THE PROTESTANT AND EVANGELICAL WITNESS.

The Halifax (Nov. 12) Standard reports that the Bishop of Nova Scotia returned home from his last visit to Canada and the United States on Thursday the 28th inst. The following is a copy of the sermon, preached at the residence of the Bishop, on Sunday the 24th inst. at Halifax, N. S. The Bishop, in his sermon, alluded to the state of the Church in Nova Scotia, and to the progress of the Reformation in that Province. He said: "I have been much gratified to find that the Reformation is making rapid progress in your Province. The number of converts is increasing, and the minds of the people are becoming more enlightened. I trust that the work of the Holy Spirit is being abundantly manifested in your hearts, and that you are all becoming more and more devoted to the service of God and your fellow-men."

The Perfect Man.
The Lord Jesus Christ was the only perfect man that ever trod this earth. He was all perfect—perfect in thought, perfect in word, perfect in action. In him every moral quality was in divine and, therefore, perfect proportion. No one feature preponderated in him. He was exquisitely blended a majesty which overawed and a gentleness which gave perfect ease in his presence. The serious and the Pharisae met his withering rebuke, while the poor Samaritan and the woman that was a sinner found themselves unaccountably yet irresistibly attracted to him. No one feature displaced another; for all was in fair and easy proportion. This may be traced in every word of his perfect life. He could say in reference to five thousand hungry people, "Give ye them to eat;" and when they were filled, he could say, "Gather up the fragments, that nothing be lost." The benevolence and the economy are both perfect, and neither interferes with the other. Each shines in its own perfectness. He could not send unsatisfied harvest reapers, neither could he suffer a single fragment of God's creature to be wasted. He would meet with a full and liberal hand, the need of the human family, and when that was done, he would everlastingly treasure up every atom. The self-same hand, which was widely open to every form of human need, was finally closed against all profligacy. There was nothing negatively nor yet extravagant in the character of the perfect, the heavenly man.

What a lesson for us! How often with us does benevolence resolve itself into an unwarrantable profusion! And, on the other hand, how often is our way marred by the exhibition of a miserly spirit? At times, too, our rigid hearts refuse to open themselves to the full extent of the need which presents itself before us; while, at other times, we squander through a wanton extravagance, that which might satisfy many a needy fellow-creature. Oh, my readers, let us carefully study the divine picture set before us in "the life of the man Christ Jesus." How refreshing and strengthening to "the inward man" to be occupied with him who was perfect in all his ways, and who "in all things must have the pre-eminence."
Beth A. Messenger.

Repentance and Faith.

Repentance begins in the humiliation of the heart, and ends in the reformation of the life.
It is the turning of the heart to God, and the forsaking of all ungodliness, and of every vain thought, word, and deed. It is the acknowledgment of our sin, and the confession of it to God and to man. It is the sorrow for our sin, and the desire to be freed from it. The Papal Government.

The Pope is again in difficulties. He has repaired to Castel Gandolfo for the alleged purpose of having an interview with the King of Naples, but in reality, it is believed, on account of the disaffection of the subjects, and the rebellion of the Kingdom of Sicily. He is now in the hands of the French troops, and is being treated as a prisoner of war. The Emperor of Austria has also sent troops to Italy, and is now in possession of Rome. The Pope is now in a very difficult position, and is being treated as a prisoner of war. He is being held in Castel Gandolfo, and is being treated as a prisoner of war. Address to Rev. Alex. Sutherland.

The following address was presented to the Rev. ALEXANDER SUTHERLAND, on his removal to Nova Scotia, by the Members of Boyne Lodge, No. 614. Dear Brother:—We cannot allow you to depart from us without expressing our regret that it has been found expedient for the welfare of the neighboring province to deprive our island of the benefit of your valuable services, which have been given so liberally and fearlessly in the cause of justice and truth, and for the promotion of civil and religious liberty. We shall ever entertain with feelings of grateful remembrance the happy hours we have spent together in love and harmony, and in the interchange of christian sentiment; and trust that the good hand of our God, which has hitherto been with you in your journeyings, will still be with you, to guide you in all difficulties and to guard you in all dangers. With much esteem and respect, we subscribe ourselves, your brethren, companions in labor, and lovers of the truth.
