THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 2, 1901.

THE TELEGRAPH SPEAKS AT LAST.

As this journal predicted, the valued Telegraph has at last found it necessary to make an explanation concerning the notorious Rothersey list, which was mailed in the name of the Telegraph manager.

In the first place the Telegraph promises to denounce the perpetrators of the wrong when "wrong doing shall be proved," and proceeds:

But it is a rule of British justice to consider a man innocent, until he is proved guilty, and certainly no facts have yet been adduced to show that any names were unlawfully added to this list by the revisors of the parish of Rothersey.

It is kind of the Telegraph to invite the supreme court to punish the Globe, the Sun and all the other papers for mentioning the subject after an application has been made to the court for a writ looking towards a correction of the lists.

The public will be pleased to see that the Telegraph has at last concluded to make a statement concerning Mr. Milligan's relation to the matter.

Neither the Telegraph, its manager or anyone connected with the paper has any knowledge whatever of the facts in connection with the making up of this Rothersey non-resident list.

Why, indeed, should the name of Mr. Milligan be dragged into the controversy? Simply because an alleged electoral list, stuffed with four hundred names, added after the revisors had completed the authorized list, was substituted for the proper document, and because this stuffed list was registered in the name of Mr. C. J. Milligan. It was not the Sun nor the Globe, nor the Kings county council, but the person who used Mr. Milligan's name who dragged him into the controversy.

Instead of suggesting all sorts of mean motives for the exposure of the offence, the Telegraph and its manager might expend a small part of their indignation on the authors of the crime, the more so if they have carried on their operations in Mr. Milligan's private quarters and shielded themselves under the cover of his name.

The last extract quoted deserves the attention of Mr. Gilbert of Rothersey. It is there claimed that the mailing of the list is of no importance, and that the identified signatures of all the revisors, and is addressed in the handwriting of one of them.

The proposition made to New Brunswick and Nova Scotia by the United Empire Loyalist League of Ontario is deserving of sympathetic attention. It is proposed to publish in substantial form the record of the royal commission which inquired into the claims of the loyalists at the close of the war of the revolution.

The situation in Kings is rather complicated. Both parties have their candidates in the field, and it is impossible to see how the bogus non-resident voters' list in the Kings can be kept secret.

Down in New Brunswick the liberal machine has stuffed the voters' lists with five hundred names that ought not to be there, and the fraud has been discovered to the scandal of all decent people in the province.

The voters' list of Kings county, N. B., has been declared invalid by the attorney general's advice. The gentlemen who undertook to look after it for the liberal party did too much, and stuffed it to an extent that compelled attention.

There has been some nasty work somewhere, and the public of this province will look for an investigation leading to the swift punishment of the offenders. It would seem that all the extra names added to the list are those of the liberal party.

and preparing fertilizers. This seems to be a large estimate, if it is intended that the whole, or the greater part, of their time is to be paid for out of fruit sales. If a million dollars were divided among the 8,000 men mentioned by Mr. Bigelow, it would give them only $125 each, or say forty cents per day.

THE LAW AND THE PEOPLE.

The case of Mrs. Nation versus the Kansas saloon keepers has provoked much comment and no little merriment. But the affair has a serious side. Mrs. Nation is able to show that she is not the original breaker of the peace.

It seems then that as late as Tuesday morning the governor general and the ministers were together working out the details of a national memorial service. Later in the day the government made some startling discovery which caused a complete and sudden change of programme.

Mr. Pugsley contended further that the evidence of special circumstances to hold the trial outside the electoral district was not before the court, and asked leave to submit affidavits in support of his contention.

One of the witnesses, named McGarry, swore that McKinnon personally promised him and his son work on the railway. McKinnon himself was on the stand when the court adjourned at six o'clock.

During the course of his examination it was brought out that he voted on property acquired within six months of the date of the writ, and on property bought by him and re-sold before election.

The afternoon session was confined to evidence of treating, and closed at five o'clock by the examination of the brother of a lighthouse keeper, who swore that he was told by an alleged agent of respondent that unless he would drive electors for McKinnon on election day his brother would lose his job.

The by-election in the first district of Prince was held today. A good vote was polled. The returns indicate the election of Hon. Mr. Rogers by about ninety votes. Rogers' majority in the general election was 130.

DROWNED AT DIGBY.

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 29.—Reginald Reynolds, six years old, counted into some pond at Digby today and was drowned. Five years ago two brothers, aged seven and three years, were drowned in the same pond.

PARKS' COTTON MILLS.

Full Details as to the Standing of the Company Presented at Yesterday's Meeting.

Assets More Than Double the Liabilities—One Hundred and Sixty-Five Thousand Dollars Would Put the Company on a Strong and Safe Basis.

A consultation meeting of those interested in the affairs of the Wm. Parks & Son, Ltd., was held yesterday afternoon at the Parks head office, Wall street.

The following report was presented to the Stockholders of Wm. Parks & Son, Ltd.:

Table with columns for LIABILITIES and ASSETS. Liabilities include Due Messrs. Jones & Turnbull, Due to Bank of New Brunswick, Advances secured by stock, Bills payable and open accounts, Taxes and water assessment. Assets include Land, building and machinery, Stock in process and supplies.

The cause of our present difficulty is that we were unable to secure our supply of cotton in the summer of 1899, when it was at a low price.

If we had been able to buy a sufficient supply of cotton when we had decided that it was judicious to have done so our profits in the past year and a half would have been $100,000 more than they have been and our financial position would have been good.

We understand the other cotton mills in Canada bought a large supply of cotton at that time, and have made large profits since, while we have had to compete with them, paying from 2-1/2 cents to 5 cents per pound more for our cotton.

Our mortgage to Messrs. Jones & Turnbull was placed in January, 1898, for $200,000, at seven per cent interest, with a bonus of $11,764.70.

We paid off $40,000 of the principal and the bonus during the first twelve months. We paid off $80,000 in the second and third years, reducing the loan to $130,000.

The interest has been paid up regularly each quarter and is not now overdue.

This amount of $200,000 was not sufficient to pay all our indebtedness and left us short of working capital, and having to pay back so much of the loan in the first three years has left us with a very insufficient capital to work the mills to advantage.

Messrs. Jones & Turnbull have given us notice that they wish to have this mortgage paid off, and have commenced foreclosure proceedings.

Owing to these proceedings the Bank of New Brunswick has declined to advance us any more money with which to run the mills.

Our business is in a healthy state so far as the quality of our goods and our transactions with our customers are concerned.

Our customers are the best wholesale houses in Canada. They are satisfied with our goods and place their orders with us freely.

Our sales during the first six months of the past year were fifty thousand dollars more than in previous years. We made no losses by bad debts during the past twelve months.

In view of having something definite to put before this meeting, we have obtained from Messrs. Jones & Turnbull an option upon their mortgage, which provides for their accepting a new mortgage upon the property for $100,000, at 7 per cent for five years.

To reduce the present mortgage to this amount and provide for the other liabilities and working capital we require the following amounts:

Table with columns for LIABILITIES and ASSETS. Liabilities include Due Messrs. Jones & Turnbull, Due to Bank of N. B., Pay taxes, Pay unsecured creditors, Working capital. Assets include Land, building and machinery, Stock in process and supplies.

Respectfully submitted, By order of the directors, (Signed) JOHN H. PARKS, President.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

FREDERICTON, Jan. 23.—The Hillary term of the supreme court opened this morning and was a very impressive event. The court room was deeply and tastefully draped. All the members of the court were present and there was an unusually large attendance of barristers, all in court costume. The term was opened by the usual proclamation by the clerk, except that the word "King" was substituted for "Queen" and the clerk's proclamation calling upon the sheriff of the different counties to return the several writs, precepts, etc., directed to them in order that King's justices may proceed thereon.

The chief justice then stated that he desired that the oath of allegiance to King Edward VII. be administered to him, and after the clerk read the governor general's proclamation this was done by Judge Hanington. The chief justice then in turn administered the oath to Justices Hanington, Landry, Barker, McLeod and Gregory and to T. Carleton Allen, clerk of the court. The oath was administered by the chief justice to the sheriff of the county of York, keeper of the King's prison; to Judge Wilson, judge of the York county court, and to the following barristers: J. D. Palmer, J. H. Barry, J. Howe Dixon, G. H. St. George, W. Allen, John A. Marsh, E. B. Winstow, H. B. Rainford, Havelock Coy, A. J. Gregory, F. St. John Bilas, C. E. A. Simonds, R. S. Crockett, Ernest McKay, A. E. Sillip, Peter Hughes and H. F. Ashwood, the first named being King's counsel, and then to the clerk, John Gill.

The chief justice then delivered an address, which all those who heard it agreed was one of the most eloquent and impressive speeches that has ever been heard in Fredericton. His honor paid a just tribute to the excellence of the Queen, and spoke of the love and affection felt for her by the people of New Brunswick, as well as the rest of the Empire.

J. D. Phinney, K. C., spoke for the bar. In concluding his speech he said: "While mourning the departed sovereign, we join with the bench in proclaiming our cheerful allegiance to the new sovereign and our loyal and hearty wishes for long life and prosperity to King Edward VII."

Judges and barristers added "God Save the King," whereupon Judge Wilson started the national anthem, which was heartily joined in by all present.

The court then adjourned till next Tuesday morning, when the chief justice announced, the docket would be taken up immediately after the hearing of common pleas. All barristers were requested to appear in mourning costume with badge of court on sleeve.

ST. ANDREW'S, N. B., Jan. 23.—All Saints, the Kirk and Methodist churches were draped with black at the services yesterday, and will so continue until the funeral of our late Most Gracious Majesty. Bedding and appropriate reference was made by the preachers who occupied the pulpits in all the churches to the sad event, which overshadows the public mind to the exclusion almost of every other thought.

A meeting of the citizens of the town, at the call of Municipal Councillors Armstrong and Wren, is to be held this evening, to prepare a programme for Saturday next in connection with the Queen's funeral. The black mourning and crane used in trimming the churches in town was loaned for the occasion by the Messrs. Odell Bros.

MONCTON, N. B., Jan. 23.—The city blue book, issued today, contains some interesting statements. Mayor Sumner in his review of the financial situation, says there is an overdraft at the bank of $1,748.68, and outstanding amounts unpaid being the total up to $3,754.58, against which the city has outstanding taxes good for $3,800 and bad and doubtful, $1,400, besides a city bond for $1,900 redired during the year. The most interesting of these reports is that of the water and light department, the chairman of which, A. L. Reid, says extensive deficiencies have been discovered dating back to 1895 and amounting to over $12,000, of which $10,000 has been paid in to the city by the late accountant. The overdraft at the Bank of Montreal at the beginning of the year was found to be $14,757.25 instead of $9,757.25, as given in the report of A. G. Grant, chairman of the committee last year, and has been reduced during the year $13,855. The special auditor, D. Carmichael of St. John, found that the amount due by consumers last year was $3,118.25 instead of $15,710.43, as given in last year's report. Four bonds of $200 sterling at a 1-2 premium ($3,933.33) were retired during the year, and the net earnings after providing for interest and all operating expenses, amounted to $3,366.40. This result was attained notwithstanding a large expense incurred in wiring buildings for electric light, which city does free as an inducement to its use. During the present year, under the system of annual drawings under which the water and light boards were sold, $1,000 sterling will mature and the committee do not anticipate any difficulty in paying this amount without increasing the bank overdraft. The capital account of the department shows an excess of assets over liabilities amounting to $7,733.82.

MONCTON, Jan. 30.—Another old resident of Moncton passed away this morning in the person of Obadiah Ayer, in his 89th year. Mr. Ayer was a native of Sackville, but had resided in Moncton for the last 38 years, and was a familiar figure on our streets up to a few days ago. He was for many years an active worker in the First Baptist church, but of late the infirmities of age prevented him from taking much part in affairs. He leaves a widow and two sons, H. H. and E. B. Ayer. He was a near personal friend of the late William J. Lewis, who passed away a few days ago at about the same age.

Intelligence was received here yesterday of the death of Alexander Russell, formerly of Moncton, but latterly of Nelson, British Columbia, where he was engaged in building. Death resulted in injuries from a fall. Deceased was about 30 years of age and leaves a widow in Moncton.

SALISBURY, Jan. 23.—Touching references to Her Majesty's death were made in our churches on Sunday. On Saturday Court Salisbury, J. O. P. through their recording secretary, Judson B. Foster, forwarded to Mrs. Maggie Bulmer at Aulac, N. B., the amount of insurance carried by her husband, the late C. S. Bulmer. Arthur Bulmer, who recently returned from New Mexico with the remains of his brother, is now in Salisbury looking after the business in connection with his late brother's estate.

The Methodist people of the village some little time ago organized an Epworth league in connection with the church. The work on the new Baptist church is progressing favorably. John Robb finished the plastering last week. Lumber operations continue brisk in this locality. A. L. Wright & Co. have twenty teams usually directed to their mill, although their main operations are up the streams. John A. Henry, school teacher, son of Andrew A. Henry of Scott Road, left for Boston on Friday to undergo treatment for a lame knee. A number of good horses are owned in this vicinity, among which might be mentioned a string of three or four owned by A. E. Trites, Councillor Carter's mare, Geo. Wilmont's pacer, J. B. Parker's trotter, a speedy horse owned by John Kennedy, Charles T. Chapman's "Wild Henry," Henry Steeves' pacer, a trotter owned by Moses Minton, two or three speedy animals owned by the A. L. Wright Co. and R. E. Mitton's "Sans Peur," to say nothing of a long string of others, with more or less speed.

LITTLETON, Jan. 23.—The union memorial service held yesterday afternoon in the Congregational church was a most interesting occasion. Rev. T. D. McLean, pastor, presided. On the platform were Revs. G. C. McCully, W. J. Kirby, F. W. Murray, T. D. McLean, G. W. Ganong, M. F. and F. C. Murchie, mayor of Milltown. Mrs. Muir sang a very sweet and appropriate solo. The addresses were all excellent and the various phases of the solemn subject grandly dealt with.

G. W. Ganong, M. P., dealt with the theme: The Queen as a Ruler. E. H. Balkam with the Queen and the People; Rev. G. C. McCully with the Queen a Blessing to the Nations, representing America on the platform; and Rev. W. J. Kirby with the Queen a Christian. The choir of the city churches all united and the favorite hymn of our present King, "Nearer My God to Thee," and "God Save the King," were sung with much power and expression. The entire service will long be remembered by those present, who filled this beautiful sanctuary, and the clergymen of the city who arranged the programme are to be congratulated on its success.

The pulpits and platforms of the churches were draped with black and white, and some added the likeness of the Queen and the royal purple. Each clergyman made the occasion one for special dealing in the pupil yesterday.

Christie Selzer, brother of Rev. E. A. Selzer, arrived here from P. E. I. last Friday and began work in the weave room of the cotton mill today.

There will be a memorial service held in the Methodist church on Saturday evening next at 8.30, in keeping with the national day of mourning.

A very sad thing occurred last week in Milltown, Me., when a widow and her only daughter were living alone, the daughter dying from consumption. Her death was expected every day. The child is still living, but cannot continue much longer.

B. Dixon.
