G.T.R. WILL CATER NOW
BY RE-ARRANGED TRAIN SERVICE TO NEEDS OF ONTARIO

New Flyer to Be Known as "Ontario Limited" to Relieve "International" on Run to London.
LATE TRAIN FOR THE WEST
BETTER SERVICE TO NORTH

The subjoined announcement of improved and additional train service by the G.T.R. out of Toronto responds to a very general discontent that recently found expression in a series of articles in The World.

In so far as it indicates some appreciation of the demands of the traveling public of Ontario, The World congratulates the company upon a step in the right direction, and trusts that it may be the forerunner of efficient and responsible management of the Ontario railway system from the standpoint of Ontario, and a management that will have supreme authority and that can deal with the traffic of Ontario without reference to Montreal.

It is to be regretted that the new arrangement does not provide for any early trains out of Toronto, nor there any late train service from Hamilton to Toronto. The business man going from Toronto, say to Windsor, will now as formerly arrive at his destination after business hours, and the quick run back and forth from Toronto to many important towns much nearer than Windsor is still not provided.

It is to be hoped that the thru service may also be improved so that passengers may get from Toronto to Montreal and from Toronto to Detroit by trains leaving here, say at 4 a.m. A service like this, with in many cases, save 24 hours to the business man, and it will enormously increase the efficiency of the postal service all along the main line, and the G.T.R. The charges indicated in the announcement that follows, show what can be accomplished by a vigorous protest. It was a protest, coming from the business men and the traveling public generally, could only find expression thru The World.

Official Statement.
When the summer timetable of the Grand Trunk Railway system is adopted on June 16, 1907, improvements will be made in the passenger train service of great importance to travelers in Ontario. It is just seven years since the Grand Trunk Railway introduced the International Limited service, which, for its high standard of excellence, has gained a reputation throughout America. This limited train, as its name indicates, was specially designed to handle long distance international traffic, but at its inception until the business developed it was intended to handle local passengers between the principal points only at which the train stops.

It has now become necessary to operate an additional high-class train for local passengers in the district between Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford, Paris, Woodstock, Ingersoll and London. This new train will relieve the International Limited, which, continuing on June 16 next, will not handle passengers traveling short distances—for example, Toronto to Hamilton, Hamilton to Brantford, Brantford to Woodstock, etc.—and will continue to handle passengers from Toronto to points beyond London; also passengers from points east of Toronto and north of Toronto, including Toronto to Hamilton, Brantford, London, etc.

The Ontario Limited.
The new train, which will leave Toronto at 4:15 p.m., stopping only at principal stations, and arriving at London 7:45 p.m. daily, will be known as the Ontario Limited, and will handle passengers who have heretofore used the International Limited locally from Toronto to Hamilton, Hamilton to London, etc. There will also be a new eastbound train, known as the Ontario Limited, which will leave London at 9:00 a.m., stopping at principal stations and arriving at Toronto via Hamilton at 12:15 p.m. daily. With the double track line of the Grand Trunk between Toronto, Hamilton and London, these three leading cities in Ontario, as well as other smaller but progressive cities like Brantford and Woodstock, will be in a first-class manner.

The line between Toronto, Brantford, Guelph, Berlin, Stratford, etc., is, however, to be overlooked. A new train will leave Toronto for Port Huron, via Stratford and London, at 11:00 p.m. daily. This will be an accommodation to the residents along that line who desire to spend the evening in Toronto. At present the last train leaves Toronto for the towns in question at 7:00 p.m.

Western Accommodation.
A new train will leave Port Huron at 9:40 a.m., Stratford 1:35 p.m., and arrive Toronto 4:55 p.m. daily. This train will connect Toronto with trains for Belleville, Lindsay, Peterboro, Barrie, Orillia, etc., and will undoubtedly be of great benefit to present, while five passenger trains are operated eastward from Stratford to Toronto, it has not been possible to have to be made with branch lines, to provide a train from Stratford between 1:45 in the morning and 4:30 in the afternoon.

The new train leaving Stratford after lunch and arriving at Toronto at 10:00 p.m. daily, will be an accommodation to the residents along that line who desire to spend the evening in Toronto. At present the last train leaves Toronto for the towns in question at 7:00 p.m.

AUTO DASHES INTO TEAM ONE KILLED, ONE INJURED

Harry Hamlin, Well-known Buffalo Man, Victim—Wreckage Carried 200 Feet.

BUFFALO, June 3.—Harry Hamlin, one of Buffalo's best known and wealthiest citizens, was killed in an automobile accident on the Williamsville road, a mile north of the city line late this afternoon. Mr. Hamlin's automobile collided with a light wagon driven by Jacob Schaller, a retired butcher of Buffalo. Hamlin was hurled to the roadside and instantly killed. Schaller was badly hurt, but will recover. John Neokel, a 12-year-old boy, who was in Schaller's rig, was fatally injured. Both his legs were broken, and his skull fractured.

In the automobile with Mr. Hamlin were Anthony Gavin, a member of the Buffalo police force, and two of Hamlin's employees, one of them acting as chauffeur. Opposite the automobile was another automobile, which was also in the line of traffic. The two automobiles going in the same direction passed the Hamlin party. The road was covered with a heavy coating of dust, and the rapidly-moving machines left a dense cloud of dust in their trail.

Schaller and the boy were driving toward Buffalo, and the boy was driving toward Williamsville. The first two machines passed them well to the right, and Schaller was peering ahead thru the dust cloud when Hamlin's machine flashed directly in front of him. There was no time to turn out. The automobile struck the horse, tearing off its front legs and wheeling the wreckage of the wagon 200 feet down the road. Schaller was tossed to one side, but the boy was jammed into the wreckage of the rig and died from the front of the automobile.

The front wheel of the automobile came off, tilting the machine to the left. Mr. Hamlin, who was on the front seat with the chauffeur, was thrown over the ditch and on to the trolley tracks, which parallel the roadway. He landed head-on on the rails. His neck was broken. The chauffeur and Gavin escaped, with slight injuries.

Mr. Hamlin was 50 years old and lived at 1014 Delaware-avenue. He was a son of the late Cicero J. Hamlin, famous as a breeder of trotting horses. He is survived by a widow and one son, Chauncey J. Hamlin, who is an attorney.

SAME AS A CIRCUS.
Pastor Places Amateur Theatrical on Same Footing.

MONCTON, N.B., June 3.—(Special.)—Rev. H. E. Thomas, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Church in this city, shocked the members of his congregation Sunday night, when he denounced the amateur dramatic performances to be presented in the opera house next Wednesday and Thursday by a large number of young people, most of whom belong to the best families here.

The performance is the "Mikado," and is under the supervision of Prof. Perry, organist of the Methodist Church, assisted by some prominent members of the leading churches here. It is in aid of the Firemen's Relief Association, and such affairs always receive generous support of the people of Moncton. Mr. Thomas, in a vigorous sermon assailed performances in general, claiming their influence was degrading and harmful. Not even an amateur performance should be countenanced by professing Christians, and it was time these things were stopped. A circus is also to be seen in Moncton this week.

HOUSE ROBBED

An Apparent Case of Murder Near South Mountain—James Lashway Found Dead.

CORNWALL, June 3.—(Special.)—The authorities here think they are on the track of a murderer supposed to have committed some time Saturday night or Sunday morning. The victim is a man by the name of James Lashway, a well-to-do farmer of Mountain Township, who was found dead in his home last night with a bullet wound in his brain.

It was at first thought that it was a case of suicide, but further investigation revealed a few details which set the authorities thinking. Lashway was found in his house Sunday night by a woman who did housework for him since his separation from his wife. He was lying on the floor and had a revolver in his left hand, but from the fact that the deceased was righthanded it seems doubtful if he would have fired the fatal shot with his left hand. Furthermore the position of the wound does not seem to indicate that it was self-inflicted.

The theory that it was the work of burglars has also certain ground for belief. The door of the house appears to have been forced open and the whole place ransacked. Trunks were broken into, and their contents scattered about in all directions, and Lashway's watch and money are missing.

There has of late been considerable work done thru the country by desperadoes, and it is not thought improbable that one of the gangs is responsible for the death of Lashway. Deceased had visited his brother on Saturday and Sunday, that he would return on Sunday. He was 50 years of age.

An inquest has been opened by the coroner, and the investigation will be continued on Friday. County Attorney Dignall of Cornwall has been requested to attend the inquest.

MOUNTED POLICE PATROL IN FRONT OF LAND OFFICE

Home-seekers Have Strenuous Time in West—Widow Succeeds in Passing by Men.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., June 3.—(Special.)—The scene at this office this morning was disgraced by a mounted constable of the mounted police rode up and down thru the crowd in front of the steps endangering the lives and limbs of those who were only following out the government instructions and seeking to be first at the counter when the doors were opened. When the doors were opened some of those who had sat on the steps since Saturday got in. About 8 o'clock a raid was made on the third top-step and the mounted police rushed in. Some were forced thru the door into the building from which they were promptly fired.

At 9 o'clock two mounted police and two police constables raided the crowd at the doors and made a road for Mr. Cook and Commissioner McDougall. The latter has charge of the distribution of the Dominion lands. A mounted policeman then rode his horse thru the crowd, but as they dispersed before the horse they fell in behind again. Both Mr. Cook and Mr. McDougall appealed to the crowd to get in the five who were ousted from the top steps, but the crowd would not listen to it.

Just at this juncture a wagon was given up close to the curb, and the spectators on the outside rushed in and tipped the wagon over on the crowd in front of the steps. Fortunately nobody was hurt. The doors were finally thrown open at 9:20 and ten men got thru. John F. Webster, Saskatchewan, Chester Ewing, William Hicks were the first three and filed in that order named. The two ladies were not in evidence this morning. Two of the men promised to marry them if they should get the homesteads the women were after. This satisfied the two widows and they went away.

Lady is Persistent.
YORKTON, Sask., June 3.—(Special.)—Promptly at 9 o'clock this morning the doors of the land office were thrown open and a waiting crowd struggled to keep in position according to priority. Mrs. Jessie Harper of Westbourne, another aged widow, is the heroine of the land rush. She is 70 years of age and she stood at the side of the door to that official recognition as she having undoubted priority.

Mrs. Harper flung herself against the stream of men passing the door trying to work into a position. She tried again and again, but the men seeking for homes for their families are not sentimental, and she was unable to jostle any one who would give her preference. She kept it up, however, and at last she found a man with a soft heart, who allowed her to proceed him. The crowd cheered when the old lady triumphantly passed the door to obtain a free farm. She has a crippled son and one daughter.

N.W.M.P. BACK C.P.R. IN CLASH WITH TOWN

Riot Act Read and Several Railway Officials Placed Under Arrest in Conflict Over a Railway Crossing at Olds, Alberta.

CALGARY, Alta., June 3.—(Special.)—A general mix-up between the North-West Mounted Police, the authorities of the Town of Olds, and the C.P.R. officials, was to-day the result of the railway officials trying to close up a crossing in the town, backed up by a posse of police.

The first conflict took place between the town officials and the police, who were guarding the men at work on the railway crossing. The C.P.R. had threatened to block up the crossing before, but had always met with severe opposition on the part of the citizens and the authorities at Olds.

This time, however, the company had determined to carry their decision to a successful issue, and obtained the assistance of a squad of Mounted Police to guard their workmen.

The precaution was not unwisely taken. For the men had done but little work when the trouble started. Both sides were determined to carry their point, the town to have the crossing left open, and the C.P.R. to close it, and the police had been detailed to protect the C.P.R. workmen, and were placed in the awkward position of taking the defence of a corporation against the authorities of a town.

There was a conflict, and the Riot Act was read. Arrests were made on both sides on warrants signed by the mayor of the town, and among those placed under arrest were several C.P.R. officials, and warrants were issued for Police Inspector Duffin and C.P.R. Superintendent Niblock.

The Mounted Police are patrolling the streets to-night.

AUTO HELD UP BY MASKED MEN

John H. and Fred Richardson Robbed on Kingston Road Late Last Night.

What looked like a well-planned hold-up took place just east of the Hunt Club premises on the Kingston-road last night at 9:30 o'clock. John H. Richardson and his son, Fred, who is connected with Scarborough Beach Park, were going to their home at Highland Creek in an automobile, when they noticed two men with a lantern in the roadway.

The Richardsons stopped the auto to see what was the matter, when the men, who were masked, drew revolvers and demanded their money.

One of the men held them at the revolver point while his companion went thru their pockets and searched the automobile.

Everything of value was taken, and the stripped autoists proceeded to the Halfway House, where they notified the city police by phone. These communications with County Constable John T. Brown, who hurried to the scene, arriving there three-quarters of an hour after the robbery. He believes that he knows the perpetrators of the deed. Constable Burns was also engaged on the case.

THE WOMEN'S HOME MAGAZINE FOR WOMEN READERS

Wearing of Caps a Fad Now.

The newest adjunct of the pretty girl is the cap! Caps of all kinds are being added to her possessions. Caps for beauty, caps for utility, caps for fashion, caps, caps! The London society woman, with the prettily trimmed cap is an every-day morning sight. It is worn pulled right down to the eyebrows, and here, becoming little frill, a sort of antique ruff all round the face.

Caps are worn for just prettiness. The widow's so-called "cap" is notoriously becoming, but not more so than the pretty girl's cap donned because it is so pretty.

Under the head of pretty caps comes the sunbonnet. This is a very nice little article made of thin muslin with a crisp lawn fall around the face. It is fitted to the crown of the head and the frill is so arranged that it acts as a frame to the face. The countenance is set off in a most charming manner by this admirable little frill.

The girl who goes to the seashore wears a sunbonnet and makes her look pretty at the same time, while the girl who goes to the country wears one for much the same reason. But the country sunbonnet is different! It is for protection. The pretty girl who is making up her quota of caps must make for herself one really country sunbonnet. It should be made of gingham and it should be cut with a deep hood, stiffened to fit the head loosely. Around the face is a tiny little frill of gingham. This sunbonnet is washable. It is a practical bonnet and it is pretty at the same time.

The cooling sunbonnet made its appearance in Central Park, N.Y., one warm day of summer and a rather pretty thing it was. It looked more like a lingerie hat than a sunbonnet, but its pattern was that of a sunbonnet proper. It was made of lawn and lace and was turned up at the sides with some handsome perky bows of ribbon catching it on the crown. It was one of those new little things which one can let the summer girl wear if she wants to do so.

Even at breakfast. The girl who aims to be the prettiest in her set will have some breakfast caps. These are made in a quaintly old-fashioned way, resembling the caps that graces which are not tied, but are allowed to hang down beneath at each side of the face. The morning cap is an absolute necessity for the woman who wants to look her best during the day. It is fitted with a tiny little frill of gingham. After breakfast the cap is taken off, bringing its little waves and curls, its tufts, its curls and its curls. The hair is dressed for the day. There are all kinds of caps. One woman has a cap box containing less than twenty. Each cap is different and the province of one does not encroach upon the province of another. The caps for afternoon are very numerous and they are filled with sentiment. The rose colored silk cap is filled with sweetly scented rose leaves, and it is worn spiked to the head and trimmed.

some very lovely wild flower accents in it, and the cap that is a pale yellow is filled with yellow roses, full of scent. Each cap has its mystery; and you must guess the perfume, and are filled with admiration of the idea. The cap fad is such a very feminine one; it is a fad that is so easily understood.

The scented caps are to be worn after the shampoo. The pretty owner of the cap has her hair washed and partly dried in the sun. Then the scented cap is put on and the sun is allowed to bring out the scents and make them permeate the hair. It is one of the best-known ways of making the hair fragrant.

Box to keep them in. The woman with a box of caps is fortunate. The box cap has taken its place in most homes along with the shoe box, the shirt box and the hat box. Like the latter, it is a small trunk; and into its trunklike recesses go as many caps as the owner can pack. The box is stuffed with tissue paper to make it keep its shape and each has its own little box. There is nothing haphazard about the cap box. Under the head of usefulness comes the cap which is intended to protect the eyes. It is worn by the woman who does her work by day and who reads late at night. It is a cap with a face frill, and the frill can be bent this way or that, so as to shield the eyes from the light by electric light apparatus. This cap, as does the woman whose only window is a sunny one, admitting of a wide glare of light.

There are caps that are built both for protecting the eyes and for setting off the skin. There is a woman whose color is a faint, pure rose, and this woman invariably, when occasion will permit, wears a tiny little cap of rose pink silk, with a little rose frilling around the face.

There is a sun bonnet for bleaching the hair. It consists of only a tuft of white ribbon, or a 2-3 yard 36 inch wide, or 2-1 1/2 yards 42 inches wide, or 1 1/2 yards of beading, 1-1 1/2 yards of wide ribbon and 3 yards of narrow ribbon to trim. Price of pattern, 10 cents.

WILL ASK CONCESSIONS IN RETURN FOR GRANTS

Request of Hospitals Will Be Accorded to Only on Conditions—Fishpond for Island.

The condition that the city be represented on the boards of trustees of St. Michael's, Grace and Western Hospitals will probably be imposed in consideration of any large grants from the city officers being made to these institutions.

The board of control yesterday afternoon considered the request of the hospitals, that each be granted $50,000, and, incidentally, the application of the Girls' Home trust, for a contribution towards new building for school purposes, and of the Home for Incurables for greater support were given attention.

The mayor remarked that the hospitals hadn't shown as yet in detail their plans for extensions, and suggested that Dr. Sheard and a representative from each hospital, be asked to attend a conference. This proposal was adopted, and Controller Harrison's view, that the city should insist on representation on the boards in the event of the giving of large grants, was approved. As to whether the hospitals intended to provide for measles patients, and the mayor declared himself opposed to making any grant whatsoever to any hospital that wasn't prepared to provide for the sick in a broad sense.

SAYS THAT THE WOMEN ARE HIS BEST WARRIORS

Leader of Revolutionary Army in Finland Pays Tribute to Amazons.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Capt. J. Kook, leader of the famous Finnish Red Guard, the revolutionary militia of Finland, also searched for by the secret police of Russia over all Europe, has arrived safely and is staying with friends on the east side.

There is a price of many thousand rubles on his head, but Capt. Kook declares that he will continue his work for the liberation of Finland, and that uprisings greater and more terrible than those of the past will confront the Russian government.

The Finnish Red Guard consists of 10,000 men and 6000 women, all armed with the latest model Mauser rifles, well drilled and capable of being mobilized at a moment's notice.

In an interview Capt. Kook said: "The best soldiers in my army were the women. I had a division of women led by women officers, and they did splendid service and were sometimes braver than the men. I rejoice to think of my women troops. They were the best shots and runners."

"The women soldiers in the Red Guard were the working women, domestic servants and peasant girls."

To Help Nurses' Club.

The Toronto Nurses' Club are taking a novel manner to obtain revenue for the building fund, and one which should receive the public support. They have engaged the Grand Opera House for the week of June 10 and will provide a first-class entertainment, that of Professor Crocker's educated troupe of horses, ponies, donkeys and mules, moved the mayor to remark that the organization was doing much toward encouraging interest in the beautification of the city. He thought, however, that the city should receive the draughtsman's report before taking action.

The Parkdale Canoe Club may not succeed in obtaining possession of the property with a 50 foot frontage on the lake shore at Sunnyside, west of the I. N. Devins property. Another small organization has offered a rent of $30 a month, whereas the terms of the lease the Canoe Club claims to have obtained, provide for the payment of only $12 monthly. Mr. Forman told the board that the lease wasn't valid, and the matter will be investigated.

Fish Pond for Island.

If the island cannot be transferred into an anglers' paradise, something at least can be done by the city to develop its attractions for the individual whose recreation is the rod and reel. So Controller Hocken thinks, and his plan as evolved he laid before the island committee yesterday afternoon.

The controller would have a fish-pond created by deepening and extending the so-called "scavenger" pond south of Long Pond, and having it stocked with small-mouthed bass and other game fish. His idea is not that of establishing a preserve, but of allowing the general public to have free access.

The committee viewed the project favorably, and will have the city engineer and park commissioner report on the cost.

The application of the Aragonaut Rowing Club for lease of a lot 50 feet by 60 feet, to be made by filling in a marshy area on Mustang Landing, east of the city, was given consideration somewhat of a snag, the committee only showing a willingness to concede the lease of a 50 x 600 lot for $15 per year.

For Longboat's Education. The mayor yesterday received a cheque for $15 from Principal Hagarty of Harbor Collegiate, being a contribution by pupils toward the purchase of a new boat for the school.

The water pressure in the vicinity of Leuty-avenue is very weak, and residents say that during the last few days the situation has at times been completely cut off. The city engineer thinks that the installation of a new 6-inch main on East Queen-street, as recommended by him, will materially relieve the situation.

ASK FOR RESTRICTION OF SALE OF CARBOLIC

Undiluted Acid Too Dangerous and Pharmacists Suggest New Act.

President E. W. Case of Picton was in the chair yesterday at the opening session of the semi-annual meeting of the council of the Ontario College of Pharmacy.

A considerable time was taken up with a discussion respecting the sale of undiluted carbolic acid to the general public. R. A. Harrison of Dunnville moved that they should ask the legislature for a bill restricting the sale of the acid to a five per cent. solution. He cited a number of cases where death had resulted from the ignorant use of the pure drug. Occasionally even infants had lost their lives from its external application.

The government had left the matter in the hands of the druggists and they were responsible for the proper regulation of the acid which was becoming constantly more common. In St. Paul, Minn., New York and Buffalo there were only one per cent. solution could be obtained by the public fatalities had practically ceased.

It was suggested that it was impossible to make a five per cent. solution in water, but Mr. Harrison replied that a stable solution could be obtained by the addition of a quantity of glycerine.

The question was referred to the committee on bylaws and legislation. On 22 Gibbard of Toronto moved that a central executive for the Dominion should be formed, with a view to bringing about reciprocity in dispensing.

diplomats, etc., between the various provinces. This suggestion was referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Hargreaves, Waters and the mover, which will consider the advisability of such a move. It is intended to meet representatives from other provincial organizations. It is expected that a new executive should be named the Dominion Pharmaceutical Council.

President Case delivered a brief address, and E. R. Wigle of Weston, a new member.

Council for Woodbine Liquor Defendants Makes Admission.

The Woodbine liquor selling case was again before Police Magistrate Denison yesterday, Arthur Bryant and George Beddingfield being the defendants for this of little light-fitting matter.

Chief Inspector Purvis claimed that Bryant and Beddingfield were not servants or representatives of the holder of the license. He alleged that $3000 had been given the Ontario Jockey Club for the privilege of selling at the track, and that for the Woodbine Hotel privilege the defendants had paid $1200.

Adam Ballantyne, counsel for defendant, said that the bar at the Woodbine Hotel had been closed and transferred for the time to the track. This had been the practice for twenty years.

WOULD-BE SLAYERS OF ALFONSO ARE ON TRIAL

State Wants Severe Punishment Given—State Documentary Evidence Strong.

MADRID, June 3.—The trial of Senor Ferrer, director of the modern school of Barcelona, Don Jose Nakens, editor of El Motin, and others, charged with complicity in the attempt to assassinate King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, May 31, 1906, began to-day.

The state demands that Ferrer be sentenced to 16 years' imprisonment, and the others to 10 years.

Ferrer declared he did not know Morales, the man who actually threw the bomb, was an anarchist, and said he himself was not an anarchist, his ideal being to perfect society by means of education.

CLAIMS BRITISH CAPTAIN PROTECTED A DESERTER

U. S. Colonel Wants the Fugitive Arrested and the Captain Punished.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Col. Henry A. Greene of the 10th United States Infantry, commanding at Fort William H. Seward, Alaska, has appealed to the war department to cause the arrest and return of a deserter, and, incidentally, to punish the captain of a British ship who perhaps created an international issue.

According to Col. Greene, Sergeant Buell, a member of the post band, deserted from the city, and made his way on board the British steamer Princess Mary. When the ship touched at Ketchikan, Alaska, May 25, the British authorities, under instructions from the military authorities, sought to arrest Buell. The latter locked himself in his cabin and beat down the ship refused to allow him to be forcibly arrested, and sailed away to a Canadian port, where the deserter landed and disappeared.

Col. Greene asks the department to have the state department make a demand on the British government for the return of the deserter to Fort Seward and for the punishment of the captain.

They were also informed that there would be no change in respect to the annual grant of $800 for the purchase of pictures painted by Ontario artists.

PRUSSIAN STATE RAILWAYS.

Last year the net surplus on the working of the Prussian State Railroad System was 15.5 per cent. of the total amount of capital invested, being an increase of 35 per cent. over the return of the preceding year. Although the Statist of London, Eng., the railroads were primarily purchased by the government for the promotion of trade, the investment has proved exceedingly profitable, and not only has it shown increasing profits year by year.

Unlike the system that prevails under private ownership and operation, the profits from the Prussian railroads are spent in betterments and extensions and in increasing the locomotives and rolling stock generally. Notwithstanding the large additions the trade of Germany is growing still more rapidly, and at the New Year orders were given for rolling stock sufficient to keep the shops fully employed for the whole of the current year.

According to The Statist, no discrimination exists in Prussia between individuals or industries, nor is there any attempt to give foreign traffic an advantage over the home producer. On the contrary, special measures are taken to assist German trade when it competes with foreign imports. For example, with the object of favoring the export trade of Germany, export tariffs are created, as a rule, in connection with a special German port. On the basis of this tariff goods designated for a foreign port are carried at a very low rate to the German port designated. Similarly, the raw materials of manufacture imported from abroad are carried from the port of landing over the Prussian railroads at specially low rates. Thus, continues The Statist, while every effort is made to prevent the giving of preferential tariffs either to individual Germans or to special German trades to the disadvantage of other Germans, there is an avowed preference given to German importers and German exporters to enable them to compete successfully with foreigners.

Contrast this policy under state ownership with the policy pursued by the railroad corporations of this continent. The record of American railroads is the rounding in cases of the grossest discrimination, of scandalous rebating, of improper alliances made with industrial and trading combinations, such as the Standard Oil Company, for the destruction of business rivals and the creation of dangerous monopolies. This, too, without mention of indefensible stock manipulation and all the other evils exposed by the federal and state commissions of the United States. Nor is Canada left its measure exempt from the unfair practices inseparably associated with private ownership.

The method of administering the Prussian state railroads is worthy of note. The Prussian minister of public works is charged with the management of the railroads, and with one exception has always been a railroad man. He has under him an assistant and five main departments—administrative, financial, traffic, construction and technical. The whole railway system, extending to 22,500 miles, is divided into districts so arranged that the president of each can personally supervise his district down to the minutest detail. Each district has a manager assisted by a board for the actual working of the traffic, and along with the board there is a district council, composed partly of railroad officials and partly of representative traders. The traders and officials have an equal voice in the council, which is purely advisory. Thus the higher railway officials are kept closely in touch with the requirements of business, and the boards are also in constant communication with the chambers of commerce and agriculture.

A uniform tariff now exists, and if changes are required the co-operation of general councils and fiscal tariff commissions, in which both railroad officials and representatives of industry and agriculture have seats, is necessary. These councils and commissions are not Prussian, but German, and their resolutions come ultimately before the general council for acceptance or rejection. The whole object of these arrangements is to ensure that the views of the different classes of industry are made fully known, and it is not surprising that in Germany discrimination between home traders and industries is unknown, and that the state railroad system has become a powerful asset in the development of German industry and commerce.

MESSAGE FROM MASSACHUSETTS. E. W. Thompson, who is equally at home as an observer of politics in Canada and in the United States, contributes to The World an interesting account of H. M. Whitney's campaign for governor of Massachusetts.

Mr. Whitney has been prominent for many years as an advocate of Canadian reciprocity. He now couples this platform with a bolder project which embraces closer commercial union between Great Britain, Canada and the United States.

It is difficult to see how any foreign nation can expect preferential treatment from Great Britain, when her present government professes itself as entirely unable to grant any such preference to her own dominions beyond the seas.

As to reciprocity between Canada and the United States, the popular sentiment in this country is no doubt correctly expressed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statement that "there will be no more pilgrimages to Washington." Canada is firmly wedded to the policy of protection, and any future legislation is more likely to run toward export duties upon raw material and an increase in the duties laid upon imports from the United States.

It is doubtful if there is any strong demand for reciprocity among our neighbors. They incline to "stand pat." But after Mr. Whitney has converted them, he may find it necessary to convert us. Neighborly feeling between the two countries is to be encouraged. Indeed a certain anti-American feeling, cultivated in some quarters in Canada, is no less to be deprecated than the tall twisting long so popular among certain politicians in the United States.

But protection for Canadian industries will be no less insisted upon by us than has protection for American industries been insisted upon by the people of the United States. Certainly their example and their success combine to encourage our following in their footsteps.

Just now the Canadian market is good enough for Canada; and it is so good that we propose to keep it.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

Doctor's said Female Trouble.

Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Complaint, and until two months ago doctor's said I was suffering from Female Trouble. Last November (1905), I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney troubles. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat resembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so changed, and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Mr. Johnson's drug store, who told him to tell me he thought the pills were drawing something out of the blood, and to keep on taking them. I did so and after taking them a week, the swelling disappeared, leaving me with a complexion free from pimples, tired, weary feeling gone, constipation from which I suffered for years, gone, pain in the back, gone, and a general feeling of joy and light heartedness. I have not felt since a child, took place in me.

RECIPROcity IN THE AIR ISSUE IN MASSACHUSETTS

Close Commercial Union Between Great Britain, Canada and the United States Now Advocated.

BOSTON, Mass., June 2.—(Special.)—Canadians, without distinction of party, are probably pleased by the much attention and admiration with which the people of Great Britain have of late manifested the progress of Dominion in wealth, population, enterprise and national spirit. Also Canadians are aware of the ever increasing regard their country. But, perhaps, few of them know that the eastern states have long been a sign of the land, has come to entertain much the same sentiments toward the great people northward. The change during the past several years is simply amazing to one who, before the beginning of that period, had lived for eleven years here.

Coming back for a prolonged visit after residing for years in Ottawa, I have been giving close attention to Massachusetts politics, and the progress toward a union between the two countries. The gubernatorial election of next November will turn on the question of "What attitude should be assumed toward the true interests of Canadian electors in Massachusetts?" Moreover, the action of Canadian electors in Massachusetts will strongly affect the result.

They naturally incline toward their native country the same sort of interest and affection which all sound-hearted Britons or Americans may feel in the States, retain for their natal country. Hence they, whether English-speaking or French-speaking, inevitably incline to support the candidate of Mr. H. M. Whitney. He seems secure of the Democratic nomination.

It is believed that before the end of the year the fire and light companies will reduce the present scale of five grades to four, allowing a fireman to rise to first year, instead of $450, from which is deducted five per cent. for the benefit fund.

Another "first year" man on the fire department has decided that $17 a fortnight isn't enough to repay a husky young fellow of ordinary ability for six solid days and nights in a week, with the chance of getting killed or injured as a part of the job.

This makes some half a dozen who have quit the department after a short service. The last one handed in his clubbing yesterday after two months. He goes back to his trade at $225 for an eight-hour day.

Even a limited enquiry into the operation of the government postoffice savings bank system, shows that officials look upon the service more as one rendered to cater to a public convenience, rather than as a real progressive savings bank system. Wall Street Stocks Continue Under Heavy Pressure—Toronto Market is Stagnant.

World Office, Monday, June 3.

The Toronto market was particularly stagnant to-day. There was positively no incentive to trade on the long side, and the substantial Wall Street issues continuing to decline with all the ease possible. Brokers and clients were equally listless at the outlook, and the only bearing feature which could be pointed out was the unusual money tightness. The undertone to the market was weak. Liquidation was small, and only that could be attributed to the steadiness which the market presented.

The Mackay stocks developed the principal activity to-day. Realizing was not liked in this issue, but the large holders are thought to be under compulsion in maintaining a steadiness in these issues where possible.

The outstanding local long speculative interest in the Mackays known to be much in excess of that in any other stock, and traders are paying for a break below 40.

Many of the local listed issues were without bids to-day, which partially accounted for the small liquidation. Sentiment at the close was thoroughly disturbed, brokers being as much astir regarding the future of their clients. The future of prices is very largely dependent on the volume of outside selling. Speculative holders are becoming exceedingly nervous, and much more outside selling than buying is now evidently in effect in the market.

Waldorf stock gossip to R. B. Bonard:

As a rule June brings a respite from crop killers. By that time winter wheat results are pretty well known. If spring wheat is late, there is the possibility of its making up lost ground; the same of cotton. Corn does not enter the critical period till July, when drought or hot winds are to be feared.

People lay some stress on this July, as containing better things in the next three weeks or so in the stock market. Of course the government crop report, due on the 10th is likely to make some difference in the market, but it is to be borne in mind, however, that this is one of the seasons in which the market is so severely. Also, it is pointed out that crop damage of itself would never have caused such a situation as this, if it had not been recorded this year. It is, therefore, permissible to believe that the change of sentiment regarding one of the principal causes of depression, namely, the policy of President Roosevelt, which concerns the reform of railway management has caused in financial circles such serious apprehension. Yet it may be taken as a sign of reversal of feeling that it was the head of one of the most influential of the exchange houses who tonight declared that, in his opinion, the reforms for which the whole world is so anxious, will greatly to the value and stability of our stock securities. "Wall-street," said this man, "is the chief cause of our present trouble, and, after all, it is a small price, if you don't think so, go out west, or thru the mountains, and see what a magnificent land of wealth outside of New York.

You will see that the metropolitan area is the whole thing. Now, there is no doubt that there is getting in the railroad. Will it stop the selling here? It will not.
