The Seeing Eye

Principal Reynolds of the Ontario Agricultural College says:

"The teacher who hopes to take a right place in the life of the country school district must cultivate the seeing eye and the understanding heart for persons and things rural, popular, melodrama, comic supplement, moving picture conception of the farmer and of country people must be forgotten. It is essentially and perniciously false. The farmer is something of a humorist, and takes delight in deceiving the simple minded by a somewhat unfinished exterior. The city-bred person makes the fatal mistake of judging by outside appearances. To the city-trained eye there are two classes of persons, one wearing overalls and the other wearing white collars. The former class work with their hands. The latter class work with their brains. That is the superficial judgement, which ignores the fact that there is a very great deal of clear, hard thinking done today by the men wearing overalls. At any rate, the farmer belongs to both classes. The more he understands of those discoveries, which it is the business of the agricultural college to make, the more he absorbs the teaching which it is the business of the college to spread abroad, the better will he be."

Public School Essays

I Am a Snowflake

The first place I remember was up in the clouds. One day very early in the morning Mother Cloud said, "It is winter now, you must go down and cover the roots."

I hustled as fast as I could. Then at last I fell upon the cannon at Waterdown school yards.

I saw somebody going down the road. There was a boy across the street. The boy on the road called out "Come on and sleigh-ride down Vinegar Hill." I saw the two boys start off. There was an old man going down the side-walk. The two boys started to snowball the old man. At last one boy fell down and that was all about him.

One day about a week before Spring Mr. Sun came out and I melted, and I enjoyed my ride back to dear Mother Cloud.

Bertram Smith, Sr. II class.

I Am a Snowflake

I am a snowflake. When it turned very cold old Mother Nature turned very pale and said, "We have to go on our journey." We all said, "I am a beautiful snowflake, and next summer I shall hope to have a ride." When I fell down I hit my head against the cannon. I hit it too hard and sent the cannon down the hill. One of the snowflakes fell on the ground and rolled down over the hill. Soon after down came a sleigh and rode right over me. I said "Keep off me please." Then slippery slidey down came all the scholars.

Next Spring, Mr. Sun came and we all had a pleasure ride to the clouds. When we were all up in the clouds he let us out of his car, and we scattered in all directions.

Winnifred Park, Sr. II class.

We will not receive subscriptions for the Family Herald after Dec. 1st

Scotch Concert

The concert to be held in Knox Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, Nov. 30th at 8 o'clock promises to be one of the very best concerts of the season, and perhaps the best ever held in Waterdown.

A glance at the program, printed elsewhere in this issue, will reveal the fact that some of Hamilton's high class talent are to be present. Since the posting of the bills and the issuing of the programmes, word has been received to the effect that the "Harmony Four" Male Quartette of Hamilton, will take part in the concert. This quartette postponed their engagement at Oakville in order that they might take part in the Waterdown concert.

Tickets for this concert are now in the hands of the committee and are being rapidly disposed of. Secure yours early and avoid being disappointed.

The Men's Banquet

The laymen's mission banquet held in the school room of the Methodist church on Thursday evening was well attended considering the unfavorable weather. About 80 sat down to a very appetizing and well prepared supper.

The Rev. Dr. Endicott of Toronto, secretary of Foreign and Home missions of the Methodist church of Canada, gave an interesting and stirring address. The Rev. H. J. Leake of Grace church, and several others spoke briefly.

Grace Church Bazaar

The Women's Auxiliary of Grace Church will hold their annual bazaar in the Parish hall on Wednesday, December 1st, commencing at 1 p. m. Fancy work, home-made baking, candy and other useful articles will be on sale. Afternoon tea will be served. In the evening a concert will be given and a good program provided. The admission will be a silver collection.

Greenville

Mrs. R. Surerus and Mrs. F. Hore are visiting in Buffalo over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Walker of Hamilton is spending a few days at her home here.

Mrs. Fred Thornton entertained at a reception on Tuesday afternoon.

Sunken Ships Recalls War.

Thirty miles east of Kingston, Ont., in the St. Lawrence river, lies the hulk of the Canadian steamer Sir Robert Peel, which was fired and sunk during the Patriotic War of 1837-38.

It was on the night of May 30, 1838, that this steamer, on route from Prescott to Toronto, Ont., with nineteen passengers and $20,000 in specie for paying the troops in Upper Canada, was taking on wood at what was then called McDonnell's wharf, when a company of men led by Bill Johnson, known as the hero of the Thousand Islands, disguised and painted like Indians and armed with muskets and bayonets, rushed aboard, shouting: "Remember the Caroline!" The night was dark and rainy. The passengers who were asleep in the cabin, together with the crew, were ordered ashore and had to leave. The Peel was then pushed out into the river and burned and sunk. All the attacking band escaped punishment. Several were tried at Watertown, N.Y., for arson, but were acquitted.

Johnson kept a hotel for years at Clayton, N.Y., formerly known as French Creel. He was a native of Lower Canada and claimed to be a confidential friend of William Lyon Mackenzie, leader of the rebellion in Upper Canada in 1837. His daughter, Kate Johnson, furnished the band with supplies while they were outlawed and in hiding among the Thousand Islands.

Both Suitable.

An old gentleman entered a country newspaper office and approaching the editor said, "I want to get copies of your paper for a week's worth."

The editor replied, "How can you better also try a paper of your own?"

So he went out and bought a copy of paper and a pen and ink and a quill.

Dr. Johnson's Prejudices.

Dr. Johnson's prejudices against novelty never quenched his intellectual curiosity in regard to mechanical inventions, which in his later life were giving the country a new distinction. In his romance of "Rasselas" he shrewdly argued out the possibilities of mechanical flying: "He that can swim need not despair to fly." He foretold the day when "the pendent spectator would survey with equal security the marts of trade and fields of battle"; but he deemed it needful, says Sir Sydney Lee in the London Times, to restrict the knowledge and practice of the art of flying to people of virtuous instincts, who should apply it solely to purposes of peace. With horror Johnson imagined "a flight of northern savages," who should "hover in the wind and light with irresistible violence upon the capital of a fruitful region." On the first experiments in ballooning, which were made in Johnson's latest year, Johnson remarked that balloons would serve no use until we could guide them.

Still Poor.

"This multimillionaire was once a poor boy."

"The adjective still clings to him."

"How is that?"

"People say, 'Poor old duffer! With all his money he can't buy a farm hand's appetite!'"

Abreast With the Times.

Mr. Parvenu-Smith was furnishing his library, which occupation was causing him considerable anxiety. In despair he called in an expert bookseller, and after making suggestions and a final order for a complete library he turned to his adviser and asked:

"And what is the name of that fellow who writes such a lot—Shakespeare, or something like that, isn't it?"

"Shakespeare, sir," answered the tradesman.

"Yes, that's it. Get me all he's written and make a note to order anything new he may write."

Concealing a smile the bookseller suggested: "And may I suggest you have them bound in morocco?"

"Bound in Morocco!" roared the newly-made Croesus. "No, certainly not. I want the confounded things at once."

In 1,782 Years.

It has been estimated that had there been no wars and no epidemics, the present population of the world, 1,519,000,000 people, could have descended from a single couple in 1,782 years, or since 132 A.D.

Those Girls.

"Of course you all talked about me as soon as I left."

"No, dear, we thought you had attended to that quite sufficiently."

Indians Died from "Flu."

Five thousand Indians succumbed to the epidemic of the "flu" during the fall and winter of 1918 is the statement of the deputy superintendent general of Indian affairs.

Crude Canada.

We hear many things from the English papers about the prince's visit that we did not hear during his stay here. Note the following paragraph from the Saturday Review, "It is needless to say that the Canadian press married our Her Apparent to at least three young ladies by name; and hardly a newspaper omitted the headline, 'Is it a Royal Romance?' Indeed it was not safe for any young lady with tolerable pretensions to beauty and position to be seen in Canada within a hundred miles of the royal train. And dire were the social feuds left in the track of the illustrious tourist! At Windsor, Ontario, the president of the Canadian Ford Company, we are informed, drew lots for 250 out of 2,600 applicants to dine with the prince; and one lady wrote that she had a special claim to be invited because she was familiar with finger-bowls and English etiquette. At another place, which will be nameless, the governor's lady had long been at war with female society. But when the prince landed she was de par le Roi the first lady in the province, and dealt out remorseless punishment to her foes."

A Russian inventor has developed a method of making felt boots and knit goods from dog hair.

Mills in Poland.

Textile mills at Lodz, Poland, are reported by the British Economic Commission to be comparatively undamaged, and capable of production almost immediately if supplies of cotton were obtainable.

2,500 Guineas for Bull Calf.

A 12-days-old bull calf, Haydon's Dutch King, from the famous English Friesland herd of Mrs. Putnam, has been sold for the record price of 2,500 guineas to Mrs. Brown, of St. Albans.

Ontario School Statistics.

According to the Minister of Education's report for 1918 the attendance during the year was 561,865, divided: Public, 457,616; Separate, 79,048; High schools and collegiate institutions, 29,097; continuation schools, 5,104. There are 6,103 Public Schools, with 11,274 teachers; 548 Separate schools or collegiate institutions, with 1,051 teachers; 137 continuation schools, with 241 teachers. The Public school attendance averaged 295,652, an increase of 3,047. Separate schools attendance was 46,919, an increase of 1,022.

The total expenditure for school purposes was $16,855,421, an average of $6.35 per head for the total population.

A Beloved Princess.

Princess Patricia of Connaught will always hold a very warm place in the affections of Canadians. Her six years' residence here when she entered so heartily into Canadian life, would assure that. But more particularly is she linked with the Dominion, for all time, through the gallant "Princess Pats," the Canadian battalion named for her, which won such glory in France and Flanders. Her Royal Highness is indeed gazetted as honorary colonel-in-chief of this famous Canadian battalion. At the wedding of their honorary colonel twenty-four of the original "Pats" served as a guard of honor. Princess Patricia loved Canada. She loved the winter, with its sparkling snow, its skating, skiing and tobogganing at the capital, and the summer with its rivers and lakes and sweet-smelling forests. She loved the broad sweep of the prairies, and the mighty mountains as she traveled to the coast—and more than all else, she seemed to love the people.

One recalls many times when the princess has been in the public eye, and each occasion but makes you more conscious of how beautiful she is. It might be at such functions as the Drawing-room of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught in that regal Senate Chamber in Ottawa, of which nothing now remains but ashes. It might be in Government House when a state ball was in progress. Again, it might be in the midst of a lovely garden at a garden party given by their Royal Highnesses that one recalled her. It might be on such occasions, when she smiled on Girl Guides and won their hearts. While here during the period of the war the princess was devoted to war work. Three times a week she was to be found working at the Red Cross rooms in Ottawa. She sewed and knitted continually, always for the men in khaki. She also kept the Princess Pats provided with comforts. And since her return to England has continually visited them in hospital.

Lived on a "Pharm."

"I want some intelligent men as hospital orderlies," announced Lieut. Worley. "Any pharmacists in the company?" A flaxen-haired individual shuffled forward. "Ye gods," said the lieutenant, "are you a pharmacist?" "Shure ay bane pharmacist," was the indignant reply. "Vy ay bane work on pharm all mae life."

No Apples for Australia.

That the Australian embargo will prevent the importation by Australia of any apples from British Columbia this year is the word contained in a cable received by the Department of Trade and Commerce from D. H. Ross, Canadian Trade Commissioner at Melbourne. Mailed advices from Mr. Ross, just received, explain that in a recent interview the Commonwealth Minister of Commerce expressed a desire to maintain the established trading connections between Canada and Australia, but the Minister held out but little prospect of the embargo being lifted during 1918. Mr. Ross says that up to the time of writing not a single case of Australian apples had been exported, apart from a contract made with the Imperial authorities for 1,800 tons of evaporated apples.

That Is the Question.

A Calgary lady has brought suit against that corporation for damages allegedly done a fashionable walking dress through tar oozing from the pavement. The defence naturally raises the question how a fashionable walking dress could come in contact with the pavement.

Fish Safe on Sundays.

Under the direction of the Lord's Day Alliance, prosecutions are being initiated at Flesherton against visitors who are unaware that in Ontario it is a crime to fish on Sundays.

AUTHORS HANDICAPPED.

Writers In This Country Have Cause for Complaint.

At the present time Canadian authors are under a distinct handicap as compared with the authors of other nations. It is a well-known fact that to-day moving pictures and phonographs bring the writer's thought to millions who formerly depended on the printed page, yet the Copyright Act of Canada gives no protection against the reproduction of an author's work by means of moving pictures, phonograph records, or music rolls. No matter how popular a song by a Canadian may be, it can be reproduced on phonograph records, without the payment of any royalty to the author, and no Canadian author can prevent the moving picture companies from reproducing his ideas on film without any payment of royalty.

To remedy this state of affairs, the Authors' and Composers' Association of Canada, whose headquarters are in Toronto, have submitted a memorandum to the Canadian Government asking them to adopt the British Copyright Act of 1911, the provisions of which include, among other things, the payment to the owner of the copyright of 5 per cent. of the retail price of each record or roll sold. The memorandum says:

"The United States publishers are now refusing to consider a song by a Canadian writer on account of the fact that they cannot collect any mechanical royalties under their copyright act, because Canada has no such provision in her act."

"Lieut. Gitz Rice (now said to be the most popular song writer on the continent) is a Canadian and a member of the Authors' and Composers' Association. Mr. Robert Service is also a Canadian whose lyrics are being set to music, and he, too, is being very greatly handicapped by our present Copyright Act. Mr. A. E. McNutt, of St. John, N.B., who wrote 'We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall,' is a Canadian. Mr. Morris Manley, of Toronto, wrote 'Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies,' etc. Mr. Gordon V. Thompson, of Toronto, wrote 'When Your Boy Comes Back to You,' 'When You Wind Up the Watch on the Rhine,' and over a dozen other patriotic songs. Miss Irene Humble wrote 'We're From Canada.' Miss Muriel Bruce wrote 'Knitting.' Mr. Will J. White wrote 'Home Again.' All these songs have been reproduced by phonographs and player-roll companies in Canada and the United States without the payment of royalties."

Surely the authors only have to state their case to get this injustice removed. Canadian authors have enough to contend with without being subjected to such a heavy handicap as is now imposed through the fact that our present Copyright Act is out of date.

A Patriotic Indian.

Chief Joseph Davies of the Brunswick House Band of Ojibway Indians, and several of his tribe, who enlisted in 1916 with the 227th (Men of the North) Battalion, were among the returned soldiers who arrived home from France by the Olympic.

Chief Davies was granted by the military authorities the unique privilege of wearing upon his uniform throughout active service his official Indian chief's insignia.

On his arrival at Chapeau a welcome was extended by Indian Agent T. J. Godfrey and a large deputation of members of the tribe. A pathetic feature of the chief's homecoming is that two of his children have recently died of the "flu."

The chief's wife, traveling more than thirty miles by canoe, having to break the ice in many places to get through, bringing with her one dead child and one seriously ill with the epidemic, arrived in Chapeau too late to save the life of the second child, who died shortly after admission to the hospital.
