Lieut. Col. MacKenzie Killed By Machine Gun

Died Instantly When Enemy Opened Fire With Machine Guns—Capt. Barry's Narrow Escape

Writing from France to his wife here, Capt. L. Barry gives some further particulars regarding the death of the late Lieut. Col. A. E. G. MacKenzie, O. C. of the 26th N. B. Battalion, who was reported killed in action on August 23rd. Capt. Barry states that he was acting as staff Captain to C. I. MacKenzie at the time of his death and was caught in the fire of a machine gun, dying instantly. Capt. Barry was thrown to the ground by the concussion of the shells and thus escaped with his life. Mrs. MacKenzie has received letters of regret from their Majesties, The King and Queen, The Governor General, Premier Borden and Sir Wilfred Laurier as well as some fellow officers who were in training with Col. MacKenzie when he took his course for Brigadier General.

Agricultural Fair Promises Success

Many Special Prizes are Offered and Much Interest Shown in Show

The arrangements in connection with the Agricultural Fair and sale of Live Stock and Farm Produce here on October 21st and 22nd are now complete and the affair promises to be a most successful one, both from the exhibitors viewpoint as well as the Committee in charge.

Local merchants have come forward most generously to the aid of the Prize List, and a large number of specials will be offered as a result of their generosity.

Arrangements have been completed with the Red Cross Society to serve both dinner and supper on the grounds and with the Newcastle Steamboat Co so that up river residents will be able to spend a profitable day on the grounds.

The Prize Lists are now ready for distribution and can be had from the Secretary, Mr. G. G. Stothart or any member of the Com. Ittee in charge.

Throughout the County the Farmers are getting their best in produce and stock ready for the show and the exhibits promise to exceed that of any fair held in this locality for many years, while a large number of animals have been listed with the Secretary for auction sale which takes place in the afternoon. Messrs. George Staples and J. R. Lawlor having kindly offered their services for the day.

It is altogether likely that these Fairs will be held annually by Agricultural Society No. 122, under whose auspices the present show is being held.

PTE OMER TRUDELL KILLED IN ACTION

Rev J A Trudel, Curate, of St. Mary's Church here received the sad intelligence yesterday that his youngest brother, Pte Omer Trudel had given his life, while fighting with the Canadian Forces on the Western front. The late Pte. Trudel was a native of St-Joseph and at the time of his enlistment was a student at the College of the Sacred Heart at Caraquet, and it was only after three attempts to join the colors that he was finally accepted in a cavalry unit in Ontario, and even then was offered discharge but refused it. The deceased was only 20 years of age and was the youngest of five brothers.

It will be of interest to note that Pte. Trudel was one of over one hundred students of the college of the Sacred Heart that has donned the King's uniform. Many of whom have made the supreme sacrifice. To Rev. Father Trudel the sympathies of the whole community goes out in his sad affliction.

CORP. PASCALE LEBLANC GIVES LIFE

That their only son had been killed in the service of his country, was the sad news received by Mr. and Mrs. N. T. LeBlanc, on Wednesday last, when a telegram arrived from Ottawa with the message that Corp. Pascale LeBlanc had been killed in action on September 2nd. Although a resident of Newcastle only a short time Corp. LeBlanc made many friends, who will join in the sympathy extended to his bereaved parents and sisters. He was twenty-three years of age and crossed overseas as Sergeant in the 165th Battalion, but reverted to the ranks in order to get to the front, and been promoted to Corporal on the field. A short time ago he was reported wounded and had only recently rejoined his unit, when he met his death. Besides his parents, he leaves two sisters, Miss Eloise and Rhea, at home.

DEATH OF ONR. CHAS. KILLAM.

Driver Charles Emmons Killam, a well known Campbellton boy, who was killed in action on September 2nd, was 19 years of age on the 23rd of August last. So anxious was he at the age of 17 to enlist that he went to Newcastle and enlisted in the 12th battery with Lieut. Lawlor's draft. He was taking a sergeant's course in Halifax and was taken ill with diphtheria at the time of the sailing of his draft. He was eight weeks in Dartmouth hospital and after his recovery he refused to accept his discharge because of being under age. He then enlisted in Lieut. McKenzie's second draft of the 12th battery at Newcastle and sailed for overseas in November, 1917. Driver Killam was the first Campbellton boy to go out of his draft for service at the front, and was the first to pay the supreme sacrifice for his country. Deceased was sergeant for Lieut. McKenzie for a time.

Before enlisting he was car checker in the C G R yard at Campbellton. Driver Killam was well and popularly known in Newcastle.

SYRIAN GIVES LIFE

Peter Isiah, a well known young Syrian, who enlisted with the 236th N B Killies has made the supreme sacrifice on the field of France according to official word, received by his brother, Mr Charles Isiah of Dacktown last week. Pte Isiah was well and favorably known all over Northumberland County, where he has resided for many years and especially in Dacktown, where together with his brother they conducted a general store.

When war first broke out he was too young to answer the call, but when Col. Guthrie applied for recruits for the N. B. Killies, he was one of the first to respond, and has given his life in defence of his adopted land. The telegram stated that he had been killed in action on Sept 2nd.

SERG. JOHN F. BASTAIN KILLED IN ACTION

Another Rogersville boy has given his life on the field of battle according to information received by Mr and Mrs John Bastain last week, when information came from Ottawa that their son, Sergt. John F. Bastain had been killed in action on August 28th. The young hero went overseas with the 132nd Battalion, and has seen much service at the front. Besides his parents he leaves four brothers and four sisters.

Rheumatism Entirely Gone

After Twenty-seven Years of Suffering—Swelling and Puffiness Has Disappeared — Not a Pain or an Ache Left.

A most astonishing cure of rheumatism and eczema has been reported here, and Mrs. Ray is enthusiastic in telling her many friends how cure was effected.

Rheumatism and eczema frequently go together, and in this case caused the most keen distress imaginable. All the swelling and puffiness resulting from many years of rheumatism have disappeared, and there is not a pain or an ache left.

Mr. G. H. Ray, R.R. No. 1, Kincaid, Ont., writes: "Mrs. Ray has been using your Kidney-Liver Pills. She was very bad with rheumatism and eczema, and had had that fearful itch for twenty-seven years. It was simply terrible what she suffered. I persuaded her to try $1.00 worth of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. She is now on the last box, and let me tell you she scarcely knows herself, she is so free from both these diseases. All the swelling and puffiness caused by the rheumatism has gone away, and she has gone down in weight 15 1/2 pounds. She never has an ache nor pain, biliousness nor sick headache all these months. She often says herself 'How glad I am that I know what to do instead of paying doctors so much to make me worse.'"

There is only one way that the poisons in the blood can be cleaned away and the cause of pains and sores removed, and that is by the beneficial action of the kidneys, liver and bowels. Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly and specifically on these organs and insure their activity they remove the cause of rheumatism and other dreadfully painful and fatal diseases. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanon, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

New Provincial Law Says No Entertainment Other Than Patriotic May Be Held Without Permission

The Royal Gazette contains notice that a strict rule with regard to the licensing of all public entertainments at which an admission fee is charged other than those which are exclusively for patriotic purposes, has been passed by the Provincial Government. The new regulation is in connection with the Amusement Tax and is as follows:

"No entertainment of whatever sort or description to which an admission fee is charged and the proceeds of which are not wholly for patriotic purposes shall be held without a permit allowing the said entertainment to be held, and providing at the same time for a supply of amusement tax tickets necessary in connection therewith: If such entertainment is held without a permit from the Amusement Tax Inspector, the promoters of the same shall be liable to the penalties provided for in the 11th section of the Theatres and Cinematographs Act."

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C. B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'."

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

Manufacturing Wireless Apparatus For Govt.

Mr. E. W. Sawyer, Formerly of Newcastle, Making Good In Old Country.

Writing to a friend in town, Mr. E. W. Sawyer, formerly manager of The Universal Radio Syndicate here but now of 49 Craven House, Kingsway, London, Eng. says in part: "Since coming to London I have been very busy in the manufacture of wireless apparatus and I am pleased to say that five of the largest stations in Europe have been manufactured by me in the past two years also a great deal of small equipment for submarine and airship work. The food situation in London is far better now than it was last Spring and we have little cause to worry. I am living in comfortable quarters at the sea-coast where the salt air is very fine for the children. Best regards to my Newcastle friends and if any of them come through London I would be only too pleased to see them."

The Business Woman

To-day, more than ever before, is woman's opportunity. Many new occupations are now opened to her, which, before the war, she was deemed unfitted to fill. And truth to tell she has risen to the opportunity and now shares many business responsibilities in former times confined to men. But, as women are subject to more frequent fluctuations of health than men, many will be handicapped early, if they regard their health requirements too highly.

The nervous strain, long hours and prolonged mental or physical fatigue thin the blood and weaken the nerves. Such conditions as women are now called upon to undergo can only be endured by a full-blooded constitution. This is as true for men as for women, only weaker women suffer sooner. The woman worker, in any line, requires her blood replenished frequently. She needs new, rich blood to keep her health under the trying conditions of business life, and to fortify her system against the effects of overwork. This applies also to the women in the home who perhaps, has more worries and anxieties than usual. So let all girls and women take heed and renew their blood promptly at the first approach of pallor, lack of appetite, headache or backache. This can be best and most effectively accomplished by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which make new, rich blood and thus help womanhood so perfectly.

No woman need fear failure of health if they take these pills occasionally to keep them well, or give them a fair trial if they find themselves run down.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

Weddings of Interest Solemnized Last Week

Miss Alma LaBillois and Lieut. J. M. Colton Married at Dalhousie—McQuarrie-Blaine Nuptials in St. John

The chapel of the convent of the Sacred Heart, Dalhousie, was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday morning when Rev. A. A. Boucher united in marriage Miss Alma C. LaBillois, daughter of Hon. C. H. and Mrs. LaBillois, to John M. Colton, R.N.C.V.R., of Halifax (N.S.) formerly of the Wireless Station here.

The chapel was beautifully decorated with abundance of flowers for the occasion. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a handsome gown of blue duchess satin with overdress of accorean pleated georgette crepe, large grey suede hat and fox furs. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Reta Buckley, of Newcastle, was in attendance and looked very pretty in a dainty dress of golden brown charmeuse combined with georgette crepe and large hat of taupe velour and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The groom was supported by Charles E. Goodwin, officer in charge of the wireless station, Newcastle.

After the ceremony the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, followed by an informal reception. A large and valuable array of wedding presents attested to the popularity of the happy pair. The bride and groom amid showers of confetti, and with many hearty good wishes, left by the east-bound Ocean Limited for St. John, en route to New York. On their return they will reside in Halifax.

MCQUARRIE-BLAINE
The marriage of two of Newcastle's popular members of the younger set was solemnized at the Presbyterian Manse, St. John on Wednesday afternoon last, when Miss Mildred Blaine became the wife of Mr. G. Hector McQuarrie, now of the Divisional Supts Office, Montreal.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, after which Mr. and Mrs. McQuarrie left on a honeymoon trip to Upper Canada and on their return will reside in Montreal.

The many Miramichi friends of the happy couple extend congratulations.

MCTAVISH-MULLIN
At the Manse, Redbank, on Wednesday, Forester A. McTavish, of Cassilis, was married to Miss Ida I. Mullin, of the same place. Rev. J. F. McCurdy was the officiating clergyman.

"After every meal"

WHENEVER you see a street or block, in which the majority of the homes are freshly painted, you may safely assume that Economy is well-known in that community.

For, nowadays, it is indeed thrift that prompts painting. The need of home conservation has lifted home painting out of the luxury class and into the realm of real economy.

Building materials are high—repairs are costly. Therefore, you must paint your house as a matter of necessary protection.

The power of the paint brush as a protector of your home is at its greatest when dipped in

B-H PAINT 70% Pure White Lead (Standard Grade B.B.) 30% Pure White Zinc 100% Pure Pigment

We know of no other brand of paint so high in quality—so thoroughly dependable for great covering capacity and durability. We know it by its maker's guarantee—which is stamped on every can. That guarantee ensures the 100% pure combination of white lead and zinc indicated above—and these, when mixed with pure linseed oil, turpentine and driers, produce a paint which must give the greatest satisfaction.

You can buy paint that costs less per gallon. But the slightly higher cost of "B-H." is counterbalanced by the extra square yards a given amount of it will cover.

When you paint, produce a job you can be proud of—give your home real protection against the elements—paint it with B.H. "English"—it pays.

No Vocational Training At Present

Council Decide It Unnecessary To Increase Taxes at Present Time

The question of Vocational Training for Newcastle came up for discussion at the regular meeting of the Town Council on Thursday evening after the regular business had been transacted, which was chiefly that of passing the accounts. Ald. Stuart introduced the subject of Vocational Training. He had interviewed some members of the Chatham School board regarding an arrangement whereby the two towns might unite in the question and the Chatham members seemed very favorable, suggesting that each have their own school and employ a teacher who would give half time to each place. He suggested a committee be appointed to talk the matter over and see what might be done, and moved a resolution to that effect, which received no second.

Ald. Durick, Doyle, P. Russell, Crocker, all spoke in favor of Vocational training and while none of them had seconded Ald. Stuart's motion, it was because they were of the opinion that the ratepayers were not able to meet the increased taxes that would be necessary if Vocational training were introduced, and when it was introduced would favor going into the matter whole heartedly.

The Mayor called the meeting to order at 8.15. Alds. Durick, Doyle, Crocker, P. Russell, John Russell and H. H. Stuart, present.

The following accounts were passed

Ald. J. Russell spoke of the Traffic Bye-Law which he did not think was being enforced.

On motion of Alds. Doyle and Crocker the Police Committee were asked to call a meeting at once and investigate some charges that had been made and report to a special meeting of the Council, called for the purpose of hearing the report.

On motion Council adjourned.

Lemons Make Skin White, Soft, Clear

Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out its freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear smooth and beautify the skin. Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

GAME LAW REGULATION
There has been some uncertainty regarding the new game regulation which is designed to prevent the waste of meat killed in woods. The section of the New Brunswick game act bearing on the matter is as follows:

"All persons killing game in any place within the province shall not leave the carcass on the ground or in any of the streams or lakes, under a penalty of $20 or one month's imprisonment."

It is now illegal to leave the carcass or any part of it in the woods. In order that meat brought out of the woods may not be wasted, the regulations now permit any person to preserve game in cold storage for their own use, but it must not be sold.

Agricultural Acreage Of New Brunswick

Large Increase in Field Products Shown By Recent Returns

The compilation of agricultural statistics in New Brunswick this year was undertaken by the Statistical Branch Ottawa and the Department of Agriculture and Education of the Province.

Cards were sent to all farmers through the school children and practically 14,000 were returned properly filled in. There are something over 30,000 farmers in the province; consequently, while there is room for error, no doubt this is the nearest compilation there has been made with the exception of the decennial census, and the results are as follows:

Swine.....79,814
Spring wheat.....49,453 acres
Oats.....224,442 acres
Barley.....6,601 acres
Rye.....308 acres
Peas.....4,077 acres
Beans.....5,491 acres
Buckwheat.....72,483 acres
Potatoes.....57,272 acres
Turnips.....15,015 acres
Hay.....740,637 acres
Horses.....96,590
Cattle.....256,747
Sheep.....140,015
Hens.....621,841

This will give an idea of the acreage of the province for this year and the yields will be secured at a later date.

An Extraordinary Entertainment

The Chautauqua which Starts Tomorrow Promises Rare Entertainment to North Shore Citizens

Chautauqua, delightful, entertaining and instructive, is coming to Newcastle for the first time, with a range of repertoire, including musical, dramatic and lecture talent far superior to any, which in the usual way, appear before local audiences.

An announcement of a Chautauqua performance means that the best in art will be included in the programme, and the committee that arranged to have the Chautauqua companies brought here are to be congratulated on securing for the edification of local music, dramatic and lecture devotees such as well famed artists as will render the entertainment.

St. James Hall, Newcastle commencing Thursday the 26th and continuing on the 27th and 28th both afternoon and evening will be the mecca of the people of the North Shore and to them will be accorded an opportunity, not to be missed, of listening to all that is best in the theatre and lecture world of today.

The programme is comprehensive and covers a range of topics varying from an address by Dr. A. T. Turner an expert on business efficiency and town improvement, to a rattling, sparkling excerpt from the most brilliant romances now delighting the most blasé New Yorkers.

Included in the repertoire is that delightful coterie of artists, the Crawford Adams Company, violinist, pianist and humorist. To their concert countless audiences throughout Canada and the United States have given that degree of approval that only the highest merit can demand.

On Friday the 27th the Ebbhoff-Jordan Russell Company composed of three charming and attractive young ladies, will delight Chautauqua followers and in the rendition of their concert will bring to their audiences beautiful lyric soprano solos, duet work that has won the unqualified approval of Philip Sousa of world fame, and last but not least a pianist of delightful personality and splendid accomplishment.

Friday evening also has another treat in store in the lecture "Democracy at War" delivered by Dr. Frank Dixon. Dr. Dixon comes to Newcastle audiences with the reputation of a lecturer par excellence and he is fortunate in his choice of subjects in that at this great crisis of the world's development his address will strike a chord in the hearts and minds of all.

Saturday afternoon and evening is reserved for two items of the Chautauqua programme, distant from each other as the poles, yet having an appeal to all. The Revue Company with its light catchy music, ricki-tattling wit and beautiful costumes will prove an attraction seldom met in this part of the country. Patriotism is the aim of this company and to their endeavors will be accorded the heartiest approval and applause.

To Sgt. Major George W. Follows, who will complete the Saturday programme, with his address "Life in the trenches and German prison camps," will be given the respect attention and support. He comes with a knowledge of his subject won through bitter trial on the field of battle, in all its grimness, its stark life and wounding and death to him also has been dealt, by the hand of destiny, the horror of nine months of life in the hands of the Hun. No greater misfortune can befall a soldier and his suffering there, his escape and journey to Holland form a tale that will thrill and move each individual listener to a great appreciation of the work being done by our men in France and Flanders.

Chautauqua is coming to Newcastle means, not only high grade entertainment and instruction, but a substantial lift to a better understanding of the world of art and learning.

None should miss it.

SHEEP ON THE FARM

An official of the Dominion Government, who is at present at Lethbridge, Alberta, superintending the grading of the wool in that district, computes that the clip of the Southern Alberta Wool Growers will be about a million and a half pounds. This is an increase for this association of twenty-five per cent. over last year. Although it is yet too early to make an estimate of the increase expected throughout the whole of the Canadian Prairie West, it is not expected that the average increase will be less than that of the Southern Alberta Wool Growers Association. In other words, an increase of approximately twenty-five per cent. is looked for in the wool clip of Western Canada over that of last year. Shearing has now begun and will be in full swing before the middle of June. The increase in the number of lambs this year has been a very satisfactory one, being between one hundred and one hundred and fifty per cent. of the size of the flocks.

The Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers Association, which was formed last year, is all ready to handle this year's clip. Two warehouses have been secured in Toronto, Ontario, to which the wool of this Association will be forwarded and stored for selling. A large majority of the Canadian sheep raisers are members of the association, but it is expected that much wool will be handled for non-members, so that several million pounds will be sold through this channel during the season.

The growth of the sheep industry among the farmers of Western Canada during the last few years has been a remarkable one. At least it appears so at first glance, especially to those who do not know the country. But it is not so surprising to those who know the natural advantages of the country. Speaking generally there is no part of the continent where a farmer can engage in sheep raising with greater prospects of success than in Western Canada. The climate, abundance of food and pure water, make the country excellently adapted for this useful industry. The comparatively low price of the land here also gives the farm sheepman in Western Canada an advantage over his brother farther south. It is only during the last three or four years, however, that the sheep industry has begun to make any marked headway on the farms in Western Canada. The high quality of the wool, together with the great demand and the good prices, has opened the eyes of the farmers to the possibilities of the industry, and it is growing as fast as the difficulty in securing breeding stock will allow.

It is to the farms that we are to look for the further development of the sheep industry. The opportunities for sheep raising on the range are becoming scarcer every year. That this circumstance is an advantage to the industry in the more intensive farming districts there can be no doubt. Up to a few years ago it was difficult for farmers in such districts to make headway in competition with the sheepman, whose flocks ranged over a large stretch of country. The high prices of wool and mutton have also given a great impetus to the farm sheep business, and the continued development of the industry will contribute to the world's food and clothing supply.

Wednesday
The British continues to advance near St. Quentin, and the village of Holman has been taken. Near Moeuvres the enemy has forced British troops back to the outskirts of the village.

South of the Vesle, the Germans delivered heavy counter attacks against the French but without result.

In Macedonia the Allied armies advanced about four and a half miles on a fifteen mile front capturing four thousand prisoners, thirty guns and a number of mine throwers and machine guns.

Belgium has absolutely rejected the German peace offer. The loss in the Italian army of men killed and permanently disabled in the war has been announced as 1,350,000.

Thursday
British troops have reached the outskirts of the Hindenburg line near St. Quentin and taken the town of Lempire while French troops are within two miles of St. Quentin.

Northeast of Soissons, the Colombis farm has been taken and a strong counter attack repulsed by the French.

In Turkey, it is reported that the British have suffered a reverse and have lost Balik.

In Italy there has been several minor engagements. In the region of Havincourt, the Germans delivered a heavy counter-attack but were repulsed by the British who took 8,000 prisoners and 50 guns.

Bulgaria has asked for help to stop the Allied advance in Macedonia.

British Forces in Palestine under command of General Allenby have advanced between Rafit and the sea a distance of 12 miles on a sixteen mile front, and captured more than 3000 Turkish Prisoners.

Friday
British troops continue to slowly advance northwest of St. Quentin and the strong post of Malassise has been taken.

In the Lempire-Epigny sector the British advanced more than a mile and also retook the village of Moeuvres, opposite Cambrai.

To the south of St. Quentin the French have carried Esigny-Le-Grand and repulsed heavy counter-attacks north of Alenmont.

On the American front near Metz there has been practically no infantry fighting but artillery is active.

In the Balkan front the Bulgarians are reported retreating in the whole front between Monastir and Lake Doiran. To date upwards of ten thousand prisoners have been taken. The Greeks are co-operating with the Allies on this front.

Saturday
The British have resumed their attacks on the Hindenburg line, northeast of St. Quentin, advancing their line near Bellenlise. In the region of Gaurie Wood, the British positions were pressed back slightly. When the Germans took Moeuvres from the British last week, six men of a Highland unit were surrounded and believed to have been captured, but after two days when the British retook the village it was found that the men had maintained their position, and inflicted heavy loss on the enemy and rejoined their unit without a single casualty.

In the St. Quentin region the French have taken the town of Bensa, and advanced beyond. Near Castres a heavy counter attack was repulsed.

On the Macedonian front the Serbians have advanced more than nine miles in one day, and have taken Godiyav, on the Cerna river.

On the French Front there was a heavy artillery duel, and several trench raids.

On the Macedonian Front the Italians have joined with the Allies in their offensive and have now advanced 25 miles into enemy territory. West of the Vardar river the Prilep-Road has been crossed near Kavardor.

In Palestine, Gen. Allenby's prisoners now total 18000 with 120 guns, and the Turkish forces in this territory have been practically annihilated.

Monday
A group of trenches and strong positions on the ridge northwest of Vendhuile, between St. Quentin and Cambrai were taken by the British last night, and another strong point near Ronsoy-Bony road fell to British troops.

The British continue to advance in the neighborhood of Gavrelle in the Arras sector.

On the French front near St. Quentin the village and fort of Veddeuil, near the Oise has been captured, and troops have pushed on the Oise River and also penetrated the Hincourt wood.

In the Canadian and American fronts there have been numerous trench raids and artillery battles but the infantry are apparently resting.

In Palestine the allied troops are meeting with little resistance and are forging ahead at a rapid pace. In addition to taking Nazareth, the allies also hold the railway from Beisan to Damascus.

In Macedonia the Serbians have now advanced over forty miles and have succeeded in cutting the railway between Uskub and Solonki, and also between Gradsko and Prilip. 25 additional villages have been captured, and are now but three miles from the Bulgarian frontier.

Big Serial Of Thrills Coming

"The Woman in the Web" New Vitaphone Chapter Play by Albert E. Smith and Cyrus Townsend Brady to be Shown Here for Fifteen Weeks

The management of the Happy Hour announces he has secured the forthcoming Vitaphone serial, "The Woman in the Web". This serial has many unique touches and many thrills, even more gripping than those which made for the amazing successes of the recent Vitaphone adventure chapter plays. The story of "The Woman in the Web" was written by Albert E. Smith and Cyrus Townsend Brady, who were the authors of "Vengeance" and "The Woman". Mr. Smith is conceded to be one of the greatest devisers of stunts in picturedom and Dr. Brady for many years has held a place in the front rank of fiction writers so the combination is ideal for motion picture production.

Hedda Nova and J. Frank Glendon film player of exceptional talent and widely known are the stars of "The Woman in the Web". Miss Nova is a young Russian girl of striking brunette beauty, who scored her greatest successes in "The Bar Sinister" and "The Sign Invisible". Miss Nova comes as near being the ideal serial heroine as any woman ever seen. She is an accomplished athlete a fine actress and a splendid horsewoman, riding with all the skill attributed to the cowboys of the West.

Mr. Glendon is a young Westerner virile and an ideal adventure star, who will hesitate at no risk to bring realism to a scene. He passed several years on a ranch in Montana living in the outdoors, most of the time in the saddle, before coming East to moving pictures.

"The Woman in the Web" is unhesitatingly stamped by Messrs. Smith and Brady as one of their strongest efforts. Romance, intrigue and adventure are the outstanding points, but the theme itself is different in treatment and color than in any of its predecessors. The serial is woven about a young girl bound by foyal blood to wed a noble suitor but whose heart belongs to a young American.

A great mission is forced upon her and in carrying it out she is fought at every turn by powerful influences extending around the globe. She is supported only by her American sweetheart. The development of the story is a masterpiece of continuity and is fascinating, convincing and an almost continuous chain of thrills.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

—Mrs. LEZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.
Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

Dominion President Addresses W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Gordon Wright, of Montreal Delivers Timely Address on W. C. T. U. Work.

Instead of the usual prayer meetings on Wednesday evening, a mass meeting was held in St. James Hall addressed by Mrs. Gordon Wright of Toronto, Dominion President of the W. C. T. U. The hall was well filled and the choir of several churches united to furnish the music. Mrs. L. H. MacLean delightfully rendering a solo.

Mrs. T. A. Clarke, the local president occupied the chair. Devotional exercises were conducted at the opening by Revs. L. H. MacLean and F. T. Bertram and at the close by Rev. E. A. Kinley and John Squires.

Mrs. Wright urged the keeping up and strengthening of the Unions in order to help the governments resist the coming demand of the liquor element that license be restored after the war. Her subject was "The Gain of Sacrifice," and she declared that it was for the temperance people to see that what they had gained is the result largely of the awful price paid in the battlefield should not be filched from them. The country must be made safe for the returned soldiers. And there was work for the women to do besides that for Prohibition, as the country was still reeking with venereal diseases. The W. C. T. U. stood for the highest form of patriotic service, and were more needed now than ever.

As the result of Mrs. Wright's eloquent, emotional and wholehearted earnest address, fifteen new members joined the local organization. This was the first meeting in Mrs. Wright's itinerary of visitation of the Maritime Province Unions, and was a great success.

Field, France August 8th, 1918
Dear Dad
Just a line to let you know that I am in the best of health. I almost think that I could put your shoulders on the mat now as I weigh one hundred and seventy eight.
How are the crops this year, they have dandy crops here as France the wheat stands as high as my head. This is one of the best farming countries I ever saw but they are about two hundred years behind the times if we had this land down home we could make a fortune in a few years. Everything looks favorable now and if it continues we will be home on the old farm in a few months. We are all looking forward for it to come to a close this year. But if not we are going to stick it out to the end for that is the spirit of the boys over here.
Give my regards to Archie and all the boys I will close hoping to hear from you soon.
I remain your son,

SUFFERING CATS! GIVE THIS MAN THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.
He says that a few drops of a drug called freestone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out. This drug is a sticky ether compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.
It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freestone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Cut this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

Like Regiments Fallen in Battle

LEITH HILL, Surrey, England, is one of our precious possessions of natural beauty. The eminence is 965 feet, the highest point not of Surrey alone, but of southeastern England. The tower by which the knoll is named adds nearly 100 feet to the height and is a familiar landmark. It was built in 1766 by Richard Hall, of Leith Hill Place (at one time a member of the old Irish Parliament), in order that the public might enjoy a still more extensive prospect from the hill. His body lies under the tower. He left directions for his burial head downwards, so that when the dead awoke at the sound of the Last Trump and the world is turned upside down, he should alight on his feet.

Below the hill stretches the great weald of Surrey, Kent, and Sussex, about 60 miles in length and 30 miles in breadth—a wonderful panorama of agricultural and pastoral lands, farmsteads, cottages, church spires, woods, and ponds. Grand in all conditions of weather, it is at times entrancing under the changeful play of cloud and sunshine, which, by bringing out vivid if fleeting glimpses of shapes and colors, turns the prospect into a spectacle of living beauty. On very clear days the gleam of the sea may be seen through Shoreham Gap, straight ahead in the far distance, recalling Tennyson's lines on the similar view, "long known and loved," from his house at Blackdown (above Haslemere), which lies away with other hills on the extreme right:

With one gray glimpse of sea."

Into this scene of loveliness, peace and contentment the war has obtruded itself. Is there, indeed, any spot in England that is not feeling its influence, one way or another? Here the mighty conflict has wrought one change, at any rate, for the better. That is the happy and comforting promise of more food. In an acquaintance of many years with the prospect from Leith Hill, I have never known so large an extent of the weald being turned into tillage as is the case to-day. Where before there was meadow and pasture, the eye may now rest on fields after field of upturned bare earth, prepared for root crops, or mantling already with the tender green of the spring corn.

Suggestions of the sinister side of war also are not wanting. All through the summer of last year the dull beat of the big guns in France was heard on the hill. On occasions other disturbing sounds fall on the ear—sharp, ringing blows, followed by tearing and rending, and then the toppling of the long column of a fir tree to the ground. Behind the hill among the miles of pine woods the woodman's axe is busy at the call of the Timber Supply Department for mine props, fencing rails, sleepers for railways, and other purposes associated with the war. Already the woods by Cold Harbor Common, close to the hill, and in the Tillingsbourne Valley, farther afield, have been cleared. The woods on each side of the avenue leading from Abinger Common to the hill are marked out for felling also.

The inhabitants of the district are mainly women, almost all the male householders and their sons being on their country's service. Lady Lugard, Abinger Common, expressing their views on the matter, said to me: "The district forms part of the Wotton estate, which has been in the possession of the Evelyns—one of the great county families of Surrey for close on 400 years. When the trees in question were first scheduled for felling the present head of the house, anxious that a public treasure should be preserved, offered an equivalent amount of similar timber on a more remote part of the property. The offer was accepted, and accordingly other trees have been cut down. Nevertheless, the order has now gone forth that the woods originally scheduled and afterwards exempted must also be felled."

Wotton House, the seat of the Evelyns, is but a couple of miles distant from Leith Hill, situated in the woods. That old English worthy, John Evelyn, the diarist, lived there in the 17th century. He was an intense lover of trees, appreciating them for their utility as well as for their beauty. His "Sylva, or Discourse of Forest Trees," published in 1664, stimulated the landholders to plant an immense number of oaks, which a century later proved of the greatest service to the nation for building ships of war. I think he would be sorely grieved at the scenes now to be witnessed around his beloved Wotton. In his Diary Evelyn writes of a great hurricane, from which the woods suffered severely. "Myself had about 2,000 trees blown down," he says, and this almost in sight of my dwelling—now no more Wotton (Wood Town), but stripped and naked and almost ashamed to own its name. He pictures the trees lying "in ghastly postures like whole regiments fallen in battle by the sword of the conqueror."—London Times.

A Bookkeeper.
Keen powers of deduction are evidenced around the camp where the paper "Li' Gas" is published, as shown by the following conversation between two soldiers: "That new recruit must have been a bookkeeper." "What makes you think so?" "I noticed him trying to place a bayonet behind his ear."

She Knew Him.
"You won't object if I go on with my knitting while we talk, will you, Mr. Bewley?" "I always think that one should keep one's mind occupied."

LOW-FLYING PLANES.

Have Been Useful in Checking the German Drives.

The uses of the airplane as an auxiliary to infantry in action are being continually extended. It is the opinion of military leaders in France that the need for more and more machines and trained men is shown by the success of the low-flying airplanes in operating against the Germans during the past two months.

On the western front, this spring two factors—German recklessness of life and the success of the Allies in holding back the German armies—gave the opportunity of developing on a large scale this method of harassing attack.

The success of the low-flying airplanes is of two kinds—the slaughter they inflict, and secondly, the disorganization they cause. This second factor is of more importance than most people realize. An unexpected check to troops on march is always troublesome. Men wonder what has happened. Suddenly bombs begin to fall, men are killed, horses stampede, wagons are smashed and the road blocked. Until the Allied airplanes are seen the terror is mysterious.

When they are seen, with the irresistible implication that the German planes have failed to drive them off, the psychological effect is very severe.

The work of the British airmen received a reluctant tribute in a recent issue of the Berlin Vorwaerts, which was captured in a raid on the German trenches. The German newspaper, in an article full of apparently sincere admiration for British flyers, said: "never before have the British thrown their airmen in such great masses behind our front as they are doing in their present retreat."

But the higher command of the British air force is by no means satisfied. A high official pointed out to the Associated Press correspondent in discussing this phase of airwork, that "never before was the need of the air force for trained men and finished material so urgent as it is to-day." He added: "It has been said loosely that the Allies are masters of the air and have achieved supremacy in flying. But the aerial situation is too fluid to justify such words. As a cold fact, complete mastery of the air could only come if there were no German machines able to take the air."

"Superiority is another matter, and it is true that at the moment this may be claimed by the Allies. For example, the British record of bombs dropped in April shows twelve to one against the Germans. The present superiority can be maintained and must be maintained, not only on general grounds but particularly for the development of the new tactics of the low-flying airplane."

"What is needed is more machines and more trained men, and it is difficult to see how this can be done. People, the men and women of the Allied countries who in the last analysis must give or withhold effective superiority in the air."

A Turkish Plot.

"The atmosphere was exciting; how tense the situation was a single episode will show. Sir Louis Mallet, the British Ambassador, had accepted an invitation to dine at the American Embassy on Oct. 20th, but he sent word at the last moment that he was ill and could not come. I called on the Ambassador an hour or two afterward and found him in his garden, apparently in the best of health. Sir Louis smiled and said that his illness had been purely political. He had received a letter telling him that he was to be assassinated that evening, this letter informing him of the precise spot where the tragedy was to take place, and the time. He, therefore, thought that he had better stay indoors. As I had no doubt that some such crime had been planned, I offered Sir Louis the protection of our embassy. I gave him the key to the back gate of the building; and, with Lord Wellesley, one of his secretaries—a descendant of the Duke of Wellington—I made all arrangements for his escape to our quarters in case a flight became necessary."

Imperial War Pensions.
Great Britain will have to pay $250,000,000 a year pension if the war ends by next March, according to an estimate made by A. Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Sir Alfred W. Watson, a Government actuary, estimates that by 1930 the annual pension charges will have fallen to $200,000,000, and that each succeeding decade will show a reduction of $50,000,000, but that these pensions will not have entirely disappeared by 1970.

Fifteen thousand cases of war disabled soldiers are reported each week to the Minister of Pensions. The total number of disabled British men on the list is now placed at $41,026, of which 29 per cent. were cases of injury to the eyes or loss of sight resulting from wounds.

To Be Encouraged.
"Uncle Zeb Jorsum thinks he's a great weather prophet." "Yep," replied Farmer Cornatoss. "We encourage him all we kin. It's worth while to have one feller in the village who kin be depended on to loom up now and then with words of wisdom on somethin' besides politics or runnin' the war."

The Origin of Conscription?
The Athenians had a mode of universal military training more like that of modern Europe than were most of the other military training schemes of the ancient world. Every Athenian youth was compelled to do two years of garrison duty at Piræus, the Port of Athens.

Cured Him.
"I've cured my husband's insomnia." "How did you do it?" "Fretted I was ill and had the doctor prescribe medicine which he tried to give me every half-hour all night long."

ONTARIO'S GROWTH.

War Has Had Marked Effect on the Province.

Since the year before the beginning of the war, the increase of the population of Toronto, up to the year 1916, has been 99,285. The figures of the Registrar-General's Department show an increase for the Province of Ontario, but that of 1914 was away bigger than the other years.

The population figures, as given by the Registrar-General's report, are:

1913	2,677,600
1914	2,749,840
1915	2,757,350
1916	2,776,885

The figures for 1917 are not yet available, but are expected in a short time, and it is thought these will show a slight increase over 1916.

During the years recorded the birth figures have shown an increase till 1915, and then a decided decrease is notable. The figures are:

1913	64,516
1914	66,225
1915	67,032
1916	62,264

Whether there is any truth in the old story that during war time male births outnumber female births is hard to say, but since the war started the fact is apparent. But in 1914 (the war broke out in August) the reports show that the male births in the earlier months were just as much in advance of the female births as during the latter months.

	Male.	Female.
1914	34,031	32,194
1915	34,701	32,331
1916	33,663	31,601

Since 1913 there has been a large decrease in the number of marriages in the province. In 1913 there were 3,697 more marriages than in 1916. In 1913 there were 26,998 couples united (while in 1914 the figures had dropped to 24,245, in 1915 to 23,506, and in 1916 to 23,401).

Since the beginning of 1913 135,631 people have died in the province, 1916 having the largest record, followed by 1913. The figures for deaths are:

1914	32,440
1915	33,294
1916	35,580

The statistics show that the cities have the smaller increases in births, while the places other than cities and towns have the larger figures.

Another thing that the report brings out is the fact that illegitimate births have not increased since the war. The figures, as quoted show that there has been a decrease since 1913:

1914	22.1
1915	21.9
1916	20.9

The Largest Drydock.
More particulars of the contract which the St. John Drydock & Shipbuilding Co. has secured from the Department of Public Works for the construction of a drydock and ship repairing plant at Courtenay Bay, St. John, are available. The contract calls for the construction of a drydock which will be of the first class and the largest on this side of the Atlantic. It will, when completed, be capable of accommodating the greatest ships of any navy in the world or the largest mercantile vessel of no hull or completed.

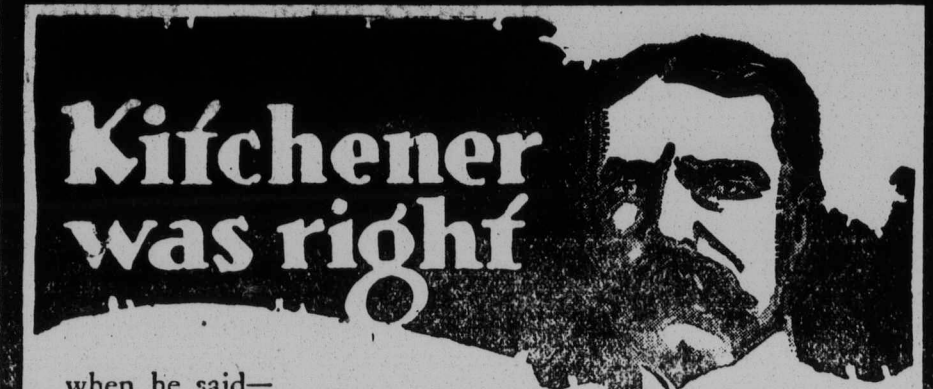

The length of the new dock will be 1,150 feet, and its width at the bottom 125 feet, with 40 feet of water over the sills. The control of the enterprise is in the hands of the Canadian Dredging Co., Ltd., of Midland, Ont., a strong and wealthy corporation with extensive provincial and international operations in the harbor of St. John which the company has contracted for, it is expected, to be started within sixty days, and both should be completed within three years. The contracts call for an expenditure of close upon ten million dollars.

Sudden Thunder Works a Wonder.
A sharp peal of thunder during a severe electrical storm at Ormskirk is credited with restoring his sight to a blind soldier. The veteran, who had been sightless for a year as a result of shell-shock and gassing, was asleep at the time. The shock awakened him suddenly and he immediately consciousness he discovered to his amazement and delight that his sight had been completely restored.

An Extensive Yawn.
Two soldiers in the front-line trench were watching an enemy plane circle overhead.
First Soldier—(opening his mouth in an extensive yawn)—Aw—oo!
Second Soldier—For the love of Mike, man, shut your mouth. Frits might think it's a dugout, and shell it!

Hatchery Provides Many Fish.
The Dominion Fish Hatchery at Belleville has in the past four years provided for distribution in restocking provincial lakes and streams no fewer than 21,539,000 salmon trout fry, the total being made up: 1915, 1,500,000; 1916, 6,900,000; 1917, 6,089,000; and 1918, 7,050,000.

Motor Had Through Ticket.
A young lady of Fredericton who had just learned to drive a motor car essayed to return the car to the garage recently, but failed to gauge accurately its impetus, the result being that she passed completely, if not neatly, through the end of the building.

when he said—
"Either the civilian population must go short of many things to which it is accustomed in times of peace or our armies must go short of munitions and other things indispensable to them."

NOW the only way we can possibly live up to that obligation is by going without in order that our soldiers may have. For the money we waste is not money at all—it is equipment, clothing, shot and shell that are urgently needed in France. By denying ourselves, therefore, we enable Canada to procure to the fullest extent the materials and labor which she and our Allies need for the successful prosecution of the war. What happens when we fail to save? A pull on labor by the Government in one direction and a pull on labor by the people in the opposite direction.

Hundreds of millions of dollars are of no use to the country if goods and services can be secured only to the extent of eighty millions of dollars. So we must do everything in our power to release both goods and labor for the purposes for which Canada needs them.

WHETHER it be food, coal, wool, steel, leather, labor or transportation, the result in all cases is the same. Whoever competes with the nation by freely satisfying his own desires, selfishly appropriates to his own use that which is so urgently required for our fighting men in France.

For the sake of your country and the boys "over there," spend cautiously. Think of what Lord Kitchener has said, and ask yourself first, "Is this something I really need or can I do without it?"

RAMMED HUN SUB.

British Captain Receives Decoration From the King.

For sinking in the Mediterranean in June, 1917, a large German submarine, which he believes was the former undersea cargo ship Deutschland, Captain John Thompson of the British mercantile marine, has been awarded the decoration of the Distinguished Service Order by King George. The mariner rammed the submersible after an hour's manoeuvring in which the U-boat tried unsuccessfully to destroy his craft with shell fire.

The submersible's huge size, Captain Thompson said afterwards, convinced him that it was the Deutschland, a belief which was strengthened when a lifebelt with that name on it floated to the surface after the vessel was rammed.

When pressed for particulars of the encounter, the captain replied: "I am the man who sank the Deutschland, but I cannot talk about it." The Deutschland has been variously reported as captured, or sunk by the British. In March, 1917, the submarine was reported as having been towed into a British port. Later a report said that the vessel whose arrival in Baltimore and later in New London, in the summer of 1917, with cargoes from Germany, created international sensation, had been converted into a war sub, and was renamed the U-53.

New Divisions On C. G. Railways

Supt. Devenish Takes Over Line from Newcastle To Moncton and Chatham Branch

(Times)

Sunday, September 29th, a general change of the Canadian Government Railways time tables will come into effect. With the change in schedule of several trains will also come a shift in the boundaries of Divisions 2, 3 and 6. When the change comes into effect, Supt. W. R. Devenish whose division at the present begins at Truro and extends to Pacific Junction and St. John will have jurisdiction over the north line to and including Newcastle yard. The line from Truro to Springhill Junction will come under the direction of Supt. J. T. Hallisey, Supt. Devenish's territory beginning at the latter place. The division of Supt. Fitzmaurice is thus shortened somewhat and will end at Newcastle instead of Pacific Junction as is the case at the present time. Division 2 has been considered by the railway management for some time as being of too great a mileage owing to the fact that it extended from Mount Joli and included the Canada Eastern and adjoining lines as well as the International from Campbellton to Edmundston.

The general change of time, which is to come into effect next Sunday is not materially different from the usual winter schedule. The Ocean Limited (Nos. 3 and 4) will go on the Sunday schedule. Number 9 and 10 expresses from Halifax and St. John are to be continued as at present. There will likely be a few minor changes in time of departure and arrival of certain trains that will be announced this week.
