

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

The capture of Jerusalem has come in time to make it a magnificent Christmas gift to the allied peoples. General Allenby, with his notable staff, drove the Turkish out of the city in two simultaneous brilliant actions. The British kept secret the plan of approach and the sudden and unexpected outbreak of their attack completely surprised the Turks. They drove out of the city in a few days the Turkish troops who had been in possession of the city since the capture of Jerusalem in 1917. The capture of Jerusalem is a great blow to the Turkish position in the East. It is a powerful one and it is seriously worrying the Bolshevik leaders.

The Czech leaders are not losing any time in the making of their position secure. Their forces are already marching toward the city. The Czechs are also receiving the support of the Orthodox Church, a still powerful organization. It is understood that the presence of the south also supports the Czech leaders. The uprising is a powerful one and it is seriously worrying the Bolshevik leaders.

The Italian claim a complete check of the Austrian invasion in the Italian front. The enemy used up hundreds of thousands of men in attempting to force the edge and Trento lines. He has captured tactical positions, but not the strategic positions. The arrival of the British and French reinforcements in the front lines permits the withdrawal of the Italian forces for recuperation and reorganization. The allies will proceed with energy to the restoration of the Italian army before spring. It is probable that this Italian army will undergo a complete reorganization. The United States also endeavor to supply the Italian front with arms and equipment. Italy needs more heavy guns. By spring the Italian army will probably attempt his campaigns against France and Italy, so they will have to be ready.

The invasion of Palestine, it seems, began at the right moment to neutralize the Turkish forces sent to the front. The British are now in a position to begin a campaign for the recovery of Bagdad. The storming of Gaza by General Allenby forced the Turkish to retreat. The British are now in a position to begin a campaign for the recovery of Bagdad. The Germans, according to American Secretary of War Baker, have mastered the largest army yet concentrated in France and Belgium. The armistice signed by the Bolsheviks has given the Germans their opportunity of putting into effect a plan to defeat France. An important war council at Washington is studying the situation. The British and the French armies number close upon five and a half million men. The British have a good opportunity for driving the Turks into Asia Minor. They will probably exploit their successes with the utmost dispatch. If they do not, the Germans will have time to collect a large army from the Balkans. The Russian army and to undertake a serious counter campaign.

Generals Kornilov, Kaledin, Alexieff and, perhaps, the Grand Duke Nicholas, have begun the clearing of the Bolshevik out of the Den region and they are marching toward Petrograd. The temporary government of Siberia is also placing an embargo on the wood stocks and other necessities under the Bolshevik sway. The

One of the best meetings of the campaign was held in the town hall in North Toronto last night in the interest of W. F. Maclean, the Union government candidate for South York. R. G. Kirby presided, and among those on the platform were Nicholas Garland, A. R. Hassard, Mr. R. G. Kirby, Mrs. C. A. Risk and Mrs. Dunbar. Strong speeches on behalf of the Union government and of Canada's continued participation in the war until it reached a victorious conclusion were delivered by Sir John Willison, A. R. Hassard, K.C., Mrs. Risk, Mrs. J. J. Flatroth, A.C., H. H. Ball and the candidate.

Mr. Hassard and Sir John Willison spoke in high praise of Mr. Maclean's public career. Mr. Hassard said that Mr. Maclean had always represented the interests of the public as opposed to that of the great corporations, and Sir John Willison said that one-half or perhaps two-thirds of the progressive legislation in the Dominion Parliament and provincial legislature during the past 20 years could be traced to the influence of the members for South York.

Among other things, Sir John Willison said: "There is no candidate for whom I would rather speak than W. F. Maclean. We have had a good many differences in the past and we will have a good many in the future. I know he tries to do as he thinks, and every once in a while I try to do as I think."

"I have followed W. F. Maclean's career closely from the beginning, and I am bound to confess he has always been the champion of public rights as against the corporations and private interests. He has been particularly consistent when it was much to his own interest to take the other course. I have followed Mr. Maclean, more I believe, or at least as much, as any man who has sat in the house of commons, and he is one of the best representatives of the people I know of, free of any group, section or party. I say tonight, as I have always said, that a man who will not forsake a party for a principle or conviction is not fit for citizenship in a free country.

"From one-half to two-thirds of the measures advocated by W. F. Maclean have been adopted, and probably any unpopularity that had come to him has been on account of his ideas being ahead of the times. It is very remarkable how many things which he advocated twenty years ago are now in force under the Dominion Government and under the legislatures. And may I make this other observation in passing. The government now existing, representing both political parties, has been described as a government of interests; to my mind nothing could be more utterly absurd, and I will give you one conclusive reason for the statement.

"The four most radical governments in Canada are those of the four western provinces. There, they have passed such measures as prohibition, woman suffrage, controlling corporations, controlling financial interests and measures for land taxation similar to those in Australia; and those governments are all of them behind the Union government. Every member of the Manitoba Government is in sympathy with this Union government. You have in the house of commons from this western country representatives of the strongest radical forces in Canada, forces which we in older Canada would have described as inimical to the interests of eastern Canada, but they are not inimical, being merely interested in the people rather than of the interests. And Mr. Maclean will be more powerful than in the past times, and therefore you ought to send Mr. Maclean back to parliament by a large majority, because he will be able to do a great deal more than ever for South York, and he has the qualities of a national leader, and the next parliament will need all the national leaders we have in the country."

SECOND SHIP FROM MASSACHUSETTS

Another Load of General Supplies for Halifax—Fund Now $200,000.

Boston, Dec. 10.—A second shipload of supplies for the relief of Halifax was assembled in this city tonight in readiness to go forward tomorrow. The cargo, valued at between $100,000 and $200,000, was gathered by the Massachusetts Relief Committee, upon receipt of orders from its representatives in Halifax, as to what was urgently needed.

In addition to shoes, clothing, rubber goods, roofing and window glass, a transportation unit of ten motor trucks was included. Each truck will have its own skilled chauffeur, gasoline supply and repair kits so as not to draw upon the overburdened city in any way upon its arrival.

Notwithstanding the existing shortage of rubber footwear the committee was able to secure $100,000 worth to meet the needs caused by the successive storms which have swept Halifax since Thursday's explosion. Many firms responded to committee appeals by giving rubbers and articles outright, while others made substantial reductions in their wholesale prices for the relief of Halifax now was joined Red Cross workers in packing 107 cases of clothing.

Notices were sent broadcast today by Mrs. Nathan's committee, chairman of the women's committee of the state national defence, that the particular need for the relief of Halifax now was money. The president of the Halifax relief committee also supplemented this appeal.

President of the Halifax relief committee said: "We have asked for one million dollars from the people of Massachusetts and they are replying splendidly." The fund today reached a total of $202,556.

(By R. T. Small.) British Headquarters in France, Dec. 10.—A staff captain is mentioned in the orders of the day issued by the general commanding a certain British division on the Cambrai front as follows:

"This little note tells the story of a remarkable bravery displayed by a captain under the stimulus of passion aroused by the crippling of his hand by a German air raid on England."

During the German attack near Cambrai the captain was severely wounded only with a heavy stick, he tackled and killed or dispersed a group of German machine gunners who were firing an ammunition dump near his headquarters. He was severely wounded, but he collected a small and heterogeneous force and pushed on to Les Rivieres, where he effected a hand-to-hand fighting, effectually cleared the place of German machine gunners and held the position until relief arrived.

Other thrilling incidents are told in the orders of the day. A British soldier, going personally among the front lines to cheer them, was captured, already blinded, was among his men by an orderly.

He testified that Kalschmidt suggested him to go to Canada to blow up factories and other property. Jaroch, a former German consul, said this city where several dynamite were dug up. He denied any cross-examination that he had promised immunity to testify for the government. He experienced change of heart, he said, when he saw that Kalschmidt was "getting people into the penitentiary."

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC. 11

Jerusalem.

Kaiser Wilhelm has received no heavier blow to his prestige than the stroke by which the British armies invested and captured Jerusalem, to be followed by the occupation of the Holy City by British, French and Mahometan representatives of the allies for the protection of the sacred shrines and places of sanctity.

The west has never quite grasped the distinction between the Turks, and the Saracenic power, largely Arabian, once more finding itself in the new kingdom of Arabia, with the vast populations of countries farther east under the way of more enlightened Mahometan authority, such as that of Agar Khan; and the huge Islamic population of India, which makes Britain the greatest of Mahometan empires.

The Kaiser, after his visit to Jerusalem in 1898, aspired to be recognized and regarded as the "defender of the faithful," in opposition to the British sovereign, perhaps, who is "Defender of the Faith." The faithful among the Mahometans, however, are by no means confined to Turkey. The Kaiser, brought up in the tradition of autocracy, had no idea of the true spirit of the great Islamic faith, the first official act of which was to grant a charter of freedom to Christians. How Christians, not widely differing from German methods, repaid Mahomet's clemency is a disputed point, but the true spirit of Mahometanism is more justly represented in the joint protection of the holy places of Jerusalem by Britain, France and Islam, than by any policy that the Kaiser would inaugurate.

The effect of the fall of Jerusalem on the German fortunes will be out of all proportion to the actual event. A straw shows how the wind blows, and the whole eastern world is aware today that the British, "who always come back," have inevitably followed their tradition. And what a tradition! But Coure de Lion rose on no prouder crusade than General Allenby, and achieved no fiercer triumph.

The Turks know that the Germans have failed them, and that they, like Salisbury, put their money on the wrong horse. The Mahometans of the far east and the near, the Arabians and the Egyptians, are all aware that Britain, who gives real freedom to all, is the champion of oppressed peoples, and that Palestine, like Egypt, has come under her restoring and healing power.

In the west we rely on professions. In the east men judge by practice. They have faith in the east that Britain will give the peace for which she fights. They know that Germany breaks her oath, keeps no faith, that her word is a snare. Those who, in India, would strive to change the immemorial faith of the people in their ancient religions, seldom realize that they are not setting the example that wins most hearts. The soldiers and statesmen are better Christians in this respect than the missionaries, excepting always the medicals. It will be a great test to the whole east the disposal that Britain will make of Palestine.

The Jews have had their promise recently confirmed to them by Mr. Balfour, and unquestionably when the war is over, all the Hebrew race who care to settle in the Land of Promise will be given an opportunity. But the greatest token of the great peace will be the dwelling together in unity of Hebrew, Moslem and Christian as Hindu, Moslem and Christian are learning to dwell in India.

In Europe the fall of Jerusalem to British arms will be an omen that will revive the memory of all the prophecies which have clung to the ancient City of Peace. Perhaps Mr. Carnegie will be willing to transfer the palace of arbitration from The Hague, and it would not be strange if the final treaty which will settle all the contentions of the great war, were signed under the shadow of Olivet and Calvary.

Food Prices, the Law and the Railways.

The United States Government makes a good beginning in its attempt to regulate food prices by requiring all persons who manufacture, import, store, or sell at wholesale, food commodities, to do so under government license and regulation. Dealers will be compelled to sell promptly and to charge only reasonable profit over and above purchase price. Hoarding, speculation, and undue profit are forbidden.

Some of this is new; much is as old as the hills. For centuries the common law of England, which is also the common law of Canada and the United States, has peremptorily forbidden hoarding, hoarding, and speculation. These ancient statutes have, moreover, been reinforced by stringent statutes against combinations in restraint of trade. The trouble has not been with the law, but with the failure to enforce the law. In Canada an order-in-council which admirably covered the entire ground was rendered almost nugatory by the lack of federal enforcement. The duty of enforcing this federal law was cast upon the provinces and municipalities.

The United States authorities intend to enforce their federal regulations by federal officials and through the federal courts. We believe that Mr. Hanna in Canada will also have to ask for national enforcement of the nation's will. But in Canada and the United States alike, the government will not only endeavor to put an end to hoarding, speculation, and excessive profit, but also to waste, and willful destruction. Upon this subject of wasting food the commercial conscience of every country needs an awakening.

We have still the problems of transportation, and so long as private ownership and operation of the railways continue, it will remain the biggest problem of all. The railway is a necessary middleman, but if often engrosses an undue toll. It has not been many years since Kansas farmers burned corn instead of endeavoring to exchange that corn for coal. The exchange could only have been effected through the railways, and the railways demanded a toll that left nothing either for the Pennsylvania miner or the Kansas farmer.

In some cases the amount of this toll of the carrier is indeed startling. In 1910 a hay dealer in British Columbia was selling hay in the Fernie district at $40 a ton. Of this he only got $2.09 for his profit, and he only paid $6 to the New Brunswick farmer who grow the hay. Thirty-two dollars, or 80 per cent of what the consumer paid, went to the railway. North Atlantic freight rates have been so high at various times as to absorb as much money from the English miller as he paid to the Saskatchewan farmer.

However, a beginning has been made, and in every country we may expect to see the people more and more protected against extortion in the matter of food prices. It is not the farmer who is getting too much. No one grudges high prices to the farmer, because everyone knows that when the farmer has money the town is prosperous. The burden under which the consumer groans is the burden of the middleman, who deliberately advances prices by unfair combinations, by hoarding, by speculation, and even by deliberate waste and destruction.

Sir Wilfrid's Gule.

Last February, when it cannot be said that the fever of an election campaign had anything to do with the matter, the recruiting committee of the Canadian Club of Hamilton wrote to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, asking him for a brief endorsement of their effort to arouse new interest and activity in recruiting. Similar letters were addressed to Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Newton W. Rowell, and both of these gentlemen responded with approving and heartening words. Sir Wilfrid replied that he was sorry he could not send at once an affirmative answer, but would look into the matter and keep it under advisement. He never replied further, but toward the end of last month stated in a speech in Ottawa that the gentlemen who wrote him were unknown to him, and having delayed replying, "for some reason or other, probably omitted the matter."

No one can pretend that this is a satisfactory explanation. Sir Wilfrid knows as well as anyone in Canada what a Canadian Club is, how non-political, or at least, non-partisan; and independently of those who applied to him, why should he fear to express his views on recruiting to anyone? A straightforward statement of approval—if he approved—would surely be the natural thing to expect.

Just why he declined to endorse the recruiting efforts in Hamilton last February, he did not attempt to explain. If it be suggested that he had a better plan in mind, the reply is that there is only one alternative to volunteer enlistment, and that is compulsory service. In 1904 Sir Wilfrid passed the Militia Act which calls for compulsory service by ballot. The only reason for not enforcing it and passing the Military Service Act, was to make the selection of those who were to serve according to ability to serve, instead of by ballot or chance. The Militia Act provides for compulsion and for service overseas.

Sir Wilfrid does not now approve of the Militia Act, nor does he approve of the Military Service Act. His own words are, "I did not believe in compulsion, nor do I yet. . . . I am in this war under the voluntary system to the last." Yet he did not endorse voluntary enlistment when requested by the Canadian Club of Hamilton to do so. Nor did he boast of being in the war "under the voluntary system to the last," until the voluntary system had absolutely failed and the house of commons was debating the adoption of compulsion.

His antipathy to the Military Service Act and to compulsory service is expressed in his official election statement. He says: "As to the present Military Service Act, my policy will be not to proceed farther, under its provisions, until the people have an opportunity to pronounce upon it by way of a referendum." That is to say, he would delay, at the most critical stage of the war, the reinforcement of the Canadian army, until their reserves were exhausted, and these gallant regiments, the 22nd of Montreal among them, would have to be filled with United States drafts, or merged with United States units.

Sir Wilfrid's policy is disingenuous, because he knows perfectly well that voluntary service is now out to be had. It is true that a large number of eligible men refuse to admit their liability to the state. But it is also true that there are many thousands of men perfectly willing to serve on a compulsory basis, who object to serve on a voluntary basis, simply on account of the injustice of the latter system. They will gladly fight if the "other fellow" is also compelled to do his bit. In all other countries compulsory service and, under the influence of German gold, rejected it, but the referendum is to be held again with more light thrown on the facts.

Canada is having its referendum in the only proper way to have a referendum, that is in a general election. Sir Wilfrid has taken the side of those who would not only not reinforce the army, but who decline to recognize the war at all, and who want the Canadian army to pass out of existence, buried in France or Flanders. And every vote given to a Laurier candidate is a vote on the grave of the Canadian army. The soldiers know.

Other People's Opinions

Name Wanted for Anti-War Liberals.

Editor World: I have noticed in the present election campaign that the party in opposition to the Unionists have endeavored to sequester to themselves the time-honored name of Liberals. It is well known that all the Liberals, who are really patriots in the broadest sense, are working with might and main with the Conservatives, and are supporting the Union government. It is not true that all patriotic newspapers should designate in every issue the people now serving following Laurier and who name indicative of their allegiance. How would Laurier-men whose only desire is to get political preferment, or to re-establish the patronage system which the Union government has eliminated? Their patriotism is as deep as schemers as Liberals. The name is discredited by the application. A word to the wise is sufficient.
A Loyal Elector.

Reverie.

As the thought broadens, so the years run;
Looks up the Worker, Death is at hand.
Vast the design he has but begun;
Should he not finish—why to have planned?

Faster to work than; mere mortal man
Knows that less worthy, he, than his aim;
Knows his own weakness, so in his plan
Blots out the ego, hopes not for fame.

Perfect his work, then, child of his love,
Gift to the world to admire or to scorn;
Crimson the poppy, snow white the dove,
Find him at even weary and worn.

SIR WILFRID SWINGS TO THE NATIONALISTS

Stewart Lyon Makes Strong Appeal for Help for Soldiers Through Union.

Stewart Lyon gave a strong address last evening speaking in favor of H. Hocken, the Unionist candidate for West Toronto, in the Masonic Hall, Euclid avenue. He asked, in view of the fact that Sir Wilfrid Laurier passed the Militia Act and also the Naval Service Act, why this change? "I will tell you," he said. "In 1910, when the Naval Service Act was passed, Mr. Henri Bourassa found his opportunity and launched in the Province of Quebec a campaign against Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the agitation spread and grew. It happened in the Province of Quebec at the last issue a number of Nationalists were elected to oppose Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Now he has not forgotten what happened in 1911. He discovered that the majority of the people of Quebec believed that Canada soldiers should not be sent abroad. In short, Bourassa had a message to send to the people. 'We are nothing to England.' This means Sir Wilfrid Laurier expects to build an absolutely solid anti-British vote in Quebec, and he has decided to swim with the storm and float into parliament along these lines. The speaker said that the political history of Canada. He spoke on what Canada had done, saying the boys who had given their lives had sacrificed for their country to a pinnacle of fame as the home of men who, in a great cause, were willing to give their all. 'If it had not been for the tenacity of the Canadians which Boches today would be working destruction on the coast of Kent from the gun positions in Calais,' he told them.

Sir John Willison, who occupied the chair, in opening the meeting stated that this was not an ordinary election. It was not a party election, and a vote for the Union government would not be a vote for a Conservative or a Liberal. It was a vote for the nation to fulfill the pledge made to the men at the front.

Mrs. G. G. Lindsey and J. D. Allan, who acted as the candidates, also addressed the meeting, which was notable for the large number of women who were present. The speaker stated that the various issues at stake, and told them that there were only two questions to be decided: "The boys or are you against the boys?"

LABOR REPRESENTED BY UNION CANDIDATE

"Labor will be represented by me on the ticket in parliament just as well as it would be represented by any other man," declared Dr. Charles Howard, Unionist candidate for West Toronto, speaking in the evening at the meeting of the West Toronto, and in my own riding, we have Labor candidates opposing the other candidates. "Which side are they on in the present crisis? The real laboring man desires above and beyond all else that the Union shall have a speedy and victorious conclusion," said the speaker, who addressed the meeting were Thomas Hook, M.L.A., Hon. Thomas Cravens, and Hon. C. J. T. Loftus and Rev. J. B. MacLean, Col. Henry Brock, and Hon. J. B. MacLean, Conservative Association, occupied the chair.

"There are no politics in this campaign," declared Mr. Hook. "It is an out-and-out fight to win the war, or to go to the aid of the man in whose hands it would be suicidal to trust the nation's fate."

"The boys at the front must have regular pay, and they will not be broken," said Mr. Hook. "When you mark your ballot next Monday, send them the message, 'They will come, and they will come, and we'll stand behind you to the last man and the last dollar.'"

Henry Dickenson's address was largely a tirade against newspapers and the government. "The Globe and other papers are being bought up," he affirmed, "they are receiving $500 per day for support of the Union government. Where does the money come from? Out of the loaves! That's what they're doing with your money!"

Sergeant Varley, a returned soldier, told a pitiful story of unfair treatment and neglect both of himself and of his family, for all of which he blamed the present government. He had come to help the Laurier government, which he knew would do the right thing by the men in the trenches. He asserted that if the treatment of soldiers and their dependents had been fair, conscription would not have been found necessary. He declared also that reinforcements were unnecessary; that there were already sufficient for the next 12 months. He claimed that the conscription of men, wealth and resources. "A young man gave an interesting address. There has not been enough care taken of dependents and they have been made to feel in many cases that the patriotic fund is charity. Funds will occur, but unfortunately there have been too many." For this he blamed the present government.

Under the auspices of the citizenship department of the Epworth League a well-attended meeting was held last evening in the Carman Methodist Church in the interest of the Union government. The speaker was given by ex-Ald. W. A. Plewman and Rev. C. W. Watch, who asked them three questions: "Should Quebec dominate Canada?" "Should we uphold our men at the front?" and "Do we want Germany to win?" "If you say no," stated the speaker, "we must send immediate reinforcements, and to do that we must support the Union candidate." The chair was taken by Miss Freeman, president of the League.

TO AVOID SPLIT IN UNION VOTE

Two Candidates in West Hamilton to Hold Joint Meeting.

ONE MAY WITHDRAW

Twelve Persons Will Take Part in Conference to Decide.

Special to The Toronto World.

Hamilton, Tuesday, Dec. 11.—Whether or not T. J. Stewart, Unionist candidate, or Lieut.-Col. John L. McLaren, Independent Unionist, will retire from the field in favor of the other so that the Unionist vote in West Hamilton shall not be split by the advantage of the Labor candidate, Walter R. Robit, is a question that will be answered at a conference brought on here negotiations by H. L. Frost. This gathering will be final, and it is fully expected that on the result depends the losing of the seat by the riding for the Union government.

In reply to the communication from Mr. Frost asking whether he would be willing to leave the question of the tenacity of the candidates should retire to a committee of five, two men to be named by each candidate and the fifth by the four men, Lieut.-Col. McLaren sent the following letter to Mr. Frost yesterday:

"Dear sir, I have your letter of the 8th inst. I have a proposition to make which may render an arbitration unnecessary. I ask you to be good enough to arrange a conference for the purpose of settling the matter, and a number of gentlemen named by you. Mr. Stewart an dan equal number of gentlemen named by him, and I will bring with me a similar number whom I will name.

"I leave the details in your hands, and would be obliged if you will let me know as soon as possible how many men you am to bring."

The reporter for The World was informed by Mr. Frost last night that the proposition submitted by Col. McLaren was entirely satisfactory to all concerned and that a meeting would be held this morning to definitely settle the matter. He stated that there would be a personal of twelve, four members to be named by each of the candidates and three others, besides himself.

Much Interest Taken.—Various conjectures are being made as to what the result will be, and so keen is the interest that one might expect to see a large number of people riding where an election will take place. The contest in the east riding and the County of West York are expected to be the most exciting, and whether an amicable agreement is arrived at by the candidates, the contest in the west riding will be the most interesting.

UNION PRESS SUFFERS SEVERE CONDEMNATION

Speakers at Liberal Meeting Devote Most of Their Time to Newspapers.

A meeting was held last night at O'Keefe Hall in the interests of Ald. J. B. MacLean, the other speakers being A. J. Young, Henry Dickenson and Sgt. Varley. Dr. J. E. Elliott presided.

Henry Dickenson's address was largely a tirade against newspapers and the government. Attitude of Quebec is a Tragedy, Says Archdeacon Cody.

Special to The Toronto World. Kitchener, Dec. 10.—To put it bluntly, the attitude of Quebec toward the campaign are the Kaiser and Quebec on the one side or Britain and the boys on the other," declared Archdeacon Cody at the Grand Theatre last afternoon in closing one of the most effective addresses favoring Union government that have been heard in this city since the opening of the campaign. The theatre was crowded, and the enthusiasm with which his utterances were greeted left no question regarding the political persuasion of his listeners.

At the outset of his speech the archdeacon placed it plainly before his audience that in a critical time like the present it is the patriotic duty of every man to realize that his allegiance to party should be placed in his allegiance to state. The archdeacon declared that without anger or rancor or bigotry he was forced to view the attitude of Quebec and her leaders as a tragedy. In touching upon the declaration of Lemieux that Canada has no right to be a part of the war, he said: "I am glad and true who gave these men the right to say that we have done enough? We have to set aside the picturesque figure of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to see the powers that are behind him. Henri Bourassa is the real leader of Quebec, and I ask if that province is to be a part of the war, the domination of the rest of this free Dominion that has sacrificed and suffered, and is it for him to say to the rest of Canada that has sacrificed and suffered, 'We have done enough?'"

In concluding Archdeacon Cody warned his audience that should Canada next Monday decide in favor of those who are crying "enough" the decision will have a disastrous effect. His final appeal was to get the men and women at home with their ballots back the boys at the front with their bullets.

SIR EDWARD KEMP HAS GOOD MEETING IN EAST

Lieut.-Col. Williams Speaks From the Standpoint of the Labor Man.

A meeting of the East Toronto electors in the interest of Sir Edward Kemp was held last evening in the Grand Masonic Hall, 791 Gerrard street, ex-Alderman Zeph Elliott in the chair.

Among those present were: Hon. R. A. Fyne, John Shea, Rev. T. E. Bartley, Woodgreen, Methodist Church; Miss Isabel Brown, Pte. J. Lambert, C.E.F.; Dr. W. F. Bryans, Canon H. C. Dixon, Sergeant Major Geo. Brighton, Ald. Wm. Dewick, Ald. W. W. Hiltz and James Norris.

Lieut.-Col. Williams, who spoke from the standpoint of the labor man, said: "I defy any person in Canada to show me any prominent labor man in England who opposes the enemies of the war. Labor is pro-loyalty co-operating with the government since it has realized that Germany is subordinating labor and has it by the throat. Are we willing to harness to the chariot of the Kaiser?" queried the speaker, who proceeded to point out that a vote for Laurier was a vote for the Kaiser.

Hon. Dr. Fyne appealed to the audience to support the union government on election day. "Should disaster happen to us it will like wild-fire thru Germany and they will get further reinforcements and perhaps win the war." The speaker described the villainous infamy of the Kaiser and said they were the most infamous people in the world, and described the treatment of soldiers and their dependents. He mentioned the various members in the Ontario Government who had won at the front and appealed for reinforcements in order that the great name made by Canadians might not be thrown away by voting Union government the integrity of Canada and the old flag will be upheld.

"We can teach the people of Quebec to be Canadians, but they cannot teach us to be Frenchmen, and all voters in East Toronto should vote for Sir Edward Kemp," said Pte. J. Lambert, C.E.F., recently returned wounded from the front.

Other speakers were Rev. T. E. Bartley, who emphasized Bishop Fallon for royal stand and pointed out that Canadians should rejoice that Protestants and Catholics apart from Quebec were out for winning the war. Dr. W. F. Bryans, Sergeant-Major Geo. Brighton, Miss Isabel Brown, and Creighton.

TWO MORE REPORT TO THE BLUESHIRTS

Cameron and Hebert Out—Lively Practice on Monday—Hockey Gossip.

Harry Cameron and Sammy Hebert reported to Manager Charlie Querrie yesterday and the Toronto had a lively squad of nine out for the afternoon workout.

Cameron showed a turn of speed and still packs that wicked shot of his.

Little Hebert gave a first-class exhibition in the nets and should land the regular berth.

Manager Querrie divided his candidates into two squads and the most useful kind of practice was indulged in. Brooks, Randall and Cameron composed one defence and Noble, Deenen and Skinner were the forwards. They worked well together and displayed a lot of spirit.

Hebert in goal and Jerry Coughlin composed the defence at the other end. Meeking did most of the attack, helped along by Coughlin.

The players checked and bumped as if they were in a regular game, and it was a lively workout.

Charlie Querrie has not given up the idea of getting Frank Nighbor and his in daily communication with the Ottawa Club for his services. Nighbor is here with the R. F. C. and nothing would please him better than to be awarded to the blueshirts.

Manager Querrie expects to have his new forward out before the end of the week. He is a well-known amateur and should easily make good in the pro ranks. It is neither Box nor Smith.

Jack Marks, the former Quebec player, who has been awarded to Wanderers and who has been working out with the Toronto, will give his final answer to the Montreal team today. Marks would like to play here.

Ken, Randall has been appointed captain of the Toronto crew.

A Montreal despatch says: A mild sensation developed in hockey circles this morning when it was announced on behalf of the Wanderers that unless the other clubs of the new league immediately handed over their surplus players the red heads would suspend for the season. Art Egan, manager of the Wanderers, in the course of a statement declared that he would not give up the team, and that he would play the Wanderers, and that he would play the Wanderers, and that he would play the Wanderers.

President Frank Calder of the National Hockey League is non-committal. He has not received any official notification from the Wanderers. He says: "At the same time I do not believe the rumors that have come to my ears. The president and owner of the Wanderers is not a quitter."

DENTS AT PRACTICE FIRST OF AMATEURS

Six Players Have Initial Workout—New St. Patrick's Players.

Jerry Laflamme trotted out six men for the initial practice of the champion Dentials. Sheldon and Olson are in Detroit with De La Salle.

The Stewart brothers, Smille and Milan, were the members of last year's team in uniform.

Irving Erb, sensational rover of last year's Kitchener team, runner-up for the Junior O.H.A. honors, was out with the Dentials last night. He has resided in Toronto since early spring and should make a place in senior company.

Leroy "Scorpie," last year with Aura Lee, and now a member of the Dental Corps, also worked out. He is counted on as a fixture for the champions.

The Dentials only took light work, and when Mac Sheldon and Olson returned from Detroit made arrangements for games in the order, Olson is a former Winnipeg star and is now a member of the Dental Corps.

Perry, a right wing player from Quebec, will turn out with St. Patrick's at their first practice. Perry played with Crescentia and St. Patrick's in the Quebec City League. Delaney is another husky defence man who will turn out with St. Patrick's.

"Bill" Box, the sensational Dental player, was not out to practice last night. He arrived at the Arena too late to get into uniform.

No definite practice hours have been established at the Arena as yet for the amateur teams.

Bill Marden has had his junior candidates out at Aura Lee rink and they will have a little on the other clubs.

If the cold snap lasts the city clubs will begin to look as if Hughie Fox, the former St. Patrick's star, will be the St. Patrick's defence.

London will likely enter a team in the western senior O.H.A. group today.

The Dentials will practice this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

When the parks committee meets today Commissioner Chambers will ask permission to spend $2000 fitting up hockey rinks for the soldiers at Ketchum Park, Stanley Barracks, Davisville, Hoskins, Spadina Hospital, and other places to be decided by the committee.

An Ottawa despatch says: Several teams of the City Hockey League have already made arrangements for games in the first local team to make their appearance in the Smoky City. The Lower Town squad will play in Pittsburg on Friday and Saturday, 11th and 15th of this month. Aberdeens will be the second team to leave the capital for Pittsburg, after New Year's. Aberdeens always make a great showing in Pittsburg, and the Arena Gardens are packed to capacity when the orange and black line up against Pittsburg. It is not likely that every team will receive the amount that the Western Canada Amateur Hockey Union decided on, but it is probable that the teams will defy the C. A. A. and make the trip. Aberdeens are the only team that ever received near the amount of $700, and they are sure to receive that amount this season.

Saint Yves Equal To Test of Battle

Henri Saint Yves, the famous marathon runner, is a dispatch bearer in the French army and recently underwent an experience which forced him to spend ten days in the hospital from exposure.

While trying to carry orders from the advanced French trench line to a French machine gun crew which had established itself in a shell hole in the middle of "No Man's Land," half way between the opposing lines, Saint Yves was spotted by two German machine gun crews, also holding shell holes.

They opposed a cross fire on the former long-distance runner and he dropped into the nearest shell hole, which was almost full of rain water, with just his head above the surface to enable him to breathe, for five hours, or until after darkness. Then he crept out and made his way to the French machine gun position, delivered the orders to the lieutenant in charge and made his way to the trenches again.

Saint Yves was wounded in the leg last May, but has entirely recovered from that, and asserts he will be able to run as well as ever if the war ever ends and he gets back into civilian life.

NATIONAL LEAGUE'S NICE LITTLE ORDER

Must Review and Provide for War Conditions at Annual Meeting.

New York, Dec. 10.—The annual meeting of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs, to be held in this city tomorrow, is expected to have a most important bearing upon the future conduct of the sport. It is doubtful if the magnates of the senior league ever sat down to consider a more momentous situation than that which confronts the association, in conjunction with other baseball organizations, at this time.

The drafting of players, increased cost of maintenance and traveling expenses, legal actions arising from the suit of the former Baltimore Federal League Club, as to what players should be returned, and possible decrease in public interest due to the war, are some of the problems calling for attention. None of the early arrivals cared, tonight, to venture an opinion as to the outcome of the meeting.

Numerous suggestions have been made for anticipating the unusual conditions likely to confront the club owners during the season of 1918. These include a reduction of the playing schedule from 154 to 140 games; the curtailment of each player to not more than eighteen; a shorter season; the elimination of the restriction of players' contracts and the adoption of war-time contracts, which should conditionally warrant the permit abrogation on short notice, should conditions warrant.

To add to the difficulties of the senior organization, there is some difference of opinion among the club owners and officers of the two major leagues as to what players should be returned to this country in the war. This break in the working harmony of the two big league circuits has grown pronounced recently, and is illustrated by the uncertainty regarding the holding of the joint meeting set for Thursday in Chicago.

If the conference is to be held, as announced by both Garry Herrmann and Nan Johnson of the National Commission, it will necessitate the National League heads leaving for Chicago some time tomorrow, and doubt was expressed here tonight as to whether the business in hand could be disposed of in time to permit their departure. That such a conference is desirable is admitted on all sides, but some of the National League officials appear to be of the opinion they should have more time to consider their own problems before going into joint session with the American League club owners.

From the standpoint of the baseball fans, the possibilities of the players' trades and deals, and the collection of the government tax, are the outstanding features. Several managers are understood to be planning important additions or exchange of players, providing cash to do so. How the war tax will be collected has not as yet been decided upon, but it is generally understood it will be added to the present cost of admission and seat charges.

T. & D. Prospects for Next Season Are Bright

The T. and D. directors met last night and decided that if the weather was at all favorable they would endeavor to fill the Love and Kenyon Cup competitions.

Grants were made from the Robertson Cup fund to two players who had been injured.

Prospects for next season were discussed, and the outlook is very favorable.

FIRST GAME FRIDAY DENTALS VS. HAMILTON

The champion Dentials play Hamilton intermediates at the Arena here on Friday next. Manager Huston of the Arena Gardens and Manager Jerry Laflamme arranged yesterday that fifty per cent. of the total gate receipts be donated to the sufferers in the recent great disaster at Halifax.

Manager George Cruise of the new Beaches Club, who are entering the Junior O.H.A. series this season, made arrangements for ice at the Arena yesterday, and expects to build up a strong team. They already have Jimmie Clegg, Hogarth and Martin, stars of the Beaches League from last season, and many others, and with Manager Geo. Cruise, Coach Eddie Longfellow and Secretary-Treasurer James Labatt to direct the affairs of the club, should be heard of when the finals are being played.

The management of St. Patrick's Hockey Club received an invitation from the Kitchener team in that they got down to practice a week ago, having had previous indoor work, and expressed a desire to show up the Toronto team, after learning that they were not to be grouped in this district. We believe that their judgment was at fault when they selected the above team to make the first trip, and we looked twice at the address to see that it wasn't Aura Lee they selected.

While we are on this subject, we might also mention that the St. Patrick's strong finish in the city series last season gave them considerable advertisement, as they are also in receipt of cordial invitations to visit Sarnia and Detroit, and these games should put them right on edge for the O.H.A. campaign.

Manager Huston announced last night that all the senior teams would be able to start practicing by the end of the week. He is also in receipt of a letter from Manager Brown of the Detroit Arena asking him to suggest dates and then in Toronto between now and the first of the year.

Jim Thorpe is Thru Playing Ball, He Says

Jim Thorpe, the great all-round Indian athlete, has given it out that he is thru with baseball and football, and personal indulgence in professional athletics. He made this pronouncement after his Canadian football team had been beaten by the United States professional championship. It is possible that he may reconsider, and, even if he does not, it is more than likely that he will loom up as a college coach in some capacity. It is said that Thorpe has some valuable oil leases in Oklahoma that need his personal attention at present. Thorpe became a Giant in 1915, after the fact had become known that, after playing professional baseball in North Carolina, he had competed in the Olympic games at Stockholm, in 1912. The Giant carried him for two years, and the third season farmed him out to Jersey City and Harrisburg. The next season saw him in Milwaukee, and last season he returned to McGraw once more, only to be loaned to Cincinnati. Toward the end of the season he was recalled by the Giants. Thorpe last summer had fair reason to realize his ambition to become a real baseball player. His hitting and fielding showed great improvement, but he never was a real baseball star, and McGraw's hold of him in the first place more for billboard purposes than anything else.

"You will have already received the official notice of your son Harry's death. This is to let you know the particulars. He was killed by a shell while advancing with his platoon to support the attack on Fasmehende on the morning of Nov. 6. He was killed instantly and did not suffer a bit. A party was later sent out to carry out his body, but found that it had already been removed. This will make it very difficult to give the location of his grave for some time, not knowing what unit buried him."

WILSON TO UNIFY RAILWAYS OF U.S.

President Will Ask for Legislation From Congress Before Christmas.

INTENTIONS SECRET Strong Support for Government Operation Develops Among Advisers.

Washington, Dec. 10.—President Wilson will go to congress for special legislation to bring about unification of the railroads during the war.

The fact that the president has decided definitely on such a move came known tonight after he had gone over the whole transportation situation with Senator Newlands, chairman of the senate internal commerce committee. He probably will ask for the legislation before the Christmas holidays.

Indications tonight were that the president has confided to none of his assistants his intentions, and officials were doubtful as to just what he may ask.

The president's advisers are divided in their views as to what is necessary to be done. Most of them, however, have come out for government operation, and some of the strongest supporters of this proposal declare the executive already, under the army appropriation act, has power to take over the roads for operation under an administrator.

Position of Railroads. The position of the railroads themselves was set forth today in a letter to Senator Newlands from Fairfax Harrison, chairman of the railroad board, the railroads, Mr. Harrison declared, do not seek repeal of any legislation, believing the use of facilities recently put into operation will bring about maximum efficiency. Neither do they seek a loan from the government, he said, the government aid is asked in obtaining for them on their own individual credit, new capital needed.

Further measures to make the roads more efficient, Mr. Harrison suggested, would be an increase in rates, priority for transportation of new material, appointment of a traffic manager for government freight, and exemption from the draft for railroad employees.

Want to Pool Traffic. The railroad opposition to government operation is well understood among officials who have followed the situation, but some surprise was expressed tonight at their objection to suspension of provisions against pooling traffic and profits. In the opinion of many officials a complete coordination of the railroads cannot be accomplished until the roads pool their traffic, which of itself involves a pooling of profits.

Within the government who believe the railroads themselves can handle the situation if given free rein do not oppose legislation to make a full pooling compulsory. If such a course were pursued, they admit, it might be advisable to name a government railroad administrator who would see that the wishes of the government were carried out.

BIG SHIP PLANT BUILT IN SEVENTY-SIX DAYS. Washington, Dec. 10.—Virtual completion of one of the government's three great fabricating steel merchant ship plants within 76 days of time, was reported today to the shipping board. The yard, erected at Newark Bay, by the Submarine Boat Corp., will lay the keels of three ships before the first of the year.

The rapidity of construction has astonished shipping board officials. The yard is 90 per cent. completed, has put down five ways and is ready to lay five more.

Ships are expected to come from the yard in June and it is planned to complete more than 50 vessels by the end of 1918. The concern has contracts for 150, of a total tonnage of 750,000.

The shipping board was notified tonight that keels had been laid at Seattle for two ships for which contracts were let 12 days ago.

JAP. TROOPS CONTROL VLADIVOSTOK STORES

Allies Will Prevent Supplies From Reaching Bolshevik Forces.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Unconfirmed reports that Japanese troops are in control of the great quantities of supplies piled up at Vladivostok for the Russian Government created no surprise at the state department today. Where officials are under the impression that a small number of Japanese troops have been there for some time.

It is said that there are now piled up at Vladivostok, more supplies than the Trans-Siberian railroad could move in many months, in its present state. Before the Bolsheviks got into control, American railroad men had been despatched to take charge of the situation and move up the much-needed supplies to the Russian army of the coast near to see that the supplies do not fall into hostile hands.

OMAR MACKLEM GETS ENTIRE VINDICATION Soldier Secures Colony for Inventions in Munitions Industry—May Wear Uniform.

Ottawa, Dec. 10.—Entire vindication has been given Colonel Omar Macklem, whose famous case aroused the interest of the whole country, in a cable which has been received by his attorneys from General Sir William Robertson, chief of staff of the British army. He wires that now that the facts had been placed before him, he wished to testify to the authenticity of his papers. The general cables that no one in Canada had the right to make Macklem use of his uniform, and that he will be gazetted immediately.

General Robertson cables that Macklem had been discharged from the C. E. F. in London because of wounds, and had been placed on the staff of the British army. The general had been placed on the staff of the British army because of wounds, and had been placed on the staff of the British army because of wounds.

Macklem has spent over $1600 in cable tolls to prove his case. A staff colonel in the local Great War Veterans' Association informed The Citizen today of the news which has been received clearing Macklem.

ALL PRISONERS REPORT FOR ACTIVE SERVICE. Seventeen inmates of Stony Mountain Penitentiary Waive Exemption. Winnipeg, Dec. 10.—Of the seventeen inmates of Stony Mountain penitentiary who come under class one in connection with the Military Service Act all have waived claim for exemption and have reported for service.

The problem now confronts the department of justice as to what should be done in their case. Arrangements have been made to have the men retained, for which purpose a special committee, appointed by Lieut.-Col. Reilly will be at the penitentiary tomorrow.

GREATEST PATRIOTIC WORK.

Danforth Union Women Need Help in Making Their Canvass.

At a meeting of the women of Danforth district held last night in Dr. F. Maclean's committee rooms, it was decided to call all the women together Wednesday evening in Playter's Hall for a conference in connection with the polling of the woman vote of South York for the Union government. Mrs. Wood addressed the meeting, giving an outline of the Union government platform and the reasons why every woman should sacrifice if necessary to elect to power the man who has pledged himself to keep faith with the Union government and the boys in the trenches.

Mrs. Silvester urged the women to keep working for the Union government candidate and to consider this work the greatest patriotic work they could do at this time. The essential thing now was unity; other questions could wait a more convenient season. The Danforth district is so large that the women feel the need of helpers to cover the ground before election day. A call is being issued for volunteers among the Union government women to attend the mass meeting Wednesday evening and lend a hand in this work.

WOMEN'S CITIZENSHIP SUBJECT OF ADDRESS

Professor Wrong Reviews Government and Their Functions Before Interested Gathering of Women.

"Women's New Citizenship" was the subject of an address given by Professor Wrong before the members of the Social Science Study Club at the Margaret Eaton Hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Sidney Small introduced the speaker as one who had written and spoken more on the subject than any other man in Toronto. The question why we have government or why it exists had been asked, said the speaker. It had even been thought that there should be no such thing as government. Professor Wrong said that the element of life, when men slept under trees, was the happiest. Conditions, however, arise which make it necessary that there should be some kind of government. The question of property, for instance, and its right to be protected. Government has grown out of family life, to which there is a natural head.

Coming to the question of politics, Professor Wrong said there were some who thought politics an unpleasant thing. He did not agree with this. Politics looks after the education and property of the people, and touches their life very closely.

Canada is living under a federal parliament, so also are the United States, Germany and Australia. On the other hand, Great Britain, France and Italy are governed by one simple parliament. The fundamental feature of a federation is that political authority is divided between two bodies, Ottawa representing the federal government, has authority

PROVINCE MAKES GRANT TO HALIFAX

Two Hundred Thousand Set Aside to Succor the Stricken City.

TORONTO IS HELPING Donations Are Being Received at Depots and Forwarded by Specials.

Mr. William Hearst, at the citizens' meeting in the city hall yesterday afternoon reported that the provincial government had set apart $200,000, to be called upon when necessary, to relieve the stricken City of Halifax.

The committee which met in the morning recommended that the board of control of the city council be requested to authorize an interim expenditure of $100,000 to afford immediate relief until the general committee had time to conduct its campaign.

A permanent committee was formed to receive information as to the best means of giving relief, and to make a recommendation at a meeting which will be called shortly. This committee is made up of representatives of various concerns and clubs, and includes Hon. Dr. Payne, Mayor Church, Kenneth Dunstan, Col. Noel Marshall, H. H. Williams, H. A. Richardson, J. G. Kent, C. A. Bogert, Tom Stevenson, J. E. Atkinson, Fred Eason, H. H. Parsons and Mrs. Albert Gooderham and Mrs. Cummings.

Toronto Early to Rescue. Toronto, as soon as the word of the disaster was received, set aside $15,000 to purchase rush supplies, which were hurried forward. Clothing is being received by the Red Cross Society at 48 West King street, and by the city at 45 West Richmond street, and citizens are urged to donate what they can.

These are being sent by fast express, being carefully packed. In addition several carloads of foodstuffs, beaver board, putty, glass, nails, etc., have been forwarded by the provincial government, the city and private firms and individuals.

In connection with the restoration of the City of Halifax, a wire has been despatched to ascertain what information as to what is contemplated, because it is realized that until the extent of the loss is determined, it cannot be intelligently known what should best be done.

Two Good Donations. Two donations were received at the afternoon meeting, one of $10,000 from the Massey-Harris Co., and another of $500 which was received by the Toronto Carpet Co. from the Tattersfield Co. of Philadelphia.

Dr. Hastings reported that two of the city's organizing nurses were on their way to Halifax, and that the other 25 nurses would be also, but the mayor received word to send them. As soon as the city nurses size up the situation in Halifax they will wire Dr. Hastings in regard to sending forward the remainder of the party.

Col. Marlowe of Toronto, who has reached Halifax, wired back to Col. Ryerson, A.D.M.S., to send 25 nurses at once. Dr. Hastings said the nurses were being held in readiness to leave if word was sent for them. "It is the meaning of the word 'I am glad to hear they have appointed a dictator of supplies.'"

ABATTOIR REPORT SENT ON. Members of Property Committee Not All Ready to Discuss Question of Civic Control.

The report of the sub-committee appointed by the city council to investigate the civic abattoir situation was sent on to the city council by the property committee yesterday, but without endorsement. This action was taken because a number of the members did not feel that they were ready to debate the question at the present time.

Briefly the report recommends that the abattoir be placed in charge of a separate civic department, which would be under the board of control; that the city embark in the dead meat trade; and that the bureau of municipal research be shoveling away the survey of the finances of the abattoir.

IMPORTANT ADDITION TO TRAIN SERVICE FOR CHRISTMAS TRAVEL. To provide for the rush of excursionists from the western provinces, who are returning to the east for the New Year, the Canadian Northern Railway will operate a daily train service in both directions between Winnipeg and Toronto, effective December 1 to January 6 from Winnipeg, and December 3 to January 2 from Toronto.

RINKS FOR HOSPITALS. Parks Commissioner Chambers has recommended to the parks committee that an appropriation of $2000 be granted to cover the cost of hockey rinks at the base hospital on Gerrard street, at the Spadina military hospital, at Davielle hospital, at Jesse Ketchum barracks at Crawford street barracks, at Exhibition camp and at Stanley barracks.

NO MONEY FOR SNOW CLEANING. Although the board of control failed to make an appropriation to cover the cost of snow-cleaning this year, Street Commissioner Wilson and Works Commissioner Harris both have gangs of men on the streets shoveling away the big week-end snowfall. It will cost each department about $6000, and as there is no money in the treasury an overdraft will be the result.

MORE LIGHT FOR FLOOR. The property committee, meeting yesterday, authorized Commissioner Chisholm to erect street lights on Bloor street from Quebec street to Runny mead road. The cost will be $432 a year.

MARRIED MAN FAILS TO SECURE EXEMPTION

Mr. Woodyard Entered Benedict's Class Since Military Service Act Came Into Force.

"You can kiss your wife good-bye," was the answer given by Judge Winchester to M. Woodyard, when that gentleman appeared for exemption yesterday. Woodyard was married on September 26, and in addition he claimed to be the sole support of his mother.

A. W. Brownlee, 158 Morse street, appeared for exemption for his son, A. W. Brownlee, Jr. He has one son at the front, and another eligible for service, but unwilling to go. "Has your son a girl?" asked A. Russell Snow, military representative. "I don't know," replied the father. "Did you always tell your old man when you went a-courting?"

Mr. Brownlee was given a day to see which of his sons is most essential to his business. A number of young men were granted exemption until class 2 is called out because of their "family record." Some of those who were allowed this conditional exemption because they have brothers overseas were: William Padgett, A. G. Ferris, H. Chappell and A. W. C. Young.

A. E. Hill, 21 Don roadway, appeared for exemption as a "conscientious objector." "How about a job on a mine-sweeper?" That would be non-combatant service," ventured his honor. The claim was disallowed.

JUDGE HAS BUSY TIME. Voters' Appeals Will Be Settled on Basis of Face Value.

Faced with the task of disposing of several hundred appeals from the work of the enumerators in West York, selecting the jurors for the coming sittings of the sessions court and hearing the appeals from the decisions of the exemption tribunals, Judge Winchester yesterday effected an arrangement whereby the appeals left off the list, can have their claims dealt with on their face value.

Capt. Tom Wallace and Frank Denton, the rival candidates in West York, assisted in the arrangement. The result was that about 600 people who had gathered in the corridors outside Judge Winchester's chambers yesterday morning were told to go home.

APPEALS MADE FOR UNION. Home and School Association Meets at Brown School.

A meeting of the Home and School Association of Brown School was held in the attractive kindergarten room of that school yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Winyard, the president, presided. Her message to the association was: "Reason with your conscience before leaving your homes on the 17th."

Mrs. Norman Beal's appeal for Union government was most effective: "Just as surely as our men went over the top for us shall we go over the top for them on the 17th," she declared. She then recited "The Day," with additional verses by Katherine Mason, which ended thus: "Will you, for humanity's sake, cast a Union vote?"

A vote of thanks to Mrs. Beal, proposed by Mrs. McQuigge and seconded by Mrs. W. Hood, was heartily approved. The fact that there were 1200 feeble-minded children in Toronto schools, and the advisability of taking up the matter with the provincial government was discussed.

Miss Kathleen Reed favored the audience with two violin solos which were much appreciated. The Imperial Oil Company was again refused permission to erect a gasoline supply station on Danforth avenue near the Bloor street viaduct, at the meeting of the property committee yesterday afternoon. They offered the City of Toronto $7000 for a strip of land having a frontage of 81 feet.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Bank of Nova Scotia, which have branches at the corner of Danforth and Broadview avenues, opposed the application. TO NURSE AT HALIFAX. Kingston, Ont., Dec. 10.—This afternoon a party of nursing sisters left for Halifax where they will assist in the work of caring for the injured and homeless people there. McDermott, F. Lindsay, F. Kennedy, Gibson from Kingston; E. Graham and A. Johnson from Ottawa.

OAT MARKET STEADY, MONTREAL REPORTS

Montreal, Dec. 10.—There was no important change in the condition of the local market for oats today. Prices were unchanged, with a good demand from local and country buyers for car lots of all grades, and a fairly active business was done, with sales of No. 3 C.W. at 82c per bushel.

The market for eggs was unchanged, and quotations generally remained as they were Saturday. The demand for strictly new-laid and fresh eggs continues good, and all supplies coming forward meet with a ready sale at firm prices. There is also a steady demand for cold-storage selected stock, and a fair trade is passing in a wholesale jobbing way at 44c per dozen. The receipts of eggs today were 122 cases, compared with 242 last Monday. The local market for butter was unchanged today, and the tone was steady, but the volume of business in a wholesale way continues rather quiet. Receipts of butter today were 326 packages, as against 710 a week ago today.

There was no feature of the cheese situation locally, and the quotations remained unchanged. Corn—American, No. 2 yellow, $2.15 to $2.20. JACK FROST SENDS CORN PRICES HIGHER

Teaming From Farms Hampered, and Railways Are Held Up.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Severe cold that hampered teaming from farms and also handicapped the railways, tended today to make the corn market average higher. Prices closed unsettled, January $1.20% to $1.20%, and May $1.19, with the range as a whole varying from 1/4c off to 1/4c advance, compared with Saturday's finish. Oats gained 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c, and provisions 30 to 80 cents.

Corn traders gave first attention to the outlook that continued low temperatures meant considerably slowing up of the crop movement, and which implied an increase of feeding demand. On the resulting bulge in prices, however, buying was not of an aggressive character, and it was pointed out that the prevailing cold weather was fine for the conditioning of corn. Something of a setback followed, owing in part to the fact that the embargo on shipments to the east would lead to rapid accumulation of stocks here.

The fact, too, that offerings were readily absorbed in the late dealings evoked a fresh rally as the session came to an end. Oats paralleled the action of corn. The visible supply total showed a decided falling off on account of large reductions at seaboard points.

Scarciness of hog arrivals gave strength to provisions. Commission houses purchased to a moderate extent. EAST BUFFALO LIVE STOCK. Dec. 10.—Cattle—Receipts, 290. Laurier's Trip in West. Winnipeg, Dec. 10.—It was officially announced this evening that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will speak in Regina Tuesday, Calgary Wednesday, and Vancouver Friday.

Save Canada from Russia's Disgrace!

INDIVIDUALLY, the people of Russia are loyal to their country, but woefully misguided. The army, weakened by lack of support, simply 'quit' fighting; and in its contempt for Russia's present attitude, the world is rapidly forgetting the marvellous achievements of Russia earlier in the war.

Be True to Our Boys They Ask Your Help

In a diary taken from a captured German officer was found: "There are no deserters among the Canadians." There are none among Canadians at the front.

Desert the boys who have fought and died for us? Never! They ask for reinforcements and they shall have them—in the only possible way—by the return of Union Government. Laurier offers a referendum—in the course of time—then a further appeal for volunteers. Rot! All the volunteers who could go have enlisted.

Support Union Government

Union Government is pledged to the immediate raising of reinforcements under the Military Service Act, 1917. Only under the leadership of Union Government will Canada remain a useful, honorable factor in the defence of civilization and liberty. You are coming to the cross-roads. Will you take the road to dishonor and disillusionment, or will you support the men in khaki on the road to Victory? Your vote demands a decision!

The Franchise is Extended to Women

Every woman may vote who is a British subject, 21 years of age, resident in Canada one year, and in the constituency 30 days, who is the mother, wife, widow, daughter, sister or half-sister of any person, male or female, living or dead, who is serving or has served without Canada in any of the Military forces, or within or without Canada in any of the Naval forces of Canada or of Great Britain in the present war, or who has been honorably discharged from such services, and the date of whose enlistment was prior to September 20th, 1917.

An Open Letter on the Duty of the Hour

From the Rev. Dr. Chown.

Following are extracts from a letter by Rev. Dr. Chown, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, which will appear this week in The Christian Guardian:

Having been asked for advice as to how one should vote in the coming election, and publicly to give reasons for my opinion, I will, with your permission, speak with all possible frankness, sincerity and dispassionateness.

At the present time the supreme issue of winning the war so dominates the whole of Canada's present and future life, and will so affect the relation of our country to the world at large, that the old modes of political thought should be entirely superseded by loftier conceptions of patriotism, and our action as voters should be determined not by parochial, but by world-wide issues. The old bottles of party tradition must be burst with the new wine of national duty. To look at the issues to be decided in this election through party spectacles is like looking through a seven by nine pane at our own garden plot, instead of looking, as we should, at the whole world problem through an unobstructed plate glass window; it is to study the stars through the wrong end of the telescope.

PLEGDED BY WORDS AND ACTS.

There was a breathless stillness in Canada for a moment after Great Britain bared her head to the mailed fist of the Teuton. But in another moment, almost as one man, Canada said, "Thank God, Great Britain is true to herself, and God grant we may be true to her." Then we sent thirty-three thousand men in seven weeks. We have sent hundreds of thousands since. We have spent millions upon millions of money, and are pledged, not only by words, but by acts, to the last man and the last dollar. If we fail now, we fail to carry out a contract which is sealed by the blood of thousands of our soldiers.

A REDEMPTIVE WAR.

This is a redemptive war, and its success depends entirely upon the height of sacrifice to which our people can ascend. It is under this conviction that ministers of the Gospel feel in duty bound to enter the political arena. He who fears to express his convictions at this hour is akin to the stork who like to do his duty if his cowardice did not tell him it might cost him something. We shall fail, and fall lamentably, as Christian people unless we catch the martyr spirit of Christianity and do our sacrificial duty between now and on the 17th of December. But if we do fail, I, for one, will never be sorry that I tried to bear aloft the banner of the Cross amidst the thickest fight.

WILL BE WON BY NERVE.

This war will be won by the people who can keep their nerve longest. It is a contest of moral power, without which physical force will be found insufficient. If the Union Government is turned out of office, it will show that Canada has not the determination to go on, and this fact will cause our enemies to rejoice and triumph over us, and our friends to grieve to the very heart.

We may be sure of this, also, that when any nation concludes that it has done all it should be expected to do in a righteous cause and calls a halt, as Russia did, dry rot sets in and confusion follows. I cannot bear to contemplate the confusion which would confront Canadian life if the policy of "done enough" should be accepted by the majority of electors.

THE DEMOCRATIC WAY.

For these and other reasons I have been led to accept the policy of conscription or the selective draft. I am not a new convert to the idea. Long before it was adopted by any party in Canada I publicly expressed my approval of that plan. I believed then, as I believe now, that under any conditions it is the fairest, most democratic, most expeditious and least expensive method of raising an army in this country, and under present conditions it is the only possible way of fulfilling our obligations to Christian civilization. I also believe that, socially considered, it is the most moral and profoundly religious method of doing our national duty.

TAKE WEALTH ALSO.

Of course I believe it should be accompanied by conscription of wealth, and the direction of the service of those who stay at home for the strength and support of those who are abroad in our name. If the whole of one man's life is drafted, the wealth of another, which can represent but a portion of his life, should surely be made available for the strength and defence of the State; and if democracy as a whole should do its best, every unit of which it is composed must be used to the greatest advantage in such an emergency as this. We must, as "members" of one another, be efficient. It is immoral to take the wealth of the State and make no contribution towards protecting others.

MUST PUT THE NATION FIRST.

I know that conscription is a most difficult programme to carry out to

OVER QUARTER OF VOTE OF CANADIANS POLLED

Troops Show Keen Interest in Elections — Brilliant Patrol Fights.

By W. A. Williams. Canadian Army Headquarters in the Field, via London, Dec. 10.—Over 25 per cent. of the vote in the Canadian conscription election, held in private service conditions make the calculation of the ballot papers a complex matter with the persistence moving of units adding to the difficulties of polling votes, but the elections are running smoothly. So far not a single complaint has been received from the sentinels of the assistant clerk of the crown in chancery. Interest in the election continues keen in the Canadian developments being followed with close attention.

Great satisfaction is being expressed at the splendid success of the Canadian loan and army subscriptions which have been closed in view of the great over-subscriptions. On the firing line clashes between our own and enemy patrols are of frequent occurrence, but the enemy's enthusiasm for raids has been considerably dampened. In one recent patrol skirmish one non-commissioned officer and seven men put one of the enemy to flight, after all but one of our men had been wounded.

Details of an enemy raid upon a portion of our trenches early in the week show the excellent record of a successful fight of one of our men against five of the enemy. Early in the morning at the time of heavy trench mortar and machine gun activity, the garrison of one of our posts was ordered to move along the line to avoid casualties, but the enemy's intention was to throw down their rifles and surrender. When some little distance from the post, the first two men heard a voice calling to them in English: "Throw down your rifles and surrender here and be quick." A bomb followed the words. One of our men was wounded and the other was killed. The other two men were then bombed and four or five of the enemy jumped into the trench and one of them hit the other over the head. His steel helmet saved him and he rushed back to get help from the sergeant. In the meantime the man who had been seized managed during the fight to get a trench dagger from the boot of one of his associates and made such good use of his small weapon that he beat them off, wounding two of them. Next night the body of a dead German was found in a shell hole next our wire with a sheath trench dagger lying beside him.

DANGER OF RACE SPLIT OBTAINS IN DOMINION

Premier Martin Appeals for Stopping Attacks on French-Canadians.

Regina, Sask., Dec. 10.—In the course of his statement last night Premier Martin said: "There is a situation developing in this country which, if not checked, will lead to a determined effort to isolate the French-Canadian. In newspaper reports are exaggerated with the object of stirring up English-speaking against our French-Canadian compatriots. Statements of this kind have even been published in some of the newspapers of the province. I do not believe even a small fraction of the statements I read in regard to the condition of affairs in Quebec, and if the English-speaking Union government are well advised they will cease printing exaggerated reports in regard to what is going on in other parts of the country. Their present conduct is simply dividing men by the dozens, who really believe in support the Union government into two camps. We should always remember that the French-Canadian people have stood true to Canada and to British connection in the years past, and in the years past, and on the occasion again if given a fair chance. No political party can hope to retain the confidence of the thinking people in this country if it is engaged in a policy of race and creed, and I am certain any public man who resorts to such tactics will live to regret the day when he embarked upon such a course."

HEAD OF METHODISTS ENDORSES UNIONISTS

Rev. Dr. S. Chown, General Superintendent of Church, Declares Stand.

Winnipeg, Dec. 10.—Rev. Dr. S. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church for Canada, in a statement published today, says in part: "In my judgment the elector who votes for the anti-conscription policy, and the repeal of the Military Service Act, forges three links in a chain of personal humiliation, public contempt and national decay. He degrades the term 'Canada' from a synonym of glory to a badge of dishonor. I believe in the win-the-war policy of conscription. I am not a new convert to the idea. Long before it was adopted by any party in Canada I publicly expressed my approval of that plan. I believed then, as I believe now, that under any conditions it is the fairest, most democratic, most expeditious and least expensive method of raising an army in this country; and under present conditions it is the only possible way of fulfilling our obligations to Christian civilization. I also believe that, socially considered it is the most moral and profoundly religious method of doing our national duty."

If the government be not sustained the heart will be taken out of our soldiers. How could we face these men in their own homes, if we forsake them now? But I fear they might forsake their country, and die fighting if need be, under another flag. If I voted against a Union Government candidate, I would feel that I was opposing the most patriotic movement ever known in the Dominion of Canada.

PUBLIC OPINION BEHIND UNION GOVERNMENT NOW

Premier Hearst Declares People Have Awakened to the Real Issue and See Duty.

Sir William Hearst, in an interview yesterday, declared public opinion throughout the province is settling very strongly behind the Union government in the early stages of the campaign, he said. "The people were more or less upset. Old conditions had been rearranged, and it took the public some time to fully appreciate the gravity of the issue involved. However, the people now see clearly what the real issue is; whether we are going to support our men at the front until a final and glorious victory is achieved, or whether we are going to desert them in the hour of their extremity and retire ignominiously from the field."

ARCHDEACON RESIGNS

Accepts a Call From Guelph to Church at Regina.

Special to The World. Guelph, Dec. 10.—Ven. Archdeacon Davidson, who for the past 22 years has been rector of St. George's Church, Guelph, has tendered his resignation to the Bishop of Niagara, and has accepted a call to the parish of St. George's, Regina, Saskatchewan. He came to Guelph from the staff of Trinity College, Toronto, in 1901, and was vicar of St. George's for six years, and at the death of Ven. Archdeacon Dixon became rector, a position which he has held for 11 years. He was rural dean of Wellington for several years and in 1912 was appointed archdeacon. His resignation came as a complete surprise to his congregation as they had no indication of it. He is a member of the board of management of the mission of the diocese of Qu'Appelle, and of the Corporation of Trinity College, and of the council of Bishop's College School, and other important positions. He took a prominent part in all matters pertaining to the interests of the city.

GERMAN FORCE SALES OF U. S. LIBERTY BONDS

Secretary McAdoo Advocates Putting Kaiser's Minions in Penitentiary.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Forced sales by German interests were charged with responsibility for the selling of Liberty bonds below par by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, in an address today before a conference of about 100 representatives of Liberty Loan committees from all parts of the country.

"Some persons sell these bonds for malevolent reasons," said Secretary McAdoo. "Investigations that I have made recently convince me that the hand of the Kaiser is behind certain sales. Of course, I am not in possession of evidence which would convince a jury of this assertion, but I do believe that a fair-minded man of the truth of it. Thoughtless persons who think they have done their duty when they buy bonds also sell them."

"These thoughtless persons can be changed to thoughtful ones if we will show them how their sales are affecting the government. We cannot influence the Kaiser's people, but we can put them in the penitentiary, and I want to see them there, for we must deal relentlessly with all the enemies of America."

The secretary added that he hoped it would be unnecessary to raise more taxes during the next six months than are now required by law, but said this must be determined by congress.

Is a United Quebec to Rule All Canada ?

This, the most tremendous question in Canada's history, is to be answered within ten days.

Our answer involves Canada's honour, her freedom and her future. Old-time party questions are being advanced to obscure the gravest issue ever placed before a nation. Canada is in real danger. The clouds that obscure her vision must be brushed aside so that the great issue stands forth clear and distinct.

"Is a United Quebec to Rule All Canada?"

To-day, in our national crisis, Quebec alone among all the provinces stands more united than ever before. She knows what she wants:

- (1) Withdrawal from the war.
- (2) Bilingual schools everywhere.
- (3) Weakening of the ties of British connection.
- (4) Political control of Canada.

From the Ottawa River to Labrador and the Gulf, a common purpose actuates Quebec in her determination to profit by the factional divisions of Canada and to impose her will upon all the people of Canada.

Within the last few weeks, Quebec has mobilized all her forces to dominate Canada under the unified leadership of Bourassa and Laurier. Canada knows that these two men in their earlier days were personal friends and political associates. Canada knows how in recent times, they gradually drew apart—until in 1911 Bourassa opposed Laurier and helped to bring about his defeat, at the polls. Canada knows that from that time forward, until a few weeks ago, the breach between them steadily widened until envy and hatred, each toward the other became the possession of both. Bourassa and his followers were anathema to Laurier.

Should not the people of Canada ask themselves, before it is too late, why these two men have suddenly agreed to bury the past, why this sudden embrace each of the other? If we will but let the scales drop from our eyes the answer is obvious. The all-compelling influences of Quebec have combined to force the union of Laurier and Bourassa in the common purpose of French Canadian domination.

We concede the right of French Canadians to make common cause of anything they think it is in their interests so to do. This is a free country. But as the French Canadians have already combined to assert their views, it is the duty of the hour that we English-speaking Canadians get together and present to Quebec a united front in the defence of our rights. This is imperative.

With sixty solid seats Quebec is about to accomplish her designs. Bourassa, the real master and idol of Quebec, is in sight of his goal.

To attain her purpose, Quebec has not scrupled to ignore British traditions and to suppress freedom of speech. So thoroughly organized is her campaign to prevent even the discussion of the war that Unionist candidates are prevented from holding public meetings throughout that Province. The Unionist minority in Quebec are the victims of organized obstruction.

To be successful in her determination to rule all Canada, Quebec has but to secure a few seats in each of the other Provinces. Quebec leaders now seek to divide the rest of Canada into factions by insidiously bringing into political discussion old-time party questions, to divert the public mind from Quebec, her purpose and her ambitions.

United in her determination to quit the war, Quebec would compel a divided Canada to do likewise. By union only can the English-speaking people prevent this calamity.

However well-meaning Laurier candidates in Ontario may be, they will be helpless against a united Quebec.

Apart from the splendid work of the small English-speaking population, Quebec has failed the Red Cross, has failed the Patriotic Fund, has failed in recruiting and has failed in the Victory Loan. Dare we trust our soldiers, their wives, their children, their pensions and their allowances to Quebec, that will neither give, enlist nor invest, and which will resist taxation for the support of our men and their dependents?

Canada must decide whether she will become a deserter and quit with Russia, or fight to the end for liberty with Belgium. This decision must not be dictated by the only Province which has shirked its obligations throughout the war.

All Canada knows that Germany has been working through agents, spies and bribes in every country in the world. The latest evidences are the revelations recently made to the world by President Wilson. Do we Canadians think the Kaiser has overlooked Canada? If we do, what a fool's paradise!

He cannot be upon the side of Union Government, which is pledged to remain in the war.

Germany benefits by division among her enemies. Upon whom would she look in Canada as furthering her designs? Not Sir Robert Borden, Mr. Rowell and their colleagues in the Union Government. That is certain. But can the same be said with respect to the leaders in the Province of Quebec whose attitude in this war is against Canada's continuation in the war. We regret to be compelled to say these things, but we must not shut our eyes to facts.

The Citizens' Union Committee, anxious for the maintenance of British ideals and traditions, views with alarm the menace of French-Canadian domination with its inevitable influence upon the home, the school and the state.

We, therefore, call upon all English-speaking men and women to realize that—Canada, divided by political factions and old-time party questions, is at the mercy of a united Quebec. Union Government alone can save Canada from the menace of French-Canadian domination.
