WIFE TELLS OF TROUBLE IN HOME

This and Other Cases in Police Court This Morning.

In the police court today a case against John Murphy, charged with assaulting his wife at their residence in Smythe street, some time ago, was resumed. Mrs. Ellen Murphy, the wife, said that on Saturday night, January 31, her husband gave her some money with which to buy groceries. Two men entered the house. She said she was out about two hours and when she came back the two men were still there, her husband was lying on the floor and one of the men was straggling with him. She said the house was in an upset condition. She told them to get out and at that time made fun of her and she said she would send for the police. She said her husband started after her, but she struck her over the head with a chair. She fell unconscious and the next morning was taken to the hospital where she has been ever since.

The case was postponed and the accused remanded to jail.
Arthur Hoyt, arrested last night by Inspectors McAlmish and Kerr on charges of supplying liquor to two men in an alley off Water street, was fined $200 or six months in jail. He pleaded guilty to the charges. Joseph McGourty was charged with not supporting his wife. He said he had been sick. He promised to support her and the case was postponed until February 23.

A case against Louis Daley, John Shannon and Harry McHugh, charged with destroying property of Edward Mackin in Richmond street was resumed. The magistrate fined them $20 or two months in jail.

Thomas Petrie, charged with stealing a camera from Howard Gorham in the Salvation Army Hostel was sent up for trial. There is another preliminary examination before the court in which Petrie is on suspicion of breaking and entering the store of Sydney Isaacs in Mill street. There is more evidence to be taken in this case.

Two men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were fined $8 each or two months.

CASES HERE NOW ARE 161

It was announced this morning at the board of health rooms in Princess street that a total of 161 cases of influenza have been reported. Out of this number several recoveries have been noted. The number of cases reported from London, New York, Edmonton, Alberta is said, is now bordering on the epidemic stage and it is probable that over half a million cases of influenza will be reported this winter. Cases were admitted into the hospital this afternoon and evening and the hospital was handling the deserving cases.

Fredrickton, N. B., Feb. 14.—(Special)—President A. M. M. Staples of the Fredrickton Hockey Club, in accordance with the instructions of President Maher of the N. B. Hockey League, was forwarded to Secretary Troy a statement of Capt. Titus of Fredrickton team, relative to the playing of Archie Williams by the Fredrickton team against Marysville on Monday night. The Marysville team protested the game and asked that it be ordered replayed on the ground that Williams' name was not in the list of players registered with the league. Fredrickton contends that every effort was made to have permission given to Williams to play, and that Marysville has broken the league residence rule in playing Bidlake, who is a resident of Fredrickton.

Mayor Hanson has called a public meeting of the residents of Fredrickton next Friday night to discuss the matter of a war metal for this city. Various public bodies on previous occasions talked this matter over and will assist. Some already have voted money, notably St. Andrew's Society.

THEIR CROWNING EFFORT

In Originality, Quality and Scientific Will Be Truly Wonderful.

For catchy songs, snappy choruses and bubbling wit and humor the annual Revue of the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. E., has always been famed, but this year's attempt, the "1920 Revue" promises to exceed anything heretofore undertaken.

From the time the curtain rises on the beautiful and elaborately staged production, until the closing chorus of the final number, the programme is one continuous succession of delightful surprises.

Huge replies turning into fairy ballets; Orpheus and his Lute; galaxy of song and beauty, in solos and choruses and The Country Potygers' Album are only a few of the many attractions offered.

The closing number—a high class musical skit, "Om, Om, You're Awful," with its magnificent Eastern setting, is not only a "cream" but this final number is a "gem" and will stage here for many years.

TRADE AND EXCHANGE

London, Feb. 14.—(Canadian Press)—The trade returns for January furnish a commentary on exchange conditions. The figures plainly show that Great Britain is buying mainly from countries which have suffered relatively little from the war and is selling most to countries least able to meet their obligations immediately.

The latter delegates left Ottawa this morning for Boston.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Ralph Blain Flewelling, only son of Ernest Flewelling, occurred in this city on February 13, from pneumonia. Besides his father, who is a returned soldier and former member of the 1st siege battery, he is survived by his step-mother and two sisters, Emma, at Eastport, and Mrs. F. A. Miller, at Halifax. The funeral took place today from the residence of Mrs. Colahan of 17 St. Davids street.

New York, Feb. 13.—Julius Chamberlain, story writer, explorer, playwright and newspaper man, died of pneumonia Thursday night. He established the Paris edition of the New York Herald for James Gordon Bennett in 1887. For the last sixteen years he had been the chief of the Brooklyn Eagle. He was born at Bellefontaine (O.), in 1847.

The death is announced at Calais of Mrs. Ellen H. Cony, niece of Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, of Bangor, who was vice-president of the United States when Abraham Lincoln was president. Mrs. Cony's husband, Lieutenant Cony, U. S. N., and her brother, Frank, Holmes, were slain in the Civil War.

Mrs. Mary T. Wright, of Eastport, died at Bangor on Thursday, Charles Galen, of Fredericton, is a brother.

The death of Haddon Atkinson, which occurred at his home in Norton on February 10, was heard of with great sorrow in the community. He was a young man of sterling character with bright prospects and sincere sympathy had been extended to the bereaved family. Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. A. Makelpece and Miss Beatrice, of Norton and three brothers, Rupert, of Sackville, and St. Clair and Reginald, of Norton.

Harvey Main, a native of Sackville, died at his home in Malden (Mass.), Wednesday night of pneumonia. He had lived thirty years in Malden, where he was route collector for the United States. He leaves two brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Main died on the day of his wife's funeral. Mrs. Main had also been ill with pneumonia and the two had been confining to the bed for several days. Mrs. Main died on Sunday.

The friends of E. Burpee Bennett will be shocked to hear of his sudden death which occurred in this city yesterday. He had spent the major part of his life in St. John, Iowa, and returned to New Brunswick a little more than three years ago. Of late he had been making his home with his nephew, H. V. Hayes, 23 Peters street. Mrs. Hayes was shocked when she started to call him for lunch yesterday morning to find he had passed away. Mr. Burnett was the youngest son of the late Christopher and Mary A. Burnett, of Central Norton, Kings county. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. K. Hayes, and two brothers, John and Albert, besides numerous nephews and nieces. The body will be taken to Central Norton on the 1:15 train today to be buried on Sunday.

A wire was received by C. P. O'Neill last evening telling of the death of Mrs. O'Neill's father, William S. Mace, at his home in Dorchester (Mass.). The late Mr. Mace, who was connected with the firm of Bliss Babayan Company, of Boston, was a frequent visitor to St. John, and was well and favorably known.

Mrs. Annie Holden died at her home in Lower Millstream, Kings county, after a long illness. She leaves her mother, one brother and one sister.

Miss Edith I. Scott died Feb. 11 at her home in West Bathurst. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott and she leaves six brothers and three sisters.

HEATED SESSION OF GRAIN GROWERS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Saskatoon, Feb. 13.—At noon today, eighteen hours after 2,000 members of the Grain Growers' Association met in convention here had decided the place of the annual meeting of the organization and put through a motion that the formation of the provincial platform be left to the central board in consultation with the board of the women's section.

This means that the next general convention, a year from now, will have to accept or refuse the provincial platform prepared by the two boards named. In other words the association is in the same position at this time as they were last night except that the work is to be done by the central board instead of five delegates.

HER TROUBLES WERE MANY AT NO. 13
Montreal, Feb. 14.—"No more number 13 for me," said Mrs. F. Lafors to Detective Constantan at an enquiry before

It Is Never Worth While to Work Too Hard

Few women really have the strength to do a hard day's washing.

It is not worth while to slave over the tub. You'll pay for it after a while, in doctor's bills and vanished health.

The New System Laundry will call for your wash and return it clean, fresh and white. In this modern laundry we are kind to clothes—no rubbing—no acids—just good, pure soap.

The cost is small—surprisingly small—and the saving in health and energy is very great.

Phone M. 1707 this week. Try our service at least once. Handle Wash Day the New System Way—and have the clothing dried before being returned.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

That the hotel proposition which was taken up by the Commercial Club some time ago, has developed into a concrete fact, soon to be accomplished, was announced at the general meeting of the club last evening. S. E. Elkin, president of the club, was in the chair, and he said at the opening of the meeting that the plans of the hotel had been drawn by those and MacDonell, architects, that the options on the sites had been taken, and that the proposition would be laid before the capitalists in Montreal, who are behind the scheme, early next week. "These capitalists were taking the majority stock and he had no doubt that the remainder could easily be raised in St. John very shortly. He expected that the arrangements would be completed by Wednesday or Thursday.

T. M. Bell, chairman of the committee in the Boy Scout campaign, wrote that the members did not give the movement the required support.

It was decided to hold a smoker and entertainment at the next regular meeting.

In explaining the small attendance the chairman said he thought it was due in part to the failure of the postal authorities in not delivering the bulletin telling of the meeting. He suggested action against the postmaster.

PATENT YOUR INVENTIONS

An interesting and encouraging thing about these fortune producing inventions is that most of them are of ordinary or minor value in themselves. If you have a notion that you must invent a big thing to make money, get rid of it at once. Many of the Patents that have made their inventors millionaires are those which contained very few entirely new ideas.

The simplest ideas have earned fortunes for their patentees. The safety razor, the sanitary drinking cup, the lumpy hairpin, the demountable tire rim—any of these could have been invented by a man of average ability. In your every day life, at home, at your office, in your shop you handle any number of articles that are subject to improvement. If you can think of a way of improving some article or process already in use, or if you can invent a new useful device or process or article of manufacture, you are on the road to fortune. Do not make a fortune from a single shipping tag. Prepare now to meet the demands of industry in All Fields for New Ideas and New Inventions. Before sending your invention to any attorney or manufacturer or disclosing your invention, write for our free blank form PROOF OF CONCEPTION in order to protect your invention and secure your rights.

WE ADVERTISE our Clients Inventions Free to INDUSTRIAL CANADA, which is the Official Magazine of the Canadian Manufacturers Association. It pays to have Shipman's Service. Ask for our new Booklet "Patent Protection".

Send Model, Sketch and description of any new invention you have for Free Opinion as to Patentability. This Certificate of Patentability together with our blank form "Proof of Conception" will protect the inventor and serve as proof of the invention until the case can be filed in the Patent Office.

THE WORLD'S OLDEST BISHOP

Bishop Stirling, who was consecrated the first Bishop of the Falkland Islands in December, 1869, and who at the age of ninety-one is the oldest living prelate, was honored by a brilliant assembly at Church House, Westminster, recently on the occasion of his episcopal jubilee.
The two and a half story dwelling at 81 Lansdowne avenue, occupied by Mr. A. Prince, manager and part owner of the Palace Theatre, was badly gutted by fire last evening about 9 o'clock. The department had difficulty in getting to the scene of the blaze because of the storm and the state of the roads. The family of Mr. Prince were at a theatre when the fire broke out and had gained much headway before being discovered by Blanchard E. Ferris, who gave the alarm. The building is said to be owned by Arthur Doyle.

Daring Work Of Robbers In France

Four Bandits Use High Powered Limousine as an Aid to Stealing

REVOLVER FIGHT WITH MERCHANT

Masked Men Hold up Farmer, Sack House of Cafe Owner and Commit Other Outrages.

Paris, Feb. 13—A series of daring raids and hold-ups have been made by a quartette of masked motor bandits near Rennes, in the north of France. Three young men, comfortably ensconced in a powerful limousine, and with every appearance of being rich tourists, were whirled along at a furious pace towards the small country town of Vitre. Their arrival in the market-place attracted a great deal of attention. They pulled up in front of a garage and alighted. While the chauffeur guided the car into the garage they proceeded to a neighboring cafe, where they ordered drinks and left a short interval for a stroll in the town. They really had the purpose of reconnoitring the district to ensure a safe and rapid escape should it be necessary. Two hours later they reappeared in the cafe with a fourth accomplice, probably the one who acted as chauffeur, and proceeded to engage in friendly conversation with the landlady who was alone, explaining that they were on a motor tour of the district. When, a short time after, the landlady had occasion to go upstairs to her room, she discovered that a drawer where she kept her jewelry had been broken open and that all the jewelry had disappeared, with share certificates to the amount of $400. The tourists had also disappeared.

The next incident in this drama was enacted in the open country not far from Vitre. The same powerful limousine tearing along, stopped level with the trap of a market gardener going in the same direction. Four masked figures sprang out. The horse's bridle was seized. "Open your mouth and give me a dead man," said one of the bandits to the gardener, "Hand over your money."
Only a few francs were forthcoming and the bandits left in disgust in the direction of another town. Fourteen miles before they reached the town, where they dined, purchased some electric lamps, and then continued their route towards Belambert, where they arrived at 10 o'clock at night.
An ironmonger named Laumonier was closing his shop. Four masked men jumped out, carrying revolvers, which they leveled at the shopkeeper.
Laumonier, however, quickly summed up the situation, drew his own revolver from a drawer, took up a coil of rope behind a pile of goods, and said, "Get out, or I fire!" the reply was in the form of a bullet, which missed him. A duel then began between the ironmonger and the four robbers, who had made a mistake in coming to the wrong shop. Shot after shot was fired till the robbers saw that the shopkeeper had emptied his magazine. They then rushed him, dragged him into a back room, turned the key, and began to sack the house.

The capture this time included many National Defence bonds, lottery certificates, Russian certificates, and $2,000 in cash. The ironmonger's cries for assistance were eventually heard by the neighbors, but too late for them to catch the thieves.

BUSINESS BACK TO 1914 BASIS

Return of British Trade by September is Forecasted.

Winnipeg, Feb. 14—The return of all British business to a pre-war basis by September 1 next, including a cost of the Canadian wheat crop and reversion of the wheat trade to the natural channel, was forecasted by Cecil Burleigh, representative of the agricultural co-operative movement in England, in an interview yesterday.
Mr. Burleigh received a cable from England on Tuesday stating that from April 1, 1920, the British government was going to purchase wheat through the usual importers instead of through government wheat commissions.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

Because a heart appeal can always be depended upon to attract the attention of women the Pelletier Co., of Sioux City, Ia., recently published a love story, continued from day to day, which was taken from an early 1870 volume of the well-known "Godey's Lady's Book." Installments were used in the Pelletier advertisements every day for a week.

In the height of the season "special weeks" have become very common, showing the superabundance of different kinds of special weeks being held from coast to coast. The Pelletier store recognized that in holding such a millinery week, some supplementary feature was necessary which could arouse and retain the interest of the readers. It was an opportune time of the year to feature sales of "daily specials" for fashion copy was the prevalent appeal. Also, which ever feature was selected must pertain to velvet. It was, therefore, decided to publish a continued short story along with the daily newspaper announcements and the quaint old love story, "The Velvet Hat," from Godey's Lady Book of 1870, was finally selected.

It was published in six sections, one each day of the "Velvet Hat Week." Preceding the publication of the first section, the Pelletier store inserted small announcements in their advertisements of its coming and to watch for its appearance in the near future. This preliminary publicity helped to give it a proper send-off. Many inquiries were made as to what it was before the feature week started and comment was made on all sides of its novelty and originality while the week was being featured.

Special preparations were arranged to give the feature the necessary support in both merchandise and display. Large assortments of velvet hats were assembled and large window displays constructed on one autumn color tone at a time also augmented pulling power of the advertisements. "All in all," said W. T. White, advertising manager of Pelletier's, "it was the character of publicity that every millinery department needs—the kind which creates hard-to-get-to women's clubs and organizations. Planned principally as a business builder, it also brought immediate business to the department and proved the best kind of advertising our millinery department has ever employed."

Turning an Error Into a Big Sale

"I am not the best writer in the world, especially when in a hurry," says A. J. Cavanaugh, a retailer of Miami, Okla., "therefore it was doubtless my own fault that some time ago, noticing that my stock of sirup was a bit short, I ordered fifty one-half gallon cans. I wrote the order myself in a hurry and never verified it. You can imagine my surprise when a week or so later I received notice of 'my shipment of 512 gallons of sirup.'"

The shipping clerk of the wholesale firm had evidently read the "500" gallons sirup" as meaning "512 gallons." "The only wonder to me," said Cavanaugh, "that they didn't send 5,012 gallons."

Anyway, Cavanaugh was literally swamped with sirup—his shelves, counters and all, were covered with it. Of course, it could have been returned, but Cavanaugh declares that he was "too game a sport" to go back on his own order, even if it was a mistake. So he at once began thinking up a scheme to get rid of that sirup.

First he took a lot of that sirup to a bakery whose cook understood perfectly the art of making cakes, etc., by using sirup in place of sugar. He ordered a huge lot of various sorts of cakes and other toothsome dainties. Then he inserted small ads in local papers stating that it was impossible to obtain sugar (a fact), but that Cavanaugh had plenty of a certain kind of sirup, warranted to give the same results in cooking as would sugar. The ad also stated that all were invited to call at his store, whether in need of sirup or not, and sample various dainties made with sirup as one of the ingredients.

THE GREATER SUFFERERS.

Canadians who find a 10 to 12 per cent loss in exchange with the United States a great trouble may partly appreciate the situation of Great Britain which is paying to the United States 25 to 30 per cent discount on the pound sterling. The case of the British people is worse than ours on another account. They are paying on imports absolutely necessary to the maintenance of life or for raw material for their essential industries. It is impossible for Britain to produce most of these supplies at home. Canada is importing from the United States vast quantities of luxuries which might be excluded altogether without imposing serious hardship. We are also importing a good deal which might be produced at home. Thus the premiums we pay to the United States exchange are largely voluntary while the heavier premiums paid by the British people are compulsory. In the third place, the British people are paying on all purchases from Canada larger exchange premiums than we pay to the United States, so that what we lose in one direction we get back in the other, while Britain pays on both trades.

REPUBLIC OF FRANCE BONDS 5% VICTORY LOAN

Callable at par at option of the Government after January 1st, 1931. Interest payable quarterly.

These bonds are secured by all the assets of France and in addition, by the huge indemnity to be paid by Germany. France is recovering her economic position rapidly, the devastated area is being re-built, her exports are increasing. The French people are noted the world over for their thrift. France's internal credit is very high and in due course exchange with America will approach normal.

A peculiar present condition in international commerce creates this opportunity to take advantage of foreign exchange rates to purchase these French Government bonds at less than half their par value. The par value of 1,000 francs is $193.00.

Present price, subject to fluctuation of exchange:

$1365 GRAY-DORT

Motor-Wise Men Judge Gray-Dort Value at $1365

Particularly if he has driven another light car, does a man appreciate these Gray-Dort features at $1365.

The Gray-Dort motor, with its big bore and long stroke—a bigger motor than the light car buyer has been getting—with a much heavier crankshaft, as heavy as in big cars. A motor with a cellular radiator and big water-jackets; with a dual exhaust for greater power; a newly-improved Carter carburetor; Westinghouse starting and lighting; improved Connecticut ignition.

The high-grade Gray-Dort Chassis has for foundation an extra heavy frame of channel steel. A big, sturdy rear axle, designed for the Gray-Dort. A new steering-gear, surprisingly big and strong for a light car. Big brakes, now with Thermoid lining. Long springs, built in Chatham under our inspection—rear springs full cantilever. When you drive, you drive in comfort. A shorter, smarter cowl now gives more room in the driving compartment. A new Gray-Dort feature does the same for the tonneau. The gears can be shifted with two fingers. The emergency brake is now on a lever, as in big cars. And like big cars, the Gray-Dort has side curtains opening with the doors. The new gasoline tank is in the rear, with Stewart vacuum feed system. The seats are tilted at the most comfortable angle.

New luxury has been added to the Gray-Dort. You still get the wonderful Gray-Dort finish, result of 60 years' coach-building. But there is a new and of 60 years' hand-tailored in our own shops. A new hood, with many long, narrow louvers. The lamps have been raised, to give more to the front of the car. And there are such style touches as the French-pleated upholstery, the flat top-edge of the body, the full sweeping fenders.

New Triplex Springs Radical In Design Wonderful In Comfort

OVERLAND 4 Sedan records a great step forward in motor car design.

Even on the roughest roads the new three-point suspension Triplex Springs ward off the shock of road bumps.

Attached diagonally at each end of the car, they protect car mechanism and passengers from the usual jolts and jars. They permit long springbase with its easy riding and short wheelbase with its easy handling.

They thus make possible light weight with resulting great economy. You can have no idea of the comfort, satisfaction and convenience a light sedan can give until you ride in Overland 4.

The Four-Door Sedan complete in every detail weighs only 200 pounds more than Touring Car.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1920

THE RURAL MOTOR EXPRESS AND THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

A writer in the New York Evening Post says—Hoh, John M. Baer of North Dakota, in a speech in the House of Representatives, stated: "A new and scientific method of marketing is a problem that surpasses every other economic movement in its importance. Every plan to obtain for the farmer a greater share of what he produces, and at the same time to reduce the cost of living for the consumer, demands the immediate attention and earnest consideration of every patriotic citizen." He further stated: "Mr. Collingwood, editor of the Rural New Yorker, who has made a life study of the subject of marketing, says that on a yearly average the farmer receives 25 cents for his products which cost the consumer $1. This authority is supported by another eminent expert, John Dillon, head of the Bureau of Foods and Markets of New York city, who declares that the ultimate consumer pays two-thirds of his dollar to the system of distribution. In other words, it costs a minimum of 67 cents to handle 35 cents worth of foodstuffs.

"It is unnecessary to quote experts on the subject. Did not Mayor Shunk of Indianapolis recently go to Grand Rapids and buy several carloads of potatoes at 50 cents per bushel from jobbers, the farmers receiving 40 cents, and did he not sell them in his city for 75 cents per bushel when they were costing the consumer $2 per bushel in that city? He handled potatoes for 25 cents, which the jobbers got $1.50 for handling. The report of the California Fruit Growers' Association shows that the grower received on an average for the past four years, $1.60 per crate of oranges, while during the same period the consumer paid an average of $4.80. In New York city people paid 1 1/2 cents a quart for milk for which the farmer received 5 1/2 cents. In South Bend, Ill., while the farmer 125 miles away received 60 cents per bushel for tomatoes they were sold for $1 per bushel. A farmer gets 20 cents a pound for cotton. We must pay $2.50 for that pair of shoes selling at $8. The farmer gets 72 cents for the leather and labor gets 40 cents. The farmer sells his wool for 60 cents a pound. We must pay $4.75 for that pound of wool when bought as yarn. In Fargo, N. D., when the farmer was getting 60 cents for his wool yarn was selling at $2.50—yarn spun at very little cost. Later when the War Industries Board fixed the price of wool at 27 cents, yarn sold at $4.75. The price of the raw material was fixed; the price of the finished product was not. Through these wasteful methods of handling it costs from $2 to $5 to deliver $1 worth of food. Stated in terms of manpower it takes from two to five men to handle a one-man power product."

Among the many proposals that have been made to develop an efficient system of exchange between the farm and table is the postal market of Federal Food Exchange. At the capital, Washington, D.C., the plan is being worked out. The government is using some of the thousands of motor trucks which will soon be released from the National Army. Community centres are being established and there is the closest co-operation between the farmer and buyer. All unnecessary distributing agencies are eliminated. Instead of costing from $2 to $5 to deliver $1 in products, it costs only 10 to 15 cents. It is a complete reversal of the inefficient methods of the past. This is one real remedy which rings true with definite results.

Operating out of Cleveland, Ohio, the Highways Motor Transport Company has been making quite a showing and has been responsible for greater production because this line has interested the farmer to the extent that he has given more attention to this question. Large six-ton trucks and trailers are being used. During the last summer this company made quite a remarkable record in hauling hot-house vegetables from Geneva and Ashtabula to Cleveland. When fruits and vegetables begin to come into the market, 20,000 crates of berries and 25,000 bushels of tomatoes were hauled to the Cleveland markets. These shipments were followed by 20,000 bushels of apples, peaches and lemons. You know what we have paid for apples in New York city—from ten to fifteen cents. We are doing it because we have failed to realize that the finest apples in the world are grown in Connecticut and northern New York and so, of course, we are buying apples which come 3,000 miles from Oregon and Washington. Just think what the cost of apples would be if we could bring them in from Connecticut in motor trucks—of the great quantities which would come in so that you and I could occasionally eat an apple without feeling guilty. With this lower cost and greater consumption the merchant would still make more because of the added consumption. We are doing ourselves a great deal of harm when we permit apples to rot in New England and show a willingness to pay for a product which carries with it a long distance haulage cost. This same company hauled 84,000 baskets of grapes into Cleveland last summer. Tractor-trains were also used, and to show you the economy of this kind of an operation, 200 bushels of tomatoes were hauled on the trailer, which the truck carried 251 bushels of tomatoes, nine bushels of cucumbers, eight bushels of peaches and thirteen cans of cottage cheese. Another line operating over the Allegheny Mountains, from Johnston, Pa., hauled 115 bushels of potatoes to the loading three hours.

The distance of this route is thirty-five miles. About four months ago I learned that the farmers on Long Island were intensely interested in rural motor express, so J. Kent Warden started out operating two five-ton trucks. Today he is operating eight large five-ton units. When Mr. Warden started he had a small shipping station on Greenwich avenue, but his growth has been so fast that he has had to abandon it and now has a large receiving station at West End avenue and Sixty-fourth street, under a four-year lease. He also maintains a central station in Long Island City. Mr. Warden operated running out along the South Shore as far as East Hampton. He carried everything that the people in these villages required, including full loads of dressed beef for the markets. On his return trip along the North Shore, starting from Huntington, he brings in full loads of everything that the island produces, including oysters and fish. This line has been hauling oysters and has netted Mr. Warden $100 a day profit. Plans are practically completed for Mr. Warden to haul fish, and he estimates that he will receive for shipment to New York from 500 to 600 barrels of fish per night. This is all remarkable when you consider that this line has developed over a period of only four months, and it is especially when you consider that Mr. Warden's first load gave him a return of about $5 gross, whereas it cost him to run his truck in the neighborhood of $20. Lines are running out to Philadelphia, out of McConnellsville and into and out of Pittsburgh. The progress was so rapid that it was hard to keep pace with it.

The Omaha stockyard figures in the haulage of live stock, which were published the first of the year, have been very interesting. The facts revealed that a greater part of the 250,000 animals delivered from the farms within a radius of seventy-five miles of the stockyards came in by motor truck.

MEN AND WOMEN WITHOUT COUNTRY ARE CONSIDERED

State Department Decides to Grant Passports and Naturalization to Those Entitled to Them.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Ottawa, Feb. 13.—The decision of the state department to grant passports and naturalization to those entitled to them, on the pre-war basis, will considerably lighten the lot of the men or women "without a country." Many women who were born in Canada and who had married citizens of the United States and then returned to the dominion as widows were practically without a country for the reason that they were no longer Canadians and the United States laws required that they must register with a United States consul within two years of leaving the states. This, many did not do, and found themselves barred from Europe where they wished to visit relatives by the impossibility of obtaining passports as the state department could not issue these and the United States state department, it is said, refused to do so.

Another class of people affected by the decision to grant passports are the many citizens of the United States resident in Canada who had not changed their naturalization and found themselves liable for double income tax. They are now freed from the double burden.

IS THIS CORRECT?
To the Editor of The Times:—
Sir:—Would some one explain how it comes to pass that eight hundred tons of meat has lately been shipped to F. E. L. to feed foxes from cold storage? Who is responsible for this waste of good food?
WALKER.
St. John, N. B., Feb. 13.

Mrs. John Paddock died at her home in Kingston yesterday, after a short illness from influenza. Her husband died a week ago and word was received by L. J. Gard, Robesay avenue, that a daughter, Miss Edith, and a son, Adimo, are now ill with the disease. Miss Roberta M. Gard left for Kingston to nurse the stricken family and en route she had to haul her supplies over the ice on a sled, on account of the recent storm.

Miss Hilda Stecker and William C. Stevens, both of Lone, Washington, were united in marriage New Year's eve by Rev. Dr. Venable. Miss Hattie Stecker attended the bride, while Willard E. Stevens supported the groom. The groom is a grandson of W. H. Stevens of the customs house in St. Stephen, N. B.

LABOR CONDITIONS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Reports to Ottawa for Week Ended January 24 — Maritime Province Record Good.

For the week ending January 24, 1920, reports from employers to the Dominion headquarters of the employment service of Canada, department of labor, indicate that, disregarding loss of time due to strikes, there was as had been anticipated, an increase in the volume of employment as compared with the preceding week.

The actual increase again greatly exceeded that anticipated and would indicate a return practically to pre-holiday and inventory conditions. Increases were registered in all the Provinces, that in Quebec again being the most considerable. For the week ending January 31st, the anticipated increase, however, being considerably smaller than that registered during the week of January 24th. With the exception of the Prairie Provinces, where a slight decline was expected, increases were anticipated in all districts.

In the maritime provinces for the week ending January 24th, the department of labor at Ottawa reports that summarizing the returns by districts, these provinces showed an increase of 628 persons, or nine-tenths of one per cent, to have been registered during the week of January 24th. An increase had been expected but the actual increase greatly exceeded that anticipated. For the week ending January 31st, a further increase of 298 persons, or four-tenths of one per cent was anticipated. The three provinces—New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island—recorded increases, that in New Brunswick being the most noteworthy. New Brunswick, however, expected a slight decline for the week of January 31st, while Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island anticipated having increases.

Plus Industries.

Gains were registered during the week in food, drink, and tobacco, leather and leather goods, metals, pulp, paper and printing, textiles, vehicles, woodworking, quarrying and mining, railway construction, railway operation and miscellaneous. The increase in railway operation was the largest reported while substantial gains were also recorded in quarrying and mining, food, drink and tobacco and railway construction. Textiles, vehicles, quarrying and mining, railway construction and miscellaneous expected making further additions during the week of the 31st, the anticipated increases in vehicles and textiles being the largest. Woodworking anticipated having no change. Food, drink and tobacco, leather, metals, pulp and printing and railway operation expected to have nominal declines.

Minus Industries.

Building and construction, commercial and mercantile, lumbering, clay, glass and stone products, chemicals, and shipping and longshore registered reductions during the week of January 24th. The decline in shipping and longshore was the most noteworthy. Building and construction, and chemicals expected to have further though slight declines during the week ending January 31st. Commercial and mercantile, lumbering, clay, glass, and stone products and shipping and longshore expected to have additions for the week of the 31st. With the exception of the anticipated increase in shipping and longshore, these additions were all of a nominal character.

"Some people," declared a Judge, "don't know when a good quarrel has come to a perfectly good ending. If they did, half the trouble between man and wife would never be aired in court. Two many are like the couple at a summer resort, whose bickering, which the thin walls of the cottage could not stifle, kept the neighborhood awake for hours. Finally the storm seemed to have passed, but just as the whole block was breathing a sigh of relief the woman snapped: 'Well, I hope that now I can take my beauty sleep without further interruption.' 'My dear,' retorted the man, 'if that's what you're going to take, you'll have to imitate Rip Van Winkle,' and with that the storm broke out all over again."

Auto Knitter

A turn of the handle and 60 or more smooth, even, perfect stitches are knitted. Thousands of such articles can be made in a few minutes by the operator of average experience. Many of our workers report that, with the Auto Knitter, a complete sock can be made in less than 10 minutes.

When the Auto Knitter goes into action, it is just like having many families or skilled knitters working for you; that is why our trade mark is "Better than a Hundred Hands." It makes the sock—top, body, heel and toe—without removal from the machine. It weighs about 20 pounds, can be clamped to any ordinary table or stand, and can be used anywhere. It is easily learned. Experience in knitting and familiarity with machines are totally unnecessary. Complete instructions about how to use the Auto Knitter are sent to every worker. The Auto Knitter is to hand knitting what the sewing machine is to hand sewing.

MAKES $35.00 IN ONE WEEK

The Auto Knitter is one of the best investments anyone could make. I can make three pairs of socks in an hour. In one week I make $35.00 from private trade alone. It is the finest and cleanest work I have ever done, and I would not be without it. Wheatley, Ont.

OPERATED BY BLIND WOMEN

I have now been using three of your machines, and they give good results. With a little patience at the start, I have succeeded in doing good work, which has always been accepted by you. You may be surprised to know that some of my work has been done by blind women, and it is impossible to recognize their work from mine. I am pleased with the business dealings I have had with you, and hope that future dealings will be just as cordial as they have been in the past. Montreal, Que.

HAS TWO AUTO KNITTERS

After being for 30 years on the lookout for something with which I could make money in the privacy of my own home, I answered the ad of the Auto Knitter Hosiery Co. I bought one machine. In a very short while I found that I had hit on something good—big returns for small investment. Right away I bought the second machine. I now have a little factory right in my own home, run by my own family. With one machine alone we turn out 10 dozen pairs of socks every five days. Your company has carried out all its agreements with me, and the machine is more up to the mark than I thought it would be. It is very easily understood and a pleasant pastime. Waldemar, Canada.

NOT A SINGLE PAIR REJECTED

It is not only profitable, but helps to pass many a dull hour away. I can knit two pairs of half-socks in an hour, which I think is good. The machine is what you claim it to be and does its work right, and being so small takes up but little room. Of the socks I have sent you, I have not had a single pair rejected, which is clear evidence that the machine can turn out good work. Fernie, British Columbia.

INCREASES FAMILY INCOME

I bought one of your machines about three months ago, and I must say that it is all you claim it to be, simple to understand, and easy to work. Good money can be made with it on the terms you are giving if full time is given to the work. But what I think is its greatest advantage is that it can be worked at odd times when there is little or nothing else to do, and so keep up and also increase the family income. St. Catharines, Canada.

We Supply Yarn Free and Pay You for Your Work

THE whole world needs socks. In every country, in every city, in every town and in every village—in every corner of the world, in fact—there is an acute shortage of hosiery.

This great demand is your personal opportunity. It is your chance to add substantially to your income. It is the weapon with which you can meet the constantly increasing high cost of living.

You can make this money pleasantly and easily in the privacy, freedom and comfort of your own home. This is an unusual advertisement, due to an unusual world-condition. We are a firmly established Canadian business firm engaged in the manufacture of high-grade seamless socks. Our business connections are world-wide. We have been in business many years.

We have always preferred home manufacture to factory production. We believe in the independent employe. We know that the best work is that which is done by well-paid, contented people in happy homes.

These socks can be made by men and women. Knitting experience is unnecessary. The Auto Knitter, a marvellous machine, does the work. Anyone can quickly learn to operate this machine.

Workers Wanted Everywhere

For the reasons above stated—the unprecedented world-demand for hosiery—we need more workers—thousands of them. We need you.

We need all the socks you and your family can make on the Auto Knitter. We need this labor badly. We will make a contract to pay you a Fixed Wage on a piece-work basis. In this contract you take no risk. You can work for us as much as you want or as little as you want—spare time or full time.

And for every dozen pairs of socks you send us, we will pay you a liberal wage.

With every Auto Knitter we send a supply of wool yarn FREE. We also supply FREE, the yarn needed to replace that which is used in making the socks you send us.

The yarn we supply is made specially for the Auto Knitter. It is the softest and warmest, and uniformity in quality, weight and shade is always obtainable.

You are, of course, at liberty to dispose of the output of the Auto Knitter as you see fit, or to buy your own yarn; you can also use the Auto Knitter to make at a remarkably low cost all the hosiery your family needs—wool, and cotton.

But please remember this: There are absolutely no strings tied to our Wage Agreement; it is a straight, out-and-out Employment Offer of a Fixed Wage on a piece-work basis—a good pay for your services alone.

The Auto Knitter is the most modern development of the hand knitting machine. It embodies many exclusive improvements, as worked out by us in our own factory. We are manufacturers of the Auto Knitter, our machines are fully guaranteed. In doing business with us you are dealing with a responsible manufacturing firm, so we could not afford to make, and do not make, any claim for the Auto Knitter that is not amply borne out by facts.

Positively Not a "Canvassing Scheme"

The Auto Knitter gives you the opportunity to make money during your spare time. It also gives you a chance to devote your entire time to the business, and this—to be independent of bosses, rules, time clocks, working hours, etc. Our Wage Contract is in no sense a disguised "canvassing scheme," "agency," or "open-a-store" proposition. Here is the proof—read the evidence from some of our workers:

The employees tendered their most hearty thanks to the King brothers for the drive and hospitality. The National Anthem was sung and the party disbanded in the small hours of the morning.

MISS ISOBEL AMOS.
The many friends of Miss Isobel Amos will be very sorry to hear of her death, which occurred early this morning at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amos, 25 German street, West End. She was in the twenty-third year of her age, and being of a kind and lovable disposition, was loved by all. She was a member and faithful attendant of the First Presbyterian church, and was also a member of the Young Ladies' Club of the same church. Besides a host of friends, she leaves a sorrowing mother, father, three sisters and one brother. The sisters are Mrs. Ford Henderson of Portland, Maine; Misses Kelly and Agnes at home. Her brother, Frank, is in the C. P. R. employ.

CITY CHURCHES OVER OBJECTIVE

Reports From Methodist Congregations re Forward Movement.

In the matter of the forward movement in relation to the Methodist church in St. John, five of the churches have already reached their objective, Zion being the first to go over the top. It had an allotment of $700. This was closely followed by First, which holds the record so far, having $2,000 subscribed against an objective of $1,500. Carleton reports $2,700 against an objective of $2,500. Exmouth street has exceeded its objective of $3,500, and the same is true of Portland, with an objective of $3,000. Many of these churches felt even a week ago that the task before them was an impossibility, but they simply had not recognized the spirit of their people, the excellent result being the outcome of the desire to express appreciation of the opportunity afforded, to advance the interests of Christianity and of the complete organization affected on the part of the individual church to secure the subscriptions of the people.

Undoubtedly Queen Square and Centenary will be able to announce that they have gone over the top within a few days. In the outlying parts of the district the campaign will have to be kept open perhaps for some weeks, the being impossible and many of the men being away from home, very largely in the woods, and so cannot be reached.

This opportunity is being used by many as an expression of thanksgiving, as well as a memorial in relation to the dear ones that have gone before.

A. P. O'NEIL DEAD

Head of City Market Firm and Prominent Young Business Man.

With their hearts again plunged in sorrow through death, the members of the family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of Arthur P. O'Neil, who passed away about 4 o'clock this morning at his residence, 104 Leinster street. This break in the family circle, following just a few months after the death of his wife, Harry O'Neil, in Boston, and not quite a year after his father's death, Mr. O'Neil was taken severely ill just a week ago with congestion of the lungs. Every possible attention was given him but his illness took too deep a hold and he died followed this morning. He was the head of the firm of O'Neil Brothers, great merchants, in the city market and had been associated with the business with his father for many years. He was respected for his uprightness of dealing and liked for his many sterling qualities which made him a favorite with many friends. He was a charter member of the Knights of Columbus, had attained the fourth degree and was very active in the order. He was also an interested member of the Y. M. C. L. and was very popular in both societies.

The late Mr. O'Neil was a kindly husband and father and delighted in the joys of life at home with his little family. He is survived by his wife and four little children, three boys and one girl. Four brothers, Frank and Gerald of this city and Herbert and Ernest of Richibucto, survive, with three sisters, Sister Mary Borgia at St. Vincent's convent and Misses Florence and Gertrude at home.

DEATH OF BROTHER BENEDICT, C. SS. R.

Passed Away This Morning at St. Peter's Rectory, North End.

The death of Brother Benedict, C. SS. R., occurred this morning at St. Peter's rectory, North End, after an illness which has troubled him for some time. He had really been in poor health for the last few years, but latterly had been confined to bed, and on last Tuesday he suffered an attack from which he did not rally. Brother Benedict was a deeply religious man who took a keen interest in his duties and who found no work no burden. He had been at St. Peter's church for about nine years and had been faithful in his attendance to the many details of the house and church which came under his care. He was well liked by the people of the parish.

In private life, before his admission to the Redemptorist order, Brother Benedict was Hugh Hiney, born in St. Catharines, Quebec, on Jan. 29, 1852. He is just a little more than thirty years since he was made a brother, on Jan. 2, 1880, serving his novitiate at Annapolis, Maryland. He served in various cities in Canada, and before coming to St. John was at the Redemptorist church in Quebec. His funeral will be held on Monday at 9 o'clock, with solemn high mass, from St. Peter's.

DEAD IN NEW MEXICO

Word of Passing Away of Ralph W. Gilchrist Reaches St. John.

A telegram received last evening by Mrs. E. E. Flewelling, Douglas avenue, brought the sad news of the death of her nephew, Ralph W. Gilchrist, in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Many friends about the city will regret to learn of his passing away. He was the only child of C. E. Gilchrist, formerly of this city and now of Malden, Mass., and besides his father is survived by his wife and two children. He was about thirty-eight years of age.

Mr. Gilchrist was in failing health some years ago and had been advised to go to a different climate. He went to New Mexico and had been there about seventeen years. Up to the time he was about twenty years of age he used to spend his summers in St. John and, being of a bright and cheerful disposition, made many friends while here.

The Decorative Influence of The Artistic Lamp!

The floor lamp or table lamp has come to be more than an economic, convenient lighting medium. Its decorative possibilities have made it one of the most important factors in artistic home furnishing. It lends a variety of proportion which emphasizes the character of the furniture pieces with which it is associated, and the touch of color which is invariably provided in the shade—and frequently in the lamp itself—relieves what might otherwise be a sombre room.

It is very important, however, that the lamp and the shade both possess individuality and character, for with all its practical service these long winter evenings the desirability of the lamp depends on its artistic beauty.

the Athenaeum, where you have to wait about twenty years for membership, were proof against the movement towards economy. In some cases the financial position became so serious that committees were forced to send round the hat.

All this is now changed, and waiting lists are once more the rule. Even the Varsity clubs are picking up. During the war their embassies were of a kind peculiar to their character. There were very few students either at Orono or Cambridge, and since last year straight from the public schools to commissions in the army, the ordinary, crawling groups of the Varsity clubs were closed "for the duration."

A New Use.
Lord Knutsford's amusing letter on Jewit thieves has been a good deal discussed. His lordship's reference to the fact that he numbers among his friends two retired burglars will not amuse anyone who knows how keenly he is interested in social work, and his great interest in missions. He recommends the owner of a jewel case not to keep it in his or her bedroom, but in the corridor, where it can be more carefully watched, and where any thieves would be much more exposed to attack than in a room. He also suggests the carrying of a light chair, upside down, above one's head when searching for burglars at night.

Some householders have thought of a much better precaution than that, however, and one quite easily carried out. An old army shrapnel helmet makes the best head protection possible. And quite a lot of people, ex-servicemen and others, are using them for that purpose. The householder who wears a shrapnel helmet is not going to be easily bludgeoned, and has his hands free for offensive purposes. If the present wave of robbery goes on, one can see quite a brisk trade developing in old tin hats.

Gold Profitting.
I was shown in a cigar shop this week a gold sovereign dated 1920. Unable to believe that my tobaccoist was not pulling my leg in some way, I spoke to a banker friend. He tells me that a lot of gold coinage has been minted recently which is held by most banks in reserve, although it may be put in circulation whenever a customer asks for it. After some sensational arrests in London recently, on a charge of melting down gold coins, it is unlikely that this reserve will be distributed freely.

In this connection the banker mentioned that gold coin is now worth about twenty-six shillings to the sovereign, so that, to be worth doing, melting would have to be on such a large scale that detection would be certain. His view is that the game isn't worth the candle from the criminal's point of view. The penalties are too heavy and the profits too small. Therefore he holds that gold coinage might be put in circulation without any risk from the metallurgical profliter. The argument seems sound, and, if this is true of gold, the logical conclusion is that proflitering in all its branches might be stamped out by sufficiently heavy punishments.

Now Talk of Having Trial of The Kaiser 'Take Place In France

That is a Rumor in Downing Street, London

The German Monarch's Private Letters—Thefts in London Streets a Serious Menace—Something Modern in Housing.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
London, Jan. 22.—If a rumor which is current in Downing street this week has any basis in fact, there is a surprise in store for the British public in regard to the place of trial of the ex-Kaiser. The rumor is that he will not be tried in London, but in France.

At the same time I was told that in high official quarters here significance is attached to the fact that the note to the Dutch government demanding the extradition of William Hohenzollern does not specify definitely into whose hands the ex-Kaiser is to be delivered. The note was signed by M. Clemenceau and presented at the Dutch legation by M. Dutasta, secretary-general of the Peace Conference. It is believed that if the Allies intended to try the Kaiser in England, the document would have been presented through the British Embassy. Its delivery by a French official, even though acting in any international capacity, is regarded by some authorities as indicating that the extradition is to be handled between France and Holland.

France's New President.

I think there is general regret in London that the new president of France is not the veteran whose incomparable energy and vivid genius helped so materially to win the war. Certainly France owes more to M. Clemenceau than ever she can repay. His election as the new president was regarded as practically certain in official circles, not only here but in Paris, and the failure to elect him is due, it is said by those acquainted with the inner workings of French politics, to the hostility of the Socialists and of the supporters of M. Caillaux.

The new president, one of the most Parisian of literary Parisians, a man of letters, a distinguished traveler and dandy par excellence, is a strong friend of this country, and has many real ties with London. He fought a duel with "The Tiger" in the days when both of them were as young as the photographs of Deschanel published this week, and it will be a very distinguished regime in Paris under the new president, who is socially brilliant and immaculate.

A Royal Lingo.
The publication of the Kaiser's private letters in the Morning Post must have removed all scruples in the minds of those who read them as to the justice of arranging this royal lingo for his crimes against the larger humanity. The letters reveal a morbid, personal, jealous, unscrupulous mania of personal egoism. The two traits no doubt go hand in hand. Nine years before the field-grey legions were launched against the world's peace, the Kaiser apparently was secretly plotting and snavery rubbing his hands over the downfall of England. It is annoying to think of the honors we heaped upon the hypocrite and the way other people besides the simple-minded Lord Haldane were deceived by his mountebank plausible, all the time the iron-knave was scheming our ruin from a smiling sky.

Even when he was our favored guest in London and being lionized almost to the top of even his enormous bent, he likely was humming under his breath the opening bars of the Hymn of Hate, Cries and The War.

erred an arresting figure. It was that of a truly dapper little citizen, neat and nice as a new pin, in well-cut suit of decent grey, patent leather boots, light raincoat, pince-nez, smoothly-oiled hair, and dark soft felt hat. In one hand the little citizen grasped an imposing nest little despatch box, in the other he held a suburban umbrella. He was the model of a quiet little "cit" with blameless past and irreproachable future. And—here at last is the point—in his coat buttonhole he wore the famous badge of the Gordon Highlanders. We both turned to look after this amazing and impossible apparition, and my friend, who served with the Guards and knew the Highland divisions over in France through the depth and the thickness of some of their bloodiest fights, murmured aghast—"Some Jock, by Christ! Some blinking Jock!"

Gordon Campbell, V. C.
Stirring echoes of the war still continue to sound in our musty law courts. Sir Henry Duke, the new admiralty and divorce president, made modest awards in the tracking down and destruction of U-boat pirates at the worst period of the submarine blockade. Amongst the seamen concerned was a famous V. C., Captain Gordon Campbell, who performed so heroically in command of one of those disguised merchant vessels known as "Q" boats.

After he won the V. C., Captain Campbell visited the western battle-front, and was shown the broken German wire through which our intrepid infantry charged on the Somme. The comment of the man known as "Every bravest man in the navy" was "Every man who went through that deserved the V. C." The remark was widely reported among the troops in France, and was profoundly appreciated coming from such a source.

The Last Sovereign.
Speaking of gold coinage I heard a group of men discussing when they had last seen sovereigns. One produced a

WHAT WILL YOU DO IF THE FARMER GOES ON STRIKE

In the troublous period since the signing of the armistice, labor in the United States has been involved in a series of strikes, capital has shown a disposition to strike in the sense of not seeking investments that are essential to the country, and now the Post Office Department warns us the farmers threaten to strike. "The time is very near," says one letter to the department, "when we farmers will have to curtail production and raise only what we need for our own use, and let the other fellows look out for themselves." "I have just finished figuring up what the eggs, poultry, and cream that I sold last year brought me, and I will not be in the business next year," says an

Announcing Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea

Mountain grown Orange Pekoes from the best plantations. A tea of extra quality at a little extra price.

During our twenty-five years in business, Canada has made wonderful progress in education, refinement and wealth.

The scale of living and the tastes of the people are more luxurious than a quarter of a century ago.

Realizing this we have decided that—in addition to our well-known standard brands of Red Rose Tea, the sales of which are increasing faster than ever before—the time is opportune to introduce a tea of extra quality. It is an Orange Pekoe Tea of very fine quality under the popular Red Rose brand, and called Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea—a special tea of extra quality for people who are willing to pay a little extra price.

To ensure the quality and success of this new tea we have concentrated on it all the resources, the experience and the advantages possessed by our big organization.

The Orange Pekoe Teas we use are selected with a knowledge born of long experience in buying teas abroad.

Red Rose Orange Pekoes are grown on the best plantations;—from tested seed;—on carefully cultivated soil;—at a high elevation (mountain grown teas are very superior to low-land teas.)

They are gathered at the time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

The manufacture and final preparation are carefully and skilfully done.

When brewed, Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea has all the characteristics of fine quality tea.

It has a bright, sparkling amber color in the cup.

The aroma is delicate and delightful.

After the liquid is poured off, the leaves in the pot are a greenish copper color.

The flavor is of rare charm and distinction. The more cultivated your taste the more you will appreciate it.

The strength is rich, satisfying and invigorating.

Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea is sold only in our sealed waxed board cartons which fully protect its fine quality.

Ask for it by the full name: Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea. The words "Orange Pekoe" are in orange on our new waxed board cartons.

Our well-known Red Rose package, the sale of which is increasing faster than ever before. Red Rose consists chiefly of Assam teas, the richest and strongest in the world and therefore very economical. (The Red Rose Orange Pekoe package is a little different in design.)

NOW TALK OF HAVING TRAIL OF THE KAISER TAKE PLACE IN FRANCE

men on the spot, but his claim was disallowed on the score that most other wise patriotic citizens saved a solitary coin as a souvenir. Another man, who had been a Territorial, said that in 1914 he had seen native hawkers in India selling half-sovereigns of eleven rupees each. How these vendors, who presented an appearance of abject poverty, came into possession of so much gold nobody could say, but they did a brisk trade with British Tommies, who used the coins as ornaments for friends at home.

This story was capped, however, by a naval flying man. Whenever a pilot expected to fly off the deck of a ship in an aeroplane, too far off to hope to reach the British coast, he was given £10 in gold, wherewith to oil the palms of neutral fishermen or landsmen. Good British gold went a long way in 1918 towards facilitating an airman's escape from internment, should he have to land in neutral territory or be picked up at sea by neutral fishing boats.

Bete Noir of the Film Stars

Talking to a fashionable photographer this week, I was saying that most people would have difficulty in choosing between two evils, whether to visit a dentist or the photographer. He replied that the ordeal of being photographed did not oppress many folks chiefly, he thought, because of the idiotic procedure of the old-fashioned practitioners, who used to set people's heads in a vice, bustle them about the studio pose them for long spells in the most awkward positions, and then say severely:

"Look natural, please!" I suggested that the ideal sitter must be the cinema star, and that the cinema star must regard "being photographed" as merely the normal event. To my surprise the answer was that the cinema star made the worst sitter in the world, and that it was a task to baffle Hercules and Machiavel combined to get one to submit to a "still" photograph. They simply cannot endure "still" photography after the cinema. And they live in dread of the results of such sittings. One famous cinema beauty, whose name was mentioned, will make innumerable appointments to sit for her photo, but has never been known to keep one yet.

Forged Bradburys

This week-end a banker was showing me some specimens of the forged pound notes that have been cleverly and promiscuously circulated. It is not yet known for certain whether the newer treasury notes have been extensively forged. The forgeries I saw were all of the original Bradbury type. The imitation is very good. Probably nobody but an expert, and even then an expert on the alert, would be able to detect them. But there is one simple way of doing so. On the right-hand side of the note is a miniature of the king's head, with the usual Latin inscription round it on a scroll. In all the forgeries the "N" in the word "domini" right at the top of the scroll is printed the wrong way round. This is an infallible test. No further proof of a note being a forgery is needed. But the inverted "N" is also accompanied by a rather rough printing of the ornamental work on the right-hand side of the note. It is curious that such clever forgers should have made a mistake so absolutely fatal, and so easily detected once people know about it.

"Partner Please!"

The prevalence of the custom which allows a hostess to invite "Miss — and partner" to her dance places a premium on the tame young man who can be led wherever the damsel to whom he is under contract may be invited. At the same time it is hard on the girl who is living alone, or in some ladies' club, and may not be a sufficiently expert or habitual dancer to have any such arrangement. A simple expedient is the invention of the occupant of a ladies' club in Golder's Green, next door to which a young man has rooms. This lady, on receiving an invitation so worded, tackled the landlady of the next house, and asked her to propose to her lodger that he should find a friend and that they should act as partners to her and a friend. She explained that she had seen him coming in late one night, and had assumed from his raiment that he was a habitual dancer. The young man is mildly wondering whether this is mere modernism or perhaps an extension of the established Leap Year privilege.

Up-to-Date Flats

Some specially interesting features are to be noted in a big block of 120 flats in St. John's Wood, the foundation-stone of which has just been laid with becoming official pride by Doctor Addison. These flats are being erected by the Public Utility Society. They have a central supply of hot water, so that the occupiers may have hot water on tap at any hour. One corner of the new building is to be devoted to tiny flats for the bachelor girl. These have a central living room, and, partitioned off, are a bedroom, bathroom and kitchen. One of these tiny places has already been built, and was ready furnished for Doctor Addison's inspection. The lady who supervised this part of the work found room for a few volumes of the Everyman Library and a small edition of Shelley.

It is worth noting that anyone can form a public utility housing society under the government's subsidy scheme.

To aid in forming these societies, the government will, through the public works loan commissioners, lend three-quarters of the money needed, and, until 1927, pay fifty per cent of the loan charges. The flats in St. John's Wood will be let at from ten shillings a week upwards.

Cat Propaganda

There is a persistent agitation in certain quarters for judicial resort to "cat" as a means of discouraging the present epidemic of robberies with violence. The habit of stopping citizens after at night in the public street and forcibly going through their pockets is certainly growing somewhat. Not even find no evidence to support the ingenious theory that it is due to ex-service personal property audit from the overhauling of German prisoners in France. The class of men entrusted with this duty by the army was very different from that of the desperadoes who lay tribute on defenceless citizens. In any case, I doubt whether, however much public opinion may condemn such robbery, it will be very eager to apply the "cat" to men who have worn honorable khaki. Some allowance must be made for the world's sudden and arbitrary change back to civilized habits from such an orgy of violence as we have recently experienced. Not even human cruelty is perhaps equal to such swift evolution. And perhaps the very Jingo Cockney journalist now happily advocating the "cat" may find that its application would really be more popular, and, "as appropriate, in the case of other forms of robbery. Profiteering is only garrotting with anesthetics.

IF the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, is able to build up to the limit of its capacity, only 27,350 Ford Cars will be built for use in Canada between January the first and July the thirty-first of this year. Divided among the total population of Canada this means one car to every three hundred and ten people.

It is easy to see that many people will be unable to get their Ford Cars at all, and many will have to wait for summer or fall delivery.

As Ford Dealers in this territory, we desire to deliver a car to every person in this district who wants one, but we cannot get the cars unless we send in the orders now.

If you will need a car later on, don't wait till spring before ordering. Put yourself at the top of the delivery list by signing an order today.

THE SALE OF GERMAN SHIPS

Injunction Against Sale on Monday Following Hearst Campaign.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Washington, Feb. 13.—A concurrent resolution directing the shipping board not to sell the thirty former German liners which the board plans to dispose of at public auction here Monday except through regular public bidding after three months' advertising and then only if proper offers are received, was introduced today by Senator Ashurst, of Arizona.

The resolution was offered in the midst of a debate on the sale of the ships. Senator Ashurst declared that it was a fact that the shipping board and the emergency fleet corporation intended to sell the vessels to the International Mercantile Marine for $28,000,000. He said the vessels had a pre-war value of $18,000,000, and a present value of $30,000,000.

Mr. Payne this afternoon announced that Hearst's application for an injunction would not prevent the offering of the ships for sale. He said tenders would be received Monday as planned, but that final action on them would be deferred until the injunction proceedings had been disposed of finally.

MYERS' HISTORY TO BE BANNED
Board of Education Prohibits Its Use in Public Schools.

The Board of Education has given instructions to the teachers of the high and superior schools that the latest edition of Myers History of the World, containing an objectionable chapter on the war, is not to be used in New Brunswick because a few copies of the unauthorized edition of Myers History of the World were purchased, which edition did not contain a proper reference to the part taken by Canada in the late war, is so grossly unfair that those who realize how democratic is the content of the text books by the leaders of the educational profession, outside of the board of education, are compelled in justice to the department as well as to themselves to issue a statement showing just how it was possible for a few copies to get circulation without their knowledge or consent.

One of the leading Fredericton book sellers states that he has only sold three copies of the objectionable edition of Myers History of the World. This is the only copy of the very small foundation there is for the hullabaloo in connection with the circulation of the book. There is a provincial committee which chooses the text books for the public schools of the province. This committee is composed of W. S. Carter, Chief Superintendent of education; Chancellor Jones of the University of New Brunswick; Principal Bridges, of the Normal School; Dr. B. C. Foster, of the Fredericton High School; H. Hagerman, instructor at the Normal School; Miss Ella Thorne, Fredericton; H. S. Bridges, Superintendent of the St. John public schools; Principal Myles, of St. John; Joseph Harrington, Miss Emma Caldwell, Principal Oulton, of Moncton; W. McI. Barker, Moncton; Inspector Hebert, Moncton.

This committee when it met in December last was not informed and had no knowledge of the objectionable chapter, which is the history of the world, and therefore the text book was recommended as usual and a committee composed of Dr. H. S. Bridges, of St. John, and superintendent of education, W. S. Carter, were appointed to go to Halifax and consult with the representatives from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island and agree upon certain text books which could be used in common by the three provinces. This committee went to Halifax and met Dr. McKay, Chief Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia; Professor Howard Murray, of Dalhousie University; Superintendent Butler, of the Halifax public schools; Inspector McDonald and D. McKittrick, as well as Colonel R. H. Campbell, of Prince Edward Island.

The committee recommended Myers General History as a text book and did so without any knowledge that a chapter had been added to the edition in use in 1918. The above shows without any doubt that the educational authorities were not endeavoring to authorize an objectionable text book.

The department of education for New Brunswick has issued instructions to the teachers of High and Superior schools of the province that the latest edition of Myers history is not to be used in the public schools. Three-quarters of the year has already been devoted to the study of this text book and it would be unfair to the pupils in examinations and unfair to the parents to ask them at this time to purchase another book at the high cost involved, $1.75 each. The edition to be used will not contain the objectionable chapter.

A member of the text book committee says that it is well to remember that all, or nearly all, of the histories used in the high schools of Canada are written by American authors. This is unfortunate, but it is true. When Myers General History was first authorized, the text book committee had to meet not only the views of those interested in the so-called history of the history but also had to satisfy the leaders of the different religious denominations, there was nothing objectionable in its pages.

The prompt action in the board of education of New Brunswick in refusing to authorize the latest issue of Myers history and advising other provinces of this action has been generally commended by all except those who can see nothing good in anything done by any department of the present government.

BALFOUR ON THE ECONOMIC SITUATION

Duty of British as Noted
Statesman Sees It

Should Increase Industrial Strength Steadily — Matter of Relation to Some of the European Peoples.

(Canadian Press.)
London, Feb. 13.—Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, speaking on the economic position in the house of commons last night, said:

"I do not believe it possible for Europe to find rapidly and completely any remedy whatever. Whether, if the whole world were to join, if the countries which the war has left richer than it found them were to throw their whole weight into assisting us in this problem, some amelioration could not be effected, is another question on which I do not care to dwell. For as it seems to me to be our first duty and certainly not our only duty, to see that our great industrial society around which the whole security of Europe really revolves, remains with its existing strength intact and built up from day to day by the industry, economy and enterprise of the inhabitants of these isles.

"I will not suggest for a moment, however, that in doing this we are even chiefly to consider our special military interests. We know quite well that now, as never before, Europe and the world are bound together by common interests and ought to be bound together by common ideals. If I thought any word of mine would carry into distant regions, the lesson I should like to preach to all these new nationalities which the war has created in eastern Europe would be that they also should consider, not mutual antagonisms and small ambitions, but should each in their own borders set to work by rigid economy, pure administration and energetic labor to render their own economic position safe and honorable.

"We can only influence, only advise, we cannot command; therefore, I ask the house to support the government in what I conceive to be the only sound policy there is of stabilizing and strengthening our own economic system, using every accession of strength to help those who most need help and not in attempting a task which is utterly beyond our powers and which, not only our own substance but our own powers of useful work and influence in the impossible task of managing for other people affairs which they see incapable of managing themselves."

O'DOWD MAY BOX THE FRENCHMAN

Rickard Offers $250,000 for Bout With the Middleweight Champion.

New York, Feb. 13.—George Carpentier may make his first appearance in an American ring with Mike O'Dowd rather than Jack Dempsey as his opponent. It is learned that Tex Rickard recently called to Carpentier an offer of $250,000 for a meeting with either Dempsey or O'Dowd, and it is expected that the French idol will accept the offer.

If he obtains Carpentier's signature to POLICE COURT.

At the afternoon session of the police court yesterday, the case against Louis Daley, Harry McHugh and John Shannon, charged with destroying property of Edward Mackin, was resumed. Alan Chisholm gave evidence. E. J. Hervey, counsel for the prosecution, said his client would be willing to have the accused warned to keep away from his premises. The prisoners were remanded until this morning.

Mrs. D. C. Clark and Frank R. Adams gave evidence in the Dr. Morris case and it was postponed until Wednesday afternoon. W. M. Ryan and Scott E. Morrell were the counsel in the case.

SAYS RICKARD HAS SIGNED JACK

May Stage World's Championship Match Between Carpentier and Dempsey.

Paris, Feb. 11.—Tex Rickard, American fight promoter, who staged the championship bout between Jess Willard and Jack Johnston, will put on the next world's championship contest between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier.

M. Descamps, manager of the European champion, after announcing today he had received assurance that Rickard had signed Dempsey, said he probably would sign with the American promoter as soon as he arrived in America early in March.

In securing the signature of the world's champion, Rickard has outdistanced Theodore Vienne, Charles B. Cochran and William Fox, who made big offers for Carpentier's services, but were unable to get Dempsey's name on the agreement, he said.

Descamps left today with his charge for a week's exhibition in Monte Carlo, following which they are to take a tour of Italy. Before leaving, Descamps, in an interview, said he hoped with his statement to clear up the situation and permit the American fans to know the real situation.

Rickard Non-Committal.

New York, Feb. 11.—"I have nothing to say just at this time," Tex Rickard said here today when asked about the announcement of M. Descamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, that he was almost sure of landing the Dempsey-Carpentier fight.

Will Coach Yankees.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—Charles O'Leary, shortstop of the champion Detroit Tigers of 1917, 1918 and 1919, has been signed by Manager Miller Huggins as coach of the Yankees for the season of 1920. Last year O'Leary promoted semi-pro baseball around Chicago.

"King" Brady has been signed up to act as trainer for the Chicago Cubs, it was announced by Fred Mitchell, manager of the team.

Manager Jimmy Burke of the St. Louis Browns announced that he had sold Daveenport, the pitcher, to the Washington club. It was a straight sale with no deal of players.

"Chick" Shorten, the Detroit outfielder, is reported to be a holdout.

But in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 11.—Ritchie Mitchell, an Englishman, in a ten-round bout last night, in the opinion of sport writers.

The first issue of "It's You," the bulletin to be issued bi-monthly by the Commercial Club, came out yesterday and was well received.

MONDAY TUESDAY

Suppose!
Suppose a girl had reasons to pretend she was the widow of a dear friend's husband.

Suppose she fell heels-over-head in love.

Suppose again that, although she was 'dying' for the man of her heart to propose, every mention of her 'widowhood' compelled her to weep for the 'late departed.'

Suppose a dozen other terrible tangles, and then suppose you could see dainty Marguerite Clark in a corking screen comedy-drama, as this widow who wants!

You'd come, wouldn't you?—You bet!

WATER POWERS OF PROVINCE

In an instructive and interesting address before the Commercial Club last evening on the subject of water power development in the maritime provinces, K. I. Smith, of the department of the interior, who has been conducting an exhaustive survey of the water power sites in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, pointed out the many sites available in the both provinces and explained the desirability from a commercial standpoint of developing the smaller powers first.

In New Brunswick there was an excellent site at Edmundston and at Grand Falls. He subdivided the districts in New Brunswick that should be supplied into three, the North Shore, which could be supplied from the Telemeque river, with a capacity of 1,600 horse power; Fredericton district, which could be supplied from the Pokok and Shogomo rivers which had exceptional storage facilities, with respectively 7,500 and 8,500 horse power, and the St. John district whose logical source of power was the Lepreau river with about 13,000 horse power, and after that had been used the Magaguadavic river. These services could later all be connected up. He concluded by warning the members not to be impatient and they would probably see this development carried out.

During the discussion that followed J. R. Thompson asked if the speaker had gone into Mr. Turnbull's scheme. Mr. Smith said that he had but thought on account of the low head in the Bay of Fundy and the expense connected with such development, it was not at present a commercial proposition. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Smith.
