INJURE RICHTER

Graham Organ Alleges He Made Statements at Meeting He Never Attended.

NOT EVEN A PERVERSION

False Statements Are Characterized as Part of Campaign of Slander.

The lack of confidence shown by Ald. Richter in the ability of the citizens to manage their own utilities is shown by an incident that happened a few weeks ago when Chairman Pocock and Commissioner Chapman opened negotiations with the London Street Railway Company for the purchase of

There was a conference on civic business in Ald. Spittal's office, and Ald. Richter was present. A copy of the Evening Free Press was brought in, with a story that the London Street Railway would sign a contract for power. It was read to the gathering, the majority present hailing it as a fine stroke of business, and one that would produce excellent results to the cit-with the whole campaign. "The worst I have done is to give four years of my life to the public service. I have never had the slightest antagonism toward any man in London, but I would consider myself a pretty poor specimen of a man if I allowed myself to simply fall into the lickspittle class because I was afraid to speak my mind."

When his opponents have to resort to falsehoods of the character that have been exposed in The Advertiser, it is felt that Ald. Richter's claims on the mayoralty are strong, and that any slander is being resorted to in an effort to defeat him by maligning him.

Declaration of Independence Following Revolt-Loyal Troops Rout Revolutionaries.

[Canadian Press.]
Pekin, Dec. 29.—A revolt of three regiients of the Chinese army under the leadership of General Yang Hu-Pin, is reported from Lali-Fu, in the far southwestern Province of Yunnan, about 100 miles from the frontier of Burma The soldiers, on Dec. 8, shot down their officers, raided the armory, killed a professor and several students of the Chinese college, as well as a number of citizens, and then proclaimed the independence of the province in the name of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, former provisional president of China. The mutineers themselves protected the chapel belonging to the China inland Mission, the school attached to which was soon filled with wounded and

Social Survey Report Will Be Presented

Findings of Dr. Meyers To Be Revealed at Federation Meeting Tonight.

Dr. J. Myers, of Toronto, who has been conducting a social survey in London under the auspices of the Men's Federation, for the past three months, will make his official report to the executive of that body tonight.

Just what disclosures will be made at the meeting are not known, but it is expected that the report will be an inresting and comprehensive one. Myers has confined his investigations principally to religious and educational work, and the report will deal with these branches. The survey has been systematic and thorough, and with the compiling of the last of the reports from the several churches of the city, the federation will be possessed of definite information regarding church conditions in the altr.

It is not the object of the desociation to censure, according to statements made by its members. It has not been con-ducting the investigations for that puroose. The idea is to obtain a compre-nensive insight into existing conditions. At tonight's meeting definite arrangements for the welfare exhibit will be

Flaring Type to "Boost London" Put Together by Outside W orkmen.

Mayor Charles Milton Richardson Graham poses as London's big man. "Stand by London" is, no doubt, one of the big features in the campaign menu offered the electors by Charles Milton. But, curiously enough, the mayor himself is the first to offend against this advice, The Advertiser, boards throughout the city calling on the people to rally round the Graham standard once more, were printed in Toronto. The flaming circus-like signs were put up by the billposting agency, and the mayor, cute and subtle advertiser that he is, is tickled to death with them, even though they were printed by an out-of-town establishment. Considerable Difficulty Looming Up Ahead of Premier Borden and His Colleagues.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Dec. 29 .- A short session, with as little discussion as possible, is the program of the Government for the approaching meeting of Parliament. With the opening fixed for Jan. 15, Premier Borden and his colleagues are counting upon prorogation by the end of May or the beginning of June. Just Four Months.

Four months and a half of sitting are all that are wanted. In this time the Government proposes to put through estimates amounting to a quarter of a billion dollars, to pass the naval aid bill, to put through a redistribution bill, to dis-cuss the high cost of living, and prescribe a solution for it, while at the same time passing some millions of railway subsidies.

To Use Closure Rule. The closure rule will be applied with the utmost severity. It is not proposed to allow the Opposition a single inch of leeway. As far as the rules and the Speaker can achieve it, his Majesty's Loyal Op-position will be dumb this session. It is thought that the Government, in spite of the closure rule, may have some though he may not have had the difficulty in carrying out its program of funds at the time of his illness to pay

Foul Attempt Made to Blame Next Mayor for "Spying on Poor."

"The most contemptible newspaper | Elder at Cardston Says They attack I have ever seen in a public expected to go to the jury this after-noon, and with the Issue so plainly de-fined, both sides believe that a verdict will be reached with little delay. will be reached with little delay. The chief of Schmidt's counsel expects a verdict of acquittal on the ground of inspirity. The prosperition is countried to pursue the poor who verdict. insanity. The prosecution is equally confident of a conviction of murder in the out if they were able to pay when they recovered.

"At the present time Victoria Hospital employs a lawyer who writes scores of letters in a year trying to secure money from patients who have come into the hospital as free patients," the physician continued. "I have had letters sent to me time after time asking for money from patients who entered the hospital as free patients and who were unable to pay anything. The statement from the anonymous hospital trustee that they did not employ a spy to follow up the poor,' is funny to most physicians. If a man has anything to pay he doesn't go without paying.

Little Chance of "Victimizing." "The fact that Ald. Richter has neard of cases of patients, entered as free patients, who were able to pay may have led him to inquire as to whether the city was not vicitimized by some people. But there is little chance of this, with the system of lawyer's letters that is in vogue. try and show that Ald. Richter was temptible thing, and is resented by medical men and physicians general-

Ald. Richter's attitude to the question of rates for poor patients and the collection of the same, was absolutely fair and above board, and was far from being the "persecution of the poor" insinuated by the enemies of the people's candidate for the mayoralty. Ald. Richter, when seed by The Advertiser commented upon the lengths to which his slandering opponents have shown a willingness to go in order to gain their base ends. The matter came up when the estimates of the hospital trust were before the finance committee of the council. Ald. Richter simply asked what was being done to collect from o-called "poor patients."

"Take the case of a man who comes to the city today. A few weeks later he is taken ill and removed to the hospital," said Ald. Richter. "He is working on a salary and having been here only a short time may not have any great amount of money sayed up. after his recovery, he goes to work again at his usual salary. is there any reason in the world why that man should not pay his hospital bill? He is not a poor patient, although he may not have had the his expenses. It was my desire to see what action was taken by the hospital authorities to collect in such cases as this. Where it was found that the patients were unable to pay all well and good, but where patients were quite able to settle, why should they not do so? I claim that it is the duty of the board not to encourage pauperism along the line that I have suggested."

"A system was devised," continued Ald. Richter, "whereby a list of the charity patients was turned over to the relief officer, he to inquire into the circumstances.'

Cheaper Than Toronto. Ald. Richter, at the time, procured information as to the relative cost of hospital treatment in other cities, and found that the best rooms in Victoria Hospital, London, were cheaper than the poorest in Toronto hospitals.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDRATE

The New Sensational Comedy With a Laugh in Every Line

A Man From the Dark.
For fully five seconds Mr. Magee and the man with whom he had collided stood acing each other on the balcony. The dentical moon of the summer romances how hung in the sky, and in its white glare Baldpate Mountain glittered like a Christmas card. Suddenly the wind broke a small branch from one of the nearby trees and tossed it lightly on the snow heads the transfer of the property of the property of the state of the property of the pr beside the two men-as though it were a signal for battle.
"A lucky chance," said Mr. Magee.

"You're a man I've been longing to meet. Especially since the professor left his window open this afternoon." 'Indeed," replied the other calmly. "May I ask what you want of me?"
"Certainly." Mr. Magee laughed. "A little package. I think it's in your pocket at this moment. A package no bigger than a man's hand."

The stranger made no reply, but looked quickly about, over his shoulder at the path along which he had come, and then past Mr. Magee at the road that led to freedom. 'I think it's in your pocket." repeated

"I think it's in your pocket," repeated Mr. Magee, "and I'm going to find out."
"I haven't time to argue with you," said the holder of the seventh key. His roice was cold, calculating, harsh. "Get put of my way and let me pass, or—" "Or what?" asked Billy Magee.

He watched the man lunge toward him in the moonlight. He saw the fist that had the night before been at the Waterloo of Mr. Max and the mayor start on a swift, true course for his head. Quickly he dodged to one side and closed with his he dodged to one side and closed with his

He was forced to call into play muscles he had not used in what seemed ages-not since he sported of an afternoon in a rather odorous college gymnasium. Then suddenwas going, surely, quickly. Then suddenly his opponent seemed to weaken in his grip. With a supreme effort Magee forced him down upon the balcony floor and tumbled on top of him. He felt the chill of the snow under his knees and its wetness in his cuffs.

"Now," he cried to himself.
"The other still struggled desperately. But his struggle was without success, for

But his struggle was without success, for deftly Billy Magee drew from his pocket the precious package about which there had been so much debate on Baldpate Mountain. He clasped it close, rose and ran. In another second he was inside aumber seven, and had lighted a candle at the blazing logs. Once more he examined that closelypacked little bundle; once more he found it rich in greenbacks. Assuredly it was the greatly-desired thing he had fought for the night before. He had it again. He ried a pistol in his hand; his face was d, cruel, determined; his usually exessionless eves lighted with pleasure as ey fell on the package in Mr. Magee's session. "It seems I'm just in time." he said. "to prevent highway robbery."
"You think so?" asked Magee.

"See here, young man," remarked Hay-den, glancing nervously over his shoulder, "I can't waste any time in talk. Does that money belong to you? No. Well, it does belong to me. I'm going to have it. Don't think I'm afraid to shoot to get it. The law permits a man to fire on the thief who tries to fleece him.'

"The law, did you say?" laughed Billy Magee. "I wouldn't drag the law into this if I were you, Mr. Hayden. I'm sure it has no connection with events on Baldpate Mountain. You would be the last to want its attention to be directed here I've got this money, and I'm going to keep his voice trailing off weakly on the last word.

"What brought me?" Suddenly, as from a voicano that had long been cold, fire blazed up in Kendrick's eyes. "If a man knew the road from hell back home, what would it need to bring him back?" Hayden stood with his mouth partly open; almost a grotesque picture of terror he looked in that dim light. Then he spoke, in an odd strained tone, more to himself than to anyone else. himself than to anyone eise.
"I thought you were dead," he said. "I told myself you'd never come bock. Over and over—in the night—I told myself that. But all the time—I knew—I knew you'd come."

A cry—a women's cry

A cry-a woman's cry-sounded from just outside the door of number seven. Into the room came Myra Thornhill; quicky she crossed and took Kendrick's hands in hers. "David," she sobbed. "Oh, David--is it dream-a wonderful dream?" Kendrick locked into her eyes, sheepishly at first, then gladly as he saw what was in them. For the light there, under the tears, was such as no man could mistake. Magee saw it. Hayden saw it too, and his voice was even more lifeless when he spake.

"Forgive me, David," he said. "I didn't

And then, as he saw that Kendrick did not listen, he turned and walked quietly into the bedroom of number seven, taking no notice of Cargan and Bland, who, with the other guests of Baldpate, now crowded the doorway leading to the hall. Hayden closed the bedroom door. Mr. Magee and the others stood slient, wondering.
Their answer came quickly—the sharp cry of a revolver behind that closed door.
It was Mr. Magee who went into the bedroom The moonlight streamed in through the low window and fell brightly on the hed. Across the Hayden leave Mr. on the bed. Across this Hayden lay. Mr. Magee made sure. It was not a pleasant thing to make sure of. Then he took the revolver from the hand that still clasped it, covered the quiet figure on the bed, and stepped back into the outer room.

"He—he has killed himself," he said in a low voice, closing the bedroom door bea low voice, closing the bedroom door behind him. "You mean Hayden?" Magee said. "No. This money was not concerned in his death. That is an affair between Kendrick and him." and him. "I see," answered the girl slowly. "I'm so glad it wasn't the money. I couldn't bear it if it were." "May I call your attention," remarked lagee, "to the fact that the long reign Magee, "to the fact that the long reign of 'I'm going to' is ended, and the rule of 'I've done it' has begun? I've actually got the money. Somehow, it doesn't seem to thrill you the way I thought it would." "But it does—oh, it does!" cried the girl. "I was upset for a moment. It's glorious news. And with you on good here I'm news. And with you on guard here I'm not afraid to carry it away—down the mountain—and to Reuton. I'll be with mountain—and to Reuton. I'll be with you in a moment, ready for the journey."

She called Mrs. Norton, and the two wen rather timidly upstairs together. Mr. Magee turned to his companions in the room, and mentally called their roll. They, were all there, the professor, the mayor, Max, Bland, Miss Thornhill and the newcomer, Kendrick, a man prematurely old, grayed at the timples, and with a face yellowed by fever. He and the profes-sor were talking earnestly together, and now the old man came and stood before

Magee. "Mr. Magee," he said seriously, "I learn from Kendrick that you have in your possession a certain package of money that has been much buffeted about here at Baldpte Inn. Now, I suggest—no, I demand—"

For the second time within ten minutes
Mr. Magee steadied himself for conflict.
But Hayden stopped. Someone had entered the room through the window behind Magee. In the dim light of the single candle Magee saw Hayden's face go white, his lips twitch, his eyes glare with horrible surprise. His arms fell limply to prove a long one."

"Pardon me, Professor," Mr. Magee interrupted. "I have something to suggest—even to demand. It is that you, and everyone present, select a chair and sit down. I suggest, though I do not demand, that you pick comfortable chairs. For the vigil that you are about to begin will prove a long one."

"What d'you mean?" asked the mayor of Reuton, coming militantly to Professor Bolton's side. Magee did not reply. Miss Norton and her mother came down the stairs, the former wrapped in a great coat. He Hidden Under Consignment of Merchandise for Niagara Falls, N. Y.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Niagara Falls, Ont., Dec. 28.-Buried beneath merchandise, half frozen and almost famished from hunger, three Chinese were found in a bonded freight car in the local yards this morning. They are held pending investigation. The car was bound for Niagara Falls, New York. Grand Trunk railway employees who chanced to hear them talking broke the seal of the car and made the discovery.

Three bottles of water each bearing an inscription, Windsor, Ontario, were found. They were the product of a mineral water concern. Also, they had some United States currency. It is the opinion of United States officials that the men were being "undergrounded" across the line.

LONDON, MONDAY, DEC. 29. THE SCHOOL FOR SLANDER.

A chapter of base falsehoods has already been printed and circulated regarding Alderman John G. Richter in the present campaign for the mayoralty. Charges so vile in character as to be libellous are found each evening in the columns of a newspaper that disgraces every tradition of fair The character of the something he has not done, and to rejournal is so well-known that there is lease him from confinement in the not great danger of honest men being used against Mr. Richter last year, and in spite of them, or because of them, he headed the polls. Almost superior power. A new trial, and a thing to do with it? They will say, every utterance of this gentleman has been raked up in an effort to find some chance for the use of innuendo With a genius for misconstruction that is rare, his newspaper enemy seeks in the name of honesty to besmirch the reputation of a man fairly beyond the reproach of his bitterest enemy.

There are minds low enough how ever, to be influenced by such stories as have been printed, and the lesser minions of the campaign have been seeking and securing their cue from the Master Caluminator, with the result that false stories are being whispered of Ald. Richter in the canvas of the electors. "Speak-easy" methods are hoped to defeat him among the workingmen, who have not had a more fair representative on the council board.

Traveller Opposes Tilbury Gas To the Editor of The Advertiser;

Re natural gas. If you really would like to get a fair opinion on this ques-tion just ask any commercial traveller who covers the territory in the natural gas section in Western Ontario, and it you find anyone favorable to it in preference to the product we are now being served I am much mistaken. People who have never travelled in that section can have no idea of the offensive oder of the stuff, bestdes the dirty, gassy mess i makes of everything. I note Mr. McChary in his letter tonight, even admits that i will mean an outlay of about six dollars for each householder or user to put on a suitable burner to use natural gas. He also emphasizes the fact that you must have a good 8-inch pipe connected with good chimney. I think those are facts which should be certainly given prominence, as it is a well-known fact that you nust have an extraordinarily good chimney to stand that stuff. As to the cost, am certain there have been misleading statements made, because natural gas users who have ever had the benefit of artificial gas will all tell you that it eally takes over double the quantity of natural gas to give you the same result is artificial, and to use it in a furnace is certainly not cheaper than coal. In answer to inquiry as to why, he immediately said, 'Why, they have turned that Tilbury gas into our town and the place is not fit to live in; the smell is awful." I am amused to hear these people talk

Well, vou would think the people who live in the natural gas district of Tilbury, Leamington, Kingsville and those places, weuld have it, and it is because I have travelled for a number of years in that country that I am very, very much opposed to introducing the dirty stuff into

Then, too, it must not be too hot one minute and cool the In fact, it is hardly safe to have a variation of 20 degrees between the day and night; for if the plants are overheated and then chilled, the growth is stunted and the bloom killed. The safe heat is between 65 and 70 degrees during the day and between 50 or 55 during the night. On very cold nights, it is well to move the boxes away from the windows and put newspapers in front of the glass, leaving a dead air space between. To give the atmosphere the proper amount of moisture, have a small dish of water on the radiator, and never allow it to become dry. Since the plants need fresh air also, it is well to keep a window partially opened. But be sure not to al-

The Mitchell junior O. H. A. team was granted permission to play intermediate hockey in the Northern Hockey League.

The committee decided that, where teams are compelled to play their home games on foreign ice, the basis of mileage to visiting teams should be the exact distance they have to travel, while on the return games they should receive mileage from their own town to their opponents' ice.

Further information will be requested from Lansfield and McMartin, who desired to play with Peterboro. They played last year with the Syracuse team, which is under the O. H. A. ban.

A declaration was received regarding the residence of A. A. Hall in London, and the committee accepted the same. Hall is in business in London. He formerly played with Collingwood. W. Jacobs, one of the suspended Waterloo juniors of last year, was reinstated. Walter Fair, of Oshawa, and Chas. Blanchard, of Whitby, were warned about playing in town baseball leagues where outsiders have played. The boys claimed to have been innocent of any knowledge that there was any wrong-

On being pressed to take a definite position he put down as his charge a report that a player had been offered pecuniary reward to play with Parkdale C. C. hockey team in the season of 1909-10, The player in question did not play for Parkdale, and Mr. Livingstone said he bad no personal knowledge of the matter, but he gave the names of a couple of who, he believed, could give some in formation. He had no charges in connection with the Parkdale club of any other year. The executive will endea-vor to ascertain the truth of Mr. Livingstone's statement.

It was decided to refuse certificates to the following players, who have been registered with the Sarnia club: J. Grannary, from London: J. C. Dore, from Otrawa College: Louis Imbleau, from Renfrew; Harold W. Farlow and H. G. Proutt, from Detroit.

Oldtimers Are Asked to Do "Come Back" Stunt in Pittsburg Ring.

Pittsburg, Dec. 29.-Local boxing pronoters are negotiating with Bob Fitzsimmons, and it is stated that he will show here soon with Joe Choynski. They are boxers of a past age, greater far in those days than what we see now. It would be a great thing to see them again, and compare their ability with their age, local fans believe. Choynski is boxing instructor at the Pennsylvania A. A. He has not appeared in a boxing bout for years, and is said to have had no inclination to resume the gloves. Promoters, however, believing that a bout between the two ancient gladiators would draw, have prevailed upon him to appear. It is known that Fitz is willing.

Grannary claims that he left London because the London hockey club officials were sore on him and would have tried to bar him out of hockey there this year. He believes that his present predicament is largely due to the London club. The local club feels that it was mainly because of the two former Detroit players, Farlow and Proutt, that the O. H. A. acted in the matter. These two players wrote the Sarnia management last spring saying they would like to play O. H. A. hockey there next winter if jobs could be secured for them. As work was plentiful in Sarnia then, this was an easy matter to arrange, and both men were employed here all summer. Proutt moved his family here and has worked himself into

Man and Woman Shot to Death

w York's Police Suspect a Double Murder-Suspects Under Arrest.

New York, Dec. 29. - A young wohan and a man were found shot to death early today in the rear of a little apartment on the Lower East Side. She was identified as Mrs. Wm. Ashau, wife of a musician. The dead man, who lay beside her, had papers in his pocket, indicating that he was Rogowski, a chair-caner. There were two bullet holes in his head and one in his chest. A bullet through the brain had killed the woman. The police were at first inclined to put the case down as one of murder and suicide, but subsequently began work on the theory that double mur-der had been committed. Two men were locked up as suspects.

LIBERTY AND LIFE. [Rev. Charles Ferguson.]

Over against Nature stands the Man, and deep in his heart is the passion for liberty. For the passion for liberty is only another name for life itself. Liberty is a word of much sophistication, but it means, when it means anything, opportunity to live one's own life in one's own way . . . The original sin of the world is not contempt for arbitrary laws, but respect for them.

"MY STOMACH IS FINE Since Taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets"

Mrs. J. Merkhuger, Waterloo, Ont., enthusiastically recommends Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. Her experience with them, as she outlines it, explains why.

"I was greatly troubled with my stomach", she writes. "I had taken so much medicine that I might say to take any more would only be making it worse. My stomach just felt raw. I read of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and a lady friend told me they were very easy to take, so I thought I would give them a trial and really they worked wonders. Anyone having anything wrong with his stomach should give Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, they will do the rest. My stomach is fine now and I can eat any food."

One of the many good features of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsis Tablets is that they are so pleasant and easy to take. The relief they give from heartburn, Fatulence, biliousness and dyspepsia is prompt and permanent. Try one after each meal—they'll make you feel like Both O. H. A. groups London teams are in will open the season tonight. The junior season opens here, while the intermediate group will start in Ingersoll tonight when St. Thomas plays there. St. Thomas intermediates will open the local intermediate season here on Fri-out of the O. H. A. is to be regretted. The Tunnel Town had a good team, and "Putnam's' only-it's painless and sure, local fans would have liked to see London and Sarnia meet. Sarnia is no worse than a lot of other O. H. A. teams, but the difference lies in the fact that Sarnia came out in the open and advertised the fact that it had brought in some players. The other teams keep it quiet. One of these days the O. H. A. will wake up.

The A. M. C. would like to arrange game for New Year's with some team n a nearby town. Teams sing to acin a nearby town. Teams ling to accommodate notify Campell Galbraith, Huron and Eric Comp.

KITCHENER SETTLES

Strong Hand of the Viscount Adjusts Religious Endowments Question.

New York, Dec. 29.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: Viscount Kitchener's strong hand recently achieved another notable success by securing a satisfactory settlement of the vexed question of the religious endowments of Egypt. It has only just become known that this set-tlement was not explained without serious friction with the Khedive, and the presence of a strong British fleet in the Mediterranean, too, may have been a strong influence in inducing the Khedive to withdraw his opposition,

"On Nov. 6 the Khedive returned from a journey to Cairo, and on the following day Lord Kitchener opened negotiations with him, inviting his consent to a thorough reform of the vaukufs."

The endowments are the estates left for the maintenance of the Moslem faith in Egypt, and the Egyptian minconsidered they ought placed under a responsible minister. Lord Kitchener supported the propos-al, but the Khedive showed hostility to it, and a ministerial crisis appear-

Finally a compromise was arranged, the Khedive agreeing to refer the question to the Sultan, who, in theory, has control of all Moslem endowments, and to abide by his decision. Before allowing the question to be referred to the Sultan, however, Lord Kitchener had taken special precautions to insure a favorable reply from his majesty. This arrived within 24 hours, the Khedive instantly concurring, and the affair ended.

THE SQUARE DEAL PAYS. And square with the enemy every Sarnia intermediates' action to drop the O. H. A is to be recentled.

And square with the enemy every man gets when he separates himself from his corns by Putnam's Corn Extractor. For fifty years "Putnam's" has cured every man it treated - use 25c at all dealers.

The Montreal Wanderers, one of the six fast teams in the National Hockey Association circuit. This picture does not include Atkinson or Currie, reported a day or so after the picture was taken. The players are:

RATEPAYERS:

Ten Convincing Reasons Why You Should Vote for the Grobb Manufacturing Co. Bylaw

1. Bylaw authorizes city to loan $25,000 to establish a New industry in London. 2. Loan To Be Repaid in 25 equal, annual, consecutive Payments, with Interest. 3. Security of Loan is assured by first mortgage on new buildings, equipment and land to value of $50,000. 4. Rate of Interest is exactly same as city borrows at.

5. Taxes will be reduced-by increasing amount of assessable property; also by increasing tax-paying population.

6. The Company Guarantees to employ a minimum of 110 skilled hands, and will pay an average of $2.27 per man per day.

7. This means $100,000.00 per year spent in London in wages and salaries, to feed, clothe and house the men and their families. 8. This $100,000.00 goes to grocer, butcher, clothier, landlord, amusements, banks, and everyone in London benefits thereby. 9. The Commany will expend in London $40,000.00 per year for material and supplies.

10. The high rate of wages guarantees that this will be a white man's shop.

BOUND BY COMMON TIES SAYS EDITOR

A WORLD'S EXAMPLE

Boundary Line Devoid of Arm. aments Is Proof of Real Civilization-Democracy Is Aim.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Detroit, Dec. 29 .- Canada and the United States can never be estranged, no matter what may arise to incite ill-feeling, is the belief of Dr. James A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, who was in Detroit yesterday. Dr. Macdonald is a student of American as well as Canadian politics, and has traveiled extensively in the United States. He says that both countries are "afflicted" with a class of newspapers that are a discredit. He termed the utterances of a press of sensational calibre as shallow, expressing thoughts bred in the minds of shallow men, who could not see the problems that both countries must solve. And these problems, he said, are not commercial problems, but ones that compel a close union of both nations An Identical Problem. "The United States has on its hands the problem of California and its fight against Oriental labor. The Dominion of Canada has on its hands the problem of British Columbia and its fight against Oriental labor, and consequently both nations have an identical problem to solve," said Dr. Macdonald.

"Both are trying to solve the problem inder distinct forms of government; anada is monarchist, and the United tates is republican. But other common roblems confront both countries, and hough each is working these out under lifferent forms of government, each naon is striving toward the ultimate goal real democracy. Which will arrive first at the goal it is impossible to predict, but both have a great deal to learn from the other, and are bound by ties greater than treaties or commercial interests.

Free From Armaments.
"America alone of all the continents can show the world an international boundary line between two high-strung and proud peoples that over its 4,000 miles is a civilized neighborhood swept clear of the marks of fortresses, battleships and sentinels on guard "Great municipalities and large private corporations in Canada find it almost impossible to secure the capital needed for carrying on their enterprises this year The manifesto declares that "the introduction next year of a comprehensive temperance measure into the House of Commons would elicit such widespread response and backing from the most various and unaccustomed quarters as would astonish all who have not followed closely the solidifying of opinion on the subject during recent years." The alliance points out further that Mr. Lloyd George has said that no reform, political or social, will avail in this country unless because the money markets of London, social, will avail in this country unless preceded by temperance reform.

Rev. W. J. Knox.

"A Backward and Forward Look," was the New Year subject of Rev. W. J. Knox's Sunday evening sermon in the First Presbyterian Church. Two classes of people that are quite common, he said, are the ultra-conservative, those said, are the ultra-conservative, those who always look to the past, and the ultra-radical, those who always look to the future. It is easy to be the former, or the latter, but to be a liberal, that is to be true to the past and all that it stands for, but not blind to the future and all that it means, believing in the coming of the kingdom, that is more difficult.

Jesus was a liberal, and so the scribes and Pharisees opposed him. Paul and Peter, and in more modern times, Luther, were Liberals.

Those who have received a Puritan-

Those who have received a Puritan-cal training should be grateful for it, but if it tends to shut out the larger and fuller life, they should look forward to the future. But they should avoid becoming faddists. Browning said it was nard to be a Christian, that is to be a beral Christian. "Don't be narrow-minded," counsilled Rev. Mr. Knox. "Be open to the knowledge that the past has taught, but keep looking to the future." Sermons Against Passage of By-

REFUSING DIVORCE

Judge Declares That Mrs. Jenkins Had No Grounds For Her Action.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 28.-Judge Stevens on Saturday refused a divorce to Mrs. Abbie Stewart Jenkins, 24, 1884 East Seventy-third street, prominent in Cleveland society, who had asked a decree separating her from Charles O. Jenkins, wealthy vessel man. The judge gave ustody of the couple's three children to enkins, and scored the wife for her onduct, her choice of associates, and for seeking a divorce on so slight grounds. de ruled, however, that Mrs. Jenkins may have freest opportunity to visit the children, and awarded her $85 a month alimony. Judge Stevens said Mrs. Jenkins' conduct at lake and seaside resorts showed she had a "rather advanced marital view" and that Jenkins' expostulaions to her, instead of being cruel, as she harged, were very mild.

Cleveland society was mildly shocked Aug. 21 when Mrs. Jenkins filed suit for ivorce, charging her husband with gross at that time said the suit was a bit of childishness, but announced in October that he would contest the suit. One of the exhibits was a letter from a Toronto man referring to Mrs. Jenkins as his

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT MUNICIPAL AND CORPORATION BONDS

Investing your Business Surplus

1 To put to profitable use all the funds of a business enterprise is a fundamental principle of commercial success—as important as curtailment in operating expenses.

I From surplus earnings many of the important commercial concerns of Canada have created "Reserve Funds."

It is significant of their foresight, judgment and strength that many such firms have invested these "Reserves" in Standard Canadian Bonds.

( The bonds recommended for this purpose can be readily converted into cash—are considered superior collateral for loans earn a satisfactory rate of interest—are of undoubted security. Q Suitable Bonds may now be purchased yielding 5% to 6%.

The Electors Should Once More Express Their Approval of His Splendid Services.

On New Year's Day the electors will be given further opportunity of ex-pressing approval of Ald. Richter's eforts in their behalf in the council Were he guided solely by his own personal desires in the matter, he would now retire into private life, but there is a strong public demand for his services as mayor, as shown by the largely-signed requisition presented to nim, the prevailing opinion being that there never was a time in the city's history when there was greater need of capable and honest administration than now, and it is to that demand he has yielded. The electors have Ald. Richter's promise-and all know that can be relied upon-to strive, if elected, by the sponsibilities of the office in such manner as to be in the best interests of the city as a whole. The success of the board of control which is next year to be tested, will depend very largely on the class of men selected for the position and the manner in which the poard is started out. It is, therefore, of the greatest importance that the presiding officer (the mayor), shall have the requisite qualifications to organize, guide and direct aright the men selected to dis-charge the responsible duties of their office. Ald. Richter has given subject a good deal of consideration, and is convinced that given right material to start with, capably and honestly directed, such a board will have in it possibilities of great good. It is the board of control that will have to deal with such big undertakings as storm water sewers, permanent road-ways, West London breakwater, and electrification of the city's railroad. In all these matters Ald. Richter, if elected mayor, can be depended upon to act in the city's best interests. A vote for Richter is a vote for capable, honest administration.

Angus Shops Shut Down and 7,000 Men Are Out of Work -More Trouble Found.

Montreal, Dec. 29.—"The sanitary ondition of the city of Montretal is apidly becoming like the Boer renches at Paardeburg," contended Dr. Bruce Taylor yesterday in St. Paul's Church, in the course of a ser-mon on the drought here due to the collapse of the municipal waterworks ntake pipe from the St. Lawrence. Referring to the administration, Dr. Tayler asked: "Is it not possible to eplace these nonentities, through whose inefficiency we have suffered, by men of calibre, intellectuality and acknowledged force of character?" Endangered by Incompetency.

"If, in a municipality," he continued, the welfare of six hundred thousand people is endangered by incompetency, f property is destroyed and business closed down, and a plague spreads, and all activities are brought to a halt, there must surely be some way of punishing that incompetency and In the city of Montreal would seem as though no one vere responsible for anything. Mismanagenent is notorious and plain to view." In a number of other churches reerences was made to the "astounding" fact that the whole city of Montreal was dependent for its water supply on one intake pipe. Prayed for Protection.

Rev. Dr. Johnston, of the American Presbyterian Church, included in his rayer an appeal that the city be protected from fire and epidemic.
Indicating that the break discovered last Thursday evening is only a small part of the damage done, the engineers working on the tube have discovered a crack in its roof over three hundred feet in length. What other injuries the one and only channel of water supply Montreal city corporation sesses has sustained probably come out later.

The board of control, with an eye to other serious possibilities, has ordered a thorough inspection of the conduit from one end to the other. Have Been Fortunate.

These were adopted.

On behalf of the club members Mr. Spry thanked Steward and Mrs. C. A. Shepherd for the good work done by them in the club's interest during the past year. Mr. Shepherd, in a few words, replied that it was a pleasure to that section of the city, states that the recently passed bylaws repealed.

On Saturday night no less than five good luck no big fires have broken out in the city, though the firemen were given a bad scare Saturday night when a blaze broke out on the second floor of the establishment of Isaac Rosenzveig, of St. Catharine and St. Urban streets. There was not enough work for such good fellows as the local "Knights of the Grip" were.

The recently passed bylaw proves a puzzle to him, as people were turned away from his place of business on Saturday night three feet from the pozzle so that three feet from the nozzle, so that it was practically useless.
With reckless bravery one hundred of the firemen entered the building and successfully bombarded the fire with chemicals. Promises for Tomorrow. Renewed assurances have been given at the city hall that the water service will be introduced again some time

East End Electors Hear Candidates' Plea For Votes

Mayoralty, Council and Board of Education Aspirants Address Meeting.

Mayor C. M. R. Graham, Ald. J. G. Richter and other candidates for municipal offices addressed a meeting of electors in the Temple Theatre, East London, Saturday night. Mayor Graham discussed electrification, the industrial bylaws and the Greene-Swift heating bylaw, of all of which he spoke in favor. He held that his two years' experience as mayor should be an argument for his re-election, and that he would be still better able to direct the city's affairs than in the past two terms

Financial Experience Needed. Ald. Richter dwelt upon the large funds to be raised during the coming year for the Port Stanley road, the storm sewers, the breakwater, and other improvements. It was one thing to spend this money. It was quite another thing to raise it. With his 30 street. years' experience in financial matters Mr. and Mrs. E. A. having full investigation. Ex-Ald. W. G. Coles, for controlle referred to his part in supporting the Federal Square bylaw. One result had been the building up of the fine new McCormick building. He declared himself in favor of Sunday street cars, and declared that assessment reform was needed in London. The workingmen's homes were taxed to the limit, while the fine residences in the leading down-town districts were not bearing their just share of taxation.

Favors Sunday Cars.

Ex-Ald. F. G. Mitchell. aldermanic candidate, favored Sunday street cars, and said that there was nothing to do but to support the bonus bylaws, and declared strongly for good roads. The London streets, he said, were in a ridiculous condition. They were a disgrace to the city.

Geo. H. Haney, aldermanic candidate, favored Sunday cars and public ownership of public utilities. He had a vision, he said, of the Port Stanley road cutting a switch around the south of the city and connecting with the Springbank line, so that citizens could go to Springbank on Sundays. advice was to vote for the Grobb by law. Labor had enough of sympathizers in London to look after the wage

J. A. Eadie, for alderman, stood for the labor platform and a better street car service.

C. H. Merryfield, for alderman, favored public ownership, and advocated more radial roads for London. J. C. McDonald, for alderman, was for public ownership of public utilities. He had had 16 years' experience in mu-nicipal politics in Middlesex County.

Board Spends Too Much.
J. C. Mottashed, for school trustee, pointed out that the board of education spent one-third of the city's taxes and he charged that this money not spent to good advantage, and that there was not much to show for the money spent. He objected to $200,000 or $300,000 being spent for a collegiate institute which only 2 per cent of the children of the city tend, while the workingmen's chil-dren were obliged to attend schools like Grand avenue, and other inade-quate buildings like Quebec street.

H. B. Archer said he was again a candidate for the school board, and candidate for the school board, and promised to give every attention if elected to the needs of the people. On the collegiate question, he thought a collegiate was necessary for the East End, and that there was a great need for more economy in the educational direction. C. G. Moorhead presided.

J. G. Richter, the people's candidate for the 1914 mayoralty, has saved the ratepayers' money. When it was decided to pave this street with macadam, tenders were called for, and two were submitted, one for $1,500 and the other for $2,000. The board of works reported to the council, recommending that the lower tender be accepted, but with the comment that in the opinion of the city engineer the work could not be properly done for the money, and that $2,500 was a fair and reasonable price for the job.
