PONTON IS AGAIN UNDER ARREST

The Ex-Teller of the Dominion Bank at Napanee Placed In Jail.

IMPLICATED BY ED. PARE'S STATEMENTS

Look His Arrest Very Coolly—Was Told by a Friend That the Police Were After Him, But Showed No Nervousness—The Arrest Took Place Near Belleville—The Money Said to Have Been Counted in Ponton's Room—Four Prisoners Are Now In Napanee Jail.

The arrest of W. H. Ponton at a summer resort near Belleville on Saturday night has added much to the already great interest that has developed lately in the Napanee Bank robbery case. Young Ponton seems to have taken the arrest very coolly. It appears that the taking into custody of the ex-teller was brought about by statements made by Pare, who is looked upon as the principal in the plot to rob the bank. Ponton's arrest was a great surprise to his friends and causes them considerable anxiety. Ponton is now in Napanee jail, as are also Pare, Mackie and Mrs. Saucier, and the detectives think they have a strong chain of evidence against them. Hoiden, the other suspect, it is expected, will be brought from Boston under extradition before the week is out.

ARREST OF PONTON.

A Friend Told Him the Police Were After Him, But He Took the Matter Very Coolly.

Belleville, Ont., July 17.—(Special).—No new developments have occurred in this city in the bank matter except the arrest of Ponton, which took place last evening. He was at Massasauga Springs during the afternoon, and was apprised of the fact that he was to be arrested by a friend, who wheeled down about half an hour ahead of the Napanee police. He simply remarked: "Well, I am here when they come."

On driving back here he was allowed to change his evening suit for another and was then driven down to Napanee. He was heartily cheered by an immense crowd which had gathered. His mother is quite confident of her son's innocence, and, although very ill, is bearing up wonderfully. The warrant on which he is arrested gives the same charge as the previous one. A Belleville man, who was in Napanee to-day, states that Mackie has "squealed" all he knows.

The woman Pare, or Saucier, is recognized as a woman who spent some time here and advertised for a position, using the local papers for the purpose. That occurred about a year ago.

At a late hour tonight several detectives were here, and it is generally thought that another arrest will be made here, but nothing could be ascertained definitely, as the detectives will not talk to anyone.

PONTON AT NAPANEE.

The Ex-Teller Led Behind the Bars the Same as Pare and Mrs. Saucier.

Napanee, Ont., July 17.—W. H. Ponton, who was teller in the Dominion Bank here declaration in Manchester is corroborated by the detectives since their return here, and several points to a clear solution of the robbery and implication of all the parties now under arrest.

If reports are true Pare in his confession at Manchester, N.H., went into every detail in connection with the Dominion Bank robbery last August, explaining all their movements for months before the robbery was planned and executed in August.

Money Counted in Ponton's Room.

On good authority it is stated that Pare says that after the robbery the money was taken to Ponton's room, where it was counted and done up in an oilcloth and put inside of a biscuit box, and then taken half a mile east of the town on the G.T.R. and buried, the spot being marked with the letters G.T.R. being cut on one of the fence boards right above where it was buried. After that was done they dispersed. Pare and Hoiden, catching a freight train, going east, up the steep grade at this place. Pare says it was understood and agreed that the money was not to be interested in any way until last June, when they would meet and divide the spoils. Pare says when they did meet in June Ponton admitted taking $80 from the hidden box. For violating the agreement he was fined $3000 and only received $8000 as his share, instead of $5000.

After Pare had made his confession in Manchester, Detectives Dougherty and Wilkes of the Pinkerton Detective Agency came to Napanee and were accompanied by one or two citizens to the spot described by Pare, when the fence marks were found without any difficulty, and close by the empty biscuit box and oilcloth that the money was done up in.

Ponton Was Cool.

When Ponton was arrested at Massasauga Point last night he was as cool and apparently unconcerned as though he had

PEACE IS ASSURED.

Madrid Correspondent of London Sunday Times Asserts Main Points Have Been Agreed Upon.

London, July 17.—The Madrid correspondent of the Sunday Times says: "Despite official denials and preparations for a continuance of fighting, I have the best authority for saying that peace is assured. It is beyond doubt that the main points have been agreed upon with the authorities at Washington. It is understood that Spain will evacuate Cuba, the Americans undertaking the transportation of the troops to Spain."

The Statement Supported.

Madrid, July 17.—(3 p.m.)—A member of the Cabinet in an interview to-day asserted that the Government was seeking an honorable peace with the United States. An official despatch from Porto Rico says 100 cases of ammunition exploded there, killing 14 persons and wounding many others.

Spain, through the Mexican Minister, has represented to America that she is firmly decided on peace, at the same time explaining the difficulties arising from the opposition of the Cuban volunteers and Spain's total exhaustion through her enormous losses. "The political situation is most critical, owing to the agitation in the principal towns."

Remanded for Eight Days.

The magistrate then said that he would remand Pare to the jail for eight days, until a suitable time arrived to hold a preliminary examination. Detective Dougherty held a long, animated and whispering conversation with the magistrate, while the stillness in the room could be felt. The other detectives seemed to feel that they were not "in it," and tried hard not to exhibit any facial resentment.

Pare Wanted a Smoke.

While this conversation was in progress, the prisoner asked in a piteous voice, "Will I be allowed to smoke in the jail?" To which the magistrate answered, "I see no objection. I will speak to the jailer about it."

After a few joking remarks among the detectives and after listening to Superintendent O'Dowd's statement, that he had picked her up at Alexandria Bay, the gathering broke up amid the sounds of the household clock striking the hour of 3, and are Sheriff Hawley and J. Vanvuse, who wandered away from the scene of excited conversations to the river, where they spent the day fishing. Total catch, two sunfish and a tiny bass.

The rest of the town is wild. When the word came down on the 12 train this morning there was a mad rush for copies, and in five minutes you couldn't buy one for love or money. The report of the bank robbery agency was read with avidity by everyone, and the news was the common topic of conversation, while admitting the truth of the story in all its details, wonder who has been talking, for many points came out in the report that were decidedly considered known to but the police. These were the marked coins found on Mackie, the money of Pare, the connection of the two traps with the robbery, last but not least the triumph of the story so far, the discovery of the box containing part of the swag.

The Police Dumb.

The police are dumb as oysters when the press approach them. They can scarcely be civil and make no pretence to tell anything. The mandate has gone out that nothing is to be made public. The preliminary hearings of the prisoners are secret, while the prisoners are as if hermetically sealed in the cells.

Pare Arrives.

About twenty men gathered from one season and another at the station this morning at 2:30 when the express from Kingston was expected to land Prisoner Pare from Manchester, N. H. Among others present was Detective Wilkes, and just three minutes before the train pulled in the World asked the detective:

"Is it true that Pare is going to be brought up this morning?" The detective, without a shudder, replied: "I don't know anything about it."

And then, as if to put the reporter off the scent, he said: "Doesn't it take about ten days to put extradition proceedings through?"

In two minutes the train pulled in, and George E. Pare, the son of the late O'Dowd of Manchester, N. H., alighted. This is an isolated instance of how news is gathered from a detective.

Driven to Magistrate Daly's.

The party, comprising the prisoner and five detectives, drove at once to Magistrate Daly's house and aroused the elderly gentleman from his slumbers. The whole party entered the magistrate's study, and after apologizing for having so rudely awakened him, and remarking that the proceedings would not take long, Detective Dougherty introduced Superintendent O'Dowd to the magistrate and the remaining five men, in a clear voice Mr. Daly read the indictment:

"George E. Pare, you are accused of breaking into the Holden from Boston, Mass., to Napanee, Ontario, on the 27th of August 1897, and extracting therefrom some $33,000 in cash and bills."

Pare, who seemed to know what was coming and the intent of everything read,

ANGLO-SAXONDOM PENNY POSTAGE

Chamberlain's Great Achievement in Imperial Politics—Proposed Extension of Rate to the U. S.

New York, July 17.—A London special to The Evening Post says: "A timely illustration of the present English feeling toward America is to be found in the suggestion, that the Imperial penny postage just secured be extended to include the United States, so that a half-ounce letter might pass from any one part of Anglo-Saxondom to any other for two cents. Though so quietly accomplished this Imperial penny postage scheme probably will live in history as one of Mr. Chamberlain's great achievements in Imperial politics."

"For a dozen or more years this dream of a common postage within the Empire has been agitated in vain, both here and in the colonies. Permanent officialdom in the Treasury and the Postoffice opposed the change, and permanent officialdom generally is powerful enough to kill anything in England."

"There is indeed only one living man who can coerce permanent officialdom, and that man is Mr. Chamberlain, and Canada having given him the necessary lead in this postage matter, as recently in the matter of the German and Belgian treaties, he has accomplished it this week."

Australia Pleads Against the Rate.

"The officials carried their opposition to incredible lengths. One day their attitude in the later-Imperial conference, which has been in session here, was almost mutinous, but he stood his ground, and in a few weeks the Queen's penny will take the place of the present two-pence-half-penny, and carry a half-ounce letter to or from any part of the United Kingdom, Canada, Newfoundland, Cape Colony, Natal and the Crown Colonies. The Australian colonies pleaded financial reasons against a penny rate to England but on the 1st of January a penny outward rate to Australasia will be established, leaving each colony to take its own course regarding the homeward rate."

MISSED FROM THE BOAT

Is Charles McKenna Drowned?—His Friends Believe He Is.

Among the many people connected with newspapers that took in the excursion to Rochester by the steamer Empress of India on Saturday night was Charles McKenna, aged 22 years, who was employed as a pressman. The Mail-Express office, Charles, in company with his brother, Benjamin, left his home, 137 Bellwoods-avenue, early in the evening, stating that he was going on the Rochester trip. Nothing has been seen of him since.

Yesterday afternoon a telegram was received from Rochester at 3:30 o'clock, as follows: "Charles missed off the boat; supposed to be drowned."

This was signed by the brother Benjamin. The telegram was handed to a third brother, Alfred, who read it to his mother, who at once believed the sad news and became inconsolable. One peculiar circumstance is that the boat reached its destination at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, and the telegram was marked 3:29 p.m.

The mother thinks this time had been taken up in searching for her son, which, on resulting in a failure, the telegram was despatched.

The missing man was well-known around town as an aspirant for pugilistic honors, having fought Jack Daly, the Crescent A.C. champion, and other boxers. No definite intelligence can be had until the arrival of the Empress in Toronto this morning.

STARS AND STRIPES OVER SANTIAGO

TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE CROWDED ROUND.

Spanish Flag Hauled Down From the Palace Flagstaff, Where It Had Floated for Centuries—American Band Played "Star Spangled Banner," "Rally Round the Flag" and Other Airs—Terms of Capitulation.

Washington, July 17.—The War Department posted the following bulletin at 5.15 p.m.: Santiago de Cuba, July 17.

I have the honor to announce that the American flag has been this instant, at 12 o'clock noon, hoisted over the house of the civil government in the City of Santiago. An immense concourse of people present. A squadron of cavalry and a regiment of infantry presenting arms, and band playing a national air. Light battery fired salute 21 guns. Perfect order is being maintained by municipal government. Distress is very great, but little sickness in town. Scarcely any yellow fever. A small garrison and about 200 seamen left by Cervera have surrendered to me. Obstructions are being removed from mouth of harbor. Upon coming into the city I have discovered a perfect entanglement of defenses. Fighting as the Spaniards did the first day, it would have cost five thousand lives to have taken it. Battalions of Spanish troops have been depositing arms since daylight in armor, over which I have guard. General Toral formally surrendered the Palaza and all stores at 9 a.m.

W. R. Shafter, Major-General.

THE SURRENDER OF SANTIAGO.

To-Day the Stars and Stripes Will Be Raised Where Spain's Flag Has Floated for Centuries.

On Board the Associated Press Dispatch boat Wanda, of Jutanga (or Siboney), Saturday, July 16, 7 p.m., via Port Antonio, Jam., Sunday, July 17, 5 a.m., and Kingston 7.15 a.m.—The Spanish flag will come down from Santiago to-morrow and 22,000 Spanish soldiers will yield their arms to their American conquerors, and the sovereignty of Spanish in Eastern Cuba will end. Official endorsement of the terms of capitulation were received from Madrid at 10 o'clock this morning, and unless unforeseen obstacles arise the actual withdrawal of Gen. Toral's forces will be an accomplished fact within 24 hours. Ten o'clock to-morrow is the hour set for the formal ending of the Santiago campaign. At that hour, under the terms of the agreement, the Spanish soldiers will march out from the city they have so resolutely defended, all their arms, and will be received by large detachments of Gen. Shafter's victorious troops. The officers will retain their side arms, but the soldiers will stack their guns before the American lines and be placed under guard, either to return to Spain under convoy or to give their oaths to remain in Cuba as non-combatants.

In the meantime several regiments of Gen. Shafter's army will be ready to take possession of the fallen city and hoist the Stars and Stripes where the flag of Spain has floated for centuries. All the enemy's troops in the eastern district of Santiago Province will be marched to Santiago. Many detachments from outlying points are already en route, and the entire force of 22,500 men will, it is expected, be ready to embark within a fortnight.

Shafter's Men in Serious Fight.

What will be done with Gen. Shafter's force is not yet fully decided. The physicians declare that the army, owing to the hardships and the fever, will not be fit for active service some time to come, and Gen. Miles is believed to be seriously considering the proposition of leaving only a garrison to hold the conquered province, and return the body of the forces to the United States, sending other immigrants from there to reinforce the Santiago detachment if necessary.

Many of the troops are eager to participate in the Porto Rico campaign, which it is reported about headquarters will follow immediately, but this is strongly opposed by the surgeons.

New Cases of Yellow Fever.

New cases of yellow fever continue to appear daily, and fully 600 are now under treatment, but the disease is of a very mild form and the physicians say it is now well in hand. Only five deaths have occurred up to to-night, the low mortality being remarkable, and most encouraging to the physicians, who had great fears that the death rate would be heavy.

General Miles, in an interview to-day with the correspondent of the Associated Press, said he believed the danger from the pest was over, and that the men don't seem to fear in the least, owing to the slightness of most of the cases.

The Tangles Straightened Out.

The formal sanction by the Madrid Government of the terms of capitulation of day unravelled the tangled skein of demands and counter-demands between the opposing commanders, which threatened yesterday to end the negotiations and compel a return to arms.

After numerous conferences had resulted in the agreement already sanctioned by General Blanco, General Toral decided that the approval of the Madrid Government was necessary before he would leave the city.

General Shafter maintained that no such approval was necessary; that when General

Toral agreed to surrender the Province of Santiago and General Blanco sanctioned it, the agreement to surrender became an accomplished fact. He insisted that General Toral had either surrendered Thursday or acted in bad faith, but documentary evidence bore out the fact that General Toral mentioned that he only capitulated subject to his Government's approval, and the six commissioners by whom the articles were signed at 2:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon so ruled.

The whole matter was cleared up this morning, however, when General Toral received the necessary sanction from Madrid.

The Agreement.

The agreement consists of nine articles: The first declares that all hostilities shall cease pending the agreement of final capitulation.

The second that the capitulation include all the Spanish forces and the carriage of all war material within the prescribed limits.

Third, The transportation of the troops to Spain at the earliest possible moment, each force to be embarked at the nearest port.

Fourth, That the Spanish officers shall retain their side arms and the enlisted men their personal property.

Fifth, That, after the final capitulation, the Spanish forces shall assist in the removal of all obstructions to navigation in Santiago harbor.

Sixth, That, after the final capitulation, the commanding officer shall furnish a complete inventory of all arms and munitions of war and a roster of all the soldiers in the district.

Seventh, That the Spanish general shall be permitted to take the military archives and records with him.

Eighth, That all guerrillas and Spanish irregulars shall be permitted to remain in Cuba, if they so elect, giving a parole that they will not again take up arms against the United States.

Ninth, The Spanish forces shall be permitted to march out with all the honors of war, depositing their arms, to be disposed of by the United States in the future; the American commissioners to recommend to their Government that the arms of the soldiers be returned to those "who so bravely defended them."

The articles were signed yesterday afternoon after a four hours session of the commissioners, who agreed that the terms of capitulation should avoid the sanction of the Madrid Government.

Gen. Toral Heartbroken.

General Toral, the white-haired commander of the Spanish forces, was present throughout the session, and appeared to be

SMELTING BY ELECTRICITY.

Nickel Ore Reduced at Sault Ste. Marie.

Interesting Experiments Carried on—Iron and Nickel Separated by This Method—Mixing Stocks and Notes.

In a recent treatise just published Mr. William Horry dealt with "Electric Smelting at Sault Ste. Marie." In this paper the author referred to experiments carried on at the point named in connection with the manufacture of calcium carbide, the electricity being generated by a large water power, that it will be hardly possible in the ordinary regeneration of the furnace to attain the degree of heat...

The matter was now ground up and mixed with lime and carbon as recovery agents, and the whole composition was served into an electric furnace. After fusion of the material was found to contain only 0.02 per cent of copper. The all-important current only was used. Metallurgical state that this practical elimination of the sulphur is gratifying, and that the use of the electric furnace here is a cheap one, as it performs the service usually that can be done by a blast furnace in other ways. Two types of electric furnaces were used and the results obtained from them are tabulated as follows: One, a crucible serving as one electrode, with a carbon pencil movable perpendicularly as the other pole. This pencil was drawn up as the melting proceeded and as more mixture was added; then, when the crucible was full the current was stopped and the metal allowed to cool. On removing the contents...

CANADA'S TRADE EXPANSION.

Increase of Nearly Two Million Dollars in Duty Collected—Other Notes From the Capital.

Ottawa, July 16.—The trade of Canada, as shown by figures issued by the Customs Department, is, for the fiscal year ending June 30 last, the largest on record. The aggregate trade has reached $293,338,000, as against $245,297,144 for 1897, an increase for the year of $48,040,856. The duty collected was $21,890,290, compared with $19,801,907 for 1897, or an increase of nearly $2,000,000. This does not include about $250,000 duty collected in the Yukon. The imports were $150,690,185, compared with $111,294,021 for 1897, an increase of over $39,000,000. The exports were $142,647,815, as against $134,003,123 for 1897, an increase of $8,644,692.

The Department of Justice is considerably relieved at the information conveyed by cable of the arrest of Capt. J. A. Theriault in London. Capt. Theriault of the 8th Battalion, at the close of the Lewis militia in London, had been charged with the murder of a man, skipped with the whole amount. He was accompanied in his flight by the color-sergeant and the two took passage on the steamer Labrador for France, via Liverpool. The Department of Justice was notified and, upon the arrival of the steamer in Liverpool, had the two fugitives shadowed. They went to London, and there, at the instance of the Canadian authorities, were arrested.

FROM THE KLONDIKE.

The Steamer Cottage City Arrives at Victoria, B.C., With the First of the Season's Gold.

Victoria, B.C., July 16.—The steamer Cottage City, which arrived here last night, brought the first of this season's gold from the Klondike, having on board men who left Dawson City as late as June 28. Included in the party were Dick Butler and three brothers, who cleared up $400,000, and others who did nearly as well. The cleanup cannot be estimated, as the men give incorrect figures to escape the royalty. The Dominion Government, they say, would have collected half a million in royalty. "Bossy Smith," the notorious confidence man, was killed at Skagway last week by Frank Reid, city surveyor. A returned Dawsonite robbed of a sack of gold, and Smith defied the authorities to make an arrest of his gang, and whipped out Winchester with which he shot Reid through the hip. Reid replied with a revolver, killing Smith instantly.

FAY PLEADS GUILTY.

A McGill University Student Who Appears to Have Got Himself Into Dire Trouble.

John Fay, the man arrested in Buffalo for defrauding R. H. Keating, Manager of the Street Railway, out of $150, pleaded guilty at the Police Court on Saturday and was remanded until Friday next. Fay is a McGill University student, and lived at 110 Greene-avenue, Westmount, Montreal. He is only 19 years of age. Last Wednesday Fay called on a man named Brulo and asked him to cash a cheque for $500. The banker's suspicions were aroused, but his fears were immediately put at rest by the production of a letter of recommendation, which later turned out to be forged. It was the banker's suspicions that led to Fay's arrest. The charge hanging over his head in this city was the more serious one, and he was handed over to Detective Black and brought to Toronto on Friday night.

He was Mayor in 1860, when the Prince of Wales visited Cobourg, and for many years took a very active part in political and municipal affairs, as well as in matters connected with the Methodist Church. Respected by all, he was a kind, generous man, and his death is a great loss to his family, who have been his assistants in his medical practice. Mrs. Mary Brandon, who was frightfully burned on Friday night, while attempting to rescue her daughter Maud, who was burned to death at her home, 630 Queen-street east, succumbed to her injuries Saturday morning at 11.45, in the General Hospital, where she was removed. Notwithstanding her severe burns, she was able at times to talk about the affair, and complained of her hands only. Her death was very peaceful, she having passed away in an unconscious state. The remains were removed to the undertaking establishment of C. F. W. Matthews & Co., 455 Queen-street west, from where the funeral of the two victims will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. Coroner Johnson, who issued a warrant for an inquest on the body of the daughter and who afterwards withdrew it, has called an inquest on the remains of Mrs. Brandon for this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A Martyr to Diarrhoea.

Tells of relief from suffering by Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry.

There are many people martyrs to bowel complaints who would find Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry a wonderful blessing to them. It not only cures the diarrhoea but soothes and heals the inflamed and irritated bowels, so that permanent relief is obtained. Mrs. Andrew Jackson, Houghton, Ont., sends the following letter: "For the past two or three years I have been a martyr to diarrhoea. I tried every remedy I heard of and spent a good deal of money. I was cured by using Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry. I purchased a bottle and commenced taking it according to directions and was cured in a very short time. I cannot praise the remedy too highly for what it did for me."
