Anniversary of Armistice Day Solemnly Observed Throughout United Kingdom Yesterday

Two Minutes of Silent Though Were Given the Dead at Eleven O'clock, Hour When Armistice Took Effect One Year Ago.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES WERE WITNESSED

Impressiveness of the Anniversary Accented by Procession of Patriotic Associations to a Cenotaph.

London, Nov. 11.—Great Britain today celebrated the first anniversary of "Armistice Day" with impressive ceremonies. The foremost and most striking of these came in response to the appeal of King George to commemorate the event by a universal simultaneous suspension of activities throughout the country, and the observance of silence for two minutes at the moment corresponding with the signing of the armistice—the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month.

The royal call, which appealed to the imagination of the people, had been published and commented on widely throughout the length and breadth of the country, with the result that everybody was prepared to join with appreciative readiness in the unique celebration. The arrangements for carrying out the plans were made with great thoroughness, extending even to ships at sea.

The orders for silence, and the standing at attention for two minutes were prescribed by the British navy, were adopted also by all the American warships in British waters. The military arrangements were similar to those of the navy.

In addition to general suspension of industrial and commercial activities and the cessation of traffic by railroads and tramways, the celebration included solemn religious ceremonies in churches of every denomination. Conspicuous among the churches which celebrated were St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, and the Westminster Cathedral.

One large department store in London had a local clergyman conduct services in its building so that all the customers present might attend.

Among other celebrations in London, which served to accentuate the impressiveness of the anniversary, was a procession, organized by "The Centrades of the Great War," and of other patriotic associations, to a cenotaph in Whitehall, which commemorated "the glorious dead." This ceremony embraced solemn musical rites and the laying of wreaths at the foot of the cenotaph.

The newspapers today devoted columns to the anniversary, printing among other things, messages from prominent public persons appreciative of the occasion. Among these messages was one from the Dowager Queen Alexandra to the Daily Mail saying:

"We all pray God will hear our silent prayers in remembrance of our all brave departed, who laid down their precious lives on the battlefield."

POLICEMAN AND STUDENT HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Charge Grew Out of Trouble Over a Deer—Defendant Claims Self Defense.

Bangor, Maine, Nov. 10.—Arthur M. Smith, a policeman, of Orono, was held in the municipal court today, on a charge of manslaughter for the killing of James Perkins in a quarrel over a dead deer at Passaw Lake, Sunday. Smith said the shooting was in self defense, while he was trying to prevent Perkins and his brother, Frank, from springing away a deer, said to have been shot by Smith's son, Byron, and Theodore, of Pittston.

Trott, who is a freshman at the University of Maine, was held for shooting Frank Perkins with intent to kill. Both men pleaded not guilty and were bound over without offering any evidence. Frank Perkins is in a serious condition with a bullet wound in the breast. James Perkins' death occurred at the hospital early today.

OHIO REFUSES TO RATIFY

Votes Against Ratification of Federal Prohibition Amendment.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 11.—Ohio last Tuesday voted against ratification of the Federal Prohibition amendment by a majority of 641, according to the complete official returns received today by the Secretary of State. The vote was: For ratification, 489,579; against, 490,526.

Religious Atmosphere Pervaded Observance of Armistice Day

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—Throughout the whole province of Ontario and generally in the West of Canada, Armistice Day was given solemn observance. In all towns and townships and villages the two minute interval of silence at 11 a. m., was held and in some cities the day was taken as a holiday. In most, however, there were no special celebrations beyond the above. A religious atmosphere seemed to have pervaded the majority of the observances. Private individuals, in not a few instances, devoted the day to minutes of prayer, whilst in many offices and stores the "Doxology," or "Oh Canada" was sung. The day was not regarded as one for rejoicing, but rather as one for deep and grateful thought of those who had made its observance possible.

WITH THE RESCINDING OF THE STRIKE ORDER GOVT HASTENS TO AID IN NEW WAGE AGREEMENT

Miners and Operators to Meet Friday in Response to Invitation from the Gov't for the Purpose of Negotiating a Basis for Settlement—The New Conference Will be on Wider Scope Than One Terminated a Few Weeks Ago.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Having forced the miners to call off the coal strike the government set out today to help them negotiate a new wage agreement.

On the heels of the announcement that Federal Judge Anderson, at Indianapolis, had approved the order promulgated by the United Mine Workers of America rescinding the strike notice, Secretary Wilson invited representatives of the miners and operators from all the fields involved in the walk-out to meet here Friday "for the purpose of negotiating a basis for settlement."

The miners accepted. When Mr. Wilson went home tonight he had received no formal reply from the operators, but was unofficially advised that they would comply with his request. The secretary was assured by operators' and miners that they would endeavor faithfully to frame a proposal that would send the 425,000 strikers back to work and industry at once.

Wilson As Mediator. Thomas T. Brewster, head of the operators' association of the central competitive field, who arrived here during the day from St. Louis to take an active hand in the situation, made public tonight a telegram to John L. Lewis, acting president of the Miners' Organization, urging "prompt resumption of negotiations." The message was sent, it was explained, before Secretary Wilson had put his invitation on the wires, and made no reference to the labor secretary as a mediator. Brewster suggested negotiation of a "contract to be in force up to the termination of the contract now in effect" without saying when or how this would be determined.

Word came from Lewis tonight that the miners had decided to accept Mr. Wilson's offer and that they had so notified Brewster. The secretary of Labor steps taking to the front as mediator, will take up his work exactly as it was laid out two weeks ago, except that no strike threat will hang over the conference. Instead of there being present in the conference representatives of miners and operators only from central competition fields, embracing the States of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, the conference will include miners from all fields involved in the strike, stretching over more than twenty states. Mr. Wilson's action in broadening the scope of the wage negotiations was a surprise to the operators, but the larger plan of representation was adopted because of the desire of men from other fields to have a voice in the deliberations.

Big Boom To Canada's Pulp And Paper Industry To Be Started In The Province of Quebec

Quebec, Nov. 11.—A big movement for the further development of the pulp and paper industry in Canada will be started in the Province of Quebec shortly by the firm of Price Brothers & Co.

Statistics show that the manufacture of pulp and paper is one of the greatest industries which Canada possesses at the present time, the daily output of paper in this country being 2,500 tons, as compared with 2,900 tons in the United States. Of Canada's daily output, 260 tons are manufactured at Jonquières and Kenogami by Price Brothers & Co., and machinery is being installed to bring this output up to over 300 tons a day. Not even satisfied with this, the firm still plans further expansion, and in an interview given today, Sir William Price, the president of the company, outlined his plans as follows:

"My board has definitely decided to start work without delay on a large newsprint mill in the Saguenay district with a capacity of between four hundred to five hundred tons. Work has already been started on the necessary water power and by May of next year reconstruction of the mill will be under way. A further machine is now being erected in our Kenogami mill. This machine would have been working in England. This brings our present output up to 270 tons per day, including Jonquières, 225 tons per day of paper and board, in addition to sulphite pulp. When our new plant in operation, our total output of paper and board will be in the neighborhood of 300 tons per day."

From this statement most important results are bound to follow. The site for the new town is about three or four miles east of Chicoutimi and will be called "Saguenay," a most fitting name. It is situated on tide water, and free from the usual tide delays that are experienced at Chicoutimi. An excellent level plain stretches to the south and west, and the whole area is most fittingly adapted for a large manufacturing and industrial centre.

ERZBERGER PLAN NOT ACCEPTABLE

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Dr. K. W. W. Heine, Minister of the Interior, in a sensational speech at Dessau yesterday, declared that the financial plans of Matthias Erzberger, the Financial Secretary, if carried out, would mean the collapse of the entire Empire. Erzberger, he said, had to find money wherever it was obtainable in order to carry out the terms of the Peace Treaty, but he asked, what commune had an interest in getting money together when it would all go to fill the Emperor's big pockets and leave the people paupers. The speaker added that the Federal states must strongly oppose Erzberger's plans.

IMPORTATION OF LIQUOR MAY BE CONTINUED

After Pronouncement of Peace, Liquors May be Imported from One Province to Another for Private Use.

CONFUSION OVER PROHIBITION BILL

Nothing in Legislation Passed Monday Relating to War-time Prohibition Orders in Council.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—Inquiries received at the capital indicate that there is still some confusion in the public mind as to the effect of the prohibition legislation passed in the closing days of the session. This is doubtless due to the fact that the proposal, made by the Government to introduce a bill extending war-time prohibition Orders in Council for a period of twelve months after the war, was not proceeded with on account of the opposition expressed at a Government caucus called specially to consider the matter.

It will be recalled that at the regular session of Parliament last winter legislation on these lines was passed by the Commons but rejected by the Senate.

There is nothing in the legislation passed by the Parliament yesterday relating to the war-time Prohibition Orders in Council. When these cease to be effective, on the formal proclamation of Peace, conditions which exist in regard to the transportation of liquor from one Province to another before these orders became operative, will be at once restored. The amendment to the Canada Temperance Act in the nature of enabling legislation providing, as the Minister of Justice explained for local option areas enlarged to provinces. The plebiscite must be manufactured for the Government at the request of provincial legislatures, and if a bare majority of the people vote dry, the Dominion Government will issue a proclamation forbidding importation of liquor into the province. The provisions of the act, however, do not become effective in any Province until the legislature of the Province makes the necessary move to have a plebiscite taken. Until this is done, importation of liquor by private individuals, but not for sale, will be permitted, after the pronouncement of Peace.

The bill to amend the Doherty Act also adopted yesterday provides that liquor must not be manufactured for purposes contrary to the laws of a province, which means that it cannot be manufactured for sale in a province where such sale is forbidden. It may continue to be manufactured for export, however.

RIOTS FOLLOW ARMISTICE DAY PARADE IN W.V.

Three Former Soldiers Killed, Several Wounded by I. W. W.'s—One I. W. W. Reported Lynched.

Centralia, W. Va., Nov. 11.—Three former soldiers, members of the American Legion, were killed, two other service men were probably mortally wounded and several other soldiers were less seriously hurt, when persons, said to be members of the Industrial Workers of the World, fired at an Armistice Day parade today as it passed the I. W. W. hall.

A man, said to have been one of those who fired on the marchers, is believed to have been lynched tonight by citizens.

At least eight supposed I. W. W.'s are in the local jail, guarded from a crowd of about a hundred friends of the men shot down today.

MAIL CARRIERS TO GO ON STRIKE

Rural Carriers in the Maritime Provinces Give Notice That They Will Strike Nov. 22.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Nov. 11.—Fred McNelis, of the rural mail carriers' union in Canada, announced today that the rural mail carriers in the Maritime Provinces, would go on strike November 22. They are demanding a fixed salary, according to mileage, as in the United States, instead of the jobs being given by the post office to the lowest tender as at present. They say that the postal department ignored their request, hence the coming strike.

DESPITE RECENT REVERSES OUTLOOK IN NORTHWEST RUSSIA IS HOPEFUL

Reval, Monday, Nov. 10.—(By The Associated Press)—The outlook in northwestern Russia is regarded as hopeful notwithstanding recent reverses. The optimism is apparently based on the taking over by France of the British military mission, with the appointment of General Niesel in command. He is expected to arrive in the next few days, and it is hoped that unity of command will be established and sufficient supplies assured.

The evacuation of Yamburg is extremely difficult as the town is crowded with refugees and the hospitals are filled. Communication with Narva is bad owing to the lack of rolling stock.

DIGNITARIES OF STATE RECEIVE PRINCE ON ARRIVAL AT WASH. TO BECOME NATION'S GUEST

With a Simplicity Becoming the Ideals of Democracy the Prince Was Welcomed to Washington Yesterday—Owing to President's Illness the Reception Ceremonies Were Very Informal—No Fixed and Dried Programme for His Stay and He Will be Left to do as He May Elect.

Washington, Nov. 11.—With a simplicity in keeping with the ideals of democracy, the Prince of Wales was welcomed to Washington today and became the guest of the nation. Owing to the illness of President Wilson, which prevented his personal participation, the reception ceremonies on the arrival of the prince were very informal, although Mr. Marshall, members of the cabinet and high officers of the army and navy stood in a drizzling rain at the station to greet the distinguished visitor.

The more formal welcome was extended tonight by Mr. Marshall, president of the prince, at his dinner given in the prince's honor at the Belmont Hotel, which was the first day of his stay in Washington.

After the brief greetings on his arrival, and a ride through wet streets behind a cavalry escort, Prince Edward's time was taken up with receiving formal calls until he broke away to pay a brief visit to the White House and make personal inquiries as to the health of the president. He was received by Mrs. Wilson and Miss Margaret Wilson, but will not see Mr. Wilson until Thursday. The prince then will be Mrs. Wilson's guest at tea and will visit Mr. Wilson in his sick room.

Throughout the stay of the prince in Washington a wide degree of elasticity will characterize his sojourn and no advance announcements as to times and places of his visits will be made. Much has been left to the selection of the prince himself. He has before him, however, a rather arduous programme, including the decorations here and in New York of some two hundred American soldiers and sailors for services during the war. Beyond that, he will visit Mount Vernon, a reception tonight to greet members of Congress and a few other set engagements. Prince Edward will dispose of much of his time as he sees fit.

Reception Committee. Viscount Grey, personal representative of King George in this country as British ambassador, and the full staff, civil, military and naval of the embassy, were at the station to meet the prince. In deference to the fact that he was coming as the guest of the United States, they stood back and the American official party had greeted him.

DELEGATES OF THE BALTIC STATES IN CONFERENCE

Exchange Views on the Question of an Armistice With Bolshevik and Formation Border States' League.

Dorpat, Livonia, Monday, Nov. 10.—(Associated Press)—Delegates of the Baltic States, summoned to meet here, held conferences yesterday and again this morning. The first general meeting with representatives of Finland, the Ukrainians and Poland in attendance, was held this afternoon. White there has been only an exchange of views on the questions of an armistice with the Bolsheviks and the formation of a Border States' League.

A hint that the Dorpat conference might be only a preliminary to a still more important conference was contained recently in a Warsaw message to the London Labor Organ, the Daily Herald, reporting that Poland was about to issue an ultimatum to Russia to call to all the boundaries in Russia including Finland, Estonia and the other border states, to cease fighting November 25th and send delegates to

ACQUISITION OF G. T. R. STOCK WILL TAKE TIME

Arbitrators Not Yet Named, Gov't, However, is Going Ahead With Preparation of the Agreement.

MEIGHEN IN CHARGE OF THE WORK

After Agreement Has Been Ratified by Both Parties to Trade, Arbitrators Will Have Matter for Consideration.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—Acquisition by the Government of the stock of the Grand Trunk Railway Systems is likely to be a somewhat lengthy process, according to information obtainable here. The board of arbitrators, two members of which remain to be settled, will have to be appointed and there is, as yet, no indication of the names of the men who will represent the Government and the Grand Trunk Company. Sir Walter Cassels will, as was announced in the House of Commons, be the third member.

In the meantime the government is going ahead with the preparation in charge of Hon. Arthur Meighen, although other ministers are probably assisting in drawing it up. It was stated today at the Department of Railways that drafting the agreement and its submission to the Grand Trunk shareholders could hardly be accomplished within a month at the very least, while a longer time might be required for the completion of this stage of the matter.

The agreement once ratified, both sides will go to work to draw up their cases for submission to the arbitrators. An audit of the Grand Trunk Railway Company's books, and a valuation of the property assets of the road, will have to be made by the Government before it is ready to submit its case to the arbitrators. This may be a lengthy process, which will probably occupy a couple of more months. Indications are that the actual proceedings will not be started before the end of January. As the head office of the Grand Trunk Railway in Canada is situated in Montreal, and of the Grand Trunk Pacific in Winnipeg, it is likely that the sittings of the court will be largely confined to those cities.

CONSTIPATION or COSTIVENESS

Constipation, although generally described as a disease, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver.

CONSTITUTION

There is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is piles, and unless the bowels are kept open by the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills the whole system will be poisoned and many different complications of disease arise, so if you would be well, keep your bowels regular.

It was also said that while businessmen of St. John were making an appeal to private citizens to give loans, the wage earners who did much to make the former proud records were not taking up this loan as well as those interested during the war.

Mayor Hayes presided and the speakers were Lieut.-Gov. Fuglesy, Mr. Hayes, Mrs. Kuhring, Rev. Father Davidson, R. D. Paterson, and T. H. Estabrook. The Veterans band paraded before the theatre, and occupied seats on the platform. They rendered a number of selections.

Rev. Dr. Rees Delivered a Wonderful Address in Carleton City Hall Last Evening—His Theme Was "God's Love."

The sermon of Rev. Dr. Rees in City Hall, West Side last evening was a masterpiece of eloquence and reached and moved the hearts of all present. His theme was, "God's Love," and the text John 3: 16. He said in part: "God's love is everywhere revealed. We see it in nature; we see it in human life. It is above us and about us. In it we live and move and have our being. But the supreme manifestation of His love was born in a manger; walked on the sea; prayed on the mountain top; was crucified on a cross and arose from death to save the world. Here in love as high as heaven to which it will recede us, as boundless as immensity; as lasting as eternity.

HYLAN'S ENTIRE ADMINISTRATION TO BE BARED BY SPECIAL GRAND JURY, CITY HALL HEARS

Nine More of Mayor's Aids Appear Before Inquisitors—'Little Blue Book' is to be Subpoenaed in Police End of Inquiry.

New York, Nov. 8.—That the Extraordinary Grand Jury investigating the alleged conspiracy of interborough officials and labor leaders to bring about the strike on the subway and elevated systems last August has extended the scope of its inquiry to include Mayor Hylan's entire administration was the substance of a report circulated yesterday in the Criminal Courts Building.

It was rumored that not alone is the body engaged in an investigation of the Mayor's office in the City Hall, but that the actions of certain officials in the Police Department, as well as in several other departments under the Mayor, will come under the scrutiny of the Grand Jurors.

Credence was gained for the report through the calling before the body of James F. Smith and John T. Dooling, Assistant District Attorneys, and nine employees of Mayor Hylan's office in the City Hall.

Mr. Smith heretofore has not been connected with the investigations of the alleged traction conspiracy conducted by the Grand Jury and by Edward Swan, District Attorney. Up to several months ago he engaged in almost nightly raids on gambling and vice resorts in the city and on several occasions clashed with police officials while conducting raids in various districts.

Mr. Dooling aided the District Attorney in an investigation started more than a year ago into charges that certain dairymen up the State and large distributors of milk in the city had conspired to raise the price of milk.

Called to Check "Reds." The Extraordinary Grand Jury was convened by the Governor early last summer to investigate alleged anarchist plots in the city. Soon after the strike of the employees of the subway and elevated systems Justice Weeks, in the Supreme Court, requested the body to take up investigations of the alleged conspiracy to raise the price of milk and Mayor Hylan's allegation that officials of the Interborough and leaders of their employers' brotherhood had brought about the subway and elevated strike to force the Board of Estimate to permit a raise of fare

WORLD REVOLUTION TO FOLLOW WAR IN CZERNIN'S THEORY

Former Austrian Minister Saw Germs of Death in Versailles Pact.

Vienna, Nov. 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—The book of revelations regarding the war written by Count Czernin, former Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, is complete and has come into the possession of a Vienna political personality who briefly and publicly sketches what the Count writes. It presents in detail one section of the war, says the writer, and throws light on dark episodes by official documents, articles and letters. Czernin publishes astonishing writings of the one-time German Chancellor, confidential messages from ambassadors and ministers, protocols about government meetings in short, facts and proofs.

The Count, however, says the writer tries above all to prove that he never had any blame or guilt and that he was always right and saw what was coming. In two important points Czernin is able to prove completely that he was a good prophet, for in 1916 he was the only Austrian diplomat who predicted the Russian war and in 1917 the breakdown and the revolution. The writer continues:

"The submarine warfare and President Wilson form two separate chapters. The struggle of Czernin against the U-boat warfare are shown from the reports and protocols which are reproduced. Germany, however, would not take counsel, and insisted upon using this method. Czernin discusses the idea of separating Austria from Germany but is convinced this would have brought no advantage.

"Should America come into the war against Germany, Austria-Hungary would be automatically drawn in for Austro-Hungarian artillery was already at the west front, Czernin says.

"Full of gripping interest," the writer adds, "is the chapter about Wilson. Czernin considers Wilson unquestionably honorable, but he questioned from the first whether Wilson's theories would prevent the carrying out of London's ideas. Czernin says he made efforts to determine whether Wilson's programs of the Italian congress would be the deciding factor in the peace discussion, but right in the middle of his negotiations he was relieved from office, he says. His suspicion of the fourteen points was justified. At Versailles, he declares, the terms of the London conference triumphed, not the theories of Wilson.

"Count Czernin says of the future:—'Versailles is not the end of the war; it is only a phase of it. The war will continue, even if in altered form. I believe that coming generations will not call the great drama that ruled the world for five years the world war, but the world revolution, and will know that the world revolution only began with the war.'

GOMPERS FLAYS ADMINISTRATION

Tells Foreign Labor Delegates That President Has Not Been Properly Informed of Miners' Troubles.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Abjuring loyalty to a "temporary administration which violates the principles of democracy," Samuel Gompers, speaking for American labor at a dinner given tonight for delegates to the International Federation of Trades Unions, declared that "we are tied to an administration, but we are free men and propose to exercise the freedom of our judgment."

Mr. Gompers told the representatives of foreign labor that he did not believe that a true understanding of the coal miners' strike had reached the president because of his illness.

Responding to the American labor leader's address, Leon Jobson, leader of the French labor delegation to the international labor conference, declared that "if the workers of the United States need the assistance of the workers of the other countries they will get it," as, he added, "frontiers cannot separate the interest of workers and private interests."

Canada's Export Trade—A New Era for Ontario—Politicians and Prohibitionists—Quebec's Increasing Population.

Canada's New Day.
(London Free Press.)
The Wall Street Journal comments upon Canada's success in having its trade balance following as well as during the war. "Had not Canada so well discounted the change shown in the decrease in British exports," remarks the Journal, "and the further loss in sales to France, she would be back on the basis of an adverse trade balance. But she now shows an export balance of $125,000,000 for seven months of the current year—exceeding the aggregate of all such balances from the time of Confederation to August, 1914." This position is most encouraging. The time has passed when Canada has only wheat to export. Her manufacturers have taken a leading place and this advantage can be held if our manufacturers are taught them to be. Canada has made a name for herself that has opened up many markets that previously had disregarded her importance. "Manufactured exports should no longer be ignored," says the Journal, "while domestic manufacture for home consumption is a factor of importance." The Journal is impressed with the fact that Canada has passed through a severe period of labor readjustment, and adds that we have put politics and problems aside and are bent on a position in world trade that we could not obtain by mere exports of raw material.

Against Woman Suffrage.
(L'Action Catholique.)
"Has not a recent local experience demonstrated that the agitation in favor of woman suffrage is repugnant to the great majority of women? This fact is a warning of nature itself—that woman is not made for the disputes of the forum and the hurly burly of politics. We ought not to change the condition of things, or if we do make a change, let us guard against results which may be detrimental to the whole of society. Let us remain as we are and keep our heads. Private Greed Cut Throat of Eastern Ontario.
(Toronto Telegram.)
Eastern Ontario municipalities must temporarily accept $40 horse power and $50 horsepower as the penalty for their misplaced faith in the private ownership principles of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. G. P. Graham. The Hydro municipalities buy $15, $20 and $30 per h. p. electricity as the reward of their well placed faith in the public ownership policies of Sir James Whitney and Sir Adam Beck. Corporatist Liberals in Brockville, Belleville and other eastern Ontario municipalities have only to keep their hands off Adam Beck's proposals to distribute from the St. Lawrence all through eastern Ontario. Eastern Ontario cut its own throat with knives sharpened for the slaughter or cheap electricity by the Seymour Power poles of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. G. P. Graham.

Take Your Pick.
(Woodstock Sentinel-Review.)
Some politicians who supported prohibition were snubbed under the recent Provincial election. Some politicians who refused to take any stand upon prohibition were returned triumphantly. The lesson is—well, the lesson to be drawn depends upon the lesson you want to draw.

A Prolific Race.
(L'Evening.)
Announcement is made that the population of the Province of Quebec has been increased by more than 400,000 souls since 1911 and that the increase will have reached half a million before the next census in 1921. The way things are going we shall be the most populous province in Confederation before many years are over, even if Ontario continues to increase at the same proportion as she has done in the past. Our neighboring province has only added 100,000 to her population since 1911. Of a truth we are a prolific race.

A New Era For Ontario.
(The Farmer's Sun.)
The change in government which has taken place in Ontario is wholly different from that which would have occurred had Mr. Dewar and his followers obtained a majority in the new Assembly. That would have been merely a change of control from one party to another party bearing a different name but with the same general viewpoint. As events really have developed power has passed from the hands of professional politicians to those of the people. The term "the people" is used advisedly because the element that will control the new Administration does not represent merely one class or even two classes. It is true candidates for the Legislature nominated by the U.F.O. will form the largest body in the new Legislature. It is also true that representatives of Organized Labor will have a place in the new Administration. But these men have been entrusted with the government of the Province, not because of their class affiliations, but for the reason that the great mass of the people of Ontario were tired of the old party politicians and his ways and demanded a new deal under which meaningless partisanship would be eliminated and a real effort made to give the Province a sane and honest administration of affairs for the benefit of all legitimate interests. This fact is recognized both by Mr. Drury and those who will stand behind him in the Legislature. There will be no attempt to introduce class rule, but there is a determination to make the general good the one consideration. While agriculture will not be ignored as it has been in the past no injustice will be done to those engaged in other callings.

Group Government.
(Charlottetown Guardian.)
The press of the sister provinces has, with remarkable unanimity, concluded that party government is at an end in Canada. This conclusion is based upon the result of the recent election in Ontario where groups, heretofore practically unknown in politics, have superseded the two old time parties. One swallow does not make a summer, nor does one election offer any definite basis upon which to forecast the result of future elections. The two party political system is deep-rooted in Canada. Sporadic dissatisfaction within each party is not unknown and the fact that some of the spores on one occasion evolved into dominant influence does not necessarily presage their final complete demoralization. Groups there have been in political systems for time immemorial in older countries although heretofore little known in Canadian politics. No doubt groups will occasionally arise both in provincial and federal politics which may possibly have the effect of placing the balance of power temporarily within reach of the highest bidder and in this lies one of the dangers in the group system.

As per advertisement in another part of this paper it will be seen that the County Local Housing Board are now prepared to entertain applications for loans from parties who may require some financial assistance in either completing homes for themselves, which may now be in course of erection or the building of which may be contemplated. The Board are also having at present plans drawn for the different types of houses they propose building on behalf of applicants who wish to pay for same on the monthly payment plan. These plans they expect to be ready for public inspection within a short time.

heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory both because of "the thing from which it has freed us, and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of the nations."
The exercise by the American people of practical patriotism during the war, General Pershing said, was an avowal of their firm adherence to the principles of free government that will continue to have great influence of the people throughout the world. Secretary Baker said that while mourning for the dead, the nation is grateful for their achievement and for that of their living brothers and that "in the name of both we may hope for an early accomplishment of the terms of peace that shall complete their work upon the battlefields of France."

BEFOREHAND BRITAIN.

Great Britain appears to have conquered a great proportion of the earth in a fit of absence of mind, remarked Sir John Seeley in one of his lectures on political history. If John Bull is the absent-minded beggar he is sometimes represented to be, his guiding star serves him in good stead. Now that the coal question assumes phases that threaten his national prosperity, it transpires that he has quietly obtained possession of the next important source of power. British capital now controls the lion's share of the available oil supplies of the world.

Great Britain's industrial, commercial and financial prosperity has hitherto rested largely on coal. Also her position as a world power has been built on coal; her maritime supremacy has been directly founded on her cheap coal, and her possession of coal stations at strategic points all over the globe. During the war her control of bunker coal enabled her to oblige neutral shipping to serve Allied needs—a potent help in winning the war.

Now Great Britain's position as the great maritime trading power is being challenged by America, and America bases her hope of building up a mercantile marine, able to compete with Britain, largely on the utilization of oil. Heretofore America has produced about 60 per cent. of the oil supply of the world; and at the present rate of consumption it is estimated that her oil resources will be exhausted in thirty years. And the annual consumption is increasing rapidly. Oil is being used more extensively for power purposes in industry and land transport, and a great many of America's new merchant ships are being fitted with oil-burning furnaces—some are being equipped with oil motors. Already America has begun to import oil; last year she obtained from Mexico 35,000,000 barrels of oil of 42 gallons each. Americans are searching the world over for new oil fields—only to find, almost wherever they turn, that British enterprise has been before them, and that the control of all the most promising oil properties is in British hands. E. MacKay Edgar, a former Canadian, now head of the great London firm of Sperling and Company, declared in an interview recently that soon Americans will have to come to British interests for the oil they need to the tune of many scores of millions sterling a year.

British interests associated with the Altes group control the overwhelming majority of oil concessions in Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Colombia, Venezuela and Ecuador, and the British interests are proceeding to develop these concessions under conditions which, it is said, will assure perpetual control of them. The Shell Group, a number of British organizations with a paid-up capital of half a billion dollars, control vast oil fields in Mexico, Russia, the Dutch East Indies, Burma, Romania, Egypt, Venezuela, Trinidad, India, Ceylon, the Malay Straits, North and South China, Siam, the Straits Settlement, and the Philippines. This huge concern is now searching for oil in the Canadian West. Mr. Edgar estimates that in ten years time British interests will be selling 500,000,000 barrels of oil to America a year—an annual levy of a billion dollars on the United States.

The British Navy was the first in the world to adopt the use of oil for fuel, and large numbers of British merchant ships are now being fitted with oil-burning furnaces. At present the United States has the largest number of motor-driven ships, but the biggest and finest motor-driven passenger ship was launched in Scotland last year. So it may be taken for granted that the "offshore" Mother Country has her eyes wide open to the possibilities of oil as a new source of economic and political power, and that she is ready and determined to accept herself to meet any new form of competition which may seem to threaten her maritime supremacy.

A GOOD OMEN.

The decision of the miners' leaders to obey the mandate of the Courts and call off the strike relieves a dangerous situation, for the decision of the American Federation of Labor to support the miners might have led to a struggle of nation-wide dimensions. In view of the fact that some years ago the coal mine owners defied President Roosevelt for weeks, the prompt acquiescence of the miners' leaders is a victory for law and order in a situation where even the Government's position from the standpoint of democracy, and even of legality, left something to be desired. One of the contentions of the Government was that the strike was not legal because the miners had not taken a referendum on it, but as the strike was called under the orders of a convention of duly elected representatives of the miners who met some time previously, the Government's contention would appear to strike at the whole system of representative government. Another contention of the Government was that the United States was still in a state of war, and that, therefore, it had the right to order the miners to continue at their work on a principle of doubtful validity seeing that it had not been applied to a multitude of other strikes. On this point the Government's position amounted to a suspension of civil law in favor of military law, a thing that no government in England would have dreamed of after the close of hostilities.

If the miners obey the order of their leaders, and it would be the worse of policy for them to refuse to do so in the circumstances, the Government will be under some obligations to bring about arbitration of the questions at issue between the operators and their men. The whole affair may result in something being done to provide for the legal arbitration of labor disputes, a thing the American Federation of Labor and most Employers' Associations in the United States have hitherto strongly opposed. But this attitude, which practically declares that might is right, is being outlawed by the fact that labor troubles are now on such a gigantic scale that the interests of the general public are disastrously affected in an increasing number of ways.

CAPTURE THE GUN.

While the speakers at the Victory Loan meeting last evening were hopeful that the city of St. John would attain its objective, evidently the citizens will have to make a big effort if the German gun is to come to this commercial metropolis of the Province. According to the statement made by Mr. Patterson that gun is now in possession of Madawaska, which is 25 per cent. over its objective and to beat that St. John would have to raise $5,000,000, a matter of two millions to be obtained in four days. In previous loans St. John made enviable records, and it is greatly to be desired that the chief city of the Province should capture the German gun, as a memento of a final war. Mr. Estabrook told the meeting that the business men of St. John were making an effort proportionate to their previous efforts in other loans, but that the anticipated subscriptions from the wage earners of the city had not materialized for some reason. In previous loans small subscriptions were a notable feature, carrying St. John well over the top, but whether the workers are not earning as much money as during the war, or do not appreciate that Canada's needs are still imperative, the small subscriptions so far have been disappointing. Possibly there may be a better showing in the last four days; at any rate there ought to be.

As regards New Brunswick, Mr. Estabrook said that while some towns and counties had done well, the outlook for the Province attaining its objective was none too bright. It is to be hoped that he was unduly pessimistic. New Brunswick's effort in putting soldiers in the field bears comparison with any Province, and it would be a reflection on her citizens if they failed in the final effort of raising money, even though they may be proud of their previous efforts.

INSTALLMENT PLAN.

"It's just as good as cash" is a common expression in relation to the Victory Bond that was bought last year or the year before. The same applies to the bonds now being sold for the Victory Loan 1919. The Nation requires capital in order that the interests of every citizen may be protected. It is willing to pay liberally for the use of the money and offers the best security imaginable. Strain your credit to the limit if you have not ready money to put into bonds. The installment arrangement which has been provided is most considerate. It gives all people a chance to keep themselves. The small investor can make no mistake in following the example of Canada's most expert financiers who consider the loan is a "good buy". The banks will subscribe liberally and will be investing the savings of their depositors. Why should the depositors hang back from making the investment themselves and getting almost double the rate of interest. Buy Victory Bonds even if you have to borrow to do so. The installment plan provides a good way to save money.

Touching its incorrect version of what took place at the Opposition Convention, The Globe dolefully asks: "How could The Globe obtain an accurate report when the reporters were excluded from the convention session at which Mr. Baxter spoke?" If The Globe was not satisfied that the report of the proceedings upon which it based its peculiar observations was not accurate, it has shown less regard for its own reputation than it had any need to do. If it was not satisfied that its own version of the proceedings was correct it was its duty as a public journal to make further enquiries. Before publishing its incorrect version of the proceedings The Globe might at any rate have checked it by reference to the secretary, or chairman of the meeting, or the men whom it has attacked.

WHAT THEY SAY

Hard to Understand.
(London Free Press.)
The London Times says Canadian politics are hard to understand. But so are the politics of The London Times sometimes difficult to decipher.

A Logical Step.
(N. Y. Herald.)
If this sort of thing goes on—everybody endorsing her candidacy—Mr. Lloyd George will be forced in sheer self-defence to take Lady Astor into the Cabinet as soon as she is elected and so show that he is correct on the subject of the rights of women.

Would End Government.
(Toronto Mail and Empire.)
The men who are holding up the bituminous coal supply in the United States decline to go back to work unless the Government withdraws its injunction against unlawful courses on their part. If the Government agrees to cease governing, they may be good enough to come striking. When organized labor sets itself up as the rival or defier of the State its course is both foolish and criminal.

Irish Freedom.
(Los Angeles Times.)
The writer of this editorial is of Irish descent. He, too, dreamed in his salad days the dream of Irish freedom. But the world war brought to him an awakening, and he would no more touch the hand of De Valera with his German tainted war record than he would that of a Hohenzollern. The way to Irish freedom was the road to France. It might have been won upon the plains of Flanders.

A BIT OF VERSE

BUDLEIGH SALTERTON, DEVON, ENGLAND.
Oft in moments of these, O dear Devon home of mine,
By the vale Coleridge fancied, when June's sun was quite sublime;
See the ocean vast and mighty (now it lies so strangely still),
And white gulls like living foam flakes, adrift, here and there at will,
I can see red cliffs majestic, high above the shingled shore,
And the purple heather patches with the golden waves once more;
Then, seaward, brown-winged trawlers adrift in fair placidity,
Hopeful for their evening's brim,
where Lyte wrote "Abide With Me":—
Glimpse a slender line of water, gleaming like a silver thread;
'Tis the little river Otter stealing to its ocean bed.
Sweet perfume from honeysuckle whiffs to me a fresh delight,
As long the winding footpath I wend to the "flagstaff" height;
There I pause and gaze enraptured; weak indeed is my poor speech
To reflect the wealth of beauty outspread far as eye can reach;
While silent is day's requiem, as rises the evening star,
Save the warnings of the bell-bay tuned by tide at Exmouth bar.
Now here All Saints' at East Budleigh I am seeing once again,
And valiant Raleigh's natal home, beyond Hayes' wood and lane;
Ah! those paths hold many treasures, oft fresh glories are revealed
As the gateways frame me pictures which the hedgerows have concealed.
There's the Toplady's Church at Harpford, loving close the river's brim;
His immortal "Rock of Ages" hath a fame o'er every hymn;
So until my own life's river flows into the unknown sea,
Salterton of peaceful beauty, thou art fresh in memory.
—Christina V. Partridge.

Little Benny's Note Book

THE CHORAL SOCIETY.
A choral society with some seventy members has been organized by the congregation of St. Jude's church, West St. John, under the direction of the pastor, Rev. J. H. A. Holmes. Eat Buckwheats—Yes, You Can
Or Any Other Kind of Food Set Before You. But You Need a Stomach Tablet to Help the Stomach Move It Along.
Hot biscuits, buckwheats, rich cake and many other tempting foods are declared to be wholesome, digestible and nourishing under normal stomach conditions.

Many people, however, once got the notion they couldn't eat such things and have grown in prejudice as consequence. They have denied themselves almost everything except milk and water.
But you will find here and there one of this kind eating onions, cucumbers, melons and other such terrors of the dyspeptic because he has found that by merely giving the stomach a little assistance there are no after effects from such indulgence. There is avoidance of gasiness, no sour risings, no water brash, you don't taste 'em hours after.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for both those who suffer after eating and for those who starve for fear of suffering. They relieve the distress of indigestion and they also serve to assist the stomach to prevent indigestion.
Eating should be one of our chief enjoyments. It is really the most attractive of social gatherings, and it is worth our while to realize that we may indulge freely by exercising the precautionary measure of aiding the digestive process. Thus you may eat your hot biscuits, buckwheats, rich cake, onions, mince pie, sausage and so on provided you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet afterwards.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR.
No foundation whatever is attached to the rumor that smallpox cases exist in the city. Enquiry among the health authorities reveals the fact that no cases of smallpox have been reported since early last July. This particular disease is one which practicing physicians are most keen to get rid of, and the regular procedure is to transfer the cases to the medical authorities as soon as discovered.

Overdraft of $8,000 for Commissioner Fisher—Scheme to Route Automobile Traffic Through City—Bill for Revising Voters' Lists—Other Business.

An overdraft of $8,000 for Commissioner Fisher, a scheme of Percy Thomson to route automobile traffic through the city, a bill for revising the voters' lists, and resignations from the Salvage Corps, No. 2, were among the matters before the City Council meeting yesterday. The question of fixing a date for the plebiscite on the harbor matter will be taken up at a special meeting.

Percy W. Thomson, chairman of the Good Roads Committee of N. B. A. A., wrote asking permission to put up overhead arrows to telephone poles directing what routes to follow through the city. The Telephone Company was agreeable.

Commissioner Fisher—The signs will be up in the air about fifteen feet—they won't bother my department. Commissioner Bullock—Good idea. The permit is granted.

Commissioner Thomson—I'm in favor of routing automobile traffic, but I want to know more about this. Mr. Thomson writes on paper of the N. B. Automobile Association and signs himself Good Roads Association. Who's who? And what are the details of the scheme?

The matter was referred to the Commissioner of Safety with power to act. Commissioner Fisher asked for an overdraft of $8,000 on account of the Public Works Department. He regretted this. He had endeavored to keep down expenses. He hoped $8,000 would be more than sufficient, but he could not tell about the snowfalls in December.

Commissioner Thomson—How does the increase arise? Commissioner Fisher—Increased cost of labor, teams and materials. The Mayor—I hope other departments will not take this as an example. The grants may not be fully met, and there may be a considerable deficit.

Commissioner Bullock said they should have a fair explanation of why the Public Works Department exceeded its appropriations. Was it on account of snow clearing last winter or dirt cleaning this summer? It used to be the practice to close down the Public Works Department when it had spent its appropriations.

Commissioner Fisher said that first there had been a mistake in the interest charge on the department; this being back $2,500. Then there were all around increases of wages, and urgent and necessary work of an unexpected nature.

Commissioner Bullock said Commissioner Fisher should have had sanction for his procedure, which was unusual. The Council had ordered him to cut out some expenditures, but he had gone ahead and made other expenditures.

An order to place $8,000 at the credit of the Public Works Department was passed. Commissioner Jones said his former resolution to provide for the extension of water and sewerage to Mount Pleasant had not been amended, because the City Solicitor had discovered that the Town Planning Act was not operative. He therefore moved a resolution providing that the water revenue should figure in the payment of the cost of both the water and sewerage extensions.

Commissioner Fisher—This is contrary to the principles laid down by the Town Planning Act, which we hoped to see adopted. Besides this is not a public street. Commissioner Jones—It will be. Plans for the street have already been filed as the registry office.

Commissioner Jones' motion was adopted. The Mayor brought forward the matter of taking a plebiscite on the harbor question. Commissioner Thomson—I don't think we should hold up the matter any longer. It's the people's right to vote on it.

Commissioner Fisher said he would like to put some questions to the City Solicitor, and he was out of town. It was agreed to take up the matter at a special meeting as soon as possible. Commissioner Bullock recommended that Capt. Amos G. Potter be appointed to the post on the St. John Pilot Commission made vacant by the resignation of Capt. W. R. Bennett. Adopted.

Best Investment Gilbert Ever Made

Tanlac Restored Him to Health Two Years Ago and He Has Been Feeling Fine Ever Since.

"Yes, sir, I can recommend Tanlac for it set me right two years ago, while I was living in Hamilton," said Jeffrey Gilbert while at Kinley's drug store in Halifax recently. Mr. Gilbert resides at 35 Ochterloney street, Dartmouth, and is employed as boiler-maker at the Halifax shipyards.

"Never in all my life," he continued, "have I had a medicine do me so much good as Tanlac. My stomach had been giving me trouble for some time. It just seemed like I could not eat anything but what would give me indigestion the worst kind. I would blot all up with sour gas and feel miserably for hours after every meal. There was feeling like a lump of lead in the pit of my stomach. I would almost double up with cramping with such a headache as I drew a deep breath. My appetite was so poor that I never relished anything to eat and I just suffered constantly with that indigestion. I was continually losing weight, felt weak and sluggish all the time and had no energy left."

"I had tried all kinds of medicines but kept getting worse, and after Tanlac came to Hamilton and so many people had got it, I bought a bottle and I declare that was the best investment I ever made in my life. Before I had finished the first bottle I felt a considerable improvement. Then I bought another, and another, and when I had finished my fourth bottle my stomach was in fine condition and I have not been troubled with indigestion since that time. The gas and pain all disappeared and I am still eating just anything I want without the least trouble from it. It was not only my own experience with Tanlac that convinced me it is wonderful medicine, but I personally know many others who took it with just as fine results as I did. It was going like wildfire in Hamilton while I was there and from what I hear it is selling just as well here in Halifax. You can't beat it and if I should get to where I need medicine again I wouldn't think of taking anything else."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advt.

The Hacking Cough Strains The Lungs.

The terrible, hacking, lung-racking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it lasts the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of the cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E. I., writes—"Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for some time. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ies throughout the province have to bear a similar expense in connection with the voters' list. The Mayor—"We'll have to pay the bill anyway. So it was decided to do so."

Speculative Structure, Reared On Foundation of Easy Money, Topples

Call Loans Reached 25 Per Cent, the Year's Highest Figure and the Maximum Since December of 1907—Losses of Five to Almost Forty Points Sustained by Many Leaders.

New York, Nov. 11.—The lowering speculative structure in the stock market, reared by professional investors in the last month on a foundation of "easy money," toppled overnight when call loans rose to 25 per cent, the year's highest figure since the maximum since December 27th, 1907.

Losses of five to almost forty points were sustained by many leaders in the recent rise, especially Steels, Equipments, Motors and Oils. Numerous other industrials which accompanied the October boom also crumbled in today's convulsive movement.

Almost the only stocks to escape the drastic liquidation were United States Steel, which lost only a fraction of a point, and the big 4 1/2 per cent railway shares where reactions were equally nominal.

The reaction, which effaces the many seasonal gains of the October rise, was the more violent and sweeping because it followed an opening advance of two to six points, based on the calling of the gold miners' strike. In point of fact, that development, favorable as it appeared, excited only temporary influences, prices falling back within the first hour. Even before call loans opened at fourteen per cent, the year's highest initial rate, the market began to sag.

Selling of a substantial character followed the publication of first exchange rates, these forecasting the subsequent active weakness in that market. In the course of the session remittances to London, Paris and Italy broke to discount never before recorded in this market.

Not until the final hour, however, when call money rose to twenty and thence twenty-five per cent, did the stock market become actually demoralized. Large blocks of speculative shares were offered "at the market" or for any price that was offered.

In the main, final quotations were at or within fractions of the day's low quotations. So extensive were the offerings at the close that the market was some twenty minutes behind in recording the day's operations. Approximately 2,000,000 shares changed hands, almost one-third of the day's business being transacted in the last hour.

A canvass of the financial district after the close of the market disclosed a preponderance of bearish sentiment. In certain circles, however, relief was felt that many stockholders had passed from weak to strong hands. To that extent, it was added, the market's technical position was vastly better.

Representatives of the Federal Reserve Bank at Washington, including Governor W. P. G. Harding, were in town, conferring with officials of the local institutions and the executives of leading national estate banks. Governor Harding declined to express an opinion on market conditions but issued the statement that the situation seemed to "be well in hand."

STOCKS TUMBLED WITH A CRASH ON TUESDAY'S TRADE

Violent Upheaval Attributed to Recurrent Stringency in the Money Market.

New York, Nov. 11.—Stocks went down with a crash today, all gains of the previous month and much more in a number of instances being sacrificed in the wave of liquidation which swept over the market in the furiously active final hour. Excepting United States Steel, and Representative railway shares in which recessions were comparatively moderate, leaders reacted five to almost 40 points. General Motors, conspicuous for its recent advance above 400, broke from 386, its best price of the morning, to 348 1/2.

Primarily the violent upheaval was attributed to recurrent stringency in the money market. Call loans opened at the new high of 14 per cent, and held at that price until the last hour, when 20 per cent was demanded, with another jump to 25 per cent just before the finish.

To add to the unsettled further apprehension was caused by the demoralized conditions which prevailed in the stock market for Foreign exchange. Rates on London, Paris and Rome fell to new levels of discount and remittances to less important centers were sympathetically affected. The market was strong almost to the point of buoyancy at its opening, gains of two to six points being accelerated by the short covering which followed the announcement of the calling of the coal miners' strike.

Reversals set in before the end of the first hour, however, each rally being followed by a gradual drop to lower levels. Technical conditions doubtless contributed to the crumbling of buoyancy at the end, many weak margin accounts being thrown upon the market as "stop loss" orders were uncovered. Sales amounted to 1,900,000 shares, Bonds were featureless and more or less neglected in the attention paid to the stock market.

Rejects Glacier Theory
Mr. Van Valin does not believe that the village was overwhelmed by a glacier, holding rather to a belief that the people came to their end through illness.
"In point of fact, I do not know what to think of it," he said last night. "Pestilence is rare in that zone and if they were caught by the ice the village would have been demolished and the men and women crushed. The bodies were in good condition."
Mr. Van Valin, who was in Alaska four years prior to his acceptance of the post with the university, as a representative of the United States Bureau of Education, was accompanied by his wife, and during their stay one child was born. The baby, now a year and a half old and bearing the name of Blair Lowell Van Valin, while the Eskimos call him "Quanna," meaning "Thank you."

It was decided to hold a superintendents' meeting in December and to invite Dr. King of Sackville, to address it. It was also decided to hold community classes for teacher training.

Rejects Glacier Theory. Mr. Van Vain does not believe that the village was overwhelmed by a glacier, holding rather to a belief that the people came to their end through illness.

"In point of fact, I do not know what to think of it," he said last night. "Pestilence is rare in that zone, and if they were caught by the ice the village would have been demolished and the men and women crushed. The bodies were in good condition."

Mr. Van Vain, who was in Alaska four years prior to his acceptance of the post with the university, as a representative of the United States Bureau of Education, was accompanied by his wife, and during their stay one child was born. The baby is now a year and a half old and bears the name of Blair Lowell Van Vain, while the Eskimos call him "Quenna," meaning "Thank you."

A Remedy. "See here, Bridget, the dishes you've put on the table of late have been positively dirty. Something's got to be done about it."
"True for ye, ma'am. If ye only had dark-colored ones, they wouldn't show the dirt at all."
"Who originated football?"
"I can't recall the surgeon's name."

SHAMROCK IV. LOOKS LIKE WINNER TO SIR THOMAS

Canvas Pulled from the Challenger for the America Cup and the Boat Inspected by Owner.

New York, Nov. 11.—Shamrock IV, challenger for the America Cup at the International Yacht Races next year, was inspected today by her owner, Sir Thomas Lipton, at a Brooklyn shipyard, where it has been in drydock since the summer of 1914. The boat will be launched tomorrow morning and taken to winter quarters to be overhauled in preparation for her race with the American entry.

"That's the boat that will do the trick," declared Sir Thomas as the canvas was pulled off his craft and the was exposed to public view for the first time in five years.

ALONG THE SPORT TRAIL

The bike riders of Ottawa are going to continue their training through the winter months and have equipped a gym at one of the local fire stations.

Andy Ashland, 2,094, sold for $380 at the recent McKimsey sales in Boston. He will be raced against a Maine Mystery horse this winter.

Last spring the Philadelphia Athletics did their spring training in their home town—and it did not produce very satisfactory results. Next season Connie Mack is going to Texas as in former years.

Montreal is taking up the winter bench shows early this year and the first show will be staged tomorrow week, with a classy showing of bulls, registered and unregistered.

A cargo of over a thousand footballs have been sent to the troops at Vladivostok by the American Knights of Columbus. A regular, full-length American gridiron has been laid out in the Russian town and there is some excellent material among the army of occupation.

Cory A. Hest, a professional ice-crosey player until six years ago, was reinstated in the amateur ranks at a special meeting of the B. C. A. A. at Vancouver recently.

The New York Giants have received their share of the world series money, amounting to $19,500, or about $600 for each player.

A permanent training ground in the south, with a special hotel and trained servants therein, is a new plan of Charlie Conkley of the Chicago Americans, for the spring thawing out of his team.

Boxing Bout In Halifax Armories

Marty Cross of New York Outclassed Roddy McDonald Last Night and Was Only Given a Draw.

Halifax, Nov. 11.—The main feature of the boxing bout at the Armories tonight was the meeting of Marty Cross, of New York, and Roddy McDonald, of Gloucester Bay. McDonald was outclassed by Cross but not sufficiently so as to convince the referees of the victor's superiority and the bout was declared a draw in the face of the open hostility of the crowd, who hissed and manifested their great disapproval of the decision.

Tommy Elm, of New Jersey knocked out Jimmy Sullivan, of Halifax, in the first round, and Kid Blake of the U. S. Navy knocked out Charlie Elm of New Jersey in the third round.

Party Politics Remains

(Toronto Star)
It would be rash to predict that the present upheaval in politics means the end of party government in Canada. All that can be said is that great changes have occurred and that others may be coming. The old parties have been demoralized. They may be restored. Much will depend upon leadership and policy. Personality will count, as it always does. New issues have made new alignments, and there may be more changes of a similar kind.

IT really shouldn't be necessary at this stage to educate, argue or persuade the people of St. John into buying Victory Bonds.

FOR reasons of patriotism, of thanksgiving and of good business, the people of St. John are going over the top to achieve their allotted quota and to secure the much-prized Prince of Wales Honour Flag.

IF you haven't any ready money, arrange with your employer or with any bank to buy on the installment plan. You will be able to meet the installments alright, and a few months hence you will be glad you arranged to do so.

Soldier Members Were The Guests

Over Two Hundred Members of Sons of England Celebrated Armistice Day at Bond's Last Evening.

Over two hundred members of Marlborough, Portland and New Brunswick Lodges, Sons of England Society, representing all ages from eighteen to eighty, celebrated Armistice Day right royally at Bond's last night, when the soldier members were the guests of those who had stayed at home and helped them "carry on."

After ample justice had been given to an excellent dinner, F. J. Punter, president of Marlborough Lodge, welcomed the brethren in a few well-chosen words. He spoke of the noble response which was first made by England's small army to the challenge of the Hun hordes.

Marlborough Lodge, he thought, stood equal to any lodge in Canada in the point of volunteer soldier members. Out of a membership of 237 when war broke out, 87 have been on active service, and twelve are among those who will never return. Throughout the Dominion order, one in every five has served overseas, and over 300 have been killed in action.

War claims have been paid to the amount of $106,675, for while the eligible ones went overseas, the older ones and the "unfits" were left to carry on, so that when the veterans return they find the lodge still in existence and all claims paid.

In reviewing the work of the lodge during the past nine months, he spoke of the beautiful silk flag presented to Marlborough Lodge by Bro. T. H. Carter, Supreme President of the Canadian order, for taking in the most members during the war.

"The war is over and won," he said. "The bugles have sounded the dispersal, but not so with the lodge. The Victory is ours, and we will wear the flag, but the bugle is still calling for recruits and still there are a large number of Englishmen who have not heard the call, and it is up to every man here tonight to plunge into the work in order that our meetings shall be so large that we shall have to get more chairs."

In closing, let me remind you that we are living in a new age. Our membership is composed largely of younger men who are looking for amusement. The night of long, strenuous lodge meetings must become a thing of the past if we expect to have a good attendance, and we must have more social and less lodge."

In response to the toast to the Supreme Lodge, which was proposed by District Deputy H. C. Van Wart, the new Supreme President, T. H. Carter, responded with a brief address directed to the men who have returned from overseas, telling them what has been done while they were away. A very considerable work was done by those who stayed at home, he declared. The order had lost 862 members in the war, and all claims were paid, the money coming from the members who stayed at home. All the dues of the soldier members were paid while they were on service, and the sum of $250,000 was expended for sick and funeral benefits at home. Large sums were raised for the Red Cross, Patriotic Fund, Overseas Tobacco Fund and other purposes, so it could easily be proved that the members at home held up their end of the job.

The society, he thought, should now reorganise and make up for ground lost during the war. Marlborough Lodge, he thought, could become the banner lodge of the Dominion, and might easily increase its membership to 500.

The Sons of England Society, he said, started in 1874 with a membership of 12. Now it is located in every town in Canada, there are lodges in Newfoundland, and over 70 in South Africa, all under the jurisdiction of the Canadian body. The society has paid $1,250,000 in sick benefits; $750,000 for medical services; $600,000 for funerals; and $1,250,000 in insurance claims.

There will be made, under the auspices of the Supreme Council, a special endeavor to increase the membership of all the provincial orders, and he urged the local lodges to try and capture the prize.

Supreme President Carter also suggested that the three local lodges should get together and erect a suitable memorial to the honor of those who had fallen in active service, a suggestion that was greeted with wild applause.

He said that there was a member of Marlborough Lodge who had performed signal service during the past two years in getting new members, and calling upon Bro. Edgar W. Darby, presented him with a framed and engrossed certificate of merit as an appreciation from the Supreme Council.

The toast to the "Soldier and Sailor Brothers" was proposed by Charles Ledford, secretary of the lodge, and was responded to by H. I. Carlos, paid D. D. on behalf of the Army, and Charles Nixon for the Navy. The singing of Soldiers of the King, and "Sons of the Sea" concluded the honoring of the toast.

E. A. Laarson proposed the toast to the sister lodges, which was responded to by President F. S. Parry, of Portland Lodge, and President Fred Thomas, of New Brunswick Lodge. A silent toast to the departed brethren was proposed by Bro. P. L. Griffith.

Impromptu addresses were delivered by Dr. L. M. Curran, surgeon to the local lodges; John Walker, past president, and William Hawker.

Among the entertaining items on the programme were the choruses by the members, all exceptionally good singers, solos by Elmer Belding, E. Clarence Girvan, Robert Carson, F. J. Punter, W. C. Parker, Walter Brindle, a monologue by Howe Matthews, exhibition of club swinging and juggling by C. A. Cromwell and a reading by Stanley K. Smith of a number of poems written by Walter Brindle, several of them showing exceptional merit.

L. C. Cochrane, assisted by Bond's orchestra, furnished the musical accompaniment for the evening.

St. John Association Heard Interesting Reports Yesterday Afternoon and Elected Officers for Ensuing Term.

The address of Dr. Farris in which he proved that sick people can and do get well in this much maligned climate was a feature of the annual meeting of the St. John Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon.

Joseph A. Likely presided and in his opening address congratulated the members on the successful year just past.

The report of the secretary, Miss Muriel Sadler contained the following facts:

The Dispensary at 72 Carleton street has been open 173 days during the year. Dr. Farris holds a clinic on the third Thursday of each month at which anyone may be examined free of charge by making application to Miss Brophy at the Dispensary.

Dr. Farris examined 131 patients and Dr. Legie 217. Two hundred and thirty-eight prescriptions were filled. Seven cases have been sent to River Glade. At the beginning of the year there were 131 patients, and there were 108 new patients; 93 were discharged and eight died. Towards the salary of a second nurse, St. John Women's societies contributed $101. The visitors have been untiring in their work. The Mission church ladies gave bed socks and slippers to children at East St. John, and St. Monica's Society provided clothing for a patient at River Glade. Fruit at Christmas and milk and eggs were distributed at Easter. The milk and eggs fund has received two generous donations.

The treasurer, Miss H. S. Smith, in her report showed a balance on hand of $280.71, and in the emergency fund $51.08.

Mr. Likely stated that the Board of Health had included the salary of a second nurse in their estimates for 1920.

Dr. Brown showed that the deaths from tuberculosis were this year 78, as against 95 last year, and this in spite of the fact that the incidence this was a great advance, and he felt if only some way could be devised so that more persons would come to the Dispensary that good work which the association is doing would be doubled.

Dr. Emery congratulated the association on its splendid progress, saying that when the society started the health of the community and the reduction of tuberculosis was being made.

Dr. Farris, for the publicity committee, said that a meeting to be held at the Metropolitan Theatre on the first Sunday in December had been arranged at which Dr. George D. Porter, president of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society of Canada will speak. Clergymen have agreed to devote part of their sermon on that day to the subject.

Dr. Farris said he was sick of hearing the St. John climate run down and stated that the fact that such recoveries had been made here showed the disease was not the fault of the climate. He felt that if people had more air, and did not heat their houses so much, the health of the people would be far better, and said that the cool summer and even the dampness were not drawbacks to recovery from tuberculosis. He had yet to see a patient go away from St. John who had not been elsewhere.

St. John citizens should stop driving people away by their constant complaint of this climate.

The following resolution was moved by Mrs. David McLellan, seconded by Dr. Farris:

"That whereas the St. John County Hospital is empowered to accept patients from any county in the province, and to charge the parish in which such patient resides the maintenance cost per day; that the Local Government should be asked to meet the expense of supporting tuberculosis cases and should pay $1.00 per day for every patient in the St. John County Hospital.

"That instead of the parish in which such patient resides being made to pay for maintenance of patients the county as a whole should be charged for the maintenance as is done in the County of St. John. And that the 'Poor Act' be amended."

After explanation from Dr. Farris this resolution was passed.

Miss Brophy received a hearty vote of thanks for her excellent work.

Mrs. A. W. Adams gave the visitor's report for the month and Mrs. W. E. Foster was appointed for the coming month.

The following officers were elected: J. A. Likely, president; Mrs. David McLellan and E. L. Ring, vice-presidents; Miss Muriel Sadler, secretary; Miss H. S. Smith, treasurer; Committee—Miss Bayard, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. S. A. Jones, Mrs. A. W. Adams, Mrs. E. Haney, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. M. B. Edwards, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. J. B. Carriffe, a representative of the Y. W. P. A., Miss Agnes Warner, Rev. W. M. Duke, Dr. McAvenny, Dr. A. F. Emery, Dr. Stewart Skinner, Rev. Mr. Porter, H. B. Schofield, A. C. Skilton, Rev. G. A.
