THIEVES BROKE INTO
WOODSTOCK STATION

Things Generally Upset But Nothing Taken.

No Clue to the Criminals—Staging Collapsed Lattic Painter Fall to the Ground—Injuries Serious

(Special to the Star.) WOODSTOCK, N. B., Aug. 21.—The Queen street station here was broken into by robbers last night, but nothing was taken. The station was unlocked by the agent, and the display of the intruders must have been great. Beyond a general upsetting no damage was done. There is no clue to the criminals. George Sutton, employed as a painter on the new residence being built for A. Henderson, met with a bad accident this morning owing to the collapse of a staging. He was thrown to the ground, had several ribs broken and his spine injured. Dr. Prescott is in attendance and considers the case very serious. Sutton up to a few days ago had been working for the Electric Light Company for many years.

ARCHITECTS APPLY FOR SPECIAL LEGISLATION

MONTREAL, Aug. 20.—The Dominion Association of Architects in session here has decided to apply to the Dominion government for an act of incorporation, the chief feature of which will be a clause making the architectural profession a closed one. If this project of incorporation becomes law it will mean that all the architects of the Dominion will be bound in a close corporation and anyone to exercise the profession must be properly certified by a board of examiners. The question was raised whether or not the federal government would grant a charter to this end, but it was stated authoritatively that it had full power to do so and that such an act would not interfere with any provincial rights already obtained.

HEAVY SENTENCE FOR
NEWARK, N. J., FORGER

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Geo. M. Lanning, former postmaster and president of the Board of Education, of Florham Park, N. J., who was charged with having had discounted by the Federal Trust Company of Newark, two notes aggregating $10,000 bearing the forged endorsements of the mayor and clerk of the Borough, was yesterday sentenced to seven years at hard labor in terms to run concurrently. Judge Jay Teneyck inflicted the maximum penalty. Owing to an ailment, from which the prisoner is suffering, it is believed he will not live out the term.

MARRIED IN AMHERST.

AMHERST, N. S., Aug. 21.—The marriage of Miss Sadie Elderkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elderkin of Amherst, to Edward A. Hicks, of Bridgetown, took place here this morning. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Gates, pastor of the Methodist church, of which the bride was an active member. There were about one hundred invited guests present. Many valuable gifts were presented to the bride who is deservedly popular in Amherst. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple left on the Maritime for Halifax and to points in the Annapolis Valley.

THIS MAN WAS A WOMAN

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—An individual who apparently was a young Englishman, secured employment in an Ottawa dry goods store last winter and proved a success behind the counter. Articles have been missing from the store, and suspicion falling on the young man a personal search was instituted in the office of the manager. The operation revealed the fact that the clerk was not a man but a woman. A number of the missing articles were found in her room. She was dismissed from the service of the firm, but the manager decided that criminal proceedings should not be instituted.

Rev. Dr. Rickard of New York arrived in the city today and will proceed to Baywater to his summer cottage for a few weeks.

Bryan Wrecked Four Times on Way to Chateaugua

Last Time Was on the Chicago and Northwestern and He Had a Narrow Escape from Injury

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—A despatch from Belvidere, Ill., says: As Wm. Jennings Bryan, adjutant his necktie and brushed the slanders from his trousers and emerging safely from a wreck near here yesterday on the Chicago and Northwestern road, he reflectively murmured "four" then drawing out his diary he noted down the location and the date with these words "fourth time a wreck has occurred on my various journeys to speak at the Rockford Chateaugua. Where is the silver lining?" With words of encouragement he wended their way up the track for more than a mile and a half. At Belvidere Mr. Bryan took a trolley car and made the Chateaugua grounds behind schedule time. The wreck was caused by the baggage car taking an open switch. Three coaches were derailed. Mr. Bryan was in one of the day coaches that was derailed.

HORRIBLE MURDER
AT CAMDEN, N. J.

CAMDEN, N. J., Aug. 20.—Mrs. F. Horner, aged 67 years, wife of Edward Horner, a farmer, living near Merchantville, and Mrs. Victoria Napoli, a servant, were killed today in this house. It is charged by Charles Gibson, a negro, who was formerly employed on the farm. The assassin first set fire to the Horner barn to attract attention, then he entered the household and thus enable him to rob the place with freedom, but while Horner and Mrs. Napoli's husband were trying to rescue some of the horses from the barn, Mrs. Horner and her servant came upon the negro in the act of robbing the house. The robber attacked the women with an axe and practically hacked them to pieces. Mrs. Napoli's head was severed and Mrs. Napoli's head was crushed in, her body covered with gashes. Horner and others who were at the fire returned to the house to find the body of Mrs. Horner lying in a pool of blood and Mrs. Napoli, still alive, lying nearby, covered with blood. She died without regaining consciousness, shortly after being admitted to a hospital in this city. An investigation showed that two gold watches had been taken also a sum of money, and the police located the watches in a pawnshop in Philadelphia where they had been pledged by a negro. The pawn-broker, according to the police, identified Gibson as the man who pawned the watches and he was arrested. Tickets for the watches were found in his possession. Stephen Dorsey, another negro, who was with him, was also arrested, though the police do not believe that he had anything to do with the murder. Gibson was discharged by Horner some time ago applied for work at the farm yesterday and was told he could sleep in the barn and have work in the morning. Nothing further was seen of Gibson until early this morning when the police were running to this fire declare that they saw the negro fleeing from the Horner home. When taken into custody, Gibson refused to make any statement regarding the murder and his supposed connection with it, but when one of the watches recovered from the pawnshop and which was marked with the name "Horner" was shown to him, and he was asked if he knew the owner, he is said to have replied, "Yes, I'm sorry for him."

PAINFUL ACCIDENT
TO BANK CLERK

(Special to the Star.) KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 21.—William Day, a bank clerk, suffered excruciating pain for twenty minutes. He was at Fort Henry, and was passing through a heavy iron door when the wind drove the door shut, catching Mr. Day's thumb in the joint. His screams hurried friends to his rescue, but the door could not be budged. Finally a lever was secured, and the door removed. His thumb was flattened.

TO CURE BLUSHING.

"A great many men blush," said a physician, "some so painfully that they come to me to be cured. The cure I recommend is an odd one. It is abandonment of over-heavy clothing, especially of woolen socks. Amusing it is how many men bluishers have a predilection for thick socks of wool. The bluishers wear light enough clothes. To them I can only recommend a nerve treatment. I advise them to make speeches at banquets, to be witnesses in murder trials, to go to teas and dances, to develop, in short, the nerve as a wrestler develops his muscles. Blushing is a difficult disorder to cure. As a rule it passes away of itself when the victim reaches his thirtieth year."

RICH NEW YORKERS
SELLING AUTOMOBILES
TO CURTAIL EXPENSES

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—More than two thousand New Yorkers, some of them ranking as millionaires, says the "World" today, have sold their automobiles within the last few weeks. Almost as many more, it is estimated by the trade have cancelled orders for machines. These automobiles represent a cost of over $15,000,000. They are now probably worth $7,000,000. "The rich man's panic" in Wall street has made all the trouble, an automobile dealer is quoted as saying, as he exhibited several letters and telegrams commending the President of the Automobile Club of America. Every dealer in high priced machines, American or imported, has stories of tell of orders cancelled by wealthy buyers. The average rich New Yorker has an expensive family and his expenditures are on a large scale. Any curtailment of income cuts off the luxuries because he lives up to his income. So the automobile has to be sacrificed.

NEWS OF CHATHAM
AND VICINITY.

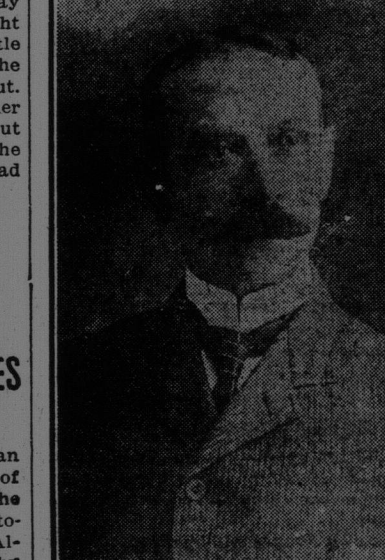

CHATHAM, N. B., Aug. 20.—The Y. M. C. A. is planning a big day on Thursday, Aug. 22nd. There will be a garden party given at Woodbury farm, where a substantial tea will be served, as well as refreshments, and in the evening a grand concert will be given. Rev. George Wood of Amherst occupied St. Andrew's pulpit on Sunday morning. The new steamer Dorothy W. was much admired last week as she carried passengers to the garden party at Millbank. The steamer is of very light draught. The temperance hall is now in full swing under the name Dime Opera, and on the opening night 450 admittances were paid. The French-Acadian meeting on Thursday was attended by about 20 people. D. T. Robichaud was the principal speaker. He called attention to the fact that English speaking members of the legislature were still elected by the French in those counties in which the Acadians were in a majority, and he was assured that equal tolerance would be shown here. It was necessary for them to bring forward a candidate for election and unless they themselves did something they could not expect the English to nominate one of their members. What is not worth asking for is not worth giving, declared Mr. Robichaud. Other speakers were J. Keir Brown, Chatham; J. F. Bourque, Newville; R. Babineau, Chatham; J. Boudreau, Newville. The opinion of the meeting was in favor of having their candidate on the opposition ticket, and the following committee was appointed to meet September 2 and choose a representative candidate: Andrew Arseneau, John B. LeBlanc, Francis Laviole, G. Polier, Rogereville; Romatin Savoy, Louis P. Robichaud, A. V. Savoy, Newville; R. Babineau, Peter Archer, Chatham; J. D. Paulin, S. Blanchard, Newville; Chas. Murrell, Nelson; Arnold Savoy, Escumac.

Interesting Addresses Delivered by the President and Secretary-Treasurer.

Resolution Unanimously Passed Favoring All Red-Line Scheme—The Mayor's Address of Welcome—Important Business to Come Up This Session

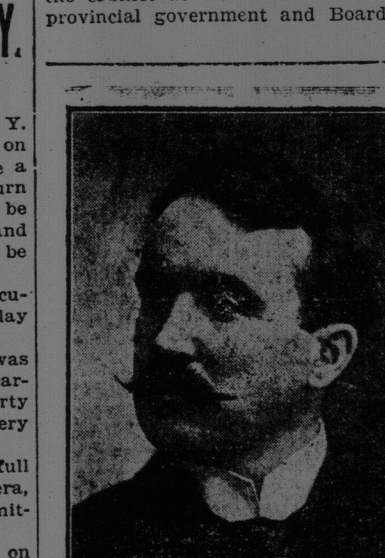

The sun is shining bright for the visiting delegates to the Maritime Board of Trade who are in the city. The first session was held this morning and while there was no crush when the proceedings opened, the members kept drifting in as their trains arrived, and the local members came as their engagements would permit. By the time of adjournment the Board of Trade rooms was the meetings are being held, was pretty well filled. The delegates were given a cordial welcome by the Mayor and the reports of the president and secretary presented. The "All Red Line" resolution, which was the first taken up, passed practically without debate. Each of the delegates was provided with a bouquet of sweet peas grown by F. W. Dykeman at his summer place at Kenford. Among the prominent figures at the meeting were C. A. Duff-Miller, H. J. Logan, M. P., Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Hon. George Hughes and E. H. Armstrong. Before President Fisher proceeded with his address Secretary Creed read letters of regret at their inability to attend from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. W. S. Fielding and other members of the cabinet as well as several of the provincial government and Boards of

In the course of his remarks that he was an intense Canadian and perhaps more particularly an intense maritime Canadian. He urged that there should be a unity of purpose. It was found at Ottawa that the New Brunswick members were yelling for New Brunswick, the Nova Scotia members for their province, the P. E. I. members for their island. Mr. Logan referred to the mention that had been made of Amherst, and attributed the success of the town to the fact that the business men worked together. He also referred to the Chignecto power scheme which originated in the brain of Edison and was taken up by a strong company and encouraged by the men of Amherst. So much power had already been taken in Amherst that the company are considering the advisability of doubling their capacity in a short time. This power generated at the pit's mouth and was transmitted to Amherst. Mr. Logan made a very interesting speech and in closing said that if he had ever done anything in the interests of the maritime provinces, he would not have been in vain.

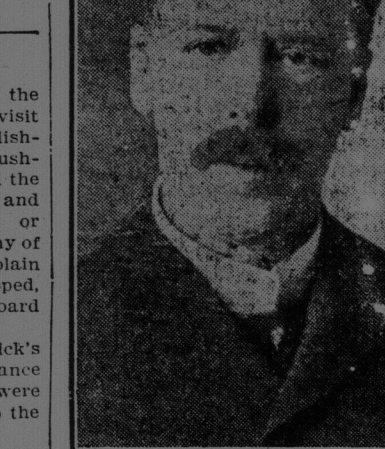

Following is a list of the delegates who have registered up to the present time: George B. Pines, Kings Co. J. Frank Hall, Lunenburg. M. G. DeWolfe, Kentville. George W. Godard, Bridgewater. W. A. Mavor, Halifax. E. C. Whitman, Cans. D. C. Crosby, Berwick. S. N. Wilson, Halifax. A. W. Collin, H. B. Short, Digby. George F. Hissett, Oxford. J. H. McRobbie, G. Fraz Fisher, W. H. Kirkpatrick, J. 1,800 PEOPLE GO WEST ON FARM LABORERS' EXCURSION

Five Special Trains Pulled Out of Union Depot Inside of Twelve Hours—Large Number of Excursionists are Women and Children—A Fine Orderly Crowd

Between the hours of eight last evening and seven this morning five excursion trains have left of, en route through St. John bearing to the wheat fields of the Northwest some seventeen or eighteen hundred harvesters. These people drawn from all parts of the Maritime Provinces and constitute part of the great exodus that takes place from these parts in the latter part of every summer. The first train of the harvest excursion pulled out of the Union Depot about 8:30 p. m. yesterday. It had on board some three hundred and seventy-five persons. Eight colonist and two freight cars made up the train. It was a Nova Scotia, the others from St. John and the lower St. John Valley. At 8:30 a second train came in from the east. It had about one hundred and fifty passengers coming from Dorchester, Springhill and vicinity. An hour later another train arrived with about three hundred men on board, drawn from Truro and Halifax. The island excursion came in at about three o'clock this morning. It came across Northumberland Strait on a special boat leaving Prince Edward Island at seven o'clock last evening and arriving at Point du Sud later. The last train is from Cape Breton Island and is expected to arrive here this morning. Each of these last named trains each carry about three hundred and fifty people. The first train of the harvest excursion was experienced at the western part of the intercolonial system. If trouble should arise it will probably be coped with as the Canadian Pacific Railway travel on each train, occupying a separate compartment in the rear of the car. One feature of the excursion of the local excursion that made for good order was the unusually large proportion of women and children. There were several family parties on board and children were quite numerous. For several hours before the train left, the station was crowded with inquiring excursionists and those who wished to bid them good-by. Scenes of parting were numerous. Fathers, mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts were in evidence, and tears and kisses of farewell were common. The harvesters themselves were of the usual type. In age they ranged from boys in their teens, in some cases in knee breeches, to men in the prime of life. Most of them looked as though they were used to hard work and could give a good account of themselves. In the matter of hand baggage, there was endless variety. Suitcases and telescope valves were most common, but biscuit boxes, kit-bags and steamer trunks could also be seen. In some cases the excursionists were a little noisy and expressed their joy at starting for the Golden West by bursting into song. One young man in a rear car could express his feelings only by singing "Loch Lomond," accompanying it by a step-dance on the asphalt paved floor of the train shed. Liquor was conspicuous by its scarcity, very few being visibly under the influence. The aftermath of the excursion will come on a few months' time, when a considerable percentage of those who went away last night will return, each "knocking" the land where they went "to grow up with the country," for all they are worth and saying that the Maritime Provinces are good enough for them. That is the way it is after every excursion.

WILL SPEND $4,000 ON PETTINGILL WHARF

Orange Peel Will Be Put to Work at Sand Point

Committee for the Selection of Director Will Report at Next Meeting—Complaints About Streets

A short meeting of the Board of Works was held yesterday afternoon. Ald. McCordick presiding, to consider the matter of work at Sand Point, again into commission on the same terms as last year, namely, 10 a day for the contractor, and a day for the work. The dredge will be put to work at the McCordick and Pettingill wharves, while the city's dredge is laid up for repair. The Orange Peel will be worked by the city's own crew. Director Peters said that it would take six weeks at the present rate and again be ready for work. The dredge will be worked by the city's own crew. The question of the strip of land belonging to the C. P. R. and desired by the city for the purpose of widening the crossing which the C. P. R. had purchased for the purpose of widening their track, was discussed and left to the Works committee, who visited the property last Saturday, with power to act.

The condition of the streets called forth a lengthy discussion. The committee appointed with the view of the purchase of tar from outside sources had no report to make, nor have they as yet secured any additional tar, so that the city has now only half the regular amount, namely, the amount which was purchased from the Street Railway before their contract was made with the Barrett-Patterson Co. Partly on account of the small quantity of tar on hand and also on account of the difficulty of getting men for street work and the amount of work to be done, the feasibility of letting out part of the work by tender was discussed. Finally, on motion of Ald. Sproul, it was decided to call for tenders for the new asphalt work. The condition of the streets and sidewalk in the various wards called forth many complaints from the various representatives. Ald. Pickett complained that the amount appropriated for the work had been used unwisely. Ald. Sproul said that he was being bothered daily by residents of his ward who wished to know why nothing was being done. Ald. Sprague complained that next to nothing was being done in his ward. Ald. Pickett said that he was not complaining, but that there was a man at work in his ward. Ald. Pickett spoke similarly and said that if at the end of the year he found that the money for his ward had been used elsewhere there would be something done. Ald. Baxter said that work is being done on Queen square but in a miserable manner, so that if the weather is not being nothing but a succession of pools of water. He asked

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR AT LOCH LOMOND

Was in Aid of All Saints Church and Was Largely Attended—The Ladies in Charge

The bazaar held yesterday afternoon at Loch Lomond in the Agricultural Hall, in aid of All Saints Church proved an entire success. It was in charge of Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. George McArthur, who were assisted by Misses Genevieve Gorman, May McArthur, Kathleen O'Neill, May Dinmore, Hazel McArthur, Hazel DeFord, Agatha Gorman, Margaret Barker, Kathleen Gorman, Miss McIntyre, Evelyn O'Neill and Miss Young.

There were the usual lottery features fancy work tables, candy table and all the other tables which make a fair worth while. Mayor Sears who had gone to Loch Lomond on a little fishing expedition was captured by a delegation who were looking for him to open the fair. Mayor Sears when found was equipped with the best rod and line in the country which Capt. Fleming had lent him. The sound of the festivities at the Hall had been too much for the trout and they were all snugly hiding at the bottom of the lake.

At the request of the delegation Mayor Sears visited the hall, although the fair had been opened, addressed those present, numbering about 150, in a happy fashion. He was loudly applauded. He suggested that the gentlemen should not make the mistake of leaving the hall with any spare coin in their pockets and took up a collection in his hat which netted $375.

His worship was enthusiastic last night about the many pretty girls at Loch Lomond, and said that no other suburb that he had visited was in its class. The mayor also lost his lunch for the babies and in an unfortified baby show he was asked to guess the weight of some of these charmers.

No tidings have yet been heard of Charles Hamilton, who has been missing since last Friday. His brother said last evening that a number of friends had been out searching for him. The missing man is about 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs two hundred pounds. His complexion is dark and he wears a black moustache. He is dressed in a black suit and hard hat. His brother said that he had often left home before. He fears that he may keep in hiding until he dies from starvation and exposure.

Change of Bill at Nickel Today
Full care will take wings if you attend the new show at the Nickel for this is change day and the assortment of pictures is bound to bring the laughs and loud. For instance it will be great fun to see the predicaments a cheap watch got its owner into in merry old England. The Dummy will tell the tale of a shop was figure and two intoxicated scavengers; Too Stout will give pictorial evidence of the drawbacks of obesity; Spring Gardening with a throw a slight on the enthusiasm of backyard horticulturists; but The Abduction is going to be a stringing drama and tragedy. Mr. Brown and Miss Fox will sing and Mr. Swane is down for some new banjo music. Altogether the new show is bound to please as usual for it has the merit of novelty and good photography.

WARSAW, Aug. 20.—Two brothers named Jan and Jan Karol Niedowidzki were confined in Warsaw prison, the former being sentenced to three months' imprisonment for the political offense, and the latter to death for robbery with violence.

One day the political prisoner was led out, and in spite of his protests, the mistake was discovered a few hours later and the governor has now commuted the death sentence of the surviving brother to one of eight months' imprisonment.

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—The Manufacturers' Association has sent a commendation of the Secretary of State endorsing the campaign of the commercial travellers and bank clerks to have Thanksgiving fixed for Monday instead of Thursday as customary. The matter will probably be considered by the government at its next meeting.

R. L. BORDEN INAUGURATES HIS TOUR OF CANADA AT HALIFAX MEETING

Lays Down Principles on Which He Hopes to Win at Next Election — Spoke at Length on What His Party is Prepared to Do if Elected — Were Few Interruptions.

HALIFAX, Aug. 20.—Under most auspicious weather conditions and to the accompaniment of the music of St. Patrick's band which was the prime feature of the evening, R. L. Borden inaugurated his tour of the Dominion at the Empira Hotel tonight.

R. L. BORDEN.

The attendance was large, many ladies being present and quite one third, probably more of the audience being Liberals.

Senator Macken was chairman and in addition to Mr. Borden, J. G. H. Bergeron, M.P., J. C. O'Mullin and Professor L. C. Weldon were the speakers of the evening.

There were a number of Conservatives of prominence in the city and party workers from the various wards and Messrs. A. C. Bell, C. E. Tanner, M. P. P., and J. M. Hallis, M.P.P. of Ficton, on the platform.

Mr. Borden's speech was evidently prepared as an answer to the challenges of critics in his own party, who have been assailing him for his lack of initiative and of policy. He therefore undertook to elucidate a policy which Senator Macken maladroitness predicted would probably be nothing more than the old policy of the Conservative party, to which he was so devoted and to frame a platform upon which he would stand in the next election.

Mr. Borden was received with prolonged applause as he arose to speak, and was heard with courteous attention throughout his address.

When the name of Sir Charles Tupper was mentioned it was enthusiastically applauded.

Mr. Borden spoke for one hour and a half and received a good hearing. He explained that after his defeat in 1904 in Halifax he determined to relinquish his leadership of the Conservative party, but was prevailed upon to retain it by the unanimous request of the Conservative members of the Dominion House.

What Good Government is

There were, he said, three essentials of good government: Honest appropriation and expenditure of public money. Appointments to the civil service, based not alone on party service.

Elections free from taint of corruption.

On these headings he dwelt for over an hour. A government, he wanted to say, despite what may be said to the contrary, was exactly what a people made it. Had these essentials been observed by the party in power, and it was needless to say that in Mr. Borden's opinion they were not, the curtain would have gone down there and then. He frankly confessed that it was a good thing that the party went out of power when it did. He should have even gone further and said it would have been better if it had gone out sooner than it did.

He then went into the question of Liberal pledges, appropriation and expenditure, and spoke at length on the government's voting down all efforts at investigation. He said that appointments to office were devoid of any merit except political efficiency. What about clean elections? He was not bigoted enough to say that the Conservative party have not run elections that are not clean. But he would confess that there was nothing like it since 1896, meaning the Liberals' attitude. He then gave his impression of the attitude of the two parties regarding political reform. The government had promised to bring down a bill looking to this. He freely confessed that the law as it is is strictly stringent. With regard to saw-offs both parties are at fault. There should be a bill that enacts that no election petition can be withdrawn until sufficient reason for such an action is forthcoming. It is of no use for us to cry out corruption unless we are prepared to carry out a campaign of purity. It was not good enough to shout purity and then resort to the same means as our opponents. When you are beaten see that the law is tried to the full and that men are brought to justice. Do not be content with the tools, get at some of the respectable rascals and see that a few go to the penitentiary.

Mr. Borden solemnly said: We may find it hard to combat certain influences in our own party as some might like to adhere to the methods of the other party. Complete reforms of the civil service law then took his attention. Through and complete reform of the law was needed, he said. He did not believe that the competitive system was best; with some appointments notably it can never apply.

Then he came to the Senate and its reform. He realized the dangers of an elective Senate. But it may be a good thing upon us. No such important change should be made without the consent of the provinces. He stood for a reform which would make it a representative body.

As regards immigration Mr. Borden was of the opinion that the east should share in the influx of new settlers, quality rather than quantity to be emphasized was our requisite. Abolition of the bonus system and a rigid inspection of new comers was also his policy. He believed in the management of the public domain in the interest of the people.

The Intercolonial

Touching on the government owned railways he said that the I. C. R. had not proved a very flattering testimonial to that system. But he would say that a denial to govern a railway is a denial to govern a right of self-government. The I. C. R. should be freed from all partisan control and placed under a commission.

The Conservatives Ready

When the people call for it, a Conservative government will be ready to extend its hand to them. Next he came to the railway commission. It was one of the pieces of legislation which he wanted to reorganize and call it the public utilities commission. It should control our system of public telegraphs and telephones. We have now as it is nearly 7,000 miles of state-owned telegraph lines in Canada. He also advocated the improvement of postal facilities such as the free rural mail delivery. He would say one thing that the post office department under both governments was run more on the principle of business than any other department.

They are not for any class, but for the good of the country as a whole. Mr. Borden also pledged the Conservative party to mutual preferential trade within the Empire. He gave the credit for the idea to Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Charles Tupper. He argued that as regards the two new provinces, Saskatchewan and Alberta, that the public lands should be given to the people.

Although not going exhaustively into the all-red line proposal, he pool-pooled any credit being given to Laurier. Sir Charles Tupper urged this in 1899. Sir Wilfrid was not the author. He was not prepared to discuss the project until he knew more about it, but he would say that a fast Atlantic service was a desirable thing, but this should not be accepted to a cheap freight service. He does not intend to be leading the opposition after the next election; what he intends to do he did not say. The advent of the Conservative party to power should not be viewed in the light of a party triumph, but as a service that should be accepted as coming from the people.

"Let the people send to our aid at the next election a reinforcement of sixty men, the best that Canada can provide, pledged to stand for a progressive policy, to maintain the rights of the people, to uphold honest government and no other, to enforce decency in public life, and in return you have my pledge that in any administration that I may be called upon to form your wishes shall be observed."

WILL SUBMIT NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES IN SPITE TO THE HAGUE PEACE CONFERENCE

Case Will Be Taken There as Result of Negotiations in London Between the Foreign Office and Ambassador Whitelaw Reid — No Other Solution in Sight.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The American government, which has taken the lead at The Hague peace conference in endeavoring to promote arbitration, will be responsible for giving The Hague tribunal the most important case yet submitted to it in the Newfoundland fisheries dispute, which undoubtedly will be taken there as a result of the negotiations conducted in London between the foreign office and the American ambassador, Whitelaw Reid. Both the foreign office and the embassy maintain diplomatic reserve, but it has been learned from unquestionable sources that the long correspondence between the two governments made it seem clear that their contentions could not be harmonized and had reached an impasse. Finally Mr. Reid presented a proposal to submit the dispute to the arbitration of The Hague tribunal, having the authority of President Roosevelt and Secretary Root to do so. After a week or two of consideration the British government accepted the proposal and then the American government proposed that for another year, while the matter was in process of arbitration, the fisheries would be conducted as they were last year under the same modus vivendi.

There has been delay in concluding the arrangement. While the British government has secured the assent of Sir Robert Bodd, the Newfoundland premier, to the agreement, Sir Robert will undoubtedly be reluctant to accept the modus vivendi which he opposed strongly last season. However, there is little doubt that the agreement will be enforced and that the fisheries during the new season beginning next week will be conducted on the same method as the last.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Secretary Root's proposition to submit to arbitration a question of so much importance as a matter of principle as this between Great Britain and the United States, has arisen over the assertion by Newfoundland of the right of that colony to pass local laws restricting fishing privileges conferred by treaty upon American citizens. Newfoundland's action is based upon the plea that the laws are equally applicable to Newfoundlanders, or in other words are precisely similar to laws intended for the protection of fisheries, which the Newfoundland government is framed with the deliberate purpose of manifesting the confidence of the American government in the justice in this method of settling such international disputes. The United States has been by far the best client of The Hague tribunal, in fact nearly all cases arbitrated before that body have come before it in the suggestion of America, and involve matters in which the government had a personal interest. So the agreement to arbitrate the Newfoundland fishery dispute, coming at a time when the second Hague conference is about to act in a plenary way upon the American proposal for a permanent tribunal, is calculated to strengthen the hands of the delegates, who already favor that proposition. The principal obstacle which had to be overcome in order to secure an agreement with Great Britain was the reluctance of the Newfoundlanders to renew in precise terms the modus vivendi under which the fisheries were conducted last season. They objected particularly to Sunday fishing by the American smacks, while their own people were prevented from doing so and also to the shipping of Newfoundlanders to make up the crews of the Gloucester fishing boats. It is understood that with the consent of the State Department, Ambassador Reid yielded the first point relative to Sunday fishing but it is not yet known here what disposition was made of the second objection.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Great Britain has accepted the proposition of the United States to submit the fisheries dispute to arbitration at The Hague. While the matter is in progress of arbitration the fisheries will be conducted under the same modus vivendi as last year.

HOMES IN ST. JOHN.

The problem of securing suitable residential accommodation is becoming a serious one in St. John, and perhaps equally serious in other Canadian cities. At the same time it is strangely true that there are very many vacant houses here, not tumble-down shacks, but structures of the better class. There are also many offered for sale but even though the prices fixed are far below present values, they are too high for the ordinary prospective purchaser, and few offers are being made. In all real estate transactions as well as in industrial, there is evident a strong suspicion that good times will not last forever, a foreboding that a period of depression is soon to be experienced, and that investments at the present inflated values would be extremely unwise. A score of the best representatives of the older families who have been living on fixed incomes and who are unable to make both ends meet in the existing reign of high living, are seeking more economical accommodation either in this city or elsewhere, and are endeavoring to sell their homes.

Landowners will not build. Lumber and labor are away up, money is scarce, and real estate does not offer a sufficiently strong inducement for investment. The money can earn more with less risk than could be received from rentals, and as a result of this, building in St. John in so far as real-estate is concerned is practically at a standstill. Some few citizens have during the past year put up homes for themselves, but the new houses of moderate value, erected for rental can be numbered on the fingers. The supply is not sufficient to overcome the loss by fire, and the effect of time. The population is increasing steadily though slowly, and it is becoming a matter of some concern to the citizen of limited means to secure a comfortable home at a figure within reason. This is not wholly due to the actual scarcity of houses, but partly to the fact that rents have increased out of all proportion to salary advances, and many residences have thus been placed beyond the means of the ordinary individual.

A NEW CIRCLE.

As the result of two treaties signed within the past few weeks a new triple alliance has indirectly been formed which will guarantee in a large degree the peace of Asia. Britain and Japan have been bound for some time by an offensive and defensive alliance, which includes within its terms a definite understanding as regards commercial privileges. Only a few days ago Japan and Russia, erstwhile contestants for supremacy in Manchuria, concluded an agreement, the exact contents of which have not yet been announced, but which, according to meagre advices, guarantees the present territorial integrity, confirms in all respects the treaty of Portsmouth, recognizes the independence of China and its inviolability from outside aggression, and provides for the open door for all nations to that country. Almost on the same day Britain and Russia entered into a compact, which, according to report, settles for the period of existence of the treaty the disquieting question of the Indian frontier, and outlines definitely the rights of each of the parties in Asia. The three treaties now in existence, while not binding the participants in a mutually defensive alliance, draw them together in the interests of peace in Asia, and provide a guarantee much needed for that portion of the earth. Germany, it is noticed, is not included in any of these recent arrangements, although German commerce in the east is of much importance.

ALMOST A FAILURE.

There are indications that the Hague convention, which assembled two months ago chiefly for the purpose of advancing the cause of peace, is drawing to a close. Some of the delegates are preparing to leave for home, but previous to their departure a plenary session of the conference will be held for the purpose of endorsing what has already been arranged in committee. Until this session is at an end the fruits of the convention will not be known, for there may be, and no doubt are, numbers of questions of more or less importance which are only awaiting endorsement. Yet it is clearly seen that in so far as disarmament is concerned this conference has not been any more successful than was anticipated. The delegate, according to advices so far received, will content themselves with expressing the opinion that limitation of armament is desirable.

There will consequently be nothing done, the conference will have been of no effect in this regard, and the question of limitation of armament or disarmament will continue as it always must, be a subject of academic discussion. One of the tangible results of the convention still to be finally agreed upon, will be the international court, the formation of which has not yet been arranged, though the principles of this permanent institution have been exhaustively considered. This proposal has received the endorsement of several of the most powerful nations, and in course of time may become an important tribunal. The extension of the red cross, more definite rulings on neutrality contraband, prizes, and the rights of shipping have been prepared and passed, but peace has been neglected. On the contrary, the whole tendency of the convention has been to provide for more conveniently carrying on warfare.

Women's rights sometimes lead to peculiar conditions. As a reason for attempting to commit suicide at Helmingfors, the husband of one of the female deputies in the Finnish parliament states that his wife is so occupied with political work that she neglects her home. The misery to which the husband and family were reduced caused his act. The man is without work, and says that although his wife receives fifteen pounds a month as a member of parliament she allows only sixpence a day for household expenses, and that he and the children are suffering from lack of nourishment.

Sir Percy Clouard, the eminent Canadian engineer, whose achievements in Africa and elsewhere have won him fame, is again being made use of by the British government. He has been selected to build the four hundred miles of railway in Nigeria for the purpose of developing the cotton industry.

A WOMAN'S REASON—BECAUSE!

He wasn't handsome, hadn't fame, He bore no proud ancestral name; Four figures at the very most, Could sum the wealth he had to boast. To culture he made slight pretense, His wit was rather forced and dense; His chance for winning her seemed slim, And yet—she fell in love with him!

By no means now was he a fool; He had a courage calm and cool, And perseverance of the kind That shuts its eyes and goes it blind; But, peace or war,—rain or snow, Whatever occurs, contrives to go; Not traits that win a heart, you'll say, And yet—she married him, one day.

"He has his faults, and who has not?" She said, when friends her reason sought For wedding him. "He's plain, 'tis true, I see all that as well as you! My love's not blind to such extent, That I can't see his faults and flaws, And yet—I love him—just because!"

CHRONOLOGY OF INVENTIONS.

Buckles were first made in 1630. The torpedo was first made in 1777. The first horse railroad was built in 1825. Brandy was first made in France in 1310. Billiards were invented in France in 1471. The folding envelope was first used in 1839. The velocipede was invented by Drais in 1817. Coal oil was first used as an illuminant in 1828. Steel needles were first made in England in 1545. Barometers were first made by Torricelli in 1643. Bombshells were first made in Holland in 1495. The first almanac was printed in Hungary in 1470. Iron pavements were first laid in London in 1817. Roller skates were invented by Plympton in 1823. Covered carriages were first used in England in 1830. The first iron wire was drawn at Nuremberg in 1831. The first plaster cast was made by Verocchio in 1470. Advertisements first appeared in newspapers in 1623. The first pipe organ was made by Archimedes in 220 B. C. Stem-winding watches were the invention of Noel in 1831. The first pair of spectacles was made by an Italian in 1289. The game of backgammon was invented by the Chinese scholars in 1109 B. C. The dinner fork was introduced into Italy in 1469, and into England in 1608. Glass mirrors were known in A. D. 23, but the art of making them was lost and not recovered until 1269 in Venice.

A WORSE ROAR.

It was the morning after their arrival at a seaside resort. "I have often heard of the roar of the ocean," she said, dreamily, "but I never knew it sounded like that." "That's not the roar of the ocean," answered her more experienced husband. "That's the roar of a departing guest who has just been presented with his bill."

IN THE WOODS FOR SPRUCE GUM

Men Who Make a Business of the April Trip.

From 25 to 50 Work the Maine Woods Each Spring—Leases From the Lumbermen—May Pick $3 Worth in a Day.

In the early days of April from twenty-five to fifty canvas clad young men start for the up-river woods from Bangor, Me., and nearby towns to collect spruce gum from the more than 20,000,000 feet of spruce timber still standing in the northern forests of Maine.

Not a few of these men are the well to do sons of old families, who go "gumming" partly for profit and partly as a pastime. A majority, however, are trained climbers who know the woods and who break away from sidewalks and electric lights to gain health and money at a time of the year when lumbering operations are drawing to a close and before the streams open up for driving.

Instead of being a solitary and silent man the gum picker as a rule is as talkative as a book agent and as ingratiating as a poor hickman in straitened circumstances, says the Boston Herald. For, in order to secure exclusive control over the gum territory he desires to monopolize, the picker must claim lease over spruce timber lands whose owners he has never met. Before he can do this he must ingratiate himself into the favor of the camp bosses and their subordinates. A man who can sing a rollicking song or tell a lively story is welcome.

The travelling outfit of the gum picker is very light. A set of steel climbing irons, such as are used by innemen, a heavy and broad hatchet for cutting off the gum and for scarring the trees for making of more gum the next year—these with tobacco, pipe and matches, complete his rig. His food and lodging are taken care of by the boss of the camp where he chances to stop over night, his cheerful ways and the fact that he has no other means of making his way, win him more than paying for all dues.

The picker who gleans his harvest from the same trees year after year, harnesses the value of the holding greatly, though this value applies to the gum alone, for the trees are not naturally so very tall. The pickers of the woods are too busy to spend time in allotting gum areas, and as the income from gum picking lasts but a few weeks the harvesters cannot afford to pay the fees for drawing the leases, to say nothing of giving tribute to the gum.

A "smart" man working in an old gum tract of thirty years that are scattered widely enough to admit sunlight for ripening and hardening the gum can under fair conditions collect in a day from eight to ten pounds of rough gum, which on cleaning will shrink two pounds, worth $1 a pound in the cities. Before starting out to operate a gum orchard a picker must spend one spring in marking and scarring the trees, so as to make sure of finding gum enough to pay for his labor when he claims around a year later. This is done by climbing a shifty tree, using the old limbs and high into the sunlight and scarring the south side of the trunk between the whorls of limbs with deep incisions shaped like a V.

The spruce sap exudes from these wounds and moving downward the cut is dried in the sun until a pitchy crust is formed, which fends off the bits of bark and agglutinates the embryo nugget of gum continues to grow from the inside by fresh supplies of resinous sap and to harden from the outside by slow evaporation. The sun goes away south, winter arrives and the sweetening frosts remove the pitchy and acid taste, leaving the trunk and set to a hardened "test" of genuine spruce gum.

There are good reasons why the harvesters should choose April as the month for the task. It is then that the gum is in its ripest and best condition, not so soft as to be hard and crumbly, not so young as to be soft and taste of pitch. The sealy crust above the winter snow which carries all the hand of the picker into the hollows among the drifts and holding them aside in plain view until they can be picked up. Before the end of May the coming sun will have warmed the trunk and set the old wounds to bleeding new sap, thus spoiling the harvest for another year. If he is an old hand at selling in the city the gum hunter will charge from $1 to $1.50 a pound for his gum. If he is new at the business he may sell some sharp broker or druggist for 75 cents a pound. If he likes to haggle

he will call around from place to place and in a day or more can sell out for 75 a pound.

Years ago when spruce trees were very much more abundant in northern Maine than they are now Bangor used to be the chief market for gum in Maine, as many as five tons having been sold there a year. With the disappearance of the spruce trees and the introduction of "patent" gums the trade has fallen off greatly, amounting to a ton or less in a season. In spite of the decline Bangor druggists and many of the Bangor grocers are glad enough to accept clean spruce gum as legal tender and to pay cash. Most of the surplus gum bought in Bangor goes to Boston.

Roosevelt Gives Little Sympathy to Financial Jugglers of the United States.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Aug. 20.—The laying of the corner stone of the Cape Cod Memorial Monument with formal ceremonies and in the presence of President Roosevelt, Governor Quinn and distinguished guests, completed today the foundation of one of the most impressive structures along the Atlantic coast, commemorating the first landing within a few feet of its base, of the Pilgrim Fathers on American soil.

President Roosevelt delivered an address and in discussing the financial situation said: "During the present trouble with the stock market, I have received countless requests and suggestions, publicly and privately, that I should say or do something to ease the situation. There is a world wide financial disturbance. It is felt in the Bourses of Paris and Berlin and British consols are lower, while prices of railways have also depreciated.

"On the New York stock exchange, the disturbance has been particularly severe, most of it, I believe, to be due to matters not particularly confined to the United States and to matters wholly unconnected with any government action but it may well be that the financial stress, as it is called, will not waver, to punish certain malefactors of great wealth, has been responsible for something of the troubles, at least to the extent of having caused these men to combine to bring about as much financial stress, as it is called, in order to discredit the policy of the government and thereby to secure a reversal of that policy so that they may enjoy the fruits of their own evil doing."

NEW ADVERTISING. There has been a violent outbreak of a new form of advertising in Memphis says an exchange. This is a scheme adopted by salesmen of cheap books and small articles to cover the sides of their small suit cases with as large and florid advertisements of their wares as the dimensions of their suit cases will admit. Of course, these "ads" attract a great deal of attention, particularly when the bearer of one of them utters a cry, where everyone seems to be willing to look at anything rather than to stare out of the windows.

HOPE THAT BILL MINER WILL NEVER BE CAUGHT

Sentiment in the West Seems to Favor the Train Robber—He May Now be in Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20.—Bill Miner is still at liberty. From the morning when he and his three companions slipped under the prison wall, the earth on the Fraser River appears to have swallowed them. Officials of the penitentiary announced that before twenty-four hours had passed over the grizzled head of Miner he would again be a caged-bird, but up-to-date he is a free man. The burglar, the thief, and the forger who went with him are also still enjoying their liberty, although they must be more cautious at the game of eluding the police compared to Bill Miner himself.

The only certainty regarding Bill's movements is that he decided to be a lone bandit shortly after he left the prison. After the party had covered a mile and a quarter Bill Miner separated himself from his companions; that is, if the identification of his tracks, heading off in a new direction, is to be depended upon. The train-robber wore a special kind of boot for his alleged sore feet.

READY AID FOR MINER. Not the least remarkable feature of the escape is the sympathy being extended to the aged robber leader by the general public. Five out of six people you meet on the street of Vancouver, for instance, openly express the hope that Bill will get away, and are not afraid of injuring the feelings of any one when they declare the sincere wish that he will remain a free man for the rest of his life. Not only is this true in Vancouver and New Westminster, but it is particularly the fact in the Similkameen and Nicola districts where Miner bought land and horse-traded back and forth for years between the occasions of his hold-ups of the finest trains of railway companies.

"Not only would nine-tenths of the people of the Nicola and Similkameen not betray Miner were he there," said a Vancouver man who arrived from Spencer's ridge, "but they are proud of the fact that there is a wide-open welcome for him, good at any time and under all circumstances, with what amounts to practical protection from the police. The people up there rejoice that he is not away, and hope that he will succeed in eluding the police. And this is true of the business men of the district as well as well-to-do ranchers and farmers."

MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE MEETING HERE TODAY.

President McRobbie, of St. John Board

President McRobbie then, on behalf of the St. John Board of Trade, extended a very cordial welcome to all the delegates, and hoped they would have a pleasant time while in the city.

Mr. McRobbie said that while owing to the heavy tourist travel just now it might be found that the hotel accommodation was inadequate still he trusted they would be comfortably accommodated and he hoped the weather would be propitious.

Mayor Sears The Mayor said—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Maritime Board of Trade: "I am pleased to meet you in this informal manner and to be able to express my gratification at seeing so many present ready to participate in what ever of so much importance to our mutual interests—the consideration of our requirements and necessities in a business and commercial way.

Accounts for the year. The accounts for the year are all prepared, but as several boards will pay their per capita tax before the close of this day's meeting, they will be presented tomorrow for your approval and audit.

The President's Address President Fisher said: I would like to add a word or two to what you have already heard from the Mayor of the City and the President of the St. John Board, to express the pleasure it gives me in common with you to have you here in this city and meeting so representative a gathering of commercial, professional and industrial interests of these Maritime Provinces.

Secretary's Report Secretary Creed read his report as follows: To the President and Members of the Maritime Board of Trade: Gentlemen—Your secretary treasures less herewith to hand you his report for the current year.

Annual Meeting at Amherst, N. S. The annual meeting at Amherst in August last was a success, the subjects were well debated and nearly all the resolutions passed were brought forward and discussed at the Federal Parliament with good results.

Annual Meeting at Amherst, N. S. (Continued) Technical education has had the attention of the Local Governments, and the Government of Nova Scotia are now about securing a site for the institution in this province, and also have established a bureau of information and publicity.

Annual Report. The annual report was not published this year, the Canadian Grocer having such a full report of the proceedings of the annual meeting it was used instead. At a cost of $2 for 100 copies, it has been found quite satisfactory, and has been appreciated, and quite a good sum has been saved thereby.

New Boards. Boards have been formed at Oxford, N. S., and Weymouth, N. S., and affiliated. One has also been formed at Chatham, N. S., it has not yet affiliated, but hope it may do so during the coming year.

Unaffiliated Boards. Have had every attention paid them during the year, and an appeal to recruit the boards of Bridgewater and Lunenburg, N. S., has affiliated, also the board of Woodstock.

Reorganized Boards. The boards of Pictou and New Glasgow have re-organized. Pictou board has affiliated and the board of New Glasgow it is hoped will soon follow.

Correspondence with Boards. During the year, some of the secretaries have promptly responded to notices and letters, while many of them have been very slow, which has been the means of delaying the annual meeting approaches. It is hoped, however, the secretaries will take notice and be more prompt the coming year.

Subjects for Discussion and Notices of Annual Meeting. The subjects for discussion at the annual meeting were notified to all boards on August 10th, with notices of the date, place of meeting and railway arrangements for delegates, and also to the delegates from each board.

Mayor's Address. The Mayor said—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Maritime Board of Trade: "I am pleased to meet you in this informal manner and to be able to express my gratification at seeing so many present ready to participate in what ever of so much importance to our mutual interests—the consideration of our requirements and necessities in a business and commercial way.

Mayor's Address. The Mayor said—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Maritime Board of Trade: "I am pleased to meet you in this informal manner and to be able to express my gratification at seeing so many present ready to participate in what ever of so much importance to our mutual interests—the consideration of our requirements and necessities in a business and commercial way.

Accounts for the year. The accounts for the year are all prepared, but as several boards will pay their per capita tax before the close of this day's meeting, they will be presented tomorrow for your approval and audit.

SOPHY OF KRAVONA,

A Novel, by Anthony Hope
Author of "Prisoner of Zenda," "The Intrusions Peggy," Etc.

Stafnitz looked him full in the face.
"No," he said. "The Prince had better not still be drilling his men at Volens, nor waiting for his guns."

my orders, you will be in charge of this man Legase, and will detain him in these apartments. His extra room, and this room will be at the disposal of yourself and your prisoner, but you must not let the prisoner out of your sight. Dr. Natchez remains in his room. He will have access to the King's room when he desires, but he will not leave the suite of apartments.
Beyond seeing to this, you will have no responsibility for him. The door leading to the suite will be looked by me, or by my orders. I remain at the Palace tonight; under me Captain Stefanovitch will be the officer on guard.
He will himself supply you with any means or other refreshments which you may require. Ring this hand-bell on the table—no other bell, mind—and he will be with you immediately. Do you understand your orders?"

BOYS' SCHOOL CLOTHES

This Suggests
What We Have
To Say:

IN A FEW DAYS THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS
WILL BE RE-OPENED and boys and girls, bronzed from their summer outings, and refreshed to a point that makes a return to studies almost—yes, almost —a welcome change. Of course, all old clothing of last term has been fit for the rag-bag during the vacation period;
and new, stylish, durable and in every way attractive apparel is now a matter for serious consideration. Every parent knows that his and her lusty lad gets more actual worth out of a M. R. A. pair of pants than can be had out of any other boys' clothing on the market. People have been educated of late years to ask the why and the wherefore of every assertion, so this is our explanation: In the first place, many years ago we made the acquaintance of the most reputable clothing concern in Canada. Our goods sold so rapidly, customers grew so quickly in numbers, retaining the old and constantly taking on new, that today we enjoy a scope of patrons city-wide, and reaching out at every point throughout Lower Canada.

Boys' Pants (400 Pairs) 60c., 72c.
Unsurpassed in all Canada for excellent fit and shapeliness. They are not of the "cut-by-the-million" style, but each pair is made to order, and the may be—let us keep with the particular idea of the most particular parent. These come in twelves of pretty nearly every good pattern, and we consider them distinguished bargains at the prices we quote. Smaller sizes, 60c. larger sizes, 72c.

Boys' Blouses, 19c., 33c., 49c.
WASH KING
THERE ARE YET TWO OR THREE MONTHS for the boys to wear washable outer clothing such as these blouses. They are not of the popular sailor style and made to fit boys from three to seven years of age. You would really be surprised at the variety of colors and patterns you can get in them, with materials such as prints, cottons and galateas. The sewing is well done, the cut is simple, and the materials will stand soap and water as often as you care to administer them.

Blosure Waists (Big Boys) 37c., 49c.
HERE IS ANOTHER POPULAR FINE WEATHER GARMENT
for the boys from seven to fourteen years of age, and which, we doubt, do not thank you for calling them little. They are to be had in prints and broad stripes with breast pocket, collar attached and drawing string.
These fresh-looking outfits go back to school with and for Sunday wear as well.

Norfolk (Two Pieces) $2.50, $2.75, $3.10.
NOW WE COME TO A REAL SERIOUS MATTER—new school suits. If the boy is small enough he will, of course, demand a Norfolk, which is one of the most popular patterns made, and of which we always carry a large stock. It is very popular both from the standpoint of durability and the standpoint of attractiveness. The dark tweeds are shown in stripes and checks, suited to the taste not only of the boy who wears them, but also of the father and mother who delight in seeing their lads fitted out in man-fashion, and sensibly. The prices we quote herewith are special for this week only.

3-Piece Suits, $3.75 to $5.25.
FOR BOYS LARGER.
OF COURSE WE MUST NOT FORGET THE BIGGER BOYS, or,
as the smaller boys would call him, "Jig big brother." For him we have three-piece suits in dark tweeds, both single and double-breasted, and made expressly to withstand rail rough usage. The shoulders are broad and upright, the cuts are ample; the pants have lots of material in them, and the linings, buttonholes and all such other details are good and up-to-date.

AGENT-GENERAL
DESIRES CHANGES

Provincial Government to be Urged to Alter Immigration System
Duff Miller, New Brunswick's Agent
General Speaks of Position Province
Has in Mind of British Public

Duff Miller, New Brunswick's Agent-
General in England, is in St. John at the present time. Mr. Miller is at the Royal. He arrived at Rimouski on Thursday last from there proceeding to Millerton, Northumberland County, the seat of an industry in which he is interested. Late Monday evening he arrived in St. John.

When interviewed last evening by a representative of The Star, Mr. Miller talked concerning his work in the Old Land, and concerning the position this province has attained and the progress it has made in the mind of the British public.
This is the first occasion since the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York when Mr. Miller has been in New Brunswick and he states that he has noted great progress during that time. Mr. Miller, New Brunswick's second Agent-General and has occupied the position for a period of seven years under six provincial governments.

Speaking of conditions in Great Britain Mr. Miller said that this province was becoming better known by the British public. Great interest is being manifested in all the colonies and particularly in Canada. The Colonial Conferences are partly responsible for this.
The moneyed farmer is the man whom New Brunswick has endeavored to attract. The endeavor has been largely successful and many vacant farms have been taken up. One difficulty in the way of bringing out agricultural settlers is to explain the reason why so many farms are available for settlement. The English, said Mr. Miller, do not realize that New Brunswick is two-thirds the size of England, and also that there is a constant movement of people from this province to the west. The fact that the province is an old and long settled one attracts immigrants as does the fact that it physically resembles the British Isles and the countries of northern continental Europe.

Mr. Miller went on to say that during the past eighteen months the lightness
of the English money market had prevented the investment of British capital in this province. However, capitalists have taken up the Westmorland petroleum areas, which include the counties of Kent and Northumberland.
The moneyed men have arrived at the opinion that the oil field invites development and as soon as the public shows an inclination to invest the proceedings of the petroleum industry will begin.

Mr. Miller stated also that he was satisfied with what New Brunswick had done so far, but would urge on the provincial government certain changes in its methods of attracting immigrants. Changes in the literature used by Mr. Miller have already been made.
Some of Mr. Miller's proposed changes have to do with the introduction of unskilled labor, which is now very scarce.
Another change that Mr. Miller proposes is that part of the Dominion immigration fund be spent in the special interest of this province in order that more people may be attracted to this section instead of to the Northwest. The agent-general will be in Canada for about a fortnight.

AN ABLE PREACHER DEAD

NORTHEAST HARBOR, Aug. 20.—
Rev. Charles Comfort Tiffany, D. D., for many years archdeacon of New York, and prominent in Episcopal church affairs of that diocese, died here today from apoplexy. He had retired from active work for some time.

Rev. Dr. Tiffany was born in Baltimore in 1829. He was educated at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., Andover
Theological Seminary and the University of Halle, Hesseberg.

LORNE McNALLY NOT SENT UP FOR TRIAL

Preliminary Examination Completed This Afternoon—Little Evidence to Support Charge

HARTLAND, N. B., Aug. 20.—The preliminary inquiry into the case of Lorne McNally was completed this afternoon before Justices Barnett and Everett. Mr. L. Hayward appeared for the defense, and G. C. L. Ketchum for the prosecution. Frank Alton testified that on the Sunday night before the fire he saw McNally on the bridge at about 11 o'clock. He did not lead Legase into his prisoner's quarters, but followed him into the little room where Legase
was sleeping.
"Class quarters too, Captain," said
the witness. "There is but one chairette in the room. I saw McNally get up and go to the door. He did not lead Legase into his prisoner's quarters, but

SQUAW DID NOT WANT TO PROSECUTE

Colonel Dibblee Likely to Recover
from His Injuries—Quebec Politicians to Speak

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Aug. 20.—This morning before Magistrate Dibblee, in the police court, James Devaux, half-breed of Andover, appeared to answer the charge of indecent assault preferred
by Elizabeth Paul, one of the squaws on the reservation, near town. The defendant was represented by E. K.
Connell, while the informant appeared with a whole retinue of neighbors, at the head of which was Polchis, the Indian doctor. The latter, it seems, compulsed a settlement and announced to the court that the lady would be willing to accept $10 and drop proceedings. His Honor received the suggestion with scorn, and pretty plainly indicated that he would not permit nothing of a blackmailing nature. After considerable parley the squaw agreed to pay the costs, amounting to $4. The magistrate gave the accused some good advice and sent him on his way rejoicing.

COLLINS PREPARING
HIS THIRD TRIAL

Is Bright and Cheerful and in Good Health

Talks of the Crime Committed a Year Ago, Yesterday Which So Startled
the People of Albert Co.
HOPEWELL CAPE, Aug. 20.—It is just one year ago today, since the murder of Mary Ann McAuley took place at the rectory, New Ireland, and a year tomorrow since Father McAuley and his neighbors made the awful discovery.
The murder has been much commented upon here today, and was recalled by Thomas Collins, who in his cell in the county jail awaits his third trial
on September 3rd for murder.
To a Sun correspondent who talked with Collins today through the window of his cell, the prisoner said: "I suppose you know what day this is,"
and referred to the fact that it was the anniversary of the horrible crime.
"Yea," said he, in answer to a remark of the reporter, "that was a sad day for me, but I hope the time will come when the guilty parties will be brought to justice."

EARL GREY AND PARTY
ON P. E. ISLAND

Visit to MacDonald Consolidated School
at Hillsboro—Governor General's Advice

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Aug.
20.—The visit of Earl Grey and party and Lieutenant Governor MacKinnon to the MacDonald Consolidated School at Hillsboro was the chief feature of the first day of the stay of the viceregal party on the island. The splendid building in its beautiful surroundings made up a pretty picture as seen in the bright sunshine of a delightful August day. The driveway in front was gay with flags and bunting, and there was a large gathering of people on the lawn to receive their excellencies. The Earl and Lady Grey and party were received by Principal McLean of the Consolidated School and introduced to the members of the school board. Their excellencies then visited the different classes and watched the children at their lessons.
After a programme by the pupils Earl Grey delivered an address in which he said that not only were the three r's taught in the Consolidated school, but the three h's—hand, head, and heart. Parents who love their children will not hesitate to submit to any sacrifice in order to give them a good education. He could hardly believe that the people of the Maritime Provinces would allow their teachers to be taken away to the Northwest because the remuneration
there was better. This was a fatal mistake. He believed the consolidated schools were going to solve the problem of education.

SOME WIVES ARE DIFFERENT.

"Most men," said the man of experience, "think it must be awfully nice to have a wife who takes things as coolly as Dave Potter's wife takes them, but others, more discriminating, prefer a good honest row to her style of quiet cynicism." The way she behaved the other day when she found a letter in Dave's pocket from a girl in Brooklyn is an example of her method.
"I don't see," wrote the girl, "how on earth I can ever live with you."
"Dave's wife read that and said a lot more just like it without ever turning a hair."

WHAT IT COST THE CITY

TO ENTERTAIN EARL GREY

Bills are Not Yet all In, But Aldermen Estimate the Expense at $1200 or $1300.

Although only a few of the bills incurred in providing entertainment for the vice-regal party have as yet been handed in at city hall, the members of the reception committee are beginning to make estimates on the total expense. Some of them who should know best think the total will amount to twelve or thirteen hundred dollars, while other place it as high as fifteen hundred. There were three principal items, the corporation dinner, the hotel bill, and the Rockwood fare-up. The dinner cost $3.00 per plate, so that the outlay for it, including printing and other incidentals would be in the vicinity of $25 or $30. At the Royal Hotel after preliminary arrangements had been made, a request was sent in that the suite of rooms occupied by Prince Arthur should be given to the Vice Regal party. This meant, it is said, fifty dollars a day extra. There were seventeen rooms set apart for the visitors, and it is believed that the hotel bill will not be much less than five hundred dollars.

Rockwood fireworks are hardly even estimated but the total outlay for that part of the programme will be in the vicinity of two hundred dollars. In addition to this there are bills to be paid for a whole lot of minor matters, a big one for coach hire, and it is not probable that the city will escape with much less than $1200.

OFF FOR VISIT TO OLD HOME IN CHINA

James Wong Left on the Pacific Train Last Evening, Accompanied by Wing Sing and Sing Jim

A passenger on last evening's Montreal train was James Wong, a Chinaman who had been conducting a laundry on Grand street, near St. Patrick, for a year or so. Mr. Wong, neatly attired in Canadian apparel, will be 19 days journeying to his native city of Canton, in the Oriental Empire, but the anticipated weariness of the trip across the continent and thence over the Pacific ocean is overshadowed by the pleasure of being homebound bound for a 10 months' visit.

James Wong is one of St. John's most progressive Chinese citizens. He is a member of the Brussels street Baptist church and a young man of excellent character. A few months ago he was threatened with a serious illness by his physician stayed the progress of the disease, and ordered him a long rest in his native climate.

Wing Sing and Sing Jim, also of this city, will be travelling companions for Mr. Wong. They, too, will spend several months in China.

THE DEGAN CASE UP IN COURT AGAIN

Woman Likely to be Sent up for Trial This Afternoon—Police Court Affairs.

Two prisoners were fined the usual amount in the police court this morning. James Doherty and John Hudson were charged with wandering about Britain street and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves. Doherty was remanded to jail and Hudson was allowed to go.

Wm. Howe was reported for hauling sand without a license. The case was set aside until Friday.

Francis Pudding reported for not moving a broken down stolen staved car that was not his own and the case was dropped.

Frank Ross, reported for throwing stones, will be heard on Friday.

The case against Mary Degan for perjury was taken up this morning. Policemen Scott and Belyea, who arrested Marie Ferrish for stealing $500 testified that they heard Degan say that the Ferrish woman had given the stolen money to some other woman and that she would not go to jail for any black woman and that the thief was the black woman ahead, meaning Marie Ferrish. They swore also that they heard the Degan woman swear on the stand that she never used any such language and knew nothing about the matter. The woman was remanded to jail until this afternoon when she will be sent up for trial.

MORE HARVESTERS GO WEST

A train load of harvesters passed through the city at eight o'clock this morning. The men were from Nova Scotia and were quite a strenuous crowd. They made good use of the few minutes stay in the city and saw as many Ferrish for stealing $500.

The majority of the men intend returning to the East after the work on the western wheat crop has been completed.

BANGOR FIREMEN ARE COMING TO ST. JOHN

The Bangor Commercial says—Members of the Bangor fire department to the number of 35 have signified their intentions of going to St. John to attend the big firemen's muster which will be held there Sept. 2 and 3. Members of the fire departments in Orono, Old Town, Brewer, Bar Harbor and Brunswick will go to the muster and take part in the sports.

The special train will leave Bangor at 8 a. m. on Sept. 1. Besides the muster there will be a week of horse racing and the trip will be a good one for horsemen as well as firemen. All those who intend to make the trip are requested to leave their names at the Central first station on Harlow street as soon as possible so that the committee may know how many will go. Though the special train goes Sunday tickets will be good for return on any regular train.

James Leonard has placed a new water tank in the Public Wharf at Indiantown, for the use of the ferry boat E. Ross, and also for other river boats.
