A German Officer Dies From Sunstroke During the Maneuvers.

Pope Leo Expresses Admiration for President Cleveland.

Archbishop of Moscow Dead.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 17.—Archbishop Leonti of Moscow died there on Monday.

Fierce Fight Between Workmen.

PARIS, Aug. 17.—French and Italian workmen fought in Aigues-Mortes, Department of Gard, to-day. Ten men were killed and 40 were wounded.

Mr. Tupper En Route for Home.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Charles H. Tupper, Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and British agent at the Bering Sea arbitration, sailed for Montreal on the steamer Parisian to-day.

Killed by Sunstroke.

BERLIN, Aug. 17.—A review of military maneuvers was held to-day at Konigsberg. The weather was intensely warm and the soldiers suffered greatly. Count Klinkowstroen suffered a sunstroke and died in a few minutes.

Cholera Still Increasing.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 17.—Official returns indicate a further increase of cholera. The epidemic is especially severe in Moscow, where 168 new cases and 67 deaths from the disease were reported from Aug. 8 to Aug. 12.

Blake and the Veto Power.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—In the House of Commons yesterday Hon. Edward Blake, speaking on the power of her Majesty's veto, said that in 99 cases out of 100 it was ultra vires. The proper way of deciding was by the courts of justice. A grevious mistake would be made if the veto were exercised, except in cases of an extraordinary character, but there certainly might be cases where the veto should be put in force.

Dr. Gallagher.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—United Ireland, of Dublin, to-day says that repeated representations made to Right Hon. Herbert H. Asquith, Secretary of the Home Office, regarding the mental condition of Dr. Thomas Gallagher, convinced him that the prisoner was insane, and orders were given for Dr. Gallagher's release from prison. The paper adds that Dr. Gallagher is now on a ship en route for New York.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—Home Secretary Asbuith states Dr. Gallagher has not been released, and the Government has no intention of releasing him.

The Cholera Record.

NAPLES, Aug. 17.—During the 24 hours ending at noon yesterday there were eleven new cases of cholera in this city and eight deaths from the disease.

United States Surgeon-General Wyman at Washington received a cablegram from Antwerp this morning stating that since last advices six new cases of cholera had developed, five of which proved fatal. Emigrants, the dispatch says, will now be isolated in selected hotels for five days and guarded by watchmen. The steamer Pennland will be used as a floating hotel and medical assistance will be employed when necessary.

The Bombay Riots.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—A Calcutta dispatch to the Times referring to the recent riots in Bombay, says the cow killing incident was made a pretext for the opening of hostilities. The enmity between the Mohammedans and Hindoos has been growing wider and wider.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—A dispatch from Bombay says although there has been no renewal of rioting in that city to-day, confidence has not yet been fully restored. The shops are closed and every train leaving the city is filled with families carrying the personal effects of those who are returning to their native districts with a view of security in case of general trouble. The working people refuse to resume their occupations until after to-morrow, which is a Mohammedian prayer day.

The Pope and the President.

ROME, Aug. 17.—The Pope to-day again received the Rev. Wm. E. Bartlett, of Baltimore, chairman of the examiners of schools. His Holiness spoke affectionately of President Cleveland, whose letter recently forwarded through Cardinal Gibbons to the head of the church greatly impressed his Holiness.

The Pope alluded in a friendly manner to Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Keane, rector of the Catholic University of America; Dr. O'Connell, rector of the American college in Rome, and the Very Rev. T. Bouquillon professer of moral theology and dean of the divinity faculty of the Catholic University of America. He extolled Prof. Bouquillon's wisdom and enlightened spirit. Prof. Bouquillon has given the Pope a long treatise on the situation at the university of Washington and the condition of the church in the United States.

Prof. Bouquillon, who will leave Rome shortly, expresses himself as hopeful of the normal development of American matters. The Pope will shortly publish an important document with reference to the Washington University.

Late Canadian News

Thursday was Ottawa's civic holiday.

Harvest was begun in most places in the Northwest, but will not be general for a week or so. The weather is favorable.

The average daily earnings of the Toronto street railway during the three months ending May 31, 1893, was $1,935 40.

The Winnipeg special ran into a C. P. R. excursion train at St. Rose, Que., Thursday evening, and smashed up one of the hind cars. Fortunately nobody was hurt.

Geo. Olds, general traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with the trade already done by the new Canadian steamship line to Australia.

Jennie Van Camp, the girl who disappeared from the British American Hotel, at Windsor, two weeks ago, is at the home of her parents at Buel, Saulac, Mich., and is very sick, according to a letter received from her parents.

Owing to the frequent occurrence of marine disasters in the Straits of Belle Isle the council of the Quebec Board of Trade will ask the Federal Government to complete the system of Gulf telegraphy by constructing a cable between Anticosti and Belle Isle.

Herman Jackson, of Springville, N. Y., was accidentally shot while hunting on Hollow Lake, Muskoka, on Wednesday. He was a son of Dr. W. H. Jackson, who with his wife and son Herman and Mrs. S. E. Spalding, of Springville, were spending their holidays on the South Muskoka River.

The Financial Outlook of the Big Show Is Brightening.

Marked Increase in Earnings and Decrease in Expenses.

The Peace Congress—A Claim That Women Can Put an End to Militaryism.

WORLD' FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The financial outlook of the World's Fair was never brighter than it is now. Since the recent radical reductions in the running expenses there has been a marked increase in the earnings and the attendance is growing larger daily. Fifteen special World's Fair trains brought 11,600 visitors into the city last night. They were all from eastern points and came because of low rates offered by eastern lines. While the gate receipts are increasing, the fair officials say that the average amount of money spent by each visitor is 20 per cent. less than during the first months of the fair. They account for this in two ways. First, it is due to scarcity of money and hard times; second, there is a change in the character of the people who are now coming. At the opening of the fair the visitors were mainly from large cities, and now those from rural districts are beginning to arrive. Never before has there been such a rush for admission at the gates as to-day.

A statement of World's Fair finances shows that it has liabilities of $1,190,462, besides outstanding debenture bonds of $4,444,500. Receipts from concessions for July were $600,000. Receipts from all sources about $80,000 a day and expenses $15,000. The net revenue for the remainder of the fair is expected to be about $4,000,000, leaving a margin over debts for stock dividends.

The feature of the Peace Congress yesterday was a paper by Mrs. Ormiston Chant, of London, holding that it is within the power of the women of the world to disband all armies and put an end to militaryism. Plans are being prepared for a great petition from the Christian bodies of the world to Governments asking that arbitration for the settlement of all international disputes be agreed upon.

The leading feature of to-day's session of the peace congress was a telegram concerning the outcome of the international conference in Paris which was sent to Queen Victoria and to President Cleveland. The motion passed amid much enthusiasm. The joint messages read as follows:

"To her Majesty, the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and to Grover Cleveland, President of the United States — The World's Peace Congress, of Chicago sends equel congratulations to Great Britain and America on the triumph of arbitration as a substitute for war exemplified in the recent Bering Sea decision, cementing the friendship of both nations, and full of happiest augury for mankind."

A favorable report was made by the committee on the organization of an international court of arbitration.

The paid admissions at the World's Fair to-day were 140,404.

THE DROWNING RECORD.

Miss Kate Hanson Loses Her Life at Sorel.

A Toronto Boy Falls From His Bicycle Into the Bay—Fatalities in New York State.

MONTREAL, Aug. 17.—Miss Kate Hanson, second daughter of C. D. Hanson, the well-known insurance adjuster, was drowned last evening at Sorel. She was out in a canoe and the craft upsetting, before help could reach her Miss Hanson had sunk. She was well known in social circles here.

TORONTO, Aug. 17.—Willsure Bean, a 12-year old boy living on Dundas street, was riding a bicycle this morning at the foot of Bay street, near the edge of the bay, when he was upset, and falling into the water, he was drowned before assistance could reach him.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Joseph Ketchum, jun., aged 13, son of Joseph Ketchum, of Classen avenue, Brooklyn, was drowned while bathing in a pond at Millbrook, Duchess county.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Miss Josephine B. Knapp, aged 28 years, was drowned while bathing at Lake Huntington, Sullivan county.

MANGLED BY A SAW.

Shocking Death of a Lad in an Owen Sound Factory.

OWEN SOUND, Ont., Aug. 14.—Fred Mitchell, a 9-year-old boy, wandered unnoticed into the North American Bent Chair Company's factory this afternoon, and while the sawyer's back was turned approached the big circular saw. The sawyer, hearing a peculiar sound, turned and found young Mitchell's body caught in the guide of the saw, which had cut off all the back portion of his head, his left shoulder and left arm. The coroner decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Laurier's Movements.

The Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the Liberal party, will come to Ontario early in September. It is expected that his first meeting in this Province will be held probably in North York on the 5th of the month. He will remain in Ontario for three or four weeks, and it is likely will address three meetings a week during that time. The dates on which, and the places at which, he will speak have not yet been definitely settled.

Frightful Catastrophe!

A Train Precipitated Into a Swollen Stream

By the Collapse of an Undermined Bridge.

Seven Persons Killed Outright and Others Injured—Names of the Victims.

DANVILLE, Va., Aug. 17.—An accident occurred at the county line trestle just east of Milton yesterday morning at 2:50 o'clock, by which two passenger coaches and a sleeper were precipitated into the creek below, a distance of 60 feet, killing seven persons outright and wounding a number of others. The train left here at 1:35 o'clock in the morning. After passing through Milton and going over the trestle the engineer, Peyton Tunstall, who says he was running at the rate of ten miles an hour,

FELT THE BRIDGE GIVING WAY.

He threw open the throttle and the engine and tender and a box car got safely over, but the passenger car was too late, and the span went down under its weight, the second passenger car and the sleeper following. The cars were shivered into kindling wood, and the escape of any of the passengers was a miracle. The water in the creek had risen to a depth of twelve or more feet, and it is the general belief that the rise had undermined the foundation of the iron peers, causing the trestle to settle.

THOSE ON BOARD.

On the train at the time were about sixteen persons, including the train hands; but only one of the latter, Conductor H. Morris, of Portsmouth, was killed, none of the others receiving serious injuries.

In the sleeper were Mrs. Harvey Giersch, two children and nurse, of Winston, N. C., Conductor J. L. Siser, of Richmond, and J. R. Townes, colored porter. The nurse was drowned. The conductor and porter were slightly injured. The depot agent at Milton heard the crash and immediately gave the alarm by tolling the bell. The people turned out in force and went at once to rescue the dead and injured from the debris. The following are the killed and wounded.

KILLED.

H. Morris, conductor, Portsmouth, Va.
W. R. Ellison, Alton, Va.
J. G. Davies, a farmer, of Baskerville, Va.
W. H. Ellam, of Durham, N. C.
Jas. S. Lowe, a railroad conductor from the west, who was a passenger.
Thomas Lee (colored), of Winston, N. C.
Francis Jenkins (colored), of Salem, N. C.

INJURED.

Mrs. Harvey Geirsch, of Salem, N. C., slightly.
J. L. Siser, of Richmond, Va., Pullman conductor, foot smashed and also hurt internally.
J. R. Townes, colored porter on Pullman sleeper, slightly bruised.
Davis, flagman, hurt about head and face and foot sprained.

IN LABOR'S FIELD.

Baie des Chaleurs Railway Men Strike for Their Pay.

A New York Printers' Strike Won by the Men — Cutting Work and Wages in Pennsylvania.

QUEBEC, Aug. 17.—The trouble the Baie des Chaleurs Railway Company are having with their men is causing much comment. On several occasions the men have gone out on strike, claiming that they had not been paid. The company claim that their utmost indebtedness for wages does not exceed $2,000. The company are also experiencing trouble with farmers along the line of railway who have put in claims for land that the railway runs through. They claim that these farmers ceded this land to the railroad company.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The Commercial Bulletin and Journal of Commerce came out on Tuesday with eight pages instead of twelve, owing to a strike of the 50 union compositors employed on the paper. The trouble arose over the introduction of typesetting machines in the composing room, and non-union men were brought in. On Tuesday, after the failure of an attempt to secure a sufficient force of non-union men, the union men were recalled on the old terms, slightly modified.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 17.—The Dickson Manufacturing Company, employing 1,200 persons in the manufacture of locomotives and mine machinery, has posted notices of a ten per cent. reduction in wages in all of the departments.

WARREN, Mass., Aug. 17.—Knowle's steam pump works, which have been running five days of eight hours weekly, have laid off 180 of their 450 employes. These and the cotton mill operatives who have been laid off make about 900 hands thrown out of employment here since the financial stringency began.

ANSONIA, Aug. 17.—The Derby paper mills owned by Wilkinson Brothers & Co., Duane street, New York, notified its employes of a reduction of 15 per cent. in wages. The manager told them it was either less pay or a shut down entirely. The reduction was accepted without question.

ILION, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Sixty employes of the Remington typewriter works have been laid off, and those remaining will work only five hours a day until further notice.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 17.—The street car employes of the whole city system struck this morning, owing to a 20 per cent. cut in wages.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 17.—A telegram from M. L. Walters, president of the mines in the southeastern Kansas district, states that the miners' strike has been declared off. They accepted the proposition, by which it is agreed that the new schedule of wages shall be made exactly equal to the old.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 17.—The seventh biennial report of the bureau of labor statistics is divided into three parts, one of which is devoted to showing the condition of the working women of Chicago, another to the Chicago sweating system, and still another to the coal mining industry of the State. The first part, relating to Chicago working women, presents a table showing that out of 4,526 women employed in 41 industries, 21 were working for less than $2 per week and 17 were receiving $20 or more per week.

Between these extremes the greater numbers are massed in three classes earning from $4 to $7 per week, as follows: Six hundred and seventy-five received from $4 to $5, 882 from $5 to $6, 860 from $6 to $7. Below this central group are found 680 who earn less than $4 per week, and above it are found 1,429 who earn from $7 to over $25 per week. This, then, is the general statement concerning 4,520 women and girls employed in 90 establishments in 41 industries, the same being all the employes of every rank and grade in each establishment: That 15.2 per cent. of the whole number earn less than $4 a week; 53.4 from $4 to $7, and 31.58 per cent. from $7 upward. The average earnings of the whole number, both office hands and operatives, were $6 22 a week. Those who earn more than this average were 42.90 per cent. of the whole, and they received an average of $8 18 a week. Those who earned less than the average were 57.10 per cent. of the whole, and they received an average of $4 91 a week. In the matter of gains and losses, out of 2,819 working women, 2,369 report neither saving nor debt; 423 have some accumulation, and 27 report a failure to meet their expenses.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 17.—There is no change in the situation with the Manitoba and Northwestern Railroad, which is practically paralyzed by a strike which now extends through every department. The receiver has refused to pay nearly three months back pay, claiming he had no authority from the courts. The line extends from Winnipeg to Yankton.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 17.—A telegram from Winnipeg just received announces that the court has ordered the receiver of the Manitoba and Northwestern to pay all back wages due and the strike is declared off.

Further Failures.

Serious Effects of the Tight Money Market.

Several Strong Concerns Compelled to Suspend.

About 20,000 Miles of Railroad in the Hands of Receivers.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 17.—The Standard Wagon Company, one of the largest concerns of the kind in the west, failed to-day. Assets, $1,200,000; liabilities, $700,000. The tight money market is given as the cause of the failure. The officers of the company hope to secure an extension of time.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 17.—The Oliver Iron and Steel Company, one of the largest concerns in the country, went into the hands of a receiver to-day. If only reasonable time is given the company claim that all liabilities could be satisfied without sacrificing the assets or destroying the value of the property. The company has extensive plants in Pittsburg and Allegheny, and employs about 4,000 men. They are also largely interested in the coke and natural gas business. When in full operation the sales of the company will aggregate $5,500,000 per annum.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Vice-President Williams, of the Northern Pacific Railway Company, has made the following statement:

"In consequence of the extraordinary depression of business and the stoppage of shipments along its line, the Northern Pacific Railroad Company has been forced to acquiesce in an application for the appointment of receivers. The money stringency prevents the marketing of crops, cattle and products of all kinds; consequently the road is not getting the traffic usual to this season of the year. The failures of banks have tied up money upon which we depended for cash. The depression prevailing over the whole country has been exceptionally severe in the younger States, so that general business along our main and branch lines has been practically at a standstill."

There are now about 20,000 miles of railroad in the United States in the hands of receivers out of a total at the end of 1892 of 175,223 miles. This estimate includes the Northern Pacific, 5,262 miles; the Erie, 1,968 miles; Richmond and Danville, 3,258 miles; East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, 2,613 miles; Georgia Central, 2,681 miles; Reading, 1,185 miles; Union Pacific, Denver and Gulf, 1,463, and a number of smaller companies.

Shelved Again!

Street Railway Matters Debated by the Aldermen.

The Whole Business Goes Back to No. 1 Committee,

Who Claim to Have Done all They Can in the Matter.

Citizens Object to Having the Line Traverse King, Talbot and Askin Streets—Ald. Parnell Moves the Adoption of the London Street Railway Company's Offer, but is Not Supported.

The City Council met last night, and after discussing street railway matters until past midnight the rock of "percentage" was struck, and with it such a hopeless variance of opinion that the whole question was again referred back to No. 1 committee. This fate had threatened to overtake the matter under discussion early in the evening, and only the vigorous protests of the chairman, Ald. Moule, Ald. Welford and Ald. Parnell prevented it being done. It happened at last in this wise: Ald. Moule had, with characteristic forethought, provided a generous lunch in No. 1 committee room, and about 12:20 a.m. he was, with several other members of that committee, vigorously engaged in attending to it. In the meantime Ald. Stevely's motion, referring the matter back to No. 1 committee to try and get offers of a percentage and mileage for the road, was carried, and after the committee of the whole arising and reporting progress, the council adjourned, much to the surprise of the members who were busily fortifying themselves for a further tussle. Ald. Parnell came out boldly in the meeting and moved the adoption of the London Street Railway Company's offer, but he was not supported. Ald. J. W. Jones led the van in the demand for a percentage of receipts, and as most of the council was with him, it is likely that unless such an offer is made the horse cars will continue in vogue. Both companies in quest of the road object to the percentage clause, and it looks as if the whole matter has, for this season anyway, been shelved. The aldermen were all present with the exception of Messrs. Connor and Coo.

City Clerk Kingston read a largely signed protest from the residents of King street against the placing of an electric line on King street. Numerous reasons were assigned. It was, the petition read, the finest residential portion of the city, and its beauty would be destroyed by a railway. Again, the pavement was too narrow, and the crowd around the market would make the line dangerous on market days. Dundas street was near enough for their purposes, and in conclusion York street was recommended as the proposed route.

Another was received from ward 6, protesting against the proposed line on Askin street. It would entail unnecessary curves and grades, and asked that Bruce street be used instead.

The merchants on Talbot street, between Dundas and King streets, also made a similar objection.

After the reading of these communications they were laid over until Ald. John Moule, chairman of No. 1 committee, had made his report, Ald. Garratt intimating a remedy that he would broach when the matter again recurred.

Ald. Moule's report consisted in the reading of the different offers that had been before his committee for the past several months. After Mr. Moule had read the London Street Railway's offer, Ald. Parnell relieved him and read over Col. Clark's offer.

This occupied fully an hour, and after reading the two offers Mr. Parnell took up the second or optional offer of Col. Clark. The only difference between it and the first one was, briefly, that instead of undertaking to do their own road-bed repairing, supplying materials, etc., the city were to do it and receive 2 per cent. of the receipts for the first five years, 3 per cent. for the next five, 4 per cent. for the third five years, and for the remainder of the term 5 per cent.

Ald. Charles Taylor, raised an objection here that the councilors had not been supplied with the revised offer.

The mayor allowed that he could not go on with the meeting in the face of that fact.

Ald. Parnell explained that the sub-committee had worked might and main, night and day, to get the Clark offer as far advanced as it was. The colonel, Mr. Parnell stated, had no time to spend eight or ten weeks humbugging about the offer. It was to facilitate matters for that gentleman that the meeting had been called.

Ald. Thos. Jones then moved that the council go into committee of the whole for the purpose of discussing the London Street Railway Company's offer.

Ald. Garratt moved in amendment that neither offer be discussed, but that Ald. Taylor, J. W. Jones, Thos. Jones, Welford and himself be a committee to locate the routes along the various streets. Ward 4 had been overlooked, he said, and he did not propose to allow that.

Ald. Parnell arose, and stated that there had been an evident effort to balk the matter for the present year. He did not propose to defer action any longer, and looked upon the previous motion as a direct slap in the face to No. 1 committee. Both offers were the best that could be got from either gentlemen. Col. Clark had positively stated that his offer was final. He therefore moved in further amendment that the proposition of the London Street Railway Company, as submitted to the council that night, be adopted and sent on to the city solicitor to prepare the proper bylaw.

A long-drawn "Oh" greeted this first definite motion that the council had received in the street railway matter. It was such an unusual sensation that the alderman who had his breath taken away by it can readily be excused.

Ald. J. W. Jones arose and gave an indignant glance in Ald. Parnell's direction. He, for one, did not propose to be lectured by him. His motion had not been seconded

RIOT IN NEW YORK.

A Great Gathering of the Unemployed.

Excited Men Force Their Way Into a Hall That Was Closed Against Them—The Police Finally Restore Order.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The first of the riots which labor leaders and others have been predicting as a result of the large number of men out of employment occurred this morning. A crowd of more than 5,000 men attacked Walhalla Hall, on Orchard street, because admittance was denied them. They smashed the plate-glass windows into atoms, forced in the door which had been turned against them and forcibly took possession of the place. Several persons were cut by the flying glass. All sorts of missiles were used.

Finally the police reserves from the Eldridge street station were ordered to the scene, and succeeded in partly dislodging the crowd. Those forming the crowd included many Hebrews, representing principally the clothing trades.

The International Labor Exchange on East Tenth street, where the men have been holding their meetings, proved too small to accommodate the crowds, and the purpose of the laboring men was to hold a large meeting in Walhalla Hall. A man who was addressing the crowd was taken into custody. The proprietor of the hall asked Capt. Devery to clear the hall of the thousand excited people who were howling inside. Capt. Devery with a dozen men entered the hall by a side door when some one foolishly locked the main door on the outside.

When the speaker caught sight of the police he shouted "The police! The police! Escape!" Then a chorus of shouts went up all over the hall. Some one cried: "No, we'll stay here till our comrades arrested this morning are released."

Capt. Devery ordered them out. Then a scene of wild confusion followed. The men were so enraged at the proprietor that they wrecked the place. Forming themselves into a battering ram they rushed at the locked doors, which were torn from their hinges. The men lost their heads completely and were panic-stricken. Those in the rear were kicked out by the police. The police drove the crowd up Grand street, where it was reinforced by others, and an attack was made upon the police. A humber of the mob were injured, but the police captured the ringleaders, after which the crowd fled.

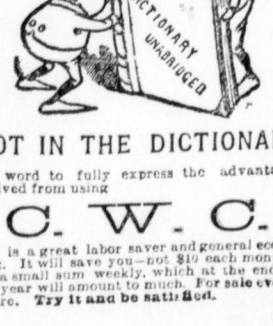

DE COURCEL'S SPEECH.

A Remarkable Passage—An Innovation—The Domain of the Sea.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times quotes a passage from the speech of Baron de Courcel in closing the session of the Bering Sea tribunal as worthy of preservation. Baron de Courcel said:

"We have sought to maintain intact the fundamental principle of this august right of peoples, which extends like the vault of the sky about all nations and borrows from the laws of nature itself to protect one people of the earth against another, and to inculcate in them principles of mutual good will. In the regulations we were intrusted to elaborate we had to decide between divergent rights and interests which it was difficult to conciliate. The Governments of the United States and Great Britain promised with good grace to accept and carry out our decisions. Our voluntary engagement should leave no regrets on the part of either one of them, although we have taken of both what they will perhaps regard as serious sacrifices. Part of our work consists of innovation. Hitherto the nations had agreed to leave outside of all special legislation the vast domain of the seas, yet the sea after the land has become small for men who like the hero Alexander, and not less ardent in work than he in glory, display their energies in a world too narrow. Our work is the first attempt to share the products, hitherto undefined, of the ocean, by a ruling to be applied to goods which have escaped every other law except that of first comer. If the attempt succeeds it will undoubtedly be followed by numerous imitations until the entire planet on the waters as on the continents shall have become the object of jealous divisions. Then perhaps the conception of property will change among men.

AS BIG AS BASEBALLS!

Hailstones That Smashed Sidewalks and Killed Cattle.

A Man and Two Boys Caught in a Field and Mangled.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 17.—Telegrams received here from Goodland show the hail storm which visited that place Monday afternoon was the most destructive in the history of the State, considering the scope of country covered. The area of the storm was three miles square, and the town of Goodland was in the center. The hailstones averaged the size of baseballs, many of them weighing two pounds.

Fully twenty buildings are badly damaged, many wood and a few tin roofs being entirely ruined. The monster hail stones tore through corrugated iron. The sides of many buildings were ruined, inch boards being torn into slivers. Several hundred feet of sidewalk were broken into splinters. The Rock Island Railroad suffered heavy loss. Twelve hundred roof lights in the shops were riddled.

Reports state that the damage in the country was heavy, many horses and cattle having been killed. One farmer lost a dozen fine steers that were caught in the pasture and beaten to death. A man named Wood and two boys were caught in the field and frightfully mangled by the hail stones. All three are in a serious condition and will probably die. In many places the hail lay on the ground to the depth of ten inches.

STARVED THOUGH RICH.

Pitiful Story of Lucille Adams, Who Died at aGotham Hospital.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The relatives of Lucille Adams, the actress, who died in Bellevue Hospital last Friday, and whose death was at least partially due to starvation, now say that she left an estate valued at nearly $500,000. J. Alexander Brown, the dramatic agent, said yesterday that he had known Lucille Adams for a great many years and had always been her agent. Her property consisted of gold, silver and lead mines in California, he said, and she had always drawn a regular income from them until about nine months ago. Then some litigation in California stopped her income for awhile, but she always was confident of winning in the litigation. Miss Adams has two brothers and a sister, a Mrs. Gardner, living in San Francisco. Mrs. Gardner wrote to a friend in this city a short time ago that Mrs. Adams had property in California worth considerably over $300,000, and that, while it was in litigation, there was no doubt about her title to it being assured in October.

CHRISTIAN LARCENY.

[From Wives and Daughters.]

A bright article in the Christian Union deals with several kinds of larceny that are common among Christians as well as agnostics. One form is not unknown among women. They sometimes forget the commandment that forbids our coveting our neighbor's maid-servant. "There are certain very common practices among church people which, for brevity, may be characterized as Christian larceny, and I cannot see that they disclose any particular tenderness toward their brethren in the faith. For example, there are many good Christian women engaged in housekeeping who, when they are in want of a cook, are guilty of coveting their neighbor's maid-servant and getting her away if they decently can. The good woman says to a third good woman: 'Oh, dear! How I wish I had a cook like Mrs. So-and-so's! I don't suppose she has any idea of leaving her place, though.' Somehow that cook calls on the covetous good woman in a few days, and intimates that Mrs. So-and-so does not altogether suit her, and perhaps she could be induced to make a change. But the good woman says very firmly: 'Oh, I couldn't think of taking you away from Mrs. So-and-so; but if you should leave her and want a place, just let me know.' 'What wages do you pay, ma'am?' 'So much'—which is half a dollar more than Mrs. So-and-so pays. Curiously enough, that cook turns up in the new place at the end of the week, and Mrs. So-and-so makes it hot in the parish for the new employer. I have put this case very mildly for the covetous woman. Frequently she takes measures much more direct and undisguised to do her neighbor a culinary injury. I don't believe that agnostic women do any worse than this."

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and distressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In late years this form of disease has become better known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly increased in numbers, as well as in efficiacy. Among the most powerful and penetrating combinations, placed within the reach of the public for the relief of neuralgia, we can mention no remedy equal to or more certain than Polson's Nervilime. Its power over pain is something wonderful, and we advise a trial for neuralgia, or any other painful complaints.

If there are lady bank cashiers in Finland, it must be an awful scandal when the cashier elopes with a needy young man and a part of the deposits.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

THAT RAILWAY PROBLEM.

James Elliot, of Westminster, Tells How It Affects Farmers.

They Want Better Service—The G. T. R Claims Advocated—The Syndicate Collapse.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

I may state, at the outset, that so far as I know the people living in the country have been a silent but by no means disinterested party in the settlement of this much-vexed question. We hear again of another syndicate. I think the experience of the one syndicate ought to be yet ringing in the ears of our city fathers. We heard of great things to be accomplished by it, but what was the result? Well, in the first place we had a general muddle of train service as compared with that which we enjoyed from the G. T. R. Secondly we find employes all along the line out of wages to the tune of from $35 to $60, and without apparent hope of obtaining them. I was told by an official that in the matter of fares we would get from them whatever we had had from the G. T. R., yet in trying to get a student's ticket for my son attending the high school, when the official was informed what the G. T. R. rate was he exclaimed "Great guns!" but did not fire out the ticket. We saw an office opened up town, and "Cities' Railway" in gold on the window, but to-day it is no longer there, and Ichabod might well be written there instead.

Now, I do not think any syndicate can operate the road to the same advantage as one of the lines of railway we have, as they already have the necessary locomotives and rolling stock, whereas the others must obtain these, either by purchase or lease, at great expense; but if a syndicate of American citizens can operate the road to make it pay, why cannot one formed of our own people do it? So much for syndicates. Now as to our country views of the road as at present operated. Some thought at first that the change would be beneficial; but what do they think of it to-day now that it has stood the test? Why, we are simply left out in the cold. Better, as I said at the time, let well enough alone.

Now, let me explain: Westminster is my station, and by the G. T. R. we had a morning train to connect with the early train for Sarnia, Stratford, L., H. and B. and Windsor trains, and also to take in scholars attending high school, which was a great privilege. We also had an evening train, much better than at present, for their return in the evening, and a number of other connections, which space here forbids mentioning, are lost to us. Again, to-day we have to pay 30 cents to get to and from London any day of the week, whereas by the G. T. R. 25 cents was the ordinary fare, with market returns on Saturdays for 15 cents, the result being that where from 15 to 30 went by train on Saturday by G. T. R. only an occasional passenger is taken. I tell you we don't like it. It may be all right to have connections with the M. C. R., but why not have it as in the past, and let us have the accommodation we enjoyed from the G. T. R.? As to the cry that should the G. T. R. get the road that Port Stanley and lake traffic would both be lost, I think it is all bosh. Port Stanley will be hard to kill on one hand and hard to fatten on the other, but she has a perfect right to enjoy her railway and water privileges; and I think London is standing in her own light in this war against the G. T. R., as she has far more at stake than the M. C. R. in London. Hoping you will find space for this in your valuable paper, I close for the present.

JAMES ELLIOT,
Wilton Grove, Westminster, Ont.

THE FAIR OPEN NEXT SUMMER.

Chauncey M. Depew Says This Is Emphatically His Desire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The efforts of western congressmen at Washington to keep the World's Fair open next summer are being keenly watched by those New Yorkers who have an interest in the project. When asked as to his views on the matter Chauncey M. Depew said today:

"Do I think it best to keep the fair open another season? Yes, emphatically. It is a grand enterprise and it is not fully appreciated by the people. Of course none of us expected the financial cataclysm which has fallen upon this part of the earth and which has done such injury to the fair. But panics cannot last long; they never do last more than six months. The result will be that next year hundreds and hundreds of thousands from all over the land will go to Chicago. This year men, large and small, do not dare to leave their business for fears of banks and mills closing, although they may desire to visit Chicago, and, of course, as a rule, families do not wish to go without the husband and father—that is, from any considerable distance. As is known, the New York Central prepared for a heavy increase of travel, but today that to the west is not above normal. This shows what I mean."

TWO OPINIONS.

Uncle Sam Gets the Seals, and England Dyes the Skins.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 17.—Herman Sieber, of the North American Commercial Company, in speaking of the Bering Sea decision to-day, said: "In that decision we get just what belonged to us. Our rights have been preserved, and those of England have not been infringed upon. We have the seals and England dyes the skins."

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 17.—Sealers here are more than ever disgusted with the result of the Bering Sea arbitration. Capt. Cox, president of the Sealers' Association, says as matters stand now the business is destroyed.

The Lost Found.

QUEBEC, Aug. 17.—Great excitement was created among a picnic party of the summer residents of Murray Bay the other day by the disappearance of a 5-year-old child belonging to the Wright family of Toronto. A search party, organized by the Hon. S. H. Blake, finally succeeded in finding the missing child towards 7 o'clock in the evening, and about two miles away in the bush from where the picnic was held.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

Gold is crossing the Atlantic now quite as frequently as the other high-toned passengers.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you

BRANT.

Samuel Allchin, a respected resident of Paris, over 70 years of age, married Mrs. Rosena Brown, of Brantford, the other day at the former's residence. Rev. A. Brown, B.A., tied the knot.

ELGIN.

Early Tuesday morning thieves entered Foster & Hobbs' hardware store, Tilsonburg, by taking a pane of glass out of the back window. They took four revolvers, a quantity of No. 32 cartridges and some jackknives, the total value of the articles being $25. The burglars went out through the front door, leaving it open. The work is evidently that of novices.

The Tilsonburg stove factory was offered for sale by public auction, and was purchased by Messrs. Weston for the sum of $50 for buildings and the same amount for patterns, the town still holding a mortgage of $3,000 on the foundry.

One day recently Mrs. A. N. C. Black, of Dutton, was in the act of lifting a kettle from the stove when the flames caught her dress, a print one. In a moment Mrs. Black was enveloped in flames, which rose above her head. Too terrified to act calmly, she ran out of the open door, where her son was standing. The young man seized a pailfull of water, dashed it over her and then threw his arms around her. His sister was also present, and the two succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not before their hands were severely burned. Mrs. Black's escape was marvelous, the front of her dress being completely destroyed.

A monster picnic was held on Thursday in the grove adjoining St. Paul's Church, Mersea township. Mayor Fleming, of Windsor, acted as chairman, and addresses were given by Messrs. J. A. Buchanan, Asa Cronk and A. Ludam, of Leamington; Editor McKay, of the Leamington Post, and Rev. Messrs. Gilchrist and Elliott. The choir of St. Paul's Church furnished music. Fully 1,500 people participated in the day's enjoyment.

ESSEX.

The Liberals of South Essex have invited Hon. Mr. Laurier to speak at Leamington, and he has accepted the invitation, stating that he would in a few days fix the date of the meeting. It is likely the demonstration will be held early in September.

KENT.

The peach crop in Kent promises to be splendid this year. Ed. Smith, of Cedar Springs, near Rondeau, will have over 3,000 baskets of fine Crawfords to market. Other producers have orchards that will be equally productive.

LAMBTON.

The Sherman Company's canvas for the Port Huron City Directory makes the population of Port Huron 19,165.

MIDDLESEX.

A correspondent from near Byron writes: A largely signed petition has been gotten up both here and at Hyde Park, asking the Rev. Mr. Diehl, Church of England, to resign his charge in both places. "The cause of this action," continues the correspondent, "arises from some alleged heterodoxy on the part of the reverend gentleman. He emphatically denies the Scriptural authority for eternal punishment, and he further asserts that there is nothing in the articles or dogmas of the Episcopal Church that teaches eternal punishment." Quite a sensation has been created in religious circles in Byron and Hyde Park, says the correspondent, and the Rev. Mr. Diehl has a great many sympathizers in all the churches. Several of both congregations in Byron and Hyde Park have appealed to the Bishop of Huron in the matter, and it is thought a commission at an early day may be appointed to try the case and determine this theological point.

The following is the report of the promotion examinations held in school section No. 8, Mosa, June, 1893: Third to fourth —Sarah J. McAlpine 578, Robt. Campbell 537, John McKellar 509, Dan Munro 482, Rosena Munro 460, Sarah McKellar 449. First to second—Andrew Leitch 371, Nettie May Ferguson 345, Katie Ann Ferguson 333, Malcolm Ferguson 316, Maggie Bell Livingston 314, Alexander Livingston 286. Entrance—Betsy L. McAlpine, Bella L. McAlpine, Duncan H. Taylor, Bella McKellar, Hugh McGougan, teacher.

A son of Mrs. Henry Miller, of con. 3 of McGillivray, fell from a load and broke his arm and dislocated the elbow the other day.

The Glencoe council will fix the assessment of the G. T. R. there at $1,900, if the latter construct a new station house and a siding as they propose.

PERTH.

James Grieve, M.P., has fully recovered from the accident he sustained recently at a barn-raising.

Harding Stevens, of St. Marys, received a telegram Wednesday from J. M. Sanders, merchant, Florida, informing him that he has been left a fortune by a deceased nephew, consisting of an orange grove and other property.

The Young Liberals of Mitchell are making preparations for the reception of Hon. W. Laurier in that town early in September. A large number from St. Marys and vicinity will also attend.

For the past two years the people of Mitchell have had a lively time over their assessment and courts of appeal before County Judge Woods. At the last council meeting the mayor presented a report reviewing the action of Judge Woods and recommending "that a special committee be appointed, whose duty it shall be to obtain all particulars and report thereon to the Hon. Minister of Justice." The report was adopted.

Principal Levan, of the Owen Sound Collegiate Institute, formerly of St. Marys, has been offered the vice-principalship of the Toronto School of Pedagogy at a salary of $2,000 a year.

The How of It.

How poor, how rich, how abject, how august, how complicated, how wonderful is man; and it might be added, how "more so" is woman. With her peculiarly delicate and intense organization she is the superlative degree of man. Even in diseases she excels him, having many that he has not. She has, however, found out a grand remedial agent for the cure of her diseases in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; a medicine suited to her nature, made for the express cure of those diseases which affect her. It is specially effective in all weaknesses incidental to motherhood, while it is also a potent restorative tonic for the feeble and debilitated generally.

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

Auld Scotia's Day at Glencoe—Professional and Amateur Athletic Events.

GLENCOE, Aug. 17.—The Caledonian games under the auspices of the Sons of Scotland were held here yesterday. They were well attended. At an early hour the town was astir. The kilt and tartan were to be seen. The drone of the bagpipes was a familiar sound. The town was gay and buoyant with waiving flags. Sturdy sons of Caledonia took possession—men of 'beef and brawn.' All were enthusiastic. Pleasant memories were awakened; old friendships renewed; pride in ancestral descent deepened. Every Scotchman was proud of his lineage. He showed that he was. It could be seen in his walk, in the air of importance he assumed, in his superlative composure while his brother Scotchmen tossed the caber—almost the size of a telegraph pole—or put the 56-pound weight—nearly as heavy as a bushel of wheat—or with nimble feet and grace danced the hornpipe or Highland fling.

At 2 o'clock the contests began. In nearly all competition was keen; the ardor was scarcely dampened by an occasional slight dash of rain. Capt. Robson, London, acted as master of ceremonies and gave universal satisfaction. Many of the competitors were from London.

The following is the result of the events:

PROFESSIONAL CLASS.

Putting 21 pound shot—1, J. D. McPherson, 37 feet 11 inches; 2, J. D. McColl, 37 feet 5 inches; 3, W. Fritz, 36 feet 10 inches.

Scotch reel, boys and girls—Purse divided.

Irish jig—Purse divided.

Highland fling, boys and girls, under 8 years—1, Miss McGregor; 2, Susie McGill; 3, A. Allister.

AMATEUR CLASS.

100 yards race—1, C. Fritz; 2, H. Mahler; 3, A. Mahler.

Putting 21 pound shot—1, C. Fritz, 36 feet, 1 inch; 2, N. McLachlin, 35 feet, 4 inches; 3, D. Wrightman, 31 feet.

Putting 14-pound shot—1, C. Fritz, 43 feet 6 inches; 2, N. McLachlin, 41 feet 6 inches; 3, D. Wrightman, 37 feet 11 inches.

Bicycle race, one mile—1, J. P. Mahler; 2, R. J. Younge; 3, B. L. Moorehouse.

Tug-of-war—Declared a draw between Glencoe and Dutton teams. Each pulled their opponents once. Rain prevented a deciding test.

HUMANE SOCIETY ITEMS.

Interesting Facts for Public Consideration Summarized by the Secretary.

The beneficial effects of having a Humane Society is now fully recognized, as a glance at our last month's report very plainly shows.

There have been complaints of cruelty to a little girl by a step-mother in London township, but after thoroughly investigating the case, through the medium of the neighbors, the child herself and the step-mother, it was proved conclusively to the mind of the inspector that the whole matter was the outcome of petty spite and idle gossip, the child herself being healthy and clean, with every appearance of being well cared for and expressing herself as contented with her lot.

A great change for the better in the manner in which animals and poultry are now brought to market is very apparent, and more thought and care seem to be given to the fact that they are less profitable and saleable if inhumanely treated. The people are thus being educated to give these subjects more consideration.

There have been complaints of dogs being poisoned on or near Victoria Park. A strict watch has been kept on that neighborhood by our inspector, and no more cases have been reported.

The marked improvement in the appearance and condition of the street car horses has been very favorably remarked upon both by citizens and strangers visiting our city, and the benefit arising from the better division of time between the trips, and the horses not having to be driven so fast as formerly, is now very noticeable. Our street car horses are now a source of pleasure and pride to Londoners.

During the month we have had assurance of help and recognition as a society that has been very pleasing and satisfactory to the managing committee. K. M. H.

London, Friday, August. 18.

BARON DE COURSEL, of France, president of the arbitration court that settled the Bering Sea dispute, made an important statement at the concluding sitting. His remarks betoken that a distinct advance has been made in the amicable settlement of international disputes. The statement which he makes and which will be found in our cablegrams, possesses a world-wide interest.

WHEAT is lower in price in Canada to-day than it has been since we began to export it, many years ago. Yet it is subject to a "protective" tariff!

NINE-TENTHS of the recruits for the British army are drawn from the ranks of the unemployed, and the other tenth is chiefly made up of young men who have been unfortunate in their love affairs and "'list" for revenge.

IF WE were given to betting, we would put up a bet on the attitude of the Toronto World in the coming plebiscite on the liquor question in that city. It will be as ardently in favor of the liquor side as it has been in favor of the establishment of Sunday cars, or we will be much mistaken.

THE electors of Hereford, in which city Gladstone lost a Parliamentary supporter, seem to vote on the see-saw principle. In 1885 the Liberals had 64 majority; in 1886 the Conservatives won by 265; in the general election last year the city went Liberal by 127; in the bye-election just held the Conservatives captured it by 64. The Liberals will doubtless again have their inning when next the fickle constituency is opened.

MR. TARTE is a very bad man. He must be, because the Tory papers, which knew him so well, say so. The only suspicious thing about their estimate of him is that they all voted him just about right until he repented and left them.—[Hamilton Times.

Yes, so long as he was the chief Conservative organizer in Quebec Province, and the bosom companion of Mr. Chapleau, he was a white-haired boy in that party. Now no denunciation of him is deemed too mean.

"I SEEM to behold a vision brighter than that which met Jacques Cartier's eyes, as for the first time he surveyed the fair region he had discovered. I seem to see our children returning to their ancient homes, giving us the benefit of their training and activity. I seem to see emigrants coming from Europe, coming to stay with us, and not to leave us after a brief trial. I see agriculture flourish and industry prosper. It is not the principle of restriction that will bring this about; but the principle of expansion, the principle of commercial freedom, and in the hope I have formed I now leave you with best thanks for your having listened to me so long."—[Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, at Montreal.

THE BOMBAY OUTBREAK.

Two points are strikingly illustrated by the recent religious riots in Bombay, India. One is the bitter animosity that exists between the Mohammedans and the Hindoos, and the other is the beneficent character of British rule in that country. In India, probably more than in any other country, it is shown how men and women can be taught to regard it as a most religious duty to hate their neighbors who do not agree with their views of the proprieties, and how the cultivation of this religious hatred grows with the age unless combatted by the teaching of the standard set up by the promulgator of the Golden Rule.

Many lives have been lost in the recent Bombay riots, but one shudders to think of the carnage that would have taken place but for the overawing power of the British garrison. Bombay city is inhabited by about 600,000 Hindoos, 200,000 Mussulmen and less than 20,000 Europeans. But in the adjoining cantons are constantly to be found a large armed force, under control of British officers, ready to stamp out religious or any other class of insurrectionary violence.

Normally, the Hindoo is not a fighter. He is a mild, gentle, inoffensive person, albeit given to deceit. But under the protection of equal laws he has got along tolerably well. He is not disposed to quarrel, except when a religious difference arises. Then he is courageously fanatical, and he fights with hysterical virulence.

The Mohammedan of India, on the other hand, is a born pugilist. He is ready to fight on the smallest provocation, and so strong is his will power that many believe that but for the presence of the British, with their equitable laws, he would soon rule the more numerous Hindoo race.

The immediate cause of recent disturbances was the clashing of a festival of the Koran with a day of sanctity among the Hindoos. The Mohammedans, waxing valiant by the success of their demonstration and by the making of a number of converts, tried to capture a Hindoo temple. This enraged the Hindoo population, rioting ensued, there was mutual pillaging and burning of religious establishments, all the frenzy of religious animosity was exhibited on both sides, and many lives were sacrificed before the rioting was temporarily put down. It seems to have again broken out, and with so great violence as to call for the interference of reinforcements of troops from neighboring cantonments. But for their appearance, it is difficult to conceive how many lives would have been sacrificed before the fanatical population cried quits.

ONTARIO DAIRYMEN AND THE CHICAGO PRIZE CHEESE.

Evidence is accumulating tending to the assumption that it was a mistake to let the Ottawa authorities manage the Ontario cheese exhibits at the Columbian Exhibition in Chicago. Commissioner Robertson, of the Experimental Farm at Ottawa, arranged to have this one product of cheese placed under his care, and, though he has a reputation of being a good cheese-maker, there are many who believe that Ontario interests will suffer because cheese has been placed in his charge, while all the other Ontario farm products are put under the energetic management of Mr. Awrey, M.P.P., the commissioner for Ontario. This opinion is reached from various causes.

It will be remembered that Messrs. Ballantyne and Caswell, who were appointed to select the cheese exhibit at the Philadelphia Centenial Exhibition, by personal endeavor managed to get 39 Western Ontario exhibits at the July competitions, and they did not show any cheese of the previous year either. Commissioner Robertson had the choice of all last year's fall make as well as the early spring product, yet he only was able to get 27 exhibits from Western Ontario in the recent June competition. Messrs. Ballantyne and Caswell got their exhibit from factories producing $373,938 worth of cheese annually; Prof. Robertson had the choice of ten times as much cheese. Moreover, Prof. Robertson could promise that the cheesemen would be paid for their exhibits current market values, whereas Messrs. Ballantyne and Caswell could only promise that after the exhibition was over the cheese would be shipped to Britain and sold for the benefit of its owners.

Why, it has been asked, were the Western Ontario results so great in 1876 and so beggarly in 1893? Many farmers assert that it arose from the fact that the exhibit was engineered from Ottawa instead of from Ontario as in 1876. Personal and untiring devotion on the part of those in authority was needed.

Even more unsatisfactory has been the determination of the Ottawa management to enter only two of the monthly exhibits — in June and in October. Already this determination is misconstrued, to the disadvantage of our cheese, in the United States. The dairymen and the newspapers over the border are pointing to the fact that our cheese is only to be shown at two of the five monthly exhibits as something very suspicious. Some are even hinting that the reason for the retirement of Canadian dairymen from the competitions in July, August and September is to be found in the non-keeping qualities of Canadian cheese made in those months. Of course this is a libel, but the imputation will do us damage nevertheless. Indeed, as will be seen from the following dispatch to the New York Journal of Commerce, our keen competitors over the border are already taking it for granted that Canadian cheese is not in competition this month because our dairymen were afraid to enter:

"ALBANY, N. Y., July 7.—Commissioner of Agriculture Schraub has just returned from Chicago, where he has been in consultation with the New York State World's Fair commissioners with reference to the dairy exhibit. He reports that in the exhibit for this month New York exceeds all other States, not only in the character of its products, but in the number of exhibits. Mr. E. A. Ayers, one of the expert cheese instructors of the New York State Department of Agriculture, was awarded the highest score of any exhibitor, the cheese made by him scoring almost 100 points, which is the standard for perfection. Mr. Ayers is a Jefferson county cheese manufacturer, and the cheese exhibited by him was made in his own factory. The commissioner is also advised that Jefferson county also scores two other first prizes in the cheese exhibit. The commissioner is very much interested in making the September and October cheese and butter exhibits a success, and will within a few days convene all the deputies of his department at Albany for the purpose of a concerted effort to secure a very large exhibit and one that will be in every way commensurate with the importance of the dairy interest in this state. He believes that with such an effort New York will easily lead all competition. Owing to the fact of this State not having taken such an interest in the dairy exhibit at the Philadelphia Centennial as it should have done, Canada was allowed to carry off the first prize for cheese, which has resulted in Canadian cheese ever since ruling at a little better figure in the market than that of New York State. The commissioner states very emphatically that no better dairy cheese is produced in the world than in this State, and that if a proper effort is made, and a large exhibit of our finest goods secured, it cannot fail to result in New York being awarded the highest prize, with the consequent benefit that will result to the farming interests of the State. Gov. Flower said to-day that he was much pleased to hear that New York cheese manufacturers had secured three first prizes."

At the 1876 exhibition Ontario took prizes in every month that there was a competition. Our view is that it is a grave mistake not to follow suit at the Chicago Exhibition. We have the cheese in Ontario, and we are confident that if the exhibits had been handled by a Provincial commissioner rather than from Ottawa, Ontario cheese would have been in competition every time United States cheese was exhibited, and would have held its own, too. Now there will be no exhibit of Canadian cheese except in October, and the honors that ought to come to Ontario in July, August and in September, as in 1876, will be kept in the States.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

The recent bicycle meet amply demonstrates:

That all wheelmen who ride on all fours and affect a low-down stoop are not racers, their own gray matter to the contrary notwithstanding.

That while the racers' wheels were pneumatic-tired the racers themselves became at times very tired, and were also scantily attired.

That Londoners dote on wheeling and are becoming "doter" every day, and with a proper track the next meet will be more of an attraction than ever.

That the Devine from St. Thomas was only human after all; the No. 7 on his back did not denote perfection as it did in the days of Joshua, and his lung power gave out just as regular as that of the rest of human beings in this vale of tears and bicycles. Verily a railroad city idol has fallen and great was the fall thereof.

That Stratford has a rider whom that classic city might well be proud of despite his Kingstonian striped suit.

That the dark horse from Wilton Grove ran up against a 2:20 record the night before the races and broke the handlebars of his machine, therefore he was unable to do anything more than fancy riding before the grand stand on his 40 pounder.

"GOD'S IN HIS HEAVEN."

(Wives and Daughters.)

The sense of good is rare. We are all richly endowed with the sense of evil, past, present and to come. We keep our sense of the uncomfortable, and our sense of the regrettable in active use, while our sense of daily and hourly blessings is red with rust. It is only necessary to observe the voices about one to note how seldom occurs the tone of pure pleasure. An odd superstition has grown up in some minds that gladness, used as a beverage, is a mark of childishness, inexperience and superficiality, and certainly the joy which merely tickles the palate is a light and frivolous thing. The merriment, which is only a mask of sadness, has more of heart-break in it than an open groan. One should not pretend to be glad any more than one should pretend to be thoughtful, or pretend to be unselfish. Pretenses of all sorts are hideous. The genuinely glad are "sober on a fund of joy." Their presence is as inspiring as a passing band of music. They don't try to look on the bright side, they live on the bright side, and are steeped through and through with its brightness. The sense of good, in its last analysis, is the sense of God. "Sometimes," writes a correspondent, "I laugh softly, all to myself, just to think that God is God." That is an illustration of utter most faith—an expression of the profoundest sense of good.

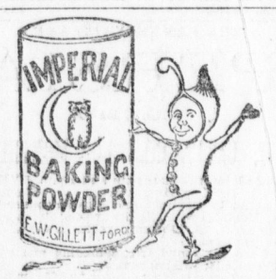

WHAT THE ENGLISH CANNOT DO.

[From the London Telegraph.]

The British people have done mighty things in the course of their history. They have created a vast empire in India and established a Greater Britain at the antipodes; they beat Napoleon; practically invented the steam engine and railroads; actually invented penny postage and perforated postage stamps; but they have never, nationally, been able to make omelets properly, and never will do so, I opine.

Blood Poisoning

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. Her husband spent hundreds of dollars without any benefit. She weighed but 78 pounds, and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says, "I became perfectly cured by and am now a well woman. I weigh 128 pounds, eat well and do the work for a large family. My case seems a wonderful recovery and physicians look at me in astonishment, as almost like one raised from the dead."

Mrs. M. E. O'Fallon.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HOOD'S PILLS should be in every family medicine chest. Once used, always preferred.

BASEBALL.

PITCHERS ARE PITCHERS.

This is what President Hart, of Chicago, says of pitchers: "They will command their own salaries next year. Pitchers are pitchers this year, and no mistake. Most of the games lost by Chicago to date can be traced to weakness in the box. The condition is not spasmodic. It is simply chronic. Under the new rules the batteries kill the ball. I have tried for weeks to secure new men, and the team has experimented with a dozen or more minor leaguers, but none have stood the test, and we are worse off now for pitching talent than when we started. What is worse, we can't lay our hands on any really good man. Cincinnati has tried over fifteen men, and Pittsburg has experimented with a like number. So I might go on through the list. And of the scores of the new men who have been tried in fast company, how many have stood the test? Arthur Clarkson is the only one, and he has been in the big league before. The diamond is strewed with the wrecks of pitchers. Next year there will be the greatest fighting on record to secure good pitchers, and more money than ever will be paid for salaries."

LACROSSE.

A LOCAL CLUB.

A number of those interested in the game of lacrosse met recently at the Grigg House and decided to organize a local club. Following are the officers chosen:

President, Geo. C. Gibbons, Q.C.; captain, N. Tune; manager, R. McAlpine; treasurer, F. Beltz; secretary, D. Mills (Mills' bookstore); committee of management, Al Huff, Jas. Ferguson, Geo. Angus, J. Hughes, A. Ross and W. Bennett. Another meeting will be held at the Grigg Tuesday night to arrange for grounds. The manager has been instructed to look for good players, who will be given situations in the city. All who are interested should attend the next meeting.

The Lucknow team defeated the Dauntless Club, of Clinton, at lacrosse on Thursday, 2 to 0.

At Stratford the Seaforth and St. Marys lacross teams played off Thursday afternoon for the championship of the western junior district, Seaforth winning by 4 goals to 2.

THE WHEEL.

WALLACEBURG'S BICYCLE MEET.

A grand bicycle meet will be held at Wallaceburg on Tuesday next, 22nd inst., which is the 'burg's civic holiday. The meet will be conducted under the auspices of the Cresc[illegible] Bicycle Club and a committee of the citizens, who extend a cordial invitation to every knight of the wheel to participate. The programme includes ten races, for which seventeen prizes, aggregating over $300, are hung up. Race No. 4 is a local, open only to Wallaceburg and Dresden. A $20 gold medal and a $10 gold-lined shaving set are offered in competition for this race.

ATHLETICS.

What relation has deep breathing to strength? Eugene Sandow, said to be a marvel of strength, who has lately greatly interested Prof. Sargent, of Harvard, breathes through his abdomen; in taking a deep breath fills the top of his chest first. It is observed in registering his breathing that "the abdominal breathing was greater than the thoracic." The majority of women are unable to breathe in this way on account of their clothing.—[New York Evening Post.

There is some talk in Montreal of another wrestling match. Duncan C. Ross has his representative there, and inquiries have been made about W. H. Quinn, the Canadian champion at mixed wrestling. Quinn cannot be found, but a challenge has been offered to him for anything from $500 to $1,000 at three-style match.

TIPS.

Port Huron's fall race meeting is from Sept. 5 to 8. Windsor following a week later. One of the features at Windsor is the 2:10 class, trotting or pacing.

Hal Pointer seems to know instinctively when he is to be sent for a race. His hostler and others acquainted with the habits of the great side wheeler says that when he is put in the racing sulky he trembles violently, which he does on no other occasion.

Two great railroad cartage companies in Montreal have issued a circular asking the proprietors of warehouses and stores to see to it that nails and bits of iron and tin are not swept into the streets, where they may get into the horses' feet. Many fine animals die every year from this cause, and many suffer horrible torments.

Shelved Again!

and he would not second it. If these offers were final the aldermen had better all go home.

Ald. Scarrow thought the city would not be obtaining adequate returns for the franchise from either offer. He would not vote for either of them.

Ald. Stevely favored going into committee of the whole as the best means of furthering the object.

Ald. Welford stated with regard to Ald. Garratt's amendment that one representative had been on No. 1 committee from each ward, and if the streets in these wards were not properly covered, the blame rested on that representative. If Ald. Thos. Jones would change his motion so that both offers could be considered he would support it.

Mr. Jones was willing, so the change was made and the vote taken.

Ald. Parnell's amendment had not been seconded, so it dropped.

The motion, placing the council in committee of the whole, then carried and Ald. Shaw took the chair, and the council took up the London Street Railway Company's proposition.

A great deal of discussion followed the reading of clause 1, which dealt with the streets to be traversed.

Ald. Garratt, with ward 4 in view, moved that the clause be left to the committee he had named. He afterwards changed the committee to No. 1.

Ald. Stevely and Carrothers put in a good word for the southern part of ward 3.

Ald. John W. Jones moved that Pall Mall be traversed from Adelaide to Colborne only, thence south on Colborne to Dundas street; also that Central avenue be struck out.

When Ald. Garratt changed his motion to read No. 1 committee, Ald. Moule arose hurriedly.

"Does this committee intend to chew the report to pieces and then send it back to us?" he asked. "Because if they do I won't do anything about it."

Then Ald. Scarrow from ward 4 took up the gauntlet. "Does Ald. Moule expect us to swallow anything and everything that No. 1 committee brings before us?" he asked.

The dispute promised to extend indefinitely, but a compromise was effected by withdrawing both motions and taking up one street at a time.

The first snag was struck in ward 5, where the offer reads "Egerton street from Hamilton road to Trafalgar." Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald moved that the clause be changed to "Along Egerton street to Dundas street." Carried.

Ald. J. W. Jones moved that instead of Central avenue from Richmond to Adelaide street being covered that a line be built on Colborne street from Oxford to Dundas street.

Ald. Scarrow moved in amendment that Central avenue be traversed, but that a line be built down Colborne street. Carried.

"Adelaide street from Dundas street to Central avenue" was on motion of Ald. Garratt extended to Oxford street. This would enable weary soldiers to ride to their rendezvous during the camping season.

Ald. Thomas Jones moved that Gray or Hill street be covered from Wellington to Adelaide and north on Adelaide to Hamilton road. Carried.

Ald. Parnell stated that the company would not agree to place parallel lines in opposition to their present lines whereby neither one could live.

Clause 2 related to fares. Ald. Scarrow moved that eight tickets be given for 25 cents instead of six from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m.

Ald. Thomas Jones moved in amendment that the age be designated with regard to children's 3 cent fare. "From 5 to 12 years of age" was specified; children under 5, when not occupying a seat, will ride free. The word "workingman" was struck out in workingmen's tickets. This was done to allow workingmen and working children to ride during the periods of workingmen's fares.

In relation to Ald. Scarrow's motion making workingmen's tickets good from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m., Ald. Parnell stated that Mr. Everett had absolutely refused this point.

Ald. Pritchett moved in amendment that the time be from 12 to 1 o'clock.

This amendment, as well as the previous motion, was lost, the councilors evidently thinking that the workingmen would not be anxious to take advantage of the noon hour cheap fare.

Ald. J. W. Jones then moved that the company receiving the franchise pay the city 5 per cent. on their gross receipts up to $100,000, 5½ per cent. up to $125,000, 6 per cent. up to $150,000, 7 per cent. up to $200,000, and 8 per cent. up to $250,000.

The street railway representatives wore an amused smile as Ald. Jones finished his motion.

Ald. Parnell arose and stated that the question resolved itself into whether the city should receive a percentage and make all repairs or whether the company should repair its tracks and roadbeds and furnish all materials.

While the former speaker was talking some of the other members objected to his talking away from the motion. Mr. Parnell then stated that there was a determined effort, and there had been one all night, to balk the whole affair.

Ald. Jones and Taylor both denied the allegation and requested the right to speak as they thought.

The mayor then spoke at length. Both Col. Clark and the street railway company, he said, resolutely refused to pay a percentage and do repairs as well. He favored the Clark offer because it was for twenty years instead of 33.

As an instance of the cost of repairing the road, Ald. Parnell stated that it cost the city $6,606 to supply materials for repairs to the present road for three years. The company themselves supplied the work. Any kind of pavement would have to be renewed at least three times during the continuance of the franchise. It would cost the city a great deal to do this, and it would also cost the street railway company the same. Mr. Parnell went exhaustively into figures dealing with the workings of electric roads, and tended to show that the profits were not immense.

Ald. Garratt spoke in favor of a percentage, and quoted Hamilton as receiving over $12,000 this year from percentage, mileage and rental.

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald advocated the same view. Ald. J. W. Jones, he said, was, perhaps, a trifle high, but along the right line.

Ald. Scarrow favored the matter going back to No. 1 committee, with a request for a percentage and a mileage.

Ald. J. W. Jones spoke in favor of his motion, which, he stated, would be supported by a plebiscite of the people.

Ald. Moule said that the committee had brought in the very best offer obtainable. As to percentage and mileage it could not be got. It was useless to dwell on that matter, as both companies had refused to come up.

"Then I move that we adjourn," said Ald. J. W. Jones. "I won't be taken by the throat by the street railway or any other company."

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald wanted to go right on and let the company know what the council did want. Then if they could not agree they knew what to do.

Ald. Jones did not press his motion to adjourn after that.

Ald. Stevely in amendment moved that the proposal and proposed amendment of Ald. J. W. Jones be referred back to No. 1 committee for further consideration.

On the vote, Ald. J. W. Jones was the only alderman supporting his motion.

Mr. Stevely's amendment then carried, after which the committee rose and reported progress. The council then adjourned, leaving the matter under discussion in about the same position as when they started.

A communication was read from A. F. Weeks, secretary of the railroad teamsters' picnic asking for five electric lights to illuminate the band and grand stand on the evening of civic holiday. It also stated that a four-in-hand would convey the mayor and some of the aldermen to the grounds on the morning of Monday. Other vehicles will be in readiness to convey the other members.

Ald. J. W. Jones spoke in favor of placing the lights and on his motion the favor was granted.

UNINTERESTED IN CYCLING.

No. 2 Recommends No Action in Re the Proposed Track.

Waterloo Street Will Not Get an Artificial Stone Walk—Changing a Dundas Street Number.

The petition from the various local cycling clubs referred from the council to No. 2 committee, asking the city to contribute half the expenses of constructing a bicycle track was discussed at last evening's meeting of the above body, and a decision, recommending the council to take no action was adopted. The main reason assigned for taking this course was the fact that any revenue to be derived from the use of the track would accrue solely to the Western Fair Board. The citizens at large, in such an event, should not be taxed. The board should construct the track itself. Another reason was the authority exercised by the board over the track portion of Queen's Park.

A petition from John Christie and others for a drain on Wolfe and Waterloo streets was referred to the assessment commissioner to advertise.

A petition from the authorities of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church against the construction of an artificial stone walk on the east side of Waterloo street, between Queen's and Dufferin avenues, was read. The walk will not be built. The church represents considerably more than one-half the valuation of that section of the street.

Mr. R. Kirkpatrick complained that Mr. C. F. Colwell's store was numbered similarly to his. He wanted this changed. Mr. Colwell will be asked to change his number from 189 to 187½.

The engineer was instructed to put the lanes on the old Central School grounds in a perfect state of cleanliness.

The committee again recommended the council to exempt Mr. George Powell's property for one-third the depth of his lot on the corner of Queen's avenue and Waterloo street from block pavement assessment.

As the matter of a drain for the Aged People's Home is now before the council, the committee decided to take no action upon a second communication from S. L. Carfrae.

Charles Lilley wants the sidewalk on the east side of Adelaide street moved out a few feet. Referred to the engineer with power.

The pay sheet, amounting to $243 71, was passed.

Those present were: Ald. Garratt (chairman), Taylor, Dreaney, Shaw and Jones and Mayor Essery.

THREW AWAY A CHILD.

Terrible Crime Charged Against an Unknown Woman.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 17.—As a passenger train was approaching Elida station, east of this city, a farmer noticed a child drop from the train. He ran to it and found it badly injured. It died in a few hours.

It was probably dropped through the closet by an inhuman mother, and efforts are being made to locate her. The conductor stated that no person complained of losing a child on his train.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—"Mother, may I go out to swim?"
Asked the seal with aspect awesome.
"Yes, my child," her mamma replied;
"But look out for the mare clausum."

—Sheriff Cameron will probably commence his new duties Monday.

Miss Jennie Ritchie, of Talbot street, has returned home after a trip up the lakes as far as Mackinaw.

—Misses Ada and Lillian Anderson, of Elias street, have gone to spend holidays in St. Marys, visiting at Mrs. Fraleigh's.

—Master Willie Olmstead, Maple street, who is spending his holidays with his grandmother in Montreal, will return on the 20th.

—Mr. Geo. Hare, of St. Thomas, who has been the guest of Mr. Wm. S. Short, York street, for a week past, returned home last night.

—Miss Celcia Kildea, of Talbot street, after spending holidays visiting friends in Ridgetown, Fingal and St. Thomas, has returned home.

—Tickets for the Emerald Benefit Association four-day excursion to Detroit via Grand Trunk Railway will be honored on Aug. 19, 20 and 21.

—W. D. Eckert, principal of the Lorne avenue school, leaves to-morrow for St. Louis, where his sons reside. From there he will visit the World's Fair.

—The regular excursion to Port Stanley on the M. C. R. yesterday was patronized by about 800 Londoners. The Byron Sunday schools held their annual picnic, and considerably augmented the crowd. There were no mishaps.

—Joseph Moran, boot and shoe dealer, Hamilton, has assigned. The liabilities are about $15,000, and assets nominally the same. The creditors mostly belong to Montreal, but there are some also in Toronto, Hamilton and London.

—Under the auspices of the London and St. Marys corps of the Salvation Army, harvest home thanksgiving services will be held at Thorndale on the 26th, 27th and 28th inst. The London Salvation Army brass band will be on the grounds, and addresses will be given by a number of the chief officers of the district.

—Ald. Moule and family were awakened Wednesday night by a noise in their home on Maple street. They heard intruders make a speedy exit, and on rising found part of the house had been ransacked. The dining-room sideboard had been turned upside down, and some valuables, including silver spoons, stolen.

—Mr. John Bolter returned to Cleveland on the Flora last night after a visit to his uncle, Mr. George Last, Elias street. Mr. Bolter is just winding up a three months' trip through the Southern States. In Florida he was taken ill, but under Ontario's genial clime he has fully recovered. Jack is a former East End boy, and notes many changes after his absence of eight years.

—Sixteen men received the "red ticket" at the Grand Trunk shops on Wednesday night and enter upon their vacation tonight. They were laid off in each department, and eleven carpenters and one painter were transferred down town to Mr. Treleaven's repair gang. Several old employes were among the number discharged including Mr. Geo. Berry, who had worked in the shops for 17 years.

—The St. George correspondent of the Brantford Expositor says: "Rev. D. M. Mihell, M.A., of London, who has been spending a fortnight in this neighborhood, preached in the Baptist Church last Sunday morning to a crowded house. This church was this gentleman's first pastorate upon leaving college, and for that reason has always been regarded by him with peculiar interest, and the large congregation last Sunday was ample testimony of the high esteem in which he is held by his former parishioners. His sermon was an excellent one, replete with fine and varied thought, instruction and admonition, and delivered with a fervid eloquence and earnestness that showed that the speaker was fully moved with the importance and responsibility of his office and work.

A Sporting Event.

Dorchester Lake, the fishing and shooting resort of the London Gun Club, will be opened with all due ceremony on Saturday afternoon. Mr. James Sutherland, M.P., of Woodstock, will probably be present. Carriages will leave the Tecumseh House at 2:30 o'clock, and invitations will be extended through the stockholders of the club. Fishing and boating will be the attractions, and a band of German musicians from New York will provide music. Dinner will be served by Mr. W. H. Chittick, Dorchester.

Narrow Escape of Londoners.

On Tuesday night Mr. S. W. Paisley, of this city, left with his father Samuel Paisley, for Red Deer, Manitoba. They went via the C. P. R., and all went well until this morning at 9 o'clock when their train was wrecked at White River, between Port Arthur and Winnipeg. Mr. J. D. Paisley received a telegram at 10 o'clock that explained itself. It read as follows: "WHITE RIVER, Aug. 17.—Train wrecked, but we are safe. Miss Turnbull hurt some."

The Miss Turnbull referred to is a niece of the late Conductor Turnbull, and was from Dorchester Station. She was traveling with her mother to join her father, who is located on a farm at Red Deer. Her injuries are not stated, but from the tenor of the telegram they can hardly be judged as serious.

Ice Cream Social.

The atmosphere last evening was not very seasonable for the iceberg regalement, but this did not deter a large number from attending an entertainment under the above caption in the Colborne Street Methodist Church lecture room. The Ladies' Aid Society were prime movers, and Mesdames Hance, Madden and Wyatt were the lady patrons. Rev. C. Smith, the pastor, was in the chair during the short programme which was rendered. The various numbers were as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Cater; violin selection, Miss Hattie Taylor, Hamilton; solos, Master Walter Smith; recitation, Miss Mabel McClay; instrumental solo, Miss Clara Baker; vocal solo, Miss Bryant; harmonica selection, Mr. Eacrett; violin solo, Miss Taylor; vocal solo, Miss Nobles. All the participants acquitted themselves creditably. The refreshments were greatly enjoyed.

Painful Rumor.

An unconfirmed report was in circulation last night to the effect that Mr. Edward A. Robson, of this city, had been killed by falling off a train at Wayne, Mich. A short time ago Mr. Robson left here for Chicago on a pleasure and business trip combined. Some London boys met him there. It is supposed that he was on his return trip and met his death on the railroad. Mr. Robson had been with the London Drug Company for eight years and was always a highly esteemed and trustworthy employe. He has many friends in London. Mr. Thomas Heard, of the same company, received a telegram from a friend in Dundas stating that he (the friend) had been telegraphed that Mr. Robson had been killed at Wayne, Mich., on Wednesday night. Edward A. Robson is a cousin of Capt. Thomas Robson, county clerk of Middlesex. He is unmarried and about 30 years of age.

A Londoner Abroad.

A Londoner temporarily sojourning in Port Arthur, Ont., writes: "I was just two weeks without seeing an ADVERTISER, and was rejoiced to get Saturday's and Monday's to-day. If there is one thing more than another that we Londoners should be proud of and cannot value as we ought it is our water supply. Here we are at Port Arthur and Fort William, near the largest sheet of fresh water in the world, and not a drop to drink. In Port Arthur the water is carried in barrels from a creek and in Fort William taken from the Kaministiquia River and is of a brown color. I haven't had a good drink of water since I left home. However, if they cannot give the inhabitants water to drink there is no lack of places where strong drinks are supplied. In Fort William alone, a place of about 1,500 population—the boomers claim double that population—there are seventeen places where liquor is retailed. What a fine opening for a live W. C. T. U.! Temperance is not a popular subject in Fort William. Port Arthur is a prettily situated, well laid out little town, but is suffering from the general depression existing at present. The visit of Sir Oliver Mowat is looked forward to with interest. They are expecting to have a change in the complexion of their representative to the Dominion House at next election."

Mr. Gaetz' Reply.

The following letter from Rev. Leo Gaetz, of Red Deer, formerly of London, Ont., appears in the Calgary papers, with a request that all papers publishing the report from Red Deer regarding the burning of Mr. Gaetz in effigy there should also publish his reply:

Sir,—Among your dispatches of the 29th ult. I noticed one intended to reflect seriously upon myself. I do not intend to offer any formal explanation. After 30 years of public life I am perfectly satisfied to trust the honest judgment of all respectable people. Let none of my friends feel pained over the incident referred to in that malicious dispatch, which bears the signs of having emanated from one of the instigators. I beg to assure them that I consider it an honor to be roasted by the class of toughs who disgraced themselves on the night of the 29th while under the influence of free liquor. I beg to assure them also that the disorderly proceedings were only very remotely, if at all, associated with the investigation of the management of our school, in which matter I was entirely within my privilege as a parent and a ratepayer, but with a personal grudge of several parties who have not spoken to me for months past. I need hardly add that if it had been a bar-room loafer, in sympathy with the majority of my would-be assailants, the incident never would have occurred.

LEO GAETZ.

THE RALEIGH DRAIN CASE.

Decision of the Privy Council—A Sort of Compromise.

CHATHAM, Aug. 17.—Judgment in the cause celebre of Williams vs. Raleigh has been received, on the appeal from the Supreme Court of Canada, which gave Charles Williams, the plaintiff, a Raleigh township farmer, judgment confirming the original award of $800 damages for injuries sustained by the overflow of township drains on his property.

The township appealed to the British Privy Council. Their judgment is a sort of compromise, setting aside the verdict on the ground of the non-separation of the two drains in question, No. 1 (or the Government drain) and the Bell drain, in the assessment of damages, but giving the costs in the Canadian courts against the township of Raleigh.

They hold that the defendants are liable for an action in everything caused by the Government drain's overflow, but that in the case of the Bell drain the question is one of compensation under the section of the statute provided, and, therefore, refers back to the county court judge to determine the amount of damages which is to come off the judgment.

Practically, the plaintiff, Williams, gets a verdict less what is to be deducted for the Bell drain, which will not be very large.

Prominent Ontario Farmer Dead.

WINDSOR, Aug. 17.—Henry G. Arnold, sen., of Maidstone, died yesterday of paralysis. The deceased was one of the most prominent farmers in Western Ontario and had for years made a specialty of raising blooded cattle and sheep. He was born in London, Eng., in 1804, and was a veteran of the uprising of 1837-38.

To Counteract Mr. Laurier.

MONTREAL, Aug. 17.—Conservatives are making active preparations for a series of politics in this city to counteract, if possible, the effects of Mr. Laurier's campaign. Mr. Ouimet, Minister of Public Works, is at the head of the movement. He is spending the holidays at Ste. Rose, but comes into the city nearly every day to consult with the party organizers. A grand demonstration will be organized immediately in honor of Sir John Thompson. The date has not been fixed yet, as the day of his arrival is not definitely known, but the Club Conservateur, the Macdonald Club and the Junior Conservatives intend to spare no efforts to make the undertaking a grand success. Everyone of any note will be invited, and the demonstration will take place at Sohmer Park, the proceeds to be devoted to the Sir John Macdonald memorial fund.

Remember the excursions to Cleveland by the Flora Saturday night and Monday morning. Tickets at stores of L. Fitzgerald, C. F. Colwell, Oak Hall, A. Rolfe, W. T. Strong, H. Davis & Son, M. C. R. ticket offices and on the special train. 48c

A RAID IN BERING SEA!

Unknown Schooners' Crews Slaughter Many Seals

And Loot the Salting Houses of the Lessees.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 17.—The steamer Queen arrived from Alaska last night bringing news of a daring raid upon St. Paul's and St. George's Islands in Bering Sea on the night of July 9. Two unknown sealing schooners landed crews on the islands after dark and slaughtered several hundred seals.

The watchmen on the islands were overpowered by the raiders, who broke into the salting houses and carried away an immense number of skins belonging to lessees of the islands.

The boats escaped before the Government cutter could be informed of the offense.

They Like Banff.

BANFF, N. W. T., Aug. 17.—Henry Irving, Ellen Terry and party have arrived here from the east. They express themselves delighted with the trip and scenery.

CRICKET.

DELAWARE DEFEATED.

A very enjoyable game of cricket was played at Delaware Wednesday between the Delaware Cricket Club and the London Asylum "B" Eleven. The visitors were treated royally, and will not forget the good time given them by the members of the D. C. C. The "B" Eleven won the match by one inning and 17 runs to spare. The score:

ROCHESTER GRAND CIRCUIT EVENTS.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Hal Pointer proved a drawing card at the third day of the grand circuit to-day. The heavy rain of last night had made the track heavy, the air was chilly, the sky cloudy, so that the time was far from fast. Blue Sign was sent a mile as an exhibition, and made the last half in 1:02½. Summaries:

2:20 class, 4-year-old, purse $2,000:

THE WHEEL.

A JOHNSON DAY.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 17.—The opening exercises of the Minneapolis bicycle meet were held to-day, and it was a genuine "Johnson" day. What races J. S. Johnson did not capture were won by his brother, Anton Johnson. W. A. Rhodes, of Boston, made a quarter mile in 27 seconds, flat.

A Philadelphia Youth Says He W[...] Cross Niagara Falls Suspended Thus From a Wire.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Aug. 17.—Th[...] is always somebody who has some [...] kind of a scheme to work out around [...] Falls; wire walkers, whirlpool swimm[...] and such are common; but word com[...] from Philadelphia of another style [...] daring proposed by a young man who [...] preparing to cross Niagara Falls s[...] pended by his teeth from a trolley arran[...] ment. He is in that city making plans a[...] ordering the paraphernalia necessary [...] the extraordinary undertaking. The y[...] is known as young Hercules, although [...] real name is Beck, and his home is E[...] Park, Staten Island. Young Hercul[...] claims to be but 19 years of age. He sa[...] he will cross the falls early in Septemb[...] A half-inch cable will be stretch[...] across the gorge, being about [...] feet higher at one end than t[...] other. Beck has invented a grooved whe[...] which will run on the wire, and to th[...] will be attached a piece of prepared leathe[...] which will just fit his mouth. This he wi[...] hold in his teeth and will swing a dumb[...] bell in each hand to balance him, and wil[...] slide across the falls suspended by hi[...] teeth. The trip will, he says, take fou[...] minutes. In discussing the matter, Beck said: "I have been training for some time at the grounds of the Staten Island Athletic Club on the high wire used by Clifford Gabneltry, the wheel manufacturer. It is 80 feet above the ground. At first I could hold on but six minutes, but now I can stand eight easily with a 25-pound dumb-bell in each hand. The wire I will use in crossing the falls will be made in Philadelphia. I do not anticipate any accident, for the trip will occupy but four minutes with the momentum, which will add to the dumb-bells of my body and increase the speed. Should I feel my strength giving out I should drop the dumb-bells. The only danger is a flaw in the wire, for it is almost impossible for the wheel to run off the wire. I shall cross at night."

A Walk to Death.

MIDDLETOWN, Aug. 17.—John Tredwell, 12 years old, who started last spring to walk from Nebraska to Higganum, Conn., 2,000 miles away, arrived at Higganum last night completely exhausted, ragged, and half starved.

His father, John Tredwell, formerly lived there, but died in the spring of 1877, and the mother moved to Nebraska and died in the spring of 1893. The boy, who was left destitute, started off without a cent. He had two uncles living a mile out of Higganum village but was so weak that he died before reaching them.

It Never Woke Him.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—John Johnson, 88 years old, whose home is in Wisconsin, had a remarkable experience in Plainfield yesterday. He was on his way to New York on the Royal Blue Line train. While sleeping in his seat he arose and walked out upon the platform. He was not seen until he started to descend the steps of the car. The train was running at about 50 miles an hour. Before anyone could stop him he swung himself off as easily as if jumping from a horse car. He struck upon his feet and then rolled over several times and lay extended beside the track. Those who witnessed the occurrence expected to find him dead, but when help reached him it was found he was not yet even awakened. He was aroused, and it was found he had escaped apparently unhurt. He did not have the slightest idea of what he had done. He proceeded to New York.

COAL DOESN'T HURT BY KEEPING.

Many other things are perishable, but no sort of weather affects coal stored away.

THAT'S ONE POINT.

Another is that coal is always cheaper in the summer than in the winter—it is easier to get—easier to transport.

THAT'S ANOTHER POINT.

Well, don't you think, or rather don't you KNOW, that you can save considerable on your coal by ordering now?

THAT'S THE BEST POINT.

LONDON OFFICE, 363 RICHMOND STREET.

Respectfully notify the citizens of London that we are prepared to give estimates for all kinds of INCANDESCENT LIGHT WIRING in stores and private houses.

We expect to have our new electric light and power station running early in September, so that prospective consumers should have all inside wiring done as soon as possible.

Our prices for incandescent lighting will be very low, making it CHEAPER, CLEANER and SAFER than gas or oil.

HIS REPENTANCE.

"How you cough!" exclaimed Dick as she was interrupted by a heavy fit of coughing, not for the first time.

"I caught a bad cold. It was very bad for a day or two, and I lay in bed. Oh, Dick! I wonder if ever I shall have a bedroom again."

"Couldn't you have a bedroom as well as this room?" sensibly answered Dick.

"There was only this room to let when we came here, and we thought it would do. It's tolerably good-looking, you see, and we are more to ourselves. Every week, too, we are hoping to leave it."

"Where to go to?"

"I don't know. Mark says something is sure to turn up."

"I say, do they know about this in Barbadoes?"

"Not from us. I dare say Aunt Bettina has taken care to tell them. Is she as deaf as ever, Dick?"

"She's deafer. And she's getting a regular old woman. What do you think? She'd not let me go out skating this morning, for fear——"

A gentleman entered and cut Dick's revelations short. The boy looked at him in puzzled bewilderment, for he thought he knew him, and yet did not. It was a full minute before Dick recognized him for Mark Cray.

Formerly Mark had whiskers and no mustache; now he had a mustache and no whiskers, and his beard was growing, and his face looked longer. He had on blue spectacles, too. Altogether, Dick was hardly certain yet.

Mark did not seem glad to see him. In manner he rather seemed to resent the accident which had discovered them to Dick, than to feel pleasure at it. Caroline put the slices of beef upon a dish, made the tea, and asked Dick to partake.

But Dick declined. And nobody perhaps would have given careless Dick credit for the true motive, or for the real self-denial that it was to a hungry boy. He had somehow drawn a conclusion that Mr. and Mrs. Cray had not too much meat for themselves, and he would not lessen it.

"I can't stay now," he said, raising; "I shall have Aunt Bett at me as it is. Good-night, Mr. Cray, good-night, Caroline."

Mr. Cray followed him down the stairs. "You must be very cautious not to say that you found us here," he said. "Can we depend upon you?"

"As if you couldn't," returned Dick. I know— fellow of ours at school has got a big br her, and he has to be in hiding nine months at least out of every year. I'll tell nobody but Sara."

But when Mark's money was gone, things changed. He grew restless and gloomy. He could not starve, he could not go to the workhouse; he must do something. Miss Bettina Davenal would not help them: she said she could not—perhaps with justice. Leopold Davenal had been an expense to her, and was still; he went back to school after the Christmas holidays with Dick, but he was not strong yet, and sundry expensive extras were provided for him out of her pocket. That was not much; but a heavier expense had fallen upon her; for she had repaid Mr. Wheatley the £200 borrowed by Sara. Sara had disclosed to her aunt the fact of borrowing it, and in her pride Miss Bettina had made a sacrifice and repaid the sum. She had none left to bestow on Mark; there was clearly no help to be had from her.

And Caroline? You can take a look at her as she sat in the sun, which was shining into the room that bright day early in April. Perhaps you remember a remark that Dr. Davenal once made—that Caroline was not one, as he believed, to bear well the adversities of life. Dr. Davenal was quite right, neither physically nor mentally did they agree with poor Caroline.

I don't know whether anybody gets ill at once under a great shock. Caroline had not. When it fell upon her, she was too stunned, too entirely surprised, to be anything but bewildered. It may be questioned if a change so sudden—from seemingly assured prosperity, to hiding, and disgrace, and poverty—ever befell one. You may feel inclined to question it in this instance; nevertheless, I repeat I am telling you the simple truth. The reaction has come now, and Caroline Cray gave way sadly. Her cough, that Dick remarked upon, had got well; but she would lie back in her chair all day, and it seemed next to impossible to get her out of it.

Don't You Know

That to have perfect health you must have pure blood, and the best way to have pure blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and strength builder? It expels all taint of scrofula, salt rheum and all other humors, and at the same time builds up the whole system and gives nerve strength.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

Dyspepsia is a prolific cause of such diseases as bad blood, constipation, headache and liver complaint. Burdock Blood Bitters is guaranteed to cure or relieve dyspepsia if used according to directions. Thousands have tested it with best results.

The summer girl is respectfully informed that the summer man is busily putting up more margins.

A Man Made Happy.—GENTLEMEN,—For five years I have been a great sufferer with Dyspepsia; the pain in the pit of my stomach was almost unbearable and life only seemed a drag to me. When I would go to sleep I would have horrible dreams, and my life became very miserable, as there was no rest either day or night. But with the use of only two bottles of Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY this unhappy state has all been changed and I am a well man. I can assure you, my case was a bad one, and I send you this that it may be the means of convincing others of the wonderful curative qualities possessed by this medicine, that are specially adapted for the cure of Dyspepsia. A lady customer of mine had the Dyspepsia very bad, she could scarcely eat anything, and was troubled with pains similar to those I suffered with; and she cured herself with two bottles of Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY. I wish you success with your medicine, as I am fully convinced that it will do all you claim for it.

ROUGH TIMES AT ROBY.

Admirers of the "Manly Art" in Queer Company.

Pistol Shots, Fire and Stones Some of the Features of a Prize Fight.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Very few of the 6,000 or more spectators of the Creeden-Greggains mill at Roby Monday night will—unless they be of that class of sporting element that knows no fear—forget their experience for a goodly time to come. This great crowd of men, of all degrees from the millionaire and the prosperous tradesman down to the board of trade clerk, and thence down to the genus tough, were cooped up like rats for over three hours in a monstrous barn, dignified by the name of arena, having only two exits, of a width of only four feet, while on the outside, like a besieging army, was a mob of nearly 1,000 brawny stockyardsmen, iron workers and railroad hands, determined on securing free admission or of getting satisfaction by violent methods.

From almost the moment that the first train load of spectators had found their seats the besiegers commenced a bombardment of the wooden walls and roof with rocks that had evidently been brought there for the express purpose, and the bombardment was kept up to the very end, stones sometimes falling as thick as hail, and the echo drowning the excited shouts of the partisans of the contestants.

Ever and anon one of the outsiders would manage to work his way in either under the flooring or through some undiscovered hole in the wall, only to be spotted by the Pinkertons on duty and thrown again into the darkness, after being clubbed almost into insensibility.

Scenes of the latter character were enacted during almost every hour, and at one time, when a dozen or more of the belligerents had managed to work their way in in a body and the officers found themselves unable to cope with the numbers, the spectators in that corner of the hall smashed their chairs and utilized the pieces as clubs with which to defend themselves in the event of a bloody conflict. Every now and again the officers on the outside fired blank cartridges by the hundreds over the heads of the mob, and this, with the echo of rocks, gave the insiders the idea that a pitched battle was in progress.

The most critical moment, however, was during the twelfth round, when the mob set fire to the ticket office, which was situated but a few feet away from the main entrance. One of the idiots invariably in attendance on such occasions yelled "Fire!" and, like a flash, half of the people on the inside were on their feet, many of them standing on the seats, while hundreds made a break for the door. Only the yells and appeals of the cooler heads to sit down and the fact that the men kept on fighting prevented what might have been a panic.

A moment or two more of the prevailing suspense and thousands of men would have been struggling at the two narrow exits, and the lives of half of them might have been sacrificed. It was feared that the mob would attack the spectators as they left the arena, but it was evidently afraid of superior numbers. Nevertheless the spectators breathed a sigh of relief when the trains finally landed them in the center of the city.

MATRIMONIAL MONOMANIA.

A Bigamous Girl Coolly Confronts Her Three Hubbies in Court.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Helen Clough, of this village, was held yesterday afternoon to the grand jury on a charge of bigamy preferred by Charles Duclow, of Long Branch, who claims to be her first husband. She is the daughter of James H. Myers, a respectable citizen of this village, who says she is in her 23rd year. She acknowledges only 19 years.

The evidence disclosed that she was married to Duclow at Ballston Spa, on Sept. 26, 1890, by Rev. Joseph Zwolfel, a Methodist pastor, and went with her husband to Long Branch, and lived with him till she tired of working at his art of Indian basket-making and eloped.

On Feb. 12, 1893, she was married in this village by the Rev. D. W. Gates, a Methodist pastor, to William Lawler, of Albany, whom she soon deserted.

On July 6, 1893, she was again married in this village to Arthur B. Clough by the Rev. Edgar T. Hiscock, a Baptist pastor. She was living with Clough until her arrest after the arrival of Duclow in town a few days ago.

All the husbands were in court, but she appeared totally unconcerned. Lewis Varney, her counsel, argued that she is subject to a monomania in matrimony that renders her unconscious of committing crime. She was bailed in $500. Her father and a brother-in-law signed the bond.

THE DOCTORS FAVOR IT!

They Know It Is the Best!

A young and well-known physician in Montreal says: "I am now in my third year of active practice in this city, and feel safe in saying that your Lactated Food is the best article of infant diet that has come under my notice. I have quite a number of young children under my care just now, and those who are artificially fed are doing splendidly with Lactated Food. I always feel safe when I recommend your food, as I know that good results will follow."

Every physician in Canada knows the value of Lactated Food as an infant nourisher and builder. No other prepared food has ever received such flattering notices from the medical profession. Mothers act wisely and well when they make choice of this celebrated food for their little ones. The use of Lactated Food means increased vitality, strength and vigor for the babies, and comfort, peace and satisfaction for the mothers. It has been proved, also, that Lactated Food, when bought in the medium and large sizes, is the cheapest food in the world.

Walked Off a Train While Asleep.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Aug. 17.—John Johnson, of Wisconsin, aged 86 years, while on his way to New York, walked off a Baltimore and Ohio western express in his sleep a few miles west of this city, early yesterday morning. The train, which was running at full speed, was stopped and run back. Johnson, who lay where he had fallen, was brought to Muhlenburg Hospital, where an examination showed that no bones were broken and no worse injuries received than a severe shaking up.

LEGAL QUERIES.

MOSA.—How long can the township council blockade one and a half miles of a public road by having a bridge taken down? Can they keep it blockaded as long as they like or is there a certain time for them to do it in? ANS.—There is no fixed time, but if the length is unreasonable and unnecessary having regard to all the circumstances the council can be indicted for maintaining a public nuisance or for non-repair of the bridge.

UNDERWOOD.—A, B and C are interested in a water course through D's land. Have each one to do part of the work or can they compel D to do all the work to give them an outlet? ANS.—They must do all the work unless D is benefited, in which case he must do his share. If all parties cannot agree, the award, and the township engineer under the statute will settle the rights of the parties, and apportion the expense and work to be done by each.

WOODSTOCK.—A person subscribed for a periodical for one year, but it was sent for three or four years. Then a bill was sent in and payment demanded because the person failed to have the publishers stop the periodical. Can one be forced to pay such a bill? ANS.—If your subscription was only for one year the bill for the subsequent years at the subscription price cannot be collected, although you not having notified the publishers might entitle them to some claim, the amount of which could only be decided by a Division Court suit.

RAILROAD CROSSING.—A railway company placed a guard of posts and lumber at a farm crossing to keep cattle and sheep from running up or down the grassy part of railway lands whilst crossing, and to keep wagon and team from getting over embankment. The company has allowed the guards to become delapidated, and useless. It was in use twenty years. How long after it became useless is the company liable to replace it? ANS.—The company are bound to keep it in proper repair and are liable to an action for not doing so immediately it becomes out of repair, besides being liable for accidents. Notify the nearest station agent at once and if not attended to consult a lawyer.

Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

THE OPEN FORUM.

Mr. O'Hagen's Explanation.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

In last night's edition of your paper appears a paragraph, in which is copied a report sent in to Inspector Bell, to the effect that my hogs are causing a nuisance, and to which the name of Mr. J. C. Gerloch has been forged, also where Mr. Gerloch denies all knowledge of the matter until accused of the same. It was hardly necessary for Mr. Gerloch to go to such trouble in order to set himself right with the public and myself, as I never fully accused him of having written the letter. I merely told him that such report had been sent in with his named signed to it; and I hereby honestly state that I did not from the first believe him guilty of having sent in such report, and I am sure that no one in this or any other neighborhood who has known him would ever accuse him of having a hand in such a small piece of business. In the report sent to the inspector, the parties try to make out that my hogs are kept in such a miserable state as to be likely to injure public health, which is utterly false. I can get several people who have visited my house many times during the warm weather to take their oath that they never, even once, while at my own door, smelt any odor arising from the said hogs. I think if such report had been chased to the author's door, you would find that my hog pen is as clean as their house. It was either done to cause ill-feeling between Mr. Gerloch and ourselves, or, on the other hand, the parties finding themselves unable to purchase a few hogs took this means of keeping other people from doing so. Kindly insert the above in your valuable paper and greatly oblige. Yours, etc.,

CHARLES O'HAGEN.

London, Aug. 17.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

In the rear of my lot and separated from it by a right of way is a market garden. Neither the garden nor lot has a fence. I am the owner of two dogs which the gardener claims have been running over and damaging his vegetables, and he has sent me word that unless I keep them tied up he will shoot them.

Now, as I expect to spend part of every summer here with my family (and dogs), I would very much like to know if I can be compelled to keep my dogs tied up all or any of the time, or else run the risk of having them destroyed by a party who has no protection against animals of any kind on the south side of his lot. By answering the above you will greatly oblige. Yours truly,

DOGOWNER.

Port Stanley, Aug. 14.

[The market gardener has no right to kill your dogs, and is liable to prosecution if he does. You are not legally bound to keep your dogs tied up as against the gardener or anyone else, for any time, in the absence of a local municipal bylaw which might be passed to restrain dogs from running at large. Inquire of the village clerk, Port Stanley, if any such bylaw is in force in the village.—EDITOR ADVERTISER.]

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Mr. C. S. Hyman, M.P., sails from England for home on Aug. 24.

—Miss Jennie Redman, of Hamilton, is visiting relatives in London.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hedley, of Craig street, are spending a few days at St. Marys.

—Misses Calver and Gretta Logan are spending a short vacation with Mrs. Lighton, of Port Stanley.

—Mr. W. H. Treblicock, daughter Pearl, and company, have left for the World's Fair via steamer City of Collingwood.

—It is estimated that the promoters of the bicycle meet Wednesday will come out with $400 on the right side of the ledger.

—Mayor Essery and W. R. Meredith, Q.C., had a consulation yesterday morning over L. and P. S. R. and electric street railway matters.

—The charge of abusive language preferred by Mrs. King against Mrs. Small was heard by Squire Lacey Wednesday and the case enlarged for a day.

—Messrs. Harry Dell and Hubert Feekings, the young London pedestrians, have reached Chicago after thirteen days travel. They were in good condition.

—Detective Campau has gone to London after Thos. Elliott, who is detained there on a charge of stealing a horse from Henkle & Kenna's livery, Detroit.—[Windsor Record.

—Alex. Bartlett, Matthew Kernohan and John Newman, of London West, have been summoned by Constable Ward on a charge of allowing cattle to run at large within the village.

—Mr. Herber Matthews, of New York, formerly of London, sang two solos very acceptably at the anniversary services of the Methodist Church, at Port Stanley, on Sunday last.

—At the last regular meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen a resolution was passed unanimously pledging the members not to patronize anything but union made goods.

—Dr. Hotson, Princess avenue, has returned from Parkhill, where he has been taking charge of his brother-in-law's (Dr. Owens) practice during the latter's absence at the World's Fair.

—The marriage of Fred. H. Cooper, formerly of this city, to Miss Louise G. Innes, eldest daughter of Capt. J. R. Innes, of the M. C. R. car ferries, Windsor, is announced for Sept. 6.

—Grand Trunk railroad authorities deny the report published in a Windsor paper that some of the men are to be laid off. The laying up of one transfer boat for repairs is all the change that will be made.

—Mr. Lucius B. Jarvis, on the farm of Thomas Frank, 5th concession of Westminster, recently bound 1,300 sheaves by hand in eleven hours. Mr. Jarvis is 66 years of age. Where are the young men? They are yet to hear from.

—One of the most pleasant trips for the Civic Holiday will be the excursion to Cleveland by steamer Flora. By taking the Saturday night boat visitors can stay either one or four days in Cleveland. A daylight trip will also be made, leaving London at 6:40 a.m. Fare for round trip, $2 75.

—Rev. Robert Aylward, B.A., has resigned the pastorate of the Congregational Church at London, and intends to enter the ministry of the Presbyterian Church, it is said. This will be news to his friends at Cobourg, where he ministered as the Congregational pastor very acceptably for three years before going to London. [Cobourg World.

—At St. James' Church, South London, Wednesday, Mr. Chas. H. Holmes was united in marriage to Miss Kate Ralph, sister of P. C. Ralph. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Davis. Numerous friends and relatives were present. A beautiful array of presents was noticeable when the wedding party retired to the bride's residence where a wedding breakfast was enjoyed.

—The many friends of Miss Mary Garnett will hear with regret of her death, which occurred at Traverse City, Mich., on Aug. 16. Miss Garnett was a former resident of London. For many years she was an active member of the Congregational Church and Sunday school. She was the eldest of a family of sixteen, and this is the first death that has occurred. They have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

—A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Watson, 148 Waterloo street, Tuesday afternoon, it being the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. E. Allen, to Mr. James McMahon, a popular conductor on the G. T. R. running out of this city. The knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Rhodes, of Christ Church. They left on an extended trip to Toronto and Winnipeg and come back by way of Minneapolis. The presents were of the best and numerous.

—At the last annual convention of the Ontario Sabbath School Association it was decided to divide the organization into four districts, London being made the center of one. A meeting of the Western Ontario sub-committee will be held tomorrow afternoon in Wesley Hall to elect officers and transact other business. In the evening a public gathering in Queen's Avenue Methodist Church is announced to be addressed by Alfred Day, general secretary, and others. All Sabbath school teachers and workers, and the general public are invited.

—Personally I have known nearly a score of people, su ering from nearly as many different ailments, who have been greatly helped by the hot water treatment, but in no case did they keep it up for months. Only in emergencies, where others refer to the medicine chest, or send for a physician, they fell back on the hot water routine and faithfully adhered to it till relief was obtained. One of the most remarkable cases was that of a friend who was nervous to the verge of hysteria, and utterly unable to sleep at night. The first day on which she drank two quarts of hot water (divided into four portions, and taking one on rising, one in the middle of the afternoon, and the last on going to bed) ended in a night of refreshing sleep, and its continuance completely put an end to the nervousness and sleeplessness.—[E. W. in Wives and Daughters.

Lily White Water White Oil is a reliable oil for family use. Ask your dealer for it. They must keep it to hold their trade. Over 100 dealers sell it in the city. No extra price; same price as ordinary oil. Orders solicited. Telephone No. 307. EMPIRE OIL COMPANY.

Police Court News.

Geo. Baker, while under the influence of drink, displayed a well-developed belligerent mood. He was fined $5, with the option of twenty days imprisonment, in the Police Court yesterday. Robert Jackson, who came from Chatham, was charged with not paying his fare. He said that he had bought a ticket, but that some way it had been lost. The magistrate decided to believe this representation. The prisoner was discharged.

Broke His Arm.

John W. Lee, of Nilestown, was driving into the city yesterday morning. At the Proof road he overtook Vernon Field, who was leading two horses. His horse, becoming frightened, dashed ahead. After an exciting effort he succeeded in pacifying it. Soon Field came up, and in attempting to pass Lee again made the latter's horse unmanageable. A runaway was the result. A little west of Sherbrook's residence, on the Wellington road, the buggy collapsed. Lee was thrown to the ground. His arm was broken. The horse was so severely injured that it had to be killed. Dr. George Wilson set the suffering man's arm.

Rumored Militia Changes.

A citizen of Kingston, well posted in militia matters has been informed that a list of changes in the Canadian Militia Department is being prepared. He reports that Col. Aylmer, of London, Ont., will go to Ottawa as assistant adjutant-general. Lieut.-Cols. Straubenzee and Villiers, deputy-adjutant-generals, will be retired with a gratuity of $3 200, and Major Fraser, paymaster of "A" Battery, will be sent to Winnipeg, his office to be abolished. Capt. Frank Strange, district paymaster, Kingston, will be retired, and Major King will perform the duties of both offices, receiving a salary commensurate with the increased duties.

"Taffy Pull" at Summerholm.

An enjoyable time was spent by the young ladies of Summerholm on Monday night last. The members of Bush Camp, on Orchard Beach, gallantly lighted bonfires on the beach, and the young ladies, headed by Miss Janet Ramsey, proceeded to make and treat the young men to taffy. All the visitors from the village and the heights, attracted by the bright fires and the savory odor, gathered around the place, and soon all were merrily engaged in the various duties of taffy-pullers. A rowboat on the shore proved an accommodating receptacle for holding the various dishes of cooling taffy. During the evening Mr. Herbert Matthews, of New York, formerly of London, entertained the crowd with some choice solos. The merry event was brought to a close by singing "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," and three hearty cheers were given for Misses Weir, Kirkpatrick and Jewell, and Mr. Herbert Matthews.

Street Railway Matters.

Yesterday afternoon the solicitors of the London Street Railway Company submitted a new offer, or rather the offer of July 22 with the various amendments agreed to on behalf of the company in committee. There were, of course, certain amendments asked that the company would not agree to, one of which would have obliged the railway people to clear the snow not only from their own tracks but from the whole of the street. One point that the company does agree to is of great value to the city. By it they undertake to repair the track and roadbed and supply all material for the same during the balance of the franchise. The Toronto corporation receive $800 a mile from their street railway company with which to repair their tracks, and Ald. Lamb, of Toronto, recently stated that the council would willingly waive the $800 if the company would do and supply material for its own repairing. This shows the value of the point gained by the city. Again the company agree to give transfers during fair times, a boon not hitherto enjoyed by Londoners.

A lovely person is one who has a good stomach and has been taking Duncombe's Dark Pills.
