SIT UP WHEN CALDWELL TALKS

Brings Forward Matter of Better Potato Handling Facilities at St. John and Has Unanimous Support

Officers, April 10—Officials of Department of Public Works are looking towards the establishing of facilities enabling the year-round shipment of potatoes. This assurance was given in the House of Commons tonight by Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, following a general appeal from Maritime members of all parties. The subject came up on a resolution by T. W. Caldwell, (Progressive, Carleton Place), asking the Government to provide proper terminal facilities for the handling of potatoes at St. John. Following Mr. King's statement that resolution was withdrawn.

The appeal was strongly supported by Mr. Michael, (Liberal, Madawaska), R. D. Hanson, (Conservative, York-Sunbury), O. Turgeon, (Liberal, Gloucester), George B. Jones, (Conservative, Royal), J. B. Bader, (Conservative, St. John-Albert), and L. H. Martell, (Liberal, Hants).

Mr. Caldwell pressed for a definite assurance that the terminal warehouses would be constructed. "Plans which do not help in the export of potatoes. I have had experience," he added. Mr. Caldwell said that until recently, New Brunswick potatoes had been shipped through the port of Boston. By a ruling of the Canadian Railway Board the freight on these potatoes had to be paid in American funds for the entire distance, although United States Inter-State Commerce Commission permitted a shipper to Canada to pay freight on the Canadian section of the journey in Canadian funds. As a result of this ruling by the Canadian Railway Commission it cost $2.50 per barrel in Canadian funds to ship potatoes through Boston at a time when they were selling at $4.00 per barrel in Cuba. If it had been possible to ship direct from St. John, the freight would have been $1.20 per barrel and the dealers could have $2.80 per barrel in St. John for the potatoes. Mr. Caldwell appealed to the Government to establish a trust port warehouse at St. John, open to all farmers, but suggested that the dealers who had already established such a warehouse should be given opportunity to turn over their plant to the Government.

R. D. Hanson pointed out that for some years the American market had been an effectively closed against Canadian potatoes by an embargo as it was now by the Fordney tariff. Through the enterprise of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Company a direct service had been given to Cuba this year.

O. Turgeon, appealed to the Government to establish a trust port warehouse without delay. He suggested that the Minister of Public Works (Hon. J. H. King) should use his influence on behalf of his native province.

George B. Jones said that New Brunswick potato growers lost the American market through the high duty placed on potatoes by the United States. The situation was such that the Government should give every assistance in its power. New Brunswick had also lost its Upper Canadian potato market owing to the high freight rates. Now it was a case of either throwing them away or sending them to live stock. Cattle did not produce good milk on a potato diet.

Hon. J. B. M. Baxter was ready to assist in any move for the development of a Canadian port. The country was well served with railways, but there was need of improving the ports in order to provide facilities for getting out the produce. This was vital. It was to be hoped that Mr. Caldwell's efforts would bring about a broader sympathy among the Progressives for the needs of other parts of the Dominion. All must work together. It might be wheat one day and potatoes the next, or the Prairies one day and the ports next. (Progressive applause.)

The expense of the construction of a warehouse would be so small and the service so great that the Government should provide for it.

MAY HAVE A RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Seventeen Young Men Have Signed up and More are Expected—Cadets Progressing Finely

That Hartland will have a corking good rifle association this season is quite evident by the large attendance of keenly interested men gathered at the Armory Saturday evening.

The advantages of having a Military Rifle Association instead of a Civilian Association was explained by A. R. Rigby, and the audience was unanimous in their opinion that a military rifle association was what Hartland should have.

Fifty men could not see their way clear at present to go to Military Camp in July as requested. However, seventeen has young men did sign the service roll, and all we need is thirteen more, and the military rifle association is assured; with a rifle and 200 rounds of free ammunition for each member, and $2 per head to help build a range.

Over 50 Cadets were on drill parade Friday evening and did good work. The next Cadet Parade will be Wednesday evening. These boys should make a good showing at Camp this summer.

OFFERS $100 A SIDE FOR RACE MAY 24

W. W. Perkins is Out For Real Sport and Puts it Up to Brown

Here is a letter from Willie W. Perkins that should create some interest among horsemen:

I will reply to Eric Brown's letter of recent date in which he described the race on March 4. It was not as Eric Brown described it as lots of people know. He says in the first heat Bobby Lee took first. It really looked that way. Now he says in the second heat his horse started with such a whirlwind of speed that it was too fast for Bobby and he broke and ran most of the length of the ice and then broke his hobbles. This is not true, as in the second heat, just after the start, Bobby Lee broke one side of his hobbles and then he broke the other side and then levelled away and came in with his straps flying all around him. So as Bobby's hobbles were broken and one of his boots not any good, and as I drove the horse over to Centerville (14 miles) and made two heats and had to drive him home that night, and as it was getting late in the afternoon, I thought I'd start for home as it was then about 4 o'clock. Now Mr. Brown accuses me of having a genuine case of cold feet. I will leave that to the sports to decide. I read a letter written by Eric Brown last winter describing a race between Ben All, owned by the Hartland Driving Club, and Antelle G., in which he says he won three heats, fastest time, 50 seconds. So when I take a horse that stood in the barn since last September, tied in single stallion fall and winter until the first of March, and put him against such wonderful speed, I don't see how he can accuse me with having "cold feet." Now as Eric wrote, he called me up and challenged me to race at Lakeville on April 4. This I did not know, because I was not home, but I called him up Monday, April 3, to see what he wanted but he didn't mention any money. I don't think any sports would expect me to go, as the distance would be 23 miles, one way, and the roads most impossible to get over, and—well—Brown knew it. Bobby Lee did not have a harness on him since March 4. Now I will refer to the second heat of the race at Centerville. When Brown's horse was going fast he threw a shoe so high that it is doubtful if it will get down before the 24th of May.

I am going to put it up to Eric plain, for my feet are all thawed out. I will challenge him for a race at Woodstock on May 24 for a wager of $100 a side between Antelle G. and Bobby Lee, best three in five heats. If the track managers are willing for us to have the race. If Eric accepts it I challenge I will expect him to let me know and also that we shall deposit $25 each with the editor of The Observer as a guarantee of our good faith, and $75 each to be deposited on or before the 15th of May. If Eric is the sport he pretends to be he will accept this as a fair challenge. If he is a barber-shop wind-sport he will decline.—W. W. Perkins.

COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs Would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lower part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache. I could hardly stand at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praise it I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing."—Mrs. J. M. Sweeney, 4022 High St., Everett, Washington.

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may come your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then these annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear. It has done this for many, many women; why not give it a fair trial now.

THE PROGRESSIVE BOARD OF TRADE

Important Matters Discussed at a Recent Meet—Better Train Service Wanted

(Edmundston Observer)

The monthly meeting of the executive of the Board of Trade met in the Grand Jury room of the Court House on Wednesday night, the Hon. L. A. Dugal in the chair. The following members were present besides the Chairman: T. J. Scott, R. W. Hammond, J. J. Deagle, Major Rideout, W. C. Albert and W. B. Belyea, secretary. Matters in connection with the Quebec firm considering the establishment of a branch of their foundry here was gone into and progress reported. A communication in regard to the running of an exhibition train through France showing Canadian manufacturers and products was referred to the transportation committee.

A letter was read from the New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters in answer to one sent by the Board of Trade in regard to the excessive rates for fire insurance in Edmundston and the reduction of same. A promise that when certain conditions are fulfilled the rates would be reduced was given, and the matter was referred to the Town Council.

A special committee was appointed to see if something could not be done to better the passenger train service into Edmundston, the committee consisting of Hon. L. A. Dugal, Major Rideout, and W. C. Albert.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS ARE ASTOUNDING

Conditions in Edmundston Must Be Remedied with All Speed—New School Will Help

(Edmundston Observer)

D. E. Scribe is in receipt of the 3rd Annual report of the New Brunswick Vocational Board for the fiscal year ending June, 1921.

In this report is given of the new school to be erected in Edmundston this summer. It says in part:

"The Edmundston goes the honor of building the first Composite High School in the Province. The building will be ready for occupancy late in 1922. The school is planned to house Pre-Vocational Classes and Commercial, Industrial and Home-making Vocational Departments. In addition to the general education work."

This report also gives out exhibiting the interior and exterior of the building when completed, and showing how admirably fitted the school will be mechanically to fit girls and boys for the business life. In such a school a good corps of teachers and a sympathetic and efficient school board, with the support of the citizens, can revolutionize the educational situation in Edmundston.

That such a school is needed it is only necessary to look carefully at the findings of the educational survey made last December under the joint auspices of New Brunswick Vocational Education Board and the Edmundston Vocational Committee. The Edmundston committee comprised J. B. Michaud, L. R. Bolanger, W. R. Belyea, Hon. L. A. Dugal and G. P. Nicholson. In the analysis of School attendance it is shown that on the nearest estimate there are 561 boys and girls in Edmundston from twelve to seventeen years of age. Of that number only 295 were attending school. But the seriousness of the situation is not revealed there, for of that 296 attending school, 125 are retarded or over age—which only leaves a balance of 44 out of a total of 561 that are up to the ordinary school standard for their ages.

A still further examination reveals even more startling figures. At the age of 15, eighteen are attending school, and seventy-five are not getting any school training, and of that eighteen, eleven are retarded, or over age. At the age of sixteen, two are attending school, and ninety are already out in the battle of life, or playing on the streets. At any rate they are not in school. And of the two attending school, both are retarded in their studies. At the age of seventeen five are attending school, eighty-six are absent, and four of the five are backward in their studies.

Now we all know that the children of Edmundston are as bright as the children of any other place. They come from as good homes, and doubtless their parents are anxious that they should get an education. Such a wholesale, deplorable situation can be a large part be ascribed to the fact of the rapid growth of the town, and the inadequate school buildings. It is, however, true that it is a situation that cannot be remedied in a moment. It will be in part rectified by the new building, but the situation demands the co-operation of teachers, parents, school-board, and citizens. It demands the interest of employers of labor, and the clergy of the churches. Only in such a way can this blot be taken away, and Edmundston take her place as a leader in Education, as already she is a leader in industry.

To Fletcher Pollock, Director of Vocational Education, to whose efforts, in part, we are indebted for our composite High School to be, is due high praise, for the work he is doing throughout the Province.—D. E. Scribe.

NEW DOCTOR COMING

(Edmundston Observer)

Word has just been received that we are to have another doctor of medicine locate in our town—Doctor James Lockhart. He is expected here within the next two weeks and with Mrs. Lockhart will occupy a suite of rooms in Madame Theriault's residence, just off Canada road.

We understand that Dr. Lockhart served for three and half years overseas in the great war, and graduated with a medal in his class last year. He is a McGill University man, and has been practicing during the past year in Bath. His home is in New Brunswick, his father residing in Bristol.

Doctor Lockhart will receive a warm welcome not only from the taxpayers here, but from the doctors, for they have felt the need in certain cases of a doctor who will of the same nationality as the patient, and besides which the population of the town is such that another doctor is needed.

HIGH SCHOOL FRENCH

(Edmundston Observer)

The following letter which recently appeared in a St. John paper, is worthy of reproduction. Mr. Patterson, our High School principal, is an enthusiastic French scholar.

Sir—Granted that an educated person should know the languages of his own country, French ought to be taught and taught well in the high schools of New Brunswick. One does not argue the value, yes necessity, of French in literature, in travel and in the higher political spheres.

Is French being taught in our high schools? No. For the most part that which passes for such is a farce—a crime. To be sure, teachers and pupils spend much special time on French, but they get precious little French. To be sure, pupils pass matriculation examinations, but we teachers know how it is done. The same examiner has for twenty-five years, or longer, set the same sort of stereotyped question on the same old texts, and a little clever coaching of a willing pupil does the trick. He is trained to construe likely passages into English, to write the conjunction of a few peculiar French verbs which he can neither use nor pronounce, to write a few selected English sentences in stilted French and he is ready. Since the reputation of teacher as well as pupil depends upon marks gained on this sort of examination, little wonder that teachers stoop to this stupid, unpedagogical coaching.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating." How many high school graduates (English-speaking) can carry on the simplest conversation with a Frenchman—except in English? How many can read simple items from the French papers? How many can write a letter? The writer, in common with others, graduated from the university with good marks in French, but soon found that he could not pronounce "Oui" correctly, nor decipher a street sign even with the aid of a dictionary. One meets men in the government services, also commercial men who are often inconvenienced because they cannot speak a little French. Yet these men studied French at high school, many of them in the university as well.

The cause of this is manifold. First, that something much be radically wrong when results are so pitiable. It won't do to say that the American does not speak French. The plain fact is our high schools do not teach French.

What is wrong? The whole thing is wrong. First of all, we are trying to teach French by a method, or lack of method, which killed the dead language a hundred years ago. Secondly, the prescribed text books, Macmillan's, Progressive French Course, are simply impossible. They were written before the teaching of modern languages became a science. Why, the grammars contain more English words than French and the student, while simple in plot, present too many structural difficulties for the beginner. Thirdly, how many teachers have had any training in methods of teaching languages? Many lack a knowledge even of French pronunciation. Even those who have a special qualification in that they speak French as their native tongue are utterly handicapped by lack of method and training, and by unsuitable text books.

The cure is obvious. First, a summer school where teachers may learn a little French and the "best method" of teaching the same. Second, a course founded on suitable text books. The best available would seem to be "Ocal Lessons in French." These have been prepared especially for the English schools of Quebec where their worth has been proved. They are written in five parts. Introducing French instead of Latin in grade VI, it would be possible to cover all five parts by the end of grade X. Grade XI might take up more formal grammar and selections from the American readers. As books of reference high school grades should have "Le Premier Annuaire de Grammaire" or "High School French Grammar" by Fraser and Squire, and Webster's French-English Dictionary. The cost of the pupil would not exceed that of the present text books.

These reforms could be readily carried out and with little expense to the department of education. This done, in a few years high school graduates will find themselves as well grounded in French as in arithmetic and chemistry. If we cannot have a practical French course, why have the subject on the curriculum?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space, I am,

Yours truly,
FRED J. PATTERSON

The following appointments are gazetted:—Emil Soucy of St. Leonard's, Madawaska, to be police and stipendiary magistrate for St. Leonard's, with civil jurisdiction, in place of Apollonio P. Nadeau, resigned; Amedee Charest of St. Jacques, Madawaska, to be a commissioner for taking affidavits to be used in the supreme court.

Greatest regret is shown on every hand at the departure this week of Mr. and Mrs. Leathe Mayor who have been residents here since last fall. Mr. Mayor came here to establish a branch of the Mayor Bros. jewelry stores, and during their short stay they have endeared themselves to a large number of people. We are glad to know however that they will be seen occasionally in Edmundston as Mr. Mayor will be brought here in connection with his business. The store will be in charge of a manager.

IT PUT HIM ON THE JOB EVERY DAY FEELING FINE

DARTMOUTH MAN WAS SO RUN DOWN HE OFTEN LOST A WEEK AT A TIME BEFORE HE GOT TANLAC.

"I haven't but one regret about Tanlac and that is that I didn't learn of it five years ago when my trouble first started," said Joseph E. Clattenburg, Branch St., Dartmouth, N. S. "I am willing to go down in black and white as saying that Tanlac is far superior to any medicine I ever heard of. It has simply made a new man out of me. When I began taking it I was in such a weak and run down condition that it wasn't unusual for me to lay off work for a week at a time. I was just about as discouraged as a man ever gets to be.

"Tanlac has put me back on the job feeling fine. In fact, I never felt better in my life than I do right now, and I would be an ingrate if I didn't tell my experience with this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd., and by leading druggists everywhere.

Max Wagner will go to Montreal early next week, returning with Mrs. Wagner and Baby Wagner.

Time, Tuesday; place: Victoria street; persons concerned: town men driving horses; act: a race on the street; result: one badly battered buggy and two badly shaken men. Moral—don't both try to drive on the same side of the street.

It is absolutely necessary that all changes or cancellations of ads be mailed to the printing office at Hartland on Wednesday morning's train, or sooner. We have expert at-writers at the office and merely a correct outline of what is wanted is really necessary. If the order is given to "fix it up." Change your ads frequently as you wish, but be SURE to get them in at the time specified.—The Management.

TEAS STEADILY ADVANCE

Liver Pains

Pains under the shoulder blades tell of liver derangements. Other indications are yellow complexion, indigestion, constipation, biliousness and bilious headaches.

The quickest way to arouse the liver to healthful action is by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Continued use will insure lasting relief, correct the whole digestive system and purify the blood.

Mrs. Wm. Barten, Hanover, Ont., writes:

"For some time I suffered from liver trouble. There was a hard, bearing-down feeling in my back which I could not get rid of. Some one advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and found them excellent. The dragging feeling in my back disappeared and I felt much benefited generally. I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and always keep them on hand for general use."

How to Grow New Skin!

Nothing is more wonderful than the human skin. It breathes through tiny mouths called pores. If it is kept whole and strong it improves the entire bodily health.

Those who know most about the complex structure of the skin appreciate the care that must be taken in deciding what is the safest, purest and best dressing to apply in time of accident or disease.

Much scientific thought and experiment was expended in the search for an ideal natural healing substance, but it has actually been found at last, in Nature's own storehouse of medicinal herbs.

Never in the world's history has there been another preparation like zam-buk. Amongst other virtues, it possesses that rare quality of actually growing new skin in Nature's own way.

A MIRACLE BEFORE YOUR EYES.

Healing the injured and diseased tissues by this precious herbal balm is a miracle that may be performed before your own eyes. Children remember zam-buk best for its great power in soothing and healing their hurts, whilst in the treatment of eczema, ringworm, chronic sores, ulcers and poisoned sores, zam-buk powerfully antiseptic and tissue-building properties ensure success; again, many thousands have zam-buk alone to thank for their complete release from torturing piles.

Differing fundamentally and in action from all ordinary ointments, zam-buk is free from animal fats and mineral compounds. It is highly refined and contains no ingredient which the skin cannot readily absorb. A fifty-cent box of zam-buk may save you dollars in doctors' bills. It is a unique preparation with a wonderfully wide range of usefulness.

OBSERVER WELCOMED

(Edmundston Observer)
The Observer has been accorded a very hearty welcome. Everywhere people speak of the clear print and the good arrangement of the copy. A newspaper is a mirror; it reflects the news, and public opinion, sometimes even goes ahead of public opinion. A newspaper does not belong to an editor, or to its publishers; it belongs to the people. The Edmundston Observer is your Observer. To make the best use of it, keep your editor posted on all the news. As a newspaperman, he knows no creed except the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man; he knows no politics, except a square deal for everybody and purity in public life. The work which he is doing, even temporarily, would not have been assumed if the proprietors of the Observers Ltd., Hartland, had not in a personal letter to him emphasized their high ideals of the work of modern journalism. The Observer is for the building up of the town; it is a co-operative venture. LET'S BOOST!

At his residence, Cloverdale, on April 7, Thomas Billings died at the advanced age of seventy-eight years. He is survived by a sorrowing wife, who was formerly Miss Annie Hoyt, two sons and two daughters—Walter of Hartland, Medley of Port Kent, Mrs. Rowland Hanson of Houlton and Mrs. Daniel Moynihan of Worcester, Mass., also three brothers and one sister: George of Central Hainesville, David of Madison, Me., Edward of Cloverdale and Mrs. Harper Sproule of Showegan, Me., and a large circle of more distant relatives. Mrs. Campbell, whose maiden name was also Campbell, was born at Wakefield 55 years and six months ago. She lived all her long married life at Upper Brighton where she commanded the respect of a wide circle of friends. Her husband died 15 years ago and there survive four daughters—Mrs. Chase, Mrs. W. F. Thornton, Mrs. A. R. Foster and Mrs. S. Tompkins. G. H. Campbell of Mount Pleasant is a brother.

OBSERVER WELCOMED

(Edmundston Observer)
The Observer has been accorded a very hearty welcome. Everywhere people speak of the clear print and the good arrangement of the copy. A newspaper is a mirror; it reflects the news, and public opinion—sometimes even goes ahead of public opinion. A newspaper does not belong to an editor, or to its publishers; it belongs to the people. The Edmundston Observer is your Observer. To make the best use of it, keep your editor posted on all the news. As a newspaperman, he knows no creed except the Brotherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man; he knows no politics, except a square deal for everybody and purity in public life. The work which he is doing, even temporarily, would not have been assumed if the proprietors at the Observers Ltd., Hartland, had not in a personal letter to him emphasized their high ideals of the work of modern journalism. The Observer is for the building up of the town; it is a co-operative venture. LET'S BOOST!

Did you know a Hartford policy insured the property of guests and servants?

It does, if it is properly drawn and such a policy in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company will cost no more, per hundred dollars of insurance, than one carelessly drawn in an unknown company. It is difficult to place a money value on many things in your home. There are gifts that were given years ago, valuable silverware, jewelry and other treasures of varying value. But fire, when it comes, has no respect for value. Everything you own, including your most cherished possessions, may be damaged or wholly destroyed. Check up the total value and insure here today.

PASSING OF A GOOD CITIZEN

C. Fred Dayton, one of the Town's Best Known Men, Dies Early on Saturday

(Edmundston Observer)
Rarely has the town been so shocked as it was on Saturday when it became known that George Fred Dayton had passed away. Mr. Dayton had been in poor health for some time, but he had been getting about and was busy more or less at his office. At one thirty on Saturday morning, however, the end came, and there was taken from Edmundston one of her best citizens and well beloved ones. Mr. Dayton was forty-five years of age, the son of the late William Dayton, a prominent merchant of this town and of the province. Nearly all his life he had lived here, known by everyone. As fluent in the French language as in the English, he was known as many friends amongst the French as among the English. For the past nine years he had been chief Customs Officer for this port. He leaves to mourn, a wife, a son, William, fifteen years of age, a daughter, Jean, three years old, two brothers, Frank of Moncton and Ralph of Edmundston, and one sister, Mrs. R. W. Hammond of this town.

The funeral of the late Fred Dayton was held on Monday afternoon at two o'clock. After a short service for the immediate family had been held at the home, the body was brought to the Church of St. John the Baptist, and service was conducted by Rev. N. Franchetti. The church would not hold the number of people who wished to pay their tribute of respect. The hymns, Lord, Kindly Light and Perfect Peace had been chosen for the service. The Masses attended in a body. The final resting place was in the little church yard of the Church of St. John the Baptist, for which church he had been treasurer for so many years. The pall bearers were: M. Martin, John Emmons, J. W. Hall, S. R. Harper, C. M. Edgout and T. J. Scott.

BROWN-WOLVERTON

(Edmundston Observer)

On Wednesday morning March 22, at 8 o'clock, a wedding of long attainment to the people of this town was celebrated in St. John the Baptist church. The bride was Miss Gladys Wolvertton, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolvertton, twenty-first street, who was married to Victor Bonas Brown, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brown of Fugland, Maine, and until recently of this town. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. N. Franchetti, rector.

The bride looked charming in a navy blue travelling suit, with Squirrel collar and hat to match the suit. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls. The bride wore a handsome orange bouquet of roses. After the wedding breakfast the bride and groom left for Central Maine. They will reside temporarily in Portland, Me.

Both of these young folks were very popular and they have the best wishes of the whole community.

They were the recipients of a large number of beautiful and valuable gifts.

THE LATE FRED DAYTON

(Edmundston Observer)
A town is great, not because of the splendor of its Public Buildings, nor because of its vast industries, or because of its spacious parks. A town is it little or big is great because of its men. Abraham Lincoln came from a little Southern hamlet, Lloyd George came from a little Welsh village.

The late Fred Dayton was not a politician, was not a public man in the best sense. He belonged to everyone. It was not merely that he belonged to different orders, that he was a Mason, or a Shriner—these things were incidental to the man himself. It was in the nature of things that he should belong to every progressive movement of the town. It was only natural that he should help in the building up of the place where his father had spent so many of the best years of his life. But Fred Dayton belonged to everybody. The writer had been here but a few days when people began to say to him "You know Fred Dayton." Not to know him was considered a lack of your necessary local knowledge. Everybody knew him; everybody loved him. In all the scores of funerals the editor has attended, he never remembers one where the emotion was more deep, the sorrow more genuine, the respect more quietly expressed, than on Monday last in the little Church of St. John the Evangelist. And as the body rested under the shadow of the stained glass window, placed there in memory of his father, one knew that his name would be inseparably connected with the town. Alas that we shall never again feel his hand-clasp, or hear his infectious laugh, or see his wonderful smile, for the man, four-square to the world, is no longer with us. The Edmundston Observer joins that great number who would feign offer their word of sympathy to Mrs. Dayton, and her children, in this great hour of their loss.

A GREETING AND AN APPRECIATION

(Edmundston Observer)
It is with pleasure we greet the arrival of a new journal at Edmundston. The Edmundston Observer is the name. It is published with the view of interesting the English element in the town. When reading their program we see that in politics their policy is "equal chance for all." Our conferees also favors the idea of a French page for the French speaking person who may be interested in it. It is a great idea and we know how to appreciate it. The Madawaska is glad to wish our new conferees the best of success as well as long life and prosperity.—Le Madawaska.

The above is among the editorials in last week's Madawaska, the weekly newspaper published here in the French language. We thank the Madawaska for its kind wishes. There can be no greater task before the newspapers of this Canada of ours than to bring together the two great races which have had such a large share in the history of our country.

The more the English speaking person sees of the French speaking person, and vice versa, the less prejudice is likely to hold sway. The Madawaska is an old established paper here and we thank its editor and publishers for their good wishes. And we would reciprocate in good wishes—continued success and continued prosperity to the pioneer newspaper of Edmundston.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freesone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of foot.

A tiny bottle of "Freesone" costs little as any drug store, apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or surgery. Truly! No humbug!

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

"Earthbound" on Wednesday and "King Spruce" on Saturday furnished the picture thrills this week. These pictures were of widely diverse topics and furnished both education and amusement to crowds on each night. It is already getting to be a habit and many await the coming of Wednesday and Saturday evening in pleasant anticipation of a treat. We only hope that the management makes them better each night and success will follow as a natural result.
