BY VISITING OUR ESTABLISHMENT

Students in Theology

While not finding on our shelves a large supply of the standard books; will yet meet many important works of current issue.

Students in Medicine and the kindred Sciences

Will always find the best representative works of Europe and America, and many books for which we are special agents (notably the publications of Mr. F. A. Davis, of Philadelphia).

Students in Arts, Classics and Modern Languages, History, Political Economy, the Practical Sciences, etc., etc.,

> Will always find us ready to order and carry in stock such books as they may require for their classes, or for general reading.

Students Generally

Will find our selection to cover the very best TEXT-BOOKS procurable, as we draw supplies from London, Paris, Leipzig, Boston, New York, and other educational publishing centres.

Particular attention given to Letter Orders.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Executive Committee

1890-91.

I. O. STRINGER, '91	President
G. W. ROBINSON, '91	rst Vice-President
C. H. MITCHELL, '92	and Vice-President
G. E McCraney, '92	Treasurer
C. R. WILLIAMSON, '93	Rec. Secretary
N. McDougall, '93	Second Year Councillor
H. B. FRASER, '89	Gen. Secretary

First Year Councillor to be elected in December.

HE object of the Association, in the words of its Constitution, is "The promotion of spiritual interests among the students of the College." For the promotion of their intellectual, physical and social interests, there are societies. A man's spiritual interests are not of less importance than those mentioned, hence the existence of the Young Men's Christian Association in the College.

The building is open every day, Sunday excepted, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. to all students, whether members of the Association or not. The reading room is free to all.

In the rooms will be found a piano and organ, checkers, chess, College song books, hymn books, etc. These are at the disposal of any who may desire to use them.

A General Secretary is employed to give his time to the work. He will be in attendance at the rooms daily, and will be glad to be of assistance, in any way he can, to any student.

The Association supports a Missionary, Mr. J.-S. Gale, B A., '88, in Korea, and interesting letters and reports from him are read from time to time.

There is a Missionary Library in the building, from which books may be obtained, and kept out for two weeks, upon application to the General Secretary or any member of the Rooms and Reading Rooms Committee.

The regular meeting of the Association is held on Thursday afternoon of each week, from 5 o'clock to 5.45. All students are welcome.

There are two classes of members—Active and Associate. The first consists of those who are mem-

The Literary and Scientific Society is the great society of the Undergraduate body. It can discuss any question and transact any business which lies within the province of that body. The voice of the Society is the voice of the Undergraduates as a whole. The programme of the meetings for the year will be issued about the middle of October. The regular meetings are held every Friday, at 7.30 p.m., in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Annual Fee, $1.50 (including use of reading room).

The Varsity

This is the name of the College paper, which is published every Tuesday morning during the academic year. It is under the management of the Literary and Scientific Society, and is intended to be a mirror of Undergraduate life. The regular subscription is $2,00 a year, but for Undergraduates, if paid in the Michaelmas Term, $1.00.

The Y. M. C. A. considers it the duty and privilege of every student to patronize this, the College Journal.

University Library

Librarian ...... W. H. VANDER SMISSEN, M A. Assist.-Librarian ... JAMES BREBNER

The old library, with the exception of a few volumes, was destroyed by the fire last winter. The new one has grown rapidly, and now occupies a room in the top flat of the School of Practical Science. It has been necessary to arrange the books in some order before opening the Library to the students. In a short time this will be completed, and due notice will be given when the Library is ready for use. Until that time no student will be admitted to the Library except on matters of business. After that time students who wish to consult books must enter by the north door of the building.

Separate reading rooms for the ladies and gentlemen are being prepared on the same flat as the Library in the north-east and north-west corners, and it is hoped these will be ready in about a month. G1
