The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

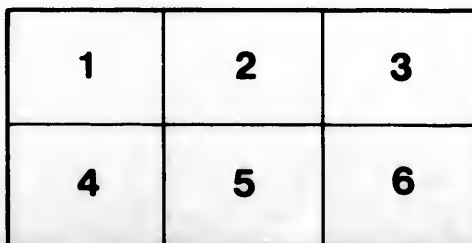

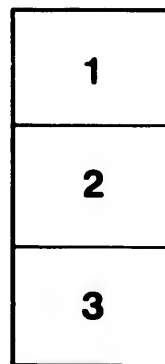

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

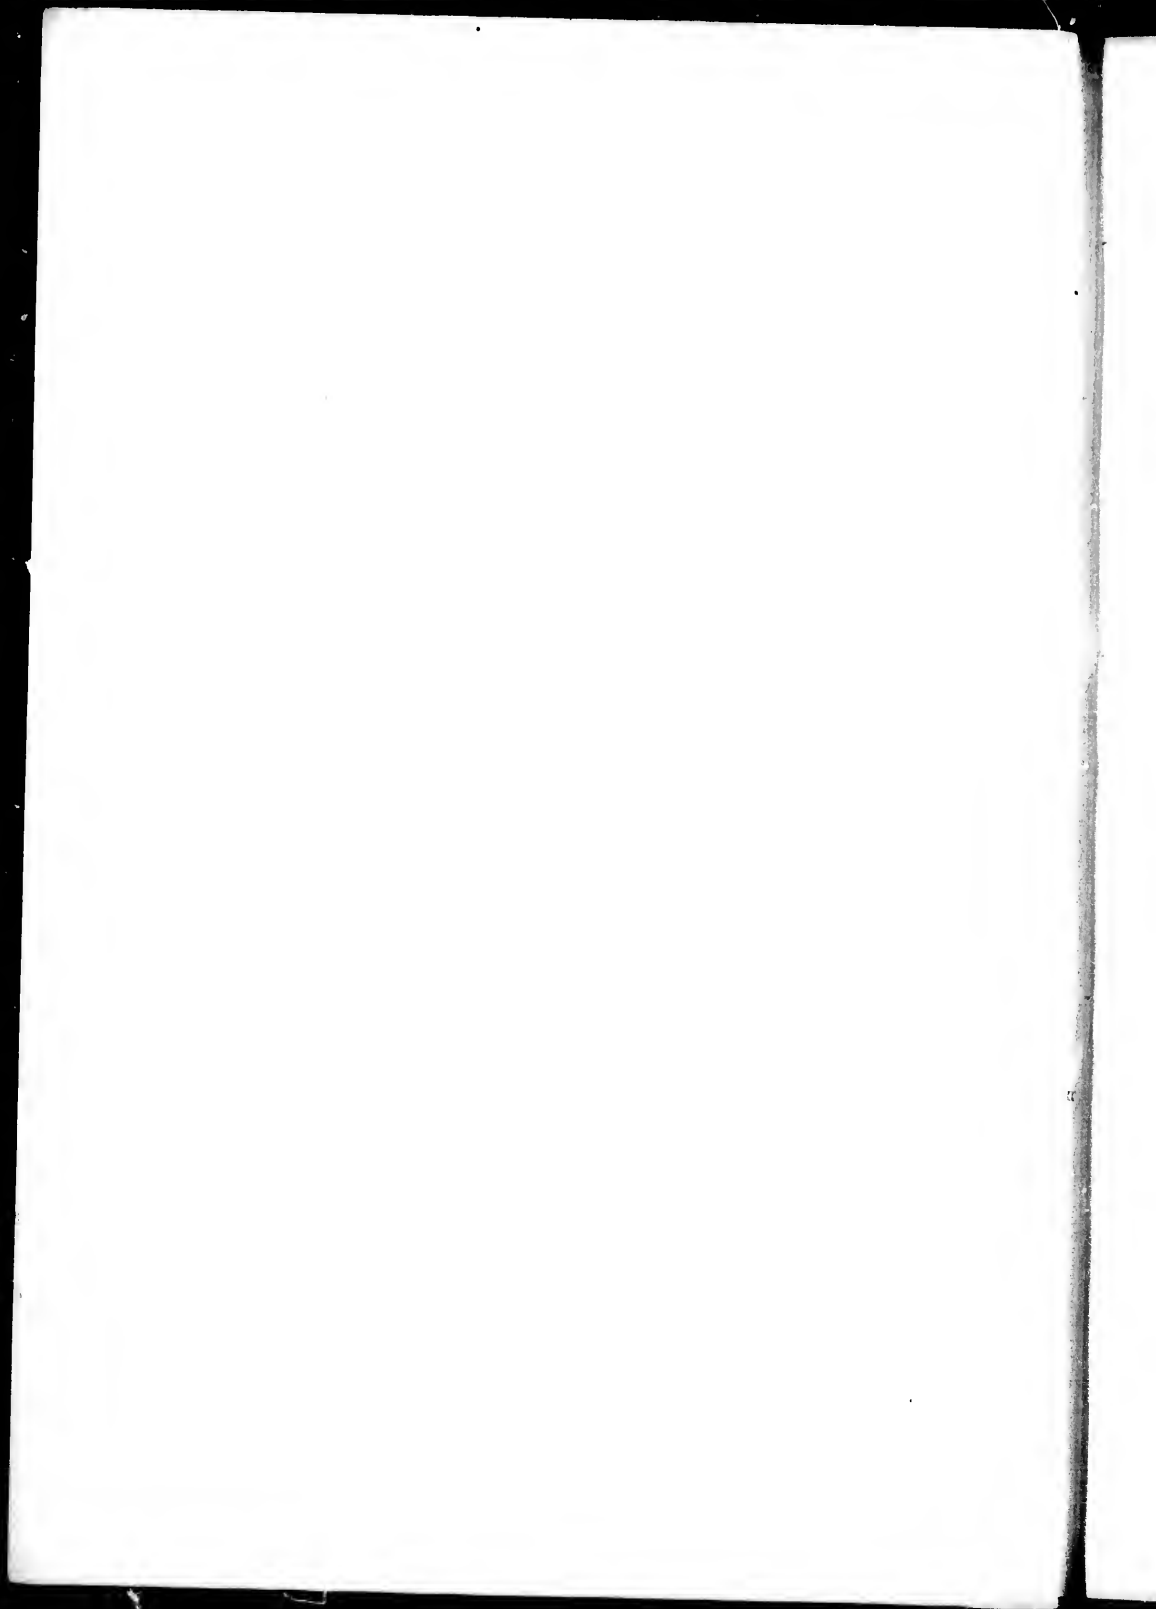

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Collation: Tome I., 1859, pp. (4), 420, with Map and Plate. Tome II., 1859, pp. 456, with six illustrations, including 2 Maps, a colored plate and a folded table. Tome III., 1860, pp. (4), 452, with 3 plates. Tome IV., 1860, pp. 486, with 3 plates. Tome V., 1861, pp. 402, with 21 illustrations, including 9 plates, 3 Mexican maps and pp. 141-148 in facsimiles. Tome VI., 1861, pp. 260, with 2 plates numbered XIX, XX, followed by "Comptes-Rendus des Séances de la Société d'Ethnographie américaine & orientale ... tome premier ... Paris, 1860," pp. 12, 164, including index for the whole volume. Leclerc's "Bibliotheca Americana," for 1878, describes a copy of tome VI. containing 404 pages, 4 plates, of which one is a colored plan, and 16 pages of Chinese-corean-aino facsimiles, and also states that pp. 261-400 are lacking in most copies. Tome VII., 1862, pp. 274, 12, 283-416, with illustrations numbered XXI to XXIV, which include 2 plates and pp. 393-404 in Chinese facsimiles. Tome VIII., 1862, pp. 340, "Chronique Orientale et Américaine," pp. 76, table and index, pp. 417-420, with 13 plates numbered XXV to XXXVII. Leclerc describes a copy of this volume, to which was appended the second article of Duhouset's paper on the inhabitants of Persia, of which only eighty copies were printed, with 14 plates (in continuation of the first article printed only in the "Revue"). Tome IX., 1864 (entitled "Revue Orientale"), pp. 380, XX, with 13 plates numbered XXXVIII to I. Tome X., 1865, pp. 416. According to Leclerc, the single plate numbered II which is referred to in the table of tome X., was never printed. Tomes I.-VI. and X. have half-titles, "Revue Américaine et Orientale," and tome IX, "Revue Orientale." The titles and indexes of several of the volumes are printed on different paper, and appear to have been added afterwards. These ten volumes, together with the continuation, tomes XI.-XIV., Paris, 1872-76, were also issued as tomes I.-XIV. of the "Mémoires de la Société d'Ethnographie." Originally issued in parts at irregular intervals, complete sets of this valuable periodical, with all the continuations and extra volumes, have become very scarce. For a partial list of contents and a description of most of the volumes, see Leclerc's "Bibliotheca Americana" (1878), Nos. 512, 2551. For other editions, etc., see "Société d'Ethnographie."

In the copy here described, now in the possession of Señor Icazbalceta of Mexico, a printed slip of paper containing the word "Tepuzculula" was pasted over the word "Tamazulapa" on the title-page. The dedication is dated on the 20th January, and the approbation on the 28th January, 1593. The text begins on folio 1 with the caption, "Comiença el Arte de la Lengua Mixteca, conforme a lo que se habla en Tepuzculula." The 28th and last chapter is entitled, "De los nombres de los pueblos de que más noticia se tiene en esta Nueva España, vuelta en lengua mixteca para necesidades que se ofrecen cada día de saberlos." The above title is from Icazbalceta's "Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo xvi.," pp. 338-341, which contains a reprint of a portion of the prologue relating to the Mixtec dialects, and a facsimile of the original title-page. See also Adelung's "Mithridates," vol. III., pt. 3, pp. 34-44. I can trace no other copy. The following reprint is perhaps equally rare:

The only printed work relating to the Mame dialect known to be extant. The Mames are a branch of the Maya family, and their language is still spoken in Guatemala and Soconusco. On the verso of the title-page is a sonnet by Sebastian Ramirez, the initial letters of which form the name "Diego de Reinoso." The dedication to P. Marcos Salmeron fills one leaf, and is dated October 20, 1643. The "Arte" occupies folios 1-36; and the "Vocabulario desta lengva ZaElophaEap," folios 37-87, ending with "Laus Deo." The Confessionario, Doctrina, etc., mentioned on folio 1 are not included, and probably were never printed. The volume is extremely rare. A copy, described as containing the title and dedication leaf and leaves 1-87, was sold at the Leclerc sale in 1867 (No. 1303) for 1,000 francs. Another copy, lacking the title, but catalogued as having the "dedication 1 l. (defective); Text 89 numbered 11," and dated approximately "17—," was sold at the Ramirez sale in 1880 (No. 471) for £7 10s. See Icazbalceta's "Apuntes," No. 146; Pilling's bibliography of "North American Linguistics," No. 3242, from which the above title is taken; and Buckingham Smith in the "Historical Magazine," v. 117-118, where some extracts are given.

"The earliest printed volume of Rhode Island Laws," of which Mr. Bartlett said in 1870 that "only five perfect copies" are known. An article by the Hon. Joshua M. Addeman on the Public Statutes, in the "Providence Journal" of January 23, 1882, states that "Eighty copies were ordered by the Assembly, of which Judge Staples said in 1847 there was but one copy known to be in existence in this State. There are now some five or six copies known to be extant in the State, besides copies in the Library of Congress, the Social Law Library in Boston, and the Worcester Antiquarian Society's Library, and possibly others." For the above title and note, I am indebted to Mr. John Nicholas Brown of Providence, and to Mr. Chas. W. Hoffman, librarian of the Law Department of the Library of Congress at Washington. The manuscript "Bodye of Lawes of the Colonie of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations" from 1663, as revised in 1705, is preserved in the office of the Secretary of State at Providence. "The first work printed in Rhode Island—four years before the date which Thomas (i. 419) gives as that of the establishment of the First Press in Newport. A most desirable acquisition to every Rhode Island collector, it will be scarcely less attractive to collectors of Franklinaiana, in other States, since James's "Poor Robin" manifestly gave the hint for Benjamin's "Poor Richard," first printed in 1732. The calendar pages contain many pithy remarks and quaint proverbs, much in the vein of "Richard Saunders, Philom."—J. H. TRUMBULL. RICH (O.) Bibliotheca Americana Nova; or, a Catalogue of Books in various languages, relating to America, printed since the year 1700. Compiled principally from the works themselves, by O. Rich, Member of the Massachusetts Historical Society; of the Albany Institute; of the Pennsylvania and New England Linnæan Societies; Honorary Member of the American Antiquarian Society, &c. London: O. Rich, 12, Red Lion Square. New York: Harper and Brothers, 82, Cliff Street. 1835. 8vo, pp. (4), 424. H., L. 70875

The half-title, "Bibliotheca Americana Nova. Part 1. 1701 to 1800," has printed on the verso the following: "Notice. Circumstances having occurred which will interrupt for a while the continuation of this Work, it has been determined to publish that part of it which comprehends the whole of the last century by itself. With the continuation it is proposed to publish a Supplement, which will contain an account of numerous Works belonging to the last century, which have been met with since these sheets were sent to press. A general Alphabetical Index will be given at the end of the Work. Mr. Rich will be happy to treat with any public Establishment for the whole of his Collection of Books relating to America, which contains many Works not to be found in any similar collection. 12, Red Lion Square; December 1, 1834." On the verso of the title: "London: Printed by J. and C. Adlard, Bartholomew Close," and below: "250 Copies printed in all: For sale in England, 100. To send to America, 150." No. 1 of this edition, a presentation copy to Lord Kingsborough, is now in the Lenox Library. In the specimen pages 33-48 appended to Rich's catalogue for 1834, page 33 ends with title No. 4, and the year "1731" begins on page 45; while in the completed volume they are condensed so that page 33 takes in two lines of title No. 5, and the year "1731" begins on page 44. In 1841 the following supplement was printed:

[RICH.] Supplement to the Bibliotheca Americana Nova. Part 1. Additions and Corrections 1701 to 1800. London: Rich:—12, Red Lion Square. 1841. 8vo, title, and pp. 425-517.

An extra number of copies was printed of this supplement, so that it is sometimes found alone or bound at the end of the second volume. Pages 509-517 contain an alphabetical index to the whole volume. In 1846, on the completion of the second volume, the following title was printed for the first:

RICH. Bibliotheca Americana Nova. A Catalogue of Books relating to America, in various languages, including Voyages to the Pacific and Round the World, and Collections of Voyages and Travels Printed since the Year 1700. Compiled principally from the works themselves, by O. Rich ... Vol. I. 1701-1800. London: Rich and Sons, 12, Red Lion Square. 1846. 8vo.

Collation: Half-title and notice, 1 leaf; title of 1846, 1 leaf; title of 1835, 1 leaf; dedication "To the Members of the Massachusetts Historical Society," London, March 1, 1846, 1 leaf; text, pp. 424; title of Supplement, 1841, 1 leaf; text, pp. 425-517. On the verso of the new title: London: Printed by J. S. Hodson, Clifford's Inn Passage, Fleet Street. The completed volume contained 2,522 separate titles.

RICH. Bibliotheca Americana Nova. A Catalogue of Books in various languages relating to America, printed since the year 1700. Compiled principally from the works themselves, by O. Rich, Member of the Massachusetts and Georgia Historical Societies; of the American National Institute, the Albany Institute; the American Antiquarian Society, &c. &c. &c. Vol. II. London: Geo. Rich, 12, Red Lion Square. New York: Bartlett and Wellford, 7, Astor House. 1844. 8vo, half-title, title, and pp. 228. H., L. 70878

The half-title, "Bibliotheca Americana Nova. Part II. 1801 to 1830," has on the verso the following: "Notice. A third part of this work is in preparation, bringing it down to the present time, with a Supplement of Books omitted and Index. 12, Red Lion Square, January 1, 1844." On the back of the title: London: J. S. Hodson, Jun., Printer, 112, Fleet Street. The "third part" referred to was published in 1846. It covered the years 1831 to 1844, with an index to the whole volume, and contained: the new title of vol. II. dated 1846, the new title of vol. I. dated 1846, the dedication leaf "To the Members of the Massachusetts Historical Society," the "Notice" on one leaf paged 4 on the verso, and pp. 229-412. The Index filled pp. 397-412. Copies of the completed volume were then issued as follows:

RICH. Bibliotheca Americana Nova. A Catalogue of Books relating to America, in various languages, including Voyages to the Pacific and Round the World, and Collections of Voyages and Travels Printed since the Year 1700. Compiled principally from the works themselves, by O. Rich Vol. II. 1801-1844. London: Rich and Sons, 12, Red Lion Square. 1846. 8vo, pp. 4, 412. A. 70879

2,593 separate works were described in this volume. A larger number of copies was printed than of the first volume, and some copies were printed on thick paper on one side only. On the verso of the title: London: Printed by J. S. Hodson, Clifford's Inn Passage, Fleet Street. On the next leaf was the following: "Notice. The Supplement to this work, of Omissions, Corrections, and Additions, having increased to a much greater bulk than was expected, will be published in a separate volume, together with a complete General Index, in which the works relating to particular places and subjects, will be arranged under their respective heads.—For example, under Columbus will be placed a list of all the books which have been published relating to him and his voyages; under Virginia, all those relating to that Colony and State, &c.; and will comprise the books printed before 1700 as well as those printed since. N. B. Mr. Rich has in his possession the greater part of the books described in this work, from which he could supply the Public Libraries and Colleges in the United States, with such as may be wanting in their collections; most of the modern voyages, travels, &c., at very low prices." The supplement and general index here referred to were never published.

RICH. Bibliotheca Americana Vetus. [Prospectus. London.

1846.] 8vo, 1 leaf; Books relating to America, 1493-1700, pp. 16; Supplement, pp. 8. 70880

A work with the above title was announced by Mr. Rich in this prospectus as follows, but it was never published: "Bibliotheca Americana Vetus. This work, which will form one octavo volume of about four hundred pages, will be published with all convenient speed. In the mean while the annexed lists of books printed before the year 1700, which have been collected for the purpose of forming the work, is offered, in the hope that collectors of rare books relating to America, who may possess important works on the subject will have the kindness to communicate to the subscriber exact copies of their titles, their size, number of pages, or leaves where not paged, and any remarks they may think proper, which shall be duly and thankfully acknowledged. O. Rich, 12, Red Lion Square, London, February 1, 1846." According to Trübner's Bibliographical Guide to American Literature, "This work was completed by Mr. Rich, and prepared for publication; but the ms. having been accidentally left in a hackney conveyance, was never recovered, and was sold as waste-paper to a butcher at Gravesend, in the vicinity of Mr. Rich's residence, from whom only a few sheets were ultimately rescued." The two lists which accompanied the prospectus had already been issued separately as described below:

[RICH.] Books relating to America. 1493-1700. [Colophon:] Printed by J. S. Hodson, 15, Cross Street Hatton Garden, London. [184-?] 8vo, pp. 16. L. + [Another edition. Ibid. n. d.] 4to, pp. 4. L. 70881

A list of nearly six hundred works, arranged in chronological order.

[RICH.] Books relating to America. 1493-1700. Supplement. [Colophon:] Hodson, Printer, 2, Clifford's Inn Passage, Fleet Street. [184-?] 8vo, pp. 8. L. 70882

A list of about three hundred and twenty-seven works, supplementary to the other list.

[RICH.] A Catalogue of Books, relating principally to America, arranged under the years in which they were printed. London: O. Rich, 12, Red Lion Square. 1832. 8vo, pp. 129. A., B., L.

Part I. Books Printed between the Years 1500 and 1600, pp. 3-22; Part II. Books printed between the years 1600 and 1700, pp. 23-129. A bookseller's catalogue, describing in chronological order four hundred and eighty-six works, of which ninety were printed before the year 1600. The titles were generally given in full, with prices and occasional bibliographical notes. On page 23 is the following: "Note.—A number of curious and scarce works relating principally to North America, although not at present in my possession, will be inserted at the end of each year, with this mark (*) for the information of Collectors of Books relating to America."

The first twenty pages of this catalogue were issued in 1832, with a cover-title as "Part I. of a Catalogue of Books relating principally to America, collected by O. Rich, No. 12, Red Lion Square, London," and a leaf of advertisements containing the announcement that, "Mr. Rich begs leave to inform his fellow-citizens, that his Catalogue of Books relating to America, in all languages, chronologically arranged, from the earliest period to the present time, will be ready early in the Spring. It will form a handsome octavo volume, and will be sent gratis to his regular correspondents, and to those who may order books from him hereafter." From this it would appear that the catalogue was not completed until 1833.

RICH. Catalogue of a Collection of Manuscripts principally in Spanish, relating to America, in the possession of O. Rich, No. 12, Red Lion Square, London. London: Printed by William Bowden. [1845?] 18mo, pp. 36, (4), 37-44. L. 70884

Also printed on large paper in octavo. "The greater part of this Collection was formed by Don Antonio de Uguina, of Madrid, and comprise almost every thing of any interest that was collected by his friend Muñoz, for the 'Historia del Nuevo Mundo,' of which only the first volume was published. Uguina was also the intimate friend of Navarrete, and furnished him with many of the materials for his 'Coleccion de Viages de los Españoles.' After his death, his mss. were purchased by M. Ternaux Comans, of Paris, who translated and published a few of them; and who had already collected in South America, and in other quarters, many curious books and mss. on the same subject, all of which came into my possession. To these I have added several duplicates from the valuable Collection made by Lord Kingsborough, and a few curious articles collected lately in Spain."—Prefatory note. The collection, comprising 167 lots and 10 autograph letters, was purchased by Mr. James Lenox, and is now in the Lenox Library.

RICH. ... Manuscripts and Printed Books in possession of Obadiah Rich, Esq. December 27, 1827. Printed by order of the House of Representatives. Mr. Everett, from the Committee on the Library, submitted the following list of manuscripts and printed books relating to America, in possession of Obadiah Rich, Esq. Consul of the United States at Valencia. ... [Washington. 1827.] 8vo, pp. 24. B., L. 70887

"20th Congress, 1st Session. (Rep. No. 37.) Ho. of Reps." Dated at the end, "Madrid, September 28, 1827." Comprises ninety-three Spanish manuscripts, and 383 works printed between the years 1506 and 1825, all relating to America. Among these was a copy of Pedro de Cordova's "Doctrina Christiana," Mexico, 1544, which was afterwards sold to Richard Heber for forty guineas.

Obadiah Rich was born at Boston in New England in 1783, and died at London in 1850. From 1815 to 1827 he resided in Spain, for most of the time as United States Consul at Valencia. During this period he made the valuable collection of Spanish books and manuscripts relating to America, which afterwards served as the basis for his bibliographical catalogues. In 1828, having failed in an endeavor to sell his collections to the United States Government for the Library of Congress, he removed to London, where he established himself as a bookseller. Among his earliest patrons was Lord Viscount Kingsborough. From 1836 until some time before his death he resided mostly at Port Mahon on the Balearic Islands, to which place he had been appointed United States Consul—his business in London being still conducted under his direction by his son George Rich. During all this time he was busily engaged in the preparation of his bibliographical works, which were never entirely completed. Mr. Rich may be truly called the pioneer of American bibliography. He was the first to give an impetus to, and excite a general and lasting interest in, the collection of "Americana." His catalogues are still useful and important as bibliographies, chiefly on account of their chronological arrangement. The titles of the works were usually given in full, with prices in many instances, and numerous bibliographical notes.

[London. 1872.] 8vo, pp. (2), 109, and covers. A. The catalogue appears to have been edited by Henry Stevens. Numbers 725 to 746 comprise articles by Mr. Rich, among which were the following manuscripts: 725, "Materials for a Bibliography of America from the earliest to the latest times, very plainly and neatly written on upwards of two hundred leaves of thick paper, in the neat Autograph of the late Mr. O. Rich, ... bound in 1 vol. half crimson morocco, rough edges—The original unpublished manuscript, of the highest interest to the American Bibliographer and Historian;" 726, "Bibliotheca Americana Nova, A Catalogue of Books relating to America printed between 1789 and 1844—The Original Autograph Manuscript of a large portion of the work, contained in 3 Book covers—This contains much additional matter which is believed to be unpublished;" 727, "Spanish Bibliography, A list of Books and Manuscripts, relating to New Spain, Texas, California, Louisiana, Florida,

Peru, Paraguay, the Jesuits, the Indians, etc. very plainly written in the near Autograph of the late Mr. O. Rich.—The Original ms. slips as prepared by the Author for publication. The Introduction begins thus 'When a man has a large family to look after, and no mode of providing for it, but that which his own ingenuity may suggest, he can have but little time to devote to reading and research. This has been the case with the author of this work. Brought up to commerce, and ever anxious to obtain rapidly a sufficiency to enable him to devote the remainder of his life to literature and scientific pursuits, he engaged in transactions highly lucrative in appearance, but with a Government treacherous and unfaithful with individuals.'

The only copies known of this curious jumble in verse are those belonging to Mr. Huth of London (bought at the sale of Lord Charlemont's library in 1865 for £63), and Mr. Charles H. Kalbfleisch of New York. Nothing appears to be known of the author besides what he tells of himself in the book. In his address "To the Reader" he says, "Reader, thou dost peradventure imagine that I am mercenarie in this busines, and write for money (as your moderne Poets vse) hyred by some of those euer to be admired Aduenturers, to flatter the world: No, I disclaime it, I haue knowne the Voyage, past the danger, seene that honorable work of Virginia, & I thanke God am arriued here to tell thee what I haue seene, don, & past: if thou wilt belieue me so, if not so to: for I cannot force thee but to thy owne liking: I am a Souldier, blunt and plaine, and so is the phrase of my newes: and I protest it is true. A rare and early specimen of Mexican typography. The author, Denis de Leewis, commonly called Rikel, was born at Rikel in the diocese of Liège in Belgium, in 1394, and died in 1471. The latter part of the tract consists of arguments and exhortations written by Don Fray Juan de Zuniárraga, the first bishop of Mexico. The Andrade copy sold for 340 thalers, and afterwards at Mr. Brinley's sale for $525; the Fischer copy for £35.10; the Ramirez copy for £41. An enlarged edition as follows:

RICHEL. ¶ Este es vn cõpẽdio breue que tracta d'la | manera de como se hã de hazer las pcessio|nes: compuesto por Dionisio Richel cartu|xano: q̄ esta ẽ latĩ ẽla p̄mera pte d' sus p̄ciosos | opusculos: romançado pa comũ vtilidad. | [Colophon:] ¶ *Aq̄ se acaba este breue cõpẽdio de Dionysio cartuxano: cõla adición delos | argumẽtos cõ sus respuestas. 7c. q̄ tracta delo q̄ es mãdado y vedado ẽlas p̄cessiões: ẽ especial ẽla d' Corpus xp̄i: por cuya causa se romãço. A careful comparison of the two editions shows that the first three or four pages of this one are almost identical with those of the first, the same type having been used for both, mostly without resetting. In one place, at the top of a page, an additional word or two was inserted, and in order to make room without altering the rest of the page, two lines were reset with contracted and abbreviated words. The remainder of the tract, however, was entirely reset, with a number of changes and additions in the second part, among the latter being a long exhortation at the end. Señor Icazbalceta suggests that the date was omitted in the colophon for lack of room, as the last page of text is entirely full and the colophon is crowded in by the use of small type. The Andrade copy sold for 400 thalers; the Ramirez copy for £23.10. See Icazbalceta's "Zuniárraga," pp. 259-262, and "Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo xvi.," Nos. 6 and 7; "Historical Magazine," ii. 245, 342.

Aaa-Ppp in sixes and Qqq in eight) ; Alphabetical tables, 10 leaves (sig. ¶¶ in six and ¶¶¶ in four).

The full-page copperplate map of the world in two hemispheres, has an elaborate border containing small medallion portraits of Sir Francis Drake, Thomas Cavendish, Ferdinand Magellanus and Oliverus Vander Noort, engraved by R. Vaughan. At the top is the inscription, "A New and accurate Mappe of the World, drawne according to the best and latest discoveries that have beene made." Dr. Moore, of the Lenox Library, has called my attention to the fact that this is the map described as belonging to Sir Francis Drake's "World Encompassed," 1628. See the Grenville catalogue, 1. 208. There are also four other full-page copperplate maps, representing America, Africa, Asia and Europe, on pages 52, 66, and 114 of the first part, and on the verso of half-title to the second part. The description "Of America and the Provinces thereof," fills pp. 51-64 of the first part, including a map (about 6 by 7½ inches) entitled "Americae Descrip." This appears to have been the earliest systematic work on trade and commerce published in the English language. See McCulloch's "Literature of Political Economy," p. 38.

LXXI. | Folio, pp. (20), 431, Tables 8 leaves. 4 large folded Maps. L.

The description of "America and the Provinces thereof," pp. 47-64, contains much fuller accounts of New England, New Netherland, and other places, than that in the first edition. The four new folded copperplate maps of America, Africa, Asia and Europe, are very handsomely engraved with elaborate borders, and are much larger and finer than those in the first edition. The map of America (about 17½ by 21½ inches) is entitled: "A|New and most Exact map|of|America|Described by Ni Vischer and don |into English Enlarged and corrected acording |to I Bleau and Others with the Habits of y^e |people & y^e manner of y^e Cheife Sitties y^e like never before | London | Printed Coloured and are to be sold by Iohn Overton at y^e |white |horse neere the Fontaine Tavern Without Newgate |1668." Among the inscriptions which it contains is the following on the "Iland" of California: "This California was in times past thought to beene a part of y^e continent and so made in all maps but by further discoveries was found to be an Iland long 1700 legues." On the lower left-hand corner is a map of the Arctic regions. The engraved border contains portraits, figures of the natives, and plans of several towns. Among the latter are views of "Pomeiooc a cyty in Virginia," and of "Carolina a place of refuge for y^e French in Florida."

There is a copy of this edition at the Boston Athenæum in which the imprint varies slightly as follows: London, | Printed for R. Horn, and are to be sold by G. Saubridge, J. Martyn, | E. Brewster, J. Starkey, T. Basset, H. Brome, J. Wright, R. Chiswel, R. Boulter, | and B. Took, M. DC. LXXI.

Sawbridge, at the Three Flower-deluces in Little-Britain, MDCCLXXVII. | Folio, pp. (20), 431, Tables 8 leaves. 4 folded Maps. L. 71908

An entire reprint, apparently without additions. The description of "America and the Provinces thereof" fills pp. 47-64. The four maps are quite inferior to those in the second edition and are not so large. They are also without borders. That of America is entitled: "Americæ Descriptio Nova Impensis Philippi Chetwind Will Trevethen sculp. 1666."

"The histories of Robertson abound in the finest descriptions, the most pleasing delineations of character, the most dignified and judicious mixture of reflections; and more especially they are distinguished by a style of narration at once manly, copious, and easy. But all these descriptions, delineations, reflections, and even this narrative itself, are too general for practical use and application. The politician and political economist will search those writings in vain for the accurate details of fact which they have a right to expect from one who investigates the subjects of particular men and nations. Dr. Robertson appears to have studied grace and dignity more than usefulness. He has chosen those features of every figure which he could best paint, rather than those which were most worthy of his pencil. The charms of Robertson's style, and the full flow of his narration, which is always sufficiently minute for ordinary readers, will render his works immortal in the hands of the bulk of mankind. But the scientific reader requires something more than the periods which fill his ear, and general statements which gratify by amusing. ... When we repair to the works of Robertson for the purpose of finding facts we are instantly carried away by the stream of his narrative, and forget the purpose of our errand to the fountain. As soon as we can stop ourselves, we discover that our search has been vain, and that we must apply to those sources from which he drew and culled his supplies."—Edinburgh Review, II. 241. There is good reason to believe that the above work, and probably one or more of those described below, were printed at Leyden on the press of William Brewster, the ruling elder in Mr. Robinson's pilgrim church. Several years before his departure in the Mayflower for New England, Brewster had set up a printing-press in that city, at which he "had employment enough by reason of many books which would not be allowed to be printed in England." The earliest book I have seen bearing his name in the imprint was dated 1617; but most of his publications appear to have been issued without indication of place or printer. In 1619 the authorities instituted an inquiry concerning certain books he had printed, and nothing appears to have come from his press after that date. See Steele's Life of Brewster, pp. 172-174; and Winsor's "Narrative and Critical History of America," vol. iii., p. 287.

ROBINSON. An Appendix to Mr. Perkins his Six Principles of Christian Religion. [n. p.] 1636. 16mo, pp. (16). 72091

This edition appears to have been unknown to Mr. Ashton, the editor of the collected edition of Robinson's "Works." Concerning the book he makes the following remarks: "No trace of this Catechism has been found earlier than 1642—seventeen years after the death of the Author. It does not appear, however, to have been a posthumous publication. The edition of 1655 ... contains a preface, omitted in earlier copies, written unquestionably by Mr. Robinson, and must have been taken from an edition published during the Author's lifetime, and at Leyden itself, as he evidently intended it for the use of the adult portion of his church and congregation." Contents: Vol. I., Memoir of Robinson; New Essays, or Observations divine and moral, 1628; A Defence of the doctrine propounded by the Synod at Dort, 1624. Vol. II., A Justification of Separation from the Church of England, 1610. William Perkins, 1642; Appendix.

The memoir is followed by an account of "The descendants of the Rev. John Robinson traced by Rev. William Allen, D.D., Northampton, Massachusetts." Robinson's "Manumission" was not included in this collection of his works, because no copy could be found for reprinting. The "Two Letters on Christian Fellowship," one by Rev. William Ames, D.D., the other by Mr. Robinson, were reprinted from Lawne's "Prophane Schisme of the Brownists or Separatists," 1612, pp. 47-54. A manuscript testimonial to John Robinson, signed by Ant. Waleus and Festus Hommius, Theological Professors at Leyden, and dated May 25 and 26, 1628, was discovered by Dr. Dexter among some papers belonging to the English Presbyterian Church in Amsterdam, and afterwards reproduced in photo-lithographic facsimile in an edition of fifty copies, by Mr. Frederick Muller at Amsterdam in 1875.

Among the many erroneous statements which have been made concerning Mr. Robinson are the following: "The only book of Robinson's writing was entitled 'Justification of Separation from the Church of England,' published in 1851" (M'Clinton and Strong's Cyclopaedia); "John Robinson was one of the earliest Pilgrim Fathers who emigrated to America" (Bobn's Lewwles' Manual).

"The only general history of Brazil; a meagre and inaccurate work, which has been accounted valuable, merely because there was no other."—SOUTHEY. "Rocha Pitta, an intelligent and well-informed Brazilian, compiled a history of Brazil, from the Chronicles of the Jesuits and other authorities, and some valuable local knowledge of his own. This work is extremely copious in the details of its foundation as a colony, its successive governors, its churches, its monasteries and convents; but, in its natural history, productions, commerce, and, in short, every point of useful information, is brief, cramped and deficient; it is written also in the most bombastic and enthusiastic style; yet the Portuguese government in a few years publicly prohibited its being read under the severest penalties; and it is now only met with in the cabinets of the curious."—LINDLEY'S Voyage to Brasil. Edited by Luce de Lancival. Count de Rochambeau was commander of the troops sent from France to aid the Americans in the revolutionary war. "The object of this translation into English of an extract of the Memoirs of Marshal Count de Rochambeau, is to make known to the Americans a narrative so highly honourable both to them and to France; and, at the same time, to explain and show, in their proper light, the difficulties of the celebrated campaign of 1781, which decided the triumph of independence in the United States."—Prefatory note. [ROCHEFORT (Charles de).] Histoire | Naturelle et Morale | des | Iles Antilles de | l'Amerique. | A Rotterdam, | Chez Arnout Leers, Marchant Librair. 1658. [Printed title:] Histoire | Naturelle et Morale | des | Iles Antilles | de l'Amerique. | Enrichie de plusieurs belles figures des Raretez les plus | considerables qui y sont d'écrites. | Avec vn Vocabulaire Caraibe. | A Roterdam, | Chez Arnould Leers, | M. DC. LVIII: | 4to. A., BA., C., L. 72314

Collation: 8 preliminary leaves, comprising the engraved and printed titles, the Epistle in four pages, the preface in six pages, and the "Avertissement" in two pages; text, pp. 527, table (12). Sig. a and b in fours, A-Xxx in fours, and Yyy in two. Copperplate portrait of Messire Iaques Amprovx, between the title and page 1 of the text.

There are three varieties of the edition of 1658. In some copies (like that in the Astor Library) the four-page dedicatory epistle, "A Messire Iaques Amprovx seigneur de Lornie," is signed "C. de Rochefort;" while in other copies (like that in the Lenox Library) it is signed merely "L. D. P.," supposed to be the initials of Louis or Lonvilliers de Poincy, to whom the authorship of the book has been erroneously ascribed. A copy in the Boston Public Library has an additional line after the date in the imprint of the printed title: A Rotterdam, | Chez Arnould Leers, | M. DC. LVIII: | Avec privilege. In this copy the dedicatory epistle is unsigned, ending with a comma after the words "Votre tres-humble & tres obeissant serviteur," and the "Preface" fills eight pages, the "Avertissement" having been incorporated with it, and the whole rewritten. In the Boston Athenæum copy, which in other respects appears to agree with the Lenox copy, the last word of the eighth line of the printed title is spelled "Carabe."

Rochefort's name does not appear as author in this first edition. From the general tenor of the preface it may be inferred that more than one person had an interest or ownership in the work. In it the anonymous writers, or as they term themselves, "Directeurs de l'ouvrage," expressly disclaim any originality of material, and state that "nous n'y avons guères contribué que la forme & l'assemblage, ayant travaillé sur les fideles & les curieux Memoires, qui nous ont été fournis par des témoins oculaires, desintéressez & dignes de foy. ... Le premier plan de cet ouvrage fut dressé à Paris il y a déjà plus de set ans, & jugé digne de la lumiere par des personnes intelligentes qui le virent alors. ... Et dès lors nous l'eussions mis sous la presse, si des voyages nécessaires, & d'autres occupations plus importantes, ne nous en eussent détourné jusques à present. Mais si le public reçoit quelque satisfaction de cette Histoire, il n'aura pas sujet de se plaindre de son retardement: ven que nous la luy donnons & plus enrichie, & plus exacte qu'il ne l'eut eüe en ce tens-là. Car outre qu'il nous est venu d'ailleurs & des avis & des Memoires, nous avons beaucoup profité dans notre entretien familier avéque le P. Raimond, sur tout pour l'Histoire Morale des Antilles. ... Mais à ce défaut [de une Histoire de sa propre main], comme il est courtois & obligeant, il nous a fait part de ces lumieres & de ses trésors; & c'est à luy seul que nous devons entre autres choses, le Vocabulaire qui se trouve à la fin de ce Volume." Much of the material may have been collected by De Poincy, but the principal or rather sole compiler of the work appears to have been Charles de Rochefort, pastor of the French Protestant church at Rotterdam, who had resided several years in the West Indies. His name and profession are given in full only on the title of the Dutch translation published at Rotterdam in 1662. Most of the bibliographical works, however, have been led into the mistake of attributing the book to César de Rochefort, a contemporary French jurist and lexicographer, and also a zealous Catholic, who had probably never visited the Antilles.

Father Du Tertre, in the preface to his "Histoire Generale des Antilles," published at Paris in 1667, accuses Rochefort of having copied the greater part of the "Histoire Naturelle et Morale" from his works, without acknowledgement. He also says that the General de Poincy had obtained the vocabulary and other manuscript material from Father Raimond Breton, for the use of Rochefort in preparing the history. Notwithstanding Du Tertre's strictures, the work is an important and valuable contribution to our knowledge of the Antilles and their inhabitants. The first part of the book relates principally to the natural history of the islands, and the second part to the manners, customs, religion and arts of the Caribs. A vocabulary of the Carib language, by Father Raymond Breton, fills pp. 515-527. Forty-three copperplates of various sizes are printed in the text. In some copies the plate on page 146 has another one pasted over it. Some copies have the following title:

The engraved title is similar to the one in the first edition, but the words have been recut. The dedicatory epistle is signed "De Rochefort." Among the additions is a letter of the Chevalier de Poincy, and an extended account of the island of Tabago. The Carib vocabulary fills pp. 571-583. On page 18 is an engraved coat of arms of the Lampsins of Tabago.

There is no indication on the title that the work is in more than one volume. The first volume contains only Book I., the Natural History of the Antilles. The second, which is generally lacking, contains Book II., the Moral History. The plates are all on separate leaves in the first volume, and are similar in size and style to those in the French edition of 1667. All of them, except the additional plate at page 120, bear the page numbers opposite which they belong, as follows: 29, 104, 105, 106, 107, 109, 111, 112, 113, 118, 119, 123, 124, 126, 138, 141, 143, 148, 149, 153, 156, 162, 166, 166 again, 170, 180, 182, 189, 192, 195, 205, 215, 233, 242, 263, 264, 271, 301, 307, 307 again, 311, 321, 335, 348, 353. The "Abschriftl etlicher Briefle" fills pages 409-430 of the first volume.

A., H., L. 72322

Collation: 4 preliminary leaves, comprising the title, dedication and preface; text, pp. 351; A Caribbian Vocabulary, 5 leaves; A Table, pp. (5). 9 Plates at pp. 69, 78, 81, 97, 99, 105, 109, 119, and 131.

A translation of the anonymous French edition of 1658. The licence on the verso of the title is dated "Whitehall, June 2. 1665." The dedication "To the Right Worshipful Sir Edward Bysche" is signed "J. Davies." This is followed by "The Preface, Giving an account of both the Original and English Edition of this Work." The English translator adds: "Thus much as to the Authours and Directors of the Original Edition. The Publishers of the English hath only these few Remarks to trouble the Reader withal." Then follows an apology for the delay caused by the plague lately raging in London, and a caution "that where some accident is said to have happened four or five, or some other number of years since ... it is to be referred to the coming forth of the Original Edition, which was in the year M.DC.LVIII." After referring to the want of a map, it is promised that "if what is done at the present meet with the reception expected, the next Impression shall be furnished not only with the forementioned Map, but also some other Pieces of Ornament, whereof the last years distraction, and want of time now have obstructed the insertion." The above extracts will suffice to disprove some of the preposterous accounts of the book which have become current. The statement that nearly the whole or a large part of the edition was destroyed in the great fire of September, 1666, is also manifestly absurd.

"C'est sous certains points un ancien et peut être le premier guide de l'émigrant dans le Nouveau Monde. Les trois seigneurs Adrien, Jean et Gelin Lampsins avaient formé le projet de faire peupler l'île de Tabago, et faisaient passer à leurs frais et dans leurs vaisseaux un grand nombre d'hommes qui devaient y fonder une colonie sous les auspices des États-Généraux des Provinces Unies. Rochefort leur dédia son petit opuscule, qui outre une description de l'île et de ses produits, contient des avis pour ceux qui ont l'intention de s'y fixer. Cette relation est moins commune que l'Histoire naturelle et morale des Antilles, par le même auteur, elle est recherchée pour les détails sur les usages et les mœurs des naturels de l'île."—TRÜMEL. de la Louisiane, pour justifier son silence sur tous les libelles imprimés et répandus contre lui, pp. 14. 72330

Pour Dame Marie-Madeleine Gaston, au nom et en qualité de Veuve de Messire Vincent-Gaspard-Pierre de Rochemore. "After Vaudreuil was transferred, in 1752, from the Government of Louisiana to be Governor-General of Canada, the Marquis of Kerlerec was appointed in his place, but the Government of Louisiana was dependent upon the Government of Canada, and hence the importance of an open and clear communication, and the necessity of keeping back the English interlopers, as the French were pleased to call them. Kerlerec established a great number of posts and stations for trading with the Salvages, and repelling the encroachments of the English.
In 1758, the Lord of Rochmore arrived at New Orleans, and was made Commissary General of the Marine, and Ordonnateur of Louisiana, and consequently had under his care the many and remote posts of La Balise, La Pointe Coupee, Natchés, Arkankas, Mobile, Porte des Illinois, Fort du Quesne, &c. Hence, respecting a country of which so little is known of this early period, these books supply ample and authentic information."—STEVENS'S Bibliotheca Geographica, pp. 62-63.

ROGERS. The Book of the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him: to shew unto his servants things which were to come to pass: and Jesus Christ sent and signified it by his angels to his servant John; and now by revelation, hath opened the mystery contained in said book, unto his servant John Rogers, who hath explained the same for the edification and comfort of his Church and People, after a long and dark night of apostacy. The explanation being made so plain, that the eye of every spiritual reader may see how exactly things have come to pass, as were foretold by the Prophecy of this Book: and may see by it all things which are yet to come, not only to the end of this World, but to the finishing of the World to come. [First printed in Boston, 1720.] Second New-London edition. [New London:] Printed by Samuel Green; for Henry Waterous and Alexander Rogers. 1817. 12mo, pp. 248. P. 72681

John Rogers was a resident of New London in Connecticut, and founder of the Baptist sect called Rogerenes. All of his publications are very scarce. Of several of them no trace now remains. Half-title: "The Morristown Ghost." Signed "Philanthropist." "Who wrote and who published this pamphlet cannot now be certainly ascertained. Some supposed that Rogers himself wrote it, in order to increase his revenues and also to punish the Morristown people for their treatment of him. From the resemblance of the type and paper to that used in the New Jersey Journal, of that date, I suspect the pamphlet was printed by Sheppard Kollock, of Elizabethtown. The production was said to be very offensive, in Morristown and vicinity. ... The additions made by Mr. Young [in the edition of 1826] are very slight; but he has omitted some things, and touched up the grammar and rhetoric of his original."—JOSEPH F. TUTTLE in Historical Magazine, third series, vol. 1, pp. 2-10, 65-71.

"Very probably it was written by one who had some concern in the transactions; perhaps by Rogers himself, who must have been better acquainted with particular circumstances than any other person could pretend to be. The very inaccurate and apparently headlong manner in which it was executed, rendered a revision highly necessary. I have, however, very scrupulously followed the original."—YOUNG'S Preface.

"To this brave, active and judicious officer it is that the public are indebted for the most satisfactory account yet published of the interior parts of that immense continent which victory hath so lately added to the British Empire, of which we were in many respects totally ignorant, till the British Lion tore away the veil and opened to our view the wide, extended and glorious prospects (!!!)"—Monthly Review, xxxiv. 9, 242.

ROGERS. Journals of Major Robert Rogers : Containing An Account of the several Excursions he made under the Generals who commanded upon the Continent of North America, during the late War. From which may be collected The most material Circumstances of every Campaign upon that

"This is but the first part of the journals of this noted American partizan. It commences in 1755, and terminates with the year 1760. The second part, which is to be printed by subscription of one guinea, will contain the author's travels among the Cherokees and the Southern Indians; his second tour into the interior country, upon the great lakes; and the Indian wars in America since 1760; together with correct plans of all the British forts upon the continent. From the specimen of the work now before us, it appears that the accounts of Major Rogers may be depended upon by the public; they are undoubtedly as authentic as they are important and necessary to those who would acquire a thorough understanding of the nature and progress of the late military operations in North America. The author writes like an honest, a sensible, and a modest man; and he has given, throughout his whole conduct, undoubted proofs that he is a brave and skilful officer."—Monthly Review, xxxiv. 80.

The second part of the Journals, announced in the advertisement at the end of the volume, was not published. A narrative of the siege of Detroit, which probably formed a portion of the proposed continuation, was printed with the "Diary of the Siege of Detroit" at Albany in 1860. See Vol. v., No. 19788. Major Rogers was a native of New Hampshire, and son of James R. Rogers, an early settler in the town of Dunbarton in that State. After the outbreak of the revolutionary war he joined the Royalist party, and made himself prominent as captain of the "Queen's Rangers." He died in obscurity about the year 1800. See Sabine's "Loyalists of the American Revolution," ii. 233-236; Duyckinck's "Cyclopædia of Am. Lit.," (1875), i. 180; New York Historical Society "Collections," iii. 325.

Leclerc (Bibliotheca Americana, 1878, No. 519) describes a copy of this edition which contained a map of Paraguay, a map of the world, and 8 plates in the first volume; and two frontispieces, 6 plates and 4 maps in the second volume. The large map of Paraguay by Delisle in the first volume is dated 1717. Maps. H. 72763

The maps are the same as those in the Dutch edition, with all the inscriptions in Dutch. The original issue of the English Roggeveen probably contained but 31 maps, which is all that the list at the end of the volume calls for. The Harvard copy, however, contains the "Generaële Kaert," Nos. 1-30, [7½], and [31], all of which are described under the Dutch edition, supra. On page [60] is the full-page copperplate map: "Paskaarte Van 't Eijlant S^{ta}. Catalina en de gelegenheit daer ontrent."

Some copies are described as without date. The maps have Dutch inscriptions, and are the same as those in the original Dutch edition, but the text is in French. The above title was furnished by Mr. John Nicholas Brown. His copy, however, contains the Spanish descriptive text, instead of the French, and closely agrees in collation with the following number:

The thirty-three maps are identical with those in the Dutch edition, with the Dutch inscriptions. They comprise the "Generaale Kaert," Nos. 1-30, [7½], and [31], already described in the note to No. 72762, supra. The list of maps at the end of the text includes only the general chart and the thirty numbered maps. The woodcut plans in the text are also the same as those in the Dutch edition. The full-page copperplate "Mappa de la Isla de Santa Catalina" on page 60, however, is entirely different from the map of the same island on page 56 of the Dutch edition.

In the Lenox copy are loosely inserted the following additions, which appear to have been taken from another, and probably later, issue: "Breve compendio de la situacion y propiedad de la Tierra," in two pages, and the two Dutch maps numbered 26½ and 32.

The large map is entitled: Paskaerte | Beschreven door Arent Roggeveen | Met Octroy | van de H. M. Staten Generael | over zyn Geoctroyeerde Zuyt Zee | Amsterdam | By de Wed: Pieter Goos. | This rare and important work relates to the new lands and islands in the South Seas, and proposes an expedition for the purpose of making further explorations and discoveries. The company appears to have been dissolved, however, and the project abandoned, after the death of Roggeveen in 1679. For a sketch of the author's life see the introduction to Jacob Roggeveen's "Dagverhaal," published in 1838, pp. xi-xv. He also wrote the following:

Het nieuwe droevige Nachtlucht ontsteken door Godts toren, ende vertoont op den Aerdtkloot in een Comeet ofte Steertsterre, den 15 December 1664 tot den 9 Februarij 1665, waarin wort aangewesen den wonderlycken loop derselve. Edited by S. de Wind. It also forms the sixth part of the "Nieuwe Werken van het Zeeuwsch Genootschap der Wetenschappen, Eerste Deel," 1839. Jacob Roggeveen was a son of Arent Roggeveen, and his own journals, here published for the first time, contain the most authentic account of his memorable voyage. The following works relate to the same expedition, but they were not written by Roggeveen :

[ROGGEVEEN.] Kort en Nauwkeurig | Verhaal | van de | Reize, | Door drie Schepen in 't Jaar 1721. gedaan, op ordre van de Ed. Heeren Bewind- | hebbere van de West-Indische Compagnie in Holland, om eenige tot nog | toe onbekende Landen, omtrent de Zuid-Zee gelegen, op te zoeken. | Waar in alles wat haar op de Reize, van haar uitgaan tot haar te rug komste toe, is | wedervaren, word aangetoont ; als mede veele wonderlyke manieren, | gewoontens, en zeden der ontdekte volkeren, &c. | [Large woodcut of ships.] | Te Amsterdam, | By de Wed: Jacobus van Egmont, Boekdrukker en Verkoopster, op de | Reguliers Breestraat, in de Nieuwe Drukkery [sic]. | [1726 ?] 4to, pp. 11. Title and description from Icazbalceta's "Bibliografía Mexicana del Siglo xvi," pp. 234-236, where a full and careful description of the book is given, with a facsimile of the original title-page. The copy in Señor Icazbalceta's possession, which appears to be the only one known at present, is not quite perfect, as it lacks leaves ix-xvi (sig. B), which probably contained the "Cartilla." This is said to be the only known publication in the Chuchona dialect, which was spoken in Oaxaca, Mexico. Pimentel (Cuadro 11. 262) gives a pater noster in Chuchon, taken from a manuscript Doctrina by Fr. Benito Hernandez, which differs entirely from the specimen given by Roldan.

ROMANS. A Concise | Natural History | of | East and West Florida; | Containing | An Account of the natural Produce of all the Southern | Part of British America, in the three | Kingdoms of Nature, particularly the Animal and | Vegetable. | Likewise, | The artificial Produce now raised, or possible to be raised, | and manufactured there, with some commercial and po-|litical Observations in that part of the world; and a cho-|rographical Account of the same. | To which is added, by Way of Appendix, | Plain and easy Directions to Navigators over the Bank of | Bahama, the Coast of the two Floridas, the North of | Cuba, and the dangerous Gulph Passage. Noting also, | the hitherto unknown watering Places in that Part of | America, intended principally for the Use of such Ves- | sels as may be so unfortunate as to be distressed by | Weather in that difficult Part of the World. | By Captain Bernard Romans. | Illustrated with twelve Copper Plates, | And Two whole Sheet Maps. | Vol. 1. | New-York: | Printed for the Author, M,DCC,LXXV. | 8vo. BA., N., P. 72992

Collation: Frontispiece; title, with quotations on verso; engraved dedication, verso blank; Introduction, pp. 3-4; "List of Subscribers to this Work," pp. i-vii; "Subscribers for the book only," pp. viii; text, pp. 1-175, 178-342; half-title of the "Appendix," on the verso of which is "A List of Subscribers, whose Names came too late to be prefixed to the Work;" appendix, pp. i-lxxxix, verso blank; "Errata," pp. (2); "Advertisement" on one page, verso blank. 6 Plates, 3 Maps, and a folded table.

A rare and important work. "No copy has ever been found with either of the whole sheet Maps, and all are more or less deficient in the number of Plates referred to in the title-page. From the arrangement and tenor of the title, as well as from the sense of the 'advertisement,' at the end of the volume, we are clearly of opinion, that it was the author's design to distribute the 'twelve copper plates, And Two whole Sheet Maps' throughout the two volumes into which he intended to divide the work ... The work was issued in the following year with an abridged title, less preliminary matter, and without the Appendix, but the text in the body of the work is the same in both editions. In the 'Advertisement,' above referred to, the author announces his intention to issue a second volume, to be accompanied by maps, adding, that 'it is now in the press.' It does not appear, however, that it ever was published. The plates are curious specimens of early Continental engravings; they were drawn and etched by Romans himself, who throughout the book uses a small i for the personal pronoun."

The eleven copperplates described below are all that are known to have been published with the book: (1) "Frontispiece Vol. I. B. Romans fecit;" (2) dedication "To | John Ellis Esq' | Fellow of the Royal Societys of | London and Upsal | Agent for the Province of West-Florida. | This Work is with the greatest Respect most humbly Dedicated: by | His most Obedient | humble Servant | Bernard Romans"; (3) "P. 31 Avena aquatica Sylvestris"; (4) "P. 59 Cbaracteristick Cbicasaw bead"; (5) "P. 82 Cbaracteristick Chactaw Busts B. Romans fecit"; (6) [Chactaw funeral platform], "P. 89 B. R. inv. et fecit"; (7) "P. 93. B. Romans fecit Cbaracteristick bead of a Creek War Chief"; (8) [two Indian hieroglyphic paintings], "P. 102 B. R. fecit"; (9) "Page LXXVIII of the Appendix Entrances of Tampa Bay"; (10) "Page LXXXIV of the Appendix Pensacola Bar"; (11) "Page LXXXV of the Appendix Mobile Bar." The folded table at page 104 is entitled: "An Aggregate and Valuation of Exports of Produce from the Province of Georgia, With the Number of Vessels and Tonnage employed therein, annually distinguished, from the Year 1754, to 1773. Compiled by William Brown, Comptroller and Searcher of his Majesty's Customs in the Port of Savannah." At the end of the volume is the following: "Advertisement. The map of the county of the savage nations, intended to be put, facing page 72, was engraved by a Gentleman who resides in the country 60 or 70 miles from New-York, to whom the plate was sent; but when it was sent back, it miscarried, through the carelessness of the waggoner; and though the publication has been delayed some time on that account, it is not yet come to hand; the reader will therefore please to expect said map with the second volume. At the first planning of this publication, it was intended only to be a single volume, not exceeding 300 pages, appendix and all; but at the request of some Gentlemen, my friends, I have subjoined so many articles, that it swelled imperceptibly to about 800 pages, which made it necessary to print it in two volumes; and as some unexpected accidents, especially the want of a copper-plate printer, have occasioned delays; i will therefore, to atone in some measure, (for said delays) to those kind Gentlemen who favoured me with their subscriptions for the maps, deliver them the second volume gratis, as soon as it is published: It is now in the press. I return my most sincere thanks for the liberal encouragement that has been afforded me; and hope my work will be deemed deserving it. Bernard Romans."

Menzie's copy sold for \$175; Brinley's (bought at the Ingraham sale for \$9.50), \$265; Murphy's, \$160. Mr. Charles H. Kalbfleisch has a copy in the original boards, with uncut edges, measuring 8 x 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches on the page. Ordinary copies measure about 6 $\frac{3}{8}$ x 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches. For an account of Captain Romans and his writings, see Rutenber's "Obstructions to the Navigation of Hudson's River," pp. 9-13; Duyckinck's "Cyclopædia," [1875] vol. 1., pp. 317-318; and Allibone's "Dictionary."

Hogenberg's 'Civitates Orbis Terrarum' (1586). He adds, that Romanus had made this translation originally for his private use; by chance it came into the hands of the publisher N. Bassæus of Frankfort, the same who had published the different editions of A. Saut's German 'Parvum Theatrum' (which is likewise nothing else but a reprint, geographically arranged of the above mentioned alphabetical indices of Braun and Hogenberg). At the earnest desire of N. Bassæus, Romanus permitted his translation to be printed, and for the illustration of it the publisher made use of the same views which are in Saur's work."—F. MÜLLER.

Improved title of No. 24227, Vol. vi. It has been attributed to Jean Baptiste Feuillet. The subject of this biography, Isabel Florez, was born at Lima in 1586, and died in 1617. She was celebrated throughout Peru for her piety and austerity of life. In 1671 she was canonized under the name of Rosa de Santa Maria by Pope Clement x., and her name entered in the calendar of Saints under the 30th of August. The account of her life was first written in Latin by Leonard Hansen, and published at Rome in 1664. See Vol. viii., Nos. 30249-52. It was translated into French, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, German and Dutch, and reprinted many times. A number of the following titles should have been entered under Hansen, or under the names of their respective authors.
