FIRE'S KILL IN LOSS OF LIFE IS NOW PUT AT LESS THAN 300

And About 400 Were Injured --- Destruction of Homes and Property Cannot be Concealed --- Insurance Men Say That Companies May Lose as Much as $250,000,000.

NEW YORK, April 25--Dr. Edward T. Devine, who was sent to San Francisco to distribute the relief fund of the Red Cross and who was designated by President Roosevelt to have charge of the distribution of the $2,500,000 fund appropriated by congress, sent the following telegram to the New York office of the Red Cross today. "Working arrangements made by which financial committee of the citizens relief committee becomes also finance committee of the Red Cross. Supplies received and distributed by military authorities to persons destitute designated by us; indiscriminate free transportation to be stopped. The happy couple left at the altar. OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE. The sick contained several thousand communications from the fire sufferers to Chicago relatives and friends. They were written on sheets of wrapping paper, pieces of box covering, skirting, cuttings and other odds and ends. None bore postage stamps, but all had the red ink time stamp of the San Francisco office. Some contained the word, "saved". Others told in two word sentences stories of death and terrible hardships. The food supply will be regulated. Hereafter the various commodities will be distributed from tent to tent. It has been definitely ascertained by the commissary and other departments that there has been great abuse of free food and clothing privileges. While families have been accustomed to stand in line several times a day, each carrying away with it supplies of food large enough to last for several days. During the past few days thousands of people have left the reservation, having found homes with friends in this city or gone to Oakland, Alameda or other places. The authorities estimate that the number of campers on the grounds has now been reduced to less than 8,000. A few days ago over 20,000 people were there. Excess tents will be taken to other camps throughout the city and distributed. In a few days tentage sufficient to house 150,000 people will be distributed.

WHEN LOCAL MEN FARED TO 'FRISCO

Something About the Argonauts Who Sailed Around the Horn in '49 and '50---Adam Glasgow, Supt. of Fisheries is one of the Veterans.

The question has been often asked how it happens that there are so many St. John people in San Francisco. In the year 1849-50 gold was discovered on the Pacific coast in great quantities, which caused a great commotion all over the continent of America, including the Maritime Provinces, whereby hundreds caught the gold fever and started for the gold fields. Some went overland and others by sailing vessel, around Cape Horn, and landed at San Francisco Bay. From this city, it is stated, over two hundred left in 1849 and as many more in 1850. Among those who went were J. Boyd Quinlan and his wife, Caldo Olive, George Olive, Charles Whipple, Martin Murphy, Elijah Lord and others. Captain Hiram Bette fitted out the schooner Clamport in 1850 and with a number of men started for the land of gold, going through the Straits of Magellan, and after a hard fight with the waves, arrived safely at San Francisco in something less than a hundred day passage. In this vessel were a number of West Side men. Some members of the Clamport crew and passengers returned home after having good luck in the gold fields, others, who went in the vessel made their home at the Golden Gate of California.

Alexander Rankine, baker, St. John, Charles Venning, brother of Harry Venning, St. John, Duncan Robertson, Grand Lake, brother-in-law of the late John R. Marshall, chief of police of St. John, William J. Hamilton, brother of Dr. Hamilton, St. John, William Paddock, brother of Dr. Paddock, St. John, Thomas Anderson, brother of Simon Anderson, St. John, Mr. Bradley, blacksmith, St. John, John Roddick, Portland, St. John, Adam Glasgow, St. John, now superintendent of the ferry service, this city. The above list of those people who went to California in 1849 and 1850 probably accounts for the number of Maritime Provinces people found at San Francisco at the present day. David Orr, son of Mrs. John Orr, of 121 Sheriff street, is in San Francisco, employed in the St. Nicholas Hotel, which is situated at the junction of Market, Hayes, Larkin and 2nd streets. According to dispatches Market street was in the heart of the burned district, but as the street is about 31-2 miles long, it is probable that the hotel is outside the fire zone. The brigantine Ella also left this port in the year 1850, and took a large crew with her, going around the Horn. Another vessel, the bark Teel, left this port on September 23rd, 1849. She had quite a number of West Side people also, including J. Boyd Quinlan and his young wife. The bark Duke of Wellington was also fitted out in the year 1850. She had on board a large crew and many Nova Scotia people, going around the Cape Horn for San Francisco. After a long and tedious passage she landed in the Bay of San Francisco, all in good health. A number of her passengers returned home rich men, while others went in the vessel never returned, but married and settled down here. On the 4th January, 1850, the ship James Stewart, belonging to Charles Stewart, left the port of St. John for San Francisco with the following crew and passenger list: Captain, St. John, Samuel Shamba, mate, St. John, Hugh Fraser, second mate, St. John, George Craig, seaman, St. John, Robert Bartlett, seaman, of Nashuaque, William Davidson, seaman, Portland, John Lemon, seaman, Portland, James Olmstead, seaman, St. John, John Dorman, seaman, Lower Cove, Simon Anderson, carpenter, Lower Cove, Mr. Coombs, cook, St. John.

SOME CHANGES FOR MARKET

Director Wisley Will Make a Number of Additional Stands ---Mr. Daley and the Commission Men.

An interesting state of affairs exists in the country market, as a result of the annual auction of stalls which was held on Monday last. Twelve commission stands in the centre of the building, which have been used by persons acting as agents or traders, have been purchased by one man, Wm. Daley, who does not seem disposed to let them. The stalls which were seen this morning were not included in the sale, and the market is a somewhat better one than it was some time ago. It is freely stated that Mr. Daley is not alone in his scheme of cornering the stalls for which he has paid $800.00, but that Frank L. Potts is interested also, and that the idea is to make the city buy them back at a good round figure, as the speculators claim (so it is said) that they cannot do without these stands. Director Wisley, when asked about the matter, intimated that he had a cut or two to play yet, and that at the present time he held the trumps. The director said that they would get along all right without the stalls which Mr. Daley holds, and as he has bought and paid for them in good faith, he will keep them until the year, whether he uses them or not. In the meantime the director will have carpenters at work on the upper northern end of the building, and will fit up additional stalls there which will accommodate quite a number more of the tradesmen.

WEDDINGS

The bride will be attired in a travelling suit of blue Hanes tweed, with hat to correspond, and will carry a shower bouquet of white carnations, while Mrs. Stewart will wear a pretty costume of white, with tussan blue hat. After the ceremony the bride will be served at the home of the bride's parents, 263 Chesley street, and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will leave by the evening train for Montreal.

San Francisco Won't Stand Marital Law

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25--There was an inspection yesterday of the bank vaults in the burned district, and it was found that many of the vaults had been destroyed, but it is realized that an early opening would endanger their portable contents, and in order that this may be avoided, some vaults must elapse until they are thoroughly cooled off before they are entered. The vaults having given some cause for complaint by impressing men when it was necessary that work should be done, were warned in a letter sent by Mayor Schmitz to the U. S. sub-treasury officials. Military rule is still maintained, but there is some amelioration of it severely. PARIS, April 25--According to a semi-official statement made by a high functionary of the prefecture of police today the military and police are prepared to meet every eventuality May 1. He said the police canvas shows that 80,000 men have stopped work of which number the disorderly element does not exceed 20,000. Against those can be massed $2,000 to 45,000 troops, namely 20,000 infantry, 10,000 cavalry and 10,000 to 15,000 republican guards and police, with large additional reserves. The police will endeavor to localize the manifestation to the Place de la Republique which is the great labor centre and to the vicinity of the labor exchange. THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

AN OUTRAGE. The public will learn with regret that the Times newspaper's Staff Expedition came to an untimely end this morning. It appears that the young man went over to Sand Point to make arrangements for his Expedition, and when he arrived at the Albatross he was accosted by a watchman who roughly demanded an explanation of his presence there. "I am here," said the reporter, "with dignity, to arrange for the only accurate and reliable and correct and thoroughly scientific soundings that have ever been taken at this berth."

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

"Oh, no!" soothingly said one of the watchmen. "Oh, no! We know all about you. We know you are the only man who can take accurate soundings, and that you are doing it because you love the city of St. John." "Yes," put in the other watchman, "and we know you are giving your valuable time for the good of the city you love so dearly." By this time they had arrived at Union street, and each of the two watchmen let go of the new reporter, at the same time administering a violent kick, which propelled him some distance in the direction of the ferry boats. He will immediately sue the city for $20,000. JAMESKY AND PROVIDENCE. Mr. Jamesky Jones again declined this morning to subscribe anything to the fund for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers. "That earthquake," said Jamesky, "was a judgment upon a wicked city. There may be more to follow. I see by the papers that had another slight shock Tuesday night. How do I know that Providence is doing its best to punish me? Suppose the earth should open tomorrow and swallow up the whole of that wicked city, what would you expect me to do? I would be sending help out there? Wouldn't you?"

The writer, who was a member of that first expedition, has been afforded an opportunity of visiting the ruins again. And such marvels has this tropical nature wrought throughout these last four years!

The Story of a Girl and a Gold Mine

BY MAPAVENE KENNEDY.

The smooth gold button with its one little rough spot fascinated Lorene. She turned it over and over, holding it up to the sunlight, letting it fall, a glittering mass, in her lap.

"Just $21, exactly," and he waited a moment, impressively—"we got it from one ton of sand—about five miles from here."

"What's your process?" asked Lorene, here, and solves the problem. "Did you see those black specks of metal in the sand, Miss Delere? Well the gold's in them—gold as fine as sand."

"I'm off, dear, but I'll— She laughed away, but Lorene's eyes were fixed on the gold. "Yes, I'll go with you."

GOOE WORK!

The promptness and readiness with which St. John joined in the good work of contributing money to relieve the stricken of San Francisco must long be a matter for congratulation here.

FIXING THE PRICE

Some of the grim incidents of the first few days of terror in San Francisco are now related. One concerns the manner in which a soldier fixed the price of bread with his bayonet.

When this morning broke, lines formed before the stores whose supplies had not been commandeered. In one of these, the first man was charged 75 cents for a loaf of bread.

This sort of rule, says one writer, may be described as a beneficent despotism. There are times and occasions when a little of it is necessary, and the San Francisco calamity is one of these.

A SURPRISE COMING?

Mr. Edward Porritt, a British correspondent who travelled with the Canadian Tariff Commission and who now writes in the North American Review concerning Canada's tariff future, intimates that the British preference may be confined to goods entering this country through its own ports.

The Free Kindergarten committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon and discussed future arrangements with the special committee appointed to look into the question of extending the work.

from handling Canadian imports and exports. Another matter which he thinks will be given some attention is the operation of American machinery in Canada.

Commenting upon last Sunday's eulogies on the San Francisco disaster the Boston Transcript says: There was a time when the cry of the old theologians would have been taken over the San Francisco catastrophe as a fearful revelation of judgment.

The later accounts give the number of dead in San Francisco as 300, a much more cheerful estimate than any set out at first. Considering the fact that the first shock came when most people were asleep the death list is likely to prove small in comparison with the devastation and suffering that have followed the fire.

The engineers of the big construction companies in New York say that if they are called upon to help in rebuilding San Francisco they will prescribe for new buildings a strong steel framework, with the walls thoroughly anchored, and a new height limit of 100 feet or less.

This common council, on the next one, if either finds time, may some day issue a trustworthy report regarding the present condition of the West Side berths. Meantime it must be remembered that all the big ships came and loaded and left in safety—as they will again.

San Francisco and the governor of California are accepting aid from all sources. They are not particular where it comes from. It is all inspired by the same epiphany—charity. And any money will buy food, clothing and medicine.

The Free Kindergarten committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon and discussed future arrangements with the special committee appointed to look into the question of extending the work.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The session of Congress has witnessed several innovations which, while they are not sensational, are indicative of change in the affairs of government of more than usual importance and they would be more conspicuous in the journalistic history of the times if it were not that they have been eclipsed by the Railroad Rate Bill and other important measures that have occupied the attention of Congress and the public. The Pure Food Bill is expected, and doubtless will, do much to promote the health of every man, woman and child in the United States. The suppression of the system of petty political bribery but it will enable the farmers and gardeners of the country to select their own seeds and thus secure a better quality than the government has been distributing. The system of distributing seeds has been corrupted and abused had a commendable object to begin with. The first appropriation for this purpose was $100,000 and in the language of the bill "was for rare and valuable seeds." This was three-fourths of a century ago and the amount has grown year after year until it now amounts to a third of a million of dollars annually. The farmers of the country will lose nothing by its discontinuance and private enterprise will finally succeed in supplying the country with the best varieties at less than half the price it has cost the government.

The house of representatives has passed, by a majority almost unanimous, (aye 222 and nays only 7) the bill providing that alcohol used in the arts shall not be taxed. If this bill accomplishes all that is intended for it, it will be almost revolutionary in its economic beneficence and the only wonder is that it was not passed years ago. It is said the senate will again find it in an embarrassing predicament because free alcohol will come in competition with other of those powerful interests which the man with the muck rake claims and which the people believe certain well-known senators represent. It is said that alcohol can be made with marvellously little expense out of potatoes, sugar-cane,

WOMAN FREED FROM DEPORTATION

Mrs. Sarah Galik, a Russian Jewess, and her five children, who have been detained by Canada's immigration officials here, at the request of the United States officials, for the past three weeks were made joyful yesterday, for instead of returning to the land of Car Nicholas as it was feared might be their lot, they are to be sent to the United States by the C. P. R. en route for St. Paul (Minn.).

Mrs. Galik and her children came out from Antwerp on April 2 on the C. P. R. liner Mount Kemble. Her destination was St. Paul, her intention being to go to the home of her brother. On examination, however, by the United States officials, she was ordered deported as she had no funds, and according to her own story she was a pauper.

The woman's case was an especially and one. Her own story, told in the frankest possible manner, placed her under the ban. She had come from Antwerp, where her husband had been murdered during the rioting there when the Jews were attacked. The Jewish people, she said, collected enough to pay her passage to this country and a few dollars to spare. As the United States immigration laws are particularly stringent as regards paupers it seemed as if she must return to Russia, her own story condemning her.

Then the local Jewish Immigration Society interested themselves in her and her brother was communicated with. He at once forwarded her $50—and advised that he was willing to furnish an affidavit or bonds that he would support her and that she would not be a charge on the country. This, however, was not satisfactory to the United States authorities; as according to their reading of the law she was a pauper in her own country and therefore, according to the law, she could not enter the United States. Furthermore, they said, the matter was out of their hands.

The local Jewish Society then offered to furnish affidavits or bonds that they would provide for her should she be allowed to remain in Canada. Her brother also made it known that he was willing to furnish a bond to support her in Canada if it was found that she could not enter the United States. The Canadian

Fredericton Council Adopts Barbour's Plans and Calls for Tenders

Fredericton, N. B., April 24.—(Special)—The city council at a special meeting this evening unanimously approved of Engineer Barbour's plans and specifications for water filtration plant and instructed the city clerk to issue call for tenders for construction work. The tenders will close at 8 o'clock on the evening of May 23.

The city officers for the ensuing year were reappointed at the same meeting. Auditor McKay asked for an increase of $100 to $200 and after some discussion consideration of the matter was deferred until the May meeting.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. THOS. ARMSTRONG

Former Resident of St. John Dead in Minneapolis.

A telegram received by G. Wetmore Merritt last evening brought news which will be heard with great regret by many of the sudden death of his sister, Mrs. Thos. Armstrong, at her home in Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong had lived here until nine years ago, he being a member of the firm of S. Armstrong & Co. They removed to Minneapolis and there Mr. Armstrong is cashier for the Powers Mercantile Company.

Mrs. Armstrong had not been in good health for two or three years. She was here last summer for a time but none expected that before another year should pass she should be no more, and the report against the family members here. The funeral will be at Minneapolis.

Mrs. Armstrong was the only daughter of the late Gabriel Merritt. She is survived by her husband and four brothers—Joseph P. W. Hawking and G. Wetmore Merritt of this city and Frank S. Merritt of Middleton (N. S.). They will have the deep sympathy of very many in their bereavement.

COUGH MEDICINE FATAL

Toronto Woman Finds Her Baby Dead in Bed.

TORONTO, April 22.—Mrs. Haley, 221 Sherbourne street, found her three months' old baby dead in bed yesterday. A doctor was sent for but the child was dead.

EQUITY COURT

In the Equity court yesterday the case of Peter Petropolis and Andrew Petropolis vs. F. E. Williams Co. came up. This is a case in which the plaintiffs allege that F. E. Williams leased the building at 25 King street, belonging to the Sears estate for four years' term, and sub let it to them. He took a bill of sale of their goods and chattels for rent, and also sold them an automatic piano. They allege that the defendant refused to discharge the bill of sale, although the money was paid to him, and the condition was that on payment of the money the bill would be discharged. They further claim that the automatic piano did not meet the requirements of the guarantee, and they had given twelve notes for it, aggregating in all $750. The plaintiffs ask the court for decree to be made ordering the lease to be made out in their names, they being the lessees; that the bill of sale be discharged and that the notes given on the piano be returned to them.

The defendant alleges that he obtained the lease of the premises for the plaintiffs, the condition being that he go security for the rent. He had the lease made in his name and sub-let the premises to the plaintiffs. He alleges that the plaintiffs owe him money and claims that the bill of sale should not be discharged, and further he did not guarantee the piano, but the said instrument did meet the requirements. W. Watson Allen appeared for the plaintiff; Walter H. Trueman for the defendant.

At a meeting of the trustees and directors of the Y. M. C. A., held last evening, it was unanimously decided to go over the plans with the committee and the architect, and after deciding in reference to them, to at once call for tenders for the construction of the new building.
