One of Yesterday's Jurors, Called Again, Says He Could Not Vote Conviction

MURDOCH EVOUNG was again arraigned in the Circuit Court this morning for trial on a charge of manslaughter arising out of the fatal injury to Police Constable Stephen P. THUNBERG AT LAKE

Thunberg was on his way to Lily Lake before 10 o'clock. Charles Gorman, local skating champion, was out and his workout amply demonstrated that he will be a powerful factor in the great battle coming next week.

CITY GIVES WATCH

It was announced this morning that the city would give a watch, suitably engraved, to the winner of the big meet here. The watch is a costly one, being a split second one as well as a time watch, and will prove very useful to any speed-skater.

HOTELS FILLING UP

Local hotels are rapidly running out of reservations for the big meet, and citizens who have lodgings for use are requested to get in touch with the skating headquarters—Main 336—and notify them of their capacity. A list will be made up and sent to the various hotels and in this manner any overflow will be handled. The skaters will stay at the Royal.

MASSUR SECURED

Thunberg has secured the services of an expert massur, in the person of a Mr. Jaspersen, who is in the city at present. He carries credentials from the Danish government and Thunberg is well-satisfied with his work. Jaspersen was a medal student in Holsten and came out to this country looking for work to put him through college. He is an accomplished linguist as well.

ACCUSES KING

Declares Premier Evaded Maritime Issue in Pleading Ignorance of Rights

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—The debate on the address in the House of Commons will be continued this afternoon by A. J. Doucet, Conservative for Kent, N. B., who had not concluded his speech when the House rose at 6 o'clock last night. The debate followed along the orthodox party lines yesterday. It was confined to Conservatives and Liberals, the tariff and Maritime rights presenting whatever features there were.

Mr. Doucet accused Premier King of evading the issue in connection with Maritime rights by saying he did not know what these rights were, whereas Mr. Meighen gave the people of those provinces to understand that he knew what those grievances were and proposed to meet them.

DOUCET URGES COAL SALE IN CENTRAL MARTS

Advocates Consideration of Transportation To Big Consumers

REVIEWS ELECTION EFFECTS IN HOUSE

Conservatives Seen Gaining in Quebec and Tariff Issue Obscured

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Supporters of the Government and of the Conservative opposition furnished the speakers during today's brief sitting of the House of Commons.

A. J. Doucet, Conservative of Kent, N.B., spoke in the debate on the Address. Mr. Doucet urged consideration of the transportation of Canadian coal to the markets in Central Canada.

Mr. Doucet, after brief preliminary compliments to the Speaker upon his election, in French, reviewed the effect of the general election in the Maritime Provinces.

RESULTS IN MARITIMES

The government representation had fallen from sixteen to three in Nova Scotia and in New Brunswick the Conservatives had returned ten to one. Unlike the Prime Minister who had said he did not know what the Maritime case was, Mr. Meighen gave the people of those provinces to understand that he knew what their grievances were and that he proposed to meet the needs of the Maritimes.

CANADIAN FUEL

One of the first things to be considered was the transportation of Canadian coal to the Canadian market. If Canada could spend $10,000,000 on anthracite coal from the United States, it should be possible to devise some scheme whereby Canadian coal could be brought to the markets of central Canada.

QUEBEC VOTE FIGURES

Mr. Doucet did not believe that the result of the last election indicated a want of faith in Quebec in the tariff policy of Conservative party. Other considerations had been exaggerated until they obscured the tariff issue, and he believed that if the average elector of Quebec could be sounded out on the tariff question, it would be found that he was in favor of Mr. Meighen's tariff policy.

TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM

Debate on the address was resumed when the House opened by J. P. Howard, of St. Boniface, the only Liberal returned from Manitoba. He emphasized the importance of the transportation problem. If the primary products of the Dominion could be moved to the central markets, one of the real difficulties confronting Canadians would have been removed.

NORWEGIAN AUTHORESS NOW IN U. S.

Inga Swanholm, famous Norwegian authoress, has arrived in Laguna Beach, Calif., and is at work on her first American-produced book.

Conservative member for Carleton Place, Ontario, urged the use of Canadian preference to American coal, and the use of Canadian seaports instead of conducting so much of the trade of Canada through seaports of the United States.

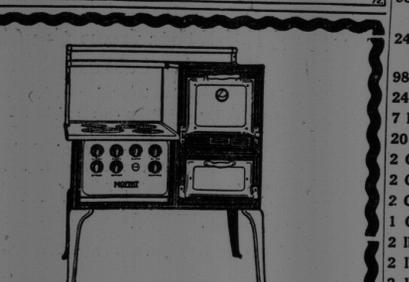

HITS AUSTRALIAN TREATY

Colonel Donald S. Sutherland, Conservative for North Oxford, stated the Australian treaty would prove injurious to the Canadian dairy industry and agricultural interests of this country should have been consulted before it was negotiated.

Straw Substitute For Coal Invented

MANHATTAN, Kan., Jan. 20.—Straw, compressed into briquettes under 83 pound pressure per square inch, in laboratory experiments here at the Kansas State Agricultural College has proven to have about one-half the heating value of coal and may partially supplant it as a fuel in middle-western homes, according to W. H. Sanders, professor of agricultural engineering of the college.

Who art you, dusky woman, so ancient, hardly human, With your woolly-white and turban'd head and bare, bony feet? Why rising by the roadside, do you the colors greet?

No further does she say, but lingering all the day, Her high-borne turban'd head she waves, and rolls her darkling eye, And courtesies to the regiments, the gaudions moving by.

What is it, fearful woman, so bleak, hardly human? Why your strange head with turban bound, yellow, red and green? Are the things so head and marvelous you see or have seen? —Walt Whitman.

The Best of Advice

BY CLARK KINNAIRD

THE ELEMENT OF SUCCESS.

IF WE are to believe the speeches they make, and the interviews they give the Opportunity magazines, then there is a theory among successful men that there is no such thing as luck in business; that success depends solely upon hard work, diligent foresight, thrift, superior brains and the like.

It is refreshing then to read what Joseph E. Gilbert, builder of several of the world's tallest skyscrapers, and a successful man by all the popular canons, has to say about success: "A successful man is an accident."

"This success stuff you read about in the magazines is a lot of bunk. It is told in the Baltimore Sun how he was very disappointed when he had to take the farm for debt, and offered to sell it for the amount of his loan, but nobody would buy."

The farm which he tried to get rid of was the foundation of one of the greatest of American fortunes.

And this is the story of a great many of the great American fortunes, of the rich men who give us the rules of success.

One expert prospector spends a lifetime digging a well; another strikes a vein which makes him a multi-millionaire.

There are few Successful Men in whose lives chance, accident, luck, whatever it may be called, did not play an important if not leading part.

Timely Views On World Topics

"DUCKS, quail, wild turkey and big game such as elk, bison and deer will soon be extinct in the United States if drastic measures are not taken soon," warns Dr. William T. Hornaday, noted authority on wild life.

In a recent interview he said: "For 50 years the sportsmen of the East and the Middle West have been regulating the killing of game and solemnly calling it 'game protection.' That designation, however, is a grim joke if you or I lived in a land inhabited by and governed by giant gorillas who ate men, and the gorilla man-catchers elected that humans should be killed and eaten during only three months of the year, we would call that every poor kind of man-protection. But is not that the kind of protection that they, and they alone, have been giving American game for 50 years?"

"The areas of game species extinction, already enormous, are increasing and spreading in devastating waves. Mighty little work has been done in mapping the state areas of extinction and spreading them before the people. The subject is too disagreeable! The stories they would tell of greed, folly and imbecility would be too humiliating. Look at our own maps of the duck, quail and wild turkey situations as samples of the whole. The disappearance of big game like the elk, bison and deer from farming and grazing countries was unavoidable, and we charge up nothing on their account, save against the men who killed those animals in wicked wastefulness of valuable products."

SCORES CONGRESS. "The Department of Agriculture has for two years stubbornly maintained its support of the present killing privileges of sportsmen, as expressed in murderous bag limits and open seasons, and its rejection of all appeals against that policy appears to be fixed and final. Congress could make a quick change in that situation—if it would. But who is going to make a campaign in Congress to arouse that body, and convince it that prompt and strong action is now imperatively necessary? "No one! It is too much trouble!"

HEALTH MINISTER ONE OF SPEAKERS

Financial Report Submitted and This Phase Discussed—Officers Chosen

Frederick T. Short, of Saint John, was elected president of the New Brunswick division of the Red Cross at its annual meeting in the city yesterday.

C. B. Allan, vice-president, was in the chair and announced the division would receive $9,000 from the Central Council this year to carry on Junior Red Cross and Home Nursing classes and nursing services but that the division could not look to receive further grants from head office.

QUESTION OF FINANCES

Finances were seriously considered as expenditures exceeded receipts by more than $4,000 in the last year. It was pointed out, however, that the amount expended by local branches was not totalled at the provincial depot and that the division received no credit for much of the money raised by the Red Cross in the province.

Hon. Dr. H. I. Taylor was present and in his first public speech in Saint John as Minister of Public Health expressed appreciation of previous grants of Red Cross money to the provincial department of health, which grants he said, had been the means of putting the health work on a sound basis and had accomplished much good.

EVENING SESSION.

C. B. Allan reporting on the central council meeting said $2,000 had been granted to the New Brunswick division for Junior Red Cross, home nursing classes and nursing services in the present year. Of the total war-time contribution to the Red Cross, $8,412, 196 there had been given to New Brunswick $88,000 or 126 per cent of its war-time contribution. He said a manual on nutrition was being prepared as a follow up study for the home nursing classes and for general study as children in Canada were found to be the most poorly nourished in the world.

The appointment of a Dominion commissioner to the province, to work and the organization of senior branches as well as groups of mothers wherever junior branches exist was advocated strongly by the central council. Mrs. H. B. McDonald, giving a further report on the central council gave statistics on the extensive work at the ports, the Junior Red Cross and other activities.

HOME NURSING.

In home nursing New Brunswick classes had a greater share than any other province and the organizer, Miss S. A. Barrington, was warmly praised by Dr. James Robertson. The central council having now $481,757 in its funds could make no further grants to the divisions after this year. The general commissioner was to aid the divisions. Mr. McDonald had been impressed by the spirit of optimism, the great impetus given the work this year and the splendid assistance of volunteer workers throughout the division.

Mrs. McDonald urged expenditures for all local work should be made through the provincial office in order that the division might receive credit for all the work done on all the branches as is the case in other divisions.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Officers elected were as follows: Honorary patron, Lt.-Gov. Hon. W. F. Todd; honorary president, R. T. Hayes; president, F. T. Short; vice-presidents, first, Rev. A. J. Patstone, second, Mrs. H. B. McDonald, Chatham third, The Countess of Arundell; fourth, Mrs. N. Marks Mills, St. Stephen; fifth, Mrs. J. P. Byrne, Bathurst; honorary treasurer, Ralph G. McInerney; secretary, Miss Ethel Hassen Jarvis; junior supervisor, Miss Jessie I. Lawton; members of the executive, Mrs. Heber Vroom, Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, F. B. Ellis, Mrs. Walter Allison, Rothsay, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee, Mrs. J. H. Dooey, Dr. W. S. Carter, Fredericton, C. B. Allan, Dr. H. A. Farris, Mrs. I. P. Longley, Hon. Dr. H. I. Taylor, St. George, Mrs. H. A. Powell, Mrs. F. S. White, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Mrs. A. M. Rowan, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Mrs. Alfred Morrisset, Mrs. Walter Black, Middle Sackville, Mrs. Franquette, Edmundston, Dr. B. A. Puddington, Grand Falls, Dr. L. G. Lawrence, Mrs. Royden Thompson, Rothsay, Mrs. Barbour, Riverview, Miss Elizabeth Nutter, supervisor of Women's Institutes, Mrs. A. H. Baird, Andover, Mrs. W. P. Jones, Woodstock, Miss Bessie Grimmer, St. Andrews, Mrs. D. J. Shea, Fredericton, Mrs. William Graham, Milltown; finance committee, R. G. McInerney, Mrs. Heber Vroom and F. L. Short, with power to admit honorary committee, Mrs. Leonard Tilley, convenor; sewing committee, Mrs. Walter Allison, convenor; packing committee, Mrs. E. F. Sturdee; bulletins committee, Mrs. James F. Robertson; relief committee, Mrs. George K. McLeod; junior committee, Mrs. Heber Vroom; auditor, H. C. Rankine; representatives to Central Council, C. B. Allan, Mrs. J. Royden Thompson and Mrs. Leonard Tilley; representatives to the National Junior Red Cross committee, Mrs. H. B. McDonald and Dr. W. S. Carter.

The treasurer's statement, covering 10 months, given by R. G. McInerney, showed receipts of $276,067 and expenditures of $8,855.40 with an actual balance of $3,616.62. Expenses were made up as follows:

Elected President

Salary secretary and accountant, $975; assistant salary and depot expenses, $1,668.18; printing, $334.42; campaign Jan. 1, 1926, to date, $321. Same period 1925, $1,738. Same period 1924, $1,840.

FUNDS ON HAND.

Mr. McInerney referring to the excess of expenditures over income said funds on hand would cover only six months' expenses of the society, spent as it had last year. Receipts from the campaign to date had been $1,083.65 and the objective was $6,000. He advised greater economy, especially in expenditures by the hospital committee.

Miss Jarvis showed a sample collecting box of which the society has 6,000 and suggested distributing them throughout the province.

Mrs. McDonald, of Chatham, said expenditures for the provincial depot were very low as compared with every other provincial division. She declared emphatically her belief that the money given to soldiers in hospital should be raised locally.

DR. TAYLOR.

Hon. Dr. H. I. Taylor, Minister of Public Health, was cordially welcomed, and said he was making his first public speech in Saint John as minister. He spoke at length on the work of the Red Cross member and as the Minister of Health.

He paid a tribute to the work of New Brunswick women in wartime, particularly the work of the nurses. He referred to the progress of nursing service in 75 years and of the new use of preventive medicine, in which Junior Red Cross was playing so big a part. He spoke appreciatively of the Red Cross grants to New Brunswick health centres in recent years. Dr. Taylor's address was warmly applauded.

Resolutions adopted expressed deep regret in the death of George F. Smith and of Mrs. John A. McAvity; expressed regret that Mr. Hayes, for ten years president, declined re-election, and extended thanks to the central council for the services of Miss S. A. Barrington and Miss J. Lawson. Other resolutions of thanks were also adopted.

Mr. Short was warmly applauded on taking office as president.

Mrs. L. Foster, who had been the chief among the workers in Lakeshore branch and now resides in Fredericton, gave an excellent paper on the "Senior's Opportunity and Responsibility."

ARTHUR, Ont., Jan. 20.—(Special)—Mrs. Grace J. Fowler, a well-known resident here is very satisfied with Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I have used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and found great relief in them," Mrs. Fowler states. "I have suffered with backache for six months. A friend of mine had told me about Dodd's Kidney Pills, so I decided to give them a trial. I have taken six boxes and the pain in my back across my kidneys has all gone. I am very thankful to you."

Mrs. Fowler's troubles came from the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. They put them in shape to strain all the impurities out of the blood. Without pure blood there can be no good health. Insist on having Dodd's, the kidney pill your neighbors use.

SAINT JOHN IS GETTING SHARE

Ford Company Ship 85 Per Cent Through Maritime Province Ports

Visiting Official Makes Statement—New Brunswick Roads and Scenery Praised

Phillip W. Grandjean, secretary and assistant treasurer of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, who, with Bryce R. Muir, advertising manager, is a visitor in the city, stated to the Telegraph-Journal yesterday that 85 per cent of his company's export shipments were being made through Maritime ports, and that the port of Saint John was getting its share, all other shipments going to countries with which Maritime ports have no shipping connections.

He expressed satisfaction with the service the ports were giving and said that it was a source of pleasure that Ford products for export were following a complete Canadian route in their departure from this continent. "The Canadian Government Merchant Marine are transporting most of their cargoes and that, according to the visitor, is finding much favor in Australia and New Zealand."

AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY.

In speaking of the automotive industry, Mr. Grandjean stated, that the production of Canadian factories during the year just ended eclipsed that of any other country save the United States; and the industry itself had grown so rapidly that it outstripped in value of products all industries except those engaged in the development of agricultural and natural resources. He added that the manufacture of motor cars in this country was just on the rise; that it would be many years before the peak was reached. In his opinion it has a great future in Canada, where its growth will parallel the development of the country; immigration will help build up the domestic market and there are many factors that will contribute to the extension of the foreign market.

Particularizing, Mr. Grandjean spoke of automotive transportation in the Dominion, remarking that the industry in the Maritimes, although as yet in its infancy, was representative of the general national development.

GOOD ROADS IMPORTANT.

"Good roads," he said, "are as important as any other factor in the progress of motor transportation in the Dominion. It may interest you to know that in making a report on the trans-Canada trip which the new model Ford touring car made last fall, our Mr. Flickinger, who conducted the trip, reported that the road and natural scenery of New Brunswick were not excelled on the entire journey of some 4,900 miles."

In the opinion of Mr. Grandjean, this statement augured well for the growth of tourist traffic in New Brunswick.

GOOD MOVE, HE THINKS.

Turning to business matters he stated that last year the Ford Motor Company of Canada established two plants in Australia, one for the manufacture of bodies, the other for assembly purposes. The recently enacted trade treaty between Canada and Australia he characterized as an excellent move in the right direction, but to extract any benefit from it Canadian manufacturers must develop this opportunity for an exchange of produce intensively.

Japan Progresses In Cancer Research

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20.—Japanese scientists are making remarkable strides in cancer research, according to the report of Dr. Arthur Bliss Dayton, assistant Dean of the Yale Medical school, who recently returned from a tour of the Orient. Scientists of the National Nutrition Institute, according to Dr. Dayton, have been able to produce cancer in rats by giving them food deficient in vitamin A. This is the first time that so close a connection between cancer and nutrition has been established and the second time that cancer has been produced experimentally in living organisms.

The Husband Who is Too Cowardly to Make a Will—Can There Ever Be a Second Love as Strong as the First?—The Wife Whose Cruel Husband Calls Her "Dear" Instead of "Mary."

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Why is it that some of the most devoted husbands with the most deserving wives cannot be induced to make out an insurance policy or make a will? My husband and I are everything to each other, and during the dozen years that we have been married, we have worked shoulder to shoulder. I have sweated every penny, and as the result we have a nice home on which we are paying, and some good stocks, which are, of course, in his name. But I have never been able to induce him to make a will, and so if he died I would only have my widow's portion. I know my husband wants me to have what he has, and what I have helped to make just as much as he, but he just can't bring himself to make a will. What makes a man treat the woman he loves in this way?

ANSWER: It is his lack of affection for you that keeps your husband from making his will, Mrs. Thrifty. It is because he is a coward who lacks the courage to face the fact that he will one day die. He cannot bring himself to visualize his own end, as he is bound to do when he makes a will.

DOROTHY DIX.

Many men have this same feeling, and it keeps them from making their wills and taking out any life insurance. They stultify themselves by pretending that they can evade the common fate of mankind by refusing to recognize that it can ever come to them, and so they die, leaving their affairs in disorder, and working a grievous wrong to their wives and children.

It is every man's bounden duty to protect his wife by taking out as much insurance as he can afford to carry, and by making a will that will take into consideration his wife's personality. In a case such as yours, where the wife is a good business woman and knows how to handle money, it is safe to give her the money outright, but where the wife is a woman who knows nothing of financial matters, and who is as likely as not to sign a check "affectionately," the husband should leave her inheritance safely tied up in a good trust company.

Such women are the predestined victims of every sharper in their vicinity. All the grafting ne'er-do-wells in their family use their tie of blood and affection to borrow money from them. Flimsy gentlemen who come to pray with them in their affliction remain to prey on them. Glib-talking bond salesmen induce them to sell gilt-edge securities and invest in wildcat schemes that produce 50 per cent, and pay nothing.

And the black sheep children who are always in trouble, whom mother is always paying out of their scrapes, eat up the estate, and the good children not only get nothing, but have to take care of mother in the end. All of these things a man should take into consideration in making his will. And if he has money to leave to his daughters, he should tie it up so good and fast for them that they cannot give it to their husbands. Thereby will he save them not only their fortune, but their domestic peace as well. For no woman can refuse to give her husband her money and live in peace with him, but he can't argue with papa's will.

Certainly it is every man's bounden duty to make a will, and if he won't do it of his own accord, it is his wife's duty to make him do it. So my advice to you, Mrs. Thrifty, is to have your husband's lawyer come around to the house some evening in the immediate future, and draw up the instrument then and there. All your husband needs is just to have his courage jacked up a bit. And he will be as pleased as punch after the ordeal is over, and he finds he is still alive!

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—Do you think there is a second love? Can a man or woman who have a wife or husband, and lost them by death, marry again and love as they loved the first ones? INQUIRER.

ANSWER: Certainly the human heart is capable of loving more than once, and in many cases the second loving is more beautiful, more fragrant and more soul-satisfying than the first.

This is particularly apt to be the case when men and women have married when they were very young. Their tastes then were unformed. They had not come to themselves, and did not know what they wanted in a wife or husband, and as they developed and their sense of values changed, they found that they had outgrown their wives and husbands.

Appreciation of the other one's good points, tenderness, pity, the bond that binds together the man and woman who have hoped and struggled and died together, who have gone through the agonies of birth and death together, kept them from really analyzing their feelings toward each other, and made genuine the tears they shed over the coffin of the dead wife or husband.

But when they married again they were able to give to their second wife or husband the choice of their maturity, a depth of passion, a completeness of devotion, an utter oneness of soul, that the first love never called for.

Then, too, we love people for different things, and it is quite possible for a man to have loved one wife because she was gay and beautiful and frivolous, and another wife because she was practical and sensible and domestic and made him comfortable, and for a woman to have been devoted to her John who was a money-maker and gave her limousines and pearls, and to Adolph, who is romantic and feeds her soul on poetry and sentiment.

Perhaps we grow in wisdom in love with experience as we do in other things. Certainly second marriages are much more apt to be happy than first marriages.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—What is your opinion of a husband who for thirteen years has neglected to call his wife by her Christian name, knowing all formed the habit of calling me "Dear," and he never uses my name, although he knows this hurts me terribly and made him miserable, and I tried every way in the world to break him of this habit without avail, and my last resort is writing this letter to you. Perhaps when my husband sees it, and your reply, he will change.

MARY.

ANSWER: I trust he will, Mary, and I think he will, because it will probably make him realize for the first time that a sane woman could make such a mountain out of a molehill.

But you certainly put it all over the pampered princess who had to search under her forty mattresses of ease to find a crumpled rose leaf. If you have nothing to object to in your husband except that he calls you "Dear" instead of "Mary," and yet you let that make you miserable, you are certainly a trouble hunter to your back. Take the blue ribbon as the champion. Nobody will dispute it with you.

I haven't much sympathy for you, Mary. All the pity I have got goes out to your husband. And listen, dear, if I were you, I would go and consult some real good alienist.

DOROTHY DIX.

SEE-SAWING UP AND DOWN BROADWAY

SEE-SAWING UP AND DOWN BROADWAY. It is a pastime of the great orchestra leader who is known to Europe as "the volcano of Walsbaden." And full seven feet tall is he. If he is six inches, and he comes to America to conduct the New York Symphony after cutting a wide musical swath in Europe. Saw Flo Ziesfeld flaunting his new $1,000 beaver coat. Saw a cutter, along with everything, go tingling down Broadway attracting far more attention than all the million-dollar jazz cars at the automobile show. The ticket takers at the Metropolitan Opera House are wearing high silk hats this season and most comical they look. Which reminds me, May it will be straw hat day. Saw Joe Cook and Tom Howard, the first of them is one of my pet comedians, and they are two of the very funniest men on Broadway. And his rise in the world is due to the love of a tiny little girl for the circus. In Evansville, Ind., where he spent his childhood, Joe rigged up a "museum and circus" in the family barn. He wired the barn with electricity and started the neighborhood with his dexterity as a juggler. The stable became quite a serious theatre—as much as ten pins being required for admission. In spare moments he attracted on the tight rope and soon was going about the country, appearing at carnivals and things. Later he trekked to New York and wound up in vaudeville. Now Tom Howard was lured to tea by imposing placards of Sir Thomas Lipton. He found himself in a petty job in a Philadelphia tea store. Within two years he had progressed from errand boy to messenger. This didn't amuse

Wheat Cereal with Dates—One cup of wheat, one cup dates, sliced and cut small, six cups boiling water, one teaspoon salt. Add wheat slowly to boiling water, stirring constantly. DAILY MOVIE SERVICE Peers Into Crystal For Gems of 1926

By RUSSELL J. BIRDWELL. AS MY critical conferee, Jack Jungmeyer, has said and written, this is the time of the season when reviewing species both indie and indiet "The Ten Best Pictures of the Year." Fearing it may fall my lot at the close of this new year to decree the so-called "ten best," I will now hurl custom and tradition recklessly to the winds and predict same here and now to avoid that future task. Some of the following listed pictures are now on the film shelves, awaiting release, others have not yet gone into production, while a few are in the making. "Ben Hur"—by Fred Niblo. "Old Ironsides"—by James Cruze. "The Viennese Medley"—by Curt Reifel, June Mathis, and Douglas Fairbanks. "The Unknown Soldier"—by Renaud Hoffman. "The Circus"—by Charlie Chaplin. "The Sorrows of Satan"—by D. W. Griffith. "The Sea Beast"—by John Barrymore. "The Wedding March"—by Eric von Stroheim. "For Heaven's Sake"—by Harold Lloyd. One or two of these pictures may reach the screen under other titles. It is almost certain that Lloyd, a wise showman, will not release his picture under its present working title, as it runs the risk of offending many fans. "BEN HUR" GREATEST? "Ben Hur," despite many wisecracks which have been hurled about its cost and time of production, from all indications has probably the best chance of being the greatest picture ever produced. "Old Ironsides" will be a historical pantomime slide from Civil War days. Cruze expects to surpass his "Covered Wagon" victory with this picture. "The Viennese Medley" is being directed by Curt Reifel, who never before has directed. It is to be

HIDY GO LAND "Hello! Hello! The Fairy Queen speaking! Is that the house where the Twins live?" "Yes, it is," said Nancy, who had answered the telephone. "How do you do, Mrs. Queen?" "I'm very well, indeed, thank you," said the Fairy Queen sweetly. "And how are you, my dear? And Nick?" "We're just fine," said Nancy. "We're playing sail-boat in the dining room now with two chairs and a jable cloth!" "Oh! My dear!" said the Fairy Queen in a shocked voice. "I hope it is an old table cloth." "Yes, it is," said Nancy. "Mother was just going to tear it up into window cloths." "Well, that's better," said the Fairy Queen. "You never can guess where I am." "Out in the snowy woods with a lot of my fairies, scattering crumbs for the little winter birds," said the Fairy Queen. "The poor little mites can't get a bite to eat with the snow and ice over everything." "Oh, may we come and help you?" cried Nancy. "No need for that," said the Fairy Queen. "Just scatter some crumbs around your own house. And do it each morning, please. And tell all your friends to do it, too. The little chickadees will be so grateful, and the sparrows, and downy-woodpeckers and nuthatches, and all the little winter birds who are brave enough to stay here with us. They are our guests and we always feed them, you know. And get a bit of suet from cook (that's fat) and tie it to a tree or bush or porch rail or any place where they can get at it. They need it as well as bread." "Oh, I'm so glad you told us," said kind little Nancy. "We always mean to feed the birds, but we forget." "The most important thing of all," said the Fairy Queen, "is never to forget. If your mother should forget to feed you for a day, you could ask, but the birds can't. The first thing every morning when you get up you must say to yourself: 'I can't have my own breakfast until the birds have had theirs.' And keep it up, dear, until the first warm days of spring." "Yes we will," promised Nancy. "I'll tell Nick and we'll go right away. Good-bye." "Oh, wait a minute! Wait a minute!" called the Fairy Queen. "Operator, give me Green Hill 1234 again! I wasn't through, Nancy! Indeed I hadn't begun. My little lecture on birds was just one thing I wanted to talk about. There's another very important thing. Will you and Nick help me out? There is something else very important to be attended to and I can't go myself." "Certainly!" said Nancy, eagerly. "We should be delighted. Is it another adventure?" "Yes," said her Royal Highness. "One of my Nine Hundred and Ninety-Nine Kingdoms is going to have a revolution if the king doesn't manage better. It may be that he just needs teaching, or it may be that he's no good. If he's no good I shall have to hunt for a new king. But I can't find out unless I send someone to sort of check him up, and perhaps to help him a little, if they can." "Where is it?" asked Nancy. "It's the Land of Hidy Go," answered the Fairy Queen. "The king's name is Havelock. It's a queer place with all sorts of people and things. Things that disappear and can't be accounted for. You can reach it by any crack in the wall or floor or pavement, or by the queer little holes you spy in the fields. You'll have no trouble. The magic shoes are on your doorstep. Good-bye." Before Nancy could answer, the Fairy Queen had run away. To Be Continued.

TRINITY CHURCH TO HAVE NEW CLOCK

Two Bells Are to Be Added to Chimes in the Tower Here

The citizens generally will be pleased to learn that the corporation of Trinity Church have decided to install a new clock in the church tower. This clock has been ordered from the world famous firm of Gillett & Johnston, Crowdon, England. It will be thoroughly modern in every way and electrically driven, connected with bells in the tower and playing the Westminster chimes on the quarters and striking the hours.

They have also decided to add two additional bells to the ten already in the tower, thus enabling greater range of tunes to be played than at present. Those who in the past have taken great delight in hearing these chimes will be glad to know that the new installation will insure greater regularity as well as variety than has been possible in the past.

SIMILAR CLOCK

Gillett & Johnston, the firm referred to above, have recently made a contract with the Dominion Government for a clock of the same character to be placed in the tower of the new House of Parliament in Ottawa, along with a complete carillon of bells, some forty in all, similar to an equipment placed recently in the Park Avenue Church, New York, for John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in memory of his mother.

Many Inoculated At Health Centre

Many children were inoculated with toxoid for immunity against diphtheria at the Health Centre yesterday. The larger number of applicants for this inoculation in the last few days is believed to indicate a growing feeling among the parents of the city regarding their responsibility in the matter.

There are no injurious or unpleasant effects from the toxoid, and it is administered very simply. It ensures complete immunity from the disease for life.

In view of the fact that diphtheria is quite prevalent in Canada this winter, the inoculation of all children is being strongly urged by the health authorities.

Crowd, Riled By Play, Riots, Beats Jews

VIENNA, Jan. 20.—The production of John Galsworthy's play "Loyalists" at the Rumanian National Theatre at Grosswardin, Transylvania, was the cause of serious rioting.

Nationalist students, taking violent exception to the attitude of British aristocrats toward Jews, as exemplified by the characters in the play, fell upon and beat the Jews in the audience, forced abandonment of the performance, and the withdrawal of the play.

Weddings

Hayes-Johnson.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Jan. 7, when Myrtle G. Johnson, of Black's Harbor, and John K. Hayes, son of Chesley Hayes, of Hampton, were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, pastor of German street Baptist church.

Wilcox-Comeau.

CAMPBELLTON, Jan. 20.—A very pretty wedding of more than local interest took place here yesterday morning at 8 o'clock in the Church of Our Lady of the Snows, when Miss Mary Laura Comeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Comeau, of Campbellton, and George Porter Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wilcox, of Halifax, were united in marriage by the Rev. Fr. A. McLellan.

The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion, being festooned with cut flowers and potted plants, making a very pretty scene.

The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a Hudson seal coat, with hat to match, and carried a large bouquet of American roses. The groom was attended by J. W. Howard, of this town.

After the ceremony the happy pair repaired to the Chateau Restigouche, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to about 40 invited guests. After the repast Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox left on the Ocean Limited on their honeymoon to Montreal, New York, Portland, Saint John and Halifax.

Ont. Official Missing Since January 8

PEMBROKE, Ont., Jan. 20.—Sergeant John Billings, D.C.M. and fisheries inspector at Barry's Bay, has been missing since Jan. 8, and grave fears are entertained for his safety. Foul play is feared by some while others are inclined to think that he and his guide may have lost their lives by breaking through the ice on one of the many lakes and rivers in the district to which they went.

St. F. X. Debaters First to Win Over Touring British Speakers; Visitors Meet Mount A. Tonight

ANTIGONISH, Jan. 20.—Gaining the decision of the audience, the St. Francis Xavier University debating team defeated the Imperial debating team for the first time since they came to the Maritimes, in Immaculata Hall here last night.

The subject on which the teams debated was "Resolved that Western civilization is becoming a degenerating influence on mankind," and the arguments on both sides were given with freedom and grace, the winners upholding the negative while the Imperial team supported the resolution.

AUDIENCE VOTED

There were not three judges as usually the custom in intercollegiate debates, but the audience had the opportunity of voting by ballot and the majority favored the Xaverians.

Very Rev. H. P. MacPherson, D. D., president and rector of St. Francis Xavier, presided and previous to the opening of the debate welcomed the visitors in a very cordial manner.

Previous to the debate the Imperial team met the Acadia team in Wolfville and were given the decision and also gained the verdict over the Dalhousie team last week.

The Imperial debating team was expected at Mount Allison yesterday. The debate will be held in Fawcett Memorial Hall this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The judges are: E. R. Rilly, K. C., M. L. A.-elect, of Moncton; R. W. CANTON ARMY CHIEF SHOT; CADET NABBED

HONG KONG, Jan. 21.—General Chang Kai-Shek, commander of the Canton army, was shot in the left hand today in what was alleged to have been an attempt to assassinate him.

MONCTON DEBATERS LOSE CONTEST HERE

Judges Give Award to Local Pythians on Public Utilities Ownership Question

A team from the four city lodges of Knights of Pythias defeated the representatives of Westmorland Lodge, No. 8, of Moncton, in a debate in the Pythian Castle, last evening. Chancellor Commander Walter Hamm presided. About 800 were present, including thirty members from Moncton.

The subject of the debate was "Resolved, that public ownership and operation of public utilities is preferable to private ownership and operation." The affirmative was upheld by the Moncton team, composed of L. P. Stratton, C. H. Blakeney, E. H. Prince and J. A. Robinson. The Saint John team was composed of R. H. Gale, F. L. Groatson, R. H. Bennett and T. R. S. Smith.

The judges were Chief Justice Hazen, Mr. Justice Grimmer and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K.C., Premier of New Brunswick. C. E. Pugh, C.N.R. terminal agent, acted as timekeeper.

The judgment, which was in favor of the local team, was delivered by the Chief Justice, who congratulated both teams on the quality of their arguments and presentation. The other judges also spoke briefly, Premier Baxter remarking that the subject which was under debate might soon have to be considered in other quarters.

A vote of thanks to the judges was moved by R. H. Gale and seconded by L. V. Stratton.

After the debate refreshments were served.

CALLER ADMITS GUILT IN THEFT

Wife is Freed in Pond Street Case Over $2,200

Mrs. Lavigne Questioned and Money May go Back to Insurance Co.

To come into court expecting to be the star witness for the Crown in a criminal case and to find herself temporarily under restraint herself, was the experience of Mrs. Jean Lavigne yesterday.

Mrs. Lavigne was complainant in the case against George Collier and Margaret, his wife, charged with acting together and stealing $2,200 from the Lavigne woman in her house on Pond street, November 29 last.

The prisoners were brought into court yesterday afternoon while the jury was out in the Evoying manslaughter case. The husband was arraigned first and pleaded guilty. His wife pleaded not guilty.

Hon. J.B.M. Baxter, K. C., who appeared for the Crown in his capacity of attorney-general, said that since the husband had pleaded guilty he considered the ends of justice had been met. He had no doubt that the woman's part in the theft had been done under the compulsion of her husband and the Crown was willing to enter a nolle prosequi in her case.

On motion of W. M. Ryan, for the defence, Collier's sentence was deferred until a later date, and he was remanded to jail.

Dr. Baxter said that the $2,200 in question might become the subject of a trial itself. He requested that it should remain in the custody of the clerk of the court for the time being. He then directed that Mrs. Lavigne should not leave the court room until permission was given.

Dr. Baxter and Mr. Ryan conferred with the woman for a short time after which she was allowed to go.

Dr. Baxter, questioned as to the nature of the case after court, intimated that the money obtained under an insurance policy, would likely be returned to the company, and the case probably dropped.

L. R. ROSS DIES IN BERMUDA; BORN IN N. B.

PROMINENT FIGURE IN FINANCIAL LIFE

LEWDEN ROBERT ROSS, former terminal agent of the Canadian National Railway here, died in Bermuda at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Ross was on a trip to the south with his sister, Mrs. Mark Ferguson, of this city, and at Grassmere, a hotel just outside Hamilton, Bermuda, when he was stricken with his fatal illness.

Word of his seizure by illness was cabled to relatives in the city two days ago.

Mr. Ross had been in poor health since he had received a stroke of paralysis about four years ago while on a tour of the Far East.

BORN IN DORCHESTER.

The late Mr. Ross was a son of the late Edward and Mary Ross. He was born at Dorchester, N. B., on April 30, 1862, and was educated in the public schools and Portland High School, graduating from the latter institution in 1877.

He became telegraph operator with the C. N. R. at Bathurst in the same year. Since that time he had held positions as operator, train despatcher, freight clerk and ticket agent with the C. N. R. and C. N. R. He was appointed terminal agent of the C. N. R. at Saint John in 1900.

In the latter capacity he added to the high reputation he had won as a railway man in other positions, and was widely and favorably known by the railway fraternity and the public.

He retired as terminal agent on July 1, 1924 on six months leave and this became permanent on Jan. 1, 1925. C. S. Pugh succeeding him.

WAS CLUBMAN AND E.L.K.

He was a member of the Union Club, the Chisholm Lake Fishing Club, and a former exalted ruler of Canadian Lodge No. 7, Brotherhood of the Protective Order of Elks.

Mr. Ross was a prominent figure in the financial life of the community. He was president of the New Brunswick Power Company from the time of its acquisition of the Saint John Street Railway in 1917 until it was sold to its present owners, the Federal Light and Traction Company, in 1923.

THOSE WHO SURVIVE.

Mr. Ross is survived by one son, Arthur G., of the customs service at Montreal, who sailed from New York yesterday to be at his father's bedside; one daughter, Mrs. James Dickenson, of Port Arthur, Ont., and one brother, Edward, of the C. N. R. elevator staff, Saint John, and two sisters, Mrs. Mark Ferguson and Mrs. C. E. Lordy, both of this city.

His wife predeceased him some years ago. She was Miss Julia Morrison, daughter of John Morrison, ship-builder, of Saint John.

HAD MANY FRIENDS

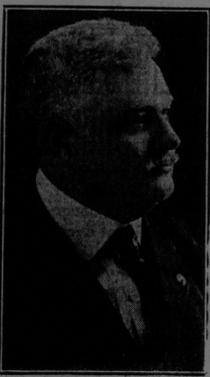

Mr. Ross was a most companionable man. Of kindly nature, he was always ready with a helping word to any one in sorrow and those about him in the work of the railway found him easy of approach and well disposed to assist in the problems of the day. He was of literary tastes and his mind well stored. Of cheerful manner, he looked on the bright side of things and was always pleased to chat with old friends. It was the experience of the newspaper men whose duties called for collecting the news developing about the depot that in Mr. Ross they had a good friend and one who knew when a happening had the element of news in it.

ESTABLISHED ROSS TROPHY

He was an interested follower of sporting matters and particularly rowing. That is easily accounted for when it is remembered that his brother, Wallace, was a famous sculler in the days when Ned Hanlon and other great men of the shell and oar were filling the sport columns of the newspapers. Mr. Ross showed his practical interest in this sport by founding the Ross Trophy, a handsome and valuable cup, for the encouragement of young rowers.

Mr. Ross was a genial host and his fine home on the Kennebecasis was often opened to his friends in happy social meeting. He numbered friends on all sides and the news of his death therefore touches many with sorrow.

Fatally Stricken.

LEWDEN ROBERT ROSS

Former terminal agent of the Canadian National Railway here, died in Bermuda at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Girl, 16, Out To Spend $75,000, Plays Heiress on Checkbook

CINCINNATI, Jan. 20.—At the age of 16, Lillian Clark Reed, of Canton, Ohio, was bored with the "humdrum existence" of a high school girl. A week ago, armed with a check book, she arrived in Cincinnati and registered at the Metropole Hotel. That was the beginning of a number of escapades which left business men of this city and of Covington, Ky., in a daze.

Georgia Wants Provision Made For Admission as Sovereign State

GENEVA, Jan. 21.—Some of the citizens of the Georgian Republic at least think that Soviet Russia is headed toward membership in the League of Nations. A letter despatched by the International Committee for the Independence of Georgia to all the countries in the league, asks them not to admit Russia unless she agrees to the admission of Georgia likewise as a sovereign state.

Chief Steward of Melmore Head Jailed

PORTLAND, Maine, Jan. 21.—Fred Thompson, 33, chief steward of the British tramp steamer Melmore Head, was arrested yesterday by customs officials following an investigation into the condition of the liquor storerooms on the vessel.

A Striking Coincidence

(Dundalk Herald.) It is worthy of note to point out that the two couples whose golden wedding celebrations are reported in this issue were married on the same day, by the same minister, Rev. Hugh Crozier. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Renwick sr., of Drumore, were married at Holsen fifty five years ago—on December 29, 1875, while Mr. and Mrs. John D. Ross, now of Mount Forest, were also married in Egremont on December 29, 1875. It was a busy day for Rev. Mr. Crozier, who is still living.

Mouth Organs Ancient

Probably the ancestor of the modern mouth organ is the ancient Greek musical instrument known as the syrinx, one of the oldest of all musical instruments. The modern mouth organ dates from 1820, when Christian Mesner, of Trossingen, built his first factory at Wurttemberg. This factory still gives employment to 8,000 workers at the factory and 8,000 doing piece work at home.

Mount Royal Hotel Company

W. A. Mackenzie. Replies in Open Letter to Circular Issued by Hotel Company

F. A. Dudley, Esq., President, Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited, Montreal, P.Q.

Dear Sir— I have before me today a circular issued by the Mount Royal Hotel Company, addressed to the shareholders of that Company and signed by D. H. McDougall, the Secretary.

You were fully aware that we and our American associates represented through our clients by the largest amount of outstanding Preference Stock, yet none of us were consulted regarding the proposed plan; and we feel that your statement regarding consultation with and approval by the largest holders of Stock is equivocal and not entirely frank.

You state that so long as the outstanding Serial Notes have to be paid from earnings, the return to Preference Shareholders will be limited. The obvious answer is that those Notes can be taken care of out of the depreciation fund, which your previous letter indicates runs to $120,000 per year. This fund could not be better employed than in meeting the capital obligations represented by these Notes and is sufficient to do so.

May I comment on your summary of the proposed advantages to Preference Shareholders under the headings appearing in your letter, as follows:

1. As to the improvement you claim in the class of security. Apart from the reduction in the aggregate amount of securities and cash you offer Preference Shareholders as compared with their present holdings, it may appear superficially that the new securities are generally considered superior in type to that of Preferred Shares. Having regard to the position of the Company, we must repeat our previous statement that this is not the case. If the Company makes money, and the Directors are willing to treat the Preferred Shareholders fairly, they can just as easily and should in all fair-mindedness pay out voluntarily and on their own motion, sums payable out of dividends, an amount equal to what would be called for by the interest on the General Mortgage Bonds and later any disbursement on the Income Bonds. It seems extraordinary that the Directors ask to be bound to pay a certain interest on the General Mortgage Bonds, but are apparently not prepared to voluntarily disburse an equivalent amount by way of dividends on Preference Stock. Apart from the First Mortgage Bonds and Serial Notes, the Company owes no money other than its ordinary current operating liabilities, and surely the Preferred Shareholders could just as direct a claim on the surplus earnings of the Company as they would have if their shares were changed into Bonds.

2. As to improved marketability of new securities. In the first place, there has been no increase in the market quotations of the Preference Stock since this plan was officially announced, but, on the contrary, the price has receded somewhat. Your estimate as to the new securities and the higher market price is entirely a matter of opinion. We do not concur in it, and in any event feel quite satisfied that if the Directors announced a determined policy of a reasonable disbursement of per cent. earnings to Preferred Shareholders, and particularly if this disbursement would be an amount equivalent to what they wish themselves forced to pay by way of interest on General Mortgage Bonds, the market price of the present Shares would show a decided enhancement, and would more than equal any anticipated market benefit which might attach to new securities.

3. As to immediate returns to the present stockholders. If the Directors can pay $2.00 in cash to Preference Shareholders as part of their proposed reorganization, they can just as readily make the same distribution at the present moment by way of a dividend on the Preference Stock. There is certainly no necessity for recasting capital to enable a payment of this size to be made to present Preferred Shareholders. Further, if they can pay six per cent. on the proposed General Mortgage Bonds, they can just as easily disburse the same amount by way of dividend on the Preferred Stock, and the immediate return to Preferred Shareholders will be just as large, and should be larger if they are treated fairly than under your proposed plan.

Your reference to the voting rights is quite misleading. At the present time, one of the most valuable rights attaching to the Preferred Shares is the voting control which they now hold. At present there are about 63,000 outstanding Preferred Shares and 60,000 outstanding Common Shares. The United Hotels Company and its subsidiaries and associates apparently own about 35,000 Common and Preferred Shares. As practically all Preferred Shareholders also own Common Stock, the latter own approximately 95,000 Voting Shares. If the Preference Shares are cancelled and the voting rights disappear, the Preference Shareholders will, through their continuing holdings of Common Stock, represent less than half of the Voting Shares, instead of more than 75 per cent. of the Voting Stock as at present.

If the proposed plan were adopted, Preferred Shareholders would lose the control of the Company which they now enjoy, would lose half of their accrued dividends, would lose 25 per cent. of the annual return to which they are entitled, would lose the exemption from normal income tax which they enjoy in respect of dividends, and would receive in exchange securities of uncertain value, the return of which is no more than what the Directors can pay as dividends on the Preferred Stock if they are prepared to treat the Preferred Shareholders fairly and reasonably.

Let me repeat what I stated in my letters to the shareholders, that the proposal submitted to them is not in their interests and is unfair and unjust, and obviously for the benefit of the Common Shareholders as opposed to the Preferred Shareholders. We will continue to urge the Preferred Shareholders to oppose these proposals and to make their proxies available to us and our associates for such purpose.

Yours truly, W. A. MACKENZIE.

THUNBERG GLAD TO GET ON SIX-LAP TRACK AT LILY LAKE HERE

FIXING FINN PLEASED WITH HIS RECEPTION

Olympic Champion Seeking Services of Expert Masseur

Clas Thunberg, Olympic champion, held his first workout on Lily Lake yesterday afternoon after his arrival and expressed himself as greatly pleased with the six-lap track.

Thunberg expressed a desire to get on the blades shortly after his arrival here at noon yesterday with Charlie Gorman, Saint John's skating pride, and Walter H. Golding.

Witnesses of his first appearance on Saint John ice were of the opinion that skating history of an epic nature will be made when the visitor meets Gorman, Moore and other speedsters on the 26th, 27th and 28th of this month.

Thunberg expressed himself as more than pleased with his first glimpse of Canada and the Canadians. He found the country a good deal like his own.

Thunberg is trying to get a professional masseur for massaging his muscles. Harry T. C. Hutton, physical director at the Y. M. C. A., has offered his services temporarily and gave the champion a rub down at his room in the Admiral Beatty last night.

Charles Magnusson has taken Thunberg under his wing and is acting as interpreter and guide to him.

Much attention was given to the skates used by the European champion. They are unusually long in the blade, measuring 17 inches from end to end.

Local entries for the best closed last night. One hundred and twenty-eight skaters are entered in all classes. These include 89 seniors.

Mrs. E. A. Young, vice-president of the council, said yesterday that the assistance given was very greatly appreciated. Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson is general convener for the sale of tags, and has as her assistant, Mrs. H. B. Peck.

The junior elimination races for the South End will be run off tonight, it was announced this morning. The ice is not in the best of shape, but the committee wants to get them off before the grand finale on Lily Lake Saturday afternoon.

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

"TOMMY" MILLIGAN'S second appearance in an American ring tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden against Jack Zivio, Pittsburgh flash, is arousing more than ordinary interest hereabouts, probably due to the fact the fans are wondering how this latest of English ring artists will fare in his attempt to scale the heights.

ERIC LIDDELL, famous Scotch sprinter, now is a missionary in China. We suppose they'd give him a Chinaman's chance if he decides to race.

WE HAVE ALL heard of how fast and exciting a game hockey is, but the limit seems to have been reached several years ago over in a small Nova Scotia town. This story is vouched for by an old time Moncton player. He was over there once with his team and the entire populace turned out to see the Moncton boys. It was a close and exciting game right down to the finish line and the break came in the closing moments when one of the Moncton shots found the net.

THE OFFICE PUN ARTIST wants to know if the receipts taken in at a hockey match would be called the "net" profits. The answer is that if the boys play a "pass" game, there would not be any receipts.

Trojan Rovers Win Title In Girls' Basketball League

MUST CONQUER COLTS TO KEEP IN THE RUNNING

Moncton's Win Last Night Puts It Up To Locals

THE STANDING.

Table with columns: W, L, For, Ag, Pts. Rows: Moncton (6, 2, 33, 28, 12), Saint John (3, 4, 29, 30, 6), Sussex (2, 5, 26, 47, 4)

THE Moncton sharpshooters fast-tracked their chances in Sussex last evening when they blasted H. Radcliffe & Co. by 12 to 5 in a loosely played game. Incidentally they made it all the harder for the local outfit to catch them and get it right up to the locals to win here against Sussex Friday night.

SUSSEX, Jan. 20.—The Moncton Athletics defeated the Sussex colts at the Royal Arena tonight by the score of 12 to 5. With the exception of a little tripping for which a few penalties were handed out, the game was fast and clean.

Wilson, the Moncton goalie, made many sensational stops, while Roach the Sussex net minder had somewhat of a night off and did not show up in his usual good form. Both teams put up nice combination work, and the play was replete with many individual rushes.

In the second period Wilson, Kerwin, Cole, Bastarache, Wall and Gould scored for Moncton, and P. Radcliffe and H. Radcliffe notched up one each for Sussex. The period ended 9 in favor of the railway town team.

The third period was faster than the previous two, the colts showing up to much better advantage. Cole scored for Moncton in 30 seconds, and the puck was kept moving swiftly up and down the ice, both teams working hard.

After three minutes play on a pass from J. Friars, H. Radcliffe slipped the rubber behind Wilson and in two minutes Radcliffe, in a beautiful rush, scored another.

Cole notched one up for Moncton and after 10 minutes play J. Friars and D. Dashwood scored for Sussex. There was no further scoring.

MAROONS PROTEST OVERTIME GAME

Claim Tying Goal By Boston Did Not Go Into Net

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—Montreal Maroons have protested the three-all overtime game played at Boston on Tuesday night, according to Manager Eddie Gerard, who returned with the local pro team last night. The Maroons claim they won the game 3-2, but the referee ruled that the tying goal by Cooper at the end of the third period, did not land in the net until after the timekeeper's gong had sounded the end of the match.

BOWLING with the CHAMPION

Y. M. C. I. TAKES OVERTIME CONTEST

THE Y.M.C.A. failed to hold the Y.M.C.I. team down in a well-contested basketball game at the Y.M.C.I. last evening. The final score being 20-12 as follows:

Table with columns: Y.M.C.A. Forward, Y.M.C.I. Forward. Rows: Freeman (2), Power, Stekolsky, Centre, Caples, Hillman (6), Burns (4), Freedman (4), Defence, Tansman, Wall (12), Slovitt, McCarthy (2), Jacobson, Campbell (2), Referee—G. C. Wilson, of the Trojans.

THE approach, like the stance, plays a big part in the ten-pin pastime. You must approach the foul line in the proper manner. If not, you'll meet with little success.

As you "come up" from the crouch, bring the ball little above waist-line. At the same time step forward with right foot. (For outpaws the reverse of course, apply.)

I find a 12-foot approach is sufficient. That permits four steps of three feet each. Some find even a shorter run suits them better. However, don't get out of breath trying to make a miniature sprint. It isn't a foot race.

I use a natural, easy stride. Don't make your approach as though you were being clocked. Take your time. Too much speed is apt to carry you past the foul line and throw you out of position.

Bring your stride and your "run-up" so you won't be in danger of committing a foul. You must figure on a fair "slide" as you finish your fourth step.

Many players, especially beginners, find it difficult to stay in fair territory. Practice and timing of stride will soon correct this rather common fault.

WINNERS OF THE SECTIONS MEET FOR CITY TITLE

Schedule Drawn Up At Meeting of Clubs This Week

AN IMPORTANT meeting of the executive of the City Intermediate Hockey League was held at the office of the President, A. W. Corey, recently. The matter to be discussed was that of the "schedule" and much discussion took place regarding the same.

It was felt that a six-team league would require a schedule of 80 games. It would also mean that each team would play 16 games.

The result was that a new scheme was introduced by the Trojans, and met with the approval of all attending the meeting. Therefore, the program is set forth by the Intermediates in this city is as follows:

1. The league will be divided into two sections of three teams each; Section "A" consisting of Nationals, Canucks and St. Lukes; Section "B" consisting of Navy, Martellos and Trojans.

2. In each section, each team will play the others twice, requiring a schedule of 6 games, or in other words, each team will play 4 sectional games.

3. Each team in each section will also play each team in the other section one game only, requiring an addition to the schedule of 9 games, or in other words, each team will play 8 sectional games.

4. All games, including the 4 sectional and the 8 inter-sectional will count for each team and the standing will be reckoned as follows: Win, 2 points, draw, 1 point. In each section, the team scoring the most points at the conclusion of the schedule, will be declared the winner.

5. The two sectional leaders are to play 2 games for the city title, total goals to count. This necessitates an addition to the schedule, thereby making a total of 23 games for the season, each team playing 7, and each section winner 2 extra.

The plan as set forth above eliminates 7 games, ties do not require replay, and each club meets the other at least once and plays an extra game against each team in its own section. Thus, all teams have the same opportunity to cop the league honors.

The schedule for 1926 is as follows: Week ending Jan. 16—Nationals vs. Canucks, 5; St. Lukes vs. Navy, 1; Martellos vs. Trojans, 8.

Week ending Mar. 6—Canucks vs. Martellos, 1; Nationals vs. Canucks, 8.

Week ending Mar. 13—Winners of Sec. "A" vs. Winners of Sec. "B", 2nd game.

Note: In schedule, S. means sectional, I. means inter-sectional.

Exciting Game

Lone Basket Decides Issue Last Night Between Y and Nationals

The most exciting basketball game of the season was staged on the Y. M. C. A. floor last evening when the Y. M. C. I. team handed the Nationals their second straight defeat, 37 to 35. One basket decided the issue in the overtime with the crowd shouting themselves hoarse. The half time ended 10 in favor of the Nationals and in the final half, it was only uphill work for the Y. M. C. I. team to win.

WILLS VS. LENGLEN

CANNES, France, Jan. 21.—The eye-shade habit of Helen Wills has caught the fancy of the women tennis players here, the same as it did in Great Britain, Canada and the United States. It is now as much a vogue as Suzanne Lenglen's multi-colored turban innovation started four years ago.

"A battle of styles and of temperament, as far apart as is east from the west" is how the experts characterize the coming match between the French flash and the United States champion after having for two days watched the two great players on the courts here.

Miss Wills in two matches at singles and Suzanne in the women's doubles and mixed doubles.

The French woman is vivacious, active and temperamental, and without one single weakness except, perhaps, speed of stroke. Miss Wills is almost stoical, never smiling whether winning or losing; somewhat slow of foot and not possessing the variety of strokes of Suzanne, but executing those she knows most perfectly, and having more speed than a majority of the men players.

The experts here are of the opinion that the battle of the turban and the eyeshade will be an epic one.

Thunberg - Moore - Gorman, A Spectator's Analysis

The sport dopsters of New York have been publishing considerable copy of late analytical of Class Thunberg's right claim to the title of world's champion in the light of his two defeats by Joe Moore and Charlie Gorman in Madison Square Garden.

I suppose if I had not been right on the spot myself—rooming with Gorman, seeing Joe Moore daily, panhandling an occasional chat with Thunberg by dummy signs and vague pencilled diagrams, to say nothing of watching the men practice, learn their private views and then see them go to it before the public who paid $1 to $4 per ticket to see the glacial battles, I would be disposed to grill the bewildered stranger and leave him undefended. But I won't.

I also disagree with the broadcast press assertion that the Finn could not round the corners of the 14-lap course quickly. It would have been more correct and explanatory to have said, quickly enough for the finals.

Any skater who can start off at his own pace for the first time on indoor ice—fourteen laps at that—bound up in a heavy woolen suit and cap in a temperature that permitted watchers to lay off hats and wraps, as in a theatre, and break a whole batch of records up to the time the experienced indoor men jumped him, must have been negotiating the corners all right, as well as the little side stretches.

DID NOT RUN.

It is true Clas did not spurt and skedaddle as we are used to seeing it done on this side of the water. He never attempted to run on his skates or indulge in that feverish staccato following the last-lap bell. But when he felt it was time to cover a little more ice per stride how he did stretch out! Joe and Charlie had to let go all they had to keep rhythmic pace with him.

If Thunberg had been able to pull just a little of that swift final spurt after leading the boys into the coveted realm of new records—well, I think there'd a' been another kind of story for the wisecracks of Gotham to cogitate. Of course that's only my idea, and Charlie knows I feel that way about it.

EXPRESSES JOY Now, understand this right. I don't say Thunberg has simply got to win the world's championship all over again because he has that terrific leg-punch. Even the six-lap course that I sketched for him in a taxi one day, which filled him with the only joy he has had since arriving from Helsinki, may not save his crown.

Everybody roundabout Saint John perhaps realizes by this time that we have developed a school of outdoor ice-skating that dares the toughest invader. The Americans, too, with Lake Placid, Saranac Lake, civic park lakes, collegiate stadiums and other open spaces are training their speed talent on the larger-scale tracks.

Gorman did all of his wonderful record-breaking in the chill, blustery out-of-doors and feels cramped up in a "dinky" rink. Charlie is not a trick skater. He's what the new slang phrase calls "a butter-and-egg" master. So when Thunberg starts his killing pace out on the Lake next week nobody will be happier than our Charles Ingraham Gorman, Esq.

And yet again don't let it escape your memory that Gorman in 1925 captured the 220 and 440 indoor international championships at Pittsburgh with Moore in second place. In 1924 he won the 220 indoor championship in Saint John. Indeed, he has plenty of these enclosed experiences of a creditable kind and if ever Charlie drags out that bureau drawerful of medals, etc., and checks up the inscriptions thereon he will perhaps find that his interior or exterior exploits approximate fifty-fifty.

Back in 1922 Joe Moore—who is now to very much in the metropolitan limelight—ran off with our Canadian championship laurels on the Lily Lake course, and—give the smiling Joseph his due—he's a nifty footer. At the indoor game he's considered the best skater of them all. His selection of time, place and method for slipping past the light blue Finnish locomotive in Madison Square Garden was of that professional skill and deftness of a matador, or whatever they call the fellow who dispatches the bull. Picador Gorman was of course right at the heels of Matador Moore, so poor old Thunny got a double dispatching.

Next to Moore the New York people think Gorman is the slickest indoor man. I asked one fellow where he was getting that "next" material. I quoted Charlie's indoor record and suggested that Moore was not so good on visits outside New York.

BIG ATTRACTION. In the American metropolises Moore is a stock attraction at all the rinks and the crowds hail him wildly as they do their baseball favorites.

But to get back to Thunberg, I think we are all going to get a surprise from him. At least he is going to be a big factor in creating fast time. His one big idea seems to be records. It would be just the same to Clas if you sent him off the mark without a contestant. The stop watch to him is what Par and Bogey are to golfers. It is his objective to get his distances skated as close to the world mark as possible.

Of course if there is company en route—for instance the small matter of a world's meet—why Clas is agreeable to it all if they'll let him make his own pace. In the sprints at the finish date.

DEMPEY VS. TUNNEY?

MIA MI, Fla., Jan. 21.—Despite reports that he had received an offer of half a million dollars to fight Harry Wills, negro heavyweight contender, Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, believes his next adversary will be Gene Tunney. The Miami Herald said today the champion yesterday received the Wills offer from Paddy Mullins, manager of the "Black Panther," who offered to build his own arena in New York or New Jersey and handle the entire fight himself. Although Dempsey did not commit himself on the Wills offer, the Herald said he intimated that such a bout as Mullins proposes could not be held. Regarding the Dempsey-Tunney proposal, fight, both Dempsey and Tunney, who is here also, yesterday denied they had been matched for a fight on any definite date.

COMMISSION TO PASTE LABEL ON EVERY BOTTLE

All Liquor Sold Legally To Bear Endorsement of Board

MEMBERS' NAMES SIGNED ON EACH

Start Made in Saint John Today—Change Not Seized Stock

The new method of attaching a private label to each bottle has been introduced by the New Brunswick Liquor Commission in order to guarantee the public that they are getting pure liquor and also to protect the vendor and liquor commission from the illegal sale of smuggled or "doctored" goods. It was announced this morning by A. O'Leary, a member of the commission. The system is to go into effect at once.

The new labels bear the lithographic signature of Mr. O'Leary and Francis C. Murchie, members of the commission, and all stock shipped from headquarters in future will have one of these labels pasted on each bottle. Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Murchie will be busy during the next few days visiting all the vendors in the province, going over their stock and attaching a label to every bottle, which had been shipped before the new label was introduced. The start in being made in this city today, Mr. O'Leary said.

ANOTHER CHANGE

Another step that the new commission was taking was a change of policy with regard to seized liquor. Formerly where the "wet goods" secured in a raid was found to be liquor which analyzed O. K., it was placed in the stocks of the commission, but this practice has been discontinued, he said, and in order to be certain that only first class liquor was sold by the vendors in future all stocks would be purchased direct from the distilleries. In future if a stiller purchased a bottle of liquor from a vendor, and it had not the commission label attached, he would know that he was either getting smuggled liquor or ordinary "home brew," Mr. O'Leary said. He added that he expected that the new label would prove of benefit to the public in preventing their receiving other goods offered as liquor from the commission.

ALUMNO SKATES

Lighter! Stronger! Faster!

ALUMNOS are lighter because of their scientific construction. The steel runner and aluminum body are moulded together in one operation. No rivets or joints to collect rust, loosen or come apart.

ALUMNOS are stronger—practically indestructible because of the selected material and extremely accurate patented construction.

ALUMNOS are faster because they are lighter. You'll note the difference the moment you take an Alumo in your hand. Lighter weight makes skating faster, easier and less tiring. Made in Racing, Hockey and Arena models for men and women.
