LORD MONTAGUE, OF BEAULIEU, VICTIM OF A STRANGE STORY

London Gossip Declared That He Had Eloped With Pretty Lady Crofton, But it Now Turns Out a Mistake.

London, Nov. 3.—A most remarkable case of mistaken identity came to light today in connection with the Lady Crofton-Montagu elopement, the chief actors in which drama sailed yesterday from New York on the Kronprinz Wilhelm.

London society a couple of months ago heard with shrugs and whisperings that the young and extremely pretty wife of a well known Baronet had run away with another man. Another case for the Divorce Court, said the gossips, and the matter was dismissed as presenting no features of extraordinary moment. This however, was far from being the case. There was one man who actually was not concerned in the affair, yet who began to have his supposed connection with it brought up against him at every turn. This man was Lord Montagu of Beaulieu, M. P. for New Forest, Deputy Lieutenant of Hampshire, founder and editor of "The Car," and one of the pioneers of automobilism and aeroplaning in England.

THE WRONG MAN

"I have the opportunity to deny that it is I who ran away with Lady Crofton, the wife of Sir Morgan George Crofton," said Lord Montagu of Beaulieu today to the correspond-

INQUEST BEING HELD AT MONCTON

Alexander Stella Was Shot By a New Brunswicker Near Moncton.

LEAVES WIFE AND FAMILY

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 3.—Coroner Ross commenced an inquest this evening into the death of Alexander Stella, an Italian 38 years of age who was fatally shot early this morning while going to work on the Grand Trunk Pacific about 22 miles from Moncton. From the evidence adduced it appears that Ernest Mullin aged 22 of Red Bank, Northumberland County, who was employed by Corbett Flesch as a stockkeeper had taken a rifle along to shoot game. He was on a flat car handling the rifle, when it was discharged, the bullet entering Stella's body near the shoulder. He was brought to Moncton hospital but expired in about an hour after arriving. Mullin swore that he did not know Stella personally and as there had been no trouble of any kind it is generally thought that the shooting was accidental. Mullin feels his position keenly. The dead man leaves a wife and two children in Italy.

dent of the New York Times. "You have got the wrong man," he went on. "The real individual is F. J. O. Montagu of Lynford Hall, Norfolk. I have been considerably annoyed by the questions of my friends concerning the matter. In fact the whole business shows how the best of circumstantial evidence is always dangerous.

"It is quite a remarkable story, as you shall hear. The first I heard of it was on my return from Paris a week or two ago. On my first visit to the House of Lords, one of my friends came up to me saying rather reproachfully "My dear Montagu, so glad to see you back again. But what about the Lady?" I didn't understand, and looked blank, so he went on. "Oh, we know all about it. Seymour Fortescue, one of the King's Equerries, saw you at the station in Paris with a lady."

LORD MONTAGU'S EXPLANATION

"After that," Lord Montagu continued, "I heard a story from other quarters to the effect that I had run off with Crofton's wife. On inquiry I found out it was F. J. O. Montagu, who was the man. This is where the chain of circumstantial evidence began. In the first place, F. J. O. Montagu is known as John Montagu to his friends and so on. Secondly, he has an estate five miles from mine; thirdly, it was known that I was a friend of Crofton's. Then F. J. O. Montagu is an ardent motorist; so am I; his chief car is painted green; so is mine."

Taking up the chain of circumstances, Lord Montagu said another coincidence was that Mrs. Montagu had a baby born just before her husband left her, and about the same time Lady Montagu gave birth to a child.

IT WAS HIS DAUGHTER. The incident of Captain Seymour Fortescue seeing him at the Paris station with a lady, Lord Montagu explained by saying he was actually there; seeing his daughter off, this daughter being 22 years old, and thus about the same age as Lady Crofton.

Lord Montagu said that he knew Lady Crofton well. She was Miss Margaret Gibb, daughter of an officer of the Indian Army. He described her as being very handsome, and said he was particularly sorry to hear of the trouble. Lady Crofton also is the mother of a child born a few months ago. The was married about four years since to Sir Morgan Crofton who is a captain in the Second Life Guards, saw service in South Africa, and was wounded at Spion Kop. One point of dissimilarity between himself and Mr. Montagu, he said, was that of age, the latter being much younger.

An American banker recently admitted to seven "buddies" five millions while on bed. He could not be put to work on the same job, for he should be given as a big start, the box, and money to get started.

It is stated that an ex-slave, for some years a traveling man, thought that if he could get a job, he would be able to support his family. He was employed as a porter, but without its due consideration, he was discharged. He was then employed as a porter, but without its due consideration, he was discharged.

BURGLARS BLOW UP THE SAFE

International Railway Co. Office At Campbellton Entered And Safe Was Opened.

PROFESSIONAL SAFE BLOWERS

Campbellton, N. B., Nov. 4.—Professional safe breakers arrived in town yesterday and at an early hour this morning made a neat job at opening the safe in the International Railway Co's office. The safe door was blown off, striking the ceiling and making a hole in it, but hardly damaging the safe or contents. The cash box was pried out and carried away, but there was nothing in it but a check of which payment has been stopped. A quantity of silver and two watches were in the safe, but were overlooked. Merchants and the banks are taking extra precautions to guard the premises, as it is thought the robbers are still in the vicinity. Chief Crawford is working on the case.

DARTMOUTH LOVERS LAUGH AT GUARDIANS AND POLICE AND ARE MARRIED IN SPITE OF THEM ALL

Miss Winfred Roast and Mr. Frank Marner Took Time By the Forelock and Became Man and Wife.

Halifax, Nov. 3.—Love laughs at locksmiths," so some poetical person wrote once upon a time, and Mr. Daniel Cupid apparently hasn't any more regard for the police authorities of Dartmouth than he has for the aforesaid locksmiths. At any rate, that is what Chief of Police MacKenzie must have thought on Saturday, when, at the request of a frantic step-mother, he rushed down to stop Miss Winfred Roast becoming the bride of Frank S. Marner. Chief MacKenzie and Miss Roast's foster mother arrived on the scene just too late. The knot had been tied and their was nothing to do but give their blessings to the newly united couple, and go away.

And all the trouble was caused because Miss Roast's guardian thought she was too young to get married. That young lady, who up to Saturday afternoon, was an employe in the Dominion Textile Co's factory, had other opinions, however.

"Not able to manage a husband; why, the very idea," exclaimed she when her guardians intimated that she ought to wait a couple of years more before she thought of marrying. So she decided to show them that if she was young she wasn't so young that she was unable to handle a little affair like this all by herself. The prospective bridegroom, who is a member of the crew of one of the Government cable steamers, procured a license on Saturday morning and at noon Miss Roast departed from the cotton factory and went over to the home of her married sister in Dartmouth, Mrs. James Awat.

"Some way or another her guardians heard that they were about to be frustrated, and they started off to stop the nuptials in some manner. Chief of Police MacKenzie was interviewed and prevailed upon to aid, and then they started for Mrs. Awat's residence. They arrived, but it was too late. There wasn't any Miss Roast there, instead they were just in time to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Marner for the Rev. Mr. Price of the Dartmouth Baptist Church had just made them man and wife. Acknowledging that he was beaten the Chief extended his congratulations and departed. So did the guardian.

Meeting of Board of Fire Underwriters

A delegation consisting of Messrs. J. M. Robinson, Harry Frink and W. N. White representing the New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters met the local insurance agents at the Mianichi Hotel on Wednesday morning to discuss the proposed insurance law which passed the lower house at the last session of the Federal Parliament, and which is soon to come up before the Senate.

The proposed legislation, the result of an agitation among the manufacturers, provides that any foreign fire insurance company may come into Canada and underwrite business without putting up a deposit with the Government, but supply by paying a premium of five per cent on the amount of insurance underwritten.

The insurance companies, both tariff and non-tariff, are opposing the bill and ask that all insurance companies doing business in Canada be placed on an equal footing. They claim that if this law passes, insurance companies in the United States which are too small to pay our Government license or put up a Government deposit, and companies which exist only on paper and without any financial support, will come in, gobble the premiums and when a loss occurs they will not be found. They are not asking protection, but simply ask that the Government supervision continue on all companies alike. The result of the case will be watched by insurance men with interest.

HUNGARIAN MURDERED THE FAMILY AND CLUBBED SMALL BOY

Other Reported Tragedy of the West Proves to be a Hoax—Galician Had Beaten Wife And Thought Her Dead.

Wynard, Sask., Nov. 4.—Constable Jarvis, of the mounted police, left Tuesday night in search of the Hungarian who on Monday night shot George Thorburn, aged thirty-five, in the neighborhood of Clair, north of Little Quill Lake.

Mrs. Thorburn and her mother, Mrs. McNiven, were also murdered. A five-year-old boy was badly clubbed, but when the neighbors visited the house Tuesday the lad was able to say who committed the deed. The neighbors' attention was attracted by the bawling of the hungry cattle, and the absence of any stir around the premises.

A man was seen driving a heavy team of Thorburn's, apparently making no effort to conceal himself. He was going in the direction of the Touchwood Hills, and inquiring the road to Regina claiming that his parents lived there.

NO FAMILY OF GALICIANS

MURDERED NEAR GIMLI

Winnipeg, Nov. 4.—Investigations by the police show that the report of a ghastly murder in the Galician colony near Gimli was unfounded and had been circulated by a man named Christolowich in an effort to divert suspicion from himself, as he had beaten his wife and children ferociously during a family row and had knocked the woman insensible. Believing he had killed her, he fled from the house and told the story that a German neighbor had driven him from his house and had later butchered his family.

No sooner had the sensation died away with the arrest of Christolowich for wife-beating than another was sprung when the police were notified that a young man had been murdered about six miles out. No particulars were given, but the Coroner and police left immediately for the scene to investigate.

SAFETY FOR CHILDREN

Mothers should never give their little ones a medicine that they do not know to be absolutely safe and harmless. The so-called soothing medicines contain opiates that stupefy the child, without curing its ailments. An overdose of these medicines may fill the child, Baby's Own Tablets is the only child's medicine that gives the mother the guarantee of a government analyst that it contains no poisonous opiate or harmful drug. The Tablets cure constipation, indigestion, wind colic, diarrhoea, destroy worms, break up colds, and make teething easy. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

According to the estimate of Bolton Hall of New York, if all the world's population were crowded into the State of Texas there would be only two families of five persons to the acre. That does not suggest a pressing need for skyscrapers or tunnels.

ISLAND GIRL GETS CARNEGIE MEDAL

Miss Raeta bury, Charlotte town, Who Saved Miss Wellner's Life.

ONLY ONE FOR CANADA

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 3. With the regular fall meeting of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, today, came the rewarding of fifty persons throughout this country and Canada for acts of bravery and illustrious conduct called to the attention of the commission during the past three months. With the exception of the one award, made to a citizen of Canada, all the persons remembered by the commission are residents of the United States, 22 being persons living in Ohio.

Approximately $33,000, twenty-three silver and twenty-seven bronze medals were awarded at today's meeting of the commission. Of the fifty heroic acts approved fourteen of the persons responsible for them met their deaths. In these cases next of kin received the award.

Deeds of heroism during the flood at Athens, Ohio, on March 11, 1907, received the greater part of the attention of the commission.

Among those recognized by the commission today at its meeting was Miss Bertha Rattenbury, Charlotte-town, P. E. I.

MISS RATTENBURY'S DEED.

Charlottetown, Nov. 3. Miss Rattenbury, awarded a Carnegie medal is a daughter of Nelson Rattenbury, wholesale grocer, of Charlottetown. She saved the life of Miss A. Wellner, of Charlottetown, in summer. Though only a child and exhibited great presence of mind in an emergency when Miss Wellner, who was bathing and had become weak and beyond her depth of water, in the late afternoon, called to Miss Rattenbury, who pulled her to the shore, the last and only time she had to be rescued.

Only Medicine That Did Any Good

After Suffering Tortures For Years, This Lady Found Happy Relief In "Fruit-atives".

Frankville, Ont., June 14th, 1908. "I have received most wonderful benefit from taking 'Fruit-atives'. I suffered for years from headaches and pain in the back, and I consulted doctors and took every remedy obtainable without any relief. Then I began taking 'Fruit-atives' and this was the only medicine that ever did me any real good. I took several boxes altogether, and now I am entirely well of all my dreadful headaches and backaches.

MRS. FRANK EATON

I take "Fruit-atives" occasionally still, but I am quite cured of a trouble that was said to be incurable. THE INSURANCE PROBLEM.

On Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock all the local insurance men assembled at the Hotel Miramichi to meet a delegation from the St. John Board of Fire underwriters, for the purpose of discussing the proposed insurance legislation soon to come up before the Senate. This movement on the part of the insurance men suggests to our minds the high tariff of insurance in Newcastle. There has been practically no reduction in rate since the first installation of the water system here, although year by year the system is being extended and the strength of the fire department increased. The insurance rates on isolated dwellings is abnormally high. Indeed our rates are, as a rule, considerably higher than in Quebec and Ontario, where non-tariff companies have made competition more keen than in the lower provinces. A general rebellion or insurance war might have the effect of reducing insurance rates here or at least lead to a more equal distribution.

Mr. Mowatt was elected Moderator pro tem, and Mr. McLeod clerk.

CONNELL—COBB.

A quiet but interesting event took place at St. Mary's R. C. Church here, at four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, November 3rd, when Mrs. Peter Cobb (nee Elizabeth Doran), widow of the late Peter Cobb, of Chaplin's Island Road, was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Connell, of Douglasfield. Rev. Father Dixon performed the ceremony. Owing to the death of the bride's mother a short time ago, the wedding was private, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of cream-colored silk, with hat to match, and was attended by Miss Mary Murphy, of Derby. The groom was supported by Mr. Michael Dunn, of Nelson. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the groom's home at Douglasfield, where they will in future reside. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents from her numerous friends.

CASTORIA

Bears the Signature of Dr. H. W. Vickrey. Ella Wheeler Wilcox says that if husbands always told the truth their wives would not be suspicious of them. True, their suspicions in many cases would be certainties and we should like to think of the domestic riots that would follow.

Eskimos ought to make good expert witnesses. They seem to possess the necessary quality of being able to testify for either side according to the circumstances.

CASTORIA

Bears the Signature of Dr. H. W. Vickrey. Manufacturers of champagne say that there is a very poor vintage this season. Thank fortune, there are plenty of apples.

Women have always liked, and always will like cloth. Not even Eve could say that she didn't care a fig (leaf) what she wore.

Of one thing you can rest assured. Whether or not the Nova Scotia coal men are found guilty of conspiracy, the meek and lowly consumer will continue to get it in the neck.

Social Personal.

Miss Gertrude Vye, of Douglastown, is the guest of Miss Olive Russell. Miss Russell returned from her visit with Miss Ferguson, King street, Chatham. Rev. G. Wood, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, was in town on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Will Craig were the guests of Mr. Kane, Commercial Hotel, to dinner on Thursday evening, November 4th. Mr. Jas. B. Aylward, of Hamady River, who was hurt by a falling tree while in the woods on the North West, is able to be around again, and will return to work on Monday. Miss Muriel Russell, of Marshfield Millinery Co., is in town. Miss Edith Winslow, of Chatham, is visiting Miss Leigh Chandler, Moncton. Frank Curran of West Branch Kent Co., was in town this week. Jack McKendry is spending a few days in Bathurst. Miss Lamont left for Boston Tuesday for a visit. Captain Deceit, of Rustico, P. E. I., is in town. Rev. Father Fitz Henry of Renous, was in town Wednesday. Miss Weddon of Sevogle, was in town Thursday. Miss Bulmer, of Moncton, who has been the guest of Lillian Williamson, returned Thursday.

LT.-COL. LONGWORTH DEAD.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Nov. 4.—Lt.-Col. John A. Longworth, aged fifty-two, prothonotary supreme court since 1887, died to-day in the hospital of appendicitis. He was commander of the Fourth Regiment C. A. from 1895 to December, 1898, when he retired with the rank of Lt.-Col.

QUEBEC SLANDER CASE.

Quebec, Nov. 4.—In the practice court yesterday, Justice Simon rendered judgment in the case of Hon. E. J. Flynn against M. Fournier, for slander. Fournier produced a retraction and was condemned to pay the plaintiff a hundred dollars and cost of action.

HARCOURT.

Miss Marion Wathen leaves to-night for Toronto, where she will engage in journalistic work. Ernest E. Bookfield was a visitor to Moncton during the week. Miss Ruth Thurber left to-day for Fredericton to complete the course in Manual Training. O. J. Buckley and son, Len, of Rogersville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Buckley. W. D. Gorton, of Richibucto, is in town today. News of the death of Mrs. Katherine McDermott, widow of the late James McDermott, which occurred on Thursday last at the home of her daughter Mrs. Albert E. Wellwood in Sydney, C. B., will be heard with regret by her many friends here, and in other parts of the County. Death was due to asthma of the heart. The marriage of Mr. Thomas McDonald and Mrs. Eliza Lawrence, was celebrated to-day at the church of St. Timothy, Adamsville. Rev. Father Gaudet officiating. Halloween was celebrated on Saturday evening with the usual festivities. Misses Bessie and Jean Bookfield entertained a number of young friends at supper followed by the usual Halloween games. A very enjoyable evening was spent. The dining room was decorated in true Halloween style, witches and bats in life-like array played a prominent part. The table presented a picturesque, if somewhat gruesome appearance. From the chandelier to the four corners of the table, witches and bats in black and red were strung. The centre was equipped by three witches and the cloth was also decorated with these grotesque figures. The younger set was entertained from six to nine by Miss Doris Buckley. The little folks had a very happy evening which ended in a dainty supper. The dining room was very prettily decorated in yellow and green, autumn leaves in bright yellow, and fern asparagus. The room was lighted by candles placed in yellow pumpkins. The table decorations were unique and pretty, yellow pumpkins holding wax candles, yellow autumn leaves and green grapes were used with good effect.

The Treasury Department at Washington will probably decide that the tariff will apply only to such pulpwood from Quebec as it is cut on Crown lands and pays the 25 cents per cord export tax. Different rates on two logs in the same pile does not touch either the American sense of humor or the appreciation of economic laws.

Those British landlords who have enjoyed years of immunity seem to think that the budget is one of the first disasters due to the appearance of Halley's comet.

A Wonderful Offer on a Wonderful Soap

Infants' Delight Soap

Taylor's

ESTABLISHED 1865

Taylor's Borax Soap

We are making this special offer because it is the best way to get you to try the soap. Then you can decide whether you care to use Infants' Delight in the future—you will know how remarkable a soap it is in every way for the bath, the shampoo, massage, for baby's skin and for every toilet purpose.

The firm of John Taylor & Co., Limited, is an old one in Canada. We have been making good soap for 43 years. And in that time we've learned what particular people want in soap.

So we send 12,000 miles to the island of Ceylon, for coconut oil—we go to the distant gardens of France for a pure vegetable oil, and we combine these into a perfect toilet soap.

Infants' Delight also contains a very small percentage of boracic acid, used and recommended by physicians for cleansing babies' eyes and mouths. We have overlooked nothing that would help to make this soap the purest and finest possible.

Then we add a delightful perfume—Otto of Roses. It requires 3,000 pounds of rose leaves to make a single ounce. We pay over $100.00 a pound for this dainty perfume, simply to add to your pleasure in using Infants' Delight Soap.

But try the soap itself! Nothing we can say will show you so quickly how superior it is to soaps you thought were best.

See what a rich, foamy lather it makes—how it wears as thin as a wafer—how perfectly it cleans and how soft and smooth it leaves the skin.

It is unequalled for baby's velvety skin, but please don't think that is its only purpose. Infants' Delight is a superfine toilet soap within reach of all, and intended for all.

Take the coupon to your dealer today and get a cake free. Then you will learn how really good a soap can be.

Thousands of women now find Taylor's Borax Soap the most satisfactory.

Thousands more will be converted in the next few weeks. All Canada will be using it once they know its merit.

For here is a soap that outlasts any two cakes of common soap. By the tremendous 30 ton pressure in making, and our six months' aging, this soap is so firm and compact that it wears away slowly in use, where a common soap quickly dissolves into slime in the water.

Yet Taylor's Borax Soap lathers freely and makes sweet, white clothes. The borax in it softens the hardest water; cleans the filiest of laces as well as the heaviest of woollens, and will not shrink either. It leaves your hands soft and white—it is a powerful but harmless cleanser.

This soap, too, it made with care. For makers go to the trouble of expending time in making laundry soap.

But we have built up our reputation for doing more than the ordinary maker. And you get the benefit.

So why use a common yellow soap when you can get the best at the same price? Why use a soap that wears away so fast when you can use more soap when Taylor's Borax Soap wears so quickly and so economically?

Buy a cake today and compare it with any other. Then you will know why we are so confident of recommending a year to Canadian housewives. They are not interested in let Taylor's Borax Soap prove its superior worth. Then go back to ordinary soap if you please.

When you buy a 5c cake, be sure and present the coupon and get a 10c cake of Infants' Delight FREE.

We Pay for Infants' Delight. You Pay Only for Taylor's Borax Soap.
