RUSSIANS DEFEATED IN BLOODIEST BATTLE OF THE WAR

Oyama Thundering at the Gates of Mukden While Kuropatkin is Evacuating Positions and Beating a Hasty Retreat Towards Tie Pass Where, it is Said, the Japs May Complete His Disaster--If the Japanese Can Cut the Railroad Now They May Bag the Whole Russian Army--Oyama Hailed Even by Russians as Greatest Since Napoleon.

Tokio, March 8--Advices received here indicate that General Kuropatkin is badly beaten in the bloodiest battle of the present war.

General Kuropatkin is giving ground before the armies of Japan and yesterday he abandoned positions south and southwest of Mukden, burning such of his supplies as he could not carry with him.

The Japanese artillery is thundering at the very gates of Mukden, which position the Russians still hold, but which they are admittedly prepared to evacuate, changing their base to Tie Pass, which is forty miles north of Mukden.

So far as the retreat has progressed it has been orderly. What the Japanese may have in store for the defeated army on its retirement northward remains to be disclosed.

There are reports that General Rennenkampf, the foremost cavalry general of the Russian army in Manchuria, has been cut off on the east from the main force and Japanese troops in considerable numbers are said to be already in the vicinity of Tie Pass.

The retirement unquestionably cost the Russians dear in the matter of supplies and heavy guns. Neither commanders nor correspondents have yet ventured to estimate the number killed or wounded in the eleven days of fighting.

The Russian casualties on the fight Tuesday on the left flank are said to have been fully 7,000.

St. Petersburg Throws Up the Sponge. St. Petersburg, March 9, 3 a. m.--The battle of Mukden has resulted in a Russian defeat. Field Marshal Oyama has once more proved himself one of the greatest masters of offensive strategy since Napoleon, while General Kuropatkin is now engaged in endeavoring to defend his title as a master of successful retreats and bring off his army with its immense train satisfactorily to Tie Pass where a position was long ago prepared with this contingency in view.

Only to the initiated is the news of the reverse positively known at this time. Emperor Nicholas and high military officers were informed by General Kuropatkin's adjutant Tuesday that Mukden must be abandoned and they received details of the beginning of the withdrawal as they appeared in excited portions of the official despatches given out yesterday.

The first positive statement was derived from the Associated Press despatch from General Kuroki's headquarters, the contents of which was quickly telegraphed to many Liberals from friends abroad.

The report probably will not be printed in this morning's papers, the government, through its policy of breaking bad news gently, only preparing the way by authorizing the publication of a number of preliminary telegrams.

From information in the possession of the Associated Press, it is known that General Kuropatkin contemplated retreating before the beginning of the battle, and that he hoped to accomplish it without serious combat. The Japanese, however, forced him to accept battle.

The great question now is whether Field Marshal Oyama has entangled the Russians in his strategic net sufficiently to prevent a successful retreat to Tie Pass. If the Japanese succeed in reaching the railroad and interrupted traffic, if only for a few hours, it may have the greatest consequences for General Kuropatkin, who is now engaged in a literal race with the Japanese to reach a naturally defensible position, forty miles northward. Thus far he has stood off all attacks directly against the flanks of his army and holds the way of retreat open.

He undoubtedly was forced to abandon a number of siege guns in his retreat, but if he succeeds in turning over the army intact, with the principal portion of its artillery train, to his successor, the Russian case will be by no means desperate, for Oyama will again have missed his quarry and a comparatively barren victory will have been purchased at enormous cost of life.

All reports indicate that the Japanese were utterly reckless of sacrifice, making attack after attack against machine guns and infantry fire which literally mowed down the advancing columns making human flesh so cheap that the survivors could bastion themselves behind piles of corpses.

After this action General Kuropatkin's disposition may be regarded as certain. War Minister Sakharoff is named as his probable successor, though Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasewitch or a duke of sanguine temperament may be entrusted with the direction of affairs.

Great Quantities of Stores Burned. Mukden, March 8, 11 a. m.--Mukden is still in the hands of the Russians, but withdrawal from the line of the Shikhe River is in full progress. The Japanese are making a strong attack north of Mukden. The Russians have retired somewhat from the positions they occupied yesterday in the region of Tatchekiao, but are making a strong stand against the force here. The Russians also are holding the village of Ushuntun, which at nightfall was partly in the hands of the Russians and partly in those of the Japanese.

At 2 o'clock this morning the Russians succeeded in retaking complete possession of the village which is of great strategic importance for the successful accomplishment of withdrawal. No attack on the position at Masayapi has begun at this hour. The Japanese held the heights five miles west of Hushatun though Russian cavalry in this region yesterday drove in outlying parties.

Telegraphic communication with Harbin was destroyed by the Japanese early this morning but has since been restored. The Russians on Tuesday captured 500 prisoners, who appeared to be almost exhausted.

The losses on both sides have been enormous. The casualties on the Russian left flank on Tuesday exceeded 7,000. The burning of commissariat wagons and the destruction of supplies south of Mukden, which have been in progress several days is said by Russian officials to be complete.

Today the situation is more tense. A terrific cannonade is in progress and the streets of Mukden rumble as with 10,000 drums.

"Retiring in Perfect Order" Again. Mukden, March 8.--The Russian army is leaving positions south and southeast of Mukden. The sky is lighted with the brilliant glare of burning warehouses, where tons of commissary supplies have been given to the flames. The retirement is being effected in perfect order, the Russians warding off attacks of the pursuing Japanese. The withdrawal was necessitated by a heavy concentration of Japanese west and northwest of Mukden, whither they have transferred a large share of forces from the southern front to reinforce the original striking force of General Nogi.

The Russians still hold their position at Madyapu, where a strong attack is expected at any moment. A division of Japanese troops has appeared north of Mukden on the heights west of Hushatun station.

Except for lights at Ushuntun and Tatchekiao, Tuesday was quiet compared with the fighting on the previous days. The Japanese evidently were completing their transfer of troops.

The Japanese arrangements for furnishing ammunition along the enormous front is acknowledged by Russian officers to be admirable.

Japanese Cunning. Mukden, March 7.--One of the Russian detachments advancing on the Simintsin road occupied the village of Zinwanche, near Tatchekiao, after a fierce fight, but subsequently were driven out by the Japanese, who are strongly defending Leichetkin, and are being reinforced from both the southwest and northeast.

The Japanese losses were considerable during the attacks on Pontiloff Hill. The Japanese on several occasions turned their backs to the Russian troops, pretending to fire on their own men, and played in the dim light the role of retiring Russians, and so far deceived the Russian forces that they succeeded in getting close to the Russian wire entanglements. The troops acting the part of pursuers were then following them up closely and the troops that had been shamming retreat suddenly turned and resumed the offensive.

Japs Announce Great Victory. Washington, March 8--The state department is officially informed from Tokio that the Japanese have achieved a great victory before Mukden, and that the Russian army is in full retreat. The casualties are numerous on both sides.

Evacuating Mukden. Mukden, March 8--4.30 a. m.--The Japanese last night attacked the Russian positions north of Mukden and forced the Russians to fall back a little. The Japanese are concentrating on the west front. This may be the last despatch out of Mukden, as the telegraph line is in danger of being destroyed. The battle is in full progress.

The Russian army is evacuating its positions south of Mukden. Terrific Cannonading. Mukden, March 8--10 a. m.--A heavy cannonading is in progress northwest of this city, causing the walls of houses here to tremble. An engagement is in progress at the imperial tombs.

Japs Have Held Ground Gained. General Kuroki's Headquarters in the field, March 8, via Pusan.--While at some parts of the long battle line the Russians have been able to check the advance of the Japanese, their repeated fierce counter attacks no where have succeeded in forcing the Japanese from any of the ground gained.

In the present stage of the conflict the censorship is necessarily strict and the correspondent of the Associated Press is therefore prevented from attempting to describe the numbers and positions of the Japanese forces. These are fighting now along the Shikhe river, where the Russians spent the winter.

Kuropatkin Criticized. St. Petersburg, March 8--A general who has just returned from the front, informed the Associated Press today, that General Kuropatkin's faults as commander in Manchuria are due to his bureaucratic training and his desire to keep everything in his own hands. Instead of relying on the judgment of the army commanders to carry out his general orders, he made of them simply orderlies for the transmission of specific orders to individual units and kept constantly before him a map showing the location, not only of the corps, but of the brigades and regiments, and undertook to control the movement of every unit.

"The genius of Napoleon," the general referred to added, "could not accomplish the task Kuropatkin set himself."

USEFULNESS (Arthur Gutterman.) Suppose my hair is brown and yours is gray, Suppose my powers grow and yours decline, What solemn scoldist shall dare to say That your avail in life is less than mine? Who gave him eyes to know creation's plan? Who gave him wit to watch his brother's do? Oh, let him live his life as best he can, And leave the weights and balances with God.

Slow, careful Age, and Youth with heedless rest, Still urge the world along, and who may claim That this or that one serves his fellows best, Or measure service done by wage or fame?

We live for one another's happiness, And none is useless who with arm or pen Or word or smile gives joy or cheers to those who're down. Yea, none is useless that hath love for men.

River Traveling Bad. Caleb Fox, of Lewis Cove, Queens county, who drove to the city Tuesday, reports the river to be in bad condition, that in some places the slash was up to the horse's knees.

GLAMOUR I have read so long in the Book of the Brave, I hear the tramp of their feet In the quiet village street. I catch the round of an echoing cheer, 'Tis down the night wind, faintly clear, And the drums' unaltering beat.

I have read so long in the Book of the Brave, Their flags go streaming by, Sharp comes the sentry's cry, The shaded light of my study lamp Seems a low glimmer from some still camp Where the sleeping soldiers lie.

I have read so long in the Book of the Brave, I march where the heroes are; On my breast I feel a scar, I turn to gaze on the rayless night, The gloom is chief by a hearse light, And behind--the bronze star! --Lulu Wheldon Mitchell, in the Century.

ROTHESAY.

Rothsay, March 7.—The hay famine has been relieved somewhat by the arrival of two carloads at the station. This supply was, however, exhausted so quickly that other shipments were ordered at once. Loose hay cannot be obtained at all, and those who own it but have to transport it in any distance find it almost impossible to do so.

The railway section bosses are trying to prevent damage from any sudden rain storm and have large additions to the usual number of employes digging trenches to carry away the water.

The tenders called for by the postal department for the carriage of the mail between Clinton and Rothsay differ somewhat from those of former years. In the spring and fall season when navigation of the Kennebec is uncertain, the mail carrier is called upon to drive around to (Clinton via Perry Point bridge and King's Head when the mails might be sent of Jubilee, and to Red's Point by the Kingston carrier and then by special messenger to Clinton. Another good part of the change, however, is that the mail must reach Rothsay in time for the up-train in the early morning.

Requests for what accommodation are never lacking upon the Kennebec.

The residents of Kingsport, Clinton and Rothsay have been partially approached to support an application for a suitable subsidy for a steam ferry between Red's Point and Kingsport, as well as a bridge across the river at Kingsport and Clinton, making alternate trips between these places. Some place the amount of the subsidy necessary at $200, while others say $800 will be required.

At present $150 is divided in grants between the uncertain and unsatisfactory ferry services at Grand Falls and Clinton. If the steam service goes, one new wharf will be necessary at least. Two parties, it is understood, are willing to build the steamer and place it on the route if the subsidy is guaranteed for any length of time.

The residents on the other side of the river want a trivet wharf near Red's Point, the necessity of which seems likely to develop this summer.

In addition to the difficulty of the farmers, water and wood are both scarce, wells and springs which have never failed, even in the dry summer season, are now dry and the river is the only resource for watering cattle and supplying the personal wants of some farmers.

To obtain fuel shoddy trees are being scoured in the woods. Getting off the narrow road, while turning, she struggled through the deep snow and died from exhaustion.

Eary Mabree met with a somewhat similar mishap, breaking the leg of a valuable mare while getting firewood.

George Hamm arrived at the station at 8 o'clock, having walked from Washademoak. It was important that he should return to his work in New York and he started with a team for the railway, but the road was too difficult, so placing his language on a hand sled he walked the distance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Vincent are being congratulated upon the arrival of a son, a male child, named Vincent. Mr. Daniel from finding his parishioners. Snowshoes avail where passage with a team is difficult or impossible and residents as far away as "The Neck" welcomed their pastor upon his snowy shoes.

Looking back through the records of several years, he discovered a similar set of conditions one day in March, 1891. He was stationed then on the Northeast coast and failed to remember any remarkable circumstance connected with the date, so he consulted the lighthouse diary for that year. Ah! Here was a possible explanation. The chief-keeper, a strange old fellow, was something of a meteorologist. He had written: "At 4.15 p. m. the barometer stood at 27.16 deg., and the thermometer at 45.90 deg. There was a heavy S. W. wind, No. 7 gale blowing from the S. S. W. About five o'clock the wind increased to a hurricane and the sea became more violent than I have ever seen."

supposed cure? Does this not account for the uncertainties of medicine? More than thirty years ago this thought came into my mind. I had been a doctor for a quarter of a century of endeavoring to cure people of all kinds of ailments. I realized that, that all ailments which could be cured by medicine, should be cured by one remedy. I resolved not to do this until I had a remedy which would cure every ailment which could be cured by medicine. I had a remedy which would cure every ailment which could be cured by medicine. I had a remedy which would cure every ailment which could be cured by medicine.

WATER PROBLEMS OF ST. JOHN IN THE PAST AND PRESENT

Review of City's Water Systems from the Days of Lily Lake to Loch Lomond

OWNERS ON THE MISPEK

List of Those Who Have Property Along the Stream—Position of the Proposed New Reservoir at Robertson's Lake—How the Water Will Be Conveyed to the City.

It would seem strange if the city of St. John were without its water problem. For more than fifty years, in some form or other dissatisfaction has existed, and various schemes of a stop-gap order have from time to time been put forward, discussed and adopted, each in its turn, to provide adequate to the city's needs. It is hoped, however, that the solution of the problem is at hand and that the bill considered by the general committee of the common council on Tuesday last is the first step towards securing a pure and plentiful supply of water for many years to come.

The story is not new but it may prove interesting to glance back some seventy years and trace the course of this water problem down to the present time.

From Lily Lake.

In 1836 the city is found drawing its water supply from Lily Lake with a pumping station at the Maina Bridge whence the water was raised to a tank in the yard behind the present offices of the Water and Sewerage Department on Carmarthen Street. This spot was chosen for the following reasons, as, at that date, the majority of the houses in the city clustered around the foot of King and Prince William Streets. By means of gravitation the inhabitants were supplied with the intermittent plan, which was the only method known at the period, the constant supply system being of much later date, and was introduced into every section of the city in 1881.

The demand for water even in those early days was greater than the supply, and accordingly in 1851 a fund of the St. John Water Company, for it was a joint stock concern, existing around for another score to draw from. Surveys were made to the east of the city in search of a gravitation system, and the explorations extended as far as Loch Lomond, so it will be seen that the scheme now before the citizens is by no means new in some of its features.

The source of the Mispeck stream evidently proved too far ahead for the authorities of that day, and Douglas Lake was fixed upon as the bed of the new system, for, while seventy feet lower than Loch Lomond it was 100 feet above the highest buildings in the city, and seemed adequate for the purpose. It was also arranged to replenish Lake Douglas from Lake Donaldson and, somewhat earlier, in 1848, the site of a bank was first marked at the spot where the Little River reservoir is situated today. After a dam was built at the entrance to the lake, a 12-inch main was laid to the city, known as No. 1, and still in use.

Leke Douglas Next.

In 1851 the new system was started and Lily Lake abandoned. This year is also memorable as the date when the fountain on King square was first turned on, an event which was hailed with general rejoicing. Hardly, however, had the citizens begun to use the new system before St. John was swept by the cholera epidemic of 1854. The fault of this scourge was attributed, probably without any shadow of foundation, to the new water supply which was described as insufficient and impure, and the inhabitants rose in their wrath and demanded that the water be shut off over the assets of the company. There seems to have been a hard fight before this point was gained, but finally in 1855, by act of assembly, the water was turned off and the water was turned off and the water was turned off.

Loch Lomond Suggested.

In 1879 a suggestion was made by W. Murdoch, the present superintendent, to lay a pipe line from Loch Lomond to Lake Leke by way of the Mispeck valley. The route proposed was a circuitous one, but obligated to a great extent the work of making heavy cuttings. The proposal was discussed from time to time, but finally abandoned in 1884, although the late Gilbert Murdoch, who favored the idea, mentioned it in every annual report until his death ten years later.

In 1888 the pumping station at Silver Falls was started and has been in constant use ever since. It may be mentioned that when this scheme was put forward by the present superintendent, he only offered it as a temporary expedient until the city should decide to go to Loch Lomond, and so all appearances the pumping station will fulfil its mission for, with the inauguration of the new system, its use will be discontinued.

Turning now to the Mispeck river, which plays so large a part in the present bill, the city had owned property on both sides of the stream at the outlet from Loch Lomond since about 1837, when a bankrupt mill property was acquired, although nothing has been done with it to the present day. The pulp mill at the mouth of the Mispeck, as everyone knows, a recent purchase by the city, but it is not within the scope of this article to deal with the ups and downs of this property, although its history contains much that might prove instructive.

Riparian Owners.

A complete list of riparian owners on the Mispeck stream has been prepared by The Telegraph, and may prove of interest at the present time. No pretension is made to great accuracy, and the river frontage in each case is only given in fractions of a mile, but it affords a general idea of the situation. As a basis the length of the Mispeck river has been taken to be about eleven miles. From Loch Lomond, looking down stream—

It will be noticed that very few owners on the above list possess more than half the undivided rights in the stream. Besides the city of St. John only F. Waters, W. B. Howard, G. R. Ellis and the heirs of F. W. Mount, and B. Mooney & Sons are in the case of Messrs. Mooney, the city owns equal rights with them in the water, although the fee simple of the property is vested in the firm.

The New System.

The dam and reservoir which the city proposes to construct on the Mispeck river will be about a mile below the present outlet of the loch, and at a point near

L. O. LODGES PROTEST

Pass Strong Resolutions Condemning Proposed Education Clause in the Autonomy Bill.

Woodstock, N. B., March 8.—(Special.)—The different L. O. L. lodges in this county are strongly opposed to the separate school clause in the new autonomy bill. At a special session of Carleton Co. L. O. L. last night the following resolution was moved by Chas. M. Shaw, D. C. M., and seconded by Wm. R. McCready, county chaplain: Resolved, that we, the members of Carleton County L. O. L., in special session assembled, urge our representative, F. B. Carvell, M. P., to take a firm stand against the clause in the new autonomy bill, and to insist on the Northwest of separate schools, which result in religious and political disorder, destroy the peace of the community and endanger its prosperity.

Resolved, that it is the duty of all good citizens and lovers of liberty without respect to race, creed or political belief to protest in every way against the same, and forcing upon the new province that which we would, not for an instant, tolerate in our own.

Also, that a copy of this be sent to our member in parliament, to R. L. Borden, K. C. leader of the opposition, and Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., past grand master L. O. L., of a regular meeting of Woodstock L. O. L. No. 88, last night the following resolution was unanimously passed. Moved by J. A. Lindsay, P. D. G. M., seconded by Wm. B. D. O. McIntosh, P. C. M., and carried.

Resolved, that this lodge views with alarm the action of the government at Ottawa in introducing a bill in parliament to change the provisions relating to the Northwest Territories under the B. N. A. act. We regret to see the premier going back on his previous professions regarding provincial rights in 1896, when the Manitoba school bill was before parliament and trust that the members of parliament who believe in equal rights to all provinces in the passage of this bill and will accept no compromise but leave the new province entirely free to regulate the matter of education, as they see fit.

Dying With Cramps

The distress at times is so severe you almost think it means death. In one instance you see a man who is seized with cramps in his arms and legs and he is unable to move. He is unable to get up and he is unable to get down. He is unable to get up and he is unable to get down. He is unable to get up and he is unable to get down.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

It contains all the virtues of the Norway Pine Tree, combined with Wild Cherry Bark and the soothing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

Mr. Hargreaves, Mosher's Island, N. S., writes—“We have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in our family for the last few years, and have always found it a reliable remedy for the cure of coughs and colds.”

Many cases of substitution have been brought to our notice. Do not be humbugged into taking any other pine syrup which unscrupulous dealers say is just as good.

DR. WOOD'S is the original, put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark, and the price 25 cents.

reservoir at the Mispeck of 14,900,000 gallons per hour.

From Lake Latimer a masonry aqueduct of about thirty-nine inches diameter, with a gradient of one in 1,250, will be sufficient to convey, if necessary, 14,900,000 gallons per day to the city. As the present system is drawn upon only to the extent of about 4,000,000 gallons per diem, it is seen that the proposed improvement will not only have the merit of simplicity, but of giving promise of a complete solution of the water problem, which has vexed so many generations exercised the minds of the citizens.

BANK ISSUES WRIT

AGAINST P. S. MACNUTT

Amount Involved About $20,000—Mr. MacNutt Not Now in Town.

P. S. MacNutt, for years prominent in the city's business circles as a dealer in agricultural implements, and who now is not in St. John, is indebted to the Bank of Nova Scotia for some thousands of dollars and a writ against him has been issued out of the supreme court at the instance of the bank.

The writ, however, has not been served as Mr. MacNutt is out of the city. It was said last night that he was in New York within a fortnight and in Chicago since then.

Mr. MacNutt's liability to the bank is said to be chiefly in the form of notes of various parts of the province—as his business in agricultural implements was largely done in that manner, for accommodation of farmers who might not find it convenient to pay cash.

Also, that a copy of this be sent to our member in parliament, to R. L. Borden, K. C. leader of the opposition, and Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., past grand master L. O. L., of a regular meeting of Woodstock L. O. L. No. 88, last night the following resolution was unanimously passed. Moved by J. A. Lindsay, P. D. G. M., seconded by Wm. B. D. O. McIntosh, P. C. M., and carried.

Resolved, that this lodge views with alarm the action of the government at Ottawa in introducing a bill in parliament to change the provisions relating to the Northwest Territories under the B. N. A. act. We regret to see the premier going back on his previous professions regarding provincial rights in 1896, when the Manitoba school bill was before parliament and trust that the members of parliament who believe in equal rights to all provinces in the passage of this bill and will accept no compromise but leave the new province entirely free to regulate the matter of education, as they see fit.

Moved Down Jay Regiments?

Mukden, March 9.—The Japanese this morning bombarded the bridge at Fung Pass on the Russian river, twelve miles east of Mukden. Russian artillery replied vigorously. The cannonading lasted an hour.

At present the Japanese are making the most energetic efforts south of the Hun river. It is rumored that they have transferred thither some of their forces from the north-west in anticipation of a night attack.

The Russian forces in the direction of Tzanzuan, north of the Mukden station, rested under arms throughout the night. Shortly before dawn a large Japanese force approached the Samtser Regiment. This regiment allowed the Japanese to approach within 200 paces and then discharged a volley from their rifles and opened on them with quick fire guns, simply moving down the Japanese, who were repulsed.

Among the prisoners brought in on Wednesday were a number of privates in new uniforms, who were from a recently organized Japanese reserve division. There is reason to believe that another division is being landed in the northern part of Korea, for the purpose of making a demonstration against Vladivostok.

The liveliest interest among the officials and military circles here. The unofficial reports received are accepted as showing that the battle of Mukden has resulted in the most serious land defeat Russia has suffered during the war. The military circles, however, continue to maintain that Kukopatkin will be able to execute a masterly strategic retreat.

Pain In The Back The Result.

Catching cold and having it settle in the back is the cause of Backache—the primary cause of kidney trouble. When the back aches it is a warning that the kidneys are liable to become affected. Headache, dizziness, and aching limbs are all signs of a weak kidney.

If you don't see a complication are very apt to arise. Mrs. E. Williams, Hamilton, Ont., tonight said, and it settled in the kidneys. She used DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, and it gave her. She writes us as follows: "It is with pleasure that I add my testimony in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. Some time ago I took a severe cold, which settled in my kidneys. The soreness and pain in the small of my back bothered me greatly. After suffering for some months, and finding numerous remedies fail, I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and received immediate relief from my sufferings.

OUR GAME FISH ARE INTERESTING NEW YORK

The Herald Writes Up Fishery Section of Sportsmen's Show—D. G. Smith There.

The New York Herald, in an article dealing with the Sportsmen's Show in Madison Square Garden, says: "Anglers in all grades of the sport, from the salmon devotee to the daffy aspirant, thrived after take and founders, have been conspicuous among the daily crowds. Their interest is divided between the streams, which have been brought from the coasts, more than 70 miles away. D. G. Smith, the fishery commissioner of the province of New Brunswick, attended to their transportation, which was accomplished in specially constructed tanks.

"The sixteenth event of the anglers' tournament was for trout, using a cast net for distance only, the rod and reel open to all excepting those who had cast more than eighty feet in any similar class or tournament, contest with a rod weighing four ounces or less. L. S. Darling was second, with 28 fish, a cast of 87 feet; King Smith, third, with a cast of 76 feet, and D. T. Percoromb, fourth, with a cast of 74 feet.

"The seventeenth event was single handed bait casting for distance and accuracy with a quarter ounce rubber frog, open to all. Five casts were made for distance and accuracy, under the usual conditions. C. M. Luckey won with 200 yds. H. C. Leonard was second with 155.9; Hiram Hawes was third, with 132.5; L. S. Darling fourth, with 146.6.

"The first of a series of canoe races between the various guides at the show took place last night between Granville Gray, of Bangor, former champion of the Moosehead Lake guides, and Abner McPeckers, of Old Town. The race was one lap around the lake, and was won by Gray in 5:25 seconds, being two seconds faster than had been accomplished since the show opened. McPeckers' time was 5:32 seconds, being about a second longer.

ECONOMY TO RULE ON I. C. R.
(Newcastle Advocate.)

Mr. W. S. Logie, M. P., who is at present at his home in Chatham, told a reporter for the Advocate over the telephone yesterday that he could say nothing definite regarding the petition to extend the Indiantown branch and to establish the short run. He stated that he had been in communication with the minister of railways on both subjects, but that little encouragement had been held out. The policy of the minister at the present time is to curtail expenses as much as possible and the short run is for the sale and exchange of the various classes of seed. All seeds entered for competition were grown by the exhibitor within a year.

MOOSE HEAD FOR PREMIER TWEEDIE
(Newcastle Advocate.)

Messrs. John Robinson, Jr., R. T. D. Aiken, E. H. Sinclair, Edw. Menzies and Samuel Russell went to Chatham Saturday evening and presented Premier Tweedie with a handsome moose head, the spread of which was fifty-four inches. The presentation was made by Mr. Aiken in a few well chosen words. Premier Tweedie made a very happy reply. He drew on the game laws of the province and compared them with those of Maine. He expressed his intention of preserving the game of New Brunswick as long as possible. He said that the moose was a valuable asset to the province, and he would do all in his power to preserve it. He said that he would do all in his power to preserve it.

We Paid $100,000

For Ligozone—Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

This Company, after testing Ligozone for two years in the most difficult germ diseases, paid $100,000 for the American rights. That is by far the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery.

We publish this fact to show you the value of Ligozone. Men of our class don't pay a price like that save for a product of remarkable worth to humanity.

Kills Inside Germs
The reason for that price is this: Ligozone alone can kill germs, too, without killing the tissues, too. Nothing else in the world is good for the human body, yet Ligozone is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of a 50c. bottle for a germicide.

Germ Diseases
These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these germs, and each results are indirect and uncertain. Ligozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably cures the disease, and forever.

Not Medicine
Ligozone is not medicine by compounding drugs. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, this gas is made part of the liquid product. Ligozone has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.
