Montenegrins Tried To Mob Actors Playing Part of Turks—Nearly Murder On the Stage

(Canadian Press) Cetinje, Montenegro, Oct. 1.—Riotous scenes, almost culminating in the lynching of the actors who represented Turks, marked the first performance of King Nicholas' play, "The Siege of Scutari," last night. When the actor who played the role of Essad Pasha came on the stage, the turbulent mob became infuriated. A youth sprang on the platform, revolver in hand, and with difficulty was restrained from shooting the actor. When a member of the cast, before the battle scene, began to describe the assault on Tarabouch, several veterans in the audience arose and denounced him as a liar. When the third act showed the Turks in full retreat, the audience made a rush for the stage with the intention of lynching the wearers of the fez. The police were compelled to use force to restrain the frantic people.

NO MAIL ORDERS FOR BALL TICKETS

Get In Line At The Gate Only Way GREAT INTEREST AGAIN Complaint In Philadelphia About Rule Requiring Purchase For Three Games—Players Likely to Write Reports Despite Decision (Canadian Press) New York, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Baseball players who write world's series will have the support of the Baseball Players' fraternity, it was announced today by David L. Fultz, a lawyer, who is president of the organization. Fultz made a statement regarding the rule laid down by the National Commission prohibiting players of the competing teams from writing on the championship games or allowing their names to be signed to articles written by others. "We do not pass upon the status of the player-author, as in our opinion, the matter rests entirely with the player and the paper itself," said President Fultz, referring to the fraternity's attitude toward the National Commission's rule. "But if our support should be necessary to enable one of our members to carry out a contract which he has had a perfect right to enter into, and which another has entered into with him in good faith we would back him up to the limit."

Fultz characterized as "absurd" all talk that the series would be called off by the National Commission if players refused to heed the ban against their efforts as writers. The attitude of the players toward the rule, will be taken up on Monday, when the National Commission will meet here, to complete arrangements for the world's series. L. E. Constance, secretary of the Pittsburgh National League club, and representative of the National Commission, arrived here today to prepare the way for the meeting of Chairman August Herrmann of Cincinnati, Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League. The three members of the commission. Officials of the New York club announced that they would send 800-1000 to persons who sent money to tickets to the championship games. Under the rules, no mail orders for tickets are to be honored, and would-be purchasers must await their turns at the gate. The applications came from all parts of the country. John B. Foster, secretary of the New York club, said the indications point to an attendance of 40,000 persons at the opening game on next Tuesday, if the weather is fair.

In Connie Mack's Town Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 1.—"Philadelphia fans, who are anxious to secure tickets for the approaching world's series, are engaging boys to stand in line all night before the public sale for the contest in this city on Monday, October 6. Companies which furnish messengers, boys, are making preparations to meet the unusual demand, and one company announced that the rate would be raised from 20 to 30 cents an hour for the way for the prospective dealer in the coveted pasteboards had engaged twenty boys to stand in line from nine o'clock Sunday night, until nine a.m. Monday, when the gates are opened. Under the rules adopted this year, no mail orders will be honored and each purchaser must buy tickets for three games in this city, and no one is permitted to buy more than two for each game.

In case three games are not played here, money for tickets not used will be returned to the purchasers. The requirement that even those who desire to witness only one game must buy tickets for three is causing some unfavorable comment among the local baseball followers. Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics in a statement here last night, declared that he would not prevent two of his players, Baker and Collins, from writing special newspaper articles on the world's series, against which a ruling was recently issued by the National Baseball Commission. "It seems that the commission is making the ruling entirely too late," said Mr. Mack, "and if any such action is contemplated, the players should have been notified long since." He expressed the opinion that the players would go ahead with their plans without serious opposition.

LOOKS FOR BIG YEAR IN IMMIGRATION FROM STATES Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 1.—"I believe immigration from the United States into Western Canada will this year reach a total of 140,000, which will be a slight increase over 1912, when it amounted to 139,000, the highest figure on record," said J. Bruce Walker, commissioner of immigration, discussing this question. "The movement this year has been extremely spasmodic," he says. During May and June, it showed a distinct falling off in comparison with last year, but as soon as the facts about the crop in western Canada became known, it suddenly jumped up, showing an income of 60 to 70 per cent over preceding weeks.

Making a Not of This Earth

Hamlin Garland, Famous American Author and Psychic, to Support Sir Oliver Lodge's Remarkable Declaration That His Life Exists After Death, Tells for First Time His Wonderful Experiences with a Projection of the Astral—A Ghost That Melted in Plain Sight!

BY HAMLIN GARLAND
Famous American Author of "The Shadow World," "The Tyranny of the Dark," etc.

One summer night, a few years ago, I went over to Staten Island from New York to visit a young lawyer and who had told me marvelous stories of the manifestations at private circles which he held regularly in his home every Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

His small apartment was in the second story of a frame house on a quiet street and the sitting took place in the little parlor. The "cabinets" was an alcove bedroom which was separated from the parlor by heavy draperies. The family consisted of his wife, her small daughter and her mother. One other visitor, a young Pole, and myself made up the "circle."

I examined the bedroom and closed at the request of the wife and then took my seat beside the young Pole. The wife played softly on the piano. Under these conditions and while a kerosene light was burning brightly enough for one to perceive anything in the room, the psychic suddenly appeared looking very white and very intense and began to pace up and down before the curtains. At last I moved to the right of the portiers and stood gazing intently at the opening.

"Come out!" he commanded.

Noislessly—like a puff of gray-blue vapor—a figure emerged and confronted us. Its head and shoulders were well defined, but the arms appeared to trail off into smoke-like veiling. Its eyes were indistinguishable, its chin vague, but it bowed several times in slow and solemn fashion!

Meanwhile I was studying the psychic who stood with a strained, distracted look on his face, his knees shaking. One hand was outstretched and clutching at the air as if he were making a supreme effort to hold the apparition till I should have time to study it. The other was at his heart as if to ease a pain.

Slowly he crept toward the wraith. Each second he seemed to bend, to grow weaker and the ghostly visitor, turned toward him, became vaguer and more formless and then, as two drops of water do, they appeared to meet and mingle and the psychic fell like a log inside the curtains, but the head of one foot remained visible.

The wife continued to play softly on the piano until at last the heel was withdrawn and my young host appeared looking pale and weak, but calm and mentally alert.

He told me that he had held the "materialized form" as long as he could; but he felt "drawing out" of his vital force through his solar-plexus and from his forehead.

"It is always hard to produce a form so far away," he said.

Conditions were not as I would have made them for a test, but they were plain and simple and the sitting a courtesy on the part of a young man who earned his living by hard work in the office of a New York corporation.

I could not explain this projection of the astral then—nor can I now. It is one of the deep mysteries of my life.

Daily Hints For the Cook

Piccilli

One peck green-tomatoes, 2 qts. onions & green peppers, 1 box (1-4 lb) whole spices, 1 lb brown sugar, 3 qts vinegar with salt, let stand over night. Next day drain well. Slice onions. Cut up the peppers and put into a cloth bag with adding the other items and boil two hours. If chopped piccilli is preferred (as I like mine), the tomatoes and onions may be run through a food chopper (fine cutter to be used) before putting on to boil. Keep in crocks.

Quebrida's Tomato Butter

Take 3 1-2 pounds of red, ripe, firm tomatoes, 2 pounds of sugar, 1-2 teaspoons of ground ginger and 1 of ground cinnamon and 1 oily skinned lemon. Scald and peel tomatoes, add sugar and spices, cook until thick. Stir often to prevent burning. Wash the lemon, grate the yellow skin, throw away the seeds, then slice the lemon, remove the seeds, and add to the tomatoes. Cook thoroughly, otherwise it will taste raw. This is delicious. The ginger may be omitted. Double the recipe if you prepare it for winter use.

There is an enormous amount of suffering from liver and kidney derangements and stomach troubles that could easily be avoided by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. NEARLY ALL GOT AWAY

(Charlottetown Patriot)

All summer long the loss of Tory organs here have been telling us about the wonderful immigration work that was being done in England to induce people to come to Prince Edward Island. At times figures were given of the number who would arrive here in the fall and take up farms to engage in farming in our province. Anticipation was raised beyond all expectation and with a flourish of trumpets these two newspapers told of what this would all mean to the Island. Now we learn that as a result of the great efforts put forth by the Tory government that some eleven persons in all were brought to Halifax this week intended for Prince Edward Island. Unfortunately, however, nine of these were captured and kept in Nova Scotia and only two are likely to come to our province. Let us humbly thank our God that the two immigrants on by registered mail, otherwise they might get lost in transit.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best For Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

CHICAGO PROFESSOR FINDS PEANUT STAND PAYS HIM BETTER

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Prof. A. E. Munier, late instructor in French at the Lake Forest Academy, who resigned to turn peanut pedlar, told some of his experiences today.

There was too much monotony about the old job," he said. "I paid fairly well and the associations were pleasant, but I make more money selling peanuts.

"But I am not allowed altogether to forget my books. The students who know me, and to whom I sell my wares, will not let me. Often they gather about my wagon and I help them with their French or their Latin or their Greek. In return they buy peanuts and popcorn and chewing gum.

"You would be surprised to hear it, but I am able to put away more than $200 a month. I could never do that teaching. Therefore, I do not teach. It is a cheerful life; and honest vocation—and a big, comfortable splash of light in the darkness."

USE THE WANT AD. WAY

Two ministers, Presbyterian and Methodist, were taking a walk along a railroad track one day, discussing good-naturedly the points of difference of their respective creeds. Presently, coming to the yawning mouth of one of those long tunnels for which this road they go in. They had gone but a short distance when the Presbyterian brother exclaimed with sudden determination: "I'm going to get out of here! What if a train should come along?" "Oh, well," responded the other, with a twinkle which his companion could not see.

"Yes," was the retort; "but I don't want it to be in here!"

Drink Schlitz in Brown Bottles

Read what two eminent scientists have to say about light and its effect on beer in light glass bottles.

"In recent years the observation has been made that the rays of sunlight effect a chemical change in beer. For this reason the use of beer bottles blown from colorless glass is diminishing, bottles blown from colored glass being chosen; the amber colored bottles, which, when held towards the light, show the color of light beer, are particularly to be recommended."

Extract from Die Praxis der Bierbrauerei. Published by G. E. Habich, 1883—page 766.

"It appears that chemical changes are produced in the beer, which attains an exceedingly unpleasant taste and a disagreeable odor."

Denied Life Insurance

because his bodily health failed to meet the company's rules, Mr. James Connors says Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey built him up so that he successfully passed three different physical examinations by the same Life Insurance Co. which formerly rejected his application. No wonder he will not accept substitutes for Duff's.

"I have great faith in your wonderful remedy which I have taken regularly for the past twenty-five years. Before I took Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey I was subject to chills and heavy colds in the winter and had a very poor appetite. My family physician advised me to take a tablespoonful of Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey before meals. I followed his directions and found it created an appetite, and while taking it I was not subject to the cold chills that I formerly suffered with."

"Twenty years ago I was rejected by a Life Insurance Company, and since taking your whiskey I have built myself up and have passed three times since in the same company.—James Connors, 397 Baltic Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

I have included certain parts that contain some very important advice or suggestions of a strictly private nature which, I believe, cannot be found in any of the Private Hygienic books for men that are now sold at high prices all over the country. It will thus be seen I have endeavored, through the medium of my free book, to give my readers absolutely free of cost really MORE, and some respects, than others offer and make a large charge for. All you have to do to get this free book of mine is to use the coupon below, or if you live in my neighborhood, I extend an invitation to you to call at my office, 2250 Bay St., Toronto, Ontario, and involve absolutely no obligation on your part, and there is nothing whatsoever for you to buy in any way, unless you should decide at some time in the future that you would like to try one of my mechanical VITALIZERS (described below), but that reads with yourself. I publish this free book in English, Swedish, Danish, Finnish, German, French and Polish, but I always send the English edition of course, unless otherwise instructed. Kindly use the little coupon.

SANDEN, AUTHOR: In reference to my strength, I believe it is now more generally acknowledged than ever before that the man who stands back of all achievement in the world, a truth which any of us can easily verify if we but look about us with impartial eyes. As a matter of fact, the man who is debilitated, unstrung and enervated, cannot approach those real and useful attainments which seem but natural and easy accomplishment or him whose nerve force, brain power and manly strength are perfectly normal. Hence, while we acknowledge a debilitated, weakened man to be adrift in every walk of life, we are real manhood counts, yet it would indeed be cruel of me to here state the fact in public print were not of the honest opinion that there is every hope for the unstrung man to restore himself to a state of health and vigor, if he let clear his mind of normal fear, and then make a fair, brave effort to redeem himself. There are two specimens of humanity for which I have no earthly use: one is the man who, though now strong and vital, yet plunges into disease.

WHAT THE FREE BOOK TEACHES YOU: The little free illustrated book of special private information referred to above, meant really to be a self-guide for all men through the years before and after marriage and onward to a ripe old age. It is written in perfectly plain, simple, entirely free from technical terms, so that any one may easily grasp the full power of its good advice from two or three careful readings, attempts to point out a safe road to new manhood or new manly strength, and as such is dedicated to mankind generally. One part of this book fully describes my little VITALIZER referred to above. Remember, as soon as the coupon below is received I agree to forward you one copy of this illustrated booklet, absolutely free of charge and in plain, sealed envelope, so that it will come to you privately, just as you give any sealed mail.

ALL FOR THE LADIES

The Gowns of Miss Frances Brandt, Leading Lady of The Thompson-Woods Stock Company Opening at The Opera House, Oct. 6, a Marvel of Wondrous Beauty

The individuality and becomingness of a gown has often played a great part in the making of a popular actress. No matter how much ability an actress may display, if she cannot step into a drawing room scene a picture of art and beauty, her talent, great as it may be, is very often lost sight of in the overwhelming avalanche of adverse criticism. Miss Brandt forgives many things in a pretty, well-gowned woman, but one who makes a dowdy appearance is not to be endured.

The life of a stock leading lady during the theatrical season is one whirl of study and performances, so that those who really take a great interest in their work usually prepare their wardrobes for the coming season during the summer months. This is Miss Brandt's method of doing things, and a beautiful array of gowns which she is bringing to St. John, not only stamps her as one of the best dressed women on the stage today, but also gives some idea as to her very artistic tastes. Miss Brandt had the good fortune this last summer to spend a good part of it abroad, and while there purchased many beautiful garments, besides bringing back many ideas new even to New Yorkers, for most of her time was spent in Vienna, which is really the world's centre of fashions, for while New York modistes accept the ideas of Paris, so Paris obtains her ideas from Vienna.

One of the gorgeous creations which Miss Brandt expects to wear in one of the coming productions is an evening gown by the famous Poiret, and is almost beyond the power of words to describe. One can only realize its beauty by seeing it, and even then were they asked to give a detailed description of the gown, they would just tell us they would look in just that kind of a gown. It is made of rich biscuit colored satin, brocaded with gold, and draped in a manner which is particularly becoming to the tall, stately beauty of Miss Brandt. It is of course décollete, with filmy sleeves of tulle. It has a touch of fur trimming which, by the way, ladies, is the thing this season, regardless of the material used in the gown.

Miss Brandt also purchased quite a few tailored gowns and suits, one of which is of an extremely good model; a broadtail cloth coat, fur trimmed, with a gracefully draped skirt of chiffon broadcloth. It is of a beautiful mauve shade, which sets off Miss Brandt's dark hair and eyes to perfection.

When one considers that each and every gown must have boots, gloves, hats and evening cloaks to harmonize, they can easily understand that it would require a good portion of the summer months to make just such a selection. Miss Brandt will be glad to receive any inquiries regarding current styles, or in reference to any of the gowns she may wear, and may be able to give some of the local ladies valuable suggestions as to various gowns, color schemes, and other things so dear to the hearts of the female gender.

"MOVIES" FOR SYDNEY PUPILS: Motion Pictures to be Used for Educational Purposes

The annual meeting of the Technical School board was held in Sydney on last Thursday evening with Mayor Gunn presiding.

There was some discussion on the proposed installation of a moving picture machine at the Academy which would be used to show instructive and educational pictures to those attending the evening classes.

H. C. Burchell said that he had a conference with R. J. McAdam. The latter would be shown at the Academy this afternoon and evening of each week for the accommodation of the pupils. They would be given free tickets and the only expense would be the renting of the films which cost $5 each.

Mayor Gunn said that if the pictures were to be shown at the Academy they would interest only a narrow margin but on the other hand if one of the public halls or theatres were used to display these pictures, a large number of people would attend.

Mr. Burchell then moved to recommend the matter to Professor Sexton to have arrangements made for the showing of these pictures in the Casino Theatre.

Mr. Lucas, in seconding this motion said that he believed that the time would come, if it had not already arrived, when motion pictures would be the greatest educational factor known.

"They will not only be shown in theatres, but our public schools."

Equal Heat In Every Part of The Gurney-Oxford Oven

Every woman well knows the bad results from constantly opening the oven door to move a cake to another shelf or turn a pan of biscuits. Often the shifting or the cold air striking in proves utterly disastrous to her baking.

The Divided Flue on the Gurney-Oxford range equally distributes the heat to all parts of the oven which is regulated to the exact temperature required by means of the Economizer.

This wonderful time-labor-and-money-saving device controls the heat of the whole range.

It is worked by a small handle which moves around a series of six notches. The housewife soon learns that by moving the handle to No. 1 she has a very hot oven, to No. 3 a moderate oven, and that No. 6 checks the fire so as to burn scarcely any coal while she goes out shopping. On her return she simply moves the handle to the number that gives the required heat and the result is prompt.

Of inestimable value also is the Broiler Attachment and the Special Grate.

But a most delightful feature about the Gurney-Oxford is its constant bright and shining appearance.

It has a smooth polished top that never requires black lead and is thoroughly sanitary.

For years stove experts have been working out woman's problem in the kitchen and the Gurney-Oxford range is the solution.

THE SCAREMONGERS

The Montreal Star has a correspondent in London who appears to have the ability to develop every day a new emergency of some sort, and a new peril to threaten the Empire.

It is a remedy, and he does not fail to direct attention thereto. The adoption by Canada of the Borden naval programme would cause all the threatened dangers to disappear, and the Empire would be perfectly safe.

The Standard prints this morning an interview with Dr. George R. Parkin, in which he asked this question: "Do you ever consider that Canada has a bigger population than England had when it beat the Spanish Armada?"

The Vancouver Sun prints an interview with Sir Philip Watts, one of the most eminent living authorities on naval affairs, who declares that Canada should have a navy of her own, and that though it would cost more to build warships in Canada there should be no hesitation on that account.

APPEAL TO FANATICISM

An illustration of the kind of prejudice to which Sir Edward Carson appeals in Ulster is found in the following extract from a letter published in a Unionist newspaper in Coleraine:

"Can King George sign the Home Rule Bill? Let him do so and his Empire shall perish as true as God rules Heaven. King George must know that his Empire has been built up by Protestantism. He must know that Roman Catholicism is the curse of the earth for all that means happiness to mankind.

Obviously it would be quite useless to reason with the writer of this letter. Obviously also so shrewd a man as Sir Edward Carson, playing upon the prejudices of men of this sort, would have little difficulty in persuading them that bloodshed, riot and rebellion would be justified if the government proceeded to carry out its Home Rule policy.

The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

COPIING WITH FOREST FIRES

British Columbia Using Modern Devices

TELEPHONES INSTALLED

Linking Up Important Ranges—Assists in Estimate of Conditions—Watchfulness Has Proved Profitable

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 1.—The work of linking up the forest ranges of British Columbia so as to place the Forestry department in a position to better estimate conditions, and at the same time to assist in the prevention of fire outbreaks, is being pushed ahead with all possible rapidity. This year has seen the construction of many miles of telephone through the various forest regions, and the work is still being assiduously prosecuted. Half-a-dozen lines have been strung, and from the vantage points of each it will be possible to overlook the great stretches of the best timbered land in the province.

The first of these new telephone lines has been strung from New Michel, up the Elk River Valley, a distance of twelve miles. The valley is about sixty miles long, and prior to the location of the telephone, there was no means of communicating from any part of it that might be affected by fire. There are very few settlers there yet, but as the timber is very valuable, the department deemed it advisable to guard it in the manner suggested.

The second line laid by the Forestry department stretches from the top of Mount Baker, which rises about 7,000 feet in the air, at a distance of ten miles from Cranbrook. The lookout from the summit is marvellous. It shows up the whole of the boundary country, and reveals the Kootenays as far as the Canal Flats. In round figures it is estimated that the man who has been stationed on the peak will have a clear vision embracing some two million acres of forest land.

Goat Mountain is the vantage point to which the third line leads up. The elevation here is not more than 1,500 feet, and Creston is the nearest town. The line is about three miles in length, and the station at the top overlooks a considerable portion of the Goat River watershed, and also the streams emptying into the Kootenay River, all of which are heavily fringed with white pine and cedar.

The fourth station is located at the summit of the B. X. Mountain, some nineteen miles from Vernon. This mountain, which is 6,100 feet high, affords a view of the Shuswap River, and the streams supplying Vernon and Armstrong with water. It also overlooks great stretches of the irrigation lands lying into the head of the Okanagan Lake.

Kelewin is the starting point of the fifth line, and White Mountain has been selected as the station for the outpost. The distance of the line is nineteen miles, and the height of the peak is estimated at 6,000. The view embraces the watershed at Mission Creek, the lower Okanagan Lake, and the head waters of the Kettle River.

Yet another telephone line has been strung from Revelstoke to Big Bend and completed. This line is not yet completed, but work on it is progressing now. As a matter of fact, ten miles have been laid. It is expected that 70 miles will be laid before the year closes.

This line is being laid in conjunction with the Dominion Forestry Branch, the Dominion paying for the cost of the construction through the railway belt. The Provincial Forestry Department is actually placing the line, but will hand it over to the Federal Department at cost. The distance under the jurisdiction of

THE DYSPLECTIC'S DREAM IS A GOOD MEAL

And He Could Most Completely Enjoy It If He Ate a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After It.

One of the greatest horrors of dyspepsia sufferers is the fear of food consequences. They know from past experiences that meats, vegetables and fluids will not agree with them. The stomach tells them so, and thus after awhile they actually learn to abhor such dishes.

But often in their dreams they experience the joys of eating a hearty soup-to-nuts meal of the good old fashioned kind. When they awake the old fear is still with them.

"He could eat a meal like that if he took a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet."

Of course this fear of food is natural. It arises from an abused and diseased digestion, but the moment you put into the stomach along with the food you eat the very elements that will digest the meal you will suffer no evil effects, and thus lose your fear of food.

Such elements are contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and they are so powerful and yet so thoroughly natural that of themselves, when placed in a glass tumbler with a mixed food, they will actually digest that food.

More than the mere act of digesting the meal eaten, they go into the blood and thus enrich all the digestive machinery of man so that when the next meal is eaten the fluids are stronger and more capable of doing their work.

A little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet taken after each meal will quickly restore the dyspeptic's digestion so he can enjoy the meal of his dreams in reality.

Any day this month when you don't feel just right, remember this, we believe in Prophyllades, the science of prevention—we want to prevent you from feeling depressed, run down, dejected, discouraged—and we stand ready to supply the best tonic in the world, Le, a new suit of clothes. There's nothing so bracing to the majority of men.

Was it Lord Bacon or Montaigne who said that whenever things looked blue he always braced himself up by donning a new suit? The style and fit this season surpass all previous ones. Browns and greys in many shades prevail as well as blues and blue greys. Prices, chiefly $15 to $25; but some lower and some higher.

then, he attracted so much attention that "Connie" Mack heard of him and wanted to hire him for his athletics, guaranteeing he would take care of him like a father and bring the boy up right when his parents objected to professional baseball as a career...

After Snodgrass had gained a foothold on the Giants in 1908, he booted his pal and brother native son to McGraw who sent Shafer a contract and ordered him to report for spring practice in 1909...

TO MAKE ST. JOHN TERMINUS OF GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY

Montreal, Sept. 30.—The transportation of the terminals and offices of the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific railways from Boston and Portland to St. John (N. B.), an enormous engineering and financial operation which would take at least three years to consummate, is under the serious consideration of the Grand Trunk executive officials, and Mayor J. H. Frink, of St. John, is in Montreal today in conference with them.

E. J. Chamberlin, President of the Grand Trunk, is out of the city and will be away for two or three weeks, but it was intimated to Mr. Frink in the course of a long conference with other officials this morning, that Mr. Chamberlin is to make a visit of personal inspection to St. John in the near future with a view to considering the maritime city as the site for the Grand Trunk terminals.

"The chief part of the business which was done in the conference," Dr. Frink told a representative of the Montreal Star, "was of a semi-private nature, and I am not at liberty to disclose the details until I have reported to my colleagues in the St. John City Council."

"I may state, however, that the prospects for securing the terminals for St. John never looked brighter, and Mr. Chamberlin's promise of a visit to our city within, probably, the next two months, is a step which has given me much encouragement."

Cohan has written three stories for the Times on the world's series which will begin on Monday, Oct. 6. They are full of funny remarks, thoroughly Cohanesque, but they deal out baseball joy by the chunk.

ELY'S CREAM BALM OPENS CLOGGED NOSTRILS AND HEAD--CATARRH GOES

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely, Nasty Discharge Stops, Head Colds and Dull Headache Vanish. Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and clogged-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm," at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages, stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous droppings into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

AGAIN MR. BORDEN IS CRITICIZED BY WORDS FROM HIS OWN LIPS

Why Country Prospers Under Liberals and Hard Times Follow Tory Rule (Vancouver Sunnet) Mr. Borden, as leader of the opposition, occasionally burst forth into speech on the subject of extravagance. This is a habit with opposition leaders, perhaps, but the present prime minister was not an exception.

Mr. Borden, as leader of the opposition, occasionally burst forth into speech on the subject of extravagance. This is a habit with opposition leaders, perhaps, but the present prime minister was not an exception. He even declared, in 1910, that the huge expenditures of the administration in power were in themselves evidence of improper and corrupt practices.

The figures relate a story of prodigality and useless expenses seldom equalled in any country. People often ask why it is that under a Liberal government the country is always prosperous, and that hard times follow close on the heels of a Tory administration. The answer may be found in the record of public expenses. An increase in expenditures of nearly sixty per cent. since Mr. Borden came into power should be sufficient to explain the reason.

Since confederation the forests of Canada have produced $1,321,000,000 worth of lumber. These, and many other statements of unusual interest are contained in an illustrated article from the pen of R. L. Campbell

NO STOMACH MISERY, INDIGESTION, GAS, SOURNESS--PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Time fit. In Five Minutes Your Sick, Upset Stomach Feels Fine

Sour, sick, upset stomach, indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia, when the food you eat ferments into gases and stubborn lumps; your head aches and you feel sick and miserable, that's when you realize the magic in Pape's Diapepsin.

It makes stomach distress go in five minutes. If your stomach is in a revolt—if you "regain" the regular, but alas, I soon became aware that it required the brush of genius to transmit my dream to canvas.

"Ladies! Secret to Darken Gray Hair

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Agent—Watson's Drug Store.

Among these teams there are several men who have played as professionals in the big football leagues in England, and if the league is formed one good sport is looked for. Only 19 But Has a Ring Record

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Milwaukee, Sept. 28—Joe Azevedo, a young light weight, who defeated Ad Wolgast in a ten round bout at Oakland, Cal., recently, is not a Mexican as has been stated in many papers, but a Portuguese, a about the only one who has ever made any kind of success in the ring. He was born in Portugal and crossed to the United States when quite young. He is only 19 years of age but he has had plenty of experience in the ring around San Francisco and Oakland, having had about fifteen battles, with only one defeat and that a point decision to Frankie Burns. In this battle Burns failed to make the weight, but Joe took him on just the same. He has had several 20-round fights and has always made a good fight. His defeat of Wolgast came as a surprise, for the former champion was considered altogether too good for any youngster like the Portuguese boy. He proved too fast for even the hustling Cadillac bearcat and earned the decision without a protest from Ad or anyone else. Azevedo says he intends to go after big game now and may make a trip east with his manager, Jimmy Rohan, who has piloted him so successfully thus far. He has challenged Willie Ritchie to combat, but the champion has not given him any consideration yet. You can't always tell; Willie may change his mind about the boy.

RING Bouts Tonight. Al McCoy vs J. Howard, Staten Island. Jack (Twin) Sullivan vs Tom McMahon, Erie, Pa.

Matched for Ten Rounds. Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 30—Jack Dillon, local claimant to the middle-weight boxing championship, and Gus Christie, of Milwaukee, were matched today to box ten rounds in Terre Haute, Ind., between October 8 and 10. Christie has been training here for some time.

Gave "K-O" a Hard Battle. New York, Sept. 30—"Knock-out" Brown, a rugged East Side light weight, made his first appearance in a local ring since his return from the Pacific Coast and had the better of Danny Ridge in a ten round bout tonight. Ridge did superior work in the first three rounds. Brown went to the floor from a hard right to the jaw in the first round, but he was up immediately. After the third round Brown's experience told and he outboxed Ridge in the next six rounds. The tenth was even both men trying hard for a knockout. Both weighed in the neighborhood of 130 pounds.

Battling Levisky of Philadelphia, gave a bad beating to Jack Keating of Brooklyn in every one of the ten rounds of their fight. Levisky weighed 166 pounds, conceding twenty-two pounds to his opponent.

A Quick One. Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 1—Phil Brock, of Cleveland, knocked out Eddie Forrest of Philadelphia in the first round of their scheduled ten round bout here last night. The two men were in the ring just one minute and twenty-seven seconds. A right hook to the jaw put Forrest out for the count.

THE TURF Columbus Races. Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 30—Pronounced favorites in the three pacing races on the Columbus Grand Circuit program today were winners, but the Columbus stake for 208 trotters did not go to the favorite, Robert Milroi. Cheney, the Texas mare, won it after the first heat had been taken by the four-year-old mare Rhythmel. Each heat was under 2:07, and the fastest was 2:05 1/2. Rhythmel was beaten down in the second heat and was distanced in the third one.

Directum I. and Frank Bogash Jr. did not meet, though they were both eligible to the Board of Trade stake, which the East View pacer won handily in straight heats. His best time, 2:02 1/2, was within a quarter of a second of his record.

Frank Bogash Jr. was raced in the Arch City stake, the feature of which was the contest for the place between Del Rey and Foote Prince. In the final heat Driver Murphy did not slow Frank Bogash Jr. down near the finish, and his pacer took a new mark, 2:02 1/2.

Great Scott won the 216 pace in straight heats. Driver George Kyger, after placing Polly Ann twice, was unseated and the driving assigned to Chas. Valentine. After the change the mare finished third, as the three-year-old, Homer Baughman, rushed along the pole and was second to Great Scott.

Merrily over the land I follow the jolly Rover—I am trained to eat out of his hand. I am the Habes Corpus—I, too, am a merry Rover! I have been trained to move lively When jumping through and over.

Nemesis unhands him and slinks away, while the Safe Insane exits, leaning on the arm of the Habes Corpus, while the other members of the cast follow, frisking happily and plucking at his suit of green.

COST OF DOING BUSINESS

(American Machinist). A manufacturing plant is in reality a collection of small factories. The separation of these departments is one of the first steps in securing accurate knowledge of costs. Some may best be grouped under general expense, this depending entirely on the conditions, as no rules fit all cases. The term "productive labor" is hardly as correct as "recorded labor"—all labor being productive, but only certain kinds recorded as producing goods. What is recorded in one plant may not be in another, writes Edward T. Runge.

If an outside company purchased the entire output of your factory, what would remain of your organization? This remainder represents your plant proper. The part cut off was the expense to advertise and distribute the product. It is, therefore, proper to figure the cost of an article loaded in the car ready to ship, as the factory cost; to this add an additional expense for distributing it. We often find a factory making a profit and the selling end tossing it away, or the reverse is true.

SIX ALREADY AND A SEVENTH ASSURED

Entries For Next Week's Cycle Race — Good Contest Also in Running Race

One week from today the twenty mile bicycle race and the ten mile road race under the auspices of the St. John Lodge of Moose, will take place. The committee met last evening at the office of A. W. Covey to complete the arrangements. There are already six entries for the bicycle race and a seventh is practically assured, and there can be no question that this will be the most keenly contested bicycle race of the winter series for the Dunlop trophy. Entries have been received from Winchester of Charlottetown, Cochrane of Bloomfield, and four local men, Walsh, Milton, Gallet and Spearman. The entry of Oulton of Amherst is expected today or tomorrow.

The races will start at three o'clock. Because of the work being done on the Marsh road, this side of the One Mile House, it will be necessary for the competitors to go from Cooper's corner, on the Westmorland road to Kane's corner, and thence across to the One Mile House following the following route on their return. The competitors in the two races will be entertained that evening at a smoker in the Moose Home, and Mayor Frink will be asked to present the prizes.

HOME TROUBLE TOLD OF IN POLICE COURT

A family quarrel received a brief but spicy airing in the police court this morning. The kernel of the whole trouble was Mrs. Benjamin Fish swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband, charging him with assault and threatening to stab her with a jack-knife. Benjamin was in court and quiet under the action of his wife. Moreover he was indignant at the court because it refused to issue a warrant for him, for the arrest of his son on charge of assault. He became indignant when his wife gave evidence against him and when she left the stand rushed from the court before he could ask her any questions. He appealed to the judge to bring her back, but she didn't come. He vociferated freely and eloquently, and was sent into jail until afternoon.

According to Mrs. Fish her husband came home last night after having been drinking. Her son, she said, was spending a week's vacation in the city with her at Frederick street. As soon as Benjamin came in he began to wrangle with the son. "He hauled a jack knife on me and he would stick it in me if I tried to get past him," said Mrs. Fish. "He broke the table, smashed the lamp and nearly all the furniture in the house, last night he ordered me to move from the house and I have nowhere to go."

Here Fish interrupted and said he wanted to have his son arrested for assault. He was instructed to sit down, which he did, after a spicy little speech. "My son didn't assault him at all," said Mrs. Fish. "He just bumped his head against the wall, and put a few lumps on it, just to keep him quiet." The two started to cross-question one another on family matters and they had gained such headway, that it was difficult to stop them. "Is there no way that I can get separated from this man. I don't want to live with him at all. He doesn't keep me. The son he wants arrested has paid my rent for the last ten years, and he just came here for his holidays. I don't want to live with him." Mr. Fish rose to his feet and protested that the court should issue his warrant.

Mrs. Fish left the witness box and rushed from the room. The prisoner rose again and called her back. "I want to ask her some questions. You won't bring her back you say. Well this is some court. You won't give a fellow a show at all. Do you think I'm going to let my wife chase me with a knife and my son kick me? Nothin' doin'."
