for his untoldness in giving passes the game would no doubt have had a different ending.
The outfield play of both teams was again of high order, Roush making a magnificent, running catch of a straight line drive by Felsch, taking the ball against the fence. Had this hit got away it meant an extra pair of runs for the White Sox. This was one of at least a half dozen breaks against Glasgow's men.
Redland is tonight wildly jubilant over the second win of the home team and the fans are now offering all kinds of money on the Reds winning the series. There may be a repetition of the 1914 baseball classic when the Boston Braves beat the famous Athletics, a combination which Glasgow has still several tricks to put over, which may or may not change the complexion of things before the games in Chicago, scheduled for the next three days, are over.
Cincinnati has developed in the brief period of the series so far a habit of outplaying the home team. There is nothing patriotic about it, for it is nothing but a matter of fact.

The Vote, in U. S. Upper House, Was Accepted as a Test of the Senate's Attitude Toward Thirty Other Amendments.

Washington, D. C., October 2.—Taking its first action on committee changes in the peace treaty, the senate today rejected an amendment by Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, to eliminate the United States from membership on the committee to determine the boundary between Germany and Belgium.
The vote, generally was accepted as a test of the senate's attitude toward more than thirty other committee amendments of similar nature, was 58 to 30.

BIG BOMBER WILL HOP OFF SUNDAY FOR LONG TRIP

Will Leave Parrboro Early in the Day and Will Circle Over St. John.

Parrboro, N. S., Oct. 2.—The Handley-Pace bomber "Atlantic" made a successful trial flight this evening. The big plane took the air shortly after six o'clock and circled the town. She made a splendid landing.
Vice-Admiral Mark Kerr, in charge of the plane, and party, said that everything was satisfactory and that he planned to "hop off" from Parrboro on Sunday morning for New York.

COMPLETE RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY BY FRANCE EXPECTED SOON

The Chamber of Deputies Ratified the Document Yesterday, and the Debate in the Senate is Expected to be Very Short, Results Being Known in Four Days.

Paris, Oct. 2.—Complete ratification of the Versailles Peace Treaty with Germany by both Houses of the French parliament is expected very shortly, possibly within four days. Following ratification by the Chamber of Deputies, the Senate will immediately take up the discussion. The Peace Committee of that body has already completed its study of the document. The debate in the Senate is expected in parliamentary circles to be quite short, possibly not exceeding four days.
The last day's discussion of the treaty in the Chamber was without incident or even interest. Sixteen speakers occupied two hours in giving reason for the votes they were about to cast. Those reasons interested the speakers far more than they did the house, which paid attention to the debate. The majority of the speakers in the Chamber were of the same opinion.

BELGIAN ROYAL FAMILY ARRIVES SAFELY IN U. S.

New York, Oct. 2.—King Albert of the Belgians, Queen Elisabeth and Prince Leopold received a noisy welcome to New York when aroused at dawn by the firing of salutes and the blowing of whistles as the transport George Washington steamed out the outer harbor fortifications.
The George Washington arrived off the Fire Island Lightship two o'clock yesterday. She anchored at sunset three miles east of the Ambrose Lightship. A flotilla of twelve destroyers escorted the George Washington through the Narrows and up the bay to the pier at Hoboken. Several other munition boats and yachts proceeded to Quarantine to greet the vessel but did not form part of the official fleet.
It was arranged for King Albert to leave the vessel at the upper level of the Hoboken pier and proceed to the reception room between lines of soldiers at present arms, and along a hall decorated with the flags of Belgium, the United States, Great Britain and the other Allies in the war. Upon a canopy of flags in the main reception room, the programme called for the formal address of welcome by the Vice-president of the United States and King Albert's reply to the greeting of the American nation. Others in the official welcoming party at the pier were Secretary of State Lansing, Secretary of War Baker, and General March, chief of staff of the army.
The official greeting of the city takes place tomorrow.

NATIONAL BEFORE PARTY SERVICE CONSTITUTED THE KEYNOTE OF UNIONIST CAUCUS

Yesterday's Caucus Was, in Point of Attendance, Enthusiasm and Unity of Purpose a Remarkable Gathering—No Definite Decision Regarding Formation of Permanent Party—Programme of Cardinal Principles as Announced by Prime Minister.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 2.—National before party service and the disregard of political shibboleths and formulas of after-war reconstruction, constituting the keynote of the Unionist caucus yesterday. Presided over by Mr. Hume Cronyn, a nephew of Edward Blake, and addressed at length by the Prime Minister and a number of his Ministers, the caucus was, in point of attendance, enthusiasm and unity of purpose, a remarkable gathering, and, in the results that are bound to accrue from it, will likely become his following are its cardinal principles:
(1) Imperial—The maintenance of British connection upon the basis of equal partnership with the mother country within the Empire. The question of Empire relation to be taken up at the Imperial Conference which is expected to meet early next year, and the autonomy of the Dominion and the supremacy of its Parliament on all questions, including that of war, to be safeguarded.
(2) Economic—Revision of the tariff on a scientific basis and upon the principle that customs duties shall be levied with due regard for the interests of the consumer. Maintenance of direct taxation, but not upon a scale so severe as to place Canada in a disadvantageous position in industrial competition with the United States.
(3) Trade—Extension of foreign trade by encouragement of ocean and railway transportation, and by the development of inland waterways and of harbor and shipping facilities.
(4) Labor—Labor legislation based upon the principles incorporated into the Labor classes of the Peace Treaty.
(5) Defence—A standing army of sufficient size only to meet domestic requirements. In future wars of the mother country Canada to be consulted as an essential preliminary to aid being expected.
The Prime Minister put these proposals before the caucus for consideration between now and the next session of the House. When the next session is called, members and senators are expected to meet in another caucus and discuss the proposals. The proposals are desirable policies, it will mean that the Unionist group, which was gathered for war, will remain shoulder to shoulder for the problems of peace. In brief, it will mean a permanent Unionist party, that the old Conservative party will disappear and that the present coalition, following the example of the British Tories and Birmingham Radicals, after the Home Rule split in the eighties, will be welded together under a new political banner.
The Prime Minister's health is not much improved. Acting upon the advice of his physicians, he leaves today for Hot Springs, Virginia, and it is expected that he will be absent for at least two months.

SIR EDWARD KEMP AS LIEUT.-GOV. OF ONTARIO

Consensus of View is That He Will be Named to Succeed Sir John Hendrie, Whose Term Expires This Month.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—Sir Edward Kemp continues to be mentioned as the probable appointee as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, a position which becomes vacant this month by the expiration of Sir John Hendrie's term of office.
"A lot of people have been talking that way, but I am pretty sure I would turn down the position if it were offered me," remarked Sir Edward today.
Despite this statement, the consensus of view here is that Sir Edward will be the man. The overseas ministry, his cabinet portfolio, is now being wound up.

WOODSTOCK AFTER PROV. EXHIBITION FOR NEXT SEASON

Strong Delegation Waits on Government and Present the Claims of Their Town for the Big Event—Promised Consideration.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Oct. 2.—The large delegation who came here from Woodstock today to put forward the claims of the St. John Valley Fair at Woodstock for the provincial exhibition for 1920, and that they be given the provincial exhibition grant were promised, the premier said, that their requests would have consideration, but that there were others, particularly St. John, which has not had an exhibition since before the war, which must be considered. Twenty-five of Woodstock's most prominent business men came here in half a dozen automobiles this morning to place before the provincial government their formal request. Early this afternoon the delegation met the government at the executive council chamber, where they were introduced by Hon. W. P. Jones, the president, E. W. Matr, chairman of the finance committee, J. Rankin Brown, the treasurer, and J. S. Leighton, the secretary, who dealt with various phases of the subject.
The visit of the delegation followed intimations which were made when Woodstock's ideal new exhibition plant was opened last month with the holding of the first St. John Valley fair.
Financial statements, presented to the government by the delegation, showed that upon the plant the Woodstock Agricultural Society have expended $50,000, although their original estimate was $22,000, and the assistance granted by the provincial government was on the basis of 25 per cent, on an expenditure up to $40,000, which made $10,000, the maximum amount of assistance they could thus receive. It was also shown that they about broke even on holding their show this year, while they plan on building an agricultural hall and a machinery hall, which will bring their expenditure for plant up to not less than $70,000.
The delegation declared that Woodstock had what was generally declared to be the most up to date exhibition plant in Eastern Canada, and they thought they were thus entitled to the honor of having their show defenestated as the provincial exhibition in 1920. They returned to Woodstock by motor this afternoon well satisfied with the outlook.

GOVT APPROVES GRANT OF $25,000 TO AID OROMOCTO

Relief Committee Says the Pressing Need Now is Money to Help the Stricken Populace.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Oct. 2.—A delegation from the Oromocto Relief Committee appeared before the government, headed by R. B. Smith, M. L. A., the chairman, and placed before the executive the conditions at the stricken village, giving a comprehensive idea of the assistance which was necessary, immediately, declaring that financial aid was one of the pressing requirements.
To enable the committee to get to work at once, it was decided to grant $25,000, and arrangements were made whereby the order-in-council was signed immediately, and approved by the Lieutenant-Governor, so that the money will be placed in the Relief Committee's hands tomorrow morning.
The manifesto in announcing the government's decision. At the same time the Premier expressed the hope that the people of the province generally would come forward with generous personal donations to the relief funds, which the Oromocto committee hope to have opened very soon in all the various cities and towns of the province through the mayors.

SENATOR REED EGGED FROM STAGE

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 1.—United States Senator James A. Reed was egged from the stage at Convention Hall tonight as he was being introduced by the mayor in preparation for his speech against the treaty and the league of nations.
As Senator Reed came on the stage all light wires to the building were cut. Pandemonium broke loose and cries of derision howled him down, while the audience surged up on the floor. Reed attempted to hold the stage for a few minutes, but was forced to make his exit without beginning his speech.
After several minutes of demonstration, a number of women climbed upon the stage and quieted the crowd.
Reed could not be seen at his hotel tonight, but it is announced that he would make no attempt to deliver his address.

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS ADDRESS MANIFESTO TO COUNTRY CONDEMNING THE WAR

Claim it Has Left Behind a Threatening Sign of Professional Militarism, and That Far from Serving Liberty, War is Death to All Liberties.

Rome, Wednesday, Oct. 2.—(By The Associated Press)—The socialist deputies, in the parliament which has been dissolved, have addressed a manifesto to the country, strongly condemning the war, which "has left behind it a threatening sign of professional militarism."
The manifesto continues: "Far from serving liberty, war is death to all liberties."
The manifesto declares that the Nitti cabinet, having tried for inexorable financial reasons to demobilize, was confronted with military solution. It describes the internal situation as terrible, and says that the reactionaries may try to bring about a coup d'Etat. It hopes, however, that the workers in their soldier uniforms will prevent this.
In conclusion, the manifesto urges the workers to rise and crush down the war on humanity and demand a peace based upon liberty, justice and socialism.

THE MARITIME IN WRECK NEAR PENOBSCQUIS

Special to The Standard.
Penobscot, Oct. 2.—The Maritime Express met with an accident here today, which, luckily, did not result in injury to passengers or crew. The accident happened a short distance west of this place at 10 a. m. The accident is said to have been caused by a broken flange on one of the wheels of the tender. The tender left the rails dragging four of the five passenger coaches with it. They tore along some distance, ripping up the road bed. Had the accident happened 300 yards west of the spot where it occurred the coaches would surely have gone over an embankment.
A special train was made up at Moncton to transfer the passengers to their destination. A wrecking crew was immediately dispatched to the scene to repair the damage and clear the wreckage.

CONFERENCE AT DOWNING HOUSE HAVE SO FAR FAILED TO PRODUCE SATISFACTORY RESULTS.

London, Oct. 2.—The authorities have decided that parliament will not be called together in connection with the industrial situation. A demand to this effect was telephoned to Prime Minister Lloyd George by William Adamson, chairman of the Labor party and leader of the opposition in the House of Commons yesterday, but the government has determined to abide by the original date of meeting—October 22.

PARLIAMENT NOT TO BE ASSEMBLED

Prime Minister Says Life of Community is Not to be Attacked by Extremists of Any Industrial Faction.

London, Oct. 2.—Every motion picture theatre tonight will exhibit the following message from Prime Minister Lloyd George:
"The government is not fighting trades unions, which are a recognized factor of the industrial life of the country. The government is fighting to prevent extremists of any industrial faction from gaining their ends by attacking the life of the community and so bringing untold misery upon thousands of innocent people."
Heed Sir Eric.
Sir Eric Geddes met a very hostile reception when proceeding from the ministry of transport to the conference in Downing street this afternoon. Great crowds of strikers lined the whole length of Whitehall. The police cleared a passage for the minister through the crowds.
At 6:15 p. m. Lloyd George, Sir Eric Geddes, Winston Churchill, minister of war, and Sir Robert Horne, minister of labor, were still in conference at the Downing street residence of the Prime Minister. No intimation had been received there that the labor department was making for another interview.
The deputation of transport workers, which met Lloyd George yesterday, conferred with the executive board of the National Union of Railwaymen this forenoon, discussing plans for the further negotiations. Harry Gosling, one of the transport workers' leaders, declared that he was perfectly satisfied with the negotiations so far as they had gone.
After the afternoon conference of the transport workers, an adjournment was taken until three o'clock tomorrow afternoon, indicating that there will be no further extension of the strike tonight. The transport workers' representatives then entered upon another consultation with the executive board of the National Union of Railwaymen.
Says Railwaymen Will Accept a Liverpool, Oct. 2.—A private telegram, received in Liverpool this afternoon by a well known labor leader, says the Express declares the railwaymen have agreed to accept the suggestion that they return to work pending the re-opening of negotiations over their demands.

GENERAL ALLENBY PROVED OFFICER SUPREME

Montreal Bar Association Hears the Story of the Great General's Work.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Que., Sept. 30.—Spotlights on the year in Palestine and the capture of Jerusalem by General Allenby were given here tonight by Col. Jeffrey Lawrence, soldier-lawyer and secretary to Lord Feroz, former lord chamberlain of England, who is now visiting Canada. Speaking before the Junior Bar Association tonight, Col. Lawrence paid tribute to the victor of the Turks declaring that General Allenby's claim to fame would be not only his great advance upon and capture of Jerusalem, but also the great courage he showed in sending so many troops to France when he could fit spare them in the spring of 1918 in order that the fifth army at Amiens should receive reinforcements. "It behooved a great soldier," Col. Lawrence said, "who could see that there was another front more important than that in which he was engaged. The result of his transferring troops was that his own army had to be placed on an Indian basis."

Describing the capture of Jerusalem, the speaker said the Turks were utterly unprepared for the attack. It was an attack in which every arm of the service was well used. It was not the easy victory, however, as might now appear, but General Allenby was optimistic and by addressing his brigades and division commanders in advance he inspired his troops. He told them he was going to attack and capture the whole Turkish army and also the German commander, and the latter was the only respect in which he failed, as the German officer escaped to the hills. How completely surprised the Turks were was shown by the fact that leave trains carrying miles behind the lines were surrounded and officers and men sleeping out to greet their friends found themselves prisoners, while others forty miles in the rear found the British airman ready to receive them. The retreating Turks were caught in narrow gorges and were annihilated by airplanes. As to alleged atrocities, Col. Lawrence said he saw prisoners in the last stage of exhaustion for whom it was impossible to do anything except to drive them down, as they had been without food and water, and when they saw water they threw themselves into it.

SHOPLIFTERS GET BIG RETURNS IN MONTREAL

Estimated That Business Places of City Lose $300,000 Annually by the Lifting Habits of Women.

Montreal, Sept. 29.—That shoplifters take a yearly toll of $300,000 from the big stores of the city, is the estimate of the manager of the Merchants Association of Montreal. His estimates on the question of shoplifting in the big stores here were gleaned in the course of investigations made during the past year. That "Mrs. Shoplifter" was making an inroad upon the stores of the city of $300,000 annually, he explained, had been concluded on the basis of the experience of one particular store from which an average had been taken. Three figures apply only to actual shoplifting in stores, not including thefts by dishonest employees and goods stolen from delivery vans. They are also based on losses definitely known to have resulted from this cause. In the case of the store taken as an example, $20,000 was known to have been lost through shoplifters, but the store is obliged to put by a charge of $50,000 annually to cover the item, "shoplifting." He therefore pointed out that his estimate of $300,000 was a very conservative one for ten of the larger stores of Montreal. He explained his terms, "Mrs. Shoplifter," by stating that fully ninety per cent. of shoplifters are women. He noted that in very few cases dealt with, the shoplifter had the incentive of poverty for her crime. Practically all shoplifters who have been arrested have been found to live in circumstances which showed they did not actually need the articles they had stolen, but few of them make a practice of selling the stolen goods. However, which have been searched following an arrest have been found to contain large quantities of merchandise which had been misappropriated in this way, much of which was useless to the thief, who, however, apparently had made no attempt to sell it.

One detective alone, who deals mainly with such cases, was shown to have apprehended over eight hundred shoplifters during the past year. Contrary to the theories of some, no such thing exists as organized gangs of shoplifters. The largest groups engaged in this form of thievery were found to be families in which the father, mother and children make a practice of going out on foraging expeditions to the counters of the big stores. This feature makes the crime particularly difficult to fight, as, if there were no organizations of shoplifters, the news of the many convictions would rapidly spread and have a deterrent effect on the others. On definitely known figures it is estimated that there are 5,000 shoplifters in Montreal. The individuals and small family groups of this number work independently and under the impression that their profession is much smaller numerically than it really is. The individual shoplifter does not last long, one season being usually enough to show that it did not pay, but there never seems to be any decrease in the number of shoplifters.

HOME OWNING WILL CHECK RADICALISM, BANKERS ARE TOLD

Raymond R. Frazier Urges Loans to House Builders to End Spread of Bolshevism.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 3.—Bankers and financiers can speedily check the spread of radicalism in the United States by making loans to home builders, Raymond R. Frazier, of Seattle, Wash., asserted in an address here today at the convention of the American Bankers' Association.

"The home is the center of the nation," Mr. Frazier declared, "and men who own their own homes do not think of Bolshevism. I. W. W.'s and kindred diseases which are spreading over the country. Many more men would own homes if their checkbook permitted, and it is up to the American bankers to make advances."

Robert F. Maddox, of Atlanta, president of the association, said that on the continuation of foreign exports rests the employment of labor and that American industries, having been stimulated by the war, should make every effort to build up foreign trade. Uncertainty of rates of exchange between the United States and European countries constitutes a serious interference with trade relations, he pointed out. "Trade cannot be expected to open up," he emphasized, "as long as exports are restricted by failure of our industries to make proper arrangements. If Congress can agree on some suitable basis of credit extension the United States will advance within the next three years to a pitch or prosperity of unprecedented proportions."

Secretary of Labor Wilson was classified with the Socialists by Ralph Ingalis, of New York, in an address before the Savings Bank Section of the Association. He also denounced as socialistic the Mondell soldier land reclamation bill, activities of the United States Housing Corporation, the Federal Farm Loan system and the United States Reclamation Service. Mr. Ingalis asserted that if the Housing Corporation had ceased activities when the armistice was signed its expenditures would have been $20,000,000, whereas by continuing it has spent the entire $110,000,000 appropriated for it. Instead of sending homes to government employees, the corporation is leasing them to anybody, Mr. Ingalis accused.

He declared the real object of the Mondell bill was to enlarge the functions of the United States Reclamation Service and to extend its scope over the entire country. "This realization of one of the most cherished dreams of the Socialists,"

In their report the savings bankers recommended amendments to state laws so as to empower savings banks to make long term loans on property up to seventy per cent. of its value. The report also urged savings banks to continue to encourage agriculture production.

More than four thousand bankers from all sections of the country are registered tonight. Today was taken principally by preliminary meetings. The convention proper will open tomorrow.

Two Youngsters of Montreal Steal Money to Take a Trip to New York in Search of Their Screen Idol.

Montreal, Sept. 30.—All for love of a movie queen, could be used as title for a scenario from real life, the details of which have come to light here. The principal characters in the scenario are two juvenile Lotharios, aged 14 and 15, and belonging to the city. The opening scene of the piece is in Montreal, the second in New York, but the tragic denouement is played in the juvenile court here and in a sombre surroundings and shrouded illusions.

The dramatic personae of the piece are the two youths, were ardent patrons of the movies, but for them the cowboy brand or Jesse James type of actor held no thrills. Their idol was no mere male, but one of the most popular actresses in screendom. Few were the films in which she appeared that the youthful admirers did not see. But a picture was only a picture after all, and despite the phenomenal advance made in cinematography towards realistic effects the youths decided that nothing but a view of the movie queen in person would be all satisfying. Thus her studio engagements require the lady's presence in New York, the youths decided that for them it must be another case of Mount Everest and the Mountain. So they decided that see their idol they must.

To get to New York funds were needed. This obstacle was overcome by selling a hundred dollars from the parents of one, while the other youth contributed his share to the job. With this generous share of wealth they arranged with a taxi driver to take them from this city across the border line to a point in New York State and from there they made the way to the American metropolis.

The maddening throngs, and the shrewdness, elevated and subways had no terror for them and to one of the city's most imposing hotels they directed their steps. Enamored in the morning they were in the city, but they had secured a glimpse of the idolized movie queen. Opposite the hotel was a park. Movie actresses were seen strolling through the streets in limousines, are human after all and often walk for exercise; so the lads concluded she might stroll through the park. They knew that opportunity is sparing in her visits and the lady of their dreams might pass that way but once. Therefore they decided to take their chance on a park bench, relieving each other at intervals.

But despite their vigilance the sunshine of the lady's smile did not flash their way; meantime funds were considerably lower with them, and a friend here called for the emergency call for pecuniary help. Also the father had started a search, and when one of the gay young Lotharios could no longer watch on a park bench, the strangers approached, one a New York detective, the other a Montreal sleuth. And with their coming came the end of the dream.

When the Montreal detective stepped up to the lad on the park bench he recognized the youth as the object of his search and broke to him the news that he had come to take her and his companion back home. As questioned the lad the seriousness of the youngster's mission struck a humorous chord in the burly officer of the law.

"Suppose you had met your movie queen what would you have done?" "Well, I'd have gone up to her and spoke to her and asked her if she liked me," the youngster's reply.

"Do you suppose a movie star would notice a little boy like you?" "She might; I know a boy at boarding school where I go and he knows another boy that a great actress saw when she was in Montreal and she liked him and adopted him and now he's an actor. And that's why we came here."

But the enamored youths were back to the hotel where the situation was explained to the management. The long they were arraigned in juvenile court here for their movie idol, gone, illusions shattered and even a glimpse of their movie queen.

YOUTHS GO DIPPY OVER MOVIE QUEEN

Two Youngsters of Montreal Steal Money to Take a Trip to New York in Search of Their Screen Idol.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—All for love of a movie queen, could be used as little as a scenario from real life, the details of which have come to light here. The principal characters in the scenario are two juvenile Lotharios, aged 14 and 15, and belonging to this city.

The dramatic personae of the piece, the two youths, were ardent patrons of the movies, but for them the cowboy brand or Jesse James type of actor held no thrills. So they decided that see their idol they must.

To get to New York funds were needed. This obstacle was overcome by selling a hundred dollars from the parent of one, while the other youth contributed his share to the joint fund. With this generous share of wealth they arranged with a taxi driver to take them from this city across the border line to a point in New York State and from there they made their way to the American metropolis.

The maddening thrills, and the sky scrapers, elevated and always had no terror for them and to one of the city's most imposing hotels they directed their steps. Encoined in the hotel they laid their plans of campaign for securing a glimpse of their idealized movie queen. Opposite the hotel was a park. Movie actresses, although pictured rolling through the streets in limousines, are human after all and often walk for exercise; so the lady's opportunity she might stroll through the park. They knew that opportunity is sparing in her visits, and the way of their dreams might pass the lady of their hearts once. GIRLS WANTED

To Learn Telephone Operating

REQUIREMENTS:
Courtesy, Intelligence, Grade 8 Education.

TELEPHONE OPERATING requires special knowledge and training in the School for Operators. Not only is the instruction given without charge, but the company pays you a salary while you are learning. In many lines of work a girl has to give her time for several weeks, or even months, learning a trade, and often in addition has to pay for the instruction. When the trade is learned and she is fitted for a position, she frequently has to wait more weeks or months before she can secure one.

Upon successful completion of the Telephone School Course, you are assured a position at once. Rapid promotion to responsible positions is possible for girls with ambition and intelligence, who are alive to requirements of a present-day business woman at salaries in excess of most other lines of business.

Goldworthy Says the Way
His Wife Has Improved
Since Taking Tanlac Beats
Anything He Has Ever Seen.

"Well, sir, the way my wife has picked up and improved in health since she commenced taking Tanlac, beats anything I ever saw in my life," said William G. Goldworthy, a well known stone mason who lives 129 Brunswicks street, St. John, New Brunswick, the other day.

"I am more than glad to endorse Tanlac," Goldworthy continues, "for I honestly believe it is the best medicine I have ever seen. In fact, I don't believe there is another medicine in the world that would have done my wife so much good in the length of time she has been taking Tanlac. My wife, who has been in poor health for the past five years and her entire system was so badly run-down that she was hardly able to get about at all, she had the worst spells of headache you ever heard of, and her nerves were so upset all the time that she never got a good night's sleep. The different medicines and treatments she took didn't seem to do her any good at all, and she just kept on going down hill until she was so weak and worn out she was hardly able to be up."

"Then I saw Tanlac advertised, and I noticed where several people who seemed to have been suffering the same as my wife, had been greatly helped by the use of this medicine. I went right to the drug store and bought a bottle of it and my wife commenced taking it. When she had finished that first bottle of Tanlac she actually looked like a different woman, and she said she felt just that way, too. Her appetite improved right from the start and now she eats three hearty meals every day. She has gained a lot in weight and is so well and strong in every way that she does all her housework without the least trouble. She sleeps like a child every night, and declares that she never enjoyed better health in all her life. Yes, sir, Tanlac certainly was a godsend to her, and we never lose an opportunity to speak a good word for this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

Resolution to Council by Commissioner Jones That Water and Sewerage be Extended to Mount Pleasant Court.

In a private session, the committee of the Common Council yesterday morning sent to Council a resolution by Commissioner Jones that water and sewerage services be extended to Mount Pleasant Court. This was the only business transacted.

On the opening of the meeting, Commissioner Jones read a petition from Armstrong & Bruce, in which the firm requested water and sewerage extension through Mount Pleasant Court, advising that they proposed to erect immediately two self-contained houses, a remodel a large structure on the court as a double tenement house. The Commissioner stated that Haley Bros. were building two new houses near the court.

Mr. Jones submitted a report from the city engineer in which the latter recommended the laying of a 9-inch tile sewer and sections of 3 and 2-inch galvanized iron water pipe. The estimated cost is $2,000.

The Commissioner of Water and Sewerage moved that the services be extended as requested at an estimated cost of $2,000, to be paid for out of water maintenance, on condition that Armstrong & Bruce enter into an agreement guaranteeing a return of 10 p. c. on the investment by the city and on further condition that the plans, if necessary, be approved of by the town-planning committee.

Commissioner Fisher suggested that no action be taken until a report had been presented in regard to other areas which might require water and sewerage extension.

The Mayor remarked that it seemed that since the pipes would be laid on private property, the owners should pay the whole cost.

Commissioner Jones pointed out that the city had laid the services on the Shamrock grounds on conditions

A series of field plots were subjected to a cropping rotation of timothy three years, corn, oats, and wheat each one year. Fertilizers or farm manure were applied to the timothy but not to any of the grain crops. Different applications being used on different plots. The experiment has been conducted for nine years.

The results show that fertilization of the soil for timothy increases its productiveness for succeeding crops. The greatest benefit was derived by the corn crop, which immediately followed the timothy.

Tabulations of the financial gains demonstrate that the use of fairly large applications of fertilizers was profitable, resulting in as much as $60 per acre net gain for the six years and giving a return of $1.67 for every dollar invested in the fertilizer.—Cornell Experiment Station.

The new vaudeville programme opening at the Opera House tonight offers Biz, Abbott and Driscoll in a comedy singing and variety novelty; Gene Gale, original vocal offering; Curtin and Wilson, sensational society athletes and acrobats; Patricio and Sullivan, in a singing and dancing act; Howard and Keilor, black and tan entertainers in a lively sketch, "Flying High," and the second of the Marie Walcamp series of two reel picture stories of thrill and adventure. Tonight at 7.30 and 9.

The new scale of admission prices goes into effect tomorrow, a slight surcharge being made on all seats for evenings and Saturday afternoon. For a long time the cost of the vaudeville programmes has been steadily increasing, due to conditions over which the local management has no control and the personal representative of the Opera House, located in New York has recently stated that a stiff increase will go into effect immediately, which will make the cost of operation such that the increase in admission prices is imperative in order to keep pace with the cost and not decrease the quality. It is the plan of the local management to offer even a better brand of vaudeville features than in the past, selecting the acts from the bills at the leading New York houses, the leading features on the programme being booked direct from New York to play St. John and Halifax. The new scale of prices will be but one performance on Saturday afternoon, at regular evening prices. The Opera House is still on the daylight time and will continue that way until the St. John stores and the railways shift back to old time.

NOTICE.
Imperial Theatre will have the social event of the season, Morgiana concert, Oct. 7th.

Lecture Enjoyed At Queen Square

Illustrated Lecture on "Flags and Symbols" Was Delivered by S. B. Burton in Queen Square Methodist Sunday School Last Evening.

Under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society, Stephen B. Burton, of this city, delivered a most enjoyable illustrated lecture on "Flags and Symbols," before a large audience, mostly juvenile, in the Queen Square Methodist church school room last night.

Starting with the earliest symbolic design of Satan entering the body of a serpent, then featuring the Rock of Ages, the lecturer showed on the screen and described the various signs and tokens which have been familiar since the first history of man.

He showed the use to which flags are put by the boy scouts and by war vessels as a means of communication, explained the first flags that were used by the early Egyptians and Assyrians, described the famous Roman standard and also showed a view of all of the flags of the various nations of the world today. By word and by colored views he explained the evolution of the British flags and the Stars and Stripes of the United States from their inception.

"At the time when Cromwell hoisted his banner, the English flag did not cover a square foot of land or sea outside England," declared the speaker. "Today the Union Jack covers over one-sixth of the globe and is the national emblem of one-quarter of the earth's inhabitants. Under that glorious ensign the Book of Books has been placed in the hands of more people than by any other flag, of any nation."

Great applause greeted the appearance on the screen of Vice-Admiral Sturdee, the modern Nelson, who drove the modern pirates from the Pacific seas.

Mr. Burton closed his most enjoyable entertainment with two stories for the children, illustrated with numerous slides. The first was the old familiar "Pass in Boots," and the companion piece was appropriately "The Story of a Clever Rat." Over a hundred slides, in all, were shown, and added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

The Rev. George Morris, pastor of the church, presided and opened the lecture with a short prayer and introductory address.

MOB IN OMAHA WAS JUSTIFIED, SAYS WILLIAMS

Mississippi Senator Upholds Lynching of Negro When Mr. Borah Denounces it.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—During the debate on the League of Nations in the Senate today Senator William Edgar Borah, Republican, of Idaho, bitterly assailed the use of mob violence, referring specifically to the lynching of a negro and the rioting in Omaha, Neb.

Senator John Sharp Williams, Democrat, of Mississippi, defended the Omaha mob, asserting that lynching was justified when an attack had been made on a white woman by either a white or a black.

"I would surrender him (the attacker of a white woman) to the first crowd that came to get him," the senator from Mississippi declared.

Senator Borah deplored all lawlessness as evidenced in lynchings, bomb outrages and seditious propaganda, and declared that persons in responsible positions were advocating doctrines which he regarded as inimical to American interests.

He referred to the Omaha riot as "another fearful lynching in an orderly community as you could find in the country," however, he said, manifestations of lawlessness and disregard of American institutions had not been confined to any one class or to any one community.

Deep Seated Disease. "They have been one continued manifestation," he said. "It is not a mere surface indication. It is a disease, deep seated. It is at war with every thing we have heretofore believed to be characteristic of American government."

"There must be an arousing of public sentiment and a feeling on the part of the people that these conditions cannot be permitted."

"While some men are digging away with a pick axe at the foundations of the government there are those in responsible places seeking to undermine and destroy the principles of our existence."

"My idea of calling attention to the discontent and the disrespect for law and order and for our established policies is that we are losing faith in our system of government. America is no longer the America we have known and loved. Why not admit it and set about to redress it?"

"Americans heretofore have believed that lawlessness was not necessary to secure their desires and that American sovereignty should not be dipping away about to be lost."

Now thousands of people would reach their aims through riot, bloodshed and disorder. Thousands of others believe we should no longer be free from foreign alliances, but subject to a foreign combination.

"It is not too late to restore law and order and to retain our sovereignty. There is just one remedy for this situation—a complete renaissance of Americanism, a rebaptism of the old national spirit."

Would God's Lynchings. Senator Williams answered Senator Borah and declared that the lynchings were done in an attempt to attack white women by negroes.

"I will go in the pathways of peace as far as any man," he said. "I would be willing to arbitrate almost anything except outrage on a white woman by a black or white. I would surrender him as a criminal beyond the pale to the first crowd that came to get him. The conduct of the criminal at Omaha deprives me of all inclination and power to say one word against the crowd that captured the criminal and punished the crime. Race is greater than law now and then, and protection of women transcends all law, human and divine."

"This miserable beast in Omaha paid a just debt for his crime. When it comes to violating innocent women it is no time to go to court. But here we have men pleading for law and order while helpless women are being treated by beasts as they please, and yet these same men don't want any international law. The senator speaks of established law in the land, and yet he is unwilling to stand for established law in the world."

"The senator from Idaho has been preaching peace—peace when it comes to 'niggers'—when capital and labor are involved. And yet when it comes to international affairs he is standing in the pathway of the very thing to which he has paid so high an oratorical tribute. He wants America to stand isolated. She couldn't do it forty-eight hours, even if she wanted to."

If lynchings were confined to those incidents mentioned by Senator Williams, Senator Borah replied, the human race might be disposed to pass them by on that reason. "But," he added, "the disease spreads and men are lynched for the most trivial cause. The records show 318 negroes lost their lives during the first year of the

The Why? of Another Victory Loan

WHEN, on the morning of November 11th, 1918, the guns were hushed and glad tidings flashed across the world, there followed with the Nation's Prayer of Thanksgiving, one yearning query, which found echo in the faster-beating hearts of wives, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters and sweethearts.

THAT query was, "How soon will our boy be home?"

AND, from France and Flanders, from Italy and Egypt, from Palestine and from far-off Siberia, there came an answering echo, "How soon, how soon, may we go home?"

CANADA caught the spirit of these longings, and at once resolved to satisfy them.

IT was an appalling task. Shipping was tragically scarce. The composition of the Army of Occupation had not then been settled. And other parts of the Empire as well as Canada were looking for the speedy return of their men.

THE problem was this. The half-million men that Canada had overseas had taken more than four years to transport to the field of battle.

TO bring them home in a few months was a gigantic undertaking—one to tax all Canada's ingenuity and resources.

CANADA solved the problem, but it meant crowding into a few short months, an expense for demobilization which it was impossible to foresee.

THEN, too, besides the sentimental aspect of the necessity for bringing the men home quickly, the economic side could not be overlooked.

THAT was, to transform efficiently and speedily the nation's army of fighters into a national army of workers.

Need Divides Itself in Two Parts

The answer to the question "Why does Canada need another Victory Loan?" divides itself into two parts.

(a) To finish paying the expenses of demobilization, and the obligations we still owe to our soldiers.

(b) To provide national working capital.

Land Settlement

Furthermore, soldiers who desire to become farmers may, under the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, be loaned money by Canada with which to purchase land, stock and implements. The money so advanced will be paid back; meantime each loan is secured by a first mortgage. Up to August 15th, 29,495 soldiers had applied for land under the terms of this Act; and 22,281 applications had been investigated, and the qualifications of the applicant approved. For this purpose Canada this year requires $24,000,000.

Vocational Training

For this work which, with the Vocational Training and Soldiers' Service Departments, embraces the major activities of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, an appropriation of $57,000,000 is necessary.

These national expenditures are war expenses. They will be accepted readily by every citizen who gives thought to the task which Canada faced following the Armistice, and to the success with which she has met it.

National Working Capital

Canada needs national working capital, so that she may be able to sell on credit to Great Britain and our Allies the products of our farms, forests, fisheries, mines and factories.

You may ask "Why sell to them if they can't pay cash?" The answer is, "Their orders are absolutely essential to the continuance of our agricultural and industrial prosperity."

The magnitude of these orders and the amount of employment thus created, will depend upon the success of the Victory Loan 1919.

The "Why" of Credit Loans

Farmers and manufacturers (and that includes the workers on these orders) must be paid cash for their products. Therefore, Canada must borrow money from her citizens to give credit, temporarily, to Great Britain and our Allies. Actually, no money will pass out of Canada.

If Canada does not give credit, other countries will; and they will get the trade, and have the employment that should be ours, to distribute amongst their workers. And remember, we absolutely need these orders to maintain employment. If we don't finance them business will feel the depression, employment will not be as plentiful, and conditions everywhere will be adversely affected.

For Transportation

Money must also be available to carry on the nation's shipbuilding programme, and other transportation development work.

For loans to Provincial Housing Commissions who are building moderate priced houses.

These, then, are some of the things for which Canada needs national working capital. She is in the position of a great trading company, and her citizens who buy Victory Bonds are the shareholders.

Obligations to Soldiers

The obligations to soldiers include:

That already incurred cost of bringing home troops from overseas.

The payment of all soldiers still undemobilized. This includes more than 20,000 sick and wounded who are still in hospital, and who of course remain on the Army payroll till discharged.

The upkeep of hospitals, and their medical and nursing staffs, until the need for them is ended.

These three items alone will use up at least $200,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1919.

Gratuities

There is also the gratuity which has been authorized, and has been and is being paid to assist soldiers to tide over the period between discharge and their re-adjustment to civil life. For this purpose alone, $61,000,000 must be provided out of the Victory Loan 1919, in addition to the $59,000,000 already paid out of the proceeds of the Victory Loan 1918.

Those who give thought to our outstanding obligations to soldiers, and to our need for national working capital, cannot fail to be impressed with the absolute necessity for the

SUPREME COUNCIL WILL GET FIRM IN ADRIATIC MESS

To Allow Italy's Claim to Fiume Would Jeopardize All Authority Founded Upon Armistice and Peace Treaty.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—To allow Italy's claim to Fiume solely on the basis of its forcible possession by d'Annunzio's Irregular troops. In the opinion of members of the Supreme Council in Paris, would involve recognition by the Entente of Humana's claims in Hungary; Greece's claims to large portions of Turkey, and even possibly Germany's claim to rich portions of Western Russia. It is felt that admission by the Council of the right of any nation to seize territory, regardless of pledges to refrain from aggression, would be regarded as tantamount to an abandonment of the basic principle upon which the treaty was assembled and as threatening a permanent peace.

Plans are being considered, it became known here today, to apply strong pressure to bring about a termination of the dispute over the Adriatic question, as well as in other cases where trouble has arisen jeopardizing the authority of the Supreme Council, and threatening to set at naught its decisions founded upon powers conferred by the armistice and the peace treaty.

The bride was Miss Minnie Wilton Smith. She was dressed in a brown travelling suit, with hat to correspond, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Purdy, organist of the Baptist church there, played the wedding march. Following the ceremony, they left for Montreal, on their return they will reside in Fredericton, where the groom is engaged with Chestnut & Co. He is a former St. John boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thorne, 203 Duke street, and both he and his bride will enjoy best wishes from numerous friends for future happiness.

FORWARDED TO OTTAWA.
It is reported that the award of the board of arbitration who decided the dispute between the Bedford Construction Company and its employees who asked for a 9 hour day and 45 cents per hour, minimum, has been forwarded from Ottawa and will soon be announced.

ROYAL STANDARD CHAPTER.
The regular monthly meeting of the Royal Standard Chapter, I. O. O. E., was held in their rooms, Orange Hall, last evening. In the absence of the regent, Mrs. J. H. Friak presided. The evening was taken up with plans and arrangements for a ball to be held early in December and a rummage sale which is to take place shortly.

BEST IN HISTORY.
September, as usual, has been the best month in the history of the Customs House, the receipts for the past month being $600,388.92, an increase of nearly 17 per cent. over the same month last year, which amounted to $514,429.42. Up to yesterday afternoon there have been 1,592 more entries made than for the same period last year and every indication points to a record figure at the end of the year.

WHARF SPACE WANTED.
Commissioner Bullock has received from a trans-Atlantic steamship company a request for advice as to whether there is available here space for open storage to be reached by railroad and at which a steamer could come and load. The cargo in view would be in bulk and space would be wanted for from 2,000 to 3,000 tons. The company asks for a copy of the latest harbor plans. Commissioner Bullock said he could provide the accommodation.

WATER RATES.
Of the total water assessment of $158,036, 84 per cent. was paid in during the discount period this year. Last year 80 per cent. of the assessment of $155,000 was received in the discount period. The figures, 1919, received in the discount period, $126,200; 1918, $116,000. The citizens saved this year through the 5 per cent. discount, $6,500; last year, $6,000 was saved. An increase of 350 properties took advantage of the discount.

NEW HOUSE PLANS.
Commissioner Bullock yesterday had an exhibition in his office, plans for the houses to be erected under the housing scheme. Types A, B, C, and D, are shown including self-contained and semi-detached dwellings. The interior of the self-contained houses are divided into 4 rooms downstairs and 3 bedrooms and bath upstairs. There is a large basement. The arrangement in the semi-detached houses is practically the same as in the single dwellings. The structures are to be set back 12 feet from the street, and to have a yard area in the rear 10 feet in depth. The cost will be announced next Monday.

FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE.
In acting on the suggestion of Chief Commissioner O'Connor that a Fair Price Committee be appointed here, to consist of five consumers and an equal number of persons interested in the commodity to be investigated, Mayor Hayes will request the Women's Institute to nominate the consumers' representatives, and will ask the Retail Merchants' Association to do likewise for the dealers. The Mayor remarked that when the board sat at Montreal, no complaints were presented. As already announced, the board is to sit here next week.

A SPECIAL SALE OF SEPARATE SKIRTS AT F. A. DYKEMAN & CO.'S.
Pure Wool Oxford Tweeds are the materials used in making these excellent skirts. The same tweeds as men's suits are made from. They will stand the hardest kind of wear and still look fresh and new. Had the firm bought these skirts in the regular way the price would have been $15.00, but having had them made up from a lot of cloths which they secured at a big bargain, they are selling them at $9.75 each. A full range of size and a good assortment of colors.

Retail Merchants' Assn. In Session

Arrangements Considered Last Evening for Fifth Annual Convention to be Held in Moncton Next Wednesday and Thursday.

With President F. W. Daniels in the chair, the executive of the Retail Merchants' Association held a meeting last night when arrangements for attending the fifth annual convention of the provincial association were considered.

Moncton is the place of meeting this year and next Wednesday and Thursday are the days set for the assembly. It is expected that A. G. Skinner, St. John, the provincial president, will preside during the opening session when addresses of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Price, H. S. Bell, president of the Moncton Board of Trade, and R. R. Dickson, president of the Moncton association.

E. M. Trovorn, Ottawa, and J. A. Banfield, Winnipeg, representing the executive of the Dominion board, will be present and will make suitable replies to the addresses of welcome.

Among the entertainments planned for Wednesday are auto trips through the city to the various manufacturing industries, followed by a motion picture and vaudeville show in the evening. There will be a big banquet at the New Brunswick Hotel, followed by a dance. The banquet does not start until 9.30 and this will enable the St. John members who could not attend the afternoon session to take the 8.10 train and enjoy the festivity of the evening.

At the meeting last night it was decided to invite the visiting guests to St. John Friday following the convention and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a suitable banquet, smoker and other entertainment for the guests.

WERE ARRESTED FOR STEALING

Two Youths, Joseph Crawford and Frederick McMurray, Are Charged With Breaking and Entering T. Collins & Co. Premises.

Joseph Crawford, aged 15 years, and Frederick McMurray, aged 16 years, were arrested last night by Sergeant Joseph Scott, Policemen John Linton and Dykeman, on a charge of breaking and entering the premises of T. ROTARY CLUB WILL ASSIST

Sum of $15,000 Required to Assist Oromocto Sufferers—St. John's Quota $5,000—Rotary Club Members Will Collect Amount Needed.

R. Downing Paterson, president of the Rotary Club, received a message last evening from T. H. Estabrooks, who is at Oromocto, which was badly damaged by fire a couple of days ago. Mr. Estabrooks stated that the loss is a serious matter and contributions amounting to $15,000 will be required to assist those in need. The quota for St. John will amount to about $5,000. Mr. Paterson got in touch with the executive of the Rotary Club and at the regular gathering of the members on Monday next it will be decided that the club collect the five thousand dollars requested and a committee will be appointed to go forth next Tuesday with this object in view.

CORNET BAND FAIR.

The wet weather last evening was no deterrent to the attendance at the City Cornet Band Fair in St. Andrew's Bank. The official statement of attendance was placed at more than a thousand, and the evening was a most successful as well as a most enjoyable one. A feature of the evening was a splendid programme of dance music furnished by the senior band, an opportunity which was taken advantage of by a great many. Not the least interesting feature of the big event is the pictorial history of the band on display at the rink. The photographic display of the organization in years gone by recalls those olden days to the elderly people, and they have no difficulty in recognizing the face of many a member now past and gone. The variety of uniforms of the band during the stages of its forty-five years of existence is also interesting. These pictures are a centre of interest. The fair runs every night this week.

HOME FOR INCURABLES.

A meeting of the Home for Incurables took place yesterday afternoon with the president, Dr. Thomas Walker in the chair. The following members of the board were present: Mrs. S. E. Elkin, Mrs. S. Bae Alward, Mrs. Thomas Walker, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. H. S. Bridge, Mrs. Struan Robertson, Mrs. H. A. Powell, R. B. Emerson, J. A. Gregory, John Sessley, P. Starr, W. R. Turnbull and D. C. Clark. There were no applications for entrance to the Home, and merely routine business was carried on.

THE JOY BELLS?

Another telephone has been installed in the telegraph office at the Union station. The latest addition is that of the Valley Railway. The total number of telephones in the room is now seven, while six telegraph tickers also function there. A fire alarm connected with the city system is also installed in one corner of the room. At a busy moment the ringing of bells gives the place anything but a restful atmosphere.

Manufacturers Delighted With Their Visit Here

Maritime Manufacturers' Association Executive Yesterday Discussed Power Development in Maritime Provinces—Committees Appointed and Luncheon at Manor House.

That the name "Maritime Provinces" should be changed to the "Merry-time Provinces" was the opinion of many of the manufacturers from Upper Canada, who finished their executive session in this city yesterday.

Yesterday morning the business of the Maritime Manufacturers' Association executive was thoroughly discussed in the Board of Trade rooms under the direction of R. H. McKay, new Glasgow. Practically the entire session was devoted to a consideration of the power development in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. It was generally conceded that no time should be lost in harnessing the water powers of the provinces and conserving the coal supply. Several committees were appointed, some to investigate and report on the power situation, others to take up with the legislators the matter of developing and maintaining industries.

Shortly after one o'clock a motor drive through the city was taken, ending at the Manor House, Glen Falls, where some 60 guests sat down to a very delightful luncheon prepared in the usual good style of that hostelry. The inimitable Sam Harris was heard again in an appreciation of the hospitality bestowed upon the visitors from the Ontario and Quebec delegations adding their share to the felicitous remarks in reply W. S. Fisher, the chairman, J. Fraser Gregory and several other local manufacturers urged the visitors to make a return call, and for it is only by such intercourse that the association can grow.

Following the luncheon, motor trips were taken to the dry dock, to the Simms brush factory, and to other local points of interest. The visiting members left on the evening train for Moncton, which is the next port of call.

L. W. Simms Returns From Oklahoma

Talks on Strikes, Principally the Steel Strike—Found Conditions Prosperous in States—Broom Corn Lower in Price—The Wages Paid.

"Strikes, especially the present steel strike, are not in favor with the native American at the present time," declared Lewis W. Simms, president of T. S. Simms & Co., who returned yesterday from his annual buying trip to Oklahoma.

"The men from the steel works who joined the strike were mostly of foreign birth, and the real Americans, where they did join the ranks of strikers, did so with reluctance. The general feeling among the thinking people to the south of us is that now is the time to build up the country and prepare for expansion, not to tear down the splendid structure that has already been reared."

Mr. Simms found conditions fairly prosperous in the central states. Both wheat and oats have been abundant crops, Oklahoma having the best season of good weather that she has experienced in three years. Though the broom corn is selling at $300 a ton, which is about 100 cents less than it is a higher price than has been paid in any other year in the history of the industry.

Higher prices are being paid for cotton, also, which is a good crop this year. The labor question is easier this year and there are plenty to do the work, though, as everywhere else, high wages are being paid. Field laborers, white, get their board, lodging and from 60 cents to a dollar a day, for very little work. Negroes, who do about half the work of a white man, are paid the flat rate of 50 cents a day.

September was a hot month in the central states, the latter days of the month finding the mercury flirting with the 101 mark in Oklahoma.

DIRECTORS' MEETING WAS HELD YESTERDAY

Protestant Orphans' Asylum Directors Pointed Out That Martello Property is Not Associated With Another Scheme for a Home—Another Meeting Next Week.

A meeting of the Protestant Orphan Asylum directors was held yesterday afternoon. In the absence of T. H. Estabrooks, the president, and Charles H. Peters, the first vice-president, Mrs. David McLehlan, the second vice-president, presided. There was a full discussion regarding the visit of directors to the Martello hotel property in West St. John on Wednesday, and the plans for renovating the same. One director made mention to the new scheme for a home which is under completion and that it was in no way associated with the present scheme for the Protestant Orphan Asylum or the Protestant Orphans' Home.

The meeting adjourned to meet early next week when the president would be in the city and the specifications and tenders regarding the Martello property would be looked into.

Refinery Strike Still Unsettled

The Union Men Heard Interesting Addresses Last Evening by Labor Leaders—Company Manager Says Refinery is Still in Operation.

The strike of the Sugar Refinery workers, which went into effect Monday at midnight, was still unsettled last evening. The five hundred members of the union met last evening, when addresses were delivered by labor leaders.

John Morrissey, president of the union, presided at the meeting and addresses were given by E. G. N. Quirk, representative of the Minister of Labor, F. A. Campbell, president of the Trades and Labor Council, J. E. Tighe, J. A. Barry, J. L. Sugrue and the president of the union, which is on strike.

The officials of the union said that so far no answer had been received to the petition to the Minister of Labor in regard to a board of arbitration. It is expected, however, that an answer will be received within a day or so.

Mr. Seidensticker, refinery manager, said last night that the refinery was still in operation. A few men had been hired yesterday and at present about 100 men remained in the employ of the company. Shipments had been made and also some local deliveries.

There has been no direct connection with the strike and the men on strike have conducted themselves in a quiet businesslike manner.

E. G. N. Quirk, representative of the Minister of Labor, who is in the city in the matter of the dispute, stated that he would remain here while the dispute continued as long as there was any opportunity of helping to solve the problem.
