The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Library Division

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

DIEFENBACHER'S EUREKA HAIR TONIC

It has been my constant aim and desire for the last ten years to produce a Tonic which I could recommend to my patrons as a thoroughly good and reliable article. After repeated experiments, I have at last produced a Tonic which I can safely guarantee as the best article of the kind yet discovered for the cure of Dandruff, Falling Out of the Hair, Dryness of the Scalp, etc.

This Tonic has the merit of having cured many cases where the best of other remedies have failed. It is nicely perfumed, and independent of its curative power, is a most agreeable dressing for the hair, making it soft and glossy.

If you are troubled with any disorder of the scalp, try a bottle of my Tonic, and the beneficial effects of a few applications will be apparent. If used according to my directions it will never fail.

HOW TO GO EAST.

THE NEW AND POPULAR ROUTE IS VIA THE ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE, AND SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROADS.

This line carries the traveler from San Francisco through Southern California and the city of Los Angeles; through the valley of the Rio Gila in Arizona; along the banks of the Rio Grande and through the cities of Socorro, Albuquerque, Santa Fe and Las Vegas, in New Mexico, across a picturesque corner of Colorado, and over the broad prairies of fertile Kansas—just now rejoicing in the distinction of being the prize agricultural State of America.

At Kansas City or Atchison, connection is made with a dozen great trunk lines, for all points north, east or south.

The time and cost are practically the same as by other lines, but in nearly everything calculated to interest the traveler and make the journey an enjoyable one the Southern Route is vastly superior to the old beaten track across Nevada.

THE EQUIPMENT

Of the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE is not surpassed by that of any of the great routes of travel and traffic in the United States.

A smooth track, rock ballast, steel rails, elegant coaches, Pullman palace sleeping cars—these are only a few of the main features. An examination as to details will show that the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE is provided with every approved device tending to secure the comfort and safety of passengers, and enjoys a record for freedom from accidents of which any road might be proud.

Among the items of equipment peculiar to the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE, are the Emigrant Sleeping Cars, for which there is no extra charge. These cars are similar in construction to the first-class sleepers, except that they are not upholstered. By furnishing their own blankets emigrants may make themselves as comfortable in these cars as in first-class sleepers.

The Eating Houses of the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE are all under the supervision of one man—a caterer of long experience—and nothing is left undone in this respect to make travel a pleasure to the traveler.

TWELVE HOURS SHORTER.

That is the time you will save by taking the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE when traveling from any point in Central and Southern Colorado to Kansas City and the East. Take Leadville, as an example, for a starting point. The best time made to Kansas City, by way of Denver, is forty-six hours and thirty-five minutes. The best time made between Leadville and Kansas City, via Pueblo and the Santa Fe route, is thirty-six hours. Taking all the regular passenger trains that leave Leadville for the East, during twenty-four hours, and the advantage in time gained by the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTA FE to the Missouri River is from eleven hours to thirteen and a half hours.

For maps, rates, time tables, full description of the route, and any other information you may desire, address

W. F. WHITE,

Gen. Pass. and Ticket Agent, TOPEKA, KANSAS.

LAS VEGAS HOT SPRINGS.

These springs rise not far from the mouth of a beautiful cañon, which opens upon the plains six miles above the city of Las Vegas. Here nature has provided a temperate and healthful climate, and distills through the earth streams of hot water endowed with subtle powers for healing many of the ills flesh is heir to. There are twenty-two of these thermal fountains, varying in temperature from 110° to 140° Fahr. The waters are almost exactly like those of the long celebrated springs of Karlsbad in Europe, both in quantitative and qualitative analyses. The altitude of Las Vegas is 6,400 feet—higher than Mt. Washington—and the atmosphere is clear, pure and invigorating; malarial poisons are impossible.

Art could not have designed a more picturesque location than that provided by nature for these life-giving fountains. The mountain scenery in the immediate vicinity, grand and inspiring as it is, is not more interesting and attractive than the primitive Spanish civilization which has held its sway in all that country for three hundred years; or, more curious still, the ruined cities and strange traditions that tell the tourist of a civilization that was old when the Spaniards came. New Mexico is "The Old Curiosity Shop" of America, and some of her most quaint and curious portions are easily accessible to the visitor at the Springs. Santa Fe, the oldest city in the United States,—and Santa Fe, just as it used to be hundreds of years ago—is only half a day's ride by rail from the springs. The finest hunting grounds in America, where antelope, black-tailed deer, bear, and smaller game abound, may be found by short excursions from the hotels in almost any direction, while the fisherman may bait his hook on the edges of numerous trout pools in the immediate vicinity of the Springs.

The Las Vegas Hot Springs are the property of the ATCHISON, TOPEKA AND SANTE FE RAILROAD COMPANY, and it is upon such a basis as is briefly described above that the managers of the great road have built one of the most attractive health and pleasure resorts in the United States. Two fine hotels and numerous cottages have been erected; a bath house, under the control of an experienced manager; gas works and water works are provided; and everything that the architect, the engineer and landscape gardener can do, to make more lovely this spot, made so beautiful by nature, is being done.

THE MONTEZUMA.

The new hotel opened April 17, 1882, is under the immediate management of Mr. C. D. Frost, late manager of the Lindell Hotel, St. Louis. This elegant house is furnished in the latest style and has every modern convenience. A branch railway from Las Vegas to the Springs, a distance of six miles, conveys visitors almost to the very doors of the hotels. Seventy miles of romantic Alpine roads are being constructed to every point of interest in the adjacent mountains.

The bath house is 200 feet in length, two stories high, and is built of cut stone, on the opposite side of the river from the hotels and plaza; it is connected by a rustic bridge, which crosses the river high above the rocky bed of the mountain torrent below. The bath house has a capacity of bathing 500 people per day, giving every variety of bath,—medicated, electric, vapor, shampoo, douche, ring baths, tub, spray and shower. Special apartments for the treatment of contagious diseases have been provided, and a plentiful supply of roller inclined invalid chairs for the use of the sick and paralytic.

The baths are of special value in the treatment of all blood poisons, rheumatism and kindred ills, paralysis, spinal diseases, nervous affections, dyspepsia, Bright's disease, etc., while the climate is a paradise for consumptives and persons suffering from catarrh or hay fever.

The Las Vegas Hot Springs is admirably located as a half-way stopping place for trans-continental travelers. Stop-over privileges are granted on first-class tickets. For further information, address

PREFACE.

WE send our book forth to our patrons, fully confident that it is worth to them all it costs. A book that is worthy public esteem needs no apology. Feeling that our untiring energy toward the attainment of success in this branch of literary effort has been rewarded, we assume that a "valedictory" of this nature is superfluous. The DIRECTORY is the work of many hands and its completion has involved no little expense and trouble. Thousands of letters have been written, and many fatiguing journeys made. Patience is our redeeming virtue. It is an idol deserving of worship. Therefore we pay it reverence. Our bump of gratitude is largely developed, and we trust that an acknowledgment of thanks to our patrons is as kindly received as given. Our sincere thanks are also due and given to those that have kindly assisted us.

With adieus kindly repeated and the hope that our volume for 1883-84 may be the medium of great convenience, we wish our patrons in particular and the people of the Coast in general, unbounded prosperity and happiness.

SAN FRANCISCO.

We are fully aware of the importance of this part of our work to the whole Pacific Coast, we have, therefore, most thoroughly canvassed the city, omitting no legitimate business, however unimportant it might appear to some, from the fact that it will certainly interest others. When the variety and extent of these are taken into consideration a faint idea may be formed of the labor and care involved in preparing the lists herewith presented. We feel no hesitancy in assuring you that the work may be relied on as correct in every particular so far as our ability extends to make it so. Of the city itself it is hardly necessary to speak; its history, like that of the State of which it is the metropolis, is almost phenomenal, and would appear in print more like an oriental fairy tale than a record of actual fact. Men yet living in the prime of life, who, less than a generation ago, landed upon the sterile peninsula and gazed with indifference or contempt upon the surrounding hills and sand-dunes, now walk among a population numbering three hundred thousand, and encounter at every turn palatial residences, grand hotels, enormous business structures, such as the efforts of centuries in older and less favored countries fail to equal. The energy, daring, brain and muscle that hurled itself upon this coast at the breaking out of the gold fever made itself felt at this point as elsewhere in the State. With those sterling men there was no such word as fail. When the low-lying lands contiguous to the bay were occupied, and the rapidly increasing population was crowded to the adjacent hills, native talent soon solved the problem of their occupancy by the invention of the cable road, and at once determined the residence localities of the city. The cars of this system, propelled by invisible power, now course through the city in every direction, their track marked by evidences of wealth and luxury, that without this potent agency could have had no existence. The commercial isolation of this coast from the East, and the demands of a large mining population, which could only be met in this city soon called attention to manufacturing interests, and to-day she ranks among the foremost in this respect, the list embracing everything for which there is any demand on this coast; and the value of product reaching $80,000,000. Her ocean commerce extends to Europe, Australia, China, the Pacific Islands, Mexico and South America; amounting last year to nearly $50,000,000 in exports, while her imports reached $40,000,000. Her inland commerce embraces the Pacific States and territories, so-called, whose rapidly increasing demands can only be supplied by an abundance of capital, and business ability of the highest order, both of which are found here. The history of San Francisco is the history of the coast, and we all take a pride in her progress; her future is also the future of the coast, for her natural advantage of location, her splendid harbor, her far-reaching connections by water and rail will secure to her for all time the metropolitan character she has thus far possessed. Her business men realize, however, that to do this they must keep abreast of the times, that they must furnish the supply for every demand, and that nothing is assured until secured. A careful study of our Directory, therefore, as herein presented, becomes of the highest importance to all men of business upon the coast, as they will find therein, that their wants are all anticipated, and provisions made to meet them.

"PACIFIC BUSINESS COLLEGE REVIEW." W E Chamberlain and T A Robinson proprietors, 320 Post

The design of this institution is to impart such an education as will best prepare students for the practical affairs of life. It provides thorough, systematic and practical courses of instruction, and employs a full corps of competent and faithful teachers. Every available modern improvement has been introduced, and whatever a liberal expenditure of money and well directed energy could do, has been done to make the school what it should be, and to maintain for it a reputation worthy of its rank.

The Business Course, both theoretical and practical, is as near perfection as it is possible to make it. The system of Actual Business Training employed is unsurpassed, students receiving the same practice in conducting business affairs as though they were in a bona fide bank, office or counting house. Practical penmanship is made the subject of daily drill.

The Academic Course affords an excellent opportunity for persons of any age to obtain thorough instruction in Spelling, Reading, Arithmetic, Grammar, Letter-Writing, etc., the Higher Mathematical branches and the Modern Languages.

The Telegraphic Course is well calculated to make proficient operators. It includes careful instruction in sound and paper operating, setting up of instruments, management of batteries, use of switches and ground wires, etc.

GENERAL INFORMATION.—Day and evening sessions during the entire year. Students can enter at any time. Ladies are admitted to all the departments of the school. Individual instruction is given. Life Scholarships for the complete Business Course are issued at $70.

THE BEST WASHING MACHINES — AND — WRINGERS.

I am manufacturing three kinds of Washing Machines. Each is guaranteed to do the work that I represent. The one represented in this Cut is the "CALIFORNIA." It washes five times as fast as by hand on the washboard, and with one-fifth the labor.

The next best is my improved "HUMBOLDT," with two rows of Slats in the Rubber, that washes four times as fast as on the board.

The third one is what Finch, of Florny, calls "THE LATEST IMPROVED HUMBOLDT," with a single row of Slats on the Rubber. It is my third-class washer, and washes three times as fast as on the board. MY PRICES ARE REASONABLE.

PROGRESSIVE AND SUBSTANTIAL PATENT AGENCY.

THE SCIENTIFIC PRESS Patent Agency was established in 1860, and has ever since been the leading Patent Agency on this side of the continent. Thousands of patents have been secured through this old and reliable Agency; and, from personal experience, most of the leading inventors of this coast can testify their great satisfaction at the promptness and dispatch with which their business has been put through, and the best patent claims admissible obtained.

There are few solicitors of Patents in the United States who have been so largely, or so continuously and successfully engaged in the soliciting of patents.

As editors and publishers of leading scientific, mechanical and industrial newspapers for the past twenty years on this coast, Dewey & Co. have superior facilities for acquiring and giving information upon all subjects of discovery, whether in the line of the farmer, the miner, the manufacturer, the mechanic or the scientific inventor.

Their files of illustrated, scientific and mechanical publications afford an encyclopedia of useful knowledge pertaining to the development of all branches of business upon this coast for many years past.

Their library, of books on home and foreign patent laws; United States and Foreign Patent Office-Reports; mechanical, industrial, and Scientific text books, encyclopedias, etc., is one of the most complete for reference in patent matters, in the United States outside of Washington.

Here an inventor can secure a knowledge of the state of the art, in any particular class he wishes to investigate and improve in, that will greatly aid him in his work of inventing.

Geo. H. Strong, W. B. Ewer and A. T. Dewey comprise the firm of Dewey & Co., Patent Solicitors. Their Patent Agency is favorably located and connected with the MINING AND SCIENTIFIC PRESS and the PACIFIC RURAL PRESS offices, at No. 252 Market Street, San Francisco, journals that are well known among the ably conducted and widely circulated progressive American weeklies of the day.

CALIFORNIA.

See, also, List of Towns Received Too Late for Regular Insertion.

THERE is, perhaps, no other in the sisterhood of States that has been looked upon with eyes of such high favor and true esteem as the great and wonderful Golden State, a description of whose unlimited resources and attractive scenic and climatic features must, from the nature of our work, be necessarily brief and incomplete. Although less than a third of a century has been recorded in the world's history since the memorable event took place that witnessed the cession of California to the United States, her broad area is covered with smiling towns, cities, and villages, well improved and thoroughly cultivated farms, and mammoth "monuments of bone and sinew," and handsome temples of justice and learning, while it is checkered with lines of railway, and her rivers are utilized by a large fleet of elegant and well-appointed steamers. The vicissitudes of time and the presence of King Commerce have wrought a development that has scarcely been paralleled in other commonwealths. In the remotest corners are found to-day proud evidences of ingenuity, enterprise, and energy, elements so essential to the progress of all countries. The music of industry, whose accompaniments are the hammer, the saw, the stamp, the trowel, and the plane, awakens the echoes of the once uninhabited fastnesses of the mountains, and the clear toned bells of the schools and churches ringing out upon the morning air, the din and clatter of the drays, cabs and truck-wagons, are added to the songs of the farmer in the valleys as he drives his team afield. How magical is the touch of Commerce! How beautiful are the resultants of her twin brother, Manufacture! One cannot conceive the immensity of their combined works until a tour of this powerful dependency has been made. From her extreme northern boundary to the southernmost border, the panorama which is made up of man's genius and Nature's esthetic charms, is like the figures of a kaleidoscope—ever changing, ever beautiful. Those two extreme localities present a diversity of climate that is peculiarly astonishing. In the northern counties in the Winter season an abundance of snow and ice, and a raw and chilly atmosphere, are features most noticeable; while in those of the south, there is perpetual sunshine and a balmy air, laden with the fragrance of orange blossoms and rare flowers. Here the inviolid, whose physique and hacking cough suggest consumption, is found contending with the inevitable, because the soft and tender vespers of the region whisper words of encouragement in his willing ear, while the harly Nimrod, on his snow-shoes, scaling bulwarks made of ice, is searching at the north for the burly grizzly or the nimble and graceful deer. One need not necessarily "shiver and freeze," or "sweat and burn," in California, for every season of the year can be found at all times! Truly, truly, the climate of California is "glorious!" Her soil is of inexhaustible fertility, her mountains still teem with untold wealth, and her "big trees," and beautiful lakes alive with trout, are factors that must contribute largely to her continued growth and prosperity. Her educational system stands out a prominent example of efficient management and unlimited interest. The youth of the State, under the careful discipline of capable preceptors, attain a greater degree of proficiency in their studies than those of other States, as a rule. The colleges of the State are generally handsome and commodious structures. Be it said to her credit, statements of envious and malignant visitors to the country notwithstanding, her morals are of a very high standard, as her thousands of magnificent churches, if that is any criterion, will attest.

ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA COUNTY. Situated across the bay from San Francisco, about 8 miles distant, and stretches over a distance of five miles of the peninsula formed by San Francisco Bay and San Antonio or Oakland Creek.

It is a pretty residence burg, celebrated chiefly for its beautiful oak groves, handsome residence, pleasure grounds, and magnificent bathing establishments. Alameda is a favorite resort of San Franciscans, and visitors from abroad delight in its admirably arranged baths and pleasant walks and drives. The Central Pacific (via Oakland) and the South Pacific Coast (narrow gauge) railroads make half-hour trips during the day, thereby making communication with San Francisco convenient for bathers, picnic parties, and residents of the town and its suburbs.

BODIE.

MONO COUNTY. 475 miles from San Francisco by railroad and stage. Population about 3,500.

Bodie having passed through the excitement generally attending the commencement of a mining town, has settled down to a true business basis, and although its population is less than half of its number two years ago, there are no surplus population and every one has work or business to do, and hence business is good, people hopeful and the general outlook is good. There are three dividend-paying mines now in operation and others which give evidence of soon being added to those already paying handsome dividends. Standard up to August, 1882, has paid sixty-two dividends, aggregating $3,900,000. Bodie Mine has declared seventeen dividends, amounting to $1,225,000. The Bulwer has declared nine dividends, amounting to $90,000. Total, $5,215,000. We regard Bodie as destined to continue a permanent and prosperous mining town. It contains two churches, Catholic and Methodist, and one good school building; also two daily papers.

BUTTE COUNTY. On the line of the Oregon Division of the Central Pacific R. R., 95 miles above Sacramento. Population, nearly 4,000.

Chico is one of the prettiest places in the State; is the largest and wealthiest town in the county, and is dependent upon the agricultural, vinicultural and mining interests for support. It is in a prosperous condition and its outlook is emphatically bright. The climate is good and the society excellent. Its streets are broad and smooth, and are beautifully shaded with forest trees. The business houses are well and tastily built, while the private residences present a most attractive appearance. Religious denominations and secret orders are well represented, and are well attended. The property of Hon. John Bidwell, known as the Rancho Chico, and comprising 2,300 acres, is situated here, and embraces a wealth of natural beauty and fertility unsurpassed by any other in the State. Unlike most large landed properties, this is divided into departments embracing almost every variety of farming, the whole made attractive to the tourist and man of business by broad drives, winding in and out among grain fields, forests, orchards, vineyards, nurseries, dairy and other pastures, every turn opening up to the pleased and bewildered eye now a beautiful bit of landscape backed by the cool gray mountain tops, and then a broad expanse of waving grain as far almost as the edge of the horizon, to be again shut out and replaced by a cool, limpid brook running along its peaceful way, while the tall trees guarding its banks are enveloped and draped with wild grape vines, forming arches and lace work over its mirrored surface, reminding one forcibly of Arcadia's wondrous beauties. Such is but a mild and wholly inadequate noting of one of California's best wonders; and when one considers that where now is situated this incomparable property there was only a barren plain when the general located it twenty-five years ago, it seems as though he must have possessed Allah's wonderful lamp; but such is only the result of untiring energy and inflexibility of purpose, united to a wonderful degree of taste and judgment in planning and executing.
