I fee nothing fo alarming in the War with Spain, had it been entered into in time, and were well conducted. I have read the Histories of both nations, and am happy to agree with our Ministers that Experience has sheron that when in Contradiction to the obvious Principles of our common Interests, that Harmony has been unhappily interrupted, Spain has always been the greatest Sufferer, p. 21. Need I do more in support of this Opinion than mention the late War against the combined Forces of France and Spain, united before the French Matine was annihilated, as it now is; and at at a Period, when the Navy of England had not reached its prefent Greatness, and irrefiftible Superiority?

The Evidence to be drawn from these imperfect and mutilated Papers, is now fully and fairly stated. I call them imperfect and mutilated, because they have their Commencement, only from the very Point, when the long Negociation between England and Spain being become hopelefs, the infolent Attempt was made by the two Branches of the Houfe of Bourbon, then united, to force on his Majefty and the English Nation, the Concession of those inadmiffible Terms, which Spain alone despaired of being able to compel us to grant An Attempt of infidious Perfidy, which at once proved the particular Peace betwixt England and France to be hopelefs and impracticable; for what Ceffions to France could an English Administration be juitified in making, while the declared herfelf eventually engaged to take Part with Spain in a new War for Spanish Objects, totally inadmiffible; from which Proteft it doth not appear that either Court ever departed ?: The fpecious and falle Appearances of CanCandour, which the Publication of Papers in fuch a State is meant to convey, are as eafily. feen thro' and detected; as they are unfair and, ungenerous. A great deal of very important Intelligence, relative to the Point in Queftion, is plainly with-held. The Sufpicions arising from the Suppression of Evidence are, no doubt, in the Opinion of Government, more tolerable than the Conviction founded upon full Proof. Even the Particulars of the Negociation with France are still fecreted from the Public, as far as it is in the Power of our Government; left, among other good Reafons, as it stands naturally connected with the Spanish, they might, if confidered together, throw too ftriking a Light on the The infinite Importance of what Whole. is fupprefied, I do not pretend to determine; but the Papers are evidently thus partially laid before the Public by Adminiftration, to justify, if possible, their Delay: with what Succefs the Public will determine. As to the Wildom of the written Advice, it ftands already proved by the Event: but before we can enter fully into that Difpute (if there can be still a Doubt) all the Mateterials rials, all the Evidence, both from Papers and Falls, on which that Advice was founded, ought, in common Justice, to be laid before the Public. From what we already know with Certainty, even from these Papers, 20 to what Spain had already done, not from what that Court might further intend to de *, I cannot but own my Surprize, that there should be a Difference of Opinion with regard to Meafures to be taken against Spain, of the bigbest Importance to the Honour of the Crown, and to the most effential National Interests *. When I am told that only one noble Lord, and the late Secretary of State, of the most confidential Servants of the Crown, concurred in an Opinion foevident, fo clearly deduced from fuch a Variety of Proofs, I cannot but imagine that there must have been some powerful Combination, fome underhand Intrigues, among Minifters of more Denominations than one, to force the Refignation of the Right Hon. Gentleman. He must long have been looked upon with an unfriendly and jealous Eye by Ministers, to whom it is his Honour that he was fo very unlike; and who, though real Unanimity attended it in the Nation, could ill brook his poffeffing in fo high a Degree, (what they never had the leaft Share of) the Confidence of a difcerning and enlightened People. A Point of the utmost Confequence to every Ministry, in this Kingdom. The Glories of this Gentleman's Administration, (that is, while he was allowed to guide* the

[ 48 ]

to

* If one Minister on refigning the Seals may not, in the true Spirit of the Constitution, fay that he refigns, in order not to remain responsible for Measures, which he was no longer allowed to guide in his own Department, to the Execution of which he muss fet his Hand; what an idea of Parliament and of the Constitution muss an other have entertained, who could, just before taking the Seals, write the following circular Letter, not yet be-werfified, or be-noted?

"ŞIR,

"The King has declared his Intention to make me "Secretary of State, and I (very unworthy as I fear "I am of fuch an Undertaking) must take the Con-"duct of the House of Commons. I cannot therefore "well accept the Office till after the first Day's Debate, G "which the Measures of this Nation) and the Applauses of his grateful Country, have given him at least a due Portion of Envy, which is a certain Attendant on splendid Merit.

[ 50 ]

Sure Fate of all, beneath whole rifing Ray, Each Star of meaner Merit fades away ! Oppress'd we feel the Beam directly beat; Those Suns of Glory please not till they fet. POPE.

That only two Refignations have accompanied that of the late Secretary, is no Surprize to me.

Je suis Anglois, je dois faire le bien De mon pays, mais plus encore le mien, fays Voltaire, who lived a good while in this Country, and feems to know it pretty well.

From these few and scanty Materials, so sparingly dealt out to the Public, I have

" which may be a warm one. A great Attendance that " Day of my Friends will be of the greatest Confequence " to my future Situation, and I should be extremely " happy, if you would, for that Reason, shew yourself amongst them, to the great Honour of Sc."

en-

endeavoured to give you all the Satisfaction in my Power. I could poffibly have amufed you more, but I have all along preferred the Defire of informing to that of entertaining you. Perhaps you had been better pleafed, if I had deviated more, and had not confined myfelf fo ftrictly to the Evidence of the Papers, and to Fasts which will not be denied.

To conclude, Let me add to Hopes not very fanguine, very fincere and very fervent Wishes: May the most perfect Harmony, mutual Confidence, and Unanimity, which, Lord Egremont, October 28, fays, p. 23, now Reign in bis Majesty's Councils, for the fake of the Public, long continue! May the Expedition now failed to the West-Indies prove, by Succefs, to have been timely in Preparation, adequate in Force, to the Object, whatever it may be! May our Army in Germany +, (fince it is still to continue there, tho' Mr. Pitt is retired,) and the Kings of Pruffia and Portugal find that Example has indeed been taken of the Spirit of the late Measures+, p. 23. and that

† It is confidently afferted in Honour of the Secretary of State of the Northern Department, that he likewife did that the Measures of Government will suffer no Relaxation, p. 22. from feeble, procraftinating, and undecided Counfels, founded in Weakness and Duplicity. And, to grace the Whole, may the best-disposed Prince, that has at any Time swayed the Sceptre of Alfred, never live to want a Minister as able, and successful as Mr. Pitt.

[ 52 ]

I am, &c.

1)

did immediately on Mr. Pitt's Refignation give the ftrongest Assurances to the German Allies, that the Refignation of that Minister would not occasion the least change in Measures, except only that they would be carried on with redoubled Vigour,

