COMMENCING SATURDAY AND LASTING
FOR ONE FORTNIGHT ONLY.

We have made up our minds to make this
THE GREATEST SALE OF THE YEAR.
All Summer Goods are offered at ENORMOUS REDUCTIONS, and besides that, to put the utmost interest possible into SALE, we have made
A Great Reduction on the Price of every article of Dry Goods in Stock—said Reductions being confined entirely to Cash Purchasers. Owing, therefore, to the multitude of bargains thus offered we have found it would be impossible in a Newspaper Ad. to give any sort of a description of Goods Reduced or Prices, and have considered it best to compile a Circular which we are issuing and distributing on Saturday. It will give you a Good Idea of the Value being offered (as also will our windows), and you cannot afford to miss seeing it. If you should not get one in the Distribution ask for one at the store. We can assure you the low prices at which Goods are offered in it will attract more interest to this than to any sale of the year. Anybody who is a keen shopper knows that our prices on many classes of Goods are lower than procurable anywhere else. Our prices Saturday will be much lower even again than usual. If you are wise you will avoid the rush and do your Saturday purchasing early and start early Regatta Week and make your purchases at

Salmon Fishing.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words in regard to salmon fishing in our rivers.

What I am going to say concerns me but little, from a personal beneficial point of view, but still I am deeply interested in the matter.

1st.—Should not every tourist, American or Canadian, take a guide? A great many, especially Americans, do so, but there are a great many who visit us that take only one guide for a party of three or four. I have known several parties from Cape Breton who came here fishing during the month of June. Each party contained three or four men, and they fished for nine or ten days, averaging about four fish a day. A few of these parties had two guides for each party and the rest of them only one. These men brought their own supplies and tents, smoked their salmon and took them to Canada. One party of three men from Sydney caught 47 salmon in nine days, averaging about 9 lbs. each, all of which they smoked and carried home. May I ask what benefit is derived from such men? They come in the country and after grumbling over paying a ten dollar rod tax, became their own guides, fishing all day long. These men, as I said before caught three or four fish daily. At the same time our net fishermen are toiling all day with their salmon nets and getting nothing for their expense and work, while these sports were taking, we may say, the bread out of their mouths. What we want is to compel every tourist to take a guide, and more than that, to have a limited number of salmon for each rod daily.

I am glad to say that we have some men who do not spare money to obtain sport, who each take a guide and dispose of the fish to the guides. This is the kind of men we want to encourage, and we must prevent such men as I formerly spoke of in coming in our midst and doing as they please.

2nd.—What about local sportsmen? Suppose yourself, gentlemen, a party of American tourists who have been visiting our native land for several years; then suppose your party camping by a salmon pool near the river and upon rising in the morning to find one or two of our local sportsmen who have been switching over the pool for half an hour. I think you would find this poor encouragement. Well, such has been the case here, as some of the guides have reported.

If this continues we shall find more of these local sports yearly, and they will no doubt prove very discouraging to the men who want to encourage. What we want is a local tax, this would, if only a $5 tax, be sufficient to keep our residents from fishing the rivers. Again, if some of our residents are not to be trusted to act as guides, but have to obtain a license and be sworn, why should others be trusted to go sporting and act as guide for themselves? We see those men with salmon which they say they caught somewhere about the river, but how do we know how they caught them; they may have caught them with hook and line and they may not. Dead salmon tell no tales, and we cannot expect our Game and Fishery Warden to be in several places at the one time.

Every tourist, whether native or foreign, should pay the rod tax and each have a sworn guide.

Thanking you for space, I am,
Yours sincerely,
JAS. M. SHEARS.
Robinson's, July 29th, 10.

IN MEMORIAM. Inter-Brigade Football.

Mrs. Hannah LeDrew passed away from this earth on Tuesday morning, Aug. 2nd., at 9 a.m. Her death came as a happy release from the great cross of suffering which God saw fit to lay upon her. For the past two years she was an invalid and suffered untold agony, seldom being able to get out to enjoy the blessings of God's beautiful nature. Notwithstanding this she was very patient and up to the last bore her afflictions bravely. Mrs. LeDrew was a staunch churchwoman and a good Christian. Her seat in church was never empty when it was possible for her to attend. It was on one of these occasions, at the three hours service on Good Friday, 1908, while entering into the sufferings of her Saviour, that she was stricken with the disease from which she never fully recovered. In her home and amongst her friends she was kind and affectionate and much loved by all. Personally, I found her a faithful friend and a good adviser; and I feel sure I am safe in saying that she found a place in the hearts of everyone who knew her. She had been suffering so long that her death did not come unexpected. However, at 4 a.m. Tuesday morning a change for the worst was noticed. At 8 a.m. Canon White was summoned who administered to her for the last time the Holy Communion. After this Dr. Macpherson came and pronounced the case hopeless. Seeing that earthly help was in vain she sought refuge in the pierced side of her Saviour and after a short interval passed quietly to the Great Beyond. The last words which she was heard to speak were: "Lord Jesus, revive my spirit." God grant that her prayer was accepted. She will be missed by a large circle of friends in this city and also by not a few from various parts of the Island.

This hard to part with friends we love,
Whose course of life on earth is run,
Still we must meekly bow the head and say:
"Father, Thy will be done."
—Com.

Guards Walk All Round the Highlanders.
Yesterday evening with excellent weather prevailing the seventh match of the inter-brigade schedule was pulled off at St. George's Field. Splendid weather prevailed and there was a fair gathering of spectators, the friends of the two competing teams cheering on the players. The line up was as follows:
Highlanders—Mitchell, goal; Coffin, Smith, backs; Benson, Searle, Ledingham, halves; McKinley, Robertson, Rennie, Robertson, Auchinleck, forwards.
Guards—Windsor, goal; Puddister, Taylor, backs; Quick, Pike, Piercy, halves; Ayre, Coultas, E. Quick, Fenwick, Barret, forwards.
The Guards won the toss and defended the western goal with the little wind that blew in their favor. From the start it could be seen that the Guard boys were going to put up a good fight and if possible beat their opponents, and they did so to their heart's content. From the start the Guards were on the ball and were quickly in their opponents' territory. In this respect they resemble the Stars, this year's champions, in their play. The Guards played a splendid combination game from the start and in the first half quickly had two goals to their credit, so that at half time the teams changed sides with Guards 2 goals, Highlanders nil. The referee allowed a lengthy spell to the teams and the second half began a few moments after the lemon time whistle had sounded. The Highlanders in this half had a look in occasionally, but the Guards seemed to take things quietly and seemingly without extra effort notched up 3 more goals in this half. It was a relief to spectators when Referee Higgins' whistle announced that the match was finished, with the Guards 5 goals and the Highlanders a blank. The Guards are a fine team and are making good progress towards the brigade championship. The match between them and the Cadet boys should bring a large crowd to St. George's Field when it comes off.

Assaulted Chinamen.
Two fishermen from one of the foreign banks in port set upon three Chinamen last night and assaulted them. Head Constable Sparrow who came along at an opportune time arrested the fishermen who were drunk. The Chinamen told the officer that they had given no provocation to their assailants. One of the men was so badly wounded about the head that he had to be taken to Dr. Scully's surgery for treatment.

Handy in the house as a clock. Davis' Menthol Salve cures quickly a great many of the simple ailments such as cuts, skin injuries, insect bites and stings. 25c. a tin at druggists.

Brigade Fixtures.
The games to be played during the remainder of the season in the football fixtures of the Brigade Division were set down to their dates at a meeting of the Football League held last night. The last match in the League championship will take place this evening between the Feldians and Collegians. The fixtures are:

C.C.C. vs. M.G.B. . . . . Aug. 9
N.H. vs. C.C.C. . . . . Aug. 11

Insane Soldier Shoots Captain.
Victoria, B.C., Aug. 1.—A private soldier at Work Point Barracks this morning shot and killed Captain P. Elliston, of the Royal Canadian Artillery. The man, who is believed to be insane, escaped after the deed, and now the entire police force of the district, aided by soldiers, are scouring the bush in search of the murderer. The crime was not due to any ill-feeling, for the Captain was popular with all his men.

GEORGE KNOWLING.

Municipal Matters.

A PLEA FOR THE CHILDREN.

Dear Sir,—A friend of mine who is an analytical chemist and an artist in the production of new and startling stencils, assures me very gravely that the most abominable emanations of his laboratory are not only perfectly wholesome but really delectable. He specializes in sulphuretted hydrogen and has perfected a variant of that perfume which—grade experts—is calculated to raise hair on the head of Councilor Channing, and to endow Mayor Ellis with the most obfurgatory oratory. My analytical friend is so enamoured of his invention that he has even designed a bottle which will hold his compound for an indefinite period of time without permitting it to decompose or lose a tittle of its savour, and the dream of his life is to introduce this new bottle and its contents to the feminine world of fashion. His correspondence with Rimmel on this subject has hitherto been quite unproductive of results and, I gather, has been brought to a premature close. Having exhausted his vocabulary in the vain attempt to interest the great perfumer in the future of sulphuretted hydrogen as a toilet requisite, he determined to convince him by experiment and scented the paper on which his last letter was written with a single drop of his compound. This experiment failed to have the smallest effect upon Mr. Rimmel, but its effect upon the officials of the Post Office can be read in the letter of protest which the P. M. G. addressed to my ingenious friend. The truth is that my chemist has educated his nose, as some pious persons educate their consciences, to approve whatever is conducive to his own interest, and his belief in the sanitary merits of disgusting odours is now quite genuine. But the rest of the world remains still of the old opinion that what is disgusting to the senses of man cannot be really wholesome. Even my prejudiced friend, though, is not temerarious enough to urge that the exhalations from putrifying organic matter are wholesome. He does not manufacture that line of stencils. It is our Municipal Government which enjoys that evil monopoly. I propose to give a description of one of these municipal factories where the juvenile population of St. John's is poisoned with evil and pestiferous odours under the patronage of our city fathers. I shall not go into the slums for that purpose but content myself with walking some of our best known streets where some of our most important institutions have their site. As a beginning, let us take Colonial Street. I know, sir, that you still maintain an active interest in the well-being of Bishop Feild College, and you will be able to sympathize with—and, I hope, enforce—this plea for a betterment of the immediate surroundings of that seat of learning. The College is partly bounded on two of its four sides by cobble-stone drains which collect the offensive offal of the neighbourhood. This offal seeps into the crevices between the stones, corrupts there, breeds disease and infection during the period of moist weather and disseminates the foul germs with every breath of dry air which sweeps down the lane and around the corner. There are times when, as he passes by the front door of the College the boldest must hold his breath for a while. Yet it is the hard fate of the hundreds of children who seek their education here to breathe this fetid and infected atmosphere all the time they are at their books or at their play. Will any sane man contend that the College can do its best work under such conditions? Will any mother assert that her child is being given a fair chance to develop healthily either in body or brain while his head aches and his little stomach rebels against the putrid exhalations of these drains? In this College pupil teachers are taught the elements of Hygiene in the School and the information that no school should be erected in the neighbourhood of a chemical factory. Yet here is a factory daily and hourly, by night and day, manufacturing and diffusing amongst the young the seeds of corruption and disease. Can we expect these pupil teachers to enforce upon their pupils' doctrines which the city of St. John's so consistently violates in the immediate neighbourhood of an institution of learning? The thing is absurd. The long vacation is now on and the children of Bishop Feild College are at their homes. Is it too much to ask the Municipal Council to make this place decent before the school re-opens? The Council cannot plead ignorance of the state of affairs existing in the vicinity of Feild College for it has been brought to their notice by Mr. Wood. Let them make a small effort towards civic decency, then, and tear up these infamous cobble-stone drains and replace them by drains of concrete or of some other material

Whole City Shocked!

Masters Willie Lloyd and Herbert Martin Latest Victims of Drowning Accident.

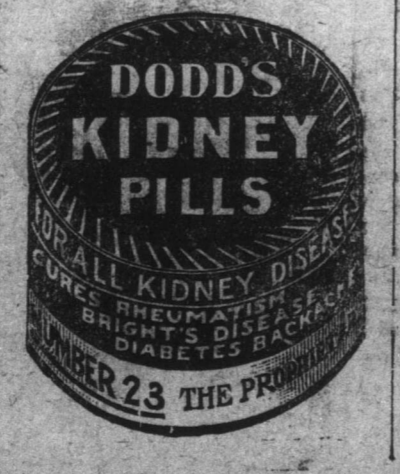

The whole city was shocked last evening to hear of another drowning accident at Quid Vidi Lake. At first the public could not believe it, but on enquiries having been made it was found to be only too true. Two fine bright and intelligent young boys, Master Willie Lloyd, son of Dr. Lloyd, Editor of this paper, and Master Herbert Martin, son of Mr. Albert Martin, are the victims, both boys being little over 14 years of age. They had gone out on the lake in a canoe, a frail craft of about 12 feet in length. They were pleasuring about with spoon paddles for a while and when about 60 yards from the shore when they were having some play with a toy piglet when the boat capsized and the boys were thrown into the water. Master Martin, who could swim, attempted to reach the boat but was unable to do so. He kept his companion up for about two minutes, and then the strain proving too much for him both boys went down. The alarm was given by people in the vicinity and soon six boats were on the scene and willing hands were eager to recover the bodies as quickly as possible. Fifteen minutes after the canoe capsized, the body of Willie Lloyd was brought to the surface by Cabman Newell. Some who were present thought that poor Willie's body showed signs of life and "first aid" work was tried with a view to resuscitation. About twenty-five minutes after the body of Master Herbert Martin was brought to the surface. Dr. Macpherson had arrived on the scene shortly before and on examining the body realized that there was no hope. Both bodies were then taken to the home of Mr. Albert Martin near by where the heartrending scene that followed is better left undescribed. Dr. Lloyd had taken the evening train to go to Bay Roberts to spend the week-end with his friend, Mr. Ar-

Death of Capt. Richard Kearney.

By the death of Capt. Richard Kearney, which occurred at his residence, Monkstown Road, yesterday, probably the Doyen amongst the masters of the mercantile marine has been removed from amongst us. For a period of over 60 years Capt. Kearney had followed the seafaring life and commanded some of the smartest and most well known ships out of various ports in this country. Notable amongst these was the barque Fleetwing of Harbor Grace, a well known vessel and a fast sailer. The Maria, owned by the firm of P. & L. Tessier, was another ship which the deceased mariner commanded for several years. In the early fifties he commanded the Arabella Tabet, built by his brother Michael for John Munn & Co., and made some of the quickest passages on record in this vessel. The Tabet, like the Rothsey and Naomi, was built by his famous brother at the foot of Victoria Street, Mr. Grace, and like the Ida in St. John's, which was built where the General Post Office in St. John's now stands, they were launched across the street over the bank and into the waters of the harbor. As we said, Capt. Kearney was noted for his quick passages, and his record of having made the run from Pernambuco to St. John's in 18 days has never been beaten, as far as we know. Like his brother he possessed very considerable medicinal skill and was an artist of no mean order. He possessed a fund of local and general information as well as marked descriptive powers. He leaves several children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Capt. Kearney was an upright and honest citizen. He was an exemplary Catholic, charitable and kindly in his disposition, and people of all denominations who knew and revered him will learn of his demise with regret.

I. O. G. T.

The quarterly meeting of the Juvenile Temple was held in the Odd-fellows Hall last evening, when the following officers were installed by the Supt., Mrs. A. Edgewood, assisted by Mrs. P. Andrews and Miss Emma Shaw as installing marshals:—
C. T. Ernest Hiscok; V. T. Katie Thistle; Sec. Beatrice Williams; Asst. Sec. John Bishop; Fin. Sec. Bertha Moore; Treas. Mr. Stirling; Chap. Elsie Garland; Mar. Effie English; Dep. Mar. Jessie Butler; Guard, Walter Thistle; Sentinel, Arthur Edgewood; Pianist, Minnie Oakley; P. O. T. Phil Escott; Supt. in Charge, Miss Annie Edgewood.
The annual picnic of the Juvenile Temple will take place at the Smithville on Monday, 29th August.

Rejoicing at St. Shott's

At St. Shotts on the 28th inst., a very happy and enjoyable day was spent, when the dear and honored Sister Agatha visited her home. She left here in the days of her childhood to reside with her two sisters at Killbride remaining but one year. She then joined the convent at St. John's, wearing the white veil for two years, the death of Bishop Mullock delaying her from being professed Nun, but by Father Howley who is now our Archbishop she was professed. She then went to Harbor Breton where she remained for seven years; but as her mother was living then, Father Hannebury, her Parish Priest at that time, gave her the privilege to come to Trepassy Convent, where she has been twenty-eight years. On Thursday she visited her home where a great reception was given her. A number of arches were erected in different shapes and neatly decorated, and bunting flying everywhere. Her arrival was announced by loud cheers and volleys of musketry which resounded throughout the little village. The little school girls which in procession assembled to welcome her looked very pretty; attired in white with bouquets of flowers; the boys also carried flags of various colours. We must add her visit will not be forgotten by their young hearts as she distributed amongst them all little gifts. She visited every house and was drawn in a carriage by the members; on entering each house loud cheers and gushes of affection greeted her.

Twitching of the Nerves

Wonderful cure brought about by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.
It is only by watching the symptoms of nervous exhaustion and applying restorative treatment that you can ever hope to ward off locomotor ataxia and paralysis.
Mrs. E. J. Vanderburgh, of Eastern Weyland Ave., St. Catharines, Ont., states:—"For twenty-one years I was badly afflicted with heart trouble, nervousness and cramps in the limbs, also twitching of the nerves and nervous headaches. I became weak, debilitated and emaciated. My condition was distressing and I was made worse through worry and loss of sleep.
"After having used half a dozen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food my old troubles had entirely vanished, and I was enjoying better health than I had since girlhood."
Such cases as this prove the wonderful efficiency of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. If cured in Nature's way by enriching the blood and for this reason it has been brought to their notice by Mr. Wood. Let them make a small effort towards civic decency, then, and tear up these infamous cobble-stone drains and replace them by drains of concrete or of some other material

Appear as Witnesses.

Mr. M. Duffy, grocer of Cabot St., who was a passenger on the Borau a couple of trips ago when she had a collision with a barge coming out of New York, will shortly proceed to that city and appear as a witness in an action pending against the ship. One of the crew of the barge was drowned as a result of the collision, and only Mr. Duffy and Miss Keen, also of St. John's with a couple of other passengers were on deck when the accident occurred. Mr. Duffy and Miss Keen will soon leave here for New York to give their evidence.

Cabbage seeds for the August sowing. We have all the reliable kinds.

Portia's Fishery News.

From Captain Fitzpatrick, of the Portia, we learn that the lobster fishery west of Bonne Bay is finished and all the fishermen are taking in their gear. The fishery is somewhat better than last year. There are no arrivals from Bonne Bay or Bay of Islands from the Straits fishery, and no encouraging reports. From Cape Ray to St. John's the trap season is over and all the traps are in. The trap fishery has been a bad one on this stretch of coast, but the hook and line voyage will be an average one.

New Racer Projected.

As it had been fully demonstrated that neither the Peter, Lion or Pink 'Un are anything like a match for the Guard, new boats to take their places are projected. We have it from Mr. James McGrath, President of the Labourers Union, that the Union will put a new boat on the lake, while a prominent business man also projects the getting of a new race boat. Four young men who have some capital also intend investing in a new boat. It has been stated that the Guard is the last boat which Mr. Sexton will build, and certainly she is his masterpiece. If he does not build the boats projected, orders will be placed for them in Halifax. If these racers materialize there will be a most interesting regatta next year.

Water Wanted.

The residents of Pennywell Road would be grateful to the City Council if they would kindly extend the water pipes along that thoroughfare. Within the past few years 22 new houses have been built there, and the development would go on there much more rapidly if the people had the water service.

His Grace Archbishop Howley, accompanied by Rev. Fr. St. John and Fr. Greene, is expected here by the s.s. Siberian next Sunday.
