do, O my friend Sorrow. In thy coming, thou, An unde ired guest, wast welcomed not, Nor thought I to regret our parting now. Choosing the darkest chamber in my heart, Thine own dark self hast made it strangely bright, Dark chamber! scarce I think that entering joy Shall drown its shadows in such restful light. Thou hast wrought for me, Serrow, all these ing within thy sometime darkened room, Often at night, when Love and Duty slept, Thou sattest, working patient, at thy loom. No task so mean but had thy tend'rest aid, No effort that thy rare smile did not cheer; Thy dark cup tasted, fired the soul like wine, And in its dregs were neither doubt nor fear. It was thine altar sanctified my gifts love; Thy wisdom ruled the giving. In thy strength I plead with Him who sent thee from above. Thou hast a place among His angels there, Thou, with the low-tuned harp and dark, bright I thank H m that He sent thee down to earth,

And murmur not that He recalls thee now. And yet, O Sorrow ! can I part with thee? MACHINE SIIOP, Friend tried and trusted! It is of for long; Only, when melting, I shall welcome thee. Sorro , He shall have changed thee into song. St. John, N. B. T.

Weston concluded his walk at Barnum's Hippodrome on Saturday night. He was to have walked 500 miles within six days, instead of doing which he performed the not extraordinary feat of making 326 miles. Mr. Barnum will give Weston another chance, and accordingly the pedestrian will try again in a fortnight.

money and credit, Perkins had represented that he was about to make a large sum of money by the concession of a submarine telegraph between Spain and England; also that he was raising a loan for Don Carlos, from which he was to obtain a large profit, and that he had inherited the sum of $10,000 in the United States. He had given notes on two occasions, which were subsequently dishonored.

He protested against a recent warning addressed to the Journal des Desbats. M. Chabaud La Tour, Minister of the Interior, replied that the government was against the majority of the Assembly and the government. Viscount d'Aboville, of the Right, interposed a protest against the suspension of L'Univers, which act he intimated, came from foreign dictation. The Duke Decazes, Minister of Foreign Affairs, point ed out that the Spanish Ambassador was still unaccredited when the objectionable article against Serrano was published by L'Univers. He emphatically denied that there was dictation from any quarter. In answer to another question from M. d'Aboville, the Duke stated that nothing had been done in regard to the with drawal of the man of-war Orenoque from Civita Vechia. He objected strongly to the exposure of dip.omatic business required by interpellations of this character.

LONDON, Sept. 25th. THE COMIC GOSPEL. on Sunday last, for the first time during the course of my uneventful career, by way of variety, I visited a full-blown Ritualistic church. I was not a little surprised to find what a development there had been in what I may call dramatic religion. The church I was at was All Saints, Clifton, of which the Rev. Mr. Randall is the incumbent. This church, which has only recently been completed, which has only recently been completed, is a magnificent edifice, in fact there, are is a magnificent edifice, in fact there are to a person of quality who happened to be living in the neighborhood. NOTHING IN THE PAPERS. In order to show how terribly dull the times are here, from the journalist's point of view, I would mention that one rather high class weekly paper has this week "Ring out Wild Beils" from "In Memoriam." It has been a fashion of late with novelists to give their works short titles. But an English writer has reached the climax by calling his book "B." If this mode of naming novels from a single letter should become prevalent, we would suggest that a good many of them may with great propriety be named O, signifying nought.

Theusands of testimonials are constantly coming in from the various Lunatic Asylums and Penitentiaries throughout the Dominion. All testify as to the unrivalled excellence of this bottled cure-all. HOW IT SAVED A MISSIONARY'S LIFE

Jed Bangs, of Honolulu, says, in a letter to a New York paper:—
"On my arrival at this station I was seized by one of Kamehameha's Myrmidons and tied to the stake. My life was threatened. Instantly I produced a bottle of Stewart's Toothache Anodyne, which has never been known to fail, and threw it with such force and energy that the Platonic heathen's eye flew from its socket. You see, therefore, the Anodyne is good for something, I have ordered a fresh supply, with elastic strings attached. You have perfect liberty to make use of this." make use of this."

To Gum chewers and Tobacco inflators this Anodyne is an especial boon, as it sharpens the molars and stiffens the bicuspids.

Cowardice and Courage.

One of the most interesting phases of human nature is illustrated by the deeds of heroism that are done from motives of utter cowardice. Capt. Pointz, in 'School," tells Naomi, when she is endeavoring to draw from him an account of his military career, that he did not run away from the enemy because he was too cowardly to do so, and there are many instances of men facing death, without the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the soldier's sense of honor and duty, because they lacked the moral or physical courage to face or energy of the base and the candle sacker, and the candle candle inexpensive Convention, but the Parliaments of Wanter, the baker, and the candle candle inexpensive Convention, but the Parliaments of Wanter, the baker, and the candle candle inexpensive Convention, but the Parliaments of Wanter Association, whose object, the baker, and the Contact.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of stood the test of years, with a con markable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching and syphilitic contamination. Impurities or diseases that have lurked in the system or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive discrafers of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia. Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease. plaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrheea, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
