" FOR YOU."

A happy bird sang out to me. Sang from her nest in the hawthorn tree;

This the song she warbled to me:
"The flowers grow purple, red and blue:

The flowers from mounds and garden beds;
They smile from mounds and garden beds;
They lift dow-wet their radiant heads;
And one is growing there for you.
One rare sweet flower will bloom for you.

Three misguided brothers in that strange place have married persons holding the relations to each other of mother, daughter, and granddaughter. Suppose they a 1 have c ildren, what will be the various relationships of the different territors.

A young man in New Orleans was en gaged to a wealthy young lady, and up-Ladies' and Gentlemen's on his marriage with her was destined to receive a handsome fortune. A rival stepped in, bowever, and published the young man as a deceiver and a fraud, and in consequence of the placard the young lady broke off the engagement. The rejected suitor now sues the interloper for damages to the amount of the property which he would have obtained possession of had he married the lady. Where is Lynch?

An enormous woman died recently in New York. She was colored, and a native of Virginia, and, although but 25 rears of age, had attained enormous proortions, and weighed nearly 500 pounds.

After her death her relatives were com-pelled to have an immense wooden box made to contain her remains, and as the box was too large to be carried up stairs it was placed in the back yard, and the body after having been prepared for burial, was carried down stairs and placed in it. After the box was closed it was found necessary, in order to carry it out into the street, to tear down a portion of

We read of a young school mistress in Ohio, who being like unto the icicle which hangs on Dian's temple, though extremely handsome, is vowed to Minera and the spelling books. Being much era and the spelling books. Being much embarrassed on her way to and from the academy by the admiring young men of the vicinage, and not being able to keep a lion to ride upon, she has trained a faithful Tray to guard her. The sagacious dog knows exactly what is meant when he sees a juvenile gentleman in his Sunday clothes waving a pocket-hand-kerchief, and the too ardent wooer is sure to be bitten and gnawed. Forty mistaken Endymions have already been lacerated.

Was found in a neighbouting pond. Mrs. McD. recognized it as the original property of her lost husband, and after burying it and wearing black for a proper period, she gathered together her five children and took unto them a new father in the person of Mr. Benson. The other day Mr. McDonald startled the household by darkening the doorway with his stalwart form. Benson slunk out of sight, and McDonald upbraided the frailty that stood before him, and demanded his children. The woman readily obliged him on that point, and obliged Benson at the same time, by joining him in his retreat from the exciting scene.

Five hundred guineas is now a commo price for an ordinary pair of London carriage horses, standing about 15.2. The English naval vessel Challenger, now on a selentific cruise, arrived at Maderia on the 16th July from Bermuda and the Azores. A shrimp had been found having four eyes, two of which are on the knee joints or its front legs, the sight from which can converge across its tail and so insure, its never being caught napping on any occasion.

They have a wild and gamesome sort, of ghost in Pennsylvania. There is one of ghost in Pennsylvania. There is one farm where stones, bones, green walnuts, and a variety of other small missiles are continually coming down from nowhere in unexpected showers, to the exceeding discomfort of the dwellers. All this happens in broad daylight, as does likewise the making of tracks under the yery eyes of the beholders. These tracks are of the most remarkable and unusual kind, being of tremendous size, and all made with the right foot. They are seen to follow people on horseback, while, horrible to think of, the form that makes them is wholly invisible.

The farce, "An Awful Dilemma," by Devere, Evans and Thorne, was very amusing. Poinier's gems of melody, as usual, were enthusiastically encored. Gibbons, as the merry clown, was funny. Cohan in his Irish songs and dances brought down the house, as also the pedestal clog dance of Dick Sands. San Collins's Dutch rhymes, Niles's songs and dances, and Lee's tamborine solo were executed in first class style. It remained however, for Sam Devere and Charley Evans in "Chris and Lena" to carry off the palm. This little act, although it has been played for six nights, created such a storm of applause as had not been heard in that building since its erection. The challenge clog dance between Dick Sands and Jerry Cohan was a very exciting affair. The judges, selected from the audience, were not able to decide the matter, two of them being for Cohan as the neatest and most graceful dancer, and two for Sands. The whole was wound up with the roaring farce, "The Smiths and Browns." POR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has over been offered which can compare with this Extract of Sarsafathla. It is found a gre t promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the humors that ranker in the spring, to expel the humors that ranker in the system at this season of the year. Many complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the cases above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul cruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Oleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimpler, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people en joy better health, and live longer, tor cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Prepared by DR, J. C. AYER & CO.

OLDEST ESTABLISHED MANUFACTURER IN N. B.—ESTABLISHED 25 YEARS. EDMUND E. KENNAY, Sole Agent for New Brunswick for MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS

Henry F. Miller's Pianofortes, No. 120 GERMAIN STREET, SAINT JOHN, N. B. These Instruments have no equal.

Please read the following from Dr. Steiner, Organist St. Paul's Cathedral, London:—
TESTIMONIAL.—I have been very much pleased with your (Mason & Hamlin) American Organs on all occasions. Their tone is remarkably pure and free from reediness, and their touch is all that could be desired.
The Henry F. Miller Piano is used at the New England Conservatory of Music, Young Men's Christian Union, Roston, and by the schools and public institutions generally and 14 LONDON HOUSE, AUG. 6th, 1873. Received per S. S. Killarney :

Lynching in Ohio. Another lynching has just taken place in Ohio, the victim, this time, being s man calling himself Davis, who had been arrested for making a violent assault on a young girl. The prisoner was brought before the local Magistrate of Rogersville for examination, and while giving his testimony a stranger in the courtroom stepped up to him and slapped him room stepped up to him and slapped him in the face. Davis immediately afterwards received two heavy blows from other parties, and then the gas in the court-room was suddenly turned off. A furious uproar followed this and cries were uttered demanding the life of the prisoner. A match was swiftly struck and Davis was dragged from under a bench, whither he had crawled, and was taken out of doors, where he was twice taken out of doors, where he was twice fired at, the pistols being held on both occasions near his head. A number of persons then caught him by the feet, and thus he was diagonal through the law was diagonal through the law. persons then caught him by the feet, and thus he was dragged through the dark-ness for about ten squares, half dead and piteously begging his executioners to spare his life. The captain of a trading vessel writes to the Valparaiso Mail that some months since, while at Byron's Island, in the South Pacific, he saw the real Sir Roger Tichborne, who is now a chief among the natives. He is described as being so tattooed, from forehead to heel, as hardly to be distinguished as a white man

He showed the captain a Liverpool paper containing a report of the Tichborne trial, roperty, and all that is here stated in this paper is false. How can I appear in England to claim my just rights? There is no escape from here. Here he became greatly affected, but recovering himself he continued, But so that I may be the continued, when may be willing to traced by those who may be willing to succor me, and to rescue me from my long captivity, and place me in the posi-tion to which I rightfully belong in the world, I would refer them to the articles of the ship Roman, of New Bedford, Capt.
