BRAZIL HAS A REVOLUTION

Uruguayan Border Said to Have Been Crossed.

Situation is Declared to be Serious in Rio Grande Do Sul—City of Rosario Reported to be in Hands of Rebels.

(Canadian Press)

Montevideo, March 29.—The Uruguayan Foreign Minister has requested information on reports that Brazilian troops, operating in Rio Grande Do Sul, have invaded Uruguayan territory.

The city of Rosario is reported in the hands of rebels. The inhabitants of nearby places have fled, taking refuge in Anacoas, a Uruguayan town just over the border.

An uprising is also reported to have occurred in Vianna, about ten miles from Porto Alegre. The rebels are said to have taken possession of three other towns.

Bandits has assumed large proportions in the southern part of the state, and the marauders are reported to be attacking homes and ranches with impunity.

Buenos Aires, March 29.—A Montevideo despatch to La Nación says that a report from the frontier town of Vianna reports the capture of a train by Brazilian revolutionaries. The town was fortified and the Government forces although in possession of several machine guns retreated without a fight.

The Governor of the Brazilian State asked the commander of the loyal troops in Santa Anna Do Livramento to defend the city at all costs inasmuch as its loss would seriously jeopardize the stability of the Government.

Buenos Aires, March 29.—Fifty-seven persons are reported killed and twenty wounded in fighting between Government forces and rebels in the town of Villarica, Paraguay, when Government troops forced the rebels to evacuate the town.

Paris Pays Last Tribute To Bernhardt

Paris, March 29.—Paris paused this morning to pay a final measure of respect to the great Sarah Bernhardt.

Crowds gathered at the church of St. Francois de Sales at the cemetery of Pere La Chaise, bringing in profusion the tribute of flowers she requested.

Bernhardt's body rested in a wicker casket which she ordered made thirty years ago. On the breast of her white satin dress was pinned the Cross of the Legion of Honor, while about her neck was a gold locket containing the likeness of her son Maurice.

The ceremony at the church was simple, for Bernhardt had expressed a wish that there be no eulogies. The vault that received her body was also unostentatious. On it was one word—"Bernhardt."

The streets leading to the church of St. Francois de Sales were thronged with people. The street itself was barred except to card-holders. It had been a veritable flower garden all morning as the offerings had been placed near the church.

The exterior of the little church was sombre with black drapery, but with a fringe of white and red flowers high at the foot. Places near the bier were reserved for the artists of the Bernhardt Theatre.

Seeks To Divorce Gloria Swanson, Movie Actress

Los Angeles, March 29.—Gloria Swanson, motion picture actress, was made defendant in a divorce suit filed today by Herbert K. Sornborn, her husband. The complaint charges desertion.

COUNCIL OF AGRICULTURE OUT OF POLITICS

Toronto, March 29.—The Canadian Council of Agriculture yesterday passed a resolution stating that the council would take no part in the conduct of any future campaign for the election of candidates to parliament, leaving the matter to the local organizations to deal with as they found expedient.

Some thought the council would be better to adopt a neutral position in political matters and the resolution was finally adopted unanimously.

JOHN HAY McDONALD.

The energetic Mayor of the progressive town of North Bay. Of late years North Bay has been much in the limelight as a railway as well as a lumbering and industrial centre. It was a haven of refuge for many sufferers from the great fires in Northern Ontario a few months ago.

FORMER MONCTON MAN TO JAIL AND HEAVILY FINED

James Bruce Allerton Dealt With in Quebec for Ringing in a False Alarm of Fire.

Quebec, March 29.—James Bruce Allerton, aged 21, formerly of Moncton, N. B., was yesterday sentenced to six months imprisonment without option of a fine and besides was fined $500 and in default of payment will have to spend another six months in jail. He was arrested a little after three o'clock yesterday morning by Constable P. Smith, as he was ringing in a false fire alarm. He had already sounded the alarm twice since midnight from the same box.

HOPE LIVES OF PRELATES SPARED

Soviet is to Deal With Appeal Tomorrow or Next Week.

Rome, March 29.—Ecclesiastical circles were eagerly awaiting word from Moscow today in the hope that the Soviet Government, having granted a stay of execution in the cases of Archbishop Zepiak and the other convicted prelates, would take cognizance of Pope Pius' request that they be liberated.

The pontiff asked that the church dignitaries be set free on the ground that they are members of the Catholic hierarchy and are therefore his subjects.

Moscow, March 29.—The appeal for clemency of the Catholic prelates and priests sentenced last Monday will be considered at the first meeting of the Central Executive Committee to be held either tomorrow or next week.

Stockholm, March 29.—The Archbishop of Upsala has telegraphed to the Soviet Government urging that the lives of Archbishop Zepiak and Monsignor Butchavitch be spared.

SERIOUS LABOR TROUBLES IN THE OLD COUNTRY

A Building Trades Lockout Threatens and Strike of Railwaymen is Possibility

London, March 29.—Important decisions were taken yesterday by the railway and building industries which may involve serious stoppages. The building employers conference resolved to instruct members throughout the country to enforce in the middle of April an extension of working hours for summer time, from 44 to 47, and reduce wages on a scale already rejected by the men in a ballot. This will mean a general lockout unless the ministry of labor can successfully intervene and also an awkward dilemma for the Government which is being constantly attacked for its failure to provide necessary housing accommodations.

The delegates to the conference of the national union of railwaymen have decided to support the strikers in resisting the claim of the railway companies to the right to withdraw the remaining six shillings of war bonus. The delegates have instructed the executive council to call a national strike if necessary. It is still believed, however, that the railway men's settlement can be arranged.

TWO HEADED CALF

Orangeville, Ont., March 29.—A five year old Durham cow, belonging to George Irwin of Westmore, gave birth to a two headed calf, which lived only about five minutes. Each head had a mouth and pair of eyes. The heads were united a short distance back of the forehead.

BANDITS IN 3RD CALL ON JEWELER SEIZE $25,000

Gumbiner Shop in Upper Broadway Again Robbed

Window Smashing Trio Call in Taxi at Noon—Driver is Captured—Identified by Bullet Holes in Car; Two Other Suspects Held.

New York, March 29.—For the third time in less than three years the jewelry store of David Gumbiner, at 2741 Broadway, was robbed on Monday. Three men who drove up in a taxicab and escaped in the same machine took $25,000 worth of rings and bracelets from the main window of the place, after one of them smashed a cobblestone through the glass. The police an hour later arrested the taxi chauffeur and also took in two other men who were found loitering near the violated store. In the absence of direct evidence to connect this pair with the theft on Monday, the police are holding the chauffeur and the other with acting in concert with this offense.

Robberies at Gumbiner's are getting to be a part of the regular routine, and they are progressive in importance. In the spring of 1920 two men stole $5,000 worth of jewelry from the place after holding up the staff with guns. On December 23 last two strategists hurled a brick wrapped in two towels through the window and got away with $15,000. Yesterday's marauders raised the ante by $10,000. All that has been recovered so far is the two trays in which the jewelry had been displayed.

The attack was made at noon. Mrs. Florence Denkert, who lives at 115 West End street, was driving a taxi driven up from Gumbiner's, saw a taxi drive up to the jeweler's corner and watched two men get out, while the third remained in the cab. One of the two carried something in his right hand, and at the moment that Mrs. Denkert realized that this object was a package of cobblestones he raised his arm and tossed the missile through the window.

Recalling previous adventures at the Gumbiner store, Mrs. Denkert immediately for the police. There was a rush of people toward the spot where the sound of crashing glass originated. Leo Gumbiner, son of the proprietor, dashed into the street, waving a revolver. Patrolman Thomas McFarney of the East Twenty-second street station, off duty and just home, dropped from a Broadway surface car into the middle of the excitement.

Meanwhile the robbers went swiftly and methodically about their affairs. As the glass fell inward each inserted a hand and grabbed a tray loaded with diamonds and pearls. David Gumbiner later estimated the worth of his window display at $40,000 and said that more than half of this had been looted.

With the trays held carefully before them the bandits ran across the block and up the street. The police, which waited with engine running and door swung open. The chauffeur stepped on the gas and the car careered at full speed toward West End street.

Passerby Acquires a Ring

In their dash across the sidewalk the robbers dropped to David Gumbiner by a passerby who picked it up. The other, Mr. Gumbiner said, also was dropped up, but it was not returned. The jeweler was so occupied with keeping an eye on his broken window that he preferred to permit the ring to escape him rather than quit his post of observation.

Leo Gumbiner fired two shots after the disappearing of the robbers. The bullet that sped in another cab which he commanded, and also fired the fugitive vehicle. The policeman was partially successful. One bullet tore a hole in the rear of the bandit car. Two ineffective shots were fired by the thieves at the policeman. McFarney lost the trail after the cab turned into West End Avenue, and he telephoned to the West 100th Street police station, which sent out a general alarm.

Sergeant Clarence Daly and Detective Joseph Connors, of the West Sixty-eighth Street station, picked up the bullet-marked cab an hour later on lower Broadway. At the wheel sat Abraham Rubenstein, of 1415 Fulton Street, the Bronx. Rubenstein said that the cab was not his, but that he borrowed it from a friend. He had been engaged by the three bandits in the Bronx, he said, and had been ordered to drive to the Gumbiner place.

He realized that he was party to a robbery, he said, only when the cab stuck a pistol against his spine and told him to sit tight. Under instruction he added, he had driven the three to a spot in Central Park, where they jumped out and separated hastily, leaving him with an unpaid bill of $30.40 for his morning's work. He said that he was on his way to a police station to report the robbery when the police picked him up.

Rubenstein was held as an accomplice. The police say that he has been arrested once before in connection with a loot robbery, on which occasion he was given his liberty on a suspended sentence.

Albert Ukofer, of 942 Columbus Avenue, and William Burchell, of 698 Columbus Avenue, were found loitering near the Gumbiner place and were arrested on suspicion of being connected with the theft. Ukofer was carrying a permit, and he and his companion were held on Sullivan law charges for further investigation.

MORE MONEY FOR CAPITAL SCHOOLS

School Board to Ask City for Nearly $100,000.

Vote Down Motion to Defer Building New High School—Hospital Trustees Also Going to City Hall for a Bigger Grant.

(Special to Times).

Fredericton, N. B., March 29.—The Fredericton School Board has decided to ask the city council for a school assessment of $94,000 for the ensuing year, an increase from $80,000 for last year. In addition to the amount stated the school board is asking for $3,000 for vocational education, which brings the total very little short of $100,000. Last year the amount for vocational education was $1,500.

A motion was made that the construction of a new high school building be deferred for the present year. The building of a special committee which had inspected new high school buildings in Moncton and St. John's reported. The building of St. John's was said to be of the type which would be the best for Fredericton.

The finance committee of the Board of Health and Hospital Public Hospital has decided to ask the city council for an increase in the hospital grant. The institution has been receiving $14,000 a year from the city.

Col. T. G. Loggie, chairman of the committee, said today that last year had been particularly severe upon the hospital in the matter of expense because of needed repairs in the older building. Renovation had been delayed so long that it was particularly expensive.

The confectionery store of George F. Wilkes, Queen street, was slightly damaged by fire this afternoon. The operation of the business was not held up.

A train from Woodstock to Fredericton on the St. John and Quebec Railway was stuck in Boone Creek cut, a short distance south of Woodstock, this morning. A special with a snowplow was sent out from South Devon.

In a revolt this week on student officers at the U. N. B., A. A. Wishart of Fredericton was elected president of the student council, and J. D. B. Harrison of Fredericton was elected editor-in-chief of the Brunswickian.

PA. HOUSE PASSES DRY ENFORCEMENT BILL

Harrisburg, Pa., March 29.—The prohibition enforcement bill, supported by Governor Pinchot, passed the House Tuesday and goes to the Governor for his signature.

The vote was 107 to 100. The measure passed the Senate recently by a vote of thirty to fifteen.

The bill was framed to wipe out saloons in Pennsylvania.

FIRE CALLS

Some rubbish in a small room situated in the rear of the New York fruit store, at the corner of Mill and Main streets, caught fire this morning, but the blaze was extinguished before much damage resulted. The fire started near about 1:45 this afternoon an alarm from box 29 gave the firemen a run to the Water Street plant of T. McAvity Sons for a slight fire in the plumbing room of the brass foundry.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbloom, "I would like to get an interview with you on the lamentable situation in St. John. It is really awful. The people seem to have gone crazy. They will not listen to reason. People have come all the way down from New York to enlighten them and reveal to them the folly of their conduct. Perhaps a few words from you would help. I would use large type and plaster it across the front of the paper as the only important news of the day."

"Well, sir," said Hiram, "you know for me that I ain't tryin' to run the City of St. John. I hev an idea the folk is able to do that themselves. If I was to say what I'd do if I was them, I'd say to get on with that there hyden as fast as it kin be done. That 's my idea. We got it out to the Settlement, an' you couldn't pry us loose from it for a million dollars. We as that goes I don't mind hev'in' you say what I think."

"That went do all," said the reporter. "You're an old fool. I won't print a word you say."

"That's just what I thought," said Hiram. "Well—I'm my own fool. I ain't nobody else—By Hen."

ARCHAMBAULT UPHOLDS LIQUOR LAW OF QUEBEC

Toronto, March 29.—"Prohibition is an encroachment on personal liberty. It is a violation of the rights of man, temperance in all things. The people are behind the liquor law as administered in Quebec and what has been the result? There has been a marked decrease in drunkenness, the manufacture of illicit liquor has diminished; people are drinking more beer and wine and less hard liquor, and there is better health throughout the province."

Joseph Archambault, M. P., for St. Peter's, Vercheres, thus summarized the results of government control of the liquor trade in Quebec since 1921, in speaking at a well attended Moderation League of Ontario meeting.

SALVATION ARMY SELF-DENIAL WEEK IN LONDON BIG SUCCESS

London, March 29.—(Canadian Press) The Salvation Army's self-denial week resulted in $168,000 being raised, an increase of $5,000 over the previous year. It was regarded as remarkable that the East End of London, where there is much poverty, contributed £10,000.

PARLIAMENT ADJOURNS FOR EASTER RECESS

No Sessions Until April 9—Old Age Annuities Discussed—Wheat Board Matter.

(By Canadian Press.)

Ottawa, Ont., March 29.—In the House of Commons yesterday the Prime Minister announced that if application was received from two of the provinces, a wheat board to deal with this year's crop would be established. Establishment by the Government of a direct steamship service between Canada and Italy was advocated by David Spence, member for Parkdale.

With estimates of the Department of Labor being considered, the question of old age annuities was discussed. It was stated that the annuities were in future to be more extensively advertised. It was suggested that the present rates were too high.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen criticized the Government for tardiness in carrying out resolutions of the Liberal convention of 1919 in such matters as old age pensions and the eight hour day. The Prime Minister replied that some of these had been given effect to, and that the others would be realized as soon as conditions in Canada made it possible.

Supplementary estimates amounting to $18,202,105 for the past year were tabled, also $5,600,000 for the current fiscal year, providing for civil service increases.

The House adjourned until Monday, April 9.

Grand Trunk Matter.

Ottawa, March 29.—On the day that Grand Trunk shareholders approved acquisition of the road by the Canadian Government, their English board of directors met in London and voted themselves, as compensation for loss of office, five years' directors' fees totalling $167,500. This was announced by Hon. G. P. Graham, in the House yesterday.

HOLY THURSDAY

Today is being celebrated in the Catholic churches as Holy Thursday and on this day all are consecrated by the bishop and secured by all pastors in their diocese. In the Cathedral this morning pontifical high mass was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, who was assisted by Rev. L. Guertin, St. Joseph's University, as high priest; Rev. William DuBe, as deacon; Rev. W. Mallet of Sussex, as sub-deacon; Rev. E. Walker, of Riverview, and Rev. A. Allen, of Peterborough, as singers; Rev. H. L. Coughlan, of St. Martin's, Rev. R. G. P. R. STATEMENT

Freight Traffic and Revenue—Cut in Operating Expenses—Grain Helps Out.

Ottawa, Ont., March 29.—(Canadian Press.) Reduction of expenses by Canadian railways during 1922 was general, according to a summary of the year's results issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Despite these and increased traffic, however, reduced freight rates cut heavily into the revenue.

The C. P. R. freight traffic for the year increased more than twenty per cent, but freight revenues on this road increased only one-fifth of one per cent. Total revenues showed a decrease of $7,875,966, or four per cent. This payroll was reduced by $2,688,179, and other economies effected cut operating expenses by $8,812,012, or 5.6 per cent, and increased the net operating revenue by $908,846, or 2.4 per cent. Practically all this increase accumulated during October, November and December. The net operating revenue for January to September, inclusive, were $24,008,740 for 1922 and $27,469,595 for 1921.

The enormous traffic of the last three months, chiefly grain, brought the net revenues for the three months to $18,977,134, as compared with $14,524,494 for the corresponding three months of 1921.

Figures concerning the operation of the Canadian National Railway, including the Grand Trunk system, given in the House this week by Hon. G. P. Graham, acting Minister of Railways, showed a reduction of some $12,000,000 in the net deficit, including fixed charges, and brought the 1922 deficit down to $60,261,844. Details of the C. N. R. operating costs and revenue were given by Mr. Graham in his statement to Parliament.

MUNICIPALITIES SEEK REFORMS

Delegation Makes Requests at Conference With Nova Scotia Government.

Halifax, N. S., March 29.—The executive of the Union of Nova Scotia Municipalities formed a delegation which met the Government yesterday afternoon to seek reforms. Among the reforms recommended were: Provincial grant for maintenance of that section of trunk highways running through towns; licensing non-resident peddling produce and fish in towns other than those in which the produce or fish were raised or taken; remuneration for those assisting in fighting forest fires; prevention of Provincial Government encroaching upon municipalities for revenue; more uniform and equitable assessment and the establishment of a municipal affairs department of the local Government.

The executive met last evening to discuss plans for the annual convention to be held in Amherst next August.

FATHER AND THREE LITTLE ONES LOSE LIVES IN FIRE

Cobalt, Ont., March 29.—In the little hamlet of Salye, on the Quebec side of Lake Temiskaming, fire yesterday destroyed the home of E. Lemieux, aged 28, burning him to death, along with three of his children, aged from two months to two and a half years.

Lemieux kept a restaurant and barber shop, over which the family lived. His wife jumped the second story and broke her hip, and no hope is held out for her recovery.

GARNARVON CRITICALLY ILL

Despatches to London newspapers last night report that the Earl had suffered a relapse and that his condition was causing great anxiety. He is suffering from blood poisoning, said to have been caused by an insect bite. His wife is now at his bedside, having made part of the journey from Paris by airplane. His condition on March 21, several days after the development of the poisoning, was reported to be improved, but still serious, and a still further improvement was noted a day or two later.

The rise in the temperature as now reported, indicates an extension or new development of the blood-poisoning.

DISCOVERED ANAESTHETIC

Dr. J. H. Cotton, a young Toronto doctor, who during the war discovered an anaesthetic, ethylene, under which a patient retains his consciousness during an operation, without suffering pain. The anaesthetic has just been claimed by Chicago doctors as an accidental discovery. The Cotton anaesthetic has been in use since 1917.

CALL THOUSANDS FROM THE MINES

Spread of German Strike in Occupied Territory.

Say They Will Not Work Till Last French Soldier Leaves—Prussian State-Owned Vineyards Along Moselle Reported Seized.

(Canadian Press)

Gelsenkirchen, March 29.—Fifteen thousand miners are on strike in the Gelsenkirchen district at all mines occupied by troops, according to estimates made in German quarters. The men quit work as a protest against the occupation.

Five thousand men are out at the Westerholt properties, 4,000 at Rheinbaben, 4,000 at the Concordia mines and 2,000 at the Blumenthal plants. They have served notice that they will not return to work until the last soldier leaves.

From Rheinbaben comes the report that the strikers blow so long a protest that the Belgians threatened it shoot unless the noise was stopped.

The Germans assert semi-officially that the occupying forces are having difficulty in operating the loading apparatus at these mines, and that so far they have succeeded in loading only three or four small trains daily. Before the occupation, it is asserted, a train load of reparations fuel, rolled out every ten minutes.

The Germans declare that in order to give a false impression of heavy coal shipments the French have begun a daily shuttle service between Ludwigshafen and Lauterbach, always using the same carsloads of coal.

Seize Vineyards.

Duesseldorf, March 29.—The French authorities yesterday began taking over the Prussian state-owned vineyard along the Moselle River, according to the Deutsche Rheinische Volk Zeitung. The paper says the seizure included vineyards, buildings, wine cellars and bottled wines.

There are thousands of acres of vineyards owned by the Government along the Moselle where it runs into the Rhine.

Berlin, March 29.—The German commission for the occupied area has protested against the decision of the Inter-Allied Rhineland Commission to take and collect the coal tax. The official asserts that the German Government has forbidden payment of tax of any kind to foreign powers under the threat of severe penalties.

STRIPPER IN ARGENTINA

Berlin, March 29.—Hugo Stinnes has purchased large tracts of land in Argentina, primarily for cotton-growing purposes, according to Konfektioniers. The land lies along the banks of the Parana River and has direct connections with the Argentine Northeast Railway. Preparations for the cultivation of cotton have already begun, the article says, adding that industrial enterprises for manufacturing cotton products will also be established.

DECLARES HOLLAND IS ABOUT TO GO DRY

Dutch Official Predicts Nation Will Follow U. S. Lead.
New York, March 29.—Holland, famous for its gin and schnapps, is preparing to follow the United States in banishing intoxicating liquor. N. A. Devries, member of the Dutch Government, declared after visiting federal prohibition headquarters.

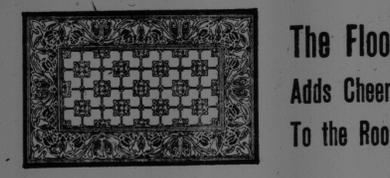

"My impression of the people of this country is that very few really know anything about the prohibition question," he said. "Only those responsible for its enactment and enforcement understand, while the rest have no time to study the situation, or are indifferent."
Devries, with P. Van Der Muelen, president of the Dutch prohibition society will end their investigations here within a week and will begin a four months' tour of the United States in which they will visit the principal cities.

GIFT TO MISS CANADA.

On the eve of her departure for New York where she will spend a month visiting relatives, Miss Canada was today the recipient of a dainty Easter remembrance from the Diana Sweets, Union street. The gift was a large heart-shaped box of chocolates, which was distinctive in the fact that the box itself was formed from milk chocolate and was decorated with sugared flowers in natural colors and presented a most attractive appearance. The dainty gift was about five inches in diameter and was a fine example of the confectioner's art in novelty articles. It was manufactured by the manager of the firm and through him was presented to Miss Canada. In addition to the floral decoration there were traced on the outside of the chocolate-box in white candy, the words, "Miss Canada, Easter, 1923—D. S."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN ITALY.

The Corriere della Sera says:—"A new Electoral Reform Bill is to be introduced in the next session of the Italian Parliament. Signor Mussolini states that he is in favor of the gradual introduction of women suffrage. He proposes to begin by giving the vote to women who have reached the age of 25 and who have attained a certain standard of education. It is interesting to note that Signor Mussolini is to preside as Hon. President at the opening of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance Congress in Rome on May 14th—just two days before the opening of the Italian Parliament."

James McKinnon Pays Tribute To Dodd's Kidney Pills.

He Suffered from Kidney Trouble for a Considerable Time and Now Loses No Opportunity to Praise Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mulgrave, N. S., March 28.—(Special.)—"I will never be without a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house." That is the tribute Mr. James McKinnon, a well-known resident here, pays to the old reliable kidney remedy.
"I feel it is my duty," Mr. McKinnon continues, "to let others know how I have benefited by taking Dodd's Kidney Pills. I was in a run-down condition before taking them, having pains in my back. I got thin and pale. Rheumatism also troubled me. After taking five boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I feel better than I ever did."
The satisfaction Dodd's Kidney Pills are giving as a remedy for kidney troubles is shown by the large number of people who keep them always on hand. They have learned that the proper way to avoid serious forms of kidney disease, such as rheumatism, diabetes, dropsy, and heart disease, is to correct the early symptoms of kidney trouble.
Dodd's Kidney Pills have built their reputation on the good work they have done. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the sovereign remedy for kidney trouble.

FARMERS USE RADIO FOR MARKET REPORTS

Farmers in the United States are making use of the radio in obtaining market reports. Nation-wide, practical use of these reports started broadcast by the United States department of agriculture is indicated in a survey just completed. Nearly 50 per cent. of the hundreds of returns to an inquiry sent out by radio were from farmers who had radio receiving equipment. The remainder of the returns were from grain dealers, mills, elevators, banks, telephone companies, co-operative organizations, farm bureaus and other agencies which disseminate the reports among large groups of farmers.
Greatest interest was shown in the grain market reports, which inform farmers of wheat, corn and oats prices at the leading grain markets. Next in importance came the live stock reports of prices and movements at the principal live stock markets of the country. The weather reports came next, followed by reports on poultry products, fruits and vegetables, dairy products, hay, cotton and other farm crops.
Radio had developed more rapidly in the middle West in the corn, wheat and live stock growing regions than in other farm sections, the survey shows. Missouri, Illinois and Iowa lead in number of responses. Many farmers in this territory own radio equipment and praise the practical value of the service. Toward a continuation of the present upward movement for several months, Eastern Pennsylvania iron sells today for $32 a ton, compared with $18 a year ago. Southern iron is quoted at $27, compared with $15 a ton a year ago. In Chicago prices have advanced to $32 from $20, and in Buffalo to $31 from $18.

PIG IRON PRICES.

Average of pig iron prices in various districts is from 77 1/2 per cent. to 80 per cent. above the average a year ago. Nevertheless, every indication points toward a continuation of the present upward movement for several months, Eastern Pennsylvania iron sells today for $32 a ton, compared with $18 a year ago. Southern iron is quoted at $27, compared with $15 a ton a year ago. In Chicago prices have advanced to $32 from $20, and in Buffalo to $31 from $18.

After Every Meal

"A bite to eat—a bit of sweet"

After a substantial meal, the children naturally want to top off with a bit of sweet. Give them WRIGLEY'S, the great Canadian Sweetmeat.

It combines the enjoyment of sweet with many BENEFITS. It cleanses the teeth, removing food particles that lodge in the crevices. It neutralizes the acids of the mouth, soothes the throat, and lastly—WRIGLEY'S helps the stomach by supplying saliva to aid in digestive work. Made clean, kept clean, sealed tight in a wax-wrapped package.

John J. McGinnis, 885 City Line, w.c., a C. P. R. trucker, met with a painful accident while working at No. 6 shed about six o'clock last evening. His left arm was caught between his truck and a door, the latch inflicting a nasty cut in the wrist. After receiving treatment at the emergency hospital he went to his home.

At a meeting yesterday of the St. John Law Society with J. H. A. L. Fairweather presiding consideration was given to the advisability of seeking legislation for the annulment of laws respecting the arrest and imprisonment of debtors. It was decided not to present the matter to the Legislature at the present session. C. F. Inches went into the matter at some length. H. A. Porter suggested an amendment to the County Court Act respecting jurisdiction. The matter will be dealt with at the annual meeting.

The members of the Centenary Methodist church choir were the guests of Mrs. W. B. Tennant at her home in Orange street last evening for the final rehearsal of the Easter Sunday music. Among those present were Miss Alice Hea, Mrs. L. M. Curran, Miss Blenda Thompson, William T. Lanyon, William S. Charlton and Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Fulton. A musical treat is promised for Easter day.

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Carleton Cornet Band was held last evening at which further steps were taken to perfect the organization. Miss Eva White, president, Miss Muriel Ellis, Miss Pearl Howard and Miss Eileen Miller were appointed to draw up bylaws and constitutions. A campaign for members was also approved. It was also decided to put on a play before the end of May.

R. L. STEVENSON'S WIT. In a volume of "Stevenson's Baby Sayings," to be published soon from a manuscript given by his mother to Katherine D. Osborne, there are anticipations of the man's alert wit. Once his mother, in the course of a religious homily, told him that Christ died to save him. "Died to save me?" he asked, and on his mother replying, "Yes," "Well, then," said the child, "doesn't that look very like as if I was saved already?"

TRAGEDY OF AN ONTARIO SCHOOL

Brantford, Ont., March 29.—"Tell the Duke I did not do it." Tortured by fear of facing disgrace at school through allegations of dishonesty, which she is said to have admitted at the time they were made, but denied on her death bed, Henrietta Green, an 18 year old senior student at Brantford Collegiate, died on Saturday at her home, Alfred Junction, six miles east of here, from peritonitis, which developed from a wound inflicted by herself with a small rifle three weeks ago. No inquest was ordered.
The pupils refer to the principal of the school, A. M. Overholt, as "The Duke."
LIKE TO TASTE IT?

Is anything easier to do than this? If you'd like to taste a really genuine Orange Pekoe Tea, composed of the little ten-day-old buds and first leaves of the tea bush—the tenderest and choicest, full of flavor and fragrance—a tea that will greatly please you, you've but to step to your phone, ring up your grocer and ask him to send you a package of RED ROSE ORANGE PEKOE TEA.

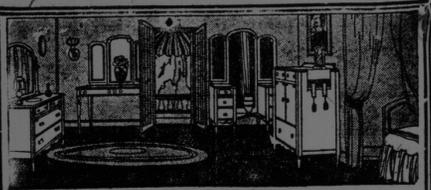

But be sure to ask for it by the full name because many teas are called Orange Pekoe. He'll be glad to send you a 1/2 lb. package, or if you prefer, a 10c package, that'll surprise you by making 80 cups of this delicately flavored tea.

BUTTER AND CHEESE EXPORTS TO UNITED STATES

It is learned from statistics supplied by the Dominion Department of Agriculture that, despite the new U. S. tariff, Canadian export of butter to that country in January, 1923, was greater than in the corresponding month last year, being 491,466 lbs., against 185,298 lbs. For the ten months ended January 31, 1923, it was, however, somewhat less than in the corresponding ten months ended on the same date in 1922, being 2,220,844 lbs., against 2,694,583 lbs. Cheese was much in excess in 1922-23 of 1921-22, being 5,890,000 lbs., compared with 2,564,844 lbs. So, too, was the export, over the border, of powdered milk in excess in 1922-23 compared with 1921-22, the returns being 1,472,633 lbs., against 822,185 lbs.

Good Friday Fish
Halibut is the traditional fish eaten on Good Friday. The prospects are slim for securing any this season because Good Friday comes so early. If there's any National dealers will have it.
Halibut or no halibut you'll be able to serve an appetizing and satisfying meal. For instance, thick cut Fresh Cod Steaks are splendid for frying or broiling.
Salmon is also temptingly delicious, especially when like this salmon it is fresh caught in British Columbia, frozen with the wiggle in its tail, and delivered to National dealers as good as it left British Columbia.

LIQUOR FOUND IN HOTEL
Between three and four cases of dry gin were found by Liquor Inspectors Journey, Killen and Carson yesterday afternoon in a trunk stowed in room 29 in the Royal Hotel. The trunk was discovered during a search of the room.
The hotel manager claimed it was not his property and he could not open it so a search warrant was procured. The gin was found in it. Later in the afternoon, Kenneth Raymond appeared in court. He said that the trunk had been left there by a Mrs. Pease more than three years ago, and he had no knowledge that it contained liquor.
Evidence was given by the inspectors and the case was postponed for a week.
W. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution.

SHORT OF COAL;
TUG TO RELIEVE
VESSEL OF TOWN

Boston, March 28.—With insufficient fuel to continue beyond Nantucket, the
U. S. Shipping Board steamship West
Inskip, from Antwerp to New York, with the disabled freighter West Helix in tow, will be met off South Shoal Inskip by a tug from New York, and relieved of her tow.

The West Inskip has towed the West Helix, crippled through boiler trouble, for nine days and at times has been barely able to proceed in the face of heavy gales. In the 48 hour period between Sunday noon and Tuesday noon, the vessels covered only 181 miles. The tug will take the disabled freighter to Boston and the West Inskip will proceed to New York. The West Helix sailed from Antwerp on February 2, for Boston, and put in to the Azores February 29 with machinery damaged and short of fuel, resuming her voyage March 2. On March 14 she became helpless and broadcast appeals for aid, to which the West Inskip responded.

What I Have Learned in 47 Years Practice

I HAVE been watching the results of constipation for 47 years, since
I began the practice of medicine back in 1875. I am now 83 years old, and though from time to time the medical profession makes some wonderfully interesting experiments and tests, the fundamentals of causes and relief in this particular ailment are unchanged.

But the people take greater interest today in their health, in diet, exercise and the drinking of water. Constipation, however, will occur from time to time no matter how one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. I believe in getting as close to nature as possible, hence my remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It is made of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. Children will not willingly take bitter things. Laxative Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not dye the skin. Thousands of mothers have written me to that effect.

Over 10 million bottles of Dr.
Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin are now sold every year, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. I say family laxative in the world, because it is safe for the child.
It is mild enough for the infant in arms, effective in the most chronic constipation of an adult. The formula is on every package.

$10.00 worth of trial bottles of
Laxative Syrup Pepsin free

Last year I agreed to spend $10.00 each for free samples of my Laxative Syrup Pepsin, and send them free and postage paid to all who asked. A hundred million men use the remedy. But there must be many who did not write.
I would like to get their address this time. So I now renew my offer, in recognition of my approaching 80th birthday, and will again send $10.00 to free samples. I am anxious to see one in every home. Write for yours today. Simply give me your address.
Send it to Dr. W. B. Caldwell,

Mine is truly a free offer, it costs the public nothing.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 29, 1923.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

HANDS OFF.

What does the New Brunswick Power Company expect to get from the Legislature at Fredericton? Is it seeking legislation that would enable it to thwart the declared will of the people of St. John? If so does it expect to get either the sympathy or support of any member representing the City or County of St. John?

All this propaganda has only one purpose, and that is to gain a victory for the Power Company over the City. This is no affair of the Legislature, except that the members should all recognize that the fight St. John has been making is the fight of the people against a grinding monopoly. There have always been plausible gentlemen ready to go to Fredericton to match wits with the Legislature, but the people of St. John are not to be taken in. The Power Company is concerned, this is their affair, and theirs alone, and the people would justly resent any interference of any kind. They have a right to look to the Legislature for protection from exploitation, and only when they ask for intervention should it be for one moment considered. The Government has developed hydro-electric energy at Musquash. The City of St. John has bought it and has decided how the current shall be distributed. It made a fair offer to the Power Company, which the latter rejected. Now if the Company desires to compete the City is offering no objection. It is asking for no injunction, nor making any appeals to the Government or the Legislature. It claims the right to conduct its own affairs, just as any municipality in the province would do. What would result from any offer to perley with the Power Company? Nothing but further delay, and that is what the City Council is as clear as noon-day. The people have told it what to do, and the course is clear. Let the Power Company and its advocates talk—the City must act.

ON TO GRAND FALLS.

Seldom has any proposal submitted to the Legislature of this Province met with so favorable a reception as that of yesterday relating to the development of Grand Falls. The reason is plain. The development of Musquash power and the knowledge that the current from Grand Falls can be transmitted if necessary 250 miles to serve the needs of the people; and also that it can be linked up with half a dozen or more smaller water powers, increasing Musquash, to ring around and intersect the Province with transmission lines, has seized the imagination of the people and given them a vision of the incalculable benefits to be derived from cheap light and power. They do not expect the work to be done all at once, but they want such a beginning made as will ensure continuous development. Hon. E. A. Smith, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, expresses the view that there is already in sight a sufficient market to warrant the beginning of work at Grand Falls. The Opposition may be expected to urge that the Government proceed with caution, and the mouthpieces of the New Brunswick Power Company, which opposes public ownership and would have to see the prospects of corporation profits vanish, will have much to say about the folly of a province embarking upon such a policy; but it is only necessary to point to Ontario and to the need of cheap light and power for provincial development and they are answered.

The people of the northern part of the province have the full sympathy of those of the southern part in this campaign. Every citizen of New Brunswick is a shareholder in this great enterprise of power at cost, and stands to benefit by the early prosecution of the policy. What it will mean in the development of pulp and paper mills and other large as well as numerous small industries cannot easily be over-estimated, or what it will mean to the farmer and the householder. We have been losing populism instead of retaining it. Industrial development will help to cure that evil, and also to give the farmer a better market. With courageous leadership the province is on the eve of great development, and the Government while it must proceed with due regard to the financial aspect of the case will have the province at its back in carrying vigorously forward the policy adopted in 1920.

A favorite pastime with some people at present is to tell the people of St. John they are not competent to conduct their own affairs and should hand them over to the New Brunswick Power Company.

IMPERIAL RELATIONS.

An echo of the old campaign for Imperial Federation was heard in the British House of Lords last week. Lord Strathclyde urged the Government to take immediate steps to consult the Dominions with the object of bringing forward definite proposals for the consolidation of the Empire. A Canadian Press cable report of his remarks says:—

"He urged that there should be representatives of the Dominions in the British Parliament, and that the Dominions' High Commissioners should have seats in the House of Lords and should be invited to be present at Cabinet meetings when the Empire's foreign policy is being dealt with. Instead of a colonial conference every few years, there should be daily consultation. The Empire was very rapidly breaking up, he feared, and the Dominions would become another Ireland unless something was done."

The Duke of Devonshire, who knows something of public sentiment in this regard in the Dominions, and who is Secretary of State for the Colonies, took issue with Lord Strathclyde. He has more faith in economic than political measures. The report of his remarks says:—

"He was not sure that the constitutional reforms suggested by Lord Strathclyde would be the most efficacious means of achieving the object in view—the bringing of the Empire closer together. Before taking any such step the Government would, at any rate, like to have the views of the Dominions themselves. No doubt, with the added experience gained in the war and the closer ties resulting therefrom, it would be the earnest duty, not only of the home Government, but of all those responsible for the conduct of affairs in the Dominions, to derive, if possible, still further means whereby those ties could be drawn closer. He hoped that in a relatively few months representatives of the Dominions would be welcomed to the economic conference. A large and comprehensive program would be placed before them. He felt confident that the conference would have a beneficial effect on the whole Empire."

His Lordship made the further interesting announcement that in preparation for the Imperial Economic Conference soon to be held, the Government is considering very far-reaching proposals whereby trade conditions in Great Britain would be materially improved and the natural resources of the Dominions and colonies would be greatly developed. Therein His Lordship indicated the line of action which will bind the Empire closer. Lord Strathclyde would look in vain in any Dominion for evidence that the Empire is "breaking up." It was never before as well united as it is today. The people of the Dominions are not looking for representation in the British Parliament. Whatever the future may develop, they are now chiefly concerned with the most rapid development of trade within the Empire.

Every signature on a hydro contract should be another spur to the City Council to facilitate the completion of the distribution system.

THE AMERICAN RAILWAYS

(Boston Herald.) The vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad made no wild statement when he said Tuesday evening at the dinner of the New England Traffic Club that a campaign is now on for Government ownership of our national railway system. The so-called Progressive in both Houses of Congress are using the present long interval between sessions for the study of this subject, along with several others more or less related to it, and in the preparation of bills which they intend to introduce when the new Congress convenes in December. True, only the most radical of them now are ready openly to advocate Government ownership. But they are prepared to ask for great changes in the Transportation Act and they confidently expect to compel a pretty general overhaul of that measure. A body of representative railway leaders is hard at work in Washington mapping out the proposals that shall be made in the winter session. Lafayette knows a great deal about transportation and the Progressives have made him chairman of the committee to deal with the subject. The New Republic, a periodical which sympathizes with Government ownership, a few days ago thus sized up the situation: Transportation will probably be the Progressive's chief interest in the next Congress. It is very likely to be the chief issue in the session. Both Liberals and Conservatives expect that, and both expect the Transportation Act to be the object of a permanent assault.

Denmark has a permanent court of industrial arbitration for the settlement of disputes between employers and employees. The tribunal is national in character, and no appeal lies against its findings to any higher court.

The Marriage Game

The Snappiest of Pastimes As Played to a Decision Every Day

By Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hutton

AH, THE VILLAIN IS BETRAYED

Her Play—You men make such a boast of your virtue—especially you silly married men! What in the world would you think of a woman, dearest, who was forever patting herself on the back because she didn't care to look at another man? Why, I dare say you'd raise the roof or have me sent to an asylum? Really, it is grotesque, the way you married men come home with a virtuous air, and reciting some weird story of some beautiful blonde creature, as sort of a cross between a Circle, a Venus and a Proserpine, who has attempted to lure you to heaven only knows what. Do you think that it is about as welcome as an outbreak of spruce would be, that you can't expect as a married man to resist. It's part of the animal's make-up.

His Counter-Play—Well, don't you worry. It isn't fatal. A woman is, as you often remind me, too smart to come home and tell about some handsome devil with black curls and a smile trying to get her to smile in the street car or on the drug store corner. But she hugs herself just the same and gets a whole lot of credit for it. Now, don't tell me it isn't so! Haven't I seen 'em at it myself? Why—ah—that's to say—well—ah! Say, let's go over to the movies tonight, huh? Think—say, see here. What the deuce are you grinning at, huh? The villain is betrayed and the lady wins the joust.

WHEN SPRING COMES BACK TO GILEAD

When Spring comes back to Gilead, I wonder will she find Her flaming squills of April That once she let behind? Will there be jonquils blowing, And amber whirling bees, And dainty petals shimmering Of dogwood trees?

When Spring comes back to Gilead, In blazing whirl of white, With tripping toe—and singing, Across the scented night, Out of her world of lovers, Oh, will she miss us two, If we should fail this year to keep, Our rendezvous?

When Spring comes back to Gilead, O Heart of Me, who knows But pride may be forgotten? In every flower that blows, And hearts that now are yearning, May flame to life and sing, When Spring comes back to Gilead, And warm lips cling!

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

A New Signatur. An elderly colored woman entered the office of an estate to receive her regular monthly wages. Not being able to write she had always made her mark on the receipt—the usual X; but this time she made a circle instead.

What's the matter, Linda? asked the clerk. "Why didn't you make the cross, as usual?" "Wah! Linda, "Ah done got married yesterday an' changed mah name."—Charleston News.

Case For Doubt. There was an all-round good-for-nothing man who died, and at his funeral the minister delivered a most beautiful address, eulogizing the departed in the most glowing manner, praising his splendid qualities as a fine type of man, a good husband and kind parent.

About this time the widow, who was seated well up in front, spoke to her little daughter by her side, and said: "My dear, go look in the coffin and see if it is your father."—The Universalist (Boston).

FIBER FOR BRUSHES.

(Washington Star.) Quite a fair trade has developed in what is known as "palm fibre" in Hongkong where it is used for the manufacture of brushes. The material is the centre of the leaf stem of the small palm (Livistona chinensis), which grows wild over much of the South China hill country, and which is generally cultivated in some districts for its leaves—the common palm leaf fan of commerce.

CATHOLICS IN U. S. NUMBER 18,260,793

Official Directory Notes Increase of 152,987. New York, March 29.—The total number of Catholics in the United States is 18,260,793, according to P. J. Kennedy & Sons of New York City, publishers of the official Catholic directory. These figures appear in the 1923 directory which has just been issued. This is an increase of 152,987 over the Kennedy figures in their 1922 directory. The principal increase in the East was in the diocese of Brooklyn, which embraces all of Long Island. It has 861,738 Catholics, which is 40,290 more than reported in 1922. A new diocese was created in California. There was a marked increase of the Catholic population in Ohio, Minnesota, Michigan and Maryland.

Rumors from Nova Scotia that the Dominion Express Company had been notified to cease operations on the C. N. R. lines after April 1, were declared to be without foundation by an official of the company yesterday. An official of the Canadian National Express Company said he heard that his company would have full charge on the C. N. R. lines after April 1.

"White Collar" Job For Fifi Widener's Hubby Ends Two Years' Exile

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Leidy.

New York, March 27.—Two years of what has amounted to a self-imposed exile from the gay haunts of her girlhood chums are about to end for Fifi Widener Leidy. The vivacious daughter of the millionaire Philadelphia traction king eloped with young Carter Leidy at the beginning of her debutante season two years ago, all her little hobbled friends gasped at the dashing Fifi's unexpected plunge into matrimony. But when the well-to-do parents of young Leidy and the exceedingly well-to-do parents of Miss Widener indicated that the newly married would return to Philadelphia, the eyes of the sub-debs turned pityingly upon the pair. What would Fifi do? Go home to her parents? What would Carter do? Give up his wife?

BEHIND THE SCENES

(Woodstock Sentinel-Review.) In H. H. Kohlhaas's book, "From McKinley to Harding," there is much that is interesting about politics and politicians in the United States. By the assassination of President McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, who had accepted the nomination for vice-president against his will, became president. On the train which carried McKinley's body to Washington were Roosevelt and Mark Hanna, the man who was chiefly instrumental in making McKinley president. Hanna boasted that he had tricked Roosevelt. "I told William McKinley that was a mistake to nominate that wild man at Philadelphia," Hanna said. "I asked him if he realized what would happen if he should die. Now look! That damned cowboy is president of the United States!" Hanna and Roosevelt had some private conversation on the train, after which the former remarked to the author of the book, speaking of Roosevelt: "He's a pretty good little cuss after all."

Newspaper men had a grievance against Roosevelt, we learn, because of his practice of denying an interview when he discovered that what he had said did not take well with the country. Here is an illustration of the present case. A French correspondent sent to his paper a statement made by Roosevelt. It caused something of an uproar, and to quiet it, the present caused an interview to be printed in which he utterly denied the offensive utterance. A few days afterwards Mr. Kohlhaas had some conversation with the president. "I believe you said what the Frenchman sent to his paper," said Kohlhaas, "because you said the same thing to me." Snapping his teeth, Roosevelt replied: "Of course I did, but I said it as Theodore Roosevelt, not as the president of the United States." It is a nice thing to say in the settlement of world affairs while the ambassadors continue as "listeners" without the authority to assume obligations.

MUST DO MORE THAN "LISTEN" IN WORLD

(Boston Herald.) The Rev. Dr. James L. Barton of the American Board of Foreign Missions, speaking last evening at a meeting of the Boston Congregational Club at Ford hall, declared that the United States will never be able to exert any influence in the settlement of world affairs while her ambassadors continue as "listeners" without the authority to assume obligations. "Would any state," he said, "expect to exert greater influence by withdrawing all of its representatives from active participation in Congress? Would America have any weight if at the disarmament conferences she had called the other powers to a discussion to which she did not pledge herself? The newspaper men at the Lausanne conference, and they had become experts on peace conferences, told me that the American representatives were tolerated only because the European governments feared to have their debts to us cancelled. Otherwise, they would have been invited to leave, they said."

LABOR SLACKERS.

(New York Tribune.) The current complaints of British publicists that inefficiency of labor is increasingly detrimental to trade are being founded. Statistics quoted by J. Ellis Barker in The North American Review reveal a striking contrast between the productivity of British and American workmen. Thus in 1907 the 6,019,746 workers in British industries of all kinds, public and private, were credited with products worth only $8,064,700,000, while in 1909 the 6,618,046 workers in private manufacturing establishments of the United States produced goods worth $272,108,000. That is to say, each British workman produced a value of $1,200, and each American produced a value of $3,100, or considerably more than twice as much. The same contrast is shown in a concrete example given in the same article. A big American concern imported British machinery for making tires for locomotive and railroad car wheels and imported skilled English workmen to operate it. The best re-

CREAM CLEARS A STUFFED-UP HEAD

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—Cleans Throat, Too.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief. Try this. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffing. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.

Accessories of Charm Come Forth For Easter Wearing

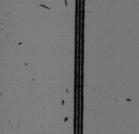

AN EASTER COSTUME without the new accessories that complete its charm would be an unheard of affair. Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Neckwear and Costume jewelry make such a difference this year, you'll find it practically impossible to get along without a varied supply.

Such Gloves as These Are Full of Interest For Every Woman

The abundance of colors and novelties in cuff decorations will bring a happy solution of the glove problem. For Easter Gifts you will find these Gloves ideal.

Gauntlet and two dome styles are showing in kid, suede, silk and chamoisette. You may choose from a long list of the season's best shades, including the new browns and greys.

Children's Gloves in Chamoisette and Suede are here in best liked varieties.

Fine Easter Hosiery Sheer or of Heavier Weight

The very smartest of the new season's styles and colors are here for your choosing. There are plain silks, Italian silks, artificial silks and silk and wool mixtures. Whether you prefer plain, drop stitch, cuffed or heather effects—they're here and in such wanted shades as camel, champagne, grey, navy, beige; as well as black and white—85c to $4.00 pr.

"Zenobia" ribbed Artificial Silk Hose—a splendid weight for present use—showing in black, white, camel, navy, brown and champagne—$2.35 pr.

Boys' and Girls' Golf Hose—60c to $1.60 pr.

New Neckwear Will Give a Crisp Appearance to Those "Not Quite New" Frocks

You'll find here such a nice variety of the season's novelties it won't be hard to make several suitable selections. For instance: Colored Sectional Collars to be worn on frocks with round or boat shaped necks; Colored "Bramley" sets; Band Collars and Berthes in silver lace or combinations of net and lace; Deauville Ties in many strikingly new oriental designs.

Then there are some very smart new Scarfs in Roman Stripes. Just what you'll like for wearing with your suit or spring coat.

Colored Handkerchiefs The Very Newest

Wise women will select a new assortment while there are so many very attractive ones from which to choose. The very smartest ones are in colored linen in shades to match the predominating colors of the new ratines, ginghams, and other materials used for summery frocks. Some are plain; other have drawn thread patterns or embroidered corners.

Colorful Ribbons Demand Your Attention

For Hair Ribbons there are wide, stiff finished Taffetas, Moires and Fancies in great variety.

For Millinery—Gros Grain Satins, Ombre, Metallic and Dresden in a selection of the very latest colorings.

For Dress Trimmings—Duchess Satin, Moire and Shot effects in wide widths; also Fancy Metallic and Picot Edges in narrow widths; used especially for girdles, etc.

Cash's Cambric fast color washable ribbons are in plain and brocaded patterns; Silk Crepe Finished Lingerie Ribbons and Tricotine Wash Ribbons are in plain effects and pleasing patterns.

Ask to see the Ribbon Art Books which give detailed instructions for making ribbon novelties. Illustrated in colors. Ribbon Novelties, such as Boudoir Caps, Boudoir Carters, Bags, Shoe Trees and Camisoles on display in ribbon department.

A Touch of Colored Jewelry

Perhaps long drop Earrings in color to match or in direct contrast to your frock or hat; perhaps a Spanish comb with plain carved back or setting of colored stones; perhaps a stunning Bead Necklace in some one of the new oriental effects—many of these novelties will impart that "out of the ordinary" effect you admire. Be sure and see our selections.

Getting Rid of a Stubborn Cough is Childs Play Now

Make the Medicine Yourself at Home It's Cheap—But You Can't Beat It.

If you want to take care of that bad, hang-on cough and do it in a few hours, better get one ounce of Parmit (double strength) and mix a half pint at home. You can do this in two minutes by adding a little sugar and enough water to fill a half pint bottle. You'll travel the world over before you get a medicine that will act so surely and quickly on the mucous membrane of the nose and throat. It halts the inflammation, the tickling sensation stops with the first spoonful, the heavy breathing goes and clean membranes, free from irritation and mucus follows. For Catarrhal conditions such as mucus droppings, clogged nostrils and watery eyes, it won't disappoint—ask for Parmit (double strength). Speak plainly so that the druggist will know exactly what you want.

WOMEN SHOULD ACT QUICKLY

When a woman finds herself afflicted with backache, headaches, nervousness, dragging-down pains, pain in her side, irregularities and irritability, dark circles appear under the eye and her complexion gets sallow, she may be sure the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to her sex. Such women should act quickly and take the great American remedy for such conditions, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they may be saved years of suffering. For generations this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring ailing women to health, and it may be relied upon with perfect confidence.

THE RIDDLE OF THE SPINNING WHEEL

Being An Exploit in the Career of Hamilton Cleek, Detective

By MARY E. AND THOMAS W. HANSHEW

CHAPTER XIX Dollops Makes A Discovery The rest of the day passed comparatively uneventfully for all those concerned in the drama of a night's doings, and save for a searching scrutiny of the library by Cleek, carried out under the noses of the village policeman, with Inspector Campbell very much to the fore as being in command of the local constabulary and anxious to make a good impression upon the Yard's Superintendent (with an eye to future promotion), and the discovery of one or two minor details which had passed even his searching eye before, Cleek's time hung fairly heavily upon his hands.

acquaintance with one of the rooms at Captain Macdonald's stables—the worthy Captain meanwhile champing furiously at the "bit" which kept him tethered to his present quarters for another night, when there were other affairs at his own place that wanted looking into—and in his own inimitable fashion managing to wangle an old letter written by his master to himself from the room, Dollops, whistling vociferously, came spinning back again to Argon Castle to present his find to Cleek, and receive the reward in Cleek's instantly spoken pleasure.

"Dollops favoured him with a withering look, being perfectly unable to and his voice, and then proceeded to the door with steady step, flung it open and straightway began to descend the staircase to the cellar, his rubber-soled shoes making no sound upon the wooden stairs with their carpeting of thick felt, and with his heart literally in his gapping mouth. Down, down, down the stairs led, and then, curiously getting the better of him, seeing that there was no other alternative but to go down and then return by the other way, "which was scarcely ever used," which grew each second more black, until he was stepping carefully, with one hand pressed against the wall, and his eyes goggling through the darkness from sheer fright.

"Gawd's troof!" he ejaculated, stung to some show of feeling by this gruesome tale. "Ain't that orful! 'Ood 'ave thought it? I wouldn't spend a night down there fer a mint o' money—would you, Guvnor?" "Not if I knows it. But no one never does gahn very often, only ter the wine-cellar. See that door there? Now, 'oo the dickens—" But his searchings after light on this subject were cut off short by the sound of softly speaking voices creeping to him through that grilled door, and coming from some long distance away within it. He darted back against the wall and, groping with his hands, found a cupboard door ajar, slipped into it, and drew himself up tight against the inner wall and waited for that which might come to pass, every nerve a-tremble, his eyes fixed upon the crack of the door, which at present showed black as a pocket.

MAKES NEW AIR SPEED RECORD Major Heffernan Goes 75 Miles at Rate of 250 Miles an Hour—Through Sand Storm.

Washington, March 28.—All airplane speed records have been broken by the Army Air Service with a speed of 250 miles an hour, the War Department has announced. The record-breaking flight was made recently by Major Leo G. Heffernan piloting a DH-4B airplane with Sergeant Jensen as observer. The plane traveled the distance of seventy-five miles from Columbus, N. M., to Fort Bliss, Texas, in eighteen minutes, an average speed of 250 miles an hour. The flight from Columbus to Fort Bliss was made in a blinding sandstorm, the air being saturated with sand to a height of 5,000 feet.

CHATS WHILE BRAIN TUMOR IS REMOVED

Newark Man Under Local Anesthesia Only.

New York, March 29.—A remarkable operation for brain tumor—during which the patient, Henry A. Brown of Newark, N. J., under local anesthesia only, discussed his feelings with doctors and nurses—is described by the staff of Beth Israel Hospital.

The operation was performed on Feb. 27. The patient has recovered so completely that, except for the fact that his wife is herself in a hospital with a broken leg, he now would be at home under her care.

More than a year ago Brown was forced to leave his furniture shop when his right side became paralyzed. He complained of terrible headaches and sometimes was seized with epileptic fits. Then his memory failed him and he fell into a semi-stupor.

Finally he was taken to Beth Israel Hospital for an operation. Because of his weakened condition, it was decided that he could not stand a general anesthetic.

During a period of lucidity, Brown was informed that if he wished to live, he must submit, under local anesthesia, to a two-hour operation recorded to the idea of death and that he would play his one chance.

He promised to co-operate with the surgeons. He was told to tell them whenever he felt the anesthesia wearing off and warned that an unexpected movement on his part would mean his end.

Relaxing as directed, he was placed on the operating table, the skull trephined and the brain covering removed until the tumor was revealed. Dr. Emil Altman, hospital neurologist, who had diagnosed the case as one of a large tumor, saw revealed a tumor two inches by four, and three-quarters of an inch thick.

Dr. K. Winfield May, the operating surgeon, continued steadily at his work, pausing only when the patient asked for more anesthesia. Finally the tumor was removed and bandages wrapped tight.

Brown said the first result he noticed was cessation of the headaches. Then he regained his memory gradually. First came to him the name of his eldest child—then those of all his family. Eventually his whole past was again restored to him.

Then his paralysis disappeared and now he can move about freely. He is convalescing at a home in White Plains, waiting for his wife to return.

CONSCIENCE MAKES PAYROLL JUGGLER CALL AT PRISON

After Some Trouble With Authorities He Manages to Get Into Tombs—Is Charged With Grand Larceny.

New York, March 29.—It was a surprised gatekeeper that peered through the iron bars of the Tombs prison when a big, clean-looking man knocked pre-emptorily for admittance.

"G'wan away," said the gatekeeper, "this ain't a prison; you can't get in here."

"But I want to give myself up, I tell you," pleaded the man. "I'm George Smith and I've stolen money."

"Nothin' doin'," said the gatekeeper flatly, and turned to go away. Then Smith asked to be taken to a detective, so he could ease his conscience, which had tortured him since he began padding the payroll of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, stealing, he said, between $300 and $400.

"Well," hesitated the gatekeeper, "if you're really telling the truth about stealin' some jack, I'll let you in."

The gate opened to let Smith in. He's still in and he can't get out. To a detective he said he lived at 55 East 122d Street. He worked, he said, talking rapidly, in the shops at 129th Street and Third Avenue. He earned $36 a week, taking care of the overtime pay rolls. About six months ago a man showed him how to pad the payroll, and after holding out some time, he said he went into the scheme, splitting the profits with others.

Midwinter Conditions Here With April 2 Days Off.

Fifteen Below at Perth and Ten Below at Fredericton—Forty-four Mile Wind Here—Sydney People Nipped on the Way from Church.

The extraordinary cold and unseasonable weather continues, and according to a report from the Meteorological Observatory this morning there is no immediate indication of any change for the better. This morning the official reading showed five degrees below zero and at 11.15 the mercury was still below zero. The cold wave was accompanied by a northwest gale, which varied in velocity from thirty-six to forty-four miles an hour, making the cold penetrating.

Ottawa, March 28.—Last night Ottawa was back to real winter again. At six o'clock it was reported to be ten below zero and at midnight the mercury registered one degree higher. This, coupled with very high wind, made conditions very unpleasant for pedestrians.

Ralph Estabrook, a former St. John man, in conversation by long distance telephone with a friend in the city this morning, said that last night the mercury at Perth dropped to fifteen below. He also said that the roads were not only blocked with snow, but that the banks had frozen solidly, and from present indications the spring opening in that part of the country would be unusually late.

Fredericton, N. B., March 28.—At the meteorological station at the U. N. B. a minimum temperature of ten below zero was recorded during last night and the wind mileage was between twenty-five and thirty an hour.

North Sydney, N. S., March 28.—A first aid station for frost bitten hands and faces was opened in the town hall this morning when a sudden drop in temperature to 10 below zero caught the people unprepared. Several women and children sought relief when they sustained frost bites on their way home from church.

Halifax, N. S., March 28.—With the thermometer registering two below zero and a stinging northwest wind blowing thirty-five miles an hour, Halifax today experienced one of the bitterest mornings of the winter. Reports from outlying districts told of like conditions with record low temperatures for the time of year.

Moncton, March 28.—The mercury stood last night at nine below and a howling wind made it seem colder.

BIG NEW KEITH HOUSE FOR OTTAWA

High Class Combined Vaudeville and Pictures—The Owners of Imperial in St. John.

The last issue of the Moving Picture World, official trade journal, contains the following interesting item of information in its Canadian section: "E. F. Albee of Montreal and St. John, N. B., identified with Keith interests in Canada for years, was a visitor in Ottawa a few days ago, when announcement was made that arrangements were being made for the construction of a brand new theatre in the Canadian capital for the presentation of high-class combined vaudeville and picture entertainment. It is understood that Mr. Albee looked over the site on which the Famous Players Canadian Corporation, Toronto, started to build a large moving picture house several years ago. Barely more than the foundation work was constructed for the Capital Theatre and announcement was made some little time ago that the site was for sale."

E. F. Albee is the head of the Keith interests internationally and seldom moves out of New York unless to determine some important matter of policy or to institute an extension of the Keith chain of houses. His activities of late have been in the midwest of United States and among other houses he has erected a seven-million dollar theatre and office structure in Cleveland said to be the very last word in its class of construction and modern equipment.

As to Keith's Canadian plans no word could be received from the management of the theatre belonging to that corporation here in St. John. There are only two outright-owned Keith houses in the Dominion, the Imperial, Montreal, and the Imperial, St. John. Shea's, Toronto, and the Princess, Montreal, are Keith affiliations and Keith talent make up the programme of all the leading vaudeville houses throughout the country, classified as to prices of admission and type of house.

REMANDED Albert E. McInerney was before the police magistrate this morning on suspicion of stealing blankets and linen, the property of the C. P. R., to the value of $85. No evidence was taken and the accused was remanded.

BURIED TODAY. The funeral of Miss Mary Agnes Furlong was held this afternoon from her late residence, 259 Germain street, to St. John the Baptist church for service by Rev. J. J. McDermott. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

MISTOOK MEDICINE Miss Alice McAdam, Main Street, was taken to the St. John's Hospital about 10.30 last night suffering from the effects of having taken iodine in mistake for cough medicine. Her condition today was described as being not serious.

CITY ROAD LOCATION It was announced this morning that the property in City road, known as the Currie property, had been secured by several St. John business men as a site for a milk pasteurization plant and that authority to operate the plant in accordance with the requirements of the Board of Health was being sought. It was also planned, it was said, to erect an ice cream manufacturing plant in connection with the milk enterprise.

A MISUNDERSTANDING. The failure of the Metagama concert party to give their scheduled entertainment in the Seaman's Institute was said by the members of the troupe this morning to be due to a misunderstanding among the members. The company had promised to send five members to the Institute, but only three had been available, and these had apparently not reported to the management.

A BUSY WINTER. The freights to and from the steamer at West St. John this winter were better than any year since the war, according to T. H. Bullock, commissioner in charge of the harbor department. He said that the dock workers had not had a better winter for some time, crews being engaged day and night almost continuously since the beginning of the season. He anticipated that the harbor revenue for March would be at least equal to the total for that month last year, which amounted to about $21,000.

PANTRY SALE. A successful pantry sale was held today in the Imperial Theatre by students of the St. John Art School under the general convenorship of Miss B. R. Holt. She was assisted by Miss Edith Mitchell, Miss Leonora Belyea, Miss Gladys Fletcher and Miss Alicia McAvoy. The candy table presented a pretty scene, and a private corporation and it was evident that they were already beginning to realize that power at cost would not be obtained through distribution by a second party. It appeared that in the haste of the paper supporting the Power Company to catch on to some club with which to give the hydro policy a crack it had made a slip, and given a blow to the distribution of Musquash current by a private corporation. It is fortunate for St. John added this citizen, that the idea of allowing the Power Company to distribute the Musquash power had long been abandoned.

AWAY TO ENGLAND. The Canadian Pacific steamship Metagama sailed today for Glasgow with approximately 200 passengers. Among the cabin passengers were Mrs. W. J. Bevis and the Misses Margaret, Florence and Master Douglas, of this city; Mrs. Andrew Ferguson of St. John and Mrs. and Mrs. W. Sunter of Moncton, N. B. A transfer train left Union Station this morning conveying passengers to the steamship dock at Sand Point. The Marloch is due to sail tomorrow for Liverpool with approximately 175 passengers. One of the passengers will be Lt.-Col. L. Moore Cosgrave, D. S. O., of Ottawa.

DOGS, NOT BEARS. A Brookville correspondent writes:—"Re report to the effect that two large bears were visiting Renforth this week and were a sure sign of spring here, the residents of Renforth had their rifles loaded, and a small army went forth looking for Bruin. When Canadians cannot distinguish between a bear and dog at twenty-five feet, it is time fathers and mothers taught their boys and girls more about animals and their ways and habits of living, so that when our faithful animals happen to stray to another village they will be safe from men and boys who are all too eager to grasp their guns and seek to destroy or maim for life in many cases, our valuable animals."

RUMOR RE MAIL SERVICE FROM HERE. On account of the backwardness of the season the possibility of the ice in the St. Lawrence not breaking up until after the usual time, it is understood that arrangements are being made to extend the schedule of mail steamers to and from St. John, so Commissioner Bullock, of the harbor department, said today.

At the office of the C. P. R. it was said that so far no word to this effect had been received here. The mail boat service to this port is scheduled to close about May 1, but according to Mr. Bullock's information there was a possibility of the closing being extended until about the fifteenth.

BANK CLEARINGS SHOW INCREASE Greater Here Than for Similar Week in Last Two Years and $300,000 Ahead of Halifax.

The total bank clearings for the week ended today in St. John are cheering, inasmuch as they are in excess of the total for the same week last year and the same period in 1921 and are also more than $300,000 greater than the Halifax clearings for this week. The total for the present week was $2,696,992; for the same week last year, $2,315,662, and for 1921, $2,193,961. Halifax clearings this week totalled $2,313,928, and in Moncton the total was $1,142,953.

STILL ANOTHER 'HYDRO' IS NAILED

Campaign in Power Company's Interests Too Transparent

Moncton Man Gives Further Information Regarding Hydro in That City—No Civic Distribution There.

A citizen of Moncton who was in St. John today was very indignant when he read in large type across the page of a newspaper that "Hydro is costing Moncton more than coal power."

"I have hydro in my house and office," said this Moncton man, "and it has cut my bills in two. The only people who pay more—if they do pay more—than before are a few large users, and their quarrel is not with hydro but a power company. We do not have hydro in Moncton. The Tramways Company is in control of the situation. To make the sweeping assertion that 'hydro costs more than coal power' is a gross falsehood. All the small users in Moncton get a greatly reduced rate, even through company distribution of the current. Moncton should not be misrepresented because a company wants to get the Musquash power away from the citizens of St. John. I believe Moncton made a grave mistake when it gave the current to a company to distribute, but hydro is not to be blamed for that. Let us have a square deal."

In yesterday's Moncton Transcript we read:—"Hydro electric energy came in use today in Moncton, as many housewives were forced to use electric toasters, etc., on account of the natural gas shortage. The hydro electric current is coming in handy here these days."

In the same issue of The Transcript is a letter a column long defending hydro and denouncing the criticism emanating from power company circles in St. John. The letter writer says that anyone who comes to St. John and gets in touch with any of the staff of a certain newspaper naturally starts off on a line of condemnation of the N. B. Hydro System for St. John. After reading statements published this morning by opponents of power at cost, in their endeavor to uphold the Power Company and discredit the Government's hydro policy, a citizen of St. John remarked that he did not know much about the Moncton situation today, but that the Moncton man was paying more for its current with hydro than it did before, if correct, was a warning to the citizens of St. John to keep the hands of the Power Company off the Musquash power. He understood that the Musquash power was being distributed to the city of Moncton by a private corporation and it was evident that they were already beginning to realize that power at cost would not be obtained through distribution by a second party. It appeared that in the haste of the paper supporting the Power Company to catch on to some club with which to give the hydro policy a crack it had made a slip, and given a blow to the distribution of Musquash current by a private corporation. It is fortunate for St. John added this citizen, that the idea of allowing the Power Company to distribute the Musquash power had long been abandoned.

From reports made by the twelve canvassers who are covering the city in the interests of the Civic Hydro Commission there is ample evidence that an overwhelming majority of the people are anxious to receive the advantages of cheap light and power from the Musquash development and to get rid forever of the drawbacks of a private monopoly of this important utility. The response so far has more than satisfied the officials in charge. Not only have the majority of those spoken to signed the contract for the current, but of those who have declined to sign at present, most of them have expressed themselves as being willing to take hydro, but are not prepared to sign the contract at present, on account of the fact that they are moving this year, that they have not yet had their houses wired, or some such reason.

So far the canvassers have covered only the North End and they expect to have this district completed about the first of next week. Yesterday they met with record success, more than eighty per cent of those addressed signed the contract, and only one or two refused point blank. In the latter cases, one family had a member working for the N. B. Power Co. and another was interested in the company. One canvasser signed up every one of twenty-five approached and another eighteen. Work has been progressing well on the civic sub-station and it is expected that it will be completed about May 1. A start will then be made on the distribution system, and while this system will not likely be completed before July 1, it is planned to get some of the lighting circuits, particularly those in the vicinity of the sub-station, into commission soon after the completing of the sub-station.

It is understood that many people who plan to move on May 1 have refused to renew their contracts with the N. B. Power Company, as they feel that they will be compelled to retain the service for the whole year; they are anxious to get connected with hydro as soon as it is available.

The canvass of the city proper is planned for next week.

GOVERNMENT IS INTERVIEWED ON OIL SHALES MATTER

Asked for Legislation Cancelling Blanket Leases

Legislature This Afternoon to Consider Bill for Duty on Sardines—St. John Assessment Measures in Committee.

(Special to The Times.) Fredericton, N. B., March 29.—The Government today is hearing several of those interested in the oil shales of Westmorland and Albert. H. P. Newcombe, representing farmers of the two counties, is urging legislation to cancel the blanket leases held by the New Brunswick Oil Shales Company, of which Sir William Mackenzie is said to be the head. A good deal of the land in question, it was said, was the property of private owners but it was the contention of those who had the leases for minerals and oil shales that rights to such belonged to them, Mr. Newcombe is contending, on behalf of the Acadia Oil Shales Company, that rights to the oil and shales belong to the people who own the land. Representatives of the New Brunswick Oil Shales Company are also being heard.

Mr. Newcombe said it was the intention of his clients to proceed with development. The Government promised consideration. The Scott-Scully resolution which asks that the Provincial Government request the Federal Government to place an export duty of $10 a hoghead on all sardines sold for export from the waters in St. John or Charlotte Counties for less than $10 a hoghead will be considered this afternoon. The effect of such a duty would be to make the minimum price of the fish $10.

John W. Scovil, Liberal, St. Stephen and W. E. Scully, Liberal, St. John who moved and amended the resolution explained that it was offered in the hope that the imposition of the proposed duty might stop the export of the people in the districts who would be the prevailing prices, were unable to make a living. It was said that within a comparatively short time 200 people had left the island alone. "Doubt as to the efficacy of such a measure was also expressed, the stand being taken that Americans, who prepared most of the catch, would shift from sardines to their own side of the line for less than $10 a hoghead and the plight of the Canadian fishermen would not be relieved.

St. John Bill. A bill relative to assessment of non-residents of the City of St. John who earn their incomes in the city but live in the parish was reported by the committee this morning. In its original form it caused considerable controversy. Councillor Murray Campbell of Lancaster, appeared here to object to it when it had been thought every thing should be agreed upon by the committee of the municipal council of the city and county of St. John. Mr. Scully reported that at a meeting of the parties concerned an agreement had been reached and the bill so changed, was reported this morning.

The bill in its amended form provides that the incomes of journeymen mechanics and laborers working for departments of the Dominion Government in Musquodouvoit, Lancaster, Simonds and St. Martins, shall be assessed in the parish where the person resides and no head tax shall be collected by the municipalities.

Death Of Philadelphia Ex-Chorus Girl Like That of Virginia Rappe

New York, March 28.—Circumstances similar to those that caused the death of Virginia Rappe were reported by the Philadelphia family, so police have declared. The autopsy performed by Dr. Benjamin Schwartz, chief deputy medical examiner, disclosed acute peritonitis, internal injuries and three bruises, one on the left thigh, one on the chin and one on the throat.

The girl's statement to her parents, made just before she died in Roosevelt Hospital on March 20, was to the effect that she had been drinking and "fell a couple of times." She denied that anyone had injured her, but refused to tell where she had been on Saturday night. Police were called by Edward Campbell, from whose home she was taken to the hospital. He told reporters she had failed to keep an appointment to go to Long Beach with him.

Campbell's story to the police was that he was to have taken the girl to Long Beach, where he has a summer cottage.

The City of St. John from any person assessed on his full income in any of the parishes. In the amended bill of the C. P. R. are not mentioned.

The Municipalities Committee considered a bill relating to assessment of non-residents of the City of St. John who earn their incomes in the city but live in the parish was reported by the committee this morning.

Not Guilty Of Theft Charge. Edward Harrison Freed by Jury in Circuit Court—Court Adjourned Until Monday.

In the Circuit Court this morning before Chief Justice McKeown hearing was completed in the case of the King vs Edward Harrison, an indictment for theft of $70 from Mrs. Nellie White. The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Evidence was given by Mrs. White concerning the loss of the money. The prisoner denied having seen the money or stolen it. He said he had no knowledge of the affair. He had been drinking that day, he said.

Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., appeared for the Crown and D. Mullin, K. C., for the defendant. The court adjourned until Monday.

SUGAR INQUIRY TO BE FAR REACHING. Washington, March 29.—Outstanding developments here yesterday in the sugar situation were an announcement by the tariff committee that its enquiry into the effect of the new import duties on prices would be far reaching than originally intended, and a prediction by Secretary Hoover that present prices would result in decreased consumption and increased production.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

IMPERIAL TONIGHT AND GOOD FRIDAY

Famous New England Rural Comedy-drama, "Quincy Adams Sawyer"—Serial Tomorrow. "Quincy Adams Sawyer," the Imperial's attraction for the remainder of the week, is not only a famous New England novel, but has been a stage success for years. In the movies it is truly a wonderfully amplified and whole-hearted depiction of the country life that offers so much heart interest, humor and adventurous excitement. It is said to be even more laughable than "Old Jed Proddy," equally as emotional as "Way Down East," and as sweetly homely as "The Old Homestead." It has thrills, tremendously gripping climaxes, and throughout the whole eight reels there is plenty of rube fun and roaring "hick" stuff. In the cast are such familiar players as Blanche Sweet, Lon Chaney, Elmo Lincoln, Slipper Slim, Gale Henry, Louise Fazenda, Barbara La Marr, Edward G. Robinson, and tomorrow the new Buffalo Bill serial will be shown—two more chapters, or four reels. The holiday shows will be twelve reels long.

PERSONALS

Mrs. F. C. Wesley left this afternoon for Montreal and plans to spend two or three weeks there. Miss Marion Crosby, of the North End, will leave this evening on an extended visit to Boston. F. A. Ritchie, who was taken to the Infirmary on Tuesday from the S. S. Chignecto, suffering from heart trouble, was reported today to be improving. He was en route to his home in Toronto when he was seized by an attack and had to be taken to the Infirmary. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tibbitts leave Ottawa this week for New Brunswick to spend Easter. Hon. F. B. Carvell and Mrs. Carvell will leave Ottawa at the end of the week for Woodstock to spend Easter. Mrs. J. H. King entertained at a charmingly arranged luncheon of twelve courses in Ottawa on Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. William Pugsley of New Brunswick.

Wage Increases Now Coming In Cotton Mills. Meeting Higher Levels Set in The Woolen Industry in New England.

Boston, March 29.—To the wage increases already granted to upward of 50,000 woollen mill operatives in New England, there was added yesterday advances to about 25,000 workers in cotton mills.

These marked the first action by cotton manufacturing interests to meet the higher wage levels set by the workers of Fall River, a cotton centre, employing 36,000, who were involved in two separate sets of wage demands by rival unions.

In the past, advance by cotton and woollen groups, as large as those now on record for the revision upward, have almost invariably been followed by a general increase in the textile industry. Such action would affect approximately 250,000 persons at the present volume of operation, which in most cases is normal.

Manchester, N. H., March 29.—The Amoskeag Mfg. Co., one of the largest cotton concerns in the world yesterday notified employees that a 12 1/2 per cent wage increase would become effective April 30. About 14,000 operatives are affected.

Sues For Custody Of Child; Charge Of Non-Support. In Chambers this morning before Mr. Justice Chandler hearing was begun in the matter of Grey vs Grey, an action by Joseph Grey to gain custody of his child aged two years and a half, the eldest of three, from his mother, Mrs. Grey.

The case and said he left her to look after the little family. Grey told her domestic life. He had been in the military service and had been unable to get work here. He admitted having had $200 some time ago when a baby was expected in the family and not giving his wife any of it.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Grey on a charge of non-support preferred against him by his wife. The warrant was sworn out some time ago but owing to his being out of the city the police were unable to serve it. G. H. V. Belyea, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff and F. Kerr for the wife.

Quebec, March 29.—(Canadian Press.)—Quebec captured the championship of the Knight of Columbus Provincial Bowling League by defeating Lewis.

She's Real English Countess Herself So She'll Play One Well

New York, March 28.—"When Winter Comes," is to be screened and Miss Peggy Rush of London will be the cynosure of all the feminine eyes in America. No such battery of fault-finding optics as will be turned upon the pretty blond, Miss Rush, is likely to be unleashed again until another author writes a book that becomes as much an epidemic as "If Winter Comes."

But Miss Rush is not nervous. Though she is to play the Lady Nones role in the picture version of that book, she is, indeed, quite calm. The reason is that Miss Rush is a real English countess herself, so she ought to know how to play the part of one, oughtn't she? In real life she's Countess of Dunstaff with a country seat and everything.

The Mark Sabre of the picture version will be an ex-Englishman also, the silver-haired young Percy Marmont whose choice for the role sent up a chorus of gratified "Aa-ahs!" from the ladies, old and young.

Those who are always disappointed in a movie after reading the book expected firmly, so they've been saying to see Theda Bara or Vera Gordon cast as the Lady Nones. "They never choose the right people for the part!" You know.

But here she is. And if you don't think the behaves like a countess, it ain't the movies' fault.

"WHY NOT PUT ON SOMETHING PLEASANT FOR A CHANGE?"

ST. JOHN TRAIN IS HELD UP AT MEMRAMCOOK. Main Line Blocked at Dorchester as Freight is Held Up in Drifts.

Monday, N. B., March 29.—At 12:30 today C. N. R. headquarters reported the main line still blocked at Dorchester on account of a freight being held up in drifts. No. 10, St. John-Halifax Express, is being held at Memramcook pending a clear track. The line is also blocked at Napan, N. S., where another freight is held in snow drifts.

Trains from the north are encountering difficulties and the Maritime and Ocean Limited eastbound at 12:30 were reported seven and eight hours late. The lines to Shediac and Buctouche, blocked for a time last night, are again dug out.

Four Killed In Moonshine Fight

Harlin, Ky., March 29.—Four persons, including a woman, were killed in a battle between members of a sheriff's posse and moonshiners at the mouth of Beech Fork yesterday. Kelly Walker, deputy sheriff of Tejay, Bell county; Isaac Strong, George Strong and Mrs. Isaac Strong were listed as killed. Members of the posse were said to have surrounded the Strong home early in the day. Deputy Walker was killed instantly by a bullet when he exposed himself to a rifeman hiding in the building.

LOCAL NEWS

ALL LATE. All trains on both the C. N. R. and C. P. R. were late arriving in the city today. This is said to have been occasioned by the extremely cold weather.

PLAN SMOKER. At a meeting of the non-commissioned officers of the St. John Fusiliers, held last evening in the armory, plans were completed for a smoker to be held next Thursday night. There was a very good attendance, and a bumper night was arranged for.

POLES COUNT FINISHED. G. G. Hare, city engineer, said today that the survey of the North End poles by the city had been completed and a report would be presented to a meeting of the City Council this afternoon. At this meeting the matter of tenders for transformers is also expected to come up.

MRS. MARY McLAUGHLIN. The death of Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, widow of John McLaughlin, occurred this morning at the residence of her son-in-law, W. J. Heenan, 19 Queen street, West St. John. She was well-known on the West Side, having lived there for many years. She leaves to mourn one son, Herbert, of this city; two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Heenan and Mrs. J. Lord of Montreal; two brothers, David and Cornelius Delaney of Millford; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Haley, of West St. John, and Mrs. Louis Palmer, of Millford. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon from the residence of Mrs. W. J. Heenan.

MILL GETS EARLY START. The Elwood Burt Lumber Company's mill at Burt's Corner started the season's sawing operations Tuesday. The mill at Burt's Corner is probably the first to start sawing long lumber in that vicinity this spring, although a number of mills have been engaged practically all winter in sawing laths. Mr. Burt expects the season's output will reach about 6,000,000 feet. During the next three weeks the mill will be employed in sawing hardwood, and after that the operations will be confined to the sawing of spruce.

STREET CAR COLLISION. Passengers in a Haymarket car traveling down King street, about one o'clock this afternoon, received a rather severe shaking up when the car struck a West St. John car which was stopped about the corner of Germain street. People were jolted out of their seats by the shock. The front of the car was damaged slightly. A false alarm of fire caused a commotion, as the car was partially filled with smoke from a burning wire on connection when the motorman attempted to stop in a hurry. Most of the passengers left the car.

BELIEVE THEY HAVE DISRUPTED DRUG RING. Toledo, O., March 29.—With the arrest of Dr. W. J. Clark, a prominent Toledo physician, and six other persons, including two women, U. S. Government officials yesterday declared they have broken up a ring of drug smugglers that has brought in from Canada in the last year hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of cocaine, morphine and opium.

1,000,000 TONS IRON ORE SOLD AT 50c ADVANCE. Cleveland, March 29.—A big Cleveland iron ore shipper has opened the market by booking orders for approximately 1,000,000 tons of ore at a general advance of 50c a ton, which puts the price of ores back to the 1921 figures, it became known today. The ore was sold in a number of blocks to merchant furnaces and steel interests, it was said.

The advance of 50c a ton makes the price of old range Bessemer $6.45 a ton, Meahl Bessemer $6.20 a ton and Meahl non-Bessemer $5.55 a ton. The advance shippers say, in some cases will not much more than take care of the cost of production and transportation, as late carrying rates are expected to be marked up.

RAINMAKING PLANS DECLARED FUTILE

Scheme of Electrified Sand Attacked by United States Weather Bureau—Claim Enough Dust in Air Now.

New York, March 29.—The United States Weather Bureau issued a statement recently condemning all rain-making plans and specifically attacking the work of Prof. Wilder D. Bancroft of Cornell University and L. Francis Warren, who claim to have dispelled clouds and produced rain in experiments conducted at Dayton in connection with the air service of the United States Army.

The statement of the Bureau lumps the work of Dr. Bancroft and Mr. Warren with a series of valueless devices, pronouncing all rain-making schemes to be "entirely futile." The statement of the bureau ignores the claim of Bancroft and Warren that they have precipitated rain by sprinkling clouds with electrically charged dust of sand, according to principles of colloid chemistry, and deals with the plan as if it consisted simply to add more dust to the dust in the atmosphere.

Further experiments on the sprinkling of clouds with electrically charged dust have been arranged by the inventors and the army air service, and the claims of rain-making and cloud-dissipating will be definitely exploded or settled within a few weeks. The statement of the Weather Bureau is as follows:—

"To produce one inch of rainfall over an area of an approximately 113 tons of moisture would have to be drawn up into the air and then precipitated. There are 640 acres in a square mile, for which 72,000 tons of moisture would be required. A square mile, however, would be scarcely a dot in the centre of any section where drought prevails, as in Arizona or parts of Texas. It would be less than one-seventh of the area of the District of Columbia.

"Enormous forces are required in nature to elevate moisture above the earth before it can be precipitated. Billions of horse power are represented in the cloud that spreads over the house-tops, and even if some artificial means were found to cause the aggregation and fall as rain of the infinitesimal drops of which it is made up, calculation shows that only a trifling amount of precipitation would result. There must be some way by which the moisture-laden atmosphere can be lifted to a considerably higher altitude to lower its temperature and thus precipitate a considerable part of its moisture content.

"It is quite true that in the laboratory a small amount of moisture can be precipitated by the use of special equipment. Meteorologists of the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture say that they do not know of any scheme for the artificial production of rain on a scale of practical magnitude nor for otherwise affecting atmospheric behavior. Widespread drought is due to lack of sufficient moisture in the atmosphere and the absence of other conditions essential to the formation of rain. If there is little moisture to bring down, obviously no device for causing rain artificially has any value because of the absurdity of supposing that human agencies can supply adequate amounts of water for extended areas when the atmosphere itself is practically dry.

"A recent proposal is to cause precipitation by sprinkling dust particles in the air by means of apparatus carried on airplanes, on the theory that these will aid condensation. Cloudiness due to dust particles, however, takes place long before precipitation occurs, and frequently continues after the rain is over, indicating that the moister and dust particles do not necessarily cause the precipitation. If clear weather follows rainfall it may be because new dry air has moved in from other localities.

"Presence or absence of dust particles in the atmosphere does not, in the opinion of meteorologists, have anything to do with the distribution of rainfall. As a rule for more dust particles are present in the atmosphere everywhere than would be essential were the dust hypothesis correct to bring about abundance of precipitation. On the other hand, enormous quantities of rainfall occur over the oceans where there is least dust. Some places in the Hawaiian Islands have an annual rainfall exceeding 500 inches, and yet the air is nearly dust free. The most dust in the atmosphere, except near industrial cities, occurs over dry and semi-arid regions.

"All of these schemes, however, are, in the opinion of the Weather Bureau, entirely futile."

Dr. Wilder D. Bancroft of Cornell, who was asked by the New York Times to discuss the statement of the Weather Bureau, telegraphed the following reply:—

"No use arguing with Weather Bureau. Prefer to wait for results and let them do the explaining."

Boy Hangs Self Playing Cowboy

New York, March 29.—Believed to have fallen through the nose of a lariat which he had been casting at objects in the hall below, Edward A. Whiston, 18 years old, son of William C. Whiston, electrical engineer of the Transit Commission, hung himself accidentally at his home in Brooklyn. The body of the boy, then apparently dead for about an hour, was found hanging from the newel post on the upper landing of the stairway by his mother on her return from a shopping trip.

The boy, who was a member of Troop 51 of the Boy Scouts, returned home immediately after school. After the departure of his mother he dressed himself in his Boy Scout uniform, and, so far as the scene could be reconstructed from material evidence, seated himself on the upper landing of the stairway and began to cast the lariat, a part of every Boy Scout's equipment, at objects in the hall below.

In imitation of the cowboy, whom he had often seen in action in motion pictures, he tied the end of the lariat to the newel post, lacking the horns of a saddle. An umbrella and a hat found on the upper landing were mute evidence that at least two of his casts had been successful and that he had "tripped" the umbrella from a stand in the hall below and the hat from the

RED RASH ON HANDS AND BODY

Itching and Burning Terrible. Cuticura Heals.

"I was troubled with eczema on my hands and body. It broke out in a red rash and later formed some eruptions containing water. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands had to be bandaged, and my clothing aggravated the breaking out on my body. The trouble lasted about three months.

"A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I did and found they helped me, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Russell Hendabee, Sand Point, Nova Scotia.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are all you need for every-day toilet and nursery purposes.

It is hoped that the social hygiene clinic at the St. John Hospital Centre will be opened about the first of May and the operating and surgical centre is being remodelled for this purpose.

SIR SIDNEY, DID YOU USE YOUR INFLUENCE AT SCOTLAND YARD TO GET JEFF TO PASS?

RIGHTO! THE INSPECTOR AGREED TO PASS JEFF OLD DEAR IF HE ANSWERED HALF OF THE QUESTIONS CORRECTLY! QUITE IRREGULAR BUT HE DID IT AS A FAVOR TO ME, MUTT!

BUT JEFF IS SO STUPID! HOW MANY QUESTIONS WERE THERE IN THE EXAM?

THE INSPECTOR ASKED JEFF ONLY TWO QUESTIONS! THE FIRST QUESTION WAS "WHAT IS THE CAPITAL OF ENGLAND?" AND JEFF SAID "NEW YORK" WHICH WAS WRONG!

YES YES, GOON!

THEN HE ASKED "WHAT IS THE CIRCUMFERENCE OF THE WORLD?" AND HE DIDN'T KNOW!

AND THAT WAS RIGHT! SO JEFF GOT A MARK OF 50%!

They Loved Booze In The Old Days

One Halifax Editor Sold Rum and The Shorter Catechism—Church Choirs Drank Punch—Punchoons on Draft.

(Occasional in Halifax Recorder.) William M. Brown, a prominent citizen of Halifax, and an indefatigable worker in the temperance cause, who died in 1888, wrote a very interesting paper, which was read before the N. S. Historical Society, in 1895, seven years after his death. I give some extracts:

"For several years after the war, 1812-16, the people were poor. Soup was distributed gratuitously by the magistrate among the very poor, and the soup-house was a conspicuous institution every winter. The Countess of Dalhousie was very active in efforts for relieving distress, and was by some unappreciating people termed 'The Queen of Beggars.' The Earl was a promoter of agriculture, and designated cattle fairs and plowing matches. The fairs in some features were not unlike the celebrated ones of Dornbrook. Drunkenness and fighting were somewhat conspicuous. Camp Hill was covered with tents from which strong drinks were distributed, and fiddles and bagpipes roused willful dancers, and gross debauchery prevailed after night fall. When there was a review of troops or militia, tents and tables were plentiful on the Common, and boys were furnished with a pleasant drink, composed partly of rum, peppermint and aniseed, known as shrub. Dirty slops of porter and beer were freely used, as also stronger drinks. Screens and curtains were not used in drinking shops, and most grocers sold liquor to be drunk on the premises. Venerable and religious men obtained a livelihood by vending strong drinks, and one, an elder in a church, appeared to have nothing for sale that could be seen but rum and the Shorter Catechism. I hear an old drunkard say 'that he could always get in there for his rum bitters at six o'clock on a winter morning.' The basement of one church was occupied as a tipping shop and another as a storehouse for rum and brandies. An elder of a third was engaged serving roaring man-o-war's men with drinks until eleven on Saturday night, and on Sunday at noon would be distributing sacramental elements in the church.

"Church choirs had weekly meetings for practice, when two glasses of punch were provided for each one present. A lively effect on the youngsters, who may say, were not seasoned. On one occasion these helpers in the church service sallied forth after practice, into the brightness of a full moon, at a late hour, in a very merry mood. One in flowing cloth cloak, not unlike a clergyman's gown, headed them in procession. Four others carried a tenor fiddle case with handkerchiefs, as children were then borne to burial, and the remainder walked two and two, in slow march, all singing as they went.

"Poor Johnny's dead, I heard his knell; Bin, him, him, him, home bell! The bell doth toll, O may his soul In heaven forever dwell."

"After marching a quarter of a mile they met the rector returning home from an evening party, who stood amazed at this exhibition so solemn

Rum selling was considered a very proper calling, and the surest road to wealth, for dram-drinking was almost universal. There was a licensed liquor shop for every hundred inhabitants, old and young, and a church building or school house for every thousand. If a man called on another at any time after breakfast for payment of an account, rum and water were brought forth. An elderly person, lately deceased, found decanters of rum on the table in his boarding house when he landed here from the old country, for all to use as they pleased. When a death occurred, watchers were provided, usually two or three young men, for whom a good supper was prepared before the family retired, and drinks and cigars furnished for the night. At funerals, wine and drinks more potent were circulated before leaving, and a further supply when the mourners returned to the house, as they were expected to do. Six pall-bearers were attached in scarfs, but bands and gloves to match, as so were the doctor and clergyman, who proceeded the bearers of the corpse. There was no hearse in those days, the churchmen got drunk in the daytime and the Methodists at night! The latter, while yet subject to prevailing usages, and ashamed of being drunk; the former would boldly defend his habits, and declare his right to be drunk if he pleased. Sir James Kempt loaned ten thousand pounds to the town, accepting, as security, money derivable from liquor licenses, which was then considered sure and ample.

"Weddings were frequent occasions of disorder, which at last had to be repressed. Only a few went to church to be married; the marriage took place at the bride's residence in the evening, and the company were honored or annoyed by a multitude outside, who were firing guns, and making other noisy demonstrations. An elderly gentleman, on the night of his marriage, had his windows broken by the discharge of a cannon near his home. The wedding took place in the evening, and the many were married on Saturday night, and went to their customary employments on Monday morning."

and yet so ludicrous on the part of his co-workers in the church services, and shortly after took measures to have such lively demonstrations discontinued.

"Fire companies, militia companies, freemasons and other associations all expected to have strong drink when they met; nothing could be done without it. The price of rum was from fifty to sixty cents a gallon, by the puncheon. I well remember a ship chandler where a puncheon of rum was kept on tap by the door, and water and tumbler at hand for all to partake who wished, free of charge. Another person, in later days, kept a puncheon on draft in his workshop, for use of his journeymen and apprentices, and those of his friends who might drop in; and as might be expected, some of his employes and sons have become drunkards. There were, in those days some men and women, who like lepers in Oriental countries, were blighted, unclean and ragged outsiders, who slept in porches, under platforms, and slights of steps that stood on the streets. of these waited round the fish market to get a few pence for carrying home fish for purchasers, and were termed fish-market sharks. Ferry-men, who rowed passengers across the harbor before larger vessels were used, were always full of liquor, and shops in the neighborhood of the ferry on both sides were mostly only tipping places.

March—Worst Month for This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it at night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if Othine fails.

ACTRESS DISFIGURED IN STORE BY CASH CARRIER GETS $1,000

New York, March 28.—Just as the case was to go to the jury before Common Pleas Judge Zabrickie, at Jersey City, counsel for Miss Fay Shirley, a vaudeville actress, known in private life as Mrs. Frances Greich, of Reading, Pa., settled her $15,000 damage suit against P. C. O'Brien & Co. for $1,000.

Miss Shirley alleged she was struck on the nose by the metal cash basket of a change carrier in the dry goods store of the O'Brien company, Jersey City, last July. The injury disfigured her, she alleged, and she lost a contract at $85 a week with a vaudeville agency.

HEALTH AND PHYSIQUE

Contrast Cited Between Washington and Lincoln.

New York, March 22.—The editor of the New York Medical Journal and Medical Record calls attention to the fact that good physique and health do not necessarily go together. He illustrates the point by taking the lives of Washington and Lincoln as examples.

Both Washington and Lincoln, he points out, were of large build. The former, according to the letter which he wrote when ordering a suit of clothes from his London tailor, was "six feet high and proportionately made—if anything, rather slender than thick for a person of that height." The "best weight of his best days" was 220 pounds. Lincoln was four inches taller and weighed 180 pounds, was of narrower chest and less erect. Both lived, in youth, much the same outdoor life—almond having the ruler exercise. Both were very muscular, being the champions of sport in their respective days and localities. Both were robust in mental qualities as in physical strength and endurance. Yet when it came to resistance to bacterial infection, the contrast was as remarkable as was the comparison in other respects.

Washington, at 16, had malaria "to an extremity." While in the Barbadoes with his brother, who was suffering from consumption, he contracted smallpox, which scared him for the rest of his days. Soon after returning from Barbadoes he was taken with "violent pleurisy" which reduced him "very low," and which is said to have caused the deformity of his chest.

Again, in the Braddock campaign, he suffered from malaria, and in 1757 was obliged to leave his command and return home on account of dysentery. He had fever for four months, and believing that he had become a victim of consumption, looked forward to "approaching decay." Three years later he was again ill with malaria. He had several attacks of "influenza," and in one of these, during the Presidency, his life was despaired of. For nearly six weeks he was unable to transact business. Again after leaving office he suffered from malaria. His latest illness was quickly contracted from exposure to cold and wet. Washington suffered also from inflamed gums and carious teeth, and by the age of 63 he had lost all these troublesome organs.

In contrast, Lincoln is said never to have been sick, although he would have been conspired, at a glance, of inferior physique.

It may be of interest in this time of threatened return of smallpox that, when the disease attacked the Continental Army, Washington endeavored to have the Assembly of Virginia repeal its law against inoculation for this disease. He also urged his wife to secure protection against the disease by this means.

Both Washington and Lincoln were temperate in all things. Both, but especially Washington, led the outdoor life, but neither fine physique nor temperance can take the place of bactericidal properties, says the writer, inherent or acquired, in the tissues, when it comes to dealing with invading microbe armies.

TAKE TIME FOR LUNCH IN COURSE OF THEFTS

Robbers Make Sweep of Goods at Niagara-on-the-Lake.

St. Catharines, March 27.—Merchandise thieves with motor trucks nearly cleaned out the stocks of two general stores at Niagara-on-the-Lake and the freight shed of the Niagara, St. Catharine & Toronto Railway early last Thursday morning. The loss may run into several thousand dollars. Bishop's grocery and Harrison's general store were two of the stores visited, and where the heaviest hauls were made. At the former place thieves reloaded after loading the truck and enjoyed a lunch on the rear porch. Groceries, meats, tires and one bicycle were among the articles taken.

FAMOUS MTS. FOR ROCHESTER

University Gets That of "Home, Sweet Home," Gift of H. W. Sibley.

Rochester, N. Y., March 27.—Through the generosity of Hiram W. Sibley of this city the University of Rochester has just come into ownership of the original musical manuscript of "Home, Sweet Home." The approaching centenary of John Howard Payne's writing of the song makes Mr.

Sibley's gift a matter of unusual interest. The folio, which was purchased for him at the recent dispersal sale of the library of Mrs. Luther Livingston at the Anderson Galleries in New York City, is already in Rochester and in the safe custody of the Sibley Musical Library of the Eastman School of Music.

PHYSICIANS PHOTOGRAPH BRAIN OF LIVING CHILD

Philadelphia, March 29.—A method of photographing the brain of a living person without affecting the health of the patient has been discovered at the University Hospital. Working in the clinic of Dr. Charles Frazer, Dr. Temple Fay and Dr. Francis C. Grull made several flashlights of the inside of the brain of a ten-month-old baby. These photographs may prove invaluable in the treatment of water on the brain and cerebral tumors.

The case against Catherine Peters, held on the charge of being the keeper of a disorderly house on Coburg street, and Lena Dupres, Guy Northrup and Frank McDonald, charged with being inmates of the house, was resumed in the Police Court yesterday and set over for a future hearing. No evidence was taken. It is understood that the prohibition inspectors investigated.

THE ARCH DEFENDER SHOE

A Stylish Shoe and a Scientific Shoe

ARCH DEFENDERS are not an orthopaedic freak—they are elegant shoes made in the Acme of Style and Quality. But they are also made with the patented feature of a spring support—a hand shaped insole moulded on a true foot-form last.

Thus your foot-arch is supported, not by a rigid prop that is clumsy, heavy and cramping but by the spring steel support concealed under the insole, extending from the heel to right under the Scaphoid Bone which is the keystone of your foot arch.

If you have the slightest degree of trouble, Arch Defenders will give you quick relief.

BRIDEGROOM ARRESTED ON HONEYMOON AS DESERTER

Breach of Italian Army Rules by Wounded Veteran is Disclosed by Rival.

London, March 3.—(By mail)—A young Italian couple named Morcotta, who were recently married at Lugano, embarked in a lake steamer for a honeymoon journey. When the steamer touched Porto Ceresio, Italian customs officials and gendarmes boarded the boat and arrested the bridegroom.

A rival of the bridegroom, in revenge, had previously telegraphed to the police at Porto Ceresio that Morcotta, who was a deserter from the army, was about to arrive there, according to the Geneva correspondent of The London Daily Express.

Morcotta's wife refused to leave him and accompanied him to goal.

Morcotta served a year on the Isonzo front and was severely wounded twice before he deserted and fled to Lugano. When the steamer was advised of the sad story

THREE THOUSAND BIRDS.

The Hamburg-American liner Hana, a big feathered bird cage, bringing 1,000 feathered songsters and monogists, reached New York this week from Hamburg.

In addition to a cargo of canaries, parrots and talking crows from India, the vessel brought the largest party of German immigrants to arrive in some time, her lists showing 224 cabin, and 859 steerage passengers, with one stowaway.

The birds were brought here by Ludwig Lube of 851 Bowery. He had in his care 2,409 canaries, 200 talking crows, known in India, their habitat, as minos; fifty white swans, 200 green parakeets and fifty "barbicans," as Indian geese are called because they have a habit of attaching themselves to some object with their bills and just staying there.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

ASK FOR FREIGHT RATE REDUCTION

Fruit Growers in Annual Session Pass Resolution—Officers Elected.

(Special to The Times) Fredericton, March 29.—The eighth annual meeting of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers Association closed yesterday.

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. B. Gilman, Springhill; Vice-President, A. B. Gordon, Grand Falls; Secretary, H. H. Smith, Hays Station.

A resolution was passed to the effect that as railway freight rates from New Brunswick points to desirable markets for fruit had increased to the extent of 100 per cent since 1917 and the fruit growing industry in this province was seriously handicapped thereby, steps should be taken to bring about a reduction, also that this matter be taken up with the Canadian Horticultural Council.

A. C. Fawcett, M. P. P., of Sicville, addressed the association on the cultivation of strawberries. Professor W. S. Blake, Kentville, spoke on the subject of orchard fertilization.

LUMBERMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Decide Not to Join Employers' Association—Will Ask for Recognition by Compensation Board

At a meeting of the executive of the New Brunswick Lumbermen's Association in Fredericton yesterday it was decided to approach the Legislature regarding the Lumbermen's Association being recognized by the Workmen's Compensation Board.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Angus McLean, Bathurst; Vice-president, Howard E. Beady, St. John; Secretary, Robert W. McLeellan, Fredericton.

Some Irregularity as N. Y. Market Opens—Dull in Montreal.

New York, March 29.—Some irregularity took place at the opening of today's stock market, but the main tendency appeared to be upward. Good buying was noted in the recent industrial favorites, Baldwin, American Can and United States Steel common.

St. John, March 29.—The opening of the local stock exchange was dull this morning with business being restricted to a narrow range of issues. General Electric led in activity, being up 1 1/2 to 88 1/2.

Montreal, March 29.—The opening of trading in listed securities on the local stock exchange was dull this morning with business being restricted to a narrow range of issues.

IRON, STEEL, METAL AND MACHINERY

In its summary of the iron, steel, metal and machinery markets, Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, Toronto, makes the following comment in its March 22 issue:

To those who predicted one month ago that the upward swing in steel prices was nothing more than a flash in the pan, or of a passing character, the latter is generally correct. There does not appear to be a weak spot in the entire movement.

To use a stock market term, the situation is bullish, and producers have well in hand whatever speculative tendency there may be so far as buying is concerned. The danger that capital may become somewhat shy as the result of mounting prices, does not seem to be a serious factor.

In fact, there is every indication of a serious summer and with extensive operations proposed, the incentive to buy is as characteristic as it ever was of a rising market, since the latter is generally a reflection of prosperous industrial conditions.

Stocks are said to be in fair condition, and this means that it is unnecessary to anticipate the coming season's requirements somewhat more largely than usual. The Steel Corporation's books are closed, and it is said may not be re-opened until toward the end of May.

Where material is available, high premiums are being paid, and the latter is generally a reflection of the fact that the market is in a position to absorb a large volume of steel.

Prices have been firm during the week in the Canadian steel markets. There are instances where price advances on sheets and bars have taken place, but on the whole, prices show a greater stability than for some time.

This is itself a sign for better business and of a larger volume for all concerned. With steel bars in Toronto and Montreal ranging from $20 to $27 1/2, with black sheets quoting at $25 to $26 1/2 blue annealed at $20 and galvanized at $25, Canadian prices would seem to offer to the buyer at least somewhat favorable comparison with those of Buffalo. They serve at any rate, to show that local warehouses are not taking unreasonable margins.

At the present rate of consumption, credit for the needs of legitimate business. After all, 5 1/2 per cent is not an excessive interest rate for an individual or a corporation to pay for loans when business is active and profitable.

So long as the rate on commercial paper does not go above 6 per cent, there is probably no reason to be afraid that developments in the money market will stop the business boom.

Textile Wages. We are apparently entering into the higher advancing wages. The entirely unexpected action of the American Woolen Company this week in announcing a 12 1/2 per cent increase in wages upon which the wage disputes in the New England textile centres will be settled. It is hard to see how the American Woolen Company, which has followed the wage scales set by the American Woolen Company.

A 12 1/2 per cent wage increase, and it would not be surprising if this were done in other textile centres of New England. The woolen mills continue to operate virtually at capacity and most of the spinning is in the hands of the mills of the world have been somewhat easier during the last month.

Some improvement is noted in demand for machine tools, with special emphasis on high-production or cost-reducing equipment. Canadian makers carried off a fair percentage of the contracts recently released, and the latter is in line with materials.

LIVINGSTON & CO. MONTREAL FUR AUCTION. Montreal, March 29.—About $300,000 was realized at the second day's session of the Canadian Fur Auction Sales here yesterday. Nearly 1,000 silver fox skins changed hands.

FREDERICKTOWN MARKETS. In Fredericton market yesterday the prevailing prices were as follows: Butter, 40 cents; eggs, 40 cents; chickens, per pound, 35 cents; veal, 12 cents; pork, 16 to 18 cents; ham, 25 cents; potatoes, per barrel, $1.50; carrots, $1.50; wood, per cord, $7 to $9; hay, per ton, $15 to $17.

MINING WAGES INCREASED. Mining companies in Arizona have increased wages 10 per cent to 12 per cent. New scales will give miners $5.45 a day and muckers $4.84; other classes of labor will be increased 1 per cent. Approximately 16,000 will be affected.

BOOM MAY RUN THROUGH 1923

Business Prosperity in United States Expected to Continue Till End of Year.

(Boston Herald.) At the beginning of 1923 most bankers expressed the opinion that business would be active and profitable during the first half of the year.

While they had little to say about conditions for the second half year, they certainly had mental reservations concerning the latter. Three months ago it was generally thought that the business boom upon which we were then entering would be a short one.

Now opinion along these lines are being revised. At the moment a state of equilibrium seems to have been reached between purchasing power, production, and prices, which the great majority of business interests in the country are trying their best to preserve.

It now looks as though the business activity would continue at least well into the fall and so far as we can see it may last into next year. Certainly at the moment there are no positive indications of its coming to an end.

Money Rates. For those who take a long range view of the situation perhaps the most disturbing factor at the moment is the firmness in the money market.

Commercial paper has advanced to 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 per cent, for the best names. The money market as a whole has been displaying a distinct tendency to such a higher level. This is normally the time of the year when money should be easy.

That it is showing an upward trend now means that it probably will be fairly stiff before the year is over. Still, the great resources of the federal reserve system have hardly been scratched, and while the government's of the federal reserve board are opposed to the use of money for speculative purposes, they assuredly will see to it that there is an adequate supply of credit for the needs of legitimate business.

After all, 5 1/2 per cent is not an excessive interest rate for an individual or a corporation to pay for loans when business is active and profitable. So long as the rate on commercial paper does not go above 6 per cent, there is probably no reason to be afraid that developments in the money market will stop the business boom.

AN EXPLANATION. Saturday, Sunday, Monday and part of Tuesday evenings proved to be what is called in the vernacular "dead periods". Numerous theories have been advanced to explain this phenomenon of the inability of even the most delicate Radio receiving equipment to respond to the electrical vibrations set up in the ether from distant stations but it will suffice here if we say that the cause is generally more or less "dead periods" this year.

We extend to the numerous friends who visited us on the evenings mentioned, an invitation to present at any of our evening demonstrations which would suit their conveniences.

DRUNKEN AUTO DRIVERS A MENACE

New Jersey Commissioner Revoked 400 Licenses Last Year Because of Intoxication.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 28.—Intoxicated drivers of motor vehicles were never a greater menace than at present, A. W. Bill, Commissioner Motor Vehicles of New Jersey told a conference of Highway Commissioners and Engineers from twenty-one States.

The motor laws of Pennsylvania and New York were deficient, Commissioner Bill said, and this was of particular interest to New Jersey because during the summer months the roads of New Jersey seashore points were used by more foreign cars than those of New Jersey.

The halt, the lame and the blind may drive automobiles in Pennsylvania and New York, he said, "because neither State requires an examination

QUEEN ALEXANDRA STILL REIGNS IN HEARTS OF PEOPLE

Mother of King George Has Held Affections of Britons for Sixty Years by Gentle Ways and Kind Acts.

London, (By Mail).—Sixty years ago this month Princess Alexandra of Denmark—Tennyson's "Sea King's daughter" from over the sea—landed in England to become the bride of Edward Prince of Wales. The memory of the wonderful welcome she received is as vivid today as ever, the Queen-Mother declared in a message broadcast to the British people in which she sets on record her gratitude for "the loyal and devoted sympathy shown to me both in my joy and sorrows."

The hold on the affections of the British people which she won as a fair young princess, little more than eight years old, Queen Alexandra never has lost in sixty years. Always regal in her manner, she still has reigned in the hearts of the public more as a woman than a queen, and the gentleness of her nature has been shown in countless little ways.

When King Edward died, in 1910, the Queen-Mother sought retirement at Sandringham and Marlborough House. Though she still is frequently to be seen driving almost unattended through the streets of London, she has lived in later years a somewhat secluded life, devoting herself largely to the royal family. While playing leap frog one day with some boys of his own age, and while in a stooped position, a big boy jumped on his back and in falling my boy caught his foot in an iron grating and dislocated his hip. The pain was so great that he fainted and the other boys were so frightened they ran away.

HUSBAND DIDN'T DARE LEAVE HER ALONE HEART WAS SO BAD

These feelings of faintness, those dizzy spells, the all-gone sinking sense which come from time to time indicate a weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have no equal as a remedy to strengthen the heart, invigorate the nerves and build up the run-down system. Mrs. C. Vanhorn, Eckville, Alta., writes:—About a year ago I had heart trouble. My husband didn't dare leave me alone, and often had to stay up at night with me. I would just feel kind of faint and my heart would seem to stop beating.

River Desert, Que.—"I used to have a severe pain in my side. I would be unable to walk fast and could not stand for any length of time to do my ironing or washing, but I would have to lie down to get relief from the pain. I had this for about two years, then a friend told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she had had good results. I certainly got good results from it, too, as the last time I had a severe side was last May and I have not had it since.

ECZEMA Hands Were Raw Would Crack and Bleed

Eczeema of Salt Rheum, as it is commonly called, is one of the most agonizing of skin diseases. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when exposed to heat, are almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed.

Burdock Blood Bitters

has met with in permanently removing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties. Mrs. M. R. Willard, Dudwell St., Que. writes:—"For about three years I had eczeema, in a very bad form, on my hands. They were all raw and would crack and bleed so that I could not do my housework. I tried everything I could think of without any results. At last I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and when I had it about all taken I could see it was helping me; by the time I had taken five bottles my hands were well again and I have not been bothered since. I cannot praise Burdock Blood Bitters enough."

BACHELOR ENDS LIFE IN LAKE

W. L. Swett, Farmer, Sixth of His Family to Commit Suicide

Killed His Favorite Horse—Used Axe to Slay Animal and Revolver Upon Himself in Unsuccessful Effort to Die.

Trenton, N. J., March 28.—The body of W. L. Swett, wealthy bachelor farmer and recluse, residing about two miles below Hightstown, was discovered in a small lake on his property by a friend, Dr. George A. Silver of Hightstown. Swett is believed to have been a suicide.

Swett had been acting strangely and had suffered melancholy since the death several weeks ago of his aunt, Miss Helen Stults, who had kept house for him for a number of years. Since her death he had been living alone in the house, which, although located hardly more than a mile from Hightstown, is somewhat isolated.

Swett had attempted to slay himself with a revolver which was found near the body. A bullet wound was discovered in his hip, but it was slight. Failing to kill himself with the weapon, Swett is believed to have thrown himself face downward into the lake. He was found in that position.

A pet horse of the farmer's was found slain near its stable. An axe had been used.

Dr. Silver is of the opinion that Swett singled the horse out from among his others because he had been devoted to the animal and did not want it to be subject to harsh treatment after he died.

Swett wrote a letter to Dr. Silver last Wednesday. In this letter he asked the physician to take care of his property in the event anything happened to him.

The letter left Dr. Silver uneasy. He said he thought its contents over and decided to investigate. He went to the Swett farm with another man and, finding the doors locked, gained access through a window. Failing to find any trace of the farmer, they roamed about the grounds and finally discovered the slain horse. Footprints led from the horse to the lake, and there Swett's back was seen above the water, his face submerged.

Coroner Bray was notified and the body was turned over to Rogers & Son, undertakers, of Hightstown. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Swett home, with interment in East Windsor cemetery.

ONLY 20 YEARS OLD, WILL MARRY AGAIN

Jamaica Youth, Paying for Support of Son by First Marriage, to Wed Girl of Seventeen.

New York, March 28.—Frank Hartman, 20 years old, Jamaica, holds the record for marriages of persons of his age, according to the experts in the Queens Marriage License Bureau, where he applied for a license to marry Miss Catherine Pfeifferman, 17 years old, also of Jamaica. When he applied to Deputy City Clerk William Zimmerman for his license, he presented papers showing that his marriage to Charlotte Oswald, which he contracted about two years ago, had been annulled by Justice Selah B. Strong in the Supreme Court. These papers also showed that there was a son by the first marriage and that Hartman is paying $5 a week for the support of this child.

Both Hartman and his prospective bride were so young that their parents had to accompany them to the Marriage License Bureau and give their consent before the license was issued. Hartman said that his marriage to Miss Pfeifferman would occur on Easter Sunday.

The Kentucky Derby. Louisville, Ky., March 29.—One hundred and forty-five thoroughbreds are entered for the 1923 Kentucky Derby. This is a record number for even the best of late closing events.

These equine aristocrats come from every section of the continent and include practically every winner of a big two-year-old stake last year, including the Belmont futurity, both divisions of the Pimlico futurity, Kentucky jockey club stakes, Bashford Manor stakes, Lexington futurity, the Queen City handicap, the Saratoga special and other events, according to an announcement issued by M. J. Winn, general manager of the Kentucky Jockey Club, which will stage the 49th running of the historic race at Churchill Downs, on May 19.

Indications point to a large number of starters. "With twenty-one starters the Derby this year will be worth $64,000, to which will be added a gold souvenir for the winner valued at $7,500," Mr. Winn's announcement reads.

As has been the case for years, East will vie with West for the honor of naming the Derby winner, all the leading stables of both sections having entries. Among the eastern stables represented are those of August Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, H. F. Slocum, J. S. Coaden, Benjamin Block, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, Admiral Cary Grayson and J. K. L. Ross. Western stables include those of E. R. Bradley, John E. Madden, J. C. and G. H. Keene, and others of prominence.

When a little clock in Benny Leonard's dressing room at the Winter Garden struck eight bells last night, meaning that midnight had rolled around again, the lightweight champion was busily engaged in removing slathers of grease paint from his slightly scarred features.

"Thank God this is over," he was heard to remark as he dabbed at the black penciling under his eyelids. "It may have been all right for Booth and Sothman and Hackett, and even for Harrigan and Hart, but it's no game for a boxer. I'm sick of the footlights and that's a cinch. I'd rather meet Lew Tendler every week than to be an actor for a month. Anybody who thinks this job is easy ought to step in and try it for a while."

This gentle colloquy marked the end of Benny's career as an actor. He severed diplomatic relations with the Winter Garden last night and he will not be seen on Broadway for a long time to come. He leaves tonight for Lakewood, N. J., where he will do some intensive resting up. When he gets himself back to a state of physical normalcy once more he will engage in some light training stunts, assisted by some talent imported from Manny Seamon's gymnasium himself.

FRED S. CAMERON GOES TO COAST

Former Long Distance Runner Leaves Amherst to Locate in Vancouver—A Notable Record.

(Amherst News.)

Fred S. Cameron, long distance runner, and holder of a variety of amateur and professional distance records, will be greatly missed from Amherst. Mr. Cameron, who left Saturday night for Vancouver will take up his residence on the coast. In the past three years, since Mr. Cameron returned to Amherst, he has been an indefatigable worker in the interests of young athletes.

He has acted as a volunteer trainer for A. A. sprinters and distance men. He has given hockey players pointers on training, and aided in every athletic meet.

Men of this calibre are an asset in sport and Amherst now meets with a liability. Cameron's Maritime races both as an amateur and a professional will long be remembered. He holds the five mile record 26.01, and then had a professional mark of 25.32, made in a five mile race with Abbie Woods. He won the Halifax Herald and Mail races, a Maritime classic, and in his second year of the running captured the Boston Marathon. During his running career Cameron defeated W. E. Sterling of St. John, Tupper MacKenzie, Springhill; James and Norman Turnbull, Springhill; Tom Longboat, Toronto; Robert Fowler, Boston; Ted Wood, London; Abbie Woods, Toronto; St. Yves, Paris; Clarence DeMar, Boston; Home, Boston; Corkery, Hamilton. He ran one dead heat with Jole Ray, defeated the Illinois Club runner once, and also met defeat at some men's hands. There are a score of other runners that Cameron has met.

Amherst fans will long remember the hey day of Fred Cameron's career. As a mere kid he started out in the running game in Springhill, taking a mile, a half mile, and a quarter mile race in a quarter. A short time later he met Hans Holmer of Halifax, in a mile race in the old arena. Holmer was the boy about three quarters of a lap. Next year Cameron went to Halifax where he captured the Herald distance race, and next spring journeyed to Boston, where he broke the record for the B. A. Marathon. For a year he met the best of the amateur talent, and then signing for fresh words to conquer turned professional.

His real debut in professional ranks was made at the Powder Hall, Marathons, Edinburgh, where he finished third. Cameron's career has been interesting. Only a few years back, when a member of the Illinois Athletic Club, he was running as an amateur, and even then was able to hold his own with the best.

There will be no let-down in Leonard's training until after he has met both Charley White and Lew Tendler, to say nothing of any other enthusiastic young men who may be loitering along the lightweight trail. His summer campaign may include a fuss with Rocky Kansas, who recently tossed a shock into fandom by outpointing Charley White at Madison Square Garden.

"I'm tired of this theatrical stunt," said Benny last night, in a conversation with the writer. "It may be all right for actors, but for fighters it's a bust. They wanted me to sign for another six weeks at the Winter Garden, but I said no. I'm off the footlights, but I expect to have two or possibly three ring battles this summer, and that may wind up my career. I expect to retire with my title, which means that I expect to beat White and Tendler and Rocky Kansas, if there should be any demand for the latter match.

"I'm going to Lakewood for a rest, but I'll do some boxing while I'm there. Dave Rosenberg, the Brooklyn lightweight, is in Lakewood, and I'll get some preliminary practice with him. Later on I'm going to have Manny Seamon send down a couple of boys from his gymnasium, and I'll work regularly with them. The trouble that I had with my gums, as a result of some of the jolts that Lew Tendler sent in my direction last July, has been entirely eradicated.

Will Be Ready in May "By the middle of May I'll be ready to take on Tendler, White, Kansas, or any other lightweight who thinks he has a chance to grab my crown. I weigh right now more than 140 pounds but I'll have no trouble at all in making the lightweight limit of 135. The first day of real training that I put in will take close to five pounds off. After that it will be easy keeping within striking distance of the lightweight limit.

"I have heard some talk to the effect that I have been dodging Sailor Friedman. Any time the Sailor wants to make 135 pounds I'll take him on and I'll knock him out inside of six rounds. In addition I'm ready to make a substantial bet that I do this—providing, of course, that he makes 135 pounds.

"If I beat both Tendler and White, and possibly Kansas, during the coming summer the lightweight situation will be pretty well cleaned up. I think I could then retire and nobody would object.

"BUFFALO BILL" SERIAL, Friday and Saturday

right for actors, but for fighters it's a bust. They wanted me to sign for another six weeks at the Winter Garden, but I said no. I'm off the footlights, but I expect to have two or possibly three ring battles this summer, and that may wind up my career. I expect to retire with my title, which means that I expect to beat White and Tendler and Rocky Kansas, if there should be any demand for the latter match.

"I'm going to Lakewood for a rest, but I'll do some boxing while I'm there. Dave Rosenberg, the Brooklyn lightweight, is in Lakewood, and I'll get some preliminary practice with him. Later on I'm going to have Manny Seamon send down a couple of boys from his gymnasium, and I'll work regularly with them. The trouble that I had with my gums, as a result of some of the jolts that Lew Tendler sent in my direction last July, has been entirely eradicated.

Will Be Ready in May "By the middle of May I'll be ready to take on Tendler, White, Kansas, or any other lightweight who thinks he has a chance to grab my crown. I weigh right now more than 140 pounds but I'll have no trouble at all in making the lightweight limit of 135. The first day of real training that I put in will take close to five pounds off. After that it will be easy keeping within striking distance of the lightweight limit.

"I have heard some talk to the effect that I have been dodging Sailor Friedman. Any time the Sailor wants to make 135 pounds I'll take him on and I'll knock him out inside of six rounds. In addition I'm ready to make a substantial bet that I do this—providing, of course, that he makes 135 pounds.

"If I beat both Tendler and White, and possibly Kansas, during the coming summer the lightweight situation will be pretty well cleaned up. I think I could then retire and nobody would object.

Joe Page Reads With Interest of Local Ball Plans

Joe Page writes of reading in Montreal about the plans for organizing a professional baseball league in New Brunswick and reports himself on call if he can assist in any way. He said it would not be too late for St. John to be represented by one or two teams in the Eastern Canada League.

Included in his letter Mr. Page sent a duplicate of the schedule adopted for the Eastern Canada League, which is composed of four teams—Canadians, Quebec, Three Rivers and Montreal.

WILSON'S MANAGER QUILTS BOXING GAME Killilea Says He is Disgusted With Way New York Commission Handles the Sport.

Boston, March 29.—Marty Killilea, who has managed Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion outside of New York State, during Wilson's ring career, has announced that he and Wilson had dissolved partnership. Killilea said that the move was made at his own suggestion and against the champion's wishes. "Johnny and I are parting the best of friends," he said. "Don't run away with the idea that boy can't fight, as some people like to say. Wilson's a great fighter. At the middleweight limit he will knock out Greb or any of these fellows. But they never gave him a chance."

Killilea said he was going into business in Boston. He was leaving the fight game, he said, because he was "disgusted with the way Tex Rickard and the New York Boxing Commission handled the game."

Enters Boston Marathon. George V. Sprague of this city has sent in his entry for the Boston marathon, which takes place on April 19. He will run under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. and plans on going to the Hub April 3 to complete his training.

Edmonton Eskimos and Ottawa to Meet Tonight for Stanley Cup.

Vancouver, B. C., March 29.—The opening of the final half of the 1923 world's hockey series in this city tonight will bring together Edmonton Eskimos, Western Canada League champions, and the Ottawa Senators, champions of the National Hockey League, and victors in the semi-final over Vancouver, the Pacific Coast League champions. Although Ottawa is reduced through accidents to six men and no substitutes, it is generally conceded here today that the teams are evenly matched, and that either may be installed as favorites for the Stanley Cup when the game is over.

LOST HOPE, SAYS MRS. WATERMAN

Declares Tanlac Restored Her Fully When Almost a Nervous Wreck — Gains 14 Pounds.

"Tanlac restored my health to completely three years ago that I haven't had to take a single dose of medicine since," says Mrs. Cora Waterman, 145 Monroe St., Toronto, Ont.

"I don't believe there was a worse case than mine in Ontario. I had been suffering for about three years and was practically a nervous and physical wreck. I could eat scarcely a thing, sleep was almost impossible, and rheumatism in my hands, wrists and arms almost drove me distracted. I spent every cent I could lay my hands on for medicine, and had about lost hope of ever being well again.

"But Tanlac ended by suffering and saved me a great many dollars. I regained fourteen pounds, too, which I still retain, and I feel as strong and healthy now as when a school girl. I have been praising the Tanlac treatment three years now, and want to send out this message to help others."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 33,000,000 bottles sold.

WOODSTOCK PERSONALS. (Woodstock Press.) Mrs. Guy Balloch arrived in town on Monday from New York, and is the guest of Mrs. W. L. Carr.

Miss Susie Sharpe, who was training at the Chipman Hospital, St. Stephen, was among the nurses who graduated last week.

Mrs. W. L. Carr left for Fredericton on Saturday morning, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Rainford Balloch. Mrs. Carr was accompanied by Mrs. Horace Werren, who has been spending the past two months in town, with relatives.

The friends of Mrs. Robert Strain met at her residence on Thursday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Strain's birthday anniversary. During the evening there were two tables of bridge, at the conclusion of which refreshments were served.

Hon. J. E. Michaud Tells Facts Concerning Hydro Supply to Edmundston.

Hon. J. E. Michaud, minister without portfolio in the Provincial Government, yesterday gave the lie direct to a report featured on the front page of a St. John morning paper with reference to hydro power at Edmundston. The report said that owing to a shortage of water in the St. John and Madawaska rivers the hydro plant at Edmundston was being supplied by the demand for street lighting and manufacturing purposes and that no power was available in the day time and only a limited amount at night. The town it was said, obtained its power from Three Rivers, P. Q.

Hon. Mr. Michaud felt, he said, that such misleading reports might have an adverse influence on public opinion regarding hydro development. The fruit of the matter was, he said, that the water in the St. John and Madawaska rivers had nothing to do with the case as the power came from Green River, ten miles from the town. Furthermore it did not get its power from Three Rivers, 250 miles away. There was a shortage of power owing to the fact that the hydro plant had been built to serve 1,000 people and the population had increased to more than 4,000. For that reason the people were asking for the development of Grand Falls power. He said the correspondent of the paper in which the report was published denied making any statement regarding low water in the St. John or Madawaska rivers and also denied making any mention of Edmundston being supplied with power from Three Rivers, P. Q.

Shanley's Is Bankrupt And Closes Doors

New York, March 29. — Shanley's lights have gone out. Shanley's was one of the first of the White Light restaurants. It is one of the first to go.

It has followed the way of Churchills, the Knickerbocker, Healy's and other Broadway "institutions" that won friends and devotees from all lands and formed one of the chief features of the Broadway-that-was.

"A big restaurant in Broadway can't make money now," John J. Moran, the manager, said.

Thomas J. Shanley, as president of Shanley Company, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.

Decision to close the restaurant permanently came close on the heels of an action brought by United States Attorney Hayward to close it for a year under the "padlock" section of the Volstead act. Allegation was made in this action that the restaurant persisted in serving some of the old-time cheer.

Liabilities were placed at $166,656, and assets at $29,278.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body. It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate; then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities, which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples. The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will help prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples. Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually helps make pimples disappear.

YESTERDAY IN THE LEGISLATURE

In the Legislature yesterday, Premier Veniot moved a bill to amend the Motor Vehicle Act to increase the registration fee for automobiles by twenty per cent, and to necessitate the carrying of two lights on the front of a car instead of the one which had been sufficient.

In continuing the debate on the budget, Hon. D. W. Messerieu, Minister of Agriculture, gave the report of his department, calling especial attention to the increase in the poultry business and the hopes for a greater increase next year. He illustrated the three stages by three eggs of various sizes.

A. F. Bentley took exception to some remarks by H. V. Dickson as to the retirement of Hon. W. E. Foster. The debate was continued by Mr. Bentley and J. M. Flewelling and the adjournment was moved by Mr. Foster. It was made the order of business for this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

At a practise of the St. John Choral Society held last evening in the Natural History Society rooms plans were made for the annual concert, which will be held about the third week in April.

Ruhr Seizure Promotes U. S. Coal Exports

Shortage of Fuel Abroad is Reflected in Greater Demand From States—British Mines Restricted.

New York, March 29.—The occupation of the Ruhr coal field by the French, with consequent decrease in its coal production, entailing as it does shutting off of supplies to Italy, France, Germany and other European countries, has caused some increase in United States exports of bituminous coal, according to a statement from the Department of Commerce.

British colliery owners and coal merchants seem to be unable to supply the increased demand for coal and coke resulting from the Ruhr situation, as not only has their production of coal reached its probable maximum under existing conditions, but their dock capacity, which is and has been for some time the governing factor in their export trade, is heavily over-taxed. This is due largely to the fact that British dock labor has insisted upon only two eight-hour shifts a day. Strong efforts have been made to put on an additional shift, but so far with little success, and the whole matter has now been referred to the Industrial Court, which means a probable delay of six months before the matter can be adjusted.

Information received from the commercial attaché of the Department of Commerce at London, dated February 15, speaking of the Scotch coal situation, was to the effect that on that date there were ninety-four vessels waiting at the chief Scotch ports, seventy of them on the east coast.

British coal exports for January were 5,111,670 gross tons, as compared with 5,070,318 tons in January, 1918, 3,794,770 tons in January, 1914, and 4,020,935 tons in January, 1922.

British production is now ranging from about 5,667,000 to 5,644,000 tons a week, compared with an average of 5,520,000 tons in 1918, the previous year of greatest production. The total production for 1922 was 239,839,000 gross tons, as compared with 286,729,000 tons in 1918.

Studying On Roof, Girl Dies In 5-Story Fall

New York, March 29.—Miriam Wilson, sixteen years old, a student at the Ewinger Childs High School, the Bronx, had a literary bent and often went to the roof of the five-story apartment house in which she lived, to write English compositions and stories for her school paper. She was a bright girl and one of the most popular in her class.

She told her mother that she was going to the roof to "write a piece for the paper," thinking that she could find "quiet and inspiration there." She took a book, a pencil and some paper with her. Fifteen minutes later her dead body was found in the courtyard by a tenant who heard the thud of the fall. Dr. George Hohman, Medical Ex-
