GEO. ROBERTSON, M.P.P. SUES CUSHING SUPHITE FIBRE CO. He Claims £3,500 Commission for Selling $34,000 Worth of Cushing Company's Stock to Capt. Partington in England, in 1898--Case Now On In Supreme Court.

The supreme court case of George Robertson against the Cushing Sulphite Fibre Company, (now in liquidation), to recover the amount of $3,500 as commission for disposing of shares of the defendant company's stock to the amount of £34,000 to Captain Partington, of England, in 1898, was begun before Mr. Justice McLeod yesterday afternoon and was continued the morning, when after hearing evidence court was adjourned till 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

THREE ST. JOHN TEAMS PLAY AWAY FROM HOME And One Visiting Team Plays Here--Something Doing in Gridiron Sport Saturday.

Four St. John teams will play outside town on Saturday and all are in fine fettle they should carry away some honours at least. The champion Marstonians will play Moncton at the railway town, the Algonquians are to play U. N. B. at Fredericton, Currie Business University play at St. John, and the Victoria, tackle an intermediate team from Moncton, on the Shamrock grounds. All four teams intend to take away a good deal of money, but it is not yet clear whether the Greys will find in the "Hub" bunch a strong aggregation while the "Bortovs" men are playing their first game of the season they have had all kinds of practice. On the team are some local players, U. N. B. and Mount Allison players besides such familiar faces as Joe Crockett, Cushing, Lightner and others which includes Harry Simmons formerly captain of the champion Beavers. The Marstonians are going away with a fairly strong line-up, but it is not as strong as it has been in the past. The Greys are expected to be out of town and Rev. Mr. McLean, it is said, will also be unable to make the trip. Nevertheless the maroon and grey have a strong team and Moncton should have to travel some to beat them. In the Victoria and the Indians have no mean proposition the Fredericton Gleaser has said after the U. N. B. St. Joseph game that the red and black have a very fast fifteen and will make a great bid for the intercollegiate league championship. They will have that very speed, man, the driver on the half line, and that is saying a whole lot. Baird and Baird are also among the best, and with Capt. Mike Rutledge and Dooley the team looks formidable. The Algonquians will be strengthened by Joe Howe formerly of Acadia and one of the Wolfville team's stars, and Cecil Merritt, a fast man who got his training at Robeson College but who played on an all St. John team a number of times, with Gibbons at the full back position. The Indians have one of the best holding down that the team will be the same. The Victoria and Currie teams have the regular line-ups and should make a good showing.

PETERBORO, Ont., Oct. 25 (Special).—The last veteran of the Mackenzie uprising in this district died yesterday in the home of James Watson at the age of ninety years. Watson was a sergeant in the Mackenzie rebellion and marched with the local contingent from Peterboro to Toronto.

SITUATION MOST SERIOUS THAT FINANCIAL WORLD HAS EVER HAD TO FACE

This Is What New York's Big Financiers Are Saying Privately, While Publicly They Give Out Optimistic Statements--Three More Suspensions Reported Today.

DECLINES WERE PROMINENT, ESPECIALLY IN VIEW OF THE PREVIOUS LOW POINTS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (Special).—Up to noon today the following suspensions had been announced here: The International Trust Company, with main office at 200 Broadway, its affiliated concerns, the Borough Bank of Brooklyn at 20 Court street, and the Brooklyn bank at Fulton and Clinton streets; also the United States Exchange bank in Harlem. Of greater importance than these was the suspension of The Union Trust Company of Providence, a $28,000,000 concern.

HOW THE MARKET STOOD

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The opening price of stocks showed many wide swings within ten minutes, the average price of the international stocks they fell far short as a rule of the London party established before the local stock market opened. A number of declines were mixed with the gains.

GRAFTING EVEN AT THIS TIME

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—It developed this morning that a considerable number of persons in line at the Trust Company of America and at the Lincoln Trust Co. were not depositors, but were persons who had taken their places in the line of selling a favorable position to depositors who might be anxious to withdraw money from the bank.

FEELT IN PROVIDENCE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 25.—The Union Trust Company did not open for business today at 9 o'clock, the usual hour to form a line outside the entrance to the bank and half an hour before the opening time, nine o'clock, there were more than 150 persons in line. There was also a detail of police to prevent disorder.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER EASILY EXPLAINED.

A man who signs himself Pro Bono Publico in the Times new reporter that he saw four or five men with a boss spending an afternoon picking out the loose leaves and sand from between the cobble stones in a gutter on one of the streets. He estimates that they got four pounds of sand and enough leaves to decolorize an autumn lake. A half hour's heavy rain would have washed both sand and leaves away and the men could have been doing some real work or smoking their pipes in content. Mr. Pro Bono Publico wants to know why the men were there to do that that would be of some benefit to the town.

WHITE CANDY COMPANY APPLY FOR INJUNCTION Another Development in Double Tracking of Union Street--Meanwhile the Laying of Rails Goes Merrily On--Much Interest in Board of Works Meeting Tonight.

The matter of double tracking Union street by the street railway company still occupies a large part of attention from citizens generally. This morning Bustin & French, the legal firm that is acting in the interests of the White Candy Company, and other interested parties, applied to Judge Barker for an injunction to restrain the street railway company from continuing the work. Judge Barker, however, declined to hear the plea, on the ground that his wife had an interest in the railway company, she being a stockholder. It was decided therefore, that the application should be made before Judge McLeod, but at the time of writing his honor had not been seen.

DEPOSITS $880,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The U. S. Exchange Bank located at 125th street will not open for business today. Officials of the institution stated early this morning that the decision to remain closed was simply a precautionary measure. They declined to state when the institution would be opened. The concern has a paid up capital of $100,000, and its deposits are estimated at $880,000. It was established in 1905.

BOSTON COMPANIES STAND TEST

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—The stability of Boston trust companies has been satisfactorily proved by an official test made two days ago. It is learned that on Wednesday, Pierre Jay, chairman of the board of directors, and other officers and examiners, who are in charge of the trust companies in this city, made an unexpected call upon all the trust companies and found the actual reserve fund 29.76 per cent, and the legal reserve 24.47 per cent. The latter figure was 1.47 per cent higher than the legal reserve on October 21, 1906.

FRESH LAID EGGS ARE 35 TO 40 CENTS

The country market will be abundantly stocked with meat and farm produce tomorrow's trade. Game is coming along in fairly large quantities also, particularly U. S. quail, and other game birds. Ducks, geese and woodcock are also in evidence, and there is a good supply of muskrat, vegetable and fruit, but poultry is commanding $1.00 a pair; ducks, $1.35 to $1.75; and geese $1.50 to $1.60. There is practically no change in the prices of meats, vegetables and fruit, but poultry are bringing from 35 to 40 cents, the latter figure being an advance of five cents on the highest prevailing figure of last week's hatching trip to Little River. He claims to have made the record bag of the season having shot a moose, two bears and two deer. Lorenzo Savage, of Pennac, was his guide.

MATTERS BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE

The case of Hatfield vs. the White Candy Co. for obstructing the sidewalk on Union street with coal, was to have been resumed in the police court this morning, but owing to the fact that the parties concerned are interested in the injunction case relative to the double tracking of Union street, the case was set aside until a more convenient season. Mr. Hatfield was present, but Mr. White sent word that he would be unable to attend, but, if worse came to worst, he would have to pay the fine.

SIFTON MAY NOT BE A CANDIDATE

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 25 (Special).—Hon. Clifford Sifton, who is in Brandon published here today to the effect that he would not be a candidate in Brandon at the next election.

BURNED TO DEATH WHILE HE SLEPT

MORDEEN, Man., Oct. 25 (Special).—As the result of a fire in the new Millard railway yard, William Macintosh, of Otterburn, Man., was burned to death and William Strassburg lies in Walhalla hospital, probably fatally burned. In the early morning the office car of the construction gang on the Great Northern Railway at Hasket Point, sixteen miles southeast from Mordeen, took fire from the explosion of a stove and was totally destroyed. There were two occupants, Strassburg and Parmentier; the latter being burned to death in his bunk.

KILLED BY AUTO

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Henry Adelman, a wine merchant of this city, was instantly killed last night in an automobile accident at Jamaica.

C. M. B. A. ASSEMBLY

The committee in charge of arrangements for the social assembly to be given by Branch 134 of the C. M. B. A. in their spacious rooms, Union street, on Wednesday next, are hurrying preparations to completion and already entire success is assured. Anyone visiting the rooms of this branch can readily understand why the members are so proud of their apartments and undoubtedly none in the city are better adapted for social, dance or lecture than are these spacious rooms. Present indications are that next Wednesday's assembly will be largely attended.

MORE TROUBLE IS EXPECTED

A break in the water main on the property of Joseph Arthur, on the Loch Lomond road, on Wednesday must have given Mr. Arthur a rude jolt for the water spurted into the air a considerable distance making a very attractive fountain. As the break occurred just under the ground in which some fine specimens of turnips were planted, it was interesting to watch these vegetables hurled into the air in all directions. It was Mr. Arthur's trouble of pulling them as they were pulled out, washed and ready for market when picked up.

LADY LAURIE WILL TURN THE FIRST SOD

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 25 (Special).—On Monday or Tuesday next Lady Laurie will turn the first sod for the new G. T. R. hotel and central station. Both projects involve an outlay of about three million dollars. The city council meeting tonight to pass finally upon the hotel assessment. The company is ready to start work tomorrow, but will wait for the opening ceremony until Lady Laurie returns from Vermont, where she left today with Sir Wilfrid to spend the week end with Mr. Willard, ex-governor of Virginia, and Mrs. Willard, who is now visiting there.

ASTONISHING APATHY

The inaction of the city council in connection with the doubling of Union street certainly needs explanation. There is only one opinion among citizens who have taken the trouble to look into the matter, and it is that Union street from Sydney to Brussels should not be double-tracked. The street is narrow and traffic always heavy. Union street is a very busy thoroughfare. All the country traffic passes that way. Apparently an effort is being made to create an impression that only one or two property owners are interested, but the whole city is interested.

If this work had been really necessary to a double service on the Haymarket Square line, there would be that much excuse for it; but it is not. There would be less likelihood of delay with a single track on that short section than with two tracks and the constant congestion of traffic which would result. The railway company explains that trouble may be obtained by using only one track in winter. Then why lay two tracks? And why this feverish haste to get them laid before the city council awakes from its slumber? If the city fathers were looking for an illustration of profitable promptitude they would find it on Union street and in the example set by the street railway company. While the aldermen are doing nothing the company are working night and day.

Some persons appear to be of opinion that the board of works is supreme in this matter. Surely this cannot be true. If the recorder declares that in his opinion the board has full authority, immediate steps must be taken to deprive it of any such dangerous power, which should not be bestowed upon any less representative body than the whole council. The manner in which the measure now denounced was slipped through at the board shows clearly enough what might happen in matters involving even greater public interests.

NON-POLITICAL

You are invited to attend a banquet to be held at the Hotel de Ville, at Sussex, Oct. 25, at 7 p.m., as complimentary guest. You will see by the enclosed report that we want to give you all the information relative to organization on behalf of the Dominion and Local Government Elections. These sentences, from the invitation sent out by the president of the Liberal Club of Kings county in connection with the non-political banquet to Hon. Dr. Pugsley at Sussex this evening may be regarded as fixing beyond question the non-political character of the event. "All the information relative to organization on behalf of the Dominion and Local Government Elections," indicates the purely non-political flavor of the affair. It may fairly be assumed that some information will be given as to the date of the provincial elections, and perhaps the attorney general will be present.

ON THE VERGE OF PANIC

The kings of American finance have now an opportunity to show their skill and save their credit. Despite reassuring statements the conditions are still such that New York may be said to be on the verge of panic. Private advices intimate that there has seldom been greater need for cool heads and clear and active brains on Wall street. It may be that the worst is over for the present, but the return of confidence will be somewhat slow. In the meantime President Roosevelt pursues with unwavering determination his policy of denouncing the evils of high finance which threaten and have so nearly overwhelmed the credit of the nation. Some critics assert that his utterances aggravate the situation, but he steadily maintains that even a temporary check on prosperity is preferable to a continuance of methods which create wealth by dishonesty and the sacrifice of those ideals which alone make for true national greatness.

Canada cannot be an unmoved spectator of the events now transpiring at the financial centre of the republic. Even if this country were not commercially affected, there would still be the lesson involved in the toppling fabric which was reared by reckless speculation and unblinking graft. The people of the United States have had a rude awakening in the past year or two. They must realize that a return to first principles, and a recognition of those principles on which it has been their boast that the republic was founded, are necessary to the very existence of their institutions. Down in the streets the people are thinking on these things, and unless the warning of President Roosevelt is heeded a greater disaster than the wiping out of fictitious values on the stock exchange will befall the country.

FICTITIOUS VALUES

The Times publishes today a statement showing that the shares of seventy industrial corporations had declined 48 1/2 per cent from the highest level of last year. The aggregate decline was from $3,128,322,150 to $1,606,105,200. It is estimated that the decline in all stocks traded in on the New York Exchange on the street has been something like $7,000,000,000.

These figures do not represent a decline in real value, since last year's prices were largely speculative and much of the assumed value fictitious. The New York Journal of Commerce discusses the subject in a manner which shows very clearly what is meant by this statement. We quote:—

"There are two measures of the value of industrial plants which have a different relation to the capital stocks representing the business in which they are used. One is their cost to establish or to replace, and the other is their capacity to earn a return upon capital. The latter is practically the one that determines market value, and the uncertainty or the doubt in regard to this earning capacity is the main cause of fluctuation in price so far as that is not produced by sheer manipulation in the stock market. Price can be carried above the level justified by the present return from a security when people are made to believe that the return is going to increase. It is a speculative anticipation of a future advance in value. The greater part of buying and selling in stocks is speculative rather than for investment or realizing from investment. Most people buy in the hope of an advance in market value and sell to realize a profit or escape from what they fear will be a loss. Real investment transactions are a comparatively small part of the dealings in stocks.

"Last year there was a good deal of the hopeful anticipation of increased earning power and an advance in values, and this was encouraged by all concerned in 'speculation for the rise.' It carried prices in many cases far beyond anything justified by actual earnings and the advance was shared by purely speculative shares which had no earning capacity at all but only a fluctuating market value. This anticipation waned and prices declined. Then it was replaced by a fear that earning capacity would be reduced and prices went lower still. Under the fluctuations and spasms of hope and fear, of confidence and distrust, they have gone down to the present level. Dividends have given way in some cases and there is apprehension that they will in others, and nobody knows how far this may go, which makes the market nervous.

"It is an interesting question now whether there has again been too much 'discounting' of the future. In the case of some stocks this is doubtless true. The earning capacity of what they represent has not yet been cut down, and while they have a market value of little more than half of what they had a year or so ago the dividends are unchanged. They bring just as much as investments. They are liable to bring less in the future, at least for a time, but how much less no one can tell. In these cases it is not unlikely that distrust has gone so far astray as over-confidence went before, and that prices are lower than future returns will justify. It is probable that the general level of industrial stocks is below normal, but that level is, paradoxically speaking, an irregular one, and while some shares may be too low, others may not justify even the present price. There has been so much chicanery in issuing and dealing in industrial stocks, so much inflation of capital and counting upon imaginary earnings, that the mist of uncertainty are condensed into clouds for some of them. But in any case the shifting in real value is much less than that in apparent value as registered in market quotations."

The nomination of Sir Hibbert Tupper as the Conservative candidate in Pictou county, if he accepts, as doubtless he will, ensures a lively fight in Nova Scotia in the federal elections. The government press has sought to convey the impression that Mr. A. C. Bell would resent the nomination, but at the convention and after the nomination Mr. Bell himself punctured the story.

While there are some signs of industrial reaction it is interesting to note in the report of the inland revenue department that Canadians drank more spirits, consumed more beer, and smoked more tobacco during the last year than in the previous one. And this despite the advent of that reforming agency—the nickel even.

THE DEEP SEA MISSION

Sale for Its Benefit Held in Stone Church Yesterday Afternoon. The local committee in aid of the Labrador deep sea mission held a very successful tea and candy sale in the school room of St. John (Stone) church yesterday afternoon. The proceeds are to be devoted to founding a cot in the hospital of which Dr. Grenfell has charge. There was a very large attendance. J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., was in the chair, and gave a short address on the nature and requirements of the deep sea mission. The candy table, which was very prettily decorated with yellow, was in charge of Mrs. R. Keltie Jones, Mrs. E. T. Sturges and Mrs. Walter Allison. Mrs. J. D. Hazen and Mrs. James F. Robertson poured tea and were assisted by a large staff of young ladies. A short but excellent musical programme brought the afternoon to a close. Solos were sung by Mrs. H. Schofield, Miss Knight, Mr. Ridgson and Miss Sadler. D. Arnold Fox played the accompaniments. Miss Thompson Smith is in charge of the local committee of the Labrador deep sea mission.

PRINCESS THEATRE

The scenes from Rockwood Park of the "Shoot the Shutes" and "Pavilion," made a big hit last night, and were repeatedly encored. Four new pictures were shown, and many complimentary remarks were passed on the quality of the films and the brightness of the pictures. Mr. Walter McDonald sang "My Heart's tonight in Tennessee," and was called back several times. He is becoming very popular with the theatre goers. There will be an orchestra in attendance Saturday night. This cosy theatre is rapidly becoming the most popular place of amusement in the city and the management intend to give the best five cent show in the city.

William Belyea, of Rodney street, Carleton, received a letter Thursday from George Wallace, the English sprinter. Wallace, who is at present in Europe, writes that he was badly spiked in a handicap race and as a result blood poisoning set in. He says that the doctors think his leg will have to be amputated. Wallace visited Carleton last year and talked of returning with Elbridge Eastman, the west side colored runner, if a fall carnival had been arranged for St. John this year.

MILLIONAIRES COMBINE TO AVERT FINANCIAL DISASTER

Morgan, Rockefeller, Ryan and Others Put Up $25,000,000 to Stem Panic--Call Money Commanded 130 Per Cent. at One Time Yesterday Afternoon, But Morgan's Resources Saved the Day.

New York, Oct. 24--The great stock exchange panic that had been expected by some, a panic that would eclipse all others in history, was averted this afternoon by the very narrow margin. At 2 o'clock a violent break was in progress, and complete demoralization in sight. Wall street's attention had converged almost exclusively upon the money market situation, where unprecedented conditions prevailed. Even the local banking difficulties were temporarily dismissed from consideration, although, of course, they were in a great measure responsible for the great stringency in the money market. It was estimated that the requirements of stock exchange houses called for at least $25,000,000, and at that time not a dollar was being offered by anybody. Up to early in the afternoon fifty per cent. was the prevailing rate for loans on call, later 100 per cent. was paid, and subsequently the making of loans was a question only of personal negotiation between borrower and lender. At the time of the most acute stringency one well known broker remarked: "If anybody went into that money market and offered $100,000 at 200 per cent., he would be mobbed by throngs wishing accommodation."

At 2 o'clock there was a loan of $100,000 made at 100 per cent., and another loan of the same amount at 130 per cent. One broker who wanted to borrow $5,000 on a fifty per cent. margin went to all the large downtown banks without receiving accommodation. Stocks were tottering. Union Pacific to mention only one exception, went to par. A little more than a year ago it was 100. For a ten per cent. stock this decline was utterly absurd. President Thomas, of the stock exchange, reached President Stillman, of the National City Bank, and urged the absolute necessity of immediate money relief. There was an abundance of good securities, but there was no cash. The $25,000,000 in currency that had been turned into the banks by Secretary Cortelyou from the vaults of the sub-treasury, were absorbed by the local banking situation. Mr. Stillman said: "There are only two men in the country who can help you--Secretary Cortelyou and J. P. Morgan." It was a question of seconds. The street knew that. Mr. Morgan was reached by telephone. The result was that Aubrey Hodges, of the firm of Halsey & Hodges, one of Morgan's policy, determined to convert stock exchange floor in five minutes, and raising his voice above the din, called: "I am authorized by J. P. Morgan to place $25,000,000 at call loan." The tide was stemmed. Prices rebounded in an instant. Morgan had the actual cash to make good. The street knew that. As a matter of fact it had been understood right along that Morgan was really the man who would save the day. The movement of stocks, who had any real money at all. To go into a little inside history, Mr. Morgan as long as two years ago, after vain efforts to change President Roosevelt's economic policy, determined to convert much of his stocks into available assets, and he did so gradually. So it is now that he appears as the god of the machine. He has been the captain on the bridge of the financial ship today. From his glass enclosed private office in a bank at Wall and Broad streets, he controlled the destinies of banks and trust companies, and guided the stock market. He decreed to whom assistance should be rendered, and to what extent; he passed upon collateral offered for loans, and sent for and questioned and dismissed financiers in ordinary times, are considered masters of money. Mr. Morgan's bank was the nerve centre of the situation. From the city two strong trunk lines of communication extended--one to the sub-treasury across Wall street, the other to the Standard Oil building at 29 Broadway, where the Rockefeller millions were on tap. Among the financiers who attended the clearing house committee to consist with Mr. Morgan and Mr. Stillman were William A. Nash, president of the Corn Exchange Bank; George F. Baker, president of the First National Bank; Alexander Gilbert, president of the Market and Fulton Bank; Samuel Wolverson, president of the Baltimore National Bank; and A. B. Hepburn, president of the Chase National Bank. Mr. Morgan attended the meeting not only as a member of the Clearing House Association, but as advisory member of the committee of five appointed at yesterday afternoon's conference of bankers to act as a clearing house for trust companies. The meeting lasted for an hour and fifty minutes. In that time Mr. Morgan became possessed of inside information concerning the condition of every bank and trust company in the city. He knew just what John D. Rockefeller and the Standard Oil interests could put up to lighten the burden the banks are carrying. He knew that the United States Steel Corporation was in position to place $75,000,000 in cash in New York banks should the necessity arise. He knew that the United States treasury could be called upon to furnish relief to any extent to avoid a widespread panic at such a critical period in the administration of President Roosevelt. Mr. Morgan held, in addition, that the banks which have sustained visible runs are not the only institutions affected by the fright of the public. There is not a bank in the city that has not been subjected to a steady drain of cash since Monday morning. Depositors with their savings or their working capital, in the hands of bankers, have watched closely all the published reports about financial conditions. With all this knowledge of banking conditions in his possession Mr. Morgan returned to his banking house. In his absence his favorite and trusted partners, Charles Steele and George W. Perkins, had been gathering up the reins of control in readiness to place them in his hands. Within a few minutes after seating himself and setting fire to a big cigar, the financial interests of New York and incidentally of the United States, were in the range of his powerful grip. Thomas F. Ryan, his face a mask, called three times on Mr. Morgan within a short time. Norman B. Ream, the great financier, whose interests are in this city and Chicago, led a procession of millionaire bankers and trust company presidents in and out of the door of the Morgan bank, over which curved in stone, are the numerals "25."

SOCIETY

Mrs. M. B. Edwards entertained at a very delightful little riding party last Wednesday morning in honor of Miss Sterling of Chicago. The ladies started out about 11:30 o'clock, and after a pleasant canter on the outskirts of the city, repaired to the golf club where they were joined by the gentlemen at luncheon. Those present besides Colonel and Mrs. Edwards, were Mrs. C. J. Coster, Miss Stetson, Miss Warner, Miss Mabel Thomson, Miss Sterling, Miss Elise McLean, Miss Louise Parks, Mr. Vroom, Dr. T. D. Walker, Alexander McMillan, Mr. Stetson, Mr. Fairweather, J. Gillis Kestor and Thomas B. Blair.

Mrs. F. A. Filton entertained informally at tea, at her home, Lancaster, on Wednesday last. Miss Katie Hazen was hostess at a largely attended afternoon tea last Wednesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Short, of Kingston, Ontario. The drawing rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and foliage, green and white having been the prevailing colors. Among the guests were Mrs. Harold Cowan Schofield, Mr. W. Barker, Mrs. (Colonel) Ogilvie, Mrs. George K. McLeod, Mrs. Bushy, Miss Elise McLean, Miss Harding, Miss Powell, Miss Ebel Emerson, Miss Janie Stone, Miss Winnifred Blizard, Miss Bridges, Miss Agnes Blizard, Miss Powell, Miss Edith McAvity, Miss Madeline Barker, Miss Stetson, Miss Sterling (Chicago), Miss Belyes, Miss McGovern, Miss Barnaby, Miss McMillan, Miss Beddom, (London, Ontario), Miss Schofield, Miss Vera McLaughlin, Miss Gwen McDonald, Miss Raymond, Miss Mrs. Harrison, Miss Josephine Bessie Donville, Miss Edith Fairweather, Miss Muriel Fairweather, Miss Constance Smith, Miss Fortia McKean, Miss Warner, Miss Hazen, James G. Walker, Mr. Ellis ad Mr. Burpee.

Mr. Sherwood Skinner entertained at a most delightful dinner party (which, by-the-by, is the first of the season) in honor of Miss Beddom, of London, Ontario. Quite a number of local society people attended the very excellent repast in music and elocution given by Miss Mildred Isaacs, at the Opera House on Tuesday evening last. Miss Isaacs is unusually talented, and the programme, which gave full scope to her versatility was much enjoyed. During the evening Miss Isaacs received a number of very beautiful bouquets.

Mrs. Leonard B. Knight, east King street, has issued invitations for a large at home to be given on Tuesday next, in honor of her daughter, Madeline, who Bessie will make her first appearance in society. The event is looked forward to with great interest. The civic fair being held by Exmouth street Methodist Y. M. A. is being very largely attended, and, needless to say, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the promoters.

GRAFT THE REASON OF THESE CONDITIONS

Grand Jury Finds the Ontario Home for Aged is Very Badly Administered. Toronto, Oct. 24--Provincial Secretary Hanna has instructed the inspector of hospitals to inquire into the report of the grand jury which recently visited the Home of Refuge at Markdale. The jury mentioned a dark hole or room in the basement, without proper ventilation, into which the manager forcibly placed inmates who disobey orders. Among its conclusions were: "The practice of enforcing attendance of every inmate to worship in the chapel at the dictation of the manager, who has his own peculiar creed to maintain and who is often the only preacher available, should be abolished by the manager. "The bedrooms are locked early in the morning so that the inmates have no access to them and have to lounge around on the hard board benches. "The inmates have not been supplied with either butter or sugar, which we consider two necessities of life, and would be naturally much missed by these aged people. We also find that instead of receiving good fresh milk, skim milk only is furnished them, although several cows are kept on the premises and the butter and cream are otherwise disposed of. "We find, too, that vegetables grown on the premises are being sold instead of being used in the house for the inmates, as they should be. "In justice to Mr. Harrow, the manager, we wish to state that he is practicing much of the unwise economy complained of under instruction of the committee of the county council."

CANADIANS DRANK MORE THAN IN PREVIOUS YEAR

Consumption of Beer, Spirits and Tobacco Shows An Increase Per Head. Ottawa, Oct. 24--Canadians drank more beer, consumed more beer and smoked more tobacco per head for the past fiscal year than they did for the previous year. This is shown from the annual report of the inland revenue department just issued. The quantity of spirits produced for the fiscal period was 3,961,289 proof gallons for the nine months ended March 31; cigars consumed were 154,233,280, as against 182,178,436 for the preceding twelve months.

Here's the Cure for Sick Kidneys

TEST THEM FREE. Perhaps you are skeptical about GIN PILLS. So was Mr. Brown. He had tried so many things for his kidneys, without getting any better, that he had just about made up his mind that he could not get well. When he first read about GIN PILLS he laughed. The second time, he thought. The third time, he said "I would write for a sample just to see if there was any chance of getting well." He was pretty nearly decided to death over that box of GIN PILLS. They did him so much good that he would have paid $5 a box for the second, if he had his high color. He slept through the night without being disturbed by bladder trouble. His appetite began to pick up and he felt better than he had been for years. Being a sufferer from any kidney ailments in the head, and could get nothing to help me, I saw in the paper what you were doing. I got a sample box, and they did me so much good, I bought three boxes and sent them to my wife. They have worked wonders for me. I can recommend them to any similar sufferer. Geo. A. Brown. Don't be prejudiced. Give GIN PILLS a fair trial and they will cure you just as they cured Mr. Brown. Mention this paper and we will send you a free sample. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg, Man. 50c. a box--6 for $2.50.

ALCOHOLIC POISONING

Doctor Testifies That Was What Caused Death of Fredericton Man.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 24--Coroner McNally this afternoon began an inquest over the body of Edward Morgan, who died suddenly yesterday in a room at the Commercial hotel. The witnesses examined were Dr. F. B. Gunter, Herbert Morgan, Grover McCoy and W. M. Wall, but nothing of a startling nature was brought out. Dr. Gunter, who examined Mr. Morgan before his death, swore that he found him in a state of coma. In his opinion, death was due to heart failure, brought on by the excessive use of alcohol. Herbert Morgan swore that deceased did not get any liquor at the Commercial hotel yesterday, to the best of his knowledge. Grover McCoy swore that he saw Morgan in the hotel yard yesterday morning, considerably the worse for liquor. He did not see him afterwards. Wall, who was employed at Morgan's billiard saloon, swore that deceased had been on a spree for more than a fortnight. Witness did not see Morgan on the day of his death, and was positive he did not get any liquor at his own saloon. Several of the jurors expressed a desire to have the evidence of John McCoy, proprietor of the Commercial hotel, and as he is ill at the present time, the case was adjourned over for a few days to await his recovery.

SHORT!

An expression of regret and satisfaction.

Regret to us and regret to the many who called too late to get STEAK PIES last Saturday. Fact is, the pies sold so quickly that we hadn't enough to supply the demand.

Short is a satisfaction to us, because it is a good omen of the people's satisfaction of these dainty STEAK PIES; if they weren't good, suppose people would come again, no never!

Come early for yours to-morrow; same good pies, same cheap price, 5 cents.

CONCERT WAS RARE TREAT

Madame Harrison's Concert at the Opera House Last Night—The Musical Event of the Season.

Those whose privilege it was to attend the grand concert given by Madame Yulisse Harrison and other artists at the Opera House last night, heard what was easily the musical event of the season.

Madame Harrison was received with enthusiastic applause, and was never heard to better advantage. The tuncful aria from Mirella and the difficult passages in Le Perle de Brésil were beautifully rendered, the former selection affording the opportunity of hearing her take the natural B above treble C, which very few singers can accomplish.

Most unfortunately Harry Blight, of Toronto, suffering from a severe cold, but his rendering of The Young Brigade elicited enthusiastic applause and he was obliged to respond to an encore.
