SIR CHARLES TUPPER

The Canadian High Commissioner Reaches New York

AND IS PROMPTLY INTERVIEWED.

Sir Charles and Lady Tupper Both in Good Health.

The High Commissioner's Visit Will be a Short One—Anxious to Learn News of Canada—Not Much Interest in the School Question—Opinion of Mr. Chamberlain, the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Montreal, Dec. 14.—A special to The Star from New York, says: "I am going to Canada," said Sir Charles Tupper, "to consult with the Premier in accordance with his request regarding the Fast Atlantic Steamship and Pacific Cable schemes."

Sir Charles stood on the upper deck of the Campania as he greeted the reporter with Lady Tupper leaning on his arm. Both were in excellent health. Sir Charles declared that his present voyage had been the most pleasant in his long series of trans-Atlantic trips. He bore not a trace of the serious attack of influenza which had almost prostrated him during his summer and in consequence of which his health required a systematic course of nursing amid the heather clad hills of Scotland at that time.

It is just as well to dismiss reports of Sir Charles' ill-health as totally untrue, for he appears to be in the best of health. While he has been indisposed since his last trip to Canada, his robust appearance and his cheerful and sprightly step indicate that there is yet plenty of that quality in him which gained for him the title of the "Cumberland War-horse."

Only a short visit.

"I don't know that I have very much to say," Sir Charles as he gave expression to the object of his mission to Canada.

And how long do you expect to remain in Canada, I asked him.

"My stay in Canada will be a very short one," and again he reiterated "very brief, indeed, in ignorance, I regret, for I have many friends in this country whom I wish to see."

Having stated his mission and the probable duration of his visit, Sir Charles in turn asked for news of Canada. Many interesting events had transpired since he had left London. Chief among these was the resignation of Hon. N. C. Wallace, the Minister of Finance, and the appointment of Hon. R. S. White as his successor.

"I was surprised to hear of Sir Charles' return to Canada," he said.

He was informed of the day. In this connection he was informed that about him being made a member of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, which might be held shortly at Quebec.

Sir Charles did not wish to bring up any of the reports that were being circulated so industriously regarding the resignation of Sir Mackenzie Bowell.

THEY ARE BOTH-GUILTY.

SMITH AND BROOME WILL HAVE TO GO DOWN FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

His Lordship Gives the Jury Reasonable Latitude and an Hour and Ten Minutes Sufficed to Bring About the Verdict—Sentence Withheld Until a Reserved Case Can be Considered.

At the Criminal Court on Saturday Frank Smith and Wm. Broome were convicted of manslaughter. They were originally indicted for the murder of Mrs. Mary Atkins, but on Saturday morning Judge Ross told the jury that the elements of murder were wanting, but the evidence was such as to warrant a charge of manslaughter, and as such the jury was directed to acquit them.

The evidence for the defence was that of Drs. Scott, Nattress and Jones, all of whom supported the opinion that the deceased Mrs. Atkins did not die of shock.

Mr. Robinette again asked that the prisoner Broome be discharged on the ground that he was not implicated in the actual assault, and that he did not run away from the policeman on his arrival, but presented himself voluntarily at the Police Court next day to give evidence. His Lordship refused to withdraw either case, but told the jury that it might, if it deemed it advisable, separate them.

The jury, after being out an hour and ten minutes, brought in a verdict of guilty against both.

His Lordship said that he would withhold sentence till next week, so that the might have an opportunity of hearing what there was to be said as to the previous history of the prisoners. Before giving sentence His Lordship will also consider the question of a reserved case, based on the statement of Mr. Robinette to the admission of the ante-mortem statement of Mrs. Atkins. The ground of this objection is that the statement was made at the Police Court when the charge against the prisoners was rape, murder, or manslaughter. His Lordship remarked that he didn't think there was much in it.

These parties have placed a complete outfit of machinery on the Selkirk-Mosher land, which they hold under option for $30,000, and are sinking several shafts. Also FRED HURON and DETROIT, MICH. FAATHER ZURCHER OF BUFFALO. Pronounced Attitude of the Famous American Priest on the Temperance Question.

Two thousand persons crowded into the Pavilion yesterday afternoon to attend the Canadian Temperance League meeting. Mr. John T. Moore presided. He was supported by Rev. P. D. Will, Messrs. S. J. Robertson, George B. Courtney, Feesey, James E. Anderson, J. Armstrong, W. H. Mitchell, J. H. Conlan and other members of the League. Aid. John Hallam, D. J. Ferguson, Mr. Forster and a large number of ladies prominent in temperance work. Mr. Robert Tandy sang the "Star of Bethlehem" and "Saved by a Child" in grand style. The music was directed by Mr. W. H. Hewlett. Father Zurcher highly approved of the Toronto branch as compared with that of Buffalo. He congratulated the League upon its securing the aid of the clergy and ex-aldermen for chairman, which he said, would be an impossibility in Buffalo. The physical aspects of the temperance work were powerfully portrayed. From the moral standpoint, he held that the occasional glass of the young man must be condemned and being known to be dangerous and of the old man because of the influence of the example this set.

Obituary. Died, on Saturday morning last, the 14th inst., at Markham, George Chauncey, Esq., aged 39 years. He was afflicted with kidney disease for the last two years. In the summer he underwent a painful operation at the Toronto General Hospital, from the effects of which he never fully rallied. He bore his afflictions with patience and resignation to the will of God and through the merits of Christ passed peacefully away to the beautiful land of rest. He was a native of Canada 22 years ago. He has one son residing in Canada and is a nephew of the Rev. P. Touque, deceased, leaves a wife and a step-daughter to mourn their sad bereavement.

The School Question Discussed. The Osageo Legal and Literary Society met on Saturday evening, the president, W. A. Lamport, in the chair. Percival Macpherson, McLean, Langley, Arnott, Montgomery and Hoard took part in the discussion. Mr. F. A. Gibson, B.A., ably summed up the arguments and gave a decision in favor of the negative.
