The paper dollar has been dwindling in value, so it has been lately worth only 720 cash, while the ordinary silver dollar is worth 1340 cash, almost half value. ANNOUNCEMENT

We have decided that on the 1st of November, 1913, we will commence A STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS.

In many ways we regret to make this change, as custom has established the credit system and it has gone to such an extreme that in some instances it is thought to be almost impossible to do business without the furnishing of the extra capital for the convenience of our customers.

The keeness of competition to-day created through the high cost of living and increased expenses of business, and the fact that other large houses are adopting the cash system in order to enable them to retail goods at lower prices, forces us to this decision.

It may seem hard to some of our patrous to feel that the firm they have delt with for years have taken this step, but we think that after a little consideration, even these friends will see the mutual benefit to be derived from a CASH SYSTEM. Under the credit system you are not only supporting your own family, but assisting to support those who are not willing to be self supporting, in addition to helping pay the book-keeping and interest on money at present tied up in unpaid accounts, etc. While under the cash system we will be able to keep a larger and more modern assortment of goods in stock AT PRICES THAT WILL APPEAL TO YOU.

We trust that you may see your way clear to still continue your business with us, in any case do not withdraw your patronage without first giving us a few months trial. We will take all kinds of produce as cash, balancing each transaction as it occurs.

Again thanking you for the many favors you have shown us from time to time in the past, and assuring you that we will endeavor to fill all your orders under the new system to the very best of our ability. We are Yours Very Truly

Baffling Question of Life Arising in Universe of Dead Matter.

All living bodies, when life leaves them, go back to the earth from whence they came. What was it in the first instance that gathered their elements from the earth and built them up into such wonderful mechan-earth itself bring forth a man, or did

The question of how life arose in a

THE MODERN YARMOUTH.

The days of the old square rigger has gone, and with them the fleets rich. Today the town shows every evidence of wealth and culture. It is gardens, hedges and trees. The wide lawns give an air of dignity to priient in the pinching and overcrowding practiced on even the best streets in Halifax. A good hotel is a recommendation to any town and is the best invitation those "on the wing" can have to drop down there. The people of Yarmouth have shown wisdom in providing the public with one of the most up-to date hotels to be found in Canada.

The two principal industries in the town of Yarmouth are the Cosmos Duck Company, employing six hundred hands, and the Burrill-Johnson Foundry employing one hundred hands. It boasts of possessing a newspaper, that has been in the same family for eighty years-namely the Yarmouth Herald. Such a record is unprecedented on this continent.

The lobster fisheries of Nova Scotia are about equal to those of Quebec, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island combined. The usual pack of this Province is 75,000 cases. She had supposed that my father would help me out. And couldn't her father give us a nice bouse something better than the bungalow? And if we had no rent to pay, surely I could keep it up.

One of their should flow solely by inspiration from his lips.

Consequently, there was consternation and alarm when a new preacher came who was reported to use notes. The rumor of this misconduct on his part soon spread and threatened to become church scandal.

Finally, one of the pillars of the church, more courageous than the rest, interviewed the pastor in order to clear the matter up.

'Is it true, Mr. —, that you use otes!" he asked in awed tones. To be perfectly frank with you, my dear fellow," said the preacher, "I prefer the cash."

SUGAR

(Daily Telegraph.)

Sugar in some form or other is in nearly all foods. Milk, the food of the baby and child, and the staff on which the young being leans for strengt hand sup port during its early life, contains sugar as one of the three important elements. Not only is sugar contained in milk but it is found in our vegetables, meat and fow's.

Since there is a widespread prevalence of sugar in the tissues of the animal body, the "sweet tooth" is not a surprise. It is necessary. The fact that children crave sugar or sweets, to a thinking mother, should mean something. An instinct that has come down through thousands of years. unaltered, should have an important place in our plan. A child likes sugar just as it likes air, sun-light play and sleep, and this desire has Na ture, the good old nurse," back of it It should not be ignored.

The mother who has an idea that because children like sugar it must be bad for them, is greatly mistaken. Of course the danger of excess is always present A child may eat too much sugar, as in many cases it may stay too long in the bathtub. It may be out too long in the sun and fresh air but no intelligent mother is going to deprive her child of baths, sun and air. Why should the ban be placed on sugar? A craving for candy is starvation. See that the child gets sngar in other forms in its food. The unnatural appetite will be modified considerably. If a child is given plenty of sugar on its cereal, bread and butter puddings and a regular amount of good, simple cake and fruits, he will not sell his little soul for candy.

Sugar is a carbohydrate, and is one of the three great foods without which the human being cannot exist.

It has high power for muscular energy and can be rapidly absorbed and burned up in this bodly engine of ours. Great specialists have found that fatigue in both animals and men is rapidly counteracted if pure sugar is eaten very tired persons who have no appetite for most food keep appetite for

One thing which has been acknowledged as a scientific fact is that the larger the amount of sugar or sugar foods to an army or to an individual the smaller the craving for alcohol.

Large Catches of Mackrel on South Shore

(Morning Chnonicle)

Seldom has it ever been the lot of the fishermen of the South Shore of Nova Scotia to reap the harvest in mackerel which has come to them during the past week. There are fishermen who will count the returns from their catch in thousands of dollars, and hardly a fisherman who will not reap in a few days the average yearly earnings of seasons. This is true along the coast from Halifax to Liverpool and is extending even to Yarmouth as the fish move south from their northern spawning grounds. The run of mackerel since last Saturday night has been almost unprecedented in the history of Nova Scotia fisheries.
