SCOTLAND YARD PICTURES OF CRIPPEN AND MISS LENEVE

WAS TAKEN BY SURPRISE AFTER SUSPECTING PILOTS GIRL GOES HYSTERICAL

"Crippen, I Want You," Said Inspector Dew, as Disguised as Mariner He Reached the Fugitive's Side on Montrose—Was at Once Handcuffed and Taken to His Cabin.

FACTS IN THE CASE

FATHER POINT, Que., July 31.—Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel Le Neve, his stenographer, who fled from London after the disappearance of Belle Elmore, the doctor's wife, were arrested here today aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose, at the command of Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard. The identification of the fugitives by the English detective marked the culmination of one of the most sensational flights in recent criminal annals. Accompanied by two Canadian officers, he boarded the vessel at 8.30 o'clock this morning, and fifteen minutes later both man and girl were locked in their state rooms. Crippen broke in spirit, but mentally relieved by the relaxed tension; the girl, garbed in boy's clothing, sobbing hysterically. They were no longer the "Rev. John Robinson" and "son," as booked from Antwerp on July 20. After a brief delay, the Montrose continued her 160-mile journey up the river towards Quebec where she awaited the pair. Crippen is charged with the murder of an unknown woman. The girl is held as an accessory. They will be taken back to England on the steamship Royal George, leaving Quebec on Thursday. The scene enacted near this little settlement this morning was dramatic. Inspector Dew, wearing a sleepless night at the Marconi operator's side, communicating thru the fog with the Montrose, saw the approaching ship's whistle was heard. It awakened the villagers and the newspaper men, who dressed hastily and waited in a drizzling rain for the liner's arrival. The Querry in Sight. Shortly after 7.30 o'clock the Montrose pushed her nose thru the fog, and at 8.15 the pilot boat Euraka, set out from shore. She carried a host of newspaper men and photographers, and as many townspeople as could crowd aboard. The inspector was not among them; he had embarked on the Euraka's small tender, accompanied by Chief McCarthy of the Quebec police and ex-Chief Denis of the same city. They were the garb of pilots, and over his florid face Inspector Dew had pulled a pilot's visored cap. He did not wish Crippen to recognize him before he could approach and take advantage of the only avenue of escape—suicide. Four sailors quickly rowed the tender alongside the Montrose and Dew and his companions stepped aboard. Crippen was standing near the rail talking with Dr. Stuart, the ship's surgeon. That he was nervous was indicated by his furtive glances and his remark to Dr. Stuart: "There are three pilots coming aboard," he said, nervously. "Is that not unusual?" The physician did not reply, but kept his eyes on the strangers, who walked rapidly toward them. The Arrests. On nearing the Montrose Dew had spotted Crippen walking the deck and chatting with Dr. Stuart, the suspect had shaven. This was enough for the inspector, who, on hoarding the Montrose, went straight for the deck on which his quarry was patrolling. He touched him on the shoulder with an invitation to visit the captain's cabin. "Crippen, I want you," said Dew quietly. The dentist recoiled involuntarily as he recognized the man who addressed him, then the blood left his face, his breath came short and fast, and he was being led away to the captain's cabin, from which he was transferred later to his own state room. "Thank God, the suspense is over and I am glad," Crippen's arrest exclaimed, Dew hurried to Miss Leneve's state room, where he found her, still dressed as before, on the verge of nervous breakdown. Her appearance when told that she was under arrest was pitiable. All control that she had Premier Whitney's Observations on the Entrance Examination "Fetish" — Says Public School Training Has Been Impaired.

Sir James Whitney, in the course of an interview on Saturday, made the following observations on the subject of the entrance examinations and examinations generally: "The government carefully considered the representations made regarding the entrance examination this year and the modification already announced and sent out to the entrance boards goes as far, I think, as we ought to go in altering for the present year the standard now set."

"I want to speak quite frankly about this whole question of examinations. The danger of overdoing it in the case of school work is great. Some parents seem more anxious to push the children on to the high schools than to see that their preparatory training is thorough and complete. Some teachers boast of the number of pupils who pass the entrance as if this test were the sole aim of the public school course. "Originally intended as a test of the fitness of pupils to enter upon high school work, this examination has become a sort of fetish, and in so far as it has interfered in a very considerable degree with the efficiency of the public schools, the result has been bad all around. The thoroughness of the public school training has been impaired, and many ill-prepared pupils have been forced into the high schools."

Improving Public Schools. "I see no reason to change the views I expressed several years ago regarding the importance of public school education to the great mass of the people. The percentage of children who go on to the high schools is a mere fraction of the whole. This being so, our public schools should be improved by every way possible. The government has taken several steps to attain this end. We have established enough normal schools to provide better trained teachers, and we have introduced cheaper text books. The course of study for the public schools is being revised, and I am satisfied that a marked improvement in school instruction will be the result of the training."

But the co-operation of school boards is necessary if we are to have efficient teachers in the profession, and the tendency to exaggerate the value of examinations, as the chief object of the public school course, is a serious defect. The high schools, I am glad to know, are generally in a good condition, but our educational system will not produce the results it should if the public schools continue to put their best efforts into the preparation of pupils to pass the entrance, rather than to give them a broad and useful education. The child in after life."

III-Taught Pupils. "The complaint is often made—and the evidence shows that it is fully made—that pupils who leave school at 13 or 14 do not read, write, or spell properly, cannot add up columns of figures correctly, and are imperfectly trained for ordinary business careers. Surely these are evils which will not be cured by a system of cramming for examinations, but by making school instruction more thorough. Some people advocate keeping children out of the high school until they are over 14, but I doubt if public schools would justify so drastic a measure, and besides, I believe we can accomplish the reform needed by concentrating attention on the public school course of study as an end in itself. The minister of education hopes to make such changes in the regulations as will in time secure this result."

Want a Working Knowledge. "When the schools open again teachers and pupils should act upon the idea that it is the intention of the department to exact a real working knowledge of the elementary subjects, and not to keep the entrance standard low for the mere purpose of exhibiting a false show of efficiency by allowing large numbers to pass."

MANY WERE ROUNDED UP IN RAID OF GRAP GAME

Lively Scurry Followed Entry of Police at 20 East Queen Street — Many Complaints Made.

A gambling establishment at 20 East Queen-street was raided by the police at 1.15 Sunday morning and the keeper and 18 frequenters were arrested. The game played was "craps." The place was the second floor above a barber shop and cigar store. Three or four of the frequenters escaped by jumping out of a rear window on the roof of the rear part of the building, which is only one-storey high, and jumping from there, the ground, a distance of about 20 feet. The police have received a number of complaints recently about the place and for some days past two plain clothes men have been frequenting it and playing "craps" for evidence. The raiders waited outside yesterday morning until a frequenter came along. When he went in the police followed. Several sets of dice and several packs of cards were confiscated. The men who did the job were: Inspector Crowe, Staff Inspector McKinney and P. C. Wilson (238).

Wm. Daly was arrested and charged with being the keeper. The others gathered in were: Alfred Gooderham, 11 Garnet-avenue; Nelson Parsons, 139 Munro-street; Wm. McGinnis, 70 Oak-street; James Hickey, 172 St. Bourne-street; Clarence Wilson, 27 Wilton-avenue; John Gardner, 246 Lippincott-street; John Doyle, 48 Grenville-street; Abraham Levine, 18 Elizabeth-street; Herman Latta, 28 Metcalf-street; Roy Marcano, 58 Homewood-avenue; Robert Tremble, 27 Ann-street; Joseph Price, 432 Jones-avenue; Charles Hitchcock, 122 Jones-avenue; Alexander Potter, 112 St. David-street; Archie Harding, 191 Munro-street; Cornelius Enright, 136 Clinton-street; Henry Jones, a frequenter came along. Two reasons alone make this Furniture Sale on a "grander scale than ever": The great quantity of furniture involved and the remarkable values we're offering.

We've now considerably more floor space for Furniture display; every foot is utilized, and here's such a magnitude of range and opportunities that 'twould seem the realization of our fondest dreams. We've so planned for this Furniture Sale that the family with most moderate means may reap as great benefits, as those who wish to furnish a costly home—for though the August Furniture Sale is devoted chiefly to Bedroom and Dining-room Furniture of medium and low prices, to offer a selection that would satisfy every furniture need we've included a considerable quantity of our own very high-grade goods, marking down the prices to unusually low figures. Every article offered is thoroughly reliable, genuine, exactly as we say it is. We buy specially for this Sale, but we buy with as much care as we do our finest stocks. Every article we offer carries with it our guarantee, no matter how low the price; and, if for any reason you're not thoroughly satisfied in every way with your purchase, we'll refund your money (wherever hygienically possible) on August Furniture goods as quickly as on the finest furniture we carry.

Judge for yourself—every article is marked in plain figures.

Note the graceful lines—the good designing—the row after row of different lines from which you may choose. Surely here's an extravagance of selection—furniture for dining-rooms, bedrooms, halls, dens, parlors—furniture of any grade you wish, as well as an unusual display of brass bedsteads; and these few items give but a faint idea of the great value.

With a Flood of Savings Extraordinary, the August Sale of Waists Opens Tuesday

And these savings will continue for every day of this most remarkable of sales

We've extra good news to announce this August—news of greatest interest to every woman, for included in the Sale is the output of three high-grade manufacturers, as well as our other big preparations. A quantity involving thousands upon thousands of Waists of the most desirable kinds—Waists for any and every occasion—Waists as well made, as well designed, as pretty and as fashionable as we could have secured had we ordered each one made-to-order. Every Waist new, crisp and fresh; and the entire aggregation averages half usual price—some more, some less.

It's the most interesting sale of its kind we ever announced, for while we have had rush prices on the low-priced lines in other Waist Sales, our quantities were usually limited. This Sale features Waists ranging from 39c to $2.49 each—prices that in some cases hardly pay for the actual goods, prices that are bound to bring a rush. For what woman would want to miss such a chance to get a supply of so useful, popular and economical a garment as the Lawn Waist? And what's best of all is that our tremendous quantities in these "rush price" lines assure plenty for all, no matter what time you may come—though we'd rather you'd come early; better service for you, better business for us.

Last June our Waist Sale fairly bounded ahead of anything we'd ever accomplished before—this Sale we want to do better; it's a big undertaking, but we've made big preparations. You can get Waists at these Sale prices, no matter what your particular requirement—low necks, yoke effects, fancy lace trimmings, short or long sleeves, plain styles, very fancy designs, Waists for house wear, Waists for street wear. There are Waist styles we've never shown in Toronto before—charming, new effects in the mode of trimming that, on account of their beauty, even were they at regular price, they'd no doubt be quickly bought up.

Space permits mention of but a few items—best way to choose is to come early, when the tables are all in order—when you can be served quickest and best. Read these descriptions—note these prices—then come for the best Waist values we ever offered you.

Lambton Golf Club Annual Tourney Saturday Scores

LAMBTON, July 30.—With a high wind blowing and a sky that threatened rain, the second day's play of the fifth annual tournament of the Lambton Golf and Country Club was held Saturday.

The program consisted of the third and fourth flights of the open championship. This event is open to all amateurs and is divided into four flights, 18 holes match play. Final 36 holes.

The first flight is open to all, the second is open to players handicapped from five to ten strokes, inclusive; the third open to players handicapped from 11 to 17 strokes, inclusive, and the fourth flight is open to players handicapped over 17. This competition will be continued on Monday (Civic Holiday) and finished on Wednesday.

The tournament this year promises to be the most successful ever held by the Lambton Club. The entry list is larger in number and the quality of play will, without doubt, be just as good as any previous year, and event promises to be better.

The other events of the tourney are the correlation handicap, approaching completion, open mixed foursome handicap, driving competition, open team match, open handicap foursome, putting competition and open handicap.

According to the schedule the program of the first round in the first flight should have been played on Saturday afternoon. On account, however, of there not being sufficient interest it was found necessary to traverse this series to Monday.

There will be several team matches pulled off between the players in this round, who are all of them noted golfers.

In this series, Fritz Martin (Canadian amateur champion), in conjunction with J. H. Miller (St. Catharines), defeated the Mississauga crack, but the former champion should find little difficulty in disposing of the Port Credit player.

SHAMROCKS BY 8 TO 3 DEFEAT THE TECUMSEHS

Indians Start Well, But After Fifth Goal It Was All Irish—Caps Beat Cornwall.

MONTREAL, July 30.—(Special.)—The Shamrocks beat Tecumsehs 8-3 to-day on the Mile End grounds in the presence of about 500 spectators. The smallest of the attendance was due to a heavy rainstorm that broke over the city at 2:15 o'clock at about the time people would be starting for the grounds.

There was another heavy shower at 3 o'clock that soaked the field and when the teams lined up at 4 o'clock it was like a swamp and it was necessary to move the nets to get them out of the mud holes, where the turf was worn away. Tom Carling had to handle the game alone, as he could not get a judge of play to act.

The teams lined up in the work as follows: Shamrocks: Goal, Muir; point, Dillon; cover-point, Clingen; defence, Barry, Rochford, Tobin; centre, Munday; home field, George, Quinn, MacCarthy; outside home, Hyland; inside home, McIntyre.

Results of the Races Held on Saturday. The Alexander Yacht Club held their annual regatta on Saturday afternoon. Although it proved a most successful event, the club still registers the regular idea that the Dominion Government should do some dredging and give the club a chance.

In the 16-foot skiff race there were fourteen contestants and the 14-foot skiff race had twenty-five competitors. A ladies' race was also one of the features of the regatta. The results were as follows:

16-foot skiff—W. Gratton (National), 1st; J. T. Turner (National), 2nd; J. T. Turner (National), 3rd.

14-foot skiff—J. Douglas (T.C.C.), 1st; J. T. Turner (National), 2nd; J. T. Turner (National), 3rd.

Ladies' race—Miss Howard (C.Y.C.), 1st; Miss Howard (Alexandra), 2nd; Miss Howard (Alexandra), 3rd.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 1, 1910.

TOUCHING SOME SPOTS.

James W. Gibb, a Scottish correspondent of a Glasgow paper, has been saying things about Toronto, some of which seem to be "truth-filled," like the watch cases that are guaranteed for so many years. A little truth, like a little gold, goes a long way in such cases. At the same time Mr. Gibb has discovered a few genuine nuggets. Here is one.

"Yet, comparatively, Toronto isn't bad withal, at her time of day, she might be better. The explanation is that she is suffering from Canada's curse—lack of public spirit."

Toronto, her people, her civic rulers, her press, all who are concerned with her, may well make a note of this comment. The lack of public spirit, the fear that anything may escape out of private possession into the possession of the public as a whole, the reluctance to do things for the community, just for the honor of it, and without any reference to any possible personal benefit to be derived from the action, this is the sign of an undeveloped and uncultured community, wanting in ideals, and not yet possessed of corporate or civic consciousness—public spirit.

A second point noted by Mr. Gibb is in connection with the wrangle of the aldermen over the extension of the intake. His comment is on the same line.

"The fact of the matter is," he says, "they know their constituents, and know that they have the national weakness of regarding every cent spent in the public service as wasted money."

That touches the spot.

STAR CHANGE.

A proposal comes from The Evening Star to do something to recognize the great work done by Hon. Adam Beck in conducting the Hydro-Electric power policy to such a splendid consummation. The suggestion may be well intended, but those who remember the bitter opposition to the work of Mr. Beck's commission which The Star has so frequently voiced in the past two years cannot but feel some surprise at the remarkable change of heart that has occurred.

It would be ungenerous to say that The Star takes advantage of its suggestion merely to have the opportunity to remark that the Whitney-Government has not done Mr. Beck justice. This, we believe, is a gratuitous assumption. The Whitney Government will do itself honor by recognizing Mr. Beck's work honorably and adequately when it is shown by the operation of the lines in the next few months through the co-operating districts that it has been triumphantly successful.

"Now," says The Star, "that the success and the popularity of that policy have become abundantly evident, these hostile influences have apparently become quiescent." The Star ought to know.

Why the silence?

It is not very long since any reference to a 16-ounce loaf for five cents elicited howls from The Globe. The mention of a 16-ounce loaf for five cents caused acute spasms in the great family journal. Now that the law initiated and fostered by The Globe compels the baker to sell a loaf not weighing more than 12 ounces, The Globe has not a word to say on that score.

It was a pleasant hope that the baker might be compelled to give 24 ounces for five cents, but the baker simply could not afford to do it, and he doesn't. There used to be an old fable with a moral which stated "by attempting to grasp too much you lose all."

DR. CRIPPEN'S ARREST.
As late as the early fifties of last century, the electric telegraph was still a matter of admiring wonderment. In referring to the particulars of that time, it is not unusual to stumble across paragraphs narrating the capture of some criminal whose arrival at the expected haven of refuge had been anticipated by the magical need. This, of course, appears a simple matter in these days when people have all but exhausted the faculty of wonder and even resent the failure to furnish regularly a new titillation for their jaded palates.

The pursuit and capture of Dr. Crippen and his masquerading companion has provided, however, a highly dramatic illustration of the value of wireless telegraphy. Year by year the ways of escape have been closing to criminals and suspects. The meshes woven by the co-operation of the police forces in all countries are not now easily escaped, at least where the offence charged makes it imperative that every available effort shall be made. Certainly there are great dramatic possibilities in the situation of these fugitives on board the steamer Montrose, and the manner in which the net was drawn round them without chance of escape.

Scotland Yard has been severely criticized by certain sections of the British press for what is alleged to have been laxity of method. The police are accused of taking a half-hearted course and with placing no obstacle in the way of Dr. Crippen's flight, although under suspicion. Possibly the handling of the initial stages of the enquiry arising out of Mrs. Crippen's disappearance can be explained, but it is right enough that Scotland Yard should be kept up to the mark. This well-known name, which covers the headquarters of the London Metropolitan Police, is derived from a short street in Whitehall, London, where these were housed till 1880. They were in that year transferred to the Thames Embankment under the title of New Scotland Yard. The earlier site was the residence of Inigo Jones and Sir Christopher Wren, the famous architects, and of other distinguished persons. The Metropolitan Police now numbers well on to 20,000—the criminal investigation department forming a separate body under an assistant commissioner.

There was nothing brought out before Commissioner Demers in regard to the recent bay tragedy that was not adduced at the inquest and known to the authorities, yet had the Dominion Government not instituted an enquiry there would have been no prosecutions. It seems strange.

CREW UNCONSCIOUS

Had Been Living on Vinegar and Sugar for Thirteen Days.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Two days after leaving Barbados on July 28, the British steamer Ikalis sighted a sinking sloop flying signals of distress, and in a few minutes the sloop was on board. The crew of the sloop were unconscious, and the crew of the Ikalis had to be put to work to revive them. The crew of the sloop had been living on vinegar and sugar for thirteen days.

How the Blind Read and Write.

Accompanying his reader, in which he asks the readers of The World to send him the names and post-office addresses of any boys or girls known to them, whose eyesight is so defective that they cannot attend the public schools with advantage. The Ontario Institute for the Education of the Blind, at Brantford, sends us a card, on which he has printed, without ink, the letters of the alphabet, and asks that these letters be arranged in their reading dots or points, arranged in two horizontal rows, and the combinations of two letters that have been combined to present the various characters of the alphabet. Point letters are much easier to read with the fingers than line letters, and blind children soon learn to read and write words, figures and musical signs, the writing being done with a steel stylus and a brass frame which they call a slate. The school for the blind is maintained by the Ontario Government as a part of our free school system, under the supervision of the minister of education, and the principal will promptly answer any letter of enquiry concerning the school and its work.

THE NEW DAY FOR FARMING.

Editor World: I read the article in last Sunday's World stating that motor power on the farm has come and that it will be in common use when some minor improvements are made in the engine. It is true that there are thousands of farmers in the Dominion who are anxiously looking for it. The day is nearly past for depending on horse, faithful and useful as they are. Farmers now everywhere require more and better tillage; they know it and they are waiting for the manufacturer to provide the improvement. Many farmers in the west admit that they are neglecting thorough cultivation; they claim that the season is short and they have so much ground to cover that under present conditions it is poorly done. If the motor was attached to the plow and other implements what horseflesh and time would be saved. Hired labor could be better utilized by doing the work more thoroughly; summer fallowing would insure more remunerative returns. The day when farming can be faster and easier done will be a red-letter day in the rural districts, making it more attractive and keeping at home many young men that are leaving the noble industry. I am informed that a Toronto man has invented an outfit that will plow 30 acres a day, and Kansas men are supplying a horse to harvest grain and thresh it as it is cut. The farmers should be jubilant and happy that they are living in this utopian age.

A PUSH BINDER

A New Kind of Wheat Cutter Works Near Toronto.

A somewhat novel reaper and binder was working in one of the big wheat fields at Donlands on Saturday; namely, a push binder built for the wheat fields of South America by the Massey-Harris Company. It cuts a swath 12 feet wide, is pushed by four horses hitched behind it driven by one man who, from his seat, or stand rather, also steers the machine. The stalks cut somewhat nearer the head than by the ordinary binder, the machine is over 20 feet wide as it goes thru the field, and has to be put together after it gets thru the ordinary farm gate. There are no fences in South America, and once one of these machines is started in one of the big wheat farms of South America, it goes ahead all day, going round any corner it may have to rather than turning at right angles. Half a dozen of them will follow a single little behind the other.

The machine was started in a wheat field on the east side of the Don road Saturday afternoon, and cut continually until 6 o'clock. It will finish the field this morning, and will be towed along with its 12-foot cut, and had not stop other than rough ground caused by shoots out the sheaf in a marvelously quick way. It easily does one-half more work than an 8-foot, 3-horse ordinary binder. The wheat at Donlands was so thick that it almost checked the machine at times, but this push binder cannot handle wheat when it is down and, therefore, would not cut days be workable here in Ontario, and it would also need to have big fields and no fences, or gates 20 feet wide as the binder is an extension of the cutting table. The machine might be used in the Canadian northwest to advantage.

Anyone interested can see the machine working this morning, and it may be turned into a 50-acre field in a few days later.

The horses take to the push business as easily as to the old style. It is really a pulling attachment, as the wheel rollers are fixed where the neck-yokes goes at the head of the tongue, and the horses' heads are as against the front board of a wagon. The cutting board is immediately in front of their heads, and the draught is accordingly even, not hung to one side as with the ordinary binder.

Mr. Suchanap, who is the company's representative in South America, handled the machine. A large number of the heads of the different departments of the Massey-Harris firm were out to see the test.

The medicine with a record of cures extending over 65 years. You don't experiment when you buy it.

Mr. J. CHAPPELLE, Glenora, Alta. writes:—"While living in England I suffered with acute stomach trouble, colic, diarrhoea, etc. I took various medicines and had a doctor attend me for several weeks but found no relief. I suffered terrible pain and was gradually getting weaker. In 1905 I came to Canada and suffered with Summer Complaint. I was recommended to take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry so I bought a bottle (but had no faith in it) and it completely cured me. I now have it constantly in the house and one spoonful always cures me."

NAVIGATION IN THE BAY

Suggested Regulation Requiring Licenses by Small Craft Sailors.

At a board meeting of the harbor commissioners, Saturday, Vice-Chairman Capt. J. T. Matthews gave notice that at the next meeting of the board, he would move the following resolution:

"That the Dominion Government be petitioned to appoint an instructor for Toronto, whose duty it should be to teach to all persons applying, the rudiments of navigation in fresh water.

"That the subjects for instruction shall be: (a) The use of lights and danger signals; (b) the handling of sails and sheets in fine weather and in storms; (c) a mechanical knowledge of electric and gasoline engines, batteries, timers, carburetors, steering gear, etc.; (d) a knowledge of the "rules of the road"; (e) applied to meeting, passing and crossing other craft; (f) a careful examination of the eyes, as regards imperfect vision, color blindness, etc. &c.

"That licenses be issued only to those who are qualified to manage motor boats and sailing craft, as certified to by the instructor of other authority, duly appointed.

CAUGHT AFTER 11,000 MILE SEARCH. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 31.—Dragged from beneath a sink in a Third-street lodging house, where he had been hiding for twenty-four hours, Jos. A. Wendling, accused of the murder of little Alma Keller, in Louisville, Ky., was arrested today. Wendling admitted his identity, but protested his innocence of the crime.

A few hours after the arrest, Detective Captain Carnoy of Louisville, arrived to learn that his 11,000 miles search for Wendling had been crowned with success. It was the telegraphed tip from the Kentucky detective which led to the arrest.

PT. CREDIT B.C. CHURCH HAS GREAT BIG PICNIC

Fine Crowd and Good Receipts—North and West Toronto News—Suburban Notes.

PORT CREDIT, July 31.—(Special.)—St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church never held a more delightful function than the garden party and concert of Saturday afternoon, when more than a thousand people, united Rev. Father Tracy and his good people in an afternoon of unalloyed pleasure.

The grounds where the picnic was held are convenient to the village, beautifully shaded and altogether admirably adapted for a happy event like that of Saturday.

And there was no end of amusements, while sandwiched in were able addresses by such well-known speakers as Claude Macdonell, M.P., A. E. Denovan, M.L.A., T. M. Humble and others. J. M. Godfrey, who claims the "port" as his summer home was chairman, and kept everything running in good shape.

And there were sports of all kinds during the afternoon, in control of an efficient committee, a few of which were as follows:

Hundred yards race: Flint 1, Yost 2. Putting shot: Blake 1, Fulton 2. Stannus long jump: Blake 1, Heslop 2. Girls' race, under 14: J. O'Connor 1, L. O'Connor 2.

In the pole event there was the keenest competition, and the competitors all local men, whose wits matched, and the results only arrived at after a long contest. The winners were: Moran 1, 7 ft. 9 in.; Sandford 2, 7 ft. 6 in.; and Harrison.

Catching the greasy pig gave rise to no end of excitement, the pigker leading the crowd a short but merry dance. The winner got a $5 bill.

The Port Credit Citizens Band furnished music during the afternoon, and in the evening an orchestra from the city furnished music for dancing on the green.

A short but thoroughly enjoyable concert was held in the evening, at which Controller J. J. Ward presided, and among the artists were Harry M. Benjamin, Walter Kennedy, Miss Fowler and Miss Genevieve Kelly.

The committee on whom devolved not a little of the labor and who worked so hard to make the picnic the most successful it was, were: J. Jennings, W. Kelley, M. O'Connor, Joseph Madigan, J. Curran, (chairman), and Madigan, J. Curran, (treasurer), and A. M. Robertson.

WILLOWDALE. Big Crowd of Neighbors Put Up Fine Barn for Mr. Heaslip.

WILLOWDALE, July 31.—(Special.)—The raising of James Heaslip's splendid new barn, corner of Dundas and Pacific-avenue, was a great event in this neighborhood, and attended by practically everybody in the district.

The new barn is 32 x 102 feet, with everything of the most modern and approved character, ample stabling for all the horses and cattle, and in every way a large and useful addition to many good farm buildings for which York Township is known.

At the ceremony, which was held at the residence of the contractor, Mr. Heaslip, and the members of his family, a large number of guests were present, together with a fair sprinkling of ladies, the latter of whom at the close of the race between the two sides provided an abundant repast.

The captains chosen were John Whalen and William Wallace, the latter winning by a wide margin. John Whalen, a well-known farmer, was struck by a rafter while the racing was in progress and knocked some distance, sustaining painful, but it is believed, not serious injuries.

Some of the timbers used in the construction of the new barn were taken out of the old St. Germain barn, lately torn down to make way for the rapid expansion of the city. The timbers were found to be practically as sound as when first placed in position, probably 40 or 50 years ago.

The work of building a modern barn entails a great deal of hard work, but Mr. Heaslip and the members of his family deserve the heartiest congratulations for their well directed efforts.

WEST TORONTO. Local Church Officials Will Try to Stop Boxing Bout.

The little fellow was taken ill on Thursday evening, and another child of Mr. Hartwell's, a daughter, is sick with the same disease.

Pastor Russell's Sermon

THE DESIRE OF ALL NATIONS.

CELORON, N.Y., July 31. To-day at this place Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle addressed the International Bible Students' Association—about 4000. He said: "The great Messiah, 'King of Glory,' has long been waited for by the civilized nations. For thirty-five centuries the Jews have waited for him as the great Prophet foretold by Moses and foretold by the prophets, and as the Great King foretold by their kings, David and Solomon; and as their glorious Priest, typified by Aaron, but specially in the former's majesty as king and priest foretold by Melchisedek—a priest upon his throne (Psalm cx. 4). Free Masonry waited twenty-five hundred years for the same glorious personage, as Hiram Abiff, the great Master Mason, whose death, glorification and future appearing are continually set before them by the letters upon their keystones. He died a violent death, they claim, because of his loyalty to the divine secrets typified in Solomon's Temple. He must reap, they claim, in order that the great antitype temple may be completed and its grand service for Israel and for all peoples may be accomplished. They claim that his presence is to be expected speedily. Christians of every shade, in proportion as they are conversant with the Bible (Old Testament and New) believe, also, in a great temple builder who died because of his faithfulness to the divine plan, the spiritual temple, the elect church (I. Peter ii, 4, 5). Him they expect to come a second time 'in power and great glory' to complete the temple which is His body, and in and thru that spiritual and glorious temple to bless all the families of the earth. His second presence in glory and power, but invisible to men, is believed to be imminent. The Mohammedans, also, worshiping the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and David and Solomon, are also expecting a great Heavenly Messenger to bless them and all peoples by the establishment of a heavenly kingdom. They have awaited His coming for centuries. They believe His Kingdom to be near at hand. The same glorious personage will fulfill all these desires—these hopes. It is not time that all these nations, fearing God and hoping in His promises, should come together in one hope, in one expectation. It must be so, for do we not read prophetically: 'The desire of all nations shall come!'

We are well aware that great barriers lie between these multitudes; but we hold that these are chiefly barriers of superstition and ignorance. In the past they have pulled apart, and have slandered and persecuted one another. If now they are sympathetically drawn near to each other, surely they will find much to appreciate in each other's hopes and aims. The fact that the Jews and Mohammedans, Catholics and Protestants and Free Masons, all base their faith on the Old Testament of the Holy Scriptures, is ground soon to have our better understanding pleased. All Christians must accept the authority of the Hebrew Scriptures because Jesus and His special mouthpieces, the apostles, taught nothing contrary to the law and the prophets. Indeed, they quoted from the Old Testament in proof of every doctrine advanced. They claimed that they neither destroyed nor ignored the Old Testament, but they merely noted its fulfillment. The error in the past has been the general disposition to appeal to superstition and prejudice and bigotry, rather than to the fullness of Scripture. We must reverse the lever in order to attain the good results—in order to see eye to eye. All agree that the world needs the divine blessing. All agree that we have been laboring under a mistake and supposing that education and civilization are alone necessary to secure human happiness. We perceive that the greater the civilization, the more the unrest; and the broader the education, the greater are the suggestions and opportunities for taking selfish advantage of others. All are agreed that only the latest inventions, telephones, etc., and our modern and costly police precautions make it possible to live in civilized lands and that, despite all these, murders are a hundred-fold what they were fifty years ago. In those days a murder would be detailed and discussed for a year. Now we give little heed to several reported in each day's newspapers. Thousands are executed, other thousands are imprisoned for life, and we pay little heed—so gradually have we become accustomed to these horrors of our civilization and education. We oppose these with church and mission influences, with Sunday Schools, Y.M.C.'s, with courts, juvenile and superior, and yet they increase. We penalize the carrying of weapons and bombs and wisely prohibit inflammatory speeches; and the better informed know that 'Christianity' is the powder magazine which some unskillful friction between the classes may any day explode. Admitting that all mankind are imperfect, 'born in sin and shapen in iniquity,' we nevertheless cannot assent to the doctrine of total depravity—that there is nothing good in any man; or in all men. Each one who prays, 'forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others,' should concede that others, as well as himself, would pray for righteousness to sin, if the environment were different—if his appetite to be satisfied need we quarrel about what it is to be done? Since it offers blessings to all who love God's righteousness, why dispute over details? Shall we contend with God and His plans and promises except to our injury? Let us rejoice with the Jew who God has decreed for the natural seed of Abraham a glorious share in the great work of blessing the world—to the Jew, first, this means a blessing; to the others later! The Scriptures clearly teach that Messiah will establish the new covenant with Jacob—natural Israel. Let all who reverence the Lord acquiesce in His arrangements. And if the Jews shall some day see that the oath-bound promise to Abraham meant two seeds, let them be glad and rejoice in their portion, if the great Messiah soon to be revealed in power and great glory be

On this basis the market may be said to offer a good speculative opportunity and to be a desirable investment. Christian Scientists Meet

The annual meeting of the Toronto Christian Scientists' Association was held at the blue room of the Temple Building Saturday evening. There was a very large attendance and the proceedings were harmonious throughout. Besides the local members, many were present from the Toronto branch of the United States, including British Columbia, Florida, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Massachusetts and Michigan. The local members have a gratitude to be sent to Rev. Mary B. G. Eddy, the founder of the movement. It being the reunion of students of Christian Science, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. M. Stewart, C.S.D., she, as president, conducted the proceedings and delivered an address. The finances were shown to be in a flourishing condition. A splendid reception was held in the evening, which was entertained by an orchestra and the following artists: Miss Marietta La Dell, elocutionist; Mrs. John Liggett, Ft. Pittsburg, Pa.; Miss Ada Davis, Mr. Frank Bemrose, vocal soloists. The local members have also provided an outing and picnic at Long Branch.

Mining Markets Influenced By the Usual Holiday Dulness

Lapse of Active Trading Holds Movement in Check and Stocks Back and Fall Intermittently. World Office, Saturday Evening, July 30. With the holiday season in full swing and many brokers and speculators out of the city, it was only natural to look for a narrow market for Cobalt stocks during the week just closed. That such was realized is quite evident from the list of transactions, which were of only moderate volume, some $22,140 shares being traded in during the five business days. But there was another reason outside of the usual midsummer inactivity to account for the restricted dealing in mining shares, and that was the violent action of the big speculative markets. The sensational movements on Wall street were the topic on the 'street,' and on this account the Cobalt issues were left more to themselves than possibly might have otherwise been the case. Stock market operators followed the New York fluctuations closely, and as a result the lesser exchanges were perhaps, more neglected than might otherwise have been the case. The only noteworthy feature in connection with the silver mining shares at the moment is the fact that very little stock is coming out on the slight price changes which are in evidence today. Holders of Cobalt stocks are evidently in a frame of mind where they are satisfied to keep their securities, rather than liquidate them for present levels. This is not at all surprising when it is considered that the big majority of market followers have taken on stocks at materially higher levels, and consequently special fractions. The City Concert Band will give performances both afternoon and evening, introducing illustrated songs and playing a number of electric anvils, and a brilliant electric effect entitled 'The Arch of the Nations.' There will be league baseball games morning and afternoon between Toronto and Baltimore. General developments relative to the Cobalt continue favorable in nearly every instance. News from the camp, while devoid of anything of a sensational nature, is satisfactory, and everything points to a resumption of speculative activity when the holiday season is over. Shipments from the camp are being maintained at about the usual record, and with much of the ore running high-grade, and considerable concentrates being sent out, the value of the shipments should be well above those of last year. Several of the properties whose market valuation is comparatively low are showing signs of recovery, and promise to do even better in the future. On this basis the market may be said to offer a good speculative opportunity and to be a desirable investment. The market at current levels, though it may take a reasonable time before anything like a substantial recovery can be expected, such being only possible when a more extensive public interest is manifested.

The Reason You Will Believe in The Simpson August Furniture Sale

It takes more than large type announcements to make a furniture sale. When a store announces that it will sell furniture for a month at less than its market value warrants, people want to know nowadays, FIRST—just how the store can do it, and SECOND—why it wants to.

First, How We Can Do It

Our Furniture Department has recently completed arrangements that put us in closest touch with a famous chain of factories well known throughout the Dominion. Appreciating our ready money, these factories have been humming for months on furniture for this sale. And now we are ready to demonstrate that no other retail store in Canada can match the values we have prepared here on Furniture of merit. The other kind we do not sell; no cheap, showy furniture is to be found in this store.

It's not what we say about this Furniture, BUT WHAT YOU SEE IT IS that will make the sale starting next Tuesday a memorable one. From each group of Furniture on our huge FIFTH FLOOR we mention here a typical example of the values you'll find. To see them all you'll have to review in turn Dining room, Bedroom, upholstered, mission and parlor furniture—the cleanest, newest retail stock in Toronto. Here are the leaders in each section:

Second, Why We Want to Do It

We want to sell large quantities of furniture during August, because under ordinary circumstances it is a quiet month. For the sake of a large volume of August business, we want to break in on the vacation season, and remind our customers that now is the profitable time to buy furniture. The list published below makes it worth your while to get the August furniture habit.
