MEMBER OF REICHSTAG FLAYS GERMAN METHODS OF WAR ON CIVILIANS

Bernstein Says Kaiser and War Lords Are False to People, and Demands an Armistice As Preliminary to a Peace Talk.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Nov. 3.—German newspapers just received here contain the full text of a remarkable speech delivered in the Reichstag by Herr Bernstein, a socialist leader, who, after indicting the German methods of conducting and financing the war, appealed to the Government to proclaim an immediate armistice preparatory to a definite peace.

"The time has come when we must ask ourselves how much longer this war is going to last," said Herr Bernstein. "We are witnessing a dangerous growth of the state industrialism, and the question arises where all this money is coming from."

"The poor suffer," he said, "but no particular pressure was required to make the last loan a success. I can say only that we know many cases where strong pressure was brought to bear with that object. Who are the chief subscribers to the loans? A good number are banks and other public institutions, then come the prosperous landowners, the successful traders and manufacturers, all of whom have been enriched by large war profits at the expense of the great mass of the population."

"Our attempts to come to an agreement with individual enemies at the cost of others are doomed to failure, as is shown by the fate of our efforts to conclude a separate peace with the Russians. Indeed, these peace overtures to Russia, whom our people have been urged to fight for two years, don't exactly redound to our honor. In addition, they are hopeless."

"What is the fundamental vice of the German policy? What is it that turns even our sincere friends in times of peace into our adversaries? It is the extreme mistrust with which not only the Governments, but the people of other countries regard us."

"The principal results of the progress of our civilization was the confining of war to combatants only. Now we have petitions to the Reichstag urging war upon non-combatants, with most brutal weapons. The bombing of open cities, is advocated in order to bring the enemy nation concerned to its knees, but this betrays a complete misconception of popular psychology which was better understood by Sophocles, who says that an enemy must be taught a lesson which he will once more become a friend."

"The number killed in this war is estimated at 4,500,000. The number permanently crippled is estimated at 3,500,000. The number of wounded is estimated at 11,000,000. "How long is this massacre to last? To put an end to it, it is unnecessary to make an unequivocal statement. Let it be proclaimed authoritatively on the German side that we are prepared to conclude an armistice as preliminary to a general European congress, which should restore peace on the basis of democratic rights of all nations."

BRITISH TAKE VILLAGE

Germans Report Heavy Attacks on Their Lines by Russians.

[Canadian Press.]
Bucharest, Nov. 3, via London.—The war office announced today that in the fighting along the Rumanian-Rumanian frontier, the Rumanian forces had driven the Austrians and Germans across the border at Table Butz. The Rumanians made an attack in Buzet Valley, occupying Mount Sinit and Taturulo.

BRITISH TAKE VILLAGE.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, Nov. 3.—British troops, following up their successes against the Bulgarians on the left bank of the River Struma, in Greek Macedonia, have taken by assault the village of Allisa, says the official statement issued today by the French war department.

CHARGED SEVEN TIMES.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Via wireless to Saville.—Austro-German forces have been charged seven times today by the Russian lines yesterday in an attempt to recapture positions taken by the Germans on the Narayuska, southeast of Lemberg. They suffered exceptionally severe losses, the war office says, and gained no success.

IN RUMANIA.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Via wireless to Saville.—Austro-German forces have been charged seven times today by the Russian lines yesterday in an attempt to recapture positions taken by the Germans on the Narayuska, southeast of Lemberg. They suffered exceptionally severe losses, the war office says, and gained no success.

"Front of Archduke Charles Francis: On the southern Transylvanian front Rumanian attacks were repulsed by our fire or in bayonet fighting. Northwest of Fredel and southeast of Rothenthurn Pass we made an advance, pushing the enemy back, and captured more than 350 Rumanians, including 100 prisoners. "Balkan front: (Dobruja and Macedonia) There were no events of importance. "Eastern front: Front of Prince Leopold: The Russians suffered exceptionally severe losses during unsuccessful attempts seven times repeated, to recapture the positions stormed by us on October 30 west of Poly-Kamensk on the left bank of the Narayuska."

Losses to Entente Allies 75 Per Cent of the Total.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Nov. 3.—One thousand eight hundred and twenty ships, with an aggregate gross tonnage of approximately 3,235,584, have been sunk by belligerent nations during 27 months of war, ending November 1, according to figures compiled from cable dispatches and mail advices and published here today by the Journal of Commerce. The losses during October were larger than for any one of the preceding five months, according to the statistics amounting to 137 vessels of a total of 227,116 tons gross. The October rate of destruction was considerably in excess of the monthly average throughout the war period. Norway lost the largest number of ships, 54, according to the statistics, but their gross tonnage was only 57,323, as compared with the British total loss of 115,546 gross tonnage of 38 vessels destroyed.

A table showing the total shipping losses since the war began estimates that those of the Entente Allies at about 75 per cent and those of neutrals at nearly 18 per cent, with Teutonic losses less than 7 per cent.

The main Entente forces evidently are holding a line along a ridge about five miles from the Danube with ample fortifications.

In Transylvania the Rumanians are fighting with confidence, holding all Teutonic assaults, while in the Jiu Valley they are pursuing the routed Bavarians. The Austro-German sweep is now believed definitely to have been turned back.

DROPPED MANY BOMBS
ON AUSTRIAN WARSHIPS

[Canadian Press.]

Rome, Nov. 3.—Via Paris.—An Italian dirigible alighted on the night of November 1, says an official statement, dropping seventeen bombs on fortifications in the roadstead of San Pietro in Sebino Bay. The dirigible returned without being hit in spite of an intense fire from the Austrian coast batteries.

San Pietro is a town on the island of Brazza, the largest of the Dalmatian islands, in the Adriatic Sea, about 119 miles southeast of Trieste.

THE WAR FILMS

By Henry Newbolt in the London Times.

...pictures of the dead.
...songs without a sound.
...Hallows a phantom ground—
How in a gleam have these revealed
The faith we had not found.

We have sought God in a cloudy heaven.
We have passed by God on earth.
His seven sins and his sorrows seven
His wayward mood and mirth
Like a ragged cloak have hid from us
The secret of his birth.

Brother of men, when now I see
The lads go forth in line
Thou knowest my heart is hungry in me
As for thy bread and wine:
Thou knowest my heart is bowed in me
To take their death for mine.

Canadian Artillery Busy on Somme Front and Rapidly Consolidating All Advances—Haig Reports More Ground Taken on Somme.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Nov. 3.—A news agency dispatch from London, published here today says:

Despite unfavorable weather Canadian artillery steadily bombarded German trenches yesterday, said an official statement regarding Canadian operations, while infantry continued the heavy, monotonous task of improving and consolidating their lines.

The Germans have made no further attempts to retake recently captured trenches.

British troops captured a German trench east of Gaudecourt in a resumption of fighting on the Somme front yesterday, Gen. Haig reported today. The position was secured last night.

PATROLS BUSY.

London, Nov. 3.—The following communiqué is issued from the Canadian war records office in London:
Canadian communications, Oct. 19: During the past week there have been no active infantry operations, although large patrols at night have reconnoitred the enemy positions. Our artillery, despite unfavorable weather, have maintained a steady bombardment of the German trenches. Many of these are now subject to close direct observation and any movement of the enemy has immediately drawn a concentrated fire. Upon one occasion in particular a certain trench was reported to be full of Germans. Our guns were turned on and caused a very noticeable destruction.

Consolidation.
A heavy and monotonous task has been demanded of our men in the work of improving and consolidating our lines. They have labored upon the worst of climatic conditions. The steadily cold and rainy, although at night the sky has unusually cleared and given a decisive promise of improvement. The enemy have made no further attempt to retake the trenches recently captured by us.

HELD FOR MURDER.
[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, Nov. 3.—Erika Doule, a young Austrian, was arraigned in the police court here today charged with having murdered George Pazuk, a Russian, who was fatally shot in his rooming-house, 26 Palmer street, on Monday last, and was remanded till Monday. A coroner's jury this morning found the prisoner criminally responsible for the Russian's death.

Germans Admit Losing Some More Ground to French on Somme.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Nov. 3.—Noon.—The French occupied Fort Vaux last evening, after waiting for the cessation of great explosions inside the fort, the war office reported today. The fort, evacuated by the Germans yesterday, passed again into the possession of the French without loss to them.

Bombardment Did It.

The Germans gave up the fort, the statement says, as a result of the violent French bombardment and the gradual closing in of French troops. The re-entrance of the French into this position was not contested. The ring of Verdun forts is now re-established, and is held firmly by the French.

On the remainder of the front, the communication says, there were no happenings of importance.

A GERMAN GAIN.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Portions of Salliy-Sallied, on the Somme front, which were taken by the Germans were again lost to the French yesterday, the war office announced today.

Attempts of the Allies to advance east of Gaudecourt and against the northern part of St. Pierre-Vaast wood resulted in failure.

The text of the statement reads: "Fighting activity was generally within moderate limits. Sallied actions in the Somme district were under strong artillery fire."

"House in Salliy that had been taken by us were lost again yesterday morning in hand-to-hand fighting."

"Hostile advance east of Gaudecourt and against the northern part of St. Pierre-Vaast wood failed."

GENEST PROPOSES COMPROMISE OVER THAT REGULATION

Give It a Trial and If Its Effects Bad Withdraw.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—S. M. Genest, chairman of the Ottawa Separate School Board, in a statement today proposes a peaceable compromise on the school question. His suggestion is that the bilingualists agree to give regulation 17 a fair trial without further opposition, this trial to be for a stated period, to be followed by a report on the effect of the regulation, and the Ontario Government to agree to modify or withdraw it altogether should it be shown that the effect was prejudicial to the interests of French-Canadians.

Hearst To Study Schools Decision Of Privy Council

Will Then Decide How Regulation 17 Shall Be Enforced.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Nov. 3.—Premier Hearst stated this morning that until he had carefully read the entire judgment of the privy council on the bilingual issue, he would not express an opinion as to the exact action the Government may take to enforce regulation 17. The premier pointed out that the text of the judgment seemed to confirm his opinion that the province had won a great victory. When the Government had gone thoroughly over the judgment with its lawyers a statement as to the future action might be issued.

DON'T LIKE ENGLISH.

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, Nov. 3.—When a Controller Villeneuve attempted, after a speech in French, to address an audience at the Monument National last night on civic issues in English the audience objected. When the controller persisted more than half the crowd left the hall after telling the speaker to remember he was not in Ottawa and to remember regulation 17.

Italian Commander Throwing Waves of Infantry at Austrian Line, Barring Way to Trieste—Duino, Key to Trieste, About to Fall.

London, Nov. 3.—A Rome dispatch to the Wire-Press says the first day of the new Italian offensive cost the Austrians the loss of 15,000 men. One-third of them were made prisoners.

The 21st Austrian Regiment and several battalions are said to have been annihilated.

The weather is favorable, and the battle against the heights east of Gorizia and on the Carso continues fiercely. Austrian counter-attacks are described in the dispatch as feeble.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Nov. 3.—A news agency dispatch from Rome today says:

Waves of Italian infantry are crashing against the Austrian lines south of Gorizia in one of the most powerful blows struck by Gen. Cadorna since Italy entered the war.

BATTLING FOR HEIGHTS.

Following up their successes southeast of Gorizia the Italians have occupied a mile of the Gorizia-Vogersko railway, and are battling on the heights near Kemperlice. It was in this region that the majority of the 4,731 prisoners reported in yesterday's official statement were captured.

Further south the Italian centre broke through the Austrian lines for an advance of nearly a mile east of Oppachiasella. The artillery attack on the enemy's lines reached its greatest violence in this region. The Austrian defences were pulverized.

PREPARING DEATH BLOW.

The battle is extending southward to the Adriatic. The Italians are attacking Austrian lines northwest of Duino, an important railway point called by some military writers the key to Trieste.

The opinion prevails here that Gen. Cadorna is preparing to strike a death blow.

Munitions Workers Under Arrest by Hamilton Police

Two Germans Held on Vagrancy Charge, But Believed to Face Charge of Plugging Shells Intended for Allies

[Canadian Press.]

Hamilton, Nov. 3.—Eric Alexander Nylm and his son, Eric H. Nylm, munition workers at the Bowles Jamieson plant, are under arrest on a nominal charge of vagrancy, but they are really accused of being enemies of the king and of being to face a charge of high treason. It is alleged that they plugged shells in a way to make them dangerous when handled by other workers. The men claim to be Serbians.

Safer in Jail.
The police refuse to discuss the case, but Magistrate Jells, in refusing bail in any amount, made this rather significant remark: "It will be safer in jail for you than outside, when the people learn the facts."

Magistrate Jells, after court, said he was given to understand that the prisoners were German Swedes and not Serbians. He said that if such a thing occurred in the States and the public, under war excitement, could get hold of the prisoners, they would be lynched.

Dangerous Shells.
The munition inspector who uncovered the evidence on which the arrests were made, claims that hundreds of dangerous shells have been made as a result of the interference of the men, and that many of them have already been sent out. It is hoped, however, that they can all be traced before any damage is done.

Even stricter precautions will be taken in all the big ammunition plants as a result of the discovery. Thousands of foreigners are employed, and it is feared another one may be German agent at work.

OUT-OF-SEASON STORM
RAMPAGES AT WALKERTON;
BOLT HITS CHURCH STEEPLE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Walkerton, Ont., Nov. 3.—One of the most severe and violent electrical storms of the season took place here last night about 5 o'clock. The electric light system was cut off for about an hour, and the telephone lines are badly damaged. During the progress of the storm the steeple of the large Roman Catholic Church at Fortnora was struck at the very top, and it burned for some time before anything could be done to stop the progress of the fire as it slowly crept down the steeple. The Midway fire engine arrived on the scene on record time, and the progress of the fire was arrested. Considerable damage was done to the church through water, but the church is a high one, and the spire, being built on a high hill, made a very spectacular sight for many miles in the surrounding country.

PANAMA CANAL PUTS UP PRICE OF COAL

Advance of 50c Per Ton for Steamships Passing Through

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—Continued that the present coal stringency is likely to continue indefinitely, the Panama Canal authorities have given formal notice to steamship lines of an advance of 50c per ton on coal sold to merchant ships passing through the canal. The new rates of $5 per ton at Cristobal, Colon, and $5.50 at Balboa, however, will not go into effect until December 1 next, the date on which it is assumed all of the coal purchased by the Government at the old price will have been disposed of.

BRILLIANT MEN TAKE COMMAND OF RUMANIANS

Generals Berthelot and Sakharoff Are Both Wonderful Strategists.

WILL CHECK TEUTONS

The Retreat in Dobrudja Has Been Transformed Into an Offensive.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Nov. 3.—A London dispatch to a news agency here today says: Major-General Berthelot has disposed his high command in a manner believed to be most effective against the highly-organized German machine, with which Field Marshal von Falkenhayn and von Mackensen seek to destroy Rumania. A Brilliant Strategist.

Russia's latest contribution to the Rumanian staff is Lieutenant-General Vladimir Sakharoff, one of the most brilliant strategists in all the czar's armies. He has arrived in Bucharest, and will forthwith take command of the army of Rumania, and direct the entry into Dobrudja. Gen. Sakharoff came into prominence last summer in the Russian offensive in Galicia.

Gen. Blavetov, another distinguished Russian, has been assigned to the peace of the Lower Carpathians. Gen. Iliesco, who organized the Rumanian armies prior to their entry into the war, probably will be responsible for the Wallachian front.

Retreat Becomes Offensive.

The Entente, or handling Field Marshal von Mackensen already have shown signs of maturity. The retreat in the Dobrudja which ended more than a week ago, has been transformed into an offensive.

HORTICULTURISTS TO RAISE MEMBERSHIP TO 1,000 NEXT YEAR

Season Just Closed Is Best in Society's History.

W. E. POTTS PRESIDENT

Many Handsome Premiums
Have Been Given to Flower Growers.

Reports presented last night at the annual meeting of the London Horticultural Society show that the organization has just completed the most successful year in its history. The membership at present is 556 and it is planned to increase it to 1,000, at least, in 1917.

During the past year floral premiums, valued at many times the cost of membership, have been distributed, and all who received them have been delighted with the results obtained.

The financial statement presented by Secretary A. M. Hunt showed a balance of $122.58.

A committee composed of President E. S. Potts, S. F. Wood and W. A. Hayden was named to arrange for the premiums for the next year.

W. H. Bartlett was appointed superintendent of flower shows and A. M. Hunt, secretary.

Children Had Eczema Doctors Failed To Cure

Two Letters Which Prove the Efficiency of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a Cure for Eczema.

Fortunate are the mothers who know the virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment, for there is no treatment so suitable for use after the bath to relieve irritation and chafing and to thereby prevent eczema and similar skin diseases.

Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Timmins, Ont., writes: "I want to tell you about the case of my little boy, who had baby eczema when he was three months old. It started on the top of his head, and in his forehead and around his ears. The doctors failed to do him any good, so I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment on the recommendation of a friend, and in a month's time the child was entirely free of this disagreeable skin disease. He is now four years old, and has never had any further trouble from ailments of this kind. I also have great faith in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and believe that it cannot be beaten as a restorative for pale, nervous women."

Mrs. George McNair, River Charles, N. B., writes: "We use Dr. Chase's Ointment in our home, and would not wish for anything better for cuts, burns and bruises. A few years ago a friend of mine, whose baby was terribly afflicted with eczema had her child treated by their own family physician, but the little one got no better. They tried several remedies, but they all proved useless in this case. Upon the advice of a neighbor they got Dr. Chase's Ointment, and before the first box was used the child was completely cured. I can also recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to suffering friends who I know will be glad to learn of something to relieve their nervous troubles. You have my permission to use this letter for the benefit of others."

SINK TEST WELL ON FOSTER PROPERTY, IS BOARD'S LATEST PLAN

Long Discussion on Water Supply at Meeting.

MAY SECURE EXPERT
Commission Wants Engineer
Chipman to Go Over the Ground.

The utilities commission will sink a well on the Foster property across the road from the MacGregor wells on the Pipe Line road, in order to discover whether or not there is water on the place. In addition, strainers, etc., will be attached to the well on the MacGregor property in order to give a proper test as to the capacity of the well.

This was the result of a long discussion on the well situation. Cal S. Parker submitted a report from Engineer Bell, St. Thomas, to the effect that there was plenty of water in the MacGregor wells, that a self-filling reservoir was feasible, and that the water would flow by gravity to the Horton street station.

He expected a report on the same proposition from R. O. Wynne-Roberts, Toronto, who made an inspection, and had tested the strata. There was no doubt in the minds of the engineers that the wells would produce large amounts of water, and that a reservoir scheme was right and feasible.

Will investigate.

Commissioner Mitchell suggested the appointment of Willis Chipman to investigate the whole field, the MacGregor wells, the Foster and Topping properties, and all the land in the neighborhood for water.

If we can get a large quantity of water there, we will save thousands of dollars annually in pumping," he said.

Commissioner Farlan suggested experimenting on the Foster property, and it was decided to do so. Driller Harvey will sink a well at once, and report in two weeks time. One of the MacGregor wells will be sunk deeper, and a strainer will be attached.

The discussion was long, but nothing new developed in it.

WANT AUDITOR'S REPORT
BEFORE REPAIRING BYLAW

The finance committee of the city council, at the session last evening, decided to lay the question of preparing bylaws to raise $125,000 for repairs on the London and Port Stanley over until the report of City Auditor Dunlop on the finances of the road.

The complaint of Ald. Copp and the residents of Stanley street against the excessive whistling on the G. T. R. was sent to the police commission, with a request that the police officers enforce the bylaws governing this matter.

A number of accounts were passed.

CALL APPLICATIONS FOR PERMANENT SECRETARY

The Soldiers' Aid Commission, at a session yesterday afternoon, decided to call for applications for the position of permanent secretary. Applications must be in the hands of George T. Brown, the president, by November 7, and must state salary expected for full time. Two applications were received, but were not dealt with. One was for full time and the other for part time only.

"It is my opinion that applications should be called for," said Lieut.-Col. A. A. Campbell. "The public should know that we are in a position to appoint a permanent secretary."

Controller John M. Moore seconded the resolution. He wanted the best man available named for the position.

Honorary Secretary Sam King suggested the appointment of Ed Lance, but the committee did not agree with this, and decided to call for applicants.

MINISTER'S CAR UPSETS.

KINTOKE, Nov. 2.—An automobile accident, in which four persons had narrow escapes, occurred just east of Kintoke yesterday morning, when Rev. Dr. McDonald, accompanied by Mrs. A. A. Campbell, and Miss Lenora Armstrong, were starting out to motor to Kitchener to attend the Sunday school convention being held there. In turning out to pass a wagon the wheel of the car went into a rut, which caused it to turn over, throwing the occupants out, but not seriously injuring any of them. Beyond a slight shaking-up, fortunately the car escaped with such slight damage that the party was able to proceed in a short time.

SUGGESTION TO WOMEN

Who Are Just 'Ready To Drop'

"When you are 'just ready to drop' when you feel so weak that you can hardly stand, when you are so tired that you have not slept well, when you get up as tired out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help. You can get it just as Mrs. J. S. Hunt of North Lethbridge, Alta., did. She says:

"I keep house for my family of five and became completely rundown. I had such weak spells I could hardly stand up. I had no appetite, had short breath, was languid and suffered from headaches. I tried different medicines and tonics without help. One day I read about Vinol and tried it. Before the second bottle was taken I noticed a great improvement. I continued its use and now feel much stronger, and find my household duties a pleasure."

So many letters like the above are continually coming to our attention that we freely offer to return the money paid for Vinol in every case where it fails to give satisfaction.

HYDE PARK MASQUERADE.

HYDE PARK, Nov. 2.—A pretty event was enjoyed by a large number of people on Tuesday, October 31, in the town hall, when a Halloween masquerade party was held under the auspices of the Young People's Union. The room presented a weird appearance, the lights being draped with pumpkin-colored paper, over which danced the well-known witches and black rats. Almost every conceivable costume was represented—witches, Indians, ghosts, Red Ridinghods, clown, and many others. "Old time" games, such as diving for the apple, etc., were popular. But the climax was reached when the unmasking took place just before luncheon was served.

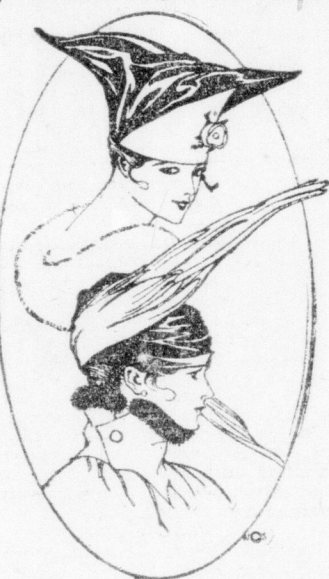

ADDRESS ON MISSIONS.

HYDE PARK, Nov. 2.—On November 3 Rev. Albert Elson, who is home on furlough, will address the missionary meeting to be held in the Methodist Church.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH CURFEW?—Five local public schoolboys were brought before Magistrate S. G. McKay last evening by Constable Bert Keesee for breaking some windows in a house on George street, and were made pay damages. Some of these boys have been holding Halloween for the past week, and altogether did considerable harm to people's gardens, etc. The citizens are wondering what has happened to the "curfew."

VILLA'S RAIDERS SHOOT GUARDS AND ROB TRAIN

Take Even Clothing From Women Passengers.

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mex., Nov. 1.—Via El Paso Junction, Nov. 2.—After shooting the 29 Carranza military guards of the southbound passenger train which left Juarez Monday, Villa bandits looted the train, robbed the passengers and even took the clothing from the women passengers. Dr. Hafner, a German passenger on the train, who was mistaken by the bandits for an American, was struck over the head with a gun by one of the Villa lists.

ITALIANS LAUNCH A NEW OFFENSIVE, TAKE 4,731 HUNS

Attack on Gorizia Heights Is Eminently Successful.

PIERCE—AUSTRIAN LINE

Advances Scored at Many Points During Fighting of Tuesday.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Fine weather has returned on the Italian front, where the battle has been resumed with very violent artillery actions, says a Wireless Press dispatch.

ROME, via London, Nov. 2.—A new offensive was opened yesterday against the Austrians by the Italian forces, the war office announced today. Advances have been scored at some points and so far 4,731 prisoners have been taken.

The Italian offensive was directed against the heights east of Gorizia and a strong new line on the Carso, east of Vallone. During the morning artillery and trench mortars opened a heavy fire on the enemy's line, which were breached at several points. An infantry attack was delivered at 11 o'clock in the morning.

"On the Julian front yesterday our troops attacked powerful defences on the heights east of Gorizia and a strong new line on the Carso, east of Vallone. During the morning artillery and trench mortars opened a heavy fire on the enemy's line, which were breached at several points. An infantry attack was delivered at 11 o'clock in the morning.

"South of the Oppachella-Casagmavizza road the enemy's line was occupied at several points and held against incessant counter-attacks. Much Booty Taken.

"During yesterday's fighting, including 32 officers and also six guns of 165 millimetres, many machine guns, transport animals, and other materials were captured.

"Hostile aircraft dropped bombs on several villages on the Lower Isonzo. The casualties at Pavia were one soldier, a captain and four Red Cross men.

"A powerful squadron of sixteen Caproni battleplanes, escorted by Nieuport machines, bombarded the enemy's camps in the Flegio and Vipacch valleys, with two tons of explosives. Despite heavy fire from hostile aircraft batteries all our machines returned in safety.

"In the Gorizia area, where the ground became sodden during the recent rains, our troops overcame the resistance of the enemy and occupied trenches on the eastern slopes of Tivoli and San Marco and heights east of Sober. On the Carso the 11th army corps stormed the wooded hills of Veldi, Kribuch and Hill 273, east and above Monte Pedinka, and the Height 208, east of the latter. We also pushed forward two-thirds of a mile east of Segit.

DRIVE ON MONASTIR APPARENTLY GOING ON SUCCESSFULLY

Only Minor Activity Reported, But All Wins.

SERBS PROGRESS WELL

French Say Their Advance Along Cerna Has Been Carried Out.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—The Serbians on the Macedonian front are making good progress in the Cerna River region southeast of Monastir, the war office reports. The announcement follows: "From the Struma to the Vardar there is nothing to report beyond a fairly heavy cannonading, especially in the sector of Lake Doiran.

"In the region of the Cerna the Serbians repulsed several Bulgarian counter-attacks and made good progress, notwithstanding spirited resistance on the part of the enemy, who sustained appreciable losses and left some prisoners in the hands of our allies.

"On our left wing there was considerable activity on the part of the artillery on both sides."

ANOTHER ATTACK BEATEN OFF.

SALONIKI, Nov. 2.—The following announcement was made today by Serbian army headquarters: "We repulsed an enemy attack in the region of Budimirci village on Tuesday.

"On the right bank of the Cerna the artillery was active. We advanced a little and took some enemy trenches. "For some days the village of Gardilovo (12 miles southeast of Monastir), has been in the hands of the French."

BRITISH STATEMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 2, 10.30 p.m.—"On the Dolina front the artillery on both sides has been active," says today's official report from the Macedonian front.

"Janes station was bombed yesterday by hostile aircraft. No damage was done.

"On the Struma front our new position at Barak-Juma is being consolidated.

"On Tuesday our artillery, in co-operation with the navy, bombarded the hostile positions at Neohori."

SETTLE DIFFERENCES BY LAW, NOT FORCE

Should Be Guiding Principle of International Peace.

Paris, Nov. 2.—A lasting international peace can be made possible only by the foundation of a society of nations whose guiding principle shall be the settlement of differences by law and not by force, declares a resolution adopted by the Congress of the League of Nations in session here.

The resolution, framed and approved after lengthy discussion, says: "This society shall be based upon the recommendation of the right of nations great and small to independence, upon the institution of compulsory arbitration, applicable to all international conflicts without exception and reserve, and upon the organization of international forces capable of repressing by appropriate penalties all attempts at revolt or aggression.

"To insure lasting peace in the future the treaty must not contain terms of war or revenge. It shall guarantee the right of the peoples to dispose of their own destinies and shall not provide for the dismemberment of states or annexations of territory against the will of the population. On the contrary, it shall annul annexations imposed by force such as that of Alsace-Lorraine."

If Food Disagrees Drink Hot Water

When food lies like lead in the stomach and you have that uncomfortable, distended feeling, it is because of insufficient blood supply to the stomach. In such cases try the plan now followed in many hospitals and advised by many prominent physicians of taking a teaspoonful of pure Bismarck's Malted Food in half a glass of water, as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water draws the blood to the stomach and the Bismarck's Malted Food neutralizes the acid and instantly neutralizes the acid and stops the food fermentation. Try this simple plan and you will feel of relief and comfort that always follows the restoration of the normal process of digestion. "People who find it inconvenient at times to secure hot water and travelers who are frequently obliged to take hasty meals may prevent indigestion by taking two or three Bismarck's Malted Food tablets after meals to prevent fermentation and neutralize the acid in their stomachs."—ADT.

U. S. MAKES INQUIRIES AS TO THE ROWANMORE

No Instructions at Berlin Embassy as to the Marina.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Nov. 2.—Via London, Nov. 2.

—The secretary of the United States embassy, acting as charge in the absence of the United States ambassador, was instructed today to ask the German Government for information in regard to the sinking of the British steamship Rowanmore off Cape Clear on October 28. No instructions have been received regarding the case of the British steamship Marina.

It was said at Washington on Tuesday night that the American embassy at Berlin had been asked to make inquiries regarding the sinking by submarines of the Marina and Rowanmore, both of which had Americans on board. None of the Americans on the Rowanmore was lost. The latest available information regarding the Marina is that six of the 52 Americans on board were drowned.

SUFFOCATED IN FIRE.

HAMILTON, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Anthony Becker, 39 Bay street north, was suffocated this afternoon in a fire which broke out in her home. Her body was discovered near the foot of the stairway, unclad, and it is thought she was preparing to take a bath when she used a lamp.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

THE NATIONAL SERVICE BOARD so successfully organized by Sir Robert Borden met last night for business in the padded inner room of Sir Sam's offices at the capital. This is the place where the famous military strategist does all his quiet work. No reporters or dictaphones come in here. Into this room, which let us call it, no one enters who knows not the combination.

Around the table were gathered the five Liberals and seven Conservatives, appointed to help Sir Robert deliberate on war and munitions. Of course, the five Liberals are only a fifth wheel on the coach so nobly piloted hitherto by Robert the silent. But as loud voices of Mr. Graham and a million suspicious malcontents all over the constituencies complained that leading Liberals, veteran administrators of a prosperous epoch, should have been invited to cooperate with the Government, Sir Robert has condescended to raise them up into the national service board, though not into the cabinet alongside his Nationalist confederates.

Among the seven Conservatives, who, with Sir Robert, will keep the five Liberals in their place, were seen Sir Sam, occupying or seizing the chair; Mr. Frank Cochrane, who will investigate particularly the nickel problem; Rogers (with a "deeply involved" look in his face), and Messrs. Hlondin and Bourassa, the hot-air brakes on any foolish Liberal enthusiasm. Sir Robert was also present. As for the Liberals, there was Sir Wilfrid Laurier—but never mind their names. They will not be allowed to influence proceedings.

Hughes (to Borden)—Where's West? Borden—He's not a member.

Hughes—By ——— (censored), if West isn't on, I'm no longer interested.

Laurier—That way interest lies hundreds of miles.

Borden—Well, I'll call him to the next meeting. (Aside—He may take Mr. Rogers' place, as Bob may be away for an indefinite time in connection with the Manitoba business.)

Hughes—Well, then, to business. Any notices of motion?

Laurier—I will move that Gen. Leased would be a desirable member of this board.

Hughes—We shall listen to no such motion. Is there no shame or modesty left in Liberals? Would you dictate to Sir Robert?

Laurier—Perhaps that has to be reserved for you.

Second Liberal—Why was the Ross rifle not superseded for six months after Gen. Alderson's report against it? (Hughes (frowning)—There are other things to attend to. (Laughter among Liberals.)

Third Liberal—I will move that we recommend a general election for next year as the best way of furthering a speedy victory. The country is not satisfied. It would like to strike a blow at graft. Quebec wants to turn out the National element at Ottawa and replace them with loyal men. It is felt that returned and broken soldiers are not sufficiently considered by the war department. The legal time of the present Parliament is about run out. There have been elections in Australia and South Africa, why not here?

Borden—Oh, but you know, this board has been formed largely for the purpose of, as it were, removing the necessity for any election. An election is the last thing anyone wants in Canada just now. Mr. Rogers, our expert on elections, what do you think of this preposterous idea?

Bob (with a "deeply involved" air)—An election would be a crime.

Laurier—But you wanted one last year; much more, therefore, now! The law gives Canadian parliaments only five years.

Bob—Things have happened since last year. Don't let me what I said yesterday. Today the country needs quiet. It needs the soft pedal on a lot of things, a hush-up, a reverent silence, bottling the flood of brave men in thousands, a peace—a mean a vigorous prosecution of the war without the distraction of elections and trials. Canada needs more telegrams burned.

Laurier—And packets of official correspondence, too.

Hughes—That's a ——— lie!

Laurier—Let's call our chairman to order.

Rogers—I hate to think of all the producible letters and telegrams lying around here and there that ought to be burned. (Sighs "deeply.")

Laurier—Is the camp going to be at Camp Borden next year? H—?

Hughes—Shut up. I'm not going to have any agitation from anybody. This board can get to ——— and I'll go on as I please. (Exit.)

Bourassa—This board seems likely to be the most useful. I stand by Sir Robert. I, for he stands by me. I move that Mr. Hlondin take the chair.

Borden—Second the motion.

Hlondin (installed)—Hurrah for the British flag!

Laurier—Give him a pistol to bore a few holes in it.

Let us see no more; drop the curtain upon this night-hall-episode.

IRISH RECRUITING.

LORD WIMBORNE, lord-lieutenant of Ireland, has issued the following statement of recruiting in Ireland since the outbreak of the war:

Ulster.
Catholics 14,846 Protestants 46,969
Leinster.
Catholics 10,631 Protestants 1,461
Connaught.
Catholics 3,791 Protestants 353
Munster.
Catholics 15,121 Protestants 939
Catholics 13,141 Protestants 4,329

That represents a contribution since August, 1914, of:
Roman Catholics 37,033
Protestants 16,159
To this number must be added a great number of Irishmen who have enlisted in England, Scotland, Australia, Canada and South Africa. Ireland has sent hundreds of thousands of her men of military age to other lands, and considering the depletion of the man-power, the showing is remarkable. It is to be hoped that by some means the contribution of Irishmen to the cause will be told in full. Certain it is that thousands of Ulstermen who came to Canada in great numbers have joined the armies of the Dominion.

BRITISH RESTRAINT.

GERMANS like Max Harden are beginning to have some doubts about the Kaiser's oft-repeated explanation that England made the war on Germany. They demand an explanation into the real causes of the war. The admitted fact that the world is against the Hun makes some of them suspect that the world at large has some cause for its attitude. As for Max Harden, he said at the very outset, explicitly, that Germany made the war, in order to impart her Kultur to the world. It seems the world rejects the bomb.

When an international investigation is some day made of the question who made the war, it will be all to the advantage and honor of Great Britain that her Government did not accept the advice of the jingo press at home and in some overseas dominions to notify the Teutons from the very outset that into any continental struggle British forces would be cast on the side of France and Russia. The jingo press, which acted on the old Tory principle of "the balance of power," kept shouting, before Belgium was invaded, that war might be prevented by a firm declaration of Great Britain's purpose to side with France and Russia. Now that it has long ago been made abundantly clear that Germany attacked Belgium and ignored the part which either Belgium or 100,000 "degenerate" British troops could play in preventing the capture of Paris, it will hardly be argued that a premature declaration on Sir Edward Grey's part would have done any good. What would Germany have recked of the British fleet if she saw her way inside three weeks to Paris and a French collapse? Of course Germany wanted no war with Great Britain just at that time, but that did not interfere with her conviction that France was at her mercy. When a day or two later Great Britain threatened war if Belgium was invaded, what did Germany care? She went right ahead, ignoring the British ultimatum.

But there were wiser heads round about the Empire who assumed from the beginning of diplomatic strain, or at any rate from the moment of Germany's declaration of war upon Russia, that we were to fight. When the cause of the war was finally thrashed out impartially, Great Britain will show up the better for the restraint shown by the better sort of journals, as well as by Sir Edward Grey, who would not consider entering the war until the invasion of Belgium.

"In Search of a Towel!"

BY JOAN COSBY.

Jimmy, blinking and blinded by the shower, reached for a bath towel. His fingers, clutching the first one with which they came in contact, gave it a jerk off the rack that very nearly loosened the tiling, but as it traveled from its resting place on the smooth planks he toward Jimmy's newly laundered head the towel caught on a flange of the bath tub and that, had Jimmy known it, settled his fate forever. For his Aunt Brewster had given him the towel and Aunt Brewster was his chief hope for the future.

"Dunn it!" said Jimmy giving it a jerk, but the thing clung to the spout with fiendish tenacity and all of Jimmy's swear words could not loosen it. Then he pulled with both hands and a desperate born of smarting eyes calculated to pull out the plumbing. Suddenly the towel, or rather the lace on the towel, let go and Jimmy, with a clean smooth skin like a golf ball spooned out of a bunker, and he it on the hard-floored floor.

Things were quiet enough for a minute, and when the fireworks in Jimmy's head had subsided and he had cautiously tested every bone for breaks he felt, thing, you, with your filthy blue rosettes and lace. Get out of here!" And without any apologies to the donor he hurled the cause of his troubles through the window and reached for another towel of sober white that lacked even an initial to adorn its sanitary ends.

"We'll leave Jimmy to dry and dress and rub his bruises, and follow the towel out of the bathroom window on the sixth floor of the apartment hotel. It floated downward—hardly floated, either, for it was as wide and heavy as a rug—but it arrived at any rate at a certain point in the street over which a roadster was passing at the instant, and having a penchant for catching on things it caught on a button of the car's top and spread itself out luxuriously for a ride through the city.

All unconsciously beneath her ray canopy of lace and blue roses sat Eileen Brannon turning the wheel this way and that among the vehicles of Fifth avenue, crowding people stare, laugh and point, but there was nothing wrong that she could see. But in front of "Anna Katherine's" shop, as it was called, she stopped to investigate. What was attracting such attention? And then she saw the towel spread shamelessly over her natty little car. "For goodness' sake, what did that old thing come from?" she cried, and as if to echo her, a voice behind her inquired: "Where did you get that towel so blue? Out of the sky as you came through?"

She turned quickly. "Oh, Charles, isn't it the limit! Where do you suppose it came from? Get it down, will you, and I'll take it into Anna Katherine's. These things are in her line, and maybe she'll know something about it."

But Anna Katherine didn't except that there were weeks of work on the lace. "The towel is new," she declared. "Never been used."

"Then keep it," offered Eileen. "Maybe some nice old lady will buy it for her college grandson."

In the meantime more things were happening to Jimmy. Evidently he had got out of the wrong side of the bed. The postman brought some letters, and there was one from Aunt Brewster. "We're starting for Florida," she wrote, "and I'm stopping to see you for a day en route. I forgot to take off the pattern of the lace on that towel I gave you for your birthday. The Duchess of Roxshire started it for me when I was in England four years ago, and I want to make some more. Besides there's something else I want to see you about that I can't explain here. Until Friday, then. Affectionately, Aunt B."

"For the love of Peter Jones!" groaned Jimmy. "Can you beat it? Where in this nickel-plated town do you suppose that towel is? Watkins, spread around three or four of Aunt Brewster's photographs, and dip up that badsm pillow there's think of blue roses!" shouted Jimmy. "I had a fancy-work shop on Fifth avenue. Come along and I'll show you the place. If you get your towel back safe and sound I think it's up to you to divvy when Aunt Brewster catches it."

"I'll do the proper thing, old boy, don't worry about that."

But when they reached the shop and inquired for the bath towel with blue roses they were told that it had just been sold!

"Heavens!" cried Jimmy in dismay. "Who bought it? Remember. A lady, she thought."

"We'll get Eileen," suggested Charles. "Maybe she can do something. Women can always think of a way."

So they took a taxi and went to her house. She had just come in and was still dressed for the street. Charles started to question her, but to his surprise the two were shaking hands.

"You're Jimmy Young, aren't you?" smiled the girl, while Jimmy was saying: "If it isn't my little old playmate, Miss Brannon!"

"We used to play together at Aunt Brewster's," they explained to Charles, quite forgetting to let go hands and looking back at each other with interest that had evidently been compounded rapidly for ten years. "Isn't it strange how things come about?"

"Aunt Brewster is here!" went on Eileen. "I've just brought her from the station."

"But she was to visit me!" exclaimed Jimmy. "Funny, isn't it?"

"But he doesn't want her since he lost the towel, so it's all right," put in Charles.

"Towel! I don't understand," answered Eileen.

"You see the towel you found was nearly killed him when he was taking a bath and he threw it away in a temper, and you found it, and the shop sold it before we got there, and we came to you for help. Aunt Brewster mustn't know it's gone, for she wants it again."

Eileen cut her hands over her ears. "Mercy, Charles, you're maddening your calling. My brain's in an awful whirl! What's all this about the towel I found?"

"It's all right," said a quiet voice in the doorway. There stood Miss Brewster smiling, the towel in her hand. "Eileen told me of her find on the way from the station. I was interested, so I drove around to the shop, and bought it. I recognized it instantly. But the mystery is cleared up now, and it's all right. The towel has done what I came to New York to do, to bring you and Eileen together again."

"The comedy is ended!" quoted Charles.

WAIT A MINUTE!

—By J. H. F.

A subscriber from Thorndale has sent us a request for a copy of the old-fashioned song entitled "The Old Arm-Chair." The first part of it runs, "My grandmother, she, at the age of 80, one day in May was taken ill and died," etc. We remember the song well, but we cannot get the other verses. If somebody will send it in so that we can publish it on Saturday we would be greatly obliged. Let us have it.

A person may not invite another into the house to have a drink, the temperance act says. That is welcome news to some people who have a little stored away for bunions and other ailments.

A good friend of ours has sent us the following quip:

A stove dealer's ad says: "Let us put you in a furnace before the cold weather sets in." We will think this over a bit first.

It is said that shoes can be made of any kind of skins. Even banana skins make good "slippers."

The same customer finds fault that we criticize Billy Sunday's sermon.

Billy as a temperance advocate is without a peer. He is immense in that work and we know him. He has done brilliant work along that line, and we will give him credit for all that he has done.

His utterances are a combination of Sam P. Jones, Bob Ingersoll, Phillips Brooks and one or two others.

His acrobatics are original. With all that, our chief objection to him and his kind is that they are but religious indiscretions, doing a sort of work for which they are mightily well paid, while the men who lay the foundations for their work, the hard-working preacher whose life is monotonous, but whose glory, when results are counted, will be infinitely greater than the peripatetic wanderer, is accorded scarcely a living wage. We have the same complaint against the Committee of One Hundred. They reap the reward of a work that cost the life blood and money of thousands of saints who worked long and under most discouraging circumstances and surroundings, and were not in on the great hurrah. We do not figure that such men as Billy Sunday get too much—possibly they do—but we do say that the old plow-horses—pardon the expression—do the work day in and day out, and do not get the rewards of harvest. Think it over. The belly does not make a church, make no mistake. It makes the noise, but it is not the house. Possibly we make ourselves clear. If we do not, let us hear about it.

gardening brings to the dull months of winter only the person who has tried it can say. Some idea, however, of the fascination it exercises may be had from the fact that once it is begun it is continued season after season.

Sunny Window Best

North windows and even west windows are not unsuited to the purpose provided one knows what to grow and how to grow it. Geraniums, heliotropes, roses and many other flowering plants, and not a few of the most popular foliage plants, like the begonia, may be grown in abundance of sunshine if they do their best. For them, the window with the southeastern exposure is, naturally, to be preferred. But these, and many other plants that delight the indoor gardener, will do almost as well if grown in a window with eastern exposure. Ferns, and palms, and the popular asparagus, will all thrive in windows with northern exposure.

One thing essential to success with plants indoors is a moist atmosphere. In the average living-room, the atmosphere is usually dry as well as warm—a condition, by the way, that is little better for the human beings occupying such quarters than for the plants themselves. To remedy the deficiency in moisture, it is a good plan, whenever practical, to set the pots containing the plants in a shallow pan, made especially for the purpose by the local florist. On the bottom of the pan is spread a half-inch layer of sand and clean pebbles. The material serves to collect the water dripping from the drainage holes of the pots—and so protect the floor, rug or carpet—and to give it off gradually, according to the dryness of the heated air.

Beginners are frequently perplexed by the problem of soil. But amateurs may take heart from the fact that the plant world nearly as well in quite an ordinary mixture of soil. The main point to be borne in mind is that the soil

ROYAL LOVERS' PATH IS NOT ALL ROSES

Cruel War Interferes With Interesting Romance in Europe.

Princess Elizabeth of Rumania is said to be the most beautiful eligible royal girl in all Europe, and already gossip has made her the central figure of an interesting romance. The heir-apparent of King Constantine of Greece is his son, Prince George, a young man who stands high in the good opinions of the Greeks. According to international gossip, the Rumanian princess and the Greek prince are lovers. The proposed match, it is said, has the approval of the lovers' parents and of every other royal family in Europe. But "the course of true love never did run smooth." The war came, and the international disturbances reached the heir to the throne of Greece and his sweetheart. Their engagement was not annulled. It may never be announced, for the extent of the changes that the war will yet produce no man can tell.

Princess Elizabeth is just 21 years of age. Her education has been largely English. She had English nurses and indulged in English outdoor pastimes—riding, skating, driving and tennis. The princess is a skillful driver, she can be seen almost daily in the streets of Bucharest, guiding her dogcart through the congested traffic coolly and skillfully. Unlike most Rumanian ladies, she is perfectly at home in the saddle, too, having learnt to ride when she was quite a baby.

Though she can be vivacious and charming, Princess Elizabeth is silent rather than a talker, but when she speaks she shows thoughtfulness and shrewd common sense, she is a lover of poetry and can read four languages. She has inherited a love of art from her mother.

Return to Miss Grey, in care of Advertiser.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Age to Marry.

Dear Miss Grey,—If I am not troubling you too much, I would like to have the answer to the following questions: 1. When a girl is employed at a place, how many Sundays and evenings is she supposed to have to herself? 2. What are the duties of a girl when she gets married? 3. Could you send me the following songs: "One, Oh, My Father, Where," "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall," "Soldiers of the King"? I will sign myself _____

Where Money is Made.

Dear Miss Grey,—Would you please inform me concerning the mint at the White House, Washington. Can they make any amount of money or is there a limit. Also have they a mint at Ottawa or Toronto, and if such is the case, is there a limit to the amount made, or is all British money made in England. I am anxious to know, as I must confess I am ignorant concerning the matter.

AN ANXIOUS ONE.

Ans.—Do not know that I can relieve that "anxious" to any great extent, but these bits of information may help some. In the United States there are three mints, at Philadelphia, Denver and San Francisco, and eight minor ones. Have you ever noticed a small initial just beneath the eagle (or on dime, under the wreath)? The mint at which the coin is struck is indicated by this letter—"P" in the case of San Francisco, "D" for Denver, and no mark for Philadelphia. Congress has the exclusive right to coin money and regulate the value thereof. In Britain the head of the royal mint is the chancellor of the exchequer, but the real duties are discharged by his deputy, "the master of the mint." The coin for all the British colonies is struck at the royal mint, London, England, with the exception of Australia and Canada. In our Dominion the mint is at Ottawa.

Sorry to have kept you waiting for an answer.

Consider the Price. Dear Miss Grey,—Here is another newcomer to your page. In speaking about the styles, we women all like to follow the styles. Still, I think we should all have minds of our own, both in styles and in prices, and not go astray in either and not depend on men.

I am sending some coupons of different kinds; you may give them to the ones you think best. I love this flower. Ans.—So do I, "Lily," so you're very welcome. What you say about prices and styles is very true. The trouble with so many of us is trying to dress like the girls who wear the latest fashions just a slighly income. You needn't be ashamed of your writing for a "hard-working woman."

Just Needs the Tea.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where "Sunflower" copied "Resignation," and also "Dora." I am sending a stamped envelope, and for her trouble I am sending her a cup and saucer (all it lacks is the tea), and a couple of crochets. I am not wanting the cup and saucer back, for I think the other readers would like the pattern. Did anyone ever get the crochets? I would like to get it for a pattern, for I am very fond of crocheting.

Ans.—Poems are being sent you, and I am sending designs. "Sunflower," "Mira" sent in the work-box design, but as it is for "Modern Prillia" I don't feel free to send it first to others. "Bloss" sends the address of a firm from whom crochets books may be purchased. Anyone sending addresses and stamps is welcome to the name.

The Sweetest Verse.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am back again to bother you. But last night I saw "Rabbits" letter. I think perhaps she (or he) can get "Down Out Way" at the library, but if not I'll try to get her the reading from it. Am including a "little piece" for anyone who would like it. I really think it's the sweetest verse I've come across and is handy for an answer.

—Just a remembrance for Christmas? There are five I want to send to, so it must not be very expensive; these are besides my brothers, who will all be in France for their Christmas dinner.

Did I see something about sending a box to a prisoner from the Mail-Box? If I was not very much mistaken, I think I did. Please tell me about it.

Where have "Curly" and "Beautiful Doll" disappeared to? I wish they would write again and "Two-Oh-One" I think I'll have to knit him a pair of socks.

Now the other day I saw where two readers were debating over which was the best battalion. Do you not think they should all be termed "best"? They all have men in their country. Do you not think so, Miss Grey?

A "SETT" GIRL. Ans.—I agree with you as to the sweetness of the verses, and am taking the liberty of printing them. I've always been very fond of "Phyllida."

A khaki necktie or handkerchief would be an appropriate remembrance, don't you think? The bookstalls have little gift books, with boxes for mailing; the candy stores have nice gift packages, large and small, and the drug stores, too, have attractive gift specials to send overseas. I am sure if you look around you will find something you like.

Our Mail-Box readers have started a fund for prisoners, and possibly we'll "adopt" one or two by paying regularly $3 a month. You'll read about it elsewhere on the page.

As to the battalions—I believe you are right.

Wants the Books. Dear Miss Grey,—Did you think I had vanished entirely? Not vanished but just very busy. I wish to thank the person who so kindly sent the addressed envelope for "Patriotic" recitation. I would like the two music books which "Sunflower" has so kindly Recipes Supplied By Cynthia Grey's Readers.

[Essex Reader.]

Christmas Cakes Without Eggs.—

Three-quarters of a pound of butter, two pounds of brown sugar, one and a half pints of sweet milk, one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon of cream tartar, half-pound mixed peel, one teaspoon cinnamon, nutmeg, three and a quarter pounds of flour, three pounds currants, two pounds raisins; put in tins and let stand half an hour; then bake. This recipe will make a large three-story cake and will keep fresh as long as you can keep it from being eaten up.

Easter Next Year.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have short curly hair, which will do up quite nicely any way I wish. I have been doing it in a curl down my back for some time, but wish to change it. Could you tell me some way I could do it as it would have to be pretty straight? I am only it.

2. What date does Easter fall on this year?

3. Please criticize my writing (not too severely).

4. Could I get a good recipe for chocolate fudge? HELENE.

Ans.—My advice is to stick to the curl down your back, "Helene."

—This year Easter came on April 23; in 1917 it will be on April 8, I believe. 3. You write fairly well.

4. A fudge recipe: In two cups yellow sugar, good half-cup milk, two tablespoons of ground cocoa, lump of butter; boil over the fire until a little dropped into cold water will form a soft ball; remove from stove, add a teaspoon of vanilla and chopped nut meats if desired; beat until smooth; pour into buttered tin to cool.

Large Sarnia Audience.

Returned Soldier Fights.
Earl Weinwright of London, and Pte. C. O'Connor of Sarnia, a returned soldier, furnished the sport for the first round. The soldiers took the place of Billy West of Cleveland. Weinwright was heavier and in much better condition. He continually broke through O'Connor's defence, knocking the soldier down in the third round. In the fourth and final round the London lad had O'Connor groggy.

Tony Zaccano of London, who promoted the fight, refereed the preliminary. Joe Dwyer of Sarnia, goalkeeper of the Sarnia Intermediate football team, refereed the final bout satisfactorily.

It seems more than likely that the greatest ambition entertained by "Billy" Clymer, by long odds the most astute manager in minor league circles, will be realized in the near future. "Derby Day" has for years longed for an opportunity to break into the majors. He has seen half a dozen pilots who have not had half the success that he has had move up, but the nearest that he ever came to making the grade was when his name was mentioned in connection with the New York Americans, and then "Bill" Donovan beat him to this job. PROHIBIT EXPORT OF BREEDING STOCK BEING ADVOCATED

Quebec Agricultural Minister Says Government Should.

REDUCE FARMING FREIGHT

Cheaper Tariff for Implements and Fertilizers an Essential Need.

QUÉBEC, Nov. 2.—That the time is opportune for the federal government to pass an order-in-council prohibiting the sale of breeding cattle from the Dominion to the United States and that farmers should have a special minimum rate on railways on the transportation of farm implements, manure, etc., was pointed out by the Quebec Agricultural Minister, Hon. J. E. Caron, minister of agriculture for the province of Quebec, in his testimony before the Dominion's royal commission in session at the Parliament Buildings.

The minister of agriculture gave a very lucid and interesting address on the different phases of agriculture in the provinces, and that his testimony was considered by the members of the commission of great value could be judged by the scores of questions put to him by the chairman and other members of the commission.

Mr. Caron laid great importance on the matter of having a measure passed by the Dominion Government to prohibit the export of cattle used for breeding purposes. He is not at all opposed to the export of other cattle used in the United States for food purposes, but the present state of affairs requires remedying, he declared. Other wise the efforts of the department and Government in endeavoring to raise the standard of cattle by imports for breeding purposes will be of no avail.

In advancing the argument for cheaper freight rates on railways for the transport of farm implements, etc., the minister cited one case in point. He had a short while ago purchased a quantity of malt for his own farm and was obliged to pay 25c on the 100 lbs. This rate was a quarter of the value of the product, and certainly was no inducement to the farmer who is endeavoring to improve his soil. If a minimum rate were established on agricultural requirements, it would be greatly beneficial in stimulating interest in agricultural development.

Dowding, who was ordered to England some weeks ago, has been appointed paymaster of the Canadian Military School at Shorncliffe, and, according to latest reports, has between nine hundred and one thousand men on his pay roll. LEGISLATOR DRAWS 18-MONTHS' TERM IN SASKATCHEWAN

Convicted of Bribe-Taking This and Sentenced.

DECLARES HIS INNOCENCE

Chief Justice, However, Expresses Conviction of Guilt and Imposes Jail Term and Fine.

REGINA, Nov. 2.—Herbert C. Pierce, Liberal member of the legislative assembly of Saskatchewan for Wadena, was sentenced today to eighteen months' imprisonment without hard labor in Regina jail, and to pay a fine of $500, or in default serve an additional six months in jail.

Pierce at the last sitting of the supreme court was found guilty by a jury on a charge of having received a bribe from the Saskatchewan Licensed Victuallers' Association for his influence in abolishing the bar to be withdrawn from the House in 1913. Sentence was passed by Chief Justice Sir Frederick Haultain, who presided at the trial.

The chief justice asked the prisoner if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed on him. "Nothing, your lordship, except that I am innocent," replied Pierce. Sir Frederick addressed a few words to Pierce, pointing out to him that he had been found guilty.

"I myself am absolutely convinced of the justice of the verdict and I believe there were others guilty with you. I believe there was a conspiracy at that time to corrupt the members of the Legislature and that you, not only yourself, accepted the bribe, but acted as agent for others," said the judge.

STATES FINDS CANADIAN WHEAT IS COSTING LESS

Minneapolis Millers Buy 1,000,000 Bushels
From Dominion.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—More than one million bushels of Canadian wheat were purchased yesterday and today at the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce by local millers and elevator interests at lowest prices, freight and duty paid, than was being paid for American-raised wheat of the same quality. One large elevator company purchased nearly 500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat, which pays 10 cents a bushel import duty.

If the ruling price differences remain, more Canadian wheat is likely to come here, according to officials of large elevator concerns.

The first Canadian import business of any size, they say, developed when Winnipeg No. 3 wheat was quoted at $1.78½, and at the same time Minneapolis cash wheat of the same milling quality quoted at $1.88½ to $1.96½.

MARINA'S GUN TO BE BIG CARD IN GERMANY'S HAND

This Is Washington's Expressed Belief.

NO ACTION FOR WEEKS

Lansing Leaves Capital Because of Slowness of Developments.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Conclusive evidence as to whether Germany violated her pledges to the United States in the sinking, apparently without warning, of the British freighter, Marina, with the loss of six American lives, is not expected by the state department before the latter part of next week.

Secretary of State Lansing, before leaving tonight for his home at Watertown, N.Y., to stay until after the election, said information was coming in slowly to the department, that he would not be leaving Washington if anything final were expected immediately, and that at least a week was expected to elapse before full evidence would be at hand.

Even though all information desired from British sources and American survivors of the Marina were at hand, any action by the United States Government would be delayed pending Germany's reply to the informal request for her version of the incident. In previous instances where such a request has been made, a week or more has elapsed before the attacking submarine has come in, and several days further have been needed to collect and transmit the information. American officials in England have sent on only a few dispatches in the last 24 hours, not including any affidavits or summaries of affidavits.

Secretary Lansing made a statement during the day explaining that the state department held that Germany's pledges to not sink merchant ships without proper provision for the safety of persons on board, applied to men-of-war as well as to unarmed vessels. Germany's last specific word on armed ships, however, was her memorandum announcing that they could be treated as war vessels, and the fact that the Marina carried a four-inch gun is expected to play a conspicuous part in the exchanges that will follow if it is established that she was attacked without warning.

YOUTH IS THE TIME FOR SOUL-WINNING

Keynote of Addresses at S. S.
Convention.

WOMEN BEST TEACHERS

Community Training Schools
Great Help to Religious Development.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

KITCHENER, Nov. 2.—"Youth is the propitious time for soul winning." This appears to be the one belief and thought of all the speakers at the Ontario Sunday School Association, which is in convention here.

There was no general conference this morning, the forenoon being devoted entirely to departmental meetings.

W. C. Pearce of Chicago was the chief speaker at the secondary division at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. His subject was "Leadership Adequacy Trained." The speaker emphasized the fact that men are greater leaders than women; but better to have a good woman leader than a poor man leader. Women were best as teachers; not as leaders, was the opinion of Mr. Pearce. "Boys coming into manhood," the speaker stated, "want to be helped to boss the job and not to be bothered with too much detail as to how they are to go about each thing. In choosing a leader look out for two or three things. A leader must be a Christian. Choose a manly man. Choose a man the boys like and choose a woman who makes a good confession above his life."

"Train the women also," the speaker admonished, "or they will get softy and hang on the necks of the men. Community training schools are also a great help. These should be combined with regular religious instruction. The organized class is another method and of the greatest help."

"You will never have leaders till you give them a chance to lead; to show them what is being accomplished."

Mr. Pearce stated that in Birmingham, Ala., the leaders of the interdenominational city have been given charge of the juvenile court. The best investment that could be put into boys was "to give them a chance you never had."

C. E. German Speaks.

In the first English Lutheran Church, where the session of the department of school administration was held, C. E. German of London gave a splendid talk on "Decision Day—Before and After."

"A great many leave the schools before the age of 20 years," Mr. German said. "The purpose of the Sunday school is two-fold: first, to teach a knowledge of the word, and second, to make a decision for Jesus. When the old deal for some time between the old and the new, the general secretary gave a little talk on 'Shall We Go Forward or Back?' and the declaration of the meeting was unanimous to go forward. Contribution envelopes were passed and pledges for about $500 were received at once with the almost certainty of more later."

APPRAISES STORM DAMAGE.

KINCARDINE, Nov. 2.—Engineer W. E. Brough of Toronto, sent by the Dominion Government to look at the damage caused by the recent storms to the beach, made his inspection this morning. Mayor Miller and J. H. Scoull, town clerk, accompanied the engineer. He did not give any idea as to how he would report to the department, but he was in bad luck. However, the damage was a caused by the new breakwater is a matter for the engineer to decide.

LIGHTNING CAUSES FIRE NEAR WINGHAM

Barn and Crops Destroyed—
Snow Covers Ground.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINGHAM, Nov. 2.—During a terrific lightning, rain, snow and hail storm which passed over this district this evening, the large barn of Steven King on the 4th concession of Turnbury was struck by a bolt and burned to the ground.

Neighboring farmers came to Mr. King's assistance and rescued most of his stock, but all the season's crops and implements were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $2,000, with insurance sufficient to cover it.

The storm was most disagreeable. Starting with rain, thunder and lightning, the atmosphere cooled rapidly and hail followed. A quarter of inch of snow now covers the ground in Wingham. The sidewalks and pavements are icy.

both went out to see what they could find. The thieves, observing a light, made a getaway, leaving a pair of ducks lying on the roadside. It is thought the fowl are being stolen and shipped away in outside places, as signs have been heard driving on the road at late hours of the night.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN AILSA CRAIG CHURCH

[Special to The Advertiser.]

AILSA CRAIG, Nov. 2.—A memorial service for Pte. Sydney Cook, who was killed in France recently, will be held in the Baptist Church on Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

It is reported that Pte. Hugh McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McDonald, who was with the 5th Mounted Rifles at the front, is in the hospital with a sore leg, the result of an injury received while playing hockey here last winter. He expects to be soon on the firing line again. Hugh is the only boy from here who was with the 5th Mounted Rifles who was not wounded in the recent drive, while Pte. S. Cook and Nelson Pierce, from here, were both killed.

Pte. Alton Shollice, who enlisted with C Company, 15th Battalion, for overseas, but was left at Halifax, being ill with pneumonia, has arrived back to spend some time at his home at Brimsley, and will join another battalion as soon as he has regained his health.

Who Will Solve the Problem?

Nothing has caused more anxiety since the outbreak of the war than the increased cost of living. Just how to cope with the situation is a great problem. It never paid to use poor materials, and now less than ever, for the waste caused by the use of inferior food stuffs more than makes up for the difference in price between that and good materials. USE ONLY THE BEST GRADES OF FOOD. HOUSEKEEPING IS A BUSINESS.

Our Consumers' League

Conducted by Isobel C. Armstrong.

THE ADVERTISER today takes much pleasure in formally introducing to its readers a new feature, a whole page to be devoted to a consideration of the most effective means of grappling with the bugbear of every household, the High Cost of Living.

Unlike many other distinguished visitors in whom the public is interested, who are here today to deliver their message and are gone on their way tomorrow, the feature page has come to stay.

It has decided to settle down in The Advertiser community. But it has no desire to weary or take the edge from interest by continually harping on its theme.

Once a week, every Friday, it will step forth, arrayed with the new facts and ideas which it has been attracting to itself or evolving during the intervening days.

The New Feature has ambitions. Foremost among these is the desire to be of practical assistance to every reader who is daily confronted by the problem of supplying a family with nourishing food at a limited amount of outlay. "That's me," says almost everyone.

The feature is every bit as important to the man who earns the money for the support of wife and family as it is for the housekeeper whose task is the choosing and preparing of supplies for the table.

In this weekly page, problems will be thoroughly discussed which vitally affect the welfare of the whole family.

The Heart of the Home.

It is a pretty, poetic fancy that the open fireplace is the heart of the home. The hearth fire is a pleasant place around which to gather and to entertain friends in leisure hours. But life has many demands which call one away from the chimney, and it becomes a pleasant memory, but even at that, there are times when its grateful warmth is out of season. People can successfully exist without open fireplaces. They can even survive without books and sleep on a davenport in the living-room. Up to the present time, science has failed to discover any successful substitute for eating to sustain life and vigor of the human race.

The place where food is prepared, it follows, ranks first in importance in the household organization. The very life of the members of the home depends upon the materials used and the processes they undergo in the kitchen.

Since it is the kitchen upon which depends the nourishment, and largely the health, well-being, comfort, happiness, success and destiny of the family, the title of "Heart of the Home" surely goes to the kitchen and not to the hearth fire, a luxury for special occasions.

In planning a feature page to be devoted exclusively to consideration of problems of cost of living, of getting the best results for time and money and of advertising pure kitchen supplies. It will be to the advantage of readers of The Advertiser not only to follow and perhaps take part in the discussions on the feature page, but also to make a careful study of the advertisements which week by week will offer valuable suggestions for buying to the best advantage.

Movement Has Co-operation of Advertisers.

A word in regard to our advertisers. The assurance of the sympathy and co-operation of our advertisers in a movement to promote a practical interest in home economies and through this, the welfare of the community reached by The Advertiser, has been in a substantial measure responsible for the decision to introduce the new feature page, even at some sacrifice of space, time and effort.

"The idea is a splendid one," said a prominent producer of table supplies when told of the project some days ago. "It is a big step in the right direction. I congratulate The Advertiser on this new evidence of wide-awakeness and progressiveness."

Another large producer was equally encouraging. "This is a most opportune move," was his verdict. "I am sure people will be very much interested."

While voicing their approval, retail dealers have related enough incidents to fill a good-sized book, illustrating the need of some propaganda along the lines of intelligent, greatest buying, cheapest buying. A modern Solomon said recently that cities weren't built by throwing bricks, but by laying them. Bring along your bricks and do your share towards helping to build up a healthy, strong, well-balanced, thrifty citizenship.

We want your suggestions and the benefit of your experience. If you have solved the problem of furnishing your table with tempting, nourishing food at the minimum cost, we want you to tell us how you do it, that others may profit. If you are an adept at turning a cheaper cut of meat into a dish fit for a king, pass your knowledge along. If you create new dishes from leftovers which less prudent sisters are putting into the garbage can, how do you manage it? If you are doctors, school nurses, domestic science experts who can spare an occasional moment to express an opinion for the good of humanity, we will greatly appreciate the benefit of your scientific knowledge.

We may differ on many points, but there is one which we all have in common, readers, advertisers, editor and all. We are all consumers. In fact, we have all been consumers since long before our personal recollection. Since we have at least this strong bond in common, why not band ourselves together into a mutual benefit Consumers' League? We already have our official organ, the new feature page. Consult the people you meet and you will find opinion pretty unanimous that a great deal should be done about the high cost of living and war-time thrift.

Good Hard Study and Thinking.

Everybody knows that for several years past, Housewives' Leagues have flourished in the United States, and in a number of cities of Canada. They have brought about a great awakening in regard to the importance of applying more businesslike methods to housekeeping, and thus have been responsible for raising the standard of the homes which have come within the circle of their influence.

In some cities of Western Canada, the name "Consumers" has been substituted for "Housewives." A broader term, it includes men as well as women.

These leagues have opened the eyes of women in the homes to discover that keeping one's house in order and supplying the family with food is not a form of drudgery, but science, a business, a profession and an art.

Some women have a greater aptitude for housekeeping and cooking than others. But depending upon instinct and natural ability for housekeeping is like playing music by ear. It doesn't carry one along very far in the art.

Good hard study and thinking are required to make a success of any vocation.

Through our new feature page we hope to do a considerable amount of awakening. With the co-operation of our readers we believe we will be able to offer from week to week suggestions of much educational value.

"Thrift" Means Getting the Best Results.

"Thrift" isn't by any means a modern idea in Canada, though the war has given to it a new significance and a new importance. Our ancestors were thrifty. They made the most of the resources at their command.

Then there came new times and with them new ways. The Government, noting the growing lavishness of Canadians, the tendency to let tomorrow take care of itself and make the most of today, undertook to revive the old-fashioned virtue of thrift. The Government inaugurated old-age pensions and launched a campaign to impress upon the public mind the advisability of making provision against the days of falling strength and lost earning capacity. The Government started in to train the youth of the land up in the way it should go through the establishment of school savings banks. Then came the war and the call for greater production for conservation in resources of food.

Why should peoples of other countries equally innocent in the war perish of hunger while Canadians waste their substance, if not in riotous living, at least in carelessness?

There are some people who dislike the very sound of the word thrift. To them, it stands for scrimping, for meanness and penuriousness. That would mean robbing the table, which in turn would mean robbing the members of the family of proper nourishment, of energy and of strength. This would be the poorest kind of economy, and if thrift is anything, it is good economy. Thrift means getting the best results in proportion to expenditure.

Thrift means adequate provision for today and something, however small, laid by for tomorrow.

Thrift means the management of the income which will make it possible to enjoy the pleasure of giving assistance to a worthy cause.

Thrift is a good insurance policy against worry.

Thrift stands for making the best of life.

We propose to champion the cause of Thrift.

How Correspondence Will Be Handled.

All correspondence intended for this page will reach its destination if addressed to "Our Consumers' League, The Advertiser."

We have only a limited amount of space at our disposal. We want to use it to the very best advantage week by week. Under the circumstances, it will not be possible to publish long letters, unless they are of very vital importance or of great scientific value. What we want above all things is real ideas and suggestions which are the result of actual experiment and experience. Letters brief and to the point will be particularly welcomed. Contributors must not feel offended if their correspondence is sometimes boiled down because of lack of space. This will not be any reflection upon the genuine interest of the whole communication.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

CANADA NOW HAS SUPERABUNDANCE OF MILITIA CHIEFS

Three "Ministers" at Work,
With Others Aiding.

PERLEY HAS BIG END

Jurisdiction Far Greater Than Any Other in This Country.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—The three Canadian ministers of militia were all at work today. Gen. Sir Sam Hughes was in his office at militia headquarters on Slater street; Parliamentary Militia Secretary McCurdy was busy with administrative functions in his office just across the hall from that of Gen. Hughes, and Sir George Perley, the newly-made minister of overseas forces, was busy in his London office. It would seem that Sir George Perley is in for a busy time. He has in the first place to organize a militia depot in England. When this is done he will have administrative control over some 250,000 Canadian troops in the trenches at the front and in training in England. As there will soon be less than a 100,000 Canadian troops in the Dominion, it would appear that Sir George Perley has been given the lion's share of the military job.

Still More.
In addition to the three mentioned above there are really a couple more ministers of militia. Hon. A. E. Kemp, chairman of the Canadian war purchases commission, is practically minister of militia for war supplies. His portfolio is by no means a small one, as it has the spending of millions. The fifth on the list is Sir James Loughheed, chairman of the military hospitals commission. He is at the head of a great organization, which is intrusted with the task of looking after those soldiers who have returned suffering from wounds. He is doing the work well. Here is sixth.

It may be found that there is still another, making the sixth minister of militia. This is Hon. R. E. Bennett, chairman of the national service commission. It is hardly in operation yet. When it is in full swing it produces more recruits for overseas service than will qualify Mr. Bennett for the minister of the national service commission. It is the effect of keeping men in Canada rather than sending them overseas it will mean that Canada can claim to have five more or less ministers of militia.

FORD STOCKHOLDERS ISSUE WRIT AGAINST HENRY FORD HIMSELF

Would Restrain Investments

HIS SCHEMES RECKLESS

Action Comes of Announcement Stopping Special Dividends.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
DETROIT, Nov. 2.—Temporary writ of injunction against Henry Ford to restrain the Ford Motor Company from distributing and investing as fixed capital its assets and surplus profits that would otherwise be available for dividends, was issued by Judge Mandell in Wayne circuit court here late this afternoon.

The plaintiffs, John F. Dodge and Horace E. Dodge, who are stockholders in the company, and also owners of Dodge Bros. motor car plant, want the accumulation of cash surplus distributed among the stockholders in the form of special dividends.

The cause of the writ, according to the Dodge bill of complaint, was the declaration by Mr. Ford at end of the last fiscal year that no special dividends would in future be declared by the company, and that surplus earnings would be used to extend the business. From January, 1914, to October, 1915, the bill recites, special dividends aggregating $24,000,000 were distributed among stockholders in addition to the regular monthly dividends of 5 per cent. Though the earnings of the company for the year ending July 31, 1916, were $30,000,000, the declaration was made, the bill continues, that no special dividends would be declared then or at any time in the future.

London, Nov. 2.—The Times comments this morning as follows upon the Italian victory near Gorizia and on the Carso:

"Once more General Cadorna has struck a shrewd, successful blow. Since the great attack in early August, which led to the taking of Gorizia, the sweeping advance of Cadorna's troops on the Carso has never really stopped."

"The same master hand that secretly transferred a large army and 93 batteries from the Trentino to the Isonzo front in one week evidently controlled the subsequent operations."

"The influence of the new Italian success upon the Austrians will be considerable. For the fourth time since the beginning of August General Cadorna has left the Austrians in a complete Austrian army corps. Much hard fighting is doubtless in store for King Victor Emmanuel's troops before they can reach the positions commanding Triest and the railway communications of the Istrian Peninsula, but the enemy will fight with the foreboding of defeat in his heart."

MORGAN CONFERS WITH MIDDLE WEST BANKERS

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—Henry P. Morgan, of J. P. Morgan & Co., who has just returned from Europe, where he arranged for the floating of $300,000,000 British collateral loan, here today for the purpose of holding conferences with bankers of the middle west. The conferences, it is said, will relate to the general situation, which has developed from the purchases which have been made in this country by the Entente Allies, and the credits which have been extended under the big loans. Mr. Morgan, it is said, desires to learn the attitude of western bankers regarding the loan.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILD

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

Harmless "fruit laxatives"
the best to clean tender liver and bowels.

Mother, can you rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs" because a few hours later the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, when tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can cause no injury. No difference what age your little one—if full of doid, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleanser" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

STAATS ZEITUNG MAN TELLS STRANGE STORY TO CLAN-NA-GAELERS

Says Canadian Paper Is Used To Influence Press.

UNDER BRITISH ORDERS

Output from Canada Sold at Cut Prices to Pro-Ally Journals of United States.

[Canadian Press.]
Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Charges that the British Government was using the Canadian supply of white paper as a leverage to influence American newspapers, were made last night by Bernard Ridder, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung, at a Clan-na-Gael meeting held to honor the memory of the Manchester martyr.

Ridder's Dream.
"The Canadian mills control a very large proportion of the paper output. Paper has risen from two to five cents a pound. It is impossible to publish at five cents a pound with a profit. The Courier-Journal has made a contract for Canadian paper at two and one-half cents. Why should the Canadians sell the Courier-Journal paper at half the market price? The New York Times has also made a contract with Canadian mills at two and one-half cents. Why did the Canadian mills give the New York Times this price?"

A Weird Statement.
"The British Government controls the paper situation and exports are limited upon the order of the Government, so that they may deal out to those papers which print what the British Government desires. I will leave you with this comfortable thought, so that you may know when you read the papers that the words written are inspired by the paper contracts."

CALLS ENEMIES TORIES.

Mr. Ridder referred to those who opposed the "Entente-Celtic" combination as Tories, and declared that "we control in ourselves and our kindred so large a portion of the vote that we may deal out to those papers which print what the British Government desires. I will leave you with this comfortable thought, so that you may know when you read the papers that the words written are inspired by the paper contracts."

Jeremiah O'Leary made charges that the British Government, through Lord Northcliffe, had secured control of eighteen leading newspapers of the United States for the purpose of expounding British interests.

O'Leary said: "Right here in the city of Philadelphia, Lord Northcliffe, British newspaper owner and representative of the British aristocracy and agent of the British propaganda and discipline of the Rhodes and Carnegie idea, stated at a banquet in the Hotel Cecil that he had just acquired control of eighteen leading newspapers."

"I am going to state publicly tonight what these newspapers are. They begin with the New York Times, the Philadelphia Ledger, the Washington Times, the Chicago Tribune, the New Orleans Times-Picayune, the St. Louis Republic, the Louisville Courier, the Chicago Journal, and the Chicago Herald. I almost forgot the Providence Journal, the Springfield Republican, and the Hartford Courant, the Philadelphia North American, the New York World, the Chicago Tribune, the Washington Post and the Cincinnati Enquirer. They are sterling American newspapers. We don't care if they are pro-Ally if they only stand by American rights. The combined control of these newspapers has presented a grave problem for the American people."

HURON TP. BOY DEAD; LT. McLEAN ALL SHOT UP

[Special to The Advertiser.]
KINCARDINE, Nov. 2.—Mrs. C. Gossell, Huron Township, has received official notice that her son, Pte. Edward Gossell, had died Friday, October 27, of wounds received on October 15. Pte. Gossell was 27 years of age.

He was born in Huron Township and was one of its highly-esteemed young men. He had been a resident of the west for some time, and enlisted at Meaford, Ont., in April, 1915. He went overseas last April and had been with the Mounted Rifles in France for about four months, when he received the wound which proved fatal.

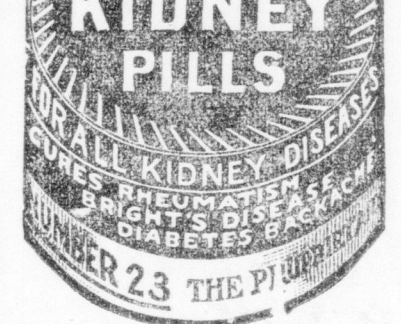

Lt. McLean All Shot Up.
A letter has just been received by Hugh McLean of Underwood, from his son, Lieut. John H. McLean, stating that he had been wounded in the small of the back from shell explosion. One piece of the shell entered his left side, another about an inch from his spine, and another about an inch from his right eye. He found a dent in his cigarette case, which was carried in the upper pocket of his tunic. Lieut. McLean says he has a great deal to be thankful for, but is able to move his arms and legs. If he is flat on his back, Lieut. McLean when writing was in a Red Cross hospital in France, but expected to be sent to England shortly.

ANOTHER BOTTLED NOTE FROM SAILOR DROWNED IN 1913 LAKE STORM

(Special to The Advertiser.)
KINCARDINE, Nov. 2.—A bottle with a note inclosed was picked up on the shore of Lake Huron this week by James L. Blue, while walking near Amherst, it is reported to be written by William Burns, steamer Hydrex, one of the boats lost in the storm of November 9, 1913, and read: "Everyone has given up, and I think we are about done, the only thing I wish now is that I could say good-bye to my dear mother."

(Signed) "WILLIAM BURNS"
And a postscript was added:
"Please write my mother, and tell her I died a happy death, and my only wish is that I could see her. The address is: Mrs. Mary Burns, North Elizabeth street, Marine City, Mich."
This letter has been forwarded to Mrs. Burns by Mr. Blue.

WIFE SAYS FIRST SHOT WAS FIRED BY HER LOVER

He Was Fatally Injured by Husband During Quarrel.

(Canadian Press.)
Stettin, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Thos. Helmholdt was on the witness stand again today in the trial of her husband for the murder of Frank Whitehead, M.L.A. She stated this afternoon that Whitehead fired the first shot in the quarrel that ended fatally.
The court room was packed to the doors, and crowds were turned away when the case was resumed this morning. Mrs. Helmholdt appeared quite cool and collected, giving her evidence in a clear, straightforward manner.
Mr. Helmholdt, she said, frequently asked her regarding her actions with Whitehead. She told him they had written letters and met secretly, but that she had remained faithful.
Mrs. Helmholdt said she and Whitehead had discussed a plan to go away together to the United States if he could get his discharge from the army. They decided that she should pretend to be sick, and that she would have to go away for a serious operation.

GERMANY NOW READY FOR ANOTHER "SCRAP OF PAPER"

AMSTERDAM, via London, Nov. 3.—The foreign office representative in the Reichstag, according to a Berlin dispatch, has announced that the proposals for the release of civilian prisoners of every age in the belligerent countries has failed, owing to enemy opposition.
"If the negotiations later succeed," he said, "we shall bind ourselves not to incorporate those returned in the army."

COMPROMISING LETTERS OF GREEK KING TAKEN

German Attaché Arrested in Greece Had Military Secrets and Note to Kaiser.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Special dispatches from Athens printed in this morning's papers give sensational details of the alleged arrest at Larissa of a German officer who was proceeding in a motor car with the German legation mail-pouch, bound for the Bulgarian line. It is said the pouch contained important messages to the military attaches at Sofia and Constantinople, and also detailed plans of the Suez Canal defences. In addition, the dispatches say it contained compromising letters from the Greek king and queen to the German emperor.

BRITISH RECAPTURE PRIZE OF GERMANS; DRIVE OFF ENEMY

Chase the Hun Fleet Away
When Rescue Is Attempted.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—An admiralty official statement issued tonight tells of the recapture from the Germans of the Dutch steamer Oldambt.

It says:
"The Dutch steamer Oldambt was captured by the enemy Wednesday night near Nord Hinder Lightship. A prize crew was put aboard and the ship was being taken to Zebrugge, when about daylight some of our light scouting craft overtook her."

Attempt to Blow Up Ship.
"The prize crew attempted to blow up the ship, and they, with the crew, took to the boats. The prize crew, consisting of one officer and nine men, were overtaken and made prisoner and the ship was taken in tow by one of our vessels."

"Five German destroyers, which arrived on the scene, presumably to escort the prize into port, were engaged and put to flight. The Oldambt was then towed for five hours, until within six miles of the Hook of Holland, where she was taken in charge by a Dutch tug."

Says It Captured.
AMSTERDAM, via London, Nov. 2.—A German submarine placed a prize crew aboard the Dutch steamer Oldambt, which left the Hook of Holland yesterday. At six o'clock this morning a British destroyer appeared and recaptured the Oldambt, according to a report from the Dutch navy.
"The prize crew fired two bombs, with the hope of destroying the ship, but the Oldambt remained afloat."
According to the Handelsblad, the Oldambt reached the Hook of Holland, but capsized, the cargo being lost.

Elaborate Alterations Are Already Under Way.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
INGERSOLL, Nov. 2.—Extensive and elaborate alterations are contemplated in connection with the Masonic lodge room in Ingersoll, and when completed it is said will make this one of the finest lodge rooms in the province.

The entire building in which the rooms are situated was purchased recently by the Masons, and already work has been commenced and plans completed. A large dome is being erected on the roof, and elaborate inside decorative work is to follow. The lodge room is to be enlarged and anterooms are to be added. The work, it is expected, will take about five weeks to complete, and will cost about $2,000.

Afraid Brother Sam Is Losing His Grip

(Special to The Advertiser.)
WINNIPEG, Nov. 2.—Major-General John Hughes, camp commandant at Camp Hughes, and brother of Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, is getting anxious to get an answer for his going to England to take charge of a division.

It was reported several weeks ago that he was, but a close friend of his today says positively that Gen. Hughes has no definite information on the subject. Whether he is to be charged as an inspector of forces in Western Canada or go overseas, is a question he is said to be anxious to get an answer for. He is afraid his brother is losing his grip on appointments.

Some British Comments

"The public should see these pictures that they may have some idea of what the army is doing and what war means."—The King.

"If the exhibition of this picture all over the world does not end war, God help civilization. See that this picture, which is itself an epic of self-sacrifice and gallantry, reaches everyone. Mothers, wives, sisters and affianced ones, your hearts will hear, your voices speak in honor and glory of the living and the dead."—Mr. Lloyd George.

"The Battle of the Somme," which was shown to a distinguished gathering at the Scala Theatre yesterday, is the greatest moving picture in the world, the greatest that has ever been produced.—London Evening News.

"Not the glory of war do the pictures depict, but war—war in all its grim, numbing reality and hideous ruin, relieved from after repulsiveness by the heroic companionship and cheerful suffering of the human soul overshadowed and dwarfed by the gigantic powers of destruction around them."—London Daily Telegraph.

"The pictures are extraordinarily realistic. They show all the grim horrors of war. The men are seen to leap from their trenches. The camera spares nothing, and indeed shows that some of the poor fellows did not get beyond the parapet before being struck."—London Morning Post.

"So vivid are the pictures that you almost hear the word of command that sends the men scrambling over the parapets of the trench."—The Liverpool Courier.

"The most wonderful films even taken."—The Illustrated London News.

"The film of the Big Push, officially known as 'The Battle of the Somme,' is the greatest success in point of public appreciation that the cinematograph has ever known. Five firms who print positives are engaged in turning out copies, the biggest order ever given in London. There has never been anything like this in the history of the moving picture."—London Weekly Dispatch.

"If anything were needed to justify the existence of the cinematograph, it is to be found in the wonderful series of films of the opening of the British attack on the Somme, July 1st. In years to come, when historians wish to know the conditions under which the great offensive was launched, they will only have to send for these films—for we take it as a matter of course that a number of copies of them will be preserved in the national archives."—The London Times.

In the latter contest Mildred Brown, secretary of the County Temperance Association, gave a capital address on "Dominion-Wide Franchise for Women." The receipts were $24.65.

Halloween as usual was quiet in town. As a great many of the young men are away with the soldiers there were few left to do pranks. But the younger generation did a little damage. The young ladies of town held a dance in the band-room, but they also felt the scarcity of young men, as a great deal of the dancing had to be done with girl partners.

A number of the hunters from this section left on Wednesday morning for the wilds of Parry Sound, where they expect to shoot some of the deer.

There is a great scarcity of water in the wells in town, and some people have to carry water quite a distance and even then it is not always the best.

There are a few cases of measles in town at present, but they are reported to be of a mild form.

NILESTOWN NOTES.
NILESTOWN, Nov. 2.—Rev. Mr. Snell of London conducted the annual educational services on the Nilestown Church circuit on Sunday. Envelopes were handed out at the close of the sermon to receive the offering. Miss V. Shaw, London, sang a solo.

The hob-goblin invasion Halloween night resulted in nothing more serious here than the disappearance of the townspeople's gates, and a few other pranks.

MAKES LIGHT OF SMUGGLING CHARGEAccused Toronto Doctor Says it Can be Explained.

TORONTO, Nov. 2.—Dr. Jean F. Strenghard, who is reported from New York to have jumped his bail there in connection with a smuggling charge, is now in Toronto, at 82 Pembroke street. He regarded the charge somewhat lightly, but said he would communicate with his lawyer there. He lays the blame for bringing the alleged imitation drugs into the United States on confusion in his mind following seasickness.

SIR WILFRID'S STAY
QUIET IN TORONTO

No Public Functions Marked it Yesterday.

TORONTO, Nov. 2.—No public functions marked today's stay of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Toronto. In the morning he received a steady stream of visitors, and at noon was the guest at a luncheon given in his honor by A. H. Beaton at the Ontario Club. During the afternoon Sir Wilfrid himself went visiting, and in the evening he was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Crawford Brown.

DYSPEPSIA
MOST DIFFICULT TO CURE
BUT B. B. B. DOES IT

Dyspepsia is one of the most difficult diseases of the stomach there is to cure. You eat too much; drink too much; you make the stomach work overtime. You make it perform more than it should be called on to do. The natural result is that it is going to rebel against the amount of work put on it. It is only a matter of time before dyspepsia follows. That forty-year-old remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, will cure the dyspepsia, and will cure to stay cured, as we can prove by the thousands of testimonials we receive from time to time. Mr. Neil A. Cameron, Kiltarlity, N. S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what your great medicine Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I was troubled very much with dyspepsia for the past two years. I was recommended all kinds of medicines, but they did not help me any. At last a friend advised me to try a bottle of B. B. B. I took four bottles and was totally cured. I will gladly recommend it to all sufferers."

B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BRITISH OFFENSIVE WAS FOR RELIEF OF
PRESSURE AT VERDUNWas Not Intended to Break
Through, Says Maurice.

HOW DIVISIONS KEPT UP

Defensive Tactics of Germans
Allow Use of Fewer Men Now.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—During the course of an interview with the Associated Press correspondent today, Major-Gen. F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, was asked what he thought of Field Marshal von Hindenburg's statement that the Entente Allies could not break through the western front in thirty years. Gen. Maurice replied:

Was to Relieve Pressure. "Our recent offensive was not designed to break through. Its purpose was to relieve the pressure on Verdun and kill as many Germans as possible. I will not undertake to say whether it will take thirty years to get the Germans out of France, but the Allied strength is constantly growing, and the German strength constantly is declining. The effect of the Allied offensive is accumulative. When the weather permits its resumption the results will be greater than ever. Territorial gains in the last week have prevented actions of any great consequences."

"It is no doubt true that the Germans in recent fights have been short of ammunition. During the winter, with its short days, limiting the use of artillery, they will be able to replenish their stores, but, despite the bad weather, we have no intention of letting up on them."

"Our offensive will continue throughout the winter when conditions are at all favorable."

Morale Deteriorates.

"From documents recently found on prisoners there is no question but that there is a great deterioration in the enemy's morale and material, although they have been able to maintain the number of their divisions. This has been accomplished by withdrawing regiments from other older divisions to form new ones. You see, in defence warfare eight or nine battalions can form an effective division, whereas eleven or twelve are required for offensive work. On the defensive a smaller number of battalions can hold a great amount of line. This is possible through the use of machine guns, whereas on the offensive the men must be individually armed with rifles."

"I am confident the actual new organizations of the army are not more than ten divisions. Others were formed of the remnants of the old divisions."

'Tis Pity Waves

Captain of U-53 Reports Stormy Passage Back to Germany.

BERLIN, via Sayville, Nov. 2.—Capt. Hans Rose, of the German submarine U-53, whose safe return to a German port after his visit to Newport and operations off the American coast, was announced yesterday, reports that he had an exceedingly stormy return passage. The seas were so high that the crew of the submarine were at no time able to get exercise on the deck or to take the air, except in little groups on the coming tower. Even this was impossible during one period off the Newfoundland Banks, and again to the north of England, when the submarine submerged entirely to escape the unbearable buffeting by the tempest. The voyage, including the brief stay on the American side, lasted exactly 41½ days, of which 17 were consumed by the westward journey.

CRITICIZES BUSINESS FOR ITS RESISTANCE

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—President Wilson, in an address here today before the Wilson Businessmen's League, criticized business "for resisting changes," declared that men in Wall street had no vision, and that men who treat their employees as partners in their business were the most prosperous.

"The amount of genius that exerts itself in resisting changes," said the president, "is a great indictment. Brains have been burned out acting as brakes. The real trouble is that American business has been under the direction of too small a body of men."

WHY "ANURIC" IS AN INSURANCE AGAINST SUDDEN DEATH.

Before an insurance company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test the urine and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or the twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment; channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him 10 cents for sample package of his new discovery, "Anuric." Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anuric" is the most powerful agent in dissolving uric acid, as hot water melts sugar; besides being absolutely harmless it is endowed with other properties, for it preserves the kidneys in a healthy condition by thoroughly cleansing them. Being so many times more active than Uricin, it clears the heart valves of any sandy substances which may clog them and checks the degeneration of the blood-vessels, well as regulating blood pressure. "Anuric" is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints. Ask the druggist for "Anuric" put up by Dr. Pierce, in 50-cent packages.

STRENGTH AND BEAUTY Come with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This is a blood cleanser and alternative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus assists the body to manufacture rich, red blood, which feeds the heart, nerves, brain and organs of the body. The organs work smoothly like machinery running in oil. You feel clean, strong and vigorous instead of tired, weak and faint.

Buying Judgment!

The Secret of Our Supreme Value.

Why is it, when nearly every tailor in Canada is crying about the high cost of woollens, that we, the largest one price custom tailoring organization in the country—using thousands of yards of cloth every week—can give the men of Canada high-grade, all British Wool, Made-to-Measure Suits and Overcoats at $15? Why is it that tailors from coast to coast have raised prices anywhere from $3 to $15—yet we remain at $15? "Why," you ask, "can this be?" BUYING JUDGMENT—that's the secret.

Our buyer who lives abroad and is constantly amongst the big woollen mills, foresaw today's prices long ago, so he bought heavily and continued to buy and buy until Tip Top Tailors had three gigantic floors packed to the roof with woollens—woollens that would cost us anywhere from 40 per cent to 100 per cent more if we had to buy at today's prices. Now our customers are getting the benefit of our buying judgment by being able to get at $15 from Tip Top Tailors the same clothes they'll pay $25, $30 and $35 elsewhere.

A visit to the store, a comparison of our fabrics, shows what we mean and also tells why this is the biggest season in the history of our business.

Take Pattern of English Says New
German War LordVon Stein at Least Finds Something in "Contemptible Little Nation."

AMSTERDAM, via London, Nov. 2.—Lieut.-Gen. von Stein, who has just been appointed minister of war, today made the following statement to the Reichstag, according to a dispatch from Berlin: "The enemy has ordered me to come here. I come direct from the battlefields of the Somme, where I have learned much that will be important in my new office. "Our enemies, and above all the English, are introducing into the fight, with the assistance of the entire world, ever new and heavier expedients, in order quickly to attain their end. All Englishmen's letters nowadays conclude with the view that everything must be borne because that state and nation demand it. Should we not recognize this also, and think likewise, even more keenly? Should we not even employ all means to surpass our enemies? The future will demand much work from me in this direction. I beg your whole-hearted support in this important work for the fatherland."

CANADIAN NURSE KILLED. WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 2.—Miss Myrtle M. Garrison of Peggy's Cove, N. S., who came to Worcester only two weeks ago to be supervisor of nurses in the state insane hospital, died in the city hospital today from injuries received last night, when she was run down on Main street by a five-ton automobile truck. Miss Garrison was 28 years old, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Garrison of Peggy's Cove, N. S.

CHILE GIVEN SUBS FOR DREADNAUGHTS

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 2.—The British Government, it is announced, will turn over to Chile five American-built submarines as compensation on account of the delay in the delivery of dreadnaughts which were contracted for in England by Chile. The battleships Almirante Latorre and Almirante Cochrane, which were laid down prior to 1914 in British yards for Chile, were taken over by the British Government because of the war. A number of submarines which had been constructed in the United States for Great Britain were refused delivery by the American Government until after the end of the war. These submarines have been guarded by American naval officers, so that the possibility of their removal from this country to the possession of a belligerent during the present war might be eliminated.

MARKET LOWERS PRICESBetter Quality of Hides Causes Jump in Prices—Other Articles Steady.

Hay was plentiful on the local market this morning, over 20 loads being brought in. As a result, the price dropped to $14 a ton. In some cases as low as $12 was paid. Little else was offered. Old oats brought $1.50 to $2 a bushel, and new oats were offered at $1.50 to $1.90 a bushel. Wheat was unchanged at $1.60 a bushel for new, and $1.50 a bushel for old.

Potatoes are scarce and in demand. As high as $2.25 a bag is being paid. The usual price is $2. Other vegetables are steady. Apples are selling for 75c to $1 a bushel.

Butter is firm at 42c for creamery, retail, and 39c to 42c for dairy, retail. Eggs bring 42c a dozen. The poultry supply for Saturday promises to be good, with chickens at 90c to $1.40 a pair, and turkeys at $1.50 to $2 a pair.

Winnipeg, Nov. 2.—Wheat closed 1/4c higher for November, 3 1/2c up for December, and 3 1/2c better for May. Oats gained 1/4c in December, and 3/4c in May. Barley was 1/2c better. Flax dropped 2c in November, 1 1/4c in December and May.

The market was very active today, and had an exceptionally wide range. The volume of trade was bigger than usual, though the market was light. On the early break a lot of wheat was bought in by the Government agents, and when the crowd began to cover their shorts they found this wheat off the market and buying orders hard to fill. Outside news favored the bears in the morning market, but later swung to the bulls.

The cash demand was a shade better for No. 1 and 2, with No. 3 on an option basis. The lower grades are widening out, in spite of the few orders. Oats were in good demand, with premiums 1/4c better. Barley was fair, after the big drop yesterday. Flax was indifferent.

EAST END LIBRARY

Will be ENLARGED

Improvements May Be Finished Early in the New Year.

The public library board decided last night to make arrangements for carrying through at an early date as possible the necessary improvements at the east branch library, consequent upon the addition of the west store in the town hall. An arch will be cut between the present premises and the west store and the two thrown into one. It is hoped to have the whole place in order early in the new year, but there will be no interruption of library work while the changes are being made.

The librarian's report showed a circulation during October of 18,538. The reference department was used by 3,061 people, of whom nearly 500 received special assistance from the staff. The story hours, which are held on Saturday mornings for the boys and girls, had an attendance of 265 at the main library and 123 at the east branch.

The character of the circulation during the last few months has shown some interesting changes. There is a rapidly growing demand for books on history and those that deal with the war, this class showing a circulation for the last month of nearly a thousand volumes alone. Boile's second volume of his history of the war, dealing as it does with the much-discussed Battle of the Marne, is at present the war book most in demand, and has also caused a marked demand for the earlier volumes describing the opening of the war.

Arrangements were made for having the London Public Library well represented at the annual meeting of the London District Library Institute, which will be held at St. Thomas on Tuesday next.

Those present at the meeting were Rev. Dr. Flanders (chairman), W. H. Winnett, Thomas Gillean, Ben. Noble, Rev. Dr. Sage, Dr. A. O. Jeffery, Rev. Father Foley and Librarian London.

Dr. Meyer, pastor of the church, gave an address on "The Relation of the Bible to the Church." Chas. Myrick, superintendent of the school, gave an excellent address on "The Relation of the Bible to the Church." He thanked the class and their teacher for their splendid co-operation in the work of the school. The new officers are as follows: President, Miss V. Slyford, vice-president, Miss Nellie Barr; secretary, Miss May Pugh; treasurer, Miss Gladys Burns; heads of committees: Booster, Miss Ada Stevens; social, Miss Ina Lucas; welfare, Miss Florence Nigh; absentees, Miss Hazel Redman; welcome, Miss Mabel Case.

MIKE TANCREADE FOUND GUILTY OF BARBADO MURDER

Sentence Will Not Be Passed for Several Days.

PRISONER IS STOICAL

Receives the Jury's Decision Quietly and Without Emotion.

Convicted of the murder of Raffello Barbado on the evening of April 9 last, Mike Tancreade will be sentenced to die on the gallows.

Mr. Justice Lennox will pass the sentence of death on the convicted man within a day or two.

The case was given to the jury at 4:22 yesterday afternoon and at 5:27 the twelve men filed into the courtroom and presented a verdict of guilty of murder.

The face of Mike Tancreade, whose fate the twelve men before him had just decided, wore a puzzled expression.

He knew not a word of English and could not understand what it all meant. The court interpreter, Dominico Casotto, was sent for and his lordship instructed him to inform Tancreade of the verdict that he had been found guilty of murder.

Took It Stoically.

As the interpreter spoke the words that meant his fate had been decided the expression of the convicted man's face remained as motionless as a statue.

If the truth dawned upon Tancreade he did not betray his emotions in his facial expression.

At the moment seemed far away.

Peter White, K. C., crown prosecutor, moved formally for the sentence of the court and his lordship stated sentence would be passed in a day or two.

Being convicted of murder, Canadian law permits a judge no alternative but to pass the sentence of death. Whether the sentence will be carried out will depend on whether the department of justice will be appealed to or not.

Power to Commute.

The department only has the power to commute the death sentence and whether clemency will be asked in the case of Tancreade after the death sentence is passed remains yet to be seen.

Should Tancreade be hanged it will be the first execution since the hanging of "Popple" Brown on May 17, 1909, who expired on his crime on the gallows for the murder of Policeman Toohay.

Edmund Meredith, K.C., in addressing the jury, called attention to the fact that the jury had the selection of one of three verdicts in the case, murder, manslaughter or acquittal.

"Gentlemen, upon you devolves a most serious duty, you have to decide before you decide," said Mr. Meredith. He outlined the case and stated that the evidence of some of the witnesses had been exceedingly contradictory.

"According to the evidence submitted, you are not justified in bringing in any verdict against this prisoner."

"When a man's mind is so impaired by liquor that he does things without his mind, then, according to the law, if he did commit the crime he could be found guilty of manslaughter only, not murder."

Prosecutor's Address.

Crown-prosecutor Peter White, K.C., commenced his address to the jury at 2:30 o'clock.

"The prisoner at the bar has been given a fair and impartial trial. His defence has been conducted by two of the ablest members of the bar."

"Your duty here is to decide whether this prisoner is guilty, or not, of the crime with which he is charged, your verdict to be based entirely upon the evidence which you have heard."

"My learned friend closed his address by asking mercy. It is not for you to extend mercy; it is for you to find a verdict in this case."

"I have endeavored to elucidate this matter as much as possible and help you to arrive at a verdict."

"I thank you, gentlemen, for your careful attention," said Prosecutor White, in closing his address.

Queen Fair Play

His Lordship Mr. Justice Lennox, in his charge to the jury, called attention to the fact that every means had been adopted to give the prisoner a fair trial and justice. He called attention to the question of a motive.

His lordship in referring to the conversation in the yard between Cereno and Tancreade, though there was some object in view when Cereno argued with Tancreade to sell the revolver to Lippo.

"A great deal has been said about the crown being bound to do certain things. The crown is bound only to place the facts dispassionately before the jury, and it is for you to decide dispassionately on the evidence adduced," said his lordship.

Points of Law.

The question of manslaughter was next dealt with by his lordship, who stated that a man holding a revolver, who aims and discharges it at another and kills him, he is prima facie guilty of murder until the defence can prove it to be the lesser crime.

His lordship closed his address to the jury at 4:20 and the fate of Mike Tancreade was then placed in the hands of the twelve men, who retired at once to the jury-room.

HORSE THIEF CAPTURED ON FARM NEAR INGERSOLL

Local Detectives' Clever Work Aided in His Arrest.

As a result of some clever work by the local detectives, Norman Decker, alias Lynch, was placed under arrest on a farm near Ingersoll yesterday afternoon.

He was taken to Chatham last night by a motor car, charged with having stolen a horse and buggy on Sunday last from Walter Lethbridge, a Chatham liverman.

On Wednesday the local detectives picked up their first clue when the stolen horse was found in the field of Mr. Quick near Waverland. A fine wire belonging to Mr. Quick had been stolen, and the Chatham horse left in its place.

On Wednesday Mr. Lethbridge and Dr. Rhoady of Chatham came to London and got the horse. They were advised by the detectives to go to Ingersoll and Dorchester and search for the thief.

They did so, and found him on a farm near Ingersoll. Decker had just hired out with a farmer named McKay, to work, and had sold the stolen buggy and was trying to sell the horse.

CYNTHIA GREY HAS $25 SENT FOR ONE OF CORRESPONDENTS

Present for "Echo From the Seashore."

HER PRESCRIPTION CURED Gentleman Grateful for Complete Restoration of Little Girl's Health.

Grateful to one of Cynthia Grey's correspondents for a prescription she sent to the Woman's Page of The Advertiser, a gentleman has forwarded the sum of $25 for "Echo From the Seashore," the correspondent mentioned.

In sending this gift to Miss Grey to be forwarded to "Echo," the donor says he wishes to remain unknown, but is anxious that "Echo" accept this token of his gratitude for providing the means by which his little girl has been freed from an illness which has afflicted her for a long time, and which the medical profession seemed unable to cure. He adds that he has spent large sums of money for treatment, and the little girl's sufferings continued unchecked, so that the gift he sends is only a mark of appreciation not to be regarded as the value he attaches to the prescription.

ENGINEERS' DRAFT LEAVES FOR ST. JOHN

Majority of the Men Who Left Last Night Are Americans.

A moderate crowd saw the Engineers' draft off for St. John, Que., last night. Most of the men were Americans, and had not been in the country long enough to acquire many friends.

The draft, composed of 31 men under Capt. Caldwell, fell in on the corps' parade ground at 8 p.m. The pipe band of the A. M. C. had been secured, and taking their station at the head of the men, led the way down town.

The part of the Engineers' special service company quartered on the heights left in behind. The party on its arrival at the station was loaded onto a special car, which was attached to train No. 16. The train pulled out to the strains of the pipe band and the cheers of the crowd.

Major Bishop, C. E. C. E., and another officer of the Engineers, marched to the station with the draft.

The local company of the Engineers has sent almost 600 men overseas since the war started. A start will be made towards the formation of a new draft at once.
