NOTES AND NEWS.

LITERARY. Peters' Musical Monthly, for July conins about $5 worth of select new music, including some very fine vocal and REGULAR CARRIERS will deliver the paper to Subscribers in the City, at their places of business or residentss, immediately and the control of Given away!-a beautiful Picture-on exquisitely tinted paper, suitable for farming-is presented free to every purchaser of a copy of Dexter Smith's Paper, which contains twelve pages of most popular sheet music—which would cost popular sheet music—which would cost over three dollars in any other form—including new songs, ballads, Strauss waltzes, in addition to stories, poems, fashions, household receipts, base ball news, etc., etc. Every newsdealer in the United States and Canada] sells Dexter Smith's Paper for only fifteen cents per conv.

Wood's Household Magazine for July s ahead of any previous number, and when we consider its usual standard excellence, this is rare praise indeed. It is household, not only in name but in character, and its table of contents shows a wonderful adaptation of articles to the inwonderful adaptation of articles to the individual members of the family circle. "Sim's Little Girl," a temperance story by Mary Hartwell; "Weather-tough Block," by Karl Kase; "How the Vow was Kept," by H. V. Osborn; "Lunatics at Large," by Rev. F. W. Holland, and "The Declaration of Independence," by J. B. Wakeley, D. D., are among the more noticeable articles. The Children's Department is crowded full, and contains a poem, in baby talk, which without doubt, will be very acceptable to the little ones. The price of the magazine is one dollar a year. Address, Wood's Household Magazine, Newburg, N. Y.

TINTTED STATES. The Pioche estate in San Francisco has many for warm weather.

Eight Dubuque families lately had a pic-nic at which eight mothers showed eighty-two sons and daughters. Mr. Gammon is said to be one of the best young merchants in Georgia. He is undoubtedly a good salesman. The Fort Wayne Sentinel says that the last year Morton was Governor of Indiana his cow feed cost the State $700. An Indiana man shot himself recently rather than appear as a witness apainst parties whom his testimony would ruin. Economy is the order of the day in Colorado, and rogues are shot as soon as caught, to save the expense of keeping John Griscoll lately escaped from the Michigan State Prison in a load of hubs, and there was quite a hub-bub before he was captured again.

Mr. Summer, of Vinton, Ia., tried to kill his wife, and not succeeding killed himself, which anybody would call a sum-

A Pennsylvania woman by the name of Franks has 500 living descendants. History mentions that the Franks and Huns went in swarms.

Real estate has risen in Virginia. A negro there who had a $15 cabin destroyed during the war has presented a claim for $21,000. A Pennsylvania insane man who had been chained to the floor of a cell for eighteen years, was recently unloosed and allowed to hobble around out of doors. The following gem of descriptive writ ing was penned by an Illinois reporter in his description of a recent wedding. He says: "The Mayor galooted up the church aisle, swashying and gyrating like a Chinese Joss with the jim-iams.

Two daughters of Mr. Gallagher, of Cortland, Ill., ploughed and put in eighty acres of small grain this year. One did the ploughing, while the other sowed the grain and harrowed it. Either would be as profitable a Gal-agher as a young farmer could select for a wife.

A New Jersey proletaire says: "Stand ap for the Sabbath, fellow workmen! Refuse on holy days to fire up a locomotive Wanzer, Singer & Howe or drive your employer to church if he is able to walk. I believe the time is close at hand when a Christian woman will refuse to work on Sunday in any man's kitchen, solely that her employer's family may feast on dainties. Speed the day."

If people must have fun, why they will have to pay the price for it. Kicking at a ceiling two feet above one's head is amusement of a very exalted kind, but it has its drawbacks. A young man at Chilton, Iowa, was lately indulging in it, when he fell and broke his hip. A revolver in his pocket was discharged at the same time and seriously injured a small boy who was standing by. He might perhaps be satisfied with all this if he had hit the ceiling, but he didn't. Among the delusions instilled into our outhful minds at school, the notion that Christopher Columbus first discovered America holds a conspicuous place. But we have continual occasion to revise our notions of history, and now, as we ob-serve, that Ole Bull and sundry other Norwegians propose to raise a monument in Madison, Wis., to Leif Ericksen who discovered America in the year 1,000, our respect for Christopher diminishes in favor of a navigator whom we are sorry not to have known before. We are informed that I had seant a winter as Eall Bises. that Lief spent a winter near Fall River, Mass., A. D., 1,000, whereas Columbus jority of 200. There is a "Beecher scandal" in contion with the colored church in Toronto. Rev. Mr. Washington Perkins, recently from the South, is accused of too great intimacy with wives of his flock, causing great sensation in colored circles.

A somewhat striking illustration of religious philosophy occurred in Japan not long ago. Mr. Ikawaga, who had been and b visiting this country, returned to his home an invalid and shortly af erward died. Just before his death he begged his mother to put into his grave the Bible died. Just before his death he begged his mother to put into his grave the Bible and the Book of Confucius. "I believe," he said, "the truth is the same in both."

One of those doleful prophets who are forever preaching dire disasters to the human race, says that lobsters are doomed to extermination, and this generation is to extermination, and this generation is the last that shall taste its delicate flesh. Our only consolation is that another prophet has declared that the world and all which inherit it shall pass away before this generation is gone, and in that case we shall not want the lobster any more. Mr. Ruskin says in one of his late lectures that the most complete rest and refershment he gets in London when he is overworked is in seeing a French play. This strange substitute for pastoral scenes and "wandering airs of heaven" does not always served. In fact, if he is to be extermi scenes and "wandering airs of heaven" does not always serve the purpose, however; for he adds that the sight of the misery in Front Front wandering airs of heaven always serve the purpose, however; for he adds that the sight of the misery in Front Front West and wanted and w ever; for he adds that the sight of the misery in Frou-Frou made him so thoroughly ill that he was not himself again for a week. A lady to whom he spoke of the play told him about her French maid, who described it as having "amused her immensely." "Amused!" said the lady, "but is not the story very sad?" "Oh, yes, Mademoiselle, it is bien triste, but it is charming; and then how pretty Frou-Frou looks in her silk dress!"

HEAD OF KING STREET.

"I never join in the common outcries against Ritualism," says Mr. Ruskin,
"yet it is too painfully manifest to me that the English Church itself has withdrawn her eyes from the tragedy of all churches, to perk herself, up anew with casement and vestment and say to hers!, "How pretty Frou-Frou is in her silk dress.""

A very touching case of mental aliena tion in a charming young lady is described by a careful observer. Not long ago her mother found her in her room energetically darning stockings, and soon after she appeared in the kitchen and assisted that wondering dame in making and baking bread and pastry. Alarmed by these fearful signs of intellectual dis order, her fond parents immediately sent order, her fond parents immediately sent for a skillful physician, who watched her through a keyhole while she sewed but-tons on her father's garments and mend-ed those of her little brother. Much affected, the venerable man remarked that never during a medical practice of twenty-five years had he known any young per-son to manifest such symptoms as these. The most heartrending phase of all, how-ever, was shown the other day, when her ever, was shown the other day, when her kind father, with a faint hope of rousing told her to buy a new dress. Alas! twas useless. She instantly observed that she didn't want a new dress, and if he would let her keep $25 to pay a poor widow's rent she'd much rather he would take the rest of the money for himself. For a few moments that grief stricters ald goath.

A fool in New York named H. W Gray, a broker, discovered or suspected that improper relations existed between his wife and Richard Hecksher, son of a coal dealer, and arranged that his shame should be known to all the world by challenging the destroyer of his happiness to fight a duel. The meeting took place at Rouse's Point, Canada, and was bloodless, although the weapons were Derringers and the distance only six paces. As blood alone can render duel other than comical in this latitude both parties are mercilessly ridiculed The honor that can be satisfied with a harmless exchange of pistol shots is not valued highly by the public.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this Extract of Sarsaparilla. It is found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expet the humors that rankle in the system at this season of the year. Muny complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul erriptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the handles of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursing through the skin fir pimples, eruptions, or sores, cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and alugish in the veries; cleanse it whenever it is feul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no parfeular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, tor cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Prepared by Practical and Analytical Chemists.
