The "Royal Grand" Range.

Many Ranges after a short time in use will burn red on top—poor iron is responsible. The Royal Grand will not do this, as the best quality of pig iron only is used in its construction.

Then again, the Enterprise Foundry Co., who make this range, employ only skilled labor, which accounts for the thorough manner in which the castings are made.

Have you seen this Range? Over 300 satisfied customers are using them in this city alone.

EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR DEVELOPMENT OF INDUSTRIES

A. C. Fairweather and A. G. Edgcombe Tell of What Can be Done in Two Lines of Manufacture if Local People Will Show Sufficient Interest.

A C. FAIRWEATHER. "I have lived here for forty years," said A. C. Fairweather to the Star today, "and I have never yet seen the people really awake. So am afraid the scheme of a 75,000 club will not arouse them sufficiently to result in any material benefit. We want more industries, lots of them, and we have the most favorable facilities, but the trouble is that our people will not do their duty as individuals. We have the best opportunities for shipping, we have cheap capital, and we have the States for properly manufactured hardware and only a short time ago I was interested with others in an endeavor to reorganize on a larger scale one of our local industries. The prospects of ultimate profits were bright, but our St. John men would not subscribe enough capital and the attempt was a failure. If our citizens will not do their duty as individuals I cannot see that organization will have any good results, and knowing what I do of the indifference as often shown in another circumstance which is against us, that our young men won't get married, perhaps they are not so much interested to do so and that the existing opportunities are not sufficiently favorable for their success in business."

A. G. EDGECOMBE. "I think your idea is a grand one," said A. G. Edgcombe, the carriage manufacturer. We have a wide market for many different lines of goods which could be manufactured here as well as elsewhere. For example, there is not one properly equipped carriage building plant in New Brunswick. In the maritime provinces fully three-quarters of the carts and carriages sold are imported, and this condition is deplorable when we consider that all these vehicles should be made and could be made here at as low a cost as elsewhere. A hundred thousand dollars worth of carriages of different kinds come to St. John every year. We are simply carrying away this money which should be kept at home. It is a disgrace that even heavy carts are imported when we have the material, the men and everything excepting a little confidence and capital which would enable us to make these things ourselves. I am seriously thinking of trying to organize a company to take up the manufacture of different lines of carriages. We would require not less than $100,000 and the more the better, for it would take at least a year to get the business in proper running order, and I am convinced that such an industry would pay not less than twenty per cent. We can compete with any manufacturers in America, and should be able to meet the importation of foreign goods in their own home field."

E. L. RISING. E. L. Rising is in favor of the club, or some such organization, not only for the purpose of retaining our own people and new industries here but also for the purpose of retaining our own natural increase. He felt for a long time that we were simply raising young men and women for the United States, and now we are starting in to here we have the proper inducements for young men of any ambition to remain at home. Yet our merchants are unable to compete with any other city, which fact is proven by the growing business they are doing while our province is probably stationary as regards population. He would be pleased to do all in his power to help in such a movement as is suggested.

JOSEPH R. STONE. J. R. Stone, of the American Express Co., thinks the proposed club a splendid scheme. It ought to be helped along by the people, and should meet with success. DR. WALKER. Dr. Walker thinks that such an organization could be made quite successful if it was taken hold of in the right way. The working of such an organization established in a city like St. John would have to be different from the methods in a place like the west. There they have everything in abundance, but here we have a great deal of work. But if more manufacturers and industries could be brought here there is no doubt that the population of the city would materially increase in a short time.

The Elaine this morning brought down a large supply of meat and vegetables. A consignment of turkeys sold for 10c per lb. wholesale. Among the cargo was the head of a moose shot by Geo. Marthburn, of Hibernia.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—King Haakon, Queen Maud, and Crown Prince Olaf, of Norway, who arrived off Spithead last night on board the British Royal Yacht Victoria and Albert, handed at Portsmouth this afternoon on a state visit to King Edward and Queen Alexandra, with whom they will spend a week at Windsor Castle.

A series of festivities has been arranged for their entertainment. The Prince of Wales welcomed King Haakon and Queen Maud on behalf of King Edward, after which the royal party landed and took a train for Windsor, on arriving there the visitors were met by King Edward, Queen Alexandra and most of the Royal Family. The route from the depot to the Castle was lined by the troops, and the royal travellers received a splendid welcome from the inhabitants of the borough, the baby crown Prince coming in for a full share of popular plaudits.

EYE BLOWN OUT BY A RIFLE BALL

Harold McCluskey Met With a Serious Accident.

He Was Showing a Winchester to Customer When It Was Discharged—Miraculous Escape From Death.

Harold C. McCluskey had a very narrow escape from death in a painful accident this morning in the hardware establishment of Foster, Robertson and Smith. Mr. McCluskey is a clerk, and was showing a rifle to a prospective customer. A cartridge had been placed in the rifle to show the working and in some way the trigger was pressed. The bullet struck Mr. McCluskey's right eye in a glancing direction, tearing the flesh very badly and totally destroying the eye. Dr. Fritz was summoned and after dressing the injured organ, had the unfortunate man conveyed to his home at 885 Main street. It is not known just exactly how the accident occurred, but another clerk in the store thinks that in showing the rifle to the customer Mr. McCluskey placed a shell in it to demonstrate the mechanism of the gun. It is probable that when putting the rifle aside the trigger was in some way caught on the edge of the counter or shelf. Although Mr. McCluskey's injuries are serious it is miraculous that the accident did not end fatally. Had the bullet struck half an inch deeper the results would have been more serious.

PITTSBURG IS TERRORIZED; SERIES OF ALARMING CRIMES

PLEASUED WITH FOOTBALL PLAYED BY NEW RULES

President Eliot Thinks the Game is Now Sufficiently Ladylike to be Played in Harvard

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 12.—Football, under the rules, as demonstrated in the Harvard-Carlisle game at Cambridge Saturday, meets with favorable comment from President Eliot, of Harvard University, in an interview made public today. President Eliot, whose attitude towards the sport last year made it seem probable that football would soon be dropped from Harvard's athletic schedule, attended Saturday's contest and expressed his enjoyment of the game which he said appeared to him "free from unnecessary roughness." Football is considered as under probation at Harvard this year. The committee appointed several months ago is still discussing the subject of athletic sports with special reference to football, but has not yet submitted its report. President Eliot's views as expressed today, it is said, will have some weight with the committee in recommending that football be retained on the crimson's athletic calendar.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—Foreign Minister Pichon, in an interview today regarding the Moroccan situation, declared that the understanding between France and Spain concerning the measures to be taken in Morocco was now complete. He added: "The terms of the Algerian convention will be strictly followed. Nothing has occurred warranting a suspicion that the Berlin Government is disposed to interpose difficulties. The organization of the state bank is proceeding as rapidly as possible."

She will stay until the steamer Roosevelt reaches port. Mrs. Margaret Morrison of this city left on Saturday for Spokane, Wash., to spend the winter with her brother, Conby Morrison, who has been about twenty years from this, his native city.

Murders, Assaults and Robberies Within the Last Few Days Alarm the People—Police Force Strengthened—Woman Was Nailed to the Floor.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 12.—Pittsburg terrorized and likened to a mining camp of frontier town, in the tone of all this morning's papers. With three murders, a number of robberies on the highway accompanied by violence, and an attempt at crucifixion in 24 hours added to the large number of crimes that have occurred during the past two weeks, there has been such a public sentiment that Director of Safety Ridgway last night put on a number of extra police without legal provision for their compensation, trusting to the effect of public clamor upon the select and common councils for favorable action upon this move.

The record for 24 hours besides the murder of Henry P. Smith, a young business man of the fashionable east end, who was shot by burglars who entered the Smith house, is extended by the robbery of Charles R. Lawrence, who was knocked unconscious with a slung shot and robbed of a gold watch and all his money while going home from the Hotel Schenley where he is employed as waiter. Nicholas Lomis, of Sharsburg, a few miles from this city, was also beaten and robbed and did not recover consciousness for several hours. Raymond White, of Duquesne, was found early yesterday night several ribs broken. He said he had been robbed and could give no description of his assailants. The crucifixion case was brought to light by the screams of a woman in a tenement on Forbes street. Neighbors rushed in and found Mrs. Jean Mitchell, 13 years of age, in the kitchen huddled in a kneeling position on the floor with both hands nailed to the draining board of the sink, with the blood running down her arms.

The woman was ethereal when released and she was taken to a hospital. On recovering she said that when she entered her flat early in the morning something struck her on the back of the head and she felt herself drawn toward the sink, her hands pressed against the board and two nails driven in. The police are looking for William Neely, known as "Wm. Mitchell," and the husband of the woman.

The day's series of violent deaths was further augmented by the death of Scelta Randute, an Italian, who was stabbed in a fight among railroad laborers in a boarding house. Three others were badly cut up by athletes and razors. Peter Nasidien, an Italian died in the Allegheny Hospital from a bullet which was fired by Peter Fodora. Fodora is under arrest.

ROMANCE OF LOVE AND WEALTH DEFERRED

Humble School Teacher Awarded Fortune of $200,000 Bequeathed by Lover

Gold Secreted in Out of the Way Places by a Miser Disappears.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—After fifteen long years of litigation, Mlle. Turvova, a humble school teacher, who was left $200,000 by her wealthy fiancé, has won her case in the law courts, but when she went to claim her inheritance, which had been hidden in an old chateau, she discovered that the treasure had been stolen.

Such is the latest chapter of a romance in which cupid and intrigue are strangely interwoven. The story opens thirty years ago, at a time when Mme. Chartre, a sour, miserly old woman, lived in a desolate and mysterious hiding place.

Finally, for greater security, she mined beneath the chateau and in caverns, to which access was gained by trapdoors, and hid away her gold in jars.

Mme. Chartre had one son, Claude, who, when about 20, fell in love with a prepossessing young lady, Mlle. Tuffet, a school teacher.

The affection was reciprocated. Mme. Chartre at first looked favorably on the proposed match, but later withdrew her consent, as Mlle. Tuffet had no fortune. The young people consoled themselves with the reflection that the “maniac of Laval,” as neighbors called Mme. Chartre, was an eccentric and could not live long, but Claude died first, leaving a will bequeathing everything to his fiancée.

When Mme. Chartre discovered this document she took counsel with the parish priest, and, it is alleged, hurriedly; but Sister Juno, who attended Claude on his deathbed, informed Mlle. Tuffet.

Mme. Chartre, when appealed to, denied having the will, and the clergy of the district, it is alleged, hurriedly buried the body, and the will was never produced. Mme. Chartre's death, as reported to have occurred during the fifteen years' legal struggle for possession of the dead man's fortune.

Finally Mlle. Chartre died, and yesterday the Lyons appeal court decided that Mlle. Tuffet was entitled to the $200,000 left her by Claude Chartre.

In the interval, however, she had been happening at the old chateau. On one night $17,400 hidden under the kitchen sink disappeared. Other thefts followed, on one occasion $10,000 being taken, and when an examination of the old woman's hiding places was made, practically the whole of the immense treasure had vanished.

This affair is causing an enormous stir in the district, and sensational developments are expected.

E. TENNYSON SMITH SPEAKS AT CAMPBELLTON

He is Not Using Blank Cartridges in the War on the Liqueur Traffic.

CAMPBELLTON, Nov. 11.—Rev. E. Tennyson Smith arrived here Friday evening, and opened a week's campaign. W. F. Trauman, who was in St. John last week attending the meeting of the Grand Division, says that it is clear that the definite object of the campaign is provincial prohibition. Mr. Smith in replying said that war had been declared on the liquor traffic. He stated that in a war, some one was sure to be hurt, unless blank cartridges were used. Mr. Smith is a very powerful speaker and he easily holds the attention of his hearers.

EMPRESS STEAMERS MAY COME HERE DIRECT

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—It is stated here on pretty good authority that the C. P. R. Empress steamers will go direct to St. John even at the risk of losing its contract with the Allan for carrying its part of the British-Canadian mails. It is said that the C. P. R. steamer in connection with their overseas mail contract with the British government will have to go direct to St. John.

So far the department of trade and commerce has nothing to give out officially on the subject, although it is admitted that the above is likely to be the case.

H. A. Allan, of the Allan line, was here on Saturday in connection with this matter.

BOY REJECTS WEALTH; CLINGS TO MOTHER.

MAN IN DEEP SLEEP OVER TWO YEARS

Subject Looks Like a Wax Figure, and Eats His Meals Regularly.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—A pathetic case is now occupying the courts, in which a consumptive boy had to choose between semi-starvation and probable death with his mother, and luxury and all care with his father.

In 1888 M. Jaquet, the son of a manufacturer, was a student in Paris, where he met and fell in love with a pretty milliner named Mlle. Mallard. After four years of mutual affection, a child was born, a boy, who was immediately, as is allowed in French law, officially recognized by the student as his son.

Then the romance of student life came to an end. M. Jaquet had to leave his companion and enter his father's business. He gave her $500, and agreed to pay $7.50 a month toward the support of his son until he attained his majority, shortly afterwards he got married.

Meanwhile, the little milliner, having to set to and earn her living, put her baby out as nurse. After some months she discovered that the child was afflicted with tuberculosis, having been kept in the same with a dying man in the last stages of consumption.

Mme. Mallard, as she was then known, was a woman of great energy and she brought her baby home, nursed him and denied herself of the barest necessities to provide for the child. She succeeded in bringing him back to health. He grew up passionately fond of his mother, who, by great privation, paid for his education in a school for professional mechanics.

The lad passed his preliminary examination brilliantly, and then the dread malady reasserted itself, and all the mother's strenuous efforts were in vain. The doctors ordered the boy to be taken out into the country, and Mlle. Mallard went with him to her parents' home in Alsace. But her little savings were exhausted, and at last she appealed to the father to increase the allowance. M. Jaquet wrote back that he would not increase the allowance, but would adopt the boy into his own family. The mother then sought the help of the law to compel M. Jaquet to increase the allowance.

The father came to the bar of the court and repeated his offer. “I have a family of my own,” he said, “a wife and three children. My wife has agreed to take the boy and bring him up with our own children. I offer the boy a comfortable home, and I ask the court to order the lad to be given over to my charge.”

To this the mother replied that the boy had never even seen his father, who did not attempt to intervene when the child was ill. “Heaven knows what I have gone through for my son,” she cried to the boy's father, “I have twice nursed him back from death. All you have done is to contribute a small monthly sum. It would be cruel, indeed, to take the lad away from me. All I want is an increased allowance.”

The lad himself—a bright but very thin and consumptive-looking lad of 16—refused to leave his mother. Placing his hand in hers, he said, “I love my mother, and I would rather live in poverty with her than be pampered by my father, for whom I have no affection.”

The court reserved its decision until Wednesday next.

PLAN OF WATER STORAGE ON THE ST. JOHN RIVER

Government Making Arrangements for the Forestry Convention.

The committee of the provincial government, who will be in charge of the coming forestry convention are busily engaged in the preliminary work. Several authorities on the care of forests will be present, and will deliver a number of addresses. This committee will leave in a few days for Augusta, Me., and Washington. While at the former place the committee will arrange to interview the Maine authorities in providing facilities for the storage of a water supply, on the tributaries of the St. John river. These storages would be useful in the dry season and would also ensure the lumber drivers getting in. At present, in the dry season, millions of logs are hung up.

Attorney General Pugsley, speaking of the matter, says that the cost of providing the storage would not be large, compared with the resulting benefits.

GIRL DRUGGED AND HER TEETH EXTRACTED

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—A child of 12, named Frida Wagner, has had a singular adventure, about which all Berlin is speculating. She was visited at her home by a young man, who said she was an opera singer named Von Sassen, and Frida's aunt. She told the police that she had been with her, and wished to have a talk with her. Frida was permitted to leave the school for three hours.

Together, Frida and Fraulein von Sassen drove for a while through the streets, then went to a dentist's, where she was drugged, and two of her front teeth extracted. Von Sassen and the dentist wished to extract three more, but the child, who had come to her senses, grew alarmed, and resisted. Von Sassen and Frida then walked about. Frida was shown beautiful articles of female apparel in the shop windows, and was told that after a while she would wear such clothes and ride in a carriage. Von Sassen promised to train her as an opera singer, and praised the child's voice.

Frida at this point took fright and rushed to a Wagner, has had a singular adventure, about which all Berlin is speculating. She was visited at her home by a young man, who said she was an opera singer named Von Sassen, and Frida's aunt. She told the police that she had been with her, and wished to have a talk with her. BONAPARTE SUGGESTS SOME CHANGES

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.—In an interview published in the News today, Secretary of the Navy Chas. J. Bonaparte suggested the establishment of a legalized “boss” in each political party in each of the states and cities. He “boss” to be empowered to select the candidates for the various elective offices, thereby doing away with nominating conventions. Declaring that he was speaking seriously, Secretary Bonaparte said: “It is hard indeed, very hard, often impossible to get the men who are fit for public offices to become candidates. Somebody had to do a great deal of work in getting the right man for each place and inducing him to run for it. “Now by a legalized boss I mean an individual authorized on behalf of our parties to choose all candidates of that party for elective offices without a designated elimination—fit technically, deliberately, and carefully do the work which is supposed to be done.”

FOUND THE AXE WITH WHICH MURDER WAS COMMITTED

Detective Killen's Search at New Ireland Has at Last Been Successful.

Detective Patrick Killen has made another important discovery in connection with the Collins murder case. He has found the axe which it is believed was used to murder Miss Mary McAuley at New Ireland. The John detective found the long sought for axe in an oak bin in Father McAuley's house. There are several dark marks on it, and they are supposed to be blood-stains. Detective Killen arrived home late night. Owing to the absence of Chief Clark from the city he refused to discuss his find. The axe will remain in possession of Detective Killen at present.

DALHOUSIE CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

Four-Year-Old Paul Savoy Set Fire to His Clothes During Mother's Absence.

DALHOUSIE, N. B., Nov. 10.—The four-year-old son of Paul Savoy, of Dalhousie, met with a horrible death Thursday. His mother went to the nearest store for some groceries and left the three children at home, two babies in a cradle and the boy, a lively chap, was left outdoors with orders to remain there till his mother returned. The little fellow said: “Do not be long away, mamma,” and immediately after her departure he returned to the house, climbed on a chair, and reached for matches. He set fire to his own clothing, and was found in a hopeless condition when the frantic mother returned.

She saved the two babies as fire had not reached the cot, but all that could be done by medical aid could not save the lad, who suffered torture during two hours. His death was the saddest scene ever witnessed in this community.

BACK FROM HUNTING TRIP TO NEWFOUNDLAND

An interesting letter has been received from a correspondent of the Star, who is settled at Solomon River, Alaska. He states that the country there is very mountainous and barren. The winter climate is most severe, and sometimes it is impossible to venture outside of the cabin on account of the bitter cold. In a letter sent by the correspondent, dated March 4, 1906, he states that a blizzard was in progress which prevented the inhabitants going out of doors. The wind was blowing at a rate of 40 miles an hour, and the thermometer registered 25 degrees below zero. Those who live in the vicinity of Solomon River are obliged to travel considerably on skates.

Coal is used for fuel, and it costs $27 per ton. Solomon River is 2,300 miles from Dawson City, and is a delightful place during the summer, but in winter time it is cut off from the larger towns on account of the terrible blizzards and snow storms.

There are valuable mining claims at Solomon River, and the Star's correspondent states in the letter that in some places, paying quantities of gold are found only a few feet from the surface of the ground.

BIQUINCIDAL

“Poor fellow!” He studied the French language for three years. “You don't say?” “Yes, and then he went over to Paris and tried his best to pass as a native Frenchman.”

“Was he successful?” “No, he was tripped up on one word. When he had occasion to write ‘you’ he forgot and wrote ‘Sioux.’”

LONG CHASE OF WIFE HAS A TRAGIC END Run Down by Husband and Detective, She Kills Her Two Children and Herself.

GENEVA, Nov. 10.—A tragic sequel to a divorce case took place at Blankenburg, in the canton of Berne, yesterday. Five months ago a merchant of Casel, Germany, named Schoppwinkler, secured a divorce from his wife, and was awarded the custody of his two children, aged four and five years, respectively. Before he could secure the children, however, the mother fled from Casel, taking them with her. For five months Herr Schoppwinkler and a detective pursued her all over Germany and Switzerland, and at last found her living in apartments at Blankenburg. When Schoppwinkler and the detective, accompanied by a local gendarme, entered her apartments yesterday morning they found Mme. Schoppwinkler and her two children lying in bed, shot through the heart. Lying on the table was a note in which the wife declared that she was "an innocent of the charge against her as her babes." She had killed them, and then committed suicide.

ST. JOHN STAR. ST. JOHN, N. B., NOV. 12, 1906.

SOMETHING WRONG IN HIS FIGURES.

In a letter printed in the Star on Saturday Mr. H. M. Hopper endeavored to defend the past and present policy of the St. John Railway Company in regard to the car service. When writing on the gas question Mr. Hopper attempted to justify the high prices on the ground that St. John people are not sufficiently generous in their offers of money. Obviously there must be some gas. He puts forward the same excuse, that people do not patronize the cars, as a defense of the service now provided. Mr. Hopper, quoting from what may be a government report, but which has not yet been received by many of the offices here, makes some weird calculations. He states in one place that the number of passengers carried per head of population in Halifax, was 86, while in St. John it was only 31. A paragraph later the alarming statement is made that the total number carried by the Halifax line was 3,540, 310, and by the St. John company 2,680,601. Taking these figures as a basis it would thus appear that the population of Halifax is 41,110 while that of St. John has miraculously jumped to 86,471. Then what is sense in talking of a 75,000 club if our population is already so near the 100,000 mark. Obviously there must be some thing radically wrong in these estimates. If the rest of the calculations are equally misleading Mr. Hopper's table of comparisons is of but little value.

But taking a comparison for the present between Halifax and St. John, it can be found that the number of passengers carried per head of population in the Nova Scotian capital is 86 and in St. John it is 31. This is very different from Mr. Hopper's statement. In Halifax there is according to the latest available report, a track mileage of 1213 miles and in St. John 13 miles. Yet the car mileage of the Halifax line totalled 715,470 as against only 629,173 in St. John. For every mile of track in Halifax, the cars travelled 58,983 miles, and in St. John 49,113 miles. This Halifax in point of the number of cars and quickness of service is almost fifty per cent. better than in this city, or in other words where a five minute service is given in St. John there is better than a three minute service in Halifax. The same comparison was taken with Toronto which city Mr. Hopper regards as nearest to the ideal of street railway management. In Toronto the cars are patronized almost four—not eight—times as well as in St. John, and the service according to car mileage is 630 per cent. better. Thus in proportion to the conveniences afforded, Toronto citizens do not use the street cars as often as do the people of St. John. Other cities could be dealt with in the same way, to prove that the patronage extended to the street cars depends to a very large extent on the efficiency of the service provided. Mr. Hopper argues that the development of car traffic cannot be hastened by improved service or by extension of the lines. His own statements prove the contrary. In 1904 the number of passengers carried was 1,396,339 according to the government report, while in 1905 after the service had been slightly improved and new lines added the number was almost doubled, reaching a total of 2,680,601. There was nothing to warrant this increase beyond the building of several short stretches of new road and the running of three or four additional cars. Credit is assumed by the company for the building of new sections of track, and among those named are the Carleton, Fairville, Seaside Park, Douglas avenue, and main line extensions. There is complaint that the three first mentioned are causing a loss. All of these were undertaken on account of popular demand but as speculations on the part of the company. The people wanted a service to Rockwood Park. This was refused and in its place a lot of land at Bay Shore was bought by the company and made into a park. People go there because they do not have to walk, and as a result, Rockwood, which is really worth visiting is practically deserted. The Douglas avenue line and the double track in the south end are both paying well, but they were constructed only after years of agitation. It is not denied that latterly the company have been improving the service, but no particular credit is due for this.

Again Mr. Hopper asserts that the St. John Railway Co. is not an alien corporation but that the principal part of its stock is held by St. John people. A list of the stockholders would be of interest along with the amounts owned by each, for there is a popular fancy that Montreal is strongly represented in the list. The Star will be pleased to publish the names if they are furnished.

Regarding taxation the street railway pays $2,025, which at the present rate represents an assessment on $25,000. This is probably nearly one-half of what should be paid under the present act and about one-quarter of what the assessment commissioners think would be a fair contribution.

An application will be made at the next session of the local legislature by the Grand Falls Power Company for an exclusive franchise, under existing conditions, for the sale of power in St. John. The people of this city should sit right up and take notice of this. There are already too many exclusive franchises lying around these parts.

When the Street Railway people assert that only thirty-one car rides, per head of population are taken in St. John, and that there are only forty-five gas consumers per mile of main pipe, and when it turns out that as a matter of fact sixty-seven car rides are taken per head of population may not seem so doubtful as to the accuracy of the statement concerning the number of gas consumers?

The attention of all persons interested in life insurance is directed to the statement of the Sun Life Company, which appears in another part of this paper. The showing made by this company in the recent investigation is considered as being highly creditable.

THE FLAME BERRY. Yonder it is Bidding us still be merry In spite of cold and the rain! Sit like a beaver under the torch Over each empty porch When sorrowing Summer left her palace. It gallantly Hails welcome still to every passer by, Bidding him enter and fare heartily. Look, where the white frost is, Yonder it glows again—The brave flame berry!

"Come hither!" it cries. "Here will the brave heart tarry. Here will the young heart sing For pure joy of the wine-bright air, Like dawn blown everywhere, And for love of the wide, unbidden skies." And none can stay Hearing the call to listen and to come away Down many a path for many and many a day. And glad are we and wise Who have the summings. Oh, brave flame berry! —Mildred I. McNeal Sweeney in November Lippincott's.

MARY'S TRANSFORMATION. When Frank Weston started out with his Rudder Grange experiences he undertook to keep chickens. One old motherly English hen stuck around at a brood late in the fall, and Stockton gave her a good deal of attention. He named each of the chickens after a literary friend, among the rest Mary Maples Dodge. Mrs. Dodge was visiting the farm some time ago, and happened to think of her namesake, she said: "By the way, Frank, how does little Mary Maples Dodge do?" "The funny thing about little Mary Maples Dodge," said he, "is that she turns out to be Thomas Bailey Aldrich."

WHEN HE WOULD REFORM. "Here, my dear," said the husband, producing a roll of bills; "here is $40 I won playing pool at the 'Brewer's' last night. You may have it to buy that dress you wanted." Reluctantly the conscientious wife took the money, then said, with an expression of rigid rectitude: "I simply shudder at the thought of using money gained in such a way. Henry, promise me that after you have won enough for me to buy that dress go with the dress you will never again touch those awful cards. I don't want my husband to become a gambler."

SCARCITY OF BAIT. A teacher was recently giving her class a lesson on Noah and the Ark, and, after describing how one pair of every living thing was taken on the vessel she asked the children how they supposed Noah and his family would pass the time during the long period of rain. "I know, Miss Mary," said one of the little girls. "They could fish." "They could, could they?" exclaimed one of the small boys, scornfully. "Well, I guess they would have a time fishing with only two worms."

PARDON FOR MAN WHO SHOT AT CZAR Tried to Kill Alexander II of Russia in Paris in the Year 1867.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Antoine Berzowski, a Pole, who was sentenced to penal servitude for life or attempting to assassinate the Czar Alexander II, on June 6, 1867, on the occasion of his majesty's visit to Paris, has been pardoned.

Berzowski, who was eighteen and apprenticed to an engraver, fired into a carriage in which the czar, the Emperor Napoleon and his two sons were driving in the Bois de Boulogne on their way to the exhibition.

The occupants of the carriage were uninjured by the first shot, but one of the equerries and a horse were wounded. Berzowski fired again, and the barrel of the pistol exploded and seriously injured his hand and a woman who was close by.

Berzowski was arrested and with difficulty saved from being lynched by the crowd. It is said that the Emperor Napoleon turned toward the czar and said with a smile: "Sire, we have been under fire together." Alexander replied gravely: "Our destinies are in the hands of Providence."

THE GOVERNMENT, thinking that he had at last expiated his crime, sent him full pardon, but it is now announced that he is a raving lunatic.

HEROISM OF CONVICT SECURES HIS PARDON Scales Wall of House and Disarms Lunatic Who Fires Upon a Crowd.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—An extraordinary act of bravery performed by an escaped convict has resulted in his obtaining what is practically a free pardon. The man is Francois Pivet, who seven years ago, was sentenced to death for murder. The sentence was afterwards commuted to penal servitude for life. Pivet, however, succeeded in escaping, and nothing more was heard of him until a day or two ago, when he reappeared at Nantes under extraordinary circumstances.

A lunatic barricaded himself in his house, and from an upstairs window fired shots from a gun at the people in the street. Several persons were injured, and great excitement prevailed. Suddenly a man sprang forward, and scaling the wall of the house, wrenched the gun out of the madman's hand. The Mayor of Nantes specially commended the stranger for his heroic and coolness and bravery, when suddenly a policeman present recognized him as the man who had escaped from the prison. He was arrested, and yesterday was taken before the tribunal.

The trial was short but sensational. The crowd cheered and applauded Pivet, and clamored for him to be set free.

Instead of being sent back to penal servitude for the crime, he was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, after which he will be free, in consideration of his heroic deed.

THE CIRCULAR STUDY.

The Star's New Series of Short Stories. By Anna Katherine Green.

It is to be hoped that the well-dressed lady of uncertain age who was to be seen late that afternoon in a remote corner of the hotel piazza at Belleville had not chosen a tale requiring great concentration of mind, for her eyes (rather fine ones in their way, showing both keenness and good nature) seemed to find more to interest her in the scene before her than in the pages so industriously turned over.

"I don't think it does me any good," was the young man's gloomy remark, "I watched when with her, and doubly watched when I try to forget myself for a moment out of her sight. I think we had better go back," had he closed his book and took out a newspaper, which he opened to its full width before sitting down to peruse its columns. At the same moment the lad at the other end of the piazza could be seen looking over her spectacles at two gentlemen who had just at that moment issued from the great door opening between her and the elderly person just alluded to. Did she know them, or was it only her curiosity that was aroused? From the way she glanced together her book and rose,

HALL'S CREEK BRIDGE WAS BADLY DAMAGED

Landslide Carries Away One of the Piers—Temporary Bridge Asked For.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 11.—The completion of the new bridge being erected across Hall's Creek at Moncton by McLaughlin Bros., Woodstock, P. E. I., has been seriously delayed and considerable cost added to the structure as the result of a landslide which occurred on the night of the 10th. The landslide carried away one of the piers of the bridge, and the contractor, Mr. J. W. Adams, of the firm, visited the bridge this morning and concluded that nothing could be done to save the pier, and that the bridge must be reconstructed on a new site. The contractor has asked for a temporary bridge to be erected across the creek at this point, and the city council has agreed to grant a loan of $10,000 for this purpose.

DAME FASHION HAS BIG LOAD FOR WOMAN

Members of Smart Set to be Weighed With Heavy Adornments.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A course of physical culture may be necessary for the smart woman this winter if she hopes to endure the extraordinary load that fashion is laying on her from the lobes of her ears to the toes of her feet. Even her picture hat, light as it is, is compared to its size, is so large that it must make itself felt to an extent that no hat should do. The old-fashioned two-button glove is no longer seen on the smart woman's hands. Twenty or twenty-five buttons have doubled the weight of the simple laces on walking shoes have been replaced by ribbons tied in enormous bows.

EXAGGERATION INCREASING. A reporter who visited well-known firms to learn the trend of the fashion for the magnified adornment was met by the information that the demand for exaggeration is likely to increase. "Picture hats are assuming the most extraordinary proportions," a Bond street milliner confessed. "The most noticeable point is the gigantic shapes of the floral trimmings. A cabbage rose in pink velvet is becoming popular near the size of a real cabbage. Bunches of grapes adorn the newest hats, each grape being about double the size of a real grape. Veils are following the fashion in hats. The minute chemise slip is replaced by black velvet pieces of a six-penny piece, and as for hats, I doubt if they can increase in size. Most of the latest patterns are adorned with knobs which would make insignificant doorhandles."

MASSIVE JEWELS. Although the jewelry has thus made enormous profits, these profits have not been made from speculative jewelry. The profits are the result of the jeweler's art. The company was organized in 1904 and has since that time been engaged in the construction and operation of electric street railways in Illinois. The company has a capital of $1,000,000 and has a surplus of $200,000. The company is now engaged in the construction of a new street railway in Chicago, and is also engaged in the operation of several other street railways in Illinois.

RESULTS OF THE INVESTIGATION

The Severe Probing but Revealed Greater Strength—$3,000,000 Better Off Than It Claimed To Be—Investments Absolutely Secure and Highly Profitable—Mr. Kent's Remarks.

Now that the chart of trifling details as blow away, the management of the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada is to draw attention to the very important facts which the investigation by the Royal Commission has brought out. The investigation has shown that the company is in a very strong financial position, and that its investments are absolutely secure and highly profitable. The company has a surplus of $3,000,000, and its assets are valued at $10,000,000. The company is now engaged in the construction of a new street railway in Chicago, and is also engaged in the operation of several other street railways in Illinois.

STOCKHOLDERS

The directors have reduced the proportion of profits accruing to shareholders from 30 per cent. which was the original ratio, and is still usual with British Companies, to only 5 per cent. When the capital was increased in 1905, the new stock was issued at a premium of 10 per cent. and the old stock was sold at a discount of 10 per cent. KING ALFONSO SAID TO HAVE BEEN ASSASSINATED

Persistent Rumor in Circulation in Paris to that Effect Advises to London Contradict the Report—King and Queen Have Been Spending Few Days at Malaga—Police Have Been Active.

King Alfonso

PARIS, Nov. 11.—There is a persistent rumor in circulation here tonight that King Alfonso of Spain has been assassinated upon his arrival in Madrid.

According to the latest reports from Spain, King Alfonso and Queen Victoria have been spending a few days at Malaga, where they arrived on Nov. 11.

They passed through the streets of this place without any untoward incident. On Nov. 4th Alfonso and his bride are reported to have attended mass on board the Spanish cruiser Pelayo. It was the intention of the royal pair to return to Madrid at the expiration of their stay in Malaga.

Princess Ena

According to the Malaga despatch announcing their arrival the local police had been advised, before their majesties were due, that suspected anarchists had suddenly disappeared from Barcelona and consequently the most rigorous precautions were taken for the protection of the King and the houses in the streets through which their majesties were to pass were carefully searched. When the King and Queen arrived at Malaga they met with a cordial reception.

to this report a stout wire had been sent to the high road at a point which his majesty would have to pass on his way back to Madrid in an automobile. The wire was found shortly before the king's automobile was due and was removed.

RUMOR IS DENIED.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Reuters Telegram Company has received a despatch from Madrid saying the report that King Alfonso had been assassinated is without foundation.

A PET DEER KILLED WEALTHY FLOUR MERCANT

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—It was definitely established today at Montclair, N. J., that a pet buck deer killed Herbert Bradley, the wealthy flour exporter, whose body was found last night on his property there. Deputy County Physician Simmons of Orange found that Mr. Bradley's death was due primarily to the deer's ripping open an artery in his hip.

ST. JOHN GROUND DOWN BY MERGILESS BREAD TRUST

St. John being ground down by the oppression of a merciless bread trust? This is the charge that made last night by Rev. A. D. 19 in St. Philip's church. In an inspiring sermon the reverend gentleman declared that the world was getting wicked every day, and cited, as an example, that comparing past days with the world is growing more evil and said, in support of the preacher, divorce and other evil tendencies. He reported we have trusts as an example here in St. John of the age. John I was an example of you had to pay. "When I got bread, overtoned with wheat, and in Halving developed every day, and determined to charge cog for a loaf of bread. If I want a bakery here and sell six cents they would burn me down unless I would come back and raise my price. The 'Bread of the Devil' made me declare that the only remedy for the shocking condition of modern affairs was the influence of Christ, and he'd his hearers constantly ask themselves the question: 'What think ye of Christ?'

SENATOR FORGET ACCUSES ROSS

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 11.—A despatch from Montreal, published Saturday, quoting Senator Forget as saying, "I am satisfied that Mr. Ross is endeavoring to break up the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, but it is a question whether or not he will succeed," was read with much interest here. A group of prominent financial men were discussing it when approached by your correspondent. They had very little information on the subject. One prominent operator on the exchange said there was less coal and steel stock held in Toronto now than formerly, and he did not think the effect of the trouble would be serious. "These Montreal men will get together and settle it, or if they don't they ought to," he said. "A difference of that kind does no one any good and simply wastes capital invested in the property."

SENSATIONAL CASE ENTERED FOR TRIAL

Thomas J. Dunlop of this city has entered an action in the supreme court against Thomas A. Dunlop and James W. Brogan, also of this city, for alienating his wife's affections. The plaintiff has retained H. V. Bailey as counsel, and claims $10,000 damages in each case.

J. B. M. Baxter has been retained by Brogan, and H. A. McKewen is acting for Dunlop. Both defendants deny the charge and are otherwise reticent.

Dunlop is a team fitter by trade and previous to the trouble lived peacefully with his wife and three children on Castle street. The plaintiff and his wife separated in 1901, and since that period he has been with his mother in a house at higher end of an all of Union street and his three children with him. The youngest, a boy, is about 11 years of age and the other is a girl about eight.

The defendants are both medical men. Dunlop who is a general traveler and rides on Elliot's cars has been married a number of years and has quite a large family. The plaintiff and defendant Dunlop have nearly equal income, the one being a doctor and the other a team fitter.

Brogan formerly in the employ of the defendant Dunlop, is a Communist and what is known as the "Tidy" man of the city. He was married a short time ago and has one child. He is a man of some means and has been in the city for some time.

The case is set for trial on Monday next at 10 o'clock.

THE WHOLE CREW OF THE ADEONA WERE DROWNED

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Nov. 10.—A cat still lying but evidently suffering from the pangs of hunger, was all that was found alive aboard the wrecked bark Adeona, by men from here who succeeded in reaching the ship today. The cat was the only human being found on the wrecked bark. The crew of the ship last Monday, who were on the shore, were told that the crew of the wrecked ship had perished in the terrific sea, which swamped their boat when they were on the shore. The cat was found by the Richibucto men who were on the shore. The cat was found by the Richibucto men who were on the shore. The cat was found by the Richibucto men who were on the shore.

SCANTON, Pa., Nov. 11.—Thomas Dougherty, a prominent young man of this city, died in the city hospital here today as the result of being stabbed by an unknown woman last night. His death is one of the most mysterious in the history of the county. Dougherty died of a fatal injury, but intimated that it was a woman and that he was to blame.

The brief statement that he made, Dougherty declared that he was visiting a woman and that she struck him with a knife in the chest. He was taken to the hospital and died there.

PITTSBURG MAN SHOT BY BURGLAR

Son of Wealthy Business Man Killed by Intruder After Horrible Struggle

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 11.—Henry Pirth Smith, 25 years old, son of Joseph Smith, a prominent and wealthy business man of this city, was shot twice and almost instantly killed at 6 o'clock this morning by a burglar whom he surprised in the dining room of his father's residence in the East End section of the city.

The crime following a little more than a week after the murder of James A. McKillen another wealthy business man of this section, has aroused the city and with a number of hold ups by highwaymen during the past fortnight the city officials have been incensed for 100 more policemen to suppress the wave of crime.

That a desperate battle took place between young Smith and the burglar is evident from the disordered condition of the dining room and kitchen of the Smith home. In addition to the two bullets, which were found to have entered Smith's body, five other bullets were found lodged in the floors and walls of the two rooms. Three cartridges of Smith's revolver had been discharged. Hundreds of dollars worth of silver plate had been gathered together by the burglar, who apparently had been in the house some time before being heard by Smith.

DECISION RESERVED IN TELEPHONE MATTER

FREDERICTON, Nov. 11.—In the supreme court yesterday afternoon the case of Barker v. Sprague Falls Mfg. Co. was argued, J. G. Stevens and A. J. Gregory moving for a non-suit or new trial. W. H. Grimmer and L. A. Curry contra. Court considers.

In the equity court yesterday afternoon before Judge Barker the application was heard of the Cumberland Telephone Company for an injunction restraining the amalgamation of the New Brunswick and Central companies. Recorder Skinner, who appeared for the first named company, asked for the injunction chiefly on the grounds that his clients had ten year contract with the Central, and amalgamation would interfere with their rights and privileges. The attorney general and Dr. Stockton, representing the New Brunswick Telephone Company, argued that by the terms of amalgamation all the rights that the Cumberland Company had with the Central were reserved to the former and that the usage of lines would not be interfered with. Dr. MacRae and A. P. Barnhill, representing the Central, pointed out that under the charter the new company would have the right to buy out or amalgamate with any and all companies. The court reserved its decision.

DR. BARRY LECTURES ON CONSUMPTION

The Young Men's Society of St. Peter's on "The Great White Plague"

Dr. Barry lectured yesterday afternoon before the Young Men's Society of St. Peter's on "The Great White Plague." There were about 250 young men present at the lecture, which was greatly appreciated by the membership.

Dr. Barry divided the lecture into three parts—the cause, prevention, and cure of the disease. He went quite deeply into the subject of proper ventilation of houses, churches, theatres and workshops, saying that plenty of fresh air and sunlight were essential to health.

The lecturer said that the sputum should be destroyed, so as to prevent the spread of the bacteria. He was strongly in favor of stringent laws prohibiting expectation on the streets, or in any public place. While speaking on this matter, Dr. Barry expressed the opinion that all cuspidors as now used, should be abolished, and replaced by elevated cuspidors in order that all the sputum should be gathered in the receptacle for that purpose.

He referred to the habit women have of wearing long trailing dresses, which gather up dust and germs, which are afterwards disseminated through the rooms of their houses. The lecturer also strongly advocated that those who have tuberculosis or are at all inclined to be consumptive, should not marry.

In regard to the curing of the disease, Dr. Barry told of the two methods, the sanatorium and home treatment, saying that the essentials in both cases were fresh air and sunlight.

THE DISPUTE OVER KEEWATIN TERRITORY

Premier Watson Scott with Attorney General Lamont of Saskatchewan and Premier Roblin with Attorney General Campbell have reached Ottawa for the conference over the portion of Kewatin adjoining Hudson's Bay.

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Premier Watson Scott with Attorney General Lamont of Saskatchewan and Premier Roblin with Attorney General Campbell have reached Ottawa for the conference over the portion of Kewatin adjoining Hudson's Bay. Premier Watson and Attorney General Roblin, who are to represent Ontario in the conference, are to arrive tomorrow morning.

The section of territory was especially set apart for division when the autonomy bills were going through. Sir Wilfrid at that time said he would like to give all these provinces access to Hudson's Bay and would reserve this territory for future division. Manitoba is claiming practically the whole thing on the ground that it is entitled to an increase of area to carry out the intention of the government of 1881, when the area of Manitoba was increased to 154,000 square miles but was reduced to its present area of 78,734 by the Ontario-Manitoba boundary division of the privy council.

Ontario and Saskatchewan will resist this claim.

GAVE ADDRESS ON TEMPERANCE WORK

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 11.—Miss Mahan of Missouri, who has been attending the convention of the W. C. T. U. here this week, tonight addressed a large audience on the temperance question at the City Opera House. Mrs. Carrie Robinson, president of the local union, presided. Miss Mahan spoke generally on temperance. She claimed that the liquor traffic was the greatest traffic in the world, and that all other monopolies sank into insignificance when compared with it, that voters who sanctioned the legalizing of liquor selling were as bad as the sellers themselves.

DR. GUERIN HAS DECIDED TO RUN

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—Dr. Guerin, who failed to carry the Liberal convention in St. Ann's division of Montreal, and who charged that the convention was packed in behalf of the successful candidate, has decided that he will run. This decision is naturally objected to and the leaders of the party are now endeavoring to get both J. C. Walsh and Guerin to retire and allow Charles E. Devlin to run. It is known that Laurier is very anxious that Devlin should get a seat in parliament, but he is of the opinion that he would stand much show of election in St. Ann's division, which has always demanded a resident Fishman. Guerin always had the support of several hundred employees of the city road department who reside in that division, but he has lost his place on the road committee and no longer possesses their patronage. He cannot show this support even if he was desirous of doing so.
