Air Ministry Maturing Plans for Airplane Service to India.

(Correspondence of Times-Star.)

LONDON, July 30.—The cabinet crisis over the Admiralty's cruiser programme was not a little accentuated by the definite hostility in some Conservative quarters towards the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and still further by the fact that the Chancellor of the Exchequer's main champions in the cabinet happened, fortuitously or otherwise, to be prominent members of the old coalition cabinet. In all parties these old political feuds are extraordinarily tenacious. Mr. Churchill's fight against the Sea Lords was handicapped by the fact that resignation on his part might have been súicidal, owing to his peculiar parliamentary record, whereas the Sea Lords, notably Earl Beatty, the First Sea Lord, with only a few months to run, were in a strong position to threaten the cabinet with a first class sensation.

BLUNTING THE AXE

Mr. Churchill makes no disguise of his chagrin over the defeat of his economy fight. He regards it as an ominous blunting of the retrenchment axe, the ruthless application of which he and his sympathizers are more than ever convinced alone promises any hope of industrial revival in this country. They contend that the example of departmental set-back to economy, which must reverberate through Whitehall elately, is the more indefensible because no grave peril menaces us on the seas within measurable time. The Admiralty's case is that, in the event of alty's case is that, in the event of Americo-Japanese hostilities, we must have adequate cruisers to police Far Eastern seas in protection of our commerce. Apparently the Sea Lords think that we shall be heavily engaged supplying the belligerents. And the city thinks that we may eventually adjust our American war debt that way. GERMANY AND THE PACT their cynical realisation of Germany's present determination to try another fall with France. They refuse to see, either in the proposed pact or the enlarged league, any effective obstacle to that ambition. But Germans know that another war is impossible for a generation, and the ray of hope in this gloomy outlook is that when they achieve, their old industrial and financial prosperity, things at present being pretty bad in Germany, they may realize what a hideous blunder 1914 really was. In another decade, without her ruinous war, Germany's goal would have been gained by sheer economic strength. With returning industrial prowess Germans may convince themselves of this, and Prussian Junkerism exchange the rattling of the old obsolete sabre for that of the money-box.

The World-Famed

These, briefly, are some of the reasons why men, women and children of all classes throughout the world take "a 'dash' of ENO in a glass of water each morning."

These also are the reasons why ENO is always foremost in the minds of those who demand quality—purity—value.

ROME, Aug. 11.—Italy will send a debt commission to the United States in October, it was announced at the Foreign Office on Monday.

The Italian offer for funding debts to the United States are not all such as merely increase debt discussions are completed.

Either Signor De Stefani, who recently resigned the Ministry of Finance in Premier Mussolini's Government; Senator Rolando Ricci, or Former Minister Shanzer will preside over the debt commission.

Aug. 11.—President Von Hindenburg, late commander of the Imperial Armies of the All-Highest, outrivaled by the motor car. The super-wonders yet to come cannot even be imagined.

Discovery follows discovery. And fortunately for mankind, the discoveries are not all such as merely increase his ease and his pleasure. There are others which relieve his pain and which give a better chance in life to those whose existence, in another age, would have been one of suffering and misery. Recognition by the state of its obligation towards these and other unfortunates is the happiest sign of all.

THE summer coat is usually straight of line. It should also be light in weight, and silk is the smart material which possesses this latter quality.

The coat sketched above is a typical example of the simple summer coat. The line is perfectly straight, and the coat manages to be smartly different in its use of ribbed material, which is combined in the vertical and diagonal so as to make an interesting patso as to make an interesting pat-tern. The coat is lined with beige crepe, which shows at the reverse. This same model would be love-ly in white, with white crepe used for the lining.

Crowds Cheer as Returns Showing Defeat of Government Arrive

Heavy Vote Against Admini tration Comes as Surprise to Party.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 10-Supporters of the Opposition celebrated the overturn in New Brunswick politics in great style tonight. The earliest returns indicated that the Opposition candidates were running ahead and not long afterwards it became clear that the Government was overturned. The bulletins were watched closely, and it was evident at once that the sympathies of the crowd were with the Opposition. As announcement after announcement was made enthusiasm increased.

The heavy tide of votes against the Government came as a stunning blow to its supporters, no one having anticipated it.

YORK AS IT WAS. The best showing made by the Government party in this section was in No. 2 division of Fredericton where J. J. F. Winslow, K.C., was defeated by only ten votes. A heavy personal vote was given him there. C. D. Richards, Conservative, carried the other three divisions of the riding by large majorities.

In York, the province-wide Conserva-tive sweep was as pronounced as any-where, and the constituency stayed in the Conservative column, where it had been since 1908.

SUNBURY CHANGES.

In Sunbury there was a change, the county swinging into the Conservative column after having been Liberal since 1917. This was the line with forecasts which had been made on both sides for some time. The Opposition committee rooms in Queen street were thronged until a late hour and the street was filled. At about 9 o'clock a band was ordered out and played to celebrate the great victory. C. D. Richards, late house leader of the Conservatives, adgreat violory. C. D. "The independent electors of New Brunswick have condemned the Government in no uncertain cound," said Mr. Reilly.

Dr. Price vigorously dealt with some of the issues before the public, stating that the result of the election was a big blow for Maritime rights.

Harrison led the poll with a count of 8,513—giving him a majority of 1,969 over Lieut.-Col. Alexander McMillan, who polled the highest vote among the Government candidates. In addition, Saint John county elected Hon. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., the new Premier, and his running mate, Mayor Frank L. Potts, by fine majorities.

ONE GOVERNMENT WARD

An analysis of the voting by wards of the ballots cast for Col. Harrison and Col. McMillan, leaders on both sides, shows that the Harrison and Col. McMillan, leaders on both sides, shows that the Opposition candidates led their opponents by large majorities in every ward but Prince, where the Government candidates all polled a larger vote than that given for the Opposition. In every other ward, the Opposition candidates pulled out ahead although in Lansdowne and Wellington, the vote was quite close. The biggest vote polled was in Lorne ward where Mr. Tilley reached the high spot—963 votes. Col. Harrison, in this ward got 949; Mr. Lewis, 944; Mr. Agar, 749. Mr. Agar's vote was a scant two votes ahead of Dr. Roberts, high man in this ward with 747.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT AND REBEKAHS ARE SESSION TODAY

Reports on Work in Maritime Provinces During Last Year Submitted at Gatherings—Rebekah Membership Over 10,000

THE Grand Encampment and the Rebekah Assembly began their business sessions today in connection with the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces, Independent Order Odd Fellows. The Rebekahs held their meetings in Pythian Castle, Union street, and the Encampment met in Odd Fellows' Hall, Simonds street.

The conferring of the Rebekah Assembly degrees last night opened the annual session of the Rebekah Assembly I. O. O. F. of the Maritime Provinces, now convening in Saint John. Throughout yesterday and last night the delegates for the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows and the Grand Encampment as well as for the Rebekah Assembly poured into the city, coming from all parts of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island and some from Newfoundland. Even remote Cape Breton is represented in the delegates to the Oddfellows and Rebekahs conventions.

comparison with the conditions under which those less favored by circumstances live. A man who constantly compares the modest means which enable himself and his family to live comfortably with those of more successful men will never be happy. He is certain in the end to take the communist or socialistic view, and want the property of those who have done better than he divided to increase his own resources. But not unless such a distribution would profit him.

OTTAWA EXPECTED

LOCE

Nova Scotia, upon the Federal electorate in the East.

But at the same time members of the Government here claim that in both cases the issues were peculiarly provincial—in Nova Scotia, a coal strike, and in New Brunswick the Hydro enterprise.

The attitude of some Liberals who favor a Federal contest this year is that nothing can be gained by waiting an improvement of Maritime Provinces; that might not develop for ten years, so that no useful purpose could be served in delaying the Federal appeal on account of the Atlantic Provinces.

VOTE TO BE CLOSE

won by the Conservatives in today's Provincial contest in New Brunswick was a surprise.

It had been expected that the result would be close, either Premier P. J. Veniot being returned by a small majority, or the Baxter party be ingoing to power by a small majority.

Among Conservative circles here there is the note of I-told-you-so. They made a clean up in Nova Scotia and they would repeat in the neighboring province. The Federal Opposition are cheered by today's result.

What effect the two reverses in the Maritime Provinces will have upon the King Government's decision regarding the date of the coming Dominion election is likely to be known soon. There is no attempt to discount the sentimental influence of today's vection.

Morning Stock Letter gw York, Aug. 11—Activity and 19th should increase in the market y. Selling was again taken in good e yesterday and stocks in the aftermoved ahead again. The market angerous, but looks higher. Some were the features yesterday, out-of American Can. Stocks in the cel Plate merger were higher, inting some definite announcement traffic continues at high level. The S. Steel unfilled statement is out of way and steel stocks should do betparticularly U. S. Steel, Sloss and ngstown Sheet. In coppers look for her prices, KN. and Ray Cons. Generaticularly to sell higher on this rement. The feature is the fact numerous houses continue to adapt the sale of stocks and that the fact goes up in spite of it. That is bearish advices have a logical is in the high prices for stocks and heavy brokerage loans make the lon of the market more impressive.

a fever or disease that disturbs his thinking. Worry over the distribution of his estate, unprovided for, is a dangerous irritant in a severe illness.

Some men postpone drawing their wills because their affairs have not culminated and they are unable to designate specific amounts for beneficiaries. That need not be done. One may dispose of his estate justly to all entitled to consideration by fixing percentages; for instance, 50 per cent. to his wife, 20 per cent. to a daughter and so on.

over hobody who ever watched a robin hunting worms on a lawn would have for sounds made by his victim and failed to get the impression that the occasionally heard them. So you see!

As always, in the case of scientific discoveries, no one man's word, even though he be a German professor, can be taken as conclusive. The discoverry must be verified by many othere before it can be accepted. Credulity would be less severely strained if it were claimed that the earthworms made only a noise. A "rhythmic sound" must be music, or the beginning of it, and—well, most of us in youth had rather extensive dealings with earthworms, and apparently they accepted say fate, including that of cruel impalement on a fishhook, in perfect effence.

Perhaps the German professor used one of the modern amplifiers, audio or radio. They, it is contended, enable us to hear the buzzing of the electrons as they madly circle their nuclei. Moreover, goodly who ever watched a robin bard, between each little run, listened one counded made by his victim and the perfect of the shareholders of the New Brunswick Publishing Company.

Owing to inclement weather only two matches were played. The junior double event, in which L. Simpson and R. Harding, of Drury Cove, deefated J. M. McAvity and Ron Schofield, of Rothesay, was productive of very pretty tennis and the boys received much appltuse from the gallery. The result of the two matches was as follows:

Simpson and Harding defeated Men John J. McGraw, the "Little Napoleon," is now fighting with his back to the wall in the National League struggle and his Waterlos is looming ahead. Only heroic efforts can now bolster up his four-time National League champions. One of those efforts came yesterday when, although crippled by a number of injuries to their regular fielders, and bruised by jolts at St. Louis and Cincinnati which hurled them five games behind the leading Pittsburg team, the Giants came back yesterday and hung on the Pirates a 2 to 1 defeat in the first game of a four game series. Lee Meadows, pitching ace of the leaders, flung the game full into the laps of the revokeding host in the heat of the conflict, with a wild pitch.

games of the league would be played off and the averages for the year finally decided, but had weather upset the calculations and there still remain two postponed games to play in addition to a probable play-off between the Water Dept. and the St. John the Baptists. As a result, there is not any decision yet regarding several trophies of the league and the date of the closing banquet will thus be shifted forward until probably the first week in September.

SPLENDID TROUT

Otter Lake has been contributing to the good fishing which has marked the trout season in New Brunswick and some splendid fish brought to the city yesterday were much admired by those who saw them. There were half a dozen from the catch in the number shown here and they ranged from three-quarters of a pound to a pound and a half, all well formed and firm beauties of the red trout variety. The fish were part of a catch made by Harold Chadwick in Otter Lake, which is his own property and is situated about 43 miles from Saint John, in from Wirrall station on the Canadian Pacific Railway line. It has become a popular fishing ground for local and American sportsmen.

Canoe Upset and Dr. Truema Swam for Beach, But was Overcome.

Up to noon today all efforts to bring G. Trueman, mental expert of Salem, Mass., who was drowned in the river between Westmount and Ketepec yesterday forenoon, were unavailing. After grappling until dark last night, in which work a half dozen boats were employed, the services of Diver Doyle of the city were requisitioned today.

DIVER IS SEARCHING The diver went below early this The diver went below early this dorenoon from his own pumping scow and after walking on the bottom of the river at a depth from 20 to 25 feet in front of the cottages of Joseph W. Johnston, J. Ernest Waring and others, turned his attention to a point farther upstream, at which land juts out. It was thought some flood-tide influence might have carried the body in that direction. However at the hour of writing the search was still unsuccessful. There is much eel grass in the vicinity.
